

PARLIAMENT HAD A QUIET AFTERNOON

Greater Production of Flax Was Urged and Agreed to by Minister.

Ottawa, March 24.—Private members day in the House was devoted almost entirely to discussion of flax production. Mr. Glass of Middlesex, East, who has raised the question of flax production in previous sessions, held the floor for the major portion of the afternoon. He urged, in a resolution to be submitted, the establishment of experimental and demonstration stations; scientific standardization and grading; and mechanical appliances for harvesting the crop.

Dr. Tolmie, Minister of Agriculture, outlined encouragement which he said the government had already given to flax production, such as work at the Central Experimental Farms in the afternoon. He said that the government had given to flax production, such as work at the Central Experimental Farms in the afternoon. SAYS PROHIBITION APPALLING EVIL

Prof. Leacock Has Set England Thinking and Public Opinion Runs Strong.

London, March 24.—Professor Stephen Leacock of McGill University had a long letter yesterday in the Times in which he denounced the prohibitionist as now having entered into his kingdom, and claims that his enjoyment is merely the joy of persecuting his fellow men. He further warned England that a similar crusade is coming to England and says:

"The most serious warning is need for the decent British people of any class who may be thinking of migrating to the United States and to the dry provinces of Canada. They hold the floor for the major portion of the afternoon. He urged, in a resolution to be submitted, the establishment of experimental and demonstration stations; scientific standardization and grading; and mechanical appliances for harvesting the crop.

QUEBEC BALKS AT PROPOSED CHANGE

In British North America Act, Not Being Sure What Her Position Would be.

Quebec, March 24.—The stand of the Province of Quebec on the proposed amendments to the Act of British North America, are clearly and energetically defined in a telegram the Hon. A. Taschereau, Acting Premier, sent today to a Toronto newspaper, the message follows:

DO AMERICANS THINK THEY OWN CANADA?

It Would Seem Like it from the Tone Their Press Adopts.

THEY NEED A STIFF JOLT

To Make Them Realize That Canada and All Belonging to it is for All Belonging.

The innumerable impertinences of the American Press in its attitude toward Canada has caused a question of pulp and pulpwood is such as should engage the attention of those in authority at Ottawa. The Underwood Resolution, recently adopted, is a direct threat that unless the Province in this Dominion hand over to uncontrolled American exploitation their natural resources in the way of timber, the United States will impose punishment by placing embargoes upon exports from that country which Canada requires. And the principle of the big stick is applauded from one end of the United States to the other. Indeed even the most influential papers of that country are vociferously demanding that Canada shall surrender her wealth to those in the United States who happen to need it in order that they may prosper at the expense of this Dominion.

From what can be gathered definite decisions were reached on neither question, but the Ministers responsible for their solution and carrying out went to lunch afterwards with a new prospective and probably some new ideas.

Fredericton, N. The correspondent says the Sinn Fein asks the country to accept the monstrous theory that Lord Mayor MacCurran was killed by actual agents of the government. He describes the overnight riot in Dublin as a danger signal, and says, it is impossible to get an impartial account of the incident, the popular version being that the soldiers provoked and assaulted civilians.

THE HIGH PRICE OF SUITS TODAY

Is it Due to Scarcity of Wool or to Profiteering?

(Toronto Globe.) Is the scarcity of wool of the finer grades real, or is it brought about through the withholding of supplies by those to whom the British Government has been disposing of its surplus of controlled wool from Australia and other large producers? In some quarters the assertion is made that the British Government is responsible for this high cost of the finer grades of men's and women's clothing because of its expressed intention of recouping the Treasury fully for the huge amounts expended during the war in the purchase of wool. High prices, it is said, will prevail so long as "controlled" wool remains a factor in the market.

All this is very tedious as a means of passing on the responsibility for the unduly high prices of clothes, but if the growers of wool and the British Government, which until recently has controlled the distribution of the bulk of the old world supply, were to "talk back" as the American wool growers did recently the public might obtain fresh light. The American National Wool Growers' Association, in self-defence, sent a telegram to Washington some time ago, which was read to the Senate by Senator Capper of Kansas. In part it was as follows:

Retail clothing is high, and many people are of the opinion that this high price is due to the price of wool. The National Wool Growers' Association desires that the public shall know exactly what part of the cost of clothing goes to the man who raises the sheep and produces the wool. An all-wool three-piece suit of men's clothing is today retailing from the store at $50 to $75 for a man weighing 175 pounds. Three and one-half yards of cloth is required to make a suit. The weight of cloth for men's clothing is sold at $3 per scoured pound, in the ranges all the way from 10 ounces to 13 ounces per yard. At three and a half yards per suit, then, the cloth for the entire suit weighs 49 ounces, or slightly over three pounds. In the manufacture of worsted all-wool cloth it requires one and one-half pounds of scoured wool to produce one pound of cloth; therefore to make all the cloth in this suit would require 61 1/4 ounces of scoured wool, or, say, 62 ounces. Western wool is selling on the Boston market from 70c to $2 per scoured pound, depending on the fineness of the wool. The finer the wool the higher the price. Between the coarsest wool and the finest wool we have a medium grade, known as three-eighths blood. This is a general purpose wool, suitable for the manufacture of men's or women's dress goods. This grade of wool is selling in Boston on this date at from $1.25 to $1.35 per scoured pound. As 63 ounces of scoured wool is required to make the entire suit, then the cost of the suit is $5.27. If the suit happens to be made of the very finest Western wool, wool in the entire suit will cost $7.37. Neither of these amounts represents a very large part of the retail price of the suit, but at that the wool grower did not receive this much for his wool. The wool in the suit, as the wool prices we have used are Boston prices. The wool grower had to deliver his wool in Boston, paying freight, commission, etc., amounting to 8c and 10c per scoured pound, which properly should be deducted to find what the grower actually received out of this suit. What is true across the border is even more true on this side. The alleged scarcity and high prices of raw wool have been made the occasion for advances in the prices of woollen goods that the public now know to have been excessive and unwarranted by basic conditions. When is the Board of Commerce going to get round to a consideration of the effect of the tariff and of trade combinations and agreements on the price of wools in Canada? The consumer becomes impatient of the wailing process.

The Sharpe Spirit of Service. Our idea of an optical business is that it is rendering service rather than selling merchandise. One buys glasses not for their actual, intrinsic worth, but for the good they do—the benefit given to sight and health. It is this idea, carried out for many years, which is responsible for the attentive interest taken in your eye troubles, and the painstaking, professional skill given to fitting eyes, making lenses and fitting glasses, at Sharpe's. This is the Sharpe Spirit of service—so grateful to, and so much appreciated by, our patrons. L. L. SHARPE & SON Jewelers and Opticians 2 STORES—21 KING STREET 189 UNION STREET

St. Peter's Y.M.A. Scored Success

Large Audience in St. Vincent's Auditorium Last Night Delighted With Production of "What Happened to Jones."

A packed house greeted the company of players under the leadership of that veteran actor J. U. Haggerty in presenting "What Happened to Jones," under the auspices of the St. Peter's Y. M. A., in St. Vincent's Auditorium last night.

Mr. Haggerty and Miss Gormley were well up to their usual standard, and with the assistance of Mrs. Kennedy were largely responsible for the witty sallies which were presented in an excellent manner and caused many a laugh.

The play was staged under the direction of Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson. The two specialties between acts were well received. Between act one and two, Miss Lydia McCloskey sang "Follow the Boys" from Little Simplicio, and ably assisted by a chorus of women workers during the war.

The other specialty was by James J. Duffy, who sang "When You Look in the Heart of a Rose." The setting for this act were worthy of special mention, large roses from which the different members of the chorus appeared and assisted the singer, made a very striking and pretty addition.

The cast of the play, which will be repeated tonight, was as follows: Jones John U. Haggerty; Ebenezer Goodley Arthur Walsh; Anthony Goodley, D.D.

Richard Heatherly; Arthur L. Howard; William Fuller Bernard E. McCarty; Thomas Holder; Francis E. O'Donnell; Mrs. Goodley Josephine Gosnell; Mrs. Emma Conlogue; Marjorie, Ebenezer's daughter.

Mr. Joseph Kennedy; Elverna Starlight; Isabelle A. Gormley; Minerva, another daughter of Ebenezer Irene C. O'Connell; Helma, Swedish servant girl; Aram McGarrigle.

The proceeds of the play will be devoted to the support of the Catholic orphanage.

FRENCH VICTORIES.

The French newspapers are devoting considerable space to victories achieved by France in sporting events last week. The French army Rugby team defeated a British army team by a score of 15 to 6; Guillemin, the star French middle distance runner, led a field of 223 of the best English runners in a ten mile race in Windsor Park, England, and a tennis team from Paris defeated Copenhagen with the greatest ease.

CHAMPION JIMMY WILDE WAS ROBBED

A more despicable outrage against a hard working pugilist probably never was perpetrated than that of which Jimmy Wilde, the flyweight champion of the world, was the victim. In the absence of the champion some miscreant entered the premises in Jersey City where the boxer lives and stole his press notices. Next to a title a boxer prizes his publicity clippings, and Wilde was thrown into a condition of feverish unrest when apprised that his beloved notices were gone.

But it appears that the thief became conscience stricken, and realizing the terrible loss entailed on the champion decided to return them. To the joy of Wilde he discovered the clippings at his door one morning, and is again proceeding calmly with his business of outpointing bantams. According to the details of the crime, three days ago, when Wilde was in Toledo, Ohio, preparing for a bout, some unidentified man stole his travelling bag from the collar of the building at 2361 Boulevard, Jersey City, where the party is staying.

The police were notified as soon as the loss was discovered, and Detective James Dinley was assigned to the case. Whether the detective's persistent work scored the thief is not known, but Jimmy Wilde again has his treasurer "write ups."

Commander Ross In Kentucky Derby

Race Untried Colt—Irish Dancer Will Carry Colors in Big Stake Race—Eighteen for Woodbine Events.

New York, March 21.—Commander J. K. L. Ross, the Canadian sportsman, has decided to make a try for the Kentucky Derby this year with a colt which has never raced, and horsemen are wondering if he is preparing to put over another surprise as he did last year when Sir Rich, then little known, won the race.

Ross is putting his faith this time in Irish Dancer, which is by Celt-Ballet and is a half brother of the late Sir Rich. Irish Dancer was among the most highly regarded of the Ross year-olds at the beginning of last season, but never went to the post as he developed leg trouble and had to be taken out of training. He has since entirely recovered and has developed into a strong and powerful racer. Irish Dancer is a half brother to The Porter, but is a larger and more powerful animal.

Eighteen for Woodbine. Fifteen entries have been made by the Rose stable in the three Canadian-bred stakes—Stanley Produce for 1923; Breeders for 1921 and Maple Leaf for 1921.

Lieut. G. A. Dalzell Died Yesterday

Gallant Officer from Grand Manan Had Fine War Record—Fought in Boer War and Gave Valuable Service in the Recent Great Conflict.

Lieut. George Alden Dalzell, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Y. Dalzell, of North Head, Grand Manan, died in the St. John County Hospital early yesterday morning after a lingering illness. He was thirty-seven years of age, and is survived by his wife, father and mother, four brothers, Leonard, of California, and Ernest, Fred and Wilfred, of Grand Manan; and four sisters, Mrs. Thomas Greenwood, of Toronto; Mrs. Daniel Thomas, of Grand Manan; Mrs. Albert C. Ellingwood, of this city, and Annie, at home.

The deepest sympathy is expressed for the relatives and especially for his wife, who has been in Canada only about two years and has no relatives on this side of the Atlantic. Lieut. Dalzell was an active worker in the G. V. A. of this city, and organized three branches of the G. V. A. in Grand Manan last year.

The deceased officer had a fine war record. At the age of 19 years he crossed to England and joined the Royal Field Artillery in London in 1902, and went with the unit to Africa, where he saw two years' service and was wounded.

From Africa he went to India, where he served under the late Lord Kitchener. His period of service with the colors having been completed and he being transferred to the reserves, he returned to Canada in 1911 and located in Prince Rupert, B. C.

Upon the outbreak of the great war in August, 1914, he immediately crossed to England and joined with an old regiment, which was made up of all trained men, and was therefore immediately dispatched to the front. He was wounded three times in the great conflict. His first wound received was at Nantes, France, within one month of the outbreak of the war. He was wounded again at Hill 60 near Zillebeke in the early part of 1915, but, however, remained on duty all night after being wounded, and displayed great valor and courage, and for this he was mentioned in despatches by General Sir John French.

Several weeks afterwards he was wounded and gassed at the battle of Ypres, in 1915, after which he was in hospital for four months, and upon recovery was made instructor in Kitchener's army until his release, when he returned to Canada.

Immediately after his return he was not contented with what he had done and donned the uniform again and greatly assisted recruiting until he joined the 15th Battalion under Lieutenant-Colonel F. V. Wedderburn, and proceeded overseas with that unit as regimental sergeant-major.

While in England he was granted his commission and posted for duty with the Canadian Forestry Corps and sent to Invernesshire, Scotland, and while there was married to Miss Ella McDonald on Dec. 1, 1917.

BELFAST SUSPENDED. Glentoran has now offered Shelburne to play in Dublin for the Irish Football Blue Riband and their offer was accepted.

OBITUARY. Mrs. Henderson. Campbell, March 22.—Died Feb. 20th at Montreal, Mrs. Henderson, leaving beside her husband, a son, aged one and half years. Deceased was the sister of the wife of Rev. P. Cuthbert of Campbell, N. B., but at the time of her death that lady was also ill at her home and the word could not be made public. Mrs. Cuthbert is now rapidly convalescing and has the kind sympathy of all in her sorrow.

For a number of years Mr. McManus was engaged in the retail boot and shoe business here, having retired two years ago. He is survived by his wife and one brother, Dennis, Elswarth, Maine. The Human Clock usually Breaks Down instead of Runs Down

"It has long been a favorite idea of mine to compare the human body with my old clock here. Without proper attention the old clock gets run down and stops until I wind it up again and then it ticks away just as heartily and regularly as ever." "And so it is with the human body, but the great difference I find is that the human clock usually breaks down instead of runs down because people neglect to take proper care of their health." "Through all these years I have managed to keep well and to keep young by using restorative treatment whenever there are indications of the system becoming run down." "Fortunately I learned the value some years ago of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and to its use I largely attribute my healthful condition at this age."
