BARGAIN DAY TO-DAY.

We make every Wednesday special price days on every article in the Store. This idea was inaugurated to counteract the bad influence of premium-giving, feeling that the public would rather buy their goods at the Lowest Cash Prices, in preference to paying a large price and getting some undesirable article "thrown in" to make it seem like a bargain. TRY US TO-DAY.

YOUR MONEY BACK IF DISSATISFIED.

FIRE AT BATHURST.

Large Amount of Lumber Destroyed.

A HARD FIGHT.

To Save the Lower End of Village—Heavy Loss.

Fire was discovered in one of the sheds in Messrs. Sumner & Co's mill yard on Saturday and before it was under control a large amount of lumber and property was destroyed.

The alarm was sounded at noon and the Bathurst firemen responded promptly, but as their steam engine is at Amherst being repaired they had to depend entirely on the mill pump for streams to fight the fire.

A fireman was attached to the mill pump and two light streams were thrown on the fire which did good service. Messrs. Sumners Burns & Co's tug St. Lawrence was quickly on the scene and had a good stream playing on the flames and did good work. Hundreds of men were there and to the bucket lines is due great credit as it was principally by their efforts that a barn near one of the lumber piles was saved. If this barn or the large store had caught the fire would have made a clean sweep of the front street of the village.

The goods were removed from Sumner & Co's store and many other merchants were removing or packing their stock during the early hours of the fire.

The first sign of danger but it was not necessary. Those who did remove their goods or furniture suffered from breakage.

At three o'clock the fire was seen to be under control and the hundreds of spectators who lined the hill in the vicinity viewing this grand but destructive scene returned to the town.

The wind was blowing in hurricane force from the north-west which fanned the flames and made it a hot fire to fight. The streams thrown were not heavy or strong enough to be thrown against the wind and in order to get near enough the nozzle and hosemen had to have wet blankets to protect them.

Considering the disadvantages under which the fire was fought the men deserve credit for containing it.

The total loss is estimated at over $80,000.

O. F. Stacey and Adams, Burns & Co., closed their mills at once and sent all their men to aid in the fight and they did remarkable work.

DE WET BEATEN.

Great Captures Made by British Forces—Victory Partially Offset by Boer Surprise of Australians' Camp.

London, June 13.—Lord Kitchener is to the war office from Pretoria.

"During the march from Vred, General Elliot's column engaged De Wet near Reitz June 6. After severe fighting they captured 71 loaded wagons, 45 prisoners, 38 rifles, 10,000 rounds of ammunition and 4,000 cattle. The Boers left 17 killed and three wounded. The casualties were three officers and 17 men killed and one officer 24 men wounded."

London, June 16.—Lord Kitchener has cabled from Pretoria under to-day's date:

"Near Wellmanst, 20 miles south of Middelburg, 250 Victorian mounted rifles from General Buller's column, were surprised in camp at Steenbokspruit by a superior force of Boers at 7.30 p. m. June 12. The enemy crept up to within short range and poured a deadly fire into the camp, killing two officers and 16 men, and wounding four officers and 38 men, of whom 28 were slightly wounded. Only two officers and 20 men escaped to General Buller's camp. The remainder were taken prisoners and was later released. Two ponies were captured by the enemy. Full details have not yet been received."

London, June 16.—The serious reverse which Lord Kitchener reports is the first of the kind that has happened to the Australian contingent, and it is supposed to be due to neglect of proper picketing. Although it is offset by the defeat inflicted upon De Wet, the loss of the guns is regarded as a serious matter, which will encourage the Boers to continue the struggle.

The Daily Mail's Cape Town correspondent says that Cecil Rhodes speaking at Bulawayo Saturday, predicted that a federation of South African states would come in three or four years but he contended that to do so would be to risk the republic.

Lots of Trout Other Parties Having Good Luck.

Messrs. Crawford, Houston and Armstrong returned after ten days fishing off the Miramichi Fish & Game Club's pool having had good sport. All the salmon were large and showed an unusual amount of fight.

OIL IN NEW BRUNSWICK.

Important Find at St. Joseph's Westmorland.

Moscow, N. B., June 13.—Oil borings in Westmorland county are suddenly to the front. Yesterday oil was struck in paying quantities at St. Joseph's, near Moncton. It is a pump well and is at present yielding three barrels per day and is expected to yield ten barrels per day when torpedoes, as it will be in a few days. The oil was struck in the first series, which are usually the least productive. The quality of the oil is equal to the finest oil sands in Pennsylvania. The dark green color has a paraffine and not an asphalt base, making the oil more valuable than some of the later discoveries in the United States. The directors of the company met tomorrow at St. Joseph's to consult as to extending the operations on other wells. A night staff will be added.

Delia and the Scotchman.

A Story of Misplaced Confidence.

Before breakfast that morning Delia's voice summoned me into the kitchen. I make a point of always obeying Delia, and I went.

Delia pushed me in front of the dresser, stretched out both hands and said ecstatically: Look!

I looked but I did not know what on earth to look for. There was no speck of dust on the dresser and it was wonderfully tidy. So I thought that Delia had been scrubbing it herself in a fit of repentance. Our servant has an artistic nature and is an enemy of all tidiness and order.

Well, it does look nice and clean said I, with enthusiasm.

How very dense you are! said Delia. I had said the wrong thing as usual. She clambered on to a chair and took down an enormous plate from the top shelf of the dresser. The plate was in gorgeous colors and represented a yellow dragon playing on a red field. Delia held it up for my admiration.

Now that is pretty, I said, nodding my head wisely.

I'm so glad you like it, said Delia. Isn't it sweet? I ought to be shilling in the Lanes. At Jackson's sale they've got some at four and eleven that are not half so big.

I turned the thing over in my hands. But its cracked all down the back, I said.

I'm sure it isn't. Delia snatched it from me. It's only just a little tiny split on the surface. And she replaced it on the shelf.

I mention all this because it was the beginning of Delia's bad temper. She had not intended that I should observe the crack in her bargain.

We went in to breakfast. One of the letters on the table was an invitation for Delia and myself from an uncle of mine—an influential and enormously rich uncle, of course. They always are.

Of course we'll go, said Delia. You don't know how much he may be able to help you.

I should mention that I am engaged in making a career, but I was pained by Delia's intimation.

My dear Delia, said I, regret that you should make any observation of that kind. If we go, we go for the enjoyment of his company and nothing else.

How good we're getting! said Delia.

Then Delia announced her intention of taking her jewels with her. She has rather a valuable collection, what with wedding presents and one thing and another.

Oh, I shall take them, she said, and her head in the air, as if she were going to look nice when she met with a chance.

My dear Delia, I said again, you would look nice under any circumstances.

I rather flattered myself at the policy of that speech, but Delia was not appeased and would not be dissuaded.

Very well said I resignedly. Have your own way.

Delia had her own way. She generally does.

We traveled first for the sake of appearance. It would never do to let my uncle think that went second class. Besides my own luggage, I took a good sized bag in the carriage with us, and at the bottom of that was a small hand bag with Delia's jewels. Delia thought that way was safer.

The train was just starting when an old gentleman climbed painfully into our carriage. He was peculiarly dressed in a very loud check ulster, and he wore a Tam O'Shanter cap with two ribbons hanging down at the back. He had white hair and a white beard and fierce eyes. I was almost afraid of him, but Delia whispered, What a nice old gentleman! as he sat down in the opposite corner.

The three of us sat in strained silence for a long time. Suddenly the old gentleman grunted! Stuff! and looked round at us.

Stuff! he grunted again, and then he asked Delia very politely if she would mind him pulling the window down.

Delia didn't mind, and we got into conversation with the old gentleman. He was a Scotchman going back to his home in the north. His name was McColin—Colin McColin of Seigle's Brae. Then he began talking about the storms we had experienced lately. The fishing people of his district had suffered severely. Their boats had gone out and not returned, and the families were destitute. When he grew more confiding, he told us that as a matter of fact he was just returning from business in connection with these accidents, for which he had been organizing subscriptions. Immediately afterward he seemed very sorry that he had let the secret out.

Delia had tears in her eyes, and I blew my nose. Delia kept on nodding my arm. I could not understand why at first, but presently I did.

If you would permit me, said I, Delia was nudging my arm all the time, to offer—if you would accept a trifle from us toward helping—

My dear sir, interrupted Colin McColin, I could not possibly allow you to do such a thing.

But the poor people must be so happy, said Delia, and we would only too glad.

I am delighted to meet with such sympathy, said the old gentleman. But it is really quite impossible.

He began to talk about something else. But Delia asked him again, and in the end he said that he had never been able to refuse a lady. That is just what I think about Delia. So in the end we wrote our names on a piece of paper and he accepted something for the fisherman, and just as he thanked us and out the slip of paper back into his pocket the train drew up for its first wait.

We stop here ten minutes, said the old gentleman. Delia said that she should like a cup of coffee. She leaned up at the bag on the rack and she left the carriage.

Oh, I'll look after your luggage, said Colin McColin. I shan't get out.

Thank you so much, said Delia very sweetly.

The buffet was at the end of the platform. The coffee was not nice, and it was very hot, but it is not wise to drink out of a saucer under the withering eyes of a railway refreshment maid.

Delia said I had been reading my thoughts, and I said I had been Weak From Infancy.

THE UNFORTUNATE CONDITION OF MISS ERNESTINE CLOUTIER.

As She Grew Older Her Troubles Became More Pronounced—Doctors Said Her Case Was One of General Debility, and Held Out Small Hope of Recovery—She is Now Well and Strong—A Lesson for Parents.

From the Telegraph, Quebec. No discovery in medicine in modern times has done so much to bring back the rich glow of health and the natural activity of healthy young women as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Girls delicate from childhood have used these pills with remarkably beneficial effects, and the cherished daughter of many a household has been transformed from a pale and sickly girl into a happy and robust condition by their use.

Among the many who have regained health and strength through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is Miss Ernestine Cloutier, the fifteen year old daughter of Mr. G. A. Cloutier, residing at No. 6 Lallemand street, Quebec city. Confined in an interview with a representative of the Telegraph gave the following account of her daughter's illness and recovery. "Almost from infancy my daughter had not enjoyed good health, her constitution being of a frail character. We did not pay much attention to her weakness as we thought she would outgrow it. Unfortunately this was not the case, and as she grew older she became so weak that I got alarmed at her condition. For days at a time she was unable to take out of doors exercise; she became listless, her appetite failed her, and as time went on she could not stand without supporting herself against something and at times she would fall in a faint. I called in a doctor but his medicine did not help her and she was growing weaker than ever. Another physician was then consulted who pronounced her case one of general debility, and gave me very little hope for her recovery. Some months while reading one of the daily papers I came across the case of a young woman cured by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I determined to try them, and gave her a box of six pills for $2.50 by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Miss Cloutier's story should bring hope to many thousands of other young girls who suffer as she did. Those who are pale, lack appetite, suffer from headaches and palpitation of the heart, dizziness, or a feeling of constant weakness, will find renewed health and strength in the use of a few boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Sold by all dealers or sent by mail, post paid, at 60 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

time. You say so, I retorted. And, again, said Delia, drinking coffee is an art.

Losing traits is also an art, I observed. What an old silly you are! said Delia. Didn't Mr.—Mr. Mac—what was it, Jack?

McColin, said I. It's not a name you can easily forget. He said there was a wait of ten minutes.

Let's hope he told the truth. Jack, said Delia, I'm sure there never was such a nice old man. Men are always so dreadfully suspicious.

I swallowed my coffee desperately. It was unpleasant and very hot and it burned my throat.

Do hurry up, I said to Delia rather impatiently or leave your coffee! We shall certainly miss the train. I'm not going to be wasteful said Delia. She grasped the handle of the cup courageously. She was lifting it to her lips when a shout startled me, and I sprang through the swing doors just in time to see our end of the train moving rapidly by me. The old gentleman was leaning out of the window and waving his arm. He shouted as he saw me standing at the doors.

I'll put your bag down at the next station! he cried. The next station! he shouted from the distance.

Delia came leisurely on to the platform. What horrid coffee that was said she and waved her handkerchief in farewell to McColin, still leaning out of the carriage window. How very fortunate that he should be there to look after the bag—my jewels and all! she finished in a kind of gasp.

Very lucky, I said. But somehow I began to feel dubious.

There was 35 minutes before the next train stopped at the station and we could continue our journey. At the next station I inquired after the bag, but the officials at the cloak room knew nothing whatever of the old gentleman or the bag. When I explained this to Delia, I am afraid that she lost her temper for a second time that week.

Men are so stupid! said she after some time. To be taken in like that!

I reminded her gently but emphatically that if I had my way she would not have taken her jewels. It was the last we ever saw of them or of that very nice old gentleman, Colin McColin of Seigle's Brae.

MIRAMICHI'S PILOTS.

The Chatham World of Saturday contains a harangue on the Miramichi Pilotage Commissioners which is hardly justifiable by the facts as learned by the Advocate.

The World refrains from mentioning two cases which happened before it went to press last Saturday where vessels commanded by old pilots grounded and one of them sustained serious injury, but devotes a half column or more to roast the commissioners and a pilot who had charge of the S. S. Everingham, Capt. G. K. Moore, bound for Chatham. It is said on good authority that the captain thought his vessel touched and on arriving at Chatham he was convinced she had grounded and employed a diver to examine her bottom but said diver failed to find any indications that she had.

In reference to Mr. Flett's charge the facts as stated by Pilot C. C. McLean, under oath, are about as follows:—McLean, who was in charge, piloted the S. S. Cairo up to Flett's mill wharf without touching and let go anchor thus bringing steamer to stand still. A stern line was meantime got out and pilot asked to have a bow line out also. The captain replied that he could bring his vessel in without the bow line and thus took the vessel out of pilot's charge. In endeavoring to make the wharf the vessel swung around and grounded. In trying to clear the vessel in this narrow channel she touched several times lightly but she was a last taken out and anchored in the channel where she would have room to swing and laid there all night. Next morning the captain went ashore and telephoned for a tug. When the tug Major arrived with Pilot Dudley P. Wells in charge, he (Mr. Wells), who is one of the old pilots, refused to move the steamer if McLean remained in charge, consequently McLean was obliged to leave.

The captain of the Cairo, when summoned to the enquiry made reply that he had no charge to make against Pilot McLean.

On Wednesday evening or Thursday morning the S. S. Lord Londonderry in command of pilot Patrick Nowlan, one of the old pilots, ran aground at Black Brook, being far out of her proper course but Chatham's hustling semi-weekly probably never heard of this case. Again on Friday evening or Saturday morning the Swedish barque Iris, of 681 tons, in command of Joseph Jimmo and D. P. Wells in charge of tug, stuck on the bar and sustained such injury that she leaked badly. A survey was held and she was ordered to be towed to Pictou for repairs. But although this was public talk in Chatham, Saturday morning it found no place in the columns of the World because it was not in accord with its editorial.

The World's charge that the commissioners will not allow one of the new pilots to take out their loaded vessels is entirely false and we understand that they will and do employ them whenever the captains of the vessels will take them.

Recently the Pilots agreed to a settlement but as long as the World publishes such articles and the old pilots resort to such tactics it is hardly likely that the commissioners and the new pilots will abide by that agreement.

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP.

The idea of municipal ownership is spreading throughout the land. If private individuals can install a water system or electric light plant and make it pay expenses and a dividend, why not a corporation?

NEWCASTLE'S VICE.

Vice, to a certain extent, has to be tolerated in the larger cities as it is impossible for the police to cope with it in a thorough manner but in a small town like Newcastle where everyone knows his neighbor and his neighbor's business it ought to be an easy task for the police to deal with this matter and stamp it out. Yet on one of our principal streets there is a house, well known to every citizen, where there can be heard "the sounds of revelry by night." Especially is this the case on Saturday night and the peaceful neighbors are disturbed by frequent fights and abusive language. This resort is frequented by a number of Newcastle's young men who would be ashamed to appear before the public as frequenters of this den but if the police do their duty they will surely be caught sooner or later and the full extent of the law ought to be meted out to them. If the authorities would make a stronger effort to stamp out these places and places where liquor is sold their would be fewer scenes as witnessed on our streets last Saturday. Get at the root of the evil and we will have an orderly town.

One of Newcastle's most crying needs is an industry that will give employment to a number of hands all the year. At present the only industry we have to keep up the town is the manufacture of lumber. The saw mills run for six months and are closed six months and the men go off to the woods where they remain until spring. This has had effect on trade. From the first of January to the first of May our merchants are obliged to give large credits to their customers and then run risks of collecting it "when the lumber comes down." This is detrimental to trade. Our merchants are obliged to add an extra profit to cover losses resulting from this system and also to cover interest on a large amount of money that is taken out of their business. What we ought to have is a factory of some kind that will give employment to about fifty men all the year around, thus insuring a steady income to that number. There is enough money lying idle in this town earning only 3 or 3½ per cent. when by good management it ought to be earning 10 to 15%. We would like to be able to start the ball rolling.

Our columns are open for this discussion and we trust our citizens will bestir themselves and take the subject up. It will be for their own benefit and for the good of the town.

Mr. Golding, who was connected with the Advocate for some time and who led us to believe he would return on June last has concluded to remain in Sydney so that for present at least H. B. Anslow will be obliged to look after the editorial as well as the business department of the Advocate. We trust our friends will give us all the aid possible by sending in or informing us of all news, items, etc., they know of. We also especially ask those having friends visiting or who are visiting, friends to let us know the fact for our Personal and Social column. There are also a number of merchants who at present do not advertise. We would like to see them represented in our columns and we assure them it will be to their mutual benefit as the Advocate is recognized as one of the best advertising mediums in the province and our rates are fair.

While the various trout and salmon streams are being stocked by the local hatchery would it not be a good plan to have some trout and salmon fry deposited in the Mill stream and also Trout Brook. These are two fine brooks, especially for trout and now that the old dam at the mouth of the mill stream is washed away trout and salmon can get to sea and return. We offer this suggestion to the authorities and trust they will endeavor to carry it out.

CANADA'S MINERALS.

In a report of the Geological Survey of Canada, dealing with the mineral industries, some interesting facts are disclosed regarding the progress in this direction in 1899. The growth has been very rapid, amounting in the year mentioned to $11,000,000 over the year 1898. The compiler of the report, who furnishes tables of statistics, points out that gold has increased its lead from about 36 per cent. to about 43 per cent. of the whole. Silver has fallen away from third to sixth place, and lead from eighth to ninth. Regarding the relative importance of the different classes of mineral products, it is shown that gold accounts for 42.88 per cent., of which a little over four-fifths came from placer workings, and almost all the rest from the Yukon and Athla districts. The other metals account for about 16 per cent., or a total metallic production of about 59 per cent. The combustible class is to be credited with 24.65 per cent., structural materials with 12.41 per cent., and all other non-metallic products with the remainder, about 4 per cent.—Globe.

The Editor's Mail.

Editor of the Union Advocate.

Dear Sir,
I understand your town has the honor to have the President and Secretary of the Maritime Board of Trade but I fail to see one word in your paper about what work is being done and also the usual trade journals have no news.

On previous years the Canadian Grocer, Monetary Times, Maritime merchant, and leading papers kept me posted in all the varied work being carried on. Could you not interview your local Board of Trade, or the officers of the Maritime Board and get some information for your readers. In a month or two the annual meeting should be held and we all look from and to a good report showing a great many new Boards formed and affiliated. As you are aware this Board is a very important one and should be growing into influence. A report that was current that the head officers were dead has been denied, still it seems strange not to see one word about the Maritime board.

I should much like to have a copy of the By-Laws, our local Board has none, as the Secretary mislaid the copy obtained in Kentville last year.

Yours truly,
J. O. GORE.

LOT OF LIQUOR SEIZED AT CHATHAM.

Raid on Club-room, Then Visit to House—$200 or $300 Worth Destroyed—July 1 Celebrated.

Chatham, June 16.—The police here made a raid on the club room kept by Archie Frecker, Saturday afternoon, and seized a quantity of liquor; they next visited his home, where they secured nearly a slovenly load of the ardent. The liquor which amounted to between $200 and $300 worth, was taken to the wharf and allowed to run out.

On Saturday George Morris was fined $50 for violating the Scott act.

A sailor on the steamboat Lord Londonderry had his fingers badly crushed Saturday, his hand becoming caught in the chains with which deal was being hoisted. A very attractive programme has been prepared for Dominion day, including sailing, rowing, swimming, log, tub, raftsmen's single scull, canoe and bicycle races. If the weather be favourable the celebration promises to be the best held in Chatham for several years.

Work in connection with the water works is progressing favorably.

BLACKVILLE

The Sacrament of the Lord's supper was dispensed in the Presbyterian Church here last Sabbath forenoon.

The Rev. Thos. Corbett is now attending a meeting of the general assembly in Ottawa.

Our popular tenor artist and wife is now paying a visit to friends in St. On.

The dance and social held in Upper Blackville last Tuesday evening just turned out as per advertisement quite a number of the bloods went up from here.

A drowning accident nearly took place on the Barholomew river. Mr. George McConnel while trout fishing about a mile up from here losing his balance in some way or other came very nearly being drowned.

The mortal remains of the late James Lebas was borne to their last resting place in the Baptist burying ground here on Wednesday June 12th. Service at the house and the Church was conducted by the Rev. McKing of Doaktown. The funeral was under the auspices of the L. O. A. Star of the Boyer Lodge of which the deceased was a member. The Rectal of the order was read at the grave by the acting Chaplain and was very solemn and impressive this being the first death in the ranks of the crangemen here they turned out in goodly numbers and looked very well indeed. The writer who has been acquainted with the deceased for many years found him to be a man of sterling worth and integrity. A Christian in the fullest sense of the term, always willing to extol and magnify the name of the Blessed Master whom he served. A Christian who died trusting in the finished work of Jesus. The funeral was very largely attended. We noticed as we passed that both of Gibson's mills were shut down and parties were telling your scribe they were never known to shut down before for a funeral not even to stop while one was passing. The sympathy of the community goes out to the bereaved family who has lost a kind father and a loving husband.

The intermediate and primary teachers of this school. District No. 6 have both tendered their resignation. It is reported that the Trustees were struck with amazement on the receipt of the resignation so that halftimes even fell around the office. Now the rumor mongers are at wondering what the teachers are going to do. It was first rumored that the primary teacher was going to visit the band but such is not the case as she concluded to try it at her home. She has Zion's Hill or some Hill in her mind's eye. The intermediate teacher is going down to the Valley for bones for the dead bones very dry.

Michael Lynch of Grey Rapids fell from a fence and broke the fractured bone was quickly fixed by McManus.

Annual meeting of this school District took place here today, Saturday.

of the early season of summer crops are elegant and they on large farm products.

O'Shae and Miss Girtie Murquest of their aunt, Mrs. J. P. a few days.

Mr. Peter Forsythe who is building the Wayerton Bridge has employed quite a number of men from this place.

The many friends of Mr. M. Fitzgerald are glad to hear that the cut on his foot is now healing fast.

The fish haulers have again begun their annual trips through this vicinity.

Mr. James Matchet has recently purchased the pretty home occupied by Mr. Hopkins.

Miss Mary Esty of this place is visiting her aunt, Mrs. George Richards of Chatham.

Mr. D. O'Shae was the guest of Mr. J. Copp, the other evening.

Mr. Bobby Park is the frequent visitor of this neighborhood.

Mr. J. O'Shae is driving his railway ties. The forests of this place and the hardwoods are so infested with the so-called "army worm" that Mr. Thomas Norton who is living near the forest thinks he will have to change his summer residence while the so-called plague exists; and Mr. William Hosford's splendid orchard is almost destroyed by the same.

Mr. Murdock Welden of this place is gone up river with the American Sports. Mr. John Curtis has purchased a new bicycle of the latest style.

BRYNTON.

The farmers in this locality are about through farming.

Mr. Chester and Harry Brynton left Tuesday for Campbellton.

Mrs. David Brynton who was very ill with typhoid fever is rapidly recovering under the skilful treatment of Dr. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. P. O'Brien are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a daughter.

Miss Kelly paid a visit to town last week.

Quite an enjoyable evening was spent at Mr. William Brynton's Monday evening.

Miss Lottie Underhill paid a flying visit to Brynton last week.

The Road plow is doing wondrous work here.

Quite enjoyable evenings are spent playing ball in Brynton.

Mr. James Manderville caught quite a large sturgeon last week.

NELSON.

Andrew McCallum of South Nelson was united in marriage to Nellie Donovan at the R. C. Church of Renous, by the Rev. Father Murdoch on the fifth inst.

The wedding was a pretty scene which took place at the residence of the bride's parents. The bride looked charming in a rich costume of fawn broadcloth, and carried a large bouquet of flowers. She was attended by her sister Mary, who wore grey broadcloth.

The groom was ably supported by his friend Mr. J. Foley. The groom presented the bride with a gold bracelet and the bridesmaid with a gold pin. The presents which the bride received from others were both costly and numerous. After a sumptuous repast during the evening friends before departing, gathered in wishing Mr. and Mrs. McCallum a long and happy future, they both took the train to reside at their home in Nelson.

TRACADIE.

Tracadie, ever famous on account of its Lazeretto and its good fish is showing signs of prosperity.

Mr. Chas. Robinson who was for years with W. S. Loggie has taken over the business of Meers, J. and R. Young and is hustling things. As he deserves he is receiving a large amount of custom.

Several new stores have been opened up which is a sure indication of increased business. The New Klondike Store is a recent addition.

Snowhall's mill is working and gives employment to a large number of men. The crops look well and lobster and fishing are reported good.

The Lazeretto reef needs a coat of paint and some other much needed repairs will doubtless be made this summer.

The Parish School meeting was held here Saturday.

CARAQUET.

The fishermen are happy these days. Good catches of both lobsters and cod have been taken ever since the season opened and further up the shore salmon have been plentiful.

The addition to the wharf will put a lot of money in circulation and the present summer promises to be the best for years.

Speaking about lobsters the writer saw two of the old school. Mr. C. Hubbard recently caught one in a salmon net that weighed eight pounds and was about two feet long. The other was only fourteen inches long but it is larger than the average.

In conversation with J. E. Lanteigne, census commissioner for Gloucester, he said that the figures recently published in reference to the population of Gloucester were mere guesses but he admitted that Gloucester would show a large increase, possibly the largest increase in New Brunswick and he also expressed the opinion that Restigouche would be a close second.

The north east gale of Friday drove the fishing fleet to shelter in the harbor.

Mr. C. Hubbard was in Miramichi last week.

Miss Mabel Blackball who has been ill is improving and is able to be out.

SHEILA.

Sheila.—Where is it? That is a question frequently asked as it is only during the past few years that such a place has become known to the outside world. If you look at a map of New Brunswick you will see on the Big Tracadie river, a village of that name.

A few years ago an American company was formed and a large lumber mill was erected and around the mill has grown up a village of no mean proportions. The scribe on a recent visit to that bee-hive of industry counted five large frame houses being erected and several have just been completed. These buildings, are all owned by inhabitants who are French Canadians and are a credit to the village.

At the mill several new industries have been recently added. One of the best box factories in the country has been in operation for some time and also a planing mill which turns out a large amount of finished lumber for the American market.

The large mill is one of the best in Canada and the logs are cut into boards or dealt with a hand saw which goes through the largest log with remarkable speed.

A large amount of lumber, principally one inch pine boards and clap boards are cut daily.

Mr. H. B. Foster is the energetic and obliging manager of the Company.

PROTECTIONVILLE.

We are having fine weather for the crops and everything is blooming.

Jack Frost made great havoc among the garden Saturday night.

Mrs. Daniel Jardine of Manchester, N. H., is visiting at her home here.

Miss Eliza McCormick of Newcastle is visiting friends here.

Miss Craig our school teacher is getting along fine. We hope she will not leave us as the last one did.

Mrs. Arthur Petrie is visiting friends up river.

BATHURST.

The marriage of Stewart R. Hinton and Fannie L. Freetz will take place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Betts, Doaktown, this evening. Mr. Hinton is the popular brakeman of the C. R. and Miss Freetz is a highly esteemed school teacher at Doaktown. A reception will be held at Mr. and Mrs. R. Hinton's, Bathurst. The happy couple have the well wishes of the entire community.

Bathurst can boast of an up-to-date telephone service. Recently a company was formed and a central established and a large number of telephones installed. R. Bos is the energetic manager.

Chatham, Ont., 13.—Andrew Epperson, a prisoner who had just been convicted of stabbing a woman and remanded for sentence, made a desperate attempt to murder the judge and county crown attorney in the county court this afternoon.

Epperson suddenly jumped from the prisoner's dock, seized a razor and dashed to the door.

Constantly repeated efforts to stop Epperson but he succeeded in making a feathered exit. Attorney Douglas then called the prisoner and the two were taken to the floor. Lawyers and spectators quickly moved toward Epperson and a desperate fight took place. Four injured.

The Sackville Water Works.

The work of construction on the Sackville water works has already been commenced. The contract for about 500 tons of pipes was let a few days ago to the Montreal Pipe Foundry Co., who now own or control the plant at Longueville, N. S., where the pipes must be cast. Mr. John A. Wheaton of the old firm of Gray and Wheaton has a large gang of men to work cleaning up the site selected for the reservoir on Ogden's mill brook.

The construction of the dam for reservoir will be started in a few days.

It is expected that this work will afford employment for about 100 men for the season.

Assyrian Went to Pieces.

St. John's, Nfld., June 14.—The Leyland line steamer Assyrian, ashore off Cape Race went to pieces during the night, and this morning is a total wreck. The center part of the vessel is under water and the hull is broken sunder. A heavy sea is raging and the cargo is being partly carried seaward. Owing to the fury of the gale and the tremendous sea, little of the cargo has thus far been salvaged. The tug Petrel, which was forced on the rocks while engaged in attempting to assist the Assyrian, has also become a total wreck. The crews of both vessels escaped safely to the shore and are housed in the Cape Race light house.

A Montreal Sensation.

MONTREAL, June 13.—Mrs. J. J. Redpath one of Montreal's society leaders, lies dead in a handsome residence on Sherbrooke street, and her son, Clifford Redpath, is lying unconscious in the Royal Victoria Hospital, with a bullet in his brain.

About six o'clock the household was startled by the noise of two revolver shots from Mrs. Redpath's room. On running in, the servants were astonished to find Mrs. Redpath and son lying on the floor, both unconscious. Physicians were summoned, but Mrs. Redpath died in a few minutes. The son was removed to the hospital in a dying condition.

No details of the tragedy are known. Mrs. Redpath had been for some time, suffering greatly from insomnia. The surmise is that while temporarily deranged Mrs. Redpath attempted to end her life, and in attempting to prevent her the son was shot. The unfortunate lady then completed her undertaking. The affair has caused a painful sensation in this city.

LATER.

Clifford Redpath died at the hospital without having regained consciousness. The tragedy remains a mystery.

Sydney.

SYDNEY, N. S., June 13.—The fast express from Sydney went off the track near Alta station tonight, and was somewhat badly wrecked. The passengers sustained a bad shaking up, but no injuries are reported. A special went out from Sydney to take the passengers in.

Would-be Murderers.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 14.—Four thieves who saw Mrs. Sadie Fowler draw some money from the Keystone bank yesterday, followed her for five hours to her home, and at two o'clock this morning beat her into insensibility, robbed her, and then burned down her home. When she tried to escape from the burning building the men held the doors, but the arrival of neighbors saved her from being suffocated. The robbers escaped.

Census Returns.

OTTAWA, June 12.—Archibald Blue, Chief Census Commissioner, ridicules the published statement of the census in the eastern provinces. There is only one district so far and that shows an increase of three thousand. They have not all the returns in yet.

Another Tale of Cannibalism.

VICTORIA, June 13.—The Miwra, from Australia, brings these advices: From New Guinea news was received via Sydney of the massacre of the Rev. James Chalmers and B. P. Tompkins and 14 native teachers by cannibals. The whites were eaten. The place of the cannibal orgy was seen by the troops sent out to investigate the massacre and a portion of a jaw and thigh bones of the missionaries were found, together with their hats and portions of trousers which belonged to Chalmers. The expedition punished the natives destroying their villages and canoes.

Some prisoners taken during an attack made by the natives on the troops told the tale of the massacre and cannibalism.

Canadian Pacific Trackmen on Strike.

The Canadian Pacific trackmen from the Atlantic to the Pacific and numbering 3,000 men went out on strike this morning. The strike affects about 450 men on the Atlantic Division of the railway. Superintendent Osborne when interviewed this morning said that he had nothing to say beyond the fact that the men had gone out this morning according to notice and that the following circular was issued by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, Thursday 13th June, which explained the position of the railway company.

GAINED

9 1/2 LBS.

BY USING MILBURN'S PILLS.

VICTORIA, B.C., March 8, 1901.

The T. Milburn Co., Limited,

Toronto, Ont.

Dear Sirs,—Some time ago my daughter,

aged 19 years,

was troubled

with bad headaches and loss of appetite.

Her system got badly run down,

so hearing your

Heart and Nerve

Pills highly spoken of I procured a box, and by the time she had used them she had gained 9 lbs. in weight and is now in perfect health.

Yours truly,

Mrs. P. H. CURTIS.

Fitz—What does R.S.V.P. stand

for?

Mac—Well, to judge by the conduct of some society people, I should say it means "Rush in, shake hands, victrol up and proceed home."

THE TEST OF QUALITY.

In the Maritime Provinces, in Newfoundland, and in parts of Quebec and Ontario, Red Rose Tea is a popular favorite. It has a success wherever it has been introduced.

That is the true test of quality.

The average person breathes in a gallon of air a minute.

"Is your wife a good cook? asked somebody of the young who had recently married a Vassar graduate

"Well," replied the proud young husband thoughtfully, "she can boil water without burning it."

Are you using Red Rose Tea? If not, try a package. You'll like it.

Gentleman—You little beauty!

You shall be my wife when you are grown up, will you?

No, I don't want to get married, but auntie there would like to.

Dear Sirs,—Within the past year

I know of three fatty tumors on the head having been removed by the application of MINARD'S LIN-

IMENT without any surgical operation, and there is no indication of a return.

CAPT. W. A. PITT.

Clifton, N. B. Gondola Ferry.

A correspondent asks, do all poets have long hair?

No; some of them make enough to have it cut once in awhile.

A quarrel recently occurred between two ladies. Said the younger one: I wonder if I shall lose my looks too, when I get your age.

Elder one—You will be lucky if you do.

He—Cissie, I've heard it said that a kiss without a mustache is like an egg without salt. Is that so?

She—Well, really, I don't know.

I can't tell for you see I've never

He—Ah, now!

She—Never eaten an egg without salt.

Enormous Sale.

Many Imitations

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food has come into popularity by leaps and bounds, until now the sales are enormous, far exceeding those of any other nerve tonic.

As a consequence of this

A Redbank correspondent writes that the Redbank bridge is in a dangerous condition for heavy traffic and that unless it is speedily repaired some one may be killed in its down fall.

The Swedish barge Iris which loaded deal at Plett's stuck in getting out of the harbor and sprung a leak. She was towed to Plett for repairs by the steamer Mascot, Monday. Loss was covered by insurance.

The Rev. A. F. Brown will deliver his popular lecture on "The Life and Work of Father Matthew" in the new hall, Miller on Friday evening. Admission 15 and 25 cents.

Mr. E. H. Gremley has recently added to his already well equipped livery stable, a large, strongly built wagon capable of seating ten or twelve people. It looks to be an easy riding vehicle and Mr. Gremley has named it Sportmen's Comfort. It was specially designed and built by J. M. Falconer to convey sportsmen to the respective fishing and hunting grounds of the Miramichi.

Last winter John Way of Wayerton lost his house and contents by fire but, undaunted, he at once started the erection and furnishing of a new home to accommodate the travelling public. It is the favorite resting place of the sportsmen on their way to the camp of M. P. & G. club. The house contains large airy rooms well furnished and has a nice wide veranda on which the guests congregate on a summer's night to smoke and tell fish stories.

The Advocate has been unable to supply the call for extra papers during the past three weeks. On May 29th, we printed 150 extras on 15th, on June 2nd, we printed 1050 and were obliged to print the form on and print 150 more but with these extra we ran far short of the demand. On June 12th, the entire edition of nearly 1000 was exhausted early Wednesday and numbers were disappointed who wished copies. This week we have added a large number of extra copies and hope to be able to supply the demand in future. Large numbers of paid in advance subscribers are being received and to all we are sending our handsome premium picture of King Edward VII.

Capt. Robert Walls, of Chatham, N. B. has been appointed shipping master for Chatham, N. B., in room of Capt. J. J. Brown deceased.

S. McLeod, Esq., was at the Baribogue pools last Wednesday and landed some fine trout. We return thanks for a share of them.

Court Miramichi, I. O. F. attended divine service in the Baptist church Sunday. Rev. A. F. Brown preached an appropriate sermon.

Unusually cold weather has prevailed since last Friday. Friday and Saturday nights there were severe frosts. It is said that ice formed in some places. Considerable damage was done to tender plants.

Miss Eliza Savoy, daughter of Benjamin Savoy, of Tabusintac, died in Boston of pneumonia Tuesday. Miss Savoy lived in Chatham several years and had many friends here. The remains arrived Saturday and were interred in the Moorfield cemetery Sunday afternoon.

On Thursday forenoon a deer was seen in an apparently dazed condition roaming about the Joudy field about half a mile below town, and in the afternoon it was found dead near the fence. It is believed that the animal was on the railway track and was thrown over the fence into the field by the express train.

A young man, son of Mr. Michael McElhannon, of Baribogue had his right foot badly lacerated by a saw in Russell's mill, Baribogue, on Friday. He was brought to Chatham where Dr. McElhannon dressed the wound and sent him to the hospital—Worth.

What might have been a serious railway accident was averted by station master, Quilty of Barnaby River. On Thursday evening last he found a railway sleeper and some fence boards laying across the rails one mile north of that station. Supposed to be the work of mischievous boys, such cases should be severely dealt with.

Brigadier Sharp and Staff Capt. Phillips will visit Newcastle on Monday June 24th and will hold a special meeting at the N. A. Baribogue. This will be their first visit to our town and the members of the Army would like to see a large gathering on that occasion.

The members of Division No. 5 A. O. H. of Red Bank, intend holding a grand picnic at that place on Tuesday, July 9th. An efficient committee will have charge of all the arrangements and it is the intention to make this picnic the best of the season. A large dancing pavilion will be erected and amusements of other kinds will be provided. It will be one of the most enjoyable affairs of this summer. The proceeds are to be devoted to the building of a new hall at Redbank, which is something very much required in that village.

Mr. R. N. Wyse's store was crowded last Thursday with eager buyers looking for the special bargains advertised in last week's Advocate. At times it was impossible for the clerks to attend to all promptly but the shoppers were good natured and did not mind the wait. Mr. Wyse has had fitting answer to his query "Does Advertising Pay?" and has proved beyond a doubt that if properly looked after and placed in the right paper it will bring the business to his store. It is gratifying to the publishers as well as Mr. Wyse to know that his advertisement last week's Advocate was such a success.

The concert to be held in the Temperance Hall on Thursday evening, we have no doubt will be well worth hearing. The programme consists of solos, duets, choruses, recitations. Selections will be rendered by the town orchestra. Miss Lonsbury graduate of music from Acadia college will play some selections on the piano, while the names of Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Sargent, Mrs. O. Nicholson and Miss Nicholson are sufficient guarantee to draw a full house. The proceeds are in aid of the fund to improve the Baptist church. We wish to see one end

Methodist District Meeting

The Chatham District Meeting of the Methodist Church convened at Bathurst on Tuesday afternoon, the 11th inst. The first session was devoted to the examination of ministerial character and efficiency. The usual questions were asked and satisfactorily answered in each instance. The Rev. George Harrison was continued in a superannuated relation.

A solemn review of the condition of the work of God upon the district was held during which many valuable suggestions were given and plans laid for the coming year.

The full District met, on Wednesday morning, consisting of all the ministers in the district and an equal number of laymen. The Rev. D. B. Bayley of Harcourt was elected Journal Secretary, and Rev. A. B. McLeod of Bathurst as assistant. Rev. J. A. Ives of Campbellton was appointed Statistical Secretary.

A general review of church membership, property and finances was next in order, during which it was reported that the property had been improved to the amount of about $1000.00. Although a large number of persons had moved from our circuit, and many deaths have occurred during the year, the total membership has considerably increased.

The work on the various mission stations was reported and showed the work to be in a prosperous condition.

A discussion of financial methods resulted in a general opinion that the system so successfully employed in St. Luke's Church, Chatham, should be adopted throughout the District.

Outside of the Twentieth century Fund, about $12,000 had been collected and delivered for the various church purposes during the year.

It was recommended by the District that the Stationing Committee be asked to appoint a colleague to assist the pastor of St. Luke's Church, Chatham.

The following laymen were elected to attend Conference:

S. McLeod, Chatham; R. N. Wyse, Newcastle; William McLean, Seville; R. W. Beers, Richibucto; Albert Coste, Coatsville; B. Humphrey, Hargrave; Frank Cullen,

AN ARTISTIA FASHION MONTHLY.

The Delineator has attained a high place in the artistic periodicals; and has attained popularity as a family magazine. While it is the queen of fashion journals, presenting the latest styles and notions in dress and ornamentation, it contains stories, articles on society and household topics. The article on the Pan-American Exposition in the July number, shows the highwater mark in the art of printing in three colors. No other magazine in the world will probably be so well able to show the artistic color results obtained in Buffalo, because the Delineator has had the advantage of working directly from the original water-color sketches of C. Y. Turner, Director of Color to the Pan-American Exposition. All the beautiful effects of the originals, necessitating the most exact register of plates, have been obtained, though all the work was done by the Delineator presses at high speed. The July edition is $25.000.

Married at Brooklyn
KANE—MORRISSEY.

Mr. C. Archibald Kane and Miss Jeanette Morrissey were married Monday morning at 9 o'clock, nuptial mass at St. Cecilia's Roman Catholic Church by Rev. Father McGlock. The very impressive ceremony took place before quite an assemblage of relatives and friends of the bride and groom.

Miss Aelen Morrissey, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Alexander McCullon was groomsmen. The bride was gown in mauve crepe de chene and resplendence and carried the usual bride's roses.

After the ceremony at the church a wedding breakfast was served under direction of Maresi at the home of the bride's mother, 117 Noble Street. The bridal couple left on Monday morning for a trip South, stopping on the way at Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Kane will reside at the corner of Hancock street and Lewis avenue when they return to Brooklyn.

Both bride and groom are well known to Greenpoint people. Mr. Kane is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Kane of 102 Milton street, and the new Mrs. Kane is a daughter of the late Dr. Morrissey of 118 Noble street, formerly police surgeon. Aside from a shower of good wishes, the pair began life as one surrounded with substantial tokens of esteem in the way of wedding gifts in abundance.—Brooklyn Eagle.

MIRAMICHI'S PILOTS.

The Chatham World of Saturday contains a heruag on the Miramichi Pilots Commissioners which is hardly justifiable by the facts as learned by the Advocate.

The World refrains from mentioning two cases which happened before it went to press last Saturday where vessels commanded by old pilots grounded and one of them sustained serious injury, but devotes a half column or more to roast the commissioners and a pilot who had charge of the S. S. Everingham, Capt. G. K. Moore, bound for Chatham. It is said on good authority that the captain thought his vessel touched and on arriving at Chatham he was convinced she had grounded and employed a diver to examine her bottom but said diver failed to find any indications that she had.

In reference to Mr. Flett's charge the facts as stated by Pilot C. C. McLean, under oath, are about as follows:—McLean, who was in charge, piloted the S. S. Cairo up to Flett's mill wharf without touching and let go anchor thus bringing steamer to stand still. A stern line was meantime got out and pilot asked to have a bow line out also. The captain replied that he could bring his vessel in without the bow line and thus took the vessel out of pilot's charge. In endeavoring to make the wharf the vessel swung around and grounded. In trying to clear the vessel in this narrow channel she touched several times lightly but she was a last taken out and anchored in the channel where she would have room to swing and laid there all night. Next morning the captain went ashore and telephoned for a tug. When the tug Mascot arrived with Pilot Dudley P. Wells in charge, he (Mr. Wells), who is one of the old pilots, refused to move the steamer if McLean remained in charge, consequently McLean was obliged to leave.

The captain of the Cairo, when summoned to the enquiry made reply that he had no charge to make against Pilot McLean.

On Wednesday evening or Thursday morning the S. S. Lord Londonderry in command of pilot Patrick Nowlan, one of the old pilots, ran aground at Black Brook, being far out of her proper course but Chatham's bustling semi-weekly probably never heard of this case. Again on Friday evening or Saturday morning the Swedish barque Iris, of 681 tons, in command of Joseph Jimmo and D. P. Wells in charge of tug, stuck on the bar and sustained such injury that she leaked badly. A survey was held and she was ordered to be towed to Pictou for repairs. But although this was public talk in Chatham Saturday morning it found no place in the columns of the World because it was not in accord with its editorial.

The World's charge that the commissioners will not allow one of the new pilots to take out their loaded vessels is entirely false and we understand that they will and do employ them whenever the captains of the vessels will take them.

Recently the Pilots agreed to a settlement but as long as the World publishes such articles and the old pilots resort to such tactics it is hardly likely that the commissioners and the new pilots will abide by that agreement.

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP.

The idea of municipal ownership is spreading throughout the land. If private individuals can install a water system or electric light plant and make it pay expenses and a dividend, why not a corporation.

NEWCASTLE'S VICE.

Vice, to a certain extent, has to be tolerated in the larger cities as it is impossible for the police to cope with it in a thorough manner but in a small town like Newcastle where everyone knows his neighbor and his neighbor's business it ought to be an easy task for the police to deal with this matter and stamp it out. Yet on one of our principal streets there is a house, well known to every citizen, where there can be heard "the sounds of revelry by night." Especially is this the case on Saturday night and the peaceful neighbors are disturbed by frequent fights and abusive language. This resort is frequented by a number of Newcastle's young men who would be ashamed to appear before the public as frequenters of this den but if the police do their duty they will assuredly be caught sooner or later and the full extent of the law ought to be meted out to them. If the authorities would make a stronger effort to stamp out these places and places where liquor is sold their would be fewer scenes as witnessed on our streets last Saturday. Get to the root of the evil and we will have an orderly town.

One of Newcastle's most crying needs is an industry that will give employment to a number of hands all the year. At present the only industry we have to keep up the town is the manufacture of lumber. The saw mills run for six months and are closed six months and the men go off to the woods where they remain until spring. This has a bad effect on trade. From the first of January to the first of May our merchants are obliged to give large credits to their customers and then run risks of collecting it "when the lumber comes down." This is detrimental to trade. Our merchants are obliged to add an extra profit to cover losses resulting from this system and also to cover interest on a large amount of money that is taken out of their business. What we ought to have is a factory of some kind that will give employment to about fifty men all the year around, thus insuring a steady income to that number. There is enough money lying idle in this town earning only 3 or 3½ per cent. when by good management it ought to be earning 10 to 15%. We would like to be able to start the ball rolling.

Our columns are open for this discussion and we trust our citizens will bestir themselves and take the subject up. It will be for their own benefit and for the good of the town.

Mr. Golding, who was connected with the Advocate for some time and who led us to believe he would return on June last has concluded to remain in Sydney so that for present at least H. B. Anslow will be obliged to look after the editorial as well as the business department of the Advocate. We trust our friends will give us all the aid possible by sending in or informing us of all news, items, etc., they know of. We also especially ask those having friends visiting or who are visiting, friends to let us know the fact for our Personal and Social column. There are also a number of merchants who at present do not advertise. We would like to see them represented in our columns and we assure them it will be to their mutual benefit as the Advocate is recognized as one of the best advertising mediums in the province and our rates are fair.

While the various trout and salmon streams are being stocked by the local hatchery would it not be a good plan to have some trout and salmon fry deposited in the Mill stream and also Trout Brook. These are two fine brooks, especially for trout and now that the old dam at the mouth of the mill stream is washed away trout and salmon can get to sea and return. We offer this suggestion to the authorities and trust they will endeavor to carry it out.

CANADA'S MINERALS.

In a report of the Geological Survey of Canada, dealing with the mineral industries, some interesting facts are disclosed regarding the progress in this direction in 1899. The growth has been very rapid, amounting in the year mentioned to $11,000,000 over the year 1898. The compiler of the report, who furnishes tables of statistics, points out that gold has increased its lead from about 36 per cent. to about 43 per cent. of the whole. Silver has fallen away from third to sixth place, and lead from eight to ninth. Regarding the relative importance of the different classes of mineral products, it is shown that gold accounts for 42.88 per cent., of which a little over four-fifths came from placer workings, and almost altogether those of the Yukon and Atlin districts. The other metals account for about 16 per cent., or a total metallic production of about 59 per cent. The combustible class is to be credited with 24.65 per cent., structural materials with 12.44 per cent., and all other non-metallic products with the remainder, about 4 per cent.—Globe.

The Editor's Mail.

Editor of the Union Advocate.

Dear Sir, I understand your town has the honor to have the President and Secretary of the Maritime Board of Trade but I fail to see one word in your paper about what work is being done and also the usual trade journals have no news.

On previous years the Canadian Grocer, Monetary Times, Maritime merchant, and leading papers kept me posted in all the varied work being carried on. Could you not interview your local Board of Trade, or the officers of the Maritime Board and get some information for your readers. In a month or two the annual meeting should be held and we all look from and to a good report showing a great many new Boards formed and affiliated. As you are aware this Board is a very important one and should be growing into influence. A report that was current that the head officers were dead has been denied, still it seems strange not to see one word about the Maritime Board.

I should much like to have a copy of the By-Laws, our local Board has none, as the Secretary mislaid the copy obtained in Kentville last year.

Yours truly,

LOT OF LIQUOR SEIZED AT CHATHAM.

Raid on Club-room, Then Visit to House—$200 or $300 Worth Destroyed—July 1 Celebrated.

Chatham, June 16.—The police here made a raid on the club room kept by Annie Frecker, Saturday afternoon, and seized a quantity of liquor; they next visited his home, where they secured nearly a sloop-load of the ardent. The liquor which amounted to between $200 and $300 worth, was taken to the wharf and allowed to run out.

On Saturday George Morris was fined $50 for violating the Scott act. A sailor on the steamboat Lord Londonderry had his fingers badly crushed Saturday, his hand becoming caught in the chains with which deal was being hoisted.

A very attractive programme has been prepared for Dominion day, including sailing, rowing, swimming, log, tub, raftsmen's single scull, canoe and bicycle races. If the weather be favourable the celebration promises to be the best held in Chatham for several years.

Work in connection with the water works is progressing favorably.

BLACKVILLE

The sacrament of the Lord's supper was dispensed in the Presbyterian Church here last Sabbath forenoon.

The Rev. Thos. Corbett is now attending a meeting of the general assembly in Ottawa.

Our popular tenor artist and wife is now paying a visit to friends in St. John.

The dance and social held in Upper Blackville last Tuesday evening just turned out as per advertisement quite a number of the blondest went up from here.

A drowning accident nearly took place on the Bartholomew river. Mr. George McConnell while trout fishing about a mile up from here losing his balance in some way or other came very nearly being drowned.

The mortal remains of the late James Lehan were borne to their last resting place in the Baptist burying ground here on Wednesday June 12th. Service at the house and the church was conducted by the Rev. McKing of Doaktown. The funeral was under the auspices of the L. O. A. Star of the Boyne Lodge of which the deceased was a member. The funeral of the order was read at the grave by the acting Chaplain and was very solemn and impressive this being the first death in the ranks of the crangemen here they turned out in goodly numbers and looked very well indeed. The writer who has been acquainted with the deceased for many years found him to be a man of sterling worth and integrity. A Christian in the fullest sense of the term, always willing to extend and magnify the name of the Blessed Master whom he served. A Christian who died trusting in the finished work of Jesus. The funeral was very largely attended. We noticed as we passed that both of Gibson's mills were shut down and parties were telling your scribe they were never known to shut down before for a funeral not even to stop while one was passing. The sympathy of the community goes out to the bereaved family who has lost a kind father and a loving husband.

The intermediate and primary teachers of this school. District No. 6 have both tendered their resignation. It is reported that the Trustees were struck with amazement on the receipt of the resignation so much that bailiffones even fell around the Post office. Now the rumor mongers are at work wondering what the teachers are going to do. It was first rumored that the Primary teacher was going to visit the Holy Band but such is not the case, as she has concluded to try the Jew nearer home. No doubt she has Zion's Hill or some other Hill in her mind's eye. The intermediate teacher is going down to the Valley of dry bones for to the shed bones are very very dry.

A son of Michael Lynch of Grey Rapids accidentally fell from a fence and broke his arm. The fractured bone was quickly set by Dr. McManus.

The annual meeting of this school. District No. 6 took place here today, Saturday. The accounts for the last year were read by Setty Grindlay and was approved. The assessment for the ensuing year is $1000. Jas. H. Dale was re-elected to the Trustee Board the ratifiers here know a good thing when they see it.

SEVOGLE

Seeing that the other correspondents have apparently withdrawn I thought I would drop in a few lines.

On account of the early season of summer the grass crops are elegant and the farmers' prospects on large farm products this summer.

Mrs. John O'Shaughnessy and Miss Gertie Murphy were the guests of their aunt, Mrs. J. O'Shaughnessy for the past few days.

A gay reception was held in the spacious house of Mr. Joseph Welden on the occasion of the grand party given free of charge of the gaiety of the summer season. The guests arrived early numbering about 60. Dancing began at 8 o'clock and a sumptuous repast was served about midnight. The excellent music was rendered by D. Curtis and Miss Maggie Welden the dancing was kept up till early dawn, and the guests returned to their homes elated, voting the party the best time of the season.

McMillan's Boot and Shoe Store.

CARAQUET.

The fishermen are happy these days. Good catches of both lobsters and cod have been taken ever since the season opened, and further up the shore salmon have been plentiful.

The addition to the wharf will put a lot of money in circulation and the present summer promises to be the best for years.

Speaking about lobsters the writer saw two of the old school. Mr. C. Hubbard recently caught one in a salmon net that weighed eight pounds and was about two feet long. The other was only fourteen inches long but it is larger than the average.

In conversation with J. E. Lunteique, census commissioner for Gloucester, he said that the figures recently published in reference to the population of Gloucester were mere guesses but he admitted that Gloucester would show a large increase, possibly the largest increase in New Brunswick and he also expressed the opinion that Restigouche would be a close second.

The north east gale of Friday drove the fishing fleet to shelter in the harbor. Mr. C. Hubbard was in Miramichi last week.

Miss Mabel Blackhall who has been ill is improving and is able to be out.

SHEILA.

Sheila.—Where is it? That is a question frequently asked as it is only during the past few years that such a place has become known to the outside world. If you look at a map of New Brunswick you will see on the Big Tracadie river, a village of that name.

A few years ago an American company was formed and a large lumber mill was erected and around the mill has grown up a village of no mean proportions. The entire town is built on the banks of the industry consisted five large frame houses being erected and several have just been completed. These buildings, are all owned by inhabitants who are French Canadian and are a credit to the village.

At the mill several new industries have been recently added. One of the best box factories in the country has been in operation for some time and also a planing mill which turns out a large amount of finished lumber for the American market.

The large mill is one of the best in Canada and the logs are cut into boards or deals with a band saw which saws through the largest log with remarkable speed.

A large amount of lumber, principally one inch pine boards and clap boards are cut daily.

Mr. H. B. Foster is the energetic and obliging manager of the Company.

PROTECTIONVILLE.

We are having fine weather for the crops and everything is blooming. Jack Frost made great havoc among the gardens Saturday night.

Mrs. Daniel Jardine of Manchester, N. H., is visiting at her home here.

Miss Eliza McCormick of Newcastle is visiting friends here.

Miss Craig our school teacher is getting along fine. We hope she will not leave us as the last one did.

Mrs. Arthur Petrie is visiting friends up river.

BATHURST.

The marriage of Stewart R. Hinton and Fannie L. Fieze will take place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Betts, Doaktown, this evening. Mr. Hinton is the popular brakeman of the C. R. and Miss Fieze is a highly esteemed school teacher at Doaktown. A reception will be held at Mr. and Mrs. R. Hinton's, Bathurst. The happy couple have the well wishes of the entire community.

Bathurst can boast of an up-to-date telephone service. Recently a company was formed and a central established and a large number of telephones installed. It. Bos is the energetic manager.

OVER THE WIRES.

Prisoner in Court Tries to Murder Judge.

CHATHAM, Ont., 13.—Andrew Epperson, a prisoner who had just been convicted of stabbing a woman and remanded for sentence, made a desperate attempt to murder the judge and county crown attorney in county court this afternoon.

Epperson suddenly leaped from the prisoner's dock, seized a razor and dashed towards the judge.

Constable Cape endeavored to stop Epperson but was brushed aside like a fly. Attorney Douglas then tackled the prisoner and was knocked senseless. Lawyers and spectators finally overpowered Epperson after a desperate struggle.

Two Killed, Four Injured.
LOS ANGELES, CAL., June 13.—A head-on collision on the Santa Fe six miles east of Williams, Ariz., killed two and injured four.

Mr. Dukane—What makes Mr. Northside so proud?

Mr. Gaswell—Oh, he's one of the few people who don't claim to have made a barrel of money by the recent rise in stocks.

Can you afford to allow your boy to grow up in idleness? said a friend

I can't afford to do otherwise, answered Mr. Cumrox. I don't dare to put him into business to lose money.

Mazie has a graceful carriage hasn't she?

Yes; but, better still, her beau has a splendid automobile.

Through a Telescope.

There arrived one day at the Swiss hotel where I was putting up in the month of August a man and his wife named Dunbar. They were French, but both spoke English fairly well. While they were husband and wife, he was 30 years old and she not over 22. The disparity between their ages was remarked by gossips, and it was settled that it had been a marriage for money on the girl's part. They had been married for a year, as some one ascertained, and the little tendernesses of the honeymoon were no longer to be looked for, but before they had been with us three days I made up my mind that the young wife both feared and hated her husband. I saw it in her looks and actions when she was off her guard. On his part he treated her courteously and rather paternally in public, but accident made me a listener one day to a speech of his that told me he had a great bitterness in his heart against her.

I paid little heed to the gossip around me, nor did I take any interest in the family quarrel. It was on the fifth day after the couple arrived that I wandered away by myself along the mountain stream and by any sat down beside a boulder to smoke and gaze at a waterfall on the far side of the creek. I had been there a quarter of an hour when I heard footsteps, and peering out I saw Dunbar approaching. I noticed he was pale faced and his lips were compressed, and he was muttering to himself in French as he sat down on the other side of the stone. We were hidden from each other, but I could hear his lightest whisper. For three or four minutes he was silent. Then he began cursing his wife, and there was an intentness and a ferocity in his language that gave me the keynote of the trouble between them. He suspected her fidelity and thirsted for revenge. If she had married him for money, he had married her for love, and the blow had told on him harder than if he had been a young man. From cursing and reviling he went into a fit of weeping and lamenting, and it was easy to realize his mental sufferings. I was helpless in the matter, of course. It was my part to remain silent and hope he would go away without seeing me. This he eventually did, but from some expressions let fall I knew that he had at last made up his mind to a decisive step.

The rule in France, I believe, is for the dishonored husband to sweep a little, weep a little and then walk away and become as much of a philosopher as he can, but I couldn't make myself satisfied that Dunbar would be satisfied with that. He wanted a deeper revenge than that of the public scandal. I had a seat at the same table with the couple, and that evening at dinner I watched him closely. His conduct would have deceived me had I not overheard his language in the dell. He

The proceeds are to be devoted to the building of a new hall at Redbank, which is something very much required in that village.

Mr. R. N. Wyse's store was crowded last Thursday with eager buyers looking for the special bargains advertised in last week's Advocate. At times it was impossible for the clerks to attend to all promptly but the shoppers were good natured and did not mind the wait. Mr. Wyse has had a fitting answer to his query "Does Advertising Pay?" and has proved beyond a doubt that if properly looked after and placed in the right paper it will bring the business to his store. It is gratifying to the publishers as well as Mr. Wyse to know that his advertisement in last week's Advocate was such a success.

The concert to be held in the Temperance Hall on Thursday evening, we have doubtless will be well worth hearing. The programme consists of solos, duets, choruses, vocalizations. Selections will be rendered by the town orchestra. Miss Lonsbury graduate of music from Acadia college will play some selection on the piano, while the names of Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Sargeant, Mrs. O. Methodist District Meeting

The Chatham District Meeting of the Methodist Church convened at Richibucto on Tuesday afternoon, the 11th inst. The first session was devoted to the examination of ministerial character and efficiency. The usual questions were asked and satisfactorily answered in each instance.

The Rev. George Harrison was continued in a supernumerary relation. A solemn review of the condition of the work of God upon the district was then held during which many valuable suggestions were given and plans laid for the ensuing year.

The full District met on Wednesday morning, consisting of all the ministers on the District and an equal number of laymen. The Rev. D. B. Bayley of Harcourt was elected Journal Secretary, and Rev. A. D. McLeod of Richibucto as assistant. Rev. J. A. Ives of Campbellton was appointed Statistical Secretary.

A general review of church membership, property and finances was next in order, during which it was reported that the property had been improved to the amount of about $1000.00. Although a large number of persons had moved from our circuit, and many deaths have occurred during the year, the total membership has considerably increased.

The work on the various mission stations was reported and showed the work to be in a prosperous condition.

A discussion of financial methods resulted in a general opinion that the system so successfully employed in St. Luke's Church, Chatham, should be adopted throughout the District.

Outside of the Twentieth century Fund, about $12,000 had been collected and delivered for the various church purposes during the year.

It was recommended by the District that the Stationing Committee be asked to appoint a colleague to assist the pastor of St. Luke's Church, Chatham.

The following laymen were elected to attend Conference: S. McLeod, Chatham; R. N. Wyse, Newcastle; William McLean, Seville; R. W. Beers, Richibucto; Albert Coates, Colesville; J. B. Humphrey, Harcourt; Frank Curran, Bathurst; A. Mathews, Campbellton; Dr. W. A. Wilson, Derby.

AN ARTISTIA FASHION MONTHLY. The Delineator has attained a high place in the artists' periodicals and has attained popularity as a family magazine. While it is the queen of fashion journals, presenting the latest styles and notions in dress and ornamentation, it contains stories, articles on society and household topics. The article on the Pan-American Exposition in the July number, shows the highwater mark in the art of printing in three colors. No other magazine in the world will probably be so well able to show the artistic color results obtained in Buffalo, because the Delineator has had the advantage of working directly from the original water-color sketches of C. Y. Turner, Director of Color to the Pan-American Exposition. All the beautiful effects of the originals, necessitating the most exact register of plates, have been obtained, though all the work was done by the Delineator press at high speed. The July edition is $25.00.

Married at Brooklyn

KANE—MORRISSEY.

Mr. C. Archibald Kane and Miss Jeanette Morrissey were married Monday morning at 9 o'clock, nuptial mass at St. Cecilia's Roman Catholic Church by Rev. Father McGolrick. The very impressive ceremony took place before quite an assemblage of relatives and friends of the bride and groom.

Miss Aileen Morrissey, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Alexander McGolrick was groomsmen. The bride was gown in mauve crepe de chene and Renaissance, and carried the usual bride's roses.

After the ceremony at the church a wedding breakfast was served under direction of Mrs. Kane at the home of the bride's mother, 117 Noble Street. The bridal couple left on Monday morning for a trip South, stopping on the way at Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Kane will reside at the corner of Hancock street and Lewis avenue where, they return to Brooklyn.

Both bride and groom are well known to Greenpoint people. Mr. Kane is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Kane of 102 Million street, and the new Mrs. Kane is a daughter of the late Dr. Morrissey of 118 Noble street, formerly police surgeon.

Aside from a shower of good wishes, the pair begin life as one surrounded with substantial tokens of esteem in the way of wedding gifts in abundance.—Brooklyn Eagle.
