It was not until about 8 o'clock that the news reached Toronto. Station Agent Gormally had about 7.35 received a despatch that something was wrong with the St. Louis express, but he practically knew nothing of the details until late in the night. Bill Side-Tracked.
OTTAWA, Feb. 27.—The House remained in session until 10.45 this evening discussing a variety of matters and advancing several of the bills now engaging its attention. The feature of the session was the introduction of Dr. Weldon's (Albert) bill to rid the Dominion of "boodlers" and crooks from other countries, and the side-tracking of Adam Brown's anti-cruelty to animals bill.

Dr. Weldon's bill, an outline of which appeared in The World of this morning, is ntended to do by statute what the Ashburton extradition treaty fails to accomplish, i.e., the anding over to foreign states on demand that class of gentlemen who, having proved them selves unfaithful stewards in their own country, may become residents in Canada. The citizens of Toronto and Montreal are well aware of the number of "boodlers" from the United States who have settled in their midst and cannot be extradited under the only treaty that this country now possesses—the Chartered Bank Shareholders. were an experimental file.

They all agree, it however, that $8 per day is poor pay, hardly snough to cover expenses. Taking this as an average they cannot have made less than $500 each or $180,000 altogether, obtained with the crudest and most primitive appliances. This result shows what may be expected as soon as communication with the interior becomes more easy and the exportation of improved Salmon abound in the rivers, but after ascending so far from the sea it is not fit to become an article of export, although good enough as food for the Indians. The fur trade is confined to a few points. There are immense districts teeming with game and fur bearing animals of all kinds where Indians never go. Pact of the miners' supplies are procured in the country. The lowess estimate of this strate for 1887 is $60,000.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—Pigott's flight and confession of forgery have given a new turn to matters of which more will be heard.

But sufficient unto the day is the sensation thereof, and off sensations we have breakfasted and lunched. I can remember no such succession of surprises and of scenes, I might almost say encounters, as occurred before the Parnell Commission yesterday.

Expectation of Pigott's reappearance in the witness box brought together the most toward and perhaps the most distinguished.

Attorney-General Webster asked that the commission adjourn until to-morrow, but the court adjourned nutil Friday.

In the House of Commons to-day, Mr. Matthews, Secretary for Home Affairs, stated that the authorities were taking steps to secure the extradition of Pigott from Paris. Mr. Matthews also said he had no information regarding Houston from leaving the country. Pigott's arrest in Paris is regarded as imminent, but it is doubtful whether the French Government will regard perjury as an extraditable offence. before the Parnell Commission yesterday. Expectation of Pigott's reappearance in the witness box brought together the most crowded and perhaps the most distinguished audience of the season. Mrs. Gladstone was conspicuous. At exhibitions of speed on the REMINGTON STANDARD TYPEWRITER, made in Albany and Troy, Jan. 18th, 1839, and which were wirnessed by large audiences, Mr. F. E. McGurrin made the fellowing records in rapid writing:

EDITORIAL MATTER, selected at random, and dictated from daily papers of the day's lesue, at Albany, 98 WORDS PER MINUTE; at Thore 98. LEGAL TESTIMONY, from dictation, a Albany, 124 WORDS PER MINUTE; at Troy OURT PROCEEDINGS, while blindfolded Albany, 108 WORDS PER MINUTE; a copy, at Albady, 107 words FER MANAGEMENT TOY, 1114.

The MEMORIZED SENTENCE, "Now is the time for all sood men to come to the aid of the party," at Albany, 160 WORDS PER MINUTE, with a few errors in spacing; at Troy, 156.

On second trial in Albany the same sentence, without errors, 150 WORDS PER MINUTE. Seven carbon copies were made of each test, all being practically without error, and which were distributed as souvenirs among the audience.

were distributed as souvenirs among the audicince.

Mr. McGurrin attributes his remarkable speed and accuracy to the COMPACTNESS OF THE "REMINGTON" KEY BOARD, the entire area of which he covered with his two hands.
