Civic holiday was a very quiet day in town, the result of the exodus of citizens to the lakeside and other points. The heavy showers with hail during the afternoon caused the ball game to be called off. The drenching rain was no doubt beneficial to the root crops but did some damage to fruit, the ground being strewn with immature fruit, and in some places torn was levelled and slight damage done to vegetables.

August 3rd and 4th were "In and out calls" days of the Bell Telephone Company when a record was kept of all calls going through the Central offices. Florence was a pupil of Mr. W. J. Kelly, former principal of Petrolia Public School.

REDUCTION IN HYDRO RATES
The Watford Hydro Commission received notification this week from the Hydro Electric Power Commission of Ontario that a reduction in local rates had been made, and that the same would come into force on August 1st of this year. As will be seen below the reduction is a substantial one, amounting to 20 per cent. on the domestic and commercial lighting. The reduction in the street lighting is $1.50 per 100 w.m. There is no change in the power rate or in the cost of power. Coming in the fall of the year the reduction in the domestic and commercial lighting will be much appreciated and will be an encouragement to consumers to use more light and to use current for heat, cooking or other domestic appliances. Below are the rates now in force compared with the old rates:
Service Kilowatt charge hour

After which a program of sports was carried out giving much amusement to the on-lookers as well as to those taking part. A very pleasant afternoon was spent at the home of Miss Maxena Auld on Friday, the occasion being in honor of her friend Miss Alice Brown who is visiting from Edmonton. The little friends had been invited out for dinner that day and Miss Anna Auld took advantage of the opportunity for a surprise party for them, by inviting Maxena's classmates from Sunday and day school to assemble about a given time. The surprise was genuine and all enjoyed the happy meeting. One of the interesting games played was an imaginary journey to Alice's home city, the principal places enroute, the scenery along the way, even the meals in the dining car being illustrated from old magazines. Partners were chosen and each pair, equipped with scissors, pencils, stickers and a large paper started out, some travelled by airplane, some took C.P.R., others motored through. After the trip all enjoyed the dainty luncheon and were unanimous in assuring their hostess that the ice-cream and other goodies quite excelled their recent dining car service. The pleasant afternoon passed all too quickly and the little friends took their leave, all wishing Alice and Miss Seymour a pleasant time on the real journey back to Sunny Alberta and hoping they may come East again soon.
A resident of this county was arrested last week for swearing and using indecent language while trying to get his car to start—forgetting that at such times it is customary to swear only with the muffler on.

AS OTHERS SEE US

The following article from the Yuciana, Cal. News, was written by Mr. Geo. D. Lee, who spent several weeks this summer in Watford and vicinity. It will be read with interest and needs no comment.

Compares Ontario and Calif. Fruits

Editor Yuciana News:
At your request I submit some observations from my trip East:

The Province of Ontario, Canada, (my native province) produces 75 per cent of all the fruit grown in the whole Dominion, and in the localities where fruit-growing is specialized the class of fruit compares very favorably with the same fruits as we know them here.

The centers of the industry are in Essex county in the extreme western end of the Province, and also in the Niagara Peninsula, these districts controlling the marketing of their fruit through their associations; but the area adapted to fruit is small compared to the vastness of the Province, which is larger than the State of Texas.

The fruits grown commercially are the apple, pear, cherry, peach and grape, including also the vine and bush berries.

The Ontario apple when properly grown is considered excellent in the world markets, but the average farmer gives no more attention to his family orchard than he gives to his bush lot reserved for firewood; although all the best developed parts of the Province can produce fine apples.

Their apple trees reach great size and age. Here are a few measurements:

First tree measured—Girth at two feet above ground, 8 feet; girth of one limb, 4 feet 7 inches; spread of top, 57 feet.

Second tree—Girth at four feet above ground, 9 feet; spread of top 51 feet.

These trees are about seventy-five years old.

The apple crop on winter varieties is light this year.

Cherries, both sweet and sour varieties, are specialized in the Niagara district, and are an excellent crop this season—the fruit laden branches in many cases hanging over the roads. I took the measurements of one of the many large trees, and the girth at two feet from the ground was 6 feet 2 1/2 inches.

Plums also do well and are a heavy crop, but grapes and peach growing is confined to districts where the climate is somewhat tempered by the waters of Lake Erie and Lake Ontario. The grapes grown all require long pruning and their peach orchards struggle against the cold of the Northern winters, and do not compare with the vigorous orchards as we know them here. These fruits are also producing heavy this year.

Pears thrive and produce well, but growers tell me the market is limited, as the Canadian likes his apple for winter use, and with the average farmer, their cellars are well stocked with their best apples, while the pigs and the cows get the balance of the crop.

When I compared the climatic advantages and disadvantages there, with conditions in our favored State, I came back with a smile and a whoop and say—"I love you, California." However, I could envy their green grass and shady parks, and also just one of their Great Lakes placed at about the middle of our Golden State, so that we could pump water over all of our smiling valleys and cause even our desert to blossom as the rose.

The cheapest thing they have in the Middle States and in Canada is "water" with an inability to turn it on and off, and their orchards, pastures and grain crops are often soaked with water or burned with the drouth. This month they take the water, and their ripe wheat and growing corn are having a hard time of it.

Many of them whom I visited are interested in that magic word "California," and if wishing could do the trick, they would swap their farms for the coin of the realm, and join the procession coming west.

G. D. LEE.

NOTE AND COMMENT

When a man in Western Ontario says: "I run things in my house," he usually means the lawn mower and the washing machine.—Kingston Standard.

The Wiarton Canadian Echo, makes very vigorous and timely protest against the injustice of witnesses being compelled to attend court for $1.50 while their actual outlay without considering loss of time, will be at least double of that.

A Canadian in California says that in that State race-track meets are banned, they have prohibition, and all other accessories to goodness and yet there are more murders, robberies and other crimes to the square inch than in any other part of the country.

A Western exchange says:—The "fussy" gent who worked out the present comical coat of arms for Canada received a reward of $8,000. Dr. Saunders, who produced Marquis wheat and devoted his life to the benefitting of the farmers of Canada, received a measly $2,000 on his retirement. Such is the appreciation of man to man. Anything masquerading under the semblance of patriotism will sure loosen the purse strings.

San Francisco China exchange is no doubt the oldest telephone exchange in the world. The Chinese subscribers, of which there are 1615, are called by name and no number. The operators, of which there are 16 are all Chinese girls and were educated in the Public schools of San Francisco and speak Chinese and English fluently. The fact that names and not numbers are used necessitates the operators being thoroughly familiar with the name and number of all Chinese subscribers.

The Daily Mail and Empire of Toronto has reached its fiftieth year of publication and has celebrated the event by issuing a beautiful Half-Century Anniversary Number in book form, containing 118 pages. The Mail and Empire is a great newspaper of which Canadians may well be proud. The story of its life of fifty years, profusely illustrated, with half tones, is a deeply interesting one comprising a review of the social, educational, agricultural, financial, industrial and commercial development and progress of Canada from 1872 to 1922. We trust that the Mail and Empire may continue to be a power in the development of Canada and that it may enjoy still greater prosperity in the next half century. There should be a big demand for its anniversary number.

Lindsay Post:—A very sensible law is being enforced in New Jersey in regard to railway crossings. Every motor has been ordered to come to a full stop at all grade crossings in the State to ascertain if it may cross the track safely. Failure to observe this rule will be considered as sufficient cause for the withdrawal of the license to operate a motor car. But why restrict this order to busses? The enforcement of such a regulation over the entire continent would mean the end of all crossing accidents. Under the present freedom from such restrictions we shall continue to have human beings flung into eternity because some speed-crazed driver is blind and deaf to all danger. Here is something that might be done at once in the way of prohibitive legislation. The loss of time in stopping will be more than made up, for the mad motorist will not be allowed to cut the time and lives of other people short by his carelessness.

Tribune, Tampa, Florida:—Some people love horses, some people love birds, some people love cats, some people even love some other people, but where is there a man or woman who does not love a dog? Not a petted, pampered show dog, but just plain dog—nothing but dog from the tip of his nose to the tip of his tail. Give a youngster a dog for a companion and the kid will never go to the dogs. A dog will be loyal and friendly, happy and obedient, mischievous and loveable, a doggone friend for anyone. Just a plain dog will do. A dog without pedigree, without price, without anything to boast of except that he is only a dog, with a dog's instincts, a dog's manners, a dog's sincerity, a dog's unswerving faith in and kindness to anyone who will be loyal and kind to him. Just a plain dog. In other words, a mutt, a mongrel, yes, a cur. He will love his little master or his little mistress. Every boy and girl, at some time in life, is surely entitled to one plain, every day, ordinary dog.

Whether it was education, prohibition, lessened immigration, or the weather, is a matter of opinion, but figures compiled by thirty-seven life insurance companies show that 1921 was the healthiest year of which there is any record.

After 20 years of waiting, a former Cairo, Ill. man, now living in St. Louis, has received an invitation to a party from a sweetheart of long ago, who then lived in Smithland, Ky. It was mislaid in the post office.

A total number of quarter sections of Crown land still available is shown on the 1921 edition of a land map of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta; also quarter sections purchasable from non-resident owners, as well as much other information. A copy of the map, with a list of the unoccupied land for sale in any particular district, will be sent free of charge on application to the Natural Resources Intelligence Branch, Dept. of Interior, Ottawa.

The tremendous possibilities for Canadian trade in the middle east is emphasized in reports to the Department of Trade and Commerce by P. W. Ward, Canadian trade commissioner in the Straits Settlements, Siam, and the Malay Federated States. Imports into middle eastern markets have trebled since 1911 and latest available figures show that total annual value at $1,174,839,487. Of this huge sum, Mr. Ward estimated that $173,800,000 represents the annual value of the trade in which Canada could compete.

Charged with the theft of power from the St. Marys Hydro Commission, Harry A. Dinsmore, of that place was fined $50 and costs by Magistrate W. R. Butcher on Monday afternoon of last week. On a second count of installing wiring without a permit, Dinsmore was assessed $10 and costs. The accused pleaded guilty to both charges. According to the evidence, Dinsmore hooked up concealed wires behind his meter, allowing the power to pass into his house without being recorded in the meter.

When the late Graham Bell was first experimenting with the telephone near Brantford, it is recorded that one old resident described his efforts at talking over a piece of stovepipe wire as the "biggest piece of tomfoolery" she ever heard of. Others probably thought the same thing. Poor old Gallileo was reckoned as crazy, Columbus was looked upon as a freak, and the man who invented the linotype machine was greeted with a chorus of "It can't be done." The world advances because great men persist in elbowing their way through the crowd.

Sir Thomas Lipton announces his intention of entering again as a challenger for the American Blue Ribbon trophy. He will come to America in September.

Hon. Manning Doherty referring to the vote of the British Parliament to lift the embargo on Canadian cattle said:—"Publicity won the fight. Lord Beaverbrook secured for me the publicity I required." Lord Beaverbrook is publisher of one of London's big papers and newspaper space was a large factor in telling the British people why the embargo should be lifted and it was. Publicity is a great power. Your arguments or goods may be as good as gold but if the people don't know about them you can't expect to get results. Publicity pays. A factor in the success of every small or large commercial enterprise today is publicity, or in other words advertising.

The vagaries of the law are peculiar, at least to the lay mind. Recently in Peel county a man charged with manslaughter had furnished bonds for his appearance in court when called upon, but before the time set had committed suicide. The court took no notice of the fact of the accused being estranged and his sureties, two in number, had each to pay into court the sum of $5,000. In Perth county a paradoxical case a few years ago. A Mornington farmer charged two men with having robbed him. He had them apprehended, convicted and sentenced to a term in jail for the offence. When he made claim for the money found on their person he was informed that they would have to give proof that the money in the possession of the prisoners was actually the money taken from him although the court had found them guilty of robbing him. This he was unable to do and consequently was unable to recover his property.

On the way home Charles Ellerker of Warwick ran head on into W. Rankin's car of this town. Both autos were travelling at a fair rate of speed, and were badly damaged. Fortunately no person was injured in either accident.

KEEP CHILDREN WELL DURING HOT WEATHER

Every mother knows how fatal the hot summer months are to small children. Cholera infantum, diarrhoea, dysentery and stomach troubles arise at this time and often a precious little life is lost after only a few hours illness. The mother who keeps Baby's Own Tablets in the house feels safe. The occasional use of the Tablets prevents stomach and bowel troubles, or if the trouble comes suddenly—as it generally does—the Tablets will bring the baby safely through. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co. Brockville, Ont.

A very exciting game was staged, Wanstead carrying off the honors of the evening. Then followed a general rush for the hall grounds where the hungry ball players made raids on the tables. Though sandwiches and cake vanished with great rapidity, all were ready for the season's treat—apple pie and ice cream. The program which followed won many words of praise at the close as well as hearty encores from the delighted audience. Vocal selections by Miss Ruth Walters of Forest brought well-merited praise. anied Mr. Biggs. Following the general meeting the Hon. Mr. Biggs met the officials of the United Farmers' organizations and answered a number of questions.

ALEX. GRAHAM BELL Baddeck, C. B., August 4.—Dying with his thoughts devoted to love with his home life and to the continuance of his scientific works Dr. Alexander Graham Bell, the inventor of the telephone, was buried this evening on a mountain peak that commands a view of the broad acres of his Cape Breton estate and away to the southeast and west across the rippling waters of Bras D'Or, scenes of his struggles and triumphs and his happiest days. The grave was hewn out of almost solid rock at the foot of a fir tree and directly beneath the apex of the giant tetrahedral tower that had meant so much to him in his scientific studies.

Thirteen million telephones in the U. S. and Canada ceased service for one minute while the body of the inventor of the telephone was lowered into the grave.

Watford Invites You to CHAUTAQUA

Next Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Aug. 15, 16, 17, 18

4 Joyous Days

Afternoons and Evenings

8 Wonderful Programs

EXCELLENT ENTERTAINMENT AND MUSIC FILLS FOUR DAYS PROGRAM AT CHAUTAUQUA

PLAY COMPANY IN "IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE"—COMEDY ENTERTAINERS—ORCHESTRAL COMBINATION—CHILLD WONDER ENTERTAINER—MUSICAL CLOWN—ALL SCHEDULED TO APPEAR IN THE BIG FOUR DAY EVENT.

One of the outstanding features of the four-day Chautauqua program to be given here August 15, 16, 17 and 18, will be the production of the great comedy success, "It Pays to Advertise," said to be the greatest laugh-producing play of the century. It enjoyed a two year run in New York City, one year in Chicago, long runs in other large cities, including a month at the Royal Alexandria Theatre, Toronto, where it drew capacity houses. It is the greatest popular success—a least from the box office standpoint—of all the great successes of that wizard of the theatre, George M. Cohan. It will be presented by the Elias Day Players of Chicago with all the attention to details and the cast that characterized the presentation last summer of "Contentment."

MUSIC THAT PLEASURES ALL TASTES

High-class and popular music are well blended in the program. On the opening day the Henderson Entertainers of Boston, headed by Walter Henderson, singing Scotch comedian, presents two programs in which the entertainment idea predominates. On the closing day, a high-class and at once popular program of good music will be given by the Casford-Reed Violin Girls, a small orchestra sponsored by Thurlow Lieurance of Lincoln, Neb. The Chavez-Conover Musicians present an excellent prelude program the afternoon of the second day, while on the third day all will be delighted with the children's entertainers—Little Alice Louise Shrode, child wonder singer, whistler, reciter and dancer, and Stevens, the children's musical clown of New York City. More variety than ever and all better than ever, is the claim made by those in charge of the program.

Season tickets are now on sale; the price remains the same. We cannot think of anything, unless it be a yearly subscription to this paper, that gives so much for so little. The Watford Chautauqua committee has adopted as its slogan "Fill the tent with season ticket holders." If that is done, the Chautauqua will perform a great service to the community.

WHY SHOULD THE TOWN GUARANTEE CHAUTAUQUA?

In order that the town may be assured of quality programs. Without the guarantee, Chautauqua might have to take "the easiest way" for support.

Carnival companies are not guaranteed. And they usually succeed—financially. How do they do it? Would you care to encourage Chautauqua if it resorted to the usual devices and allurements of the carnival?

The movies are not guaranteed, and they make big money. But why the well-nigh universal protest against the kind of pictures provided? Why the clamor from clubs and school and church for better pictures? Why have the movie magnates just employed a distinguished gentleman at a salary of $150,000 per year to save their business from self-destruction. A newspaper editorial says that Mr. Hay's task is to clean the modern "Augean Stables".

The theatre is not guaranteed. What is the character of the theatrical production usually brought to your town, or of the metropolitan production about which you read? How often do they present a worthy production? How often may one attend a theatrical production without a feeling of shame? Yet theatrical managers insist they must present plays of the kind they do in order to succeed financially.

The circus is not guaranteed. Perhaps this is one of the cleanest forms of modern commercialized amusement. But do you want Chautauqua to be like the Circus? What stimulus does it give to the moral or intellectual or artistic life of the community?

Chautauqua is guaranteed because it can be depended upon to maintain standards which are approved by the law-abiding, morality-loving people of the town.

The guarantee relieves Chautauqua from any necessity of trucking to the alleged popular demand for unclean amusements, which a certain too-numerous type of carnival, movie, theatre, and circus manager pleads as their excuse. They claim "to give the people what they want." The illicit booze-joint does that, too. And without a guarantee. And makes money.

The institutions which give the people what they need—what will help rather than degrade—are all guaranteed.

Grand opera and the big symphony orchestras which maintain musical standards are guaranteed.

The Church is guaranteed, by the annual church subscription.

The school is guaranteed, by the public taxes.

The college is guaranteed, by its endowment, the gift of the people.

None of these institutions could maintain and improve their standards and their service without being guaranteed against financial disaster.

Chautauqua belongs in this latter list. Towns guarantee the Chautauqua manager's business for the same reason that they guarantee the preacher's business in the church, the teacher's business in the school, the professor's business in the college; for the same reason that the city guarantees the impresario's business in the opera and the conductor's business in the orchestra.

Buy a Season Ticket and Attend as Many Programs as you can. Remember last year's splendid program. This Year Better Than Ever.
