Springtime Needs

In Paints, Varnishes, Polishes and Enamels

OF INTEREST IN GENERAL AND TO WEEK-END AND HOLIDAY PAINTERS IN PARTICULAR

Can you imagine what a dull, drab appearance a city would have if it wasn't for paint? It is not only a beautifier but a splendid preservative for wood.

All realize its value for one reason or the other, and many now take a special pride in making everything spick and span for the lovely Canadian summer months. Verandahs, garden lattice fences, verandah chairs, motor boats, yachts, canoes—all come in for attention. The fact that almost everything in paints, polishes, etc., can now be obtained ready mixed, and in the colors desired, makes it an easy matter for the amateur painter to complete a good job. Here are a few interesting values in prepared paints, varnishes, enamels, brushes and other "brighten-up" requirements from the department on the fourth floor.

CONSCRIPTION IS COMING A ONCE

As our vessel went full steam ahead thru the heavy fog without showing lights or sounding a fog horn. Such a course in peace time would be regarded as reckless and even criminal. The prime minister said that the conference had been largely necessitated by the anomalous position occupied in relation to foreign affairs by the self-governing dominions. The present war sprung to some extent from the fact that the dominions had never been consulted and of whose existence they were probably ignorant. Hereafter all the self-governing dominions would have a voice in deciding questions of war and peace. The British government would not again go to war first and consult the dominions afterwards.

Nevertheless the dominions had hardly gone into the struggle for liberty and justice and had up to date contributed 1,000,000 fighting men. (Applause.)

Differences Explained. The difference between the imperial war cabinet and the British war cabinet. One dealt with affairs affecting the British empire and the other with those peculiarly affecting the United Kingdom. In this connection he made the interesting statement that he had known that there were only five members of the British cabinet as at present constituted. The imperial war cabinet, recently formed in London would hereafter meet annually, and it would consist of the British prime minister, British secretary of state for the colonies, the secretary of state for India, the secretary of state for the colonies and a representative from India. This body would be consulted by the British cabinet or executive authority and its creation would in no way infringe the autonomy of any dominion.

After-War Conference. Sir Robert said that after the war a conference would be called for the purpose of suggesting a readjustment in the relations between the various states of the empire. At that conference he thought the political part should be represented. That would certainly be the course taken by the British government. He desired to emphasize to himself as opposed to anything like an imperial parliament with a view to the best guarantee for the future of the empire. (Sir Robert continued, was a record of what the emperor had done in the past. (Renewed applause.)

The premier briefly commented upon some of the resolutions adopted at the recent meeting of the imperial war cabinet, which have been already published in the press. It was absolutely necessary that Canada should not only serve its natural resources and that its manufacture should take place within the empire. Germany before the war knew more about the nature of the British Empire than the president of a Canadian corporation. The president of the Knappus corporation in 1914 was astonished to learn that Krupp knew more about the iron ore deposits of his country than he himself. After briefly referring to the resolution respecting conscription, in Mr. Maclean's opinion, deserved the support of a united parliament and a united people. They should be carried out, tho it involved some steps to reconstruct the cabinet and more thoroughly to unite parliament. The government should draft a hundred thousand or two hundred thousand men or even more if necessary.

Mr. Maclean believed that there would be no difficulty in enforcing the conscription law, but that the young men would go gladly from very patriotic motives. He hoped the opposition would not oppose conscription. He knew many Liberals who had been saying for months that they hoped the government would bring in a measure of conscription.

Mr. Lalor (Haldimand): "What are they saying now?" Mr. Maclean: "I think they do not believe that all the loyalty of this country is to be found in one party. If I believed that fifty per cent of our people were disloyal I would not want to live in Canada."

Hon. William Pugsley said he knew a horse dealer in New Brunswick who had sold a horse worth $80.00 and then sold it for a good price, but the effects of the ginger soon wore off and it was the same old horse. He was not prepared to suggest conscription in the abstract, but suggested that the selective draft system could only be properly enforced by a national government, such as they had in Britain.

The debate was continued by Hon. J. D. Hazen and Judge McKezgie (North Cape Breton and Victoria). The house then went into committee of supply.

American Destroyers Beat Off Attack by German Submarines. London, May 18.—In their first engagement with enemy submarines, American destroyers beat off a German U-boat which sought to attack the White Star liner Adriatic, according to The London Chronicle today.

Conference at Washington. Reaches Agreement on Prosecution of War. TO RATION NEUTRALS Preference to Be Given Countries Most Friendly to Enemy's Foes.

Washington, May 18.—Broad principles underlying America's economic participation in the war, subject to congressional legislation, were agreed upon today at the final general trade conference of British Foreign Secretary Balfour, Secretaries Lansing and Redfield and British representatives. The conference was held at the British mission here, and the British mission arrived, submitted the reports, which were accepted in principle, and the few remaining questions were left to the committees to be worked out in practice on the basis of whatever legislation is finally passed by congress.

Generally it has been agreed that the United States shall devote its resources preferentially to the supply of goods to the countries most friendly to the United States. It is understood that a large portion of the tonnage will be devoted to the emergency transportation in order to decrease the chances of destruction by submarines.

The imports of German submarines and the shortage of shipping have made it essential to safeguard every available ton, and as a result absolutely no surplus overseas movement of tonnage will be permitted if it is understood that the administration necessary authority to co-operate with the allies.

The British have prepared for the allies a complete statistical statement of the various needs in imports, and the problem has resolved itself into the question of how to allocate the tonnage available for the vital needs of the allies, leaving a certain balance for the neutrals. To Ration Neutrals. The necessity to ration the European neutrals, not only to prevent goods entering Germany, but also to conserve tonnage, has been emphasized at the conference. The elaborate system built up by Great Britain in the past two and a half years will be closely followed in practice, but the adherence of the United States to the allies makes it possible to enforce it with a far greater degree of success than in the case of the neutrals.

BULGARIANS CAPTURE FRENCH COLONIALS

Violent Mine Explosions Precede Fighting for Hill Near Monastir.

Sofia, May 17, via London, May 18.—An official statement issued by the Bulgarian war office today reads: "On the Teverna Stena (Cerna) bend, after violent artillery firing during the day, the enemy toward night made three consecutive attacks. The first succeeded in reaching our trenches, but was expelled subsequently by counter-attacks by German and Bulgarian troops. The other attacks were repulsed by artillery, rifle and machine gun fire. The enemy sustained sanguinary losses and we captured prisoners belonging to the First Austrian Regiment."

proclamation sets in motion immediately machinery that will enroll and sift 10,000,000 men and pave the way for the selection of the first 500,000 young, efficient soldiers without crippling the industries or commerce of the nation or bringing hardship on those at home.

Even before the bill was signed the war department announced that the full strength of the national guard would be drafted into the United States army beginning July 15 and concluding August 5. Orders to bring the regiments to full war strength immediately accompanied the draft legislation sent to all governors. A minimum of 329,000 fighting men will be brought to the colors under these orders, supplementing the 293,000 regulars who will be under arms by June 15.

ALLIES' WARSHIPS DRIVE OFF ENEMY

Two enemy ships, close pressed by Italian light cruisers, succeeded in gaining shelter near Durazzo under the guns of coastal batteries. On the other hand, the British cruiser Dartmouth, on board which was the Italian admiral commanding the scout division, and followed by another cruiser and destroyer, running at high speed, managed to keep in contact with three enemy ships of the Novara type for more than two hours, firing about six hundred shells, until, arriving in the neighborhood of the Cattaro defences, larger ships came out to their rescue.

"Meanwhile our seaplanes, after repulsing enemy machines, attacked their ships, inflicting serious damage with bombs. The loss of two of our seaplanes were able to observe one of the cruisers enveloped in smoke. Its stern had been demolished and it was in a sinking condition when it reached Cattaro.

SILENTLY HONOR HEROIC STUDENTS

Nearly Four Thousand University Men Are Serving the Empire.

HOLD CONVOCATION

Sir John Hendrie and Dr. G.
C. Nasmith Honored at Annual Ceremony.

The annual convocation of the University of Toronto was held yesterday afternoon in Convocation Hall with all the accustomed ceremony before an audience of students and friends which practically filled the spacious hall. Degrees were bestowed by the chancellor, Sir William Massey, and with him on the platform were President R. A. Falconer, Principal Maurice Hutton, Sir John Hendrie, Hon. Dr. Pyne, minister of education; Sir Edmund Walker, Dr.
J. A. Macdonald, Justice Riddell, N.
K. Rowell, K.C., the members of the staff, the board of governors, deans of the various faculties and others.
The graduates numbered less than in former years. Fifty graduates whom degrees were to have been bestowed were absent on active service, and as a result it was decided to defer the degrees until the men return rather than bestow them in absentia.

The president, in addressing the graduating class of 1917, referred to the 3900 graduates and undergraduates of the university who are on active service and to the 211 who have died for their country. The names of these he read, with the unanimous standing with reverently bowed heads.

The audience included a number of returned university men and to these he extended greetings, and thru them to the thousands of members of the university who were "heroically fighting, patient in steadfastness, and preparing for the struggle that is to come."

A Terrible Test.
"Never in the history of the university," said the president, "have our men been so terribly tested and never have they proved themselves so splendidly. They have gone thru and are going thru the most terrifying experiences, and we must believe that a God of righteousness and justice is holding the balance and slowly our messengers are being found wanting."

To the graduates he said that their education had been received under conditions so unique, as to give them distinction beyond all that had gone before. One year of their university life had been passed during an era of peace and three during a period of war. Theirs was a most searching education, with conceptions of public service instilled by frequent words and the emptying of class rooms, by the manifold endeavors of the university and by all those who had come and gone.

Honor Late Mrs. L. Solman at Impressive Memorial Service

An impressive funeral service was yesterday held in honor of Mrs. L.
Solman at Queen Street Methodist Church, with Rev. J. C. Cochran officiating. Mayor Church spoke of her character and amiable qualities.
After the service the remains were taken to the Necropolis. Among the many beautiful floral tributes sent were those from the Toronto Ferry Co., Mayor Church, Toronto baseball players, the Robins Players and Major

CUSTOM-MADE SEMI-READY SUITS TO SPECIAL ORDER

Feature of the Service in All the Semi-Ready Stores in Canada—
Tailoring Clothes to Order.

Unfriendly folk tell a prospective customer of Semi-ready tailoring that Special Orders are only a species of ready-mades, and that they are cut and made en bloc with stock garments.
The prompt five-day delivery system would give coloring to the falsehood, because a fast schedule in tailoring clothes is beyond the ken of the average clothier.

Semi-ready Special Order Suits are custom-made to the last silk stitch.
When the measurements are received at the shops the cloth is cut from the stead physique type patterns, and the suit is finished to the precise size and style ordered. It would be manifestly impossible to keep a stock of ready-cut garments on hand to fill Special Orders for individual suits. Every garment in the Semi-ready shops, whether for stock or for Special Order, is cut to individual size with scissors—not the knife.

MUCH DISCUSSION OVER ERECTION OF A GARAGE

Street Commission Asks Works
Committee to Recommend Big Sum for Building.

The erection of a garage to house ten motor trucks of the street cleaning department proved a contentious matter before the works committee yesterday afternoon. Commissioner Wilson told the committee the department was seriously handicapped in its operations, and that the motor equipment was being injured thru lack of proper housing accommodations.
He proposed to build a garage on city owned property on the north side of Wilton avenue, adjacent to the Don incinerator, at an estimated cost of $25,000. The upper storey of the building would be used for the instruction of employees of the department and for stock room purposes. The money, he said, was available under the garbage disposal

CHARGED WITH PERJURY.

Witness, Arrested at Trial of Dr. J.
M. Johnson, Appears in Police Court.

Arrested after giving evidence in the sessions Thursday at the trial of Dr. J. M. Johnson, who was arraigned on a charge of performing an illegal operation upon Margaret Vernon, Reginald Barker faced a charge of perjury in the police court yesterday.
At a preliminary hearing of the Johnson case in the police court, it is alleged that Barker swore that the woman Vernon was his wife, while at the sessions he admitted that which he had sworn was untrue.

TWO MONTHS' SENTENCE.

Alleged to be a user of drugs,
Philip Morris, a well-dressed young man was sentenced to jail for sixty days when he appeared in the police court yesterday. Detective Levitt, who arrested Morris, swore to having found a quantity of cocaine in the room occupied by the young man, which Morris declared had been left there by a former lodger. A second excuse, that the drug had been prescribed for him for headache, had no effect upon the magistrate, and sentence was imposed.

MANY BOYS FARMING.

The Provincial Employment Bureau has received several splendid reports from the high schools of the province in regard to the numbers of pupils who are assisting in farm work. From Brantford high school the report was received that 80 boys and 20 girls are now on the land and another 5000, of 70 boys and 20 girls, will start work as soon as the school closes.

JAIL FARM APPOINTMENT.

Rumored That St. Barnabas Rector
Will Be Chosen for Position.

The rumor reached the city hall yesterday from reliable sources that Rev.
F. E. Powell, rector of St. Barnabas' Anglican Church, Danforth avenue, would be appointed superintendent of the city's jail farms. Hon. W. D. Mc-Pherson, however, stated that no appointment had been made. Property Commissioner Chisholm, who has been nominated for the position by the board of control, denied having heard of the appointment had been given to Mr. Powell.

SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 19.

Good Cheer for Those at the Front.

Nothing that has been done in Canada since the war started will give us courage or give us any more confidence in the news that they are no longer to be left unsupported. It will put a new spirit and a new heart in the Canadian army, officers and men alike, to know that at last their own people are behind them, no longer ignoring their efforts, but prepared to back them up to the limit.

"Greatness Thrust Upon Them."

"Some men are born great; some achieve greatness and some have greatness thrust upon them." This is the view that should be taken of the conscription measure, or selective draft, which the prime minister announced yesterday was to be adopted in order to redeem Canada's promise to the empire and to humanity that half a million Canadians would testify to their faith in the just cause of the entente alliance. They are truly great who went in the first place out of their own innate and primary conviction that there was one thing and one thing only to be done when Canada was at war. Many a one of these has sealed his faith in immortal honor with his blood, for there "loved not their lives even unto death." They did not need to be reminded that they who seek to save their souls shall lose them.

There have been thousands of men who have achieved greatness by following the shining example that the hero set them. They had the heart and the spirit to know what was seemly and right, and "who they were not the first to go, they went—Thank God—they went!" Many among them have found in themselves the right stuff, and played the hero as well as any, and he would be a strange man who could say which was the braver men at the front. But the ranks were being thinned, and there were none left with the great heart in them, or the clear vision, to feel or to see what was the duty of the hour.

Now there comes the high call of the nation itself, and for those who lagged and faltered and were blind to the bitter need of the broken ranks in France and the glory of taking their places with the heroes of the great war. They have greatness thrust upon them, and they should be proud to be thought worthy of standing beside those who were born so or who achieved it. To be eligible to fight in the great war and to go down to the grave with the consciousness of having shirked is a fate not to be envied. Many a man who fears to-day will rejoice a year hence that he belonged to a nation which set his duty before him and gave him a chance to discover his own manhood.

Not all the men who shun military service are cowards. They may be faint-hearted; they may not have been taught control; there may be physical inertia to overcome. But when the effort is made, when they stand themselves shoulder to shoulder with men like themselves, the old fires of the race of heroes to which they belong, dim smoldering under the ashes of pleasure, or snobbery, or mistaken affection, or some other unmanly clog, will burst forth in sun-bright flames and warm their whole nature into nobler life. To be baptized by fire in this sacrament of the world's faith in God's truth is the finest thing that could happen to our young men, and, thru them, to the nation. It is a national consecration.

What They Should Do.

All the young men who are eligible for the first draft, or who may think or fear they are, should make a virtue of a necessity today and save their reputation by volunteering for the corps in which they would best like to serve. It will be more pleasant to go than be brought; and there will be the option of choosing one's service, rather than being placed where the authorities will. After all, a volunteer stands higher than a conscript.

But the conscription is the democratic method, and the only fair one. There are men in the late fifties overseas today, while others in their early twenties sit at home at ease in Canada. This is not democracy; and it has been a puzzle for long why, after the mother country and all the other democracies adopted the system, Canada still delayed. The last thing of any use in war time is chewing the rag over what is past and done. It has been an evil year past for recruiting, but it is over and done, and we must set our faces forward and make up for the lost time. There has been no halt at the front. While we were slacking the Germans were putting their whole strength into their efforts, and are so much the better prepared. Until we have done everything of which we are capable there should be no more thought of slowing down.

A Long, Stiff Fight.

Lord Derby's interview on the relation of the United States to the war should help to dispel any illusions that may be entertained about what is needed to bring the struggle to an end. Eighteen months ago we were warned by Mr. Lloyd George and the King himself that we could not win the war if we did not put forth our utmost effort. At that time Germany's resources were estimated at considerably less than they have since proven to be.

Lord Derby reiterates the former message and adds to it: "This war will not be over until the full weight of America has been thrown into the scales."

This means men, money, munitions, food, the whole paraphernalia of war, and what it means for the United States it means for the rest of us. It is to be a long, stiff battle yet, and we shall need all our power, and all our will.

The prompt action of President Wilson in directing a division under General Pershing to proceed to France will have splendid moral effect on all Europe. We need not expect to hear much more about this until we hear that the division is in France and ready for action.

With the new start at Ottawa on an active policy we trust that Canada will be kept well abreast of the necessities of the situation, and that food control and production, and a proper provision for next winter's fuel will follow immediately on the conscription measure.

Russia Settling Down.

It was pleasant to have confirmation yesterday from Petrograd of our anticipations of the turn of political affairs in Russia. The latest news was entirely favorable to the allied cause, and even the military news was of an encouraging nature, a heavy attack by the Germans upon the Russians having been repulsed. Premier Lvov's summary of the situation presents a steady view of affairs. The democracy is beginning to realize the responsibilities of freedom as well as its privileges.

The peasants' convention with 569 delegates from all parts of the country, will afford an opportunity for an authoritative appeal to the people in general thru their own representatives. It is absurd to suppose that Russia is less capable of imposing the democratic idea than China, and we may be sure that when authentic information is laid before the nation, citizens, soldiers, peasants will all be united for self-preservation. This, and no less than this, is what co-operation means to Russia at present.

There need be no alarm over what are called concessions to socialism. We have had the spectacle not long since of Prof. Maslov, of the University of Toronto, denouncing such concessions to socialism as the Hydro-Electric system.

The great matter in Russian affairs is the loyalty of the army. And we need have no fear while Alexieff remains in command with such generals as Brustoff and Gurko at the front.

JACK THE GIANT KILLER

RETURNS FROM FRANCE.

Toronto Doctor Recalled for Special Service.

"The Canadians made themselves famous at Vimy Ridge by fighting in the greatest battle yet fought" was the terse statement made yesterday to a reporter for The World by Lieut.-Col. George R. Philip, Commander No. 10 Canadian Field Ambulance, just returned from Vimy Ridge. He established dressing stations one mile on the other side of the ridge. After serving thirty months in France, with only about five weeks' rest in that whole period, he has been recalled for some special duty in Canada. He refused to divulge the nature of his new duties, but said they would keep him engaged for a few months. Before entering into the army medical service, Lieut.-Col. Philip practiced his medical profession at 607 Sherbourne street.

alities to supply Russia with munitions, and the United States will also send railway material to enable the utmost possible to be got out of the Archangel railway. Doubtless the Pacific route will also be used with the Siberian railway to convey materials from America.

The only obscure points are the conditions that some of the labor and socialist leaders appear to wish to lay down about peace. They are asking for repudiation by the allies of any annexation or indemnities. There is a good deal to be done before peace will be in sight, and the Russian socialists are quite prematurely counting their chickens if they are thinking of settling terms before Germany has been defeated. When they have visited Belgium and northern France, Poland and Serbia and Armenia perhaps they will have new ideas about indemnities. And when they hear the pan-German theory of annexation they may be inclined to modify their own views.

Real Estate Notes

Ed. T. Hickey, real estate agent, West Toronto, states that the demand for house property is still active, and reports having sold ten or more within the last two weeks. Vacant land is receiving some attention, particularly in the Runnymede district. Mr. Hickey also states that as soon as the proposed civic car line from Quebec avenue to Runnymede is assured considerable activity will prevail in that section. The delay in the car line is holding back building operations, a number of builders will commence operations just as soon as a beginning is made to extend the car line.

Building permits yesterday: J. Stewart, three-story brick apartment house, Crawford street, $18,000; Norman Walker, addition to storehouse, Spadina avenue, $800; H. B. Johnston, to erect a retaining wall, Elm avenue, $1,800.

GOLD OUTPUT INCREASES

Department of Mines Report Shows Decrease in Silver.

The quarterly report of the department of mines issued yesterday shows a considerable increase in the production of gold in the province. Copper and nickel have also been produced steadily, but silver shows a decrease. The output of gold was 127,822 ounces, valued at $2,601,760. The value of the ore from Hollinger was $1,200,000; from the Dome, $528,000, and McIntyre, $428,000. The output of silver was 8,724,349 ounces, valued at $2,618,000. The output of nickel, copper matte, for the three months was 18,895 tons, compared with 80,000 tons for the whole of 1916.

GIRL LOSES CASE.

Justice Kelly in the non-jury assizes yesterday afternoon dismissed the action of Lillian Hughes against Doctors J. A. Spiers and William T. Hamilton, for $2,500. The plaintiff is 14 years of age and while playing on Mutual street in July, 1914, fell and broke her arm. The defendant attended to the girl's arm, and it was alleged that, owing to their negligence, gangrene developed which resulted in the arm being permanently crippled.

SOLDIERS' INSURANCE DECIDED TEMPORARILY

Brothers and sisters of men with homes in the city and who are killed while on active service will be paid their share of the civic insurance, while payments to brothers and sisters of men living outside the city will be withheld until it has been definitely decided whether or not they are entitled to any portion. This was the decision of the board of control yesterday on the suggestion of Controller Cameron. The mayor stated that there were only twenty cases of soldiers who lived just outside the city and had a claim for insurance at the time they enlisted. He proposed that the city obtain permission to pay the $20,000 insurance, as the dependents were in straitened circumstances.

JUDGMENT RESERVED.

Evidence Concluded in Case Regarding Sale of Camp Borden Property.

Judgment was reserved by Justice Casella yesterday afternoon at Osgoode Hall in the Camp Borden expropriation proceedings respecting 1,400 acres of the camp site of 17,500 acres. The evidence was concluded yesterday when Ernest Rogart accepted the stand to testify regarding the nature of the soil. Mr. Rogart was employed by Wright & Barr, real estate agents, and said that 80 per cent of the trees planted by the company on the land before it was sold to the government had died.

Chicago, May 18.—President Comiskey of the Chicago Americans, in denying reports today that he was negotiating with William Carrigan, former manager of the Boston Americans, to supplant Manager Rowland, declared he was satisfied with the showing Rowland had made and was not considering any change at present.

Louisville, Ky., May 18.—President Hickey is emphatically mistaken in his assertions, if he is correctly quoted, that the Louisville Club, tonight, when his attention was called to a statement by the club-owners of the American Association and President Barrow of the International League had been given to cancellation of the inter-league series.
 "I, myself, have personal positive knowledge that at least three club-owners are absolutely opposed to any such proposition," Mr. Wathen said.
 The following players will line up for Barrow's Football Club against Dunlop's: Ross, Knox, Martin, Birch, Bolton, Poole, Gray, Donaldson, Mason, McGowan, Barrow.

Chicago, May 18.—Cancellation of the inter-league series between the clubs of the American Association and the International League was made with the consent of six club-owners in the association and President Barrow of the International League, according to a statement made tonight by President Hickey of the American Association.
 Explaining President Barrow's denial of the cancellation, Hickey admitted that he had announced the action before the time agreed on, but declared quick action was necessary.
 "I had agreed to keep the matter secret until Sunday," President Hickey said, "until after the meeting of the International League club-owners, but because we were obliged to draft a new schedule so hurriedly, I had to call off the series at once. It couldn't be helped."
 The new schedule of seventy-seven games must be drafted by Sunday for consideration of the club-owners. It will be adopted by a mail vote.

INTIMATE PHOTOS OF THE FIGHTING

Official Pictures of Somme Battle Now on View Here. MANY RECOGNIZABLE Toronto Citizens Will Likely See Many Friends in Action.

Next to a visit and cordial grasp of the hand of our friends, there is nothing quite so satisfying as the speaking photo, the eyes of which look right into ours, the smile and pose so natural that we exclaim, "Why, one would think they are just going to speak!"

The pictures, many of which are almost life-size, have been loaned by the Canada War Records, and are to be shown in the gallery of the reference library, College street, under the auspices of the Women's Patriotic League, assisted by other societies.

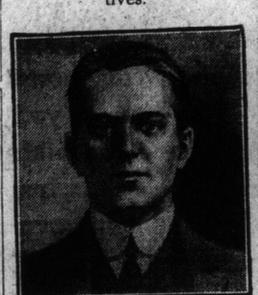

Major Boehm, who has just returned from overseas, has charge of the presentation of the photographs of what the Canadians have been doing in France during the months which have made the greatest epoch in the annals of the world, photos so graphic and so natural that they require no credits outside of themselves to make clear to all who will see them that they are what they are said to be—pictures taken during the very time of the happening of the things they represent.

SEVEN YEARS' TORTURE

Nothing Helped Him Until He Took "Fruit-a-tives."

ALBERT VARNER Buckingham, Que., May 3, 1915. For seven years I suffered terribly from Severe Headaches and Indigestion. I had belching gas from the stomach, bitter stuff would come up into my mouth after eating, while at times I had nausea and vomiting, and had chronic Constipation. I went to several doctors and wrote to a specialist in Boston, but without benefit. I tried many remedies, but nothing did me good. Finally, a friend advised "Fruit-a-tives." I took this grand fruit medicine and it made me well. I am grateful to "Fruit-a-tives," and to everyone who has miserable health with Constipation and Indigestion and Bad Stomach. I say take "Fruit-a-tives," and you will get well.

ALBERT VARNER, 51c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At dealers or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

the lines and wires plainly visible; the picture of a "tank," which was secured by The Daily Mirror of London and for which five thousand pounds was paid. The turret of Major Knight of the Eaton machine gun battery, is a picture of mournful interest, the sorrowful faces of the men grouped about the soldier who is shown "a warrior taking his rest," expressing the deep regret as the death of one of Canada's brave sons.

A Devastated Country. Among the great lessons of the pictures is that of the almost incredible developments which modern science has attained in the art of warfare. Where the houses of Arras or Ypres are in ruins and the partially standing walls looking down upon heaps of splinters and stones below, the visitor is told that these are places where the British and the German soldiers fought. But in the dry, bald, scorched ground, there is nothing to mark that a town ever stood there except a few bedraggled trunks of trees. All else has been simply pulverized—houses, churches, every material object on ground to which enemy fire. The area upon which the battle of the Somme was fought—a stretch of country fifty miles by six—has nothing now to tell the story of the struggle in which a million and a half men have since been counted as casualties. There is nothing visible in the photograph except the chippy, leafless ground and the few gaunt sentinal trees.

The pictures tell a fascinating story, and all Toronto will have a chance to see them. The children of the schools will go at certain hours each day, arrangements having been made with the board of education. At the formal opening on Monday a bowl for voluntary offerings for the Canada War Records will give an opportunity for any wishing to contribute. To returned men the exhibit will be open at all times.

HANLAN'S POINT. Sunday afternoon Hanlan's Point will be officially opened for the summer when the Governor-General's Body Guard band, which has been engaged for the occasion, will render a program of the latest popular airs, together with the new military music. The same program will be given every afternoon and evening. Boats will leave the ferry docks every few minutes.

BRITAIN DEPENDS ON U. S. FOR FOOD

Lord Devonport Looks to Washington for Guidance in Problems.

TO CONTROL BREWING Compulsory Rationing of the United Kingdom Will Probably Be Avoided.

London, May 18.—Great Britain is depending on the United States for food supplies, at least for the next two months, until the harvest, said Baron Devonport in a statement today. The food controller emphasized that Great Britain's reliance was in her cousins across the sea, and he pinned the statement down with the crisp remark that "America is our sheet anchor."

Baron Devonport expressed hearty concurrence in the plan of Herbert C. Hoover for establishing control of supplies in the United States and turning foodstuffs to the allies through controlling bodies in the entente countries. Great Britain was only awaiting to hear what action had been taken in the United States before instituting measures here to insure the success of the plan. The belief was expressed by Baron Devonport that this was the only way to make sure of supplies and control prices.

May Stop Beer Brewing. Discussing the much agitated subject of a continuing beer shortage, Baron Devonport said the matter was entirely out of his department, but that he knew the war cabinet was seriously considering the problem to determine whether there should be prohibition, government control, or a continuance of manufacture as at present. He pointed out that there had been no grain milled since he took control of cereals in February, and said the supplies of malt would be exhausted by November.

Kennedy Jones, director of food economy, who was present and participated in the interview, expressed the personal opinion that Great Britain was drifting to governmental control of brewing. He believed the government would regulate the sale of beer and allocate it to sections where it was needed by laborers in heavy work, such as mining and munition making.

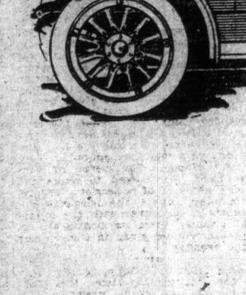

Mr. Jones declared that the country was responding magnificently to the appeal for voluntary rationing, and said that the consumption of breadstuffs and other vital necessities had been reduced so soon that compulsory rationing probably would be avoided. While the interview was in progress an order was issued by the food ministry reducing the amount of sugar allowed to confectioners to 25 per cent. of the amount used in 1915. The amount previously had been reduced to 40 per cent.

RUSSIANS REPULSE DENSE ENEMY ATTACK Heavy Formations of Germans Strive to Win Near Kovel. Petrograd, May 18.—The war office report reads: "In the direction of Kovel in the region of Khatyn, the enemy conducted an intense mine and bomb-throwing fire against our trenches. In the direction of Vidmir-Volynsk in the region of Shel'vov, last night, dense enemy formations attempted a sweeping attack on our positions on one of our sectors, but were repulsed by our rifle, machine gun, and artillery barrage fire. On the rest of the front there have been fusillades and sporadic reconnaissances.

Rumanian front: There has been no firing. "Caucasian front: An attempt of a Turkish company to attack from the direction of Ognoli was repelled by our fire. "The Kurds are attacking our posts, but are being repulsed, and mauling our dead in a ferocious manner."

GERMANY ALARMED OVER FUTURE MARKET Scare Created in Banking Circles Over Imperial Conference Spreads in Land. Canadian Associated Press Cable. London, May 18.—The following appeared in The Rheinisch Westphaelische Zeitung, one of the most violently anti-American of the big industrial papers. The interest of the article is in the fact that it shows the scare regarding Germany after the war trade, which started in the banking circles, is now spreading in annexationist, industrial and socialist ranks.

England having failed to achieve the military defeat of Germany and thereby eliminate us from the world, does not despair of achieving the end by other means. She has therefore summoned an imperial conference which will be the subject of contracting an all British anti-German customs union with its colonies. When the first Paris conference took place we did not think much could come of it on account of the many rival interests drawn into the orbit to make united action impossible. If, however, England now succeeds in uniting an imperial customs union against us the matter becomes one of extreme gravity for Germany, for thereby a uniformly directed economic hegemony will be created which, on account of its weight, will draw into its orbit a number of the smaller states, where resources will be used to the common end. This will be tantamount to a thousandfold if America throws in her weight by deciding to join hands with the old country for the defeat of the common enemy.

WEST GROWS IN POPULATION. Ottawa, May 18.—The census and statistics office announces that the population of Manitoba, as shown by the census taken as of June 1, 1916, was 553,860, compared with 491,840 in 1911, and of Alberta 496,117, compared with 374,563 in 1911. The results of the census of Saskatchewan, taken on the same date, will be issued shortly.

The Receiver.

Here a Bell receiver is taken apart. The carpiece has been removed and the diaphragm slipped aside to show the little magnets.

More than two hundred feet of copper wire, less than an hundredth of an inch in diameter and carefully wrapped with silk, are wound around these two magnets which cause the diaphragm to vibrate in front of them and so reproduce the distant speech.

When the receiver is crashed upon the hook with a bang, a connection may be jarred loose or the hard rubber itself may crack.

You can help to safeguard the quality of your service by care in replacing the receiver.

Remember your heroes!

After six days in the trenches—'Thank God for the Y.M.C.A.'

A BRAVE young Canuck writes of his long weary hours in cold, wet trenches: 'Of course you think you understand what I am talking about, but if you want to realize it, instead of going to bed, just take your overcoat and go outside and sleep some night!'

'Why, the first question a fellow asks when he goes into a town is, 'Where is the 'Y'?' They send us hot soup up the line. I tell you it's good when you have been standing in one place for two hours, chilled to the bone, expecting a machine gun to be turned on you any minute! Then you can say 'Thank God for the Y.M.C.A.''

$200,000 In Three Days May 21, 22, 23 is being asked for in Toronto

Of the amount raised, $15,000 will be devoted to the Dominion Council of the Young Women's Christian Association for their war work. Let everyone give according to his or her means.

What if the colossal struggle were being enacted within reach of Canadian homes! How the hearts of Canadian mothers, fathers, sisters, brothers and friends would leap to the task of letting no day go by without its flood of comforts and encouragement into the trenches—for they're needed every day.

All too few are the remembrances it is possible to send to far away battlefields. What a glorious privilege you have of teaching your precious boys through the work of the Y.M.C.A., whose protecting influence is everywhere.

Somewhere in France the other day a captain and three men came out of battle to the ever-present Y.M.C.A. hut and said they wanted to learn how to pray and live the Christian life. The captain shook his head. He could not make a prayer. Then the captain remembered the only prayer he knew, 'Now I lay me down to sleep.' As they prayed their comrade passed away. So they turned to the Y.M.C.A. for guidance.

Can you, in your cheery home, read of the heroic deeds of the Canadians without realizing your personal debt to every Canadian soldier? He risks his all, endures to the utmost, while those at home live in a protected land smiling with prosperity.

In every military camp from the Atlantic to the Pacific, Y.M.C.A. secretaries and trained workers are busy looking after your boy's welfare. The Canadian Y.M.C.A. work alone should be worthy of your generous support, for from the time your boy enlists, the Y.M.C.A. centre is always convenient, and the workers ever ready to help him start right in his new and perilous career.

If the Y.M.C.A. representatives do not reach you personally, send your offering by cheque, post office order or registered letter to Treasurer of Y.M.C.A. Military Committee (address below). No matter where you are located this advertisement appeals to you.

Write for illustrated paper giving extended reports of Y.M.C.A. activities, soldiers' stories and letters from the front.

Glimpses of Y.M.C.A. Service to Soldiers

There are over fifty branches of the Canadian Y.M.C.A. in France. More than 80 military secretaries supervising the work overseas. More than 500 Y.M.C.A. helpers serving the soldiers in every camp in Canada and abroad. Y.M.C.A. centre in every training camp. 60,000 or 70,000 cups of tea and coffee; biscuits, etc., given to soldiers free every day in France. Millions of sheets of letter paper and envelopes distributed in England, France and Canada. (Soldiers induced to write home frequently.) Hundreds of thousands of new and old magazines and newspapers distributed free. Warm shelter in cheery huts. Circulating libraries in many branches. Errands for the soldiers—sending money, cables, messages, etc. Supplies many necessities and luxuries at minimum cost; any surplus devoted to comforts for the soldiers. Testaments circulated. Snapshots of folks at home sent to the Tommies. Photographs—often taken right into trenches—film and gramophone record exchange.

Wonderful Skin and Wrinkle Removers

The method of removing bad complexion by absorption seems to have been generally used in this country. Ordinary cream, and even more highly refined cream, gradually absorbs the coarse, faded or discolored outer skin in all most invisible particles. Soon there is a younger, healthier complexion, formed by the jetic or artificial treatment can possibly remove formulae. Thousands have also reported great success with the famous saskite wrinkle-removing formula. A face wash, the effect is almost magical. The deepest wrinkles and crowfeet, as well as the finest lines, disappear as if by magic. No one need hesitate to try the simple lotion, as it won't harm any skin.

CONSIDER AMENDED PLAN TO BRIDGE THE RAVINE

Works and Finance Commissioners Will Report on Proposed Work. Following a conference between the board of control, Chief Engineer Fairbairn of the C. P. R., H. H. Williams, Finance Commissioner Bradshaw, City Railway and Bridge Engineer McCarthy and Aid. Ald. instructions were given Works Commissioner Harris and Finance Commissioner Bradshaw to report on an amended plan for bridging the Summerhill avenue ravine in connection with the C. P. R.'s double-tracking plans. Mr. Fairbairn submitted the amended plan for the railway company and stated that it was willing to construct a new three-track reinforced concrete bridge instead of that ordered by the railway commissioners. It would cost $40,000 more than the structure named in the order. The company suggested that if the city would consent to build a subway on the east side to conform to the plan of the city, it would be willing to ask the railway board to adjust the amount to be paid toward the cost of the subway. A consequence would be the elimination of the level crossing at the west end. Mr. Fairbairn advised the city to take quick action and if arrangements are perfected the company will proceed with the construction of the bridge and the level crossing will remain in the meantime. The city would not be called upon at present to do anything more than lay down a policy, and the company would make the necessary grades and other provisions for carrying out the plan. Mayor Church was strongly in sympathy with the plan and urged an agreement with the C. P. R. Aid. Ball also strongly advocated the work and declared that it was the best method of giving relief to the residents of Moore Park district. New Muskoka Train Via Grand Trunk Railway System. Mrs. Franklin Johnston presided, and it was reported that there are forty cases in need of big sisters, for whom active workers were asked. DR. J. M. JOHNSTON ACQUITTED. After deliberating for seven minutes the jury in the criminal sessions court before Judge Coatsworth in the city hall last evening returned a verdict acquitting Dr. J. M. LOOK AHEAD NEW TORONTO GREATER TORONTO'S INDUSTRIAL SUBURB NEW TORONTO IS PROSPEROUS

The Council of New Toronto have been active in the past year and secured large industries. Factories are being built and schools enlarged. New Toronto is over-populated today with mechanics. Brown's Copper and Brass Rolling Mills are housing a large number of men in their own buildings. The majority are compelled to live in Toronto. With conditions such as these the men cannot spend much time with their families, and how about the hundreds more that will come when the Goodvear Tire & Rubber Company and the Du Pont Fabrikoid Company commence operations, which will be within the next month or two.

New Toronto is rapidly completing its sewer, water, light services and sidewalks, and the Toronto-Hamilton Boulevard with the cement roadway twenty-four feet wide passes in front of all our properties.

500 HOUSES

Housing conditions are serious and Real Estate is bound to feel the effect of prosperity. New Toronto requires five hundred houses. More land has been sold in New Toronto in the last year than in any other section in or around Toronto. Many houses have already been erected and some fifty more are now in course of construction on lots purchased by our clients who have looked ahead. Two banks have opened their offices and one other has purchased a location.

BUY NOW

Now is the time to buy while prices are low, terms easy and conditions right. All our land is in the active belt, right on the car line with a twenty-minute service, forty minutes from King and Yonge Streets. Buy now and reap a harvest. New Toronto's Growth is Here. Take Lake Shore car at Sunnyside to Stop No. 21, where our offices are located. Courteous salesmen will be pleased to show you over the property. Overcoats $13.95

Regular $18.00 and $20.00.

Could we divulge the name of the maker from whom these handsome coats were purchased you would readily appreciate the importance of this sale. When it is considered that the materials from which they are developed are choice English coatings and covert cloths you will understand that they are also well made, for good tailoring and good materials go hand in hand.

The English coatings come in light greys and light browns in rich subdued shades. Covert cloths in plain fawn, of course.

Tailored to the minute, they correctly interpret the slip-on style—the loose-back style—the pinch-back style, and the more conservative modes.

Just such coats as cool summer evenings demand. Light enough in texture to carry over the arm without being cumbersome.

8.30 shopping is advised, as better choice is naturally afforded those who come first. Regular $18.00 and $20.00 values. Sizes 34 to 42. On sale this morning at 13.95

Men's Suits $14.95

Regular $20.00, $22.00 and $25.00 Values.

To be exact there are 150 suits, all new—all expertly hand-tailored—all painstakingly finished, embracing fine imported English worsteds and Saxony finished tweeds, as well as suits of genuine mill finished indigo serges (not many of the latter material).

The styles are the most popular kind—handsome "belt sac" and "pinch-back" models for the young men, and "standard" tailored suits for the regular men and stout men.

Some are quarter lined, and show piped seams; others lined throughout. A special purchase of cancelled orders, overmakes and unshipped specials—from a famous maker.

So seldom do special purchases present themselves these ruffled market days that anxious men who wish to save a 5 to 10 spot on the Holiday Suit or Coat purchase may regard this sale as one of the season's rarest opportunities. Sizes 34 to 44.

Come at 8.30 and you may have the unrestricted choice of the entire purchase; $20.00, $22.00 or $25.00. This morning, 8.30 14.95
