TURK VICTOR AT PEACE TABLE

Believe Pact Will be Signed in Few Days.

Capitulations Abolished and Turkey Gets Back Into Europe—Significant if Russia Attends to Sign Straits Treaty.

(Canadian Press.)

Lausanne, July 8.—Ismet Pasha has proved himself perhaps a greater diplomat than a general, for by a Near Eastern peace which was arranged in principle between the Allied and Turkish representatives early this morning he achieved significant victories for his country, entitling him to high honors from the Grand National Assembly. Ismet kept all the skilled diplomats guessing from the start. He smiled and yet seldom if ever did he yield. The Ankara Government had been consulted on several points concerning allied concessions in Turkey, but everybody at Lausanne believes that peace will surely be signed within ten days, and the secretary is going ahead with preparations for a primary assembly of the delegations and the solemn signature of the peace pact.

Should Bolsheviki Russia accept the invitation to come here to sign the straits convention, the final ceremony will possess special significance, since this would bring Russia into official relation with the powers in an important international treaty.

The great result of the Lausanne peace, as seen by the diplomats here, is that one of the most serious dangers to the happiness of the continent has been removed by the liquidation of the state of war in the Near East and by the agreement between Turkey and Greece to lay down their arms at last. European troops will evacuate Turkish soil.

"Peace, peace, tell it to the whole world." These were the words of the Turkish leader, Ismet Pasha, as he emerged jubilant from the conference hall. Champagne was drunk later at the banquet given in honor of the success of the negotiations.

Turkey won a succession of victories throughout the conference and by the Lausanne treaty will achieve two results worthy of an important place in European history. In the first place, the peace treaty will bring about the abolition of capitulations, a step which it took Japan long years to accomplish. In the second place, Turkey by her re-entry into Europe, shows back to Europe.

The agreement shows that the Allies were able to maintain a united front despite moments when the incompleteness of views appeared seriously to threaten the solidarity of the powers.

On the conclusion of the national anthem and while the gun salute was still being continued, the rounds being fired at half minute intervals, His Excellency inspected the guard of honor, which was in civilian attire, bared his head, but in the manner in which his head came together with the salute, he maintained "attention" which was maintained throughout the salute, was mute testimony of military connection.

Guard Inspected. On the conclusion of the national anthem and while the gun salute was still being continued, the rounds being fired at half minute intervals, His Excellency inspected the guard of honor, which was in civilian attire, bared his head, but in the manner in which his head came together with the salute, he maintained "attention" which was maintained throughout the salute, was mute testimony of military connection.

City's Address. On being rejoined by His Excellency, they ascended to the top step, accompanied by His Worship the Mayor, Colonel McMillan and Major O'Connor, where the Mayor read and presented an address as follows:—

It has been a delight to this city and province in the past to welcome members of the royal family and representatives of our Sovereign, and our delight in the present occasion is increased by the opportunity to welcome Lady Byng.

Governor-General and Lady Byng Given Hearty Welcome To St. John Today

THEIR EXCELLENCIES RECEIVE OFFICIAL GREETINGS AND PLAUDITS OF THE CITIZENS

West St. John Scene of First Proceedings, in Glorious Sunshine—Baron and Lady Byng Guests of the Respective Canadian Clubs at Luncheon.

(Canadian Press.)

St. John gave their Excellencies Baron Byng of Vimy, Governor-General of Canada, and Lady Byng a royal welcome to the city at 11 o'clock today, and the programme for their two days' visit here was auspiciously begun. A bright warm sun shone out of a clear sky and thousands turned out to greet the King's representative in the Dominion. An official address of welcome was delivered from the steps of the West St. John City Hall, from which His Excellency received a royal salute from a guard of honor from the St. John Fusiliers and a detachment of two guns from the 3rd New Brunswick Heavy Brigade.

Arrival of Party. The train of two engines and seven coaches arrived at the corner of Union and St. John streets promptly at 11 o'clock. The Governor-General and Lady Byng were met by the Mayor, His Excellency greeted Col. J. Houlston, D. S. O. and Col. A. McMillan, D. S. O. This car was followed by one containing Her Excellency Lady Byng, Miss Walpole, Lady-in-waiting, and Major W. K. Hodgson, O. B. E. Other cars held the Honorable F. W. Beakins, the Honorable G. A. Hamilton, and the Honorable G. A. Hamilton.

The Royal Salute. From the train the vice-regal party, accompanied by Mayor Fisher and Colonel McMillan, motored to the West St. John City Hall where His Excellency was given the royal salute. The guard of honor from the St. John Fusiliers, 26th Battalion, was under command of Captain G. H. Holder, D. C. M., M. M., with Lieutenant H. E. Leitch, D. S. O., and Major W. K. Hodgson, O. B. E. and about seventy-five other ranks, who presented arms and saluted the Governor-General and Lady Byng.

At the same time the first round of the nineteen-gun salute was fired by the firing detachment under the command of Captain G. A. Hamilton, M. C., who had located his two twelve-pounders, B. L., on the street facing across the hall.

He had under him Sergeant Major P. L. Griffin and eleven other ranks. The Fusiliers' band under the direction of Bandmaster Perkins played the National Anthem and the crowd stood with bared heads. His Excellency was in civilian attire, bared his head, but in the manner in which his head came together with the salute, he maintained "attention" which was maintained throughout the salute, was mute testimony of military connection.

After the presentation of the address and the message came from the people of St. John, who were sincere in their greeting.

The Governor's Reply. Mr. Mayor, Ladies and Gentlemen—As the representative of His Majesty, the King, it gives me the greatest pleasure to be here to greet you and to believe in the future of this city and province. I have listened with the greatest interest to your address, and I believe in the future of this city and province. I have listened with the greatest interest to your address, and I believe in the future of this city and province.

It has been a delight to this city and province in the past to welcome members of the royal family and representatives of our Sovereign, and our delight in the present occasion is increased by the opportunity to welcome Lady Byng.

Our people also wish to express to your Excellency their warm appreciation of your splendid achievements in the past and their confidence in you for the future.

The many and kindly attitudes which you assumed towards our soldier lads, and the fine spirit which you assisted in fostering amongst them have been to which we are proud to belong. Ladies and gentlemen, for Lady Byng and myself, thank you most sincerely. We look forward very much to your stay amongst you, for these visits, and we feel sure that you will help us towards this end.

CALL FOR BRITISH GOVT. STATEMENT

Declaration of Policy on Reparations Question

Country's Interests Declared Suffering by Delay—The Position of Italy—President Declares France will not Give Up Coercion.

(Canadian Press.)

London, July 9.—There is an increasing impression that the present British cabinet cannot much longer delay a declaration of its policy in the reparations questions. This belief was strengthened by speeches by L. S. Amery, first lord of the admiralty, and Arthur Neville Chamberlain, the Minister of Health. They stress the imperative necessity that Great Britain should make her position clear without delay.

The political writers in the morning newspapers reiterate the insistence of members of the Government party, the opposition and industrial organs, that the country's interests are suffering because of the absence of a public statement of British policy.

Italy's Position. Rome, July 9.—It is said semi-officially that Italy joins neither with Great Britain nor France in her attitude relative to the Ruhr. Italy remains faithful to the memorandum which Premier Mussolini presented when he attended the London conference. This was based on unification of the problems and the fact that the allied debts and other conditions which had been adhered to.

With respect to the re-occupation of Germany the Italian Government thinks it should not be insisted upon. The German Government cannot desert by this method.

London and Rome are in agreement in emphasizing diplomatic policy with the object of bringing about an understanding on reparations and the occupation of the Ruhr, which has not reached an accord on inter-allied debts.

Says France Firm. Clermont, Ferrand, July 9.—France will not change her coercive policy towards Germany said the French premier yesterday. He declared the country must remain united behind the government. "But," he added, "I do not hide the truth from ourselves that this policy is one of a long hard pull."

Just as the army had held out against the German ultimatum, so the French authorities assert that this change in attitude is due to instructions from Berlin.

Paris, July 9.—Franco-Belgian action against Germany in retaliation for the bombing of Duisburg will not be affected by the Papal representations at Paris and Brussels, it was said yesterday in official circles. The French government has replied to the representations from the Papal Nuncio that the bombing occurred in the Belgian zone and therefore the Belgians would determine the penalties. Both France and Belgium, however, reserved to themselves the right to take any and all measures necessary to prevent a recurrence of such violence.

The price the Canadian purchasers will pay for the coal, the dispatch adds, is not publicly known, but it is understood to be much below the cost in the U. S.

WERE WRECKED ON START OF FLIGHT ACROSS CANADA

Company Says 1,200 Men Work in Steel Plant

Ottawa, Ont., July 9.—Flight Officer Kenneth Guthrie and a mechanic of the Canadian Air Force, have been discharged from hospital where they were taken on Wednesday following the crash of the huge Vickers-Viking Flying Boat in which they were commencing a flight to Winnipeg. News of the accident has only just leaked out. It occurred in the Ottawa River near the Rockfield Air Station, and the aircraft, which was about to proceed on its first long journey and was valued at more than $100,000 is said to be badly wrecked.

The plane was about ten feet above the Ottawa River when it nosedived into the water. Lieutenant Guthrie and his mechanic escaped serious injury but what appeared to be almost a miracle operation of the mill indefinitely, and no difficulty is anticipated in getting coal for the coke ovens.

Water and gas are gaining slightly in the coal mines of the district, as is natural when pumps and fans are largely stopped. Men going to work in the steel plant this morning were not interfered with and there were no disturbances during the night. The situation remains absolutely unchanged.

At a meeting of 6,000 miners' resolutions passed calling for a continuance of the strike until such time as Dan Livingstone and J. E. McLachlan, president and secretary of the U. M. W. District 26, were released from prison and cleared of the charges against them and also for a request to the railway men of Canada that they refuse to carry any further troops into the strike district of Cape Breton. John I. Lewis, international U. M. W. president, was consulted by telegram was sent by Lewis describing the existing strike as unquestionably a violation of the agreement of the District 26 and the coal companies a party to it. The action of the district in withdrawing engineers, as well as other maintenance men from the mines was characterized by the president as indefensible and as constituting a wanton destruction of property.

In a statement issued in Halifax by Hon. D. A. Cameron, Provincial Secretary of Nova Scotia, he declared that as a result of a personal investigation into the charges against the provincial police, he found that there was no ground for allegations.

No Bail Yet. Halifax, N. S., July 9.—Application for bail in the case of Dan Livingstone and James B. McLachlan, U. M. W. leaders charged with spreading false tales, was continued this morning before the Superior Court. The men were returned to jail.

The Troops. Calgary, July 9.—Every effort is being made by Hon. James Murdock, Minister of Labor, to have the troops present in the Cape Breton strike area withdrawn as soon as possible, according to a telegram from him to William Sherman, president of District No. 18, United Mine Workers of America.

Replying to a telegram from Mr. Sherman, the Minister of Labor said he was advised that the troops were being withdrawn and that the Cape Breton had been stopped short and were not being sent there.

"My hope is that soldiers now here may be withdrawn at once, and I am making all effort possible to ensure that result," the telegram says. "Will you continue to advise your membership to be patient and to continue to carry on in order that we may have further time in our efforts to relieve the unfortunate situation at present existing in Sydney and vicinity." The following wire was sent to Mr. Mudock by Mr. Sherman this morning:—

"Critical situation has developed in coal fields of Western Canada as a result of latest developments in Nova Scotia dispute between Empire Steel Corporation and its employees. Present indications here are membership will not be controlled by district officials of this organization unless steps taken to improve serious situation now existing in Nova Scotia. Practically all labor organizations in the west are interested themselves in situation." Mr. Sherman said last night that he would despatch an answer to Mr. Murdock's reply today.

"Use of troops in any labor dispute in any part of Canada will not be tolerated by the organization and they are certain to take protest action if such conditions continue." Mr. Sherman said. "It is indeed unfortunate that military action should have been taken in this dispute."

THE GOVERNOR GENERAL'S VISIT

other name would smell as sweet, he had read. To that might be added, "a farmer by any other name could grow just as good wheat, and a governor-general by any other name had to watch his feet." This was his job, trying not to put his foot in it. His daily thought was: "What can I do to help?" He thought that by seeing the country and meeting the people he might understand their problems better. The people of Canada were not making a country, they were making a nation. We had the best form of education in the world in Canada, and this, combined with social environment of the right sort, made good citizens. The good citizens of Canada had made the finest soldiers that ever went to war. He made feeling reference to the death of Senator W. H. Thorne, and said that St. John and Canada had lost a great citizen in him. He urged all present to emulate what he was.

He was accorded three loud cheers at the close of his address.
Among those present were the Mayor and Commissioners, Hon. R. J. Ritchie, G. A. Henderson, R. F. Hayes, M. E. P. H. E. Armstrong, C. B. Allan, J. A. Mulcahy, Judge J. A. Barry, Judge H. O. MAKES REPORT ON ANTHRACITE

Findings of Commission After Lengthy Inquiry.
How Cost is Distributed—Output Not Keeping Pace With Increase in Population—Matter of Work and Agreements.
Washington, July 8.—The Federal coal commission in a report made public yesterday, contended that the anthracite mining industry should continue in operation under private ownership, but under official scrutiny and open publicity as to costs and prices; wage contracts between operators and mine workers should be made from either side and power should be vested in the U. S. Government to take over and operate the mines in any emergency resulting in cessation of operations.
Concluding an eight month investigation of the industry, the commission declared anthracite to be a limited natural monopoly, one third exported, and affected by a public interest which makes it a subject for special Government treatment. Without interpreting the facts developed by the inquiry, the commission found that each dollar paid for anthracite by consumers, half went to cost of coal at the mine, one fourth for freight and a quarter to the retailer. Operators and retailers, it was declared, divided eleven or twelve cents out of each dollar in profits. The labor cost a ton, $1.56 in 1915, had advanced to $4.12 a ton. The average worker gets $4.12 a ton. The average worker gets $4.12 a ton. The average worker gets $4.12 a ton.

LOOKS FOR INCREASE IN IMMIGRATION

President of C. P. R. is Also Asked About G. T. P. Debentures and Feeling in London.
Quebec, July 8.—Interviewed here yesterday on his return from Europe E. W. Beatty, C. P. R. president of the C. P. R., declared that the prospects for increased immigration into Canada were excellent. All that was needed was a little extension of the overseas organization a personnel of thoroughly well informed agents and the assistance in Canada of an organization such as the "Western Canada Colonization Association," had now become. He felt confident that, as a result of the economic conference the Government of Great Britain and Canada would by joint action be able materially to increase the numbers coming forward in a way which would not involve any great financial risks in either country. Asked if the resumption of British investors on the score of their feeling that Grand Trunk shareholders had been treated unfairly, would affect the saleability of Canadian securities in London, Mr. Beatty said that while his feeling did exist, he did not think it would be continued, especially if the Government made an early decision in respect of G. T. P. debentures. Any misconception in respect of the Grand Trunk matter should be dispelled, otherwise there might conceivably be temporary turning to other investment countries, which he thought would be detrimental both to Great Britain and to Canadian enterprises.

STILL DANGER OF FOREST FIRES
Fredericton, N. B., July 9.—The forest fire situation in New Brunswick is quiet but conditions are favorable to another outbreak and the patrolmen watching the smouldering remains of several of the big fires report logs and stumps still burning several weeks after the fires were checked. If the patrol were not maintained the fires would break out. A Munton, Victoria county man was convicted of burning without a permit and was fined $40. Other similar cases are to be tried there and several at Woodstock.
A fire near Wausau, Sanbury county, was reported on Sunday by the Penikese lookers. Men were put on it and today it is not showing.

REPORT 3,000 RUSSIANS TO CANADIAN FARMS

Victoria, B. C., Hears of it, But Ottawa Doesn't Know—Question of Regulations
(Canadian Press)
Victoria, B. C., July 9.—The Times states that 3,000 selected Russians, recruited from among the thousands of refugees from Siberia and now congregated in the more populous centres of the Far East, will cross the Pacific Ocean to enter Canada as settlers.
The newspaper says it received this information from an authoritative source when the liner President Jackson docked here on Friday from the Orient. So far as is known by the local department of Immigration, no official permit or provision has been made to permit the entry of such a large contingent of Russians.
Ottawa, Ont., July 9.—The department of Immigration is not aware that 3,000 Russian propose coming to Canada from the Far East and doubt is expressed as to the likelihood of such a movement. A high official of the department said that no such advice had been received here.
Order-in-Council P. C. 23, which calls for a continuous journey from country of birth or citizenship may be waived by immigration officials, it is stated, if immigrants are of the agricultural classes coming to Canada from the Far East. A high official of the department said that he has a reasonable chance of securing agricultural employment, or, if he proposes to undertake independent farming, that he has sufficient means to make a start. In addition to this, immigrants must be of good health and character and be in possession of valid passports. Immigrants desiring to engage in occupations other than farming, would, it is understood, be excluded under existing regulations.

MILLIONAIRE SUICIDES

According to the report of Dr. H. M. Warren, president of the Seaside Life League, 12,000 persons committed suicide in the United States in 1922, and of this number seventy-nine were millionaires.
Only foolish persons think wealth is comparable to health or happiness. Joy is a good constitution, a good name, and a clear conscience are treasures money cannot buy. As some of the philosophers have pointed out, when Lord gave only one stomach to each human being. The poor man with good digestion is richer than the rich man with one lung and a weak stomach.
Pity the man with millions who knows nothing of the sweetness of a well-ordered life.

BOOST AUSTRALIA AS PLACE FOR IMMIGRANTS

Melbourne, July 8.—(Canadian Press)—Premier Stanley M. Bruce, of Australia, in a speech today, said that after the imperial conference he intended to visit all the great cities in every part of the British Isles in order to stir up Great Britain's imagination about the possibilities of Australia for the absorption of British immigrants, and as a market for the products of the motherland.

other name would smell as sweet, he had read. To that might be added, "a farmer by any other name could grow just as good wheat, and a governor-general by any other name had to watch his feet." This was his job, trying not to put his foot in it. His daily thought was: "What can I do to help?" He thought that by seeing the country and meeting the people he might understand their problems better. The people of Canada were not making a country, they were making a nation. We had the best form of education in the world in Canada, and this, combined with social environment of the right sort, made good citizens. The good citizens of Canada had made the finest soldiers that ever went to war. He made feeling reference to the death of Senator W. H. Thorne, and said that St. John and Canada had lost a great citizen in him. He urged all present to emulate what he was.

LOOKS FOR INCREASE IN IMMIGRATION

President of C. P. R. is Also Asked About G. T. P. Debentures and Feeling in London.
Quebec, July 8.—Interviewed here yesterday on his return from Europe E. W. Beatty, C. P. R. president of the C. P. R., declared that the prospects for increased immigration into Canada were excellent. All that was needed was a little extension of the overseas organization a personnel of thoroughly well informed agents and the assistance in Canada of an organization such as the "Western Canada Colonization Association," had now become. He felt confident that, as a result of the economic conference the Government of Great Britain and Canada would by joint action be able materially to increase the numbers coming forward in a way which would not involve any great financial risks in either country. Asked if the resumption of British investors on the score of their feeling that Grand Trunk shareholders had been treated unfairly, would affect the saleability of Canadian securities in London, Mr. Beatty said that while his feeling did exist, he did not think it would be continued, especially if the Government made an early decision in respect of G. T. P. debentures. Any misconception in respect of the Grand Trunk matter should be dispelled, otherwise there might conceivably be temporary turning to other investment countries, which he thought would be detrimental both to Great Britain and to Canadian enterprises.

We would ask you to try to get the case over as quickly as possible. We would ask you to try to get the case over as quickly as possible. THE VICE-REGAL VISITORS.

If Baron Byng of Vinny came to St. John as a private citizen he would receive a great welcome, because of his relation to the soldiers of Canada in the Great War.

SENATOR THORNE.

A life of great usefulness and of marked success in business, rounded out in its later years by public honors, was that of Senator W. H. Thorne. But he comes also as the King's representative, to a city which paid a very notable tribute to the King and Queen themselves, when, as Prince and Princess of Wales, they toured Canada; for St. John has ever been loyal to that which the King, as head of the Empire, embodies.

The people have been reading, too, the reports of addresses delivered by the Governor-General since he came to Canada, and especially since he entered this province on his present tour; and they are impressed by his breadth of view, his devotion to high ideals of national life, and the gracious tact which marks his utterances.

To Her Excellency, Lady Byng, a greeting no less loyal and sincere is gladly extended. Like her distinguished husband she regards her eminent position as an opportunity for service; and in such ways as are open to the wife of a Governor-General she has been winning the hearts of the people.

The visitors are in New Brunswick to gain impressions of the province and its people, the nature of its resources, and the contribution it makes to the life of the Dominion. They desire to get its viewpoint and understand its needs as well as its advantages.

The personal touch, the human note, gained each a place in our affection. And he was surest of our vote with whom we shared his predilection. So Stanley Baldwin's come to say, "Enclosed to every man a brother; He showed a universal trait. That binds us all to one another."

only one of the forms of waste created by the smoke nuisance, for the process of burning raw coal was not only totally unscientific, but involved a criminal waste of its valuable properties. Sir Arthur referred to the Sheffield Town Hall, on the erection of which £200,000 was expended ten to fifteen years ago, and said it was now merely a "mountain of soot without grace or distinction."

An equal daring marked the whims of later years made a senatorship seem an honorable and desirable medium of public service. During his active years not only did the Conservative party in this province look to him for counsel, but the leaders of the party in Ottawa valued greatly his views on public questions and the political outlook.

Senator Thorne was identified with many business interests and was an able advocate of any cause he believed to be for the welfare of the city or province. His business career was marked throughout by honorable dealing. He was a liberal contributor to worthy causes, a rare entertainer and delightful companion.

FIRST TYPEWRITER PRODUCT OF LION

Manufacture of Machines Began in Mohawk Village in 1873. Few people associate the keys of the typewriter with romance, but "The Story of the Typewriter," issued by the Heskimer County Historical Society, New York, in commemoration of the fiftieth anniversary of the invention of the typewriter, is not only a comprehensive survey of the painstaking development of an invention which has so largely revolutionized business life, but a story of considerable human interest.

It is not generally known that in the last days of Queen Anne's reign in 1713, the first practical typewriter was invented in the little town of Lion, New York. The inventor was a Scotchman, Henry Mill, an English engineer, in respect of what is the first recorded attempt to invent a typewriter. Mill's idea, whatever it was, died with him, however, and no model or description of the machine is known to exist.

After long years other attempts began to be made and in the "forties" of the last century these efforts were intensified in the United States, until in 1839, in the little Mohawk Valley village of Lion, was begun the manufacture of the machine which has extended its scope until it is employed in the writing of more than 120 languages. Even the difficulties of the Arabic character, amongst many others, have been overcome, but there are the important languages—Chinese and Japanese—which still lie outside the pale of the writing machine.

The life of Christopher Lathan Sholes, inventor of the first practical typewriter and the combined efforts of himself and his collaborators before production began in the little town of Lion, naturally constitute the subject of the book. Beyond this the account of the development of the process is "fascinating to the latest phase of the story of writing, and the way in which it has freed the world from pen slaves."

Sholes, a printer and publisher by trade, seems to have been an eccentric but lovable character. "As an editor he was noted for his copy into his own paper all the adverse criticisms that were passed upon him by his political adversaries, and some of them were very bitter and unjust; and he would always omit all complimentary notices of himself and his work."

How this great time-saver was manufactured, and how the machine, which resembled a piano, was changed gradually to its present form, is interestingly described, and Mark Twain is shown to have been an early user in his early days of "this curiosity-breeding little joker."

A MONUMENT TO PICTOU PIONEERS

To Commemorate 150th Anniversary of the Landing of the Hardy Highlanders Who Reclaimed That District From the Wilderness. As a feature of the big celebration to be held in Pictou county, Nova Scotia, during next week, St. Andrew's Society of New Glasgow will have placed at Pictou a monument, as shown herewith, to commemorate the arrival of Scottish Pioneers at Pictou in the ship "Hector," in 1773. His Excellency Lord Byng, who arrives in Pictou today, will unveil the monument on Tuesday, July 17.

The monument is a bronze figure of a Highlander, in the dress of the period, holding an old-fashioned flintlock gun in one hand and with an axe on his shoulder looking over the forest where he is to make his future home. The bronze figure is about nine feet in height and the granite pedestal about eight feet, so that the total height will be about seventeen feet.

SENATOR THORNE
DIED YESTERDAY

Death in Montreal Follows a Lingered Illness.

Was One of St. John's Leading Citizens and Politicians—Also Prominent in Masonic Order—Nearly 79 Years Old.

Senator W. H. Thorne, president of W. H. Thorne & Co., Ltd., who has been sick in the Montreal General Hospital for the last few weeks, passed away at 1 o'clock yesterday morning. Hon. Mr. Thorne was one of the outstanding figures in commercial circles in eastern Canada and was well known throughout the Dominion. He had a wide circle of friends.

Senator Thorne was never married. He is survived by his sister, Miss Mary Thorne, who resided with him in St. John; and Mrs. L. R. Harrison, also of this city, and one brother, Arthur Thorne, who was associated with him in the hardware business here. J. G. Harrison and Lieut.-Col. W. H. Harrison, of this city, are nephews and Miss Mary Harrison is a niece. He was for many years a recognized leader of the Conservative party in this city and province.

His Career.
Hon. William Henry Thorne has been for many years one of the most prominent business men of this city and one of its first citizens. He founded the business of W. H.

THE LATE SENATOR THORNE

Thorne & Co., Ltd., and has been president of the firm since its incorporation. He was born in St. John on Sept. 1, 1844, the son of Edward L. Thorne, and his wife Susan (Scovell) Thorne. His parents were both Canadians and of Imperial Loyalist descent. He was educated in the St. John schools, Rev. Charles Leck's private school and at the Grammar School. Besides his hardware business Mr. Thorne was interested in several other concerns doing business in this city. He was president of the Thorne Wharf and Warehouse Co., Ltd., and director of the Royal Bank of Canada, director of Cornwall and York Cotton Mills, Ltd., and director of the Eastern Trust Company.

His first experience as a clerk was with W. H. Scovell in 1861. In 1863 he went with W. H. Adams and in 1866 he was engaged with Burpee & Co. In 1867 he started business on his own account under the name of W. H. Thorne and his activities expanded with the years until he became one of the leading hardware businesses of the Maritime Provinces. He was president of the St. John Board of Trade for two years and was called to the Senate in July, 1913. He had served as a lieutenant in Colonel Thurgate's Rifle Brigade, retiring with the rank of captain. He was a member of the A. F. & A. M. (thirty-third degree and member of the Supreme Council). He was a member of the Union Club, St. John; Mount Royal Club, Montreal; Rideau and Cowans Club, Ottawa. His recreations were salmon fishing and shooting. He was

Don't Spoil Your Child's Hair by Washing It
If you want to keep children's hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with. Do not use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much free alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Multifid coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can not possibly injure the hair. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub the Multifid in. Two or three teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to manage. You can get Multifid coconut oil shampoo at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and a few ounces will last for months. Be sure your druggist gives you "Multifid." Beware of imitations. Look for the name Watkins on the package.

The Great Fire.
Speaking of the St. John fire in 1877, Hon. Mr. Thorne said in the article he wrote, that he was on the Bonaventure River in Quebec fishing when he heard of the fire. He broke camp immediately and crossing the Bay of Chaleur in a fishing smacker reached Moncton in a freight train. Here he obtained a copy of The Daily Telegraph and from it learned of the loss of his property. The Daily Telegraph had been published in Moncton that day because of the loss of its plant in St. John. He reached home two days after the fire and immediately prepared to again commence business. A temporary building was erected in the Market Square and later a new building was constructed, where the business has been conducted ever since. Senator Thorne was unmarried. He is survived by his brother and sister.

IN HONOR OF THE MEN WHO FELL IN YPRES BATTLE
Duke of Connaught Unveils Canadian Memorial Where Dominion Soldiers Withstood Gas Attack.
Pres. Belgium, July 9.—(Canadian Press).—"We bow our heads in humble gratitude for the worthiness of their lives and the nobility of their sacrifices, we commend their souls to the grace-keeping of our Heavenly Father, and we ask for their loved ones the tender sympathy and comfort of the compassionate Saviour."
The Duke of Connaught, Marshall Foch, General Turner and Vicomte Berzay, Minister of Interior for Belgium, in turn rendered with an eloquence which rang all the more true for its restraint, their tribute to the heroism of the parent division of the Canadian army when assailed by the deadly fumes of the enemy in April, 1918.
The memorial, standing where four roads meet, dominates the whole stretch of country which our troops knew as the salient. It is thirty-five feet high and consists of a pillar of granite developing at the apex into a bust of a Canadian soldier with head bowed and wearing the famous tin helmet. Photographs fail to render justice to the impressiveness of the monument. A paved base of simple proportions is also provided and Canadians who visit this, the first of the great memorials erected on the battlefields by the Dominion, will not be disappointed.

To Electrify Roads In South America

Success of Chilean Undertaking Encourages Plans of Other Countries.

New York, July 7. — With South America entering an era of electric development it now appears that the United States will play a larger share in this work than any other foreign country...

The largest piece of work done in South America recently was a $20,000,000 undertaking by Chile. Other similar plans are under consideration by all the larger countries of the continent...

Through winning the Chilean contract the United States took the lead in work of this kind. Until September of 1921 British financiers and railroad men had held a slight edge on American competitors...

American interests, represented by Spruille Braden of New York, outmaneuvered both German and British competitors, however, by arranging both for the actual work of electrification and also for the financing.

The United States will not only supply you with the best of electrical apparatus, Mr. Braden explained to Chilean officials, according to a report of the transaction which was made public this week for the first time...

This achievement, according to the reports of observers in Chile, brought the United States directly to the front as a prospective supplier of both materials and services for electrification development in all of South America...

YOUNG BOYS TO BE GUIDED OVER MANY PITFALLS

Enlist Boys of 16 in American Sentinels—President Harding Honorary Head.

Chicago, July 8.—(Associated Press).—Boys of sixteen are being enlisted into an assembly of American Sentinels, an organization which plans to take the boy at this age, build him in mind and body, protect him against the seductive associations and direct his development until the day when he shall be inducted into citizenship...

Young fellows in this transition period are neither boys nor men, and need guidance so that they will not become misfits in the world of action because they lacked vocational training...

Seeking to correct this alleged condition, the American Sentinels was launched with a programme of six aims, which are: Teaching the enjoyment of living and developing a sense of true sportsmanship; finding the proper vocational place for each young man and training him to fill that place; reviving the old Spartan endurance, fearlessness and steadfastness in all good things...

HEAT-STROKE VARIATIONS.

How the Mortality Rate Varies From Year to Year.

Great variations occur from year to year in the number of cases of and deaths from heat prostration and sunstroke, says a statistician of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company...

For the United States registration area rates are available for a period of twenty-one years, 1902 to 1922, inclusive. Here there is an even larger margin between the maximum heat fatality rate, which was 12.2 per 100,000 in 1901, and the minimum, which was 3 in 1920.

It is found that heat fatalities register a much higher death rate among males than among females. This is considered inevitable, as men are engaged in occupations subjecting them more often to the hazards of heat.

Colored persons are shown to have a higher death rate than whites, and it is pointed out, this cannot be ascribed to the fact that colored people are relatively more numerous in the South. Experience has shown that even in the Southern States the relative heat prostration death rate of colored persons exceeds that for whites.

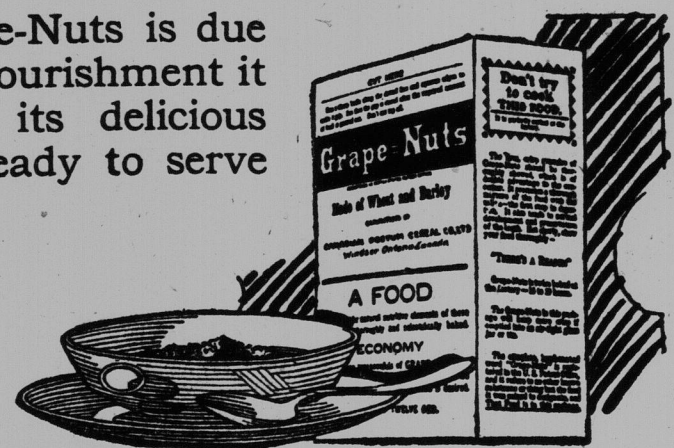

The fact is, says the writer, that the highest death rates from the effects of heat are not found, as might be supposed, in the Southern States. North and South Carolina, for example, show, year after year, very low death rates from this cause, and the figures for Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia are well below the average for the registration area.

The statistical tables show that the death rate from this cause is very much larger, year after year, in the cities than in the rural districts. Those engaged in agricultural pursuits are shown to be notably less subject to the effects of heat.

Paris, July 9.—That part of the Washington naval accords dealing with limitation of armaments and capital ships, which created the most bitter opposition in French parliamentary and political circles during the last year, was jammed through the French Chamber of Deputies Saturday in record time by the Poincaré-Briand alliance. The half-hearted opposition from the Socialists and Communists was completely swamped and the treaty was adopted 460 votes to 106.

Two band concerts have been arranged for this evening beginning at 8 o'clock. In King square the band of the St. John Fusiliers will give a programme while in the Tilley square band of the St. John, the City Cornet Band will be heard.

Constipation Relieved Without The Use of Laxatives

Nujol is a lubricant—not a medicine or laxative—so cannot gripe. When you are constipated, not enough of Nature's lubricating liquid is produced in the bowel to keep the food waste soft and moving. Doctors prescribe Nujol because it acts like this natural lubricant and thus secures regular bowel movements by Nature's own method—lubrication. Try it today.

RADIO AMATEUR'S FEAT.

Sent Message 6,000 Miles With Very Low Power.

Washington, July 9.—A successful wireless experiment accomplished recently by an amateur at Avalon, Calif., will revolutionize the radio industry, according to a statement made at the Department of Commerce.

A message was sent by the amateur at Avalon to Auckland, New Zealand, a distance of 6,000 miles. The remarkable feature about it was that the sender used extremely low power—half a kilowatt—for transmission, and only one valve was employed in reception. Unfavorable atmospheric conditions and frequent interruptions from ships in the Pacific prevailed at the time, it was said.

Further tests along the same line will be arranged soon, it was said, to determine whether the results of the test can be successfully employed permanently in the radio industry.

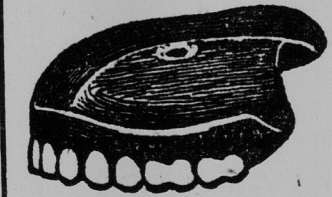

PREMIER TO TAKE REST FOR A FORTNIGHT

Session and After Meetings Leave Hon. M. King Tired—Cancels Pictou Celebration Engagement.

Ottawa, Ont., July 9.—(Canadian Press)—Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, left Ottawa yesterday for a rest after the work of the parliamentary session and the continuous meetings of the cabinet during the last three days. He has had no vacation since assuming office and the continuous strain has not been without its effects.

Some months ago, the Premier signified his intention, should circumstances permit, of being present at the celebration in Pictou County, N.S., to commemorate the beginning of Scottish immigration to Canada. It was learned yesterday that, on the advice of his colleagues, he has reluctantly decided to cancel this and other public engagements, and to take a complete rest for at least a fortnight.

YESTERDAY IN CITY CHURCHES

The Local Order of Orangemen held their annual service yesterday afternoon in the Waterloo street Baptist church. The turnout was fairly large, although many members of the order were out of the city. Rev. J. A. Sweetnam, a Black Knight of the order, delivered an address on the power of the individual. On the platform were S. B. Austin, Grand Master, and R. Magee, of East St. John. Rev. Mr. Sweetnam criticized the Orangemen for not parading to the service during the course of his remarks, and at the close of the address William M. Campbell explained that the reason for not holding a parade was the absence of many of the members in the country.

The members and several representatives of the L. O. B. A. gathered in the vestry of the church, and took up positions in the middle of the church which had been reserved for them. The service opened with a selection by the choir and the Lord's prayer was repeated, followed by a hymn and scripture reading. Miss Edith Magee sang a solo and the pastor offered prayer. An offering was taken for the local orphanage. The choir gave a selection, following which a hymn was sung by the congregation.

Rev. Mr. Sweetnam's address followed. He took as his text, "And Moses said, 'And who am I that I should go unto Pharaoh?' Speaking of the insignificance of the individual he said that nothing could be done for a man than to be always where he was the principal factor, and nothing could be better for him than to sign his name in the universe. He then touched on the power of the individual. His hearers had a strong responsibility as Orangemen. They had sworn allegiance to the flag and to the Protestant faith. They had nothing to regret or to take back. He was ashamed to learn that they were to assemble at the church instead of marching through the streets. When the order had to sneak into a church service, but on the twelfth of July would hold a dance with a brass band, then God have mercy on the Protestant religion. At this point the speaker was interrupted by applause, following every Christian, Mr. Sweetnam continued, should be an Orangeman and

An Acute Crisis.
They were called upon to meet a crisis as acute as any since William of Orange had crossed the Boyne. Honor should be given where honor was due. The Catholic church was taking every opportunity for advancing while the Protestants were asleep. It should be given credit for the way it was going ahead. The children were being brought up to respect and fear their church. The Knights of there are a number of languages, to say nothing of innumerable dialects, many of which are not readily understood, if at all, by each other. France, Belgium and Switzerland are not to be classed with the countries which have failed, or which are retrograde, and all have various languages in current use within their borders. South Africa has a bilingual situation, and one of her public men said that the two languages serve to cement the races, create better feeling, encourage harmony, and have a directly beneficial and cultural effect upon the children trained to use the two.

PLURALITY OF LANGUAGE.

Beneficial to Country, Not a Blight, Lions Club Told.

Canada is not distinctive from any other nation in having citizens speaking two different languages, it was pointed out at a luncheon of the Lions Club in the Mount Royal Hotel, Montreal, by Albert Gardiner, of the Canadian National Railways.

"It is the custom of some people to refer to our language question as if it were a sort of blight, or smoulder, or rust, or a canker with us," said Mr. Gardiner. "If plurality of languages were something to be regretted, it to be deplored within a country, Canada has the satisfaction of having a company. Even in the British Isles

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ON FORESTRY (By the Canadian Forestry Association.)
The Mother Country's purchases. Q. Does Canada supply the United Kingdom with any large part of her timber requirements?
A. Only with about ten per cent. 80 per cent. of her forest needs from outside the Empire. This is due chiefly to the great difference in freight rates as between Canada and the Scandinavian countries.
What is a 'limit'?
Q. What is the strict meaning of a 'limit'?
A. The provinces of Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick, and British Columbia own and administer their forest resources. Leases of timber cutting rights are made to various commercial companies, renewable one year, and the area thus leased is termed a 'limit' or 'berth'. The provinces mentioned retain ownership of practically all their forest lands, except New Brunswick which has alienated about one-third.
Prices 75 years ago.
Q. What were lumber prices in Canada about 1850?
A. White pine, the chief commercial timber, was about $13 a thousand feet, as against five or six times that at the present day. It is the accepted opinion that Canada and the United States will never again see an era of 'cheap lumber' as the toll of forest fires, set mostly by human recklessness, has so reduced the stands that raw material must remain very high in market value. Unlike wheat or chickens, new crops of timber cannot be grown in a year but must await at least a century. The long-time element is the most serious part of settling forest fires.
Led by the St. John Families Band, the Woodstock Cadet Corps marched to Trinity church yesterday morning and there attended service in a body. They were joined by members of the St. Andrew's, Winter street, King Edward and King George corps. The city and Woodstock coffets left on the 8:10 train this morning for Sussex for the camp there this week. Captain D. V. Pain was in charge of the Woodstock boys.
Gordon Saunders, a small boy living in White street, had a narrow escape from serious injury about 5:30 yesterday afternoon. He was riding on a bicycle when the fender of an automobile struck his wheel, throwing him to the ground. He received a bad shaking up and in addition a muscle in his neck was strained. He received treatment at the General Public Hospital.

What You Owe to Advertisers

You owe to advertisers in daily newspapers a lot of everything that has made living more comfortable and healthy.

Daily Newspaper Advertisers of foodstuffs give you clean foods, just weights and fixed prices for the things you buy to eat.

Daily Newspaper Advertisers gave you better houses, modern bathrooms, hardwood floors, electric lights, gas and electric ranges.

Daily Newspaper Advertisers gave you better clothes to wear by educating the public to the value of good clothes and their economy.

Daily Newspaper Advertisers made it possible for you to retain the beauty nature endowed you with by suggesting cosmetics, toilet preparations, shaving creams, safety razors, etc.

The pioneers in all these things were the firms who made them and advertised them.

They led the way.

It is for this reason that you should always buy advertised goods.

These goods have raised your standard of comfort and living; and the manufacturers of them command admiration for their command and foresight.

Dollar for dollar, the advertised article is always better value. The reason is that when an article is advertised, production of it is invariably greater. Therefore, the manufacturer has a larger output and a lower cost of production; hence the greater value for the money.

Further, the advertised article generally has superior merit and greater refinements about it. If it were not so, it would not be advertised.

Buy advertised goods, and buy them from the local store that advertises.

Business Future Uncertain While Forest Fires Rage

(By Sir Edmund Walker, president, Dominion Bureau of Statistics.)

The enormous destruction of our forest resources as a direct consequence of human recklessness is one of the most unsettling elements in the commercial future of Canada.

We cannot pretend to be a business people and at the same time continue to regard apathetically the red holocaust which is robbing the nation of one of its most indispensable resources.

Without the forest, only a very small portion of our business activities in Canada could continue a twelve-month. The whole of the non-agricultural area of the Dominion would be stripped of population, except for mining communities. The railways would be robbed of a main source of freight traffic. Hundreds of great wood-using industries would cease operating, and the basic forest materials entering into the conduct of farming, mining, fisheries, manufacture, fruit growing, and so forth would climb to such prohibitive price levels as to handicap fatally the Canadian producer.

We must stop the forest fires or face commercial consequences that no Canadian cares to contemplate. If more rangers, better patrols, better equipment and educational propaganda will prevent such fires, then our Provincial Governments, owning the forest lands and drawing millions of dollars from royalties and dues on the forest resources, should not hesitate to spend not merely a quarter or a sixth of their forest revenues on fire prevention, as at present, but three-quarters or more until by human organization we have driven the fire-breed into a corner. The forest resources are now too far reduced to permit of any further inroads by human carelessness. We must bear in mind always that the forests of today are partly owned by future generations. In the words of Ruskin: "We have no right by anything we do or neglect to do to involve them in unnecessary penalties or to deprive them of benefits which are theirs by right."

WHAT'S DOING IN THE MONEY AND STOCK MARKETS TODAY

ASKS SUPPORT FOR WIDER USE OF CANADIAN PORTS

Local Board of Trade Seeks Co-operation of All Canadians in Building Up Our Own Trade Facilities.

Headed by the slogan "Canada's Maritime Commerce," the secretary of the St. John Board of Trade has sent a letter to the leading Boards of Trade, transportation companies, industrial organizations, exporters, etc., throughout the Dominion. The letter is as follows:

It has doubtless occurred to all thoughtful and progressive Canadian citizens that the time has arrived when careful consideration should be given to all factors associated with the development and progress of this fair Dominion of ours.

The Board of Trade of St. John is firmly of the opinion that, from a national as well as economic standpoint, Canadian railways and Canadian ports should be utilized for Canadian commerce to the fullest extent, because of the assistance they can render in the building up of the country.

This board has expressed hearty approval of the action of the Parliament of Canada in extending the British preferential tariff to goods shipped through the ports of Canada.

To attain its highest as a nation within the British Empire, Canada should fully utilize its ocean ports on both the Atlantic and Pacific, particularly those ports that are available for use in summer and winter, and that are within easy reach of the United Kingdom.

This fact was strongly impressed during the early years of the late war, when in the winter season the ports of Montreal and Quebec were closed, and when U. S. neutrality prevented the use of U. S. ports for the handling of war traffic.

Fortunately, Canada and Great Britain had at their command the Maritime Provinces ports of St. John and Halifax, and through them Canada was able to lend a great assistance to the Motherland.

With respect to marine insurance rates, the St. John Board of Trade has recommended to Lloyd's that the Maritime Province ports mentioned above should be placed on the same footing as the North Atlantic U. S. ports.

It is the feeling of the St. John Board of Trade that if the manufacturers and exporters of the north and western Canada will assist in obtaining a fuller utilization of Canada's open ports, it will result in bettering business conditions and in building up Canada as a nation, but it will also help to create an absolute unity and co-operative spirit among Canadians from coast to coast.

Your assistance and that of your organization in bringing about this desirable result is earnestly and respectfully requested.

BUSINESS AND BONDS.

(A. E. Ames & Co's. Circular.) There are investment opportunities in midland areas which are overlooked. As in many other lines of business, there is in the bond business a seasonal influence.

There are, however, many general considerations which point to a heavy demand for investments shortly. Conditions from coast to coast point towards a larger measure of prosperity.

There is an unusually wide selection of stocks at present, and it is well diversified. Those who make a selection at the present time can, therefore, feel sure, not only of having a wide range to select from, but that purchases may be made at prices which will not likely be duplicated later on.

FIRST IMPRESSION OF THE U. S.

From the Brooklyn Eagle.

ARTIFICIAL LUMBER GIVES PROMISE OF STRUCTURAL USE

Washington, July 9.—(By The Associated Press)—Experiments in the making of "artificial" lumber are arousing increasing interest among government officials and leaders in the lumber industry.

Although none of the product has been marketed, officials of the National Lumber Manufacturers' Association declare that tests already made of a synthetic composition produced by Minnesota lumber interests, show it possesses many qualities making it available for structural purposes.

The experiments are based on something the same principle as that employed in the manufacture of paper from wood pulp. In the process of making the material, the wood is broken up into small chips and branches of young trees, but the leaves and smaller parts are well ground up and mixed with other substances, virtually eliminating waste.

Officials of the Lumber Manufacturers' Association declare that if a process of this sort can be perfected, the result may be to revolutionize the entire lumber industry.

From the time it is made into planks and boards and applied in construction, the lumber industry is expected to be benefited.

According to the Manufacturers' Association, tests have shown the artificial lumber to have a satisfactory tensile strength and to be capable of being sawed, planed and nailed, so that the product lacks only the charm of the grain effects of natural wood.

It is hoped that the first of the new sections will be launched by next autumn. When the new sections have been added the dock will be capable of receiving the largest battleship at present afloat, or the Nelson or Rodney nose building. The value of such a dock at Singapore would be incalculable.

The greater part of the dock lies in the Meadeys, near Chatham. After the Armistice it was towed in sections across the North Sea from Germany.

Two years ago the Admiralty offered to sell the huge structure to some British shipping firms, and at that time it was reported that the Germans were willing to buy it back.

TREATY AGREEMENT EVADED BY SOVIETS

Warsaw, June 4.—(By mail)—Since the signing of the Treaty of Riga between Poland and Russia in 1920, Poland has been playing a sort of hunt-the-thimble game in Russia for her art treasures.

These treasures comprise bronzes, pictures, tapestries, statues, bric-a-brac, and various art collections that were taken to Russia either in the days of the Monarchy or during the war owing to the German invasion of Poland.

In addition to these historical and artistic objects, machinery evacuated from the factories and rolling stock has to be returned and reparations made in gold.

The principle of restitution is established, but infinite patience and tact has to be pitted against Soviet procrastination and chicanery.

The Polish delegation concerned comprises sixty members, each expert in his own special subject, and is divided into nine sections; the property for which they are in search has been dispersed all over Russia; and it is no light task to follow up the scanty clues and to prove the original Polish ownership, opposed as the delegation is every hindrance that possible resistance and bureaucracy can compass, and at the same time refute the charge of "economic espionage."

To make the task more difficult many of the collections have been scattered, and it is not whole libraries but in many cases individual books or objects that are the subject of protracted negotiations.

The experts have to wander far and wide with bad communications, where they experience to the full the ignorance and power of the local Soviet officials, who, owing to the decentralized system of administration, pay little regard to treaties or agreements made in Moscow.

Having overcome the local authorities, the resistance from five central authorities has to be dealt with—namely, the Extraordinary Commission for Combating Counter-Revolution (Cheka), the People's Commission for Foreign Affairs, the Ministry of Interior, the Ministry of Public Works (Narkomfin), and lastly, the Customs authorities. All who give information as to the location of any objects are liable to be threatened with severe penalties.

Diamonds and precious stones were, by agreement, handed over in lots of gold; but apart from the difference in valuation, a sufficiently difficult matter to assess, many of the stones offered were found to be false.

The account of this vast search is a long story of baffling deception which had almost left it during the depression of 1921. It is evidence also that the farmers are beginning to place less confidence in propaganda from their troubles by legislation.

As a result greater attention is being given to improved methods of agriculture. Most of those farmers who have been able to pass successfully through the period of price adjustment have not relied on what-growing alone, but such as dairy products and poultry.

By producing on the farm itself most of the food products needed at home they have been able to avoid piling up store bills. That maize farming is making substantial headway is evidenced by a recent report of the Saskatchewan Department of Agriculture which shows that during the first three months of the current year 306,683 lb. more butter were produced than in the corresponding months of 1922.

The increasing production and the high quality of this butter are attracting the attention of buyers, who are prepared to handle it provided that a steady supply is available in large quantities and of dependable quality.

Near the corner of Hylard and Sherbrooke streets, yesterday a Chevrolet automobile owned and driven by Douglas Laird crashed into an orange-colored taxi belonging to the Seattle Taxi Company, owned by a man named McKenna. Both cars were considerably damaged but neither driver was hurt.

BY STEAMSHIP AND RAIL. CHANGE IN SERVICE. ST. JOHN AND DIGBY. Effective on Monday, July 16, the S. S. Empress will leave St. John at 12.15 a. m., Atlantic line, daily except Sunday, instead of 7.30 a. m. as at present.

Seek Prevention As Well As Cure. Birmingham Inaugurates New Research Movement for Mental Disorders.

Birmingham, June 17.—(By mail)—Investigation into mental disorders will receive a new stimulus from the scheme inaugurated at Birmingham which, on Saturday, received the benediction of the Minister of Health, Mr. Neville Chamberlain. The Corporation have established a joint board of research which aims at assisting prevention as well as encouraging the more effective curative treatment of mental disease.

They have been fortunate in securing as an honorary director Sir Frederick W. Mott, who has prepared a detailed syllabus of pathological work and of examination of specimens which could be undertaken by mental hospitals. Laboratory accommodation and an X-ray room have been provided and equipped for temporary use at the City Mental Hospital at Holywell, near Birmingham, but it is the intention later to transfer these activities to the University, so that the work may be in direct association with the general pathological work of the university.

The Minister of Health paid an informal visit of inspection to Holywell on Saturday afternoon and, recalling the satisfaction which it gave him in a part in the starting of a school of tropical medicine in this country, he said he had no hesitation in giving the new venture his approval. Mental affliction was not something quite apart and in a class by itself, but was merely one manifestation of disease and was to be treated and studied and investigated on the same lines as other kinds of physical disease. There were many causes and many steps towards a cure that could be done to ascertain what those causes were.

As to the value of research he pointed to the investigation of Dr. Dreyer, of Oxford, into tuberculosis, which, he said, had opened up a new field in the treatment of that most distressing and devastating malady. He considered that in the Birmingham scheme there were all the materials of a really great advance in future.

C. J. MILLIGAN RETURNS TO N. B.

Gets Important Appointment on the C. N. R. at Moncton.

On Way Now from Regina to Take Up Post of Regional Counsel for Atlantic Division of the Government Railway.

Many will be interested to learn that C. J. Milligan, for years active in the life of St. John—his native city—in sport, in politics, as a lawyer and as manager of The Daily Telegraph for some time—is returning to New Brunswick to live after fifteen years in the Canadian West.

Mr. Milligan has been appointed regional counsel for the Atlantic Division of the Canadian National Railways, with headquarters in Moncton, and is on his way east to take up his new duties. He had planned on leaving Regina, yesterday, but he is on his way east to take up his new duties in Regina. Mr. Milligan has been successfully established for fifteen years in Regina. Mrs. Milligan and their two daughters and youngest son, Harold, will join him in Moncton in September. The oldest boys, Walter and Charles, will remain in the West. The two daughters, who have been in educational work in the West since completion of their college courses, only recently returned after an extended tour of Europe and a lengthy stay in England with relatives of their mother.

Mr. Milligan and family will be very heartily welcomed back to their home province.

The following is from the Regina Leader of July 4:

"Resident of Regina since 1908 and Master of Titles and Inspector of Legal Offices since the inception of these offices, C. J. Milligan has accepted his position to become regional counsel for the Atlantic Division of the Canadian National Railways.

The announcement is conveyed in a memorandum issued by the Attorney-General, Col. J. A. Cross, in which it is stated: "C. J. Milligan, Master of Titles and Inspector of Legal Offices has resigned his office for the purpose of assuming a responsible position in Eastern Canada. Mr. Milligan has been in the service of the Provincial Government for the past fifteen years."

"It has been decided to divide the office of Master of Titles and Inspector of Legal Offices, W. G. Haultain, Registrar of the Assiniboia Land Registration District, will be appointed Master of Titles, and will also retain his present appointment of Registrar. Mr. Haultain is senior registrar of Land Titles in the Province. D. M. Woodhams, who has been assistant to Mr. Milligan for some years is to be appointed Inspector of Legal Offices. In making the new appointments the Government has recognized the principle of promotion within the service. Dunning Pays Tribute.

"In referring to the forthcoming departure of Mr. Milligan, Premier Dunning, with whose remarks the Attorney-General, Mr. Cross, is in agreement, in the highest terms of appreciation of the services rendered to the Government by the former Master of Titles during the fifteen years he has been in its service. "We will certainly hope," said the Premier, "that Mr. Milligan has every success in his new appointment with its enlarged opportunities."

"C. J. Milligan came to St. John in 1908 direct from St. John, N. B., the city of his birth, where he had been practicing law for some time. He was transferred to the Railways Department at Ottawa, and later to St. John, N. B., where he was appointed Master of Titles and Inspector of Legal Offices, which dates from July 1, 1918. Mr. Milligan will leave next Sunday. While occupying the office which he is about to leave, Mr. Milligan has had the status of a Deputy Minister. In his new appointment he will be the legal head of one of the three main divisions into which the Canadian National Railways are separated for purpose of administration, under the head office in Montreal.

"Since his residence here Mr. Milligan has been a member of Knox Church, has been connected with the Wascana Lodge A. F. and A. M., a member of the Assiniboia Club and a former president of the Regina Boat Club.

"Mrs. Milligan and some members of his family will follow to St. John two months hence. Charles, a son who has business interests here will remain, while Walter, another son, who is practicing law in Winnipeg, is expected to stay there. The other members of the family, Alice, Doris and Donald, the last named a native son of Regina, will accompany Mrs. Milligan.

New Appointees.

"W. G. Haultain, the new Master of Titles, a pioneer in the province having left his home in Toronto to come west 48 years ago, on March 17, 1880. His services with the Government extend over 2 years, commencing under the present Lieutenant-Governor, H. S. Newlands, who then was registrar of Titles as a clerk in the Land Titles office in April, 1901.

"In the following year Mr. Haultain was transferred to the Yukon. He was Deputy Registrar at Dawson City from January, 1902 to the fall of 1904, when he was recalled to Regina. Judge Forbes succeeded the present Lieutenant-Governor in the Land Titles Office and later in 1907, on his appointment to the Bench, was succeeded in turn by Mr. Haultain.

"Eleven years is the length of service with the Provincial Government of D. M. Woodhams, who succeeds Mr. Milligan as Inspector of Legal Offices. Four of these years were spent with the Provincial Auditor and the remainder as assistant to Mr. Milligan.

"Previous to entering the Government service Mr. Woodhams had home-stayed and farmed 100 miles from a railway near what is now Anerley, Sask. He was born in Charing, Kent, England, and has resided in the province for 18 years."

POOR HAY CROP OUTLOOK IN N. B.

Fredericton Reports Strawberries Plentiful and Likely Cheap This Week.

(Special To The Times)
Fredericton, N. B., July 9.—The provincial department of agriculture reports an improvement in crop conditions during the fortnight ended Saturday. Rain, which was general in the province fell on June 28. With the commencement of the haying season two weeks distant the outlook is for a very poor crop. Only fifty per cent. of the average hay crop will be harvested on the uplands. The marsh and intervals will yield an average crop.

The potato crop is well above ground and the cultivation is in progress. The acreage is seventy-five per cent. of normal planting.

The late sown crops, turnips and buckwheat are above ground and the thinning of the root crop is in progress. The acreage sown to roots is normal.

The horticultural division reports a light crop of apples in prospect. This is on account of the heavy drop due to the severe winter. Some varieties may not be seriously affected.

Strawberries are a heavy crop in all sections but are in need of rain just now. Shipping to Montreal on a large scale will begin today from all shipping sections. Locally low prices dropped rapidly on Saturday. It is likely that the price this week will be low on account of the heavy crop.
