THE GOLDEN AGE

There are no days like bygone days. So thinks the simple heart.

THE ZOUAVE

On the evening of my story George Lory, the first blacksmith of Saint-Martin-Mines, was in an unhappy frame of mind.

What can be the matter with him? thought his wife. "Perhaps he has received some bad news from the regiment that he does not wish to tell me."

He had a man's best friend. He was her husband's best friend.

He was her husband's best friend. He was her husband's best friend.

He was her husband's best friend. He was her husband's best friend.

He was her husband's best friend. He was her husband's best friend.

had been rambling outside the house waiting for his father's departure. His mother felt it her duty to scold him, but she had not the heart to do it.

Then he gave her such good reasons for his return. He hated the country where he had been. It grieved him to be so far away from home, and his comrades called him a Prussian because of his Alsatian accent.

"Christian, there is your father. Hide yourself quickly until I have time to speak to him to explain all!" cried the mother, pushing her son behind the great curtain.

"Lory, Lory, do not kill him!" she cried. "It was I who wrote him to return—that you needed him at the forge."

She clung to her husband's arm, and sobbing, dragged him back, and in their room the weeping children could hear their parents' voices—one full of tears, where the other, so changed that they could hardly recognize them.

His mother was at his bedside. She had not left him during the night because she feared her husband's rage might return.

"Not that," said his father sternly. "But he has no others," his mother interposed.

"Give him mine, then. I shall not need them any more."

While his son was dressing, Lory carefully folded the uniform, and making a package of it, hung it by its strap over the end of his stick.

"Now come down stairs," he said at last, and the three went down to the work. The blacksmith stood still a moment and looked at his wife.

WILHELMINA'S FIANCE.

Prince William of Wied may be the future husband of the Queen's daughter.

The engagement of the Queen of Holland with the young German Prince of Wied may be a mere match, or a serious claim, but it has a political significance.

When the young Prince of Wied was about 1000 fathoms deep, he was rescued by a diving bell.

That an answer may be observed and yet far from reassuring is once more proved out of the mouth of a young Irishman.

He was not a guide to a party of Americans who, in the course of a day's excursion during their visit to Ireland, were wandering over a picturesque, deserted castle.

"It seems very unsafe," said one of the party, as they groped and stumbled along a dark passage.

When he was a Harvard student, the late Sherman Hoar became famous as a maker of epigrams.

Three things too much and three too little are pernicious to man—to speak much and know little, to spend much and have little, to presume much and be worth little.

Cardinal Vaughan, head of the Catholic Church in England, has rendered himself open to criticism by the frank manner in which he expresses his partiality toward the United States.

DEEP SEA WATER.

At One Thousand Fathoms Its Pressure is a Ton to the Square Inch.

When marine life began to colonize the bottom of the sea, it was not the depth to which life could extend that was the question.

We ourselves live under a pressure of about 15 pounds per inch, and the answers of it are sometimes sometimes waken on a morning when the atmosphere has risen, say, half an inch during the night.

The man was standing on the wharf at a point where he could see into the narrow channel of the Potomac about two miles.

"I'm not," said the man again; "it's so much better living for my wife, all I had to do to bring her out of her tantrum was to threaten to quit work and go to the front, where the chance of staying while a wider woman was left at home to wrap up for herself and four small children couldn't be beat."

Acute Rheumatism

Pains in the Feet and Limbs - A Complete Cure Accomplished by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

For a number of years I was afflicted with acute rheumatism in my left side and all the way down my limb into my foot. I live five blocks from my work and had to stop and rest several times in going and coming. I could get no relief from my trouble and was on the point of giving up my job when I happened to hear of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I purchased a bottle of this medicine and a visit of Hood's Pills and began taking them. Before I had half finished them I was relieved and it was not long before I was completely cured. I never lost an opportunity to praise Hood's Sarsaparilla, for my cure was a great deal to me, as I have a family and must always be at my post.

"Taste Orchestration."

"This so-called new theory of color hearing isn't now at all," said a chap who takes an interest in curious things, "and the whole idea is very neatly embodied in the old story of the blind man who, after much reflection, told his wife that he had discovered what sound is like. It resembles the sound of a trumpet." He said. The same theory was worked out years ago in an unassuming French novel that described a wealthy man who exhibited every form of pleasure and finally retired to a secluded chateau, where he experimented upon the interrelation of the senses.

"Different Hiquers and cordials suggested certain musical instruments to his overwrought brain, and he constructed what he called a 'taste orchestration.' It was a cabinet containing innumerable strange foreign drinks, and by passing with a wineglass on one tap to another he produced the effect of a symphony. How was that for a fantastic conception? I mention this book, which was written by a very distinguished French novelist, merely to show that the theory of making one sense the duty for another is by no means a new scientific fad, but has excited speculation for years." - New York.

ST. VITUS DANCE.

A PROUBLE THAT CAUSES ITS VICTIMS MUCH INCONVENIENCE.

Winifred Schofield, of Gasparan, N. E. Telle How He Obtained a Speedy and Permanent Cure From the Acadia, Wolfville, N. S.

The many cases brought to his notice of residents in this vicinity being cured from physical disorders through the agency of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, have created in the mind of the Acadia representative a sincere belief in the healing powers of this remedy.

Yet whilst he was a little incredulous the other day when told of a young man who had been cured of a very serious and deplorable disease by the use of only some two boxes of these little miracle workers. It seemed impossible that such a remarkable healing should be wrought by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in such a short order. Accordingly he was possessed of a strong desire to investigate. Mr. Winifred Schofield, of Gasparan, was the school given by our informant, and was not long in handing him up. We found Mr. Schofield to be a bright young man of about twenty years of age and of more than ordinary intelligence. His air of candor and straightforwardness dispelled any doubts we may have had. In a very few words he stated to us his case. "Two years ago," he said, "I was taken with an attack of St. Vitus Dance. Sometimes when at work I found that my fingers would all at once straighten out and would be compelled to drop anything I was holding. One day I was holding an axe when seized with one of these attacks. The axe slipped from my hands and in falling struck my foot and gave it a nasty cut. After that you can depend upon it I left axes alone, and it was not long before I had to give up using any kind of tool. My complaint rapidly grew worse, and I was soon confined for any sort of work. Everything possible was tried by me in order to get relief, but I got no better. At last one day a neighbor of mine, Mr. Fred Fielding, who had been cured by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, advised me to give them a trial, offering to pay for them himself if they did not help me. As it turned out it was safe enough in making the offer. I followed his advice and had scarcely begun to use them when I felt a great deal better. After using two boxes I was perfectly cured and have never been troubled with the complaint since. I am confident that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills alone I owe my cure to."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills create new blood, build up the nerves, and thus drive disease from the system. In hundreds of cases they have cured after all other remedies have failed. Thus establishing the claim that they are a marvel among the triumphs of modern medical science. The genuine Pink Pills are sold only in boxes, bearing the full trade mark, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People." Protect yourself against imposition by refusing any pill that does not bear the registered trade mark around the box. If in doubt send direct to Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., and they will be mailed to you post paid at 50¢ a box, or six boxes for $2.50.

Principal Grant will publish a book, in which he will define his attitude on the prohibition question.

THE DOOR OF GOOD HEALTH.

Is Through the Kidneys-Like a Well Kept Sanitary System, the Body Remains Healthy-Interesting Story From Quebec.

The kidneys have very appropriately been described as the sanitary system of the human body. Let them become impure and disease will quickly follow, and unless the old structures are removed, death will be the result. Mr. D. J. Locke, of Sherbrooke, P. Q., suffered for years from complicated kidney trouble, and spent over $100 in efforts to secure relief; but no relief came until he used South American Kidney Cure. His statement is that four bottles completely cured him, and today he is in the enjoyment of sound health. In the most distressing cases this remedy gives relief in six hours. Sold by J. P. Lamb & Son.

TERRORS OF RHEUMATISM.

A Remedy Which is Instantaneous and Permanent in Effect - Calgary Herald - Crippled for Three Years, Becomes Strong as a Soldier.

No subtle or mysterious force could be more miraculous in its effects than is South American Cure in all cases of rheumatism. James A. Anderson, of Calgary N.W.T., says that seven or eight years ago he became afflicted with rheumatism, and for three years it made him a cripple, so that he had to use a stick to get about. In his own words: "I suffered untold misery, and though treated by the best physicians in the country, and I spent a term in the hospital, recovery seemed as hopeless as ever. A friend recommended South American Rheumatic Cure. It gave me relief immediately and after the second bottle I threw away my stick. To-day I am as strong as an athlete." Price 75 cents. Sold by J. P. Lamb & Son.

It is stated that the chirp of a cricket can be heard 800 yard, a dinner bell two miles and a quarter, and the call to get up in the morning just two feet and eleven inches.

HONORABLES IN COURT.

From Montreal Star.

Upwards of one hundred and fifty members of the Honorable H. Hines Movement appeared in the Recorder's Court yesterday afternoon, to give evidence in the case of their two ministers, the Rev. E. B. Smith and George P. Fox, who are charged with keeping a disorderly house at their meeting hall, 174 Inspector street.

When the court opened at half-past two, the place was crowded. Mr. H. C. St. Pierre demanded the two accused and Mr. R. A. E. Greenhalghs conducted the proceedings for the complainant, Mr. L. Houle, and other proprietors of the street. By "a disorderly house" the defence held, the accused were faced with too vague a charge and did not know what to defend themselves against. The complaint enumerated that the place on Inspector street was a disorderly house, wherein all kinds of disorders are allowed, and wherein singing, shouting and howling go on day and night, attracting crowds and making the place a nuisance.

Under article 583 of the criminal code, the defence held, the accused are allowed, and wherein singing, shouting and howling go on day and night, attracting crowds and making the place a nuisance.

CAROLINE LAROSE.

It was Miss Darline's intention to present to Caroline a book containing a record of the names of all the contributors to the fund, but this, with a trunk containing many things for Caroline, failed to arrive in time. Miss Annie Ross and Miss Edith E. Wilse rendered in a pleasing way a piano duet, and the orchestra, which had rendered several fine selections during the evening, brought this memorable gathering to a close by playing the national anthem.

During her stay in Athens Miss Darline and the Globe staff was the guest of Mrs. W. G. Parish. The belated trunk and charge arrived and were safely domiciled in Kingston, Central Ontario.
