From Ballou's Pictorial, ANGELS ARE HERE TO TO-NIGHT MOTHER BY H. RICH. There's a harp in the dusky room, mother The croud go hurrying by; They will gather, and greet, and When Lettic shall shrouded lie

O, bear to my Willie my love mother, With the news of this hour to him; Say, his parting look is a treasure now As the light of life grows dim. That I'll come with my olden smile, On the night we were to wed; And my spirit will linger near-to him, His bride, with the vows unsaid.

Ab, what through my bosom ne'er thrill, mother. With the tremor of earthly bliss ? And what though my lips may not feel again The clinging of passion's kiss ? I will shine on his lonely way, mother, A star on the fretted sea; And his heart will thrill with a sudden joy. And know that it's nearer me.

See! there are angels here to-night, mother, Now they kneel in the quiet room: And the harp is swept by a nerveless hand, But I cannot see by whom. With the chant of the spirit-throng, mother, I am borne on lifted wings,-It is ever a harp and an angel, That faith to the dying brings.

Mr. Brown moved for certain papers Mr. Brown said that was all very well connected with the Penitenti'ry Com if they were to have any dividing line at mission which were promised. Mr. Robinson called the attention Mr. Robinson catter the attention of the House to a petition complaining of the management of the Northern Bailway, and praying for the appointment of a Commission to enquire thereinto. Mr. McDonald said the Company had that line. AFFIDAVIT COMMISSIONERS. Hon, Mr. Drummond introduced a bill to authorize the Judges of the Superior Court for Lower Canada to appoint comtaken steps to meet the wishes of the missioners for taking affidavits in Upper Committee. The Government had not Canada. The bill was read a first time the power to grant a Commission. and ordered to be read a second time on Mr. McKenzie complained of the mismanagement on the Northern Rail-TAVERN LICENCES. Hon. Mr. Drummond introduced a bill a mend the 18th Vict. cap. 159. The Friday next. way. Several Bills were read a third time and the House adjourned. to amend the 18th Vict. cap. 159. The hon. gentleman explained that the object of this bill was to repeal a certain section WEDNESDAY, April 30, 1856. In the House last night, Several petitions were received and laid of the law-which had been passed evidently against the intentions of the Legislature-which provided that the upon the table. Mr. Holton moved a resolution conden the Government for giving private instructions to the time when the tariff was to be brought in operation, to certain members in montreal. Mr Drummond objected to the motion on the ground that no notice had been given of the mo money should be so appropriated it was proposed to repeal this law. Mr.Cayley moved the reception of the report of the committee of the whole on the AUDITING THE PUBLIC ACCOUNTS Mr. Young moved in amendment, as resolution materally altering and systematizing the duties; and declaring the expediency of arran ging then upon the population basis, Mr. Cayley defended his tariff, as that best calculated to do justice to all parties. Hon. Mr. Cayley introduced a Bill to amend the statute 18 Vic, cap. 78, being an Act to secure the more efficient auditing of the Public Accounts. Bill read a time on Friday next. Mr. Turcotte spoke in French against the tariff of the Government, and in favor of ad EXCISE DUTY ON WHISKEY. EXCISE DUTY ON WHISKEY. On motion of the Hon. Mr. Cayley, the House received and adopted the report of the Committee of the whole on the additional Ex-cise duty on Whiskey. The hon. Mr. Cay-ley introduced a Bill founded on the resolu-tions, which was read a first time and ordered alorem duties. Mr. Cartier replied at great length, asserting that however correct the system ad valorem duties might be in theory, they were found defective in practice. Mr. Dorion urged the injustice of the tariff of the government. Mr. Young condemned the sectional view which was taken by a great many hon. gen-tlemen, of the works and interests of the two to be read a second time on Friday next.
