The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

New Brunswick Museum
Saint John

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol  $\rightarrow$  (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol  $\nabla$  (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

New Brunswick Museum
Saint John

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole  $\rightarrow$  signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole  $\nabla$  signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

OPINIONS OF THE FRENCH, ENGLISH, IRISH AND AMERICAN PRESS.

PARIS.

It is in America we shall hear of the rising of this great Lyric Star, whose her talents will find true recognition, and her simplicity of manner win all hearts. — La Patrie.

Rosa D'Erina sings Irish Melodies with that Mesian fervor, which, as Byron used to say, "would set Tom Moore, though married, raving." — Galignani.

The charming young artist has a splendid voice of great power and compass, and at her grand concert last night, patronized by the English and American Ambassadors, sang in seven languages with complete success. — L'Art Musical.

Sweden has produced two great contraltos, Jenny Lind and M'lle Nilsson. Ireland is jealous of Sweden, and has flashed us a star, M'lle Rosa D'Erina. — Le Temps.

Rosa D'Erina is a distinguished contralto. She has the voice, the taste, the tradition, a style the most correct, and a soul essentially musical. — Figaro.

Tanks to the accomplished young artists, M'lle D'Erina, for taking down "The Harp that once in Tara's Halls," used to reflect such glory on the poets and bards of Erin. — Jurnal des Debats.

DUBLIN.

Rosa D'Erina has attained the highest position among the leading Irish vocalists, and is everywhere regarded as the truest and best living interpreter of the magic music of her native land. — Freeman.

We are sure that all who love genuine song will hasten to get back to Erin one of its daughters who has upheld its name and fame for genius in foreign lands. — Irish Times.

We welcome with cordial wishes the Rose of Erin, who, in the capitals of France and England, has made the music of Ireland celebrated, and reflected by her genius much honor on Ireland. — The Nation.

Rosa D'Erina has given upwards of one hundred recitals of the music of Ireland, in the great Paris Exposition, to thousands of delighted hearers, and the Paris Press teems with her praises. — Evening Post.

CHICAGO.

Rosa D'Erina has established herself in the most cordial and friendly relations toward the Chicago public, and it is not difficult to foresee that her sterling accomplishments, voice and method, will win for her a most brilliant career. — Tribune.

M'lle D'Erina proves to be a beautiful young Irish woman. She is natural and artless in manner, the owner of a rich and true voice, and has a stage presence that for a paradoxical combination of unaffected diffidence and complete self-possession is a model. — Times.

M'lle D'Erina's first appearance upon the concert stage of Chicago is a success fully deserved by her great musical abilities, and accorded without reservation. Her compositions, so long without a representative in the most emotional of arts, have every reason to be proud of her noble talents. — Post.

LONDON.

M'lle Rosa D'Erina had the honor of singing, by gracious command of her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales, at Marlborough House, yesterday, in presence of a distinguished elite. — Star.

Rosa D'Erina has the most extraordinary facility of vocalization, for whether in French, Italian, or Spanish music, she is equally happy, whilst her Irish Melodies are truly superb. — Era.

No Irish artist since Catherine Hayes has created in the musical world such a sensation as the accomplished and highly-gifted young lady, M'lle Rosa D'Erina. — Musical Times.

Rosa D'Erina's singing of Spanish ballads, at the Royal Gallery of Illustration, has not been equalled since the days of Yvonne Garcia. The Spanish Hunting Song is immense. — Telegraph.

A most brilliant assemblage greeted the Rose of Erin at her benefit concert last night. Ireland has good reason to be proud of this gifted child of song. — Morning Advertiser.

Rosa D'Erina has won all hearts by her exquisite rendering of the delightful music of her native land. She is truly marvellous in her repertoire of "Music from many Lands." — Times.

NEW YORK.

Rosa D'Erina is a splendid vocalist, of the most varied talents, and was welcomed last night by one of the largest audiences ever assembled in Steinway Hall. — Herald.

The Irish prima donna made her debut last evening at Steinway Hall, before a crowded and enthusiastic audience, and exhibited rare powers of vocalization. — Tribune.

Rosa D'Erina possesses a splendid mezzo-soprano voice, cultivated to the highest degree in the Parisian school. Her varied programme proved her a marvel in linguistic attainments. — Star.

M'lle Rosa D'Erina is a charming young artist of unquestionable talent; her pure and beautiful voice, and the perfect simplicity and naturalness of her style, presented a charm which was positively irresistible. — Watson's Art Journal.

ST. LOUIS.

The Major and citizens of St. Louis assembled last evening to honor Rosa D'Erina's farewell appearance. Rarely have we witnessed a more respectable and appreciative audience. A pleasing incident occurred between the parts of the programme. As M'lle D'Erina was about to retire Mr. Butler, one of the editors of The Dispatch, ascended to the stage and presented her, in the name of her many friends, with a very handsome and valuable gold Etruscan cross and chain, laced with pearls. — Dispatch, June 24, 1871.

The performance of the Rose of Erin at the Mercantile Library, during the week, have been a series of artistic triumphs. No artist has visited this city for years who combined in so eminent a manner the rare musical gifts of Rosa D'Erina. — Times.

We feel bound to express the pleasure shared in by thousands of our citizens during M'lle D'Erina's "Musical Evenings." We cannot imagine any more excellent means of spending an evening than in listening to this accomplished musician, who is perfectly at home in the "Music of Many Lands." — Republicans.

BOSTON.

This lady, who comes with such glowing commendations from the press of both Europe and America, sang herself immediately into favor with a large audience last evening, and may count upon another success to add to the many upon her list. Her voice is one of the most agreeable that has been heard here. — Boston Post.

Rosa D'Erina has given a series of concerts at Tremont Temple to large and enthusiastic audiences. She has a very agreeable stage presence, her voice is clear and sweet and pleasing in the highest degree. Her versatility is really remarkable, and she renders her entire difficult programme in an artistic manner. — Dexter Smith's Papers.

This talented and versatile young lady has already sung herself into the admiring appreciation of our exacting audiences. She is every day winning her way through the "high and dry" classical criticisms of our cultivated metropolis to the applause of delighted and varied assemblages. Her piano execution is truly admirable, the rippling notes telling in magical style the condensed musical beauties she conjures up for her listeners. — The Pilot.
