THE COAL STRIKE.

Strikers' Pickets Arrested and Lodged in Jail.

No Change in Alabama-Soft Coal Likely to be Advanced in Price.

HAZLETON, P. A., July 2.—John Shovelin, Wm. Giligate, Frank Schrader and a Hungarian, pickets stationed along the road leading to the drift on colliery of Coxe Brothers & Co., to prevent non-union men from going to work, were arrested today by colliery guards and taken to jail at Wilkesberre. It is alleged that one of the pickets drew a revolver when ordered by a guard to permit men to pass the line. The strikers report that the guard threatened to shoot unless his order was obeyed, whereupon Shovelin whipped out a weapon, which was knocked from his hand by one of the deputies. A scramble ensued in which the pickets became involved.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 2.—No steps are being taken by either the cat operators or the United Mine Workers in this district to reopen negotiations for a wage scale settlement. Both sides are quietly waiting. Several furnaces have been banked, and as the coke supply is short nearly all the furnaces will be idle by next week. The miners are orderly in every respect. They held meetings at all the camps yesterday and endorsed the action of the scale convention in insisting on the miners' demands. Most of the mines in Walker county being unorganized, there was little suspension of work in that community.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 1.—The Dispatch today says:—

"Uniformity in the price of selling bituminous coal in the Pittsburg district has been established and the prospects are that an advance in price will soon be announced. This was decided at a secret meeting of the independent operators tonight. The independents have finally fallen in line with the combines and the finishing touches are to be put on the agreement at another meeting to be held a week hence. This means that the Pittsburg Coal Company, with its $44,000,000 capital, the Monongahela River Consolidated Ceal and Coke Co., with $30,000,000, and all the independent operators in the district, representing possibly $40,000,000 mpre, have entered into a compact to regulate prices. An agreement has been stread to this effect." regulate prices. An agreement has been signed to this effect."

THE PRESBYTERY.

The presbytery of St. John met yesterday. The following officers were reflected: Rev. Dr. Morison, moderator; Rev. A. H. Fpsier, clerk, and Peter Chisholm, treasurer. The call from Blackville to Rev. A. D. Fraser was accepted by him and Rev. A. W. Mahon appointed moderator at St. George during the vacancy there.

The Women's Home Missionary Society notified the presbytery that they had decided to wind up their affairs. The clerk was authorized to take over the books and papers.

LOW.

LONDON, July 2.—The review of the East India troops today was largely a repetition of yesterday's function, but the varied colors of the uniforms of the representatives from all parts of Hindustan formed an altogether more picturesque spectacle.

Queen Alexandra was again the centre of the proceedings, and the public welcomed the opportunity to testify once more its sympathy with her on account of her recent anxiety and its congratulations at the good news regarding King Edward's condition.

The review procedure of yesterday was ollowed. About 1,300 dark skinned troops, headed by a detachment of the bodyguard of the Viceroy of India, Lord Curzon of Kedleston, reached the Horse Guards parade to the strains of "Hands Across the Sea." The members of the royal family who reviewed the colonials yesterday traversed the lines of the soldiers of the Indian empire. The Prince of Wales, representing the King, standing by the side of his mother's carriage, took the salute, and the proceedings ended like those of yesterday with cheers for the King, led by the Duke of Connaught, the Indians drawing their swords and waving them wildly as they joined in the cheering.

On returning to the palace the Queen appeared at an upper window and took several snap shots of the Indian troops as they marched past on their return to camp. The Indians recognized the Queen-Empress and each detachment cheered as it passed.

an Alaskan Hill.

TACOMA, Wn., July 2.—W. A. Reid, secretary of the Skagway Y, M. C. A., has returned from the interior of Alaska, where he talked with the Indians, whose earnest statements he believes fully confirms previous reports that the Indians of the lower Yukon had discovered an immense petrified ship on Porcupine River, near the Arctic circle, and north of Rampart, Alaska. When asked regarding its size, the Indians traced its dimensions on the ground, reaching a length of 1,200-feet. Such Indians as are familiar with the Bible are convinced that the ship is none other than Noah's ark. Reid intends to return to the interior of Alaska this summer, when he will take some Indians and request the army officers to detail soldiers to accompany him. The ship lies on a high hill, thousands of feet above the sea level.

IN TOMATO CANS.

A Woman Hid Away $6,500 in Greenbacks and Went to Jail.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 2.-Bank notes CHICAGO, Ill., July 2.—Bank notes amounting to $6,500 have been found hidden in two tomato cans in the cellar of the residence of the late Mrs. E. Leonna Elmstedt, Washington Heights. The whereabouts of the greenbacks which belonged to the estate of John Elmstedt was a secret which the woman carried with her to the grave. She was under orders of the probate court to produce the money there, but never was under orders of the probate court to produce the money there, but never complied with it. For her refusal to part with the notes, Mrs. Elmstadt served two months in jail for contempt of court. For a long time the woman lived in destitute circumstances with the money buried beneath the surface of her cellar floor. She was removed to a hospital by the police to prevent her from starving, and died in the Englewood Union Hospital, April 25, death being caused by complete physical collapse.

They Are Well Cared For and Having a Good Time.

A letter was received yesterday from Sergt. Charies S. Robertson, of the coronation contingent, which seems to indicate that the hard luck stories told by other members of the contingent are, at the least, slightly exaggerated. Sergt. Robertson says that the men are encamped in the grounds at Alexandra palace. Every ten men have a tent of their own, and each man has a bed, with raised floor. Their sleeping quarters are, by these arrangements, as comfortable as any ordinary being could wish. The food has been first class, and in fact the whole treatment so far has been far better than they anticipated.

In regard to duties, Sergt. Robertson says that on one day while being inspected, they were on parade for four hours, which was rather tiresome, but this is the only piece of work they have had. They parade once every day for a short drill in the forenoon and are given leave of absence from 2 p. m. until 1 a. m. Every attention is being shown the men and they are enjoying the trip.

Sergt, Robertson also adds that Rev. F. G. Scovil, of Carleton, called on them and invited all the St. John boys to accompany him to the Crystal Palace. They went and spent a very pleasant day, being given a drive about the city as well as visiting the palace.

The garden party on St. Peter's church grounds will continue this even-

Mrs. Letter and the Misses Leiter, who have taken Mossley Hall for the season.

Lady Curzon is much run down by the trying and debilitating climate of India, and it is believed that a stay at so bracing and invigorating a resort as Bar Harbor, where one is able to enjoy the breezes of both sea and mountain simultaneously, will set her up sufficiently to enable her to subsequently rejoin her husband at Calcutta in sufficiently strong health to admit of her remaining with him in India during the balance of his term of office as viceroy.

Mrs. Letter and her daughters are making elaborate preparations for Lady Curzon's stay at Bar Harbor, and planning entertainments in her honor. It will be her first visit to the United States since her marriage. Lord Curzon will not accompany her, for he is debarred by statute from leaving India as long as he continues to fill his office of viceroy.

TODAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

TODAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Synod resumed business this morning at 10 o'clock after prayers and the roll call. The attendance was larger than at the opening session. After the reading of the minutes of yesterday's meetings Ven. Archdeacon Neales moved the suspension of the rules of order and this being carried, he and A. C. Fairweather, on behalf of the synod, presented his lordship with an address of welcome and congratulation, the members of the synod standing meanwhile and joining in three hearty cheers as the reading finished.

The address was handsomely bound in Morocco, decorated with gilt and bearing on the cover this inscription: "Address presented to the Bishop of Fredericton by the Diocesan Synod on the 21st anniversary of his lordship's consecration. July, 1902."

The address within, richly engrossed on veilum, was as follows:

"To the Right Reverend the Lord

To the Right Reverend the Lord

"We wish also to express to your lord-ship our sincere congratulations on the 21st anniversary of your consecration.

"May the Good Shepherd and Bishop of Souls still keep you in His loving care, and give you needed strength to carry on for fixing years to come your arduous and faithful labors in this dicese to the upbuilding of His church and to His eternal giory."

Signed by the several clerical and lay delegates to the synod.

His lordship was so deenly moved by

No one, he said, was more conscious of failure in the past than he, and it was a great satisfaction to him to feel that he had not only the confidence of his diocese, but also their sympathy and affection. He would never forget their kindness and hoped it would inspire him to better work in the days to come.

The report from the board of education, submitted by Rev. Canon Richardson told of the resignation of G. O. D. Otty, A. C. Fairweather and F. J. G. Knowlton from the board on account of the refusal of the executive to grant them $8,000 for the erection of a school in St. John. The negotiations which the board was conducting with Jas. F. Robertson regarding the acquirement by the synod of the Rothesay school for boys have not been completed. They recommended that the synod procure the property if satisfactory terms could be obtained and that the board of education be given full power in the matter.

The committee on prizes for the girls' school reported through his lordship that through the fault of London booksellers the prizes did not reach the schools in time.

On motion of Ven. Archdeacon Neales after the suspension of the rules of order, it was decided to adjourn at 12 o'clock for the purpose of allowing the rectors and lay representatives of self-supporting parishes to meet at that time.

time.

Rev. Canon Richardson gave notice that the delegates were invited by the ladies of the C. of E. Institute to luncheon at one o'clock and that a phetograph of the synod would be taken immediately afterwards.

On motion of Canon Richardson the opinion against the grant, he considered that it was his duty to abide by that decision unless it was overruled by Synod.

Judge Hanington's motion was seconded by Rev. A. F. B. Burtt of Shediac, who strongly supported the giving of a grant to the school as had been requested.

His lordship explained that the action of the board had been taken upon the direct advice of the chancellor. He would be glad to accede to the request if it could be done.

G. O. D. Otty thought it was discourteous to the chancellor to refer his decision to a committee, and he moved as an amendment that the board of education be instructed to make the grant of $50 this year, subject to the opinion of the chancellor. This was seconded by F. J. G. Knowiton.

Judge Hanington thereupon withdrew his motion in favor of the amendment.

Rev. L. A. Hoyt, Rev. Scovil Neales and others opposed the grant on several grounds, and before the vote could be taken the hour of 12 o'clock arrived and Synod adjourned until 3 o'clock.

The session of Synod this evening will consist of a service in Trinity church, at which Rev. Canon Newnham will preach.

After the adjournment of Synod at 12 o'clock a meeting was held of rectors and lay representatives of self-supporting parishes to consider the adoption of some system of opportionment on behalf of the diocesan mission fund.

fund.

Ven. Archdeacon Neales was elected to the chair and brought the subject before the meeting in his opening address. A prolonged and vigorous discussion followed on various methods, but up to one o'clock no decision was reached, and the meeting adjourned until two o'clock of the following day. After adjournment the delegates were charmingly entertained at luncheon by the ladies of the institute in the lower rooms of the school building.

CANADIAN DINNER

A Touching Letter From Queen Alexandra

Alexandra.

LONDON, July 1.—Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal, the Canadian high commissioner in London, presided to night at the Canadian Dominion dinner. Among the 600 guests present were Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Canadian premier; Sir John Gordon Sprigg, the premier of Cape Colony; the Right Hon. E. Barton, the premier of the Commonwealth of Australia; all the Canadian statesmen new in London, the Earl of Minto, the governor general of Canada; the Duke of Argyli, former governor general of Canada; the Earl of Aberdeen, late governor general of Canada, and all the agents-general in London. Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal read a letter from Queen Alexandra, in which Her Majesty explained how deeply touched King Edward had been at the outburst of sympathy for him throughput the Empire, and in which she added her thanks to those who had joined her in prayers for the King's recovery.

His lordship was so deeply moved by this expression of the love and sympathy of his diocese that speech for a few moments was impossible. Responding to this toast, Sir Wilfrid said it was Canada's pride to be first in devotion to the motherland. The colonies came to her assistance, said the Canadian premier, not because Great Britain needed help to fight her own battles, but in order to prove, henceforth, the unity of the Empire.

TO ENGAGED YOUNG MEN.

The story is told of the present Arch-blshop of Canterbury that, upon a candidate for ordination assaying to read a chapter of the Bible before him to test his elecutionary powers, he was stopped with the abrupt comment, "Te're inaudible!" "But, my Lord," said the discomfited youth, "I've read the lessons in a big church, and been told that every word could be heard." "Who told ye—a lady? Are ye engaged to her?" The candidate owned the soft impeachment. "Then don't believe a word she says—until ye're married to her," was the ungailant reply.

MORNING GAME.

While the weather was decidedly against good ball, rain falling the entire game, the enthusiasts were out in force and got more than their moneys' worth, as it took an extra inning to settle matters. Bodfish was between the points for the Alerts and made a splendid showing, holding the hard hitting north enders down to seven hits. He also had nine strike outs to his credit. Tibbits pitched fo the Roses and, as usual, did splendid work, breaking even, as far as hits went, with Bodfish. It was a hard day to pitch, and both the twirlers de-serve the greatest credit for the way they handled the leather. The sup-port was all that could be asked for.

AFTERNOON GAME.

AFTERNOON GAME.

One of the largest crowds that ever attended a ball game at the Shamrock grounds witnessed the afternoon contest between the Roses and Alerts. The article of ball supplied was of the brand seldom offered on this market. It was of national league standard, and the best at that. Vall and Stackpole did the vitching and both showed up in splendid style. Stackpole had the better of the engagement, holding the north end boys down to six hits, while the Alerts landed on Vall for eleven safe ones, but did not show the dash or judgment on the bases that the Roses did.

THE TEST OF A GENTLEMAN. (London Globe.)

One of our readers seends a nice story about the question: 'What is a gentleman?' Hearing a house carpenter spoken of as a gentleman by a furniture remover, he sought delicately for explanations. 'Lor', bless yer, sir,' answered the furniture remover, 'we calls every man a gentleman as pays twenty shillings in the £.'

CHAMBERLAIN'S SPEECH. LONDON, July 1 .- The speech made by Joseph Chamberlain, the colonial ecretary, at the conference of colonial premiers last Monday, is said to have been a great disappointment. It is described as "varied and comprehensive, but indefinite."

hensive, but indefinite."

While Mr. Chamberlain covered a large field of subjects in his speech, he committed himself to no decided opinion to any one of them, and he advanced no definite opinion or proposal of any kind on behalf of the government, his only suggestion in the direction of imperial federation being that of the periodic repetition of the conference of colonial premiers in London.

Mr. Chamberlain's speech has left the impression that regarding the zollverein and other important points, including imperial defence, not only his hands but his tongue also is tied.

Just when work will be resumed is uncertain, but with the exception of these people who have to walk over uncrushed stone there appears to be little complaint. They are used to that sort of thing. The authorities evidently imagine that since the people put up with the former condition of the street for years that they will do the same with it in its partly inished state. Half completed work does not look well. Brussels street is still undergoing repairs. The probability appears to be that it will continue to do so for some time.

HAPPY LUMBERMEN.

Logs All Out, Mills Busy, Markets Active and Wages Better.

Active and Wages Better.

These are the days when lumber operators and mill owners are going about wearing faces which upon the least provocation broaden into satisfied smiles. They are all happy and in this respect are very different from what they were a year ago.

The reason for this happy condition is due to the fact that the present season is one of the best known in the history of the lumber industry. Practically every log on the river has come out and is safe in the booms and the lumbermen have the satisfaction of knowing that the logs might have been brought out a dosen times, so plentiful is the water. In this respect conditions differ from those of last season, when almost forty million feet were hung up and many of the mills around St. John had to close down for some months on account of the scarcity of logs. They won't close this year, but on the other hand, will be compelled to run full time throughout the season in order to cut up the logs on hand.

The total output on the river this year, including all the logs hung up last season, those picked up during the freshet in the spring, and the quantities rafted in the usual manner will aggregate almost one hundred and sixty million, or many millions more than were brough out last year. There are at present hung up small drives which contain between three and four million feet. These could easily have been were brought out last year. There are at present hung up small drives which contain between three and four million feet. These could easily have been brought out, but when the water fell after the first freshet they were abandoned and the owners did not send other gangs to drive them when the water rose. The hanging up of these logs will, however, have no effect on the year's work. At present rafting is being carried on at the Fredericton booms at the rate of nine million feet a week, and all the mills on the river are hustling.

at the rate of nine million feet a week, and all the mills on the river are hustling.

The importance of this good season to the working man can hardly be realized. There are employed in the dozen mills in the immediate vicinity of St. John, upwards of eleven hundred rea, and the permanent employment of this force has much to do with the prosperity of the city. These men receive in wages an average of no less than ten thousand dollars weekly, and practically all of this money is kept in circulation. One firm, which employs one hundred and fifteen men, pays out twentyone hundred dollars in wages every two weeks, and the other mill owners pay in about the same proportion.

And not only are the workmen assured of continuous work during the summer, but they are earning wages from ten to twenty per cent higher than was the case last year. In the spring some of them illis asked for an increase of pay. This was granted and very shortly afterwards all the other millimen advanced the wages of their pilers in the same proportion. Then a corresponding advance, which quickly became general, was made in the pay of those engaged in other branches of the work. Boys who last year earned from seventy to eighty cents a day are now being paid from one dollar to one dollar and fifteen cents. But the employers do not mind. They have lots of logs, prices are good, and everything is favorable.

A large lot of ready-to-wear skirts will be on sale at Dyke-man's Thursday morning at very special prices. Some of them just half the price they were.

After the serving of refreshments the bridal party left amid showers of rice for the railway depot, where they took the late train for their summer home at South Bay.

Alexandra Won the Race-Good Fish ing and a General Good Time.

The heavy rain of yesterday forenoon doubtless prevented many from attending the races on Loch Lomond, but a good many went out from the city, including a large party of wheelmen. The afternoon was fine, with a good breeze. Only three boats entered for the race. They were:

The Alexandra, manned by A. F. Johnston and James English.

Log Cabin—Frank Salmon, Harry Crawford, J. P. Hipwell and Thomas Stevenson.

Crawford, J. P. Hipwell and Thomas Stevenson.

Sylvan Dell:—R. S. Jackson, J. A. Dawson and S. J. Richey.

The start was made a little before 2 p. m. Before the first stake boat was reached the Sylvan Dell broke her sprit and was out of the race. The Alexander walked away from the Log Cabin with perfect ease, except when sailing before the wind, and came in a long winner, capturing the cup.

The Alexandra is owned by Commodore Wright, and the other two boats by the Log Cabin Fishing Club. The Wheelmen's Rod and Gun Club, who had promised to enter a boat in the race failed to do so.

The judges, who were on S. H. Barker's steam launch, were Commodore Wright, E. W. Paul and B. A. Denniston.

In honor of the day Commodore Wright had a great flag flying from the very top of Ben Lomond. This flag could be seen from the bay and from Partridge Island. Houses along the Partridge Island. Houses along the route were decorated with flags and altogether Loch Lomond had a good observance of Dominion Day.

There were picnic parties and fishing parties, and the latter had good luck. John E. Wilson, J. H. Noble, S. C. Drury and W. Moody, who went out from the Log Cabin Club house; and Harry Shaw and Jas. D. Carmichael, who went from Johnston's, returned with fine strings of red trout. The fish are of larger size than usual this year, thanks to the breaking of a dam down stream, which prevented them in former years from returning to the lake.

NEW SAW MILL.

The new mill, which is being built by John E. Moore at Milford, will be ready for work in a very few days. The machinery has been put in by the St. John Iron works and the finishing touches are now being given. Mr. Moore expected that he would be able to get up steam on Saturday, but this will hardly be possible, and the mill may not start until next week. It is fitted with a band saw and lath machines and there will be employed in it about fifty men.
