THE GOVERNMENT GETS THREE MORE THAN REGULAR VOTE ON C. N. R. GUARANTEE ACT

Liberal Amendment for Six Months Hoist is Defeated by 47 Majority—Wild Cheers Greet the Results—Two Conservatives and One Liberal Break From the Lines.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] OTTAWA, May 20.—The Macdonald amendment proposing the six months hoist to the Canadian Northern guarantee resolutions was defeated last night on a vote of 64 to 111, a majority of 47. This majority which is three over the maximum Government majority in a full House with every member voting except the Speaker, was received by the Conservative members with thunderous applause. The House then went into committee on the resolutions.

The division was witnessed by hundreds of spectators, who crowded all the galleries of the House. Much interest had been aroused by the prospect of one or more defections on each side of the House, and the yeas and nays were followed closely. In the net result of the breaking of party lines the Opposition Conservatives, one, there being R. B. Bennett of Calgary and W. F. Nickle of Kingston, on the one hand, and Hon. W. A. Charlton of Norfolk, on the other. The votes of these members evoked loud applause from the sides of the House to which they do not belong. Two other Liberals were reported to be wavering last night. Dr. Neely of Humboldt, an Albertan, and Mr. Balfour of Battleford, but at the last hour they fell into line, the Humboldt member first endeavoring to explain his attitude in a speech.

The extraordinary spectacle was presented of the Liberal leader rising in support of an amendment whose purpose consisted sharply with the policy laid down in his

Teddy Had a Close Call From Death In South American Jungle

Theodore Roosevelt lost 55 pounds in weight in his exploration of the wilds of South America.

TEDDY ROOSEVELT BEGGED COMPANIONS TO LEAVE HIM IN SOUTH AMERICAN JUNGLE

Entire Party Down With Fever and Could Only Proceed 100 Yards a Day—For Ten Days Life Was Despaired of—Former U. S. President Shows Traces of Hardship and Endurance.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] NEW YORK, May 20.—Those who saw Theodore Roosevelt on his return yesterday from Brazil realized from his appearance that he had passed through trying time. Though his cheeks were bronzed, his smile present and his grip firm, showing a return of health, there were many traces of the hardships he had endured in his 600 mile journey down the Rio Duvida, the unknown river he explored.

The trip from Para which began May 7, did much to restore Colonel Roosevelt. It gave back to him 25 or 30 of the 55 pounds he had lost and the jungle festers that ran from the ankle to the knee of his right leg, were nearly all-healed. "I have been very ill with jungle fever," he said on his arrival, "but I am all right now. I feel fine."

It was from April 5 to April 15, it was learned, that Colonel Roosevelt was gravely ill. Other members of his party, including his son, Kermit, himself was so sick and weak that there were days when one hundred yards of travel marked the measure of his endurance.

For five days Col. Roosevelt was delirious with 105 degrees of fever.

Date Not Set; All is Ready

No date has yet been fixed for the Provincial general election, although several rumors have been afloat mentioning June 29 or July 6. Indications, however, point to things being done quietly, so that the election can be held at any time. Rapid progress is being made by A. H. Snyder, clerk of the House, in preparing the writs. Everything is being arranged and only the space for the date of the election appears to be lacking. It is believed that the writs could be issued within two days after the date has been announced.

DR. ROBERTSON'S ADDRESS WAS SCHOLARLY ONE

Technical Educational Matters Were Discussed Under Board of Trade Auspices.

An instructive address was delivered at the Collegiate Institute auditorium last night by Dr. J. W. Robertson, chairman of the Royal Commission on Technical Education. The attendance was large and the address was greatly enjoyed.

R. Scarfe, President of the Board of Trade, occupied the chair and all were delighted with the address. A hearty vote was moved by Mr. C. H. Waterston and seconded by Mr. E. Sweet. It was carried amid much deserved applause.

He pointed out that in other countries the development of all the people into efficiency for their occupation, was the foremost, and not a political question.

In other countries the policy for the development of all the people into efficiency for their occupations and for citizenship is a foremost political question. It is not a party question, and it stands first among their national policies. It is regarded as the one which has most to do with the progress, prosperity and well being of all the people.

The Example of Denmark. Dr. Robertson told in a graphic way the story of the wonderful progress of Denmark. Compared with Ontario the Kingdom of Denmark is a small country, containing only about 8,000,000 acres with a population of 2,757,076. A larger proportion of its area is arable, but on the average its cultivable soil is not any richer, and its climate is somewhat similar. Fifty years ago Denmark was rated as the poorest country in northern Europe in wealth per head of the population.

Now it is next to Great Britain and thus stands second in the whole world. The change was brought about by education and co-operation. In thirty years the export of butter, bacon and eggs rose from eleven and a half million dollars to ninety-one and a half million dollars. The yield of milk per cow was increased from 3000 lbs. per year to over 6000 lbs. In one island the average for more than 20,000 cows was 8,100 lbs. of milk per annum. The elementary schools, the People's High Schools, the Agricultural Schools, the Housekeeping schools and the Royal Agricultural College were the means. Ability and desire to co-operate grew out of the experiences at these schools. As an example of the extent of associated effort for improving their business Dr. Robertson said there were 1,885 associations of farmers for the improvement of live stock.

Great Progress in Ireland. In 1895 political leaders of all shades got together on the basis of "measures for the good of Ireland," about which all parties might be found in agreement. Eleven years afterwards when the Canadian Commission visited Ireland, there were 60 technical schools with 42,000 pupils enrolled, over 13,000 pupils taking experimental science.

AIRSHIP PROBLEM SOLVED SAWS BEELY

LONDON, May 20.—Colonel Seely, ex-War Minister, announced at a meeting of the Aeronautical Society last night that the problem of the stability of the aeroplane had been solved, and stated that he flew in an army aeroplane with a pilot who, at a height of 2000 feet, abandoned all control of the machine for 15 minutes. Seely merely steered the machine, the pilot keeping his hands behind his back. The aeroplane righted itself automatically. Other tests of the same kind have been made.

ROWELL WILL LOSE, SAYS A PROMINENT LIBERAL EDITOR, ON THE TEMPERANCE ISSUE

Plank in Platform Won't Mix With Politics—A Stinging Rebuke Administered by Influential Member of the Liberal Party—"Will Drive Liberal Supporters From the Ranks," He Says.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] TORONTO, May 20.—The Forest Free Press, one of the most prominent Liberal weeklies in Ontario, publishes an editorial attack upon the Rowell "abolish-the-bar" policy that in almost as many words says the Liberals cannot hold their present ground in Ontario. The utterances is the more important because it is made upon the eve of a possible general election, and by a newspaper that is owned and edited by H. J. Pettypiece, a former Liberal member of the Legislature, and who is prominently spoken of as the Liberal candidate in East Lambton. The article is published under the heading, "Temperance and Politics Won't Mix," and is as follows: "All indications point to an Ontario general election in September, and probably earlier. The Government forces will appeal to the electorate under the leadership of the doughty Sir James Whitney, and ask for a return to power on their general record, feeling, no doubt, that they are stronger to-day than they would be after another session. The Opposition forces will be led by Hon. N. W. Rowell, who declared that his 'banish-the-bar policy' would be made the main issue in the conflict. Being the leader of the attacking party he has the making of the issue, and in this instance his decision is unfortunate—unfortunate in more ways than one. "Unfortunately for the cause of temperance progress, because it places thousands of earnest temperance workers in the undesirable position of having to choose between their temperance convictions and their party loyalty and the temperance cause will be the greater loser. "Unfortunately for the Liberal party, because it will drive from the ranks thousands of voters who would otherwise support Liberal candidates, while it will gain but very few supporters from the Conservative side. "Unfortunately for the province as a whole, because it is in the best interests of the province that there should be a change of government. "The Toronto Globe, of May 8th, in referring to this question of the bar in its leading editorial, says: "It so happens that this issue is raised and will be pressed to a judgment of the people by the Liberal leader and his political associates and followers in the Legislature and throughout the province. But it is not, or it ought not to be, a distinctive and decisive question in party politics. It is above all things else a people's question. It appeals to men not as Liberals or Conservatives, but as citizens. "The Globe does not seem to be confident that even the churches will unite in the support of Mr. Rowell, as it goes on to tell the church people what they should do in the coming contest. "The abolish-the-bar policy cannot be carried in a political contest. Party loyalty is too deeply rooted in the people, and the forces lined up against the policy are too strong financially to admit of any hope of success, be the cause never so (Continued on Page 3)

RACE RIOTS IN THE FIELDS OF COMPANY

Over 100 Said to Have Been Killed as Result of Outbreak.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] NEW ORLEANS, May 20.—The United Fruit Company to-day was using its wireless in an effort to confirm a strange story of a race riot reported to have occurred on one of its plantations in Guatemala in which it is reported sixty-four negroes and probably 100 Indians were killed. Smouldering race hatred of the native Indians for negroes, inflamed by one of the negroes—winning the Indian girl, Nazada, from her father at dice, and his refusal to sell her back to a native, is reported to be the cause of the trouble. The story came to New Orleans by mail. The negro, Clarence Williams, was working on the Teahuahua farm one of a number of plantations of the United Fruit Company operates in the Montagua River district, and according to the story he had incurred the hatred of many of the Indians because of his prowess with dice. In a game recently, in which Nazada's father participated, he won all the old peon's money, and then, Guatemalan fashion, the old man wagered his daughter. He lost. As is customary among these Indians, the girl did not object to her part of the transaction and was taken to the shanty of the American negro.

As the story goes, Christoforo Zurello, a half-breed boss of a neighboring farm, had wanted Nazada as a wife for himself, and was incensed when he learned that she had become the property of the negro. According to Guatemalan Indian custom, the father of the girl was eliminated from the matter by his unlucky cast of the dice, so Zurello entered into negotiations with the negro. He offered his thirty pesos for the girl. The negro refused.

Soon after Williams left for his work Saturday, May 9th, three men appeared at the shanty. It is said they were Zurello, a peon named Pedro and a half-breed. Williams had occasion to go to the shanty a few hours later. Tied to a nearby tree was his Indian girl mutilated with knives. Just before she died she told him who had assaulted her. Arming himself, Williams, it is declared, began a search for Zurello, found him and shot him to (Continued on page four.)

BATHLESS, THEY BECAME ANGRY AT PROPRIETOR

Local Foreigners Refused Permission to Take Dip at Public Bath.

"Why should the proprietors of the Brantford public baths refuse people of the foreign section admission to their baths?" This was the question which confronted Magistrate Livingston at the court this morning, and it was all the more interesting because the proprietor, Carl Schmidt is not a Canadian, and at one time employed a Russian, I. Connesvitz, as his agent. Connesvitz had sold tickets to numbers of his class including many women and when they went to the baths were refused admittance. This had angered these people and they complained and the consumption was the charge of false pretences laid this morning. Connesvitz was the defendant as he had sold the tickets, but as he had handed the money over to Schmidt the magistrate decided that the man to charge was the proprietor of the baths. As the class of foreigners who would make use of the baths were of the best, the bench asked what the objections were and Louis Stander could not answer. He could not see why the holder of an admittance ticket, who was not disreputable, should be denied the use of the bath. The case would be adjourned in order that investigations might proceed and the proprietor make an explanation.

Van Westrum Scare. Mike Driscoll, the man who scared the girls at the Van Westrum residence appeared before the bench this morning charged with threatening to do bodily injury to a girl at Langley Park. He gave such a plausible story that Magistrate Livingston dismissed him upon the more serious of two charges.

Mary Strickland, a pretty Scotch maid, the girl who was attacked, giving evidence said that Driscoll had got angry when a sandwich was refused from him. He grew abusive and she was going to call the dog which was a little distance behind the man when he pulled out a knife and made a slash at her, but did not hit her. She then screamed and a man working on the grounds, John Potter rushed up with two others and they took the man away and wrested the knife from him.

Potter in the box, said that he rushed up when he heard a scream and abusive language, Driscoll then holding the knife aloft, threatened to put (Continued on Page 4.)

SOLDIER SAID TO HAVE BEEN ASSASSINATED

United States Unable to Find Out Fate of Wanderer From the Lines.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] WASHINGTON, May 20.—With the stage set for the beginning of the Niagara Falls conference late to-day, officials in administration and diplomatic circles have turned their attention to proceedings in the Canadian border town, which it was hoped would result in complete settlement of Mexico's ills. President Wilson was to keep in close touch with the progress of negotiations by means of a special wire set up between the White House and the headquarters of the American mission at Niagara Falls.

Justice Lamar and former Solicitor General Lehmann are familiar with the President's general view of the Mexican situation, but they will submit all important questions to him before they take any action on the proposals of the South American envoys.

While conditions appeared propitious for the beginning of the conference, yet government officials still awaited word of the fate of Samuel Parks, the American infantryman, who strayed into Mexican lines outside Vera Cruz and was reported to have been executed. Vigorous representations have been made to Gen. Huerta, who had promised to investigate the Parks case and fix the blame for his reported death. Some anxiety was expressed over John R. Stillman, American vice-counsel, who had been held by Federal officials at Saltillo. Stillman was said to have been released and started on his way to Mexico City, but definite reports of his movements still was lacking to-day.

WELCOMED BY CANADA

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., May 20.—The meeting conference, which under the friendly guidance of Ambassador Da Gama of Brazil and Ministers Naon, of Argentina and Suarez of Chile is to attempt to compose the differences between the United States and Mexico was ready to-day for full swing. The Mexican peace commissioners, with their large entourage, arrived here early to-day from New York while the American delegates reached here shortly before midnight. Minister Suarez was the last of the three South American mediators to reach the scene of their activities.

WILL ATTEMPT TO PROVE ALIBI FOR BECKER

Newspaper Reporter Gave Evidence in Favor of Police Captain.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] NEW YORK, May 20.—In an effort to establish an alibi for Charles E. Becker, charged with having instigated the murder of Herman Rosenthal, counsel for the defence were prepared to-day to call several witnesses to support the testimony of Frederic Hawley, former newspaper reporter, whose direct examination was concluded with the adjournment of court yesterday. The cross examination of Hawley was not expected to take up much of the morning session.

Hawley testified under direct examination that Becker answered his telephone on the morning of the murder, soon after the shooting of Rosenthal, and could not have been near the scene as has been previously charged by witnesses for the state.

By reference last night attended by Becker, his wife, brother and counsel failed to determine whether the defendant would be called to the stand to tell his version of the murder and the charges of Jack Rose, Harry Valton and Bridgie Webber that he had ordered Rosenthal killed. Other witnesses said to be held in reserve by the defence include Warden Clancy, Father Cashin and Principal Keeper McInerney of Sing Sing prison, who heard the statement made by "Dago Frank" Cirofici, one of the four gunmen, just before he was executed for his part in the murder of Rosenthal. Cirofici is reported to have told Father Cashin and prison officials that he never heard Becker's name mentioned in connection with the murder.

ANCASTER BOOMING

A number of Brantfordites are motoring to Ancaster to-morrow to be present at the formal opening there of the new Hamilton Country Club. Ancaster is fast developing into quite a fashionable and popular suburb of the Ambitious City. The Hamilton Golf Club has recently purchased 200 acres near the village and Mr. Colt, the famous English expert, two or three weeks ago came out here and laid out what promises to be one of the finest golf courses on the continent. A number of Brantford golfers will join with the club as out of town members as soon as the links are opened up which will probably be not till next year.

BRILLIANT RECITAL BY BRANTFORD GIRL

Miss Mary Dowling a Charming and Accomplished Young Graduate.

(Chatham News).

A great many friends of Miss Mary Kathleen Dowling, one of the 1914 graduates of the Ursuline College of Music, assembled in the spacious college auditorium of "The Pines" on the evening of May 13, when Miss Dowling gave a graduation recital of unusual excellence and artistic charm.

The stage was suitably arranged for the occasion, luxurious palms, ferns and flowers, all lending harmony and setting to the evening's program. At 7.30 the college hall was filled to the doors with expectant music loving guests and needless to add, the comprehensive and artistically arranged programme did not fail to elicit the enthusiastic appreciation of all.

Among the instrumental solos played by Miss Dowling were "Marche Mignonne" by Poldini; "Kamennoi-Ostrov," by Rubenstein and Liszt's "Cantique d'Amour," in all of which the clever pianist displayed an unusual temperamental appreciation of art, a skilled technique and a splendid grasp of musical interpretation. Her exceptional clearness and rapidity of execution elicited much appreciative applause: while the ease and exquisite grace with which she mastered such compositions as Emil Sauer's "Murmure Du Vent" and Saint Saens' "Marche Heroique" reflected much credit on the thoroughness and efficiency of the work accomplished by the faculty of the Ursuline School of Music. The generous and magnificent bouquets of American Beauty ### roses lilies of the valley etc., presented at the conclusion of the graduate's appearances on the stage testified to the success of the evening.

A special feature of the evening was the singing of two solos by Miss Gertrude Brohman of Brohman of Brantford, a singer of no mediocre talent, possessing as she does a voice of rare sweetness, power and melody.

Two vocal quartettes by the Misses Dowling, ameron, Barry and Macdonald as well as Verdis' "Miserere," by Misses H. Husband and H. Landon, harpists and Miss D. Arnold pianist, added much to the success of the recital. Miss Helen Husband was accompanist of the evening.

Miss Dowling, we understand, numbers among those who will be awarded graduation standing at the coming graduation exercises of the Ursuline College.

She has been a student of "The Pines" for the past three years and apart from her success with the piano, she has made excellent progress in vocal music and in pipe organ.

Chicken With Long Hair Is Hatched On A Belfast Farm

BELFAST, May 20.—Mrs. Sarah Crosby, out of a hatching of eggs got only three chickens and one is a curiosity, the chick, which is three days old, has hair just like an animal but very much longer, and not a sign of a feather.

On the B. and R. poultry farm there is another freak. This is a well developed bright little chick with duck's feet.

A DIFFICULTY.

Mistress: "Of course, I don't wish to put any obstacles in the way of your getting married, but I wish it were possible to postpone it until I get another maid."

Mary Ann: "Well, mum, I hardly think I know 'em well enough to ask 'im to put it off."

STANLEY-BULL.

A very quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized Monday afternoon at Grace Church when the Alice Bull was united in marriage to Harry Stanley, Rev. G. C. Mackenzie conducted the services.

SCHUYLER—ARMSTRONG.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Charles Armstrong, Maple Leaf farm, Brantford township, on Thursday last night, when his latest daughter, Miss Hilda, was united in matrimony to Mr. Cecil Schuyler, son of Mr. J. W. Schuyler of Brantford. The wedding took place under an arch of June flowers and marguerites, the Rev. J. R. Heyworth tying the nuptial knot. The bride wore a handsome gown of ivory charmeuse satin covered with shadow lace and pearl trimmings, with bridal veil pinned with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lily of the valley. Miss Jessie Duncan, cousin of the bride, dressed in pink silk, and carrying a basket of roses and lily of the valley, on which rested the ring, completed the picture. After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served, to which about forty guests sat down, the table decorations being pink. After lunch the happy couple left on their honeymoon trip, taking the boat at Hamilton for Montreal and other points. The bride and groom were the recipients of many valuable and useful presents. The groom's gift to the bride was gold wristlet watch, to the flower girl a gold bracelet, and to Miss Margaret Armstrong, who played the wedding march, a pearl ring.

Knights of Malta.

St. Elmo Chapter turned out in good force at their last meeting to welcome their distinguished knights from the G.C.G. of Canada, and the M.E. P.G.P. and P.G.M. of the G.C.G. of America.

The V.E.C., V. R. Cowton, assisted by the V.E. and P.C. Sir Knights of the G.C.G. After the degree work so ably put on, commendable expressions by the M.E. visitors and new Sir Knights of St. Elmo were made. A royal and hearty welcome was tendered to the M.E. P.G.M. and M.E. P.G.P. of the G.C.G. of America, the M.E. P.G.P. Sir Knight R. E. A. Land and members of the G.C.G. The chapter was at ease, while the M.E. and esteemed Sir Knight delighted the knights, in rapid attention of his travels in the East, and recent sojourn in the sunny South, and with one accord an eventful and profitable evening closed after an invitation had been extended to St. Elmo to visit "Sandilands" and Sir Robert Land, commanderies, Toronto, in June. The principal business transacted, refreshments were served, which brought a long to be remembered chapter meeting to a close, the National Anthem being rendered.

ATTEMPT MADE TO DESTROY PROPERTY

CHICAGO, May 19.—Suggestion that the prospect of a bumper crop this season had to a large extent been ruined by the Hespan fly forced the wheat market today to a much higher level. The close was strong at nearly the topmost point reached, 1-2 to 1-4 above last night. Corn made a net gain of 5-8 to 3-4 and oats 1-2 to 1c. In provisions the outcome was unchanged to do down.

BAD FIGHT AT DELHI FUNERAL

Ear-Muff Jordan Dropped Dead When Beer Was Spilled.
[By Special Wire to The Courier]
NEW YORK, May 20.—The New York Telegraph's dispatch from Delhi Texas, this week is as follows:
The funeral of Pitkin Jordan, better known as Ear-Muff Jordan, a town character, was held yesterday afternoon from the lodge room of the Our Brothers organization. Jordan dropped dead from excitement on the street on Friday when the delivery team of the Barney and Leighton brewery ran away and spilled beer all over Margolis avenue.
Jordan had a strange trait, which gave him his nickname of Ear-Muff. He was old and cranky and whenever he thought anybody in his vicinity was boasting he'd take out a pair of ear-muffs and put them on. Then he'd shake his head and shout: "Can't hear you, friend!"
They say he attempted to put his ear muffs on at a Bryan lecture once, but somebody snatched them away from him just in time.
Mayor Cyrus Perkins Walker, grand lovable high priest of the Our Brothers lodge, delivered the funeral oration yesterday. He talked twenty minutes about the life of the deceased and then said:
"He was a great and good man, also a man of fine intellect. In many ways he reminded me of myself and—"
"Paradise me, Mayor," said Brick Skinner, an anti-Walker Democrat, interrupting. "But has Jordan got his ear-muffs on?"
The mayor said the remark was an insult and ordered Constable Brown to arrest Skinner. The latter was ordered out in the hall and told he'd have to go to jail.

Late Golf Scores In Big Tourney

Charles W. Evans of Chicago won his match in the third round. Frederick Herreshoff of New York was beaten in the third round by the Hon. Michael Scott of the Royal St. George.
"Chick" Evans is now the only American of prominence left in Herreshoff, it will be remembered, was the runner-up for the United States championship against Hilton two years ago. On the links to-day reports were current that an Englishman had won $50,000 from an American on a wager of $50,000 to $150,000 that neither Travers or Ouimet would win the championship. Both have now been defeated.
John Ball, eight-times British champion, was defeated by Captain Humphreys at the 19th hole.

worthy. It is, as the Globe says, above all things else, a people's question, and therefore the only way in which it can be settled is to pronounce on it apart from all party feeling or party influence.
"But it is in the East Lambton contest that we are more intimately concerned. No matter who the respective candidate will be, it will be anybody's battle. If the Liberals insist on adhering to the Rowell policy they will be leading their candidate with a handicap that it will be very difficult to carry. If any reader has any doubt of the correctness of this statement, he or she has only to go over the list of voters with whom he or she is intimately acquainted, pick out the Liberals who will vote against the 'abolish-the-bar' policy, then pick out the Conservatives who will vote against their own party and sum up the result. The Free Press is in favor of a policy of submitting the temperance question to the people apart from a political contest, where, as the Globe says, 'it appeals to MEN, not as Liberals, or Conservatives, but as CITIZENS.' The capital letters are our own, and are used because the temperance question is too big and too important to be made the plaything of party politics. It is big enough and important enough to be submitted to the people free from all other issues and untrammelled by party bias.
"Let there be no misunderstanding as to the attitude of the Free Press. We will support any measure calculated to advance the temperance cause, even to the full extent of total prohibition, and we are firmly convinced that the only fair and square way in which the question can be submitted to the people is apart from any other election contest, so that every elector can exercise his right to vote on the issue according to his own convictions. It is the only way in which permanent results can be assured."

BUSH FIRES RAGE

Villages in Ottawa Valley Are in Danger of Being Wiped Out.
[By Special Wire to The Courier]
OTTAWA, Ont., May 20.—Bush fires are raging with increasing strength through the Ottawa Valley and if rain does not come soon or a high wind should arise, some of the villages along the Pontiac line above Hull will be in danger of being wiped out.
The full force of fire rangers employed by the railways, lumbermen's associations and the railway and conservation commissioners are doing all in their power to prevent the fires from spreading. Reports were current in Ottawa this morning that Nominiguing camp, a summer resort in Algonquin Park, owned by the Grand Trunk, had been wiped out. These reports, Grand Trunk officials here pronounced unfounded.
Serious fires are raging in the bush six miles east, four miles north and eight miles west from the Grand Trunk's Highland Inn, Algonquin Park.

CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION.

The convention which takes place to-morrow night in the Borden Club hall, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the Ontario House, will no doubt be largely attended.

THE COMING ELECTION.

It is impossible to imagine a more disorganized party than the Liberals in connection with what seems likely to be an early Ontario election.

SOME KNOCKERS.

The Guelph Mercury protests that Hydro-Electric should not be placed to the credit of the Conservative Government at Toronto, and that Liberals, as well as Conservatives, are entitled to credit for that grand scheme.

Uncle Walt

The bloming month deserves all praise, and should inspire some poets; it ought to have two hundred days, and each day just a fortnight long.

THE GOVERNMENT MAJORITY.

By the very satisfactory plurality of forty-seven the amendment was defeated which sought to give the six months' hoist to the Borden Government proposals with reference to the Canadian Northern Railway.

FIVE KILLED

COLUMBUS, O., May 20.—It is reported that five persons were killed early to-day when an automobile was struck by an interurban car near Asheville, 25 miles south of this city.

to the Northwest. Nickle of Kingston is one of the most youthful members of the Commons, as his conduct very well indicates.

Both the above gentlemen, during the debate, have said harsh things about Mackenzie and Mann, and many Grit papers have depicted Premier Borden as under their thumb.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The Borden Government is on the brink of despair! What?

In Calgary it still continues to read, "Oil's well that shows well."

Wanted—Rowell candidates. Apply to almost any Ontario riding.

Hotel waiters of Canada are signing a petition against the bill in the Senate to prevent tipping.

Roosevelt is back in New York, and he reaffirms that while in Brazil he put a new river on the map as long as the Rhine.

Dr. Jessop is the Liberal member for Lincoln, which seat he carried for the Ontario House last time by acclamation.

Mayor Carter of Guelph has announced that he will run for the Provincial House no matter what an adjourned Liberal convention may do.

To a disorderly charge, he pleaded guilty. He said it was his principle to keep out of the hands of the police and after being warned he was given his liberty.

Vocational Work For Women Discussed By Dr. Robinson

Professor J. W. Robertson of the Royal Commission of Technical Education, who was sent by the Dominion Government to study school education in the different countries, gave a fine talk on vocational education for women. He made his remarks more of a conversational nature owing to the smallness of the audience and did not refer to the notes which he had drawn up. Opening his address he spoke of the many and varied courses now adopted by members of the fair sex and he commented on the fact that not one of the trades and professions was taught in schools, where they should be dealt with. Girls had to learn their trades after they had left school. That was not as it should be. Professions should be taught in schools. Take Switzerland, life in that part of the world, was magnificent and look what had led up to it centuries and centuries of struggles. Children there, were given 6 to 10 hours of work at home, industrial work, and that compares differently to the two hours given to Canadian scholars. The system in vogue in Winnipeg was good and children there were taught to read fluently in twelve months and they could write with a good round hand in three months. They had learnt in that time what it takes many others five years to master. A special school in Massachusetts, giving prominence to physical culture, was well ahead of others. Germans, Danes and Swedes encouraged the strenuous use of muscular energy and they did this with a purpose. It was no fad. They had adopted physical culture thirty years ago.

Edinburgh was not a practical city and even there they taught the scholars fourteen trades, four for girls and ten for boys. Education should be fitted to the child and not the child subjected to some theoretical system which was forced upon all. Many girls with all their education, could not make a dinner, she would give it up, in despair. Money given for education would give a better return than if it was expended upon canals, but to railroads and such like schemes. The money thus spent would lead to a better code of life. Girls could be trained to trades and he had seen in Ottawa hats made by the girls at a cost of five to seven dollars, which were worth fifty dollars. Taking an average wage would the modern girl know how to spend it to best advantage upon household affairs. In Dundee there was a separate little school contained within the larger where the girls finished their school careers, learning something useful and summarizing all their previous work. In Rochester, U. S. A. a school given over for teaching young ladies useful trades, was interested. He heartily thanked Mr. Robertson for his magnificent address.

The speaker thought that one of the finest vocations that could be followed was that of a school teacher. To be a fisher of men was a great following but to be a fisher of children, was a much greater vocation. Mrs. Livingston moved a vote of thanks which was seconded by Mrs. Reid and cordially responded to. Principal Burt expressed his keen pleasure at the excellent lecture and his only wish was that it had been heard by a greater number of those interested. He heartily thanked Mr. Robertson for his magnificent address.

"Jay Walkers" the Latest.

They have coined a new word in the States for pedestrians who will persist in walking diagonally across the streets. They are called "jay walkers" in contra-distinction to "joy riders" and the police in several of the cities have instructions to summon those guilty of the practice of not coming to the side of the regular crossings. In Brantford "jay walkers" are very prominent and an ugly accident is sure to be recorded if the police do not stop the habit here. No one should be allowed to walk diagonally across the main thoroughfares, those not under the "influence" not excepted.

QUIMMET LOST TO YOUNG TUBBS

Youthful English Player Overcomes Famous American Champion.

(By Special Wire to The Courier)
SANDWICH, Eng., May 20.—The third day's play in the British amateur golf championship brought together a bigger crowd of spectators than ever owing to the open character of the competition. A large gallery followed the match between Francis Ouimet, open champion of the United States and Mr. Tubbs, a very youthful local player from a near-by club at Littlestone-on-Sea, Kent. The enthusiasm of the Americans among the spectators was soon sharply cooled by the way in which Tubbs handled their favorite. By the time the two players reached the turn Ouimet was one down and Tubbs finished the round with a net and 1 to play.

Ouimet's card for the round was as follows:
Outward . . . . . 554744535—42
Homeward . . . . . 554455355—41
Total . . . . . 83

Tubbs did two strokes better on the first nine holes and one stroke better on the second half of the journey. His card read:
Outward . . . . . 55443555—47
Homeward . . . . . 453545464—40
Total . . . . . 80

The disheartening defeat of Ouimet cast a gloom over the American contingent but the cloud was partially dispersed shortly afterward by a victory gained by Frederick Herreshoff of New York in beating J. R. Platt of the Royal North Devon club by 4 up and 3 to play.

A GREAT CHANGE.

A story is told of a "printer's error" that once caused consternation in a country village. An arch in the church had become dilapidated, and a fund was started for its repair. Upon one occasion, so as to make the appeal more widely known, the rector had a notice regarding the arch fund printed in the village, with the result that on the following Sunday the announcement appeared in large type: "The collection to-day will be for the arch fiend."

THE TWO THROWING TABORS

G. S. & M. WON FROM CLERKS

Softball Game Last Night Drew Out a Big Crowd.

The Clerk's soft ball team went down to defeat last night at Recreation Park when the G. S. and M. representatives stuck over a 15 to 2 score on them. It was a poor game of soft ball to watch, the players doing nothing but crab each other all through the contest. In this respect Dinny Burke of the factory boys was the star offender. He did nothing but crab at the umpires from start to finish, and his nasty work helped to spoil the game.

The Windmill boys got to Hanley in the fifth for four runs and he was derrick and Woolman took up the duties of pitcher and went along fine until the seventh when five runs came across. The Clerks got their runs in the fifth and sixth on good hitting. Everyone of the G. S. and M. team hit the ball hard, but in this respect the Clerks were deficient.

McQuinn pitched good ball for the factory team and deserved a shut out. Score by innings.

Notes of Game.

Robbins is a neat catcher and should be a star before the end of the season.
Hanley derrick himself in the fifth. He is a wise manager.
McQuinn had the Clerks tied in knots. He is certainly a fine pitcher. Dinny Burke should get away from his crabbing methods. They never win games.

Umpires Alf. Stuart and A. Hull were both impartial and did good work.
The Clerks are a little weak with the stick. However better days are coming.
Slattery played a good fielding game at short. He is a grand little fielder.
The factory boys must have had a windmill up their sleeves from the way they blew Hanley's and Woolman's offerings around.
G. S. and M. have a splendid team and should take a lot of beating. One thing sure they can all hit.
A policeman was noticeable by his presence. Conditions were greatly improved.

HARD ON MANAGER.

KILL THE FLIES IN YOUR HOUSE NOW

Toronto's Medical Health Officer says: "If you come across any flies in your house kill them now." Therefore all good housekeepers should commence using WILSON'S FLY PADS early and continue their use through the season.
Remember that every ten-cent packet of WILSON'S FLY PADS will kill more flies than three hundred sheets of sticky paper.
Follow the directions carefully to get the best results.

Sport Comment

The sports editor of the Spectator is greatly peeved over The Courier reference to the Athletics that they had been playing over their own heads in the games against Brantford. Wonder what he feels like to-day after those eight runs off Doc Yates in one inning at London. Truth of the matter is Hamilton lacks class and will get down in the ruck in short order and never get out of it. It's hard to tell our own kind neighbors this so early in the fray. Bobby Robinson should console himself, however, with the fact that he is not participating in the management of the club from the press box this year. That is being done from the little jury box, especially erected for the use of the Hamilton directors.

The showing of the Red Sox in the last two games warrants the belief that they will be some team and the longer they go the better they will get. Dolan the big hard hitting outfielder got in early Tuesday morning, but could not find a hotel to sleep in. Consequently the Rubs did not use him yesterday in the outfield. Dolan will replace Ivers to-day, however, as there seems no question, but that Gabby finds the going rough in the outer garden. He played a far better game at first base, but had to give way to the Chief on that job.

The deal which Deneau is figuring on pulling through will cause a shake-up in the club which will surprise local fans somewhat. It will, however add a lot of hitting strength to the team.
The Red Sox are being given morning practice every day by the Chief and the practices seem to be bearing good results.
If Brantford beats Erie to-day the Red Sox will go into third place. This is what Deneau promised before May 31.

Stars Won Game.

The Eagle Place Junior Stars and Wesley Beavers played a game at Tutela last night. Ward won his game for the Beavers, striking out four men in the pinches. The feature of the game was Ballinger's sensational catch behind second. Batteries, Stars, Workman and Williams; Beavers, Ward and Weller.

When the ball game starts, there are about 700 people out of work in Brantford each day.

KING'S PLATE WILL BE RUN SATURDAY

Big Brantford Delegation to Take in Spectacular Opening of Racing Season at Toronto.

Lovers of the sport of kings will come back into their own starting next Saturday. On that day the historic King's Plate will be run as the feature event of the opening of the 1914 racing season at the Woodbine race track, Toronto. Six other events will be on the day's card, and preparations for a banner opening are going on. Reports from the Woodbine course state that there are several hundred horses quartered there, and daily the track presents a busy scene with the trainers putting on the final touches for Saturday's contests. The king's plate has attracted a great field this year, and a fine renewal of the race is looked for.
Brantfordites who visit Woodbine this year will see a great change in the plant. A new grand stand has been erected, and there is a seating capacity of over 8000 people. From the stand a view of any art of the race course is obtainable, and the structure is said to be as fine as any one on the North American continent.
Daily arrivals of horses from different parts of the country are being recorded, and stable room is being rapidly taken up. In fact it looks as if there will be more horses for the coming meeting than were quartered there last season when a record make was set. A banner opening day crowd is expected, and a new record in the matter of attendance figures will likely be set up.

As usual Brantford lovers of the thoroughbred game will take in the opening day's races at the course. Special trains will be run, and a big delegation from this city will make the trip. Later on the horses will be seen at Fort Erie.

Royally will be in attendance at the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, and Princess Patricia of Connaught will arrive in Toronto next Thursday and will be guests at the races next Saturday. Lord Grey, accompanied by the Countess Grey, and his daughter, Lady Sybil Grey, will be guests of the Duke and Duchess of Connaught.

DR. ROBERTSON

The Secondary schools, and 138 traveling instructors at work for rural communities. They take up agriculture, live stock, horticulture, dairying poultry-keeping and house-keeping.

As to financial support, practically three-quarters of the cost comes from imperial funds and one quarter from local taxation in Ireland. The organization and administration are examples for Canada.

When the Workman Likes His Work.

Vocational education is the oldest form of education, and it is still the highest form of education. It may be professional, as for clergymen, lawyers, civil engineers, etc., or it may be industrial, commercial, agricultural, or for house-keeping occupations.
When properly trained for his job, one of the first effects observable is that the workman likes his work, understands it, has ability to do it well, and there is sure of obtaining reasonably good returns. The finest and highest of such developments are in the character of the man, of his managing ability and of the spirit and method of co-operating with his fellow workers and others in the community.

Great Progress in Other Countries.

Examples of pre-vocational schools in other countries were mentioned in England, Scotland, Ireland, the United States, France and Germany such classes or schools have made remarkable progress within the last ten years. In Scotland the growth has been from 162 schools with 3,281 pupils to 1,945 schools with an attendance of 42,287 pupils, a growth of over twelve-fold in ten years. Within the last seven or eight years, the movement has taken on a very wide sweep in England. Children from 11 to 12 who are to leave school at 13 or 15 go to schools or classes having what is known as an industrial bias. At these schools from one-third to one-quarter of the time is devoted to manual vocational work. The schools do not teach a trade, but give a good preparation for the learning of a trade immediately after the children leave school.
In European countries these schools or classes do not displace general education. The classes themselves are called "Supplementary Courses" that is the term used in Scotland and in France, where boys of twelve give about fifteen hours a week to general subjects and twenty hours to manual and constructive subjects. Girls in France enter these schools at about twelve years of age and give one-half of the school time to general subjects and the other half to hand work in some form of vocational training.

The City of Chemnitz.

The City of Chemnitz in the Kingdom of Saxony, with a population of 20,000 has large manufactures in locomotives, agricultural implements, cotton spinning, linen weaving and glove-making. It provides an admirable example of the organization of Technical Education. It has altogether twenty-nine technical schools. For over forty years attendance of all young men between 14 and 17 has been required for at least four hours weekly. Now apprentices receive all their instruction in the day time, and that usually in a continuous session at school of four or five hours in the forenoon, when the pupils are fresh. The aim of these Continuation schools is, first, to increase the knowledge and efficiency of the student as a producer; and second, to make him a better citizen. At the time of the Commission's visit, the attendance was 14,000 students being a number equal to five per cent. of the population of the city. Besides the Continuation Schools at Chemnitz there are the Technical Institute with five departments, having an attendance of 1,253 students, and a higher Weaving School, with seven departments, having an attendance of 510 students.

Development in Farming

As an example of what is practicable under conditions in the Maritime Provinces for the improvement of agriculture, Dr. Robertson cited some specific cases from the Illustration Farms carried on under the committee on lands of the Commission of Conservation. These Illustration Farms were chosen by groups of farmers themselves. The Illustration Farmer is the one of themselves who has agreed to carry on his farm work for his personal advantage and for the improvement of the farming of the neighborhood. He receives about six visits per year from counsellors employed by the Commission of Conservation. The members of the Neighborhood Improvement Association of the locality also go over his farm twice a year and discuss with him the methods of growing crops and the management of the farm business.

$10 Per Acre of Additional Profit

From Waterloo County, Ont. as the result of after-harvest cultivation carried on as advised, the Illustration Farmer reported a yield of fifteen bushels of oats per acre more than the yield on the other part of the same field managed in the old way. He reported an increase of three tons of sugar beets per acre, worth $16. Other illustration farmers reported increases of oats of from eight to ten bushels per acre. One farmer in Eastern Ontario reported that his crop of roots for stock feeding purposes was two-thirds greater on the part of the field managed according to the suggestions of the Commission of Conservation than on the remainder of the field. In brief, taking the illustration farms in the Province of Ontario, the reports show that the farmers themselves on the areas which they managed according to the recommendations of the Commission, obtained an average of about $10 per acre of profits above what they were making by the old methods—$10 per acre of an increase in profits, not in gross revenue. There are eight Illustration Farms in under the committee of lands of the Commission of Conservation.

As Applied to Ontario

Under the policy recommended by the commission, there would be two technical instruction and training, one of $30,000 a year to promote pre-vocational training by means of experimental science, manual training, drawing, domestic science, and nature study in the public schools, and another of $3,000,000 annually to supplement local efforts in providing vocational education for those who are past public school age.
The people of Ontario could draw from these funds to the extent of over a million dollars annually, besides receiving from Dominion authorities the co-operation and advisory help of highly trained and experienced counsellors in starting new kinds of schools, as, for example, for

Mann's Coal
We Have Plenty of Coal Have You?

textile workers, and in the development of new industries.
As Applied to Towns and Cities
In Ontario there are 39 towns and cities, each with a population of over 5,000. These contain a total population of 953,896. It is estimated that within seven years there would be in these places about 30,000 pupils in the schools for the vocational training of those over 14 years of age. These towns and cities could draw from the Dominion development funds up to $380,000 a year.
The following list indicates in round figures to what extent each city and town in Ontario might receive assistance in maintaining suitable classes:

PETER'S ADVENTURES IN MATRIMONY

By LEONA DALRYMPLE. Author of the New Novel, "Diane of the Green Van," Awarded a Prize of $10,000 by Ida M. Tarbell and S. S. McClure as Judges.

The truth about "the girl in the case" distinguishes this new series by Miss Dalrymple. Her character studies will not appear unfamiliar to the majority of readers, who will follow the fortunes of "Peter" with interest.

The Virtue of Prudence. OF COURSE IT was inevitable, I suppose, that the pendulum should swing quite to the other side with Mary's intense passion for orderly housekeeping, but why—oh, why don't women learn the true value of things? Mary is a will spasm of enthusiasm has abandoned her clubs and every other form of social life. Now she works and works and works in a fever of atoning energy from morning to night. She's thinner, but she's better for that. Mary was getting a little too heavy merely from an inert method of life and eating too much cake and ice cream la—In the afternoon, but I feel at she ought to go out occasionally and go out with me.

LEONA DALRYMPLE. Yet I might as well confess it—there's a flaw in this tremendously wise passion for neatness. After prating of Mary's carelessness and rejection of when her belated phase of neatness struck her, I feel a little guilty in the appalling discovery I have made. I know I want Mary—she's busy. She's either going to cook, has just been cooking—or wants to cook. She cooks exhaustively of dust and house-cleaning every night at dinner, though she detests the uninteresting details of my business. Just colors her views on everything, and particularly architecture. Just yesterday I described an attractive nook in the house of a friend, and immediately Mary exclaimed with matronly prudence: "But what a place to catch the dust. Peter, and how hard to keep clean!" And the passion isn't wanting! That's the singular thing about it. It grows all the result again of a woman's club.

Decorating the Country House

By MAY ELDRIDGE

THERE is a strong Chinese note in the newest cretonnes and chintzes which are offered in such vast quantities for the adornment of the country house. Also the pattern is repeated in the table china. Queer birds with wondrous plumage cling to the strangely bent and twisted and flower-laden trees above the turrets of some fantastic house, and they riot on the boards of the bed and the front of the dressing table and dressers. The draperies match. On a pale gray set there was a design of but-tercup and bluebells, and the pale gray cretonne which formed the hangings had the same colors and design, while the woven rugs of gray had borders of blue, or a stiffly painted tulip or a rose or a buttercup done in the crude style in which the child would set a row of flowers in the picture of a garden which he might make on the blackboard.

For Window Curtains. Flower pots are most ornate and easily made so. The ordinary glazed pot which has a rim at the top is used and is painted in dull green with the band in a contrasting shade, sometimes striped with lines of lighter color. On the sides are blossoms, a single flower, a stiffly painted tulip or a rose or a buttercup done in the crude style in which the child would set a row of flowers in the picture of a garden which he might make on the blackboard.

Wonderful Flower Designs. There are also wonderful flower designs executed on little-backed chairs of German or Austrian style. There will be a bed of red roses in the centre of the back and the middle with the seat, and conventionalized tulips in blue or yellow traced for a border, while a grotesque parrot swings at the point where the garlands join just above the rose bed on the back of the chair.

It seems a comparatively simple matter for the woman with skill in using patterns and paints to do over one or two old chairs in this manner. After they are painted a coat of waterproof varnish is applied, and the chair has the appearance of being something entirely new. Of course, judgment must be used to

Advice to Girls

By ANNIE LAURIE

Dear Annie Laurie: I don't a boy friend who is very handsome, and I am simply crazy about him, but he has one fault. I was out walking with him one evening and I noticed he flirted with every girl he met. Please tell me if I should be right to take it as an insult or as one of his whims.

A SCHOOLGIRL. ANSWER: I don't think you'd make it a whim of mine never to go anywhere with him again as long as I lived. Any man who will flirt with girls on the street, especially when he has one girl with him, is a cad of the lowest type. He's a vain, silly, ill-mannered boor, and how you can be silly about him, or think you must be just a wee bit crazy to begin with.

How Figures Can Lie By WINIFRED BLACK

Copyright, 1914, by Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

FIGURES can't lie—do you believe that? I don't. I know it isn't true. Figures can lie, and lie harder and faster and more deceitfully than anything else on earth. Pick up that book of statistics for a minute. Turn to the page on labor. How many hundred thousand women are there employed in the United States as farm laborers? If you should ask me, I'd say, at a rough guess, just about 100 women in all. The book says over 70,000.

Oh, yes, it's a fact all right; but don't emigrate to the South Seas with the idea that the country is going to the dogs—or to the women—on that account. Those women farm laborers are cotton pickers. Ah, yes—now you see, don't you? Look at the reports from that orphan asylum. It's been running for forty years and in the last thirty years not one single child has died there and not one has been seriously ill within the gates. Don't grab your own delicate children and send them to that asylum for protection. Wait a minute—look into those figures a bit, and you will find that it is perfectly true that no child has died at the asylum within thirty years or has been seriously ill there. The moment a child is taken ill somebody rings for the ambulance and that child goes to the hospital—either to get well, or to die, but in any case to be kept off the asylum record as very ill or dead. Simple enough, isn't it—when you get the clew?

Interesting Facts About Famous Rivers

The river Platte during the summer is dry along the greater portion of its course. The water runs underground, only an occasional pool appearing on the surface. By digging almost anywhere in its course a supply of fresh, cool water may be obtained. The river Euphrates flowed through the city of Babylon; and on each side of its banks the walls of the city were carried up to a height as great as at any other point, so that even during a siege the city was as fortifiably defended on the river as on the land side. Before the coming of the whites to America the Mississippi river was known by a different name every few miles in its course. Each tribe that dwelt along its banks gave it a name and more than 50 of these local designations are preserved in the narratives of the early travellers. Over one-third the territory of Africa, the Sahara district, does not contain a single river. The greatest river in the world is the Gulf Stream. It is from 100 to 200 miles wide, and over 200 miles long, extending from the strait between Florida and Cuba to the northern coast of Norway. The Jordan is the "Descender." During its course it falls over 120 feet. At no point is it navigable, even by a small craft, to any considerable distance, and presents the unique spectacle of a river which has never been navigated flowing into a sea which contains not one living creature. The Yellow river is styled the "Sorrow of China." During the last century it has changed its course 23 times, and now flows into the sea through a mouth 300 miles distant from that of 100 years ago. It is estimated that its floods in the present century have cost China 11,000,000 of lives. In Algeria there is a river of ink. In the upper part of its course it flows through beds of decaying moss, in the lower part through strata of iron ore, and thus, through the combination of the two, its waters acquire very nearly the color and something of the taste of black ink. The marshy ground of the Ganges delta, with its vast masses of vegetation, decaying under a tropical sun, is the native home of the cholera. In that pestiferous region the cholera and plague are found every year and all the year round. Every cholera epidemic which has desolated Europe, every visitation of the plague, is believed to have started from the mouth of the Ganges.

Secrets of Health and Happiness

When You "Kill Time" You Only Harm Yourself

By DR. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG. A. B., M. A., M. D. (Johns Hopkins).

TIME is the emperor of man and beast. Therefore gather your rozebuds while ye may, old time is still a-dying. The very tower that smiles today tomorrow will be dying. Time, forever battling, hurries to seize the everlasting. To fetter the seven-leagued and bottled jade is to be the conqueror in life. Time is actually you. Unlike space, which is outside you and your life, time is the passage of life, the passing of the glory of activity in vital tissues. Savants call this a relative thing—something dependent on other things. It is, of course, measured by events, or rather the sequence of events.

Suppose, for instance, that it takes a man one second to raise and lower his hand. If there are other activities that can perform the same action in a hundredth of a second, that period will be a second to them, for, after all, we measure time by the number of physical actions we can perform. This being the case, certain insects that live only a week have really lived several years.

Imagine human life on an electron, the smallest of real things, 180 times smaller than an atom. One second of your time would be, then, about 20,000,000,000 years. On the other hand, if you can imagine that suns and stars have life, one of their seconds would be about 20,000,000,000 of your years.

A great many things depend upon this idea of time. A learned sceptic explains the miracle of turning water into wine by saying it means simply that the growth of the grape was shortened. The reason a quick, active man accomplishes so much more in the same time than a slow one is that he lives by a different system of time than the other. Baxter wrote his "Saint's Everlasting Rest" in the 17th century on a sick bed. Benjamin Franklin, while at work as a journeyman printer, produced his "Declaration on Measure and Pain and Liberty and Necessity."

Pand worked as a tent maker in intervals of travel and exhaustion. "Pilgrim's Progress" was written when Bunyan was in close confinement at Bedford Jail. While plying his trade as a village blacksmith, Elihu Burritt made himself acquainted with 19 languages. Before this he had stopped school after only six months' education. The busy, rolling sort unseen at church, at athletic play, at busy work, the ever restless loiterers that attend to almost nothing productive have no measure of time or space.

An idler is not only a sick man; a watch that wags both hands is as useless when it goes as when it stops. Time is the greatest of miracles. It is mystery of movement. It is the quiet, unlimited, ever-rolling, hurrying, scurrying silence of the all-embracing ebb

Three Minute Journeys

In the Land of the Ju-Ju By TEMPLE MANNING

OUT of the mysterious silence of the "bush," in the little known regions of West Africa, the first intimation that this is indeed the land of witchcraft comes to the traveller when his guide stops before a large tree, to be seen in the centre of each village, and adds an offering of some sort to others in the roots. If pressed for an explanation you may finally induce him to tell of the "Isim" tree, where "the good spirits dwell" and guard the people from the dreaded ju-ju demons. In the vast forests, which press so closely around the little clearings, great trees are to be seen seemingly inhabited by malignant spirits ever ready "to seize on the passer-by and imprison him within their rugged arms." Of these the cotton trees are not only the largest, but the most dreaded. By means of offerings hung around the buttress-like roots the spirit of such a tree may be won over to wreak vengeance on an enemy or grant wealth and power to petitioners.

The blacks of the Ekol settlements believe that for those too poor to provide the usual offerings there remains a more terrible way to enlist the aid of the demons. A man may offer himself as a sacrifice, and after enjoying the results of his prayer for a few years, must go, when the spirit calls him, and suffer imprisonment so long as the tree shall endure. Despite the missionary influence of the English and German governments, the blacks apparently have not given up a single item of their long list of superstitions. What the white man has tried to teach has fallen on deaf ears. Their whole life is witch-ridden, from birth until death.

In the bush, with its green twilight, its dark shadows and quivering lights, "Isim" (withcraft) reigns supreme. Mother, sister or sweetheart may be a witch in disguise. A bird, or a bat, or any small beast—all may be wizaris, ready to do you hurt. Should witches wish to kill a man, the people believe, they gather at night in the air over his town and dance. Perhaps their most terrible power is that of "sucking out the heart" of a man. A sufferer with beri-beri is usually thought to have been bewitched in this way. When the "pang-pang" of the giant bat, the messenger of the demons, is heard at night it is a matter of faith that at dawn there will be one dweller the less in the village. The southern United States negro obtained most of his superstitions straight from this region. But while he has practically outlived his heritage, the land of his forefathers is as dark today as it ever was.

Peculiar Superstitions of Animals

In all lands ravens and crows have been considered birds of evil omen. In England it is believed that hedgehogs foresee and by their uneasy actions forestall a coming storm. A hundred years ago all naturalists taught that the pelican fed its young with its own blood. The natives of India believe that elephants have a religion and form of worship.
