DOWNING STREET THRONGED AS CABINET HOLDS SESSION

Asquith's Motion Condemning Action of Lords in Course of Preparation Today—Stormy Campaign Opening—Some of the Lords to Take the Stump—Contest Lively in Ireland—Liberals and Laborites Join Forces

London, Dec. 1.—The political crisis caused by the unprecedented action of the House of Lords in refusing its consent to the government's budget, is developing rapidly. The cabinet, which had already determined upon the policy it would pursue in the event of Lord Lansdowne's adjournment being carried, a conclusion which was foreseen from the first, had an unusually early meeting today to condemn its decision and consider the wording of a motion which Premier Asquith will take to the House of Commons to adopt. This motion will constitute a repudiation against what the Liberals contend to have been an invasion by the peers, of the rights of the lower house.

STRIKE OF THE SWITCHMEN TIES UP FREIGHT

The Effect in Various Parts of Western States—Superintendents Make Up Trains

St. Paul, Minn., Dec. 1.—Both sides in the difficulty between the railroads of the northwest and the Switchmen's Union of North America, which resulted in a walk-out of the switchmen between here and the Pacific Coast last night, claimed to have the situation in hand this morning. Passenger traffic was handled in the two cities last night and this morning with considerable delay, but little freight was handled anywhere. The switchmen are holding out for an increase of six cents an hour in wages with double time for overtime, Sundays and holidays, together with other concessions, while the railroads claim that things will adjust themselves to their normal condition within a few days. While some new men have been employed at passenger stations, so far as can be learned early today no attempt had been made to bring in strike breakers, the railroads claiming there are enough old men left, together with others that can be pressed into service, to do the work.

POLLOCK RIP LIGHTSHIP IS OUT OF ORDER

Vessel Hit it Last Night—Warning Issued to Navigators to Look Out

Chatham, Mass., Dec. 1.—Something possibly a passing vessel, hit the Pollock Rip lightship during the night, for at dawn today the beacon, which is one of the most important on the coast, was discovered riding without her signal mast. No requests for assistance were flying, but it was evident that a new vessel will have to be substituted quickly, as her post marks the sharp turn in Pollock Rip, and while the light of the lightship is a sufficient guide by day, the absence of lights at night would prove a serious menace to coastwise shipping.

THE THREE KEYS BY FREDERICK ORMOND.

(Conclusion) "Morris," she whispered, "dear Morris, do you remember what the Good Book says, and do you not know that it is true? Though your sin be as scarlet, they shall be washed as white as wool. I do not know what you mean—I do not know what it is that you have done; but whatever it is, God will forgive you." In the midst of his misery, strangely enough, Lathrop suddenly remembered the note that Millington had sent to Rita. Now he took it from his pocket, and, without raising his eyes, gave it to her. Wonderingly, she opened it and read, and then she smiled through her unshed tears. "Look, Morris," she said. Mechanically, he took the note from her, and scanned the words his friend had written: "My dear Rita, "You must forgive me for the trick I played on you. Never mind now why I did it. Perhaps you will be able to guess what I mean. I release you from your promise. I really don't want you to marry me. In about half-an-hour I am going to ask Edna Trevor to be my wife. I think I made me another promise, and that I must hold to it. You agreed to help me save Morris. There is only one way to do it: Marry him!" "Jack Millington."

THE LATE REV. DR. DONALD MACRAE

Many with deep regret read in the Times last night that Rev. Dr. Donald MacRae had died in Calgary. He was born in Hopewell, Pictou county, N. S., in 1833, where his father, Rev. John MacRae, was pastor of a church. When he was about five years of age he went to Scotland, where he pursued his studies in the universities of Aberdeen and Edinburgh and the theological studies in connection therewith, passing his examinations for the degree of M. A. at Marischal College, Aberdeen. He was quickly licensed by the Presbytery of Aberdeen and ordained a minister of the Established Church of Scotland. From 1858, at the invitation of the Synod of Nova Scotia and took up the pastorate of St. Columba and St. Paul's churches in New Brunswick. There he continued until 1874, when he accepted a call to St. Stephen's church in this city.

While pastor of St. Stephen's church he threw himself energetically into the work of organizing home missions. He founded the Women's Home Mission Society, and introduced the Order of Ordained Missionaries, which has done so much for Presbyterianism in the home field. Dr. MacRae held a high position as a pulpit orator and has written numerous magazine articles. He was a favorite lecturer and many of his sermons, lectures and addresses have been published and commanded wide circulation. In 1883, at the unanimous election moderator of the general assembly and appointed a delegate to the Pan- Presbyterian council. In 1881 Queen's University, Kingston, conferred upon him the degree of doctor of divinity.

He was a leading member of the hymnal committee of the Presbyterian church in this city. This pastorate he held until 1896, when the general assembly appointed him principal of Morin College, Quebec. He resigned his principalship in 1900. In 1903, he acted as professor of systems of theology and homiletics in Queen's University, Kingston. Dr. MacRae always took an active part in many societies connected with the union movement, which in 1875 culminated in the formation of the Presbyterian church of Canada. With the late Principal Grant and others, he took a leading part in the so-called heavy trial of the Rev. Mr. McDonnell, of Toronto. In 1880 he was unanimously chosen moderator of the general assembly and appointed a delegate to the Pan- Presbyterian council. In 1881 Queen's University, Kingston, conferred upon him the degree of doctor of divinity.

In 1863 he married Catherine Harriet, youngest daughter of the Hon. Kenneth McLean, M. L. C., a prominent resident of St. John's (Nfld.). To them were born thirteen children—the late Alexander W. MacRae, A. M., D. C. L., and Kenneth J. MacRae, B. C. C. L., principal of the Canadian Western College, Calgary; John A. MacRae, manager for R. G. Dun & Co., Quebec; Rev. Donald N. MacRae, B. A., B. D., Presbyterian minister at Grosvenor (Man.); Colin C. MacRae, with the Bank of N. S.; Silla I. Campbell, wife of O. R. Campbell, of the Bank of Montreal, Glace Bay, and Miss Violet D. MacRae, a trained nurse in Boston. There are thirteen grand-children.

Dr. MacRae's first wife died in 1889, and in 1897 he married Janie, daughter of the late James Reed, of this city, who died in 1900. Dr. MacRae could trace his descent, on his mother's side, from the time of Robert Bruce, through the MacDonnells of Dunfries, one of whom took the Lorne brooch from Robert Bruce, and in that castle, according to tradition, the coronation stone was kept for a long period. In 1906 Rev. Dr. MacRae celebrated his fiftieth anniversary as minister. He was then accompanied by his wife, Mrs. Stephen MacRae.

NEW YORK FINANCIAL BUREAU.
 New York, Dec. 1.—Irregularity is likely today which, however, shows a tendency to balance and recover, so that day operators will find it advisable to buy on weakness for turns at least. Most of the developments thus far presented have been disconnected to a large extent and further trading would, in our judgment, produce a highly over-sold condition that would certainly result in sharp advances. As for the present the list is moving on a reduced trading area preparing for a discounting by advance later, the January disbursements after the opening of congress next week. The English budget rejection by the House of Lords is the important piece of news this morning. Its effect, market-wise, may be considerable, but it means enormous investment in American enterprises by British peers, because of the likelihood of a continuation of the new tax measures by re-election of the people next month in England and a resultant transfer of funds from British to other investment fields. The big railroad earnings of the Harriman lines will attract additional attention abroad in view of the budget news. It is noteworthy that the volume of traffic is steadily increasing on our railroads. The value of farm products is estimated to have increased $200,000,000 over 1908 during the current year. The American says the hearing of the American Tobacco case by the Supreme Court will not be heard until February, and a decision must come considerably later and that Washington does not wish prosecutions of any important anti-trust cases until after the decision. Tax being unwilling also to agitate Congress in fear of being charged with trying to influence the court in the Standard Oil and Tobacco matters. It is stated definitely that the copper merger has not been abandoned. Press comment and market literature are mixed in their views.

MORNING COTTON LETTER.
 New York, Dec. 1.—Little more can be said of the market for cotton at this writing. The report, which we now understand will be issued at the opening, next Wednesday, Dec. 8, on the government estimate of the crop which will be issued on Friday, December 19th, convince the world that the commercial crop will be under 11,000,000 bales, speculation may consider that a further advance in the price is warranted. If not further gains will depend on the sheer buying power of the bull leaders or upon a refusal of the south to market its supplies at present or lower prices. This at least seems to be the situation as we approach the government's report, with the added fact that the market has been undergoing a considerable period of speculative liquidation and that the technical position has been so much improved

MAJOR STEPHENS IN ST. JOHN WITH CHEERING MESSAGE

St. John's Future as Port—No Fear of Difficulties in Light of What Others Have Done—Would Like to See Us Part of Montreal

"I would like to see St. John one of the departments of the great port of Montreal, so that at the close of St. Lawrence navigation it could only be necessary to turn a switch and divert the traffic to this port.

The substance was one of the remarks of Major Stephens to the Canadian Club at luncheon today. He made a most interesting speech, bristling with facts and full of encouragement for St. John people. He was repeatedly cheered by the large audience as he dealt with Canada's transportation needs and dwelt upon the present need of developing our seaports.

President C. B. Allan was in the chair, and in opening made a very graceful reference and paid a fitting tribute to the late Dr. A. W. MacRae, who was a member of the club's executive.

Lieut. Gov. Fraser of Nova Scotia spoke briefly and declared that not a word of Major Stephens' address should be lost, as it was the most unique and valuable address on ports and port development he had ever heard. The governor was heartily cheered when he said there was no room for jealousy between ports. The luncheon was a great success.

In honor of Queen Alexandra's birthday the meeting sang "God Save the Queen." Major Stephens' subject was Canadian Transportation needs, and speaking to a Times reporter before the luncheon he said:

"I have chosen the subject for my address to the members of the Canadian Club of St. John because it is a question that must be looked at from an actual rather than from a local standpoint. If Canada has an outlet on the north Atlantic seaboard it is due to this city's sacrifice, sacrifice and the faith of the citizens of St. John.

"Transportation at the present moment is one of the most vital problems which the Canadian people are facing. Three years ago I had the pleasure of passing through the port of St. John on my way to visit the ports of Europe. Four months were spent in studying the administration, channel approaches and local conditions, obstacles surmounted and trade development following upon the visit. I am convinced that the fact that the old world ports, which are today the most important, have become so by the determination and business ability of their administrative bodies.

"I have been told that St. John possesses many features which make it difficult for its development. I have been told that tide vary at your port, making development slow and expensive and that the approaches to the sea are difficult, but I think that I shall be able to show you that an examination made between the present difficulties of the port of St. John with those of European ports makes a Canadian feel that nature has given to Canadians an inheritance which the people abroad have had to create with brain and muscle.

Glasgow, 100 years ago, was a town of 30,000 inhabitants. For twelve miles before the city the river Clyde was fordable and narrow, and the water was from 12 to 18 inches. Early efforts to deepen the Clyde channel were made with a piling and since that day nineteen millions of yards of earth have been excavated from the river bed and a twenty-eight foot channel created, together with the harbor, at a cost exceeding fifty millions of dollars.

"Glasgow is today the first commercial city of Scotland with a population of 900,000 people. It is situated upon a narrow island, and its largest harbor, built by the sea, is a winding tidal river, the great shipbuilding rival of Glasgow fifty years ago it had a channel depth of five or six feet of water and in half a century there have been taken from the river 120 million tons of all which had to be towed to sea and dumped. To-day it has a 28 foot channel all tide. To protect this immense dredging work, there have been constructed solid walls of masonry work to last a century. It cost, to do the work, 870,000,000."

"But today it is a seaport and in that time a 28 foot harbor has been dug and out of the river the harbor of Manchester was created.

"Antwerp is twenty-six miles up a river, has spent 100,000,000 to deepen her channel to 28 feet. The river is self is a tidal river shaped like the letter 'S'.

In conclusion the speaker said, "The Scientific American is authority for the statement that there is enough power in the reversing falls of St. John to electrify Belgium, Pacific, Intercolonial, and G. T. P. from St. John to Montreal. Do this and you will electrify enough business and pleasure traffic to carry you into the Glasgow of the lower provinces."

SIXTH TRUANT WITHIN WEEK

Laid in Court Today More Penitent Than Others—Campaign to Compel Attendance

The authorities are certainly becoming active in their pursuit of truants and in their efforts to make them comply with the law by going to school regularly. Six another, making the sixth to be dealt with this week, was in court this morning, reported by Truant Officer McManis. His name is George F. Farns, his age ten, and his record on a par with that of the others previously reported. He was absent from the Queen's Highway 60 to 67.34, Twin City 110, Power 127.

Of these days absent he had been properly excused by the visit of his father. His father was present this morning and said he had tried many ways to induce his boy to attend school but to no avail. Judge Ritchie talked kindly to the lad and said that he would have to spend a little time with him until he promised to go to school.

The young fellow was the most penitent of the lot, as he cried bitterly when told of what was in store for him if he was taken back to remain during the day.

INSURGENTS GET MORE ARMS

Suggestion of Peaceful Settlement is Made by Mexico

Bluefields, Nicaragua, Dec. 1.—The Norwegian steamer "Stavanger" has arrived here from New York with arms and ammunition for the insurgents. The latter are now well equipped and are also supplied with machine guns, and automatic rifles. Accordingly, it is anticipated at the insurgent camp that the plan of action will be changed, General Estrada immediately assuming the aggressive.

General Chomara has arrived here. He reports the situation at Greytown is unchanged. It is reported that the Nicaraguan president has fewer than 5,000 troops at all points with which to attack the insurgents and regain the coast which he has lost.

Reinforcements have been sent to Gen. Matuty, who reported a decisive victory over the government troops near Rama on Monday. He announces that he expects another engagement today.

Mexico City, Mex., Nov. 29.—A suggestion of a peaceful solution of the Nicaraguan trouble has been made by the government of Mexico to the United States.

YOUNG WOMAN DEAD IN BATH TUB, AUNT HELD AS MURDRESS

Strange Happenings in "House of Mystery" in Brooklyn Suburb Led to Investigation—Human Hair and Child's Skull in Stove

New York, Dec. 1.—The mystery surrounding the gruesome death of Mrs. O. W. Sneed, a young Brooklyn woman, whose body was found lying in a bath tub in a vacant house in East Orange yesterday, was still unsolved today. The police have taken into custody the victim's aged aunt, Miss Virginia Wardlaw, and charged her with the crime.

Clues led the detectives to Flatbush, Brooklyn, early today, and what they found caused them to attempt the establishment of a connection between the death of Mrs. Sneed and happenings in a so-called "house of mystery" in the Brooklyn suburb, where Miss Wardlaw, Mrs. Sneed and two strange old ladies lived until recently.

When Mrs. Sneed's body was found it was at first believed she had committed suicide. Investigation led the police to believe that the woman had met death by drowning and, apparently, contradictory stories told by Miss Wardlaw caused her detention. Further probing disclosed that Mrs. Sneed had an insurance of $1,000 on her life and that the two women had come to East Orange from Flatbush.

Search of the "house of mystery" in Brooklyn today led to the discovery of blood spots in various rooms of the house. In the kitchen stove the police found two bundles of human hair, which crashed down in the stove were found four human bones, which were partly burned. A skull of a child two years old, was brought forth from the stove.

Blood spots in four rooms of the upper floor were discovered, and the detectives have ordered the cellar to be dug up and the floors torn up. Mrs. Sneed's husband disappeared last summer.

Close consideration was given today to a note found pinned to a pile of clothing on the floor near the bathtub in which Mrs. Sneed's body lay. The note, which the writer's little daughter and other dear ones had hid and that she had been prostrated with illness. "When you read this I will have committed suicide," the note continued. It was signed "O. W. S. Sneed."

In the Flatbush house quantities of scraps of burned letters were found and these were carefully examined by the police today on the theory that an attempt may have been made to destroy the letters and with them specimens of a handwriting that might be wanted for purposes of identification.

A despatch from Fredericton today stated that last night was the coldest yet experienced this season. Ice formed along the boundary of the river but the channel was free. With another night such a last given would be said.

MIKE TWIN SULLIVAN OUTCLASSES JIMMY GARDNER

Latter Has No Chance in Twelve Round Go—Question of National League President a Disturbing Matter—General News of Sport

Jimmy Gardner of Lowell never had a chance in his twelve-round fight with Mike (Twin) Sullivan of Cambridge before the Anchor Athletic Club in the Grand Opera House, New Haven, Conn., on Monday night. Sullivan boxed him right and left, but the blows were light and the crowd refused to take the bout seriously. It was hissed several times and once or twice it was punctuated by cries of "freeze up."

McGuire, Sullivan carried the fighting to his man throughout the match but his blows rained lightly down and on one occasion Gardner smilingly dropped his guard and allowed Sullivan to beat a tattoo on his cheeks.

A crowd of 3000 packed the theatre. This is the fifth meeting of the rival middleweights. Sullivan has twice won the decision and the other two bouts were draws. No decision was allowed tonight, but Sullivan outpointed his man all the way.

Lewis was a challenge from Paris to the winner of the Jimmy Gardner-Mike Twin Sullivan bout. Lewis stands ready to offer the winner a fat sum if he will cross the Atlantic and tackle Willie. He says:

"I expect that Papke will meet me here the first part of January. If he comes he will draw a record house and that will amount to something for Jesette and McVey last season drew $18,000, but Papke and I will beat that if the promoters are judges of what the people want. Harry Lewis would have done well here for we would have got a gate of at least $10,000 and that's double what we should draw at any place in the states. The Salvans would be great cards here as would be Jack O'Brien and Al Kaufman. One big fight that will get well in Wales with Tom Thomas, the English middleweight champion. Thomas is reputed to be the best man that England has produced in years. In fact, Owen Moran and Jim Driscoll claim that he will stop me in twenty rounds."

"We will probably fight at Mountain Ash, where Freddie Welsh and young Josephs fought. They drew a gate of $21,000 and Thomas is a better card than Welsh, and I am a better card than Josephs, and Thomas says we will beat that gate by several thousand."

Al Kaufman, the California heavyweight, says that he stands ready to fight Jeffries from six to 20 rounds within 90 days, winner take all. He also states he can whip Jack Johnson if the latter will agree to a 45-round mill.

Bing battles this week are: Tonight—George Alger v. Billy Nixon, Mike Haley v. Young Jefferson and Young Delbert v. Frank Russell, Apollo A. C., Salem.

Spurs—Jeffries-Gatch show, Armory A. A., Boston; Joe Walsh v. Charles Goodman, Albany; Young Zimzer v. Phil McGovern, Pittsburgh; Kasey Kline v. Frankie Nell, Baltimore; Kid Broad v. Joe Seizer, Lancaster, Penn.

Friday—Kid Johnson v. Morris Bloom, Omaha, Neb.

Pittsburg fans are aroused now over rumors of trouble at the coming meeting of the National League and Barney Dreyfus, owner of the Pittsburg champions, and of Forbes Field, is being urged to take his club out of the National League and join fortunes with the Americans.

The impulsive fans who advocate this have heard that the new purchase of the Philadelphia club may swing the balance of power to the enemies of the Pittsburg magnate, and result in the election of a president other than Heiler, whom Dreyfus has been committed, and they also understand that in such event Pittsburg club may not be allowed to retain the recognition in English history to which it has been accustomed and to which its prominence in baseball would seem to entitle it.

No matter how many surprises are sprung or how many clubs change hands in the National League before the annual meeting at the Waldorf on December 14, John A. Heiler will be a candidate for re-election as president. He was prepared to withdraw rather than plunge the organization into trouble over his candidacy, and made such an offer to Barney Dreyfus, the Pittsburg club owner, who has been a controlling power in the old circuit. Dreyfus would not listen to such a plan.

Baseball John M. Ward, on whom the baseball magnates have united as the man to take Heiler's place, says that he will not accept the presidency unless he gets control for ten years and the right to name his own secretary. If Ward means what he says it absolutely out for a ten-year term. He is holding out no chance of his being elected.

The Turf Several horses which had been shipped to El Paso, Texas, for the Jutez (Mexico) race meeting, scheduled to open December 14, have died, owing to the high altitude. Martinez, owned by A. T. Vandeter, May Hanley, owned by John Harris, and Louisiana, owned by John Merklein, died. The latter horse was valued at $5,000. Recently a Morgan stallion valued at $3,000 on exhibition there, died of pneumonia, and Patricia, owned by H. G. Bedwell, is seriously ill with the same ailment. It is believed the horses caught cold while crossing the mountains and the high altitude aggravated the trouble.

Sport Briefs The mile record for motor cycles, 54.43 seconds, was broken at San Jose, Cal., Sunday by W. G. Collins on a seven-horse power machine. His time was 53.43 seconds.

Following a mass meeting of athletes, business men and city officials at New Orleans on Friday last, at which the requisite amount of money was raised, there was forwarded to Everett C. Brown, of Chicago, the new head of the A. A. U., a formal acceptance of the holding of the national track and field championships of the A. A. U. at New Orleans in 1910.

According to a rumor which comes from an apparently reliable source, Jim Crow, of the Irish-American A. C., the amateur distance king, will shortly turn professional.

OPINIONS ON USE OF STOVAINE VARY AMONG MEDICAL MEN

Prof. Jonnesco Declares His Demonstrations Successful—Lancet Takes Other View—French Expert Says General Application Would Be a Crime

London, Nov. 27.—Thomas Jonnesco, head of the Medical Department of the University of Bucharest, who has been demonstrating successfully here the use of stovaine as an anesthetic, has said to New York the late fromprincess Ocellie on a brief visit, at the invitation of a number of medical friends in the States. While there he will demonstrate his method of the use of stovaine in conjunction with strychnine.

"I did not intend to stay," said Dr. Jonnesco in conversation before his departure from London, "but I have discovered the miraculous powers of strychnine added to stovaine as an absolutely harmless and thoroughly efficient anesthetic."

Dr. Jonnesco showed a number of photographs of patients going through surgical operations—men and women of all ages—and he knew so little that he was talking to me all the time. I was operating on him. As you see, his eyes were closed and he knew so little that I was busy upon his brain that he kept asking when I would begin the operation for his strychnine.

"It has come to stay," added Prof. Jonnesco. "In many European countries its marvelous powers are fully recognized and I am glad that during my short stay in London, so conservative in everything, I succeeded in convincing many of the leading medical and scientific authorities. The possibilities of the new anesthetic are obviously boundless."

Lancet Has Other View The Lancet this week gives a technical description of Prof. Jonnesco's demonstrations, which, it says, were attended with "a comparative want of success. One case was almost perfectly successful, but in the second—laparotomy for gastric carcinoma—there was a straining expiration which interfered with the surgeon's manipulations to an undesirable extent."

In the third case a high injection was made in order to procure anaesthesia for a mastoid operation. After two injections, although the skin was perfectly analgesic, there was so much agitation on the part of the patient when the peritoneum was dealt with that chloroform was resorted to and the operation was performed under its influence.

In conclusion the Lancet says that Prof. Jonnesco lays great stress on the importance of not sterilizing stovaine itself. The chemists who prepared the stovaine for this occasion declare that it was not sterilized. Its behavior, however, suggested to some that in reality there had, perhaps been a mistake in this respect, and that this was the want of complete success in the demonstration may have been due.

In Paris Paris, Nov. 27.—The injection of stovaine into the spinal column to produce anaesthesia is not approved at the first blush by many French surgeons. One of the most eminent of them, Prof. Pozzi, of the Broca Hospital, when asked his opinion of the treatment, tersely described it as "a mistake."

"To witness an operation upon oneself," he said, "might be attractive to some patients, but even he called a theatrical treat; but I'm certain a great majority of patients would suffer greatly mentally through the horror this might occasion. It is not to be had, and especially so in some cases, notably where there is heart or kidney trouble."

"I myself have used it, and this proves that my opinion is not prejudiced. It would be the gravest kind of a mistake, even a crime, to encourage its indiscriminate use. It is not to be had, and especially so in some cases, notably where there is heart or kidney trouble."

Dr. Jonnesco reached New York yesterday. He is expected to stay here for some time.

KING'S HORSES WON $100,720 IN SEASON

His Majesty Second on the List of English Turf Winners

Manchester, Eng., Nov. 30.—The Manchester November handicap of 1,800 sovereigns, for three-year-olds and upwards, distance one mile and a half, the last important event in flat racing of the present season, was won here today by Admiral Togo III, 100 to 7; Rathles, 7 to 2, was second, and Rockbury, a third.

Also ran: Dibs, Royal Beams, Lafayette, Sansve, Symon's Pride, Old Child, Laomedon, Fair Don, The Marquis, Lord Lad, Thunderbolt, Simonsen, Rose Royal.

The season which closed today was chiefly remarkable for the success of King Edward and the "American invaders." Mr. Faria heads the list of winning owners, with £138,185 to his credit. He is followed by the Duke of Devonshire, with £102,730. His Majesty's prominence in the list was due to the achievements of two of his horses—Guinea stakes at Newmarket and the Derby at Epsom, and Princess De Galles, who finished second, both in the One Thousand Guinea stakes and in the Oaks.

Mr. Faria's Bayardo, who proved such a disappointment in the Two Thousand Guinea stakes and in the Derby, but who since then has won eleven races, valued at £123,885, was the chief contribution to Mr. Faria's success.

One of the outstanding features of the season, however, was the successful campaign organized by H. P. Whitney and his trainer, A. J. Joyner. Mr. Whitney, with a total of $45,226, was seventh in the list of winning owners. He had 10 horses, not less than 100 pounds, his last being that on Admiral Togo, who finished first in the Manchester November handicap this afternoon. But if a true test of jockeyship is a percentage of wins to mounts, "Danny" Maher, the American jockey, still holds the lead he has enjoyed for the past five years without a break, his percentage being 27.33 to Wootton's 21.19.

Besides her husband she is survived by three brothers, Dr. W. Russell, member of the New York City Ass'n, E. Howard Russell, principal of the Victoria High School, and Fred Ross, a well-known lawyer. Her father, Lamont, of Silvertown, Col., Mrs. Ross, Miss Russell and Miss Ann Russell, all of Victoria.

COMPULSORY EDUCATION IN SASKATCHEWAN

Regina, Sask., Nov. 30.—In the legislative hall Mr. Calder moved the second reading of the bill to amend the school ordinances, providing compulsory education. "Every member of the house," said Mr. Calder, "will agree that it is the duty of the legislature and the school board to see that the attendance of children at the schools in the province. In so far as rural communities are concerned conditions probably are not too bad, but conditions exist in the larger towns and cities such as should be put an end to as soon as possible. In cities like Regina, Saskatoon and Prince Albert, there are a large number of children who never attend school at all and who should be compelled to attend."

I Give My Electric Belt Free

Take my Electric Belt for what it will do for you. Wear it while you sleep at night or while you are resting after your work. You will find it a vitalizer, a tonic to your nerves, a rejuvenator of waning vitality. Use it for any ailment which drugs have failed to cure, and you will never cease praising it.

I claim that I can cure weak men; that I can pump new life into worn-out bodies; that I can cure your pains and aches, lumber up your joints, and make you feel as frisky and vigorous as you ever did in your life. That's claiming a good deal, but I have got a good remedy, and know it well enough to take all the risk if you will pay me when you are cured. No man loses on this. If the cure is worth the price, you don't have to pay for it until you get it. When you are ready to say you are a big, husky and frisky specimen of vigorous manhood, then you have got an ache or pain in your whole body and that you feel better than you ever did in your life, I get paid. If you can't say it after using my belt for three months, then give me back my old belt and I won't ask a cent. All I ask is security while you use it.

A short time ago I took a case that I couldn't cure, and I didn't see why, as I had cured hundreds like it. Anyway, my patient returned the belt and said I hadn't done him any good. He said he thought I had treated him honestly and wanted to pay me the cost of the belt, because it couldn't be used again. I refused and told him that I had made a contract to cure him or get nothing, and I wouldn't take a dollar I hadn't earned.

READ THE PROOF Nothing Short of Miracles are Being Performed Every Day

Dear Sir,—Words would fail to tell you the good that your Belt has done for me. At the time I got it, I had been invalid for nearly 2 years. Some of the ailments I had for over 20 years. Well, Doctor, I often say—God bless you—and thank God that ever such a thing was discovered by the art of man. The Rheumatic pains prevented me from sleeping or walking. One night, when suffering greatly and could not sleep, I placed it around my leg, and after 6 hours sleep, I awoke as free from pain as when 10 years old. The next night I applied it to the other leg with the same result, and have not had any pains since. It has done its work and I would not sell it or exchange it for any other Belt. I expect that through my recommendation you will sell not less than a dozen Belts, as a great many came to me to find out the results in my case, and I've got a number ready to turn on the map. The same as 30 years ago. I told them that it was Dr. McLaughlin's Belt that had done it all. Now, sir, you can use my name in any way, as I am prepared to back what I say is true. Hoping the Lord will bless you and that you will be ever successful in your business.

From your friend, JAMES WAY, Apple Hill, Ont. Dear Sir,—Since I last wrote to you I feel like a new man. I now eat meat which I have not for three years, and I can work all the time and do hard work too. I thank you a thousand times for having advertised your Belt in the papers and I shall recommend it to all the people who have the same sickness as I had. Yours very truly, MILES AMELOTTE.

Dear Sir,—I cannot speak too highly of your Belt. I cannot speak of its faults, as it has none whatever. My appetite is good and I sleep well though I never was a heavy sleeper. You can use my name if you choose and my recommendation to you and every good quality you possess. I am pleased to publish in my case, I am hoping that you will do it for you, as I know it is all true and hope others who are suffering will just give it a fair trial and be convinced.

Dear Sir,—One year ago last February I was taken with Nervous Exhaustion (the Doctors pronounced it). I suffered all the tortures of that disease; was all run down, so weak I could hardly do anything at all. Since I began to use your Belt there has been a marked improvement in my condition in the different ways mentioned. I have slept good every night since wearing your Belt, which is one of the greatest blessings of mankind. I have a great deal more ambition; work used to seem such a mountain, now it seems more a pleasant work; my strength is better; digestion better; constipation about gone, which I was bothered with a great deal; head feels better and I feel far better in every way.

Yours truly, NELSON ROSE. South Bay, Ont. Dear Sir,—I have not a word to say to you about your Belt. I have not a word to say to you about your Belt. I have not a word to say to you about your Belt. I have not a word to say to you about your Belt.

NEWFOUNDLAND NOT READY FOR CONFEDERATION

Public Men Wary on the Subject But Union with Canada Looked For Some Time

Toronto, Nov. 29.—Confederation is a forbidden topic in Newfoundland politics, but it is discussed all the same, so J. B. St. John, M. P., found on a recent visit to Terra Nova. During Mr. Starr's trip to the island, he had occasion to meet Sir Edward Morris, Premier of the province of Newfoundland, and he took advantage of an opportunity to learn what the feeling was on the subject of the proposed union with the province of Canada.

"The attorney-general, Hon. Donald Morrison, was the only man I met on the island who was in favor of the union," said Mr. Starr, who openly announced that confederation was a proposition that was well worth Newfoundland's consideration. "The sentimentaries of the government are not in favor of the union, but the public men would commit themselves. As far as I learned, the only population were pretty much against the proposition."

"There was no real campaign in favor of confederation with all the facts before the people has ever been openly attempted, and it will be some time before any of the public leaders of public opinion would dare take the question up. There was, however, quite a deep undercurrent of feeling that confederation was the ultimate destiny of the colony."

Mr. Starr found St. John's a busy city. "It has a population of 28,000, and I looked upon the business being transacted the mystery to me was why the population was not doubled. The harbor was as good as a dead sea, fishing everywhere. "One Newfoundland pointed out to me that the main products of the island were cod, fish, and fish, and fish."

"St. John's is a distinctly English city. The book stores sell English books, and the dry goods stores sell English dress goods, and the people have a modified English accent all their own."

Fish Instead of Farm "Agriculture does not seem to have taken hold as yet with any strength," continued Mr. Starr. "Everybody fishes instead of farming, but even the fish was grown in the city of St. John's itself."

Primary education could be improved, Mr. Starr found. "They have no public schools in our country, but each church teaches its own followers. The sentimentaries of the government are not in favor of the union, but the public men would commit themselves. As far as I learned, the only population were pretty much against the proposition."

At a meeting of the Laymen's Missionary Movement committee held yesterday, Rev. W. Camp, Rev. W. R. Robinson and Rev. B. H. Nobles.

Messrs. Cross, Wilson, Sipprell and Haley and Rev. D. Hutchinson were appointed to arrange a programme for the winter's work, which will commence in about two weeks.

The members of the Belleisle Methodist mission yesterday extended an invitation to Rev. H. S. Young to become pastor.

The workweek at the stairway in Jett, Wilson's tailor shop in Germain street, caught fire last night from a stove. Edward Walsh ran in an alarm from box 23. A stream from No. 1 chemical was sufficient to extinguish the fire.

T. H. Pastors has secured the top floor of the Mager building in Water street for a warehouse.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Douglas Avenue Christian church last night held a successful tea and sale. Following is a list of the committees: Mrs. A. Dunlop, Miss S. Hines, Mrs. W. Merritt, Mrs. G. Wilson, Mrs. McAffee, Mrs. G. Whipple, Mrs. R. Roberts, Mrs. W. White, Mrs. P. Smith, Mrs. G. Eagles, Mrs. S. Smith, Miss Ida App, Miss Annie Langley, Miss Helen Hines, Miss Jennie Moore, Miss Roberta Roberts, Miss Sadie Irons, Mrs. Watson and Mrs. Mabce.

Rev. Father Corrigan's treatments worked miracles, until I have been entirely cured, so that now I do not look to the quality of the diet, but to the quantity. J. B. GOSLINE.

BUDGET REJECTED BY LORDS, VOTE STANDS 350 TO 75

Impressive Scene But No Marked Excitement—T. P. O'Connor Sees Home Rule for Ireland Soon Coming

London, Nov. 30.—In the sedate detached manner characteristic of the proceedings in the pilled chamber and in direct reversal of the action of some of its ablest and oldest members, such as Rosebery, Stanley, Lord James of Hereford, Lord Cromer, Lord Balfour of Burleigh, the Earl of Lorton, Lord Courtney, and the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, the House of Lords today created a situation unprecedented in English history, at least in 500 years, by refusing formal assent to the budget bill and referring it to the country itself for judgment, there by theory making it illegal to collect taxes and carry on the king's government.

The scene was impressive, but in no sense exciting, except that the house was packed to its utmost capacity and a great array of strange faces were seen on the benches, owing to the presence of numbers of peers who only appear in the house in most exceptional cases.

When the vote was announced just before midnight, as 350 to 75 in favor of the amendment, a muffled cheer was heard. Owing to the crowded state of the chamber, the tellers had some difficulty in forcing their way through to Lord Lovelorn, lord high chancellor. Lord Erve immediately moved an adjournment and the house rose.

New York, Nov. 29.—T. P. O'Connor, M. P., Irish Nationalist, said tonight that he was pleased with the action of the House of Lords as they had said their doom. It meant much for Ireland's cause.

The St. John Musical Union will hold a meeting this evening. Up to the time of going to press a room had not been secured, but members and persons desiring to join can learn the place of meeting by telephoning Mr. Jones's house, No. 1745.

Donaldson line steamship Salacia, at No. 6 berth, west end, has loaded all the Clydeale horses and they are now in the sheds. The steamer will take a large cargo from here on her return trip to Glasgow. She carries a crew of 102, all told.

It is announced that C. H. Boudreau, accountant of the Peter McSwenney Co's department shop business in Moncton, has been appointed manager of the branch of La Banque Provinciale, which will open there after January 1.

Stanley Reardon, a young Englishman, employed as a fireman on the C. P. E. steamer Montrose was the man killed yesterday as the result of a fall into the hold of the steamer. The body will be buried from the Seaman's Institute tomorrow. He was 23 years old, was a native of London, and leaves a wife and two children.

Arthur Gilbrath and William Golding were committed for trial this morning by Judge Ritchie in the police court. Mr. Allan, counsel for Golding, was to have applied for bail at 11 o'clock, but did not do so. His honor, E. S. Ritchie, was to see Judge Forbes, and arrangements would probably be made to have the men tried immediately.

G. M. Barker of the Two Barkers, Ltd., left last night for Moncton on the strength of a message received which said that his store in that city had been burned. H. Barker, the other member of the firm, when asked today if he knew nothing of the matter except that a fire had occurred in the store in Moncton. The store is quite a large establishment.

A Boston despatch says that Winifred and Beatrice Earl, who said they came from St. John, were brought to court, being found in the street poorly clad. They said they worked in a candy store, but the pay was not enough to live on, and they had to go to the streets. The despatch says they won much sympathy and may be sent home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mullin, of Quebec, who are visiting in the city, were pleasantly surprised last evening when a number of their friends called on them at the home of Mrs. Daniel, 206 Metcalf street, to help them celebrate the anniversary of their wedding. Mrs. Mullin was the recipient of a number of pretty and valuable gifts. The evening was spent in music and games, and supper was served. Miss Margaret Mullin and Miss Mary O'Rourke assisted in the dining-room. The company dispersed in the early hours of the morning, all wishing Mr. and Mrs. Mullin many more pleasant anniversaries.

JUDGE WILL LOOK IT OVER

Personal Inspection to Decide Case of Sign Board Over Sidewalk—Teamster Fined

Joseph Weitzel reported for having a signboard projecting over the sidewalk in Union street, contrary to law, said in the police court today "that he did not think he was doing wrong, as the sign, in his opinion was in accordance with the by-laws."

Judge Ritchie said that he would make a personal inspection, and if he found that the sign was arranged, contrary to law he would impose a fine and costs. He would measure the sign before 2.30 and would give judgment then.

William Harding reported by I. C. R. policeman Scovil Smith for "violating the laws regarding teamsters at the depot, defied the charge at first, but later admitted it and was fined $5, which his Honor said was small compared with what he could be fined."

Policeman Smith said that Harding had driven on the sidewalk when the gates closed and would not wait, as the other drivers did.

Harding, when he took the stand, called Smith a "puffer," and said he was looking for glory. He said he was afraid to let his horse stand with others, as it was too spirited. He paid the fine.

DIFFERENT TALE TO SUIT THE CASE

Moran's Begging Habits Re-counted in Court—Failed to Find "Uncle"

Robert Moran, an aged, gray-haired cripple, was in court this morning charged with begging and drunkenness. He was arrested last night by Sergeant Baxter, who said this morning that the old man had been about the streets for more than a month and had been begging frequently. To some people he said that he had been wounded in the American war, to others that he had had his knee cut with a broad axe, and to others he told other stories.

One day he had his head bandaged, but it was found that he was faking.

To Judge Ritchie the prisoner said he had "beat his way" here from Quebec, making the journey in about one month. His home was in Pembroke, about 100 miles from Ottawa, but he left there early this summer. He came to St. John as he had been told he had an uncle named John Powell, living here, but he could not find him.

S. M. Wetmore of the Municipal Home Commissioners said he saw the man begging on the ferryboat. He said he would see what could be done for him.

His honor commented on the fact that so many tramps and beggars from other cities made this city a "stopping-off place" where they became public charges.

Efforts will be made to have Moran sent home to Pembroke.

SOME SNOW TODAY; COLDER TOMORROW

St. John Experiencing Tail End of Storm Which Visited Maritime Provinces

St. John today is receiving the remnant of a snow storm which swept the northern part of the province yesterday and which was also felt in P. E. Island and Nova Scotia. Travelers to the city today reported a very heavy fall through Nova Scotia and parts of this province yesterday.

The lowest temperature registered this morning was twenty-two, and at noon it was twenty-five. The wind blew strongly from the north at thirty-eight miles an hour. Yesterday the wind was not so strong and the temperature was higher, the highest being thirty-two, but it dropped to thirty at 9 o'clock.

The indications are for a continuation of the high winds and for more snow or sleet. The weather tomorrow is expected to be decidedly colder.

As he did a year ago, after a trip across the continent to St. John, James Johnstone of Loch Lomond, arrived in the city yesterday and gave his sister, Mrs. George McCafferty, Richmond street, a pleasant surprise by calling unannounced. Mr. Johnstone has been in Winnipeg and decided to come home for a visit. He is engaged in railroading in the west and his friends will be pleased to hear that he is advancing well.

CUSTOMS REVENUE; A RECORD MONTH

This amount of increase for the month of November, 1909, is the largest increase for that month ever collected, being $10,000 over the better month of November, 1907. The indications now are that the present month of December will see an advance over any December in the port's history.

ALIENATION CASE THIS AFTERNOON

Parties to Suit in Circuit Court Had Not Arrived This Morning

In the circuit court this morning the hearing in the case of Thos. H. Peterson vs. William Glover, which was to have been before Judge McLeod at 10.30 o'clock, was postponed until 2.30 this afternoon, on account of the non-appearance of those interested and because the court stenographer was not in court.

The plaintiff, Peterson, claims $10,000 for the alienation of his wife's affections, which he says were won from him by the defendant, Glover. The plaintiff was engaged about 1894 by the defendant to act as captain on a vessel owned by him. While Peterson was absent on the vessel, Glover, who claims that his employer, the defendant, took advantage of his absence and installed himself in the good graces of his wife. The parties interested reside in Campbellton. They are expected here this afternoon.

F. B. M. Baxter will appear for the plaintiff and W. B. Wallace, K. C. and Wm. Murray of Campbellton for the defendant.

Argument in the matter of the application to wind up the Clifton Steamship Co., owners of the steamer Premier, was made this morning before Judge McLeod. This morning and hearing was further postponed for three weeks, that matters may be arranged. H. H. Pickett, is acting for the plaintiff, J. E. Wilton, Ltd., and other creditors; W. B. Wallace, K. C., for Hon. William Pugsley, a creditor; H. F. Puddington for other creditors, including W. H. Thorpe, and Weldon & McLean, for the petitioners.
