British Win An Important Victory On the Aisne

GERMAN SHELLS SET ON FIRE ANTWERP SUBURBS

GERMANS EVACUATE TRENCHES LEAVING TWO HEAVIEST GUNS

British Victory at Most Important Centre of Battle of Aisne Complete—Times Correspondent Tells of Allies' Great Successes.

[Canadian Press.]
London, Oct. 9.—The Times correspondent south of the Aisne line says: "At one centre—and that the most important—the British victory on the River Aisne is now complete. The Germans have evacuated their trenches, leaving in some of them many soldiers who died from a severe visitation of typhoid. They left two of their heaviest guns in the quarries, heavily cemented in place."

"Two salient events mark the part of the fighting of which Soissons was the centre. First, the capture by the Allies of Fort Conde after a siege of sixteen days, and second, the remarkable slaughter by the British in the last of a series of German attacks. It is agreed that wherever the Germans have dealt severe havoc to the allies around this position their success was due wholly to a spy system. The allies found out that the Germans were able to diagnose their movements readily, and instituted a systematic search for offenders. They captured seven spies, one of them a woman, who used electric flashlight signals from a window. It is not altogether true to say that the battle of the Aisne is over even now, but in the last few days considerable areas have been liberated by the Germans and a great wedge of the allies' forces has been thrown forward."

Nearly Destroyed.
London, Oct. 9.—8:50 a.m.—The correspondent at Antwerp of the Central News, under Thursday's date, sends the following: "The German effort towards North France with a view of fixing a wedge between Antwerp and the allies has been nearly destroyed. Fierce fighting is occurring around Lille and south of Ghent. Prisoners have been taken to Dunkirk and Ostend, and a German aeroplane has been destroyed."

COL. HOOGINS WILL RECRUIT IN THIS CITY

Different System is Adopted in Enlisting the Second Contingent.

NO CONCENTRATION CAMP

Men Will Be Given Training at Each Divisional Headquarters.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Ottawa, Oct. 9.—Lacking British acceptance, the organization of Canada's second expeditionary force has not yet begun.

Everything is in readiness for the start, however, and as soon as word comes, orders will go out to commanders of divisional areas.

Enlistment of men and appointment of provisional officers will be looked after in Halifax by Col. R. W. Rutherford, of Halifax; Col. J. P. Landry, of Quebec; Col. S. J. A. Thompson, of Montreal; Col. P. D. R. Hemming, of Kingston; Major-Gen. F. L. Lessard, of Toronto; Col. W. E. Hodgins, of London; Col. S. E. Steele, of Winnipeg; Col. A. Roy, of Victoria, and Col. D. A. Cruikshank, of Calgary.

D. O. C. to Be in Charge.
They command the divisional areas, and under their direction recruiting offices will be opened in the principal centres, and wherever there is a military corps its officer will be called on to enroll men.

Though the order to enlist has not gone out, offers are pouring into Ottawa by wire and by mail from men and units in all parts of the country who want to go to the front.

There is every indication that it will be as difficult to keep down the numbers as it was the first expeditionary force, when 21,000 men were asked for and 33,000 put aboard the transports.

The change of system will make it easier to raise the second force than was the case with the first, as the work which was assumed by the Minister of Militia alone will be divided among nine men.

Train at Each Centre.
The equipment will be shipped to each rendezvous point and preliminary training carried out there.

The weather may make it difficult to give as much shooting drill to the second as to the first force, but the rifle will be used as much as possible before embarkation.

The second expeditionary force will leave Canada for Europe through the port of Halifax, and is likely to go aboard the transports before Christmas.

There will be no difficulty in getting the second as it is hoped that the equipment will be so speedily obtained that there will be no delay in arming and uniforming the men.

Genoa, Italy, Oct. 9, via Paris.—Several cases of plague have been reported at Saloniki, and as a result all steamers scheduled to sail from here have suspended their departure.

ENEMY DESTROYS POINCARE'S HOUSE

[Canadian Press.]
Bordeaux, Oct. 8.—President Poincare has received information that the German guns yesterday again bombarded his country house at Sempigny in the department of Meuse. Forty-eight shells were fired into the buildings, which were completely destroyed.

PART OF ANTWERP REPORTED ABLAZE

Bombardment Terrible, But Enemy Said To Have Been Repulsed On River Nethe.

[Canadian Press.]
London, Oct. 9.—The bombardment of Antwerp has been terrible, says an Ostend dispatch to the Renter Telegram Company, under date of Thursday.

"The Germans threw incendiary bombs," the dispatch adds, "with the result that many parts of the town between the railway station and the south and the Palace of Justice are in flames."

"It is rumored here that the Germans have been repulsed on the left bank of the River Nethe."

"A Taube aeroplane flew over Ostend at about 4 o'clock this afternoon."

[Canadian Press.]
London, Oct. 9.—1:15 a.m.—Bergerhaut, a suburb of Antwerp, is burning, according to a dispatch from Amsterdam to Renter's Telegram Company.

GOVERNMENT AT OSTEND.
London, Oct. 9.—1:11 a.m.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Ostend, dated Thursday, says:

"The Germans have occupied the southeast semicircle of the third fortified line of Antwerp. The Belgians have made several sorties on the left bank of the Scheldt."

"The Belgian Government is completely installed at Ostend."

TWO FORTS REPORTED SILENCED.
The Hasse, Oct. 9, via London, Oct. 9.—The bombardment of Antwerp's inner forts and the outlying parts of the city started at 12:30 Thursday morning. At noon the city was burning in four places.

It is reported that inner forts Nos. 4 and 6 have been silenced.

The exodus of the panic-stricken people of Antwerp continues. It is reported that the dikes have been opened.

[Canadian Press.]
Berlin, Oct. 9.—1:25 a.m.—It is officially announced that the Germans continue to make progress at Antwerp, and that they are already over the flooded area along the River Nethe.

A writer in the Militar Wochenblatt, however, last night warned the people against an excessive optimism regarding Antwerp, as the garrison of the fortress there is still able to continue a desperate resistance.

BORN ON TRAIN
Son of Michigan Parents Holds Up G. T. R. Express at Glencoe.

If the baby son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hardy, of Pontiac, Mich., does not grow up to be a railway president, a railway man, commercial traveller or something of the kind, it will not have been the fault of the place and circumstances of his birth.

Yesterday afternoon Baby Hardy was born on the Windsor Express, while the train was held up in his honor at Glencoe. Mrs. Hardy was returning to Windsor, where her husband was waiting to meet her. He was telegraphed to come on to Glencoe, where his wife and baby, after the latter's birth, were removed to the home of a resident of the village. Dr. Walker, who was in attendance, stated today that mother and child were doing well.

GENERAL SITUATION HAS UNDERGONE NO CHANGES

French Official Statement Gives No Details—Artillery Contest Along Whole Front in Woevre District—Battle Continues.

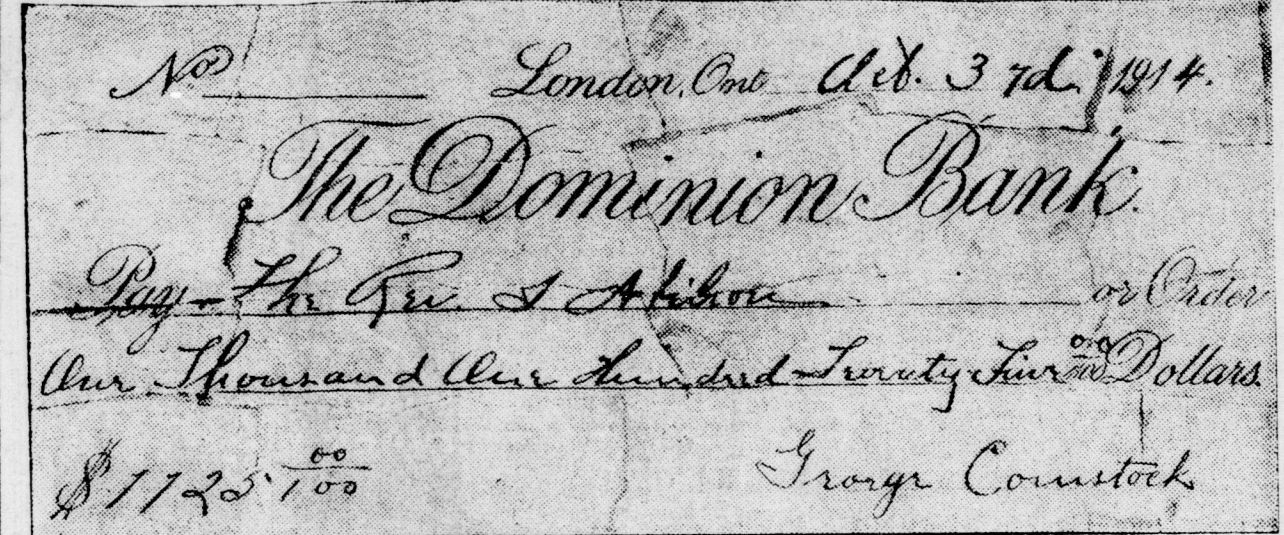

[Canadian Press.]
Paris, Oct. 9.—3:06 p.m.—The following official announcement was given out in Paris this afternoon: "The general situation has undergone no change."

"On our left wing the two opposing bodies of cavalry are still operating to the north of Lille and of La Basée, and the battle continues along the line marked by the regions of Lens, Arras, Bray-Sur-Somme, Chaumes, Roye and Lassigny."

"On the centre of the Oise and on the Meuse, only actions of minor importance have been reported. "On our right, in the Woevre district, there has been an artillery contest along the entire front."

"In Lorraine, in the Vosges and in Alsace, there has been no change. "In Bosnia, Montenegrin troops have continued their advance in the direction of Sarajevo as far as the fortified line which protects the city at a distance from it of eight kilometres."

Check That Caused Minister's Unmasking

One of the checks, signed by the mysterious "George Comstock," that was the first clue to lead to the revelation of the "faked" hold-up of Rev. Isaac Wilson of Milan, Mich. Detective Egelton found pieces of torn checks in the minister's pocket, when he was brought to police headquarters after the supposed assault and robbery of $4,500 on Wednesday night. Pasting the pieces together, as indicated in the above cut, the detective found they represented the sum Wilson claimed to have lost to his assassins. With this evidence in his possession the detective confronted the minister, and the latter's confession followed. (See Story on Page 1.)

ZEPPELIN HIT BY BELGIANS

[Canadian Press.]
London, Oct. 9.—3:50 p.m.—The Evening Star's Antwerp correspondent, telegraphing by way of Amsterdam, says that eyewitnesses of the Zeppelin flights over Antwerp insist that they saw one such craft hit by shells from the forts and fall to the earth.

During the bombardment of Antwerp Thursday night it is estimated that shells fell at the rate of twenty a minute. Many civilians were killed.

In addition to the law courts and the museum, which were damaged by shells, fires broke out at many points in the city.

Allies' Airships Once Again Succeed in Damaging German Hangars.

DROP SOME AT COLOGNE But There No Injury Was Inflicted On the Buildings.

[Canadian Press.]
London, Oct. 9.—1:58 a.m.—According to a Central News dispatch from Amsterdam, another aerial raid has been made by the allies on Cologne and Dusseldorf. The telegram follows:

"A dispatch from Cologne states that hostile aeroplanes threw bombs at the Zeppelin hangars at Cologne and Dusseldorf on Thursday afternoon. The former was uninjured, but damage was inflicted at Dusseldorf."

The previous aerial raid on Cologne and Dusseldorf was made by British naval airmen from Belgium on September 23.

Health and Spirits of Army a Great Advantage—The German Retreat Is Encouraging.

[Canadian Press.]
Paris, Oct. 9.—3:50 a.m.—Most of the letters from soldiers at the front speak of the great battle that is expected for the morning that will decide the great struggle along the Aisne and in the north, which shows that they, as well as the military critics, are baffled by the immense operations, of which big battles here and there constitute mere details.

Heavy fighting occurred every day along some part of the battle line, the importance of which cannot be gathered from the sober details of the official statements, and so it is impossible to assemble all of the simultaneous movements bearing on the general situation. As consequences the review of the situation by critics this morning resembles what they said yesterday and the day before.

All are agreed, however, that developments are favorable to the allies, and all emphasize the advantage gained from splendid health and spirits shown by the army, which the war department is doing everything possible to maintain. It has just forwarded a million suits of underclothing, which supplemented private contributions of clothing. The war department is also sending sweaters, jerseys and flannel belts for the use of the soldiers in the winter campaign.

While points of the greatest interest recently have been at the point of the elbow of the battle line in the region of Roye and on the extreme left, attention is called to the importance of the Germans' retreating movement on the right bank of the Meuse beyond Hattinchtel, which endangers their last position in the region of St. Mihiel. It is not considered possible that the Germans can remain in this region, and their retirement may entail a general retreat of the army operating between the Meuse and the frontier.

The suggestion is made in Paris this morning by some observers that the Germans are holding out with the idea of taking Antwerp first, and then retreating to a line of defence prepared in Belgium, as it is not possible for them to find reinforcements to counterbalance the fresh troops constantly coming to strengthen the allies.

A GERMAN RAID?
Pig's Feet Lost of Thieves From Butcher Shop.

J. A. Wilson's provision store, in the Hixson block, 206 Dundas street, was broken into through the rear entrance late last night or early this morning, and a quantity of pigs' feet, postage stamps and other goods taken.

The refrigerator door was left open, damaging the contents, and the shop was left in general disorder. The shop-breaking was discovered by the police officer on the beat at 2 o'clock this morning. The door had been opened by breaking a pane of glass. No money was secured.

The police say that they know who are responsible, and that the offenders are juveniles.

JAPAN DOMINATES TSING-TAU FORTS

[Canadian Press.]
Peking, Oct. 9.—The Japanese have mounted siege guns on Prince Henry Mountain, which entirely dominates all three of the Tsing-Tau forts, according to advices reaching Peking today from Kiao Chow. These forts are named Bismarck, Moltke and Illus, and are between three and four miles from the mountain.

The attack on Tsing-Tau may begin any day. Prior to it a demand for the surrender of the place will be made.

Shibe Park, Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—The Boston Braves, pennant winners of the National League, and the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of the American League, clashed today in the first battle for the world's baseball championship of 1914. Some 22,000 persons saw the opening engagement of the seven-game series. Hundreds were turned away at the gates, unable to obtain admission to the crowded stands. Three and four times the regular seat prices were offered for tickets, and the demand at these prices exceeded the supply.

The day was warm and humid, and one suited for fast baseball. Betting favored the Athletics at 2 to 1 and 3 to 5 when the two teams came upon the field for batting and field practice. The Boston Braves were the first out on the diamond for field practice. The crowd applauded them frequently.

The Athletics went on the field for practice at 1:45. An automobile was presented to Eddie Collins before the game in recognition of his being the most valuable player to his club.

The umpires came upon the field at 1:55. Battery Announced.
Bender and change were announced as battery for the Athletics.

Rudolph and Gowdy for Boston. The umpires are as follows: Behind the Bat—Dineen. On the Bases—Kinn. In Left Field—Byron. In Right Field—Hildebrand.

BOSTON.
First Inning.—First Half—Bender's first offering was an out curve, which cut the plate for a strike. Moran out on a high foul to McInnis. Evers sent a single past Bender. A double play ended the inning. Baker took Deal's bunted fly, and then picked off Maranville at first. Deal attempted to sacrifice. Rudolph struck out. One run. Two hits. No errors.

PHILADELPHIA.
First Inning.—Second Half—Maranville took Barry's Texas leaguer away out in left field. It was a clever catch and loudly applauded. Schang struck out. It was Rudolph's sixth strike-out. Bender flied out to Whitted. No runs. No hits. No errors.

Sixth Inning.—First Half—Moran sent up a foul back of third base, which Barry took after a long run. Evers shot a single past Bender. A double play ended the inning. Baker took Deal's bunted fly, and then picked off Maranville at first. Deal attempted to sacrifice. Rudolph struck out. One run. Two hits. No errors.

PHILADELPHIA.
Second Half—Rudolph put over a strike on Murphy. Murphy sent a short single to centre, and the crowd roared. It was the second ball pitched. Oldring sacrificed. Gowdy to Schmidt. Gowdy nearly overthrew first base. Rudolph tried to cut the corners of the plate on Collins and pitched three balls. His fourth pitch was a strike. Collins walked, and the crowd cheered and called to Baker for a hit. Baker fouled out. No Schmidt and Murphy was out trying for third on the catch, Schmidt to Deal. It was a pretty double play. No runs. One hit. No errors.

It was announced Gowdy would bat sixth in place of Deal, who would bat eighth in place of Gowdy.

BOSTON.
Second Inning.—First Half—Bender pitched one ball, and then put over two strikes on Whitted. Whitted walked. Schmidt flied out to Oldring. Whitted struck out on Gowdy's hard two-bagger to the left-field stand. The Boston rooters cheered to the echo. Gowdy scored on Maranville's single over second.

Boston hits were sharp and clean. A double play followed. Barry took Deal's grounder and tossed to Collins, forcing Maranville. Collins threw out Deal. Two runs. Two hits. No errors.

PHILADELPHIA.
Second Inning.—Second Half—Rudolph had a big drive curve, which he worked on the edge of the plate. McInnis walked on four bad ones. McInnis scored when Strunk's single went through Moran's legs to the fence. Strunk took third on the play. Strunk was out at the plate when Evers took Schang's grounder and threw to Gowdy, forcing Maranville. Maranville took Bender's grounder and threw to Evers, forcing Schang. One run. One hit. One error.

BOSTON.
Third Inning.—First Half—Bender threw out Rudolph at first. Moran struck out. Oldring took care of Evers' hoist. No runs. No hits. No errors.

PHILADELPHIA.
Third Inning.—Second Half—Murphy threw out Collins at first. No runs, no hits, no errors. Rudolph worked carefully and deliberately, and his slow ball puzzled the batters not a little.

BOSTON.
Fourth Inning.—First Half—Connolly sent a liner over Collins' head for a single, after having two strikes called on him. A double play followed. Baker took Whitted's hard smash, and threw to Barry, forcing Connolly. Barry then tossed to McInnis, retiring Whitted. The throw was a beautiful one. Collins tossed out Schmidt at first. No runs. One hit. No errors.

PHILADELPHIA.
Fourth Inning.—Baker fouled off the first two, and Rudolph had him in a hole. Baker struck out, missing a wide one by a foot. McInnis also fanned. Strunk's single to left, but was out at second, trying to stretch his hit. Connolly to Maranville. It was pretty holding by the Bostonians. No runs. One hit. One error.

BOSTON.
Fifth Inning.—First Half—Gowdy drove the ball to the centre-field fence for a three-base hit. It was the first pitched ball. The umpires cautioned the Boston bench for coaching. Gowdy scored on Maranville's single over McInnis' head. A double play followed. Bender took Deal's bunted fly, and then picked off Maranville at first. Deal attempted to sacrifice. Rudolph struck out. One run. Two hits. No errors.

PHILADELPHIA.
Fifth Inning.—Second Half—Maranville took Barry's Texas leaguer away out in left field. It was a clever catch and loudly applauded. Schang struck out. It was Rudolph's sixth strike-out. Bender flied out to Whitted. No runs. No hits. No errors.

Sixth Inning.—First Half—Moran sent up a foul back of third base, which Barry took after a long run. Evers shot a single past Bender. A double play ended the inning. Baker took Deal's bunted fly, and then picked off Maranville at first. Deal attempted to sacrifice. Rudolph struck out. One run. Two hits. No errors.

PHILADELPHIA.
Sixth Inning.—Second Half—Evers took care of Murphy's slow roller and threw out the runner at first. Deal tossed out Oldring. Rudolph tossed out Collins. No runs. No hits. No errors.

BOSTON.
Seventh Inning.—First Half—Lapp now catching for Philadelphia. Rudolph got an infield single, which Collins was barely able to knock down. Baker took Moran's intended sacrifice. A double play ended the inning. Baker took Deal's bunted fly, and then picked off Maranville at first. Deal attempted to sacrifice. Rudolph struck out. One run. Two hits. No errors.

PHILADELPHIA.
Seventh Inning.—Second Half—Evers fumbled Baker's grounder, and the runner was safe. McInnis walked. Strunk grounded to Schmidt. Baker went to third and McInnis to second. Barry struck out. Rudolph threw out Lapp at first. No runs. No hits. One error.

BOSTON.
Eighth Inning.—First Half—Whitted sent up a high fly to Baker. Schmidt got a Texas leaguer to left. Gowdy singled to left. Schmidt going to right, Maranville struck out. Gowdy and Schmidt worked a double steal. Gowdy out, Lapp to Baker. One run. Two hits. No errors.

PHILADELPHIA.
Eighth Inning.—Second Half—Wyckoff doubled to right-field fence. Maranville threw out Murphy at first. Wyckoff went to third on the play. Oldring struck out. Collins flew to Connolly. No runs. One hit. No errors.

The crowd began leaving the stands when the ninth inning opened, as it was realized Boston had all but won the game. It was announced that the official attendance was 20,562.

Enemy in Poland Is Partly Enveloped.

HEADED FOR CRACOW

Roumania Getting Aroused Over Advance Into Hungary.

[Canadian Press.]

ROME, via London, Oct. 8.—9:17 p.m.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Petrograd says the Russians have driven the Germans from Vlodavsk, Russian Poland, 35 miles southeast of Thorn, East Prussia, and have fortified themselves within a few miles of the fortress of Thorn.

The German left wing in Poland, according to the dispatch, is said to have been partly enveloped.

In Conquered Districts.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—19:17 p.m.—A Petrograd dispatch to Reuters' Telegram Company says the Russians have completed the administrative organization of the conquered regions around Lemberg, which has been made into a province divided into thirteen districts. The Russian troops, adds the dispatch, are advancing slowly, but irresistibly upon Cracow, the population of which has already been reduced by one half.

Great Battle Line.

A great battle line between the combined Austro-German armies and the legions of Russia extends from the Galician frontier, near Tarnow, right north to the East Prussian border. Another Russian force is besieging Przemyśl in Galicia, and still another is invading Hungary. On the East Prussian frontier the fighting appears to have come to a standstill for the present.

The Russians having driven the Germans back, after their advance to the Niemen River, found on getting to the German border that reinforcements had been brought from Königsberg, and their further progress was arrested. The Germans, in fact, claim to have defeated the Russians near Suwalki, and to have taken 2,700 prisoners and nine machine guns.

Fighting on a larger scale will soon be resumed, and it will then be decided whether the Germans are to invade Russia in this region or the Russians are again to overrun Prussia.

Claim Victory in Galicia.
In southwestern Poland the Austrian German armies have advanced along both banks of the Vistula River with the object of compelling the Russians to evacuate part of Galicia, and, according to their reports, have defeated them, capturing 4,800.

The Russians reply that they allowed the enemy to advance so far as the Opotow-Sandomir front, in order to force them to abandon their strongly entrenched position near Kielce and accept battle in the open country, closing this battle neither has come through concerning the movements of the two armies.

The advance of the Russians into Hungary has aroused intense feeling in Roumania with respect to Transylvania, and a section of that country is advocating that Roumania join the Allies, so that with the end of the war, should victory rest with the Allies, Roumania may fall heir to that part of the Austro-Hungarian Empire.

Pour In.

BERLIN, Oct. 8.—Instead of the campaign for the raising of funds for the Canadian Patriotic Fund, closing last night, the time has been extended for several days more as subscriptions are still coming in. The amount so far has reached the $90,000 mark, and it is a safe assertion that when all the returns have been received the total for the city of Berlin may exceed $90,000.

President S. J. Williams and his workers are delighted with the result. The total amount reached is greater than was anticipated.

WILL EXCEED $50,000.
[Special to The Advertiser.]
WATERLOO, Oct. 8.—The amount collected in Waterloo will be $50,000. This with the other towns in the county together with Berlin will make a sum total of 200,000.

SHIPLOAD OF RELIEF FOR STRICKEN BELGIANS

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 8.—As a result of the appeal made by Hon. G. H. Murray, the people of Nova Scotia have donated a shipload of clothing and provisions for the relief of the distressed Belgians. The British admiralty has placed a ship at the disposal of the committee to transport the gifts to Belgium direct. The ship will sail from Halifax during the week beginning Oct. 12.

A number of cities outside the province are taking advantage of the opportunity to send their contributions on the Nova Scotia ship.

LEGHORN, Italy, Oct. 8.—Via Paris, 2:30 p.m.—The cruise of the Italian built submarine which disappeared from the Gulf of Spezia some days ago and later turned up at Ajaccio, Corsica, has come to an end.

The French authorities of Ajaccio, who took possession of the vessel, asked make of her. Paris communicated with Rome. Italy sent a destroyer to get the submarine, and this is the reason to believe that she is now on her way home under this convoy.

That Much Sought-after Millinery is Here

The honors never were more evenly divided than they are this season between the small and large hats. From last accounts and importations the small hats hold sway with certain leading fashion houses, and the large with others. The honors must be divided here. The small hats unfailingly give a snappy smartness and jaunty distinction, just as the large hats emphasize the grace and refinement of the new gowns. Our Thanksgiving fashion display is liberally represented with both small and large. See the new high crown turbans, tricornees, etc. A special holiday display of moderately-priced millinery $4.00 to $8.50

Second Floor.

Winter styles, just as the Easter period ushers in the fashions for Spring. That special preparations have been made for Thanksgiving buyers and visitors will be seen when you visit this store Saturday, not only in the great fashion display in all departments, but in the many great underpriced opportunities. The few listed on this page should attract many buyers from a distance tomorrow.

OUTFLANKING IS LIMITED BY SEA

Storm Centre Has Worked Northward Almost as Far as Possible.

ANTWERP HOLD OUT?

[Canadian Press.]

London, Oct. 9.—The military fortunes of Gen. Von Kluck and his one-armed adversary, commanding the allies' cavalry, are being rapidly made or marred within sight of the North Sea, which sets a limit to the outflanking movements, the accomplishment of which has been for so long the goal of the rival generals.

The storm centre gradually has extended northward. The battle of the Aisne already has been merged into the battle of the Somme and the battle of the Ypres, and if the long left tentacle of the allies continues to stretch out in its present direction the finale of the titanic struggle may be fought out on the banks of the Scheldt, and may decide the fate of Antwerp, now a prey to German howitzers and air craft.

Whether or not the garrison of Antwerp will be able to stand its ground until the fate of the attempt to relieve the fortress is decided, it is impossible to tell, as the situation is liable to change vitally with each round of the German siege guns.

While some pictures of the bombardment of Antwerp have been seen or drawn, it is nevertheless fully confirmed that the damage done by the incendiary shells and bombs showering upon the citadel from the German howitzers and air craft is extensive.

The report that the youthful Grand Duchess of Luxembourg is a prisoner of the Germans is reiterated today, though official confirmation is lacking.

EVIDENT MURDER AT FORT WILLIAM

Fort William, Oct. 9.—A coroner's jury last night returned a verdict of death from a gunshot wound, inflicted by an unknown assailant, on the body of William Leighton, who was found lying dead in the bush at the Finnish settlement near Dora, on the Grand Trunk Pacific, last Monday.

Leighton lived with his wife and family at Port Arthur, but owns a farm at Dora. When he went out there on Monday, he carried with him $75, with which he intended to purchase a horse, and when he was found dead his money was missing. The interior of his shack showed signs of a terrible struggle, and the walls, even to the ceiling, were splashed with blood. A bullet fired from a long range had entered the back of the neck, and the jugular vein and one out of the mouth.

No arrests have been made.

An unknown Italian man was seen talking to Leighton during the day, and was seen going toward the shack a short time before the shot was heard, is suspected of the crime.

READY FOR CALL WHEN IT COMES

Col. W. E. Hodgins, in charge of first division headquarters today, received a dispatch late this afternoon placing him in charge of recruiting here for his division.

"I believe," said Col. Hodgins, "that it is the intention to have each division do its own recruiting. I am now awaiting instructions as to the number of men to recruit, and what arms of the service it is to include. When that comes we will take off our coats and get together a number of men that will be a credit to the division and to Canada. I have the commanding officers to back me up in this effort, and no pains will be spared to give us one of the finest representations in the contingent."

Although no definite orders have been received at military headquarters here regarding the recruiting of more men for a second expeditionary contingent, a considerable number are coming forward daily with the desire to enlist. In all cases their names are taken and put on what is known as a waiting list. When the orders for recruiting arrive from Ottawa, the men whose names are already signed will be sworn in.

Following is a list of those who have already come forward and signified their willingness to go to the front with the Seventh Division: Capt. G. J. Ingram (acting major); Pte. Thomas Hall, H. Company; Corp. Donaldson, G. Company; Pte. Teddy Williamson, H. Company; Pte. Barratt Hennessey, C. Company; Pte. R. Stevenson, B. Company; Pte. H. R. Irwin, B. Company; Pte. Arthur Wilson, B. Company; Pte. William H. Carr, B. Company; Pte. P. White, H. Company; Pte. Christopher Crook, F. Company; Pte. Frederick Hutt, A. Company; Pte. Edgar Rushen, H. Company; Pte. William H. Daymont, H. Company; Sgt. Joseph H. Company; Albert Riley, G. Company.

URGED TO ENLIST

Orangemen Told to Join Militia in Circular Letters.

Circular letters being sent out by Secretary-Treasurer W. Banks, of the joint legislative committee of the Loyal Orange Lodge, have been received in this city. The letters urge the Orangemen to enlist.

"It is the duty," says the letter, in part, "for every man who is eligible for military service to at once enroll himself in the nearest military unit to his home. Now, as in the days of yore, the Orangemen stand for God, the King, for Empire, and for their dear Canadian homes."

All Orangemen are urged to enlist.

LETTER DESCRIBES CRUEL TREATMENT OF SOLDIER

Had Hands Cut Off by Germans—Minister Refers to Case at Prayer Meeting.

Mrs. Ernest W. Hill, 632 Elia street, has received a letter from a girl friend in Birmingham, England, in which she speaks of the terribly mutilated condition of some of the wounded soldiers who have been sent from the battlefields into the hospitals there. This was the communication to which Rev. W. C. Riddford made reference in his address at the weekly prayer service in the Y. M. C. auditorium on Wednesday.

Mrs. Hill's correspondent mentions one case in particular where a young soldier, visited in the hospital by his mother, broke the news to her that in addition to being wounded in the leg, both his hands had been held in at the wrists. He was very despondent, the writer of the letter said, and reiterated the wish that he had been killed outright.

The pathos of the reunion between mother and son was described very vividly. The former had not been in addition to being wounded in the leg, both his hands had been held in at the wrists. He was very despondent, the writer of the letter said, and reiterated the wish that he had been killed outright.

TORN CHECKS GIVE CLUE

Says $4,500 Robbery Tale
Was Prompted by Financial Troubles.

London, Ont., October 8.
This is to certify that the statement I made last night to Detective Egerton of the loss of forty-five hundred dollars is now false.
(Witness) Wm. H. DOWN.

Some people have trouble, and get into more trouble trying to get out of
it. This appears to be the case of
Rev. I. N. Wilson, pastor of Marble
Memorial M. E. Church, Milan, Mich., who caused startling headlines to appear on front pages of local newspaper yesterday, featuring the clergyman in the role of the victim in an assault and $4,500 robbery.

Suspicious Aroused.
The first glimmer of suspicion that the man's story was untrue was aroused
in the mind of Detective Robert Egerton
when the supposedly badly injured man was taken to police headquarters on Carling street in the motor ambulance.
As is customary, Detective Egerton went through Wilson's pockets, and finally, in an inside pocket, made a discovery that gave the police their first clue to the mysterious "thugs" identity, and ultimately led to the confession.

Torn into many pieces were a number of checks. Detective Egerton glanced hurriedly at them. Then he slipped them behind him on a table.
The movement was not noticed by Wilson. After that the man was removed to the home of his cousin, William Pearcey, 769 Dundas street.

Pasted Pieces Together.
Detective Egerton worked far into the night sorting, arranging and pasting
the minute pieces of paper. When he had them arranged and mounted on blotting paper, four checks, three filled out for $1,125 and the other for $1,185 lay before him. All were signed with the name of the mysterious George Comstock. That confirmed the suspicion that had been taking root and growing. What reason was there for any man to tear up four uncashed
checks, apparently properly signed?
There was no sane reason, the detective decided. So he whittled to himself and decided that instead of looking for a gang of thugs who had planned a "black-jack" on a man's head and then knifed him, he would get the truth out of the "assault" from the clergyman's own lips.

Kept Wires Busy.
All day yesterday the telegraph wires between London, Windsor, Detroit and Milan were kept hot with a swift cross-fire of messages from the local police department to detective bureaus in those cities. The dispatches related to the identity of the mysterious Comstock. All brought forth the reply that he was unknown. Banks and real estate exchanges knew nothing of the alleged real estate speculator. Police scoured the city but could find no trace of the man here.

Late yesterday afternoon Detectives
Robert Egerton and Harry D. Wilson went to the home of the minister's cousin, William Pearcey, 769 Dundas street, where they found Wilson in bed with his throat lacerated.

The officers did not mince matters.
A rapid cross-fire of questions, shot forth in a way that resembled the third degree, was Wilson's helpless confusion within a few minutes. He hesitated several times, while the detectives watched him closely. Then he blurted out that the story of the hold-up from beginning to end was a frame-up.

Wrote Down Confession.
Pad and pencil were produced, and Detective Egerton wrote down the brief confession that appears above.
Wilson then rose to a sitting position
in bed and signed his name with hands that trembled. Detective Down, attached his signature as witness, and the confession was taken to police headquarters, and handed over to Chief of Police W. T. Williams.

"Will the papers get hold of this?"
is the first and only question which the man asked as he watched the confession of his guilt being placed safely
in Detective Egerton's inside pocket.
He intimated to the officers that he would greatly have preferred that the accounts of his confession did not reach the ears of reporters.

The chief of police and the detectives thought different, however. Wilson, they said, had not hesitated to give the story of the fake hold-up for publication, and, therefore, in justice to the police department, they decided that the public was entitled to know
the true facts of the case.

Mad Financial Troubles.
Asked by the officers why he had framed up the story, the clergyman was non-committal. He appeared very reluctant to talk of his act. Finally he admitted, however, that financial troubles had caused him to hit upon the plan of a fake robbery and hold-up.

The cuts in his neck, officers state,
were made by the clergyman with his pen-knife. They are described as not being deep and are not regarded as dangerous.

The knife was found yesterday afternoon in the first in the laundry behind the Grigg House, where the man was found by pedestrians. It showed marks of blood on the blade. Police state that the size of the cuts tally with the length of this blade. The wallet, in which Wilson stated he had placed the money, was also found about the same time. It was of another size, and could never have contained the bulky quantity of bills, officers say.

Case a Remarkable One.
The case is a remarkable one in police annals here. Why a clergyman, apparently well-liked and respected by a big congregation in his home city, should deliberately come to London and plan a "robbery," even to framing in a lawyer, and purposely bruise his head and inflict an injury in his throat,
is not easily accounted for.

Wilson is confined to his bed at his cousin's house.

Suit and Coat Purchase Extraordinary

One of the country's greatest manufacturers of women's garments had two large purchases of Suits and Coats thrown back upon his hands by cancellation of orders following a large retail failure in the west. The goods were all made. Space, time and capital were precious. We are one of his valued customers. Our buyer was on the spot. All these things conspired together to enable us to make the most extraordinary purchase in our history.

BETTER SENSE OF DUTY IN SECOND CONTINGENT

Soldiers Will Have Full Realization of What Is Expected, Says Col. Hodgins.

"The soldiers who go away with Canada's second contingent will do so with more of a determined sense of duty," declared Col. W. E. Hodgins, in charge of the first division headquarters here, last night.

"There was more of less excitement
when the first contingent went away," said Col. Hodgins, "and in the lapse of time since then the consciousness of the situation has had sufficient time to leave its impress, and the men who go now will have a full realization of their sense of duty."

Headquarters is still without any instructions concerning the recruiting of the second contingent, but since the order became known that there was to be a second force sent to England from Canada there has been a rush of applicants to the recruiting officers at the armories, who's practically all of the officers stand ready to answer the second call.

IN LOCAL MILITARY CIRCLES

One of the soldiers who went away with the London contingent and was later assigned to the cavalry at Val-cartier, appeared with his discharge and a black eye before the board of control today to ask the Mayor for a civilian suit of clothes and a job.
Asked how he got the black eye, he said he was fighting with a Frenchman
at Quebec and the latter threw him down and kicked him.

He was referred to the war relief committee.

The Seventh Regiment has many applicants appearing before the recruiting officers. They are being signed up rapidly. Many have personally volunteered to go on the second contin-gent.

The annual shoot of the Seventh will be held on Monday, at 8:30 a.m., while the Hussars Association will hold their shoot from 7 to 12. The regiment and company shoots are only for the soldiers and members, but there are several other events open to all comers. There is every indication that the ranges will be the mecca for a large crowd on Monday.

Lieut.-Col. H. R. Abbott, of the Hussars, said today that he has between 250 and 300 volunteers who want to go on the second contingent. Officers commanding the squadrons gave out these figures last night. Through Frank Glass, M. P., the Hussars have been making special efforts with the minister of militia and other officials to get first place on the second contingent. Toronto and other cities are also pressing their claims, all of which indicates there will probably be an excess of volunteers for the second expeditionary force.

CAR JUMPS OVER BRAKEMAN'S HEAD

Loaded With Coal, It Plays
Queer Pranks in East End Yards.

THROWN INTO DITCH

Jack Spencer Has Miraculous Escape From Death
Last Night.

Heavily laden with coal for Exeter,
a Lehigh Valley freight car, leaving the track on the interlocking line at the McCormick switch, north of Dundas street, East London, at 10:30 last night, jumped across the ditch alongside of the track, clearing the head of Jack Spencer, who had been sitting on the front of the car, and was thrown off
when the wheels of the front trucks mounted the rail. The car then rolled clear over on its side, the trucks, torn clear of the car, being hurled to a distance of 200 feet apart.

It was the last car in a train of thirty-three cars being shunted over to the C. P. R. tracks, to which the cars on the front were being transferred. The car which left the tracks was to have been brought back with the engine.

Unlucky "13."
Harry Morley was in charge and was signalling with a lantern instructions to Engineer H. Minnis. One other man was on the train, but Spencer was the only one riding on the unlucky thirteenth car, which was next the engine.

The twelfth car was an oil car, and passed the switch without mishap. The engine following also passed safely.
The auxiliary was not called out last night, but the car was left lying where it rolled after leaping forward, the front end jumping right over Spencer's head and landing in the ditch.

Miraculous Escape.

The other members of the crew and Spencer himself regard as miraculous his escape from being crushed under the heavy car.

He was entirely unhurt, however.
Those in charge of the train could not ascertain any reason for so peculiar an accident. They could find no sharp flanges, and the rails were in good condition. It was thought just possible that the fault might have been with the front truck.

INSPECTS FIRST HUSSARS

Adjutant Leonard sees four troops at Armories last night.

DREAMT OF INVASION; STARTED SHOOTING

Alfred Hill Plus Military Rifle Plus Cartridges Plus Visions Started Something.

Alfred Hill, according to the police,
had a dream of a German invasion late last night, and, taking a large military rifle, which he stated a friend had brought from South Africa, started to shoot up Maitland street, in the vicinity of the C. P. R. tracks.

In police court this morning Hill was dismissed on a charge of being drunk and let go on suspended sentence
on the charge of firing a loaded rifle
in the city. He was dismissed only on condition that he allow the rifle to be confiscated. It will be added to the collection in the chief's office.

IS EXPECTING RESULTS

Chairman of Board of Health Looks for "Cleaner Meat" Reality.

Dr. F. L. Burdon, chairman of the board of health, commenting Thursday
on the new laws to govern abattoirs, issued by Dr. J. W. S. McCullough, of the provincial board, declared that with the provincial board backing up cleaner abattoirs, it would be possible for the local boards to enforce the laws.

In unlicensed places, which means out-in the country, the new laws provide that a sewage-disposal plant must be built, and that the buildings cannot be used for any other purpose than slaughtering and cooling rooms for meat. Official must be placed in flyproof receptacles. Persons affected with tularemia are not allowed in the abattoirs.
Strict regulations for killing and disposing are provided and more sanitary conditions demanded throughout.

"We are heartily in favor of all these things," said Dr. Burdon, "and our board has been striving to bring them about in this locality, but we have had opposition. I am sure the board will act promptly with the provincial authorities to enforce these new regulations."

IN THE POLICE COURT

Frank Kingsland, for discharging firearms in the city, was fined $2 and costs by Magistrate J. C. Judd in police court today. Kingsland explained that he was firing a borrowed revolver,
and had returned it to its owner.

Edward A. Carter was found sleeping in a box car by G. T. R. Detective John Hughes. He explained that his home was in England, and that he came to London to enlist. He was let go with the warning to keep out of box cars.

Thomas Jeffries, who was "not so badly drunk," asked a policeman where he could get a drink of water last night, and was invited to accompany the officer to police headquarters. He was let go this morning with his thirst appeased.

For not having a number on both sides of his wagon, Edward Boyle was charged with a breach of the traffic law, and paid the court $1.

RELIEF DISPENSATION ON SYSTEMATIC BASIS

Patriotic Fund Committee Is Preparing to Pay Weekly Allowances to Soldiers' Wives.

The dispensation of relief by the patriotic fund committee is rapidly being placed on a systematic basis, and the trustees hope that by the end of next week most of the soldiers' wives
who are in need of help will be drawing
a regular weekly allowance from the fund.

Still Are Difficulties.

In many cases the committee still has to meet considerable difficulties in the matter of ascertaining what men actually have left for the front. This especially is so in the case of dependent mothers. Where these are caring for the children of a son who has been ordered to the front, and whose wife is dead, separation allowance is paid by the Government, but otherwise this allowance is not given, and no official document is available to show that the son has left Canada.

In one case which came before the committee's notice a woman applied for relief on the ground that her son, her sole support, was away with the contin-gent, where, as investigation showed,
he had been sent back from Valcartier
and had been in the city several days.
In another case a lad who was described by his mother as her only support was found to have only just left school when he volunteered.

Work For Men Rejected.

Men who went to Valcartier with the contingent, and were turned back from there are being given work on the construction of the waterworks road at Springbank if they are out of employment. The city pays half their wages, and the other half is paid out of the patriotic fund.

BUILDS PUBLIC SCHOOL FOR HIS OWN CHILDREN

Unique Distinction Conferred On Arthur E. Cook By Board of Education.

To actually build a public school in London so his two small children can attend is the unique distinction which the board of education has conferred upon Arthur E. Cook, Mr. Cook's children, Arthur and Cook, Jr., are pupils
in the new school on a tent on Egerton street. When the cold weather sets in these pupils will have no place to go to school, so Mr. Cook offered to build a one-room school, which offer the board accepted, and yesterday afternoon No. 3 committee of the board authorized Chairman Harry Martin to notify Mr. Cook that he could commence work on the new school at once.

Every effort is also to be made to hurry the work on the collegiate institute, where classes are doubled up with two teachers in one room, trying to teach two subjects at the same time.
There is still considerable to do on the building.

Crown Attorney Decides To Take No Action Against
"Hold-Up" Pastor.

Crown Attorney McKillop has decided that there will be no prosecution
in the case of Rev. I. N. Wilson, Milan, Mich., pastor, who yesterday afternoon confessed that the story of the hold-up and robbery in the lane in the rear of the Grigg House was false, from beginning to end.

Police state that Wilson might be arrested on a charge of vagrancy or of attempted suicide. Following the obtaining of the confession yesterday afternoon detectives got into communication with the crown attorney and acquainted him with the facts of the case.

Mr. McKillop would give no hint as to the course he would pursue last night. Today, however, after consideration, he made the statement that Wilson would not be apprehended.

RIFLE ASSOCIATION HAS ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING

Officers Elected and Addresses Given
by Capt. Murphy and J. C.
Ross.

Twenty new members joined the businessmen's rifle association at a very enthusiastic meeting in the county court building last night at which the election of officers took place.

The following members were elected to office: Honorary captain, Capt. T. J.
Murphy; secretary, A. G. Fraser; treasurer, T. M. McFarland; auditors, Dr. A.
E. Santo and S. W. Mathers.

During the evening, J. C. Ross, of the McClary rifle corps, and Capt. T. J.
Murphy delivered addresses on the value of rifle shooting.

The executive committee of the association will be composed of the officers and Messrs. Tilson, Fitzgerald and Tobins.

MORE ITALIANS LEAVE TO JOIN THE COLORS

Another Squad of Reservists Meets Here En Route to Old Land.

Another squad of Italian reservists met in London Thursday, and left on an early train for New York, from which they will sail for Italy, where they have been ordered to join the regiment.

A member of the party, in broken
English, stated that they had received orders early this week to return to their native country at once. All the party were single men, and had disposed of their belongings.

Every thorough train passing through London carries from two to twenty Italian reservists homeward bound.
Railwaymen, who have spoken to the reservists, say that Italian military men
all over Canada and the United States are heading for Italy with the understanding that something big is going to "break" there shortly.

The men going to Italy were ticketed

NEW GYMNASIUM OPENED

Interesting Evening at Egerton Street
Baptist Church Institution.

The splendid new gymnasium of the Egerton Street Baptist Church, housed in the old church building, was formally declared open last night. An immense crowd attended the opening ceremony, filling the big hall to the doors. The proceedings opened with a basketball match between "Black" and "White" teams of the Y. M. C. A., in which the latter were the victors by a score of 10 to 6. This was followed by a game between teams of married and single men respectively, the benedicts winning by 4 to 2.

Addresses were given by Rev. W. C.
Riddiford, pastor of the Church, and Harry Ashley, president of the Barrack Class, and a program of instrumental and vocal music was rendered by local singers and musicians. Refreshments were served to all the visitors at the end of the evening. A collection made at the door netted a good round sum,
which will go into the club's treasury.

Mr. Riddiford, who was given a rousing reception, spoke of the obligation of the church to the community at large in the matter of social service. Many people, he said, wanted poolrooms and other similar places closed, but did not supply anything to take their place.
This club was a step in the right direction, and would, he felt sure, fill a much-felt want.

THORNDALE, Oct. 8.—James Harding, aged 72, one of the best-known residents of this district, died at his home here this afternoon after an illness extending over some time. He was a Pensioner and for some time kept store here. Years ago he built Harding Hall. He came to Thorndale eight years ago and had been living retired ever since. Besides his widow he leaves two sons and two daughters — J. B. Harry and Mrs. Wood, of Thorndale, and Mrs. Thomas Logan, of London. Mrs. R. Lewis and Mrs. Sheer, of London, Mrs. Pickard, of Vancouver, and Mrs. E. Watson, of Carthage, Ill., are sisters, and William R. of London, is a brother. The funeral will be held on Saturday afternoon.

DEATH CAME SUDDENLY TO TAXICAB DRIVER

[Special to The Advertiser.]
ST. THOMAS, Oct. 8.—James Beggs, a well-known taxicab driver, employed by John Leach's taxicab service on Hinkley street, died tonight with tragic suddenness. About 8 o'clock, while in a cab with another chauffeur, on their way to the Michigan Central Railway depot to meet a train, Beggs was seen to become rigid, and fell back in his seat, just when the taxi was passing Dr. Gray's office on Talbot street. He was carried into the physician's place, but life was extinct, having expired instantly, heart failure being the cause of death. He was about 33 years of age and leaves a widow.

MIDDLESEX TEACHERS MET AT STRATHROY

STRATHROY, Oct. 8.—The West Middlesex Teachers' Association met here today, in Colborne Street School here, was largely attended. The meeting was opened by an address from the president, Mr. J. H. Mahon, of Park Hill, on "Canadian Citizenship." Following this was a very instructive lecture on "Single Entry Bookkeeping," given by Mrs. E. McDougall, and Miss E. McLaughlin.
The afternoon session opened with an address by Miss Ila Robertson, Strathroy, on "A Summer Session at Cornell University." Next was a lecture on "Physical Experiments in Public Schools" by Mr. J. W. Emery, B.A., principal Normal School, Strathroy. This was a very instructive lecture, and was enjoyed by all.
A General Discussion.
The afternoon session came to a close with an address on "Impressions of My Normal School Training" by the following: Miss B. Chalmers, Mrs. W. E. Graves, S. E. McInroy and Fred Gough.
In the evening, Mr. J. W. Emery, B.A., gave an illustrated lecture on "Hidden Beauty on Plant and Animal Life." This was the most instructive and interesting lecture of the day's proceedings, and was greatly enjoyed by all.

SUGAR BEET GROWERS HARVESTING BIG CROP

Farmers Around Brucefield Are Well Satisfied With Yield.

BRUCEFIELD, Oct. 8.—The sugar-beet growers of this district have been very busy during the recent fine weather, and large quantities have been shipped. The crop this season is not an overly large one, yet all farmers seem satisfied.
The bean harvest has drawn to a close in this vicinity. The ideal weather which has prevailed of late has proved very beneficial to all farmers in the harvesting of this crop. Several bean threshing outfits are operating in the vicinity, and the yield, though not exceptionally heavy, is quite satisfying.
A Record Yield.
The work of converting the splendid fields of corn of the district into silage for winter feed is now at its busiest stage. The yield this season is a record one, and much heavier than was at first anticipated.
The old frame bridge on the London Road, north of the village, and known as the "Aikenhead Bridge," is now being torn down, and will be replaced by a cement structure. This bridge has been in a very bad condition for some time past, and the new one will be welcomed.
A large number were in attendance at the meeting held in the basement of the Union Church tonight in the interests of the patriotic fund.
Mrs. A. Hale, of London, recently visited at the home of John Kaiser.
Joseph McCully and sister recently visited Hensall friends.
Charles Gibbons and family moved into the house owned by George Brock.

INSPECTORS KILLED HUNDREDS OF HOGS

AMHERSTBURG, Oct. 8.—Hundreds of hogs were slaughtered here today by Dr. J. H. Tennent, of London, and Dr. Moore, of Ottawa, inspectors for the Dominion Government, in an effort to stamp out the worst epidemic of hog cholera which has been discovered in the county in many years.

For several days some of the farmers in Malden Township have been suspecting that something very serious was wrong with their hogs. Before the inspectors arrived today many of

Thoughts are Sparks

—flashes of the mind that decide for success or failure.

The question is, what kind of sparks does your brain generate?

The brain, like a battery, must be supplied with certain elements to generate thought properly. These brain elements are water, albumen and phosphate of potash. If any of these are lacking in the daily food, brain and body energy are vitally lessened.

Are any lacking? Listen! Water and albumen are plentifully supplied in ordinary food, but phosphate of potash—together with other mineral elements—is almost wholly lacking in white bread and all white flour products.

Grape-Nuts

—containing all the nutriment of wheat and barley, including the precious phosphates so essential to perfect bodies and active brains, provides a food at once delicious, nourishing and economical.

A morning dish with cream furnishes POWER for accomplishment that many a man has come to appreciate.

Common sense goes a long way toward success. To eat right often means to BE right.

[Boudoir Secrets.]
The judicious use of a delatone paste insures any woman a clear, hairless skin. To prepare the paste, mix a little of the powdered delatone with some water, then apply to the objectionable hairs for two or three minutes. When the paste is removed, and the skin washed, every trace of hair will have vanished. No pain attends the use of the delatone, and it will not miss the most sensitive skin, but to insure results see that you get real delatone—Advt.

WHAT WILL RUSSIA DO?

HE one fear in many minds is what Russia will do when the victory is won. Will she step into Germany's place as the dominating military machine? May the other powers be all more impotent before her armies
or the destruction of the Kaiser?
It is a ticklish question. But Professor Mavor, whose recently published history of Russia stamps him as an authority, said in a lecture in Toronto,
yesterday night, that Russia has not in the past particularly an aggressive country. Her empire, says Professor Mavor, has been "acquired through defensive rather than offensive wars."

Perhaps the most important extensions of Russian Government may be reclamations. The country was interrupted in places by Tartars in the thirteenth century, and two hundred years began a process of reconquest of the Tartar members. It is true, though, after Sweden, Finland and Poland were taken from Russian aggression, but Sweden had no divine right to be trying to make a Swedish lake of the Baltic Sea, and Poland in its anarchical
state was an obstruction between Russia and western civilization, a disorderly character. It was Frederick the Great, also, of Prussia who took the initiative in the despatch to Poland.

As for Russia's eastward march, it has been across vast regions very barely inhabited by half wild barbarians who had to be chastised and brought into order. But the Japanese war was certainly provoked by Russia, who wanted an open port, and the Siberian war.

In her dealings with the Balkan Empire the Czar's Government has own a great forbearance and moderation. Any interference has been in the interest of Christian religion and pressed nationalities. In 1875, particularly, Russia withdrew her victorious troops, though the temptation to stay was very great.

After long tension with England over the Afghan and Pamir questions, "Admiral" did not take any mean advantage of Great Britain in the Indian arter during the Boer war. He had been leading the palm-bearers in the first Hague conference of 1899.

Altogether there are good grounds for believing that Russia will think
the rest of the civilized world,
when the peace has come for an end of rivalry armaments and for a federation of nations of the earth. The victory will be too dear bought for even the lay Colossus to risk a repetition of the strife. And no one need forget that Russia's teaching of peace has deeply permeated the whole Russian people, high and low. His gospel, which has been sold in millions of copies to a book-loving and reading nation, is becoming the genius of a new Russia
which will scorn the methods of barbarism and, strong within himself, live and let live.

AN UNEXPECTED SLAM.

AMERICAN opinion, public and private, has been overwhelming
with Great Britain on the present war. There have been isolated cases of harsh criticism, but in the main it is the view throughout the United States, and a freely expressed one, that Great Britain's entrance into the struggle was an honorable one in every respect. The New York Outlook, perhaps the sanest and most judicial of all the American weeklies, has repeatedly declared Britain's cause to be righteous. Therefore it is rather startling and barring to find in its columns a view of British motives and intentions that morally places us several degrees below
the most brutal of the Prussian vandals. Arthur Ballard, the Outlook's
"war-expert," commenting on the possibility of a peace following a German defeat along the Aisne, says:

"But it is to the interest of British business to continue the war as long as possible. Compared with other combatants Great Britain is relying very few of her men, and she is at least well able to bear the financial strain. Every day that now German fleet excites to harry the German merchant marine, is fine
for her commerce—and business is business. So with even a crushing German defeat, there is little hope of immediate peace. A great expectation of British opinion will hold out,
even when the French and Russians have had enough, for terms which Germany could not accept."

This beats the worst we could expect from Prussian Princes carried away by the heat of the conflict.
According to Mr. Ballard, the British nation will make every effort to continue the awful slaughter, in order to help business. Europe is to be kept a shambly indefinitely, in order that the British shopkeeper may fatten his bank account by having the field to himself. Can anything more devilish than this be imagined? The mind's eye pictures John Bull as a whole-creature, urging on to wholesale murder because it keeps a steady flow of sovereigns into the home coffers. This Mr. Ballard may be a wizard at sizing up the military situation, foretelling the results of operations, but he has failed completely to grasp the feelings, motives and impulses of the British people over the war.

The British nation was drawn into the struggle against its will. The sacrifices in men and money have been stupendous. But we believe that there is scarce a Britisher who wouldn't end
the whole awful thing tomorrow, providing the possibility of its recurrence is permanently crushed. To gain that end and that alone will cause Great Britain to continue the war indefinitely. We wonder if Mr. Ballard realizes that the very flower of the Empire's youth is being poured by the tens of thousands into this murder fest of the German Kaiser.
Every section of society, commerce,
industry and finance throughout the Empire is being touched by the horrors and terrors of this war. To fill the nation's coffers by the coffins of its sons is more grotesque and greswome than anything Poe wrote or Dore painted.

WHY AN ELECTION?

THE Advertiser believes that public opinion is averse to a general election at the present time, even though certain Conservative newspapers and statesmen are anxious to involve this country in political warfare.

The business of Canada at the present time is to put its shoulder to the wheel and give every ounce of national strength to the great task that confronts the British Empire. Let us drop politics and organize armies that will take the share of that burden that by birthright falls to us, just as we have accepted the benefits of that birthright.

Recruiting for more men should be under way at the present time. It should have been under way immediately after the first contingent was organized. It is not a time for political conflict. It is a time for service. It is not a time for boasting of how many men we can raise. It is a time for raising the men. Politicians of both sides have talked much of Canada's duty. Its duty today lies plain.

We believe that public opinion in the matter is well summed up in the following from the independent Hamilton
Spectator:

For some days there have been rumors of the intention of the Borden Government to bring on a general election before the end of the year. "The Hamilton Spectator" to the present regarding these rumors as idle talk. But the fact that the Toronto News, which is in close touch with the Ontario government of the Dominion Government, is attempting to justify an early appeal to the people appears to indicate that there is some reason for the rumors.

The News reminds its readers that hardly more than a year ago the Liberal party tried to force an election on the national question, and it adds:
"It is a shocking thing to ask public approval of the policy which the Government has pursued since the war began, and which it must continue to pursue if the war continues."

This plea is disingenuous. The Liberals tried to force a general election,
not because they disapproved of having Canada aid the empire in the war,
but because they preferred their own plan of giving naval aid to the Borden Government's plan. If the Government were now to make an appeal to the country, it could not base its appeal upon the fact that it had too late for Canada to give naval aid to the empire in the present crisis ether in the way the Government proposed or in the way the Liberals proposed.

That matter is not of present importance. Canada is helping the empire in the life-and-death conflict now in progress—and helping in the only way
at her command. There is no division of opinion, so far as the political parties
are concerned, on the question of military aid to the empire. Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the other Liberal leaders are not less heartily in favor of the measures already taken than the Government is. In the brief war-session of parliament, the opposition cordially
co-operated with the Government in that was done to provide for the dispatching of Canadian troops to the scene of war. Considerations of party politics were for the time being thrust into the background. And the fact that the empire is imperiled this attitude should be maintained. We believe that it is the feeling of the vast majority of the people of Canada that there is no division of opinion. It is not necessary for the Government to ask the people to increase its war policy. The fact that that policy is also the policy of the Liberals makes formal indorsement at the polls unnecessary. And if the Government were to base an appeal to the constituents upon its naval policy, it would expose itself to the suspicion that it was meanly endeavoring to utilize for partisan gain the present patriotic sentiment which pervades throughout the country. Such a suspicion would be justified.

THE RESULT OF EXPERIENCE.

THE resolution passed by the German citizens of Berlin, Canada, in pressing the hope that Lord Kitchener will "smash militarism" in Germany is the result of experience. They know the difference between the worse than bondage of militarism on Germany, and life under the British flag in Canada.
They are supporting their resolution with a contribution of $75,000 to the Patriotic fund.

Liberty described as the "divine gift of God to man" cannot live under militarism, but is enjoyed in Canada as fully as it is possible. There are many opportunities for a poor man to improve his condition, and the material prosperity of himself and his family in Canada. In all the old countries of Europe it is difficult for anyone to rise above the station in life in which he happens to be born. European countries are not the lands of opportunity that Canada is. During the past ten or fifteen years Canada has had more than its share of prosperity. It is in its infancy yet. The lands taken up in the Northwest are only a small portion of the land available for settlement. It is stated that the amount taken up would not be sufficient to make roads for the remainder.

Let the German citizen, as can come to Canada. He will succeed here better than in Germany and the first generation will be loyal Canadians. Liberty is full and free as anywhere in the world and comfort and prosperity await them.

CHAMBERLAIN'S OBSER-VATIONS.

THE observations of E. J. Chamberlain, president of the Grand Trunk and Grand Trunk Pacific, make pleasant reading. He said, among other good things:

"I found conditions in the West very satisfactory."

"The increased prices will do much to help the shortage in yield."

"The people are very optimistic."

"They are preparing for a very large acreage next year."

"The 1915 crop will exceed anything
they ever had in the Northwest."

"The acreage will be increased twenty-five per cent."

"We are now running a through sleeping car train twice a week between Edmonton and Prince Rupert."

"We are building a very large and extensive drydock and ship building
plant at Prince Rupert."

"The opening up of the G. T. P. will be a great boon to the Prairie Provinces."

"They will get a supply of fresh fish from Prince Rupert."

"Mixed farming will be a great improvement for the Northwest."

"The Fraser River valley is a wide valley heavily timbered."

"The G. T. P. has handled 5,000 carloads of grain more this year than last year."

These and several other statements show that Canada is a land of plenty and hope. How congenial the occupation of railway building and railway management is. It opens up millions of acres. It makes easy the establishment of good homes. It gives employment to many thousands. It blesses all within its reach. How different is militarism. It curses all within its reach. It blasts the countries over which it passes. It destroys the homes and murders the inhabitants and leaves hundreds of thousands of dead and wounded, of homeless and suffering ones.

Mr. Chamberlain's remarks at the present time form a very marked contrast to the daily news received. May Canada long remain a railway building country, offering homes and peace and free freedom to the peoples of all the old lands. The millions spent by Canada in railway building will bless millions yet unborn, while militarism and war has ever brought death and suffering.

From the streams and fountains I have loosened the chain:
They are sweeping on to the silvery main.
They are flashing down from the mountain brows,
They are flowing away on the forest

They are bursting fresh from their

And the earth resounds with the joy

Away from the dwellings of careworn

The waters are sparkling in wood

Away from the chamber and dusky

Then light stems thrill to the wild-

And youth is abroad in my green do-

"The Angel of Death Spread His Wings On The Blast."

The New Explosive, Turpinite.

(The terrible new explosive the French army has tried at the battle of the Four Rivers, turpinite, is declared to be so deadly in its effect that all life is exterminated within a radius of 400 yards of one of the exploding shells. Regiments of Germans are reported to have been found dead in their trenches, their rifles still in their hands, not a mark on their bodies, but with the long line of corpses standing as though in life. The explosive was completely exterminated in the course of a few weeks. Truly, the Angel of Death which came down over night on Sennacherib's sleeping Assyrian army, besieging Jerusalem, and slew them in their tents! This reminds us of Byron's immortal poem.—Editor.)

The Destruction of Sennacherib.

BY LORD BYRON.

The Assyrian came down like a wolf on the fold,
And his cohorts were gleaming in purple and gold;
And the sheen of their spears was like stars on the sea,
When the blue wave rolls nightly on deep Galilee.

Like the leaves of the forest when summer is green,
That host with their banners at sunset were seen:
Like the leaves of the forest when autumn has blown,
That host on the morrow lay wither'd and strown!

For the Angel of Death spread his wings on the blast,
And breathed on the face of the foe as he pass'd;
And the eyes of the sleepers wax'd deadly and chill,
And their hearts but once heaved, and forever grew still!

And there lay the steed with his nostril all wide,
But through it there roll'd not the breath of his pride;
And the foam of his nostrils was like the foam of the sea,
And the spray of the rock-beating surf.

And there lay the rider, distorted and pale,
With the bow and the arrow that had slain him;
And the tents were all silent, the banners alone,
And the lances uplifted, the trumpet unblown.

And the widows of Ashur are loud in their wail,
And the idols are broke in the temple of Baal;
And the might of the Gentile, unsmote by the sword,
Hath melted like snow in the glance of the Lord!

American Comment On the War

BEWITCHED WITH MILITARISM.

(Rochester Herald.)
Militarism has wrought havoc with German perception. And we fear very much that Germans are so bewitched at present that they are going to act like barbarians until their power to do work mischief is crushed by the success of the armies of the Allies. When that has happened the true German spirit will, we predict, again assert itself and be restored to its rightful place not only in Germany, but in Europe and the world.

ANTI-VANDALISTIC.

(New York Herald.)
There is a movement on foot in Great Britain to restore the Louvain library immediately after the war. It is a fine thought, and as an indication that Germany is not so much a land of the destruction of the homes of science and art in the world, the co-operation of some Germans in the work after the war would be very inspiring.

BARBARISM.

(New York Herald.)
Of course, it may be a sign of lack of "Kultur" on our part, but the way our Americans cannot help feeling that this business of German levies upon the helpless little cities and towns of Belgium smacks mightily of the days of Genghis Khan.

EXPLODING A FALLACY.

(Pittsburg Gazette-Times.)
One good result of the present war may be elimination of the "dead line" which some shortsighted employers are said to have adopted. In Great Britain, at least, many of the alleged old fellows are responding in a manner that ought to make even Dr. Oetzer sit up and take notice.

A PORTENT.

(New York Herald.)
When the British Parliament adjourns with Irish Home-rulers, Scotch and Welsh Liberals and English Radicals embracing the old crusade for the great war in Europe, and the great year of the apple in Canada.

WATCHFUL WAITING.

(Philadelphia Public Ledger.)
The situation in the North Sea imposed exceedingly onerous conditions upon the British fleet, for the German vessels are under the shelter of their land fortifications and they possess every advantage of position and opportunity for the successful sortie. If the German fleet could be drawn into the open the advantage would be with the British, but as long as the German ships keep out of range, the British fleet of "watchful waiting" must be endured with such patience as the British seamen can command.

HANDS OFF TO THE VERY END.

(Buffalo Courier.)
The people of this country should protect against having their President or any United States governmental agency take part in any movement involving an agreement among European powers. Hands off to the very end, and let our American policy. Any other policy would be a violation of the wise precepts of our great statesmen from the days of Washington to the days of Wilson.

SOUND BRITISH POLICY.

(Detroit Free Press.)
The war has demonstrated to Great Britain that her plan for the handling of overseas possessions has been essentially sound, and that, despite minor discontents, which may depend even in some of considerable stress on the fundamental loyalty of her dominions and dependencies, some of which seem to be more or less quickly than the mother country itself.

Flooded Country.

Unlike Termonde, Louvain, Dinant, and other places, Malines has, however, so far escaped the vandals' "retributory" fire. None of it has been burned, and the village outside the city has been completely spared by bombardment and fire.

CURE CERTAIN

Conclusive Evidence That Dr. Chase's Ointment Cures Itching Piles.

Mr. John G. McDonald, Pictou, N.S., writes: "I used Dr. Chase's Ointment for itching piles, and found that the first application gave relief. After using a few boxes of the ointment I was completely cured, and can recommend it highly to all sufferers from this disease. You have my permission to use this letter for the benefit of others."

James M. Douglass, Superior Junction, Ont., writes: "For about six years I suffered from piles, and often could not work for two or three days from pain, so great was the suffering from this disease. I tried many treatments before I came across Dr. Chase's Ointment. Not so a number of months I have had no return of this annoying ailment."

There can be no doubt that Dr. Chase's Ointment is the most effective treatment obtainable for every form of piles. 60 cents a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

THE SILK-HAT SOLDIER.
"British colonists resident in London volunteer; and not even silk hats are doffed before training begins."—New York Times.

I saw him in a picture, and I felt I'd like to cry—
He stood in line,
The man "for mine."
A tall silk-hatted "guy";
Right on the call,
Silk hat and all,
He'd hurried to the cry—
For he loves England well enough for England to die.

I've seen King Harry's helmet in the Abbey hanging high
The one he wore
At Agincourt;
But braver to my eye
That city toff,
Too keen to doff
His stove-pipe—bless him—why?
For he loves England well enough for England to die.

And other fellows in that line had come there on the fly,
Their joys and toys,
Brave English boys,
For good and all put by:
O you brave best,
Teach all the rest
How pure the heart and high—
When one loves England well enough for England to die.

One threw his cricket-bat aside, one left the ink to dry;
All peace and play
He'd put away,
And bid his love good-bye:
O mother mine!
O sweetheart mine!
No man of yours am I,
If I love not England well enough for England to die.

I guess it strikes a chill somewhere, the bravest won't deny,
All that you love
Away to shove,
And set your teeth to die;
But better dead,
When all is

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

[Correspondents are requested to make their inquiries as brief as possible, and to write on one side of the paper only. It is impossible to give replies within a stated time, as all letters have to be answered in turn. No letters can be answered privately.]

Matron's Little Scold.

Dear Miss Grey:—Many thanks for words of song and information concerning shrubs. In return, I take much pleasure in being able to send the words of "The Rose of Tralee," requested by one of your correspondents.

I enjoy the column very much, but if those young girls that want so much information about their "properties," the way to wear their hair, etc., etc., would ask their mothers, sisters, or girl chums, who would surely have a better idea, it would leave the column more space for something more useful and interesting. There I have had my "scold."

ANS—SCOLD AWAY, DEAR MATRON.

I assure you I should not feel one bit hurt if our young girl readers followed your advice, even to the desertion of the Mail-Box. At any rate, I am glad you enjoy the column, and hope you will long continue a reader, and also remain a contributor, as well, from time to time. Thanks for the song.

Christmas Cake Recipe.

Dear Miss Grey:—I am much interested in your column, and I would like to ask you a few questions, thanking you in advance.

1. Would you please give me a recipe for a Christmas cake?
2. I am 22, and weigh 165 pounds. Am I too heavy for my age?
3. What would be nice to make a winter dress for me, from MARY.
ANS.—Two pounds raisins, seeds and cut in half; 2 pounds currants, 1 pound dates, stoned and chopped; 1 pound chopped almonds, 1 pound mixed peel, cut fine, 6 eggs, 1 pound butter, 3 cups brown sugar, coffee, 1 cup molasses, one-half cup lemon juice, one-half cup ground mixed spices, 8 cups flour, good tepid water dissolved first in a little hot water, then stir into the molasses. Stir all together thoroughly, and bake in loaves in a moderate oven. This makes a large quantity, and, if desired, use half the ingredients.

2. No.
3. Watch the pattern department for ideas.

Birthday Party Hints.

Dear Miss Grey: 1. I am going to bother you once more. I am intending to hold a birthday gathering at the end of November for a number of girls and boys. Having them just for the evening, how soon should they arrive? Is this late? Where would you serve the lunch, in the drawing-room, or dining-room for about eighteen? Should the boys, as well as the girls be taken up to a bedroom to undress? What a dandy idea about the "stunt party," but would it do for boys, too?

2. I am enclosing some guessing games that are great. I hope they will help some of the readers of your paper.

3. Do you think we will have a spell of warm weather again soon?

4. Also, when does the Indian summer arrive?

5. Do you admire the French roll on some girls, and do you think it will stay in?

6. Could you tell me where I could get some little Japanese magic flowers? I have read about them, but do not know of any Japanese store. Could you tell me?

Hoping you can help me, I remain, MISS ANGEL.

A.—1. Five-thirty would be very early. Do you not mean 8:30? This would be a more suitable hour, or you could ask them to come at eight if you wished.

Suit your own convenience as to where you serve lunch. If you are having light refreshments, such as sandwiches, cake and coffee, it might be just as well to serve them in the parlors. But if you are including more elaborate "eats" like cold meat, salad, or fish, it would be best to have tables set in the dining-room. Have the girls shaded with yellow crepe paper and use

THE ROSE OF TRALEE.

The pale moon was rising above the green mountain.

The sun was declining beneath the blue sea.

When I strayed with my love to the pure crystal fountain.

That stands in the beautiful vale of Tralee.

She was lovely and fair as the rose of the summer.

Yet 'twas not her beauty alone that won me;

That made me love Mary, the rose of Tralee.

The cool shades of evening her mantles were spreading.

And Mary, all smiling, was listening to me;

The moon thro' the valley her pale rays were shedding.

When I won the heart of the rose of Tralee.

Thou' lovely and fair as the rose of the summer.

Yet 'twas not her beauty alone that won me;

Oh, no, 'twas the truth in her eyes ever dawning.

That made me love Mary, the rose of Tralee.

APPLE RECIPES YOU WILL LIKE

APPLE SANDWICHES.

Mince fine or grate highly seasoned apples and mix with French dressing made with lemon juice instead of vinegar.

Spread on bread and before putting the slices together sprinkle the apple with chopped walnut meats. Another tasty sandwich is made of brown bread spread with cream cheese with a layer of scraped apple mixed with French dressing as a filling.

APPLE GEMS.

Pare and core tart apples, cook with a very little water until soft enough to mash.

To one cupful of hot apple pulp add one tablespoonful butter and let cool. Mix together one tablespoonful sugar, two cups flour, two teaspoonfuls baking powder, a little salt and one-third teaspoonful ground cinnamon. Add the apple sauce, one beaten egg and milk enough to make a soft batter. Put in buttered gem pans about two-thirds full and bake a half-hour.

APPLE PANCAKES.

Add chopped apples to any good pancake batter. Bake on a hot griddle and serve with butter and sugar or with maple syrup. A delicious supper or luncheon dish.

DRIED APPLE CAKE.

Soak two cups of dried or evaporated apples in a quart of water overnight. Chop them, add two cupfuls of molasses and stew for one hour. When cold, add one cup of shortening, three well-beaten eggs, one cup of currants, one cup of seedless raisins, one teaspoonful cinnamon, half teaspoonful cloves, half nutmeg (grated), and three cups of flour into which has been sifted one-half teaspoonful of soda. Add sufficient sour milk to make the batter of the right consistency. Bake in deep tins in a moderate oven from two to four hours.

HOUSECLEANING ECONOMY.

Don't take up the dining-room carpet this fall—save your household expenses by sponging the floor with the floor.

Often where there is a family of children the carpet in the dining-room around the table shows little grease spots. These may be quickly disposed of by rubbing well with one part salt to four parts alcohol.

A Splendid Range of Ladies' and Misses' Sizes in Fall and

WILL THEY BE ABLE TO KEEP UP THEIR GREAT WORK IN WORLD SERIES?

LOCAL CLUB KNOWS NOTHING ABOUT LOUIS BEING DRAFTED

No Word Received by London Directors That Bierbauer and Four Other Canadian Leaguers Have Been Drafted by Faster Leagues.

The London Canadian League directors have heard nothing official as to the report that Louis Bierbauer, the London first baseman, has been drafted, together with four other Canadian League players. President Stacey stated that as far as he knew Bierbauer had not been drafted. However, owing to the secrecy with which the drafts have been made this year, it was not improbable that the players had been drafted without any of the clubs being notified. Bierbauer had been strongly recommended to the Milwaukee club, of the American Association, by Scout Eddie Herr, of St. Louis, who was in London in August. Herr had also been in communication with Louis recently, but so far as the London club knew, nothing had been mentioned about him being drafted.

Four Other Players Mentioned. The other players to be drafted with Bierbauer are: Trout, of Toronto; Mitchell, of Ottawa; Baldwin, of Hamilton, and Kelly, of Peterboro. Trout belongs to the Toronto International League club and it is also rumored that Mitchell is going to Toronto next season. So far no announcement has been made as to the name of the club drafting these players. However, the impression is that the Toronto International League club is the club that has drafted them. The Toronto club every year drafts a number of players from the Canadian League and it is believed that these the men it has picked out this season. It is likely some definite announcement will be made in a few days.

"RUBE" OLDRING CHARGED WITH WIFE DESERTION

Athletic's Star Outfielder Arrived in Court on Non-Support Charge.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 8.—"Rube" Oldring, the Athletics' veteran outfielder, who is expected to play an important part in the world's series, was arraigned before Magistrate Stevenson today and held in bail for court on charges of desertion and non-support preferred by his wife, Mrs. Helen I. Oldring. All concerned in the case were extremely reticent when asked about the matter tonight. Oldring's engagement to a Bridgeton, N. J., girl was announced a few days ago.

NEW RECORD MADE IN SILO FILLING RACE

WYOMING, Oct. 8.—An event of considerable local interest was the recent silo filling contest on the farms of Messrs. James Ramsay and Alex. Wark, which are located directly opposite on second line east. John Alexander was engaged to fill Wark's silo, which measures 14 feet by 40 feet, while Claypole and Garside operated the filling of the two silos on Ramsay's farm, measuring 12 feet by 30 feet each.

Despite the hindrance that a second setting occasioned and the fact that the rival gang had some hours of a start, an easy victory was won by Claypole and Garside, who finished by a couple of hours, filling the Ramsay silos in one day and a quarter. This is a record run for this locality. Mrs. Charles Luckins entered Petrolia Hospital yesterday to have an operation performed on her arm that was injured many weeks ago by a rifle shot. A message received yesterday by relatives in town recorded the death in Winnipeg of Dr. J. Bell, a resident for some years of that city. Heart failure was the cause of demise. Mrs. Bell, the widow of a deceased, has many friends in Wyoming. Mrs. W. J. Travis and Mrs. Ella Anderson being sisters and J. E. and Archie Anderson brothers.

TOM L. HAYGARTH SAYS:

"Because Semi-Ready Clothes are making such a big hit this season there's no reason for thinking there's anything rah-dah about them—quite the contrary. "Our young men's suits assert themselves, not through freakish styles, nor outlandish patterns, but through their appeal to men of fine taste. "Extremely smart but nothing extreme. "Exclusive patterns—fine quality British fabrics. "Label in the pocket—$15 to $40. The Semi-Ready Store. 182 Dundas Street.

BAD FEELING BETWEEN THESE TWO NOW

CONNIE MACK. GEORGE STALLINGS. The two managers of the contending world's championship teams who, on the eve of the series, had a row over the telephone, during which hot words were passed, and Stallings threatened to punch Mack's nose when next they met.

RUDOLPH AND BENDER LIKELY SELECTIONS FOR TODAY'S GAME

Both Managers Silent Up To Time Game Is Called, But the Opinion Is That These Men Will Pitch—Very Little Betting On Series.

Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—Weather conditions this morning were favorable for the opening game between the Boston Nationals and the Philadelphia Athletics for the baseball championship of the world. The day was partly cloudy, with occasional bursts of sunshine. The temperature was just right for baseball.

Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—Baseball held the centre of the stage in Philadelphia today when the weather permitted, the Philadelphia Athletics, present world's champions, and winners of the 1914 American League pennant, will meet the Boston Braves, who finished the National League race, in the first game to decide the 1914 championship of the world at Shibe Park. The contest was scheduled to start at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

While the official weather forecast promised showers for the afternoon, the early morning hours were clear, and the thousands of fans fortunate enough to secure the tickets of admittance to the games were hopeful that his prediction would prove erroneous or, at least, that the rain would hold off until after the initial struggle.

Telephone Battle Forgotten.

The telephone battle between Connie Mack and George Stallings, the Boston manager, over the use of Shibe Park for practice, and other wartime incidents which intensified the interest of the baseball world yesterday, apparently were forgotten in the enthusiasm that held the followers of the game as the hour for staging the contest approached. The pitching selections of the opposing managers seemed to be the absorbing topic of the fans. Neither Mack nor Stallings had indicated who would be his choice, but the general opinion was that Bender, the veteran Athletic Indian twirler, and hero of several world's series, and Rudolph, one of the Boston stars, would be on the mound for their respective teams.

Meinns and Deal in Shape. Both teams had their final practice yesterday, and all the players were said to be in the best of condition. Charley Deal, who will play third base for Boston in place of Smith, who has a broken ankle, was put through a long drill in batting and fielding stunts. "Stuffy" Meinns, who had been nursing a bruised hand for more than a week, was out with his team mates and handled both the bat and ball as though he had never been injured. There was no doubt. Manager Mack said, that he would be in the game today. There was no lack of confidence on either side as to the ultimate result of the series. "We will win sure," declared Stallings. "My team is as good as the Athletics any way you look at it, and we are going to hand a lot of people a big surprise." Manager Mack was as reticent as usual. All he would say was: "We'll be in there to win, and I hope we will have good weather for the series." The Athletic players, however, were more outspoken, and all of them felt sure of victory.

Baseball enthusiasts from all sections of the country are in the city, anxious to see the opening contest. A large crowd stood around the bleacher entrance all night, patiently awaiting an opportunity to pass through the turnstiles when the gates opened at 10 o'clock.

Very Little Betting.

There was very little betting, which is accounted for by the long odds asked by those willing to take the Boston end. What few wagers were laid were placed with the Athletics favorites at 2 to 1 and 3 to 5. The largest bet heard of so far was one of $500 placed at the larger odds.

The probable batting order for today's game follows: Athletics—Murphy, r. f.; Oldring, l. f.; Collins, 2 b.; Baker, 3 b.; McInnis, 1 b.; Strunk, c. f.; Barry, s. s.; Schang, c.; Bender, p.

Boston—Moran, r. f.; Evers, 2 b.; Connolly, l. f.; Whitted, c. f.; Schmidt, 1 b.; Deal, 3 b.; Maranville, s. s.; Gowdy, c.; Rudolph, p.

ETAWAH BREAKS HIS OWN WORLD'S RECORD

Also Lowers Transylvania Stake Mark Three Times.

DRIVEN BY "POP" GEERS

William Failed to Beat His Four-Year-Old World's Record.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 8.—The 25th renewal of the Transylvania Stake was today won by Etawah, driven by "Pop" Geers and owned by F. G. Jones. The record for the stake of 2:04 1/2 made by Penita Maid, in 1909, was beaten in each heat, reducing Etawah's own world's record for a three-heat race made last week at Columbus. Omar and Star Winter were the contenders. William failed to beat his four-year-old world's record of 2:00.

GEORGE STALLINGS THREATENS TO PUNCH CONNIE ON THE NOSE

Two Managers of World Series Clubs Have Row Over Telephone—Players Are on Edge, and Excitement in Philadelphia is Intense.

[Canadian Press.] PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 8.—Unless all signs fall, the world's series of 1914 will be modelled along the lines of the great European war. The spirit of brotherly love, for which the Quaker is noted, appears to have been crowded into the background. The struggle for the premier baseball honors of the universe opened with a campaign of threats that read like bulletins from the front war zone.

Stallings On Outs With Mack. Manager George Stallings, of the Boston Nationals, threatened to punch Connie Mack, of the world's champion Athletics, on the nose, Director Twit, of the Department of Public Safety, threatens to investigate rumors of ticket scalping. To cap the climax, the weather man threatens rain for tomorrow, the day upon which the American and National League pennant winners are scheduled to open the series at Shibe Park in this city.

City Is Stirred. Not since the memorial struggle between the Philadelphia Americans and the New York Nationals in 1911 has this city been so stirred by baseball conflict. Both the players and their thousands of followers appear to take the coming contests with unusual seriousness, and it is certain that every inning of the series will be fought out to a finish with a grim earnestness that includes no quarter for the foe.

Record Demand For Tickets. Every hotel was crowded with baseball players, and spectators gathering for the final and most important clash of the season, but the congestion was a negligible quantity compared with that which prevailed in the offices when seats for the series were being handled.

Row Over Telephone. Statements and denials issued from the camps of the rival clubs help to keep interest keyed up to an unusual pitch. This is especially true of the controversy between the two club managers regarding the use of Shibe Park for practice today. Manager Stallings, of the Boston Nationals, accused Manager Mack, of the Athletics, of unportsmanlike conduct, and during a telephonic conversation this afternoon threatened to punch the world's champion leader on the nose at the first opportunity. The trouble arose over Stallings' request for the use of Shibe Park for practice. He made the request to Manager Mack in person, and the Athletics manager assured him that he was welcome to use the park at any hour except between 2 and 3 o'clock this afternoon, when the local club was scheduled to practice. According to Connie Mack, the Boston manager was satisfied, but when Mack asked Stallings today if he had accused the Philadelphia club of refusing to permit the National League champions to use the park the argument soon became both bitter and personal, and the hard feeling spread rapidly among the players, managers and partisans of the two leagues.

Players Are On Edge. Because of the trouble the Boston players confined their practice to the National League grounds. The Braves spent more than an hour in batting and HIT IT! YOU BOOB, HIT IT!

BY FULLERTON.

Al Orth, who used to be one of the best of pitchers and who developed into one of the best of umpires, was talking signs.

"We had a system of signals with the old Phillies when Ed. Delephant was manager that couldn't be beaten," he remarked.

"There weren't any 'they,' it was it," replied Orth. "We had only one signal."

"What was it?"

"Hit it."

"BOB" EMSLIE RETURNS AFTER GOOD SEASON

St. Thomas' Veteran Umpire Has Completed 20 Seasons With National League.

ST. THOMAS, Oct. 8.—Robert D. Emmslie, the dean of professional baseball umpires, has returned to his home in this city after a very successful season.

Bob has rounded out over a score of years as an indicator holder with the National League.

JEAN PARADIS BEAT CLEVELAND WRESTLER

[Canadian Press.] Montreal, Oct. 8.—Jean Paradis, Montreal, defeated John Billiter, Cleveland, at the catch-as-catch-can style of wrestling at Sohmer Park last night.

The match was sternly contested. Paradis got the first fall in 25 minutes with an arm hold. Billiter, by fine work, took the second fall on a leg twist in one minute and a half. Paradis winning the third fall and the match in 11 minutes, with a scissors and face hold.

James Esson, the Scottish heavy-weight champion, in a rough match, got two straight falls from Sandele, a Greek wrestler from New York, in 13 and 16 minutes.

BIG LIST OF ENTRIES FOR CHURCH MEET

Plenty of Competition in Thanksgiving Field Day.

PROGRAM IS GOOD ONE

Trophy Will Be Given for Best Aggregate of Points.

The entry list of the Interdenominational Athletic meet, to be held in Queen's Park Thanksgiving Day, closed on Wednesday night, and every event is well filled with contestants. All the prominent churches of the city are well represented in the different events, and the competition should be very keen. There are twelve senior events, and four events for juniors of seventeen years and under. ST. THOMAS, Oct. 8.—Jack "Glad" Grane, the St. Thomas boy, who plays in the outfield for the Cleveland Americans, has returned to his home for the winter. "Glad," of course, picks the Philadelphia Athletics to repeat this year and win the world's laurels in baseball.

CITY BASKETBALL LEAGUE WILL MEET ON SATURDAY

The City Basketball League will hold a meeting in the Y. M. C. A. Saturday afternoon for the purpose of organizing for the coming season. Several teams have expressed a desire to enter the league this season, and it is not likely there will be difficulty in forming as good a league this year as the one last season.

IS HURLED FROM WAGON

PINGAL, Oct. 8.—Mr. Joel Davis is improving after his recent serious accident. While hauling a load of gravel his horses became frightened at some turkeys and jumped. He pulled quickly on a very slack rein and, losing his balance, was thrown under the wagon. Both wheels passed over his legs near the knees, badly cutting and bruising them.

HEAVY CANNONADING HEARD NEAR ARRAS

[Canadian Press.] London, Oct. 8.—A Dunkirk, France dispatch to the Daily Mail, dated Wednesday, says: "Beginning at dawn and continuing until 6 o'clock this evening heavy cannonading has been heard in the direction of Bethune, seventeen miles north of Arras."

"The railway company managed to get a train through to Lille during the night, but a second attempt failed owing to the presence of German cavalry patrols all along the line. German cavalry is reported near Dixmude."

TORIES DIFFER ON ELECTION QUESTION

Many Members Urge an Appeal to the Country This Fall.

BUSINESS MEN OBJECT

[Special to The Advertiser.]

OTTAWA, Oct. 8.—Sir Robert Borden proposes to leave for England in the near future, if it is finally decided that the general election is not to be held until next year. That is the reason the militia conscription was handed over to Hon. J. D. Hazen during the absence of Col. Hughes.

There are several matters which the Canadian Premier would like to discuss first-hand with the British authorities. There are questions of defence both on land and sea. A view of the conditions in England, created by the war, it is thought, would prove of value to Sir Robert Borden, and would enable him to speak to Parliament when it next meets with more authority than would be the case if he did not make the trip.

Decision Still in Balance. The decision as to an election still hangs in the balance. Sir Robert Rogers is pressing strongly for an appeal to the people, and he is backed by Hon. J. D. Held and Hon. Frank Cochrane. Other members of the administration hold the view of big business in Canada that to disturb the country with a general election just now would be both unwise and undesirable. They hold that the industrial position of the country presents sufficient difficulties just now without adding the turmoil of an election.

Conservatives At Ottawa. There have been a good many Conservative members of Parliament in Ottawa recently, inquiring as to the prospective election. Among others who have been in consultation with the Government are: Richard Blain, of Peel; Albert Seavign, of Dorchester; R. B. Bennett, of Calgary; G. H. Bradbury, of Selkirk; Hugh Clark, of North Bruce; W. A. Clarke, of North Wellington; B. R. Hepburn, of Prince Edward; F. R. Lalor, of Haldimand; E. N. Lewis, of West Huron; B. Murphy, of North Perth; W. J. Paul, of Lennox and Addington; W. R. Smythe, of East Algoma; Michael Steel, of South Perth, and W. G. V. of North Waterloo. Most of them are in favor of an appeal to the voters this fall.

Premier Mathewson, of Prince Edward Island, has been in Ottawa for some days, and Sir Richard McBride, the Premier of British Columbia, arrived today. Both believe that the Government would be returned, if a khaki election were held before Christmas.

Sir Richard had a conference with Premier Borden in the afternoon and in the evening met Hon. Thomas White, Hon. Robert Rogers, Hon. Martin Burrell and other members of the Cabinet. It is understood that Sir Richard wants more protection provided for the Pacific coast, would like to see established on Vancouver Island a training camp similar to that which was established at Valcartier. The presence of the powerful German fleet on the Pacific has given rise to considerable alarm, and it has been feared more than once that a German cruiser might not merely bombard Victoria as was done with Madras, but actually raid the city.

TWENTY-FIVE CHARGED WITH HIGH TREASON

All Alleged To Have Been Concerned in Archduke's Murder.

BORDEAUX, Oct. 8 (via London), 10:02 p.m.—The Neues Wiener Tagblatt, a copy of which has arrived here from Vienna, says that the indictment, alleging high treason and covering 37 pages, has been read to 25 prisoners who are charged with having been concerned in the murder of Archduke Francis Ferdinand, the heir-apparent of the Austrian throne, at Sarajevo.

It is expected that their trial will last three weeks, according to the newspaper.

PERMANENT ROADWAY, TORONTO TO OSHAWA

TORONTO, Oct. 8.—The construction of a permanent roadway from Toronto to Oshawa was discussed by the committee recently appointed by the different municipalities this afternoon at the city hall.

The committee decided to ask the provincial Government to make a survey of the road, and make an estimate of the cost of a sixteen feet concrete roadway with gravel shoulders, with a concrete base seven inches thick. An approximate estimate of the cost of construction from the discussion would be as follows: seventeen miles at $10,000 a mile, $170,000. The Government's share would be $68,000 or 40 per cent of the total cost.

WAR COSTING ALLIES $55,000 PER SECOND

Change in the World Will Be Colossal, Says Political Economist.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—10:25 p.m.—The war is costing the country $11,000,000 per second, day and night, said Sydney Webb, well known as a political economist, in a lecture today at the School of Economics and Political Science, of which he was the founder. The war, Mr. Webb added, was equivalent to a species of economic earthquake, which was upsetting everything in a new light. Nobody could predict to what degree of good or evil the world would be changed by the war, the speaker said, but the change undoubtedly would be colossal.

NEW CASUALTY LIST OF BRITISH OFFICERS

LONDON, Oct. 8.—10:25 p.m.—A casualty list of British officers, issued tonight, reports one officer killed, three died of wounds, six wounded and two missing.

A list was also issued under date of Sept. 15, 16 and 17. This includes 57 non-commissioned officers, and 17 killed, 5 died of wounds, 270 wounded, and 625 missing. The missing were chiefly from the Connaught Rangers and Royal Cameronians.

EACH SIDE TRYING OUTFLANKING MOVE

[Canadian Press.]

FROM THE BATTLE FRONT (via Paris), Oct. 9.—12:41 a.m.—Detachments of cavalry of the Germans and the Allies met today on the frontier of Belgium, manoeuvring for a position to outflank each other.

The German had thrown brigade after brigade in front of the Allies, but these found adversaries equal in force. The flanking operations are rendered difficult, owing to the proximity of the sea and the day passed without very serious encounters.

The great plateau near Neville and Arras favors cavalry work, but farther north the ground becomes marshy, although it is interspersed with excellent roads. The Allies' leaders appear to be satisfied with conditions and ready to meet any offensive move by the Germans.

Some distance farther south, near Roye, the artillery and infantry fighting continues very sharp. At other points along the battle line the opposing forces each maintained their positions, contenting themselves with desultory firing.

Famous Colonel Wounded. The French Colonel Marchand of Fushoda fame is among the men reported to have been seriously wounded when a splinter from a shell struck him in the leg.

While endeavoring to give prompt succor to wounded between the lines during the course of last night, a party of litter-bearers, belonging to the American ambulance, lost their direction and approached the German entrenchments. The litter-bearers lay down and remained quiet and later returned to the Allies' lines.

The Earl of Fitzwilliam, who was born in Canada, is very active in performing his duties as a transport staff officer of the British army. He controls thousands of motor cars and horse vehicles of every variety, and displays wonderful ability as an organizer. The Earl has been of great assistance in keeping the field army well supplied.

Russia Claims More Victories Over the Enemy

Also Capture the Town of Biala, Southwest of Cracow.

PETROGRAD, Oct. 8.—An official communication issued from general headquarters, says:

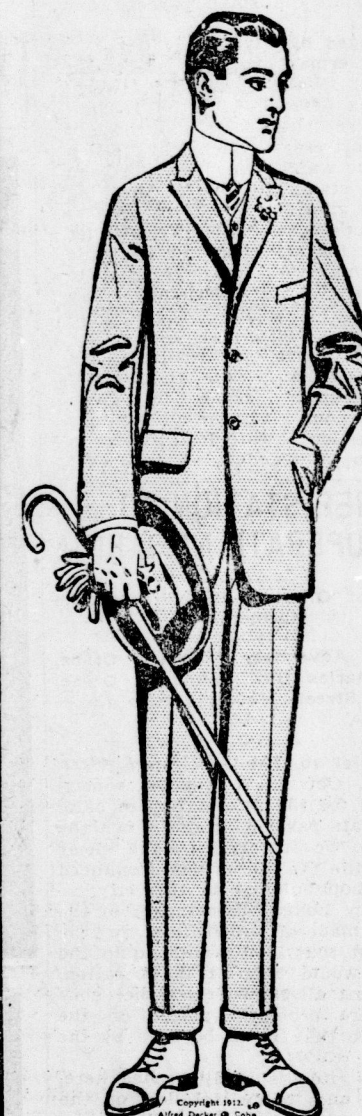

"The fighting on the east Prussian frontier continued on October 7 with the same ferocity. In spite of German reinforcements all their attacks in the region of Wirballen (Russian Poland) and Philipoff have been repulsed with great losses. By a night assault the Russian troops have captured the village of Kamenka, near Bakalargewo.

"Russian troops have also captured the town of Biala (in Galicia, 43 miles west southwest of Cracow). In other regions there is nothing of importance to record. "In the attack against the fortresses of Przemyśl conditions are in our favor, our troops capturing by assault a strong fortification, constituting one of the principal positions."

GOOD SLEEP

GOOD HEALTH

Exhausted Nerves Were Fully Restored
by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

When the nerve force expended in the day's work and in the act of living is not replenished by restful sleep at night you have cause to be alarmed, as physical bankruptcy stares you in the face. This letter directs you to the most satisfactory cure for sleeplessness.

Mr. Dennis Mackin, Maxton, Sask., writes: "I have just finished using the sixth box of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and I must say that when I commenced
using it my nerves were so bad that I could scarcely get any sleep. I would lie in bed nearly all night without sleep,
and anyone who has this trouble knows the misery of sleepless nights. The Nerve Food helped me from the start,
and has built up my nervous system wonderfully. I now enjoy good, sound sleep, and instead of feeling tired in the morning I am strong and healthy, and well fitted for my daily work."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, 6 for $2.50; all dealers, or Ed-manston, Bates & Co., Limited, Toron-
to.

INSURING GOOD

DIGESTION

Importance of Preventing Food Fermentation in Stomach.

Good digestion usually means good health. So long as the stomach does its work properly, food can find no lodging in the human system. But when digestion is imperfect, food is not properly digested, and it interferes with the proper digestion of food, an unending train of troubles is set in motion.
About the only thing that will upset the stomach and interfere with digestion is fermentation. Food fermentation is due to chemical action in the food itself.
This fermentation causes the formation of gas, or wind, as well as acid, resulting in the unnatural distention of the stomach and the burning by the acid of the delicate lining of the stomach.
Medicine and tonics cannot relieve this condition; they usually make it worse.
The fermentation and acid are to blame
and these must be overcome and prevented by taking after meals a teaspoonful of bisulphated magnesia in a little hot or cold water. Physicians recommend bisulphated magnesia especially because it stops and prevents fermentation of food and neutralizes the acid instantly, making it bland and harmless, without irritating the stomach in any way. Get a little bisulphated magnesia from your druggist and try it the next time your food ferments and upsets your stomach. Note how quickly the acid is neutralized and how soon you forget that you have such a thing as a stomach.

BATTLE AND SIEGE CLOSELY RELATED

If Allies Win On Aisne, It Will Help Antwerp Considerably.

BOTH SIDES DESPERATE

If Antwerp Falls, Ineffective-ness of Modern Fortifications Will Be Shown.

London, Oct. 9.—19:05 a.m.—So far as England knows this morning, Antwerp,
the latest of the beleaguered cities of Belgium, is still holding out against the German onslaught. King Albert has withdrawn from the city toward Ostend, where the administration is now fully established, but practically the entire Belgian field army has remained to resist, so long as possible, the fire of the great German guns, the horrible effects of which were made so plain at Lige.

From the standpoint of those nations
opposing Germany, the hope was that the defenders could hold out till the allies delivered some decisive blow along the battle line in France, which has now almost reached the North Sea, and taken in conjunction with the fighting,
which extends across the Belgian frontier to the northward of Lille, makes a gigantic front sprawling like a snake
half across Belgium and across practically all of Northeastern France.

Desperate Efforts

Though separate conflicts, the siege of Antwerp and the battle of the Aisne are thus becoming more and more closely related, and both the Germans and the allies are making the most desperate efforts to crush each other and smash through the ever-lengthening front. The battle of the Aisne, which is now in its third week, is a desperate struggle, and the Germans are making it their great effort to drive a wedge through the region, and to wedge themselves into the heart of France.
The situation is stationary, though most violent fighting continues.

If Antwerp falls, it will prove the ineffectiveness of modern fortifications
against the even more modern guns, for Antwerp is the last word in ingenious barriers.

To the east, the situation on the East Prussian frontier is becoming more like what happened in France after the German invasion and retreat.

May Be Decisive

Being driven from Poland, the Germans are making a stubborn stand, and with reinforcements from Koenigsberg will doubtless give a battle which will determine whether the Germans will again invade Russia in this region.

Roundabout dispatches reaching London from Petrograd say that a new Russian army has arrived at the frontier near Posen, while another is marching toward Tarnobrzeg. All reports of the surrender of Przemyśl have been denied by the Russian government, and various reports about the beginning of a battle at Cracow.

HOIST WITH OWN PETARD

German Fishing Boat Blown Up By Mine.

[Canadian Press.]

Copenhagen, via London, Oct. 9.—7 a.m.—A German fishing vessel has been blown up by a German mine in the Langeland belt, north of the coast of Denmark. The captain was killed, but the rest of the crew were saved.

SEIZE GERMAN SUPPLIES

VALUED AT $2,000,000

Paris, Oct. 8.—6:51 p.m.—The French authorities have seized food supplies
valued at between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000, which had been deposited on the docks at Havre by a German firm. The action was taken in order to prevent the supplies being sent abroad.

GERMAN GUNS FOR

[Canadian Press.]

London, Oct. 9.—10:08 a.m.—A dispatch to Reuters' Telegram Company from Athens says it is asserted there that centimetre guns in the forts on the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus.

FALL RESULTED FATALLY

BRANTFORD, Oct. 8.—Robert Bryson, aged 55, was killed almost instantaneously today, when he fell from a ladder,
a distance of twenty feet. As he weighed about 150 pounds, and was righted upon his head there was little hope of recovery and Dr. Raphael found life extinct when he arrived. An inquest was not necessary, as there was little doubt that Bryson had slipped after adjusting a beam in the course of the reconstruction of the Canada Glue Works.

Decceased resided at 253 Dalhousie street, and leaves a wife and three children, two sons and a daughter.

TONS OF TOMATOES.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Dutton, Oct. 8.—Although this was not considered a good year for tomatoes, the farmers in this district for the past few weeks harvested a very large yield. Mr.
Daw, who has charge of the warehouse
here, shipped five cars of tomatoes and sweet corn daily for nearly three weeks.
