"Do not conform to this world."

The Christian life has been very aptly termed, in the inspired writings, a "fight," and that against spiritual enemies in high places. Our every day experience confirms the justice of this view.

Ministers recently coming under our notice in reference to the upper classes of our professing Christians, has determined us to discharge our duty in the fear of God, in a matter for which, if permitted in, we see it, much evil will inevitably result.

Our last number contained the following notice in reference to the upper classes of our professing Christians, has determined us to discharge our duty in the fear of God, in a matter for which, if permitted in, we see it, much evil will inevitably result.
