NEARING THE END.

Last Act in the Tariff Revision Farce at Ottawa.

Still More Changes-100 Per Cent Tax on Rice-Going in the Dark.

OTTAWA, May 29:- In the House to-day Sir John Thompson introduced a bill to extend the time in certain constituencies between nomination day and election day. The bill was read the first time.

A Government bill respecting interest which applies only to British Columbia was read the first time.

Sir John Thompson promised to tell the House to-morrow how he proposed to amend the Franchise Act. Mr. Foster moved the House into committee of ways and means, and announced that they would go over the tariff as amended in committee of ways and means and reprinted. Immediately there arose a cry from all parts of the House that the reprinted tariff had not been distributed. Different members sent for copies, and the pages brought a pamphlet entitled "Corrected Tariff." This, Mr. Foster explained, was not the thing, and then commenced a fusilade of questions, comments and sarcastic remarks from the Opposition, who wanted to know why the various editions of the tariff were not stamped first, second, third and fourth edition. Was this the revised tariff or the re-revised tariff? Would the Minister know the re-revised tariff if he saw it? and so on. Finally, after the committee had waited a time, it was decided to go on with the "corrected M. Dupuy, Premier, Minister of Interior, the Minister of Finance held the "corrected

A number of changes were made. The duty on cocoa was changed from 25 per cent to 20 per cent; straw board from 40 cents per 100 pounds to 30 cents. The "medicated" was struck out of the cod liver oil item. Silvered glass was made 271 per cent instead of 30 per cent. A change was announced in the resolutions respecting school slates and roofing slates, but no one was able to ascertain what it | nople. If M. Cambon refuses, the position was-not even the chairman, who made a change as to slate pencils, only to be told by Mr. Foster that there was no change in partment of the Foreign Office. slate pencils.

Finally Mr. McMullen protested indignantly against going on in the dark, and some wag sold we have always gone it blind on the tariff. Some copies of the last edition now arrived in the chamber and were distributed, but the press were without it until after recess.

A diversion was caused by Messrs. Taylor, Maclean and McKay-all Government supporters-protesting against the duty on iron nuts, but the item passed as it

Mr. Foster was asked a question as to the tariff which he could not answer, and someone asked where was the Controller of Customs, and a brief discussion took place, in which Sir Richard Cartwright said that Mr. Clarke Wallace should be here to attend to his duties, for which he received $5,000 a year. Mr. Wallace, it was well known, was at Lindsay attending the Orange Grand Lodge.

Sir Richard Cartwright asked Sir John Thompson if he had given the Controller permission to leave. The Premier glowered at this quizzical question and remained silent, while the House laughed. On the item of 5 cents a pound and 20 per cent on woolen yarns Sir Richard Cartwright protested against the excessive duty as burdensome to the makers of carpets The item passed. After a score or more of minor changes

BERLIN, May 29 .- A trial at the Weiden assizes, Bavaria, on Wednesday last revealed the existence of a horrible superstition among the ignorant classes of the district. Joseph Sier had been told by a woman who had the reputation of a witch that the eye torn from the dead body of a child on Good Friday at midnight would enable him to make himself invisible at will. Sier went to the Heumaden Cemetery at midnight and worked like mad opening graves until he found the body of a little girl which had been buried only two days. He carried it in the coffin to a meadow, took out the left eye, and then threw body and coffin into a brock. The discovery of the infant caused intense excitement throughout the district. Sier was not suspected of the crime until a woman, in overhauling his house, found a child's shroud and pillow. Sier was sentenced to Bad for Emin's Reputation. London, May 29 .- The developments in the Emin Pasha will case threaten to blacken the great explorer's reputation. The Constantinople correspondence of several newspapers has told this story in the last week.

Emilie Leidschaft, the widow whom Emin made his first wife, was deserted by him in Constantinople in 1876. He took with him at that time all her money and jewelry, which represented a considerable fortune inherited from her first husband He had previously sold the house and land in Constantinopie which her first husband left her, and had appropriated the proceeds to his own use. He went to Africa and became famous as Emin Pasha, but years town, breaking into butcher shops and passed before his first wife discovered that Emin was identical with the Edward for arms. Watching for Pleuro-Pneumonia. London, May 29 .- A committee of veterinary experts are carefully inspecting the lungs of the animals landed at Liverpool by the Dominion Line steamship Toronto. A beast was suspected by British veterinaries of being affected with the disease that caused the obnoxious embargo against Canadian cattle - pleuro-pneumonia. The fact that the Board of Agriculture called in outside experts, some of whom were nominated by the Canadian Government, is looked upon as a distinct gain for Canada. The animal now being examined, it is believed, came from Whitby, Ont. In the case of the animal by the steamship Perona, which was detained at Deptford, the Board of Agriculture declared that the lungs were not affected with pleuro-pneumonia.

In the House of Commons to-day Dr. Farquharson asked Mr. Herbert Gardner, president of the Board of Agriculture, if the Government would adopt the sugges. meeting on May 21 was rescinded, and a tion of Prof. Adams, of Montreal, to cause careful bacteriological observations to be made in suspicious cases of lung trouble. which might be detected in cattle imported from Canada. Mr. Gardner said that so far observations of these cases had not yielded any valuable results, as no specific germ had been identified with pleuropneumonia.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 29 .- There has been great destruction of property in British Columbia along the Fraser River and its numerous tributaries. On the flood, which covers many thousands of acres of rich land, float the debris of homes, costly fourteen months' imprisonment with hard dikes and bridges. Loss of life is reported. The flooded region embraces 50 miles along the banks of the Fraser from New Westminster. All the crops are in ruins, and it is reported that the great Canadian Pacific railroad bridge at Revelstoke and another the miners of Pennsylvania on that basis. at Mission City are gone.

THE RAILWAY MEN'S CONVENTION. NEW YORK, May 29 .- The railway men's convention to-day practically completed their platform. The convention voted in favor of a compulsory advisory law and in favor of electing railway commissioners by a direct vote of the people in the various States. The recent decisions of several federal judges on questions of rights and liberties of wage earners and the railroads are denounced as unjust, unconstitutional some further details of the revolutionary and un-American. The different railway associations are asked to unite on legislative lines to ask for National and State laws for redress of grievances. The convention also extends encouragement and indorsement to the United Mine Workers in their struggle for fair wages and decent conditions of life.

TYPOS STRIKE. DETROIT, May 29.—The Michigan Volks-blatt, a local German daily, went to press three hours late last night, and had but one column of local news and no telegraph, the rest of the paper being plate matter. The trouble was caused by the strike of the ten SIOCK OF compositors. A difficulty arose on the adjustment of the machine scale, machines having been set up in the office. At a meeting held by the mon last night a resolution was passed to have all union members work on behalf of the strikers among the patrons of the paper. There is some talk among them of running a paper of their own. The German Typographia met at Columbia Hall the same evening and indorsed the action UNILEMAN of the men who struck.

A REIGN OF TERROR. DENVER, Col., May 29 - All is ominously quiet at Cripple Creek to-day. The night was one of intense excitement. Bands of mounted miners rode through the groceries to get provisions and searching secreting their valuables, expecting that moment. It is a complete reign of terror. zed to prevent destruction of property in town.

A LONG STRIKE EXPECTED. LEAVENWORTH, Kan., May 29.—The 400 miners employed at the Homans, Kansas and Texas shafts quit work to-day, and a long strike seems inevitable.

LIVERPOOL COAL HEAVERS STRIKE. LIVERPOOL, May 29.—The Liverpool coal heavers have struck against the Cunard lines employing non-union men. The strike will in all probability extend to other steamship companies. The employers' association having threatened to import laborers, the docker's union responds with the threat of a general strike. TIRED OF WAITING.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 29 .- The coal operators of the Pittsburg district will not wait longer than the end of this week for a settlement of some kind with the miners. If there is no agreement by that time a start to work will be made at some of the mines, probably in the Panhandle district. THE COAL CONFERENCE.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 29.—The first decisive action was taken at a general meeting of the operators. The action of the committee of ten was appointed for the entire district. There was a withdrawal of the agreement not to pay more than 65 cents per ton in order to allow the new committee the fullest liberty. The operators are anxious to resume work at an early day. There will be no meeting until the result of the conference in Illinois is known. If that is satisfactory to the miners' officials or to another national convention the settlement will be simply a matter of form. A CONCESSION. HARRISBURG, Pa., May 29 - To-night J. L. Mitchell, of Tyrone, Edward J. Berwynd, of New York, and J. Scott, of Philadelphia, all large coal operators, called on Governor Pattison and had a consultation that lasted almost until midnight. At the close the Governor made public to newspaper men a telegram that he had written to Jas. White, one of the strike leaders in Clearfield region, and which he said embodied the result of the conference. It is as follows:

"After a conference with the operators of Central Pennsylvania, I find they are willing and offer to pay the highest wages paid in competitive districts in the United States, and to conduct their business with "ROBT. E. PATTISON."

The Governor considers this a concession because it really is all the operators can pay and compete with those in the same business who ship to the same points. He said the operators were in a friendly mood and very anxious to have a settlement. Should the miners agree to the proposition the strike will be broken.

At the Big W. C. T. U. Gathering Here-List of the Special Features. (Communicated.)

All the day meetings in the Congregational Church-morning sessions opening at 9:30, and afternoon at 2 o'clock. Everybody welcome.

The convention will open Friday morn-5, to be followed by a "Y" conference, in the "Y" room, Nitschke Block, Dundas street.

The Dominion president, Mrs. Williams, of Montreal, will give her annual address received from a number of societies and will be responded to by members of convention. Special music.

On Saturday afternoon in the Congregational Church at 4:30 o'clock the children's meeting will be held. Addresses, recita-

Saturday evening in Dundas Street Methodist Church will be the only night taken up by Canadian women speakers. The several provincial organizations will be represented by their presidents or some other official member. Should Mrs. Barker, treasurer of the National American W. C. T. U., be here as a fraternal delegate, she, too, will be heard from on this evening. Sunday afternoon Mrs. J. F. Barney, of Rhode Island, who is the superintendent of prison, jail and reformatory work in the World's W. C. T. U., will deliver an address in Victoria Hall at 4:15. Miss Willard says: "No woman in the State (Rhode Island) wields an influence equal to

'Trom Jerusalem to Jericho." On Monday morning, after the election of officers, Mrs. Barney gives a Bible reading. Her Bible readings have been the means of leading multitudes into a closer walk with God. They are full of soul food. Monday afternoon will be devoted to a school of methods. The following subjects are to be taken up: "Finance," "Nar-cctics," and "Parlor Meetings," each followed by discussion. There will also be a symposium on "How to make society meetings interesting," a parliamentary hers." Mrs. Barney's subject will be drill by the Dominion president and a question box. Monday evening is sure to prove veritable treat. In Queen's Avenue Church Mrs. Barney will deliver her lecture ertitled "Clean Hands." We take the following quotation from a critique upon Mrs. Barney in the Union Signal. "As a lecturer Mrs. Barney is very popular. She speaks without notes, is fluent, pathetic, satirical and often overwhelming in her denunciation of the liquor traffic. Her rare fund of incidents, her deep pathos, interspersed with flashes of wit, never fail to captivate her audiences, and to keep them alternating between smiles and tears. In the pulpit she is welcomed by all denominations." Silver collection at the Tuesday night-For the closing meeting in the First Presbyterian Church we shall have one widely known, but never before heard in Londen-Major Geo. Hilton, of New Jersey, the celebrated evangelist. He has just closed a series of meetings in Galt, and the newspapers of that town say that no such services were ever before held tudes who desired to attend. Over 500 souls professed conversion. Major Hilton is Moody's friend, and is said to be much like him in manuer and methods.

At the day meetings the reports of the Dominion superintendents of over twenty departments of work will be read and followed by interesting discussions.

Music and recitations will be interspersed. Several Bible readings will be given. One of these will by Mrs. Tilton, of Ottawa, and another by Miss Dougal, of Montreal, for years a member of the editorial staff of the Montreal Witness, and president of Hoche-laga county W. C. T. U. The choirs of the several churches in which the evening meetings are to be held are preparing special music. There will be silver collections at all the night meetings. Wednesday (June 6) morning and afternoon the "Y" conference will be held in the "Y" rooms, Nitschke block, Dundas street. Further particulars will be given

EAST MIDDLESEX.

Successful Meeting at Belmont in the Interests of the Reform Candidate.

A meeting of the friends of Robt. W. Jackson and those favorable to the Mowat ing, June 1, and close Tuesday night, June | Administration was held in the Masonic Hall, Belmont, last night. The chair was taken by Mr. William Cousins. The hall was well filled.

The first shot of the campaign was fired by that veteran Reformer, Mr. James on Friday evening, in the St. Andrew's Anderson, of Westminster, in a neat speech Presbyterian Church. Greetings will be in which he eulogized the Mowat Government.

Mr. J. H. Elliott, president of the East Middlesex Reform Association, delivered a short address, dealing principally with the reasons why Patrons should support the Mowat Administration.

The Reform candidate, Mr. R. W. Jackson, then addressed the meeting very acceptably. He pointed out the reasons why he had taken up the standard of Reform in the riding. He believed that no valid reason existed why East Middlesex should not be represented by a Reformer. There was no reason why the farmers should not support the Mowat Administration, which had done so much for the farming community, and the platform of the Patrons was in nearly every particular similar to the platform of the Reform party. After grapes and small fruit. All growing crops dealing with other issues, he concluded by asking for their support on June 26.

esking what position the Patron candidate would occupy, and predicted that Patron candidates would be found on either the Reform or the Conservative side as their own inclinations lead them. Mr. J. H. Hegler, of Ingersoll, next spoke, and in the course of a vigorous address dealt with several of the issues of the local campaign. The meeting was brought to a close by Mr. T. H. Purdom, who supported Mr. Jackson's candidature as strongly as he could. He contrasted the contest in the last election between the old parties and the new elements which were now being introduced, and claimed for Mr. Jackson, upon the issues raised, the support of every Reformer in Middlesex, and showed that no reason existed why anyone should withdraw his confidence from the Mowat Administration. The meeting concluded with three cheers for the Queen, Sir Oliver Mowat and the Reform candidate, Mr. R. W. Jackson.

A MASONIC LECTURE.

Brother Bennett, of Toronto, Entertains the Local Craft-a Pleasant Occasion. R. W. Bro. Geo. J. Bennett, P.D.D.G. M., of Toronto, delivered his entertaining lecture on the "Two Saints John and Their Relation to Freemasonry" before a goodly number of the craft in the blue room of the Masonic Temple last night. They were there by invitation of the Past Masters' Association. R. W. Bro, Porte presided. The paper was a thorough and able one and was heard with pleasure and profit. R. W. Bro. Geo. C. Davis, P.G.J.W., in moving a hearty vote of there. The crowds were such that two of thanks to the visitor, said the craft in new process is evidenced by the fact that the largest churches had to be both kept London were much indebted to him for notwithstanding the machines referred to Masters' Association, and he trusted that since their arrival some weeks since and are at no distant date he would again favor them with another paper on a kindred subject. R. W. Bro. Broderick, D.D.G.M., seconded the motion, which was carried by a standing vote. Bro. Bennett replied gratefully. The occasion to him was a memorable one, inasmuch as 25 years ago (the 29th of May) he had first seen light in Masonry. He hoped that the Past Masters' Association would continue in the good work they had under-

R. W. Bro. Hungerford then moved, seconded by Bro. J. B. Hicks, a cordial vote of thanks to the Past Masters' Association for the treat afforded the London Masons on the occasion. Bro. Hungerford hoped that this inaugural would be oft-repeated. This resolution was also unanimously carried. The benediction was pronounced by Chaplain Hicks, of St. John's Lodge, No. 20 and the gathering dispersed. Subsequently the executive committee of the association and invited guests entertained Bro. Bennett, V. W. Bro. Walker, Bro. J. W. Hickson and the Hub Restaurant, where a pleasant time was spent.

ANOTHER FAMILY COMPACT. (Moncton, N. B., Transcript.) The members of the Tupper family have drawn $165,000 from the public treasury within five years, and this does not include the expenses of the High Commissioner's establishment in London; nor indeed does it include the retinue of nephews and cousins who are also fastened on the public treasury. Talk about abolishing the days of the family compact !

ONTARIO'S GRAND OLD MAN. [From the Foronto Star.] Sir Oliver Mowat spoke in London last night for an hour and more, and his address was a strong and powerful one. He defended the Government's action in connection with the prohibition question, the maintenance of Government House and the separate school legislation, and denounced the attacks of the Opposition. Sir Oliver Mowat will be 74 years old on July 22. His effort at such an age is certainly to be admired. People are in the habit of looking to Great Britain for examples of men grown old in political warfare and revered for their age.

We have in Ontario such a Grand Old Man if we would recognize it; a statesman with an intellect ripened and matured by experience and with an energy which years of political battle have not made inactive. To, at 74 years, address in the most forcible manner an electorate and defend a ong-lived administration, is a remarkable achievement. Let party men forget their partisanship for a moment and remember that Ontario has a Premier to be admired and revered.

Prospects were excellent throughout all the rigion for one of the largest crops of small fruit ever harvested in the fruit belt, and the work of the frost will be a loss of thousands of dollars.

A NEW MACHINE

And What It Is Doing in a Leading City Manufacturing Establishment. Viewed simply from a mechanical standpoint, the Holmes Chocolate Coating and Cooling Machine is an intricate and beautifully made piece of mechanism, which appears almost gifted with human intelligence. Such were the reflections of an ADVERTISER reporter yesterday after seeing the Holmes Machine in operation in the well-known establishment of D. S. Perrin & Co. This firm has long enjoyed a most enviable reputation for enterprise in the adoption of all that pertains to the newest and best machinery, and in consequence they are to-day one of the bestknown firms in their business. The latest addition to their large and expensive plant consists of two of the Holmes Chocolate Coating and Cooling Machines, which are the only ones in use in the Dominion, and in addition to the purchase of which they have recently secured, at large expense, the exclusive right to use these machines in the Province of Ontario. The principle of the machine consists of a chocolate bath into which the confections are dipped, and on their passage through the machine are dried by a cold air blast. accepting the invitation of the Past have been operated to their fullest capacity turning out immense quantities of goods, the demand has been so great that there has been no opportunity for the firm to accumulate a stock ahead. In order to distinguish these goods from the ordinary hand-made goods it has been decided to call them "Sterling Chocolates." We are always pleased to note the enterprise of any Western Ontario firm, but especially so of a London manufacturer, and we feel certain our readers will agree with us in saying that the enterprise that D. S. Perrin & Co. have shown is most commendable, and they deserve, as they undoubtedly will secure, within a very brief period, the largest trade in chocolate confections in the Dominion. THE GOVERNMENT CAMPAIGN.

(Hamilton Herald, N. P. Organ.) Sir Oliver Mowat made out a good case for the Government in London last night. His reception was enthusiastic, and the campaign began under favorable auspices. Sir Oliver is not a brilliant speaker, but he is always instructive and interesting and others, of Toronto, to an oyster supper in knows as well as any man in public life today how to bring out the strong points in his favor and avoid the thin ice. It is a comparatively easy task to defend the Mowat Administration and a rather difficult one to attack it on its merits. Its sins have been few, when all is said and done, and its virtues many. In a number of respects it has a record that is unique amoug governments. So well has it withstood the assaults of the Opposition critics that after all these years no charge of corruption and dishonesty can be sustained against it. In an age of corrupt and dishonest governments this is certainly something to be proud of.

"A kind of old hobgoblin hall Now somewhat fallen to decay.' An ancient inn is thus described, but the description exactly fits the condition of the body when fallen to decay on account of a torpid liver which corrupts the blood, all the horrors of dyspepsia and finally consumption following.

The brain becomes the dwelling-place of obgoblins, and despondency, gloom and misery hold possession of the patient. Fortunately for this class of sufferers perfect relief is found in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which restores the liver to activity, and pure rich blood drives disease from lung and brain. The incipient consumption, scrofulous sores, cough, hectic fever and debility disappear.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is absolutely unequaled as a blood purifier and strengthening medicine. It's the ideal spring medicine. Try it. The first British translation of the Bibl

SURGEONS' KNIVES

Failed to Remove the Disease from Hezekiah Vaughan's System—Dodd's Kidney Pills, Which Have Never Yet Failed, Cured Him in Short Order.

SANDWICH, May 28 .- Hezekiah Vaughan, of the township of Gosfield, has lately gone through a severe surgical operation at Harper's Hospital, Detroit, for what different doctors diagnosed as liver complaint. Four surgeons cut away at him for 41 hours, but when they got through none of them could tell what was wrong, and the patient was left as bad as ever. The benefits derived by a neighbor from the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills induced Mr. Vaughan to try them. From the first he began to improve. His bowels soon became regular and the pains that afflicted him disappeared. Six boxes restored to his former vigor a man who had abandoned all hope of regaining sound health.

George Offord, Windsor, has secured a writ against G. Bresse & Co., of Quebec, for $300 salary and $1,000 damages for alleged unlawful dismissal.

Two children, aged about 7 years, sons of Lawyer Ceary and John McCray, respectively, of Windsor, were counting a quantity of small change in silver on the Canadian Pacific Railroad bridge Monday night. White Mr. Siple, of Yarmouth, was crossing Fingal bridge on a bicycle Monday night, the bicycle and he fell off, a distance of fifteen or sixteen feet. Mr. Siple was severely bruised and was unconscious when picked up by County Constable W. Metcalf. The bicycle was badly wrecked.

The other evening the bedroom of G. H. Hertel at the Columbia House, St. Thomas, was entered and his wife's gold watch, two gold rings and a brecelet belonging to his gold rings and a bracelet belonging to his child taken. Mr. Hertel saw a description of part of the stolen goods in a Port Huron dispatch Tuesday and will probably recover them.

HURON.

Huron Expositor: A rather romantic meeting between two brothers took place here the other day. Mr. H. J. Punchard, of this town, and Mr. Charles Punchard, of Toronto, have not seen each other for 28 years. Both have been residing in Canada for nearly fifteen years, yet neither knew where the other was, and it was but a short time ago that Mr. Charles Punchard learned through a letter from the old country that his brother was in Seaforth. He is a traveler for Messrs. Carswell & Co., of Toronto, selling law books, and has been all over America and the West India Islands. He left here to go to Nova Scotia. It is needless to say both enjoyed the meeting and spent a happy day talking over old times.

KENT. The Moraviantown Indian, Elias Tobias, charged with stealing a team of horses from a Dresden colored man named Joseph Lucas, has been committed to jail to await trial. Tobias is an educated red man, a school teacher and a professor of religion. He used to keep company with the daughter of Lucas, a handsome girl, and the intimacy gave him access to the old man's stable.

The Dresden Police Court was the scene of a wedding on Saturday. The parties were Sara Jane Christour, a young woman convicted of keeping an improper house, and a frequenter named John Trayeler. A conviction was entered against both, who, to settle the case and satisfy the objections raised by the neighbors as to their relations,

Mr. Fordham, J. P., of 'Chatham, committed to jail on a charge of bigamy a young mill hand named G. W. Dickson, aged 23, son of a respectable farmer of Chatham township. The aggrieved wife who prefers the charge is a pretty girl of 19, the daughter of Mr. H. Browne, a prosperous farmer. She swore that she was married to Dickson in Chatham on Jan. 4, 1893, and that a few months later the husband left for the LAMBION.

An esteemed Alvinston correspondent sends an interesting sketch of the career of the late Prof. Galbraith, who died suddenly there on May 20, but as it is written on both sides of the paper it cannot be reproduced. The professor, who has entertained the public of America, was born in Knapdalo, Scotland, and received an excellent education. He came to Canada in 1842 and taught come a public exponent of the art. He toured Europe, Jamaica, Cuba and other foreign lands, and on returning to Canada settled in Glencoe, where his early lectures were delivered. About twelve years ago he joined the Church of the Disciples of Christ. Strong drink had been his great stumbling-block in a path that would have led to wealth and honor. He was a man of great talent, attractive personality and wonderful fluency. A few nights before his death he admitted that of all subjects presented to the human mind the Gospel was transcendently of most value. His funeral on May 22 was attended by many friends and acquaintances, among them Reeve Leitch, of Giencoe. The correspondent adds: "We think it would be quite proper for his friends and countrymen, who have always held him so high in their estimation as a man of talent and learning, to place some kind of a monument or tombstone to retain his memory and mark the place of his demise. Any person wanting information on this matter may get it by writing to P. A. McDermid, Alvinston."

The wounds are about an inch deep, and are quite ugly and dangerous. The wounded man with difficulty pulled the shears from his body and walked fifteen rods to the house before he fell exhausted. Drs. Robertson and Carson dressed the wounds, and the attendant physician, Dr. Robertson, thinks the sufferer may possibly recover. What proved to be a very successful entertainment was given by the members of the Young People's Literary Society in con-nection with O.iver's Methodist Church, Crumlin, on Thursday evening, May 24. Vice-President W. B. Creighton, B.A., B. D., gold medalist at the late examination at Toronto University, took the chair. The programme consisted of readings, recitations, quartets, solos by Mrs. John Creighton, Misses Annie Lea and Phœbe Creighton; bass solo, E. Lea; Mr. Edgar Quance rendered two piano solos with pleasing effect. Mr. Quance is a young musician of great promise. Speeches were given by the president, Mr. Edgar Lea, Dr. James Creighton and the resident ministers.

PRE-ELECTION BOASTING OF A CONTEMPORARY, PAST

AND PRESENT. The London Free Press is already driven to the expedient of boasting of the great things which its candidate, the Toronto city solicitor, will accomplish on election day. Is not this kind of picturesque writing somewhat premature, when the falsification of Free Press prophecies in the past is taken into account? In the campaign of 1890 the Free Press had the opponents of Sir Oliver Mowat triumphant all along the line up till election eve. Indeed, so confident was it of its prophecies-just as it was in 1879, 1883 and 1886-that it induced Mr. Meredith and his friends to assemble in the rooms opposite its office and arrange for a great service of rejoicing on election eve. The rejoicing began, it lasted just fifteen minutes, when the election returns proved the Free Press to be a veritable False Prophet of the Desert, and its friends went home inwardly denouncing those who had so stupidly misled them. There was boasting by our contemporary in regard to the city Dominion general and bye elections. We all know where the victory went on those occasions, and remained, too, till the judge-editor of our contemporary counted the bogus votes by which Mr. Hyman's seat was stolen. That expedient cannot be worked twice. We tell our friends that there is every indication that Sir Oliver Mowat will continue to govern this Province. When so strong Conservatives as Principal Grant, of Queen's College, Kingston, and thousands of others throughout the Province openly espouse Sir Oliver's cause, the Grand Old Man has his position, already strong, vastly improved in the eyes of reflecting people. And as for the representation of London, it will be confided to the man who has stood by her, who is helping to build up her interests, who is an employer of labor. To return a man who is the paid servant of a rival city, who has deserted London, who is building up Toronto, and must continue to do so, would be to work against our own interests as citizens of this the capital of Western Ontario. Londoners have in the past injured themselves to assist the fortunes of politicians, but they will not continue to do so. Mr. Meredith, the paid servant of Toronto, can easily get a seat where he has cast his lot. Why should not London have a member of her own who is not tied up to make the interests of his new client, the corporation of Toronto, his first care?

We have before us the campaign book of the Opposition in the Legislature. From cover to cover there is not one reference as to its policy with regard to agriculture. Why this ominous omission?

Because the assertion of the Toronto organ is not well founded, and because no legitimate charge of shortcoming in connection with the promotion of the great staple industry of the country can be brought against Sir Oliver Mowat and his colleagues. Moreover, we have Mr. Meredith and his followers in the House voting for a motion opposing the appointment of a practical agriculturist to the position of Minister of Agriculture in the Province, and indorsing the view that the oversight and promotion of the great agricultural interest empany. ## Reveries of a Radical.

4. Political Parties-the Patrons and the P. P. A.

In my last reverie I touched on the tendency to form new parties which has been for some time exhibited in European States, and more recently in Great Britain and the United States. I pointed out the element of danger in this tendency, in that it threatens to make government unstable. This must be the case in a very special manner in countries having responsible government, where the life of the executive depends on its possessing the confidence of a majority of the people's repre-

We saw the other day that the French Cabinet was upset by one of those combinations which are so easily formed out of the diverse parties in the French Chamber; and governments rise and fall so suddenly there that it is no light task to take account of them. It is a condition o things to be dreaded in every civilized country, for it is hardly possible that there can be honest government where parties may win the prizes of office and power by deals and terms into which any consideration but the public weal may enter.

For that reason I deplore the attitude taken by the Patrons of Industry in this campaign. There is no class of the people in Ontario who have more at stake than the farmers, who are the great property class of the country, as well as the great producing class.

Let it be seen that the Legislature of the Province contains one or more parties which hold the balance of power, and what have we to expect? Either the party in office must make concessions, they must enter on a career of bargain-making, of the buying and selling of interests, with one of the minority factions which hold the balance of power, or the several factions will make bargains with each other and the Government will be forced to resign.

This state of things will become the inevitable result, and it will go on indefinitely, plot and counterplot, purchase and sale, and the wisest of politicians not able to tell what a day may bring forth.

What, I ask, will be the fortune of the great property class of the country, with the factions in the Legislature thus playing battledore and shuttlecock with the Government? How long will property be safe? How long will honest government be pos-

It is seen how combinations formed at Otte wa out of many curious and incongruous elements from the various Provinces have sustained a group of men in office of a character to suggest to some of our brightest and most independent men comparison with the Government of the Forty

What citizen of Ontario desires to see this rich, prosperous and hitherto wellgoverned Province reduced to the same kind of control? And what farmer with an intellect capable of discerning the situation, or a heart which pulsates with the sense of gratitude, can forget how much his class and every class owe to the prudent and enterprising policy pursued by the Government of Sir Oliver Mowat during the last 22 years.

We believe in government by the majority; but if the constituencies put three or more candidates of opposing parties or factions into the field, it is possible that we may have government by the minority instead. This has suggested to some students of politics that the remedy is to be found in a second ballot. That is to say, where no one receives a majority of the votes cast a second election should be rural public school teachers at Agricultural held between the two candidates receiving the largest number of votes. But this system has been tried in France and Germany, and their legislatures are never sure of a majority for any party. Besides, the cost and worry of second ballots, and the complications and bargains which are sure to arise, are objections of too serious a character to be contemplated without

The situation, indeed, ought to be serious to justify the organization of a new political party. I feel sure that it has not arisen in Ontario in so far as the farmers are concerned, for the only issue between the Patrons and the Government-the method of appointing and paying sheriffs, registrars and a few other officers--cannot on any pretense be dignified into a political

And as for that recent importation from Ohio and Michigan, the secret and organized conspiracy known as the P. P. A,, what has it to present as the basis of a political issue here?

Its mission, we are told, is to oppose a solid Catholic vote with a solid Protestant

Is there a solid Catholic vote in Ontario, and if so what have we to fear from it? We are 83 Protestants to 17 Catholics, and if we must fight for our lives and liberties, 83 are surely a match for 17.

But if there is a solid vote, who is responsible for it? Roman Catholics themselves declare that there is no such thing, and in one of his speeches in the Legislature last session Mr. Meredith declared very positively that he was going to take a large and respectable vote from that contingent of the electorate at the next elections. He has at least two followers of the Roman Catholic faith in the House, and if he has fewer followers in the country than he could boast of ten or twelve years ago, it is no doubt because they have been driven away from him by his friends. The attacks which he has tolerated on the part of some supporters, and which he has in some measure countenanced, have had the result of alienating some old friends, I do not doubt. It would be surprising indeed if it was not so. I remember the time quite well, however, when there was a solid Catholic vote and a solid Orange vote in the country, and when they walked arm in arm to the polls this result, no matter how we may well.-[Rev. CYCLING TO CHURCH. Buffalo Express: One church in this city provides especial accommodation for bicyclers, and the clergymen in many other cities are taking official recognition of the wheel. Rev. John L. Scudder, of the Jersey City Tabernacle, even preached a sermon on the subject last Sunday, and it was a somewhat extraordinary sermon. "The bicycle," he said, "is a thoroughly Christian machine, for it improves the temper, discourages dissipation, makes a man look on the bright side of things and puts vivacity into his religion." And he went on to remark that "in spite of pulpit philippics, the number of Sunday wheelmen is steadily increasing. The country swarms with them on the Sabbath Day. Surely riding a bicycle to church is not a sin. It is a saintly procedure compared with riding on horse cars, trolleys and elevated trains, for all these forms of travel necessitate the labor of drivers, conductors and brakemen, and prevent their attending divine service. I am happy to announce that in this Tabernacle arrangements have been made to check the wheels of all those who make the bicycle a church-going machine. While cordially invite those who use wheels on dition, and as the list of entries is large Sunday to ride this way and enjoy the service of this sanctuary. In this age of Sunday newspapers, Sunday bicycles and Sunday concerts, the church will have to brighten up and keep abreast of the times, or soon the pews will be empty. This age has no use for platitudinarians in the pulpit. Sunday competition is here, whether we like it or not, and we must meet it."

In Harris, Zimmerman will find a foeman worthy of his steel if his records against time are any criterion. Here are some of them: Quarter, 0:27 1-5; half, 1:01 3-5; mile, 2:04 1.5; two miles, 4:20. Frank F. Radway, London's fast rider, started for Buffalo vesterday morning in company with Mr. J. D. McKenzie, of Carroll, McKenzie & Co., for the purpose of taking part in the 25-mile Martin handicap road race. The Buffalonians are evidently scared of our man as they have placed him on scratch with Van Wagoner, Linneman and some others of America's fastest riders. It is certain that Radway will render a good account of himself. He can scarcely be expected to win with such odds against him. The race takes place to-day, and there are 156 starters.

THE U. S. TARIFF BILL.

President Cleveland May Sign It About July 1.

WASHINGTON, May 29 .- Latest calculations are that the Senate will finish the tariff bill by June 18. It will then go to a conference committee of House and Senate that will take ten days to deal with it. As fast as amendments are agreed on they will be sent to House and Senate, and it is estimated that the bill will be in the hands of the President before July 1. There are a number of representatives, however, who favor standing by the Wilson Bill, deadlocking with the Senate on that basis, and taking their chance with their constituents. It remains to be seen how much following they will obtain.

Liberal Patrons Loth to Work or Vote for Mowat's Dismissal.

Ontario's Premier True and Faithful in Every Particular.

Hen. John Dryden Addresses the Electors at Paris-Hon. George W. Ross Speaks About Sectarian Istues.

THE LIBERAL PATRONS IN EAST MIDDLESEX. A great many farmers drove in to Lon-don Monday evening from the surrounding districts to attend the Liberal mass meeting in the Opera House. In East Middlesex they seem to be very certain that Mr. Jackson is to be the future member of that constituency. In reply to inquiries one of them said, "I belong to the Patrons, but I did not join them to help make a new party. I am a Grit first and I think that a great number of the Patrons out our way are so inclined."

IN BRUCE. In center Bruce and South Bruce undoubtedly the Liberal candidates will be returned for Liberal Patrons are joining the ranks of those who declare with Principal Grant that Ontario cannot afford to dismiss Sir Oliver Mowat.

THE PATRONS' POSITION. The Ottawa Journal has this view of the Patrons: "The Patrons in the next Legislature are not likely to go over to the enemy. In the first place the majority of them nominated are old-time Liberals, and as they are candidates, not for the purpose of upsetting Mowat-unless he should prove very refractory, which no one need expect from the shrewd little man—but for the purpose of pushing the interests of farmers and agriculture, they will not hurt Mowat merely to help Meredith. The majority of them are more likely to help Mowat than hurt.'

THE WEST KENT P. P. A.'S. The P. P. A. party in West Kent have nominated Mr. Alex. McDougall, of Wallaceburg, as their candidate for the Legislature. It seems they could not support Mr. Clancy because he is a Catholic, and they would not support Mr. Pardo, Patron candidate, because he is indorsed by the Liberals.

BRANT PROHIBITIONISTS. R. M. Fullerton, president of the Brantford Plebiscite Association, is out with an appeal to prohibitionists to support Hon. A. S. Hardy. Both the north and south riding associations have already pledged their support to the Reform candidates.

TRIED AND TRUE. Mr. John Dryden, Minister of Agriculture, delivered a powerful address at a meeting held in Paris on Monday afternoon in the interests of the Reform candidate, Mr. Wood, M.P.P. In concluding his able speech, Mr. Dryden said the main question before the electors to-day was who was going to hold, as Principal Grant said, the key of the strong box for the next four years. So long as they had Sir Oliver at the head of affairs they need have no fear. He had been tried and found true and faithful in every particular.

the campaign in Halton in the interest of carried by standing votes. John Husband. The finest point of a magnificent address was reached when Mr. Ross dealt with the sectarian issues raised. Of the grants to hospitals it had been said that the Roman Catholic hospitals got too much. The parable of the Good Samaritan was applied with telling force. In Toronto nowadays if a Catholic fell under the trolley the priest of fanaticism, the Levite, talking toleration, passed on the other side. Sir Oliver came and lifted the man into the ambulance and sent him to an hospital, and, like the Good Samaritan, gave an I. O. U. for his board. Who was neighbor to that man? (Cheers.) There was not a man in Canada outside of the penitentiary who would not help a Roman Catholic under such circumstances. Yet for the basest political purposes men said that the Government unduly favored the Catholic hospitals. It was false. The hospitals, Protestant and Catholic alike, received a stated sum per day per patient. That allowance was fixed by statute, and in Catholic and Protestant hospitals alike people of all creeds were treated. There was but one hospital in Ontario in which a religious qualification was required, and that was in the Protestant hospital at Peterboro. In his splendid peroration, Mr. Ross pointed out that the highest duty of the Government was to secure the broadest and best education possible for the youth of the country-an education in which intolerance should have no part nor share, an education calculated to make them good men and

NORTH RENFREW.

(Associated Press Dispatch.) PEMBROKE, Ont., May 29 .- The first of a series of meetings called by Mr. Henry Barr to be held in the north riding took place in the town hall last evening. The Conservative candidate and his friends were invited, the hall being filled. Henry Jamieson, president of the Reform Association, was chairman. Mr. Barr, Thos. Murray, Dr. McKay, John Shaw (Conservative candidate), G. Delahey, and Mr. Spence, of Toronto, occupied seats on the platform. After calling the meeting to order, the chairman announced that arrangements had been made to give all the speakers ample time to address the electors. Mr. Barr was the first speaker. He was followed by Mr. Shaw in a very short address. Thos. Murray, Dr. McKay, G. Delahey and Mr. Spence each had their turn. The meeting broke up about 11:40 out of this city. WEEKLY REVIEW.

The unsettled weather has made rather a poor market this week. There has been a falling off in receipts as compared with ago this time. Values have made very little change since our last weekly report. The demand for wheat and oats was good. Very few peas, corn or beans offered, and the price for them is based on sales of a week ago.
Barley sold at 85c and 90c per 100 lbs, rye at 20c and buckwheat at 60c per bu.

There have been heavy receipts of butter and eggs. The former was about 2c per lb lower on all grades and the latter steady and Chickens were scarce and sold at 60 to 80c Quite a large quantity of veal and beef came forward. There was little or no change in prices; the demand was dull and sales seemed prices; the demand was durand sales seemed to drag considerably, especially in veal. For prices see quotation column.

Wool came in freely and brought 15c to 164c per pound, depending upon cleanness and quality. The bulk of sales were made from 16c to 164c; the demand was good.

Hides and skins were quiet.

In new vegetables, radish, onions, lettuce, spinach and asparagus were the chief offerdemand asparagus were the chief offer-ings. There was a good supply and steady demand at old prices, with the exception of asparagus. The cold weather cut short the supply of it and the price averaged 5c a bunch. Potatoes were a little easier, selling at 65c to 83c per bag. Hay was very plentiful and sold at $6.50 to $7.50 per ton. Quotations are as follows. Wheat, white, fall, 100 lbs.....$ 90 to

Young Methodist Workers. The first meeting since the inauguration of the Local Union of Methodist Young People's Societies was held in the Wellington Street Methodist Church last night. President W. J. Wattam presiding. The committies presented their reports on the year's work, showing that for such a young society rapid progress had been made. The treasurer, too, reported a balance of about $36 on hand, and this after the heavy expenses of the recent conven-tion had been paid. A resolution was unanimously passed, congratulating the committees in charge of the conven tion for the manner in which they had worked to make the meetings successful. Especially to the citizens who received and entertained the delegates the union is very grateful. The retiring officers made short addresses, after which the following were chosen: President-Mr. Frederick Abbott. Vice-president-Mr. James Thompson. Secretary-Mr. S. R. Keenleyside. Treasurer-Miss Kate Gundy.

London District Methodist Meeting. The London district meeting of the Methodist Church concluded its labors yesterday afternoon. Mrs. McMechan, of this city, delivered an address on behalf of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society, and Rev. J. B. Aylesworth, B.A., LL.D., president of the London Conference, also spoke briefly. The elections resulted as follows: To the Stationing Committee-Rev. R.

Fat Pay Working to Build Up Toronto. A London workingman writes to the ADVERTISER asking the following ques-

1. Does Mr. Meredith get a stated income as city solicitor of Toronto? 2. How much per annum is it? 3. How much per working day of six nours? 4. How much per hour? 5. And did he promise to work for

Toronto in preference of all others? The ADVERTISER herewith adduces the 1. Mr. Meredith gets a stated income from Toronto as its corporation counsel or city solicitor. 2. The amount payable to him, as fixed by the Toronto City Council bylaw, is $13,500 a year. 3. Deducting Sundays, seven Government holidays and one month at midsummer-most lawyers take a two months' long vacation, but we will grant that Mr. Meredith is too busy to take more than one month-the income of Mr. Meredith as city solicitor of Toronto is $49 13 per day of six hours. 4. Mr. Meredith's income from Toronto per hour is $8 12. In this calculation no note is taken of the time that Mr. Meredith spends in the Legislature or in other duties. This calculation pre-supposes that he devotes all his time to the promotion of Toronto interests.

5. Mr. Meredith publicly stated, when appointed corporation counsel several months since—the fact was printed in three newspapers at the time-that in future his first duty would be to attend to the interests of his "new client, the corporation of Toronto."

Mr. Gilmour, the Conservative Nomince, Stated to Have Withdrawn.

Last Saturday Mr. James Gilmour, reeve of North Dorchester, said that there was no truth in the rumor that he had retired from the candidature of the Conservative party in East Middlesex.

To-day it is reported, on what the AD-VERTISER believes to be good authority, that Mr. Gilmour has given up the fight, on the ground that he sees no chance of securing his election.

It need surprise no one if Mr. Gilmour has taken this course. When he entered the field, he found the Conservative party demoralized and the Liberals united in favor of Sir Oliver Mowat, and, despite his earnest endeavors, he has not been able to improve matters. In the circumstances, it is understood that he will not remain in the field, and that many independent Conservatives will now feel at liberty to give their support to

Five Persons Drowned in Smith's

Bay, Near Picton, Ont.

A Man, Woman, and Three Children

Found Side by Side.

They Had Been Fishing and the Boat

Upset-A Sad Stery.

Picton, Ont., May 30 .- A sad drowning accident occurred vesterday at Smith's

Bay, about eight miles from Picton. Livwife came to Picton yesterday and Alexander Lindsay took the three children,

Alfred, Charles and Anna Louise, aged respectively 8, 12 and 13 years, to the bay for an afternoon's fishing. Toward evening the boat was discovered floating capsized.

Search was made and the four bodies were found all together in about seven feet of water. Later on in the evening, a farmer named Ingram, living on the shore of the bay, was making inquiries about his wife, who had taken a fishing pole during the afternoon and gone to the bay for a fish and had not returned. Search was again commenced at the spot where the other bodies were recovered, and Mrs. Ingram's body was found also. It is supposed she was fishing from the bank, and when the Lindsays came along with the boat she joined them. The bodies were all found in one place alongside a gill net

seine, and it is conjectured the occupants were looking over the side of the boat at the fish in the seine, which capsized the boat.

McWhirrell Gets a Reprieve and Probably a New Trial.

BRAMPION, May 30 .- Building opera-contractor at an early hour this morning said he had not been instructed to quit the job. The engines of death would be finished about noon to-day.

Sheriff Broddy was also seen on his way to the jail, and wore a smile of intense satisfaction. He was on his way to inform the doomed man of the respite in store for him.

It was ascertained later that McWhirrell received the information with considerable satisfaction. Public opinion appears to be

"Turn to the Right."

I stared at him for a moment in silence, which he was the first to break. "Hush! -they would rise on us. The devil himself | friend of yours, Heaven knows!" could not keep them here. Between him and them I am on a razor's edge. Madame is with him, and the door is locked. Mademoiselle is in a room upstairs, and the door is locked. And he has the keys. What can I do? What can I do, man?" he cried, his voice hoarse with terror and dismay.

"Get the keys," I said instinctively.
"What? From him?" he muttered, with an irrepressible shudder, which shook his bloated cheeks. "God forbid 1 should see him! It takes stout men infallibly. I should be dead by night! By God, I should!" he continued, whining. "Now you are not girl, which for the moment she had forcontinued, whining. "Now you are not stout, M. de Marsac. If you will come with me I will draw off the men from that part; and you may go in and get the key from

His terror, which surpassed all feigning, and satisfied me without doubt that he was in earnest, was so intense that it could not fail to infect me, I felt my face as I looked into his grow to the same hue. I trembled as be did, and grew sick. For if there is a word which blanches the soldier's cheek and tries his heart more than another, it is the name of the disease which travels in the goor above and release mademoiselle. hours a mass of corruption. The stoutest holds himself, saves him from the unreasoning fear which masters the vulgar; and in a give me, it was in my mind to send you. my mind what it behooved me to do.

"Wait awhile," I said sternly, "and I will come with you." He waited accordingly, though with manifest impatience, while I sent for M. d'Agen, and communicated to him what I was about to do. I did not think it mention Bruhl's state, for some of the men were well in hearing. I observed that the young gentleman received my directions with a gloomy and dissatisfied air. But I had become by this time so used to his moods, and found myself so much mistaken in his character, that I scarcely gave the matter a second thought. I crossed the court with Fresnoy, and in a moment had mounted the outside staircase and passed through the heavy doorway.

The moment I entered, I was forced to do

Fresnoy the justice of admitting that he had not come to me before he was obliged. The three men who were on guard inside tossed down their weapons at sight of me, while a fourth, who was posted at a neighboring window, hailed me with a cry of relief. From the moment that I crossed the threshold the defence was practically at an end. I might, had I chosen or found it consistent with honor, have called in my following and secured the entrance. Without pausing, however, I passed on to the foot of a gloomy stone staircase winding up between walls of rough masonry; and here Fresnov stood on one side and stopped. He pointed npwards with a pale face and muttered, "The door on the left."

Leaving him there watching me as I went upwards, I mounted slowly to the landing, and by the light of an arrow-slit which dimly lit the ruinous place found the door he had described, and tried it with my hand. It was locked, but I heard someone moan in the room, and a step crossed the floor, as if came to the door and listened. I knocked, hearing my heart beat in the silence.

At last a voice quite strange to me cried "Who is it?" "A friend," I muttered, striving to dull my voice that they might not hear me

"A friend!" the bitter answer came. "Go! You have made a mistake! We have no friends. "It is I, M. de Marsac," I rejoined, knocking more imperatively. "I would see M. de Bruhl. I must see him." The person inside, at whose identity I could now make a guess, uttered a low exclamation, and still seemed to hesitate. But on my repeating my demand I heard a rusty bolt withdrawn, and Madame de Bruhl, opening the door a few inches, showed her face in the gap. "What do you want?" she murmured jealously. Prepared as I was to see her, I was shocked by the change in her appearance, a change which even that imperfect light failed to hide. Her blue eyes had grown larger and harder, and there were dark marks under them. Her face, once so brilliant, was gray and pinched; her hair had lost its golden luster. "What do you want?" she repeated, eyeing me fiercely.

"To see him," I answered. "You know?" she muttered. "You know that he-

"And you still want to come in? My God! Swear you will not hurt him!" "Heaven forbid!" I said; and on that she held the door open that I might enter. But I was not half-way across the room before she had passed, and was again between me and the wretched makeshift pallet. Nay, when I stood and looked down at him, as he moaned and rolled in senseless agony, with livid face and distorted features (which the cold gray light of that miserable room rendered doubly appalling), she hung over him and fenced him from me: so that looking on him and her, and remembering how he had treated her, and why he came to be in this place, I felt unmanly tears rise to my eyes. The room was still a prison, a prison with broken mortar covering the floor and loopholes for windows; but the captive was held by other chains than those of force. When she might have gone free, her woman's love surviving all that he had done to kill it, chained her to his side with fetters which old wrongs and present danger was powerless to break. It was impossible that I could view a scene so strange without feelings of admiration as well as pity; or without forgetting for a while, in my respect for Madame de Bruhl's devotion, the risk which had seemed so great to me on the stairs. I had come simply for a purpose of my own, and with no thought of aiding him who lay here. But so great, as I have noticed on other occasions, is the power of a noble example, that, before I knew it, I found myself wondering what I could do to help this man, and how I could relieve madame in the discharge of offices which her husband had as little right to expect at her hands as at mine. At the mere sound of the word P ague I knew she would be deserted in this wilderness by all; a reflection which suggested to me that 1 should first remove mademoiselle to a distance, and then consider what help I could afford here. I was about to tell her the purpose with which I had come when a paroxysm more than ordinarily violent, and induced per-

Everybody is invited to come and try him, and threatened to tax her powers to the utmost. I could not look on and see her spend herself in vain; and almost before I knew what I was doing I had laid my hands on him and after a brief struggle thrust him back exhausted on the couch.

She looked at me so strangely after that that in the half-light which the loopholes afforded I tried in vain to read her meanon my arm, "if the men knew it—and not length, breathing quickly. "You, of all—they would rise on no. The death of the length was the beginning to suspect it—they would rise on no. The death of the length was the length of the length with the length of t "No, madame, nor I of his," I answered bitterly, with a sudden revulsion of feel-

"Then why are you here?" she retorted. "I could not send one of my men," I answered, "And I want the key of the room

At the mention of that—the room aboveshe flinched as if I had struck her, and looked as strangely at Bruhl as she had before looked at me. No doubt the reference to Mademoiselle de la Vire recalled to her mind her husband's wild passion for the gotten. Nevertheless she did not speak, though her face turned very pale. She stooped over the couch, such as it was, and searching his clothes, presently stood up, and held out the key to me. "Take it, and let her out," she said with a forced smile. "Take it up yourself, and do it. You have done so much for her it is right that you should do this.'

I took the key, thanking her with more haste than thought, and turned towards the door, intending to go straight up to the hot noonday, and, tainting the strongest as hand was already on the door, which he rides in his pride, leaves him in a few madame, I found, had left ajar in the excitement of my entrance, when I heard her and most reckless fear it; nor could I, more than another, boast myself indifferent to it, or think of its presence without shrinking. But the respect in which a man of birth you kill her? Would you go from him to her, and take the plague to her? God formoment I recovered myself, and made up | And men are such puppets you would have gone !"

I trembled with horror, as much at my stupidity as at her craft. For she was right: in another moment I should have gone, and comprehension and remorse would have come too late. As it was, in my longing at once to reproach her for her wickedness and necessary to enter into details, or to to thank her for her timely repentance, I found no words; but I turned away in silence and went out with a full heart. "THE CIGARETTE MUST GO."

Thousands of the Boys and Girls of the Jersey City Schools Say Se. NEW YORK, May 29. - The Anti-Cigarette League recently organized by the pupils in the Jersey City public schools has grown beyond the expectation of its founders.

There is a branch of it in all but two or three of the 25 schools in the city, and the membership has gone away up into the thousands. The boys who have joined it are enthusiastic in the cause, and the girls, who have been admitted as associate members with a view of encouraging the boys in keeping their vow never to smoke a cigarette, are even more so.

A constitution has been adopted. The second article sets forth that the object of the association is the suppression of the habit of cigarette smoking among the public school boys of Jersey City by personal example and any other proper means. Article 6 provides that every member of the league shall be entitled to wear the button of the league as long as he keeps his agreement to abstain from smoking cigarettes. If a member should backslide and be reported to the council his name will be dropped from the roll and he will be required to surrender his button. At the end of six months, however, and upon satisfactory proof to the council that such backslider has abstained from smoking cigarettes for a period of six months he may be reinstated and have his button restored. A second lapse makes a boy ineligible for membership forever.

The button is a small diamond-shaped badge, with the monogram of the league on Under the monogram is a cut of a lighted cigarette, with the inscription: "The cigarette must go." Below are the initials, "P. S. B.," standing for public school boys. Many girls wear the badge. The application for membership contains a pledge that the applicant will not only refrain from smoking himself, but will use his influence to persuade all his friends to do likewise.

The cry of the league is: The cigarette must go; The public school boys say so.

WEATHERFORD, Texas, Feb. 24, 1892 About three years ago I became a convert to my mother's teaching-that Pond's Extract was the best all-round curative medicine that she had ever used, and being a confirmed invalid and sick twothirds of my days, I expect that I have used more of this medicine and in more ways than any other person ever did.

I have been threatened three times with abscesses during the past year, and each time I have driven them away by persistent and continuous rubbing with het Pond's Extract. These abscesses were caused by the use of a hypodermic syringe and I allowed a physician to try his hand. He worked at it 48 hours and at the end of that time my leg was almost as hard as a rock from the hip joint down to the knee. I told him he must stop treatment. My limb was in a fearful plight and hourly growing worse. I rubbed it with nothing save hot Pond's Extract, and in four days I had it under perfect control, and in a week more there was scarcely a sign of the terrible pest. I use it for all sorts of pain. It always helps and frequently makes a cure. It never has failed me. I have been trying massage treatment and I make my rubber of the Extract. It has cured all sorts of pain for me-headache, sore throat, sore eyes, earache, abscesses, cystitis and all manner of pain.

"Remarkable Cure of Dropsy and Dyspepsia."—Mr. Samuel T. Casey, Belleville, writes: "In the spring of 1884 I began to be troubled with dyspepsia, which gradually became more and more distressing. I used various domestic remedies and applied to my family physician, but received no benefit. By this time my trouble assumed the form of dropsy. I was unable to use any food whatever except boiled milk and bread; my limbs were swollen to twice their natural size; all hopes of my recovery were given up, and I quite expected death within a few weeks. Manager Whitney's Latest.

C. J. Whitney, says the Detroit News, has about twenty theaters on his hands and wants to branch out more extensively in the music business, so he has sold his new eight-story Whitney Opera House block and theater on Griswold street to Stephen Buldwin for $300,000 cash. Mr. Whitney bought the ground in 1887 and erected the building at a cost of $150,000. Of course the erection of the Home Savings Bank on one side and the Chamber of Commerce on the other have greatly increased the value of the property.

May's Unprecedented Rainfall.

The total rainfall during the past month has been the largest on record for the month of May. The depth now stands at 8.71 inches, and there is a possibility of this peing increased. On 19 days of the past 28 ram fell, but on the 19th, 20th and 21st the downfall was heaviest, 1.22 falling on the 19th, 1.86 on the 20th and 2.69 on the 21st. In previous Mays the records show that the nearest approach to this deluge was in 1868, when 7.67 inches fell. Last year the fall during May was 3.86 inches, spread over 18 days. The average rainfall for 54 years for this month has been 2.93 inches. Meeting of Number Three.

At last night's meeting of No. 3 committee the street watering inspector, Mr. Isaacs, reported that Contractor Baldwin was again performing the work in a careless and unsatisfactory manner. Engineer Graydon reported that he had written to Mr. Baldwin about the matter, but the latter had not taken any notice. It was decided to notify Mr. Baldwin's sureties that unless the specifications were carried out the contract will be annulled and the bond forfeited. The committee will meet early on Monday night and make a recommendation to the council. Mr. Isaacs' report re sprinklers was received and adopted. The members present were Ald. Parnell (chairman), John Heaman, O'Meara and Carrothers.

James Reardon, was called to the chair, after which a full expression of the delegates was taken, when Mr. Hessel handed in his resignation, the same being unanimously accepted with out further prejudice.

It was resolved that a copy of the minutes be sent to both city papers. Bro. Jas. S. Reardon succeeded Bro. Hessel as president, and Bro. Cummings was unanimously elected vice-president. The financial secretary was instructed to obtain a set of printed forms for collection of dues. After the transaction of other business the council adjourned until Tuesday, June 12.

AFTER THE DOWNPOUR.

London West Councilors Discuss the Matter of Damages-The Beard Threatened With a Law Suit,

The village fathers of London West held a special meeting last night, called chiefly to discuss the best means of repairing the damage done to Mount Pleasant avenue by -Messrs. A. C. and A. R. Baker, sons of the recent heavy rains. Councilor Hamil-3. Baker, nurseryman, left last night for | ton, as chairman of the board of works, presided, the other members present being Reeve Macdonald, Deputy Reeve Scarrow, Councilors Hammond and Moore and Clerk Bartram. About an hour was spent in giving opinions as to the most satisfactory way to repair the washout, and it was finally decided to leave the matter with Councilors Hamilton, Hammond and Moore, who will draw out plans and let the work. Chas. B. Hunt, manager of the Canadian General Electric Company, wrote the council stating that the account of the village lighting for several months back was unpaid, and that if a settlement was not soon arrived at the company would be forced to leave the matter in the hands of their solicitor. To May 31, 1894, the account would be over $600.

Reeve Macdonald said that he had signed hecks for November and December. Councilor Moore-Yes, but none have een paid since September.

The council will deal with the account at ts next regular meeting. Reeve Macdonald stated that at the next meeting of the council he would like the duties of himself and every other officer more fully defined. It would greatly assist lage. The request will be granted. Councilor Moore told the council that he understood the baseball people were willing lecture was "Anthropology Underlying to keep the breakwater alongside Tecum-Redemption." The paper was a very seh Park in proper repair if they seh Park in proper repair if they were granted exemption from taxation for ten years. The offer seemed to be tavorably viewed by the council, and a committee will confer with the owners of the baseball property. Reeve Macdonald asked Councilor Hammond if anything had been done to the breakwater at the foot of Ann street. Nothing had yet been done. There are two or three other places in the barrier which are badly in need of repair.
