Postmaster General Will Also Visit Italy on His Return Home

IMPERIAL CONFERENCE

May 22 Suggested by Imperial Government and Australia Agrees—Government Plans 50 Meetings in London—£500 a Year for M. P.'s

Times' Special Cable London, Nov. 23.—Hon. Roderick Lamont, postmaster general of Canada, who was in South Africa attending the opening of the new South Africa parliament, sailed today from Durban to visit Egypt and Italy before returning home.

The suggestion made by the imperial government that the imperial conference should meet on May 22 has been accepted by the Commonwealth of Australia.

King George has approved the appointment of Mr. Wangseus as consul-general for China in Ottawa.

Exactly where the veto bill now stands is difficult to say. In the House of Lords it is placed opposite the entry "waiting for adjournment debate on second reading." It is not believed that the government will fix any date for continuing the debate.

Members of the government are evidently not of the opinion that London is safe for them, as it has been arranged that they shall address fifty meetings during the election in an effort to improve the liberal position in the metropolis.

There is opinion that the state of the register will be to the disadvantage of the Liberals in London, as had the election taken place on a new register, they are confident that in the balance they would win forty-five seats, but if they hold their seat they are satisfied. In the last election in some contests the liberal majority was very small, and conservative feel certain they will win some of these seats.

The Canadian Associated Press understands that the salary the government propose should be paid to M. P.'s is £500 a year.

DECLARES MOTHER OF BATH-TUB VICTIM IS NOT RESPONSIBLE

Mienist Declares Mrs. Caroline B. Martin Inane and Does Not Realize Position

New York, Nov. 23.—With the declaration of Dr. Walter Washington, an alienist, that she is insane, Mrs. Caroline B. Martin has rested their case in the hearing to prove that she should be brought to trial charged with the murder of her daughter, Ovey Sneed, the East Orange bath-tub victim. Dr. Washington filed his certificate that Mrs. Martin is not sane, and that she is not responsible for her position or her need of a living counsel.

A common delusion of insane people is to believe they are sane and the rest of the world insane," the witness said, when asked to explain the fact that Mrs. Martin has insisted that she is fully responsible.

"Does Mrs. Martin say she is sane, and the rest of the world insane?" "I do," interrupted the woman. "I mean Essex Co., N. J.," she added.

On behalf of the state, evidence will be presented to show that Mrs. Martin is legally responsible and should be placed on trial.

National Rivers and Harbor Congress Promises Session of Importance

Washington, D. C., Nov. 23.—The seventh convention of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, which will be held in this city December 1 and 2 next, is expected to bring to the national capital the largest gathering of waterway enthusiasts ever assembled in America. President Taft will deliver the opening address to the delegates.

Probably next in importance to the address of the president of the United States will be the speech of Judson Harmon, of Ohio, who has for years been a close student of the question of improved waterways.

In addition to these distinguished citizens speakers quite as well known in their several vocations will deliver addresses during the days of the convention, including the Hon. Clifford Sifton, chairman of conservation of the Canadian government.

Lord Minto Accorded Enthusiastic Reception Everywhere

Rampur, India, Nov. 23.—Lord Minto, the returning viceroy of India, is being accorded a most enthusiastic reception at the various places he is visiting prior to his return home. At a banquet given recently at Rampur, the viceroy of India spoke in the highest terms of the consummate statesmanship of Lord Minto, referring also to his generous policy toward the native states in restoring their constitutional position and dignity, he declared that His Excellency would leave India with the warm gratitude of all.

In the course of his speech in reply to the viceroy referred to the traditional loyalty of the natives of Rampur, and of the assistance they had so continually given by their enlightened administration.

SOME $15,000 TO DIVIDE AMONG 5,000 SHELTON CREDITORS

Montreal, Nov. 23.—A statement is being sent out to the clients of C. D. Shelton, who are on his books as creditors of Shelton, that he has about $15,000, it is expected, to divide among the 5,000 creditors, whose claims total three-quarters of a million dollars.

As other claims are yet to be heard from, the outlook at present is that the creditors will get less than two per cent. These figures are largely approximate.

PEACE OF PORTUGAL IS AGAIN MENACED

Lisbon, Nov. 23.—A despatch to the Temps from Lisbon says that the peace of Portugal is menaced by the attitude of groups of Carbonari. They refuse to lay down their arms and are embarrassing the government by their impudent demands. They declare that they are ready to place 10,000 fighting men in the streets if their demands are not complied with. Their leader, a naval officer named Machado, was active in the revolution.

The government's proclamation granting the right to strike has led to the general abuse of this prerogative and it is feared that a strike which has been begun by the tramway workers, the river boatmen and electricians will be followed by a strike of the railroad employes and the gas men.

Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 23.—It was announced that Prof. Herschel C. Parker, of Columbia University, accompanied by Gilmore Brown and other members of last summer's expedition, will make a third attempt this winter to reach the summit of Mt. McKinley.

According to instructions received here from Prof. Parker, his party will gather late in December, making the start from Valdez with dog teams early in January. One of the guides employed last summer has been authorized to get the necessary teams together.

CRIPPEN HANGED; ALMOST COLLAPSES

Made No Statement But London Paper, Despite This, Claims To Have A Confession

PITIFUL SIGHT AS HE GOES TO SCAFFOLD

Wardens Have to Assist Broken Down Man Up Steps to the Drop—In Nervous Collapse Yesterday Following Final Farewell With LeNeve—The Crime and the Man

Dr. Hawley Harvey Crippen without his beard

London, Nov. 23.—Dr. H. Crippen was hanged about 9 o'clock this morning for the murder of his wife. Crippen, when awakened after a restless night, dressed himself in his own clothes. He looked haggard and pale and seemed to have lost all fortitude. His breakfast of bread, butter, tea and two eggs was left practically untouched. When the executioner and his assistant appeared at the door, Crippen rose slowly from his seat and quietly submitted to the pinning of his arms. He was bareheaded and collapsed. He was escorted from the cell between two warders, who assisted the condemned man on to the drop. The cap was adjusted quickly and a moment later the bolt drawn.

At 9 o'clock the tolling of a bell announced that the execution of Crippen had taken place. Soon afterwards an official notice of Crippen's death was posted outside the prison doors.

After the execution was over, Crippen's body was taken to the mortuary and placed in a coffin. The body was then taken to the cemetery and buried.

ALLEGED CONFESSION

Grotesque Details of Crime Furnished in Statement in the London Evening Times

The Evening Times says its readers need not attach the least importance to details that a confession has been made and says: "The one we print is made some time before the execution and is absolutely authentic. It is not affected by the fact that Crippen said nothing on the scaffold."

The Evening Times says that Crippen confessed his guilt to a friend who was unable to hold the awful secret any longer and has given the full facts to that paper. The Times says:—"Crippen first refers to his wife's bad temper and her peculiar powers of aggravation; that she was always nagging him and that she was jealous to a degree hardly to be understood and always doubted his word and every way gave full play to her suspicious nature, making his life a veritable hell on earth."

"To the outer world she appeared a fine lady. Indoors she would get up late and walk about the house, not fully dressed and with a pajama jacket thrown over her shoulders. She always wore curlers to preserve her curls of which she was so proud. On returning after the day's work he found her awaiting him, untidy, jealous and exacting. He also found the drunk and the prostitute in the house."

"Throughout January she was more trying and troublesome even than usual and Crippen's patience became exhausted. He knew the properties of hyacinth from experience in lunatic asylums and determined to do away with his wife by giving her a controlling dose of this deadly poison prepared in tablets and after dinner on January 31 he gave her a tablet impregnated with hyacinth instead of the ordinary one containing bismuth."

"On the evening of February 1, returning home he found his wife half dressed, with curlers in her hair and a potato jacket still around her shoulders, no dinner ready, everything under disorder. That night he gave her another tablet which had impregnated with the deadly poison. This was the end. She fell in a stupor and within an hour was dead in bed. The following day, before leaving the house, he locked the bedroom where the body lay. On the evening of that day he decided to make away with the corpse."

"Disposing of Body "Some days before he had purchased a shop in Holborn, a peculiar knife of the kind used by doctors in post-mortems. He dragged the heavy corpse, clad only in a combination pajama jacket, to the cellar in the kitchen. Within a few yards of the cellar was an old fashioned stove which he used in an attempt of removing all trace of the crime. He quickly cut off the head, hands and feet and all parts of the body which appertained especially to a woman. With heavy slashes of the knife he removed the bones and set fire to those poor relics of humanity, the kitchen stove

"What else?" "There would not be any waste of money on the streets and waterworks."

"What else?" "The streets would be paved and kept clean. There would be a town plan and a building law. Unsanitary shacks would be torn down. Vacancies would be taxed until somebody made them productive. Sobriety would be a condition of service. Plans for Liners of 12,000 Tons for the Trade from Vancouver Are Being Worked Out

Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 23.—(Special)—Specifications are now being prepared for liners of 12,000 tons to operate between Vancouver and Antipodes. The government virtually served notice to soldiers of fortune, rovers and would-be sight-seers, that free trips to the Antipodes are at an end.

Panama Canal Commission See Scheme in Applications for Work

New York, Nov. 23.—Through the arrest of six men who had applied for work upon the Panama Canal, the government virtually served notice to soldiers of fortune, rovers and would-be sight-seers, that free trips to the Antipodes are at an end.

The arrests disclosed that the canal commission has been victimized at government expense to the amount of $100,000. The men are of presenting forged recommendations for the purpose of defrauding the government out of the cost of their transportation to Panama. All were held for examination.

A Broken Man

His mental anguish had been too great to be concealed by outward bravado, and was a broken man whom the warders were obliged to assist up the steps to the drop, which, once reached, the shrinking figure lay motionless. The first report that Crippen had met his fate calmly was contradicted by persons who were present in the prison during the man's last hours.

His face was colorless as he was escorted bareheaded to the gallows. The gruesome work was soon done. The black cap was quickly drawn over the face, the noose adjusted and the bolt drawn. Crippen, who weighed 140 pounds, was given a drop of seven feet. Death was instantaneous.

Some time after the crowd had dispersed a notice was posted on the prison gates announcing that "Judgment of death has this day been executed on H. H. Crippen," in the presence of the governor of the prison, the under sheriff and Father Carey. The physician's certificate of death was also displayed.

THE CRIME AND THE MAN

The execution of Dr. Crippen occurred today and closed the criminal record of one of the most sensational of recent murder cases. The brutality of the crime committed by a man who had been known as a gentle and kindly nature, the murderer's spectacular flight to Canada and the fact that this case against the doctor purely circumstantial combined to make the tragedy of absorbing interest not only in England where the murder was done, but in America where both Crippen and his wife were born.

Crippen, slight in figure was just past thirty years of age. He was born in Michigan and after studying medicine practiced in the United States and Canada. In 1896, he married Cora Mackintosh, of Brooklyn, a vaudeville actress whose stage name was Belle Elmore. They removed to London where the doctor engaged in dental manufacture.

Soon there was domestic infelicity, due, Crippen alleged, to the attentions his wife received from other men. Then Ethel Clara LeNeve, a prepossessing woman now about twenty-seven years of age, entered Crippen's employ as a typist. She sympathized with the doctor and the two fell in love. Meantime Crippen and his wife were estranged.

Life Disasters Nearly a year ago Miss LeNeve, feeling her position keenly, became impatient with the situation. About the same time the doctor was in need of money. Mrs. Crippen disappeared suddenly last February. Her husband inserted a death notice in the papers saying that she had succumbed to an illness while visiting in California. Actress friends of Mrs. Crippen persuaded Scotland Yard to make an investigation and the police officials interviewed Crippen on July 12. He threw the police of the secret but on the following day fled from London in company with Miss LeNeve who was disguised as a boy.

Subsequently their presence on board the steamer Montrose was made known to Scotland Yard through wireless messages and the Montrose was approaching the harbor of Quebec. Crippen and Miss LeNeve were arrested. This was on July 31.

Part of Body Found

In the meantime the police had visited the Crippen home in Hilldrop Crescent and in the cellar unearthed parts of a woman's body. The medical experts who were called in to examine the remains, reported that they were the remains of a woman who had been killed. He came here from Massachusetts several years ago.

MR. BIRRELL UNDER CARE OF DOCTORS

Aged Statesman Beaten and Kicked by Suffragettes in London

London, Nov. 23.—The rioting of the suffragettes, which began with an assault on Premier Asquith yesterday, continued throughout the night. Driven from one district, so many of the women as escaped arrest, would gather at another point and renew the battle.

RIOTS ALL NIGHT

Advancing under cover of the fog at 2:30 o'clock this forenoon, a militant band circumvented the police and stormed the Asquith residence in Downing street. They hurled stones and metal weights at the house, breaking the glass in all the lower windows.

Earlier in the night the women smashed the windows in the home of Sir Edward Grey, the foreign secretary, Lewis Harcourt, secretary of state for the colonies, and Winston Spencer Churchill, the home secretary.

Augustine Birrell, the veteran chief secretary for Ireland, was the victim of the most vicious of serious assaults. As a result of injuries from blows and kicks the aged statesman is today confined to his bed and under the care of physicians. He has been compelled to cancel all immediate private and official engagements.

Mr. Birrell was making his way on foot through St. James' Park to the Athenaeum Club, when he was set upon by the women and badly beaten. Policemen rescued him and helped him to a motor car, in which he was taken home.

Two hundred and fifty-five women and two men who took part in yesterday's riots were arraigned in the Bow street court today. At the direction of Home Secretary Churchill those charged merely with obstructing the police were discharged. The others, against whom complaints of assault and the willful damage of property have been made, were returned to jail to be held for trial later. Most of the women prisoners appeared in court wearing bags containing a change of clothing, hopeful of the possibility of their being released by their knitting and plying their needles busily during the proceedings, greatly amuse the court.

Among those held was Mrs. Haverfield, daughter of Lord Alington, who, according to the testimony introduced, had promised to bring a revolver with her on the occasion of the next suffragette demonstration.

THE SITUATION IN MEXICO TROUBLES TODAY

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 23.—5:30 a.m.—At this hour a temporary lull is taking place in the fighting at Torreon with the government forces in full control of the city.

Wild scenes of disorder marked the night in that city and the death list is estimated at sixty or seventy, largely from the insurgent side. The revolutionists lack organization and leadership and their supply of arms and ammunition is limited. At this hour fighting has also ceased at Chihuahua. The insurgents are active outside the city and have control of a large territory. The government forces and property owners are in possession of the city.

The wires on the El Paso branch of the Mexican Northern Railroad have been cut, and nothing can be learned as to the situation at Omasa, Granada, where an attack was expected early in the night. Special trains will start for that point at daylight.

The railroad belongs to the Pearson syndicate, the Madeira branch of which has fallen into the hands of the insurgents.

Paral. Gomez Palazio and Jimenez are reported tranquil.

Heavy fighting began early this morning at Santa Isabel, Chihuahua.

At Torreon, a large force of cavalry has been sent in pursuit of the revolutionists, who have withdrawn towards San Pedro, where a decisive battle is expected today.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 23.—It is reported that desultory fighting began on the outskirts of Chihuahua at midnight and that all the towns west of the Chihuahua and Pacific railway to Madera have been practically against Diaz and a general movement against Chihuahua itself from that side will follow in the next day or two.

All was quiet at Mexico city, Puebla, Orizaba and Toluca at 2 a. m. today. Fighting broke out again last night at Parra and fighting continues at Terreon. Heavy fighting is reported at San Yedro, seven kilometres from Chihuahua. Agnes Calientes, Monterey and Tampico are reported quiet. A riot at Zacatecas last night was immediately quelled.

IN PARLIAMENT

In its parliamentary report this morning the Standard features the speech of Mr. F. D. Monk, who came to state that Mr. Monk announced that he is still a Conservative. Mr. Borden has not yet repudiated Mr. Monk or the Nationalist campaign in Quebec. He and his party appear to be willing to make a little political capital out of this campaign if it is possible to do so, no matter what the ultimate effect may be upon the harmony of races in Canada. The course pursued by the Conservative leaders in this matter is the very opposite of patriotic. They ought to be as sternly opposed to the anti-British agitation in Quebec as are Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Hon. Mr. Brodeur. Mr. Monk thought to make a point by quoting an alleged statement by a Liberal speaker to the effect that a navy would be useful if Canada had to fight England. This story was serviceable only for a short time, as it was followed by a denial by the Liberal in question that he had ever made any such statement. The Conservatives must see by this time that they have nothing to gain by yoking up with Mr. Bourassa. The sooner this discussion is disposed of and the House gets down to practical business, the better for the country; but before the discussion ends Mr. Borden should have the courage to declare that so far as the Conservative party is concerned it is more opposed to Mr. Bourassa than to Sir Wilfrid Laurier. If he fails to make this statement the people will know that he is not the sort of man who should be the leader of a great party.

THE RECORDER'S REMARKS

Recorder Baxter made some remarks in an address last evening that should commend themselves to the city council and the citizens at large. He said:—

"With the back yards heaped with ashes and the streets puddles of mud and water, you cannot expect to have the proper calibre of citizenship. It is a scientific fact that healthy places for living can be provided for the same amount of money that build up conditions that tend to moral breakdown. Improvements of this nature have not as yet entered into the civic mind. Land is owned in both the city and Fairville. What is the city doing with it? A man gets land, he puts up a mere packing box, or if the means permit, two or three packing boxes, and in such confinement he lives. No where in the city is there the privacy of domestic life. We must at present think not of ourselves but of the thousands that are to populate the future St. John."

The Times has more than once urged the importance of town-planning in advance of the growth that is to take place in St. John east and St. John west. At present there is no plan. What Recorder Baxter says about new buildings is true. There is no proper regulation and inspection, and no provision for parks and playgrounds. This condition is likely to continue till St. John gets a better system of city government.

GOVERNMENT BY COMMISSION

The Times prints today a synopsis of the commission plan of government adopted in the city of Spokane. It is quoted from the Lethbridge Courier, which also notes the fact that Lethbridge itself is commission form of government. "Government by commission," says the Courier, "is a modern form of good government." That is what St. John has been looking for, and the citizens would do well to study the commission plan and ask themselves whether it might not be adopted with advantage here. All over the United States the Galveston or Des Moines or some other form of commission government based on this is gaining new victories. From Massachusetts to the Pacific coast there is a movement in favor of a plan that has produced good results wherever adopted. St. John people are dissatisfied with the system of government by city council, and there is as much reason for study of the new system here as in United States cities. If by adopting the commission plan we can get a business administration of civic affairs the sooner it is adopted the better. It does not follow that exactly the same system should be adopted here as in any other city. Local conditions may suggest variations, but the main fact to be noted is that where the commission plan has been in operation the people have got improved public services, healthier civic finances, and a better return for all the money expended.

THE MILITIA

The report of General French and General Lake on the Canadian militia has been placed before parliament. These officers find that there are shortcomings, but on the whole their report is favorable, while many suggestions are made as to improvement in organization. General French notes the fact that excellent progress has been made during the last few years along the lines he suggests. A paragraph in his report which effectively disarms the criticism of the opposition is as follows:—

"Judging from what I have seen of the excellent material and the fine spirit which is apparent in all ranks, and taking also into consideration the marked progress which has been made within the past few years and the evident signs of its continuance, I should be inclined to think that, so long as the present condition of affairs on the North American continent remains as it is, the existing system, if strictly administered on the sound basis of peace organization, should suffice to meet the needs of the dominion."

The report indicates several directions in which the militia may be improved, and is the most comprehensive criticism that has yet been presented to parliament. No doubt it will be the basis of action on the part of the government such as will bring the militia more completely into line with its recommendations.

The iron hand still rules in Russia. The cables tell us that people who met in various cities to honor the memory of Tolstoy were ridden down by Cossacks and whipped without mercy. The influence of Tolstoy, however, is something that cannot be reached by Cossack whips, and the ideals which he cherished will endure, despite the brutality of the government.

The Times stated a couple of days ago that the C. P. R. was contemplating a steamship service to South America and another to the West Indies. This news is now confirmed from Montreal. It is expected that the South American line will be established next spring. Both lines when in operation will make St. John their winter port. It is very evident that the trade of this port must within the next few years assume very large proportions. The hopes entertained twenty years ago are being more than realized today.

The execution of Dr. Crippen in London this morning marks the close of a grim tragedy and also proves to the world that British justice is sure and not slow. Had the crime of Crippen been committed in the United States, or perhaps even in Canada, a longer time would have elapsed between the arrest of the murderer and the expiation of the crime. It is the habit in the United States to let most of the murderers escape. Not so in England. The situation with regard to the administration of justice in the United States is such as to cause grave apprehension in the minds of thoughtful citizens. The press of that country has again and again referred to the Crippen case as an illustration of the manner in which justice should be dealt out in the republic.

It was remarked yesterday that the uprising in Mexico would perhaps make some investors wish that they had chosen Canada instead of Mexico as a field of operations. The latest news indicates that this remark was not inappropriate. Yet it is not very many months since Canadian financial journals talked with great confidence of the growth of business in Mexico, the stability of its government, and other reasons why Canadian dollars should find their way to the southern republic. After all, the best place for investment today is Canada, and those who look to the far-off fields are frequently called upon to pay dearly for having failed to discover the attractions and possibilities of their own country.

The suffragettes are having a fine time in London. Yesterday they broke Sir Edward Grey's windows, kicked the shins of the Rt. Hon. Augustine Birrell and prodded Premier Asquith. More than one hundred of these joyous maids and matrons were arrested. One who failed otherwise to arouse the resentment of the police threw a missile through the jail window, and was then taken in charge. This sort of thing may be effective, but it is certainly not a dignified proceeding when a woman has to be dragged from a scene of riot with, as the cable states, "her clothes half torn from her back."

Fire Insurance Inquiry

New York, Nov. 23.—Fire insurance methods are under fire at the hands of the Merritt legislative graft committee. Insurance experts were the chief witnesses yesterday and the testimony was almost exclusively technical.

YOU CAN SEE HOW IT HEALS

DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT

No Question or Doubt as to the Healing Power of

To people who have used internal treatment in an effort to cure eczema it is almost beyond belief what benefit can be obtained by a few applications of this soothing, healing ointment.

It is seldom that the cause of eczema can be determined, but one thing is certain, the itching must be stopped and the sores healed up.

These results are secured by the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment. The itching is relieved almost instantly, and you will be surprised at the healing which will take place overnight.

A little patience and persistent use of this treatment has entirely cured me, and I give you a statement of my case with pleasure, as I hope thereby to induce some other sufferer to try the same Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Mr. Geo. Peterson, South Bay, Ont., writes: "I wish to inform you that the great benefit I derived from using Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment for years I suffered with eczema. I tried four doctors, giving each a fair trial, but got no better. Then, I saw Dr. Chase's Ointment advertised and began using it. Persistent use of this treatment has entirely cured me, and I give you a statement of my case with pleasure, as I hope thereby to induce some other sufferer to try the same Dr. Chase's Ointment."

Because this ointment has made its world-wide reputation by curing the most severe and long-standing cases of eczema and piles is no reason why you should overlook its scores of uses in the relief of itching and irritation of the skin.

ETERNAL HOPE

Hope on, hope ever, though today be dark,
The sweet amburist may smile on thee to-morrow;
Thou'rt that art lonely, there's an eye will miss,
Thy loneliness and gerdon all thy sorrow.
Thou'rt must toil 'mong cold and sorrowing men,
With none to echo back thy thought or love
Cheer up, poor heart, thou dost not beat in vain,
For God is over all, and Heaven above thee—
Hope on, hope ever—Gerald Massey.

IN LIGHTER VEIN

THE FIRST STEP.
"Do you think they will announce their engagement soon?"
"No. They haven't denied it yet."

AT THE START.
"I must have been a fool when I married," said little Tompkins, glaring fiercely at his wife.
"Certainly, my dear," said Mrs. Tompkins, sweetly. "It couldn't come on so badly all in two weeks, could it?"

UNFOOLED.

She painted her cheeks,
But she didn't fool me.
She painted her hair,
And she did it in streaks,
It was easy to see,
She had painted her cheeks,
So she didn't fool me.

CAUTION.

First Lady—"I hope we got the right train."
Second Lady—"I asked seventeen porters and ninety-three passengers if this train went to Blankville, and they all said yes, so I think we're all right."

WHAT HE WAS THINKING.
"And," gushed the sweet young thing, "when you were 10,000 feet in the air, what were you thinking?"
"I was wondering," replied the aviator, "if I could get back to earth before some other guy pushed his machine twenty feet higher."

THE FINAL HOPE.

"And," said the Old Party, proposing the toast of the evening at a silver wedding, "respecting our host I can say this—and I speak of him with great confidence—that a better fellow never lived."
Here he paused for effect, while the assembled guests gave vent to loud "Hear, hears." Then he resumed:
"I was present at his christening. I was present at a banquet given when he came of age. I was present at his wedding. I am present tonight to celebrate his silver wedding." (Hear, hear.) "And, ladies and gentlemen, in conclusion, I can only hope I shall be present at his funeral."

WHEN THE NEWS REACHED THE JUNGLE.

The jungle folk were waiting as they crouched around the fire.
"What news?" they asked the monkey on the telegraphic pole.
He raised his paw for silence, with his ear against the wire.
The zeb grew so excited that it sat upon a coal.
"What news?" they asked the monkey as he gibbered on the staff;
"What news?" the digdig echoed as he kicked the leaves about his feet.
"By jinks," the monkey chattered, with a shrill and sudden laugh.
"They've jumped upon the colonel and they say they've smoked him out!"

They're dancing 'round the jungle, with the hippo in the lead;

The springbok and the zino, and the little beas and all;
They're singing and they're shouting—they have all forgot to feed;
And the big and lassy lion shouts the loudest of 'em all!

PRICES OF SHOES TO BE ADVANCED
Increase Attributed to Arbitrary "read on Part of Trust"

(Ottawa Free Press)

Now is the time to buy footwear as the price of boots and shoes is to be boosted all round next year.

Agents of manufacturers and wholesale shoe establishments in Canada and the United States who have been going the round of the city retailers soliciting orders on spring goods, declare an increase of five per cent in the wholesale price of all leather goods.

"Will this mean any considerable advance to the purchaser?" a Free Press reporter asked one retailer of boots and shoes this morning.

"You bet it does," he remarked cheerfully. "If you're wise you'll buy your next year footwear right off. In the spring you'll have to pay $4.50 for a pair of boots that now cost you $4.00."

The promised increase in the price of footwear, he explained, was due to no corresponding advance in the price of hides. Hides were plentiful, but the combination controlling the American boot and shoe market had decided to boost prices. The Canadian manufacturers boost theirs in sympathy.

Fashion Hints for Times Readers

A DAINTY LITTLE THEATER DRESS OF CREPE AND LACE
Pale green crepe de chine combined with the girls' boarding schools which had advertised in its pages during the last year.

Appalled at the length of the list I took the time and trouble to count it.

THERE WERE 176
Think of that.

And those figures represent, of course, just the schools that advertised in one magazine.

They do not hundreds of other include the schools that advertised in the United States at all. They do not include the schools which do not advertise at all.

Perhaps you wonder why I said "appalled" above.

I'll tell you. Jonder why I mention this list anyway. Idea of the tremendous this. Those figures give us a little idea of the habits of the American mother to bring it of turning her young daughters over to a friend of mine.

A friend of mine give her any advice wrote me last summer to ask if I could send her to a good boarding school to which she belonged, under her own wing.

I wrote back possible for her to inquire just what duties made it im- tive, brilliant little that daughter—a headstrong, sen- sation and guidance creature, as much in need of the intu- was—right where that love alone can give as any girl ever for college.

I haven't heard from her since. I am afraid she was offended at my plain speaking.

But I would do it again.

I am as firm believer in sending the seventeen or eighteen year old girl away to college. I believe that the advantages of a girl that are derived from looking out for herself, during her own studies, making her own decisions, ordering her own life, outweigh the disadvantages—and I admit there are plenty of those—of college life.

But to send a girl twelve or thirteen or fourteen years old away from home—to give to outsiders this most plastic and sensitive period of her life, to trust to strangers that most delicate process, the molding of girlhood into womanhood, to be separated from a child at the time when so many instincts are awakening, so many wonders are demanding satisfaction—well I can scarcely understand the speaker who could do it.

And yet by the showing of 176 schools advertising in a single magazine it looks as if there must be plenty of such women.

And just think, one of those schools actually offered to take girls from kindergarten age to college.

One hears many protests against the way on which the wealthy mother gives over the care of her little baby to a nursemaid or trained nurse.

Personally I don't think she does as much harm or runs as much risk as the mother who is willing to find in the open market of the boarding school a solution of her difficulties in moulding her young daughter's mind and character.

Do you?

And just think, one of those schools actually offered to take girls from kindergarten age to college.

One hears many protests against the way on which the wealthy mother gives over the care of her little baby to a nursemaid or trained nurse.

Personally I don't think she does as much harm or runs as much risk as the mother who is willing to find in the open market of the boarding school a solution of her difficulties in moulding her young daughter's mind and character.

Do you?

FIGURES THAT TELL STORIES
HIGH SCHOOL PROGRESS

THE INCREASINGLY POPULAR COLLEGIATE.

1867 1897 1908
5636 PUPILS 17,459 34,912

THE illustrations show the growing appreciation in Ontario of the advantages and benefits of education in Collegiate Institutes and High schools. The attendance at these secondary schools has increased nearly six-fold since 1867, while public school attendance has not increased much above 12 per cent in the same period. (The number of pupils enrolled at Public schools was 401,643 in 1867, and it was 452,221 in 1908). There were 105 secondary schools open in 1908, an increase of 42 since Confederation. The number of schools, however, does not indicate the rate of progress so well as the statistics concerning teachers, of whom there were 795 in 1908, compared with 159 in 1867. Some indication of the palatial character of the Collegiate Institutes and High schools now being erected is gained from the amounts expended for sites and buildings which were $193,000 in 1907, and $272,000 in 1908. In 1892, for instance, the expenditure for this purpose was $91,108. Another indication of progress is the sum paid by the pupils for fees. In 1867 $15,600 was obtained from fees, while in 1908 the school fees yielded over $145,000. The revenue for school purposes has greatly increased in forty years—from $189,600 to over $2,000,000.

he would vote for a whiskey man, as he would not receive him. He said there was one man in Hamilton who had his hand in the temperance people's pockets, and who, at the same time, worked with the whiskey gang's workers, but he did not think that the man would succeed in fooling the voters. The mayor had accused the speaker of being a preacher for the money he could make out of it, but he said the mayor knew a much easier way of making money. He said he still stood by his former statement, that Hamilton was one of the most drunken cities between Halifax and Vancouver.

A burly policeman would move women along who stopped to talk, while he would smile to a drunken man who touched against him. He said railway men were discharging for drinking, while the city officials were powerless when the policemen took drink and sometimes money while on duty. He said that no "peanut politician or municipal slippery fish," could stop him.

He said the people here would have to travel some to find a mayor who would lower himself as Mayor McLean had within the last few days.

EVANGELISTS POUR HOT SHOT INTO HAMILTON
Reeling in Drunkenness, One of Worst Cities in Canada—A Spirited Controversy With the Mayor

Hamilton, Nov. 22—McCombe Brothers, the Toronto evangelists, who have been in the limelight here on account of a controversy with Mayor McLean and Ald. Forth, over statements made by them, took another round out of the former in remarks made in Zion Tabernacle and Association Hall.

Rev. John McCombe said that Hamilton was reeling in drunkenness and among other things, he said that most of the ministers liked to go to heaven by way of Toronto. He went through a take-off on Mayor McLean, who, he intimated, thought he was "the whole business."

Then he pictured the mayor as saying that he had not a dollar when he came to the city, but who now, pointing to this and that, indicated them as possessions of his. Rev. Jefferson McCombe, in adding a few remarks, said that Zion Tabernacle was the only good thing in ward four. He referred to Mayor McLean's charge that he was an indiscriminate peddler of religion, and Ald. Forth's reference to him as a freak and said that some men were so small in their visions that they could be put inside a grain of mustard seed.

He said if he had to choose between a man who told him that he favored his principles, and then went and hobnobbed with the liquor crowd, and a whiskey man

30 YEARS OF SUCCESS
Chas. R. Wasson Offers a Remedy for Catarrh—The Medicine Costs Nothing if it Fails

When a medicine meets a successful treatment in a very large majority of cases, and when I offer that medicine on my own personal guarantee that it will cost the user nothing if it does not completely relieve catarrh, it is only reasonable that people should believe me, or at least put my claim to a practical test when I take all the risk. These are facts which I want the people to understand. I want them to try Rexall Mucic-Tone, a medicine prepared from a prescription of a physician with whom catarrh was a specialty, and who has a record of thirty years of reliable success to his credit.

I receive more good news about Rexall Mucic-Tone than any other catarrh remedy sold. It is a safe and reliable medicine, and it is the only one that cures it. It would have any demerit if it were not so quickly absorbed and by its therapeutic effect tends to disintegrate and clear the entire mucous membrane, to destroy and remove the parasites which injure the mucous tissues, to soothe the irritation and heal the soreness, stop the mucous discharge, build up strong healthy tissues and relieve the blood and system of diseased matter. Its influence is toward stimulating the mucous cells, aiding digestion and improving nutrition until the whole body vibrates with healthy activity. In a comparatively short time it brings about a noticeable gain in weight, strength, good color and feeling of buoyancy.

I urge you to try Rexall Mucic-Tone, beginning a treatment today. At any time you are not satisfied, simply come and tell me, and I will quickly return your money without question or quibble. I have Rexall Mucic-Tone in two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies in St. John only at my store—The Rexall Store. Chas. R. Wasson, 100 King street.

HOW 20th CENTURY BRAND GARMENTS ARE MADE

Showing the Advantages of Hand Tailoring Over Machine Work

(From "Dress, a Magazine for Men." We will send you a copy free for the asking).

Every man is interested in the clothes question. Most men enjoy being well dressed. The law and the climate compel attention to the subject even among those who might otherwise overlook its importance. Some men go through life making mistake upon mistake in buying clothes. They either pay too much, too little, or pay just enough, but do not get what they pay for.

If you will read the few facts here given and remember them, you will have learned something about good and stylish clothes, how they are made and how to obtain them, that will save you trouble and save you money for the rest of your life.

MADE IN CLEAN, SANITARY TAILOR SHOPS

are unquestionably the finest, most sanitary and best equipped in Canada. Each floor is 50 x 250 feet, perfectly lighted and perfectly ventilated.

Every garment that bears the 20th Century Brand label is cut, and tailored throughout in these shops. Cheap garments are tailored in unsanitary sweat-shops.

The pictures on this and succeeding pages will give you an idea of the difference between a high-class tailor shop and a crowded sweat-shop.

WOOLENS FROM THE BEST MILLS IN THE WORLD

We buy our woolens from the most famous mills in England, Scotland and Ireland. The dressiest Scotch tweeds, best English worsteds—finest Irish serges and newest West of England trouserings are represented in our immense stock. There is not a mill in the world that makes cloth too high in quality for us. It would be sheer folly to put our standard of tailoring on poor cloth. You can be assured that the materials in our garments are of the highest grade in their respective qualities, that the linings, hair cloth, canvas, padding, buttons and silk thread are of a quality that is only found in clothes of the better sort.

And another point to bear in mind is that we buy cloth from the mills in immense quantities, whereas the custom tailor buys from the jobber in suit lengths—a very extravagant method of buying, but unavoidable because of limited business.

STYLES ARE CORRECT AND AUTHENTIC

You will notice that we speak of woolens first, and for a good reason—they are the foundation of all good clothes.

Having bought the finest wooleens obtainable, best open-air shrunk canvas, soft finish, 75-to-the-inch hair cloth, silk, satin, mohair serge and other high-grade linings, ivory and buffalo horn buttons (no cheap composition buttons), the next important operation is preparing the styles or designs for the season. Our designer and assistant designer travel widely, watch every movement of the mode and have produced styles that have helped largely to make 20th Century Brand garments the style standard. Our styles are correct, authentic and thoroughly metropolitan as compared with the more or less antiquated styles produced by local tailors.

EVERY GARMENT CUT INDIVIDUALLY WITH THE SHEARS

Most of the good woolen mills claim that their goods are "thoroughly shrunk." We take no chances, however, and every bolt of cloth we buy is unwound, re-shrunk by the most modern and effective system known and re-examined for imperfections. This is one of the "secrets" of the shape-retaining qualities of 20th Century Brand garments.

Now look at the picture of our cutting room (on the page opposite) where the next important operation is carried on.

Ready-made clothes are cut often to twenty at a time with a hand knife—a very cheap, but unsatisfactory and inaccurate method. We cut every garment individually with the shears—the only method by which accuracy of design and perfection of fit can be obtained.

HAND WORK ON EVERY IMPORTANT OPERATION

The cut and trimmed garments now go to the tailor shops, and right here it might be well to disabuse the public mind of a few alleged "secrets" of fine tailoring. The man who goes to an exclusive custom tailor and pays him $25 to $50 for a suit imagines that every stitch on his coat, trousers and vest is done by hand. Not much! In the highest priced custom-tailored garments made in America there is a great deal of machine work—in fact, more machine work than hand work. There are a few operations in the making of a garment that can be done more satisfactorily and more artistically by hand than by machine work. In our own tailor shops, which (as you will see by the illustrations) are filled with hand workers, we do by hand work every operation which we consider can be done better by hand than by machine. And we use machines just as the highest priced custom tailor does and for the same operations.

In our coat shops each garment passes through 26 distinct operations, with expert specialists doing the work in each of these 26 stages. Any one of them can do what he does much better than an all-round coat maker who may be a fairly good tailor but who is not a specialist in any particular branch of the art and science of coat making. The degree of perfection that our specialists arrive at through years of practice and study in one small department of coat making is nothing short of amazing. Custom tailors who visit our tailor shops (and they are always welcome) never fail to express their astonishment at the perfection of workmanship which this system of specialization has made possible. The "Jack-of-all-trades" being master of none and no way to the specialist in this and every other department of human endeavor.

CLEVER SPECIALISTS IN EVERY DEPARTMENT

Among the operations of the making of a coat which can be done better by hand than by machine, is putting on the collar, which controls the balancing of the coat. This is done by specialists who do nothing else and who are among the cleverest hand workers in our shops. Another important operation demanding highly skilled hand workers is manipulating the canvas and hair cloth to make a perfect breast and front for the coat. Many good coat makers do not excel in this branch of work with the result that an otherwise well-tailored garment fails to be of shape. Our canvas and hair cloth workers do absolutely nothing else and their exceptional ability in this particular line of work has much to do with the shape-retaining qualities for which 20th Century Brand garments are famous.

SKILFUL HAND WORK MEANS PERFECT GARMENTS

Shaping collars and lapels is another important hand operation. Every corner, every curve and every notch must match perfectly. The edges on all our garments are turned out by hand and you will notice that they are worked out very thin and very evenly. Putting in sleeves and sleeve head paddings requires very skilful hand work. Our sleeves hang perfectly, never drag and never pucker in the seam.

The silk department where all the fine silk work is done by hand, particularly the facing of lapels on dress garments, is manned by unquestionably the most highly skilled silk workers in Canada and we challenge comparison of our work in this line with any in America.

HAND PRESSING IS BETTER THAN MACHINE PRESSING

The pressing off is all done absolutely with hand irons. Ready-made clothes are pressed off on pressing machines. Our pressers do not shape our garments. The shape is tailored into them before they reach the pressers.

Garments that are shaped with the iron are quickly unshaped by the weather. The edges on 20th Century Brand garments are shaped so evenly and perfectly that the presser has little or nothing to do in the way of stretching or shrinking.

The buttonholes on our garments are the best wearing holes that can possibly be made, the buttons are of the best quality obtainable and are sewed on to stay on. You would be surprised what an amount of care and taste must be exercised in this small matter of buttons. They must be correct in size, shade, style and quality, and must be most carefully spaced.

EVERY GARMENT CAREFULLY EXAMINED BY EXPERTS

The final operation of examining the garment for any imperfection in tailoring is a most important one, and is done by a staff of eight competent and experienced examiners who are given plenty of time to do the work thoroughly.

Their examination is a most critical one and the garment must measure up in every particular to the 20th Century Brand standard or back to the tailor shop it goes. When once the garment has been passed by the final examiners it is boxed and made ready for shipment.

It is also ready to fit and ready to give entire satisfaction.

LET YOUR STOMACH HAVE ITS OWN WAY

Do Not Try to Drive and Force it to Work When it is Not Able or You Will Suffer All the More.

You cannot treat your stomach as some men treat a balky horse; force, drive or even starve it into doing work at which it rebels.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will do the work of your stomach for you and give you your food just as your stomach used to when it was well.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are for sale by all druggists at 50 cents a box. They are so well known and their popularity is so great that a druggist would as soon think of being out of alcohol or quinine as of them.

SPOKANE ADOPTS GOVERNMENT BY COMMISSION; THE PLAN

New City Charter Under the New Procedure—Salaries of Commissioners Set at $5,000 a Year—Thirty-Eight Sections in Charter Supply the Machinery

(Lathbridge Courier.) The city of Spokane is about to adopt the commission plan of government.

Spokane is a much larger city than Lethbridge, consequently it would require more commissioners and the commissioners perhaps would be entitled to larger salaries than would be the case should Lathbridge decide to adopt the principles of the plan adopted by Spokane.

For a year Spokane has been wrestling with the question. First of all, a committee of representative citizens was appointed by the mayor.

The next step was the election by the freeholders of a committee of fifteen to draft the new city charter, embodying the commission form of government.

The following is a summary of the final draft of the new city charter adopted by this committee of freeholders Friday.

Section 7.—Vacancies to occur from failure to qualify within ten days after election, death, resignation, removal from office, continuous absence from the city for more than six months, conviction for felony or for incompetency.

Section 8.—Salaries, $5,000 each. Section 9.—Commissioners to be citizens of the United States and of the state of Washington, and residents for five years in the city.

Section 10.—Public meetings of council, one legislative meeting to be held every two weeks, and daily business meetings.

Section 11.—Each commissioner has a vote. Mayor has no vote. Section 12.—All legislation and appropriations by ordinance in writing.

Section 13.—But one subject in ordinance to be taken up at one meeting.

Section 14.—Three public readings of ordinance. Three days to elapse between introduction and final passage. Ordinance covering sums in excess of $1,000 to remain on file a week before passage except in emergency.

Section 15.—Ordinances to be signed by city clerk. Section 16.—Ordinances to be recorded and attested by city clerk.

Section 17.—Ordinances effective after 30 days. Section 18.—Electors' ordinances effective at time fixed therein, or if not designated at date of adoption.

Section 19.—Amendments and repeals by ordinance. Section 20.—Departments as follows: Finance, Public safety, Public works, Public utilities.

Section 21.—Commissioners to have charge of departments as may be changed from one to another or given more than one.

Section 22.—Appointment of officer by council. Section 23.—Commissioners have power to appoint and remove assistants and employees in their respective departments.

Section 24.—City engineer to be of practical experience of five years preceding appointment.

Section 25.—Corporation counsel to have practice law in state of Washington for five years next preceding appointment.

Section 26.—Duties of city clerk to keep records of proceedings, all matters acted on by council, certify all accounts, keep and file same.

AVOID ARREST OF YOUTH WHERE IT IS POSSIBLE

Prison Congress Adopts Platform for Dealing With Juvenile Delinquents

Interest attaches to the rules adopted by the recent International Prison Congress at Washington for the treatment of juvenile delinquents.

Those who are entrusted with the cognizance of the cases of young delinquents should be primarily chosen for their ability to understand and sympathize with children, and should have some special knowledge of the social and psychological sciences.

They should have the assistance of probation officers to make preliminary examination in each case and to watch over and help those put on probation.

There should be made in connection with young delinquents such examinations as will contribute to the fund of information on juvenile delinquency and the results should be used whenever practicable to help in the disposition of the case.

DESERVING OF REWARD IS CAMPBELLTON'S MAYOR

(Campbellton Graphic)

During the exacting time after the fire, when everyone was to a greater or less degree, thinking of his own future, and all were busy, one town official seemed to forget himself and devoted his entire time, night and day working in the interests of the town and his fellow citizens, and working without hope or thought of remuneration other than the commendation of his fellow townsfolk. That official was Mayor Campbellton.

With his office in a shack he was busy from early morning until late at night directing the work of various departments and seeing that matters were being properly looked after. During the first six weeks his practice was neglected and virtually lost, but never a word of complaint was heard. He kept at his work until he was able to hand it over to others competent to look after it.

We understand that the matter of presenting some slight token of appreciation to his worthy help has been discussed among other citizens, and we hope such will be speedily accomplished. Such recognition is merited and should come spontaneously from the relief committee and also the citizens of the town at large through the town council.

About 200 years ago a London goldsmith called Trotting, made and presented to the city of his heart on her birthday anniversary a thimble of gold, beautifully ornamented and chased, accompanied by a note which introduced the little contraption as a "token of my humble esteem which shall protect those delicate, fair and industrious fingers from prick and sore of needle head." That was the origin of the thimble.

A Country Preacher's Experience

(World's Work)

A young country preacher, an educated and devoted man, not long ago went to the president of a college and told this story:

"I wish to serve my fellow-men, but I must find some other way to do it than in the pulpit. I should like to become a member of your college 'extension' force, to teach people.

"For four years I have had charge of two country churches. In each community there are three other starving churches and three other starved preachers. These people who thus maintain these four churches in each community could all be served by one church or at most by two churches; and they could maintain one preacher or two. But now both their financial and their spiritual strength is divided to starvation.

"I have no personal complaint to make. I am a bachelor, and my meagre income is enough for me. But I can do little good. The conditions are artificial and abnormal. Religiously, a small community is divided into four little groups, each too weak seriously to form any real fellowship; and each of these four groups of people, if not openly hostile, are at least jealous of one another.

"And this is not the worst of it. My church by its financial system puts a duty on me that I am unwilling longer to perform. It unwittingly compels me to do what I regard as wrong. I must secure out of these poor people certain appointed assessments for home missions, foreign missions, church government, the educational fund, etc. They haven't the money to give; but I find myself a sort of tax-collector without regard to their ability to pay. This is economically wrong, and, therefore, spiritually wrong."

Frederic Moore, 85 years old, is completing 70 years as singer in the choir of St. Mary's church, Stafford, Eng.
