How long he had been asleep he did not know. He was suddenly awakened with an awful horror at his throat. He only knew something was strangling him, something was strangling him, something was being pressed steadily down upon his mouth and nose. He threw his arms convulsively upward. His hands caught a human form, which glided from his grasp. With a last effort he threw the thing, whatever it was, from his face. It was a pillow. He tried to spring to his feet but fell back, weak and helpless. He saw his wife gliding like a spirit out of the low window that opened on the veranda. idgetown and Granville Ferry Railway

Referring to the letter signed "Middle Franville," which appears in our column to-day to which we call the attention of our rs, we desire to say a few words. A ment is on foot with a view to connect uilding a bridge over the river at Clarke's Ferry, or some point contiguous thereto.

As our correspondent very justly observes at Waterboro Centre on the glorious fourth, The author of the deed has been arrested and isled modation to a small portion of the people of Granville compared with that which would be had through a railway, while the to 27th. latter would not require a very considerable sum in addition to the cost of constructing the bridge to complete a railway. Many short lines have been constructed, or are now in the course of building in various parts of the province, making excellent feeders for the greater lines with which they connect. One of the causes of the now in the course of building in various they connect. One of the causes of the greater prosperity of Cumberland county, may be found in this source. A substity of forty-five thousand dollars from each of the have no doubt whatever, that the plan is feasible and worth attempting to carry out.

Some idea may be formed of the amount of traffic that would necessarily be commanded by a railway through this township, the assessed value of which reaches one million three hundred thousand dollars. The income, chiefly in farm products, from such a capital sunk in the soil may be safely put at $65,000 to $75,000 per year, and a large portion of this value would seek transportaportion of this value would seek transportation over this line. From this park to Jamaica Pond the Co., Hx.

Pond is a beautiful sheet of water, covering an area of seventy acres, in some places being seventy feet deep. Pleasure boats are always to be seen on its placid surface, and beautiful carriages drives environ it.

Easterly from this place a couple of miles is Franklin Park, the principal feature in the park system. Here is found little of art, but what is better, much of nature. The area comprised is 518 acres, and was obtained by the purchase of several large.

Street, West End, to the Back Bay Park; a driveway from there to Jamaica Pond, continuing to Franklin Park in West Roxbury, and finally to the Marine Park at City Point, South Boston. A person transversing the driveways in this circuit would go a distance of no less than forty miles.

The Charles River Embankment is a parkway along the Charles River nearly three miles in length, and averaging two hundred feet in width. It is a park, promenade and driveway combined, and is proportioned into walks, drives, drives, saddlepaths, and boat landings, with many pleasing effects of shubbery and flowers. From this is entered the Back Bay Park. In 1877 the city council authorized the puriodrian and the covers; is printed in Yarmouth and presents a very neat appearance.

2.31:. Also, Fremont. trial 2.23, sold for $5, 000: Alfreda, sold for $1,400, and two others that could beat 2.30. Daughter of Vt. Black Hawk, s. t.

MANCHESTER not only possesses a fashionable combination of blood lines, but what is of equal importance, those lines are inherited from producing stock through both sire and dam. The Star Hambletonian cross is regarded the best in the world for producing fast game trotters. Dexter, the first trotter to get a mark of 2.174, was by Rysdyk's Hambletonian, from a daughter of Seely's American Star. Nettie, 2.18, and Orange Girl, 2.20, were bred in precisely the same lines, as were also Jay Gould, 2.21\frac{1}{2}, and Artillery, 2.21\frac{1}{2}, the two fastest stallions got by Rysdyk's Hambletonian. Dictator, by Rysdyk's Hambletonian, dam by Seely's American Star got Jay-Eye-See, 2.10, the fastest gelding by the floar, from Cheap X. I. to Best Silver records that ever lived. Sadie D., the first yearling trotter to get a record of 2.35\frac{1}{2}, was by Sherman's Hambletonian, and he too was by Rysdyk's Hambletonian out of a daughter of My Prices.

Sherman's Hambletonian, and he too was by Rysdyk's Hambletonian out of a daughter of the Seely's American Star.

Jack Sheppard, the sire of Manchester, is brother in blood to Dexter, 2.174; Nettie, 2.18; Orange Girl, 2.20; Jay Gould, 2.21½; Artillery, 2.21½, and a large number of other successful turf performers as well as noted trotting sires. Jack Sheppard does not rely upon relationship to noted ancestors for fame, however. He has proved himself a worthy representative of the Star Hambletonian cross, by producing such fast game turf performers as Minnie C., 2.25½; Clara M., 2.29½; Jack Sheppard, jr., 2.29½; and Abrogast, 2.29½; all of which might undoubtedly have got faster records, as they could trot quarters close to 35 seconds, a 2.20 gait. The fastest of these, Minnie C., was also out of a daughter of Taggart's Abdallah, making Manchester brother-in-blood to this speedy mare.

All the produce of Celia C., the dam of Manchester, were fast. One of her sons, Beachmont, got a record of 2.31½, and could show much faster. Her sire, Taggart's Abdallah, got the stallion All Right, aire of George E. Lee, 2.23½, and other fast ones. St. Lawrence, whose son got the dam of Celia C., was himself a noted trotter. His son, Kinkead's St. Lawrence, got the dam of the famous brood mare Waterwitch, which brought Viking, 2.19½, Mambrino Gift, 2.20, and Scotland, 2.21½. From the fact that the old saying, "Blood will tell" has proved true in the past it is confidently expected that Manchester will get fast trotters that will have speed and courage enough to enable them to stay the route. His form and gait are fully up to his choice breeding, and he is in every respect a worthy descendant of the popular Star Hambletonian cross, which has produced, not only some of the fastest, but the very best gaited trotters that ever appeared upon a trotting course.

Manchester in looks and conformation is first-class. He stands 15½ hands high; has broad, flat, cordy legs; good length of neck; strong back; best of quarters, with sloping shoulders. He is finely gaited and a trotter of no mean ability now. He will be allowed to cover fifteen approved mares at $15.00 each, for the season. For further information ap-

A Women's Carriage.

What women want is not better clothes, ose dresses and sham corsets, but better ositions. They want sittings. If some eacher of Delsarte, calisthenics, or physical culture would undertake to instruct a class in correctness of posture, incalculable good would certainly result. Women sit on their hips, their feet, and their spinal olumn; they throw their chests in, their shoulders forward, their abdomen out, and estroy forever the nice lines of the figure, esides rendering shapeless whatever gown or bodice they may be dressed in. These distorted women are unfortunately too prevalent. They force themselves on the streets and trains, and in a car one looks in vain for a single up-right, easily-poised traveler. Given a woman who knows how to hold herself, it must be a most miserable outfit that will not be improved. There a tacit understanding among tailors that when the man has the shape the coat is bound to fit, but in the world of modes one is told that this woman can carry ertain style or that another can not worst can be remedied by practice, but before beginning it is well to have an ideal.
