BONAVENTURE TAKES ON PROHIBITION

By Law Adopted at County Council Meeting Held at New Carlisle on Wednesday

(Special to the Graphic)
New Carlisle, Sept. 9.—At a meeting of the County Council of the County of Bonaventure held here today, a resolution was adopted by nine votes to six with regard to a county prohibitory by-law, the effect of which will be to prevent the issue of licenses for the sale of intoxicating liquors throughout the entire county.
There are twenty-one municipalities in the county, all of which will be effected by this by-law.
Largely signed petitions were presented to the Council by the temperance people of the county, who were represented by the Hon. John Hall Kelly, K. C. Mr. John H. Roberts of Montreal, secretary of the Dominion Alliance was also present at the meeting and addressed the council in support of the petitions. In the course of his remarks Mr. Roberts informed the council that there were now twenty-five counties in the province of Quebec under prohibition.
The prohibitory by-law will come into effect on May 1st, 1915.

SHOOTING MATCH ON LABOR DAY

Restigouche Rifle Club Have an Interesting Meeting.—Small Scores Returned

The Restigouche Rifle Club had an interesting meeting on Monday, Labor Day at the ranges, a good turn out of members taking part in the shoot.
The light was bad, and the slight showers with a varying wind which blew across the range, made conditions very troublesome.
P. H. Blyth was top scorer for the day with a total of 90. A. H. English, the range on Saturday put on a creditable 84. The conditions on Monday however proved too much for His Worship who "came back" with 68.
The top scores were:—

Blyth,	90
English,	88
Carroll,	71
A. H. Andrew,	68
Chas. Goss,	67
W. Babcock,	60

BASBALL NOTES AND JOTTINGS

Inclement Weather Spoils a Good Ball Game Scheduled to be Played on Monday

Baseball. LfEs...onbe xoe? It xar
Last Monday the fans were looking forward to a great game at the "Bawyard" but alas "Jupiter Pluvius" got in some of his dirty work and the rain which fell on Sunday and Monday was "very wet," putting the grounds in better shape for a canoeing party than a ball game. The Chatham team however, were on hand, and rather than disappoint the people here, the official staged a game, which was pulled off before a fair sized gathering in cold
and disagreeable weather.
Chatham team captured all the breaks and ran out winners to the tune of 10 to 4. The game was pulled off before a fair sized gathering in cold
and disagreeable weather.
It was a pity that what will probably be the last foreign game was spoiled by the weather, but we hope by next baseball season there won't be any german menace to cause a dislocation in the Weather Clerks Bureau, and that our tried and true athletes will once more return to their usual avocation of chasing the leather and swatting the pill on the grassy sward of the Ball yard.

part in last Monday's engagement:—

—All Austria was plunged into gloom today when an official admission was made here that the recent operations against the Russians had cost the Dual Mon-of effective fighting men. The announcement stated that since the operations against Russia began, the total losses in killed, wounded and missing of the Aus-enormous number of 120,000 men.

In addition to attacks by over-

SHORT MEETING OF TOWN COUNCIL

Little Business Before the Town Council at Regular Meeting
On Tuesday Evening

A regular meeting of the town council was held on Tuesday evening.
His Worship Mayor Andrew, presiding. At opening of session there were present: Councillors Evans, McLean, Patterson, Quinn and Goss. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and confirmed.

Communication read from Dan-Loubert regarding rebate of taxes, in-having already paid assessments in the parish of Dalhousie. This was referred to Assessment and Appeals Committee.
Councillor Miller then entered the meeting.

Communication read from the Secretary of the Canadian Municipalities Union enclosing resolution adopted at their recent session at Sherbrooke with regard to Municipal activities during the time of war. Letter was ordered filed.

Communication read from James Devine asking refund of Poll tax, he being over 60 years of age. Referred to Assessments and Appeals Committee.

The following committees presented reports recommending payment of accounts which on motion were received and adopted.

Fire Protection	$636.68
Public Charities	16.00
Water and Sewerage	147.82

In reply to a question from the Mayor, Councillor Goss stated that he thought the amount of hose belonging to the Fire Department was 2800 feet.

His Worship then stated that the reason he asked the question was that he was leaving for St. John in the morning to attend a meeting of the Board of Fire Underwriters, and further asked the council if they were going to do anything with regard to giving increased water pressure to the houses on the hill at Wellington and Stanley Street East. This discussion was taken part in by Councillor Mc-Lean, Miller, Goss and Patterson, and although admitting the need of extra pressure at this point, the Council felt that anything which would be done now would be only temporary for sooner or later the work of extending the water main along Arras Street would need to be taken up.

The matter of the Lockhart assessment was then taken up. This was an old assessment of 1911, and related to property on Water Street where Mr.
Lockhart was assessed $1000 on personal property. An affidavit had been received from Mr. Lockhart by a previous Council, but nothing was done in the matter, and after the statement had been read to the council, it was ordered by them that Mr. Lockhart be assessed accordingly.

Councillor Evans brought up the matter of ventilation in the Police cells, and asked that he be allowed to get figures and bring report. Councillor McLean thought that the committee had better get some technical authority on the subject and it was stated that Mr. P. H. Blyth, our local architect had drawn up a ventilating scheme for the Public Property and Streets department, and Councillor Evans was instructed to see him if he had the old sketch and get particulars of the scheme.

Councillor McLean then drew attention of the Public Property and Sewerage Committee, which ever had charge of the matter, to the unusually long time that openings in the street were left after connections to water and sewers had been made, and also to the bad way in which the street was left after the openings had been refilled. He gave instances of two places that had come under his notice, one on Prince William Street and one on Gerrard Street. The opening on Prince William street had been left for nearly two weeks, and even when refilled had been done so badly that an auto passing over the place had broken an axle.
This matter brought up an interesting discussion, taken part in by all the members of the Council on the point as to the duties of the town Engineer.
Some thought that he had ample time to act as foreman on the street gang, while others characterised the idea as nonsense. It was pointed out that the only way to get this straightened out was to employ a foreman, as Welch, who was virtually in charge of the street gang, could not attend to all his duties in the water department and stand over the street gang to see that they did their work thoroughly.

In the end the matter was left to the consideration of the committees who would devise the best means of doing away with the nuisance.
Council then adjourned.

SUFFERED EVERYTHING

For Years, Restored To Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Canadian women are continually writing us such letters as the two following, which are heartfelt expressions of gratitude for restored health:

Glanford Station, Ont.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and never found any medicine to compare with it. I had ulcers and falling of womb and doctors did me no good. I suffered dreadfully for years until I began taking your medicine. I also recommend it for nervousness and indigestion."—Mrs. HENRY CLARK, Glanford Station, Ont.

Chesterville, Ont.—"I heard your medicines highly praised, and a year ago I began taking them for falling of womb and ovarian trouble. My left side pained me all the time and just before my periods which were regular and painful it would be worse. I sat down caused me pain and suffering and I would be so nervous something that I could not bear to see any one hear any one speak. Little specks would float before my eyes and I was very constipated. I cannot say too much for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills, for there are no medicines like them. I have taken them and I recommend them to all women. You may publish this testimonial."—Mrs. STEPHEN J. MARTIN, Chesterville, Ontario, Canada.

Paris, Sept. 2.—An official statement issued by the French War Office to-day announces that the German troops, led by the Crown Prince, have been defeated in the region of Spincourt and Longwy, and that British cavalry has captured 10 guns from the Germans in the forest of Compiègne.

BEGINNING OF END FOR GERMANS IN FRANCE

Allies Are Driving German Army Back—Fighting in East Prussia Resumed—Austrians in Galicia in a Bad Way.

London, Sept. 7.—British Official Bureau says that the plans of the French Commander in Chief are being steadily carried out and that the Allies have succeeded in forcing back in a northeast direction the German forces opposed to them.

The Allies have advanced their left wing without energetic opposition by the Germans. Several engagements on Ouse river have favored the French and British.

The Russian army operating in Galicia is reported still to be driving back the Austrians.

London, Sept. 7.—Allies have won a victory at Precy sur Oise, in which Imperial Guard under Crown Prince of Germany is alleged to have been annihilated by the British forces.

GERMAN ATTACK UPON ANTWERP IS REPULSED

The Enemy Left Thousands of Dead Upon the Field.

London, Sept. 7.—A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Antwerp, dated Sunday, gives a Belgian official communication which says:—"The repulse of the German attack against the southern part of Antwerp at Cappelle Au Bois yesterday was successful, the Germans leaving thousands of bodies on the field and retreating in disorder on Vilvorde, six miles northeast of Brussels. They are demoralized by the complete check of the attempt against Antwerp and by the losses inflicted by our field artillery. The Belgian losses are not numerous."

London, Sept. 8.—The combined French and British armies along a line from Nottin Le Hondouin to Verdun curving southward are advancing and driving the German armies back.

The Russian army in East Prussia has begun its great march forward. The Austrian army of 600,000 in Galicia and southwest of Prussia is in bad position with Russian troops on three sides and bog land on the other side.

Vienna is preparing against a siege. Paris, Sept. 8.—Official statement given out at 3 p.m. "Allies are doing well all along the lines."

BRITISH FISHING BOATS REPORTED TO HAVE BEEN SUNK

London, Sept.—The official information bureau announced that a German squadron had sunk fifteen British boats in the North Sea.

CENSORSHIP ON CANADIAN PRESS

British War Office Asks News of Troop Movements And Sailings be Suppressed

Ottawa, Sept. 1.—The government has issued an official statement calling the attention of the press to the necessity for preserving secrecy at present as to the sailing of vessels from Canadian waters or as to the movements of Canadian troops. A strong intimation has been received from the Imperial authorities as to the importance of silence in these particulars in view of serious loss of life or property that might result from warning the enemy where and when to strike. The government statement adds: "If the press fail to comply with this official request prompt and effective means will be taken to enforce its observance."

NO MORE FALLING HAIR NO MORE DANDRUFF.

Nearly every one has dandruff, and must reconcile themselves to the idea of becoming completely bald or resort to the use of Newbro's Herpicide. The manufacturers have absolute faith in Herpicide to remove all traces of dandruff. So perfect is this belief that all dealers are instructed to sell the preparation with a "money back" agreement.

Such supreme confidence is the best evidence in the world of the merit of Herpicide. They know the result, hence the guarantee. It protects the purchaser.

Used as directed, Newbro's Herpicide eradicates dandruff and prevents the hair from coming out. It stops itching of the scalp, which is so disagreeable.

Newbro's Herpicide in 50c and $1.00 sizes is guaranteed to do all that is claimed. If you are not satisfied your money will be refunded.

Applications may be obtained at good barber shops.

SAD DROWNING AT TETEBOUCHE

(From the Gloucester Northern Light)

Leonard Boyle, age twelve years, son of Mr. Henry Boyle of Seattle, a resident until a few years ago of Peters River, was drowned under particularly sad circumstances on Sunday last.

The young lad has been making his home with Mr. Edward Boyle of North Tetebouche since his father's departure for the West a few years ago, and on Sunday he followed Edward Boyle's son, Joseph, to the river, and in some unknown way slipped off the rocks in the river bed into a deep pool.

Joseph was unaware that the little fellow had followed him, and when he had finished his mission at a neighbor's short distance down the river, and was on his return, he was horrified to see the body at the bottom of the pool, although he did not know that it was his foster-brother until he had, after great exertions brought the body to the surface. Thinking that it might be but a short time since the boy fell in, Joseph tried by all the means known to him to bring back life to the cold body, but without success.

Mr. Boyle and his family were heartbroken when Joseph brought the sad news to the home, for the young lad was a bright cheerful little fellow and had become as one of their own. The sympathy of all will be extended to Mr. Edward Boyle and his family, as well as to the boy's absent father in this, particularly tragic ending to a promising young life.

NEW BEDROOM SUITE

HALF CENT A NIGHT

A man came in last week to look at a new Bedroom Suite. "I've had my present bed for 20 years" he said. Saved it through the fire. It was cheap when I got it, and I'm sick of seeing it around. We showed him a beautiful

Solid Oak Suite Complete

He was delighted with it and had it sent home at once. It is a much better outfit than his old one and will last longer. It is a suite that will never shab or look mean. Isn't that worthy of your consideration too. We are headquarters for Bedroom Furniture, and our low prices will surprise you. Come in and look around.

PATRIOTIC FUND

His Honor Judge McLatchy has a most interesting letter in our columns this week, in the form of an open letter to the Warden of the County, Mr. John McLean. Our people in this County have done remarkably well of late with regard to subscriptions, but the subscribing to a patriotic fund, is almost in a manner compulsory.

The young men who volunteered for active service at the front have done their part, it is now ours who stay at home to provide necessary means to provide for those who are dependent upon the dominion. By subscribing to a fund of this kind, we are doing our duty by the Empire just as surely as the man who takes his place in the firing line, and as each one has his place in the economic fitness of things, there are many who in our midst who with their wealth can do almost as much good in their own way as a regiment of soldiers can in theirs. We cannot all volunteer for the front, but we who are left, even as Aaron and Hur strengthened the arms of Moses, can use our wealth to Aaron and Hur strengthened the arm of Moses, can use our wealth to benefit those who are needy, and in doing so we will find that "they also serve, who only stand and wait."

We trust that some official action will be taken in this matter and strong committees appointed to carry on the work of soliciting subscriptions. We would suggest that Warden McLean call a general meeting of the County Council, the town council and the general public as outlined in Judge McLatchy's letter and have the matter put squarely before the meeting. There is no doubt we will not be behind other counties, all we need is a start. Let it be a good one.

In connection with the trade situation developing out of the European war, a feature of the utmost importance to lumber manufacturers in Canada, particularly those of Ontario, Quebec and the Maritime Provinces is the practically complete stoppage of shipments of timber from Russia to foreign countries, particularly to Great Britain. During recent years, Russia's exports of timber have rapidly increased and they have been responsible for the steady and most disturbing decrease in the exports of wood goods from Canada. Russia's wood goods have to a very large extent supplanted many important Canadian markets abroad. It is reasonable to expect, as a result of the war, that Russia's timber exports will be practically nil for the time being, and that Canadian exporters, if they venture to their trade that is of the nature of a gamble, will be unable to take advantage of this situation. The importance of this situation will secure the important importance. Last year Russia's timber exports amounted to 7,420,015 tons valued at $17,222,100. These figures compared with 6,862,145 tons valued at $16,049,790 during 1912. Russia's exports of timber goods consisted of logs, barks, beams, boards, deal, and other sawn lumber, pitprops, match and pulp wood, firewood, poles, pickets, etc. Practically all of these products are manufactured and exported heavily by the Canadian lumbermen. Even after the end of the war it is believed that the countries of the old world will require our products for many years to come. These markets, now so completely thrown open for us, are of the greatest possible importance. Canada is apparently in a most favorable position to take advantage from this situation.

A REMARKABLE REMEDY

The most afflicted people on earth are those who suffer from rheumatism and about one fourth of our people are afflicted with this terrible, time-racking, bone-grinding disease. So many people neglect themselves and rheumatism follows in one form or another until they are an example of the tortures of rheumatism. Rheumatism has gained the greatest reputation through being a quick and permanent cure for rheumatism in its many forms. Don't put off getting a bottle of Rheumo today, it means your health and happiness. Rheumo is sold in Campbellton only at Thos. Wran's drug store. $1.00 a full size bottle.

EDITOR'S MAIL BAG

Open Letter to the Warden of the County Council
Campbellton, Sept. 10th, 1914.

To John McLean, Esq.,
Warden of Municipality of Restigouche, Charle.

Dear Mr. McLean:—
Quite a number of our young men have volunteered for foreign service in the present terrible war, and in a short time will go to the front.

They are leaving behind them, in many instances, near relatives dependent of them for support. It appears to me we ought to see that no family suffers by the absence of any of these men. They are not only doing a noble service, but they are representing us at the front.

What shall we do for them, and how shall we do it? Whatever we do should be done as a county, and I therefore appeal to you as Warden.

I suggest that steps be taken to insure the lives of every young man from Restigouche County, who has volunteered for active foreign service. Should this be done at the expense of the taxpayers of this County or by private subscription? Both methods have their merits.

I would suggest that you call a public meeting to be held in the town of Campbellton, to consider this matter as well as any other assistance which our citizens may deem advisable. I name Campbellton as the place of meeting, because it is the largest centre, and by reason of railway connections the most central place for a gathering of this character.

If I can in any way assist you in this matter, be good enough to let me know, and I will be at your service.

Yours truly,

H. F. McLATCHY.

APPOINTED GENERAL

SUPERINTENDENT OF GRAND TRUNK PACIFIC HOTELS

Mr. Morley Donaldson, Vice-President and General Manager of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, announces the appointment of Mr. David B. Mulligan as General Superintendent of the Grand Trunk Pacific System of hotels, with headquarters at Winnipeg.

Mr. Mulligan is a Canadian by birth, but has had experience in many of the greatest hotels on the continent, including the Waldorf Astoria and the Holland House, New York City and the old Palmer House, Chicago. He is especially well known to the Canadian travelling public having been in the hotel business in Ottawa for a considerable time. For the past three years he has been Manager of the Hotel Breslin in New York.

The Grand Trunk Pacific Hotels include the Fort Garry at Winnipeg, the MacDonald at Edmonton and Qu'Appelle at Regina. The Fort Garry has already obtained an international reputation for the elegance of its appointments and the excellence of its service. The hotels in Edmonton and Regina are now approaching completion. The Railway also plans the erection of a big hotel at Prince Rupert and summer hotels in Jasper and Mt. Robson Parks, the great Canadian alpine reserves now thrown open by the building of the new transcontinental line.

AN ANIMAL ESSAY ON MAN

A boy can sit on a sled six miles square, tied to a sleigh moving eight miles an hour; but he will not sit on a sofa five minutes for a dollar.

A man will sit on an inch edge of a board and talk politics for three hours and him in a church pew for forty minutes, gets nervous, twists and turns and goes to sleep. A man will place his cheeks with filthy tobacco juice running down to his chin, feels good, but a hair in the butter kills him. He stays out till midnight, wife don't know where he is, comes home when he pleases, but if a meal is not ready just on time, pouts and frowns and says unpretty things. He gets full, leansly drunk, imagines he's rich, a great man, bobs on the losing horse, gets broke, quarrels, fights, lands in jail, eyes dressed for Easter, free scold, morals depraved yet he is "Lord of all creation and monarch of all the surveys." Strange animal this Man.

PREPARE TO SHIP N. B. GIFT TO EMPIRE

About 50,000 Bushels of the Potatoes Which Comprise the Gift Now Contracted For Fredericton, N. B., Sept. 8.—About one half of the 100,000 bushels of New Brunswick potatoes which will comprise the province's gift to the British Empire in the present crisis have been contracted for, and within the next two weeks shipments in bulk to St. John will be commenced, says The Gleaner.

The entire contribution of 100,000 will be put into bags at St. John for shipment to Great Britain, where the Imperial Government will look after the distribution. The bags are to bear inscriptions showing the potatoes to be New Brunswick's gift to the Empire, and in the purchasing of county will have an opportunity of providing its share at the prevailing market prices.

Mr. J. B. Daggett, Secretary of Agriculture, returned home on Saturday evening from Grand Falls after visiting all the leading potato points on the upper Saint John Valley. Mr. Daggett reports the crop as excellent in sections where it is light the quality being fine. There is a considerable quantity being dug at present for shipment to the Ontario markets. While these potatoes are not sufficiently ripe to be shipped to Great Britain. On this account Mr. Daggett did not make any purchases for the gift of the Empire. He has already contracted for about one-half of the total amount, all arrangements having been made at the current market price. These will be delivered within the next fortnight.

VOYAGE THAT WILL LAST SIX YEARS

Six years at sea on a voyage of 219,000 miles to hunt and chart islands, reefs and banks of doubtful location is what the British Antarctic and Oceanographical Expedition now proposes to do for the benefit of the world's merchant marine. Originally Sir Ernest Shackleton and J. Foster Stackhouse intended only to survey and chart the coast of the Antarctic continent looking for such menaces to shipping as might lie on their voyage down and back. But the chart shows so many points marked D. P. D. and E. D.—doubtful, position, doubtful and existence doubtful—that the explorers have added two and a half years to their projected voyage, which starts next December in the Discovery.

The seven seas have never been accurately charted because, says Mr. Stackhouse, "being everybody business it was nobody's business to do it." Even the North Atlantic has its doubtful islands and sunken rocks. Four different marines, previous to the Titanic disaster, reported seeing rocks near where the ship went down, and this is one of the first things to be investigated by the Discovery. Polynesia, Melanesia and Malaysia are notorious for volcanic and coral obstructions, and the Panama Canal will open new routes through these dangerous seas. The South American and African coasts have their doubtful rocks. Mr. Stackhouse considers it just as important to find out that a menace does not exist as that it does.

The new sea charting expedition is financed by public contributions. Its fifteen officers and scientists have given their work for the next six years gratis. The only expense besides the equipment are those incidental to running the ship and the pay of the crew.

MALTREAT GIRLS IN TOWN SQUARES

Correspondent Tells of German Savagery in Bayoneting Young Children

London, Sept. 8.—The "Daily News" publishes the following despatch from its correspondent in Belgium. The despatch comes from Ostend and is dated September 3.
It reads: "During a tour of part of Belgium which has been desolated by the war I found that at one place, which I shall not name lest it should always be associated with the crime, the Germans stripped and maltreated twenty young women of the best families in the public square."
Worse crimes than were ever perpetrated by the savage invaders of England in the ages before Christ, the family are being perpetrated by the Germans on the people in this country.

"During the tour I learned many things showing that the stories of German atrocities are not all fables of a terror-stricken people. In confirmation of this, I may say that, of little children found dead by the roadside, many had perished from bayonet wounds."
There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years were thought to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Through under The Hague Convention, which Germany has not signed, Great Britain could make use of mines in the sea, the Admiralty announces that it will not resort to such measures. The destruction of neutral merchant ships as well as of war vessels by mines set loose without regard to possible consequences has meant heavy loss in life and property for Great Britain. The temptation to use like means where the enemy could be hurt might well be strong. The resolve to depend only on less murderous methods is something that will appeal to the humanity of the nations and may help to make them, on occasion, take like action.

of nineteen men. The foremost hydrographer of Great Britain, Capt. J. A. Rupert-Jones will have charge of the soundings, and Lieut. Humphreys will do the landing surveying. Various other kinds of scientific work are planned, including observations as to the magnetic pole.

Existing charts disclose facts which have a disturbing influence on traffic such as the presence of shallow soundings in areas of deep water. Such places will be carefully searched for submerged rocks. All corners of the world will be visited and studied by the expedition.

The Discovery is a wooden ship with steam auxiliary, especially designed for work in icy waters and she will carry the latest sounding machinery. While the voyage is planned to last six years the officers and crew are signed on for seven in event of delays.

WHAT IS MEANT BY AN ARMY DIVISION

Some Useful Information For Our Readers Regarding Fighting Forces on Land

London, Sept. 8.—It might be helpful to the ordinary newspaper correspondent, as well as to the "man in the street," says a military correspondent, if a glossary of military terms and titles were published. We might not then get such stupid descriptions as "immense losses in action between patrols," or, as I read in a daily paper, "a number of French cavalry divisions have crossed the frontier." Evidently the writer had "patrols" in his mind when he wrote "divisions"; but for the enlightenment of the general public I may as well explain the size and strength of a division, for the word will be used and misused very frequently during the next few weeks.

In an expeditionary force a cavalry division consists of cavalry headquarters and twelve regiments, artillery headquarters and six batteries of horse artillery, engineer headquarters and four field troops of Royal Engineers, a signals company four field ambulances, and a baggage train.

That perhaps does not convey a great deal to the uninitiated, but in horses, men and vehicles it is as follows:—

Officers and men	9,773
Horses	9,945
Machine guns	24
Thirteen-pounders	24
Ammunition waggon	72
Motor-cars	20
Two-horse vehicles	138
Four-horse vehicles	284
Six-horse vehicles	81
Bicycles	197

It will be recognised at once that to speak casually of a number of such divisions crossing the frontier is the height of absurdity.

In case similar mistakes regarding Army Divisions should be made, I will set out in full the war strength of a British Army Division.

It will contain divisional headquarters and twelve infantry regiments, artillery headquarters, nine batteries of 18 pounders, two batteries of 5 in. howitzers, or 3 batteries of 4.5 in. heavy battery, siege guns, 4 in. divisional ammunition column, headquarters and two field companies of Royal Engineers, a signals company, two mounted infantry companies, three field ambulances, sixteen waggon-guns each, and the inevitable baggage train. On the road, with the infantry in columns of "four's," and the guns at statutory intervals, that a division would measure twelve miles from van to rear-guard. Its components are:—

Officers and men	19,111
Horses	6,773
Machine guns	24
Field guns (18 lb.)	54
Howitzers	12
"Long Tom's"	4
Ammunition waggon	198
Motor-cars	274
Two-horse waggon	232
Four-horse waggon	241
Six-horse waggon	85
Bicycles	235

"Divisional," however, is an elastic term. The figures above show the prescribed war "establishment," but on active service there are many departures from the text-books.

The details, however, may suffice to stay public clamour, when it begins to ask why our Generals, or the Generals of our allies, do not move faster. It may also help the public in the calculation of the movement of troops if it will remember that on the average an Army Division marches sixteen miles a day although occasionally its units cover twice that distance.

CONSULAR OFFICERS ORDERED FROM EGYPT

Great Britain Determined to Put an End to Pro-German Propaganda Being Carried on Washington, Sept. 8.—German and Austrian consular officers have been ordered by British authorities to leave Egypt at once.

Great Britain has informed the United States that she would look with favour on the sending of American warships to Turkish ports, to care for Christians, in case there was a Mohammedan uprising against them.

These developments in the highly critical situation brought about by the feeling in the Triple Entente that Turkey is certain to join the conflict on the side of Germany and Austria have conveyed to-day in an official despatch to the United States government.

Great Britain's expulsion of German and Austrian consular officers was taken here to mean that she had determined to put an end to the pro-German propaganda, which, she believes, these consular officials have been circulating since the outbreak of hostilities.

EVERY PROVINCE HELPING EMPIRE

Manitoba Offers 50,000 Bags of Flour and British Columbia
Cans of Salmon

Ottawa, Sept. 8.—Every one of the nine provinces of Canada has come forward with an offer of aid to the motherland. The list has been completed by the receipt of offers from Manitoba, Saskatchewan, and British Columbia. Manitoba is contributing fifty thousand bags of flour thus following the lead set by the Dominion government and the Ontario government is augmenting the supply of Great Britain.

The province of Saskatchewan will send fifteen hundred horses. The demand for good horses in England is practically unlimited and the Saskatchewan offer will prove a welcome.

British Columbia was reported some days ago to be contemplating a gift of apples. This proposal seems to have been set aside for the present at least and the coast province will give twenty-five thousand cans of salmon—1,200,000 cans.

INDIAN TROOPS GREAT FIGHTERS

Gurkhas, Sikhs and Other Hiss Tribes Will Face the Most Dangerous Foe

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 8.—There is not the shadow of fear of trouble in India. If every other part of the British Empire is as safe and secure as India, Britons may rest with easy mind.

This is the emphatic opinion of Rev. J. G. Brown, Secretary of the Baptist Foreign Mission Society, a missionary of long and varied experience in all parts of the Indian Empire.

"India is perfectly safe, as far as danger from internal trouble is concerned," continued Rev. Mr. Brown. "My greatest wish, and what I am looking for every day, is for a strong force of Indian troops to land on the continent. When they do, you may be sure they will give a good account of themselves."

Rev. Mr. Brown is not only confident that the native troops will be a big help to Britain—he is enthusiastic about them.

"Fighters, every man of them," he declared. "I have never seen a finer sight than the native cavalry. Men and horses seem one creature. The riders look as if they had been born in the saddle. Fight? Why there isn't finer fighting material in the whole world. Sikhs, Gurkhas, and the rest of them facing the best weapons and fighters. Led by British officers, they will face anything."

"Will they stand against modern guns and trained troops like the Germans?" inquired The News.

"Undoubtedly," was the quick reply. "They are themselves trained in the use of the most modern weapons in every arm of the service. And they want to fight. At the time of the Boer War they begged to be allowed to fight for the Empire, but Britain was afraid—afraid of letting them know how effective they could be against white troops. Oh, there is no fear of them facing the best which can be brought against them. I hope to see 50,000 or 60,000 of them fighting in France as soon as they can be got there. If called on, Indian could and would place half a million of these splendid fighters in the field."

On the question of loyalty also, Rev. Mr. Brown had no fears.

"The action of the Indian princes or Maharajas at the Durbar answers that question," he declared. "That was the most brilliant and most impressive gathering in the world. And it was genuine too. The Indian princes are loyal—thoroughly loyal to Britain. Not one but has placed all his resources at the disposal of the Government, down to the last man."

Mr. Brown was enthusiastic, also over the general methods of the British in India, civil as well as military.

"I have many times been proud of being British when I have seen how they rule in India," he declared. "Until I saw for myself, I had no conception of the power possessed by the Anglo-Saxon to rule. It is splendid—grand. Of course there are men who are not a credit to the British race and ideals, but also there are some of the most upright, noble and capable British living who hold—high positions in India. And it is the pride of the Indian Government to be just and fair in all their dealings. The natives know that if they can only get their case before an English judge they will be given justice. There is not a people in the world more given to litigation than the Indians, and they place implicit faith in the courts."

Mr. Brown sees little danger of an invasion of British territory by Turkey even if she did declare war against Britain.

"I believe Germany's idea is to lead Turkey into this trouble so that she may cut in India," he declared. "But Indian troops by way of the Suez Canal. But of course, that is only a guess. There is one thing certain, however. If Britain lands Indian troops in France, she will have called to her aid the best fighting men in the world."

FROM PEASANT TO THE PAPAL THRONE

All Pope's Patrimony Long Since Went in Charity.—Man of Piety and Humility

Rome, Sept. 8.—From peasantry to nobility, the Fisherman's ring has passed in the election of Cardinal Della Chiesa as Pope, succeeding His Holiness Pope Pius X. Pope Benedict XV., as the Archbishop of Bologna shall henceforth be known, comes of a noble family. His father had the title of Marchese and though the son also enjoyed the title he never used it and found his greatest pleasure in administering to the poor and needy.

Pope Benedict XV. is physically the smallest man ever elected to the throne of St. Peter. He is very near-sighted and wears glasses. The mind which will direct the affairs of the church in the coming years is such as commanded the admiration and respect of the famous Cardinal Rampolla, Secretary of State during the Pontificate of Pope Leo XIII.

A brother of the new Pope is a retired naval officer of the Italian navy. Another is a retired captain, but as his brothers gave their lives to Italy so did his Holiness consecrate himself to the church.

Of a deeply religious nature, when he lived in Rome he walked daily to celebrate the five o'clock morning mass. So simple was he dressed that he was often mistaken on the street for a poor priest seeking charity. Instead of living as he might have, as an Under Secretary of State, he occupied poor and meagre apartments that he might devote his income to charity. When he was appointed Archbishop of Bologna, his new parishioners presented him with an automobile.

The Archbishop accepted the motor car, but in doing so declared that he would use it only for the benefit of the poor; he would ride in the automobile only on missions of charity and in attending to his parish duties. Cardinal Della Chiesa had little idea that he would be the next head of the church when he came to Rome for the conclave. He told his intimate friends that he hoped the new Pope would appoint him secretary of State, and when the highest sacred honor fell to him he was all but overcome.

Pope Benedict XV. is a member of the Knights of Malta, and is using their cross in his coat of arms. He is described as having the statesman's eye, and the simplicity of the piety of Pope Pius, and his pontificate is looked forward to as marking a revival of the era of diplomacy in State as well as in church affairs, which flourished during the time of Leo XIII. and his Secretary of State, Cardinal Rampolla.

The Gold Dust Twins' Philosophy

NOW you have often said—"Oh dear, I dread when eating time comes near. It's not so much the cooking, grub, but cleaning after"—there's the "rub." Each kitchen holds a mass of work, no tidy little wife should shirk.

Gold Dust vs. Kitchen Worry

The kitchen floor, the kitchen sink, the kitchen pots as black as ink, the kitchen kettles and the pans, the silver, glass and cans; wherever you may look, the toil means more than any kettle's boil. To just "prepare" a meal is "fun," but work, with THAT is scarce "begun."

If those who stay up days and nights to win the cause of "Women's Rights" would only vote the GOLD DUST PLAN they soon would have the best of man. More time for comfort and for smiles; more time to play a woman's wiles; for once the GOLD DUST TWINS appear, Hard Labor's cry you never hear; frail woman is a queenly soul who plays the "Take-it-Easy" role. Each GOLD DUST package sets her free by bearing out its guarantee, and never more those household woes that every weary woman knows. Pile up the dishes as you will, the GOLD DUST TWINS will clean 'em still. Old floors and woodwork sinks and pans, turn out as Master Cleaner Plans. From sun to sun, and chore to chore, your tasks will fret you no more.

FRANCISCAN FATHERS

IN FIRING LINE

Quebec, Sept. 5.—It is seldom that we hear of clergymen taking active parts in war-time, other than as chaplains, who minister to the needs of the wounded and dying, but in the present European war, there are many priests of the Franciscan Order, fighting side by side on the French firing line.

Many of the priests of this order are French reservists, they having served their time before entering the priesthood, and as a consequence are now eligible to be called upon in the present crisis.

A call to arms was received by several of the Franciscan priests in Canada when war was declared, and all who were called upon quickly responded, among them being several well-known members of the order in Quebec. Those from this city who are now in the thick of the battle with the French army are, Rev. Fathers Theophile, Henry, Cyprien, Clement and many lay brothers of the Franciscan order formerly from the Quebec house. One of these, Brother Gervais, left only last week, for Montreal, where he embarked for the scene of war, and holds the rank of sergeant in his regiment.

There are many more members of the order who are French reservists, and they are hourly expecting the call to arms.

INCREASED ACTIVITIES IN THE CANADIAN COTTON MILLS

The war in Europe is causing greatly increased activity in the cotton industry in Canada. Cotton factories that were running on short time for months previous to the breaking out of hostilities are now being operated at full capacity. In many plants the employees are working overtime three or four nights a week, while in some plants night and day shifts are being employed. Although much of the overtime and employment of double shifts is due to rush orders from the Government, conditions in the cotton industry are such as to justify the belief that practically all employees of Canadian cotton mills are assured of continued employment at full time.

The imports of manufactured cotton into Canada have been running at about 60 per cent. of the production in Canada, or 37 per cent. of the consumption in this country. While the largest importations have come from the United Kingdom there have been substantial imports from Germany, France, and Switzerland also. The shutting off of imports from Germany and the curtailment of imports from France and Switzerland means that much of the cotton that has been imported into Canada from these countries will now have to be made in this country. The Canadian cotton mills are also being called upon to supply a portion of the trade that formerly went to the United Kingdom. This is due to the increased cost of cotton imported from the United Kingdom owing to increased freight rates, exchange, and insurance, and to uncertainty on the part of many dealers regarding delay or loss in shipment.

The condition of stocks in the retail trade in Canada at the commencement of hostilities was another factor in bringing about the increased demand upon the Canadian cotton mills. For some time previous to the breaking out of the war the consumption of cotton in Canada had been very much under normal. Unsatisfactory business conditions had resulted in dealers allowing their stocks to run down. Many dealers who did place orders for new orders made their orders subject to later instructions as to delivery. It is a significant and most encouraging fact that since the commencement of hostilities most of such orders have been released for immediate shipment. The release of these orders, together with the receipt of new orders from regular customers who had delayed ordering because of uncertainty as to the crop and business conditions generally, and orders from other dealers who had formerly ordered abroad, are giving the cotton industry in Canada a great impetus at this time.

The putting of cotton to new uses to replace other imported raw materials that cannot be secured is still another reason for the increased activities in the cotton industry in this country. It has been customary to use jute in the making of sugar bags, and of flour bags for export purposes. Jute, in its raw state, comes from India, and, as a rule, is manufactured in the United Kingdom. The holding up of several shipments of jute has resulted in a dearth of jute in Canada and the substitution of heavy cotton for jute in the manufacture of flour and sugar bags. If the importation of jute continues to be impossible or is materially curtailed, it may be necessary to use heavy cotton instead of jute in the making of oil cloth. Other possible uses for cotton are being investigated by Canadian manufacturers and as one of them puts it, "new uses are being discovered every day."

Thus the outlook for the cotton industry in Canada is brighter to-day than it has been for some time. It is true some manufacturers are a little uneasy regarding the supply of dye-stuffs and chemicals, which have come in the past from Germany, but the general opinion is that with some readjustments and perhaps some changes in shades, sufficient dye-stuffs and chemicals to meet the Canadian demand will be secured. Everything points to a busy winter for all the Canadian cotton mills and to continued employment for their 14,000 employees.

WOMAN'S BEST MEDICINE

Mrs. Kelly Advises all Women to Take "Fruit-a-Tives"

HACKERSVILLE, ONT., AUG. 26th, 1913.

"I can highly recommend 'Fruit-a-Tives' because they did me an awful lot of good and I cannot speak too highly about them. About four years ago, I commenced taking 'Fruit-a-Tives' for a general break-down and they did me a world of good. We bought a good many dollars' worth, but it was money well spent because they did all that you claim for them. Their action is so pleasant, compared with other laxatives, that I found only pleasure, as well as health, in taking them. They seemed to me to be particularly suited to women, on account of their mild and gentle action, and I trust that some other women may start taking 'Fruit-a-Tives' after reading my letter, and if they do, I am satisfied the results will be the same as in my own case."

Mrs. W. N. KELLY

"Fruit-a-Tives" are sold by all dealers at 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c, or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-Tives Limited, Ottawa.

GRAND TRUNK READY TO MOVE GRAIN FROM PRAIRIE PROVINCES

The Grand Trunk and Grand Pacific Railways are busily preparing to move their share of the big harvest from Western Canada to the shipping points. Arrangements have been made for a plentiful supply of cars and in the territory served by the Company's lines it is expected that there will be very little delay in the grain movement this year.

The Grand Trunk Railway System has done good work for both the grain grower and grain dealer by steadily increasing its elevator capacity at the various important tidewater and lake terminals, including Montreal, Portland, Tiffin, Depot Harbor, Sarnia and Port William. The Company now has in its elevators of varying size—from the small country elevator receiving grain from wagons and loading into cars to the huge terminal elevators at Port William—capacity for over twenty million bushels of grain. The present season has been one of the best for the grain movement this year. The present season has been one of the best for the grain movement this year.

The putting of cotton to new uses to replace other imported raw materials that cannot be secured is still another reason for the increased activities in the cotton industry in this country. It has been customary to use jute in the making of sugar bags, and of flour bags for export purposes. Jute, in its raw state, comes from India, and, as a rule, is manufactured in the United Kingdom. The holding up of several shipments of jute has resulted in a dearth of jute in Canada and the substitution of heavy cotton for jute in the manufacture of flour and sugar bags. If the importation of jute continues to be impossible or is materially curtailed, it may be necessary to use heavy cotton instead of jute in the making of oil cloth. Other possible uses for cotton are being investigated by Canadian manufacturers and as one of them puts it, "new uses are being discovered every day."

Thus the outlook for the cotton industry in Canada is brighter to-day than it has been for some time. It is true some manufacturers are a little uneasy regarding the supply of dye-stuffs and chemicals, which have come in the past from Germany, but the general opinion is that with some readjustments and perhaps some changes in shades, sufficient dye-stuffs and chemicals to meet the Canadian demand will be secured. Everything points to a busy winter for all the Canadian cotton mills and to continued employment for their 14,000 employees.

CHIEF ENGINEER

G. T. P. RESIGNS

The resignation is announced of Mr. B. B. Kelliher, Chief Engineer of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. The circular issued by Mr. Morley Donahue, Vice-President and General Manager of the line, states that Mr. H. A. Woods, as Assistant Chief Engineer, will assume charge of the Engineering Department of the Railway, with headquarters at Winnipeg.

Mr. Kelliher's health has not been satisfactory for some time past and he has, therefore, asked to be relieved of his duties in order that he may seek a complete rest. Few men have had such a strenuous career. For 20 years Mr. Kelliher has been engaged in railway construction and is to-day recognized as one of the foremost mountain engineers of his generation. His work has taken him out with the pioneers on surveys through the wildest regions of the Continent, and superintending the work of the great railway armies he has lived for long periods under the most trying conditions of climate and environment. For 10 years he has been actively engaged in the building of the Grand Trunk Pacific, the great work which called for the finest engineering talent that could be procured. For nine of these years Mr. Kelliher has been the engineer in charge of this immense construction scheme. A few days after his appointment as Chief Engineer, the first sod of the Grand Trunk Pacific was turned at Manitoba Sand Hill. That was on August 28th, 1905, and the laying of the steel began September 1906 at Portage la Prairie. In winter and in summer the railway builders pushed forward with their twin ribbon of steel towards the Rocky Mountains. The first 800 miles to what is now the City of Edmonton presented comparatively few problems after range of seemingly impenetrable mountains reared their heads. In May, 1908, another construction army began its work at Prince Rupert working eastward, along the rocky banks of the Skeena River and through the Coast Range. In April of this year the East and West trail blazers met and the last spike was driven at Nechako Crossing, marking the practical completion of the most modern of transcontinental railways.

Mr. Kelliher was born in Ireland and educated at Dublin University. After serving as an apprentice to a civil engineer in Dublin and being engaged on the surveys for the Mitchellstown and Fermanagh and the Galway and Clifton Railways, he proceeded to the United States. From 1886 to 1890 he was with the Union Pacific Railway and from 1890 to 1896 was Assistant Engineer of the Northern Pacific Road on the Cascade and Pacific Divisions. After further experience as Division Engineer of the Oregon Short Line he was chosen for the difficult task of locating a line through the Mountains of Colorado from Denver to Salt Lake City for the Denver and North Western & Pacific Railway, joining the Grand Trunk Pacific on the completion of this work as Division Engineer at Winnipeg.

Paris—Several thousand reservists have been engaged since the outbreak of the war in putting the outer defences of the entrenched camp in shape to resist a possible siege by the Germans. The military governor has now decided to hasten the work and yesterday 5,000 excavators were mustered in at the Hotel Deville and divided into squads and given blankets so that they can sleep on the spot. They have been sent to the outer trenches.

The three-minute-class won by Glen Be Sure, with Bessie K. in second place and Allice Hal third.

The green race won by Abbott, Jr., in three straight heats, with Harry L. second and Buzz Fuzz third.

The track was rather heavy on account of yesterday's rain but Hal L. made the half mile in the last heat in the good time of 1.07 1/2. The best time made in the three-minute class was 1.11 and in the green race 1.23.

A large crowd witnessed the races and interest was very keen.

QUAINT CURIO

One of the ladies of our town is the proud possessor of the gun which her great grand-father carried when he fought under the Duke of Wellington in the famous battle of Waterloo. The gun, which is of the old flint lock kind, has been much used since Waterloo, but not in battle. Now, however, it is rather troublesome at the wrong end.

SMOKING IN FIRST CLASS CAR

Passengers on the Maritime Express one evening last week were considerably amused and annoyed by a young man who made himself quite prominent. He was (to use a slang phrase) about three seas over and had beside him on the seat a rather suspicious looking jug, from which he took an occasional sip. He slept and smoked, and then woke up and sang and growing weary of this kind of amusement produced a package of cigarettes and proceeded to enjoy a smoke. He smoked three in succession, which proved rather unpleasant for a young lady sitting just ahead of him, as the car was hot and the air soon became oppressive. The conductor and brakeman passed through the car several times but neither seemed to notice. At one time the conductor stopped and spoke to the young man, who at the time, had a cigarette in one hand and a match in the other, but there was no order given for him to remove to the smoking car. We are not aware of the fact that smoking is allowed in a first class car. If so, ladies might as well travel on second class tickets and prepare to sit in the smoking car. Chatham World.
