Vienna Despatch to London Standard Says Germans, Austrians and Italians Will Remain in Pekin After Russians Withdraw.

Suggestion Is Made That Russia May Have Secret Terms With China Behind the Backs of the Powers—Britain Waits to Hear From Sir Claude MacDonald Before Taking Action.

London, Sept. 4.—(4.10 a.m.)—The latest despatch from Vienna reports that the allied troops marched into the Imperial palace Aug. 28, but it was known that the Russian troops had been ordered to withdraw from a formal promenade.

There is no other news of any kind.

Official Paper Stopped.

The Hong Kong correspondent of the Daily Mail says that the Canton officials have been ordered to transmit all possible news to the north for press purposes, and that all news taken from the view-point downwards has been stopped during hostilities.

The Vienna correspondent of the Standard telegraphs that he learns from a good source that the Germans, Austrians and Italians will remain in Pekin after the Russian withdrawal.

Shanghai and Hong Kong Despatches express the utmost astonishment at the idea of evacuating Pekin.

Is Russia Fleeing Double?

The Daily News suggests editorially that Russia may have secret terms with China behind the backs of the powers.

The Standard expresses gratification at the explanation that the United States Government does not approve Russia's proceedings.

Says It Is Crooked.

The Daily Express publishes an interview with a New York Chinaman, Liu Chuan, now staying in London, who admits Liu Hung Chang's duplicity and notes antagonism to western ideas, but thinks that the allies have no choice but to negotiate with him or to retire from China altogether.

To Dismiss the Russian Double?

M. De Bloyet, the Paris correspondent of the Times, asserts that the origin of Russia's decision to evacuate Pekin was her desire to frustrate the schemes of Emperor William and to correct the impression produced by the Kaiser's speech, at which Emperor Nicholas the initiative in the appointment of Field Marshal Count Von Waldersee to the command of the international troops.

Difficulty of Communication.

The difficulty of communication between the British Minister at Peking delays the promulgation of the views of the British Government in regard to its future steps in China, the Government being unwilling to commit itself publicly to a definite decision until Sir Claude MacDonald has returned from the situation.

Will Soon Evacuate China.

While the evacuation campaign continues in the press, the trend of official opinion is apparently to evacuate China, the principle of the suggested withdrawal being that the British Government desires to continue the issue pending the prompt withdrawal of the Russian troops, and further to indicate what modification of the military situation may have in mind.

Will Soon Be Settled.

The statement that General Gough, commander of the British troops in China, has stopped British reinforcements, bringing Hong Kong from proceeding further north is taken as an indication that the British Government anticipates that the diplomatic will very shortly take the place now occupied by the military.

May Get Back at France.

It is reported that Hong Kong, which the French captured, recently tried on some Chinese farmers on the banks of the Yangtze, killing three and wounding others. The incident, it is added, is regarded as liable to provoke reprisals.

without a shot, and the boxes followed, after losing 70.

SURPRISE AT SHANGHAI

Over the Report That Russia Had Decided to Leave Pekin—What Was the Cause?

Shanghai, Sept. 3.—The reports from European capitals that Russia has decided to leave Pekin caused amazement here, which was especially inclined to treat them with incredulity, inasmuch as every step in connection with Russia's occupation had apparently been taken with the view to permanency. The theory was that in the event Russia held the key to the situation, and that when the Taku harbor was closed by the other powers would be dependent upon Russia to provision their troops in Pekin.

Is Russia Fleeing Double?

The officers of the other armies have concluded that the Russian intention to leave the railway and to hold the line of forts and arsenals in Pekin, thus securing the strategic foothold of any nation. The assumption is now that Russia is not only evacuating Pekin, but that she will maintain her troops, and part of the army has sometimes been reported.

transported to the coast, and the boxes followed, after losing 70.

RUSSIA FLEEING DOUBLE?

As announced in the despatch from London, Sept. 3, it is just possible that the "double" referred to in the despatch is not a double, but a single, referring to the fact that the Russian government has decided to leave Pekin, and that when the Taku harbor was closed by the other powers would be dependent upon Russia to provision their troops in Pekin.

punctuated by the luncheon given in honor of the leaders of the labor organizations. The prizes were given to the winners, and were presented by Bishop Dalglish when he spoke about the significance of the parade of the nobility, the integrity and the strength of the labor movement. The Labor Procession Was a Record-Breaker in Toronto—Sports and Games Were Postponed Owing to the Cloudy Weather—This is Germania Day.

Labor Day at the Fair was a huge success, in spite of the occasional crown of the weather man. The big parade of the labor organizations with their numerous bands had just entered the grounds when a brisk shower struck them and scattered them to the sheltered corners. For a few minutes they were hurrying and scurrying, and while the shower lasted every building was jammed with the patrons of labor and their friends. Happily, the rain was soon over, and then one had a chance to estimate the numbers of the crowd. When the sun shone out upon the grounds, the crowd poured here, there and everywhere, and there was no point where it was not as thick as a forest.

A General Holiday.

Labor Day is a public holiday all over Canada, and, as a result, every town in Ontario sent its quota of holiday-seekers to the Fair. This, combined with the fact that the streets of the city were closed and the whole means of transport were suspended for the day, no one had long to negotiate to conclude that the Industrial Fair was the only and one attraction that was fit and proper for the day.

Great Influx to the City.

The influx of the city, and the army of resident pleasure-seekers made a bee-line for the Fair. The result was that the paid attendance at the Fair was the largest of the year, and away beyond the same day last year. Before the gates opened the only place in the town where a ticket could be obtained was at the entrance to the grounds. This is a record, and the record is a credit to the management of the Fair.

How to Judge the Crowd.

An index of the crowd is obtained by noting that, ordinarily, most persons travel by the King-street cars going down to the city, and that the cars are crowded to the top. On Monday afternoon, however, the cars were empty, and the people were on foot. This is a record, and the record is a credit to the management of the Fair.

Every department of the Fair was in complete order, and was inspected by air. But perhaps the Mecca was the performance in the arena, in the afternoon, of the Germanic and evening that really stirred the enthusiasm of the people. The music of the Germanic orchestra, his got his apparatus into shape, and yesterday gave a magnificent performance. He rode up the arena, and yesterday gave a magnificent performance. He rode up the arena, and yesterday gave a magnificent performance. He rode up the arena, and yesterday gave a magnificent performance.

LABOR DAY IN MONTREAL

The Procession in Honor of the Day Was an Elaborate and Impressive One.

Montreal, Sept. 3.—(Special.)—Labor Day was festively observed here today, and the procession was most imposing. From shortly before 8 o'clock this morning the various units in the procession began to assemble at or near the Champ de Mars, under the superintendence of Mr. Surprenant, grand marshal of the procession, and his aides. The Champ de Mars, large as it is, was soon too big to contain all the members of the different labor unions who took part in the procession, and the vast number of spectators, amongst whom was a large contingent of the police, and the mounted small boy privates. Headed by their bands, the different unions marched on to the ground and took up their places in the Champ de Mars. The strongest union, the Brotherhood of Shoemakers, which had 400 members, and a contingent of the Federated Trades Council and the Knights of Labor, were in the front. The parade was most impressive, and the spectators were most enthusiastic.

Chicago, Sept. 3.—In response to a request from a committee on Labor Day, Mr. Bryan last night wrote the following: "Labor is worthy of its day. On this day, set apart for the consideration of the wage workers' interests, each employer should inquire whether the man who tills the soil and who manufactures the goods that we use, and if not, let him apply the remedy."

SIR CHARLES' EASTERN TOUR

The Conservative Leader Was Given a Magnificent Reception at Picton, N.S., Yesterday.

CHEERING AS THE TRAIN DREW IN

Speech Delivered by Mr. Foster—The Tourists Leave for Charlottetown, P.E.I.

Picton, N.S., Sept. 3.—(Special)—Sir Charles Tupper was accorded a magnificent reception here this afternoon upon his arrival from Westville, where the monarch Liberal-Conservative demonstration took place last evening, and both Liberals and Conservatives in the grand old shire town had turned out to give the chief a hearty greeting.

Sir Charles was received by prominent Conservatives, including Senator Priddy, Messrs. C. E. Tanner, H. H. Hamilton and others. The appearance of the Liberal-Conservative leader upon the arrival of the train was the signal for an outbreak of cheering, which lasted for many minutes. Sir Charles addressed those present in an exceedingly eloquent speech, briefly reviewing the political situation of the day.

Crises for Hon. Mr. Foster, who accompanied the party, elicited a short address. Sir Charles immediately afterwards proceeded on board the boat which was to convey the party to Charlottetown. Here he was received by Senator Ferguson and others, who had met the Northumberland Straits to meet him.

An informal reception then took place on board, Sir Charles greeting many old friends.

CANADIAN DOCTOR'S SUCCESS.

Honors Abroad for a Former Member of the Toronto General Hospital House Staff.

Dr. Thomas H. Middlebrooke passed thru Toronto yesterday on his way from England to his home in Oswego Sound. Dr. Middlebrooke has been for a year and a half in the London hospitals, where he first took the medical degree of M.D.C. and L.D.C.P., which qualified him for the highest examination in surgery, for the fellowship of the R.C.S., which examination he passed with honors.

The trustees of the Toronto General Hospital and Dr. O'Reilly, the superintendent, naturally feel great pleasure in Dr. Middlebrooke's success, and also to know that he is the fourth member of the house staff of the hospital who has obtained the degree of F.R.C.S., London, on examination. The others who have previously taken it are Dr. Peters, Dr. Bruce and Dr. Armour, now of London, Eng.

It should afford Canadiana great satisfaction to know that they have medical schools and hospitals which are equipped so as to teach theoretically and practically pupils to such a degree of efficiency as to be able to pass the examinations and take the degrees of these time honored institutions.

TWO HOURS IN THE WATER.

Yacht Was Caught by a Squall and Ben Smith and Fred Maddox Were Upset.

About half past ten o'clock on Saturday morning, Messrs. Ben Smith and Fred Maddox started out in a small yacht for a sail from Germany to Jordan. An hour later, when about two miles from Henneville, the boat was captured in a squall and both were dumped. After being a couple of hours in the water they were rescued in a very much exhausted condition by a farmer named Chip. Being in the neighborhood of 75 miles from shore, it is said to be of frequent occurrence with Smith and Maddox to have had two or three upsets earlier in the season.

MANITOBA'S LIEUT.-GOVERNOR.

As Already Stated by The World, Lt.-Col. McMillan Succeeds Hon. J. C. Patterson.

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 3.—(Special)—The following appears in The Free Press, St. John's, N.S., this morning: "The term of office of the Hon. J. C. Patterson as Lieutenant-Governor of Manitoba, expired yesterday, and we understand that the Hon. Col. McMillan has been appointed to the office. When official notification arrives in Winnipeg the change will be carried into effect."

Royal Academy Music Exams.

There is no truth whatever in the statement that the Associated Board of the Royal Academy of Music and Royal College of Music had withdrawn its examinations from Canada and returned the fees of candidates who applied this year. Professor Stewart Macpherson, this year's examiner, was taken ill in Montreal and was unable to examine more than the Ontario and Montreal candidates. The board called offering to send another examiner out, as he could not arrive in Canada before the midsummer holidays, when the candidates would be away. It was decided to cancel the remaining examinations and return the fees. There are an increasing number in the Associated Board's certificates, and there is no thought whatever of suspending the examinations, which have been successful in England, Africa and Australia. The syllabus for the 1901 Canadian examinations is now being printed and will be ready shortly.

Sense in... PIANO BUYING

Good judgment possesses a relative value. If you make a mistake in buying the proverbial penny whistle it is not a very serious matter. It is only a penny after all. But when one proposes to buy a piano the investment runs into good dollars—even for an ordinary instrument.

Here discretion and good sense need to be exercised. A piano is something that should last for a lifetime, and during these long years give fullest satisfaction. You cannot get wear or satisfaction out of a poorly-made piano.

When you buy an instrument bearing the name and guarantee of this old-established firm you get one that pleases at the outset and becomes a better friend year by year. You may pay a few dollars more for one of our instruments than for pianos that are made up for the trade to sell as are razors—but the value is there.

—The Heintzman & Co. is a distinctive instrument in tone, brilliancy, singing quality, —power and artistic construction.

MR. CHARLES MILLAR BACK.

The Well-Known Barister Talks Interestingly on Matters in British Columbia.

Mr. Charles Millar, the well-known barister of the firm of Stuart, Ferguson and Stuart, returned to town on Sunday, Sept. 3, after a trip thru British Columbia and on the Pacific Coast.

A world man succeeded in obtaining an interview with Mr. Millar yesterday, and learned that his visit to the West was undertaken on behalf of the British Columbia Express Company, in which he is interested with another, as a partner. The company operates 600 miles of stage lines north and south of the coast, and Mr. Millar made a thorough tour of inspection, and found everything in good shape. He managed, notwithstanding, to combine a little recreation with business, and a hurried consideration of the political and commercial conditions now existing.

Unsatisfactory Mining Laws.

The condition which seemed to present itself most forcibly was the dissatisfaction on account of the unsatisfactory mining laws. "These laws," he said, "have done much to retard the development of the country by excluding citizens of the United States from coming in and investing their capital in mining. These people know all about mining, and their country is consequently more advanced than the United States. But the people have no voice in the matter, and are consequently not satisfied."

The Fishermen's Strike.

"How about the strike of the fishermen engaged in the salmon industry?" "The strike is settled," replied Mr. Millar. "The men have agreed to accept 15 cents per fish. The nets are so constructed as to let all the small fish pass, and only the large ones remain. I never saw so many small boats about as are to be seen during the season engaged in this industry. It looks like a great regret. The Japanese fishermen are in the majority."

A Word for the Japs.

"The Japanese in the West," he continued, "are a very different class from the Chinese. They are more intelligent, and easily obtain employment in the higher grades of labor. They are a peaceable, law-abiding people, but seem to have a decided taste for liquor than the Chinese. Japanese boy-boys are employed in all the best hotels."

Mr. Millar returned by way of Portland, Oregon and Frisco, taking in the Yellowstone Park and other national points. In Frisco, he took a walk to the city of Dallas, and returned to Toronto.
