Tea Sets in China and Semi-Porcelain

AT BARGAIN PRICES

For a long time before the war we had been buying English and French China in Tea and Dinner Sets, as we found them of better design and coloring, as well as more durable, resisting the action of hot water much better than German or Austrian ware and while they were slightly higher in the first cost, yet their longer lasting qualities made them cheaper in the end.

Our Tea Sets at present prices are far below wholesale prices

LOST VOICE WHILE

SINGING IN ST. JOHN.

Miss Heen Marr of Boston was recently stricken dumb in the middle of a song in St. John, while filling an engagement at the Gem Theatre in that city. In the middle of a song something suddenly snapped in her throat and her voice almost completely left her. On examination it was found that one of her vocal cords had collapsed. Miss Marr returned to her home in Boston and her condition is considered quite serious.

BABY'S OWN TABLETS

They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

London, Feb. 1.—With a German prize crew on board, the British passenger liner Appam, picked up in West African waters, has been brought to Hampton Roads. This has created a sensation here greater than that aroused when the German auxiliary cruisers, Prinz Eitel Friedrich and Kron Prinz Wilhelm ran the gauntlet of the British blockading squadron and entered Norfolk for internment. There has been no determination, as yet, of the American government's course respecting the ship.

Why Recommended

"My case was very serious and I was so sick that everybody expected my death any day. No suffering could ever be worse than what I had to endure.

I could feel at first the gravel passing through my bladder but now I am as strong as ever. I weigh about 20 lbs. more than when I started to take Gin Pills.

The first box relieved me a good deal, and eight boxes were sufficient to cure me entirely, and bring me back to perfect health.

IN buying flour, it is some consolation to know that the responsibility for its success doesn't altogether rest with you. It is part of our policy to inspect and test each barrel of Horton Flour before it is shipped. In that way, we not only avoid complaints, but we ensure that the flour shall always be of the same uniform quality, and therefore always dependable. Since it costs no more for this kind of flour, why not at least give it a trial? We believe you'll like it. Nearly every grocer carries and is glad to recommend Horton Flour.

THERE IS A NIAGARA OF POWER AT OUR VERY DOOR.

The Greatest Problem of the World Today is Power—How to Obtain Cheap, and Yet Cheaper Power—Dr. Cutten, President of Acadia College, Tells the Halifax Commercial Club Where Unlimited Power Waits to be Harnessed—At Cape Split, in Minas Channel.

Halifax, February 4—At this time in the history of our Province, and particularly in the history of Halifax, when the great question of hydro-electric power is commanding so much of the attention of those who are responsible for the welfare and progress of our country, the paper, "Nova Scotia's Greatest Water Power and Its Relation to Halifax," read by President G. B. Cutten, of Acadia University, at the Commercial Club luncheon yesterday, was most appropriate and acceptable. The St. Julien room of the Halifax Hotel was crowded and the overflow had to take their lunch in the main dining hall, returning to special chairs in the St. Julien room in time to hear Dr. Cutten.

The exact nature of Dr. Cutten's paper was not generally known. It was therefore a very pleasant surprise when the president announced that his paper was an outline of a project to harness the two million horse-power that was contained in the tidal flow at Cape Split at the mouth of the Minas Basin. There was some criticism of the paper at the conclusion by Mr. McColl, who seconded, and also by Controller Mackeen who moved the vote of thanks all of which was pleasantly answered by Dr. Cutten, who welcomed the criticism.

It is an enormous project and one that cannot be given too much attention.

Dr. Cutten's paper was as follows:

All thoughtful Nova Scotians, who have an interest of the province at heart are at present much interested in water power. We all recognize, I think, that the future prosperity of the province depends upon it. This is especially true, when we consider post bellum conditions and the great struggle for industrial supremacy which will then take place.

Probably no land of its size in the world is richer in variety of minerals than is our province, and with the coal and iron so easily available Nova Scotia should be the New England of Canada, teeming with factories of all kinds.

Unfortunately other provinces have financial advantages of us as far as our coal is concerned, and so long as that is true we must look for some other power and particularly some cheaper power. Water power is the direction toward which we naturally turn.

It is true that the water-powers in Nova Scotia have not been fully developed on account of our plentiful supply of fuel, and it is interesting to enquire the exact amount of water-power we have in Nova Scotia. The commission of conservation (Report of 1910) estimates the possible development of water-power in Nova Scotia to be only 54,000 h. p., much of which would not be available for a few months in the summer. A little more detail of the commission's report might be of interest. In Nova Scotia there has been developed about 20,000 h. p. of water power. Of this 12,650 h. p. are used for pulp and paper mills, 2,700 h. p. for electric light, 350 h. p. for gold mining, and the remainder, about 4,000 h. p. for saw and grist mills.

In New Brunswick, 13,000 h. p. has been developed from water power. Of this 56 per cent is for use in small lots for saw, grist and pulp mills, and the remainder is used for electric plants. Of the latter, there is one development of 3,800 h. p. largely for use in the State of Maine.

In Prince Edward Island there are a few small developments of from 5 to 50 h. p. One electric plant develops 44 h. p.

The total development is about 500 h. p., and that is about the limit of possibility.

At the present the total water-power in the maritime provinces is 34,500 h. p. The steam development in Nova Scotia alone, outside of Sydney, is about 30,000 h. p. The possible development of water-power in Nova Scotia is 54,000 h. p. which would not be sufficient to carry throughout the whole year the total installation of steam and water power, which was then estimated by the commission at 49,724 h. p., not including Sydney.

That is if all the inland water-power of Nova Scotia were developed, it would not provide power for the present need, and it would leave no opportunity whatever, for future industrial development. It is of local interest to note that Halifax County alone had then installed 9,913 h. p., which is more than four times the amount of power which the commission estimates any one of the present projected hydro-electric schemes could supply continuously.

Recently an advertising booklet of the water-power branch of the interior department has come to hand in which the estimates of the promoters of the various waterpower schemes are given, without verification by the government. For example, they speak of the Gaspeau possibility as being estimated by some firm of engineers as capable of 8,000 h. p. development as against the government estimate of 1,945 h. p. and the J. G. White company estimate of 5,370 h. p. Even allowing for all glowing estimates of the power development of Nova Scotia, the total will not reach more than 55,000 or 60,000 h. p. and will entail a great many expensive developments at out of the way places, in nearly all cases far from the industrial centres of the province and, of course, out of the question so far as New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island are concerned. For beneficial results all would have to be controlled by one operating company.

The large New Brunswick developments are from 200 to 400 miles away from St. John and other industrial centres.

Unfortunately the commission did not take note of Nova Scotia's best water-power, nor did it give us an estimate of the possible power development. Unfortunately also, I am at this time unable to supply the deficiency in full. I can say this much however, within a radius of three miles of one point in Nova Scotia water-power to the amount of 2,000,000 h. p. is available. I refer to a certain point on the Bay of Fundy and to the power of the tidal flow there. The remainder of the time at my disposal will be taken up with a discussion of the possibility of utilizing this power.

What use has in the past been made of tidal power has been entirely through the means of large reservoirs, one of which is kept at high tide level and empties through power gates to the other kept at low tide level. This means is not satisfactory for continuous power unless the reservoirs are very large to prevent loss of head between tides and the dams correspondingly expensive. For the Bay of Fundy this method does not seem to be feasible because of the cost and the necessary interference with navigation. It is our proposal to use the tidal current flow rather than the head, in solving the problem.

An examination of the rate of tidal flow in the Bay of Fundy shows a remarkable variation. The general rate in the middle of the Bay is between one and two knots. The maximum at Digby Gut is four knots. The highest rate is in Minas Channel, where the maximum rate is between eight and ten knots, i.e. between nine and eleven and one-third miles per hour, a rate of flow far surpassing the current of the swiftest streams, and equalled by tidal current at only two other spots on earth.

When we consider that the power increases as the cube of

SHE RECOMMENDS "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

Mrs. Corbett Read the Advertisement and Tried It

Avon, May 14th, 1914.

"I have used 'Fruit-a-tives' for Indigestion and Constipation with most excellent results, and they continue to be my only medicine. I saw 'Fruit-a-tives' advertised with a letter in which some one recommended them very highly, so I tried them. The results were more than satisfactory, and I have no hesitation in recommending 'Fruit-a-tives'."

ANNIE A. CORBETT.

Time is proving that 'Fruit-a-tives' can always be depended upon to give prompt relief in all cases of Constipation and Stomach Trouble.

the rate of current flow, this very high rate assumes larger proportions. It is evident, then, that if any development of tidal power is to take place in a favorable location, it must be at the Minas Channel.

I wish here to make a personal explanation. A little over a year ago at the maritime forward movement meeting in Amherst, I made the statement that it would pay the governments of the maritime provinces to offer a prize of $1,000,000 to the person who would invent a workable motor for the utilization of Bay of Fundy tides. This statement was much quoted and discussed. Needless to say, the government did not rush at this suggestion. The matter, however, would not be driven from my mind, and I continued to consult with Professor R. P. Clarkson, Ivan Curry professor of engineering at Acadia University, and together we have been working at the problem. The solution which I am to present to you is the result of his inventive genius.

In the first place let me remind you of certain difficulties connected with the development of tidal power. For four periods in every twenty-five hours the tidal flow stops, and these periods do not recur at the same time every day. Some form of storage is therefore necessary. Storage batteries are prohibited on account of cost. A supplementary plant to operate at these times would have to be large enough to carry the peak load and therefore might as well be operated all the time.

In the second place the flow is not only entirely stopped for four periods in every twenty-five hours, but the tidal height is constantly changing and the rate of flow varies considerably. It would be difficult to adjust any direct connected machinery depending on tidal height or rate except to the lowest efficiency.

In the third place, any scheme of tidal power development must not interfere with navigation.

A power plant, then, for even a favorable tide like the Bay of Fundy must be so adjusted as to give continuous, regular and sufficient power, with low cost of installation and operation, and at the same time not interfere with navigation.

A visit to Cape Split reveals one of the grandest views in Nova Scotia. Perpendicular cliffs rise abruptly over three hundred feet. A detour of two miles is necessary before one can ascend the cliffs. Even one unacquainted with engineering easily recognizes that an ideal hydro-electric plant would be a reservoir containing an inexhaustible supply of water located at the top of this cliff and feeding to hydraulic turbines placed at the base of the cliff, these turbines discharging directly into the sea.

This would do away with flumes penstocks and tail races which are usually the most expensive parts of a water-power. Everything is most favorable for such a plant here, and everything is provided except the

CANADA'S PARLIAMENT EXTENDED TO OCT. 7, 1917.

On Tuesday in less than two hours the House of Commons, unanimously adopted the resolution proposed by Sir Robert Borden that the life of the present Parliament be extended for one year, thus making it run to Oct. 7, 1917. The fullest house of the session was present with hardly a vacant seat. The resolution introduced by Sir Robert Borden and seconded by Sir George Foster passed the House without a dissenting voice.

Splendid patriotic speeches were given by the leaders of the two great parties.

Sir Robert stated in part, that it has become the custom of Canada, since Confederation to hold elections after the fourth session of every Parliament. That, he thought, was a rule which had been departed from on not more than two occasions. However the Government had felt that the people were unanimous in supporting its proposals, and the Leader of the Opposition has expressly stated that he supported the Government in the action which it proposed. He said further:

"One who has seen 150,000 Canadians under arms, the very flower of the country's youth at Valcartier, at Shorncliffe, and holding the trenches, one who realizes the uplifting spirit of unity and patriotism, cannot but shrink from pouring on the fires of patriotism the water of political strife and bitterness."

"In fact," he added, "there should be no election during the war. This is the consideration which has animated the Government. We hope it will be accepted in the same spirit."

Sir Wilfrid Laurier in his speech said that when the Government had made its extension proposal he had consulted with his followers.

Differences of opinion had developed, just as differences of opinion had developed in the Conservative press, for instance as to the advisability of the Government's proposals. The general consensus of opinion, said Sir Wilfrid, amidst cheers from the Opposition members, had been to leave the matter largely to his own judgment. This had placed on him a heavy responsibility which he had not, however, sought to evade. He had had a clear conception of his duty to the country when war first broke out, and he had never deviated from that conception. The outstanding fact was that England had not entered this war from any motive of aggression or ambition, but with a sense of duty towards Europe and toward mankind at large.

Who would doubt now that if Germany were to win it would mean the end of all that Canadians held sacred? Sir Wilfrid said that he would be thankful to Providence for closing his eyes before the sun would rise on that day.

The present question, concluded Sir Wilfrid, was important but not the greatest problem still before Canada. The issue of the war was still pending, and until Belgium regained her independence, and France her territory, Canada's part was to give all the assistance in its power to England in the struggle she has undertaken against the common enemy of mankind.

RED CROSS COMFORTS ARE GREATLY APPRECIATED BY OUR BOYS

Following is a letter from Sergeant H. W. Hiltz, 25th N. S. Battalion, France, one of the boys of which Kingsport is justly proud. His letter is written to the Kingsport Red Cross circle, and will be of interest to all Red Cross workers:

In the Field,
Jan. 4, '16.
Secretary, Red Cross Society, Kingsport.

Lately I have received a number of letters asking me what is what in Red Cross work in the Field.

One of the questions asked was, "Do the soldiers in training or on active service in the field have to pay from 35c to 50c a pair for socks made by the various Red Cross Societies?" To this I reply, "NO." From the time this battalion was mobilized, over a year ago, we have received GIFTS of socks, comforters, sleeping caps and housewives from the Red Cross Society. The last gift of socks was received by us on Dec. 3rd, a very wet week and although we had rubber hip boots we often went over the tops of them and then we were very grateful for a pair of dry socks. The various hospital staffs around here speak very highly of the help you people give them in making many comforts for the wounded. I saw a paragraph in "The Times" a few days ago, after the last big drive made by the British in which Kitchener's new army featured. The British hospitals were so overworked that they went short of material and mostly clothing, but thanks to the Canadian women, the Canadian hospitals could supply them. When a man is wounded he gets his first field dressing put on as soon as a stretcher train or one of his comrades can get to him, then ten chances to one he has to lay until night makes a blanket of darkness to take him out under, he is then taken to a field dressing station and probably a new bandage put on after that he is sent to a clearing hospital where he is washed, re-banded and has a change of clothes, and he sure needs them, probably he has been from one to six days in the trenches and is covered in mud from head to foot. Then if he is lucky enough, he is shipped over to "Blighty" (England) a soldier's seventh heaven of delight. It has been brought to our notice that socks are the hardest thing the Government has to cope with in the equipment of the army so if you don't mind a hint I would say that your chief effort should be toward supplying socks. We are sure to get them O. K. and glad we are of them too."

Probably it would be of some interest to know that all the Kingsport boys in this battalion are well.

With all good wishes for a Happy and Prosperous New Year to you and members of the Kingsport branch of the Red Cross Society.

Believe me to be sincerely,
SERGT. H. W. HILTZ,
25th N. S. Battalion, France.

PROVINCIAL SANATORIUM RECEIVES TIMELY GIFT FROM PHINNEY PIANO COMPANY

The management of the Provincial Sanatorium gratefully acknowledges the gift of a splendid piano from the well-known Phinney Piano Company. The President, N. H. Phinney, has been much interested in the work accomplished at Kentville, and, in order to assist in cheering the patients in their stay at the Sanatorium, decided with his directors, to donate one of the finest instruments in their establishment. The piano is a Wormwith, in mission oak finish.

The example of the N. H. Phinney Company is to be commended, and we trust it may lead others to do something, even in a smaller way, for this useful and deservedly popular institution.

LIEUTENANT THORNE DIES WHILE ON SERVICE FOR HIS COUNTRY.

The following telegram was received by Miss Sadie Thorne, Kentville, yesterday:

"Ottawa, Feb 10th, 1916.
"Deeply regret to inform you Lieut. Stephen Osborne Thorne, 17th Battalion, reported died of acute appendicitis, 8th February. Adjutant General."

Lieutenant Thorne was the son of the late Stephen Thorne and nephew of Mr. E. L. Thorne of Halifax, and Miss Sadie Thorne now living in Kentville. He was born at Ottawa 26 years ago, and died on the date of his birthday February 8th. Lieut. Thorne took the course at Halifax and passed in December. Not being able to obtain a commission at the time, he enlisted as a private in the 85th Battalion, but was afterwards appointed Lieutenant in the Composite Battalion which sailed for England on the transport "Missannabie" and on arrival was assigned to the 17th Battalion. He is another of our brave lads who has died for King and Country.

Lieutenant Thorne was well known in Kentville and was at one time teller in the Royal Bank of Canada, Wolfville. His many friends will deeply regret to hear of his death. It is particularly sad, his passing away thus early in manhood, when he was so anxious and willing to serve his country in the hour of her need.

He is survived by one brother, Arthur in Chicago, and one sister, Mrs. Herbert Lawrence, Vancouver.

Miss Thorne will have the sincere sympathy of all in her sad bereavement.

Mrs. Wynn Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her During Change of Life.

Richmond, Va. — "After taking seven bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I feel like a new woman. I always had a headache during the Change of Life and was also troubled with other bad feelings common at that time—dizzy spells, nervous feelings and heat flashes. Now I am in better health than I ever was and recommend your remedies to all my friends."—Mrs. LENA WYNN, 2812 E. O Street, Richmond, Va.

While Change of Life is a most critical period of a woman's existence, the annoying symptoms which accompany it may be controlled, and normal health restored by the timely use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Such warning symptoms are a sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dizziness, nervousness, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and inquietude, and dizziness.

For these abnormal conditions do not fail to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

THERE IS AN NIAGARA

water. Our problem is to supply this water.

The scheme arranged to overcome the difficulties above referred to is based on power generated by specially designed current motors in the swift currents at the foot of the cliff operating pumps to elevate sea water to reservoirs placed on the top of the cliffs. The water will then be conducted to the power house at the base of the cliff in the way common in hydro-electric plants. The whole stage of the process from pump to an electric light in a far-away town is simply a combination of the municipal pumping plants and industrial hydro-electric plants, and these are in continuous operation in many places.

Whether or not the pumps were operating, the flow from the reservoirs would be continuous and regular, so that the irregularity of the tide would not effect the producing power.

The novel features are (1) use of the rate of tidal flow, instead of the head; (2) the general scheme for overcoming irregularity in tidal flow and for solving the storage problem made possible by the contour of the land at this point, and (3) the specially designed and highly efficient current motor for providing the power.

You say it's all right, and it all now depends upon the water. That is true. Current motors are not uncommon, our problem was to procure an efficient variety. Perhaps I cannot say more about the motor at present than to tell you that a large sized model has been constructed and tested with most satisfactory results. While it can be lifted by two men, it is capable of developing 27 h. p. at Cape Split.

It is not necessary to say more about one further objection, interference with navigation, than this: the vessels entering Minas Channel keep as far away from Cape Split as possible, and consequently any power development there would not in the least interfere with navigation.

The simplicity of the scheme is apparent, for the motor, while most effective, is equally simple. Safety may also be guaranteed by two independent reservoirs of great reserve capacity, and by three units of power in the motors, any two of which would operate the plant, all of which are protected by novel means from conceivable danger.

With the simplicity naturally goes the low cost of installation and operation, and consequently low interest charges. This in turn means cheap power. In the preliminary estimates which have been made, it appears that by this means power could be sold throughout the maritime provinces far cheaper than by any other contemplated development, as well as furnishing sufficient power to provide the provinces with the required amount and to provide for future expansion.

Cape Split is one of the most central points in the maritime provinces. Within a radius of 125 miles lies Antigonish, Yarmouth, Fredericton, Newcastle, and nearly all of Prince Edward Island. Transmission lines of about 85 miles each would reach Digby, Moncton, New Glasgow and Halifax. When we consider that in Ontario, electric power is being transmitted over 250 miles, these distances seem short.

It is also interesting to note that these four lines, with a branch from Moncton to St. John, touch large towns within 100 miles of Cape Split, having a combined population greater than that of any city in the Dominion, except Montreal, and cover a territory having a greater population than either Montreal or Boston, and, in fact, exceeding the combined populations of Toronto, Ottawa, Quebec, Winnipeg and Vancouver.

The advantages of this situation may be summed up as follows:

- 1—No obstruction to navigation.
- 2—Ideal location for powerhouse.

3—The swiftest current.

4—The highest cliffs rising from the water.

5—The central position in relation to the needs of the Provinces.

6—Unlimited power and possibility of expansion; and combined with the advantages of this situation is a low cost of installation and operation on account of the simplicity of the scheme.

I have presented this scheme only in outline, but you can readily see its advantage. The value to Halifax would be twofold. Cheap power for the city would be assured, for according to the preliminary estimate electric power could be delivered in Halifax for an average of 2c per kw. h. and return a splendid profit. That would mean that power in larger blocks, for manufacturing industries, could be delivered for less than 1c per kw. h.

But more important than that to Halifax is the development of the whole province and of the Maritime Provinces. Not a hamlet can flourish without helping Halifax, and as this power could be delivered over the entire maritime provinces at a very cheap rate, Halifax would inevitably feel the reflex influence.

This is an opportunity for us to get together for the development of the Provinces.

"There is a tide in the affairs of men, which, taken at the flood, leads on to fortune." Evidently the poet here refers to the Bay of Fundy tide.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Edwin Pierce.

On Jan. 26th after a long and painful illness, endured with Christian fortitude, Annie M., wife of Mr. Edwin Pierce, of Pleasant Valley, entered into eternal rest. Mrs. Pierce was a daughter of the late Benjamin Margeson and was born fifty-seven years ago at Black Rock. By her kindly manner and her hospitable qualities she made a large number of friends who will cherish her memory. The surviving members of her family are: her husband and four children: Mrs. Wm. Hutchinson of Canning; Mrs. John Marchant of Pleasant Valley and Gladys and William living at home. These all have the sincere sympathy of a large circle of friends and neighbors. The funeral service which was very largely attended was conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. A. Robbins, assisted by Revs. Mr. McFall and G. P. Raymond. Miss Minerva Hutchinson of Berwick kindly sang two solos—"No Burdens Yonder" and that which was Mrs. Pierce's favorite song, "Some Sweet Day."

Rev. E. C. Spinney, D. D.

Rev. Edmund Crawley Spinney of Chicago died on December 30th, 1915, aged 71 years.

He was the son of the late Samuel Spinney of Meadowvale, Annapolis County.

He was a graduate of Acadia. His first pastorate was at Cow Bay, C. B., after which he took a theological course in the United States where spent his life. He visited at the old homestead and the scene of his first pastorate five years ago. His old friends and school mates were pleased to hear him deliver a most eloquent sermon at Tremont where he united with the Church at the age of 11 years.

HEALTH WRECKED THROUGH LA GRIPPE

It Generally Leaves the Patient Debilitated and an Easy Victim to Other Diseases.

One of the foremost medical writers says: "It is astonishing the number of people who have been crippled in health for years after an attack of la grippe or influenza." The real danger from this disease, which sweeps over Canada every winter, is during convalescence, when the characteristic symptoms, the fever, the catarrh, the headache and the depression of spirits pass away. Grip leaves behind it weakened vital powers, thin blood, impaired digestion and oversensitive nerves—a condition that makes the system an easy prey to pneumonia, bronchitis, rheumatism, nervous prostration and even consumption. It is a tonic for the blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a tonic especially adapted to meet this need as they purify and enrich the blood. They tone up the nerves and give vigor, strength and health to the debilitated system. Mrs. Howard D. Chaffey, Indian Island, N. B., says: "For several winters in succession I was attacked by la grippe which left me weak and badly run down. In each case I used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills with the most beneficial results. Last winter when the trouble was again prevalent I took the precaution of fortifying my system with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and escaped the trouble, while many of my neighbors were down with it. In fact I enjoyed the best of health all spring and feel sure this medicine will so fortify the system as to prevent the trouble."

These Pills are sold by all medicine dealers or may be had by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

BILLION DOLLAR SUIT ENTERED FOR DAMAGES

Portland, Me., despatch: A suit for one billion dollars against the British Ambassador to the United States and others for damages by an alleged conspiracy, was filed in the Federal Court by Lewis J. Marshall, of Lisbon Falls, who was recently convicted of using the mails to defraud women who made silk ties on commission. Besides Sir Cecil Spring Rice, British Ambassador, Lord Bryce, his predecessor, and Jno. Keating, British Consul here, are named in the suit. Marshall complained that his action was due to the alleged failure of British officials, he being a British subject, to get Britain to protect him against the seizure of his mail since 1899, when he began the mail order business. He came to Maine 35 years ago from Annapolis County, N. S.

CORRESPONDENCE

Canning, Feb. 9, '16

Dear Editor:
Will you allow me space in your valuable paper in reference to a matter, which I consider should be of importance to the public. Namely the destruction of ornamental trees on the public highway. We all know that it takes a lifetime to grow them, and it seems to me a great pity that people, at a small profit to themselves should be allowed to destroy them. I presume that the road surveyors should be responsible in their own districts. If the surveyors would take as much interest in the roads, as they do in the operations of their farms our streets would be greatly benefited.
