It has had many dutinters, but none have so fully met all the requirements needful for the proper treatment of the hair and scalp. HALUS HARK RENEWER has steadily grown in favor, and spread its faine and usefulness to every quarter of the globe. Its unparal-cied success can be attributed to but one eied success can be attributed to but one muse: the entire julfilment of its promises. The proprietors have often been surprised at the receipt of orders from remote coun-tries, where they had never made an effort for its introduction.

The use for a short time of HALL's HAIR
