The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Seminary of Quebec
Library

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol  $\rightarrow$  (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol  $\nabla$  (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Séminaire de Québec
Bibliothèque

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole  $\rightarrow$  signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole  $\nabla$  signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

* * The proprietors of Mr. MURRAY'S Works think it no small recommendation of them, that the whole of these publications, from "The First Book for Children," to the "Power of Religion on the Mind," may be properly considered as forming a little code of important elementary instruction. They are strictly subservient to one another; and most intimately connected. Their peculiar and acknowledged excellence is, that, in every part of them the purest principles of piety and virtue are very happily blended with the elements of literature. They may, therefore, with perfect confidence, be put into the hands of young persons, as books which (to use the language of a reviewer respecting them) "will eminently conduce to pure religion and morality, and to the acquisition of a correct and elegant style."

INTRODUCTION.

THIS little volume, in its enlarged and improved form, is intended to prepare the learner for the author's English Spelling Book; and is particularly calculated to assist mothers, in the instruction of their young children.

It is proper to observe, that each appropriate Reading Lesson is an exercise on the section of spelling to which it belongs; and that the Reading Lessons through the book, contain no words, (except a very few derivatives,) that are not in the previous columns of spelling. The child will, therefore, find all his Reading Lessons both easy and pleasant.

Though some of the lessons contained in this work, will be found again in the Spelling Book, they will be studied there, a second time, with more interest and advantage, as they are connected with other exercises and information. These first elements of language are of so much importance, that renewed attention to them with the judgment improved, will not fail to confirm the learner, and establish a habit of accurate pronunciation

The sun shines.

It is time to get up.

Jane, come and dress Charles.

This is the right hand.

The crust is hard. Do not leave it. Sop it in the milk.

Do not throw the bread on the floor.

We should eat bread, and not waste it.

There is a poor fly in the milk.

No ; Charles is not a duck, nor a goose : so he must take care not to go too near the pond, lest he should fall in. I do not know that we could get him out. If we could not, he would die.

When Charles is as big as James he shall learn to swim.

Tray likes those who stroke him and feed him, and are kind to him.

There is a worm. Do not tread on it.

Can Charles climb that high stile ?

No : it is corn.

It will be ripe soon.

Bread is made of corn.

I dare say Charles does not know how bread is made. Well, some time I will tell him.

Now let me go home.

Do not take the broth yet ; it is too hot : wait till it is cool.

Will you have some lamb, and some peas ?

Do not smack your lips, or make a noise when you eat.

Take some bread. Break the bread ; do not bite it.

I do not put the knife in my mouth, for fear I should hurt my lips. Knives are sharp : they are to cut with, and not to put in one's mouth, or to play with.

Jane must shake the cloth out of doors.

The birds will pick up the crumbs.

Now let us go and play with George.

THE POOR BLIND MAN.

There is a poor blind man at the door.

He is quite blind. He does not see the sky nor the ground, nor the trees, nor men.

He does not see us, though we are so near him.

A boy leads him from door to door.

Poor man!

O, it is a sad thing to be blind!

We will give the blind man some bread and cheese.

Now he is gone.

He is a great way off.

Poor blind man!

Come in, Charles. Shut the door.

THE KIND LITTLE BOY.

What a good boy George is ! We all love him ; and he loves us, and does not try to vex and tease his friends, as some boys do ; and how he loves Ann ! She is a sweet child ; and he gives her all his toys, when she points at them.

She will speak soon, and then she may tell what she wants.

He sits by her while she sleeps ; and when he hears the maid on the stairs, he steps to tell that Ann sleeps, and that she must not make a noise.

When he gets fruit or cakes, he will not eat, till he has first put some by for his dear Ann ; and he buys toys for her at the fair ; for he likes to please her more than to have things for his own use.

When she is two or three years old, she will thank him ; and she will say, " George is kind to me, and I will be kind to him, and love him as long as I live. "

SECTION 9.

THE LITTLE BOY THAT WAS LOST ON HIS WAY HOME.

When Charles came home, he told his friends where he had been, and what he had done. I met an old man (said he) on the heath, with a bag on his back. He was weak, and the bag was full, and it made him bend, and lean on his staff.

I was glad to meet him, for I could help him: if I had not, he would not have got home: he would have been all night on the heath: and it was cold and the snow fell.

When we came to his house, his wife ran out to meet us. She was glad to see him come, for she thought he had lost his way, and could not find his home.

She said I was a good boy for what I had done, and that God would bless me; and that I must (if I would have his love) be kind to the old and weak, who could not work, and were in want of bread.

I had a mind to help them, but I had not much in my purse: I gave them what I could spare, and left them glad.

In my way home, I lost the path on the heath. It was dark; I fell down, and found I was in a pit. The ground was soft, and I was not hurt; but I could not get out; and I thought that I must stay there all night, and that I might call in vain; no one would pass by at so late a time to hear me.

But there did come by a poor man, who heard me and took me out. He told me he had been to look for his cow: she had got out of the field, and could not be found, I went with him to seek for her; and when he had found her, he made me go home with him to his house, to dry my clothes.

The house was nice and clean, and there was a good brisk fire; which I was glad to get near to, and so was the poor man. His wife put on more wood, and we were soon dry and warm.

They gave us some bread and cheese, and some drink; and I came home gay and well.

My heart was glad; for I had been in time to save the poor old man; and when I was in the pit, I soon had help to get me out. I hope I shall think of it as long as I live.

THE ASS.

The ass has hoofs, and very long ears. He brays very loud. The horse is afraid when the ass brays, and starts back; but the ass is very meek, and never hurts any thing.

The ass is not so big as the horse, and cannot gallop fast; but he works very hard. Sometimes he carries little boys on his back, two or three at a time; and they whip the poor ass, and pierce his sides to make him go faster.

He carries greens to market, and turnips, and fruit: and sometimes he carries a great load of pans, and mugs, and pots, with which his back is almost broken. He gets nothing to eat but a few thorny thistles, or some plantain, or some coarse grass from off the common. He has no stable to go into, as a horse has; he lies out in the fields, in the snow, and in the rain: but he is content, he does not complain.

The ass gives milk as well as the cow : and the milk is very good for people that are sick, to make them well again.

Some people say that asses are stupid and stubborn : but they know their master, and the place where he stops, and the roads which he passes : and when they are treated kindly, they behave well, and are fond of their masters.

SECTION 2.

THE CHARITABLE LITTLE GIRL.*

A little girl, about four years old, had a great desire to taste a hot muffin. When she heard the muffin man go by her mother's door, crying "Muffins ! muffins ! Hot Muffins ! Ho !" she asked her mother to give her a penny to buy one.

The mother gave her a penny : and the child ran down stairs, and bought a muffin.

* This pleasing little narrative was obligingly communicated to the author by a celebrated writer on Practical Education, with liberty to publish it.

At the door, she saw a very poor woman, who asked her to give her a penny, to get something to eat, for she was very hungry. The child said, she had no pennies of her own, but would go and ask her mother for some.

She run up stairs, and soon came back, and said to the poor woman, "My mother has no more pennies to give me; but here is a muffin for you; and it is hot too."

The little girl never told any body that she had given away her muffin; and though she heard the man call, "Muffin!" two or three times that night, she did not ask her mother again to buy one for her.

The little birds sing praises to God when they warble sweetly in the green shade. I will praise him with my voice; for I may praise him, though I am but a child.

A few years ago I was a little infant, and I could not speak at all; and I did not know the great name of God, for my reason was not come to me. But now I can speak, and I will praise him; I can think of all his kindness, and my heart shall love him.

Let him call me, and I will come to him; let him command, and I will obey him.

When I am older, I will praise him better; and I will never forget God, as long as my life remains in me.

SECTION 4.

THE CARE AND GOODNESS OF GOD.

Behold the shepherd of the flock! He takes care of his sheep; he leads them among clear brooks; he guides them to fresh pastures; if the young lambs are weary, he carries them in his arms; if they wander, he brings them back.

But who is the shepherd's Shepherd? Who takes care of him? Who guides him in the path he should go! and if he wanders, who shall bring him back?

God is the shepherd's Shepherd! He is the Shepherd over all! He takes care of all! The whole earth is his fold: we are all his flock: and the herbs, and green fields, are the pasture which he provides for us.

The mother loves her little child; she brings it up on her knees: she strengthens its body with food; she feeds its mind with knowledge; if it is sick, she nurses it with tender love: she watches over it when asleep: she forgets it not for a moment; she teaches it how to be good: she is happy in his daily growth.

But who is the Parent of the mother? Who feeds her with good things, and watches over her with tender love, and thinks of her always! Whose arms are about her, to guard from harm? and if she is sick, who shall heal her?

God is the Parent of the mother : he is the Parent of all, for he made all. All the men and all the women, who are alive in the wide world, are his children. He loves all : He is good to all.

The king governs his people : he has a golden crown upon his head ; he sits upon a throne, and sends for his commands ; his subjects fear before him : if they do well he protects them from danger : and if they do evil, he makes them suffer.

But who is the King of the King ? who commands him what he must do ? whose hand protects him from danger ? and if he does evil, who shall punish him ?

God is the King : his crown is of rays of light, and his throne is amongst the stars. He is King of kings, and Lord of lords. If he bids us live, we live ; and if he bids us die, we die : his power is over all worlds, and he beholds all the works he has made.

God is our Shepherd, therefore we will follow him ; God is our Father, therefore we will love him : God is our King, therefore we will obey him.
