The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

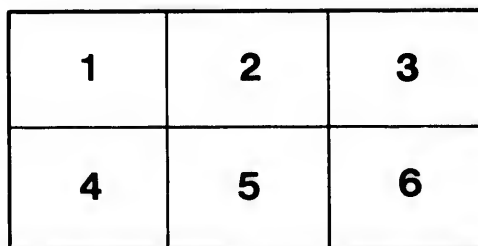

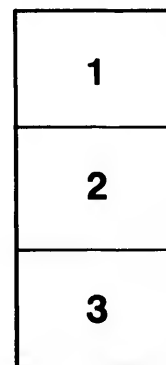

Nova Scotia Public Archives

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol ➡ (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ▼ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Nova Scotia Public Archives

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole ➡ signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ▼ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

CHURCH LIBRARY.

On March 8, 1892, a letter was placed before the Church from Miss M. E. Selden (now Mrs. M. P. Freeman), asking the Church to accept 47 bound volumes of the Christian Messenger, "to form the nucleus for a library of Baptist literature." These volumes embrace the entire issue of the Messenger from its establishment in 1837 until its amalgamation with the Christian Visitor in 1884. It was thereupon resolved by the Church that their hearty and sincere thanks be given to Miss Selden for her generous gift, the value of which was highly appreciated, and that the same be accepted for the purposes intended. Hon. Dr. Parker, B. H. Eaton and E. D. King were appointed a committee to carry forward the work of establishing such library. Since their appointment the Messenger and Visitor from 1885 to 1891, inclusive, has been bound and added to the library, and almost a complete set of the minutes of the Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island Associations and minutes of the Baptist Convention has been collected. A suitable book case has been procured and placed in room No. 6 in the vestry.

SUNDAY SCHOOL OFFICERS.

J. BURGOYNE.....	Superintendent.
JOHN TOALE.....	Secretary-Treasurer.
W. L. BARNSTEAD, }	Librarians.
WILLIAM YATES }
MISS E. M. BECKWITH.....	Organist.

The numerical strength of the school at the close of 1892 was 175, including teachers and officers, with an average attendance during the year of 109. The school is divided into 15 classes. $97.62 was contributed by classes for missionary and general purposes. Steps are in progress to secure increased accommodation for the primary class, which is recognized as the most important department of the school, and the problem of the retention of young men in the school is receiving attention. To all into whose hands this book shall come, of whatever age, a very cordial invitation is given to attend this school and unite each Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the study of the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make "wise unto salvation." Let the Sunday School be regarded as the Sunday afternoon meeting of the church and congregation for Bible study and not as simply a school for children.

BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE'S UNION.

 WILLIAM F. PARKER.....Vice-President.
 C. M. WOODWORTH.....Treasurer.
 MISS ISOBEL EATON.....Recording Secretary.
 MISS HELEN T. MOODY....Corresponding Secretary.
 MISS M. A. RICHARDSON.....Organist.

The report of the Union for 1892 shows that their devotional meetings have been well sustained throughout the year, increasing the ardour of active members and awakening in the hearts of associate members a desire to love and serve Christ. The Social and Missionary departments have done good work and the sick have been visited. Patients in the Victoria General Hospital, inmates of the Poor's Asylum and members of the church set aside by illness, were ministered to. The area and extent of the work may be judged by the fact that 1,104 visits were made in the year, and 646 books, papers and magazines were distributed, besides others of which no record was kept.

METHOD OF CHURCH SUPPORT.

The sittings in our house of worship are free. The church is sustained by weekly offerings voluntarily made. Any who desire to become weekly contributors or who wish to make a special contribution are referred to the Treasurer, E. D. King. Offerings are made chiefly by envelopes, which can be received at any time from the Treasurer. It is the aim to have every member of the church receive the blessings which come from systematic giving for the support of the Gospel.

OFFERINGS FOR OTHER OBJECTS.

Offerings are given for the carrying forward of denominational work on the first Sunday of each month by envelopes furnished for the purpose. These offerings go to form what is known as the "Convention fund," and are appropriated as follows: Home Missions, 33 per cent.; Foreign Missions, 25; Acadia University, 20; North-West Missions, 8; Ministerial Education, 5; Ministerial Relief and Aid, 5; and Grande Ligne Mission, 4.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO PAY OFF DEBT ON CHURCH BUILDING.

The church was opened in 1887 with a debt of $15,000, which has been reduced to $11,000 by payments each year (except 1892) of $1,000. It is our purpose to pay $1,000 a year till all is paid. Contributions for this object are given quarterly by envelopes, on the second Sundays of January, April, July and October.

DUTIES OF THE DEACONS,

As Adopted by this Church September 6th, 1892.

As taught by the New Testament (Acts vi : 1-6) :—

2. Examination (with the Pastor) of candidates for baptism.
3. Attending to details of service necessary at baptism, and calling in the aid of sisters when needed.
4. Providing and preparing the table for the Lord's Supper.
5. To act as a Committee of Supply of the pulpit during the Pastor's vacation or illness or temporary absence.

6. To take over, in conjunction with the Pastor, the duties at present performed by the membership committee, that is to say, to consider and report upon all matters pertaining to the membership of the Church.

7. To provide some one to lead the social meetings in the Pastor's absence.

8. To decide questions relating to proposed use of the church buildings other than for ordinary purposes.

9. To provide for proper religious services at funerals of members of the church and congregation in absence of the Pastor.

10. To act as a Supplementary or Emergency Committee in matters not entrusted to any special or other committee of the Church.

PASTORAL SUGGESTIONS.

At the close of Sunday morning services, except when the Lord's Supper is observed, the pastor will be in the centre aisle, just near the central entrance from the vestibule, to meet the strangers who worship with us. And he will be glad there to put himself in the way of giving sympathy and help to any who may allow him the privilege of conferring with them.

The work of spreading the Gospel calls for contributions of money from every member of the church. And each one's own best interests require that he should regularly give, just in the measure of his ability. There is no growth in grace without giving, any more than without praying.

The sisters are requested to make at least one call each upon some family before or after their Tuesday afternoon meeting. In this way every home connected with the church and congregation will after a time be visited by every sister; and out of this, gain will certainly come.

Regular attendance at the Lord's Supper is very desirable; arrangements are in progress to keep a careful record of attendance. Those who rarely join in the ordinance, while not providentially kept away, are affectionately urged not to esteem lightly our Saviour's command: "This do in remembrance of me"

Careful attention to the wants of the poor and destitute should ever characterize a Christian church. We will do well to be ambitious in this direction. Our Lord, let us keep reminding ourselves, waits to be ministered unto in the persons of the needy; and to where he thus waits we should swiftly and gladly run.

Sunday school teachers ought closely to follow up absent members of their classes. Regularity of attendance is a matter largely in the teacher's own hands. Of course the teacher cannot expect regularity of the scholars if irregular himself.

The mid-week Prayer Meeting of the church cannot be dispensed with by any member at all able to attend, without decided damage to the Christian life. Every brother and sister is therefore urged to regard the Wednesday evening prayer service as a settled and perpetual engagement with God and His people, and to meet it with unfailing regularity unless hindered by a plain call of God in another direction. Read carefully the "Prayer Meeting Rules" on another page, and act upon them in so far as they appear worthy of being followed.

The pastor desires to be promptly informed of the coming of new families to the community; also of cases of sickness. Sometimes persons are sick for two or three weeks, and wonder why the pastor does not call, when he knows nothing of the cases, because no one has been careful to inform him, and he has not happened to learn.

At the close of Sunday services and prayer meetings the members will find it profitable to postpone for a little their conversation with more intimate friends they often see, and give attention first to strangers, and those who are seldom among us. By such a practice some who would otherwise drift away will be held. People delight to return into an atmosphere they have found to be warm and genial.

Permit the suggestion that each member of the Church at once look carefully over the membership list, marking the names of those who ought to be visited, and then go as soon as circumstances will allow, and make the calls. There is often neglect of some of the easiest and most efficient ways of getting access to people to assist them.

Please do not throw this book aside, but keep it at hand for reference. Keep it at hand as a constant reminder of your duty to those about you. Endeavor carefully to carry out whatever of useful suggestion it contains. We must make our Church a growing power for Gospel extension.

RULES FOR OUR PRAYER MEETINGS.

PREPARED BY THE PASTOR.

"Lord, what a change within us one short hour Spent in Thy presence will avail to make!"

1. Come! Come always if you can; if you can't come always, come frequently; if you can't come frequently, come occasionally. Don't go to lectures and concerts if you don't go to prayer meetings. Have a consecrated umbrella.

2. Come bringing someone else. A good place for you is a good place for your neighbor or visitor.

3. Come early. You lose and make others lose by tardiness. But if you can't come early, come as early as you can.

4. Come praying. What you give a meeting and get from it depend much upon what you take to it. Come, not to get warmed, but come warm to get warmer. Bring a pot of coals, not a cake of ice.

5. Come and take a front seat. You say you cannot do great things, but are willing to do little things. Then do this. Scatter the coals if you want to put out the fire; rake them together if you want heat. Back seats conduce to carelessness, front seats to piety.

6. Come to take part. The harder it is for you to do this the more reason why you should. Your humble effort may prove the kindling wood of a great flame.

Pray, speak and sing usually in the line of the leader's remarks. Concentration produces depth of impression. Listen so as to hear, and speak so as to be heard.

7. Come to take part promptly and briefly. It's your turn right after the leader. If you don't drag, the meeting won't. Brevity is the safe side to err on.

8. Come not to act the critic but the Christian. Unpolished words from the heart are better than polished ones that are pulseless.

9. Come to speak, sing and pray; and go away to Live your religion—to be a better parent, child, master, servant, citizen. All can be eloquent in preaching Christ by action if not by speech.

CHURCH COVENANT.

As we trust that we have been brought by divine grace to receive the Lord Jesus Christ and by the influence of His spirit to give ourselves up to Him, so do we now solemnly covenant with each other, as God shall enable us, to walk together in brotherly love; that we will exercise a Christian care and watchfulness over each other, and faithfully admonish and entreat one another as occasion may require; that we will not forsake the assembling of ourselves together, nor neglect the great duty of prayer for ourselves and for others; that we will endeavor to bring up such as may at any time be under our care in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, and by a pure and lovely example to win our kindred and acquaintances to the Saviour, to holiness, and eternal life; that we will participate in each other's joys, and endeavor with tenderness and sympathy to bear each other's burdens and sorrows; that we will seek divine aid to enable us to live circumspectly and watchfully in the world, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, and remembering that as we have been buried by baptism and have been raised up from the liquid grave, so there is on us a special obligation henceforth to lead a new and holy life; that we will strive together for the support of a faithful evangelical ministry among us; and, through life, amidst evil report and good report, seek to live to the glory of him who hath called us out of darkness into his marvellous light.

RESIDENT MEMBERS.

[MARCH, 1893.]

By having the following list, each member may know just who are connected with our Church, and a better acquaintance with each other may easily come from knowing our respective places of residence. The Church in which there is the most visitation back and forth, and the most attention paid to those coming into the community, will, other things being equal, most powerfully draw the people to itself and to Christ.
