Aunt Zina Remembers Cardston's Birthday

Salt Lake City, June 3, 1907.
Dear Old Cardston:

Twenty years ago today you were born! Oh, how it stormed! Yet we were happy and made the best of our trying circumstances. Brother and sister Matkin took dinner with us. I say "us" advisedly for dear Uncle John and Aunt Mary Woolf were "playing keep house" with us and one tent protected all our devoted heads. We met brother and sister Anderson. He told us it had been storming "just a leettle" and sister Anderson said, "Gosh I should say it had." We told them what a time we had crossing the St. Mary's river and showed them the boat we had expected to use but how our Heavenly Father sent this cold storm and the water in the river receded so that, under the guidance of the North West Mounted Police, we had crossed in safety.

When Aunt Mary told her little boy, Wilford, that this was "home," he looked forlorn and broken-hearted and bursting into tears exclaimed, "Well ma, where are the houses," and his echo answered "Where?"

Bishop Farrel poked his head into the tent (that was all he could get in, were so full) to borrow our axe. He joked us women folk about "our tongues" getting tired—which, of course, was no joke at all. But, lo and behold! The rain ceased and a beautiful carpet of snow covered the earth. When all had retired, I raised a corner of our wagon cover and peeped out wondering what it was that was making such a dreadful noise. I soon discovered that it was only uncle Rhue Miles in the act of snoring. Soon Brother Card joined the midnight choosers and it really seemed that I had only just fallen asleep when "uncle Rhue's rooster began crowing for daylight. Well, "the evening and the morning were the first day."

The long days were full of work, work, work! Soon we were surrounded with all we needed for a summer camp. Sterling erected a bowery over my tent door, the wagon was put at the back of the tent for a bed-room, so that I had three apartments. The ladies in camp began calling on each other and one afternoon when we were out strolling we were called back to meet two ladies who lived on a ranch nearby. We had no idea that civilization had so soon reached us. Mrs. Shaw and her charming daughter Jessie were the visitors who came to extend the hand of fellowship and right glad we were to meet them. From that day to this we have been friends.

Soon we had "garden truck" ready to eat and what might have appeared a summer picnic to the casual observer, soon developed into a stern reality. Brother Leavitt built a log cabin at the foot of the hill. Others soon followed so that when winter came we were all housed. Then came the ever true spirit of pioneer life. We must have industries. A grist mill made flour for us and year by year other necessities were added.

Prest, Card's energy and desire to bless the people was ever prominent. Soon we had a steam thrasher, a saw mill, a cheese factory, a co-op store, a canal, sheep industry, Implement Store, big-land deal, etc. These were all started by our people and every encouragement was given to those things calculated to improve and develop the country and its resources. Our money went like water on the sand and years have come and gone. Success and failure have added their quota to our human experiences.

Cardston has more real improvements and up-to-date, live progressive comforts than any other town her age and size I know of.

Your latest "plunge" for light and water is immense. STAY WITH IT. Your new tabernacle can materialize this year and next by the people just acting as a unit. All plan, as usual, to save every cent possible to come back to Utah on a visit. Now let me tell you what I think would be the best.

DOMINION DAY.

Just seventy years ago next Monday the Provinces of Canada, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick were united into one Dominion under the name of Canada. Many people are living who can well recollect and remember the inauguration of this great Confederation. It does not seem possible that within the life of a human being as great a work as the Confederation of Canada should have taken place. But it is true, nevertheless.

It may not be amiss to deal briefly with the history of this great movement and trace the growth and development from that time until the present. Prior to 1867 there existed in a Union Parliament (possessed with powers of Responsible Government) the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. When the Confederation took place the names of "Upper and Lower Canada" were changed to Ontario and Quebec. The Constitution of this Confederation is known as the British North America Act and was passed by the Imperial Parliament in March of that year. It made provisions for the union of the Provinces and the terms, powers, etc. It must ever be borne in mind that the Act made Confederation and not the Confederation the act. Under this Confederation the Sovereign was to be represented in the Dominion by a Governor General—the appointment of which rested with the Crown. To advise the Governor General there was a Cabinet or Executive Council responsible to the people's representatives in Parliament. The Dominion Parliament was to include two bodies—the Senate and the House of Commons. The Senators were not elected, but appointed by the Governor General in Council—the Governor acting upon the advice of the Council. The House of Commons was to be elected by the people for a term of five years. The provinces were represented according to their population. The representation of Quebec was to remain fixed at sixty-five and each of the other provinces were to bear the same relation to sixty-five as its population bore to that of Quebec.

From these four little Provinces there has developed the Canada of today. Following the course of the prophesy, "Westward the course of Empire takes its way," one of the first things the new Parliament did was to reach out and take in that vast tract called Prince Rupert's Land and at that time under the control of the Hudson's Bay Company. Then Manitoba was formed into a Province closely followed by the admission of that sturdy young giant to the west British Columbia. Now we have the Provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan—two of the lustiest and proudest youngsters of the whole bunch. With Prince Edward Island and vast tract of territory yet unsettled—we have the Canada of today—A CANADA WITH WHICH WE MAY WELL BE PROUD. As a dependency of the Mother Country, Canada has made greater strides than any of her colonial cotems.

Space will not permit a detailed account of the wonderful resources and rich and expansive areas of this country. On this the anniversary of our "three score and ten" we merely wish to say, "God bless Canada; the fathers of Confederation; the leaders of today; and all the people who dwell within her happy and well governed land."

NEVER FELT THE CHRIST-LIFE.

Mrs. Emma Goldman, a most popular anarchist and prominent lecturer of the principles of socialism and infidelity, has been delivering a series of talks in western Canada. In Winnipeg she spoke in most bitter terms of the work of the churches and arraigned religion as a curse. Among other things she said: "There is no god or devil that can forgive any sin you may commit against yourself or your brother. Religion takes it for granted that you believe in something you know nothing at all about. Religion does not make people good. Self-denial has brought sorrow to thousands and the result has been that the human race are today nothing more than moral cripples." If there was any need to question the right of this woman to speak on the subjects she professes to know, the answer is found in her woeful ignorance of religion. She certainly talks about something she knows positively nothing at all. The Christ-life has never entered her life—the love of God has never impressed her soul—the great mission of the Redeemer has never seized her thought or had a place in her considerations. Her words are the empty breathings of a wilful blatant. What right has such a one to stand on that which is nearest and dearest to the hearts of human beings? Aman's religion is his better nature and a man is better for his religion—that which teaches him his utter dependency upon God the Father and acquaints him with the wonderful love and redemption of the Savior. "The mystery of iniquity doth already work," and a nation devoid of religion would be the greatest curse that could be visited upon its miserable inhabitants. God forbid that the time will ever come when the Christian Religion shall be laughed to scorn and those holy teachings and precepts of the Master no longer wield the potent influence which characterizes them to-day. Religion is the life and strength of the Nation—the greatest civilizing influence that is at work. Mrs. Goldman may rant and rave but her words will fall short for too many people have actually felt and really know the love of God—the Christ life has entered their lives and is daily influencing them to noble deeds and upright conduct.

Referring to the report of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church and the Star's comments upon the same, Rev. Whiteman, the local representative of the Macleod Presbytery called upon us last Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Whiteman stated very emphatically that the alleged report of the Assembly with regard to the resolution from the Alberta Synod was erroneous and did not represent the Synod in any measure. The Macleod Presbytery brought the resolution before the Alberta Synod by which body it was taken to the General Assembly. The question of Mormon or non Mormon was not mentioned at all. What the Macleod Presbytery asked for in their resolution was an undenominational school or college expressly for the purpose of giving students lessons in music. It was felt by the Presbytery that there was need for such a school at Cardston. Mr. Whiteman stating that there were at the present time about 40 pupils ready to take the course. The report quoted by the Star was not true so far as Mr. Whiteman could say. The local communicants of the Presbyterian Church feel very badly about this report, and, as Mr. Whiteman stated, "feel worse than the Mormons do."

The Star is not to blame for the Press Reports which have been circulated far and wide. We believe that the comments made last week were in touch with the local pulse, feebly expressing the feelings of a people who are continually misrepresented. If no other good thing can be said of the writer when he may shuffle off this mortal coil, we hope that it can be said that he has been broad-minded and willing to respect and defend every man in his religious belief. We failed to express a deserving compliment to the teachers that we have had, for they have been of the highest and best type.

Locally, we believe that we have a friendly and good feeling with the non-Mormons. The main trouble, and in fact the only trouble, comes from the outside—from those farthest removed from the Mormon settlements. Mr. Whiteman speaks in words of commendation of the Mormons as citizens and neighbors and deprecates the overture of the London Synod. It is not the intention of the Star to stir up strife. We want to live at peace with our neighbors and our friends. From what Mr. Whiteman has said we are convinced that the Alberta Synod did not make mention of the need for a college on the grounds that it was impossible to get non-Mormon teachers in the Public School. They had nothing to do with the overture from the London Synod, either the Press Despatches or the General Assembly have misinterpreted their resolution. This being the case we have not the least doubt but that the matter can be easily chased to its original source which we hope may be the case. The Star will be the first in its day and generation to correct any false statements that may have been made through a general erroneous rumor.

Banker Snow and wife came in on Wednesday from Utah where they have been attending the General Conference of the Mutual Improvement Associations.

On Wednesday, Mr. W. H. Brown sold his large farm at Spring Coulee to Messrs Barris and Burton of Idaho. The farm comprised 860 acres and Mr. Brown realized $24.00 per acre.

The High River Times informs us that Mr. E. E. Thompson of High River has a small farm of 10,400 acres all cultivated to Fall Wheat. That's not too bad!

The dugway across the Creek at the Stone Quarry has been washed away. It is impossible at the present time to get any rock out. The water has left the Newton Bridge high and dry and the crossing there is a dangerous one.

The work being done by the Council on Main Street is one of the best things ever accomplished in Cardston. The grading of the west side between the Co-op store and the base of the hill just south of the Cahoon Hotel, was a necessity and adds greatly to the appearance of the street and the comfort of the travelling public.

John Walstead, Assistant General Freight Agent of the Canadian Pacific Railway, Calgary, was a caller at THE STAR office on Wednesday. Mr. Walstead said that he was pleased to note the fine condition of the crops and concluded by saying, "I guess you'll have a most prosperous year."

Barnes, that Lethbridge chap whose name is synonymous with "Baseball," "Boost" and Anti-"Booze" was in town on Tuesday and Wednesday. We know Barnes very well, but he may be a good man for all that. Anyway we are mighty pleased to have him call around and strike the glad mit.

Tuesday's train brought our old friend Mr. Galiford, formerly district manager for the Bell Telephone Company. Mr. Galiford has been spending the last few months in Winnipeg. The strenuousness of that city has been a little too hard for "Willie" so he hied away to Cardston for a few days of "The Simple Life." Powerful glad to have another chance to shake your old paw.

Mr. Joseph Card relates the following incident in connection with the sale of his spring wheat: "I sold a car of wheat to the Columbia Flouring Mills Company, Enderby, B.C. on May 28th. The price agreed upon was 70 cents per bushel. While the grain was in transit, the price raised one cent and the said company gave me the benefit of the same, or, in other words, paid me 71 cents for wheat I had sold for 70." This wheat was the winner of four prizes at the local fair and one at the Provincial Fair recently held in Edmonton.

Meet at the depot and give to Preat, Wood or the Tabernacle Committee the money you were going to pay for railway fare and then, lo, presto change, enough means will be on hand to build anything you want.

Of course you will have to add your labor that stands with its hands idly in the pockets. You will soon have competitive railways and coal discoveries that will give you the impetus and advantages you need. Stick to Mother Earth and get her to yield your hay and your best crops, and your grain and your prosperity is assured.

God bless you dear old Cardston for I love you. The best part of my life and fortune I gave to you. My own dear sons are yours 'still. Your joys are mine; your sorrow are mine. "Arise and shine." May no good thing be withheld from you, is the prayer of,

Your true and faithful friend,
Aunt Zina.

Dr. H. P. Clay Dies Suddenly at Pugwash

(The following account of the demise of Dr. H. P. Clay, father of Mr. Fred Clay of Cardston, is taken from the Halifax Herald of Monday, June 17th.—Ed.)

Pugwash, June 15.—Pugwash mourns to-day the death of one of her most brilliant sons. The death of Dr. H. P. Clay, after a few hours illness, was a shock to this community. The doctor was apparently in good health last evening and attended a social in the Methodist church, afterwards visiting some of his patients, reaching his home about 12 o'clock. He complained of feeling very ill. Dr. Makintosh was summoned but before he reached the bedside Dr. Clay had become unconscious and never after rallied. Death took place about 7.30 this morning. He leaves a widow and four children, the oldest, Madeline, who is at present, teaching at Springhill.

Dr. Clay was a son of Rev. Dr. Clay, who was pastor of the Baptist church here for many years afterwards immigration agent at Halifax. His mother, who resides with her son Frederick, was the daughter of the late Hon. H. G. Pineo, who for years represented this county. The doctor was 49 years of age. His renown as a physician will live after him and there are subjects here of miraculous recovery due to the skill and untiring nursing and attention of the doctor.

Cardston Wheat

The prospects for an exceptional crop are the best ever seen in this section. Winter wheat is particularly good and is far ahead of last year. The acreage is also larger. Spring wheat is looking well and is several inches high. Grain men hold the opinion that they never had better prospects than this year for a bumper crop.

Last week 20,000 bushels of wheat were sold on a basis of 70 cents per bushel for No. 1 Northern, the best price ever received in this section.—Wheat Belt Review.

Daily Mail for Sure

The mills of the gods didn't grind so powerfully slow in connection with the establishment of the daily mail service at Cardston.

The Superintendent of the Royal Mail Service notified the local post-master on Friday last that, commencing on Monday June 24th there would be a daily mail service (Sundays excepted) to Cardston, Magrath and Raymond. Spring Coulee is not listed for daily service and Stirling is left out on this line, owing to the fact that she receives a daily mail by virtue of the south bound on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. With a daily mail service things are certainly coming our way.

How to Break Up a Cold.

It may be a surprise to many to learn that a severe cold can be completely broken up in one or two days' time. The first symptoms of a severe cold are a dry, loud cough, a profuse watery discharge from the nose, and a thin, white coating on the tongue. When Chamberlain's cough remedy is taken every hour on the first appearance of these symptoms, it counteracts the effect of the cold and restores the system to a healthy condition within a day or two. Unknown Friends.

There are many people who have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with splendid results, but who are unknown because they have hesitated about giving a testimonial of their experience for publication. These people, however, are none the less friends of this remedy. They have done much toward making it a household word by their personal recommendations to friends and neighbors. It is a good medicine to have in the home and is widely known for its cures of diarrhoea and all forms of bowels trouble. For sale by all druggists and dealers.

Appointed Judges for Calgary Fair

The exhibition directors held a well attended meeting in the Board of Trade rooms yesterday afternoon, at which the general business matters and preparations for the approaching Calgary fair were discussed.

Mr. I. S. G. Van Wart occupied the chair, and the following were present:

Mr. Wooley Dodd, Mr. Thompson, Mr. Tregillus, Mr. Dewey, Mr. Laycock, Mr. Geddes, Mr. Fowler, and Mr. Weir.

After some discussion it was decided that the live stock exhibits would be allowed to leave at 6 o'clock on Friday, the last day of the fair, and that the various other exhibits could be removed at 4 o'clock.

The four days of the fair will be divided up in the following order: Tuesday July 9th, Farmer's day. Wednesday July 10, Citizens' day. Thursday July 11, Americans' day. Friday July 12, Ranchers' day.

It was arranged that the services of Mr. Peter Bain, of Brandon, be obtained as the official starter at the horse races, and this announcement will be heralded with unanimous approval, as Mr. Bain is well known to fulfill this capacity with the utmost satisfaction. Mr. McPhee of Red Deer, J. K. Thompson and G. Boss of Calgary, will act as the live stock judges.

The services of Mr. E. N. Barker will be secured as judge of the poultry exhibits; C. Marker of the dairy and bread, C. Lyndon, of Toronto, will fill the capacity of judge at the dog show, and A. Mitchell, chief inspector of noxious weeds for the province, will judge the grains, vegetables, grasses, plants, flowers, natural history and school work.

The art and photography exhibits will be judged by Mr. Winter; the manufacturers' exhibits by W. J. Fowler; and for the ladies' work Mrs. Wooley Dodd and Mrs. Foster will act in a similar capacity.

The advisability of providing a firework display for the evening attraction at the fair occupied a considerable length of time, during which Mr. L. H. Doll explained how he had been at a loss over the firework display contract on several previous seasons, and submitted a proposal to the directors to furnish the fireworks display. However, it was finally decided to reject this proposal, and substitute as an evening attraction a series of baseball matches. An arrangement will be made with the baseball club whereby the grounds will be leased to them during the four evenings of the fair for the sum of $500, the exhibition directors to provide the band, and as an additional attraction an exhibition by trained animals and jugglers. The baseball club to take entire charge of the grounds for the remainder of the evening, commencing at 6.30.

After Mr. Tregillus and Mr. Wooley Dodd were appointed as delegates to the irrigation convention to be held in Calgary on July 17, the meeting was adjourned.

The Very Best Remedy for Bowel Trouble.

Mr. M. F. Borroughs, an old and well known resident of Bluffton, Ind., says: "I regard Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as the very best remedy for bowel trouble. I make this statement after having used the remedy in my family for several years. I am never without it." This remedy is almost sure to be needed before the summer is over. Why not buy it now and be prepared for such an emergency? For sale by all druggists and dealers.

Books of Lien Notes have been prepared for the Horse Breeders of the district. Get one from E. Barker. Price 50c.

See the large posters and come to Cardston on Dominion Day. If you can't come on Dominion Day then come the day following. Come both days and have a good time.

over before buying your

SPRING SUIT

Don't make the mistake of being satisfied with anything short of the BEST style you can get in a Spring Suit or Overcoat.

No matter what your taste, let it be made as it should be—to your measure, and properly tailored.

There is down-right economy in getting clothing made for you from very best materials, with good linings and good workmanship throughout.

It holds its shape twice as long, wears twice as long and gives evidence of good tailoring up to the very last.

Why should a man wear clothes of indifferent fit, that always look "slouchy" after a week or two, when, for practically the same money, he can get something made to his measure that is made right?
