GREAT SEMINARY MARKING EPOCH IN R.C. CHURCH EDUCATION FORMALLY BEGUN

Laying of Cornerstone of St. Augustine College by Archbishop McEvay a Most Impressive Ceremonial—Eugene O'Keefe, the Donor, Publicly Thanked.

3000 ASSEMBLE TO WITNESS THE FUNCTION

In the presence of a gathering well representative of the Roman Catholic clergy and laity of the Archdiocese of Toronto, the elaborate ceremonial of laying the cornerstone of St. Augustine's Seminary, Scarborough Heights, was carried out by His Grace, the Archbishop McEvay, yesterday afternoon.

There were two outstanding figures at the ceremonies in addition to his grace. Bishop Fallon of London was there, a stately and impressive personage in his robes, but easy of poise and of genial aspect with all.

Bishop Fallon, as before said, did not allude to a matter of recent strong contention, but in the course of a vigorous assertion of the right of the Roman Catholic Church to be considered the only church which had maintained the Christian faith in all its integrity, he for a few moments invaded other controversial ground.

St. Augustine's Seminary is situated on the Kingston-road, east of the Halfway House, on the old Calender Farm, which is 350 feet above Lake Ontario on the Scarborough Heights, and within easy access of the Grand Trunk Railway and the Kingston-road radial line.

When his grace the archbishop decided on the erection of a seminary great care was taken by thoroughly going into every detail possible of obtaining information as to the buildings of its character.

It soon became evident yesterday that the quadrangular chapel in which the cornerstone was to be laid, would not suffice to meet the requirements of accommodation.

Early in the afternoon it was apparent that the assemblage would be very large. The weather was almost ideal for late October, and general conditions could hardly have been more auspicious.

Among those on the platform were Archbishop McEvay, Bishop Fallon of London, Eugene O'Keefe and his daughter, Mrs. McLean French; Bishop Dowling and Dean Mahoney of Hamilton; Rev. Dr. McNally of Ottawa; Rev. Father O'Connor of Peterborough; Vicar-General McCann; Rev. Fathers Foster of London and Walsh, Canning, McGrand, O'Malley, Kiehl.

British Parties Dubious as to the Prospects—Results of the Conference.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—(New York Tribune Cable.)—There is more carlinage than bone among English politicians as the season of parliament approaches.

An agreement on the financial or budget question may be reported, and a recommendation may be made for the reference of a series of propositions relating to reform of the lords, the supremacy of the common law, and the introduction of home rule for Ireland, Wales and Scotland, and the representation of the colonies in an imperial council to a joint committee of both houses.

Terrible Journey of Aeronauts Back to Civilization—Exhausted and Bumbed With Cold They Stumbled on Thru the Darkness—Thirty-two Hours Spent in Getting Out.

Only one of the St. Louis balloons is now missing, the America II; and according to the crew of the Germania, it was probably seen by a gang of railway navvies along the G. T. P. construction in northern Quebec on Wednesday, heading for Ungava.

Dusseldorf II. (Germany), landed at Kiskisink, Que., distance about 1100 miles. Germania (Germany), landed at Cococo Cash, Que., about 1640 miles. Helvetia (Switzerland), landed at Ville Marie, Que., about 850 miles. Isle de France (France), landed at Pogamsing, Ont., about 725 miles.

QUEBEC, Oct. 23.—(Special.)—The German and Swiss balloons Germania and Helvetia came down some miles away from a G.T.P. construction camp in Northern Quebec, and their crews were lost for 30 hours, suffering greatly from cold and hunger.

Eighteen Thousand Feet Up. "We were then nearly 6000 metres or about 18,000 feet high, and we immediately opened the valve, to let out the gas and descend."

Left Coats Behind. "Imagining that it would only be a matter of three or four hours to reach the railway, we set out at noon, with only a half bottle of champagne, a couple of crusts of bread, and a few pieces of chocolate."

A Terrible Struggle. After six hours of this constant struggling thru impenetrable morass and bush darkness came down suddenly and Von Obercron and Blackertz began to fear they were lost.

LISBON, Oct. 23.—The Republican Government is somewhat uneasy over the attitude of the regiments which made the revolution possible.

The minister of justice is framing a bill looking to the separation of the church and state. The Republican press declares that the presence of Monsignor Masella, whom Monsignor Tonti, the papal nuncio, left on guard at the nunciature, when he departed for Rome, is a parallel case to that of Monsignor Montagnini, ex-secretary of the papal nunciature at Paris, who was expelled from France, and that like Montagnini, Monsignor Masella should be expelled.

Hon. A. B. Aylsworth Declares There Must Be No Thought of Separation From Motherland—United States Pressed a Disagreeable Contention.

"No separation" was the word which Allan Bristol Aylsworth, K.C., spoke to the Canadian Club of Toronto at a banquet given in his honor on the occasion of his return from the argument on the Alaskan boundary dispute before the international arbitration board, where he acted as junior counsel for Canada.

Some years have passed since then, and this time Hon. A. B. Aylsworth, minister of justice and attorney-general on his return from the hearing of the fisheries arbitration, in which the Canadian contention prevailed, again says "no separation," but with a stronger and more vital emphasis. In the former case he warned against excessive national anger or disgust, in the latter against elation after victory.

This latter was the dominant note in the speech of the minister of justice to his constituents in North York at Newmarket on Saturday afternoon.

HAMILTON HAPPENINGS

CHARGED WITH BREACH OF ALIEN IMMIGRATION LAW

Sub-Contractor For Big Hamilton Tailoring Establishment Arrested

Hamilton, Oct. 23.—(Special).—Yesterday afternoon the police took Jacob Rackoff, a sub-contractor for one of the big tailoring establishments here, into custody, on a charge of breaking the alien immigration law. The information was laid by Assistant Superintendent of Immigration E. Blake Robertson of Ottawa, who has been here for several days making an investigation. It is alleged that Rackoff induced foreigners in New York to come to Hamilton to work and instructed them, when they were turned back at Bridgeburg, to get in via Rochester, Charlotte and Toronto. The agitation against Rackoff was started some time ago by the United Garment Worker. An officer was sent here, but could get no information. S. L. Landers then went to Ottawa, and placed certain information in his possession, before the immigration department, which brought another inspector here post-haste. Rackoff was released on bail. The Bishop of Niagara gave the congregation of St. Matthew's Church this evening a gentle reminder that they are not making proper contributions to the up-keep of the church and the maintenance of the minister. He pointed out that in England, the Anglican Church is endowed, but here it has to fight in competition with all the other churches, and for this reason the congregation was called upon to make contributions to the keep of the religion which they had brought up in.

There was a real and actual thing, in peril of which this country stood. He did not know how far the United States would have gone, but such was the principle of their whole position. All should feel glad. "I am justified in a feeling of satisfaction, and the people of this country are justified. Each man should shake hands with his neighbor and congratulate each other that this contention has not prevailed; that this tribunal at The Hague has unanimously pronounced as a matter of law that the opposite contention, that the Nova Scotian, the Canadian, the British view is the correct one; that Great Britain, by her parliament, imperial and colonial—and Great Britain alone—has the inherent right, in virtue of her sovereignty and ownership, to enact all laws which may affect this water portion of her territory, equally with those which may affect her land. "The positions taken by the United States and Great Britain have been accurately marked, and one reading now the correspondence of years ago, could not but wonder how there was room for back down; how there was room for either side to avert the consequences of their own contumacious and warlike. And I cannot but think that under the guiding hand of the All-wise Ruler of human events the circumstances that these nations were of the same blood, were of actual kin, speaking the same language and sprung from the same common stock, was the one circumstance which at the time, and in the days when there had been a world-wide calamity, that which would have been nothing less than a crime—a war between England and the United States of America.

THEY ACTUALLY DO THE WORK

Food Eaten is Worthless Unless Digersted—Some Stomachs Must Have Help.

Food taken into the stomach, which, from the nature of the food or the condition of the stomach, is not digested, is worse than no food at all. This is a true statement as far as it goes and a great many dyspeptics go only this far with their reasoning. They argue that themselves that because their stomachs do not do their own work given them, they must be given less work; in other words, they must be starved. It would be just as sensible for a business man who is unable to do all his own work who is engaged in his business to starve himself as it is for a man to starve himself to relieve his stomach. The sensible business man employs help, and goes forward with his business. Likewise the sensible dyspeptic will employ help for his stomach and give his body proper nourishment. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets actually do the work assigned to them. They relieve weak and overburdened stomachs of a great portion of digestive activity. Their component parts are identical with those of the digestive fluids and secretions of the stomach, and they simply take up the grind and carry on the work just the same as a good, strong, healthy stomach would do it. On this account Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are perfectly natural in their action and effects. They do not cause any unnatural or violent disturbance in the stomach or bowels. They themselves digest the food and supply the system with all the nourishment contained in what is eaten and carry out Nature's plan for the tenance and maintenance of the body. How much more sensible is this method than that employed by many sufferers from weak stomachs. By this means the body and brain get all the good, nutritious food they need and the man is properly nourished and equipped to carry on his work and perform his duties. He could not possibly be in proper working condition by starving himself or employing some new-fangled, insufficient food that does not contain enough nutriment for a year-old baby. A strong man doing strong work must be properly fed and this applies to the brain as well as the body. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, by relieving the stomach of its work, enable it to recuperate and regain its normal health and strength. Nature repairs the worn and wasted tissues just as she heals and knits the bone of a broken limb, which is of course not used during the process of repair. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are for sale by all druggists at 50 cents a box and they are the one article that the druggist does not try to sell something in the place that's "just as good." Their unqualified merit and success and the universal demand for them has placed them within the reach of everyone.

REOPENING SERVICES AT THE METROPOLITAN

Both services at the Metropolitan Church yesterday were crowded. It was the re-opening day, as the church has been undergoing repairs for the past five months. Re-opening services will be held on the next two Sundays. It was announced that an ecclesiastical council, representing the Methodist communities of the world, would be held in the church in October, 1911, to be attended by 500 or more of the most prominent Methodists of the world. The first one was held in London in 1881, the second in the United States in 1891, the third in London in 1901. They take place every ten years. The object is to draw the various branches of the church through the world closer together. The Sunday morning sermon was preached by Rev. Prof. T. B. Kilpatrick, D.D., of Knox College, and that in the evening by Rev. S. P. Rose, D.D., pastor of Sherbourne Street Methodist Church. Prof. Kilpatrick took Matthew 23:13-15 for his text. "When ye stand before your Father, ye shall say, 'Forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.' But ye refuse to forgive, neither will your Father forgive your debts." CHINESE SENATE ASKS SURRENDER

PEKIN, Oct. 23.—A surprising revolt has taken place against the government. The imperial senate, not yet three weeks old, has voted to memorialize the emperor for the early opening of a general parliament. This action is considered to indicate that the new senate will not be a submissive or mock institution, but one which will have the grand council must reckon. As far back as last June a formal demand was made for the immediate convocation of a national parliament, the establishment of which had been promised for the year 1915. An imperial decree was then issued refusing the demand, which was made by delegates to the provincial assemblies and was supported by organizations of merchants throughout the country. The imperial senate no sooner assembled on Oct. 3 than the provincial delegates formed an opposition party and arrayed themselves against the throne. The question of the parliament was brought up daily, and the demand was made that it should have executive and not merely advisory powers. The campaign culminated yesterday, when impassioned speeches were made, in which it was pointed out that a change was imperative for the salvation of the country. This plea won over a large majority. Following the action of the senate there are intimations that many of the political leaders are determined to obtain their demands in private consultation with the emperor. They speak of a revolution within two years unless the throne surrenders. A factor in the situation, however, is the garrisoned in neighboring districts, which are all Manchou. The Chinese troops are always kept at a distance from the capital.

JUDGE'S CHARGE STRONG AGAINST DR. CRIPPEN

Lord Alverstone Spoke Nearly Two Hours and Prisoner Wilted, Tho He Received Verdict Calmly.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—The trial of Dr. Hawley Harvey Crippen for the murder of his wife Cora, known on the stage as Belle Elmore, ended at about half past two o'clock Saturday afternoon, in his conviction of wilful murder. He was sentenced to be hanged. The jury was out less than half an hour. The trial of Ethel Clara Lenvue, the young woman who fled with Crippen to Canada, on a charge of being an accessory to the murder after the fact, will begin on Tuesday, in the same court and before the same judge as Crippen. The summing up of the lord chief justice illustrated the difference in the methods of American and English judges in dealing with murder cases. After telling the jurors that they must be satisfied upon the evidence that the crown had made out their case or otherwise the prisoner was entitled to acquittal, Lord Alverstone said the jury would agree that Crippen, if guilty, was an extraordinary man, who had committed a ghastly crime and had covered it up in the most brutal and callous manner. If Crippen was innocent, as he claimed to be, it was impossible to fathom his mind. He was, it seemed, absolutely indifferent to the charge of murder. Not affected at first. Crippen, whose line of vision included the judge and the jury, showed no signs of nervousness as the cool, calm sentences of the judge stripped his story bare. Perhaps his eyelids flickered a little more frequently than usual, but when the court adjourned for half an hour for luncheon, he ran down the steps of the dock briskly and jauntily. After the brief recess Lord Alverstone proceeded to make a ruthless examination of Crippen's case according to the medical evidence, adding a new fact, that the jury would be shown, under a magnifying glass, the words of a knife along the much-discussed scar. Coming down to Crippen's conduct after the murder and the prisoner's explanation of the closing scenes there, the chief justice said: "Gentlemen, we are not children and he is not a child." In speaking of the letters which Crippen wrote to various persons announcing the departure, illness and death of his wife, the lord chief justice said: "They are the most remarkable set of documents that have ever come to my notice." His lordship continued on this line for an hour and forty-six minutes, and as he proceeded Crippen's chances seemed to grow darker and darker. He showed signs of the effect of the judge's deadly summing up. He was pale at one time and then ashen gray. Hearing the Verdict. Crippen was again in the dock. He did not flinch at the hearing of the foreman. In fact he showed no nervousness at all until the clerk of arraigns said: "You have been found guilty of the wilful murder of your wife, Cora Crippen. Have you anything to say?" Crippen nodded his head affirmatively, but showed no physical nervousness and a swallowing action of the throat. "Have you anything to say why sentence of death should not be passed upon you?" repeated Lord Chief Justice Alverstone. Then, having regained complete control of his nerves, Crippen, in a clear voice, and without the slightest quiver, in a tone which could be heard distinctly over the whole court, said: "I still protest my innocence."

REASON A SCHOOLMASTER THAT DIRECTS TO FAITH

Educational Sermon Delivered at Bloor-street Baptist Church by Rev. Dr. Stewart, Rochester.

Yesterday was one of the feature days in connection with the Baptist Convention of Ontario and Quebec, which has been meeting all last week in Bloor-street Baptist Church, and which holds the closing sessions there to-day. Three of the best preachers in the Baptist church were arranged for, and overflow congregations resulted. "I am the truth," were the words selected by Rev. W. A. Stewart, D.D., dean of the Rochester Theological Seminary, in his afternoon address on the relation of religion to the intellect. In a certain sense, the intellect is reason. "Reason is a schoolmaster that leads us to faith, and faith," explained the preacher, "is not going it blind, but is rather the supreme act of reason. A religious doctrine that is continually at war with reason, cannot hold its position among the creeds of the world. It has been the link of the learned as well as the blood of the martyrs that thru the long centuries has been the nourishing influences of religion in general and of Christianity in particular. "A religion that asks it followers to listen to preaching, but not to learn anything other of its intricacies, by reading is not worthy of the name. When Nathaniel asked Philip, 'Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?' what was his answer? 'Come and see.' And this is the true sign of actual Christianity. Surely we as Protestants and Baptists believe in the right of private judgment. "The only other logical position is that of the Church of Rome, and in spite of all the boasting made at the Eucharistic Congress, you and I are not going back to the position of the Church of Rome. We all know the danger of excess of freedom, but even the remedy for this is not to return to bondage. "We do not justify the rich man who hoards his millions, but even more to be condemned is the educated man who hoards his light and reason for which he has given practically nothing in return," he declared. "Ignorance is the mother of superstition, but knowledge of reverence, uprightness of life, is greater than brilliance of mind. Intellect rises to its highest achievement when it ministers to faith, and the uplifting of mankind." Prof. Walter Fauschbusch of the Rochester Theological Seminary, was the speaker at the evening service. "Home missions connect our religion with one of the highest passions of humanity: the love of our country," began the preacher. "Patriotism in itself has power to lift even the plainest man to emotions which approach religion in their strength and loftiness, but when religion combines with patriotism, both are enlarged and ennobled. "The morning service an interesting discourse on foreign missions was given by Rev. H. C. Mable, D.D., of Boston, and formerly for many years secretary of the American Baptist Missionary Union. Dr. Mable appealed to all who might be considering the question of surrendering themselves for duty in the foreign field to think of all that Christ surrendered when He earthly fame was at its zenith. "So far the conversion of the heathen had been done by one-tenth of the Christian church, and he considered it a pity that the church of today should have to be appealed to rather than acting as an agent in the forwarding of this great work."

FRANCIS OF TECK DEAD

English Court is Again Plunged Into Full Mourning.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—Prince Francis of Teck died Saturday. The death will cause a temporary resumption of full mourning at court. Queen Mary has been a devoted sister and King George has always been on intimate terms with the three Teck princes. Like his two brothers, Prince Francis was trained at Sandhurst for a military career, and was converted into a soldier by service in India, Egypt and South Africa. He was the best sportsman in the Teck family, and cared less for the pleasures of society than either of his brothers. Since his retirement from the army he had spent much time in Ireland and Scotland, where he could get fine shooting. Queen Mary, after the prince's throat had been operated on for an obstruction, insisted on having him visit her at Balmoral, where he could regain his strength in the bracing air. When he caught a severe cold in the Highlands the King's own physician took charge of the case, and he recommended the removal to a nursing home, where he could have scientific treatment. The Queen is overwhelmed with grief over the loss of her favorite brother. There is a full measure of public sympathy for the Teck princes, who have been respected as gallant soldiers who have not stricken their duty to the state. The prince was born at Kensington Palace in 1870. After serving in the army in Egypt and South Africa he returned in 1902 with the title of major. Northern Navigation Co., Limited. Cubs, With Cole on Slab, Win on Saturday 4 to 3 in Ten Innings, Bender Pitching for the Athletics.

By TY COBB Champion slugger of professional baseball—Copyright by The Press Publishing Company of Philadelphia.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—The Athletics supporters received a shock here to-day when the Chicago Cubs defeated the American League champions in a hotly contested game in the tenth inning, when Archer doubled with one down, Brown advanced Archer to third and Bender hit one over the fence to win the game.

Of the Cubs it must be said that they played a very smart game, fighting with the desperation of some wild animal that had been run into a corner, and then turned to meet its enemy with a fighting back with the spirit which usually wins.

With Chance on Slab, when the Chicago team failed to deliver with Chance on third and the score tied, when both Zimmerman and Steinfield fell by a bunt, the credit must be given to Bender on these two men when his fast ball, the only one that was really effective, struck the Athletics' batsmen got into a hole they would hit at the first ball over near the plate.

Thomas caught a sure game and threw out many Cub base runners, every throw that he made being true to the mark. Only once did a man succeed in pilfering on him and that was when Barry covered second late, Shookard being safe.

Archer caught for the Cubs, using good judgment and making several nice snags to first to catch runners slipping. He uncorked one bad throw, which came near turning out disastrously for the Cubs, with men on second and third.

Victory in Intercollegiate Fixture on Varsity Field Before Good Crowd.

Varsity and McGill played an exciting game in the Intercollegiate Senior Soccer League at Varsity Athletic grounds on Saturday afternoon.

Billington, McGill's left half, is a coming man. He is an Englishman, and has all the right qualities to our style of play as yet, but is a tremendous punter and sure tackler.

Frank Park, Varsity's left outside wing, was in fine shape Saturday and played a good, steady game throughout.

Murray Thompson's knee was in bad shape, and he should not have gone into the game at all. He collapsed after his first tackle and had to be carried off the field.

The game at McGill was marked by its absence of accidents. Both teams were in an awful mess when full-time was called, being plastered with the sticky, black mud from the field.

TO ATTACK M. BRIAND

Premier Ready to Make Vigorous Reply to Foes in Parliament.

PARIS, Oct. 23.—Prime Minister Briand is fully prepared to meet the attacks of the Socialist deputies at the opening of the autumn session of the chamber of deputies on Tuesday by a vigorous, aggressive and immediate discussion of the whole subject of strikes. M. Briand does not admit that government employees have the right to strike. He intends to defend tooth and nail his drastic step of military mobilization of railroad employees, which all agreed broke the backbone of the anarchist movement and averted a revolution.

M. Jaures and the Socialists, on the other hand, are getting ready for most violent personal attacks on M. Briand, and are resolved to make frantic efforts to upset the ministry. It is expected that the interpellation and debates may last all next week.

M. Briand has many bitter enemies in the chamber, but his energy and prompt decision make him altogether the strongest and perhaps also the most popular man to-day in French public life.

Player, Cushing and Healy. So tightly packed was the crowd that a number of priests were unable to make their way to the platform.

The laying of the stone, a handsome block of grey marble, which will serve as a tablet in the chapel, was conducted with solemn rite. The stone was lowered into place and the crowd duly applied by his grace, after which, led by the choir boys, the procession of clergy moved from one end to the other of the building, his grace bestowing blessings.

The cornerstone of the building, which is inscribed: "Hunc lapidem angulum ad positum illum et renavit Petrus Paulus McEvoy, Archiepiscopus Torontonensis, XXIII Octobris, Anno Domini, M. C. M. X.", signifying, "This cornerstone of the chapel of St. Augustine, the Most Reverend and Illustrious Prelate, Patrick McEvoy, put in place on the 23rd of October, in the year of our Lord, 1910."

Archbishop's Statement.

With the conclusion of the formal service, the reverend Father, Bishop Fallon, in the open air. When the procession appeared, the reverend Father, Bishop Fallon delivered his sermon in the open air. When the procession appeared, the reverend Father, Bishop Fallon delivered his sermon in the open air.

Many Foreign Tongues.

"At the present time many people are coming to Canada from different countries, who speak different languages and use different rites approved by the Catholic Church. In the City of Toronto alone we have to-day Catholics of many different nationalities—English, French, Italian, Polish, Lithuanian, Syrian, Ruthenian or Galician, and with the Maronite, Melchite and Ruthenian rites.

One Church presented.

"One church presented itself, a church which bore the impress of the centuries. Other churches were but branches, detached from the main trunk and unable to claim the divine properties of universality. The theologian must find that the Christian religion is in its integrity, with only the sacraments, the teaching of dogmatic theology ended with the doctrine of the last end of man. Death came more surely than anything else, and then judgment and then life with God eternally or punishment and destruction everlasting.

Human Conscience.

Dogmatic theology was, however, only the beginning. It was the science of religion: moral theology pointed out how duties must be fulfilled. It was a title use for a man to know what was right. Beyond there lay the will, human goodness and moral responsibility, which depended upon a properly formed conscience. The supreme law was the deal and with it came ecclesiastical and civil law. The theologian was called to consider the responsibility, human law, positive law and then to consider the science which was behind all law and the virtues which were its faithful observance. What blessing and boon to the world was the moral system of the Catholic Church.

The necessity of the moral law in the present age could not be disguised.

Moral theology and moral law alone

PURE WATER

Six 1/2-gal. bottles, 50c. One 2-gal. bottle, 50c. One 2-gal. bottle, 25c. Quarts, per doz., 75c.

Violation of the law had destroyed empires, republics and monarchies which had appeared firmly founded.

Nations growing up on the American continent, and a lusty they were and proud of their strength, would not be proof against transgressions of the law of God, which was protected by the schools and the system of moral theology in the Catholic Church.

Bible Must Be Intact.

Dogmatic and moral theology must find their sources in the Book of Books given by the Lord, which in Egypt had been finished 2000 years later in an isle of Greece, and had taken twenty pens to write, all telling the same science with Genesis, where God made spinning with Genesis, where He called man back to Himself, what a study there was for the young theologian.

Catholic church will never allow students or professors to tear any pages out of the Bible, to suppress any chapters of the Bible, or the whole meaning of the Scripture which she has brought down into the world, and which is called tradition. He who does not communicate with his fellows with pen or voice, it was not designed merely to tickle human ears, but with an inspiration born of piety, prayer and study to draw men's minds upwards and onwards.

A Chair of Eloquence.

It was necessary to have in the seminary a chair of sacred eloquence. There was no use in a student learning the truths of his faith, if he did not communicate them to his fellows with pen or voice. It was not designed merely to tickle human ears, but with an inspiration born of piety, prayer and study to draw men's minds upwards and onwards.

Eugene O'Keefe's Personality.

Eugene O'Keefe, president of the Home Bank of Canada, became the O'Keefe Brewing Company, whose liberality has resulted in the founding of the seminary, has been a resident of Toronto since it became a city in 1827. He was born in Ireland, where he came with his parents to Toronto. For six years he was bookkeeper in the Toronto Savings Bank, and in 1854, entered into business for himself, forming the institution of which he is still president. For many years he was vice-president of the Home Savings and Loan Co. of Canada, became the president of the Bank of Montreal, and in 1904, when it became the Home Bank of Canada, Mr. O'Keefe was elected first president, a position he still retains.

Theologian's First Duties.

To establish the existence of revealed religion was the first duty of the theologian, to refute objections and might be raised by sophist and pragmatist. The student must seek for the great stores of learning, science and history, that he might establish beyond doubt the Christian religion in the mind of the student of humanity. Heavily laden with the weight of the original question: Where is the religion to be found in all its integrity, with only the sacraments, the teaching of dogmatic Man was a social being and could not reach the end for which he was created without any society.

Description of Building.

The wings, to accommodate 100 students each, will be built as required. The main building, which is now under construction, will accommodate 100 students, together with teaching staff. God's Message of Comfort To the Jews

TEXT:

"Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God. Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned: for she hath received of the Lord's hand double for all her sins."—Isaiah, l. 2.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—Pastor Russell of Brooklyn Tabernacle to-day addressed an immense audience in the world's greatest auditorium, the Royal Albert Hall. Many of his audience were Jews, attracted by the liberal extracts from Pastor Russell's sermons which have been appearing in the Jewish papers all over the world. The discourse was full of comforting assurances (both to Jews and Gentiles) of the glorious outcome to the divine plan, as respects our world and its inhabitants. We report the address only in part, as follows:

There can be no doubt that the words of our text apply, not to spiritual Israel and the heavenly Jerusalem, but to the seed of Jacob, for many centuries traveling in pain—a nation without a land, people possessing most wonderful promises, yet enjoying none of them—people suffering amongst other people; yet, in harmony with the divine promise made at the beginning of their organization, they have been preserved separate and distinct from all other nations. The Jews are a miracle in themselves. They witness to the civilized world God's promises and the power thereof in the human mind, as foretold in the scriptures for long centuries they have had no prophet, no priest, no epiph, no vision from God, no revelation. The people to whom at one time belonged the honor of being the only people to whom the divine purposes were revealed have for more than eighteen centuries been left destitute of any evidence of divine favor, except in this one fact, that their solidarity was a people preserved.

We are not of those who rail against the Jews; who cry out, "Christ-killers; the vengeance of God is upon you, and what you have suffered is only a foretaste of more awful sufferings for all eternity!" Thank God, no! We have no such evil sentiment in our heart. We have nothing for the Jew but sympathy, even while in him, as in others, the child of Adam's fall. We may see much to reprehend, nevertheless, we also see his commendable qualities. Among others, we see the quality which God so greatly appreciated in Abraham; namely, faith in His God and in the divine promises. Such a faith has inspired "God's Chosen People" to wait for His promised Messianic Kingdom, to these many centuries—through all kinds of discouragements, disappointments, and persecutions. The long-promised time of Israel's exaltation as the channel of Messianic blessing to mankind is near—it hasteth greatly. What, therefore, shall be another and great spasm of tribulation in conjunction with the birth of the new order of things! Beyond the sighing and the crying, the morning dawns—the glorious day in which the sun of righteousness shall chase from the world all the shadows of death and despair, which sin and its penalty have brought upon mankind! What! the scriptures tell us that Israel is yet to have "The time of Jacob's trouble" in connection with the world's great time of trouble impending? None of these things shall hinder us from rejoicing in the new heavens and the new earth, which God declares He is about to create and put into control of our world—"He is glad and rejoices forever in that which I create" (Isaiah lxv. 17).

The new heavens and the new earth are but symbolic terms for the consideration of that new era, in which there will be a new social order, as well as a new ecclesiastical system, eternal in the heavens. The time has come when our text is having its fulfillment. The shining of the lamp of truth upon the prophetic page shows us that the great clock of the universe is marking the hour when He whose right it is shall take to Himself His great power and reign. Ah, yes! We remember that it is written that when the nations shall be angry, and God's wrath shall be manifested, and then the time shall come for the judgment of the dead and the reward of all, both small and great. But we are glad, nevertheless, that the "times of the Gentiles" are nearly at an end and the time of Messiah's theocratic government is at hand—for He must reign until He shall have put down all unrighteousness and in subordination, until He shall have caused every knee to bow and every tongue to confess to the glory of God the Father.

First in order of the kingdom work will be the binding of Satan—the work of a heavenly, and not of an earthly king. Gradually, in the judgments, decrees, rewards, punishments of mankind and the banishing of sin and death with the great King of Glory reveals His own gracious character and the Father's righteousness to the children of men. Gradually all will have the eyes of their understanding opened to see, not only the Father of all in His true character, but also the Son in His glorious majesty—the Conqueror of whom, for the joy that was set before Him, endured the cross, despising the shame," and hence is at the right hand of divine majesty and entrusted with the pouring out of the divine blessing upon Israel, and through Israel, extending that blessing to every nation.

It has escaped Christendom in general until now that the divine promise to Abraham is to be fulfilled through two seeds—one a heavenly class, the other an earthly class, with Messiah the Head over all. For 18 centuries God favored the seed of Abraham, the nation of Israel. Chastisements they had, reproofs in righteousness; yet in all that time they had also divine favor, as represented in their law and in the prophecies and in the privileges which came to them under the law covenant, in that they had an annual atonement day, which continued to them divine favor. The period of favor, explain it how we may, began to wane about the time of Jesus' death. It was completely removed from them in the desolation of their land by the Roman army, A. D. 70. Now a parallel time has been reached, as stated in our text. Hence it is time for the return of God's favor, as herein mentioned. The favor already is returning.

The Jew has not been so comfortable, nor so favorably fixed as he is to-day, in more than 18 centuries. But his blessing is only beginning. Shortly after the time of Jesus' death, the Jews were brought to the point of their political movement, is about to bud and blossom into a religious movement and the blessing of divine providence will so order their affairs.

The words of the book, the words of divine promise, so long read ignorantly and blindly, are about to become luminous and constitute the light which will direct them in the ways of the Lord—leading on to the rehabilitation of Jerusalem and to the attainment of loftier ideals amongst the Jewish people. A voice is sounding from the wilderness, and the Jews everywhere are hearkening to it. It does not call them to become Christians, but to remain Jews and to realize, as Jews, the ideals set before them by the Lord in the law and by the prophets. To all those exercised thereby a great blessing is near, which will more than compensate for the sorrows of the past. Neither by sword nor gun, nor dreadnaughts, neither by flying airships, nor torpedoes, will Israel's great victory be won, neither by money power and espionage, nor by trusting in the arm of flesh, but by looking to the Lord, from whom will come their help.

Messiah's spiritual empire, about to be established, will bind Satan, strain every evil and lift up a standard for the people, blessing Israel and extending with them the new (law) covenant instead of the old (law) covenant—under the better Mediator; still more capable than the great Moses; under the greater King; still more able than Solomon and still more beloved of God than David. This great celestial empire will be established with great authority in the world by a time of trouble, a time of earthly distress, which the prophetic picture as terrible—a short reign of anarchy.

Jews and Gentiles will be responsible, rich and poor, for the bringing to pass of this awful trouble, by reason of the selfishness which at present is governing the world and which will be used of the Lord to wreck our present grand civilization—grand at least on its surface and in its aspirations and pretensions. A socialistic artillery of words and ecclesiastical bonds of similar nature will only aggravate the strife. Financial wealth and power will have much to do with the great crash of the forces of civilization in this near-approaching calamity of trouble, in which the reign of sin, iniquity, injustice, and selfishness shall forever fall, to rise no more; and the present religious systems shall also be found wanting and pass away. For these old systems, symbolically, as a new earth and new heavens, will be substituted the new heavens and the new earth—the church glorified beyond the veil as the bride of the great Messiah. Indirectly He himself reorganized, will constitute the new earth, wherein will dwell righteousness. The transition will be but a momentary ordeal, as compared with the glorious eternity of blessing under Messiah's righteous supervision. "He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth."

The perplexing thought with our Jewish friends, as well as with Christians, is, if these things be so; if Messiah's kingdom is yet to be established, as the Jews contemplated, only on a spiritual plane instead of an earthly one; and if God's purpose is, to use those anciently favored people as the channels of His blessing in the future, why has there been so long a delay? We answer: This is what the Scriptures term The Mystery—the matter which God did not reveal directly, either to Abraham or through any of the prophets. Indirectly He hinted at it by saying to Abraham, "Thy seed shall be as the stars of heaven, and as the sand of the seashore for multitude." But Abraham did not discern, nor did others, that these nations belonged, not to the same people, but to two different Israelites. The earthly promises belonged to natural Israel. Eventually all mankind, blessing under the Messianic Kingdom, will become Israelites—of the seed of Abraham. Thus Abraham's "seed shall be as the sand of the seashore for multitude." And they must all have the blessing of Abraham and his heirs, where they can reach perfection as members of his seed. First in the order of blessing will come the ancient works—Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets and holy ones of the past.

These will be raised from the dead by the power of God—not imperfect and fallen, but perfect; fully up to all the glorious ideas of the ages, at once. This will be their reward for having walked by faith, and not by sight. Thus we read, instead of being the fathers, they shall be the children, whom Messiah will make princes in all the earth—His representatives in power, in rulership, in authority (Psalm xlv. 16). At that time the blessing shall return to Israel that has been taken from them for more than eighteen centuries—God's special favor. Under their new covenant they shall be blessed; their eyes shall be opened; they shall see upon their faces the glory of Him whom they pierced; they shall rejoice in Him. They will say, "This is our ruler, whom we have waited for Him, and He will save us" (Zechariah ix. 9).

With shame true Christians must admit that most atrocious crimes were committed in the name of Jesus during the "dark" ages—worse than that of the horrible misrepresentation of all that the name of Jesus stands for still continues. Witness, for instance, the injustices practiced in the name of Christ against the Jews in Russia for years past, and in various nations in remoter times. Witness also the fact that only two months ago the so-called Christians of Roumania attacked within the space of a few months were dug up and mangled corpses thrown on the steps and in the doorways of their families. Can we wonder that the Jews are being persecuted for the name Jesus? The name Jesus, as is well known, is but another form of Joshua, which signifies Deliverer. The name Jesus is the Greek equivalent for the word Messiah. Every Jew, rightly informed respecting the character and the teachings of Jesus, is bound to respect Him and His immediate followers as amongst the greatest Jews that ever lived. They must not be judged according to the perversion of their teachings, so common amongst Christians. And it should not be forgotten that while the masses of Christendom have misrepresented their teachings, doctrines and practices, there have been throughout the entire age a saintly few who have closely followed in the footsteps of Jesus.

In my preaching I do not urge upon the Jews to become Christians, but I seek to hold forth the divine standard for them and to assist them to get ready for the fulfillment of the glorious promises which are theirs. That the time is near for their return to their own land, and that they are being persecuted, which is now impending upon Christendom, that the Jew will recognize that the great Messiah of glory, the great Michael of Daniel xl. 1, for whose Kingdom they have waited for Him and His immediate followers as amongst the greatest Jews that ever lived. They must not be judged according to the perversion of their teachings, so common amongst Christians. And it should not be forgotten that while the masses of Christendom have misrepresented their teachings, doctrines and practices, there have been throughout the entire age a saintly few who have closely followed in the footsteps of Jesus.

Meanwhile, what has God wrought? Ah, this, again, we say is the mystery! Here and there from Jew and Gentle, saintly characters have been sought and found by the preaching of the message of Christ, even though they were frequently and miserably misrepresented by erroneous representations. Those saintly ones will be sharers with Messiah in divine blessings on the day when He shall return to earth under the banner of His Kingdom. He will make them princes in all the earth—His representatives in power, in rulership, in authority (Psalm xlv. 16). At that time the blessing shall return to Israel that has been taken from them for more than eighteen centuries—God's special favor. Under their new covenant they shall be blessed; their eyes shall be opened; they shall see upon their faces the glory of Him whom they pierced; they shall rejoice in Him. They will say, "This is our ruler, whom we have waited for Him, and He will save us" (Zechariah ix. 9).

Public Amusements Toronto theatregoers will have an opportunity of seeing one of their own girls at the Princess this week. Miss Mary Mackid, who appears in the role of Chryse in "The Arcadians," will at last fulfil a life-long ambition to make her professional debut in her native city. Miss Mackid was born in Toronto and graduated from the Loretto Abbey. As a child she was famous as a dancer and became the star pupil of Miss Sternberg, appearing several times at the Princess in society entertainments. After earning local fame she left for New York about three years ago to study for the professional stage. Her first engagement was in "The Dollar Princess," where her dancing and singing attracted immediate attention, and when Charles Frohman was introduced. The principal part comes with a travesty on "Madam X," that famous dramatic sensation.

The attraction at the Princess Theatre this week is "The Arcadians," the best of all Charles Frohman's recent musical comedy productions, a fact attested by its two years' run in New York. It comes to this theatre for a short engagement prior to its tour to the Pacific coast. Subtitled a fantastical musical comedy, this three-act piece, possessed of the fine musician-like quality of first-class operetta, and the speed, comedy, and the most likable qualities of musical comedy, is still enjoying an extraordinary success at the Shattesbury Theatre, London.

Blanche Ring will come to the Royal Alexandra Theatre to-night when she will inaugurate a week's stay in Toronto in "The Yankee Girl." This is Miss Ring's first visit to Toronto in many seasons. "The Yankee Girl" is the work of George V. Hobart and Silvio Hein, the former contributing an amusing and interesting book and the latter a tuneful musical score. Mr. Hobart's book differs radically from the usual shred of plot injected in musical comedy, inasmuch as it is plausible and consistent and even without Mr. Hein's pleasing music would make a first rate legitimate farce.

"Paid in Full," Eugene Walter's play of modern life, is acknowledged the greatest drama of recent times. It will be presented at the Grand Opera House this week for the first time in this city at less than dollar fifty prices. The cast has won recognition in New York. It is one of the elite organizations that all last season appeared in this celebrated play, each of which was called into New York in the course of the repeated engagements of "Paid in Full" in that city, where its record is a run of two years. The sale of seats for the "Checkers" engagement at the Grand Opera House

Thanksgiving week, opens this morning. Manager Shea has a great show this week at Shea's Theatre. The bill will be headed by Miss Adele Ritchie, who is appearing for a few weeks in vaudeville. She is singing all new songs, and her women admirers are already counting on seeing the latest and daintiest in costume creations. The special features will be Julius S. Steger and his company in the one act musical "Yankee Doodle Girls," an organized "The Way to the Heart," and The Rigolotto Brothers, one of the greatest novelties sent from Europe in many years. Other acts included are Hal Merritt, Stanley and Norton, Quinlan and Richards and the kinetograph.

"Too Much Isaac" is the promising title of the musical comedy to be presented by the "Bowery Burlesquers" at the Gayety Theatre this week. During the action of the well-constructed comedy numerous vaudeville features and beautiful song and dance numbers are introduced. The principal attraction comes with a travesty on "Madam X," that famous dramatic sensation.

The trend of burlesque entertainments is rapidly growing more artistic in which will be given at the Star Theatre this week, by T. W. Dinkins "Yankee Doodle Girls," an organized which for the past several years has enjoyed the distinction of being one of the leaders in all that is new and pleasing in this most diverting style of amusement. A splendid vaudeville bill, headed by Malone, Jacob and Co., presenting "Happy Youngsters' School days," is booked for this week's show at the Majestic Theatre. Other acts are: Hummel and Brown, the "Elite Entertainers"; Raymond, and Scranton, singers and dancers; Howell and Barlow, comedy equilibrist; Rice and Rice, a clever sister team, and McCarty, the monologist. Four performances daily.

The quality of the program for the concert at Massey Hall this evening under the auspices of the Good Cheer Society, is attested by the names of Arthur Blight, Mrs. Elizabeth Campbell, P. Redfern Hollinshead, the Toronto String Quartet, the 48th Highlanders' Band. The band will be in full concert strength, in preparation for its tour to British Columbia. Messrs. Blight and Hollinshead will be heard in one of their well-known duets. Miss Theora Carter will give "thirty minutes of good cheer."

University Sermon Prof. G. W. Knox, professor of apologetics in the University Theological Seminary, New York City, preached the "University sermon" in Convocation Hall yesterday morning. The text was the latter part of the 17th verse of the 18th chapter of Acts: "And Gallio cared for None of These Things." Prof. Knox talked about Gallio and Paul, described their characters, aims, stations in life: the view that would have been taken of invitations to visit them in those days and the view that would be taken now. Then the invitation of Gallio would have been accepted, but now it would be the invitation of Paul.

"Gallio was devoted to ideals which seem to have been almost relegated to the past," he said. "He was one of those men who win hearts. Not merely a 'hall fellow well met,' but a man of goodness of heart. Had we been invited to dine with him we would probably have referred to him later among our friends as often as possible and quite incidentally as 'Gallio, my friend'—or remark, 'Once when taking dinner with Gallio—'"

After telling about the death of each, Paul dying by the ax long before he thought his work was done and with glorious visions of the future of Christianity, and Gallio by poison when there was nothing left for him to look forward to, Prof. Knox said, "Hopeless is it when the youth of the country cease to see visions for the realization of which they would give all. Alas for any institution, university, church or nation when the old men cease to dream dreams and the young men cease to see visions. Visions are more precious than anything else which the world around us can afford. Visions which control the soul and command the mind. Visions which can only be realized afar off and which demand from us the sacrifice of ten thousand things which the heart desires."

BANK OF HAMILTON

The policy of the Bank of Hamilton, in directing the lending of Over Thirty-five Million Dollars of funds entrusted to its care, is to provide, first of all, as liberal and elastic Banking Accommodation to Canadian Merchants and Manufacturers as the standing and need of each individual account will permit.

Security of loan is essential. where Trust Funds are cared for; but, subject to legitimate requirements, and satisfactory security, the Bank of Hamilton is both willing, and able, to extend to Merchant or Manufacturer of good repute—whether large or small—every Banking assistance and accommodation that the fluctuating requirements of his business may demand.

Capital Paid-up $2,500,000 Reserve and Undivided Profits 2,900,000 Total Assets over 55,000,000

Canada grow up and be on its own. You are going to get money and plenty of it on that basis. Remember the income tax is paid in England on two thousand millions sterling and four hundred millions of profit. If the British put eighty million sterling into Canada every year it would only be four per cent. of that income. Such wealth is of very great importance to Canada.

How to Keep Going. At the end of the war, our strategic position is unique, even without the tremendous oil deposits. One of the chief reasons we in London would not allow such a great corporation to go on the rocks was the obstacle such a condition would present to future financing.

As Mr. Drummond said, it pays the government to get the thing started. They will expend fifteen or twenty millions more, and if the enterprise makes good, the money will come in. You know that thousands and thousands of millions have been invested in America.

In England we have not time to sift out what the trouble may be, whether political or industrial. As the business of the world is done in two acres in London, and we have too much to attend to for that.

Canada has excellent credit; Mr. Fielding has done very fine work; he is a man of very sound finance and a very high-class politician. The fact that the government came forward and built the Grand Trunk Pacific shows the people are satisfied.

I think they should take hold of the Georgian Bay canal. A million more people will soon be in the western provinces, and how do they get their grain out? The railways are limited. No matter how well managed their terminals may be, they must have means of getting the grain transported. Otherwise, you throttle the farmer.

Mr. Grenfell is interested in the Southern Alberta Land Co., in which three and a half millions have been spent. The company has four hundred thousand acres, bought from the government. He states that the company has been swamped with offers from settlers. Another company is also operating in Northern Alberta.

FIRST WOMAN PREACHER DEAD. ELMIRA, N.Y., Oct. 23.—The Rev. Arnis Ford Eastman, who, with his wife, the Rev. Samuel E. Eastman, held the joint pastorate of the Park Church (Congregational), made famous by the late Rev. Thomas K. Beecher, died here yesterday from uraemic poisoning. Mrs. Eastman took great interest in the equal suffrage movement, and was the first woman to be ordained to preach in the Congregational Church.

SENATOR FROST ILL. OTTAWA, Oct. 23.—(Special.)—Senator Frost of Smith's Falls, who was taken suddenly ill at the Rideau Club on Saturday, is stated to-night to be a little better. His condition is not dangerous. No statement can be obtained as to the cause of illness, but it is understood to be apoplexy.

Four-Year-Old Killed by Car. OTTAWA, Oct. 23.—(Special.)—The little four-year-old daughter of Robert Wood, Waverly-street, died on Saturday, as the result of being run over by a street car on Elgin-street. Both hands were severed and both legs broken. She rolled off the fender beneath the wheels of the car.

What Canada Needs. Of the notable Englishmen present, Arthur M. Grenfell was the most striking. In many respects he recalls the late H. C. Hammond. He is chairman of the Canadian Agency of London, Eng., which is pouring millions into Canadian investments.

Mr. Grenfell talked with The World on some topics suggested by Friday's proceedings. "What you want in Canada," he said, "may be put in three words—men, money and matter. Emigration is too big a business for the private enterprise of Canadians. Otherwise, we must improve our own efficiency. The technical training commission was now engaged on the question."

Ontario's Representatives. A. C. Boyce, M.P., proposed the legislature. Hon. Mr. Hanna was received with cheers, and spoke in his best vein of humor. His quotation from Whittier describing the early times when "the scared squaw hid behind her tent," had its moral in the application. His affirmation that the squaw was no longer scared brought down the house, and the lines "city lots are staked for sale above old Indian graves," he said, must have been written of the Soo. Abandoning drollery, he recounted the main features of the new prison farm work.

Hon. Frank Cochrane spoke briefly and had a most cordial reception. He felt he would not be doing his duty if he did not come and show his appreciation for Mr. Franz, whose sterling character he had seen manifested for some years. No man came into his department that he found harder to turn down than Mr. Franz. He was glad to hear that this was the last year he intended shipping ore from the Helen and in three years they guaranteed the production of 500,000 tons. No place in the province so demonstrated the wealth of the north country.

Speaking of the provincial resources, Mr. Cochrane said Ontario had more white pine than any other government in the world. They had hundreds of millions of cords of pulpwood, and he intended to hear Mr. Drummond announce that they were manufacturing not only pulp, but paper. (Cheers.) The Hydro-Electric Commission's engineers had estimated that there was three hundred million horsepower still undeveloped in Ontario. Could they realize these figures as they slipped off the tongue? They had 75 per cent. of the nickel and a monopoly of the corundum of the world, and cobalt was so abundant the price had fallen from $3 to $1 a pound. He congratulated Mr. Franz on his showing. They needed $100,000,000 in the province. Spending six or seven million dollars did not mean much unless the investment brought a return, but the successful investment was the best attraction.

Dr. R. J. Gibson proposed the toast of the Lake Superior Corporation. He took credit for having first induced Mr. Drummond to take an interest in the works.

Mr. Drummond's speech was a striking statement of the past, present and future of the corporation. Fifteen years ago Mr. Clergue had turned the first sod. He thought Mr. Hanna had made a mistake in not joining Mr. Ross to save the Soo, but he had made amends. The corporation did not seem properly balanced a few years ago, but they had now the most up-to-date plant in the world. The steel industry had repaid in customs fees more than every dollar paid there by the government.

Mr. Hanna had been very good in extending the notes under the guarantee, but his government had now also been paid off.

"To-day we are standing on our own feet," he declared. They wanted the government not to wobble.

"A wobbling tariff will stop the flow of capital to Canada. When the child is growing lusty and strong, do not cut it off at the knees. Canada has a chance to grow strong. (Cheers.)"

Mr. Drummond showed that every penny of this amount had been repaid to the government thru the customers.

A Rival in China. Mr. King spoke of his visit in China to the great Hong Kow factory whose plant rivaled that of the Soo, and with an equipment as perfect as any on the continent. They were able to compete in the New York market after paying duty and ocean freight. Fifteen men could be had in China for the price of one in Canada. He looked to the spread of Christian truth, and the raising of the standards of living in China to increase the cost of production, and so reduce the keenness of competition for Canadians. Otherwise, we must improve our own efficiency. The technical training commission was now engaged on the question.

In concluding, Mr. King remarked epigrammatically that iron had changed national animosities into amenities. Instead of lines of arsenals and forts along the border we had workshops and factories.

Mr. King's was the most eloquent. Mr. Franz himself was a model of brevity and good taste in acknowledging the toast of his health. Mayor Simpson, in proposing the toast of the evening traced in brief terms the career of the Soo industries from the time that the financial stringency of 1903 crippled their activity. It was resumed and reorganized under Corneliuss-Shield, followed by W. M.

He Who Hesitates is Foolish

The man in the street feels the bitter wind sweep round the corner, and watches it tearing the smoke from the big stack; then he tries to make himself believe that it isn't time to buy his overcoat YET.

He has the money in his pocket, but he likes to tease old Boreas, God of the north wind—which must make the old storm-king shake with Olympic laughter.

Either one or all of three things happen to the man; first, he gets a cold; second, he gets the name of being a poor spender, and third, he gets an ordinary looking overcoat in the long run, because all the good stocks have been picked over.

To-morrow will be a good day to save yourself from all these undesirable consequences. Our men's store is ready with the best stock of new overcoats and ulsters we have ever shown.
