BRANTFORD, CANADA, FRIDAY, AUGUST 15, 1913

ONE CENT

British Army Officer Has Great Invention

[Canadian Press Despatch] VILLACOUBLAY, France, Aug. 15.—The new self-righting flying apparatus invented by Lieut. J. W. Dunne, a retired British army officer, underwent most successful trials on the aerodrome here yesterday, in the presence of Brigadier-General Auguste Hirschauer, commander of the aerial corps of the French army.

DUFFERINS HAD A GREAT DAY

Hamilton Cheered the Brantford Regiment All Along the Line.

Tired But Happy Soldiers Returned Home Early This Morning.

Tired but happy and having had the time of their lives, the Dufferin Rifles regiment got home at 1 o'clock this morning from Hamilton. There were no accidents.

The Parade. It was almost noon when the order was given for the troops to go to the "front."

The Dufferin Rifles, never showed up to better advantage and they certainly kept up their reputation as good marchers.

Brantford citizens have every reason to feel proud of the "Duffs" for they certainly acquitted themselves excellently.

All along the line of march the Dufferins were given a rousing reception, especially as they passed in front of the Royal Hotel and the Gore.

Plattering comments were heard such as: "Here comes Brantford!" "There goes the Dufferin Rifles!" "That's the Duffs!" "That's the 38th!"

It was hotter than "the day before" as the men stuck "to their guns."

After marching through many of the principal and side streets of the city, until after 1 o'clock, the Jockey Club sounds were reached.

Arriving at the race track the men were formed up, and the guns were fired. In a few minutes the bugles sounded the joyful notes of "Come to Cook House Door, boys!"

Here a marquee had been erected and men of the different regiments were given a first-class hot dinner which by that time was very acceptable indeed.

A smart corps of waiters were detached to serve the soldier boys as quickly as possible, and in less time than it takes to tie it, the soldiers had their meal.

DANCED 72 HOURS AT HER WEDDING Guests Pay Dollar Each for Privilege—Collects $700 and Falls Exhausted.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Aug. 15.—After dancing almost continuously at her wedding for 72 hours, Mrs. John Mashuko collapsed from exhaustion and doctors worked over her for hours. She was married Saturday, and according to custom, a big celebration was started in a public hall.

Democrats Place Wheat on Free List

Amendment Was Adopted by Senate Yesterday by Close Vote.

[Canadian Press Despatch] WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—The Democratic amendment putting wheat on the free list and striking out the ten cent per bushel tariff rate passed by the House Democrats, was adopted by the senate yesterday by a vote of 37 to 32.

INDUSTRIAL DAY IN AMBITIOUS CITY

Labor is Having its Inning To-day Big Street Parade.

[Canadian Press Despatch] HAMILTON, Ont., Aug. 15.—This was Industrial Day in connection with the Hamilton Centennial celebration and labor had its innings.

The unions showed strength in the big parade that formed at Victoria Park and marched from there to Britannia park, where a big list of games and sports was held this afternoon under the auspices of the Trades and Labor Council.

A number of the Toronto unions were represented in the procession which was one of the biggest labor demonstrations ever witnessed in Hamilton.

At 10.30 this morning there was a parade of citizens automobiles in which several hundred cars took part.

The international motor boat races were held at the Beach this afternoon. To-night the Labor people will hold a band concert and drawing at the H.A.A.A. grounds and the Garugari-Frohsmid Maennerchor orchestra of Buffalo will give a concert in the I. O. O. F. Hall.

RESIDENTS OBJECT TO HYDRO POLES

Also Electric Wires Which Will Spoil Beauty of Chatham Street.

Several of the residents of Chatham street are objecting vigorously to the placing of Hydro-Electric poles on that street. The poles are being placed on south side of the street, and it is claimed the wires when strung will be among the branches of the trees.

A prominent resident of Chatham street, told The Courier this morning that the electricity will ruin the trees and thus spoil the beauty of one of the finest streets in the city.

Received by Church. MADRID, Spain, Aug. 15.—Princess Beatrice of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, is shortly to be received into the Catholic Church, according to an announcement made by the Spanish premier, Count Alvaro De Romanones.

The princess was married at Cobourg on July 15, 1909; to Prince Alfonso of Bourbon-Orleans, a cousin of King Alfonso, in spite of the objection of King Alfonso, who deprived her husband of his honors and his command in the Spanish army.

RECEIVER OF STREET RAILWAY MUCH PEEVED OVER CRITICISM OF RAILWAY

His Solicitors Threaten Libel Action Against the Courier—This Journal's Stand is For Municipal Ownership and Discontinuance of Disgraceful Street Car Conditions Which Prevail.

The Courier to-day received the following letter from Toronto solicitors who are the representatives of certain bondholders of the Grand Valley Railway Company:

Toronto, Ont., August 14th, 1913. "The Brantford Courier, Brantford, Ontario: "Dear Sirs.—Mr. E. B. Stockdale, who has been appointed and who is acting as Receiver of the Grand Valley Railway Company on the direction of the Court, has received copies of the issue of your paper relating to the management and direction by him in his capacity as Receiver of the affairs of the Company, and also relating to the remuneration awarded to him in the operation of the three railways.

"We think you are aware that an action is pending in the High Court between the City of Brantford and the Grand Valley Railway Company et al, and the publication by you in the issues of your paper are quite in contempt of the court in which the action is pending, and, further, are libellous upon Mr. Stockdale in his capacity as Receiver.

"Many of the statements in your publications are quite erroneous, as could and would have been ascertained by you if you had made careful inquiries.

"In the event of any repetition by you of the matters complained of, we shall be obliged to institute proceedings in court against you, without further notice, at the suit of Mr. Stockdale.

"Yours very truly, "WATSON, SMOKE, SMITH & SINCLAIR."

THE COURIER'S ANSWER

In reply to the letter of Messrs. Watson, Smoke, Smith & Sinclair it is desirable to point out: (1) That the Courier is advocating municipal ownership of the Brantford Street Railway, and proposes to go right on and do so.

(2) That the Courier believes that the time for the railway company jockeying the city is past, and long over-past.

(3) That the Courier believes the street railway in Brantford is now, and has been for some time, a disgrace to the municipality.

(4) That the Courier believes that, despite the efforts of interested ones who are trying to get out "skin whole," the street railway is the most serious handicap to civic development which Brantford has.

(5) That the Courier will object to and strongly criticize any further postponement, on any grounds whatever, of the city's legal action against the company, whereby the city expects to secure its own and just rights.

There is no desire in this paper to commit contempt of court by discussing any action pending before the courts of Ontario. There is no desire to libel Mr. E. B. Stockdale, who as receiver of the Street Railway Company was appointed by the High Court. There is a desire, however, on the part of the Courier to awaken civic officials to a sense of their duty and to point out to the Mayor and aldermen of the present Council that a policy of jockeying with the street railway, postponing trials, etc., has pretty nearly put this city in the hole, and will do so if allowed to continue.

If wrong statements have been made in the Courier concerning Mr. E. B. Stockdale and the company for which he is acting receiver, they have not been pointed out in the letter of his solicitors.

At any rate, it is not a matter of Mr. Stockdale's remuneration, but a matter of taxes which the company owes the city.

Meanwhile, ordinary citizens who pay taxes, and who have to pay them on the spot, are doing the sweating.

INJURED AT PORT DOVER ACCIDENT PROGRESSING

Talk of An Investigation to Fix the Blame for the Crash

[Canadian Press Despatch] PORT DOVER, Aug. 15.—None of those injured in the collapse of a bridge at Orchard Beach Park, when over 100 were more or less badly injured have succumbed to their injuries, according to reports from Courtland and Delhi, where the most of the victims lived.

At Courtland, it was stated that Mrs. Silas Boughner, who for a time was thought to be fatally hurt, was progressing nicely toward recovery, and that the other injured people were all doing well.

There is talk of an investigation to fix the blame for the crash.

Boy Horse Thief Is Tried Today in Paris

Not a Desperate Criminal, but Half-witted, With a Mania for Horses.

[Courier Special] PARIS, Aug. 15.—John McDowell, the boy horse thief, was not such a desperate character after all. He appeared in court here this morning on several charges. W. T. Henderson acted for the crown. The prisoner was a half-witted boy who should be sent to a house of correction rather than to prison. Accordingly a remand was granted for a week and the facts of the case will be reported to Toronto.

The young fellow developed a mania for stealing horses and kept several police officers on the trail for weeks.

TWO HEADS GOVERNING ONE STATE

Unique Situation Prevails Just Now at Albany.

Sulzer Will Be Asked to Step Down and Out.

[Canadian Press Despatch] ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 15.—The second day of the dual administration in New York state dawned on a whirlpool of confusion in the capitol. A steel chain with a heavy padlock secured the great seal, the privy seal lay under lock and key; the way to the executive chamber, Wm. Sulzer's citadel, was bolted and barred and from two offices the rival claimants to the governor's chair continued to exercise their functions.

Control of the national guard, access to the great seal, recognition by New York's secretary of state and by governor of the neighboring state of New Jersey were prerogatives stripped from Governor Sulzer, impeached, by Lieutenant-Governor Glavin, who claims to be the acting chief executive. Possession of the privy seal, whose imprint validates all documents coming before the governor on affairs wholly within the state, and occupancy of the executive chambers, remained with Sulzer.

The usual crop of forecasts was harvested during the forenoon. One report that seemed to be authentic print was that Mr. Glavin would call upon Mr. Sulzer formally to vacate the executive chamber and surrender the privy seal. Sulzer's refusal would pave the way to court action. Governor Sulzer's reply to such a request lay on his desk. The ignominy was Sulzer's, but the words of the letter were his lawyers'.

A sensational report was current that Governor Sulzer would seek the indictment for treason if charges of Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, and organization leaders, who commanded the anti-Sulzer forces in the battle for impeachment.

Were in Hamilton. A large number of Brantfordites attended the military tattoo which was held in the Cricket grounds at Hamilton last night. In fact it seemed as if half the Telephone City was in the Ambitious City last night, some of whom did not reach home until 3 o'clock in the morning.

ANOTHER BRITISH TEAM WILL VISIT DOMINION

Tom Rennie, Captain, Returned to Montreal This Morning.

[Canadian Press Despatch] MONTREAL, Aug. 15.—Thomas Rennie, Toronto, captain of the Canadian bowlers team, which won 40 much success in the British Isles, returned this morning on the Allan Line steamer.

Mr. Rennie said that he expected another British bowling team would tour Canada, probably in two years time, as the visit of the Canadians to the Old Land and their success had stirred up the players there to desire another trip to the Dominion when they could get their revenge.

Speech From Throne Was Colorless To-day British Parliament Prorogued—Will Meet Again in February Next.

[Canadian Press Despatch] LONDON, Aug. 15.—The British parliament was prorogued to-day and will not reconvene until February of next year unless something extraordinary happens.

PREACH VOTES FOR WOMEN FROM THE HOUSE TOPS

City of Washington is Having a Unique Campaign This Week.

[Canadian Press Despatch] WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Preaching the cause of "votes for women" from the house tops, speakers for the National American Woman Suffrage association have gone back to Bible times for an inspiration for publicity.

The suffragists have launched a campaign on the roofs of the scores of apartment houses with which the national capital is dotted and women orators of national repute have been drafted into aerial squad.

In one fashionable quarter of the northwest section, the apartment buildings are so closely packed together that speakers for the "cause" have been enabled to address audiences on two and sometimes three roofs at one and the same time. The roof garden rallies are said by the crusaders to be highly successful as it is enabling them to reach unbelievers, who will not attend the street meetings.

SEE WINDOW DISPLAY On Saturday and Monday we place on sale nearly 35 pretty Linenette Dresses. These were samples and are slightly crumpled, but little the worse for that. Prices range from $3.00 to $18.00. To go at $3.50 and $5.00—Cromptons.

REFUSE TO ANSWER EUGENIC QUESTIONS

Pittsburgh Couples Say They Will Marry in Other States.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 15.—Four couples refused to answer questions required by the new eugenic marriage license law, left the court house annex in anger and declared they would be married in other states, including these, according to Walter Nevins, the clerk in charge. Thirty couples have refused to answer questions concerning their physical condition.

Dr. J. F. Edwards, head of the bureau of infectious diseases and birth registrar, does not agree with the opponents of the new law.

"The day is not far off," he said, "when more stringent marriage laws will be enacted in the other states of the Union as well as Pennsylvania. The new law is a step in the right way."

Strong Demand Made For Britain to Compete

[Canadian Press Despatch] LONDON, Aug. 15.—Leo George, Chiozza Money and other publicists, have articles and letters in the Daily Chronicle to-day, giving their reasons why Great Britain should participate in the Panama-Pacific exposition. The Chronicle, also prints an editorial which expresses the belief that the Government will reverse its decision not to take part in the exposition.

Lord Blyth, who has been the chairman of organizing committees for various expositions in which Great Britain has participated, and who has written extensively on the fiscal and commercial policy of the Empire, in a long letter in the Times to-day urging British participation at San Francisco, asks:

"How can we expect America to support the peace centenary exhibition in London in 1914 if we decline to be represented at San Francisco."

Mysterious Arrest Did Not Take Place

New York Police Have Not Yet Found Murderer of Toronto Man.

[Canadian Press Despatch] NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—The mysterious arrest reported to have been made last night in the murder case of the Toronto milliner, Wm. Grievy Martin, had not materialized at police headquarters this forenoon. The report was then amended to the effect that an arrest "in or about the city was expected hourly."

Martin was found dead in a rooming house where he had apparently been lured and robbed.

Deputy Police Commissioner Dougherty, in charge of the case, denied that any arrest had been made, or that one was in immediate prospect.

Circulars giving a description of "Mr. and Mrs. Johnson," the couple who rented the room where the body was found, not long before the murder occurred, were sent out broadcast by the police to-day.

PART OF NANAIMO ALL SMASHED UP

Matters Were Quiet Until Troops Retired and Then More Trouble.

[Canadian Press Despatch] VANCOUVER, B.C., Aug. 15.—Though matters were quiet during yesterday in the Nanaimo strike zone, towards evening there was a recurrence of the previous day's disturbances, though not on quite such an extensive scale. The arrival of the militia had the effect of bringing the strikers to their senses, but when the regulars had left Nanaimo the crowd again got out of hand and a second scene was witnessed when a strikebreaker was sighted. His taking refuge in the police station was the means of saving his life probably.

Part of Nanaimo is in ruins. Extension is in a worse plight and many of the strikebreakers are in the hills seeking refuge. Last night between three and four hundred militia left Vancouver, the majority of the men going to the strike region while a small number proceeded to Victoria to replace regulars who are at Extension.

No definite steps have been taken towards a settlement though there are rumors to the effect that efforts are being made in that direction.

After the memorial proper had been unveiled by the Ambassador, the representatives of the donors unveiled the various panels which surrounded the base of the monument.

The Winslow panel was unveiled by Miss Rachel Winslow, a member of the English branch of the family; the Alden panel was unveiled by Vernon A. Field, president of the Alden kindred of America; Mrs. Chas. Folson of Boston, Mass., unveiled the panel donated by the Colonial Dames of Massachusetts; Joseph G. Butler of Youngstown, Ohio, performed a like service for the Ohio panel; the Brewster panel was unveiled by a member of the Brewster family.

During the ceremonies, music was provided by the Borough Police band.

TERCENTENARY OF THE PILGRIMS

Memorial Is Unveiled To-day in City of Southampton, England.

[Canadian Press Despatch] SOUTHAMPTON, Aug. 15.—A memorial in celebration of the tercentenary of the departure of the Pilgrims from Southampton for America was unveiled here to-day by Walter Hines Page, the United States Ambassador. It is in the form of a column erected on the site of the pier from which they embarked.

The ceremonies opened with a luncheon in the civic pavilion, presided over by the Mayor of Southampton. Speeches were made by Sir William W. Portal, Dr. Alexander Hill, president of Hartley University College, Southampton; John Morgan Richards and Percy Alden, M.P., who is well known in the United States as a lecturer. Members of the Alden, Winslow and Brewster families also spoke briefly. After the luncheon a procession accompanied by bands and the banners of various societies interested in the monument, formed and proceeded to the memorial by way of the west gate through which the ship's company passed to the Mayflower on August 15, 1620.

A brief religious service opened the unveiling ceremonies, and as an indication of the undenominational character of the occasion, it was conducted by the Bishop of Winchester and Rev. G. S. S. Saunders, minister of the Above Bar Congregational Chapel, Southampton. The singing was led by the Free Church Choral Union.

Ambassador Page dedicated the monument with an oration in which he quoted James Lowell's saying that the Pilgrims were only colonists who were sent in search of God instead of gold.

After the memorial proper had been unveiled by the Ambassador, the representatives of the donors unveiled the various panels which surrounded the base of the monument.

The Winslow panel was unveiled by Miss Rachel Winslow, a member of the English branch of the family; the Alden panel was unveiled by Vernon A. Field, president of the Alden kindred of America; Mrs. Chas. Folson of Boston, Mass., unveiled the panel donated by the Colonial Dames of Massachusetts; Joseph G. Butler of Youngstown, Ohio, performed a like service for the Ohio panel; the Brewster panel was unveiled by a member of the Brewster family.

During the ceremonies, music was provided by the Borough Police band.

THE SEMI-TRANSPARENT BLOUSE

The alarmists, who thought the peekaboo peril had been successfully averted, are all agog again over the new transparent blouses. The new blouse does not really "show through," though it gives that idea. Under it is a modest brassiere of lace, and between the lace and the outer blouse is a layer of flesh-colored tulle or chiffon. It is, of course, this flesh-tinted material under the diaphanous chiffon, or net which gives the impression of transparency. This dainty blouse is made of blue net, matching a suit of blue mohair. Under the blue net is white net and under that flesh-tinted chiffon.

High Price For Bacon
Reasons for the Relative Scarcity in the Supply.

The price of bacon, that staple of the Englishman's breakfast table, is giving housewives considerable anxiety. It is up to 75c a pound and threatens to go higher.
Bacon has been gradually rising in price for the last three years, and pork has been dearer than beef for some years. The reasons are not far to seek, and are very different from those which keep up the price of mutton. A city merchant attributed it to four causes--1, the ravages of swine fever; 2, the shortage of supplies from Canada and the United States; 3, the dearthness of all kinds of forage; 4, the enormous increase in the demand for bacon.
It is suggested that the regulations enforced by the Board of Agriculture to prevent swine are felt to be so irksome that many agriculturists have ceased to breed pigs. Again two years ago we had a very dry summer. This raised the prices of all sorts of pig-food, and many breeders got rid of their stock rather than pay the prices for forage.
There is no prospect of a drop in prices. Even the high price quoted all sorts of pig-food, and many breeders got rid of their stock rather than pay the prices for forage.

MARKET REPORTS

CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—Wheat today broke from under the leadership of corn and displayed independent strength. Belief that the run of winter wheat is about over had a good deal to do with making prices bulge. The close was steady at an advance of 1-8 to 1-2c. Corn finished the session as last night to 1-4c off, oats unchanged to a shade higher and provisions varying from 10c decline to a gain of 10c.

After Dinner.

After partaking of a good substantial meal the men were allowed to roam around the grounds for an hour. Some of them went over to the track and heaved a heavy sigh as they recalled memories of turf.

The Review.
"Fall in" was sounded and the members of the different regiments assembled for the military review, which was held on the grounds.

It is estimated that over 3,000 soldiers took part in the review.
Col. E. E. W. Moore, brigadier, Hamilton, was in command of the forces, and the staff included Sir John Gibson, General Lessard, Major Dixon of the permanent staff, and Lieutenant, Hamilton.

After the different corps were inspected a march past took place. The regiment retired to the top of the course and marched down the track in front of the grand stand in the following order:
2nd Dragoons, Hamilton; Royal Grenadiers, Toronto, 242 strong; 38th Dufferin Rifles, Brantford, 276 strong; 1st Highlanders, Hamilton, 418 strong; Queen's Own Rifles, Toronto, 527 strong; 13th Royal Regiment, Hamilton, 448 strong; 9th Fusiliers, London, 272 strong; 48th Highlanders, Toronto, 335 strong; Canadian Army Service Corps, Hamilton, 75; Army Medical Corps, Hamilton, 30; Veterans, Hamilton, 78; Field Ambulance Corps, 1st Troop Field Engineers, Hamilton, and the 4th Field Battery, Hamilton.

As the troops passed the saluting point, the regimental march of the regiment passing was played by the brass bands. Here the Dufferin Rifles showed up to their best advantage. They came marching down the stretch like regulars, and won the hearts of the audience, which was estimated to be over 7,000.

As the 38th passed the saluting post they were given a tremendous reception, the applause being almost deafening.
No regiment excelled and few equalled the gallant Brantford brigade as they passed the saluting post.

After the march past the men were dismissed until 5.30 p.m., when they assembled at the market for supper. When supper was over the regiment was formed up again and marched to the railway platform just outside the grounds and boarded a train which conveyed them to the city. Arriving at the depot the men were dismissed and were free to take in the sights, but were ordered to be at the depot again at 10.30 to make the return trip.

Back Home.
The train which brought the regiment back home, pulled out shortly after 11 p.m., and arrived in the city about 12.30.

The regiment was formed up and marched to the armories, where after Lieut. Col. Howard congratulated the men on their splendid showing, the regiment was dismissed.

It was a grand outing, and one that will long be remembered by those who took in the trip.
There was no accidents to mar the pleasure of the trip and the 38th Dufferin Rifles distinguished themselves in a right royally upheld the good name of the fair city of Brantford.

Military Luncheon.
The committee in charge of the Centennial Industrial Exposition at Hamilton tendered a complimentary banquet yesterday evening in the Oddfellows' Temple, to the officers of the different regiments which participated in the military day yesterday.

Sir John Gibson replied to the toast of the King.
Mr. Lennox, chairman of the Industrial committee, replied to the toast "Mayor and City Corporation."
General Lessard, in replying to the toast of the Militia, complimented the officers commanding the different regiments which took part in the review yesterday, for their splendid showing made by the different corps. His remarks were general, and did not praise one regiment more than another. The officers in command of each of the regiments were called upon for short addresses.

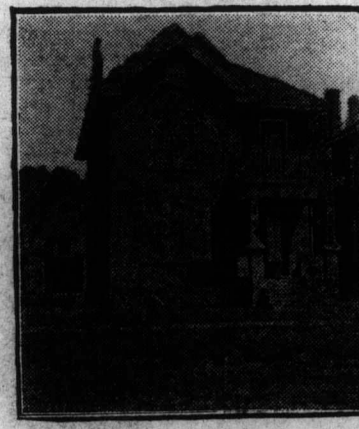

At the conclusion of the luncheon, automobiles were in waiting to convey the officers to the cricket grounds to witness the tatter.

THE DOMINION HOUSE.

The Courier is in receipt from Lord Grey, a former Governor General of Canada of a handsomely illustrated portfolio in which he sets forth a scheme for the erection of a structure in London to conjointly house the commissioners and agencies of Canada, Australia and the other great dominions beyond the seas.

It appears that by order of the London County Council there has recently been demolished a number of old buildings between the Strand and Oxford street, and it is here, right in the centre of the world's metropolis, that he would like to see such a building erected.

He says, during the course of his presentation of the case: "Those who believe that in the government of men imagination is the greatest of all realities, will be ready to give their most careful attention to proposals that would so effectively intertwine the affairs of the Empire with the consciousness of its greatest community and its organic centre. To-day the visitor to London may roam its streets without being reminded that he is at the heart of a system which girdles the earth. The furtive brass plates of Dominion agencies may be informing to the inquisitive, but they do little to make what we may call 'the Imperial interest' an integral part of the atmosphere in which Englishmen live, feel and move. St. Paul's Cathedral flashes upon the eye the great message of Christianity; the Houses of Parliament recite the long story of Constitutional freedom, the Law Courts lit their testimony to the great heritage of justice that England has wrung from history. Each of these helps to determine the 'habit of mind' of the millions who see them. The hope of those who framed the present proposals is that an equally commanding voice in the architecture of the Capital may be given to the Empire itself—that a building may arise which will make the significance of Imperial citizenship vivid to every beholder, and make the face of London itself record the far-flung dimensions of British power and civilization."

"At present the Agencies of the various Dominions and their component States and Provinces are dotted all over the city proper, the Strand district and Westminster, with the result that business involving more than one of them has to be prosecuted with an irksome amount of travelling and a constant recourse to the directory. It may be added that in their sporadic state they fail to make any collective impression upon the minds of the community. There is not one Londoner who would be able to name off-hand the location of a single Dominion representative. This is a remarkable anomaly, considering how the personal and public ties between Great Britain and the outer Empire have been multiplied of recent years."

Lord Grey has promulgated an excellent idea, and he is so much in earnest upon the subject that he has secured an option upon the site for three years at an outlay of $15,000 per annum. He also points out that Australia proposes on a near-by property to erect buildings to cost from $300,000 to $500,000, and he thinks it an opportune time for them to combine with the rest of us on a central plan.

LIBERAL NEWSPAPER SPEAKS OUT. The Windsor Record is the only daily paper published in that place and it is staunchly Liberal in tone. Here is what it has to say editorially in a recent issue: "Certain Liberal newspapers, and members of that party throughout the province are asking that Mr. Rowell either resign the leadership of his party or else drop the 'Abolish the bar' plank from his platform. It is true that this policy was never brought out by the Liberal party as a whole, that when the opposition in the legislature met to discuss the subject there was no agreement; that a committee of five avowed advocates of prohibition, who happened to be Liberal members of the legislature, drafted a temperance plank, had it put through the caucus and adopted as the policy of the party in this province. The party as a whole was never consulted.

When the policy was announced The Record could not see its way clear to endorse it. It thinks the party to the left of the speaker in the house made a serious error in taking the course it did. However, since Mr. Rowell and a few of his followers have committed the Liberal party to a radical temperance policy, perhaps it would be better for the party to stand by its guns and fight out the issue at the next general election.

It is easy to say the Liberals will be beaten and beaten badly, and then they Liberal party to 'get off at'.

This would purify matters and clarify the atmosphere.

There never was a better chance to test the temperance element and see where the extremists stand.

When beaten, the Liberal party will be in a position to throw off forever the millstone of the Dominion Alliance and proceed with the real policies of Liberalism.

The Record continues to think that the license system is the proper policy for this province. The most practical solution to us seems to be proper enforcement of the present license regulations; rigid inspection of liquor; higher licenses and graded licenses, separating mild stimulants from hard intoxicants; non-partizan temperance men chosen as license inspectors and commissioners.

The principal thing is to find the right class of hotelmen and make them keep hotels."

NOTES AND COMMENTS

A Detroit girl has married a native of Manila, Filipino.

Four nurses at Battle Creek eloped and are now brides. Talk about your matrimonial agencies!

For a Scotch town, Hamilton has certainly loosened up to a marvellous extent during its 'Old Home' week.

A German scientist asserts that the sun can never cool. Well, nobody around these diggings has had any idea just lately that the orb possessed any such intention.

The Detroit News, referring to the statement that there are microbes on even the reddest and sweetest lips, extends the excellent advice to keep on swabbing them in the good old way.

The militant suffragettes in the Old Land are now attempting to burn schools. Educational methods evidently have no charms for those mentally unbalanced daughters of Eve.

In the natural order of things, the presentation of the case for a 'Dominion building' in London, England, as outlined by the ex-Governor-General of Canada, shows a good deal of grey matter.

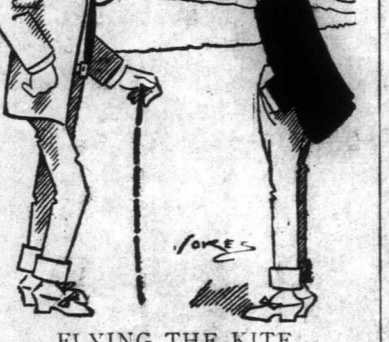

It is rumored that the Brantford Baseball Club is about to add this to the National Anthem: Keep us cellarious. Nothing vain glorious, Let all put it over us—Heaven help the fans.

St. Thomas Times: The Brantford Courier wisely opposes the suggestion made in some quarters to have one date for civic holiday in the leading cities of this section of the province. It says the railways would not be able to handle the passenger traffic if this were the case, which is true.

Col. Jones, head of the medical department of the Canadian militia, predicts that in the years to come human beings will have so many modes of easy travel that they will have no use for legs. If so, it will be their own fault, and they won't have any kick coming.

In Winnipeg they are having a 'Frontier' demonstration, with cowboys and all the rest of the paraphernalia of early days. The point is that the affair is regarded as a novelty when not so very many moons ago anything except that out West would have been in the unusual class.

Ambassador Wilson, who represented our neighbors in Mexico, and who seems to have an idea that talk is the main qualification for such an office, has been saying things about Great Britain to such an extent that President Wilson, in a manly way, has sent his reputation and an apology. The time has passed when any irresponsible individual can stir up trouble between John Bull and Uncle Sam.

The monument, designed by R. M. Lucas, is a column of stone with bronze panels representing heroic scenes in connection with the Pilgrims. The cost of the monument was defrayed from public subscriptions taken in the United States and England, while the bronze panels were donated by various Pilgrim societies and the descendants of Pilgrim families. It is located on the pier beyond the west gate through which the Pilgrims passed on their way to the Mayflower. This spot was famous long before the time of the Pilgrims, for tradition asserts that King Canute sat there when he ordered the sea to retreat, and from this pier, Shakespeare, who knew Southampton well, through his visits to the Earl of Southampton, made the armies of Henry V. embark for their triumphant invasion of France. Crowds of Americans mingled with the townspeople on the pier, and among the visitors were many representatives of organizations which exist in America to keep green the memory of the Pilgrim Fathers. Last night in London, a dinner was given to the representatives of the American families and societies, which have contributed to the various panels of the monument. Percy Alden, M.P., presided, and an English Mayflower club was formed.

AVIATION TAKES NERVE.

And When That is Lost the Aeronaut Should Fly No More. He who flies constantly must look to one personal risk, which may vary according to the characteristics of the individual. This is the danger a man may incur by becoming a little careless while on the wing or never represents a peril that is very real.

The pilot who flies a great deal should remind himself constantly that there is no room for error in the handling of aircraft. A loss of confidence not difficult to understand is suffered by an air man sometimes after he has been the victim of a serious fall, and in similar circumstances a jockey, or, say, a racing motorist, may be robbed of nerve. When a pilot does lose judgment as the outcome of a bad mishap his wisest course is to cease to fly. With the broken nerve he is a menace to himself and to others as well.—Claude Graham White in National Review.

Wagner's Music.

By the study of Wagner's masterpieces a glimpse of the eternal is had, and once the vision of his truth fills the soul counterfeits are detected instinctively. The polyphony of Bach and the music of 'Die Meistersinger' prove the spiritual kinship of Wagner with the founder of modern music. A Beethoven symphony and the 'Tris' and 'Isis' music demonstrate the common genealogy of the composer from Bonn and the maker of music dramas, but listen to the Strauss music from 'Salome' when the prophet is being murdered in the well and then hear the mighty tone structure of the last scene from 'Gotterdammerung' and believe that Strauss shrieks while Wagner chants.—San Francisco Call.

For the Earache.

"I am afraid I have greatly interfered with my own practice," said a celebrated artist. "By giving the following advice to my friends. At the first symptoms of earache let the patient lie on the bed with the painful ear uppermost. Fold a thick towel and tuck it around the neck; then with a teaspoon fill the ear with warm water. Continue doing this for fifteen or twenty minutes. The water will fill the ear orifice and flow over on the towel. Afterward turn over the head, let the water run out and plug the ear with warm glycerin and cotton. This may be done every hour until relief is obtained. It is an almost invincible cure and has saved many cases of acute inflammation. The water should be quite warm, but not too hot."—Family Doctor.

She Wasn't Affected.

Mrs. Brown from Boston has a color of cook—from Georgia. The other day Mrs. Brown went into the kitchen, and Liza put in a request: "Miss Brown," she said, "won't you please, ma'am, get me a calendar?" "Why, Liza, there's a calendar hanging by the door. You don't want an 'other calendar.'" "Yes'm, I does. But I mean a calendar that you presses things through Dat's de kind ob calendar I wants." Mrs. Brown had a glimmer. "Oh, Liza, you mean a calendar!" she exclaimed. "Well, it's de same thing," said Liza patiently. "You uses de broad 'a' out I doesn't. I just says plain calendar."—New York Globe.

Keelman of Newcastle's.

The Newcastle barges claim a place in English song, for they are the inspirers of that ancient ditty "Weel May the Keel Row." According to A. G. Beadley, "it is a very old Newcastle air, and the keel, a local coal barge which has been used from earliest times to convey the coal from wagons to the vessel, the word being, I believe, the old Saxon equivalent for ship or boat. The keelmen of Newcastle were a distinct body of men, and their boats were constructed to measure the wagons, for the convenience of the customs and the trade generally."—London Chronicle.

Harry's Opinion.

The teacher was giving a test on the value of foreign money in America. When it was little Harry's turn, she asked: "Harry, how much is a guinea worth in this country?" Harry smiled and answered, "A dollar and a half a day."—Lippincott's.

INSTINCT IN PLANTS.

Actions That Seem to Indicate Some Sort of Nervous System.

Plants sometimes appear to possess reasoning power. Charles Darwin instanced the case of the rootlet, which, piercing its way through the soil and detecting a stone or lump of hard clay in its path, will go round it without touching it. "How does the rootlet or plant know that the stone is there?" he asks. "Certainly it cannot see it and as it does not touch it cannot feel it. The avoidance therefore seems to be in the nature of perception of some kind which is a mental operation."

The species of mimosa known as the sensitive plant will contract its leaves even at the sound of a footstep, and when such a plant is being transplanted it crumples up during the process in such a way that it really appears to be suffering from fear. Afterward it recovers and resumes its ordinary mode of life.

Plants undoubtedly possess consciousness of a kind which enables them to carry out certain operations necessary to their preservation, and this can only be done through the possession of some sort of nervous system.—London Standard.

Disraeli's Nuptial Joke.

There was a little joke between them (Disraeli and his wife) which I heard from the late dean of Salisbury. "You know I married you for your money," Disraeli would say to her. "Oh, yes, but if you were to marry me again you would marry me for love," was the regular reply. "Oh, yes," her husband would exclaim, and the little nuptial comedy ended.

But what Disraeli said to Bernal Osborne once about his marriage is much better worth the telling. It was at a dinner party after dinner when the men were alone. "What did you marry her for?" Osborne asked in his characteristic way. Disraeli twiddled his wingless in the pause that followed this point blank inquiry. Then he lifted his head slowly and looked the other way expressively in the face.

"For a reason," he said, "which you could never understand—gratitude." From "Lord Beaconsfield and Other Tory Memories."

The Coach and Four Came.

Among the many records of Harrow school is that of a boy, the son of a poor local tradesman in a very small way of business. His schoolfellows often taunted him about his family poverty. Their thoughtless jeers, although hurting his feelings, drew from the lad the retort, "I intend before I die to ride in a coach and four." The years sped by, and, lo and behold, the poverty stricken youngster of Harrow was developed into Dr. Parr, the greatest scholar of his time, whose customary and favorite means of locomotion was a coach and four.—London Mail.

Came Near It.

A New England farmer was once describing in the presence of a very humane person the great size and utility of a horse that he formerly owned and used. "You ought to have killed him," interrupted the humane person indignantly. "Well," drawled the farmer, "we did—almost."

STRENGTH OF HUMAN BONES.

More Powerful in Some Ways Than the Stanchest Oak.

Human bones are really tremendously strong and possessed of marvellous resisting power. Indeed, the bones of the fairest, most delicate looking woman are stronger than the strongest oak. Of course a bone is hollow, and that is one of the chief reasons it resists such extreme weights. For instance, a small bone which is no more than a square millimeter in diameter will hold in suspension without breaking some thirty-five pounds, while a stick of best oak of similar width will not hold more than twenty pounds. Indeed, the average bone of the average man is stronger by one half than that of solid oak.

The principle on which our bones are constructed, being made hollow and consequently stronger than if they were solid and heavier, is the same mechanics have followed the world over. Consequently engineers employ tubes instead of solid cylinders. In the case of animals thousands of years ago one reason of their bulky frame is attributed by scientists as due to the fact their bones were solid and added to their weight.—Chicago Tribune.

FARMERS COMPLAIN THAT BANKS ARE EXORBITANT

(Canadian Press Despatch) SASKATOON, Sask., Aug. 15.—Declaring that it is impossible to get one dollar from the banks on personal loans and that money on mortgages could only be obtained at from 8 to 10 per cent, a large number of representative farmers from the Saskatchewan district attended the Royal Commission on Agricultural Credits and Grain Markets meeting here yesterday afternoon. Farmers complained of the heavy charges for negotiating loans.

He Didn't Do It OR.

"Gracious," said Mr. Staylate, "it's nearly midnight, I should be going pretty soon, I suppose." "Yes," replied Miss Patience Conne, "you know the old saying, 'Never put off till tomorrow what you can do today.'"—Philadelphia Press.

Much Worse.

"Oh dear," pouted the pretty girl in irritation, as the trolley car came to a standstill, "what is worse than waiting on a switch?" "Trying to pass on the same mill, madam," responded a gentleman beside her.—Judge.

To be weak is miserable, doing of suffering.—Milton.

A Matter of Gender.

The bell of a Scottish church was giving out a very poor tone, and a committee was appointed to inquire as to what was wrong and to report on the best means of putting it right. After an examination the members were divided in their opinion, and the clerk's officer, who was in attendance with the keys, was asked his view. "Fine, a ken what's wrang w' the bell," he remarked, "it's a she-yn," meaning that it was of the feminine gender. Pressed to explain, he added, "It's tongue's awre lang—it's needin' to be clipped." And this turned out to be really the fault. The tongue had become loosened to the extent of an inch or so and was overlapping the curve at the rim and therefore not striking truly.

Dogs of Belgium.

Belgian dogs that are harnessed to carts often work themselves to death. They may enjoy their work for a time when they hurt themselves into the collar to drag the milk cart and often the lazy milkman as well as his cans, but they do not enjoy the ensuing paralysis. The sight of a dog dying of starvation in the streets because his paralysis jerked him away from food every time he attempted to take it is not conducive to happy memories of Belgium.

CHIEF CAMPEAU DECLINES ISSUE

He Will Not Proceed With Suit Against John H. Roberts.

Defamation of Character Was Charged Against Fiery John.

[Canadian Press Despatch]
MONTREAL, Aug. 15.—The number of actions and counter actions which are enflaming from the police department have been reduced by one. Chief Campeau announces that he has decided not to proceed for the present with his suit against John H. Roberts for defamation of character and that nothing will be done until the investigation into the charges against the chief as to his connection with the Frisco Soda Water Co., is over. Chief Campeau says he desires to let the matter go ahead on its merits and that if he wins, as he expects to, he will at once drop Roberts' charges afterwards.

It appears that the attorneys for Chief Campeau had been instructed several weeks ago, to prepare a case against the secretary of the Dominion Alliance, and that it was a coincidence that the Board of Control, had granted the application for a judicial enquiry in the Frisco case on the same day that Messrs. German and Laflamme had announced to Chief Campeau they were ready to proceed with the prosecution against Mr. Roberts.

It developed to-day that the unearthing of the private police graft robe came just a few hours too soon or if it had only been delayed half a day longer, a trap would have been laid for another member of the force. Incidentally the plan was to catch the man in question with the goods on him in the form of a marked bill. The bill was in readiness, two detectives had arranged to be at an appointed rendezvous, where he was to take the graft from a keeper of a house of ill-repute from whom he a couple of days ago, demanded his toll for "services rendered."

A Good Investment
Says Chief Lewis

A New Motor Truck Would Save the City a Whole Lot of Money.

A communication is on file at the city clerk's office, addressed to Alderman, Chairman of the Fire and Light Committee, from D. J. Lewis, chief of the fire department, in which he calls the worthy alderman's attention to the fact that he sent a communication to the city council recommending that a motor combination chemical and hose truck be purchased for the department. Chief Lewis points out that, in his opinion, it would be a first class investment for the city. He says it cost $300 per year to keep a team of horses. The chief compared the cost of keeping the horses with cost of maintenance of a truck in Auburn, N.Y., which cost $71.25. The cost of keep of the horses which superseded it, was $327.60.

In Lansing, Mich., last year, there were 129 fires and the truck covered 208 miles and the cost of maintaining same amounted to $53.29.

Chief Lewis said that some of the horses are getting up in years, and will soon have to be replaced by younger animals, unless a motor truck is purchased.

The chief says that in answering an alarm on Terrace Hill the horses are played out when they come to the foot of the hill, and the firemen have to get out and push the rigs up the hill. He is anxious that a combination truck should be purchased.

NAMES MR. CLAYTON ALABAMA SENATOR

Henry D. Clayton, member of Congress from the Third District of Alabama, was named by Governor O'Neal as United States Senator to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Joseph F. Johnston. Mr. Clayton's commission was delivered to him.

Mr. Clayton accepted the appointment and announced that he would leave Montgomery, Ala., for Washington to present his credentials to the Senate. He added that he would not resign his seat in the House until after he had been seated in the Senate.

With the City Police

Last night at 10.30 P. C's Pickell and Cobden arrested a man named William Elwin, for being drunk. When Elwin was searched at the police station, a lot of jewelry was found on him, including several watches, chains, and two pair of false teeth. The case came up this morning but was remanded for a week in order to let the police look into it more fully.

Wm. Elliott, who does plastering work, left some of his material on the roadway on Dundas street, which obstructed the road. Elliott thought, owing to the full moon, it was unnecessary to put lights there at night. He was fined $1 and costs.

Thirteen carpenters on the O'Reilly theatre, had their employer up for non-payment of wages. The carpenters were told that the job was finished, but as they were not paid of they stayed around for several days for their pay. The magistrate thought the carpenters were entitled to their charges, and O'Reilly was made to pay all the claims as well as a fifty cent witness fee. This is the contract under which the carpenters were working:

"That we, the carpenters on the following contract:
"1) That we receive wages not later than 5 p.m. every Monday evening, and also to be paid for all time waiting after the said time.
"2) That we be paid from 7 a.m. this morning.

Slapped Him Properly. "If you put your arms around me you will get slapped." This was the attitude of a local married lady who attended the Centennial week celebration last night in Hamilton.

The lady in question was walking along the street in Hamilton last night when a man brushed a tickler over her a man. She pulled the tickler away from her face. Then the smarty put his arms around her and she slapped his face.

A Barn Raising. Mr. Frank Etherington, Wellington street, had a barn raising this week, after which an enjoyable time was spent.

Obituary

Mrs. John Caton. The death occurred last night of Grace E. Norwood, beloved wife of John S. Caton at her late residence, 154 Rawdon St. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon from her late residence to Mt. Hope cemetery.

That is the Record at the Brantford Post Office—Some Figures Given.

There is an average 225 letters sent from the local post office to the dead letter office at Ottawa each month. Four times monthly the letters are sent to the capital. The first three budgets sent during the month contain about fifty letters, and the last budget 75. A large number of these letters are directed to residents from the old country who have ceased to reside in the city. Also a large proportion are directed to foreigners who cannot be located and who probably are dead during the month. Oftentimes a letter will come bearing the foreigner's name but only directed to Brantford. Naturally the letter eventually goes to the dead letter office. The other day a letter was received bearing the name of the place it was from, the month it was written in, and the date; then followed thirsdual directions.

SKELETON FOUND ON SARAH STREET

There Was Once a Burial on the Premises of Mr. Robert Fowler.

A workman engaged in digging a trench on the premises of Robert Fowler, 2 Sarah street, for the purpose of making sewer connection, on Monday noon struck his shovel against an old decayed, as he thought, wooden box. When he put his shovel down the supposed box crumbled in, and much to the man's surprise his eyes gazed upon a skeleton which was lying in a old decayed coffin.

The skeleton was dug out by the man and laid on the grass. A medical man looked at the bones and declared it to be the skeleton of a tall and well developed man. Mr. Fowler had the bones put in a box and intended to donate them to a young medical student.

There was also found a tuft of fair hair.

"There's nothing to it," said D. Cady Herrick, chief of Sulzer's staff of lawyers, when asked if the report was true.

Governor Sulzer continued firm in his determination to occupy the executive chambers and administer the state's affairs to-day. The possibility of being served with a court order enjoining him, from so doing had been the topic of long discussion among his counsel but they gave no indication of their course should such a step be taken.

Lieutenant-Governor Glenn expected to visit the capitol to-day in his asserted capacity as acting governor, and attend to any matters that might come before him.

Mrs. Sulzer still lay ill of a nervous disorder, unable to see her friends and with specialists in constant attendance at her bedside. She was improved when she awoke this morning from a refreshing sleep, but was still gravely ill.

Aaron J. Levy, majority leader of the assembly, who led the fight on the assembly floor of impeachment, was suffering from a nervous breakdown. He is at a local hotel and was reported better this morning.

BROOKLYN, Aug. 15.—Pittsburg beat Brooklyn 13 to 8 yesterday in a heavy hitting game. Manager Dalton, of the locals, used four pitchers to stop the fusillade, but the Pirates treated them all alike, accumulating 19 hits for a total of 31 bases. Cooper with Pittsburg ahead, was relieved by McQuillan in the fifth, and is credited with the game. Both were battered hard at times, but Brooklyn never gained a lead. Wagner's long hits were timely for Pittsburg, as was Cooper's double with the bases full. Carey got a triple and three singles. Scores—

PHILLIES WON TWO.

Cincinnati Were Taken into Camp in Double-Header.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 15.—Philadelphia opened its home stay yesterday by winning both games of a double header from Cincinnati by 1 to 0 and 7 to 2. The opening contest was a twirling duel between Alexander and Ames, the latter being taken out in the eighth to permit Bates to bat for him. Philadelphia took a big lead in the second and third innings of the second contest by pounding Brown steadily and easily held it. In each of these sessions Cravath drove a home run into the bleachers, Seaton, although wild, as very effective with men on the bases. Brown remained in the game. Manager Tinker is short of pitchers. Johnson, the Indian twirler of Cincinnati, is on the missing list and nothing has been heard of him since

ERRORS LOST GAME FOR PETERBORO

Ottawa Won a Bitterly Fought Game by a Score of 3-2.

OTTAWA, Aug. 14.—In the most bitterly fought game of the season the Ottawas nosed out Peterboro by 3 to 2 yesterday.

With the champions one run behind and two out in the seventh, Bullock singled and dashed to third when Trout's throw fooled Brant. Rogers walked, and when Thompson dropped the throw to get Dolan at first, Bullock tallied. Rogers and Dolan then executed a beautiful double steal and "Lefty" beat out the throw to the plate. Belling outpitched Renfer in a great duel, and should have had a win, but errors of Brant, Hilliard and Tracey were directly responsible for the defeat of the visiting White Caps. In the first frame Umpire Jacobson caused a storm of protest when he called Bullock safe at second, and Catcher McNeal was fired out of the grounds, likewise Manager Davy Rowan, who disputed hotly with the umpire. McNeal capped the climax by throwing the ball and hitting Jacobson in the small of the back. A policeman escorted the offensive ball player from the field.

Peterboro played snappy ball, and deserved to win. It was errors that beat them, though the Ottawas did some great base running. In the first Shaughnessy singled and dashed from first to the plate, when Rogers' bouncer went over Brant's head. Trout caught three or four stealings and would have won the game had Brant not gone to sleep on two of three occasions. Frank Shaughnessy electrified the crowd with a beautiful running catch in deep centre. It looked good for a three-bagger, but the Ottawa manager went over behind Rogers and clutched it successfully. ST. THOMAS BEAT BERLIN.

The Dutchmen Went Down to Defeat by 4 to 3 in a Listless Game.

BERLIN, Aug. 14.—St. Thomas nosed out a victory at Berlin yesterday by 4 to 3 in a listless argument. After Berlin tied up the score in the seventh the Saints drove in the winning counter in the last frame when Barney doubled, advanced on Kustus' sacrifice and scored on Ort's long fly. Tracey were directly responsible for the defeat of the visiting White Caps. White's Hopes got two in the 5th by bunting three hits. With two out in the 7th Barney drew a pass. Kustus singled, stole second, and both runners scored when Getsi, hooded Ort's grounder. Wild Bill Baker came through a number of tight holes. Bramble pitched a steady game, but was touched up freely. Umpire Davis arrived half an hour late and Pitchers

Bradshaw and Clements took his place for three innings.

Heck Bested Gero in Fast Game at London—Errors Cause Trouble.

LONDON, Aug. 15.—Yesterday the fans of London were enabled to witness Heck winning his 20th game this season, when he held the Brantford team to six hits, winning a victory which savored much of Heck's ability, as he not only hurled well but drove in the tying run and scored the winning run himself, carrying off the day's batting honors with three blows out of four times at bat. The game at the end of the hour and 30 minutes of play was 5 to 2 in Mr. Heck's favor.

Kept Hits Scattered.

Two lonely hits came in a bunch in the third inning, along with a base on balls and an error gave the visitors their only runs. The other four bingles were so widely scattered that only Coose reached third again and that on an error in the sixth. Gero, the most consistent pitcher on the staff of the Red Men, was wild and wobbly and when he held the Tecumseh hits scattered, he was lucky, as three innings spent certain disaster along with bases on balls and timely swats. He only got away in one inning, retiring the side in succession, as men were left on the bases and the remainder. Daly as an umpire looked decidedly poor yesterday, and is not dispensing decisions with his usual good judgment. Brantford got the worst of several decisions.

Earl Powell Released

Manager Wagner's tail-enders presented a good front for a team so far down in the rut, but Earl Powell was not seen at first base, having been let out before they arrived in the city, so "Gabby" Ivers was at his usual place. Brantford gave an argument for a short term by getting in the lead for two runs in the third inning. Lamond walked and went to second on Gero's ball; Wagner singled to Stewart, but Lamond got only to third, but later scored on Keenan's hit into the same place. When the ball bounded away from Stewart, Wagner scored, and Keenan bobbed up at third in his usual easy and graceful way. One has to hand to Jo Jo; he is still there, able to pull off some out of the ordinary ball.

Heck's Hit Score.

London tied the score in the fourth inning, when Stewart opened with a single to second and went to second on Dunlop's hit and scored. Leonard's first when Neale smashed a timely blow to Slemm. Neale flew out to second. Smith drew a pass and hit Beebe the day before, crossed with the bingle which was the tying run. Neale registered two more runs were added in the sixth. Neale walked and advanced a base on Smith's bunt and scored the winning run on Heck's single to Slemm. Heck went to third when Linneborn singled and scored on a squeeze play. Matteson did the sneezing in by laying down a perfect bunt to Keenan, which advanced a base on Smith's bunt and scored the winning run on Heck's single to Slemm. Heck went to third when Stewart got his second hit, and went to second on Slemm's error. Dunlop was out when he fouled, bunting the third strike. Stewart advanced on Neale's grounder to Keenan and scored on Neale's high bounding grounder over Nelson's head. The last feat of any account was Heck beating out a bunt to Nelson at third, who was caught flat-footed on the hit and did not attempt to make a throw to first. Linneborn, Bierbauer and Dunlop started in the field, accepting 30 chances out of 32. The score:

WHICH LINIMENT IS BEST? For muscular pains and aches a thick oily preparation can't penetrate—that's why Nerviline beats them all—it sinks right in. "wouldn't live without Nerviline in my house," writes J. B. Cottam, of Mastown, N.S. "If you have rheumatism, or soreness in the muscles or in fact any need of an honest liniment, Nerviline fills the bill. I can recommend it highly because I have proved that in one application of Polson's Nerviline there is more virtue than in a whole bottle of ordinary liniment." Try one of the large 85c bottles.

WOMEN SUFFRAGE COMMITTEE ASKED

Women Appear at Washington With a Special Plea.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Supported in their arguments by several members of the House, delegates to the National Council of Women Voters appeared today before the House Suffrage Committee to urge the creation of a woman suffrage committee in the lower branch of Congress. The women were led by Mrs. Emma Smith Devoe, president of the Council; Representatives Raker of California, Keating of Colorado and Falconer of Washington were on hand to champion their cause.

Miss Jane Addams of Chicago, Dr. Viola M. Coe of Oregon, Dr. Cora Smith-Lynn of Washington, and Mrs. Francis Bjorkman of Colorado were announced to make the principal arguments for the appointment of a suffrage committee. The fact that such a committee had long existed in the Senate, the women believed, was sufficient reason why a similar committee should be available to them in the representative branch of Congress.

In anticipation of a large audience the rules committee abandoned its original intention to hold the hearing in its own room. Instead the women were received by Chairman Hendry and his colleagues in the conference room in the House office building, the largest chamber in the structure. Reports on the recent international suffrage convention at Budapest and papers on conditions in the states of Washington, Colorado and Oregon were on the programme of the afternoon session. A garden party to-night will conclude the second day's conference.

THREE SHOT BY A MAD POLICEMAN.

Eighty Armed Officers Scour Country for Assailant.

After evading capture for four and twenty hours, Bernard McCahey, a Londonderry policeman, who suddenly lost his reason and shot three men gave himself up on Tuesday. McCahey was ill, and two constables had sat up with him at the Lecky-road Police Barracks, Londonderry. While they were in an adjoining room he came in from the bedroom armed with a magazine rifle and fired at both, shattering the arm of one and badly injuring the other. He then rushed out and shot a fisherman named Brandon, the bullet passing along his ribs. He then escaped to the country. He had complained of pain in his head, and suddenly became deranged.

McCahey had his rifle, and twenty rounds of ammunition with him when he fled from the barracks, and attempting his capture was a dangerous task. Eighty policemen with rifles were detailed to search for him, but though various rumors as to his whereabouts came in, nothing tangible was known until Tuesday. Then he was located in a wood near Burk, six miles from Londonderry. Impelled by hunger, he sought food three times during the day, and went to the house of a postman for a drink of water. The madman still had his rifle in his hand, and when he attempted to shoot at anyone, but when near an agricultural labourer he fired a shot in the air. Then he proceeded towards a plantation in the vicinity, being followed at a safe distance by several villagers.

A strong party of police was immediately on the scene. Two shots were fired in the air, and when he saw his comrades approach McCahey flung his rifle to the ground and quietly gave himself up. He was worn out.

McCahey was charged with wounding Acting Sergeant Flannery, Constable Hayden and Brandon. A constable who assisted as escort stated that he talked to him quite calmly and rationally about the shooting. Asked why he fired at his comrades, McCahey said he thought they were waiting to harm him. As for Brandon, he said the man mimicked him. ANCASTER, Ont.

Rectory is Ransacked

Earl's Butler Has Alarming Encounter With Fugitives.

How a couple of men who, it is alleged, had made a rich haul at Newton St. Loc Rectory, near Bath, lost spoils and liberty through over-indulgence in the rector's spirits was described at Weston Police Court, London, England.

John Crowley and Joseph Warren were charged with breaking into the rectory and stealing various articles of silver. The rector, the Rev. Paquet-Lambart Bayly, had been away with his household on a visit for several days, and according to the evidence, on the previous morning Watson, the gardener, noticed that the glass of the French window of the dining room opening on to the lawn had been broken.

He raised an alarm, and Mr. Daniell's butler at Newton Park, Earl Temple's residence, caught one of the fugitives as he was climbing on to a shed. He uttered such terrible threats however, that Daniell released him; whereupon he scaled a wall, but fell heavily on the other side and was captured. His companion was also caught.

On the way to the station they handed to the police numerous solid silver articles, including a bonbon basket, forks, spoons, sugar-tongs and flower vases all from the rectory. The house had been ransacked from top to bottom. Decanters of brandy and whiskey had been nearly emptied. A remand was ordered.

He Pleaded Guilty.

QUEBEC, Aug. 15.—Lus Dube, assistant superintendent of the Metropolitan Insurance Company, arrested on Monday last on a charge of signing death certificates and collecting the premiums on persons insured with the company, who were alive, pleaded guilty to two counts of forgery in the police court yesterday afternoon, and was remanded for sentence until September 3 to allow him to audit his books and make a general investigation.

SIFTON NOT A BLUE RUINIST

Premier of Alberta Speaks Hopefully of Conditions in The West.

[Canadian Press Dispatch] OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 15.—Hon. Arthur L. Sifton, premier of Alberta, is not one of the men from the west who takes much stock in the "blue ruin" cry which tight money conditions have produced. He arrived in Ottawa to-day and to the Canadian Press said that general business in the West is good with the outlook for better things hopeful.

"Among real estate men business may be quiet just now," he said, "but I assure you financially and industrially there is very little to complain about. Alberta will, I think, be able to look after her financial affairs without very much trouble, if any, because of the rapid growth going on everywhere."

Hon. Mr. Sifton said that the harvest promises to be bountiful. He is en route to visit his brother, Hon. Clifford Sifton at Assiniboine Lodge, near Brockville.

Fatally Injured.

QUEBEC, Aug. 15.—Emile Nadeau, a former carter, was fatally injured in an automobile accident which occurred early this morning. His car skidded and collided with an electric pole.

Funerals to Be Cheaper

Motor Omnibus to Carry Coffin, Minister, and Mourners.

A company has been formed in Chicago, having for its object the reduction of the cost of funerals in the city which is very high, his company has provided ten motor omnibuses, each large enough to contain a coffin and funeral party of ordinary size.

The funeral coaches have a compartment at the right of the chauffeur's seat for the coffin, and above it a place for flowers. Near the driver are places for the minister and the undertaker, while there is accommodation in the bus for twenty-seven mourners. Such a funeral with this number of mourners can be carried out for $30, which is an immense reduction on the present price.

LORD ROSEBERY ON GOOD MANNERS

Advice to Boys to Cultivate Habit of Courtesy—Its Commercial Value.

In the course of an entertaining speech delivered by Lord Rosebery, Guildford Grammar School on day on the occasion of the distribution of prizes, his lordship upon the importance of good manners for the boy and the man.

At the outset he said that he first began distributing prizes himself was rather haunted with reflection that he did not get at prizes which possibly greater try might have enabled him to attain. (Laughter) Commenting on the remarkable success of his brother's named Champion de la term he said he could not get together share the regret of the master that there were no more Champions to enter the school, but that he gave the other families a chance. (Laughter)

"In the school statutes framed years ago," he went on, "they that honesty and cleanness of genuinely decent speech, humbly, and good manners as he established in the school. At the point I wish to labour is the courtesy and good manners."

"The men of the seventeenth century were I suspect the art bread of Englishmen that England has ever produced—partly because they possessed good manners in a sense, and also they recognized enormous importance of courtesy, good manners in the common actions of life.

"We English people—and afraid still more we Scots people have never been famous for manners, I think at one time was a sort of John Bull feeling England that good manners were device of dancing, frog-eating men, whom it was our duty to spise and defeat (Laughter). "That was a false view. A who respects himself is always mannered to others. We distribute when we visit schools, are very to judge of the character of a boy by the respect the boys pay to masters. If we go to a school the boys do not touch their hats to their masters when they meet form, perhaps erroneously, a opinion of that school.

"Tribute to Ourselves "When we touch our hats to master we mean he is the head of community, and as the head of community, we pay ourselves tribute by exalting him. When King goes through the streets, are fortunate enough to see him take off our hats to him. That mark of respect to the King in first place, but in the second, it is a mark of respect to our that we wish to show our veneration to the head of the community which we belong.

"I think there has been a decay of manners in England and Scotland all over the world. It is a good sign. If people have not spirit of reverence themselves, if it be an outward reverence, are not going the right way and possibly going the wrong way. Manners have an enormous commercial value in life.

"In public life, I have seen an appearance and manners get start of much abler fellows that have been able to occupy a much higher than their own ab services would entitle them. "Take three boys applying for a monster of learning, another third may not have the same of either, but if he has good manners and instead of grunting an art like the first boy, or of not answering like the second, he gives a respectful, not gringing, answer to the questions, it is ten to one against the other two.

"I ask every boy if he for everything else I have said to be mind the enormous value of manners without them, and will try to be or are well-mannered."

LORD ROSEBERY ON GOOD MANNERS

Advice to Boys to Cultivate Habit of Courtesy—Its Commercial Value.

In the course of an entertaining speech delivered by Lord Rosebery at Guildford Grammar School on Monday on the occasion of the distribution of prizes, his lordship dwelt upon the importance of good manners for the boy and the man.

At the outset he said that when he first began distributing prizes he himself was rather haunted with the reflection that he did not get all the prizes which possibly greater industry might have enabled him to obtain. (Laughter) Commenting on the remarkable success of three brothers named Champion during the term he said he could not altogether share the regret of the headmaster that there were no more such Champions to enter the school. They must give the other families a chance. (Laughter)

"In the school statutes framed 300 years ago," he went on, "they say that honesty and cleanness of life, genuinely decent speech, humility, courtesy, and good manners are to be established by all good means. The point I wish to labour is that of courtesy and good manners."

"The men of the seventeenth century were I suspect, the greater breed of Englishmen—that England has ever produced—partly because they possessed good manners themselves, and also they recognized the enormous importance of courtesy and good manners in the common transactions of life.

OFFICER RIDES OVER A DARK PRECIPICE

Climax to the Reckless Ride of a Fearless Horseman.

It Carried Horse and Rider Past the Edge of a Sheer Cliff to a Fall of Two Hundred and Fifty Feet to the Rocks and Water Below, Yet the Man Lived.

Perhaps the most extraordinary fall that a human being ever survived is that described by Thorneby in his "Sporting Stories." The lucky man was Colonel William York Moore, a British officer, who rode his horse in the dark over a sheer precipice 247 feet in height and came out alive! It seems incredible that such a fearful experience should result in anything but instant death, yet here are the facts, which once again confirm the adage that truth is more wonderful than fiction.

Colonel Moore, who commanded the troops at Dominica, lost his way one evening after sunset. In complete darkness he endeavored to make his way home. Two or three times he had difficulty in making his horse cross obstacles, and at last they came to something that the horse would not face.

Colonel Moore was a fearless rider and again he rode his horse at full speed against the unknown obstacle, but in vain. At last, urged forward by whip and spur, the terrified animal, with a snort of terror, cleared the low hedge—for such the obstruction proved to be—and went over the cliff.

Colonel Moore says that during his flight on horseback through the air every event of his whole life seemed to pass in a luminous panorama before him. Suddenly there came a terrific concussion, which deprived him of his senses and left him with his legs in the sea and his body on the rocks, apparently dead.

He must have lain there stunned for some hours, for when at last the lapping water and the cool breezes restored him the moon was shining brightly in midheaven and its beams fell upon the upturned, glittering shoes of his gallant horse, which lay dead and mangled beside him.

As soon as he had collected his scattered wits Colonel Moore coolly began to examine himself to ascertain what injuries he had sustained. He found that he was severely cut about the body and head, that his right ankle was dislocated and that his back was benumbed or paralyzed by the concussion of his fall.

When the sun rose it shone upon his bare, bleeding head with such intolerable heat that, as a protection from its rays, he tied his cotton handkerchief about his forehead. Above his head projected the two ends of the knotted bandage stained crimson with his blood.

After lying in horrible pain for several hours he spied a boatful of natives rowing toward the spot where he lay. As they came near he hailed them in a faint voice, but the moment they saw the ghastly figure of the colonel, with his bloody headdress, they set up a yell and rowed away as if 20,000 devils were after them.

After some time a single black man came clambering over the rocks, intent on catching fish. He was within a few yards of the colonel when the latter hailed him. The moment the negro caught sight of the bleeding head and the blood stained bandage he, too, uttered a fearful yell, flung down his rod and fled and scrambled off over the rocks as fast as his feet and hands would carry him.

The colonel now began to resign himself to the prospect of a lingering death, but fortunately his English servant, alarmed at his master's absence, went in search of him and, following the horse's tracks, at last came to the edge of the precipice.

The sudden disappearance of the foot prints near the low hedge fence convinced him that an accident had happened. He ran to the barracks and got out a boat, which a party of soldiers rowed to the foot of the cliff.

Very tenderly and carefully the soldiers lifted the colonel into the boat and brought him back to the barracks. For some months he lay in great pain and danger, but in time the paralyzed muscles of his back recovered, and eventually he was restored to complete health. Not even the slightest touch of lameness remained, as he reminded him of his fall.

INDIAN NECKLACE A BIG MYSTERY

Lady Denies That One Produced Belongs to Her—Whose is it?

Though the case is ended, the mystery of Mrs. Margaret Heasman's lost necklace is not yet solved. Mrs. Heasman is the wife of an Eastbourne physician, who used to play cricket for Sussex with Ranjitsinhji. When the latter became Jam of Nawanager the Heasmans visited him in England, and while there a Rance presented Mrs. Heasman with a valuable necklace.

Mrs. Heasman asserts that after she returned from India, she took the necklace to Messrs. Bruford and Sons, jewelers of Eastbourne, for repair, and some time later, when she called for it they told her that they could not find any trace of it. She accordingly brought an action for its return. Messrs. Bruford denied that they ever received the necklace.

At the last hearing there was a curious development. Mr. H. W. Apte, another Eastbourne jeweler, having seen a report of the case in the Press, brought a necklace to court which he stated had been left with him by Mrs. Heasman. Through her counsel however, Mrs. Heasman denied that this was the necklace in dispute.

When the hearing was resumed in the King's Bench, on Monday, Mr. George Ernest Gilham, formerly in the employ of Messrs. Bruford, stated that Mrs. Heasman first called at the shop in connection with the sale of some old gold. Later she called, and said, "I have called you a necklace which I cannot find. Have you got it here?" He said he would have a search made, and later he told her that no trace of it could be found. He did not seem at all to be annoyed. He had never received such a necklace as the one indicated.

Mrs. May Wise, daughter of Mr.

Apte, said she formerly assisted her father in the business. She received the necklace produced from a lady who said she wanted it repaired quickly. She said it was a present to her when she was in India. Nobody came for the necklace until when she read the report of the case in the papers she mentioned it to her father. She had no doubt the lady was Mrs. Heasley.

Mrs. Heasley said she never left the necklace produced or any other necklace with Mr. Apte. She explained in detail to his lordship the differences between her own necklace and the one produced by Mr. Apte.

Dr. Heasman also said he was certain that the necklace produced was not the one given to his wife in India.

Several people who had seen Mrs. Heasman's necklace gave evidence that the one in court was not the Indian one.

Mr. Justice Phillimore said he was not satisfied that Mrs. Heasman left her necklace with Messrs. Bruford, and he should, therefore, enter judgment for the latter, with costs, except as an allowance of £30 which he would make to Mrs. Heasman.

COURTESY COST HIM HIS LIFE

Gave His Seat to Lady and Fell From Train - Overcrowding Peril.

An overcrowded train and his own innate courtesy led to the death of Alfred W. H. Waker, the nineteen-year-old son of a widow, of Cooper's road, High Street, Homerton, on whom an inquest was held at Shoreditch on Tuesday.

Waker was travelling in a North London train from Broad Street to Homerton, and while standing up in a crowded compartment the office door flew open, and he was thrown on to the permanent way near the Dunloe Street signal box. He was run over by a passing train and decapitated.

Edward Bridges, of Brookfield Road, Hackney, said he was a passenger in the compartment. The train stopped at Shoreditch, and soon after it had started there was a cry that someone had fallen out of the train on the outside. The communication cord was pulled, and the train was stopped before it could reach Haggerston. He could not say how Waker fell out.

The coroner in reply to a question, was informed that there was no one present who actually saw the youth fall out. Dr. Wescott remarked that Waker must have been standing next to the door, or he would not have fallen out.

"My instruction," said Mr. Cowper (appearing for the relative) "are that Walter gave up his seat to a lady who got in the train at Broad Street. He was rightfully in the carriage when someone entered. As it was a lady, he would naturally give his seat to her, and that would remove any blame from him. I do not say that the railway company ought not to permit this overcrowding."

"If the compartment was crowded he would have no business to get in," remarked the coroner.

"He was one of ten who got in at Broad Street and had a seat," replied Mr. Cowper.

"Then I suppose the lady would be at fault in getting in and inducing him to commit an illegal act by giving up his seat," said the coroner, amid laughter.

Mr. Tait, who appeared for the railway company, said that as to overcrowding it was impossible to prevent people standing in these carriages.

The jury returned a verdict of "Accidental death," but said there was no evidence to show how the floor came open.

Mr. Tait and the coroner expressed their sympathy with Waker's widowed mother.

Mr. Plowden on Pitch and Toss "Go away and don't gamble, because it collects a crowd," said Mr. Plowden, at Maryebone Police Court on Monday, to two men accused of playing pitch and toss. The magistrate added: "Otherwise, there is no harm that I know of. Pitch and toss to your heart's content if you can do it without being found out."

WOMEN NEED A SAFE TONIC

And There is Nothing Better Than Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Toning up the Blood.

It is said that woman's work is never done, and it is a fact that whether in society or in the home her life is filled with more cares and more worries than falls to the lot of man. For this reason women are compelled regretfully to watch the growing pallor of their cheeks, the coming of wrinkles and the thinness that becomes more distressing every day. Every woman knows that ill health and worry is a fatal enemy to beauty and that good health gives the pleasant face an enduring attraction.

What women fail to realize is the fact that if the blood supply is kept rich and pure, the day of the coming of wrinkles and pallor, dull eyes and sharp headaches is immeasurably postponed. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are literally worth their weight in gold to growing girls and women of mature years. They fill the veins with the rich, red blood that brings brightness to the eye, the glow of health to sallow cheeks, and charms away the headaches and backaches that render the lives of so many women constantly miserable.

Mr. W. Williams Jones, Crow Lake, Ont., says: "I feel that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saved my life. I was so badly run down that I could hardly drag myself around. I was so bloodless that I was as pale as a sheet, and you could almost see through my hands. In fact the doctor told me my blood had all turned to water. I was taking medicine constantly but without benefit. My mother had so much faith in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that she bought me two boxes and urged me to take them. How thankful I am that I followed her advice. Before they were gone I began to feel better, and I continued using the Pills until I had taken five more boxes when I was again enjoying the blessing of perfect health, with a good color in my face, a good appetite, and I feel sure a new lease of life. I will all ways, you may be sure, be a warm friend of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

If you are weak or ailing begin to cure yourself to-day with the rich red blood Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually makes. If you do not find the Pills at your dealer's send 50 cents for a box or $2.50 for six boxes to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., and they will be sent you by mail postpaid.

SECRET WEDDING. One more secret marriage has turned out unhappily, and the courts have had to come to the rescue of the parties. In the Divorce Court on Tuesday, Mrs. Sophia Mary C. Stevenson, daughter of Major Lindsay, of Clifton Gardens, Malda Vale, asked for and was granted a judicial separation from her husband, Mr. Joseph Harold Stevenson, a black and white artist, described as a "very powerful man, 6ft. 5in. in height."

Mrs. Stevenson, giving evidence said she was married in June, 1908, she then being twenty-eight and her husband twenty. "For some time the marriage was kept secret. From first to last her husband had not contributed a penny to her support. Later, her husband came to her father's house, demanded admittance and claimed her as his wife. The next day she went and lived with him at Kennington. He was always drinking, and pawned her jewellery to get money. They afterwards went to live at Kilburn. On one occasion, when she was ill, he had caused her to walk a long distance, and at the end she fainted.

He had turned her out into the street in her nightdress and locked the door, and had used bad language to her and frightened her. When she said she would leave him, he said, "If you do I will shoot you." She eventually left him, and went to live at her father's house. He came there and insisted on her accompanying him back to his room. When they got there he took up a razor and threatened to cut my throat. As soon as she could, she got back to her father's house.

Correspondence took place as to their living apart, and in one of his letters he said: "I have gone from the paths of goodness and you can divorce me when you like. I am going abroad very soon."

He wrote to her and asked her to meet him at the Tube Station, Edgware-road. She met him there, her mother's maid accompanying her

MRS. PANKHURST TO FRANCE UNDER

At That Police Arrest Her License of Being Sent

LONDON, Aug. 16.—Mrs. Pankhurst, the militant suffragette leader, left England for France tonight, travelling across the Channel by Southampton and having had been out on "license" under the "Cat and Mouse" Act for some time and it was reported that the authorities at the various Channel ports recently received from her orders not to arrest Mrs. Pankhurst if she were seen going on a steamer for the purpose of England.

$25,000 FOR THE

But Aviator Must Go Miles in 72 Hours Get it.

SOUTHAMPTON, Eng., Aug. 16.—A hydro aeroplane tour around coast of England and Scotland prize of $25,000, was started to-morrow from Southampton with only one participant, H. Hawked, the winner of the prize in 1912, accompanied by a senger. The shore was black with spectators, who gave Hawker a great cheer on his 1600 mile flight, which must be completed within 72 hours. Descent may be effected at water only at the control station Ramsgate, Yarmouth, Scarborough, Aberdeen, Cromarty, Oban, Falmouth and the finishing point, Netley. The fact that there is only one competitor for the big prize on by the newspapers, which seem to prove the contention that Great Britain is still dependent on foreign engineers for flying power.
