Students in Theology.

I. Students who desire to enter upon a course of Theological Study in this College, other than those who have completed their course of three years in its Literary Department, must present to the Registrar for transmission to the Senate, before the 5th of October, 1882:—

- a. A Presbyterian Certificate;
- b. Evidence of having obtained the degree of B. A. at Queen's University, McGill University, the University of Toronto, Dalhousie College, or other recognized institution;
- c. A certificate of having passed at least one examination in Hebrew.

II. Regular Students in the preparatory department, who have passed the sessional examination of the third year in that department, are not again required to stand an examination for entrance into theology, but are entitled to take their place in the Theological Classes on presenting the usual Presbyterian certificate, together with that of the Senate to their having passed the said examination.

III. Divinity Students who have already taken a part of their Theological course in other recognized institutions will be admitted on the presentation of regular certificates of good standing and dismissal from the authorities of such institutions, to their standing in this College.

IV. Occasional students may be admitted to attendance upon courses of lectures on presenting a Presbyterian order to that effect, or on payment of the fee of four dollars for each course, or of ten dollars for all the courses. Such occasional Students are not required to pass the terminal or sessional examinations, nor are they eligible for the scholarships and other rewards open to regular students. Should they, however, desire to take the sessional examinations, certificates of their proficiency may be given them by the Professors whose lectures they have attended. The Senate may remit the fees in special cases.

Theological Curriculum.

The course of instruction in Theology extends over three sessions of six months each. In addition to the ordinary subjects taught in the classes of the various Professors as prescribed for each year, in which every student must pass an examination at the close of the session, an honour course is provided, which is optional, and in which no lectures are given, but to which certificates of honour, scholarships and medals are attached.

The Lectures of the fourth year are few in number, students thus being left free to pursue in private any special course of Theological study, in doing which they are assured the assistance and direction of the Faculty. Except in the case of Resident Fellows, no exercises are required from those taking the Post-Graduate Course.

French Theological Department.

All French Students, and Students preparing for French work, are required to attend the Lectures in Théologie Française, and English Students who understand French are urged to do the same. Students taking this course, and passing examination in it, are exempted from examination in the Biblical History and Homiletics of the first year, the Apologetics and Sacred Rhetoric of the second, and the Exegesis and Architecture of the third. In the honour work they may also take the examinations in Latin, Greek and Hebrew authors, and Calvin, Martensen, Bungener and Christlieb in French instead of English. In the First year they may exchange Killen for De Pressensé, "Histoire des trois premiers Siècles;" in the Second Year, Farrar and Shedd for Abbadie, "Traité de la Verité de la Religion Chrétienne" and Vinet; and in the Post-Graduate course, Westcott for Reuss, "Histoire du Canon du Nouveau Testament." Students intending to exercise these options must give notice to the Principal or French Professor, at least three weeks before the sessional examinations.

French Students are not required to give more than one of their College Exercises in English, and at least two of them must be in French. These French Exercises will be prescribed by the French Professor.

While French Students are eligible for all the Scholarships and other rewards of the Theological course, in consideration of the disadvantage at which they are placed by pursuing their studies in both languages, two scholarships are offered for competition to them exclusively. In addition to the ordinary work of their years the following subjects are prescribed to competitors:

Ed. de Messene; les Origines

Degrees in Divinity.

EXTRACT FROM REGULATIONS OF SENATE CONCERNING THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF DIVINITY.

1.—Those entitled to become candidates for the degree of B.D. must have completed a course of Theological study in this, or some recognized institution.

2.—They must be Graduates in Arts of some recognized University.

Note.—Applications to be examined for the degree, by those who have completed a course of Theological study without having taken a degree in Arts, will, until further notice, be received by the Senate and entertained according to the merits of each individual case.

3.—The final examination for B.D. cannot be passed nor the degree conferred until the Session following that in which the candidate has completed his ordinary course in Theology, unless by special permission of Senate.

4.—The curriculum contains the following subjects:

Latin: Biblia Vulgata—Book of Psalms; Augustine—De Doctrina Christiana, L. I.

Greek: Testamentum Græcum—Mark and Romans; Lightfoot's Commentary on the Philippians; Chrysostom—De Sacerdotio, L. I.

- 6.—Students and others who have already begun their studies for the degree of B.D. on the basis of former Calendars may, prior to the final examination of 1884, take as their subjects of examination the Honour books of the three years as set forth in these Calendars with the following additional subjects :

Greek : Gospel according to Mark ; Epistle to the Romans ; Book of Genesis, Septuagint.

Latin : Book of Psalms, Vulgate.

Hebrew and Chaldee : Daniel i.—iv.

Dogmatics : Martensen.

- 7.—Candidates who have already passed examinations in any part of the prescribed Honour Course will not be subjected to re-examination in the same.

- 8.—Candidates who have not passed such examinations may divide the work into two examinations, taking the Honour books of the First and Second Years for the subjects of the First Examination, and those of the Third Year with the additional subjects for the Second.

- 9.—The examinations will be held in the months of March and September of each year, and the degree will be conferred at the College Convocation, on the first Wednesday of April, or on such other occasions as the Senate may direct.

- 10.—Candidates for examination must send notice of their intention to present themselves, together with such fee and certification as may be necessary, to the Registrar, not later than the fifteenth day of January or September.

- 11.—The fee for examination for the degree of B.D. to candidates who have not passed examinations during their ordinary course in the College shall be five dollars ; which fee must be paid to the Registrar at the time of application. Candidates who fail to pass may present themselves again without further fee.

- 12.—The fee for the degree of Bachelor of Divinity shall be ten dollars, which must be paid to the Registrar prior to the conferring of the Degree.

- 13.—The hood of the Bachelor of Divinity of this College shall be of black corded silk lined with blue silk and bordered with gold braid.

FELLOWSHIP.

To all Students in Theology.

The Senate are empowered to offer for competition to Students, the Morrice Travelling Fellowship, of the value of five hundred dollars, tenable for one year.

The holder of this fellowship, having declared his intention to enter the ministry of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, shall, at the completion of a full Theological curriculum of three years, of which at least the last shall be taken in this College, make use of the amount of the fellowship in visiting one or more seats of Theological learning in Britain or the Continent of Europe, such seats of learning to be approved by the Senate, and while not necessarily enrolling himself as a Student in any European College, shall seek to avail himself of all the opportunities of improvement afforded by such institutions, and shall report from time to time to the Principal as to the progress of his studies. The examination for the Fellowship, to be awarded for the second time, will be held at the close of the Session 1883-84, the subject of the same being the whole work, pass and honour, of the year to which the student belongs, with the addition of the first year's Homiletics for student of higher years.

The Scholars of the Three years are equally eligible with other competitors for the Alumni Scholarship.

The holders of the French Scholarships are eligible for the ordinary awards in the Theological course.

Certificates of Honour Standing will be given to Students who have been placed in the first class, but have failed to obtain Medals or Scholarships.

Sacred Rhetoric, Music and Ecclesiastical Architecture will not be taken into account in awarding the Scholarships, as special prizes are connected with these subjects, but no Student shall be eligible for academic rewards who has not passed in these as prescribed for the respective years. The French Theological course will be reckoned at the same value as the English subjects with which it may be exchanged in the various years.

PRIZES IN RHETORIC, MUSIC AND ARCHITECTURE.

The following prizes will be given annually for proficiency in Sacred Rhetoric, Music and Ecclesiastical Architecture, the prizes to consist of books selected by the successful competitors, appropriately bound and bearing the College Stamp:

Scholarship for Literary Students.

A Scholarship of the value of Forty Dollars will be open for competition to English Students, and to French Students not holding any other Scholarship, in the work of the third year; two-thirds marks being required.

Affiliation with McGill University.

The attention of Students is directed to the special advantages afforded them in virtue of the affiliation of the College with McGill University. They have thereby access to the Library, Museum and Lectures of that Institution, which stands in close proximity. By Scholarships which are in the gift of benefactors they may enjoy exemption from College Fees. In addition to these there are thirteen Exhibitions and Scholarships of from $100 to $125 each, annually offered for competition to Students in Arts, and at the close of the curriculum, gold medals, prizes and certificates of honour, are awarded to successful competitors.

While it is desirable that Students should complete their literary studies before entering upon their Theological course, the terms of affiliation allow them to combine these, exemptions in the University curriculum being granted to Students of affiliated Theological Colleges. Considerable extensions in the matters of options and exemptions have recently been introduced into the regulations of the University. (See McGill College Calendar for 1882-83.)

MATRICULATION AND ADMISSION.

The Senate of the Presbyterian College, having full knowledge of the nature of the training given, and the religious influence exerted on Students in the McGill University, confidently recommend parents to send their sons to it, whether they are designed for the Christian Ministry or for any other learned profession; and for the guidance of young men who may desire to enter the course in Arts, the following extract is made from the Calendar of the University:—

1. Candidates for Matriculation as Undergraduates are required to present themselves to the Vice-Dean of the Faculty on the 15th of September, for examination; they may, however, enter after the commencement of the Session, if, on examination, found qualified to join the Classes.

The subjects of examination for entrance into the First Year are Classics, Mathematics, and English.

In Classics.—Greek; Xenophon, Anabasis, Book I.; or Homer, Iliad, Book I.; Greek Grammar.

Latin.—Cicero, Orations I and II against Catiline; or Virgil, Æneid, Book I; Latin Grammar. Equivalent authors or books may be accepted by the examiners, in either Greek or Latin.

In Mathematics.—Arithmetic; Algebra, to simple Equations, inclusive; Euclid's Elements, Books I, II, III.

In English.—Writing from Dictation, and Grammar; a paper on English Grammar, including Analysis; a paper on the leading events of English History.

2. Candidates not matriculated in the University may be admitted to the standing of Students of the Second Year, provided that they pass the Sessional Examinations of the First Year, or an examination in the following subjects at the beginning of the Second Year:—

In Classics—

Greek.—Homer, Book VI; Xenophon, Anabasis, Book I; Grammar and Prose Composition.

Latin.—Virgil, Æneid, Book VI; Cicero, Oration IV against Catiline; Grammar and Prose Composition. An equivalent amount of other books or other authors in Latin and Greek than those named above may be accepted by the examiners for entrance into either First or Second Year.

In Mathematics—

Euclid.—Books I, II, III, IV, VI, with defs. of Book V, (omitting propositions 27, 28, 29, of Book VI.)

Algebra.—To end of Quadratic equations (Colenso's Algebra.)

Trigonometry.—Galbraith and Haughton's Trigonometry, chs. 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, to beginning of numerical solution of plane triangles.

Arithmetic.—Elementary rules, Proportion, Interest, Discount, etc., Vulgar and Decimal Fractions, Square Root.

In English Literature.—Writing from Dictation; English Grammar, including Analysis; English Composition; British History (Collier.)

In Chemistry.—The Chemistry of the non-Metallic elements, or of the more common Metals.

Theological Students may take Hebrew instead of French and German.

[Note.—Candidates unable to pass in French or German are not excluded; but they are required to begin German, and to continue the study of it for two years. Candidates unable to pass in Chemistry are required to attend such of the lectures in the subject as are open to them, and to pass an examination at the end of the second year.]

Students of other universities may be admitted, on the production of Certificates, to a like standing in this University, after examination by the Faculty.

PARTIAL STUDENTS.—Candidates for Matriculation as Partial Students, taking three or more Courses of Lectures, or as Students in any Special Course, will be examined in the subjects necessary thereto, as may from time to time be determined by the faculty.

OCCASIONAL STUDENTS.—Persons desirous of taking one or two Courses of Lectures, as Occasional Students, may apply to the Vice-Dean for entry in his Register, and may procure from the Secretary tickets for the Lectures they desire to attend.

[Associates in Arts who, at their special Examination, have passed in Latin, Greek, Algebra and Geometry, are not required to present themselves for the Matriculation Examination.]

An Advanced Examination in any one or more of the subjects of the First Year will be held for such of the candidates as desire it. Candidates who pass creditably in this will be entitled to such exemptions from the Lectures and from the Christmas Examinations of the First Year, as the Faculty may determine. For the Advanced Examination in Classics two authors in Latin and two in Greek will be required, and the books fixed must be taken.

Candidates for the Advanced Examination must send notice to the Vice-Dean of their intention before the day of Examination, stating the subjects of the First Year and the extent of reading they purpose to submit.

Partial or Occasional Students (see above) in the First Year, who pass the April Sessional Examinations in one or more subjects will, if Candidates for Undergraduate standing in the First Year, in the following September be allowed to count these as Advanced Examinations under the above rule.

The course for Advanced Matriculation in Classics is as follows:—

Greek.—Xenophon, Anabasis, Book I.; Homer, Iliad, Book VI.

Latin.—Cicero, Orations I. and II. against Catiline; Virgil, Æneid, Book II.

Scholarships for Students taking University Course.

In order to encourage Students intending to enter Theology to proceed to a degree in McGill University, the following Scholarships are offered for competition:—

The George Stephen Scholarship of Fifty Dollars for General Proficiency in the work of the First Year in McGill College.

The Stirling Scholarship of Fifty Dollars for the same in the Second Year.

The Drysdale Scholarship of Fifty Dollars for the same in the Third Year.

A Scholarship of Fifty Dollars for the same in the Fourth Year.

Scholarships for French Students and Students taking the French Course.

I. The following Scholarships are open for competition to French Students of the Three Years in the Literary course, provided that they have passed satisfactory examinations in the work of their respective years:—

The Paris (Dumfries St.) Scholarship of the value of Forty Dollars, for General Proficiency in the pass work of their year, and in the following additional subjects: ~~Jouffroy, Cours de Droit Naturel; Duruy, Abrégé d'Histoire Universelle.~~

*Bungers

Presbyterial and other Certificates.

All regular Students, whether in the Literary or Theological courses, must be certified to the College Senate by the Presbytery within the bounds of which they reside.

The Senate will certify Students to the Presbytery to which they may belong or to which they may be transferred after the annual examination at the close of the session.

The Senate gives a certificate of Academic standing to every student in Divinity at the close of each Academic year, and a diploma on parchment at the termination of the Theological Curriculum. Other certificates may be given by individual Professors.

Church Membership.

All Students connected with the College are required during the period of their studies to unite in membership with one of the congregations of the Church in the city or its immediate vicinity. This regulation is not intended to interfere with their liberty to visit other Churches.

Residence.

The original College Building is a stone edifice, elegant and commodious, pleasantly situated on the rising ground above the City, commanding a view of the University grounds, the City and the scenery of the St. Lawrence. To this has been added during the present year by the large hearted generosity of the Chairman of the College Board, an elegant and much more extensive series of stone buildings, designated by the Board as the Morrice Hall, including Convocation Hall and Library, Dining Hall, Dormitories and Offices, forming with the original building three sides of a large quadrangle. In external equipment the College is thus inferior to no Theological Institution on the continent.

In addition to its Halls, Library, Lecture Rooms and offices, it contains numerous studies and dormitories for resident Students, together with bath rooms and other modern conveniences. The rooms are comfortably furnished, and the whole building, including the individual rooms, is well ventilated, heated with hot water pipes, and lighted with gas.

Resident Students are furnished with rooms, heating and light, free of expense; but the Refectory and attendance of servants are in the hands of the Steward, whose fee will in no case exceed twelve dollars per month, and who is responsible to the Board of Management for the efficiency of his service.

Applications for vacant rooms must be made to the Dean of Residence, and these will be granted in the order in which applications are received. But in the choice of such vacant apartments, Students having academic seniority will be entitled to a preference.

The Officers of the College, non-resident Students, and friends of the residents, may be present at any meal in the Refectory, when they shall pay to the steward the charge fixed for the same.

The morning bell shall be rung at ~~7~~ 7 A.M.; Prayers at ~~7 1/4~~ 7 1/4 A.M.; Breakfast at 7 1/2 A.M.; Dinner at 1 P.M.; Tea at 6 1/2 P.M.; Prayers at 7 P.M.; Gas turned off at 1/4 to 11 P.M.

The Dean of Residence shall preside at table, and morning and evening Prayers.

Personal applications, complaints, etc., must be made to the Dean, ~~solely~~ within the office hours that shall be indicated at the commencement of the session.

Students (~~resident or non-resident~~) in attending lectures are expected to wear gowns appropriate to their academic standing. in the lecture room, during class

Library and Reading Room.

I. The Library, to which additions are constantly made, embraces all the Greek and Latin Fathers and Ecclesiastical writers, with some rare fac-simile codices and standard and recent works in Theology and cognate subjects. It is under the charge of the College Librarian, from whom books may be obtained, subject to the following rules:—

Vacant rooms will not be held beyond the third day of August, unless otherwise directed.

- 1. A Student may not borrow books unless he is a member of the Society, and confers with the Librarian.
- 2. Books returned must be in good condition.
- 3. Books returned must be in good condition.
- 4. Any student who shall be guilty of direct, or indirect, or willful, or negligent, or any other kind of loss, shall be liable to a fine set to work.
- 5. Profane or irreverent remarks, or any other conduct, shall be considered as a disgrace to the College, and so used in the next session.
- 6. Persons who have borrowed books in the library, shall be liable to be returned to the Librarian.
- 7. No student shall be allowed to borrow books from the library, unless he is a member of the Society.

All Students of the Society, who are members of the Society, and confers with the Librarian, directs the Librarian to employ such persons as he may think fit, and whose income is...

1. A Student may receive from the Library only two volumes at a time, unless by special order of Professors.

2. During the Session of College, all books shall be returned to the Library within two weeks of the date of issue.

3. ~~During the summer vacation, each Student may have five volumes from the Library.~~

4. Any volume or volumes lost or damaged by a Student shall be paid for by him at such rate as the Senate may direct, having reference to the value of the book, and the set to which it may belong.

5. Professors and lecturers may receive from the Librarian any books required by them for their duties in the College, not exceeding ten volumes at any one time. Books so used must be returned at or before the close of each session.

6. Persons not connected with the College may consult books in the Library, or obtain them from the Librarian by special order from any of the Professors; such books to be returned within ten days.

7. No books of reference, including the volumes of the Patrologia, are allowed out of the Library.

II. The Reading Room is under the management of the Librarian, and is furnished with Reviews and Magazines, Records of Ecclesiastical and Missionary Intelligence, Daily and Weekly Papers, &c. The following Rules are to be observed in connection with it:—

1. Papers and Periodicals are not to be removed from the Reading Room.

2. Students are not to enter into discussions or other exercises, that would disturb those wishing to study in the Reading Room.

Societies, &c.

I. STUDENTS' MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

All Students are expected to be connected with this Society, which meets weekly for prayer, general business, and conference on Home and Foreign Mission matters. It directs the efforts of Students in the city and vicinity, and employs during College recess several missionaries. Its income is derived from Students and their friends. The members of the Society preach, distribute tracts, visit among the destitute, the neglected, and in the hospital, conduct prayer-meetings, and take part in the exercises of Bible Classes and Sabbath Schools, while at the same time they have ample opportunities for observation of pastoral life and of becoming practically acquainted with the best methods of Christian work as carried on in large and active congregations.

II. PHILOSOPHICAL AND LITERARY SOCIETY.

This Society has for its object the cultivation of the reasoning faculty, literary taste and rhetorical powers of its members, by means of fortnightly meetings for discussion, readings, the delivery of essays, etc.

The Senate offers annually the following prizes, which are awarded by the vote of the Society:—

One prize (each) of the value of ten dollars in books, appropriately bound and bearing the College stamp.	{ For excellence in Public Speaking. " " English Reading. " " French " " the best English Essay. " " French "

III. ALMA MATER SOCIETY.

This Society includes all the Graduates and Students of the College, and has for its object the promotion of a College spirit and the advancement of the work of the institution.

IV. COLLEGE JOURNAL.

This organ of Student opinion is edited by a joint committee of Graduates and Students, in connection with the Alma Mater Society.

Devotional Meetings.

I. THE WEEKLY LECTURE.

II. STUDENTS' PRAYER MEETING.

This meeting, of a purely devotional character, is held every week, at an hour fixed at the commencement of the session, the exercises being conducted by the Students in rotation.

Mission Work.

During the Summer vacation, Students may engage, and all Divinity Students are expected to engage, in Missionary work, in the numerous and extensive fields of labour provided by the thirty-six Presbyteries of the Church.

Students in Theology are also permitted to preach a limited number of Sabbaths during the session.

Students are thus early made acquainted with the practical work of the ministry, and enabled to gratify their desire to preach the Gospel, while providing, at least in part for their maintenance during the period of their study.

To young men desiring to enter upon a course of Study in the Presbyterian College, Montreal, with a view to the Ministry.

- 1.—Intending Students must be members of the Church in good standing. They must be assured of the sincerity of their motives, and the reality of their desire to serve God in the work of the Ministry. Also, they must be satisfied that they possess sufficient scholarship to pass at least the examination for entrance into the literary course. (See "Literary Curriculum.")
- 2.—They must apply through the Ministers of the Congregations to which they belong, or other Ministers of the Presbyterian Church in Canada who are able to certify to their moral and religious character, to some Presbytery of the Church, before which they must appear at the time of application, to obtain a certificate to the Senate.
- 3.—They must send notice to the Registrar of the College, or to the Principal, of their intention to pass an entrance examination, not later than the first of October; transmitting therewith their Presbyterial Certificate, specifying also the extent of their Literary attainments, and the year, ~~[First, Second or Third Literary, or first Theological]~~ in which they propose to enter. (See "Literary Curriculum;" "Students in Theology," &c.) Graduates of Universities are exempted from examination in General Literature, but must state and be prepared to certify their Degrees, and whether they have passed an examination in Hebrew, with evidence of the same; failing which, they must give notice of their intention to pass the said Hebrew Examination (see "Students in Theology: Hebrew") on the first Thursday in October.
- 4.—They must report themselves to the Principal in the College on the first Wednesday in October, when the time and order of their examinations (if any), and the work of the Session will be intimated.

- 5.—If they desire to reside in the College Building, they must send or make application to the Principal, as early as practicable after obtaining their Presbyterian certificate. None but regular Students who have satisfactorily passed their examinations can be permitted to remain in residence during the Session.
- 6.—For rules relating to Students from other Theological Colleges, and Occasional Students, see "Students in Theology," and "Literary Curriculum."

PUBLISHERS AND

Wholesale and Retail Booksellers,

INVITE THE ATTENTION OF MINISTERS AND STUDENTS TO

YOUNG'S ANALYTICAL CONCORDANCE.

The importers of the English Edition having repeatedly advertised that the American contained 2,000 errors, Dodd, Mead & Co. have, at great expense, had the work carefully collated, word for word, with the latest English Edition, and every error or omission rectified.

In addition to this, their examination has brought to light many inaccuracies in the English Edition itself, all of which have been corrected.

The book as published by them, bearing on the title page the words "Students' Edition," is therefore the most correct in existence.

The many omissions which Dr. Young discovered in his work after the early editions were issued, he inserted in the plates. To gain room he cut out the text of the articles preceding or following the omitted word. He then inserted his forgotten word, giving reference only, but no text. Any person interested will find in the words "Holy Ghost" a case in point. Here it might easily happen that it would be necessary to look out forty references before the correct one was found. In Dodd, Mead & Co.'s edition the fact of such omission is noted by an asterisk, and the omitted matter with text in full is found in an appendix.

In typographical appearance, size and thickness, this edition is in every way the equal of the English Edition.
