PREMIER BORDEN AT UNION CAUCUS NEXT WEEK

Ottawa Story Says Many Members of Party Would Not Be Averse To Accepting Leader's Resignation—Action of Murdock Has Created a Furore.

Ottawa, June 25.—(By the Canadian Press.) A rumor current in political circles that Sir Robert Borden will resign the premiership immediately after prorogation of Parliament. The rumor lacks confirmation by any responsible parties. It takes the form of a belief that Sir Robert will submit his resignation to a caucus of Unionists, which will be held early next week. It is impossible to get a representative idea of the manner in which the resignation would be received by his party. It is believed that a number of Unionists, though perhaps not a majority of the party, would be not averse to accepting it. As a successor, Hon. Arthur Meighen is spoken of in the same rumor.

CREATED FURORE. Ottawa, June 25.—The resignation of James Murdock as the last remaining member of the Board of Commerce has created a furore. The resignation was actually received by the board of directors this afternoon. It is likely that either this afternoon or subsequently, a statement on the attitude and intentions of the government will be issued. Mr. Murdock's resignation has created a feeling among government supporters that Mr. Murdock should be called upon to resign. Mr. Murdock's words, "I began to undertake to do what I believed to be the necessary and unfair provisions of these two acts (the Food and Machinery Acts) and the combined and fair prices act when applied to the business of commerce for whom they were intended. I am not a doubt but that my resignation is a relief to the public." It is also felt that Mr. Murdock's resignation is a relief to the public. Mr. Murdock's resignation is a relief to the public.

CAUCUS HELD TODAY. Ottawa, June 25.—By Canadian Press.—Government supporters met again in caucus this morning and it is understood one of the items for discussion is the government's attitude towards the resignation of James Murdock. The debate earlier in the week brought out the fact that some of the members favor the resignation. It has been stated that a bonus of $500 was likely to be given to the members this morning. Some announcement as to this was expected at today's caucus. Mr. Gerard favored immediate peace and the ratification of the peace treaty with such reservations as would not nullify its objects.

WOULD GIVE IRELAND SELF-GOVERNMENT Gerard Outlines the Policy He Favors For League of Nations. San Francisco, Cal., June 25.—James W. Gerard, former United States ambassador to Germany and mentioned as a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, arrived last night in London. He is expected to make a declaration in the platform to the effect that before the United States becomes a member of the league of nations it request other members to release any nations under their dominion that are capable of self-government. Mr. Gerard said it would not be necessary to name such nations, but it would have the effect of giving freedom to the league.

IRISH FREEDOM IS BEING MADE FOOTBALL BY THE DEMOCRATS. Trouble Is Brewing Between O'Connell and De Valera. New York, June 25.—(By the Canadian Press.)—It has been announced that the anti-De Valera forces will be active in the forthcoming national convention next week by Daniel P. O'Connell, national press agent for the anti-De Valera forces. It is understood that De Valera will again deny the right of any other than himself to speak for the party. C., June 25.—Evidence of the formation of a united communist party by the consolidation of the Communist Labor Party and the Communist Party, with the avowed purpose of fomenting a revolution against the existing government, was received today at the department of justice. CONCILIATION BOARD IS MAKING REPORT. Peterboro, June 25.—The conciliation board appointed to deal with the wage issue between the Canadian General Electric Company and its machinists and electrical workers concluded its work today. The finding of the board has been forwarded to the minister of labor at Ottawa. The three main issues in dispute were a minimum rate, overtime and classification. The board recommended a demand of 80 cents an hour for machinists, 65 cents for specialists, and 55 cents for helpers, had been reduced by 5 cents in each class. This was acceptable to the company, but the company would not agree to a wage scale on a minimum basis.

C., June 25.—Representatives of the railroad unions expected to sign a settlement today, which is early action by the railway wage board on wage demands would tend to quiet further strike disturbances. With return to work last midnight of practically all striking yardmen at Potomac yards here, railroad officials announced they would be able to handle the traffic to and from the south without delay. At the same time the interstate commerce commission is watching the strike in the eastern railroad centers, being particularly concerned as to the effect of the walkouts on its recent effort to relieve freight congestion and to divert coal to New England and other eastern points where a coal shortage is prevailing by communists.

"HUMAN FLY" HAS A FIGHTING CHANCE. Says He Fainted When He Realized Rope Was Greasy. St. Catharines, June 25.—Charles Hutchinson, the "human fly" whose correct name is Charles Thompson, 246 Shaw street, Toronto, has a fighting chance for his life, according to the doctors who have been attending him since his 40-foot fall last night while climbing the wall of the Welland Hotel. Thompson regained consciousness at 10 o'clock this morning and was able to make a statement to the effect that he fainted when he realized that the rope, on which he was to climb over the cornice from the fourth to the fifth story of the building, was too greasy.

CLUBBURST FLOODS LOWER BROADWAY. Subway Traffic Was Completely Tied Up For a Time. New York, June 25.—By Canadian Press.—A clubburst, which struck the lower part of New York last night, tied up subway traffic being tied up by the hold up of many cars. The tolls ran well over an inch and a half, and in the five minutes between 8:45 and 8:50, nearly half an inch perched over the storm area. The form was indirectly responsible for two deaths and several were injured. A negro was killed by an automobile, which skidded, and the conductor of a New York, Ontario and Western freight train was killed when the train was derailed by a rock which dropped from the Palisades, and embedded itself on the tracks.

STRIKING YARDMEN RETURNING TO WORK. Early Settlement of the Wage Problems May Check Disturbances. Washington, D. C., June 25.—Representatives of the railroad unions expected to sign a settlement today, which is early action by the railway wage board on wage demands would tend to quiet further strike disturbances. With return to work last midnight of practically all striking yardmen at Potomac yards here, railroad officials announced they would be able to handle the traffic to and from the south without delay. At the same time the interstate commerce commission is watching the strike in the eastern railroad centers, being particularly concerned as to the effect of the walkouts on its recent effort to relieve freight congestion and to divert coal to New England and other eastern points where a coal shortage is prevailing by communists.

GREATEST PUBLIC SCANDAL IN MANY YEARS IS BARE BY MURDOCK'S RESIGNATION

Worked on C. P. R. Here. Serious Charges Made Which Will Startle Whole Canadian Public If Government Airls the Matter in Parliament—Murdock Declares Government Wanted To Pay Him To Help Them Camouflage the People. Toronto, June 25.—Declaring that he could not submit to going through Canadian woods hunting for profiteers with a wooden gun, Commissioner James Murdock today explained the stand he has taken in resigning from the Board of Commerce.

Called in Conference. "That afternoon I was called to his office for a conference. There we talked over the situation, and Sir Robert urged me again to stay on. But I wrote again on the 18th, and said that I would feel I was not giving the people of Canada service if I stayed any longer than the week. As it was, I stayed one day longer than the week in order to sign two orders."

President McEwing Urges the Beck-Ingram Controversy re Golden Rule To Settle Industrial Unrest. L. and P. S. R. Continues.

COMMITTEES NAMED Officers Will Be Elected At This Afternoon's Session.

General discussion of rural telephone problems is in progress at the tenth annual meeting of the Western Counties Telephone Association in the city hall today.

The convention opened at 11:30 this morning, with an address from the president, James McEwing, of the Union Telephone Company, Drayton.

Dr. W. Doan, James McEwing and M. A. Geo were appointed a committee with power to select a committee of technical education for linemen in the employment of the companies.

Mr. Hoover, secretary of the Canadian Independent Telephone Association, said that it was largely due to the efforts of this organization that Government legislation of the Ontario Government was averted, which would have placed an additional tax of from $1 to $1.50 a year on each rural telephone.

Mr. Hoover's report evidence that the legislation of the province needed close watching if the companies are to become mere tax-gathering organizations for the Government.

100 CASES OF CHOLERA IN JAPAN

Honolulu, June 25.—Two hundred cases of cholera have been reported in Japan, according to Tokyo dispatch.

Regarding the Beck-Ingram controversy with respect to London and Port Stanley Railway revenues the Toronto Globe today says:

"Returning to the attack on Sir Adam Beck in connection with the affairs of the London and Port Stanley Railway, A. B. Ingram, vice-chairman of the Ontario railway board, quotes from a conversation with J. L. Payne, the controller of railway statistics for the Dominion, Mr. Ingram, in an issued statement to the press, says that Mr. Payne alleged that the reports made about the affairs of this railway were incorrect. He alleged, according to Mr. Ingram, that the first report was incorrect, and that he reconstituted with the manager, but reports had been the same since."

"He invites Sir Adam Beck to ask Mr. Payne to have published all the correspondence which took place between 'your commission' and Mr. Payne regarding these alleged incorrect statements. Mr. Ingram quotes from statistics regarding the capital of the London and Port Stanley, in 1915 the capital was given as $1,870,012, and in 1916 and 1917 as $900,000, and in 1918 as $1,131,000. He says that the original capital of $1,870,012 asks Mr. Ingram. He also says that Mr. Payne said that his statement of June 1 concerning the making of returns affecting the London and Port Stanley was correct."

SUGAR IS ADVANCED $2.00 PER HUNDRED BY ALL REFINERIES

The following comment on the market situation as regards foodstuffs appears in Canadian Grocer this week: The feature of the grocery markets is the advance in the price of sugar.

The ruling of the board of commerce in regard to sugar is bringing complaints from both retailers and wholesalers. Business on most lines is reported good, but there is also in a healthy condition.

There are few price changes in the markets this week, but all are firm, with the tendency upward rather than downward. All commodities are advanced sugar $2 per hundred; supplies are still light, but refiners are booking orders for the balance of June and July deliveries at prices in effect on date slightly above the current market.

NATIONAL COUNCIL FAVORS TOWN PLANNING

St. John, N. B., June 25.—At the closing session of the National Council of Women, a committee was appointed to get information as to means of conserving home life, consisting of the board of health at a special meeting this afternoon.

Under these regulations, "simplified" plumbing will be permitted in the city. It is claimed that this will lessen considerably the cost of plumbing, and that the cost of plumbing is being made against the former bylaw, because it required back-venting on all work, and made the work more expensive.

As the new measure was given thorough consideration by the board of health, it is possible that E. H. Russell, a member of the board, may object to some of the clauses, as he was opposed to them while serving as a member of the special committee.

When the steamer reaches Chicago it will be reloaded with cars manufactured in Chicago and destined to points in the vicinity of Detroit. The freight yards in Chicago are also seriously congested.

The classes meet once a week for a special car fitted by the company for that purpose. After a course of instruction has been completed the class members are secured to give lectures, but in motive and car departments respectively.

The third first-aid class of the C. T. R. employees in this city was organized this morning in the transportation department by H. Call, the Grand Tunk general first-aid organizer, of Montreal.

Democratic leaders here, while not willing to predict the language or substance, said they believed an Irish plank would be incorporated in the platform. They restated any suggestion that Irish-Americans as a group were opposed to the league of nations.

There is only one Aspirin—"Bayer"—You must say "Bayer" Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) of Bayer Manufacture of Mono-acetic-acidester of Salicylicacid. OFF THE RAILS

Because of the serious congestion prevailing in the freight yards of railroads in Detroit, the automobile manufacturers have adopted a novel means in shipping their cars. All cars that are to be distributed over the American continent are driven across the river to Windsor and Walkerville by boys hired for the purpose, where they are loaded on a available freight car, and then forwarded to their destination. Fifty and sixty cars are loaded this way in the Border Cities daily.

NEW EXCHANGE FOR BELL TELEPHONE IN EAST LONDON

Local Office Now Handling Over 100,000 Calls Per Day.

With the new story on the top of the Bell Telephone building, the company is arranging to have the toll room, handling long distance calls removed to the new floor.

So great is the increasing number of local calls, now considerably more than 100,000 a day, that the company has already secured an option on land in East London for a new exchange. Difficulty in securing materials is the only reason for delaying the work, which in view of present conditions in the building industry and in the electrical and telephone supplies trade, may not be undertaken for a year or more.

HE WISHED TO BATHE HIS FEET IN COGNAC

Harry Leff Explains Why He Possessed Fluid. GOOTSON DISMISSED

Witness Says Constable Gave Him Money To Buy Whiskey.

With the assistance of W. R. Meredith, his solicitor, Meyers Gootson of this city succeeded in convincing Magistrate A. H. M. Grayson in police court this morning that he was not concerned in the welfare of a bottle of cognac, a French intoxicant, captured in the possession of Harry Leff, a 16-year-old youth last Monday, and the charge against him was dismissed.

Constable William McCullough of the police force testified that on Monday afternoon he saw a taxi with Abdul Hameed as a passenger stop at Gootson's house on Ottawa avenue, and after a short wait returned to Hameed's house, a few blocks around the street. He then saw Gootson and Leff come along the street, the latter carrying a paper bag. When they saw him he claimed Gootson said to the youth: "Hurry, beat it. Constable Tomlin arrested the boy, and he forgot the bottle, the bag which contained the bottle, being confiscated."

Constable Tomlin stated in court that after the pair were taken into custody there was considerable conversation in Russian between them. Both Tomlin and McCullough alleged that Leff informed them that he found the bottle while fishing on the river bank and that he was taking it to the police station when arrested.

Harry Leff, 459 Emery street, denied in court that he walked along the street with Gootson, but claimed that he first saw him in Ginsberg's poolroom on Ottawa avenue when taken there, owing to nervousness, he may have informed Tomlin that he forgot the bottle, which he was taking to the police station to have his grandparent's residence on Simcoe street, where he was living, and wished to bathe his feet in the dery fluid because in the summer "the odor smells bad."

Who Sent Him?—Abdul Hameed, in the witness box, stated that he went to Gootson's house to get liquor at the request of Constable Tomlin, who, he said, supplied the money for same. He stated that Gootson informed him that he had no whiskey, and that he (Hameed) saw no liquor in the house at all, after which he left. R. G. Fisher, prosecuting, maintained that this witness was "hostile," but the court did not concur with the statement. The prosecutor argued that Leff was the tool of Gootson in an alleged delivery of the liquor to Hameed, a prospective purchaser.

"The onus is not on Gootson," said the magistrate, "as the liquor was not found in his possession. I do not think that a conviction would be upheld."

He Worked Hard.—"Well, I worked hard enough to get it," commented Mr. Fisher. The hearing of evidence was featured by several wordy battles between W. R. Meredith, counsel for the defence and the prosecutor. The former also engaged in several hits with Magistrate Grayson regarding several objections which he registered regarding the manner of obtaining evidence.

LEFT FOR PETROLEA.—Staff Capt. Ritchie of the local command of the Salvation Army is in Petrolea in connection with the S. A. campaign in that town.

NATIONAL CASH REGISTERS Never get tired and never make JULIUS'S MADDI, Branch Manager, 150 Dundas Street, London, Ont.

Several more local citizens put in an appearance at the police station yesterday afternoon to claim articles found by city detectives in the possession of Dennis Hagar at local police station. Inspector, remanded to jail this week several charges of stealing. A watch worth $100 in value was claimed by one of his victims Thursday.

Local detectives stated today that although Rorlandine pleaded guilty to four charges of theft and was convicted on a fifth, there were six more charges which could be preferred against him, making a total of eleven. However, in their opinion, justice will be served if he is punished for the five offences and no further charges will be laid by the police.

Going from Gas to local residences by reason of his duties as hydro meter inspector, Dorlandine, when he pleaded guilty to the thefts, he admitted that he simply helped himself to all money and jewelry in sight. There is not considerable quantity of loot at the police station found in his possession which the police are holding for London claimants.

No further investigation of the collegiate fire will be asked by the Chamber of Commerce, Gordon Philip, secretary, said today. The executive has merely decided to turn over to the city council correspondence which look place between the fire marshal's department and the Chamber of Commerce.

It has been reported that the investigation conducted by the fire marshal was not sufficient to satisfy a number of people in the city.

General Manager E. V. Buchanan of the public utilities commission, said that organization did not desire a second investigation, although it was quite willing that one be made, particularly as it had been argued that the destruction of the building was due to weak water pressure.

"I am not against another probe of the London Collegiate fire, as I have been accused of it," stated Fire Chief John Aitken today. "When another investigation is made I will make the same statements as I did before, and have absolutely nothing to withhold."

"The chief is at a loss to know why E. V. Buchanan, the public utilities commission withheld certain information which he has stated that he knew regarding the collegiate fire. When the investigation was conducted here by the fire marshal's department those present were asked if they had anything to say regarding the fire. A few minor statements were made, but nothing of importance came up. The representative of the fire marshal's department, who had been appointed, was not well satisfied with the investigation."

"When we go to fires we go with the object of extinguishing them—that's what we are paid for. The men worked hard to suppress the fire, and it was ahead of us when we got there," concluded the chief.

All through life there are wayside inns. Where man may refresh his soul with love. —Longfellow.

A Bit of Sunset. Dear Mail-Box Friends,—I just have to tell you how well I liked the letters of March Wind and Mrs. Eli Gee.

Your home, Mrs. Eli Gee, must surely be one of happiness and love. I'm sure it would be a sight to see this veritable palace with its "old-fashioned beams in the ceilings and massive fireplace of stone," but, above all, health and joy within. I would judge from your letter that such would be the case. I'm sure it really is a privilege to be able and strong enough to hop potatoes (in 10 in the shade or pick strawberries (in the sun). I have been doing outside work until I am brown. But still this is my favorite time of the year.

As Lowell tells us in his "Vision of Sir Launfal" that "Every clod feels a stir of life, as it appeared, some clod reaches and gropes." I only wish the section, commonly known as "June," might be printed on our particular Page.

I was sitting alone on the beach, watching Old Sol take a parting glance before he went to rest, very lately. The sunset was wonderful. This huge ball of fire, as it appeared, some clod reaches and gropes." I only wish the section, commonly known as "June," might be printed on our particular Page.

Yesterday morning the kindergarten at the Talbot street school was the scene of a pretty "Flower Party," held by the small children of that department, who will soon part for the summer months. The occasion was a function was by pretty pink cards, carried home by the children to their parents.

Another delightful garden bridge is planned for Monday afternoon at Central avenue, captured the highest standing in the 1920 graduating class of Wellesley Hospital, Toronto, and was awarded the Sir Edmund Oester scholarship for general proficiency.

Miss McCamus and Miss Helen d'Avignon are at Port Bruce getting everything in readiness at the Y.W.C.A. camp for the summer. The group of girls, which will arrive at camp on Saturday under the care of Miss E. J. Brown, who is to be camp hostess for the first two weeks. The trip to the camp will be made by boat from Port Stanley.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Flecker, Edouard street, was the scene of a pretty garden party last night, given by the Ladies' Aid of the Ridout street Methodist church. Chinese lanterns used abundantly under the trees set up the garden beautifully, where the evening was spent in the most enjoyable and capable looking, why, Mrs. Homebride busily engaged in the construction of a delicious chicken pie. After kissing the line of moisture from her placid brow, we noticed a great many more homekeepers in the Box whose names we have forgotten to mention, but they were all very busy and cheerful. With a murmured "God bless all the homebirds," we ran out again to reveal in the sweets garden. What a welcome there was in this Eden of Roses for my friend the Night Wind. From the low Rose of Texas to the Last Rose of Summer, all were there, blending their sweetness with the twilight air, and what strange secrets they exchanged with my companion, and they nodded and nodded. All these things I could not dimly guess, for they were all so busy with their own affairs, that I was not able to share their sweetness with the inmates of the household. She seemed to have a very special interest in the Homebird. "Who is she?" I asked my friend who knows everything. "Oh, dear, you know I know it," said the dewy Rose, a fitting type of our dear Redeemer's beauty, the redness of the drooping lip, and the wistful glance of his love for us." With an arrow of ecstasy in my heart, I hurried after my friend, who was standing down around Laughing Water, where a Faded Lily, which really is a very lovely flower, was resting at the brink. In a sunny corner stood Pussy Willow, dear early child of Spring, who shrunk blushed the prettier under my boisterous caresses.

WHAT'S IN A NAME. ADA. Ada is the fortunate possessor of two sources of derivation; likewise she may choose her own significance, since there is considerable conflict in translating the name. Some etymologists take Ada to be an adaptation of the early Biblical name Adah, meaning ornament, which occurs frequently in Hebrew nomenclature. Others believe that it really comes from the Teutonic Oda, which signified rich, or the old Saxon Ide, meaning happy. In all events, Ada may be said to find happiness in riches which are exploited by ornaments. The first feminine form corresponding to Ada was Audir, the name bestowed upon a beautiful viking, one of the first Icelandic settlers. Audir's wife named the wife of Orlando, the Paladin. A queen of Italy in 926 was so called, and the name was still in use in 1393 by the feminine members of the House of Este. The low German form, Ead, came to be translated as Ide and appears as such in the Cambrian register. As Ide, was bestowed upon the Countess of Boulogne, granddaughter of King Stephen. Ada seems to be purely in English usage, until its adoption in 1892 by the feminine members of the House of Este. It is said to fulfil for her its promise of courage and invulnerability, and to shield her from adverse fortune. Wednesday is her lucky day and three her lucky number.

representation from all the auxiliaries in attendance. The reports brought in and showed increasing membership. The afternoon session opened at 2 o'clock and the president gave a review of the work of the women's work in home mission and foreign fields. "In the school homes for children of foreign parentage in the west, good results are being obtained and also in the work among the foreigners in the cities," she said. "The work in the foreign field is all the greater because the eastern countries are not willing to receive the missionaries and the women should be all the more awake to the responsibility of giving the utmost help to this phase of the work." Gracings were presented from sister churches of the town and from presbytery, and the roll call of all the auxiliaries was well responded to. The most excellent address was given by Mrs. J. M. Menzies, missionary for seven years in Honan, Szechwan, a personal history of a Chinese woman from birth, describing in a most graphic way the changing conditions of a woman with which a Chinese woman has to contend and the wonderful transformation worked through her Christianity. Mrs. Menzies is a very enthusiastic inspiring speaker and urged upon the women's missionary society the great responsibility still resting on them in the east. In the evening Mrs. Menzies again spoke on different phases of their work in China. Special music was given by both the afternoon and evening sessions. The Presbytery of Saugeen met on the same day and included the women at dinner and tea in Knox Church basement.

WHAT'S IN A NAME. ADA. Ada is the fortunate possessor of two sources of derivation; likewise she may choose her own significance, since there is considerable conflict in translating the name. Some etymologists take Ada to be an adaptation of the early Biblical name Adah, meaning ornament, which occurs frequently in Hebrew nomenclature. Others believe that it really comes from the Teutonic Oda, which signified rich, or the old Saxon Ide, meaning happy. In all events, Ada may be said to find happiness in riches which are exploited by ornaments. The first feminine form corresponding to Ada was Audir, the name bestowed upon a beautiful viking, one of the first Icelandic settlers. Audir's wife named the wife of Orlando, the Paladin. A queen of Italy in 926 was so called, and the name was still in use in 1393 by the feminine members of the House of Este. It is said to fulfil for her its promise of courage and invulnerability, and to shield her from adverse fortune. Wednesday is her lucky day and three her lucky number.

OFF THE SCORE BOARDS

Oldham saved the Tigers from another beating, when he shut the Browns out, 5 to 0. Sister brought his total hits up to 100, when he got three yesterday.

The Phillies took the National cellar by storm yesterday, when they lost to the Reds, 9 to 3. The game was a trouble, this time with the spectators. The score was 5 to 3.

Adam's weakening in the fifth gave the Dodgers the necessary five runs to put the Pirates out of the game by a 6-to-2 score.

Three Cub pitchers failed to stop the Giants making a break from the lower rung of the National League, the New Yorkers taking the last game of the series, 3 to 1.

Three errors by the Braves, coupled with slow work gave the Cardinals a 7-to-4 victory in the last game of the series.

Akron took the Orioles into camp by silencing a five-run rally in the fifth inning. The game was called in the sixth, with the score 5 to 4.

The Marines made a clean sweep of the series by defeating the Bisons, 4 to 2. It was the sixth straight win for Reading, and put Buffalo into third place.

Toronto squared away its debts yesterday by walking into second place, and in only four points behind Baltimore for the lead. The game was the unlucky stepping stone, being on the short end of a 6-to-1 tally.

Rochester split the series with the Skeeters by dropping yesterday's game, 2 to 1.

BELTS BLAMED FOR MANY HUMAN ILLS

Cincinnati, June 24.—That the universal American habit of suspending the trousers by means of a belt is doing much damage was asserted by Dr. Charles A. L. Reed, of Cincinnati, former president of the American Medical Association, at the university commencement here today.

"The number of men, and young men, too, who are either semi-invalids or real invalids as a result of disturbances of the stomach and intestines is already alarming, and every physician knows that such a case is rapidly increasing," asserted Dr. Reed. "Not many years ago," he continued, "the same fact applied to women and was justly attributed to the constriction of the waist by the corset as then worn. But the attire of women at all parties, especially in this particular, is now much more hygienic than that of men. The unrestricted waist today imparts to women not only a grace and suppleness but a degree of health that may well be the envy of the so-called sterner sex. The trouble is with the tightly worn belt. The natural result of squeezing the abdomen at waist line is to force the stomach, intestines, liver and other organs downward out of place. When this is done indigestion, constipation and biliousness result. In their train come headache, nervousness, mental depression and general inefficiency. In over 1,000 consecutive cases of epilepsy careful X-ray examination has showed the existence of such displacements. It is not asserted that all belt wearers have these troubles, or that belt wearing is the only cause of them, but it is claimed that the habit tends both to cause them when they do not exist and to aggravate them when they already exist."

RECKLESS DRIVING

London Chauffeur To Face Several Charges Following Joy Ride.

ST. THOMAS, June 24.—Old St. Andrew's market is still the layout place for remnants of old buildings and the resurrected brick from Talbot street. A request will go to the council at its next meeting to have the market officially closed so that the grounds may be re-invested in trustees who would have the area cleaned up and made into a park.

A refusal to pass the moiety of interest which the corporation holds now will, the promoters say, bring about the vesting of the property in the personal representatives of the late J. O. Kaine, who held it in trust for those contributary to the founding of the market place. Failing to use the grounds for market purposes, which has now taken place, the corporation loses its right to use or occupy the lands.

There were three companions with Storie and they all appeared satisfied with the scenery, although at times in danger of killing themselves or maiming somebody else.

SAYS PEARLS GROW AND BREED YOUNG

Governor of Borneo Tells of Increase in Numbers.

Chicago, June 24.—Sir Ernest Birch, former governor of Borneo, has started England by a statement that pearls are alive and breed and increase in size and number.

"I had Malay boys as my playmates in the Straits Settlements," he said, "and we used to breed seed pearls in match boxes, in which we placed rice and cotton wool. These breeding pearls do not belong to the oyster species, but come from a different source altogether, although I do not know what that source is."

Dr. Frederick Kunz, one of the foremost authorities on pearls in the United States, says it is impossible for pearls to breed or increase in size after once taken from the shell.

"Such legends have been rife in the Orient for centuries," said Dr. Kunz. "But investigation has always proved them false. Baroque pearls are made up of a number of smaller pearls and sometimes some of these smaller pearls become detached from the composite group, and lead credulous persons to believe that the pearls have increased in number. Pearls are among the most expensive and valuable gems, but the world will have to continue to depend upon the oyster for its supply."

WATCH GOOD COMPASS TO FIND WAY IN WOODS

Port Arthur, June 24.—What would you do to find your way if you were lost in a forest without a compass? said Armstrong, sportsman's representative of the Canadian National Railway at Cochrane, Ont., in the heart of the summer tourist camping and fishing country, asked the question. How would you tell north from south, east from west? Remember that in the summer months the sun does not rise in the east or set in the west. How, then, would you orientate yourself? It's easy if you know how.

"Lay your watch flat, face upward," said Armstrong. "Point the hour hand at the sun. The south will be at a point half way between the hour hand and the figure 12 as the hands turn in the morning, and backward in the afternoon."

So if you go after muskellunge this summer in the Rainy River or Lake of the Woods region, be certain to take your watch with you.

EVER GERMS, DORMANT 48 YEARS, AGAIN ACTIVE Rochester, N. Y., June 24.—A case of scarlet fever in Fairville, a short time ago, has attracted no end of discussion in Wayne County, as to the possibility of germs transmitting the disease after a period of isolation reaching back nearly half a century.

The case occurred on the Welcher farm. It appears that after a partition in the upper part of the dwelling had been removed in the making of alterations, one of the children came down with scarlet fever. The parents and physician were completely mystified as to how the boy had contracted the disease, since he had not been away from the premises in some time.

The other day, an elderly neighbor recalled that about 48 years ago a son Abram Du Bois, 3 years old, died in the identical room of the farmhouse, and that he suffered from scarlet fever. There had been no changes made in the upper part of the dwelling in all these years.

Convict Patiently Cut Hole Through Piece of Steel. Rawlins, Wyo., June 24.—With a needle obtained in the prison shirt factory as his only tool, Bert Lofton has escaped from the state prison here. William Smith, his companion, was captured while trying to scale the prison wall.

Lofton and Smith were confined to the death house cell because of their known desperate character. Lofton found that a soft piece of steel covered a drain. With his great patience and skill he slowly cut a hole through the steel with the needle. After removing a pipe and of the prison, sealed the tiers of cells, cut holes through the plate roof and dropped to the ground. In the prison yard they found a steel bar, which the prisoners bent into a hook to fasten an improvised rope on the prison wall.

NO CONTEST RIVALS INTERNATIONAL YACHT RACE IN INTEREST

World's Series of Baseball and International Polo Fall Far Behind.

SPEND IMMENSE SUMS Lay Mind Astonished At Tremendous Outlay Needed To Defend Battered Piece of Silver.

NEW YORK, June 25.—It is an undisputed fact that one of the most important events in the world of sports is an international yacht race. The America's cup and other forms of sports, but few of these events create more interest than the contest for the America's cup, a ribbon of the sea. What creates the enthusiasm on the part of millions of people who come from all over the world to witness the race is the fact that it is the only one of its kind.

The only solution to the mystery lies in the fact that the money is not spent in the way of "gate receipts." Again, once the series is ended, the money is not spent in the way of "gate receipts." Again, once the series is ended, the money is not spent in the way of "gate receipts."

When Commodore Stevens and his associates originally gave the "100 guineas cup" to the New York Yacht Club to be a perpetual trophy for international racing, they never dreamed that a race for the bit of silver would cost a fortune. The ever increasing cost is just the result of circumstances.

It was in the fall of 1851, after that unsuccessful attempt, that the officials of the New York Yacht Club first began to consider the possibility of building a new boat to defend the trophy. It was the first time that a yacht had been built for the purpose, and the cost of construction, added to the cost of the race, during the trial period and with the incidental expense to the club of managing the contest, amounted to $20,000.

Both the Genesta and the Galatea were built especially to race for the cup. The former came in 1855, and in that year the heavy expense of defence began, although the beginning of the matter of small importance compared with the expense of today. The cost of the building of Puritan in 1855, added to the cost of her management for the season figured up to about $25,000. It cost almost as much for the building and operating of Puritan. Puritan's unsuccessful rival.

Mayflower cost $12,000 to race in 1856. The club's expense and the management of the race was about $2,000 more. The second boat built in 1856 by a syndicate of members of the Atlantic Yacht Club at the probable cost of $30,000. This boat was called the Atlantic and subsequently was sold to a yachtman for a considerable part of her cost. Still it was "found money" for her original owners.

The Scotch challenger, and the American defender, Volunteer, "set back" their respective owners about $50,000 each, when they raced in 1857. The New York Yacht Club had an expense of nearly $3,000 in the management of that series of races. The real heavy expense of defending the cup began in 1893, the year Lord Dunraven issued his first challenge. In that year four candidates for the honor of defending the trophy were built. Vigilant finally was chosen. It was stated that after the series that Vigilant cost something like $150,000 to build and race. This sum was reduced to possibly $100,000 by the sale of the yacht after the races to George and Howard Gould. Columbia, Jubilee and Pilgrim, three American boats, cost about $250,000, making an overhead cost of at least $350,000 for the defence of the cup that year.

In 1895 the New York Yacht Club spent $200,000 to build and race Defender. At that time there was only one boat built in 1895 this series was not as costly as the previous contest, still Defender was the first cup boat for which there was practically no use after the series. These astounding sums, however, are insignificant when compared with the amounts that have been spent since Sir Thomas Lipton entered the international racing in 1899. According to reliable information, Sir Thomas spent $900,000 in his first attempt to capture America's cup. That was in 1899. That sum included $400,000 that Sir Thomas spent in the building of the steam yacht that he re-named the Erin, and another $100,000 to re-fit the boat. This Baron de Hirsch used until the world war started, when he gave it to the British Government and she was torpedoed in the Mediterranean. Dedicating the sum that Sir Thomas spent for the Erin, the cost of the 1899 race left the Irishman out of pocket $400,000 after his first attempt to lift the cup.

put her into commission as a trial boat. She finally was selected to defend the trophy for what honor, Commodore Morgan paid close to $100,000. The club spent a good $30,000 on the series, making a grand total of more than $400,000 for the race. By that time, the contest had become a million-dollar affair. In 1902, Sir Thomas built the third Shamrock. He also brought the first Shamrock over as a trial boat. That year the Irish baronet was his first big armada anchored in American waters. Besides the racing yachts, he had a steaming tugboat, steam launches and a steam yacht. When he went back home his bank account was shy $600,000. The cost of the defence that year was equally as much. The Reliance was a tender, and was built and raced at a cost of $450,000. The Columbia and the Constitution were put into commission as trial yachts. To maintain these another $100,000 was spent. The race itself cost the club $25,000. The total outlay for the defence, therefore, figured up to $550,000. That race saw the million-dollar mark passed by a good margin.

At the end of the series, all hands agreed that America's cup race was a trophy too costly for honor. Commodore Morgan had been so successful in his defence that he could not afford to defend it. There was no challenge for several years. It was not until 1911 that the "bee" again, after a long period of several impossible challenges, a race was held for the honor of defending the cup. Remembering the cost of the 1903 race, both Sir Thomas and the New York Yacht Club were willing to race with smaller boats than the big 100 footers, with which the Irishman formerly sailed for the cup. It was decided that the yachts had to be limited to 75 feet on the water-line. All believed that the move would bring down the cost of the race. Unfortunately, the best-laid plans of mice and men often go awry. The race, that promised to be less expensive than those of former years, has already cost more than any other contest, and it has not yet been sailed. The delay is caused by the war, of course, is the principal reason why the fourth attempt of Sir Thomas has proved to be so costly. Regardless of the size of the yachts, the race would have been a fairly expensive proposition had it been sailed when originally scheduled in 1914. First, three yachts were built in the United States for the honor of defending the trophy. Resolute originally cost $120,000. Another $100,000 has been spent on the construction of the other two yachts built in 1914, did not cost so much as the other two. Vanitie still is in the game, and since she first was built, it is safe to say that almost another $100,000 has been spent on the craft.

The figures do not include the sums that have been spent to race these yachts in 1914-15, and so far this season. Also when one adds in the storage bills that have been paid to keep the craft since 1914, to say nothing of the expense that the New York Yacht Club will have to meet to hold the race in July with ocean-going tugs worth $200,000 a day, and a crew of $75 and $100 a few years ago, it is evident that more than $1,000,000 will be expended by America in yachting in the present defence of the trophy.

Sir Thomas Lipton also will spend close to $1,000,000 in his present effort to lift the cup. First, there was the original cost of the Shamrock IV, which can be had for $100,000. Then came the trip across the Atlantic under convoy by the Erin. When she reached this country, the yacht was stored away in Brooklyn. This also cost a tidy sum. Then came the rebuilding of the craft, a matter that has something set the Irishman back another $50,000.

Now comes the 23-meter Shamrock to race against the other two in round figures, it costs at least $3,000 a day to keep the two yachts in commission. At present the Erin has a houseboat, a steam yacht, a tug, and a motorboat all under charter. If it will cost more than $1,000,000 to have another try for the cup, then some of the best judges of yachting are of the opinion that it is safe to say that before the races are decided, $2,000,000 will be spent by the challenger and the defender of the America's Cup.

JELLY FISH MODEL FOR T. B. PATIENTS "Rest and Relax." Gen. Edwards Tells War Victims. Rutland, Mass., June 24.—"You can go to bed and eat your heart out, curl up and quit, and the disease is the master. The effort should be to jelly-fish with one idea in mind: 'I am going to get well.'"

Remember that the slacker and the drone don't usually get tuberculosis. These words were sent from a letter by Major General Clarence R. Edwards, U. S. A., in The Outlook, the weekly sheet gotten out by the students at the New England Vocational School at Rutland. These students are all veterans of the world war afflicted by tuberculosis. The general gives the story of "the fight of my life."

"I was for nine months in the Army Tuberculosis Hospital at Fort Bayard, New Mexico. I had laryngeal tuberculosis of the worst kind. I did those things that that great expert, Colonel Bushnell, told me to do for nine months, and it was the fight of my life, and it took me sixteen days to learn to be a jelly-fish. "He would make me lie down, or when I was continually in bed, he would tell me an hour before luncheon and an hour before dinner to shut my eyes and make my mind a blank, if I couldn't sleep to just rest and relax, and then when the food came it all went to energy. This was in 1916 when I was discharged as well."

CHARGES GOVT. HELPED RIOTERS TO GET ARMS

Griffith Says Government Servants in Plans For Londonderry Trouble.

DUBLIN, June 24.—Arthur Griffith, vice-president of the Sinn Fein organization, having charged that the Londonderry riots were planned in collusion with Government servants, and that Carsonite volunteers were given facilities to send arms to Londonderry, and were provided with money for this purpose. Dublin Castle tonight issued a detailed contradiction of all of Mr. Griffith's charges. The contradiction declared that the Irish Government had no reason to believe that any servant of the Government had assisted either section to the controversy to obtain arms, and that if such were the case the Government would deal with the offenders with the utmost severity.

OIL BARGE BLOWS UP; MAN ENVELOPED IN FLAMES IS DROWNED

Collyer Carroll, Returned Soldier, Jumps Into River Following Explosion.

SARNIA, June 24.—Collyer Carroll, a returned soldier, aged 24, is dead as a result of the blowing up tonight of the oil barge Calbert, owned by the Canadian Oil Company, Limited, from some unknown cause. The barge was moored at Froomefield on the St. Clair River, south of this city, and was being unloaded when the explosion took place between 6 and 7 p.m. Immediately following the explosion Carroll, who was on the deck of the barge at the time, was seen to be enveloped in the flames, his oil-soaked clothing having ignited instantly. From the blaze which followed the blow-up, he was seen to throw himself into the water, but his body did not reappear, nor has any trace of it been found. It is believed that Carroll could swim.

HELENE'S MARRIED LIFE

BY MAY CHRISTIE
Copyright, 1920, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate
CVII.—Word From Alice.

There are times and recollections that are too beautiful to write about. And so I shall not dwell upon the topic of our second honeymoon. I heard nothing of Alice, her false friend Tony, or her country neighbor, Travis Lloyd. At times I felt curiously guilty over my neglect of Alice, considering the promise I had given her husband.

But on one's honeymoon, one is excused for sins of omission, surely. Besides, I was afraid of meeting Alice. I was frightened of the revelations she might make. Knowing her intensely inquisitive disposition, I felt certain she would follow up the track of my previous marriage, until she'd sifted the whole thing to the very bottom.

Before meeting Alice, then, I must tell the truth to Jim. I must wake up that sleeping memory of his.

But, desperately, I wanted recollection to come back to him without my help. As each day brought new strength, surely the mind, too, would be strengthened; so that the few weeks before his accident would be revealed again to him.

Sometimes I skirted round the edge of the idea, timidly. For instance: "Jim," I said one, "didn't you tell me that I reminded you of some girl you once knew?"

He gave a happy laugh. He leaned back in his chair, and blew a ring of smoke up to the ceiling. "Poof! That old idea!" He smiled at me. "As though I could possibly compare you now to any other girl, Helene."

Each time I broached the subject Jim dismissed it with a wave of his hand. "There isn't room in my life for any other girl, dear heart!" And for the time being, that sufficed me.

On the ninth morning after our wedding day, I had a note from Alice. It was a conciliatory little note, intending to be friendly. She apologized for her rudeness in the park. She hadn't meant to annoy us, Jim and me—but it was Tony's fault. Tony had assured her that I had made a secret marriage some months previously. She'd seen him that very morning, and got the news, and her mind had been full of it when strolling in the park. Therefore, running into the subject of her thoughts, she couldn't keep silent. Her curiosity had got the better of her. Would I forgive her, please? I smiled over Alice's effusion. It was so typical of her.

In a postscript, she informed me that Tony had given her back her diamond bracelet, and they were friends once more.

"You and I are always misjudging the poor boy," she wrote. "He's not such a very black sheep, after all."

I folded up Alice's epistle and put it back into its envelope. "Pervertently I trusted that Jim wouldn't ask its contents, or demand to see it. There are husbands of the prying sort, I know. But my Jim wasn't one of them, thank heaven!"

Two days later, we were sitting on the porch of the cottage, awaiting the arrival of the evening paper, and watching an adorable sunset. The troubles of life seemed very far away.

LLOYD GEORGE GIVES PROMISE OF REFORM IN HOUSE OF LORDS

LONDON, June 24.—(Canadian Associated Press.)—Premier Lloyd George, answering questions in the House of Commons today, said the Government intended to undertake the reform of the House of Lords during the present parliament.

Germany would be invited to join the League of Nations when she showed a desire to fulfill the peace treaty obligations.

Several questions regarding the fate of the Kaiser were put, and to one of her thoughts, she couldn't keep silent. Her curiosity had got the better of her. Would I forgive her, please? I smiled over Alice's effusion. It was so typical of her.

For a "Great Vacation"

try the Great Lakes Trip by Canadian Pacific Steamer

FOR when the mercury is playing around in the upper eighties, and you wish Henry Ford would invent a self-refrigerating collar, do you ever stop to remember that the temperature of Lake Superior never rises above 40 degrees? What if you don't spare the time for a long holiday? The Canadian Pacific Railway's Clyde-built steamships make a five-day trip from Port McNicoll to Fort William and back, during which you can be as cool as an Eskimo and as comfortable as a clubman.

Roomy cabins, the best of chefs—oh, those broiled Lake Superior whitefish!—tea on deck under the lazy awnings—seagulls against the long, northern sunset—and a breeze from a thousand miles of clean pine woods, on duty twenty-four hours in the day.

Then—if you find you've got more time than you counted on—how about a week on the Nipigon River, forty miles from Fort William, with guides, canoes, and camp fires and white water under the moon—and more speckled trout than you know what to do with?

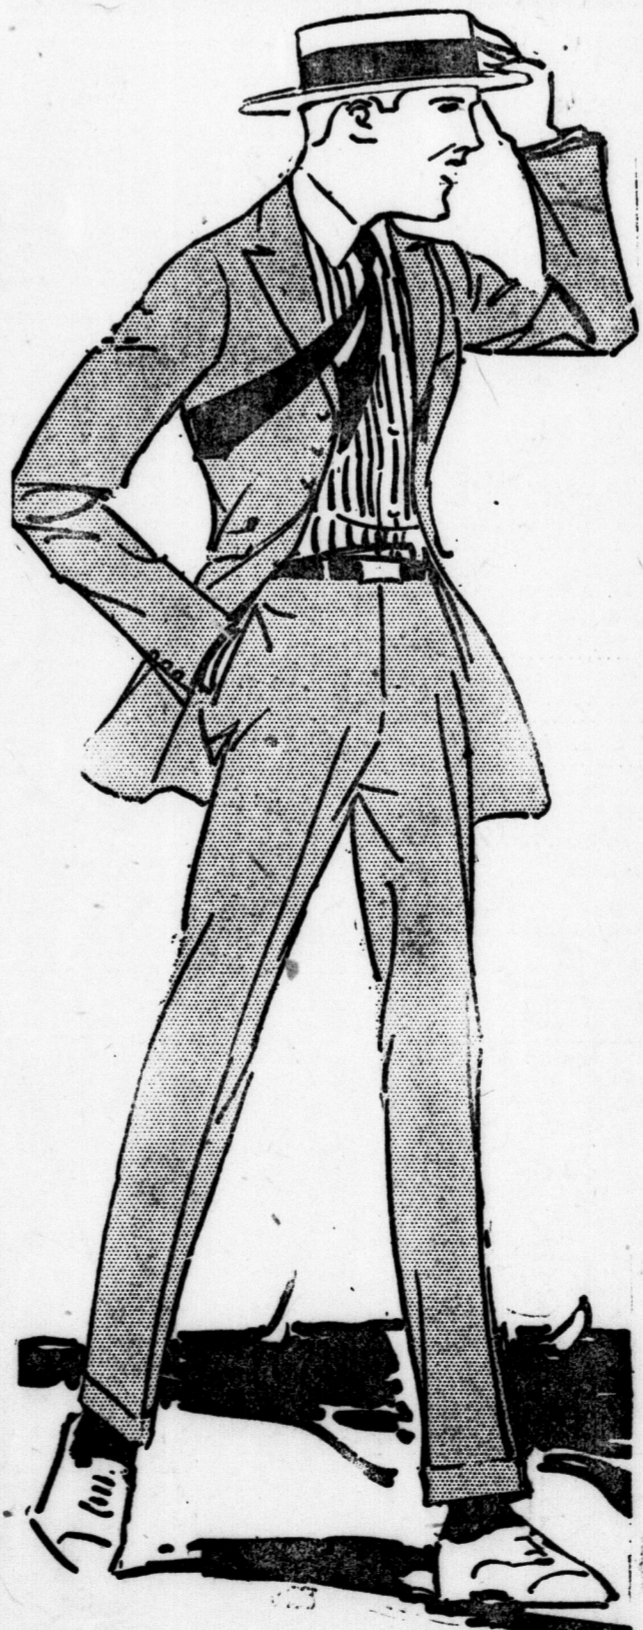

How do you get there? That's easy. Phone, write, or see any Canadian Pacific Ticket Agent; or

BLAMES BORDEN FOR HINDERING COMMERCE BOARD

Commissioner Murdock, in Tendering His Resignation, Scores Union Government Methods—Serious Charge Against Robson.

OTTAWA, June 24.—(By Canadian Press.)—James Murdock, labor commissioner on the Board of Commerce of Canada, tendered his resignation to the prime minister tonight. This leaves the board without a commissioner, and may mean that the board will have to be abandoned. Hon. H. A. Robson and W. F. O'Connor, K.C., both have left the board to take up other work.

In his letter to the premier, Mr. Murdock makes serious charges against Judge Robson, who was chairman of the board until last April. A letter to Judge Robson from J. H. Hugg, counsel for the Crescent Creamery Company, concerning the investigation of that firm's operations by the board, is quoted. Mr. Murdock's letter to the prime minister is dated today, and reads as follows:

"Supplementing my letters of June 17 and 18, and our brief discussion of board of commerce questions June 17, 21 and 23, I hereby resign my position as a member of the Board of Commerce of Canada, to take effect this date.

Not to Complete It.
"My understanding of your position, as gathered from conferences with you, and from the fact that no appointments have been made, is that it is not the intention to complete the personnel of the board by appointment at this time, nor until the privy council has passed upon the status of the act under which the board works. This would appear to me inconsiderate of the rights of the consumers of Canada. There is much work to be done that the board can do with the sympathetic co-operation of the Government, which the board has not heretofore had. If the board is not to be permitted to do the many things waiting to be done in preventing profiteering and regulating combines against the public interest, it would, as stated in my letter of June 17 and 18, appear to be improper that I should merely draw salary. I have been handicapped for months without a chairman, and a proper staff, and I am not going to be a party to making a joke of the law with one commissioner alone on the board without quorum authority. The people of Canada expect service for salary, even although your cabinet does not."

Reasons For Resignation.
"The reasons for my resignation given in this form (which I appreciate as you and others will, as unusual—in fact, possibly unheard of), can be summed up as briefly as possible, and yet at considerable length, as follows:
"I am convinced, first, that the majority of the cabinet of which you are the honored leader, are not and have never been in sympathy with the provisions and intent of the board of commerce act and of the combines and fair prices act.
"Second, that your advisors only recommended to Parliament the passage of these acts as a result of a temporary alarm incident to the Winnipeg strike and other strenuous demonstrations when the means of controlling profiteers.
"Third, that as soon as the board of commerce act and the combines and fair prices act were made law by the Parliament of Canada, honorable gentlemen prominent in the councils of the day and members of your cabinet at once began to undertake to minimize to such an extent as possible, what they believed to be the unnecessary and unfair provisions of these two acts when applied to the businesses of those for whom these honorable gentlemen had doubtless first regards.

Recorded as Safe.
"Fourth, that the chairman appointed by your Government to the board of commerce, the Hon. H. A. Robson, certain interests as being safe and sane in conserving to Canadian manufacturers and business interests the generally unrestricted leeway heretofore enjoyed by such interests in the taking of profits, determined alone by the so-called market price and governed by any demand for the goods in full sympathy with high prices and against low prices, as he stated in his letter to Sir George Foster, of February 23.
"Fifth, that during the 145 days that I was associated with the chairman a number of this board he spent more time in Winnipeg or en route to or returning from Winnipeg in looking after his private affairs, than he did looking after board of commerce matters, and that even during the few days, December 8 to 12—which the entire board spent in Winnipeg, he was engaged in his private affairs, while the remainder of the board held hearings of the court alone.
"Sixth, that when Mr. B. Hugg, representing the Crescent Creamery Company, Limited, Winnipeg, felt that he had already on file evidence in some scores of cases of such agreements, not all of these are reasonable or proper, it should not be left to the unfettered will of the businesses interested to fix prices on necessities of life. A board of commerce is needed here.
"Seventh, that the chairman has fastened himself on the production and distribution of certain essential articles of food, such as canned fruits, have introduced systems of merchandising which are injurious to the consumer, and prevent fair competition. A body is required with power to supervise such commerce and prohibit unfair practices.
"Eighth, that the chairman has taken unfair and excessive profits are being taken by textile manufacturers, cement companies and other large concerns. It is in the public interest that these investigations thus begun be not stopped at this point, but be continued by a properly qualified board of commerce.
"Not Only Commodity.

this board's requests for information and that only the public challenge to your cabinet placed in the newspapers by the board of commerce prevented the textile firms from being relieved of the requests for data made by this board.

Later Records Show.
"Fifteenth, that later records show that the textile manufacturers had ample reason to struggle desperately to prevent the true facts from being known to this board, and that if this board could have secured the assistance desired, a statement of the facts and figures disclosed, followed by an order as the result of the analysis of the statements of affairs sent to this board, would have started and incensed the Canadian public beyond anything that has developed in recent months. This information is still due to the Canadian people when your cabinet renders the ordinary and reasonable assistance necessary to present it.

Measure To Extend Control of Wheat is Given First Reading

Mackenzie King Objects To Government Keeping Back Such Important Legislation To Be Rushed Through At End of Session.

OTTAWA, June 24.—Thomas V. Mackenzie King, Liberal member from Lotbiniere, proved a warm advocate of the Government's shipbuilding assistance program, when debate on that measure was resumed in committee this evening. Mr. Mackenzie declared he had recently returned from France, and that millions of dollars worth of orders for ships would come from France to Canadian yards if this assistance was given. He said that Britain had been subsidizing shipping lines in order to build up her great mercantile marine, and he believed that in the plans it had outlined, the Canadian Government had made sure of ample security for the money it proposed to advance.

Three other Liberals, D. D. McKenzie (Cape Breton), W. J. Jacobs (George Etienne Cartier) and W. D. Euler (North Waterloo), following Mr. Mackenzie, condemned the proposed assistance. The former declared it was without precedent since Confederation. Messrs. Jacobs and Euler protested against aid being given to shipyards and denied to wheat mills or furniture factories. Mr. Euler thought the members were entitled to increased indemnities before this money was given to foreigners.

Extend Wheat Board.
The afternoon and early evening was devoted to a discussion of the resolution to extend the life of the Canadian Wheat Board until the immediately succeeding prorogation of the next parliament. Sir George Foster explained that he purposely hoped the Government would be necessary to continue the board for another year, but if control of buying was continued in Europe and the Government thought it necessary to continue control of marketing in Canada, it was desirable to have the board in its hands to continue the board in operation.

Referring to the participation certificates issued by the wheat board, Sir George said these were worth at least 40 cents per bushel, despite the fact that some people had been stammering into giving certificates and some would be redeemed, he thought, within the next month; all before the end of the present year, he said. The board was made up of practical men, to whom he had never dictated as to how they should run a business. The report of the amount of wheat and flour handled had been made, but Sir George said that comparatively little of the 1919 wheat crop remained to be disposed of.

Mackenzie King Protests.
Hon. Mackenzie King protested against the Government's delay in the session. He suggested that the Government amend its legislation so that it would not be placed in the same position as the board of commerce in decisions questioned. The date of the legislation was also indefinite and should be made clear.

H. H. Stevens (Vancouver), A. B. McColl (West Kent), Hon. J. K. Keenan (Halifax), Solon (Huntingdon), and D. D. McKenzie opposed the bill. Hon. T. A. Creager, leader of the Progressives, and Hon. J. H. Ross, leader of the Farmers, were not present. The resolution was given first reading.

To Assist Shipbuilding.
In committee on the bill to assist shipbuilders, Sir Henry Drayton explained that the total amount of money to be loaned under the measure was limited to $20,000,000. A. B. McColl (Halifax) and Wm. Duff (Oshawa) urged that the aid be extended to all classes of shipyards and to all sizes of vessels and not restricted to yards building steel ships over 3,000 tons. Hon. C. C. Ballantyne declared that shipbuilders did not want wooden ships, nor did they want steel ships less than 3,000 tons.

Sir Henry Drayton moved an amendment to provide that 25 per cent of the purchase price must be paid in cash before any notes were issued. The Government would also see that the balance of the purchase price was arranged for.

The amendment carried.
Hon. Wm. Duff moved to amend clause one to provide for aid for both steel and wooden vessels and to strike out the minimum of 3,000 tons.
Would Not Order.
Hon. C. C. Ballantyne declared the amendment was not supported in England, France and the United States had more wooden ships now than they wanted. They would not place orders for small vessels.
The Duff amendment was defeated on a standing vote, 22 to 18. A Government majority of 21. The Progressives voted with the Opposition.
Mr. Duff then submitted another amendment to keep the vessel on which loan was made under Canadian registry until the debt was discharged. This was also defeated on division and the bill was carried.
The shipbuilding bill was reported at 1:10 a.m. and stands for third reading at the next sitting of the House.

provision of the next session of Parliament, he said, he would not support it. He thought it would be wise to make it more definite.

Emphatic Protest.
H. H. Stevens of Vancouver entered an emphatic protest against any compromise of the principle of "nationalism" displayed in the resolution. If this was merely an enabling bill, amendment to the Canada grain act would have served the purpose. This was a positive measure, which would prove of no assistance to the country in shaking off the spirit of control so prevalent in war-time.

In Allied and neutral countries, said Mr. Stevens, wheat control had been simply a matter of abolishing the principle of absolute control of business amounting to $500,000,000 was placed in the hands of three men. They had managed to make a success of it, selling always on a rising market. There was no assistance to the farmer, who would not fall in the near future. He had no objection to farmers getting the all they could for their wheat, but he failed to see why the Government should protect them from all risk. The Government owed as much consideration to the consumers of the country as it did to the farmer.

Why Not Everything?
A. B. McColl (Kent) also strongly opposed the continuation of the wheat board from consumers, millers and farmers in his constituency protesting against continuation of the board. The Government wanted to regulate the sale of wheat, why not regulate everything connected with the farm? Hon. A. K. MacLean expressed himself as being absolutely opposed to the resolution. He could see no reason for continuing the wheat board, and thought it would be an unwise step for the Government to take.

One Thing in Support.
Mr. Gould declared the one thing in support of the continuation of the wheat board was that under it the farmers who lived 20 miles or so from from a railway had the same facilities in regard to securing cars for shipment of their grain as did the more favorably situated farmer. There was also no danger, under the wheat board, of favored parties getting the wheat, and the farmers were available. On these grounds he favored the continuation of the board.

H. C. Hookin, Toronto, favored continuing the board, and would go further and make it a permanent institution, because it checked gambling in foodstuffs.
D. D. McKenzie of North Cape Breton asked why wheat should be controlled, and not corn or steel. Most of all industries had to learn that they must depend upon themselves for marketing their products, now that the war was ended. If corners were engineered they would soon right themselves. He would let prices find their own level, instead of letting the wheat board exercise control.

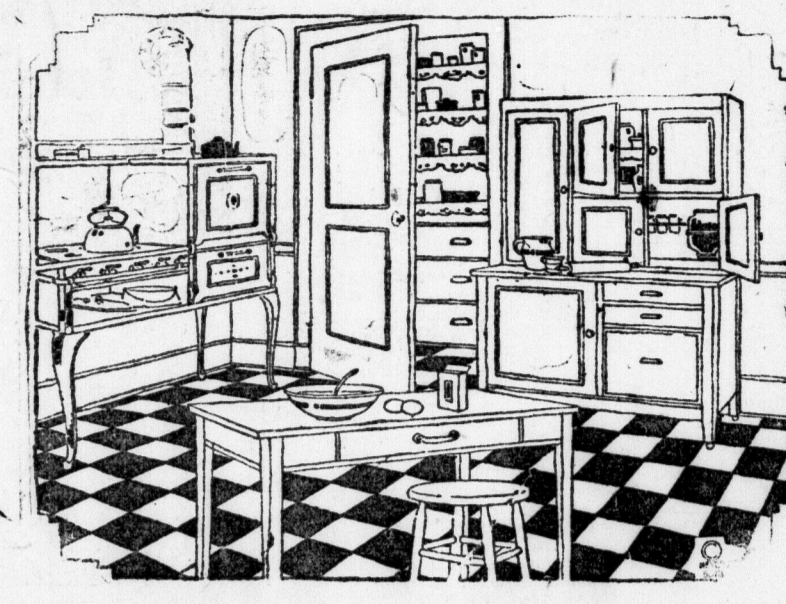

The House adjourned at 1:25 a.m.

WILL CASE LIKELY TO GO TO PRIVY COUNCIL

HAMILTON, June 24.—Miss Lottie Sheehan's claim for $10,000 against the Edmund Brown estate will probably go to the privy council. The case was heard in the supreme court nearly two years ago, when Miss Sheehan got judgment. The Mercantile Trust Company succeeded in upsetting the decision in the appellate division. Miss Sheehan appealed to the supreme court, which sustained the appellate division. The plaintiff was employed by Brown as housekeeper and private secretary.

GAVE HIMSELF UP.

WINDSOR, June 24.—Provincial License Inspectors Connor and Sykes were startled today, when Joseph Montfortin of Petticoat walked into their quarters and frankly admitted he had sold 153 cases of liquor in four days, and later pleaded guilty in police court to a charge of a breach of the Ontario temperance act. On account of his voluntary action, his advanced age, and the fact that he is a cripple, he was spared the maximum fine. He paid $1,200 and costs. Edmund Lelain, Sandwich West, who admitted selling 160 cases, paid $1,000 and costs.

POISONED LETTUCE SUSPECTED CAUSE OF DEATH OF MRS. GILL

Inquest Today Adjourned Till July 8 For Completion of Analysis.

DETECTIVE ON CASE

Mystery Still Surrounds Death and Sickness Following Supper.

CAYUGA, June 24.—The inquest which opened today at York on the death of Mrs. Robert Gill of Seneca Township, who died suddenly on Sunday evening, shortly after partaking of supper, was at the request of the crown, adjourned till Thursday, July 8, to allow a completion of the analysis of the stomach and contents which were sent to Toronto following the post-mortem examination on Monday.

Detectives Called In. Coroner Dr. Snider of Cayuga presided. Crown Attorney Harrison Arrell of Caledonia stated that the case had been placed in the hands of Detective Miller of Toronto. A burial certificate has been issued.

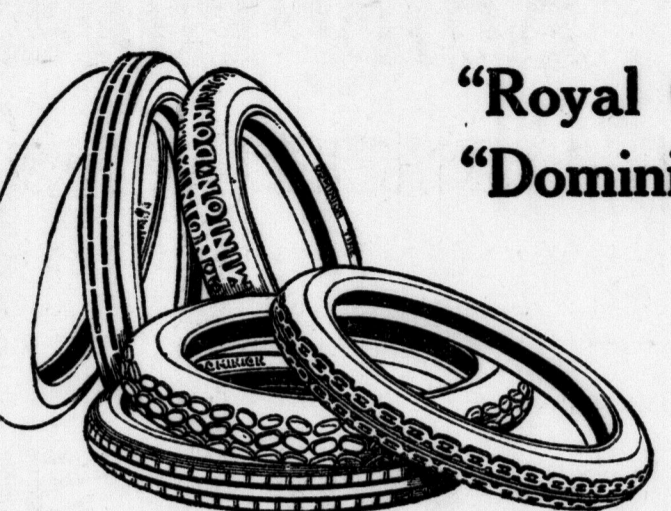

Poisoned Lettuce? Several theories supposed to account for the death of Mrs. Gill and the sickness from which her husband suffered at the same time are common, but that most generally accepted by people of the district is that Mrs. Gill's death was caused by eating lettuce which had been heavily sprayed with a poisonous mixture to destroy insect pests.

Cox is both able and popular; he would probably poll a larger vote than McAdoo, who has aroused opposition among the business interests of the country. If there is a deadlock at San Francisco a 'dark horse' may be nominated. John W. Davis has been mentioned as a possibility. Senator Underwood, of Alabama, although he comes from the 'Solid South,' would make an ideal president"—thus the Birmingham Age Herald presents a bird's-eye view of the situation at San Francisco. And these are not the only men who have a chance, according to the American press.

Should there be a strong provision in the platform indorsing the League of Nations, with or without reservations? Should the platform contain a "wet" or a "dry" plank? Should there be an appeal to the labor vote? In THE LITERARY DIGEST for this week, June 26th, the Democratic platform and the various planks that it should contain, as proposed by Democratic editors, is discussed, as well as a summary of the chances for nomination of various men who have been put forward.

PUSHED ACCELERATOR INSTEAD OF BRAKE; SMASHED WINDOW

Mistake of Owner of New Car Cause of Accident.

WOODS FOCK, June 24.—Fred Shelington, an Oxford county farmer, stepped on the accelerator of his car instead of on the brake this morning and plunged over the street and through the large front window of Gallagher & Lester's Garage. Shelington had just bought the car and was not thoroughly acquainted with its mechanism. Mr. Gallagher and his bookkeeper were in the office, and although shattered glass fell all about them they were not injured. A little girl in the car was wounded on the forehead with a piece of flying glass. Miss Mary Way, who for the past year has been manager of the local G. N. W. telegraph office, has been transferred to the branch at Sarnia, where she will have complete charge. She is succeeded here by J. C. McKinley of Orillia. The death occurred this forenoon of Catherine E. Patterson, widow of the late Peter Patterson, and mother of J. D. Patterson. She had been seriously ill for about four weeks and was in her 86th year. She was born at Thornhill in 1830 and her husband came to Woodstock. Her husband predeceased her in 1905. She is survived by two sons, Alfred S. of Melbourne, Australia, and John E. of Woodstock. Colony of Fifty Refugees in England, Want To Form a Community.

LONDON, June 24.—(Canadian Associated Press)—Fifty men and women refugees from Petrograd, mostly husbands and wives, are just now lodged in a London poor law institution and are desirous of going together to Canada to form a community. The foreign office has approached the Canadian authorities, intimating that if the Dominion is willing to accept them, the imperial authorities would assist them towards becoming established. These people are British subjects bearing such common surnames as Millington, Johnson, Smith, etc., but owing to their perpetual residence in Russia many cannot speak a word of English. Because of their extreme desire to form a community among themselves, it is understood that the Canadian authorities are hesitating about receiving them. This unfortunate folk talk largely, and doubtless sincerely, about possessing rubles in hundreds, which in the present state of Russian currency amounts to their being really penniless.

PROTEST SALES TAX ON PUBLIC UTILITIES

OTTAWA, June 24.—(Canadian Press)—Protesting against the 2 per cent tax on sales, on the ground that their rates were fixed and they had, therefore, no opportunity of passing on the tax to the consumer, a strong deputation from Montreal, Ottawa and other cities, placed the case of public utilities corporations before Sir Henry Drayton, minister of finance, today. The deputation was introduced by Senator Beaulieu and P. Wanklin of the Canadian Pacific Railway. They protested that public utilities corporations were on a different basis to private companies who could make the tax a direct charge when they sold direct to the consumer. The minister promised that their representations would receive the consideration of himself and the Government.

POLICE HOLD CROWD WHEN CRIPPLES SEEK HICKSON, THE HEALER

Hundreds Seek Admission To Toronto Cathedral During Mission.

Toronto, June 24.—Several hundred people, some crippled, others weak and sick, and many simply curious, waited at the doors of St. James' Cathedral today for an interview with James Moore Hickson, the "miraculous" religious healer, who has come to the city with a reputation, and with the sanction of the Anglican Church, for religious treatment of disorders, particularly disorders of the mind. Some of them had come in ambulances, automobiles and trains from far distant points, to try to find relief from their ailments, and many were accompanied by nurses and relatives.

So great was the press for admission to the big cathedral that the police had to take the crowd in hand. Admission was by ticket, and there were pathetic cases of people who had not obtained a ticket. Included in the gathering were several crippled or otherwise indisposed soldiers of the great war, some of them in wheelchairs and accompanied by army nurses.

Motive and Meaning.
Mr. Hickson gave an interesting account of the motive and meaning of the healing mission at the close of which he had completely organized the assembly into a gradually swelling belief. When he closed his address with a short prayer the audience was with him. Aged women on the street were softly weeping. Men and women all over the cathedral were bending on their knees frankly shedding tears.

In his address Mr. Hickson said: "This is not my mission, but yours. You will get out of it only what you put into it of faith and belief in the ancient and unchanging powers of a present and living Jesus. Spiritual healing centres around the person of Jesus. There is only one healer. And as Christians we must believe in the powers Jesus Himself has claimed. Nothing New in Message.
"There is nothing new in my message. It is just the old story of Jesus and his love. I hope to revive the healing power of the ministry of Jesus on earth. I do not mean that spiritual healing should take the place of medical healing, but I do say that there is only one healer and that is Jesus. God created doctors, God created chemicals and put the healing power into medicines. Science did not create them. But surely if the world ever needed more than medical healing it is today."

Sarnia Wholesalers Declare There is Plenty of Preserving Sugar.

SARNIA, June 24.—Sarnia's early closing bylaw that has attracted attention throughout the Dominion had another inning in police court today, when for a technical breach of the bylaw Police Magistrate Gorman suspended sentence on White & Sons, butchers, after they had paid $5 and costs.

According to White's version a hungry boy came into the butcher shop and asked for Bologna. It was given him and when he left the counter was found lying on the floor, which was rung up in the till just as an officer of the law entered.

MAN HELD AT SARNIA NOT SMALL'S SECRETARY

Is Held on Vagrancy Charge While Authorities Make Investigations.

SARNIA, June 24.—While the identity of the man held by the local police is still a mystery, it is announced tonight that at an interview with Police Chief Forbes and the man in detention, it was established by John Myers, a local theatre owner, that the man held here is not John Doughty, A. J. Small's secretary.

The arrest of the man, who states that his name is P. H. Anderson, and his address 349 Irving Place, Schenectady, New York, was the result of a letter received by Chief of Police Forbes, which stated that Doughty was known to have crossed from the United States at this port and was now in Sarnia.

LETTER FROM MRS. WAKELIN

Tells Remarkable Story of Sickness and Recovery.

Toronto, Ont.—'I suffered greatly from weakness, seemed to be tired all the time, and had no ambition to do anything or go any place. My nerves were in a bad shape, I could not sleep at night, and then came a breakdown. I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspapers and several of my friends advised me to use it, and it surely put new life into me. Now I am quite able to do all my own work, and I would strongly advise every suffering woman to give Lydia E. Why Have 'Millbanks' Become So Popular?

Because every introduction leads to lasting friendship. It is a case of 'love at first smoking.' One smoker offers 'MILLBANKS' to a friend. The friend is delighted with these mild, fragrant Virginia Cigarettes and buys a package for himself. This is happening many times a day in every section of Canada. The reason is easy to find.

MILLBANK VIRGINIA CIGARETTES

have the delightful, distinctive flavour of ripe, mellow, sun-cured Virginia tobacco—coupled with the richness and satisfying qualities found only in the highest grade leaf at its best.

The fact that the price is 15c for 10 is simply an additional reason for preferring 'MILLBANKS.'

FORMER PASTOR OF LONDON IS HONORED

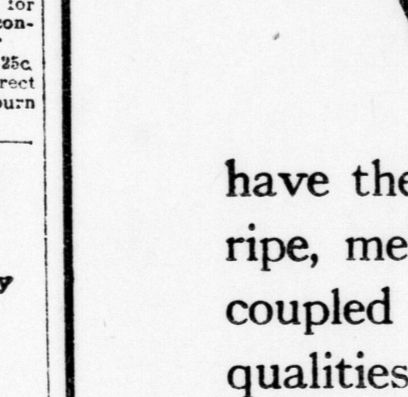

MONTREAL, June 24.—The Rev. Dr. Robert Johnston of Montreal, on the occasion of his leaving the pastorate of the American Presbyterian Church, this city, was presented yesterday with the construction with a purse of $11,000. Dr. Johnston's pastorate has extended over 16 years.

FROM A CHILD WAS CONSTIPATED

According to the best medical authorities, fully three-fourths of the people of the civilized world suffer in some form from constiveness or irregular action of the bowels. There is no doubt that many distressing diseases are caused by constipation. It gives rise to sick and bilious headaches, jaundice, heartburn, floating specks before the eyes, catarrh of the stomach, biliousness and the painful, troublesome piles. Therefore, it is of supreme importance to health that the bowels be kept regular. Simple food, fruit, etc., should be used, and rich food and stimulants of all kinds avoided.

LIFT OFF CORNS!

Drop Freezeone on a touchy corn, then lift that corn off with fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little Freezeone on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. Yes, magic! No humbug! A tiny bottle of Freezeone costs but a few cents at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the callouses, without soreness or irritation. Freezeone is the sensational discovery of a Cincinnati genius. It is wonderful.

GREATEST PUBLIC

A difference of opinion between Messrs. Murdoch and O'Connor with respect to the making public of the full correspondence... Mr. Murdoch, while not settling for the full correspondence, held that "in the public interest it should be divulged. Even in the face of this and with knowledge of the suspicion created in the public mind with regard to its continued suppression, the Government 'sat tight' upon the vital portions of the documents and still he adds, 'surprise' upon the resignation of Judge Robson... Mr. Richardson is a newspaperman, and in this connection it is interesting to recall that the resignation of Judge Robson came shortly after the board had taken over the newspaper firm.

The Government stands charged with having deliberately connived at the board's demise; with having incited the civil service of hardware, delays, perturbations and misrepresentations to which the board was subjected; with having been out of sympathy at all times with the provisions and intent of the board's commission act, and the combined and fair prices act; with having suppressed deliberately the correspondence in connection with the resignation of Judge Robson, who himself is declared to have been out of sympathy in short with having done everything in its power to render the board impotent, and its activities of no avail.

Among the most serious of the charges is that in connection with the textile manufacturers. Mr. Murdoch declares that but for the challenge of the board of the right of the Government to interfere, certain cabinet ministers were prepared to concede the claims set forth by the textile manufacturers (that to furnish data the board has since obtained would cost $2 million and a half dollars) and relieve them of the necessity of complying with the board's request for information.

It would appear that the Government is now in duty bound to make these facts known, and that the dissolution of the board before they are made known will create great distrust of the Government's motives throughout the country.

Mr. Murdoch is known to be a man of strong will. "As labor's representative," he said, before leaving for Cleveland last night, "I insist that direct action is what the people want, and direct action is the thing we could not get. Today we sought to make the board's order respecting unfair profits taken by a Toronto firm, but the superior court of Ontario in order to get action through that court against that firm, but the act provided that such notice to the provincial court must be signed by the chief commissioner. There is no chief commissioner, and has not been for three months.

Because the Government has failed to appoint a new chief commissioner, the board has been acting on its own, because the act distinctly provides that only the chief commissioner can act in time and in the name of the board, and otherwise conduct the preliminary action. Even if Mr. Murdoch had been necessary to appoint a new chief commissioner (and there are usually plenty of candidates for such well-paid jobs), all that the Government had to do in order to remove this serious disability was to promote one of the remaining commissioners to the position. But the Government did not do this. It is the other charges of lack of sympathy with and opposition to the board's functions and operations that must be added.

In fact, the dramatic resignation of Mr. Murdoch, and the information he has made public, are the most serious of the greatest public scandals in many years. The whole matter will be aired in Parliament, and it is difficult to see how the Government can refuse to grant a full and free investigation into the serious charges made against it.

JUDGE ROBSON'S REPLY.
Winnipeg, June 25.—(By the Canadian Press).—Mr. Murdoch is attacked by fierce personal malignity and his inferences are most extravagant and groundless," asserted Judge Robson last night when informed of Mr. Murdoch's resignation and statements. "I may shortly follow the matter up further," he added.

Asked about the letter in connection with the Crescent Creamery referred to by Mr. Murdoch, Judge Robson made the following statement: "I had heard of the matter, but had absolutely forbidden the showing of the factum to me, and its receipt was entirely unlooked for. Against my wishes the letter was sent, and was left in my office when I was away from Montreal. It was opened in my absence by a clerk, I assume, and was left lying on my desk in my personal room, where it was found by Mr. Murdoch when he searched my files and sent it to Montreal, and the fact that it was in my office was a great surprise to me, as it was to Mr. Murdoch, as I had absolutely prohibited anything of the sort long before."

STRAWBERRIES UP
FOUR CENTS A BOX
ON LOCAL MARKET

Active Demand For Fruit —
Hay Is Scarce at $30 to $32.

Strawberries again featured the local market this morning. Prices went up slightly, ranging from 22c to 25c a box and wholesale from 20c to 22c. Yesterday they sold from 18c to 20c retail and wholesaler from 19c to 22c a box. Market officials stated this morning that a man on the square yesterday sold strawberries at 16c a box, and inside of an hour disposed of $225 worth.

The supply of hay has been so small this week that the demands cannot be filled. The price went from $19 to $32 a ton. The minimum price is now $30, while the maximum is $32. Up to 10 o'clock this morning there were six loads offered.

The minimum price of oats took a drop of 1c today. They now sell from $1.10 to $1.20 a cwt. Fat sows and dressed hogs remain the same in price. The demand for hogs is active.

No changes in the prices of butter and eggs were recorded. New potatoes are in good demand at present, and the prices are expected to soon be long.

There was no change in the price of hay. Canada's Opportunity as a Chemical Producer

It is doubtful whether Canada ever faced a greater opportunity than that presented by the chemical products industry.

With manufacturing, agriculture and the medical profession dependent upon chemical products, and a world shortage, the demand is tremendous.

Canada has extensive supplies of chemical raw materials. It only needs machinery and plant to utilize these resources profitably.

Canada has an immense home market with the consequent advantage over foreign producers in the matter of haulage.

Canada is favored by British preferential tariffs and special licenses in exporting to all parts of the Empire. Her chemical products generally have duty-free access to United States and European markets.

Here is an opportunity which Canadians are only beginning to realize.

But for the Canadians of vision and resolution who do realize them, and are determined that Canada shall not let them slip, are awaiting the just rewards of legitimate national development.

Canada has an immense home market with the consequent advantage over foreign producers in the matter of haulage.

LONDONDERRYS QUIETER; FIRING ALMOST STOPS

Since Noon Thursday Lull Ex-sists, Though Streets Still Deserted.

FATALITIES TOTAL 17 Wounded Number 29, According To Official Statement Issued by Police.

LONDONDERRY, June 24.—Since mid-day there has been virtually no firing by the Unionist and National forces, who for a week have been waging civil warfare.

No attempt has yet been made to resume business, however. The streets are still deserted, the people keeping within doors.

At a meeting today of the magistrates General Campbell gave the assurance that the government would provide sufficient troops for the protection of law-abiding citizens in Londonderry. He issued a proclamation putting the curfew hour into force from Saturday morning at 11 o'clock in the evening and 5 o'clock on Thursday.

Total Killed in Seventeen. A total of seventeen persons have been killed and 29 wounded during the fighting in the city, according to an official statement issued by the police.

No attempt has yet been made to resume business, however. The streets are still deserted, the people keeping within doors.

At a meeting today of the magistrates General Campbell gave the assurance that the government would provide sufficient troops for the protection of law-abiding citizens in Londonderry. He issued a proclamation putting the curfew hour into force from Saturday morning at 11 o'clock in the evening and 5 o'clock on Thursday.

Looting Extensive. The looting last night was more extensive than ever. Numerous cases were reported of looting and masked men calling at the homes of Unionist and Nationalists and giving them a choice of their valuables.

An English soldier who went through the war, describing his experiences in Londonderry, said he had seen nothing in France to compare with the situation in Londonderry. Bullets, he said, were flying from all sides, whether he went, and it was marvelous that so few lives were lost.

At a meeting today of the magistrates General Campbell gave the assurance that the government would provide sufficient troops for the protection of law-abiding citizens in Londonderry. He issued a proclamation putting the curfew hour into force from Saturday morning at 11 o'clock in the evening and 5 o'clock on Thursday.

Several parts of the city were without food today.

DISARMING WOULD LEAD TO GREATER BLOODSHED, CLAIM

LONDON, June 24.—A dispatch to the Evening News from Londonderry, says: "In four days in this city, in which every house was an army, with 200 men being flying from all sides, who have been arrested for carrying firearms. The reason is that the military is insufficiently powerful to protect these people from attacks by their enemies. Until reinforcements arrive in bigger numbers, disarmament will probably lead to greater bloodshed."

REV. DR. STAUFFER WILL ESTABLISH MORAL CLINIC

Ottawa, June 25.—The resignation of Dr. Byron W. Stauffer has been accepted by the Congregational Church here. Dr. Stauffer will go to Toronto to establish an undenominational church, the services of which will be held in a downtown theatre. A "moral clinic," where persons can go for spiritual help and advice, will be opened in a downtown office building.

S. S. COUNCIL TO TRY TO ESTABLISH COURT FOR JUVENILE TRIALS

Expert To Deal With Social Situation Here Next September.

At a meeting of the local Social Service Council held in the Y. M. C. A. building Thursday night it was decided to take steps at once to establish, if possible, a juvenile police court in this city. With this object in view a committee, composed of Rev. M. Kelly, Mrs. Tanner and Raymond Smith was appointed to investigate the local need for same and report back at the next council meeting.

The committee on social service reported good progress locally, and it was announced at the meeting that a social service expert will arrive in London next September to deal with the local situation. His work will include citizenship, religious and social life of the community, immigration, housing and town planning, public health, industrial life, education, public morals, recreation for children and adults, relief and charity and the church with their relation to the community.

The committee recommended for appointment a prominent Canadian social service expert with considerable experience, who is now at work in Toronto, and if his services can be obtained it will commence operations in London next September.

Members of the council last night expressed satisfaction with the progress made in local playgrounds scheme, and went on record as in favor of the recent appointment of a male and female supervisor for each park. Rev. R. G. Peever presided at the meeting.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS
FUNERAL OF MRS. CORBETT.
The remains of Mrs. James Corbett, who succumbed after an illness of one week, were laid to rest at Woodland Cemetery on Wednesday. Her husband and five children survive. The children are: Alice, Elsie, James, Joe and Ernie all at home.

Many and beautiful were the floral tokens, showing the high esteem in which the late Mrs. Corbett was held by all who had known her.

Rev. G. Hirst of Knollwood Park Church conducted most impressive services at the house and at the grave.

Messrs. Balch, Ellis, Murray, Beadle, Greenslade and Edwards acted as pallbearers.

INSPECTING PUPILS.
PARKHILL, June 24.—Dr. McKenzie Smith and Miss Campbell, acting under the department of education, have been inspecting the pupils in the school of McGillivray, West Williams, and Parkhill this week. Several clinics will be held in the fall for the removal of adenoids and tonsils.

Choice Meat On Sale At "Farmer-To-You" Prices

These three words, "FARMER-TO-YOU," carry a message of economy. We have our own slaughter and packing houses, and can thus buy our cattle direct from the farmer. We are enabled to choose from the choicest stock in Ontario, and do not have to take whatever the packers care to send us. Last, but not least, in this way we cut out the middleman's profit.
