Mixed Reception For Shake-up in Cabinet

London Press Comment on Government Changes

One Appointment Spectacular

That of Sir Eric Geddes to Head British Admiralty—Churchill Criticized and Nowhere is Received Enthusiastically—Tones Deplore removal of Carson

New York, July 18.—An Associated Press cable from London says: "The new cabinet appointments get a mixed reception in the morning newspapers. The majority, however, are indignant at the removal of Carson, and are disappointed at the appointment of Sir Eric Geddes to head the Admiralty."

The selection of Sir Eric Campbell Geddes, who has been director-general of the munitions supply, to head the Admiralty is a personal object of displeasure were disgruntled at his admission into the innermost ministerial sanctum. The reception on Winston Spencer Churchill, who succeeds Dr. Christopher Addison as minister of munitions, is nowhere enthusiastic. The Morning Post, after a lukewarm reference to Sir Eric Campbell Geddes and a vitriolic attack on Edwin Samuel Montagu, the new secretary for India, says of Churchill: "Although we have as yet not invented an adjective which has discovered an unusable politician and refers to his 'colossal blunders and over-reaching conceit.'"

The Daily News says Churchill has shown courage in accepting the post of minister of munitions, saying: "There are various kinds of courage. Some of them are virtues."

Elsewhere Churchill's enthusiasm, push and ingenuity are recognized by writers who nevertheless doubt his suitability as minister of munitions where the theory of dividing labor in the production of munitions complicates the duties of the post in a manner which it is feared Churchill is unequipped to handle. The Times says the country is not in a mood to tolerate an attempt to resuscitate amateur strategy. The Daily News says Churchill has shown courage in accepting the post of minister of munitions, saying: "There are various kinds of courage. Some of them are virtues."

NEW CHINESE PRESIDENT

Li Yuan Hung Quits and Acting President Steps Up

Washington, July 18.—The accession of Acting President Fen Kwo Chang to the presidency of China as a result of President Li Yuan Hung's decision not to resume office, has reopened a wide field of speculation here as to China's future. Feng has always been a military man and has held many offices under the old empire, but in the two great crises which recently have swept China he practically caused the defeat of the monarchists by failure to give them active support.

When Yuan Shih Kai sought to make himself emperor, Feng, as military governor of Nanking refused to march against the southern provinces which he had just taken. Yuan consequently gave up his monarchial ambitions and the movement died. Similarly, when the other military governors formed their secessionist government at Tien Tsin he refused to throw in his lot with them.

Whether or not he will continue to follow out the indicated policy of supporting a constitutional republic is conceded here to be an open question of great importance.

BETTER STREETS FOR FREDERICTON

Fredericton, July 18.—The Fredericton city council placed itself on record last night as favoring the improvement of the city streets and the expenditure of a reasonable sum for the purchase of equipment and the construction of gravel streets. The street committee is to submit a detailed report before action is taken.

There was a long and at times a sharp discussion and divergent views of two sections of the council finally were reconciled.

The meeting was primarily for the object of discussing Ald. McEllan's scheme of gravel streets. A large number of citizens were present.

The proposition involves the securing of a gravel pit and a steam shovel to operate in it, also a five ton motor truck with trailers, a grading machine and scarifier.

The Wheat Market Chicago, July 18.—Wheat developed firmness today on account of the prospect of speedy enactment of legislation fixing a minimum price. Trade, however, was of very limited proportions, after opening 3c higher at 1.99 3/4, the market reacted at 1.99 1/2.

RECRUITING OF BRITISHERS IN STATES PLEASES

Satisfactory, Says London, and The Quality High

THE KILTIES IN NEW YORK

Take Charge of Several Recruiting Stations—Pipers on 'Bus Tour—Highlanders to Hold Meeting on Board the "Recruit"

London, July 18.—It was said here today that the results of British recruiting in the United States had been very satisfactory and that the quality of the recruits was high.

New York, July 18.—The Canadian Highlanders who are spending this week here in the interest of the British recruiting drive took charge of several recruiting stations in Madison Square, Union Square and City Hall Park today to stimulate recruiting for the British and Canadian armies. Recruiting officers for the United States army said that the "Kilties have done much to aid recruiting for the American forces during the few days they have been in the city."

While some of the Highlanders were urging British subjects to enlist at the various recruiting stations, members of the famous band and the pipers rode in different parts of the city on motor buses, giving impromptu concerts en route. Tonight the Highlanders will take part in a special meeting on the land battleship Recruit in Union Square, when 100 United States army "rookies" will be given a send-off before leaving the city.

For a few hours yesterday the Kilties surrounded them everywhere they went. Throngs then deep watched them march down Broad street in the early afternoon and almost stopped the progress of the Highlanders and the 800 New Jersey guardsmen who were their escort. The police were swamped in the rush and only when a score of motor cyclists rode in front of the troops to the city hall.

At nine o'clock the men of the two Canadian commands returned to New York, their send-off was one of the outstanding features of the day. Between 10 and 11 o'clock the men of the Highland contingents said as guests of the city, while their officers and Brigadier-General White were entertained at the Essex Club.

GERMANS LOSING HEART

Prussian War Minister Tries to Prop up Their Tottering Courage

Amsterdam, July 18.—Many Germans have become fainthearted, says Gen. Von Steh, Prussian war minister as quoted by the General Anzeiger of Dusseldorf. Replying to a telegram from the German National Union, expressing confidence in him, he gave the following advice: "Every one should possess confidence in the future greatness of Germany. Every one should endeavor to give an example of self-renunciation and sacrifice, and to make selfish and fainthearted persons ashamed of themselves."

COUNTRY ROADS, TOO. The jurisdiction of the city department of public works extends not only to the paved and unpaved city streets, but also over a considerable stretch of country roads, chiefly located in Stanley ward. Since spring the department has been at work on these roads, making necessary repairs and they are now in fair shape, although Commissioner Fisher says that he would like to see them much better. Among the principal roads are those to Millidgeville, Sandy Point and Ashburn Lake. One feature of the work which has cost money this year is the replacing of a large number of culverts in the Sandy Point road.

MICHAELIS BUT PAVING WAY TO DICTATORSHIP

Ludendorff, Says Berlin Reports, Will Have Supreme Control—Speculation as to Tomorrow's Speech

BRITISH "GOT" NEARLY ALL THEM

Another German Merchantman Trying to Run Blockade Wrecked

Attempt to Get 30 More Steamers Home From Rotterdam Given Up—Unlikely That Dutch Neutrality Has Been Violated by British

Ymuiden, Holland, July 17.—The German merchantman Magdalena Blumenthal, which went ashore of Zandvoort while attempting to run the British blockade from Rotterdam to Germany, is a total wreck. The crew, one of whose members was wounded, has been landed. The Blumenthal was one of the seventeen German merchantmen which put out from Rotterdam, most of which were either stranded or sunk or captured by British destroyers.

London, July 18.—The allegations in Dutch newspapers that part of Monday's encounter between British destroyers and German merchantmen occurred in Dutch territorial waters is generally discredited in naval circles here. The only report thus far received at the admiralty comes from commandoes of British forces in the action, in the form of wireless submarines, the substance of which was covered yesterday's official statement. The complete reports, when received, are expected to clear up the matter satisfactorily.

It has been announced from Rotterdam that Germany has decided to lay up its steamers there instead of attempting to run them home through the sea lane.

London, July 19.—Telegrams from an unnamed east coast port where the German ships were brought after being captured by British destroyers in the North Sea, says they are all trim, serviceable craft, manned by a dozen to eighteen men. They contain valuable cargoes of coal, coke and provisions.

An unconfirmed report says one of the steamers in the Great Eastern Railway fleet was captured by the Germans after his capture in June of last year.

A despatch from Amsterdam says steamers are constantly plying between Rotterdam and Hamburg, carrying provisions and German coal. The latter is sent by the Rhine to Rotterdam, whence it is shipped to Hamburg in order to relieve congestion on German railroads.

FINANCIAL RELATIONS OF CANADA AND STATES

Hon. Mr. White in Washington—Our Imports Increase More Rapidly Than Exports

New York, July 18.—A special despatch from Washington to the Tribune this morning says: "The general financial situation between Canada and the United States growing out of the commercial relations between the two countries was discussed at a conference between the secretary of the treasury and Sir Thomas White, Canadian minister of finance, today. Sir Thomas said that 'until quite recently exchange has been normal between the two countries, but lately it has gone slightly adverse to Canada. The reason is that during April and May Canadian excesses of imports from the United States over exports to the United States have more than proportionately increased. For April and May the excess was more than double what it was for April and May 1916. The situation could be readily remedied by a loan or loans in the United States.'

MRS. EDWIN W. VANWART Many friends of Mrs. Edwin W. Vanwart of Wickham, N. B., will regret to hear of her death, which took place in this city this morning after an illness of nearly twelve months. Mrs. Vanwart was a daughter of Howard and Phoebe Cameron of Kars, Kings county. Besides her husband, who is employed at the McAvity works, Marsh road, she is survived by three boys and one girl. The funeral service will be held at the residence of her sister, Mrs. J. W. Foster, 274 Waterloo street, at eight a. m. on Thursday, after which the body will be removed to Wickham for burial.

Referring to the Brown frauds, the commissioners stated there was evidence that such frauds were started for campaign funds or that any part of the proceeds were applied to any such purposes.

So far as the proceeds of fraudulent checks received and retained by Lindsey are concerned, the commissioners find that the evidence does not warrant coming to any other conclusion than that they were appropriated to his own private purposes.

The commissioners censure Mr. McPherson for acting in the dual capacity of chairman of the highway board and shareholder in the contracting company, but state that neither the minister, Mr. Carpenter, and acting chairman, nor any other official of the government was aware at the time or until some time after the claims had been adjusted, that Mr. McPherson was a shareholder of the company.

AMSTERDAM, JULY 18

According to news brought by arrivals from Berlin in Liberal circles there is that Chancellor Michaelis is merely a stop-gap who will prepare the way for something in the way of a dictatorship with General Ludendorff in supreme control.

London, July 18.—A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Berlin, via Amsterdam, announces that Chancellor Michaelis has asked the president of the Reichstag to summon Thursday afternoon's session for a "communication from the government."

Copenhagen, July 18.—The German chancellor's speech is not expected to go exhaustively into questions of reform or peace as the time is too short for Chancellor Michaelis to elaborate a definite programme. The socialist agency reports that in all probability he will ask six weeks' grace to inform himself and work out a detailed policy. The agency, undoubtedly speaking for Herr Scheideemann, socialist leader, demands, however, that Herr Michaelis immediately and unequivocally make clear his attitude on the Freestaende franchise reform and the peace formula.

The Lokai Anzeiger also reckons with a deferred presentation of the chancellor's programme and instances the question of parliamentarizing the government as one of the problems that Herr Michaelis will avoid because it cannot be approached until after exhaustive discussion by the federal government.

It appears unnecessary for Chancellor Michaelis to burn his fingers with this question as the Catholic Centre party has already changed sides and explains in an inspired article in the clerical papers that the party interpretation of parliamentarism is merely the bringing of the government and parliament into intimate touch—not the introduction of a parliamentary regime which the centre is now as always opposed. The centre merely wishes to change the system that at present makes a member of parliament from entering the government. The national liberals have also adopted a "sober liberal" theory.

Voorwaerts' Warning The papers manifest some uncertainty regarding the fate of the Reichstag's peace resolution. The radical and social organs insist that it will have a big majority although they evidently are counting on some decidedly unexpected votes. They fear, however, that Chancellor Michaelis will refuse to accept it as a basis of his policy.

UNREST IN GERMANY IS ON THE INCREASE

Heavy Sentences in Dusseldorf Food Riot Cases Stir People

Copenhagen, July 18.—A despatch from Dusseldorf says that the state of rage there, the result of food riots, has been tending to increase since the heavy sentences averaging eight months, as a result of labor meeting vigorous protests were made against the severity of the sentences. Suspension of the sentences of children and minors and guarantees against reduction of the bread ration were demanded.

ROYAL COMMISSION IN REGINA REPORTS

Regina, July 18.—The Wetmore report, at commission, which has been investigating the highways-branch of the provincial government, has issued its final report and submitted it to the government.

Referring to the Brown frauds, the commissioners stated there was evidence that such frauds were started for campaign funds or that any part of the proceeds were applied to any such purposes.

So far as the proceeds of fraudulent checks received and retained by Lindsey are concerned, the commissioners find that the evidence does not warrant coming to any other conclusion than that they were appropriated to his own private purposes.

Finally the bill will present the Keystone two-reel scream, "Her Circus Knight."

FEDERAL JURY FREES ACCUSED COAL MEN

Not One of 55 Individuals and 108 Corporations Indicted
Found Culpable

$1,000,000 Paid to Lawyers—Next to the New Haven Case, the Most Costly Ever Tried in New York District

After deliberating nearly twenty-four hours the jury in the government's prosecution of the smokeless coal operators for alleged violation of the Sherman law appeared before Judge Grubb in the Federal District Court late yesterday afternoon, says the New York Sunday Times, and gave joy to the numerous defendants with a verdict of not guilty. The verdict did not surprise those who had followed the trial. When it was shown that the defendants could not be held liable for the price fixing involved in the case, it was practically conceded that there would be no conviction.

The indictment was originally against fifty-five individuals and 108 corporations, but the number of defendants was reduced to forty-one individuals and seventy corporations by dismissals during the trial, by requests for separate trials, and by the death of one defendant. Counsel for the government did what they could to procure convictions, because they believed that the case was of vast importance to the public. Frank M. Swacker, one of the government's lawyers, said:

"These defendants are personally worth between $200,000,000 and $300,000,000, in addition to their interests in the various corporations with which they are connected. The trial has cost more than any other trial in this district since the possible exception of the New Haven case. I think it was of even greater importance than the New Haven suit."

It was estimated that the fifteen lawyers employed by the defendants received retainers aggregating about $1,000,000. The prosecution was conducted by Mr. Swacker, Robert P. Stephenson, John Love O'Brien and Isaac R. Oeland, whose services and all other costs to the people will not exceed $500,000. As an incident to show it was said that a map of the smokeless coal districts in this country, which covers a large part of the court room walls, cost more than $1,000, and that the minutes of the trial, testimony of experts, etc., cost more than $40,000.

John B. Stanchfield of counsel for the defense made this comment on the verdict:

"These men were as innocent of wrongdoing as any set of men in this country. They will now go back to their homes without a stigma, and they will mine coal day and night to help the country in this time of stress. I am sure the jurors will never have cause to regret their action."

Mr. Oeland described the verdict as "unfortunate for the country. It is regrettable that men who have interests in a national product should be able to make an agreement concerning prices without being punished for it. I believe we proved our case; the defendants raised the price of coal from $1.85 to $3, and that their excuse of an increase of about 15 per cent. They increased the price therefore more than 100 per cent while their outlay increased very little."

Mr. Oeland thought the verdict was caused by the term "unreasonable" as applied to restraint of trade.

Trial of the bunker coal producers for alleged violation of the Sherman law may begin this week.

THE NEW GERMAN CHANCELLOR

Dr. Georg Michaelis, successor to von Bethmann-Hollweg as the imperial German chancellor, was little known to the public outside of Germany until his appointment last February as special commissioner on food questions with the rank of minister.

The son of a Prussian official, he was born on Sept. 8, 1857, in Eysa, Silesia, and received a university education, making the law his profession. In 1879 he became a court referee in Berlin, and in 1885 was attached to the district attorney's office in that city. Several years later he went as professor of law and political economy to the University of Tokio.

Returning to Germany in 1889 he was chosen district attorney for Berlin. His services won much praise and he was afterward sent by the government as an official to the provisional government at Treves, Germany. In 1897 he was transferred to Westphalia, where he was chief councillor for the government. In 1900 he was made provisional president of the state in the department of finance and in 1902 first privy councillor in Breslau. His work there won him an appointment as under secretary of state in the department of finance with his work as food commissioner.

In the latter capacity he issued frequent warnings to the German people to economize with their food. "Keep the belt pulled tight," was one of his first admonitions, and as late as March he declared that drastic measures must be taken if the empire expected to hold out another year. Bread tickets, he said, exhausted. A similar warning was issued as recently as June 23, when he said that "bread, not bullets, will win the war." He has been called "the Hoover of Germany."

A House of Mystery

Elmoot, Shadyhanger, Godalming, the home for many years of Lieut.-Colonel William Sedgwick, R.R. (retired), was a house of mystery. Colonel Sedgwick, who was a writer on scientific and theological subjects, had for sole companion for seven or eight years a bull terrier, and no one else was allowed to enter the house. The gardener, who had been employed by the colonel for five years, had never been allowed inside; all the garden gates were heavily padlocked and the doors bolted. The gardener had not seen his employer for some days, and called a member of the town council to his assistance. The house was entered, and Colonel Sedgwick, who was seventy-five years of age, was found dead. The bull terrier stood over his body, and had to be shot.

POLITICAL RUMORS

Chief Justice McLeod to Retire and Hon. J. D. Hazen Go to Bench

Fredericton, N. B., July 18.—Despatches from the Dominion capital, which indicate that a Dominion election is to be held in the not distant future, have received reports of the retirement of Sir Ezekiel McLeod from the office of chief justice of the supreme court of New Brunswick. He himself has been quoted as saying that he had expressed a desire to retire from the office, but had been asked to remain until arrangements for the appointment of his successor had been completed.

The general supposition is that Hon.
J. D. Hazen, ex-premier of New Brunswick and minister of marine and successful member of parliament and successful Sir Ezekiel in the chief justiceship. It also is reported that Hon. Mr. Hazen may go to the supreme court of Canada and not to the New Brunswick bench.

We weren't getting enough Local Business

Far away from home we were cleaning up. In fact business was great with the salesmen on the road.

But at home where it was easy for us to handle a big volume, our business amounted to next to nothing. And there was no reason why our product shouldn't be as saleable right in our own town as in any other.

I found out the reason. We weren't going after it. We expected it to come in unsolicited. So I concluded that what we needed were some live wire city salesmen. But where were we to get them? Ah! A clever hunch! A want ad. in the Times-Star will find them. So we put in an ad. which cost only a trifling amount.

It worked fine. I had many applicants.

POTATOES AT THIRTY CENTS A BUSHEL
How things have changed is illustrated by what follows. Only a few years ago many a good housewife at Summerside would have turned down an offer of potatoes at thirty cents a bushel
as an exorbitant and iniquitous proposition on the part of the would-be vendor. Only a few days ago one of such good housewives, of whom there are still a few remaining in spite of the march of events, turned down an offer of potatoes at thirty cents a bushel through conscientious scruples, of which it would appear there are also some remaining, in spite of the times in which we live. The price seemed so ridiculously cheap that she feared the farmer offering them for sale could not have come by them through the honest sweat of his own brow.—Summerside Journal.

THE COMING ELECTIONS

Canada is to elect a new house of commons. The elections will be held within the next three months. The campaign will be marked by unusual bitterness, but it will help to clear the air.

Whatever position there may have been with regard to a union government and the extension of the parliamentary term, the country is now faced with the question whether the Borden government is worthy of a new lease of power, or whether a new government should be called upon to mobilize the resources of Canada along the lines suggested by Hon. Mr. Graham's resolution which was as follows:

"That the consideration of the terms of the said resolution should be deferred until the government brings before parliament measures providing that those able to pay will be asked to contribute their full share to the cost of the war, and by which all agricultural, industrial, transportation and natural resources of Canada will be organized to the extent possible assistance to the empire and the war and to reduce the cost of living to the Canadian people."

It goes without saying that the Conservative press and speakers will use the loyalty cry to the limit. The St. John Standard lingers up to the fray by referring in its issues to "disloyal Liberal partisans," "liberal reactionists," and a "nest of traitors." These expressions, from a journal which quite recently described the same men as loyal to the core, because they then endorsed Sir Robert Borden's conscription bill, are the evidence of its rage and disappointment because they now want Sir Robert to go a good deal farther than the mere conscription of men.

It is perfectly clear, however, that there will be no mere lining up of two political parties in this election contest. Public sentiment throughout the country is divided in many ways. Those who favor conscription have no guarantee that the Borden government has any real intention of enforcing the act. Those who want at least one more trial of the voluntary system are, of course, opposed to the government, and they will be in opposition to a section of each of the old parties.

One fact stands out clearly. It is that the Borden government has proved itself incapable of giving the country true leadership, and by its partisanship, its alliance with the profiteers, and its general inefficiency has brought about a situation which threatens the unity of the provinces of Canada. Within the next week or two the alignment of parties will be made more clear. If the Liberal party has its differences and difficulties, it is not alone in that respect. Whatever divisions there may be, we have heard the last of coalition until after the elections. There were Liberals who favored a union government, not evidently the conditions were not such as they could accept, and the situation has entered upon an entirely new phase.

WAR LESSONS

The present war has emphasized the importance of instilling into the minds of the young the principles of democracy and of patriotism. An American journal says: "During the Civil War many of the worst enemies that the armies had to fight were those back home where the soldiers came from. Every movement to raise money, every attempt to increase enlistment and every effort to alleviate the sufferings of those at the front met the obstacle of indifference or open opposition. Then as now there were persons who were willing to stay at home and profit to the greatest possible extent from the high prices incident to the war but who were unwilling to make a single sacrifice for their country's benefit. Others were opposed to the war for causes that they professed to deem honorable and patriotic. Both classes forgot or were unable to see that their opposition instead of shortening the war was extending it, and that instead of being patriots in their opposition they were for all practical purposes traitors."

New Members Of British Cabinet

Churchill Back and Sir Eric Geddes and Edwin Samuel Montagu Join Government. London, July 17—Sir Edward Carson has relinquished his post as first lord of the admiralty, and joined the war cabinet without portfolio, according to an official announcement of new ministerial appointments issued this evening. Sir Edward will be succeeded by Sir Eric Campbell Geddes, who has been director-general of munitions supply.

Edwin Samuel Montagu, a former cabinet minister, is made secretary for India. Major-General Sir Eric Geddes, the new first lord of the admiralty, was only recently appointed director-general of transportation, with the rank of vice-admiral. When a transport officer makes the British sea of him "the greatest transport officer since Noah," Geddes, one of the ablest administrators in the ministry of munitions, was sent last autumn to reorganize the railway transport behind the Somme battle front. He did so extraordinarily well there that both quotation and promotion to undertake his present world-wide task are justified. He has recently been given special mention in General Haig's review of the winter campaign.

It Made a Difference. This story is told in Clay Centre: A negro was in the police court charged with a petty theft. He denied having committed the crime. The judge said: "But see here, Sam, Mr. J. is a man of very high repute, says he saw you here. The darky looked surprised. 'Did Mr. J. say he saw me?' 'M-m-m. Well, then, that's different.'"—Kansas City Star.

SOLDIER AND WIFE ON ARMY TRANSPORT

Woman Clad as a "Sammie" Found After Three Days on Trip to France

Comes Back a Prisoner—Corporal Said to Have Brought His Bride All the Way From Arizona

An Atlantic Port, July 18.—A young woman attired in khaki and with her black hair cut short returned to the United States this week as a military prisoner after an unsuccessful attempt to pass as an American soldier. The woman is said to be the bride of a corporal who, having been married just before the first American army left for France, smuggled his wife aboard the vessel. The woman left America with a regiment from Douglas, Ariz. The name of the pseudo-soldier was withheld. The corporal is said to have got his bride past the embarkation officers as a member of his squad. With her dark hair clipped short and somewhat masculine features it was difficult to detect her identity. It was learned that the woman stowed away for three days after the transport sailed, and was discovered by the army surgeon when the corporal's squad, with others belonging to the same company, were paraded on the after deck to have their throats examined. Early the same morning there had been rumors current among the soldiers and members of the crew of the transport that a woman had stowed away on board disguised as a soldier. The surgeons were notified in the barracks and the commanding officers of the two regiments on the ship to keep a strict lookout. As soon as the woman was detected she was placed under guard in one of the after-deck cabins, and no one was allowed to communicate with her. The woman will not be released until the federal authorities have decided what is to be done with her. It could not be ascertained whether the fictitious soldier would be sent back to Douglas, or whether she would be punished for impersonating a soldier and stowing away on the transport. Army officers said that they could not understand how the disguised woman traveled with the regiment from Arizona and was billeted for several days in the barracks at the port whence the transport sailed. It was evident, they said, that all members of the corporal's squad had been in the secret and assisted in screening her from detection.

Why Wait for War to learn real food values? It is what you digest, not what you eat, that furnishes strength for the day's work. Many foods tax the digestive powers to the utmost without supplying much real nutriment. Shredded Wheat Biscuit is all food and in a form that is easily digested. It is 100 per cent. whole wheat. For breakfast, dinner or supper it takes the place of meat, eggs and potatoes. You don't know how easily you can do without meat or potatoes until you try it. Delicious with sliced bananas, berries, or other fruits, and milk. Made in Canada.

MINE OWNER, WIFE AND SON MURDERED

E. I. Humphries of Philadelphia and Family Shot While Automobiling
Business Partner in Jail—George Tompkins, Jr., Lone Survivor of Party, Told of Attack by Masked Men
Carrolltown, Penn., July 18.—Edmund I. Humphries, forty years old, of Philadelphia, general manager and part owner of the Newborn Coal Company, his wife, forty-five years old, and their son, Edmund, Jr., ten years old, were shot to death at a lonely spot on the Carrolltown road just after they had left this place in their automobile for a trip to Philadelphia. George Tompkins, Jr., of Philadelphia, formerly well known as an automobile racer, but lately a partner of Mr. Humphries in the coal mining venture, was a fourth occupant of the motor car. Unharmed by the volley of bullets that killed the Humphries family, he carried

RECENT DEATHS

Clarence W. Spence
On Friday, June 8, Clarence W. Spence another of Bayfield's most beloved and respected citizens, passed to his eternal reward. For several years Mr. Spence had been in failing health, but not until the last few weeks did the cloud fall to show the silver lining, and while his going has made many sad hearts, yet his irreproachable life and Christ-like patience have made their loss his gain, and have left behind a noble example for those who remain. The deceased leaves his wife (nee Allen) and one daughter, Thelma, also a mother, one brother, Belford, and one sister, Mrs. C. R. Trenner, all of Bayfield. A large number of friends and brother Foresters assembled at his home to pay their last respects to the departed. The Rev. J. A. Reed conducted the services at the home, reading from John 12:24, 25, and taking as his text John 12:24, 25. The Bayfield choir assisted by singing Rock of Ages, Through the Valley and the Sinner's Prayer. The body was interred in the cemetery for interment, where the Foresters performed a short service and the choir again assisted by singing Nearer My God to Thee.

A Soldier Who Made Good
Referring to the opportunities offered by the war to men who have lost their characters to make a fresh start, Sir W. Middlebrook, M.P., speaking in Leeds, told how quite recently he learnt from the lips of one of His Majesty's Judges of the case of a young man who coming up for trial for a serious offense was given the chance of enlisting so that he might retrieve his position. The judge who dealt with the case had since learnt that among some soldiers called to the presence of the king, and upon whose breasts were pinned marks of honor, was the young man who two years before had stood in the dock as a criminal.

NEAR FORGIVENESS, BUT ENDS HIS LIFE

Solomon Guggenheim Receives Cheering News From Family, Then Jumps to Death

Close to End of Resources - Nephew of Wealthy Oil Operator Had Tried to Redeem His Past by Hard Work

New York, July 18.—Solomon Guggenheim, thirty-one years old, a cigar salesman, living at the Hotel Brenobis, Seventh Avenue and Fifty-sixth street, committed suicide there by cutting both wrists and then jumping five stories to a rear court.

Through his experience as a wholesale tobacco dealer in San Francisco, Guggenheim was trying to get back on his feet again, but with little success. Recently he wrote to his uncle telling him of his progress, and on Friday night the uncle replied. The letter told the young man of the family's pride in his efforts, and when Guggenheim finished reading it he turned to Howard Quinn, the hotel clerk, and said: "That's the best news I ever received."

SENTENCE OF HANGING FOR MRS. GILLIGAN

Keeper of Aged People's Home Convicted of Poisoning Inmate

Hartford, Conn., July 17.—Mrs. Amy E. Archer-Gilligan was found guilty of murder in the first degree in the Superior Court here, and was sentenced to be hanged on Nov. 6 next. She was convicted of killing Franklin R. Andrews, a contract inmate of a home for aged people at Windsor conducted by Mrs. Archer-Gilligan, and it was charged that she killed him in order that she might be relieved of caring for him after receiving the money for his support.

Japanese Win Far Eastern Championships

Defeat Chinese and Filipinos in Great Athletic Meet; Are Good Runners

Tokyo, July 14.—The third Far Eastern championship athletic games were held here for five days, and China, the Philippines and Japan were represented. At the first championship games held at Manila in 1913, the championship went to the Philippine team, and at the second, held in Shanghai in 1915, the Chinese team won the championship. At the third Far Eastern championship games, the title went to the Japanese team.

While the championship was won by the Japanese with an overwhelming score, the Philippine team showed good form, and in the first two days a neck and neck fight was made by the two teams for the championship. But on the last day the Japanese team won 47 points in swimming events, decathlon, first place in tennis, both single and double, and carried the championship with the total score of 126 points. The Philippines were second with 78 points, and the Chinese were third with 48 points.

The Japanese took first place in volleyball and football, but lost almost all running events. However, in the three mile high jump they carried the three places. High jump and pole vault were the events in which the Chinese excelled. This, the Chinese, vaulted 10 feet 6 inches in the pole vault, but in practice he cleared 10 feet 11 inches.

The Japanese athletes are confident that in ten-mile and twenty-five-mile marathons they can compete with athletes of any nation under favorable conditions. In a twenty-five-mile marathon, held on May 12, the sixteen participants were all Japanese. Among them was Kan Hibino, member of the house of representatives, who is fifty-two years old, and Isamu Kato, a fifteen-year-old

Two recruits were secured in the city yesterday. They were: Horace Victor Richardson, London, England, C. A. S. C. and Leo John Chambers, Marysville, Royal Navy.

Stymie Rule Not Favored

Western Idea Found Wanting in Recent Championship Tournament

Chicago, July 12.—The new rule of the Western Golf Association abolishing stymies was tried and found wanting in the western amateur championship at Midolthian. The rule was changed by the Board of Directors before the final round, in which Francis Outmet yesterday won the title from Kenneth F. Eddy, winner of Chicago.

Roush, of Reds, Is a Real Comeback

The comeback story is one of the most common among the many stock baseball yarns. Somebody always is coming back and the incident invariably gets a good deal of publicity. In the syndicate stuff, "They never come back" has been often retold, as a baseball maxim, but the case of Eddie Roush, Cincinnati slugger, offers a more unusual exception. Roush had to overhaul his scheme of play most radically before he was able to get a chance to show strong nerve to even secure a hearing.

The greatest trouble of all, however, was to make anybody believe he was any good as a left-hander, and even when the Reds disbanded the impression existed that he could not possibly be whole again, but finally he secured a trial with the Giants and was traded to Cincinnati in the deal involving Christy Mathewson.

Magie Traded for Marsans.

Cleveland, Ohio, July 15—Colonel Jacob Ruppert, owner of the Yankees, before leaving here tonight for New York, announced that the deal involving the transfer of Lee Magie to the St. Louis Browns for outfielder Armando Marsans had been completed. Word to this effect reached Colonel Ruppert from President B. B. Johnson, who has been carrying on the negotiations.

Manager Donovan tonight notified Magie of the transfer and directed him to report to the Browns at once. Marsans is expected to report to the New York Club here tomorrow. According to the terms of the agreement, the owners of the Yankees are to pay the difference between the contracts of Magie and Marsans.

The latter is signed to a $4,000 contract, and Magie is working out the last year of a three-year contract calling for $25,000, or about $8,800 per season. The Yankees paid $22,500 for Magie when the Federal League blew up, and have since paid him more than $12,000 in salary. His work with the club has been very disappointing.

Racing in Ireland.

London, July 14—The stoppage of flat racing in England has taken a large number of the prominent owners, trainers and jockeys to Ireland, where the popular sport is enjoying its best season on record. Although at the time of the suspension in England an effort was made to cancel further meetings in the Emerald Isle, no interference occurred. The stewards of the Irish Turf Club have received permission from the war cabinet to publish the following additional programme of flat race meetings: Mullingar, July 16th; Clarenorris, 17th; Limerick, 18th; Thurles, 20th; The Curragh, 24th, 25th, and 26th; Galway, Aug. 1st and 2nd, and The Curragh, Aug. 12th. Lord Carnarvon, Major Clayton, T. Davidson, W. Raphael and R. B. Thornburn are a few of the best known English owners who have registered their colors to ride in Ireland.

This choice is not haphazard selection, but the result of efforts to obtain their favorite tobacco—Virginia—at its best.

Craven "A" is made from our special blend of selected pure Virginia tobaccos—no artificial flavors—no perfumes. It has a real "flavor personality" with an aroma and mellowness that are the results of old Virginia's sun curing.

ship. He has issued an appeal to the American business men, which will rank as one of the great state documents of the war, in the interests of the common people. He has formally served notice on mine operators, manufacturers, and shipping interests that the United States government intends to fix the prices of their products during the war period, and that the public must receive the same service on the same basis as the government. He utters a warning to agitators and unionists to a great duty. "We must make the prices to the public the same as the prices to the government. Prices mean the same thing everywhere now. They mean the efficiency or the inefficiency of the nation, whether it is the government that pays them or not. They mean victory or defeat. They mean that America will win her place once for all among the foremost free nations of the world, or that she will sink to defeat and become a second rate power alike in thought and action. This is a day of her reckoning and every man among us must personally face that reckoning along with her.

REAL LEADERSHIP

(Halifax Chronicle)

Nothing has been more calculated to quell the war enthusiasm of the people than the knowledge that while their sons were fighting on the battlefields of France, the war profiteers at home were piling up fortunes out of the people's agonies. That has been our sad and tragic experience in Canada. There has been no attempt, up to recent times, to deal seriously with the question of food supplies, and the cost of living. And yet nothing during the past three years has been more burdensome to the plain people of Canada.

President Wilson is not disposed to rest idly while the "price boosters" are allowed to reap a harvest out of the people's necessities. He has once more sounded the clear note of strong leader-

This weather has the advantage of being a great stimulus to industry. Who wants holidays on a day like this?

Having weathered almost three years of war, it is quite possible that the country will be able to stand an election.

Government's attitude seems to be that it is all right to ask a man for his life—but you must be a bit cautious about asking for his pocket book.

But why should Quebec be afraid of conscription? The French-Canadian Canadians married before they are of military age?

According to the morning government organ, if all the traitors were locked up every person left at large would be a Conservative.

Premier Borden and the Kaiser have at least one thing in common—the dawning realization that they are not the Heaven-sent leaders they thought they were.

Without any criticism of "The House of Windsor" as the name for the Royal family, we might suggest that the King missed a grand chance to prove his decency when he failed to select Smith as his new family name.

The high cost of living does not look quite so discouraging with strawberries at eight or nine cents a box.

If the city waits until the property owners voluntarily agree to pay the cost of concrete sidewalks it will be a long wait.

On the other hand, the city might loan the Union Station a few loads of material to fill up the ornamental lakes which have replaced the pathways to the front entrance.

With jury fees fixed at the magnificent sum of $1 per day, is it possible that the jury disagreed so as to give some other citizens a chance to get rich quick?

If a man is only worth $1 a day is he worth having on a jury? If he is worth more, why not pay him more?

Of course our soldiers only get $1.10 a day, but their board and lodging and clothing are thrown in.

"Shoe shine, special chairs for ladies and cigars." So reads the sign on a North End shop, so far we have not noticed any cigars occupying the special chairs.

The Imperturbable Ump.

He was a notorious umpire brawler. He thought all umpires were either idiots or crooks, perhaps both. He never had met one who could be depended on to give two correct decisions in succession, and he made no secret of his opinion of their ability and honesty, or the lack of it. Consequently, when some of the juniors asked him to umpire a game of baseball at the place with the assurance that this would be an occasion when everyone would be satisfied, he was heading for the main street, and there would be no room for even the mildest kick. When last seen he was heading for the main street, violating the speed regulations at every jump and dodging flying missiles in a way that would do credit to an expert's account of a front line trench.

The Standard says something about a "nest of traitors." That phrase was first applied by Sir Mackenzie Bowell to a group which included Sir George Foster. Later it has been applied with variations by a gentleman named Sir Sam Hughes. It is a favorite Tory phrase. That's why the Standard uses it.

PTE. HARRY WHITE GIVES LIFE IN WAR

Sad News Comes to Wife Here—Second Member of Newfoundland Association to Make Supreme Sacrifice

Mrs. Annie White, 18 Orange street, received the sad news this morning that her husband, Pte. Harry White, had been killed in action on July 5. Only this week she had received a letter written by him on June 24, in which he said he was in good health. Referring to pictures of their boy and girl he said: "That girl and boy look to be growing pretty fast, and I am only wishing that I will be able to see them again."

Pte. White went over with the 14th Battalion and was transferred to the Princess Pats. He was through the fight at Vimy Ridge, and had seen much for several years. He was an active member of the Newfoundland Association, and is the second of its members to make the supreme sacrifice. A young man of fine character, he will be greatly missed by his former associates, who cherish his memory as that of a brave and loyal citizen of the Empire who answered duty's call. He is survived by his wife and two children, who have universal sympathy in their great sorrow. Mrs. White is a sister of Mrs. George Oldford of the Victoria school.

NOTICE TO RECKLESS AND INCONSIDERATE AUTO DRIVERS

To the Editor of the Times, Sir—There are still a few inconsiderate and reckless automobile drivers in New Brunswick. I refer to certain persons driving cars at break-neck speed through Rothesay and other villages and hamlets from St. John to Hampton. Speaking particularly of Rothesay, the writer has seen cars rush through the centre of the village of Rothesay at a junction where three roads meet at a speed of from twenty-five to thirty miles an hour. The rate of traveling is bad enough, but these same inconsiderate drivers never take the trouble of even sounding their horns. Some morning a child will be run over and badly mangled or killed, then the Rothesay residents will say why did not someone report these reckless drivers long ago? Well, this nuisance and danger must stop. Here's a fair notice to these same gentlemen.

The people along the thickly settled centres of the main road from St. John to Hampton are going to do it now. This letter of warning does in no way apply to ninety-five per cent, of careful and considerate owners and drivers of cars.

Take the numbers of "the devil may care ones" and a committee formed for the purpose will do the rest.

Yours,
L. P. D. TILLEY.

FINE OF $200 OR THREE MONTHS JAIL

Sentence Today in Malloy Liquor Case—Magistrate Speaks of Drunkenness in City

Thomas Malloy was fined $200 in the police court this morning for keeping liquor in his barn in violation of the prohibition law. In default of payment he will be sent to jail for three months. In passing sentence Magistrate Ritchie said that he hoped it would be a warning to others who persisted in sending to Montreal and importing liquor to this city.

Malloy was arrested on a charge of drunkenness, and as a result of information received from him a quantity of liquor was found hidden in a barn and confiscated by the police. Magistrate Ritchie pointed out to him that he could not keep it in such a place; that the barn was the only place specified by law wherein a citizen could keep a limited quantity for personal use. He said that he was daily receiving reports from people telling him about drunken men about Haymarket square last evening and not one was taken into custody. He also issued a warning against bootleggers in the North End, and said that the police should round them up. He said that people should have no regard for these men and that every endeavor should be made to bring them to justice.

NEW SCHOLARSHIP FOR UNIVERSITY OF NEW BRUNSWICK

Definite arrangements have been made for the endowment of a new scholarship at the university to be known as the W. T. Whitehead scholarship. It will be endowed by Mrs. W. T. Whitehead of Fredericton and the income from the endowment will be $60 a year. It will be a permanent memorial to the late Mr. Whitehead who during his lifetime was for many years a prominent business man of Fredericton and sat in the provincial legislature as a member for the county of York. Owing to his interest in lumbering and forestry, the scholarship will be awarded annually in the department of forestry to the student making the highest average standing during the third year in all the subjects of that course.

It was the intention of Mrs. Whitehead that the scholarship should be available for the last academic year, but through a misunderstanding the details of the donation were not arranged sufficiently early. It will be awarded in 1917-18 for the first time.

Mrs. Whitehead's generosity in making this valuable prize available for the department of forestry is most heartily appreciated by the senate of the university.

TRAFFIC LAW MATTER

Dr. F. H. Neve was summoned to the police court this morning to answer a charge of allowing his automobile to stand on the south side of King square recently without having his lights on. He explained that he left the car there before dusk and had gone to attend a patient, but was detained longer than he had expected. He was told that a fine of $50 would be struck against him, but owing to the circumstances it would be allowed to stand.
