BALFOUR TALKS ABOUT THE AWARD

Says He Regrets Canada's Getting the Worst of It.

BUT THINKS IT FOR THE BEST

In Having Disposed of a Dangerous Controversy—Macedonia and the Far East.

London, Nov. 9. — Premier Balfour, in his speech at the lord mayor's banquet tonight, referring to the far eastern situation, said there was every reason to feel sanguine that it would not have a serious outcome. He based this assurance on the passionate desire of the czar to promote general peace, and the fact that Japan, as the ally of Great Britain, would be certain to display moderation, discretion and judgment in its demands, as well as firmness in enforcing them.

Mr. Balfour said that the Macedonian question raised issues more difficult and more complicated than even those of the far east, because it touched the almost perennial difficulty of the problem of the government of its European subjects by the Sublime Porte, but he was convinced that the question must be ultimately settled by the concert of Europe.

Referring to Alaska, the Premier said the danger arising from the uncertain and disputed frontier in the case between the British Empire and the United States has been decided by the treaty of 1901, and that the decision has not been favorable to the claims of this country, but the two small islands, the loss of which to the United States would be a serious blow, are really valueless from a strategic and military point of view. We justify our exacting of the decision, but, however the balance of advantage went, the gain to the United States or the loss to Canada, is not a matter of great importance.

Mr. Balfour spoke of the Franco-British treaty as one to promote international peace. United States Ambassador Choate, responding to the toast of "The Foreign Ministers," speaking of the Alaska boundary question, said it was a happy ending to the only matter of dispute between the two great countries. The result, Mr. Choate said, was due more than anything else, to the good sense, justice, courage and devotion to duty of Lord Chief Justice Alverstone. The speaker paid a tribute to the magnanimity of the Canadians, and said that the termination of the controversy had made both countries better friends. Mr. Choate then paid a graceful and feeling tribute to the memory of the late British ambassador at Washington, Sir Michael Herbert. He suggested that the United States and Great Britain unite in honoring Sir Michael Herbert by selecting some mountain peak on the line of demarcation of the Alaska boundary and affixing thereto the name of "Herbert."

Lord Chief Justice Alverstone referred briefly to the Alaskan boundary question, saying he declined to justify or conduct, because such a course would be a death-blow to the confidence reposed in the British bench.

The Archbishop of Canterbury, Sir Marcus Samuel and Sir James Thomson Ritchie, also spoke.

GAINED WEIGHT AND STRENGTH

Winnipeg Man's Experience With Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets—They Digest the Food, and the Different Parts of the Body Get the Nourishment They Require.

Mr. H. Bailey, of 256 Patrick street, Winnipeg, Man., has been using Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, and his experience should be of interest and benefit to all those suffering from stomach troubles. Mr. Bailey says: "It is with pleasure I speak of the great benefit I have received from the use of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. I have been taking them for the last few months, during which time I have gained in weight eight pounds. Before I began to use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, no matter what I ate, I never seemed to gain much strength, or put on much flesh. With the use of the Tablets I think my food was properly digested and gave me flesh and strength."

Mr. Bailey figured the matter out exactly right. If the food is not properly digested the different parts of the body do not get the nourishment they require. They become starved and weak. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets digest the food and make the body strong and hearty.

Coughs, colds, hoarseness, and other throat ailments are quickly relieved by Vapo-Cresol tablets, ten cents per box. All druggists.

Some times when I wanted to cough and could not I would almost choke to death. My wife got me a bottle of DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP, and to my surprise I found speedy relief. I would not be without it if it cost $1.00 a bottle, and I can recommend it to everyone suffering with a cough or cold."

ROBBERY ON GREAT SCALE

Employees of Big Stores Bribed to Deliver Stolen Goods.

Paris, Nov. 10.—A band of thieves organized a daring scheme for the wholesale plunder of a great drygoods shop in Paris. They bribed individual employees to bring articles to a certain rendezvous unknown to each other, and established a regular business in stolen goods. Four of the band have been arrested. They are Laylat, Roll, Dumas and Scrycoles. These were the leaders in the robbery at the Magasin du Louvre, which amounted to $40,000, and at the Galeries Lafayette for $60,000.

YOU NEED NOT cough all night and disturb your friends: there is no occasion for you running the risk of contracting inflammation of the lungs or consumption, while you can get Bickel's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. This medicine cures coughs, colds, inflammation of the lungs and all throat and chest troubles. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, which immediately relieves the throat and lungs from viscid phlegm.

No, Cordelia, key-rings are not made by hammering on a piano.

Remarkable Decrease in Imports of Manufactured Tobaccos.

London, Nov. 10.—Figures published by the Tobacco Trade Journal show a striking falling off in the importation of this country of foreign cigars and American and Egyptian cigarettes during the last six months. This has been set off by only a comparatively small rise in the imports of unmanufactured leaf, and there is little or no evidence to show that British cigars are growing in popularity. The Journal comes to the conclusion that the people of this country at present are smoking less.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over FIFTY YEARS by MILLIONS OF MOTHERS for their CHILDREN WHILE TEETHING, with PERFECT SUCCESS. ## CANADA'S DEMAND A NATURAL ONE

The St. James Gazette On Treaty-Making Power.

SAYS ALL CANADA WANTS IT

Great Demand for Dominion's Produce in Old Country—Success of Miss Lena Ashwell.

London, Nov. 10.—The St. James Gazette says: "Canada's demand for more treaty-making power is in many respects a natural and reasonable one. It would form a most beneficial precedent for the treatment of such questions if the application could be referred to representatives of all the great states of the empire at the next colonial conference."

The Standard publishes a special Ottawa dispatch, which has the appearance of official inspiration, in which it is claimed that Sir Wilfrid Laurier's demand for treaty-making powers has the support of almost the entire people of Canada, and that only by virtue of the King's power to veto will British authority be recognized in any treaty the British ministry have no part in negotiating. The dispatch declares Canada has no desire to do anything to interfere with British interests abroad, instances the Dominion veto of the British Columbia anti-Japanese legislation, and adds: "History has shown that the Dominion is on the threshold uniting the Dominion to the mother land, the stronger is British sentiment, and it is sentiment that makes the empire, not trade bickering."

WERE NOT RECOGNIZED.

A significant feature of the King's birthday list is the omission of any of the usual titular recognition of the services of the Alaska boundary commissioners. The services of members on other commissions, such as Chile-Argentine boundary, are duly recognized.

The Pall Mall Gazette, referring to the loss of $20,000 during October, as compared with an estimated profit in September of $17,000, in the operation of the Le Roi mine, says that the water is low. MacMillan is expected to return immediately, and he will be able to give an explanation as to the unexpected loss. The management should have learned to be careful from past experience of considerable fluctuations in metallic values resulting from low water.

From April to June eleven pure bred Shortorns were shipped to Canada.

MISS ASHWELL'S TRIUMPH.

Miss Lena Ashwell, leading actress here, was the principal guest of the Vagabond Club. Responding to a toast, she said she was surprised to find herself the principal guest of such a club, for most of her childhood had been passed in a little wooden house in Canada, where her duties were washing, mending, baking and cooking. She had found that Englishmen laughed at her colonial accent, but the colonial would also occasionally smile at the accent heard in London, Canadian butter in London not only

SUICIDE BRIDGE EARNED ITS NAME

Many Parisians Ended Life On the Pont Des Arts.

THE REASON OF IT A MYSTERY

Suicide the Fashion in Paris Amongst All Classes of Citizens, High and Low.

Paris, Nov. 10. — Paris, the city of monuments, has one grim memorial, which is a veritable rendezvous of death. This is the Pont des Arts over the Seine, which has pointed the way to the Valley of the Shadow to so many that it has come to be known as the Bridge of Suicides.

All strangers are shown the Cafe of the Dead, where skull and crossbones and all the gruesome symbols of the grave are the fantastic decoration. It is a play upon horrors. But few have pointed out to them the grim reality, the bridge where hundreds have sought the succor of sorrow.

It is not easy to divine the reason why people bent on self-destruction choose this spot. It is a wonderfully picturesque viewpoint, and the last fleeting glimpse of earth is fair enough to make even the desperate repent their rash courage.

It is of iron and raised high in air, flights of steps leading up to it from the quay. Beyond its towers Notre Dame and the delicate spire of Sainte Chapelle. One end leads towards the Institute, the other to the Colonnade of the Louvre, all which, outlined against a French sky, are gray poems.

About it goes on the traffic of the quay—the selling of great poems, and made a foothold for itself and maintained it. Some merchants may suggest some other remedy as equally beneficial. Such recommendations should be received, and that is Dr. Thomas. Take nothing else.

Inscrutable Woman.

Melbourne, Nov. 10.—The Federal election campaign is now in full swing, but it is impossible to forecast the results, owing to the new factors introduced, namely, the women's vote, which amounts to over one-third of the total, and the reduced scale of expenses permitted to candidates.

THE SPEED OF SWALLOWS

M. Panier Liberates Birds Which Fall Below the Record.

Paris, Nov. 10.—In order to test the swiftness of the swallow's flight, Panier, an employee of the Orleans Railroad, let loose in the station of Angoulême two swallows that have their nests at his home at Périgueux. They were freed at 9:30 a.m., and started back in the teeth of a strong southwest wind. The distance in a straight line is 43 miles, but owing to the violence of the wind the swallows could not take a straight course. They arrived at 10:36 a.m., the journey taking 1 hour, 22 minutes and 10 seconds. Ordinarily they could have made the journey in half the time.

Gored by a Mad Steer.

Winnipeg, Nov. 10. — A mad steer created excitement in the streets on Saturday. It ran amuck and scattered people right and left. A Galician was gored, and a little girl was badly injured. Both are in the hospital.

A Dynamite Plot.

Rome, Nov. 10.—Two Italians tried to smuggle two kilos of dynamite from a German steamship which arrived from New York at Naples on Friday. The smugglers were arrested. There is a suspicion that an anarchist plot was afoot.

Where Did the Money Come From?

Leaving aside the fact that Gamey is contradicted as to the money point-blank at every important stage of his alleged money transaction by three or four men whose respectability is now, and always has been above reproach, it is not surprising that the Conservative party and press do not believe him, and are still demanding: "Where did the money come from?"

The court have found that, "If the missing pages of the Crossin Piano Company's book could be seen, they would disclose or give a clue whereby would be discovered the genesis of the $900 and the $1,500, both coming, as Mr. Gamey now swears, from one and the same source; his explanation of the source is not so worthy of credence as if the books had been left un-mutilated."

What honest man, whose brain has not been softened by party prejudice can put any possible reliance in such a story or stories as Gamey has told about the money?

On the 10th of March Gamey says: "Frank took $2,000 out of his pocket and counted it. There was $2,000 in Ontario Bank bills. Frank handed me $1,500 of this; I will tell where that money is when necessary. Frank tore up the envelope, I then left the building alone and went to dinner."

On April 12 he swore: "He took the envelope out of his pocket. He counted the money and tore up the envelope and gave me one-half of the money. Q.—How much did he give you? A.—$1,500."

Q.—Did you take these bills that had been handed to you and deposit them in the Traders Bank? A.—I took these same bills from Frank Sullivan; I deposited them in the bank at Toronto."

On April 14 he swore: "Q.—Then having got the money and divided it up, as you told me, my learned friend, what did you do? A.—Well, I went out to College street."

Q.—Did Frank go with you? A.—No. I will say that he did not go with me from the building."

Q.—When was your next interview with the Sullivan? A.—It would be about the 3rd or 4th of October."

On April 13 he was examined as follows: Q.—Occasionally dollars would pass through your bank account? A.—I think I have had that much—yes."

Q.—Had that money in the summer of 1902, had you not? A.—I had on Sept. 11th, $1,500 pass through. Q.—You had a considerable sum pass through your bank? A.—During the summer, do you mean? Q.—At various times? Q.—A thousand? A.—No. I had as much as a thousand except on the 11th September."

Q.—Never had as much as two thousand? A.—No. I had through my bank account in 1902? Q.—Yes. A.—No. Q.—And you will swear to that? A.—Yes, sir."

He swears then that he never had in 1902 as much as $2,000 going through his bank account. He swears also that he had $1,500, $900 and $150 making $2,550. He swears he got only $1,500 from Frank Sullivan and he swears he got $2,200 from him. Where did he get the $1,500 and give the I. O. U.? He swears that immediately after Sullivan gave him the $1,500 he (Gamey) left the building alone and did not see Sullivan again until the 3rd or 4th of October. He swears he got the other $1,200 from Sullivan—that the whole of the money came from the same source. And in Buffalo he tells the reporters that he collected part of it in his private business during the summer of 1902. If the $1,200 did not come from Sullivan, how can it be believed that any money came from Sullivan?

When confronted on May 22 by the judge with the statement made in Buffalo on April 21, Gamey said: "Just let me say my lord, that part of that is correct, but part of it I do not assume the correctness of at all."

The Court.—But the important part is "I collected the money during the summer."

Gamey.—What I said was, it was private funds and I considered the loan from Sullivan as a private deal entirely. I said that had nothing to do with the $1,500; that was the way that was put."

The Court.—That he collected the money during the summer? A.—I probably did not say that at all. I do not remember whether that was said or not."

The Court.—It was said it was not true, is that what you say? A.—Yes, it was not true; I have explained to you where the $900 came from."

The court then quoted from Mr. Gamey's Buffalo statement, as follows: "During the whole summer, I was engaged in gathering the money together from various sources and in September, when I came down to Toronto, I brought the money and paid it to Mr. Crossin."

What do you say as to that? A.—That is not true. That is not correct? A.—No."

Having thus denied the statements he made in Buffalo the commissioners immediately gave leave to call the reporters as to what Gamey had said in Buffalo, and within the very same breath with which he had denied the correctness of what the reporters had said, when he was confronted with them, and they were about to go into the box, he swore: "I am willing to admit I told the papers; I told the papers what they say." The court, not able to countenance such conduct any further said: "Just stop talking and leave the box."

Is it any wonder that even the Conservative press will not believe Gamey when he tells where the money came from? Even Ananias did not lie about the source of the money. When asked, "Did you sell the land for so much?" he said, "Yes, for so much," without any attempt at further misrepresentation and straightway the young man wound him up, and carried him out. If the Conservative party had been in existence at that time would it have clasped Ananias to its bosom and made a hero of him, as it is trying to make of Gamey? No one but Gamey pretends any money was paid as a bribe. There is not even the corroboration of Sapphira.

A Marvelous Record.

"The Canada of 1896 was vastly different from the Canada of today. The population of the Canada of that day was 5,086,061. We have not the exact population of today, we have to take it approximately, but a proper approximate statement is 5,528,847. The increase in population is not so great as we would like, but in that respect we are making up for lost time, and the population is likely to increase much more rapidly than formerly. In 1896 we received 16,833 immigrants. In 1903 we received 128,364. In 1896 we had a revenue on consolidated fund of $36,618,590. In 1903 that revenue amounted to $66,034,108. In the year 1896, there were sales of public lands in Manitoba, the Northwest Territories and British Columbia to the amount of $83,298. In 1903, the sale of these lands represented $313,960. The total imports in the year 1896 were $118,011,508. In 1903 under the great progress and prosperity of the country, at a time when our factories were busy and our people employed as never before in the history of the Dominion, the purchasing power of the people had so increased that they consumed all these things and increased their imports from $118,011,508 to $241,241,960. The total exports in 1896 were $121,013,502, and in 1903 they amounted to $225,849,724. Our exports of home test of the prosperity and the activity of our people, amounted in 1896 to $109,915,337, and in 1903 they increased to $214,401,674. Our exports of products of the farm and animals and their products in 1896 amounted to $55,378,407, and in 1903 they were $114,441,863. Then take the article of manufacture, the very industry that honorable gentlemen oppose here, the special patrons of, which they claim the particular credit of nursing and nourishing. In 1896 our exports of manufactured products amounted to $19,222,877 and last year they amounted to $20,624,967. The total trade of this country, which in 1896 was only $233,025,360, increased last year to $467,064,683."—Hon. W. S. Fielding, in the House of Commons.

The Country's Outlook.

Our city contemporary does not rely on immigration alone to keep us from falling. It offers the further consolation that "the expenditure of over one hundred millions on the Grand Trunk Pacific within the last few years will also have a buoyant influence." And it also points out that "in the United States the natural course of industry has been directed by the reckless and plunging methods of the trusts, which have shaken public confidence and unfavourably affected the money market. Canada the growth of mechanical industry," it says, "has been rapid but not feverish or abnormal." The philosopher who says this is in need of further information. He surely has not dabbled in the financial waters like some others; in our land have been doing? Why, only the other day the Ross Government felt constrained to advance a quarter of a million dollars to pay the back wages of an inflated concern that burst up with 5,000 employees thrown into the street, and this was only the second installment. Before that some regiments of soldiers were sent by the Government to pacify a few warring with bullets. The next installment is in the letter of the Government promising to keep the works in operation.—London Free Press.

The Free Press is welcome to this one morsel of comfort. The Soo is a solitary and detached instance. It is the exception that proves the rule. Canadian industry on the whole is enjoying a sound and healthy growth and prosperity, while the United States is beginning to suffer from the forcing process and the immoral financial methods which have marked the trust movement. The trouble at the Soo was due to bad administration not to bad faith. There is every reason to believe the Soo enterprises are intrinsically sound and that the disaster will be soon repaired by fresh capital and a more prudent management. We don't know what the Free Press is driving at unless it means to imply that the developments at the Soo prove Canadian industry generally to be in a shaky condition. We repeat that Canada is in shape to weather any storm that may blow from the United States. One reason for this safety is that Canada has avoided excessive tariffs which stimulate monopoly and stock-jobbing combinations. The great influx of immigrants and the expenditures on the Grand Trunk Pacific will also go a long way toward preventing stagnation in this country, and neutralizing any adverse effects of a depression in the United States. There is little likelihood of hard times coming to the aid of any political party in Canada in the near future.

Lord Alverstone has spoken at last. He says he declines to justify or explain his conduct, because such a course would be the deathblow to the confidence reposed in the British bench. Lord Alverstone is not the British bench, but he was not careful of his honor when he played the politician instead of the jurist and deliberately made an award contrary to his own finding on the evidence.

A great event in the commercial world today is the Roxburgh-Goelet wedding.

Fancy those grand old Imperialists, J. Castell Hopkins and Rev. Dr. Wild, moving a vote of thanks to Henri Bourassa, M. P.!

A polydips, especially a good-natured one, is not a serious matter, but it must be a hardship to the Kaiser to be forbidden to talk.

The spectacle of a South American republic asking a European power to protect it against the United States would make President Monroe turn in his grave.

If the Monroe doctrine implies a proprietary interest in the whole hemisphere, it is just as well that Uncle Sam should be kept busy in the southern half of it.

The pastor of the First Methodist Church, this city, says that organizations, such as the Epworth League, the Christian Endeavor and the Y. M. C. A., have failed in the mission of bringing young men under religious influences, and strengthening the churches; and he deprecates further effort along the same lines. Candid speaking from the pulpit is always to be commended. Mr. Bishop's statement is a very sweeping one; no doubt he made it with a full sense of his responsibility, and banking on solemn conviction. In such a case conviction ought to be based on experience. It presupposes a searching and anxious investigation of the methods and work of these young people's organizations. Mr. Bishop is generalizing on a very vital question, and in his own mind ought to be sure of his data. His opinion is not shared, we venture to say, by the great majority of church-goers, and the public expression of it is discouraging to those who believe they are doing a Christian service through and by means of these societies.

Or the Tariff System.

[Ottawa Journal.] Financial depression in the United States will not cause proportionate depression in Canada until the Canadian banking and currency system is as bad as that of the United States.

Not Lickspittles.

[Woodstock Express.] The trouble with a good many people in this country is that they are not willing to give an honest man any alternative but to be either a lickspittle or a rebel. There are a good many Canadians who don't want to be either; but if the alternative were forced upon them they would not be lickspittles.

Perhaps It Will Catch the Men

Something Unthinkable

[Kansas City Star.] Of course, it is dreadful for an American to think of living under monarchy and of being taxed to keep up hereditary rulers, but it would be just as impossible to turn the city of London over to a thriving, vicious organization like Tammany as it would be to make the Thames River run up to Hampstead Heath.

Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills are the most effective and reliable remedies for the treatment of the skin and blood. They are sold everywhere, and are the only remedies that will cure the most obstinate of constitutional humours, such as bad blood, scrofula, inherited and contagious humours, with loss of hair, glandular swellings, ulcers, patches in the throat and mouth, sore eyes, copper-coloured blotches, as well as carbuncles, scurvy, sties, ulcers and sores arising from an impure or impoverished condition of the blood, yield to the Cuticura Treatment, when all other remedies fail.

And greater still, if possible, is the wonderful record of cures of torturing, disfiguring humours among infants and children. The suffering which Cuticura remedies has been declared among the young, and the comfort they have afforded worn-out and worried parents, have led to their adoption in countless homes as priceless curatives for the skin and blood. Infantile and birth humours, milk crust, scalled head, eczema, rashes and every form of itching, scaly, pimply skin and scalp humours, with loss of hair, of infancy and childhood, are speedily, permanently and economically cured when all other remedies fail for children, and even the best physicians, fail.

Brim-full of Health and Energy.

Life is worth living when one can awake after a good night's sleep—ready for anything they may bring. Eye clear; tongue clean; liver active; stomach right; hand steady and every nerve vibrating with that splendid sense of the power of perfect health. Too few enjoy this enviable morning awakening, but and begins to weep. To the pure all things are not delivered in milk wagons. If you haven't any enemies to forgive, pardon a few of your friends. Every big man at the top there are a million little ones at the bottom. You may not get all that is coming to you in this world—but look out for the next.

Never ask a man how he likes married life in his wife's presence if you want to hear truth. There is a man in Chicago named Damrich—but his financial rating isn't what his name would indicate. Probably some men meander around all night for the purpose of satisfying themselves that there is no place like home.

Even with his wonderful memory, the oldest inhabitant is apt to forget that he has inflicted his reminiscences on everybody he knows.

Not Ready Yet
[Philadelphia Ledger.] A Philadelphia photographer tells this as having actually happened. A woman entered his studio.

"Are you the photographer?" "Yes, madam."

"Do you take children's pictures?" "Yes, certainly."

"How much do you charge?" "Three dollars a dozen."

"Well," said the woman sorrowfully, "I'll have to see you again. 'I've only got eleven.'"

[Bellbrook (O.) Moon.] Old Uncle Billy Smirson was giving a parade last Sunday. We are sure that he has his eyes on some widow, as he was dressed up in a boiled shirt and a new suit.

Baiting a Gossip.
[Philadelphia Ledger.] Miss Kidder—They've only been married six months, but whenever her husband goes away on a business trip she's delighted and prepares to have a good time.

"Do you take—Ah! Do you know I suspected something like that. I always said—"

Miss Kidder—Yes. You see, he takes her with him.

REUBEN DRAPER STATES
That Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him of Gravel—It Never Came Back.

Bristol, Que., Nov. 3.—A remedy that will cure gravel must be a sovereign remedy for all urinary diseases, and Reuben Draper, of this place, states positively that Dodd's Kidney Pills cured him of this distressing ailment.

"I was taken ill with what I thought was Gravel," says Mr. Draper, "I was suffering great pain, and I steadily grew weaker though attended by two different doctors."

"A man told me Dodd's Kidney Pills had cured Mr. Gray, of Gravel. 'I got some and started to take them. In just one week I passed a stone as large as a small bean, and four days later I passed another about the size of a grain of barley.'"

"That is two years ago, and I have not had any trouble since."

WAS PURSUING THIEF
Mr. Roy Ashman Wounded by a Revolver in His Own Hand.

Mr. Roy Ashman, of William street north, heard thieves in his chicken coop Monday night. His ire was aroused and he seized a revolver and started for the coop.

As he neared the henhouse a man left the building and started on a run for the street. Ashman gave chase and fired in the air to cause the thief to halt.

The chase was kept up for some distance, when Ashman fell and the revolver he had in his hand was discharged, the bullet lodging in his leg below the knee.

Mr. Ashman will have it in for chicken thieves as long as he lives.

GRAU OPERA COMPANY.
The renowned Jules Grau Opera Company will appear at the Grand next Friday night in an elaborate production of the comic opera success, "The Captain." Mr. Grau has an exceptionally well-drilled chorus of picked voices, and the ladies thereof are said to be more than usually pretty. Among the artists of Mr. Grau's organization are Anna Marie Tyler, Ethel Balch, Bessie Fairbairn, Luella Schott, John Henderson, Wm. Herman West, Mr. J. W. Smith, the celebrated tenor, Albert Wilder, George Long and Victor de Lacy. Miss Tyler, who is the prima donna soprano, is an exceedingly handsome woman, and has a pure soprano voice of exceptional sweetness and range.

DISREGARD REGULATIONS

Frame Buildings Are Going Up Within Fire Limits.

Says the City Engineer—Several Charges Preferred.

Messrs. James Malloch, John C. Trebilcock and F. W. Smyth appeared in police court this morning to answer the charge laid against them by the city engineer of building frame buildings within the fire limits.

In the case of the last-named, Mr. Fisher stated to the court that an agreement had been handed to the city engineer by the defendant, which was not altogether satisfactory, but which he thought could be fixed all right. Postponement for a week was secured.

Mr. Smyth told the court that the building was not completed yet, and he was quite willing to comply with the rules if so advised by the engineer. In the case of the other two gentlemen, Mr. R. K. Cowan appeared. He said his clients had gone to the city engineer to learn what were the requirements and never could find out. They were quite willing to comply with the law, whatever that might be. However, he thought that all such cases should be taken up at once. He had a list of twenty that were just as much in the fire limits as his clients' buildings had been, and he was waiting to bring with members of Parliament and going down the list.

The magistrate told Mr. Cowan that it was rather difficult to deal with people who were not before him. Mr. Fisher requested Mr. Cowan to make good his assertion, and said the engineer was willing to make everybody he knew of comply with the law. It was agreed that Messrs. Malloch and Trebilcock should confer with the engineer at once, and the case was therefore adjourned for a week.

STOCK MARKETS.

New York, Nov. 10.—Noon.—Pessimism is rampant on the floor today, and the market reflects it fully. With the exception of the traction, the whole list has been weak during the forenoon, with the pressure, especially in the steel stocks and the railroad trunk lines. Further loss of records for steel were established, the common selling down to 10, and the preferred broke at 50. No one can give legitimate reasons for the weakness, but there is a disposition among investors to lay the greater part of the trouble to the stock conversion plan, and the satisfaction in certain quarters in this point, and subsequent developments in the market, and the fact that the steel industry is undoubtedly traced to that cause. Traction stocks, as already noted, were very strong. Pennsylvania was notably weak. Reading was a weak stock also, although the Erie was well supported. The minor steel and iron stocks were generally weak, with the Steel issues. There was no buying power in the market, and nothing transpired in which a rally could be based. Sales to noon, 55,000 shares.
