Rev. F. E. Chivers, D.D., Editor and General Secretary B. Y. P. U. America, under the auspices of the Maritime Union, addressed a Mass Meeting in the North Church on Thursday evening last. He reviewed the organization and the work it was doing--laid great emphasis upon the educational part, specially the three C's, and believed that careful attention to these would give us a stalwart race of Christian men and women for service. Three ideas dominate the B. Y. P. U. of America--Federation, Denomination, Education. Dr. Chivers has a very pleasing manner, clear delivery and holds his audience throughout. A reception was given to our distinguished visitor at the Baptist Book Room, Friday, at 10 o'clock, when those present received many valuable hints concerning the management of the B. Y. P. U.

The Convention Fund Committee, through their Secretary, Bro. George Parsons, outlined the scheme adopted in collecting convention funds during the past year. Each Collector was given a little book, into which they place names and amounts subscribed weekly, monthly, quarterly, or yearly; making systematic calls and reporting monthly. The Committee were congratulated and the scheme approved of by the church. The new Committee are--Bro. E. Hubley, Chairman; George Parsons, Secretary; Dea. W. T. Harris, Treasurer; with power to add to their numbers. This Committee were appointed to fill office within the Convention year.

Mrs. James McPherson, wife of our esteemed Deacon, is well worthy to be his helpmate. She was Miss Annie Seaman, of Pugwash, descended from splendid physical and psychological stock. Some twenty-eight years ago she changed her name and came a bonny bride to Halifax, joining this church shortly after by experience from the Church of England. She has been for seven years and is now the beloved President of the Women's Missionary Aid Society, and she invites all the ladies of the church and congregation to join the "Aid" and attend the regular Tuesday afternoon meetings for prayer and conference. She delights to make the acquaintance of strangers coming to worship with us.
