

France. It must be evident to those who are paying any attention to French politics that a crisis of some kind is fast approaching in France. Not only is there confusion in the attempts at legislation by the Assembly, but there is violent and unrelenting quarrelling in the refreshment rooms, and violent conduct in the streets. M. Gambetta in the Assembly denounces the Bonapartists as wretches, and people who avow themselves Bonapartists threaten to assault M. Gambetta as he goes to the railway station. The police have to be called out to protect the Deputies, and the Radical members charge them with taking the part of the Bonapartists. There is little doubt that some foundation exists for this charge.

The police sympathize with the Empire, have pleasant recollections of profit under it, and would be glad to see it restored. The fact does not make the situation of matters any less critical, though it may help to indicate what might be the result of a struggle, should one take place. Everything depends upon the course taken by Marshal McMahon, and so far he has given no sign. He cannot, however, be silent much longer, and the question of interest is, what will he say and do?

The immediate reason why the Republicans so furiously rage together is the election of M. Bourgeois, a Bonapartist. The fact has shown them that they have not so much to hope from an appeal to the country as they had expected, and they have devoted themselves to calling up all the stony sins of the Empire by way of changing the popular mind. They know that the longer a dissolution of the Assembly is delayed, the less will be their chance of getting the majority for which they hope. They have therefore forced the hands of their opponents by more or less directly instigating disorders in Paris and the large towns; and if they may be judged by what they are now doing, they are trying similar tactics again. Hitherto, however, they have signally failed. Paris gives them no encouragement, and throughout the country there is no breath of order except at the Versailles refreshment rooms and at the Paris railway station. This is not encouraging to them, but it is marked with much interest by others.

RESIGNATION OF THE POSTMASTER GENERAL.—A Washington dispatch states that Wednesday Postmaster General Croswell tendered his resignation to the President, urging as the cause, the long neglect of his private affairs. He thanks the President for his generous confidence and closes his letter as follows: "Rest assured that I shall continue to give my undivided attention to the official duties of the office, and that I shall ever deem it an honor to subscribe myself sincerely and faithfully your friend."

The President in accepting the resignation of Mr. Croswell says: "In separating officially, I have but two hopes to express. First, that you get a successor who will be as faithful and as efficient in the performance of the duties of the office you resign; and second, a personal friend that I can have the same attachment for. Your record has been satisfactory to me, and I know will so prove to the country at large. It was interesting that night and is generally believed in Washington that the President has tendered the Postmaster Generalship to Hon. Eugene Hale of Maine. Mr. Hale is now at Altoona, Pa., on a Western tour, but a telegram was sent to him Wednesday afternoon by the President.

ACCIDENT TO A TIGHT ROPE PERFORMER.—The Lewiston Journal says that Saturday evening a wire was stretched from Auburn station to Mr. Dexter's new shoe factory and quite a crowd of people gathered to witness the skill of Mr. Charles Hilton, the well known tight rope performer. Mr. Hilton took position in small air and was successfully executing the feat, when the wire on which he stood snapped, and he fell about twenty feet upon a pile of rubbish, breaking his ankle and every seriously bruising him. When he fell, Mr. Hilton had in his hand a long balancing pole, which struck a lad, son of Mr. Charles Goff, inflicting quite a severe scalp wound.

Messrs. T. McCarthy & Son are now fitting up the schooner Annie Laurie, 65 tons, to load with deals to send across the Atlantic to an Irish port, for sale. The Annie Laurie is a new vessel, but was wrecked last fall and purchased by the present owners. She will be rigged with topmasts and put in the best possible condition. The crew will consist, besides the captain, of a dog and cat, a boy and two men. The captain does not intend to insure his life, but will put his trust in Providence and has no doubt he will reach his destined port in safety. The little vessel will receive her cargo and be ready to sail in a week or two.—[Tribune.]

ECONOMY.—One of the brightest of lady writers has a neat list of the ostentatious Economies advocated by some of the great and good men at Washington. She says that there is an Ohio River, near Pittsburg, a prosperous town named Economy, occupied by a German community called "Economites." They neither marry nor are given in marriage, yet are not religious zealots or ascetics. They have hard hands, hard faces, drive hard bargains, and believe in hard money. The member who saves, shares, and skimps most is the best fellow and the chief saint; and these she compares to the Congressional "Economites" who arrest important public enterprises, and discharge faithful old public servants. There is no work so fitting and necessary that they will not dispute the cost, even after it is done by their own act, and can not be undone.—They remind one of that well-to-do but penny-pinching Irish widow who had, on being apprised of the death of her husband in a distant city, telegraphed in the first flush of her grief and good feeling, to have the mortal remains of the dear departed embalmed and sent home. She tore up well till the undertaker's bill came to hand. Then her countenance fell; and when she reached the charge for embalming, she indignantly exclaimed, "Sixty-five dollars for stout 'Dan'!"—[Harper's Magazine.]

Ill feeling has arisen between the American sailors at Nice and the French soldiery growing out of a bar-room quarrel in which a soldier ran a sailor through the body, causing his death. The soldiers were called on by the saloon keeper for assistance, an attempt having been made by a sailor, as he says, to rob him.

SAINT ANDREWS, JULY 1, 1874.

School Examinations.

On Thursday and Friday last, the Public Schools examinations were held, in presence of the Trustees and visitors, and we may add that good work is being done in these schools, which is creditable to both teachers and taught. The rooms are large, well lighted and ventilated; modern desks and seats, and handsome time pieces have recently been placed in the rooms by the Trustees. It is pleasing to notice, that a great improvement has been made by the Trustees in the Advanced Schools, viz: by placing the boys under a male teacher, and the girls under a female teacher; this we hold to be an excellent and judicious arrangement, one which will be of benefit to the pupils; indeed, where it can be avoided there should be no mixed advanced schools.

The first school examined was that taught by Mr. VROOM, in the usual advanced English branches, in all of which the pupils acquitted themselves to the satisfaction of the examiners and visitors. Miss SMITH and Miss ALGAR's were next visited, and showed that commendable progress had been made. The primary schools taught by Miss B. MORRISON and Mrs. RODGERS also passed creditable examinations.

On Friday the Grammar School, which has been under the tuition of Mr. COVY, for the past two months, was examined in the English and Classical branches, by the Rev. Dr. Ketchum, the directors and trustees. During the few weeks Mr. Covy has had the school under his charge, the pupils have been thoroughly grounded in the various studies; the young ladies compete successfully with the boys in the various studies; and it was pleasing to hear them translate, parse and scan passages in Virgil with a fluency and correctness which would astonish some old rusty classical scholars.

At the conclusion of each examination, the pupils were addressed by the Trustees commending them for the progress which had been made, urging upon them the propriety of attention to their studies, with words of encouragement for the present good standing. The holidays will commence on Friday next.

A NATIONAL FEELING.—It appears to us that there is a lack of true national feeling among a certain class of Canadians, who leave the Dominion before its natal day, to assist, or be present at the United States Celebration of the 4th July, and hear the spread eagle orations of our neighbors glorifying the event, which is the language of a former oration,—"gave freedom to the old states, and cast off the galling tyranny exercised by the Government of England," &c. &c. Any one who is a part of "amor patrie" in his breast, could not enjoy such remarks. What we want is a proper national feeling, which would enjoy an occasion celebrating the peaceful and auspicious birth of a new, and what will eventually be, a great North American British Nation,—with a never dying love and admiration for its parent. Let us emulate the people of the United States in observing the 1st July, a day which celebrates the Union of the North American Colonies under one Federal head. In doing so, its orators will not require to state that they "cast off the galling yoke" of any government, but that the people united among themselves to better their condition, and take rank among the great commercial nations of the world. Whether native or adopted citizens, all should join in observing Dominion Day.

WHIPPING IN SCHOOL.—A case occurred in one of the public schools in Truro, N. S., where a girl was whipped by the teacher. The matter was investigated by the Trustees, and the girl having been refractory and the punishment light, it was passed over with a caution. It is not proper to whip a little child severely, and to chastise a girl fifteen or upwards, is to say the least, unmanly,—better, far better to send them to their parents for correction. With boys it is different, they are as a general rule more obstinate and unruly.

VANDALISM.—Some miscreants are in the habit of stealing flowers and shrubs placed by loving hands around the graves of relatives in the Cemetery; and not contented with plucking the roses, stealing bushes and pots of flowers, they desecrate the resting place of the dead, by wantonly destroying the borders and hedges, and in some instances defacing the monuments. This is most disgraceful conduct, and calls loudly for stringent measures to prevent, if possible, such wanton acts of destruction and theft. We are informed that on Sabbath days these acts are generally indulged in, and that many would willingly contribute to pay a person to watch the grounds during the hours of that sacred day.

The Knights Templars of St. John paid a flying visit to the Encampments at Bangor and Portland last week, and were hospitably received and entertained; and returned much pleased with their visit.

THE RECIPROcity TREATY about which there was such a great flourish of trumpets, and which was supposed to be of such vast benefit to Canada, upon a careful perusal (for it requires such from educated merchants and manufacturers,) is found to be like almost all treaties with the United States, in many cases a one sided affair, and bears heavily upon the United States in some important cases, valueless, as private or individual rights will take precedence. It is probable that the Treaty will be annulled before it receives the sanction of the Dominion Parliament.

FIRE AT ST. GEORGE.—A fire occurred on Saturday afternoon above the village of St. George in the building owned and occupied by the St. George Red Granite Company, as a polishing and dressing mill. The building contained machinery of the company, consisting of an engine, boiler, shafting, polishing lathes, belt polishers, &c., besides finished pillars, monuments and other finished work. The large building and machinery were insured for $5,000, not a third of their value. The whole was burnt to the ground within half an hour. It is said that new buildings will be erected without delay.

THE CAMP.—The St. George Company, commanded by Capt. M. Gove, arrived yesterday and marched to the Camp at Joe's Point. Lt. Col. inches has been here attending to the preparations for holding the Camp. The St. Stephen Company also arrived in the morning, and the Battalion from Fredericton, 650 men, arrived by train last evening. The white tents on the grounds occupied by the military and the red uniforms present a picturesque and animated appearance.

The N. B. University examinations passed off with great eclat. The Oration by Prof. Foster is highly spoken of by the Press. The President of the University announced that His Excellency the Governor General had signified his intention of presenting to the University a gold medal to be given at Exeter in June, 1875. The subjects on which candidates will be examined are the English Language, Literature and History of the British Empire.

The Douglass gold medal will be awarded next year for the best English essay on the value of a liberal education to a man of business. The Alumni gold medal will be awarded for the best translation in Latin prose of a portion of Smith's history of Greece, beginning at chap. xxix, sec. 5, beginning with the words: "In July which followed," and ending at the conclusion of sec. 9 of the same chapter, with the words "began rapidly to decline."

The Steamer "City of St. John" made her last trip here on Monday, prior to proceeding to the North Shore route. The steamer "Commerce" is to take the place of the "City of St. John," on this route.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE for July contains over One Hundred Illustrations, and a bewildering variety of the most interesting reading matter. A marked feature of the Number is the proportion of space devoted to American subjects. Harriet Prescott Spofford opens the Number with an illustrated poem, "Left Ashore." Bishop Gilbert Haven contributes a second paper, profusely illustrated, on Mexico. William G. Wyckoff contributes, under the title of "The Net Result," a popular account of the work of the United States Fish Commission. "A Glimpse of Seventy-six" by Charles D. Dasher, gives a vivid picture of the domestic life of the Revolutionary period. "One of Many," by Lieut. W. B. Cushing, recounts his romantic and perilous adventures. "Persephus," a poem, by Coen. William Gibson. Richard Keefe contributes a poem of much force and beauty, entitled "My Stain." James Peaton, in a paper entitled "Falsehood in the Daily Press," gives an interesting specimen of journalistic extravagance and inaccuracy. "My Mother and I," is concluded in this number. "The Living Link" will be concluded in the August number. Two short stories, "John and I," and "My Wife's Editorial," with five Editorial Departments, complete a Number of unusual attractiveness and interest.

Rev. C. M. Sills, Missionary at Campo Belo, preached on Sunday last, in All Saints Church, to large and attentive congregations. The Rev. gentleman's delivery is fluent and clear, and his discourses were well composed and purely evangelical.

THE ALDINE.

A collection of thirteen excellent pictures, all fine works of art, embellish the July "Aldine," which is the finest publication in the world for the drawing-room. The pictures in the "Aldine" are new, beautiful, interesting, and exquisite as gems of art. Mr. Thomas Moran opens the July number with an appropriate and full-page tinted picture—"A Storm in the Mountains," which is full of the midsummer splendor and action of a July thunder-storm. David Neal contributes a full-page picture of "Watt and the Kettle," it being a copy of his famous painting now on exhibition at the Royal Academy, London. Young Watt is shown solving the problem of steam power. Three charming pictures of Pennsylvania scenery are contributed by John How, a full-page showing the great "Horse-Shoe Bend at Kittanning Point," where the Pennsylvania Railway crosses the Allegheny Mountains. Another picture is "Kettle Run, Altoona," a wild, gloomy brook in a deep woods. The last of this interesting series is the "Old Aqueduct on the Conemaugh River," in Pennsylvania, which shows the runs of a great stone bridge. "An Indian Scout" is a strong picture, showing the red man with all his war trappings and ugly features. "A Connoisseur" shows the interior of an artist's studio, and reveals a whole volume of romance at the first glance. The picture is a pleasing study, one to charm. "Our Pet" shows a handsome female face, with as perfect a profile as has ever been seen in print. J. O. Davidson has a full-page picture, "After the Battle," which is a graphic view of a fight at sea, where the war-ships have taken fire, and the sailors are leaping overboard. Three views of Westminster Abbey are given, an exterior view of the building, "Entrance to the South Aisle," and the "South Transept." This magnificent series of illustrations closes with a fine portrait of "David Neal," the American artist in Munich. The literary contents of the "Aldine" for July are of a high order, embracing a musical poem, "Raking Hay," by Thos. E. Garrett; the story of "A Stampede in 1824," a quaint love story, by Lucy Ellen Guernsey; a sketch of James Watt; a full description of the "Pennsylvania Pictures;" "Forgotten," a strange poem, by J. C. O'Reilly; a fine essay on "Marine Painters of America," by Earle Marble; a description of "Fenqueque Island," by Chandos Fulton; a sketch of "The Indian of To-Day," and a short article on "A Connoisseur;" a poem by W. W. Bailey, called "Aresthus;" a charming story of New England life from the pen of Mrs. H. G. Rowe, called "Puck in the Pulpit;" "After the Battle," an editorial article; "Noon and Night," by Kate Putnam Osgood; "Faustine to Algernon," a poem, by Mrs. M. V. Victor; "Mrs. Gray's Spare Rooms," by H. M. Wright, and "Westminster Abbey," by Fuller Walker. The editorial articles consist of Literature, a sketch of "David Neal," "Musical Matters Abroad and at Home," and "Dramas." Subscription price, $5, including chromos "The East" and "The West." James Stott & Co., publishers, 58 Maiden Lane, New York City.

BALTIMORE, MD., June 23.—About 12 o'clock last night, during a drunken brawl at the Sherwood House, Berry Amos, 35 years of age, a well known sporting character and gambler, was stabbed in the left shoulder and bled to death in half an hour. Before his death he accused Sam McDonald of committing the deed and the latter was immediately arrested and lodged in jail. Mr. Donald was formerly a well known and wealthy resident here, is now in Baltimore on a visit from Indiana. His father was William McDonald, the Millionaire, and at one time the owner of Flora Temple. The affair has caused much excitement in this city.

LOUISVILLE, KY., June 23.—Hugh Ellet met John Houghton, yesterday, in a carriage with Ellet's wife in Palaski county. Ellet shot Houghton. The horses ran away, throwing Ellet's wife and the body of Houghton into the road. Ellet robbed the body of Houghton, captured his wife and disappeared in the bush. At Glasgow, Saturday, a negro named Maxey cut off the head of another, named Everist, in a knife trouble. A mob chased Maxey, during which Jack Martin shot a man named Shirley instead of Maxey, when Shirley turned and shot Martin dead. Maxey was finally captured and imprisoned.

VARIETIES.

A despatch from British Columbia says that the latest political meeting ever held in the province was held at Yale on the 23rd, and endorsed Mackenzie's railway policy, and condemned the Local Government. The meeting of the lumber manufacturers of the United States and Canada, to form an International Association of Lumbermen, was held at Williamsport, Pa., on Tuesday of this week.

One element of Bismarck's success as a strategist is indicated by an anecdote concerning him which is quite current in Europe. On a certain occasion, being asked to explain his extraordinary luck at what, replied, "when I get an opportunity I invariably look into the hand of my opponent."

The International Division of the Sons of Temperance of America held its twenty-ninth annual convention at Ottawa, last week. The attendees comprised delegates from the provinces of the Dominion and every State in the Union. The annual reports show the total membership to be $2,299. The total receipts for the past year are $6,550. Resolutions were unanimously carried urging the necessity of the liquor traffic as being the only means of successfully grappling with intemperance.

Messrs. F. Shaw and Bros., are going to build an addition of one hundred yats to their tannery at Grand Lake Stream the present summer. Some idea of the amount of their business may be formed from the fact that into Boston every day, from their United States tanneries alone, go over twelve tons of leather. The Canadian tanneries do about the same amount.

The death is announced of Sir William Martens, the oldest member, as it is believed of Her Majesty's State household. Sir William was for many years Gentleman Usher to the Queen and Usher of the Sword of State, and has held a post in the household under four successive sovereigns. He was about eighty-six years of age.

A traveller in the Yoges neighborhood relates in the Magdeburg Zeitung a little circumstance illustrating the position of Germans in Alsace. At Molsheim an Alsatian lady entered the railway carriage with her little boy. Her mother tongue was apparently French, for she conversed with her little child only in that language. But in consequence of a difference of opinion between mother and child the latter began to cry and bellow in a naughty way. In vain did mamma try with all flatteries and motherly talk to keep the little thing quiet. "Sois tranquille, mon ange, mon petit bébé." But no use, till his mother, in terrific wrath, cried out, "Du infanter Loasch!"

The child looked with wide eyes, and feeling that when mamma began to speak German she was in earnest, and that all play was over, became suddenly still and well behaved for the rest of the journey.

Prospectus for 1874—Seventh Year.

The Aldine

ANTIQUARIAN MONTHLY JOURNAL, UNIVERSALLY ADMITTED TO BE THE MOST IMPORTANT PERIODICAL IN THE WORLD, A REPRESENTATIVE AND CHAMPION OF AMERICAN TASTE.

Not for Sale in Book or News Stores.

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has one of the temporary to timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Altho' each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for the same time; and then, there are the Christmas Brides!

ART DEPARTMENT, 1874.

The illustrations of THE ALDINE have won a world-wide reputation, and in the art centres of Europe it is an admitted fact that its woodcuts are examples of the highest perfection ever attained. The common prejudice in favor of "steel plates," is rapidly yielding to a more educated and discriminating taste which recognizes the advantages of superior artistic quality with greater facility of production. The woodcuts of THE ALDINE possess all the delicacy and elaborate finish of the most costly steel plate, while they afford a better rendering of the artist's original.

In addition to designs by the members of the National Academy, and other noted American artists, THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view of the highest artistic success and greatest general interest. Thus the subscriber to THE ALDINE will, at a trifling cost, enjoy in his own home the pleasures and refining influences of true art. The quarterly tinted plates for 1874 will be by Thos Moran and J. D. Woodward. The Christmas issue for 1874 will contain special designs appropriate to the season, by our best artists, and will surpass in attractions any of its predecessors.

PREMIUM FOR 1874.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE for the year 1874 will receive a pair of chromos. The original pictures were painted in oil for the publishers of THE ALDINE, by Thomas Moran, whose great Colorado picture was purchased by Congress for ten thousand dollars. The subjects were chosen to represent "The East" and "The West." One is a view in the White Mountains, New Hampshire; the other gives The Cliffs of Green River, Wyoming Territory. The difference in the nature of the scenes themselves is a pleasing contrast, and affords a good display of the artist's scope and coloring. The chromos are each worked from thirty distinct plates, and are in size (12x16) and appear more exact facsimiles of the originals. The presentation of a worthy example of America's greatest landscape painter to the subscribers of THE ALDINE was a bold but peculiarly happy idea and its successful realization is attested by the following testimonial over the signature of Mr. Moran himself.

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 20, 1873.
Gentlemen,—I am delighted with the proofs in color of your chromos. They are wonderful! I would have been surprised to see such beautiful reproductions of my pictures. Very respectfully,
THOS. MORAN.

TERMS.

Per annum in advance, with Oil Chromos free. For 50 CENTS EXTRA, the chromos will be mounted, varnished and prepaid by mail.

The ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscription must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local canvasser, without responsibility to the publishers, except in case where the certificate is given, bearing the semi-monthly signature of JAMES SUTTON & Co.

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar

Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, in Bilious Diseases.

If men will enjoy good health, let them use VINEGAR BITTERS as a medicine, and avoid the use of alcoholic stimulants in every form.

Dr. H. McDONALD & Co.,
Druggists and General Agents, San Francisco, California, and cor. Washington and Carlton Sts., New York.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bowels are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary.

There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to Dr. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulder, Cough, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Bile.

One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Serfania, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Gout, Rheumatic Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Scars, Etc., Etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative power in the most obstinate and intricate cases.

For Inflammation and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Catarrh and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Painting and Miners, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blisters, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ringworms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors, and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are liberally thrown up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuge, no anthelmintics, will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or the turn of life, these Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Jaundice.—In all cases of jaundice, rest assured that your liver is not doing its work. The only sensible treatment is to promote the secretion of the bile and favor its removal. For this purpose use VINEGAR BITTERS.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.
