Town and County News.

Mr. George Hall, blacksmith, has been appointed postmaster of Clyde, and will assume the duties of that office in a few days.

The Bible Class in connection with the Baptist Church, Elora, made a presentation to their pastor, Rev. J. Gerrie, on the 27th ult.

The January thaw appears to have been experienced generally throughout Canada. We learn from Montreal, Quebec, Ottawa, and other places, that the winter has become exceedingly mild.

FINAL AUCTION SALE.—Be sure and go to P. C. Allan's closing sale to-night.
There will be great bargains in crockery-ware, glassware, crockets, albums, books, fancy goods, &c. As the goods must all be cleared out, they will be had at your own prices.

—HORSE KILLED ON THE RAILWAY.—We learn that a valuable horse, belonging to Mr. James Hudson, Guelph Township, was struck by a passing train and killed, on Thursday evening last. Mr. Hudson had been at the blacksmith's near Herodson's crossing, and while in the shop the horse went off, and got to the crossing just as a train was passing. The engine struck and killed one of the horses, and, strange to say, the other one was scarcely, if at all, injured.

COAL FIRES.—Never fill the stove more than half or two thirds full of coal, in the coldest weather. When the fire is low, never shake the grate or disturb the ashes, but add from ten to fifteen small logs, and let the draft open. When these are heated through, and the amount needs a new fire, but do not disturb the ashes yet. Let the draft be open half-an-hour. Now shake out the ashes. The coal will be thoroughly ignited, and will burn the stove at a high heat for six or twelve hours, according to the coldness of the weather. In very cold weather, after the fire is made, add fuel every hour.

Mr. Tyson and the West Ward.
Mr. Tyson requests us to insert the following letter:
To the Editor of THE MERCURY: Dear Sir,—Permit me through the columns of your popular and liberal journal to contradict certain statements that are being made by rival candidates concerning Mr. Tyson's candidature for the West Ward. It is plain, if not self-evident, that he is not qualified for the position, because he is a tenant under the Corporation, being a lessee of a stall in the market.
2nd. That he is an alien.
Now, sir, the first statement is absolutely incorrect. There is no lease at present subsisting between Mr. Tyson and the Corporation, and when the proper time comes he will be able to show indisputably that he is qualified for the position he seeks. The second statement is a falshood. Mr. Tyson has been a citizen of this Country and subject of Her Majesty's law for twenty years, whereof he can produce proof, if need be.
So much, sir, for those arguments.
Even if true they would be paltry, and none but badly served opponents would try to sway public opinion with such statements. If Mr. Tyson is a fit man for the position, as many of us think he is, let us elect him, if not let the fact be shown upon fair, square grounds.
I remain, sir,
Yours truly,
FAIR PLAY.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT IN HAMILTON.
The Times gives the particulars of a shocking and fatal accident which occured there on Friday morning. Joseph Furmen, a colored lad about eighteen years of age, was lying on the box covering the engine which works a portable sawing machine at the Great Western Station. While the engine was at its highest speed, and everything apparently safe, suddenly, with a sort of explosion, the fly-wheel parted in two large pieces, which flew through the board platform, if it were paper. One went up in the air, and with the noise of a chain-shot, pursued a shrieking parabola in the air, over the depot, over the heads of many passengers awaiting the departure of the morning train, and fell into the bay beyond the emigrant wharf; the other flew up over the Bay street bridge, and lodged in the ground. The one that had plunged over the station and caused the alarm was a messenger of death. In this course, having cut through the platform of the machine, it passed through the left thigh, close to the trunk, of the lad Furmen, and severed the left leg; flying up the machine a few feet further, it struck the poor lad under the left jaw, and almost wrenched his head off, cutting the flesh and bones to pieces in a sickening manner. Beyond a doubt the wound in the head caused instantaneous death, and the lad never knew what the matter was. The body was scarcely reached by the coroner.

THE SCOTCH IN AMERICA.—Some 10-000 Scotch immigrants arrived at the port of New York during the past year.
For several years they have come in about this annual proportion. In 1862 there was but 700 of them; but the number gradually increased year by year, till in 1868 it was 7000 and 1869, it was over 10,000. We have not yet full returns of the Scotch emigration to the Australian and New Dominion colonies during the year; but we estimate that the number of people who have left Scotland for the colonies and this country in 1872 cannot be less than 40,000. This does not approach the annual increase of the population in Scotland. The Scotch immigration to New York, is of course, very small in comparison with that from Germany or Ireland. The German immigration here during the year just ended was close upon 117,000, and the Irish about 67,000. The aggregate immigration of last year was some 65,000 greater than that of the previous year. The Germans took the lead of all others in the immigration to this port from England within late years. Five years ago it reached as high as 36,000; three years ago it was over 40,000 and during the past year it was over 36,000.—*Scottish Municipal Elections.

Our readers in the town are no doubt fully alive to the fact that the voting for Reeve, Deputy Reeves and Councilors takes place on Monday. As the contest for Mayor, Reeve and Deputies is virtually at an end there will be very little excitement, and that will be confined to the Ward elections. We have already intimated that Mr. Harris and Mr. Hogg have retired from the Mayoralty, leaving the field clear to Mr. Robertson. With regard to the Reeveship, Messrs. Goldie and Hatch have signified their intention that they decline to be candidates. A few malcontents, who are deeply chagrined that Mr. Massie should not be put to the trouble of a contest, have been doing their utmost to induce Mr. Hatch to remain in the field, but that gentleman has positively refused to be made their cats-paw, and we again announce on his authority that he will not be a candidate for the Reeveship, but is a candidate for the Council for the West Ward. Mr. McMillan having retired from the contest for Deputy Reeve, the field is clear to Messrs. Howard and Chadwick.

We anticipate lively times in at least three of the Wards in voting for Councilors. There is no lack of candidates in any of the Wards, and the ratepayers should exercise their individual judgment in selecting and voting for the men who they deem best qualified for the office, who have most knowledge of municipal matters, the greatest aptitude for the transaction of the business of the Council, and who will give their time and experience to the work that lies before them.

The parties nominated for the various Wards are:—

NORTH WARD.—John Hogg, Richard Mitchell, Robert Mitchell, Jas. Mays, and Adam Robertson, Jr.

SOUTH WARD.—D. Kennedy, Wm. Stevenson, M. Snider, T. Holliday, Alex. Ferguson, T. Heffernan and J. W. Hall.

EAST WARD.—John Horsman, J. P. McMillan, Robt. Bell, Chas. Davidson, D. Coffee and Chas. Sharpe. WEST WARD.—George Elliott, J. C. McLagan, John Crowe, Hugh Walker, Geo. Munton, Henry Hatch and John Tyson.

Editorial Items.

It is stated on good authority that the Dominion Parliament will be summoned for the despatch of business on or about the 15th of February.

Le Metis continues to assert that a promise of amnesty was given by the Ottawa Government to the delegates of Leil in the spring of 1870.

The London Times in an editorial article upon the situation in the Sandwich Islands, caused by the death of King Kamehameha, says it must confess that the Americans will eventually people the Sandwich Islands, which will become a valuable colony between San Francisco, China and Australia. The Times reviews the question of annexation by filibustering, as heretofore practised in new countries by great powers, and doubts the propriety of any nation taking possession of the Sandwich Islands in such a manner.

The Adjutant-General, Col. Robertson Ross, has furnished an elaborate report of his trip through the Northwest, the result of his recent tour of inspection across the continent. Col. Ross is understood to have formed the highest opinion of the capabilities of the Saskatchewan, as well as of Manitoba, for settlement and agricultural purposes. The eastern base of the Rocky Mountains for several hundreds of miles towards the American boundary. It is understood that the Adjutant-General does not apprehend much difficulty from the Indian tribes in the settlement of the Northwest, provided proper steps be adopted to establish law and order, and protect impartially and with justice all races and classes.

Vicissitudes of Highland Clans.

Again the inheritance of the Stewarts, whose exile is twinned in one of the most pathetic of the Jacobite lays, is now the possession of a Greenock sugar merchant (R. Macfie, of Airdrie). An estate of a few hundred acres in extent, beside the beautiful little town of Oban is all that remains of the vast territory of the Macdonalds, the powerful Lords of Lorn, who once contested on terms of equality with Robert Bruce, and whose fine old castle of Dunollie even in its ruins, attests the ancient greatness of the family. The chief of the Macdonalds, the descendants of " brave Terence from Benvegan, high and of the famous Forie Moore, whose progress was not a piece of the extensive island of Lewis, once the heritage of his clan in Glenelg, or on the Gairloch, and only a mere fragment of the mountains of Skye, which the ancestors shared with the powerful Macdonalds, being, too, where Fisher Charlie found a temporary refuge in his wanderings, and which Dr. Samuel Johnson in his memorial tour to the Hebrides and Bos-well described so graphically, passed thirty years ago, from the Jacobite Macdonalds to a Democratic planter and has just been disposed of again to an Inverness railway contractor, (G. G. Mackay, Esq., of Rosehall and Oban) while the clan have found an Asylum beyond the Atlantic. "Wild Barra" knows nothing now of "his ancient thans" MacNiel, nor Colonsay, the MacDonnells, and though the Glen Gillian—the MacInnes—retain Dunt and Lochloy, a moiety of their estates in Mull, the Campbells long ago were expelled from Tiree and Coll. Archoy, the mansion-house of the chief of "the will Macfarlane's plaided clan," has been transformed into an inn. As might have been expected from their character, "the sons of brown Dermid who slew the wild boar," the powerful and pushing clan Campbell, who fared much better than most of their Celtic brethren in the struggle against Southern intrusion into their fastnesses. Yet they have not come quite scathless. Breadstaple, in spirit, in spite of the vicissitudes which have befallen them, still possesses a territory of some 1000 acres, and has a few miles of coast.

GUELPH, JAN. 2, 1873 dwim wings of MacCallan More have been considerably clipped. Not only have such outlying penitents as Castle Campbell and Harvieston been alienated, along with $30,000 worth of land and timber, during the spendthrift regime of Duke George, the handsome uncle of the present Indian Secretary, but in consequence of the rebellions and forfeitures of the Covenanted struggles, large tracts of their old patrimonial estates in Argyllshire have passed into other hands. A Manchester merchant (Mr. Fender of Minard)—once a pattern drawer in the Vale of Leven—has acquired a fine estate on Lochfynside itself. Kilmun, on the Holy Loch, the ancient burial-place of the Campbells, with a large tract of land adjoining, is the property of a London sugar refiner, Dawson Castle, of which the Duke of Argyll's hereditary keeper, along with the surrounding grounds, has been sold again and again; and Roseneath, which in former days was the southern extremity of the Campbell country, stretching in an unbroken line from Glen Orchy to the Gareloch, is now merely an isolated mansion and grounds, from which it is indeed "a far cry to Lochow." Generally speaking so far as the clansmen are concerned, it appears to be a matter of indifference whether their "country" remains in the hands of their chiefs or passes into the possession of strangers, for the former have as little scruple as the latter in evicting the men who used to be the bone and muscle of our armies, in order that their estates may be converted into sheep walks and deer forests.—Glasgow Mail.

Our readers are aware that it is thought the recent denunciations of the slave trade and traders by Dr. Livingstone will prevent the intrepid traveller from getting to the East Coast. It is consequently thought desirable to send an expedition up the Congo at once to explore that river and meet the Doctor. Dr. Gasfield, the glacier explorer, is to head the enterprise. That gentleman has subscribed £1,000 to the fund, and there is every prospect of the requisite amount being raised.

MINNESOTA now ranks as the third, if not the second, wheat producing State in the Union. From the most reliable data the total product of the State for 1872 is estimated at 25,000,000 bushels, the average yield being seventeen and three-fourths bushels to the acre. The amount necessary for home consumption is about 6,000,000 of bushels, leaving a surplus of 20,000,000 for export, more than double the quantity of last year.

The Great Western Railway Company, owing to the immense increase of business, purpose building a double track from Glencoe to Windsor, a distance of eighty miles, to connect with the Loop Line at the former place, thereby making it complete in itself, without having to interfere with the traffic on the main line. The estimated cost of construction is set down at $1,250,000. It will, in all probability, be built next summer.

LOST AT SEA.

They watched her sail with the favouring gale. While the sun shone bright on the river; But little they knew, as she faded from view, She had sailed away for ever. Many weary days shall each eye gaze, And long in long death throes shall quiver; But that look was their last, for a thing of the past. She has vanished, and vanished for ever. A dark mystery, left with the lone sea, No herald her fate shall deliver. Men only shall know, and the sun's setting glow, They lost her, and lost her for ever.

Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend without further notice.

CHAPTER XXII. THE SCENE IN THE INN.

"Can you bear your confinement a little longer, dear Lillias?" whispered George, and instantly her lips were pressed to the spot in the door whence George's words seemed to come.

"Then good bye, my darling, for the present; the sooner we go now the sooner will we return to you."

"Fill her with comfort! Ay, far beyond her power to contain. So greatly did she tremble with excess of bliss that she could not rise from her knees, but poured out her soul in thanksgiving for the mercy which had snatched her from the abyss of despair, and raised her to the pinnacle of hope—yea, to the seventh heaven of delight and happiness.

"I am awake, I am in my senses; George and Harry are here, and my bliss is real—real. Let me doubt no more; let me fear no longer. Harry has assured me that all danger is past; that George is mine—for ever mine. Let me be still, and quaff the cup of joy that has been held to my lips."

She had risen from her knees while she spoke, and threw herself on the couch where a little ago she lay in such agony of grief, but where now she reclined in the silent stillness of ineffable contentment—delicious in its blessedness far beyond the power of words to express.

Meanwhile, Harry and George had descended the stair, and were in the passage making ready for the tremendous interview with the Captain and Garret. Most tremendous it must of necessity be, the youths were fully aware of it, and had feelings in accordance with the fact.

"Now, George," he whispered, and so perfectly decided was the tone that the other unquestioningly assented to the course announced—"now, George, I must go in first, and alone. You are to appear till I give the signal. You will easily understand by the words spoken on both sides when your presence is requisite."

In obedience to the injunction, George fell back a step, and Harry advanced to the parlor door. His movements were noiselessly made, and as he paused for a moment with his fingers on the handle, he could hear the two men speaking within, wholly unconscious of the astounding interruption to which they were on the point of being subjected.

A very few moments did Harry stand thus. Then, with a strange calmness, he firmly turned the handle, opened the door and walked over the threshold.

A Highland Society has been formed in Greenock, Scotland, and has charged itself with several very commendable duties. It proposes "to preserve and promote the language, literature, music, poetry, antiquities, and athletic games of the Highlanders," to found bursaries for the benefit of Highland students, to "encourage the more general use of the national dress," and, generally, to assist destitute or unemployed brethren. It has elected the Marquis of Lorne its Chief, and a member of Parliament, Mr. Grievie, its President.

The latest feminine justification for homicide comes from New Orleans, where Mr. and Miss Ingraham are excused for shooting at one Kaiser in the open street on the ground that he had committed a "breach of etiquette."

THE TOTALERS will regret to learn that a French chemist has demonstrated the practicability of making alcohol from sawdust, the cellulose of which will yield about 100 gallons of pure alcohol of strong spirit, having "a delicate taste." A literal significance is thus given to the popular metaphor of "leaving a stick in it."

The emigration returns at Toronto show that 18,563 emigrants arrived at that port during the year. Of this number, however, but 9,565 remained with us, the balance going to the United States. Last year the number of emigrants which sailed for Ontario from the Toronto agency was 11,185.

Dr. S. JACOBS, on APOPHIA, OR LOSS OF VOICE.—ORANGE STREET, ST. JOHN, N. B., 1869.—MR. FELLOWS—Sir: I am bound to award the palm of merit to the preparation of Hypophosphites discovered by you. I had occasion to use it myself in a case of Aphonia, which would not yield to regular treatment, and am happy to say, it proved to be all that you claimed for it, having acted with expedition and entire satisfaction. I feel called upon to publish the fact, that the profession may avail themselves of a remedy in your Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites.

Yours, very truly,

THE GREAT REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION

which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c.

Wistar's Balm does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.
