THE NEED OF LEADERSHIP

"The government says to us, 'Give us 100,000 additional men.' We answer the government, 'Give us leadership and organization.'"

In these sentences Mr. N. W. Rowell in a speech in Toronto this week, placed responsibility where it belongs. Leadership is the need of the hour. To quote further from Mr. Rowell: "Although 370,000 may be the number of those enlisted we have never had that number."

was, as it is in so many cases. If any citizens know of cases where similar conditions, as a result of parental incapacity or misconduct, are developing, and children are not getting a fair start in life, they should give the information to the secretary of the Children's Aid Society.

UNFAIR CRITICISM

The Times has on several occasions referred to grossly unfair criticism of the Patriotic Fund Committee in this city. That committee is composed of well-known citizens who give their time freely and without charge, and they are aided by lady visitors who also labor and labor hard—without remuneration.

The fact remains, however, it is said, that the Standard Oil competition has been severely felt, and military observers see in the objective of General von Falkenhayn's army the destruction of the commercial opposition to Prussian industries of the American properties.

MRS. FLORMAN ASKS $50,000 Says $25,000 Income Won't Pay Debts —Seeks Trust Fund Principal.

New York, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Nils Florman of 777 Madison avenue, who was Olga Kohler, daughter of the late Charles Kohler, piano manufacturer, said, in a petition filed in the surrogate court, that, although her income from a trust fund left to her in her father's will amounted to $25,000, it was insufficient to enable her to pay her debts.

GOOD SPORTS ARE ASSURED
 Baseball Game, Running Races and Marathon Included in Programme

The sports to be held under the auspices of the 180th Battalion on the Barrack Square on Saturday afternoon are attracting considerable attention. The latest feature added to the programme is a match race between Captain J. D. Morrow, champion of the battalion, and a local runner. Both have been on cinder paths before and the event should be interesting. There will also be a 100 yard dash, 200 yard dash and a quarter mile run. There will be a large number of contestants.

Baseball fans are looking forward to a game to be played between the battalion team and one from St. Peter's Y. M. C. The soldier team has a great reputation, made this summer at Camp Borden, while on the other hand St. Peter's boys have proven that they can more than hold their own in this line of sport.

A ten mile marathon between Jim Corkey and Ted Wood should attract attention. Both are runners who have made reputations throughout America and their appearance here will undoubtedly be welcomed.

A MAID'S EXPERIENCE
 To the Editor of the Times:
 Sir,—Would you kindly print this letter in your valuable paper? A letter appeared in the press a few days ago regarding the scarcity of female labor. I would like to refer to the one man's experience regarding the transportation of girls from the old country. My opinion is that the girls run just as great a risk as the ones who engage them, as some girls get into places where the so-called ladies treat their dogs better than they do the servant girl.

I came out to St. John to one of the society ladies and the evening I arrived from the old country the lady I was coming out to was out so I called at the next door to see if they knew if I was at the right address. They said yes, but they had gone out for the evening, so they told me to go and have a seat in the grave yard until they arrived home. Well, I came out as an experienced servant and I stayed with the lady for a few months, but found it very hard to get along as on a Sunday I found it was the busiest day. Every Sunday evening they had late suppers, and the reason I left my situation was when the lady came out one Sunday and asked me to bake some biscuits for her had some friends coming in for tea and supper. As I was not accustomed doing such work on a Sunday I left the lady's employ on the Monday morning. A few days later I called at the house to pay the balance of my passage out from Scotland. The lady answered the door herself, but shut it again in my face. Of course, she wasn't to be called a lady. However, I went down to the post office and registered the money to her husband.

I think the servant girl of today is just as refined as some of the ladies who are always wanting maids. I wonder if a gentleman that writes one man's experience is of military age and if he could serve his country as well as he would like a servant to serve his wife.

A WORKING GIRL.
 The aunt of a little boy was amazed at the appetite exhibited by him during a recent stay in her household. "Merry!" she exclaimed one day, "but you certainly eat a terrible lot, Willie, for such a little fellow."

Willie, however, was not at all upset by this. "I expect," he rejoined, "that I ain't so little as I look from the outside."

ROUMANIA IS A GREAT PRIZE
 Time and Weather For Our Balkan Allies
 Victory Even in Defeat

Entry of Roumania Has Created Situation Which Has Added Greatly to Burden of the Central Powers

In Roumania the decision has not yet been given. One part of the Roumanian army is in retreat; another part has checked the invaders. The further the invaders in the Dobruja advance the harder becomes their task. Fine and weather are fighting for the Roumanians and we have been assured by Mr. Asquith and also by Mr. Lloyd George that the Allies are doing all that they can to save the little kingdom from the fate of Serbia. In the last day or two the news has been favorable; but even if Roumania should be conquered we ought to remember that before she entered the war it was generally admitted that the Allies were winning. Her complete defeat, involving as it must involve the destruction of Teutonic reserves intended for other purposes, would still plunge the Central Powers in losses. There is no reason to contemplate her complete conquest. It is interesting to note an article contributed to the London Times by a member of the Roumanian parliament.

Austria's and Bulgaria's Motive
 He says that the interest of Austria-Hungary is self-evident. The realization of Roumanian national aspirations would be a vital menace of Hungary. Together with the national unification of Serbia and the Southern Slavs, it would mean the collapse of the Kingdom of St. Stephen. The defeat of Roumania is therefore a question of life and death for the present Hungarian state. As regards the Bulgarians, their interest is also evident. Their ambition knows no bounds. Their aim is to rule the Balkan Peninsula from the Danube to the Aegean, and from the Black Sea to the Adriatic. They covet all the Dobruja, the whole of Macedonia, and a good slice of Albania. The defeat of Roumania is, therefore, in their eyes, the only means of realizing their vast designs.

Germany's Object
 But why should the Germans rage so furiously against Roumania, who has not even declared war upon them? The reasons are at once military, political and economic. A victorious Roumania means the cutting of communications between the Austro-Germans and their Turco-Bulgarian allies. It means the crushing of Austria-Hungary, that is to say, an open door into Germany; and, sooner or later, the defeat of Germany herself. The defeat of Roumania would mean, on the other hand, the consolidation of German mastery from the North Sea to the Persian Gulf, the invasion of Russia from the south, by way of Bessarabia, the control of the Black Sea, and perhaps decisive victory in the East. Germany therefore feels that the Roumanian throne must be extracted from her vulnerable heel, and that quickly.

By the defeat of Roumania the authority of Germany in the East would become absolute. All the Eastern States, including Austria-Hungary, would be incorporated or placed in a feudal relationship to the German empire. Aggrandized by their alliance with Germany, the Bulgarians would be riveted to her. Turkey has already become a kind of German Morocco, and would fall into the position of a German colony. Serbia would no longer exist, and Roumania would become an Eastern Reichland.

A Fight for Trade
 Alongside of these military and political motives run the economic interests that urge Germany to crush Roumania. The Germans have lent to the Roumanian state nearly 280,000,000. They have, besides, invested in Roumanian banks, trade, and industry more than 240,000,000. The German object is not only to avoid loss—"damnnum emergens"—but particularly to retain the immense advantages accruing to them from their exploitation of Roumania, to obviate a "lucrum cessans." The Roumanian state borrowed money from Germany at various rates. In 1889, after the agricultural crisis, it contracted with the Disconto-Gesellschaft a loan of 280,000,000, at a nominal interest of 5 per cent., which the price of issue made in reality 7 per cent. Besides, the Disconto-Gesellschaft took as security the revenues of monopoly of cigarette paper, and secured a share of its profits. By these means the German bank has secured a profit of 21,880,000, in return for 280,000 lent. Ninety per cent. of Roumanian manufactured imports were of Austro-German origin. Roumanian trade was almost exclusive in Austro-German hands, and the whole economic life of Roumania was under Austro-German control.

A Great Prize
 By the conquest of Roumania, Germany would secure immense stores of corn, petroleum, benzine, mineral oils, salt and timber; a good railway system, and the Danube as a means of transport, besides all the crops which the fertile soil of Roumania can produce. The spectre of famine would be forever banished from the German empire. Could they once get Roumania into their grasp, the Germans would never relax their hold. They know far better than the Roumanians themselves how inexhaustible are her resources, and how sober and hard working are her people. No sacrifice will seem too heavy for them if by it they can secure such a prize. The duty and interest of the allies are alike clear. If, by timely action, they thwart the German scheme and ensure the triumph of Roumania, they will at the same time smooth their own path to complete victory and notably shorten the war. Think of it!

Haworth, were given a surprise when the minister performed a double wedding, uniting in marriage Miss Winnifred Barnes and Mr. Haworth and the maid of honor and best man, Miss Inez May Barnes and Jack D. Wilke.

The surprise was complete as none of the eight Barnes sisters and brothers at the wedding except Miss Inez Barnes knew in advance of the double wedding. T. E. Westlake, brother-in-law of the bride, had not been notified of the double wedding, although he had been asked to give away Miss Winnifred Barnes. The first intimation of the double marriage ceremony came when the best man produced two wedding rings.

TROUBLE OVER NEW DIMES. Coinage May Be Suspended Because of Designer's Monogram. Washington, Nov. 2.—Treasury officials are considering whether the initials of the designer of the new dime put in circulation this week for the first time, shall be eliminated and coinage suspended temporarily as was done in the case of the original Lincoln one cent piece. On the face of the dime, the initials of the artist, A. Weinman, appear prominently in monogram.

When the Lincoln cent piece was first coined, it bore on the base of the small initials of the artist. While there is no law governing the question, the Treasury Department ordered the letters off, under its ruling that no advertising shall appear on any coin.

The new dimes were in demand at the Treasury Department, but applicants received only a dollar's worth each. The supply here was 250,000 and a like number at the Sub-Treasury at New York. There were 400,000 at the Sub-Treasury in Chicago, 300,000 at the St. Louis Sub-Treasury, and the remainder of the stock was distributed to Boston, Baltimore, Cincinnati, New Orleans, Philadelphia, and San Francisco.

In all $180,000 in the new coins have been minted.

Boche Man-Trap There was mention made of a "boise-bomb" which the Boche seethers about his trenches before he deserts them—things which burst on the lightest contact. Our men recently have made acquaintance with the man-traps in the enemy trenches. They are constructed on the principle of the old-fashioned rat trap with powerful jaws that clasp together when a spring has been released. They are sufficiently strong to break the leg of a soldier who incautiously treads on the "platform" of the trap. In dry weather this contrivance is covered with loose earth. In wet weather it is concealed in the mud. Our troops, of course (writes a special correspondent), have been warned of the existence of these devilish devices, and the man-trap has not secured many British or French victims. But it is another example of "fightiness" added to the long reckoning which one day the "kultured" German will have to face.

BY JOVE!

Ever think of it? The stomach and the lungs are not connected, otherwise food swallowed would choke you. Lung and throat troubles were never yet cured by doing the stomach. To cure coughs, colds and bronchitis, you must breathe the cure. Peps provide the rational treatment for these ailments. Peps are tablets made up of pine extracts and medicinal essences, which when put into the mouth into healing vapors. These are breathed down direct to the lungs, throat and bronchial tubes—not swallowed down to the stomach, which is not ailing. Try a 50c. box of Peps for your cold, your cough, bronchitis or asthma. All drug stores or Peps Co., Toronto, will supply.

Had Violent Coughing Fits Looked Like Consumptive

Mrs. Marty Whiting, North Forks, N. S., writes: "Having taken five bottles of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, during the past few weeks, to relieve a chronic cough and general throat trouble, allow me to express my unbounded satisfaction and thanks as to its sterling qualities. A short time ago I became subject to violent coughing fits at night and directly after rising in the morning. I began losing weight, and all my friends cheerfully informed me that I was going to consumptive. After taking the 'Dr. Wood's' I am pleased to relate that the cough has entirely disappeared and I have since regained the lost weight. I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. There are many imitations of 'Dr. Wood's' on the market, so see that none of these so-called 'pine syrups' are handed out to you when you ask for 'Dr. Wood's.' It has been on the market for twenty-five years, is put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark, price 25c. and 50c. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

LIEUT. GORDON KERR KILLED IN ACTION

The news that Lieutenant Gordon W. Kerr, formerly of this city, has given his life in the world war against Prussianism will be learned by a wide circle of friends in St. John with the deepest regret. He was of the finest type of young Canadian and of his sterling character and many admirable qualities had won for him the sincere esteem of his many friends and his ability would have ensured him an successful career. Lieutenant Kerr was twenty-eight years old and was a son of William Kerr, formerly of Kerr & Robertson of this city, and now a resident of Summerland, B. C. His mother also survives and Mrs. Roy Skinner of this city is a sister. He was in the west when war was declared, but recrossed the continent to rejoin his old regiment, the 8th C. G. A. and entered the composite battery. When Major Barker organized his heavy battery, Lieutenant Kerr was made senior lieutenant and placed in command of No. 1 section. When the battery was sent to France, only two months ago, he fired the first gun of the battery, the first gun of the new heavy type which Britain had sent to France. He is the first officer of Major Barker's unit to be killed in action.

WAS TROUBLED WITH SHORTNESS OF BREATH

When the heart becomes affected, there ensues a feeling of a choking sensation, a shortness of breath, palpitation, throbbing, irregular beating, smothering sensation, dizziness, and a weak, sinking, all-gone feeling of oppression and anxiety. The nerves become unstrung, you tend to be alone, have a horror of society, start at the least noise and are generally fatigued. On the first sign of the heart becoming weakened, or the nerves unstrung, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills should be taken. They are just what you require at this time. They regulate and stimulate the heart, and strengthen and restore the whole nerve system. Mrs. C. M. Cormier, Buctouche, N. B., writes: "Since two years ago I was troubled with a shortness of breath, and sometimes I could hardly breathe. I went to see several doctors, and they said it was from my heart and nerves, but they did not seem to do me any good. One day I got one of your B. B. B. Almanac and read of a case similar to mine. I bought a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and after taking it I noticed such a change that I kept on taking them until I had used four more boxes, when I was cured."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. a box, three boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

In conclusion I will say that I trust our meeting will be both pleasant and profitable and that we will return to our homes realizing that New Brunswick is the land of the "Big Red Apple" and that money can be made in the fruit-raising industry.

And He Got It

"Just a moment," interrupted the man, patiently, "I may have no objection to testing this article you are trying to substitute, all other things being equal—but are they? For example, what can be used internally for coughs, colds, sore throat, cramps, chills, etc., as well as externally for sprains, strains, muscular rheumatism, various other aches, pains and almost any soreness anywhere. Now can you guarantee me this double value of internal and external use? Can you also guarantee that you are the foremost prescriber of an old family physician? Do you also guarantee that it has a wonderful record of over 100 years of splendid success? Do you also guarantee—" "Oh, of course," interposed the now embarrassed store-keeper, "I can't guarantee all that, but—" "Then," said the man, wearily, "give me my bottle of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, and let me be on my way." And he got it.

There just $ did more than $40!

This was the case of Pte. C. Oakley of the 96th Highlanders. Writing to the Zam-Buk Co., he says: "I could have saved myself $40 if I had only known of Zam-Buk sooner. I had the misfortune to cut my leg very badly. I immediately went to a doctor, who sewed up the wound and attended me for five weeks, during which time I was obliged to give up my work. At the end of that time the wound was no better, and the doctor advised me to go into a hospital for treatment, but as the doctor's treatment had already cost me $40, and I had received no benefit, I determined to try something on my own account. "Just then I heard Zam-Buk highly recommended. I procured some and commenced using it. I soon discovered that the healing power of Zam-Buk is simply marvellous! In two weeks' time I was able to return to my work, and per-

It is a glad and proper thing to be the originator of a proved success. The article that has caught on to the public taste may be less than your finger nail, or bigger than your whole body—size doesn't count—nothing really counts but this: That you have worked your way to the discovery of a commodity that supplies a known and felt want, and that the great wide-eyed public have unanimously taken up your new production and made it a success. It has been exactly like that with H. P. Sauce. The delicious relish, made by the Midland Vinegar Company, of England, the largest firm of malt vinegar in the world, has been an unqualified success from the first day of its distribution until now. H. P. is a thick, rich Sauce, compounded solely of most delicious Oriental fruits and spices, and pure malt vinegar. Its makers claim for it that there isn't another sauce to compare with it for true fruity flavor, and judging from its already wide popularity, the general public have been quick to endorse the good opinion of the manufacturers.

Pianos and Player Pianos that have stood as landmarks of quality for a half century will be sold here at prices that will beggar comparison. BASEBALL
Speaker Denies Report.
Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 30.—The report that I may manage the Cleveland Indians next season is absolutely false," said Tris Speaker here today, en route to his home in Texas. "I have not been offered the managership, don't want it, and I wouldn't take it if I had it offered to me. Such rumors create dissensions." Many believe that Lee Fohl will be retained as manager.
Connie Mack Pleased.
Connie Mack opened the season serious and closed it smiling. He feels sure that 1916 is the last season of the era of mediocrity at Shibe Park. Many of the new players tried to show the ability to make good, and additions will join the club in the spring. Connie is no longer gambling on collegians, but the new influx is composed of players with experience.
Thrasher, Southern league batting champion, who made six hits in a recent double header, made it clear that he knows how to hit the ball.
Johnson Resents Statement.
Ban B. Johnson, president of the American league, on Tuesday disputed a charge made by David I. Fultz, president of the Baseball Players' Fraternity, that ball players in the American league were not paid while incarcerated through injuries received while playing. The charge was made by Mr. Fultz, in demands for new conditions made on the National Commission. Johnson telegraphed Fultz to produce the contracts or retract the charges.
Lajoie Contract Ends.
New York, Oct. 1.—Larry Lajoie's baseball career probably ends with the last season. The big Frenchman has been drawing $20,000 a season for the last three years, but with the close of the 1916 season that agreement expired. Connie Mack paid half of the amount mentioned, the Cleveland club stands for the other half.
It is certain that Mack will not retain Lajoie.
It is not likely that Lajoie will be picked up by any other major league club, now that he is a free agent and he is not apt to go to any minor league, for his salary demands would be too high.
Lajoie is a man of wealth and is reported to have a lot of his money well invested.
RING.
Thinks He Has Champ.
Sam Fitzpatrick of New York, who was the manager of Kid Lavigne when he won the lightweight championship of the world from Dick Burge of London, and who was in Jack Johnson's corner in a managerial capacity when the negro did the same thing in Australia by beating Tommy Burns, thinks that he has once more found a boxer who will go to the top of his class.
He has now under his wing Harry Segal of New York, who has been fighting under the name of "Battling Champ" and although he has yet to meet the top notch welterweights, he has shown the crafty old manager enough to make him believe that he has another titleholder.
Segal is only a youngster, and Fitzpatrick is casing him along the route of the second round. He is full of action and a heavy hitter.
Miske Outpointed Levinsky.
New York, Oct. 30.—Billy Miske, of St. Paul, outpointed Battling Levinsky in a ten-round bout here tonight. Levinsky weighed 181 pounds, 10-1/2 heavier than his opponent, but Miske was aggressive throughout, having the better of six rounds. In the fourth round Miske closed

LIBERTY
Seventh Chapter of this thrilling serial drama is titled "Liberty's Sacrifice."
It is more sensational than any of the others. There is a big fight in the desert that is a masterpiece of realism. Of course Eddie Polo is there strong at the finish.

Georges Carpentier's Lost Fortune
took me out into the world to box for a living. My investments, had this war not come, would have made me a rich man, but now they have gone, for the Germans have had Lens and the mines in their hands for some twenty-one months. And worse than all, for all that time I have not heard directly from my father or mother or two sisters, who are shut up in Lens." Carpentier says that high is my home, and where I worked a little boy until Francois Descamps from £10,000 to 15,000 a year by boxing.

Abe Attell To Try "Come Back."
Abe Attell is to try the "come-back." Not long ago Joe Lynch trounced Brother Monte, the last of the Attells to carry the family colors into the ring; trounced him unmercifully, ending with a seventh-round knock-out.
Abe couldn't stand this reflection on the ability of the Attells as fighters and secured a match with Lynch. Lynch isn't greatly impressed. He's guessing he can beat the whole Attell family.

Players Demand Big Concessions
National Board of Arbitration Has An Ultimatum to Deal With
New York, Oct. 30.—The official list of requests which virtually means an ultimatum, made by the Baseball Players' Fraternity to the National Commission and the National Board of arbitration for concessions to its members, was outlined today by President Davis I. Fultz, of the fraternity, as follows:
"1. That clauses in baseball contracts empowering clubs to suspend without pay, after periods of disability, players who are injured in service, be eliminated, and that such players be entitled to full pay as long as they are held under contract."
"2. That rule 84 of the Rules and Regulations of the National Board be amended in so far as it violates section marked 'first' of the fraternity agreement."
"3. That minor league players receive their traveling expenses from their homes to the training camps when reporting for spring practice (the words 'traveling expenses' to include in addition to railroad ticket, berth and meal money where either or both of the last two items are usual expenses of the trip involved.)"
"4. That the procedure now employed by the National Board in hearing players' claims presented by the fraternity be amended so that the fraternity shall receive copies of the defenses interposed by the clubs and an opportunity be given it of answering such defenses; that immediately upon decisions being rendered, the fraternity shall be served with a copy thereof and the players' exhibits, if any, presented by the fraternity, returned to it, if requested. That the board shall enforce its awards against the clubs."
In a brief supporting the fraternity's petition, President Fultz, acting for the board of directors, says in part, referring to minor league players:
"Whereas a class AA or class A player receives a five days' notice of unconditional release he must be free to sign with any team immediately, the contract to run from the expiration of his notice of release."
"This section permits a player who has received notice of his unconditional release, to immediately negotiate for his services so that by expiration of the release period, he will have a position open for him. Rule 84 complained of, takes this right away from the minor league player, thus materially lessening the value of the release notice."

CHAMPION ABERG GETS $400 DAMAGES
Sued "Strangler" Lewis for $15,000 For Use of His Photograph
New York, Oct. 31.—United States District Judge Leonard Hand yesterday rendered an opinion in a $15,000 damages suit brought by Alexander Aberg, world's champion Greco-Roman wrestler, against Robert Friedrich, champion catch as catch can wrestler, in favor of the plaintiff, allowing him $400 damages.
Aberg's suit was based on section 51 of the Civil Rights Act of New York, which forbids the use of another photograph for advertising purposes. It was contended by the Greco-Roman champion that placards containing his photographs made from newspaper clippings had been posted by William Sandow, Friedrich's manager.
Friedrich, who is known as "Strangler" Lewis, according to the placard, was represented as having conquered Aberg and several other wrestlers. The photograph complained of contained a row of five wrestlers' heads, led by Aberg's with the legend: "Strangler Lewis and some of the wrestlers he has conquered."
The Sale of the Red Sox
Chicago, Nov. 2.—Notice of the sale of the Boston American baseball club, was sent today to club owners in the American League by President Johnson. "The club is not officially sold until the deal is ratified by the league as a whole," said Mr. Johnson, "and final action on the matter probably will not be taken for a couple of weeks. I hardly think, though, that a special meeting of the league will be called."

GROOM A ST. JOHN MAN
Chief Engineer Meredith of The Aberdeen Weds Miss Crowell

Yarmouth, N.S., Nov. 2.—An event of much interest to the western part of Nova Scotia occurred at Barrington Passage at noon yesterday when Miss Mary Bernice, daughter of Capt. John Crowell of Seal Cove, was married to John T. Meredith of St. John, chief engineer of the D. G. S. Aberdeen. The wedding took place in the Presbyterian church, Rev. Frederick Frigens of the Hebrew Methodist circuit officiating.

The bride wore a traveling suit of blue broadcloth. She was given in marriage by her uncle, Charles Thomas of Barrington. She was unattended. The church was beautifully decorated with autumn foliage and cut flowers and was filled by friends of the bride and groom.

After the service a wedding dinner was served at the Hotel Victoria and later Mr. and Mrs. Meredith boarded the west bound express for Yarmouth.

Last evening friends in Yarmouth tendered them a reception at the residence of H. E. Kirk. This morning they left for St. John on an extended tour of Upper Canada.

MANY ITALIANS ARE GOING HOME TO FIGHT

New Brunswick is sending to the battle front a large number of men whose names never appear in the newspapers and who do not get up to tell the recruiting figures of the province. In spite of this they are leaving in detachments every week and, by this time, many of them are in the firing line.

Since Italy entered the war, the Italians throughout the province have been completing their arrangements to return to their native land to take their part in the fighting, and ever since then a steady stream of men have been leaving New Brunswick for sunny Italy to reinforce the ranks of their gallant army.

The duty of looking after these prospective soldiers has devolved upon the Italian consul here, John DeAngelis, and he has been kept busy lately looking after their interests and arranging to forward them to their destination. His special fitness for the office he holds has been demonstrated in this work since his appointment.

GOOD PRICE FOR SCHOOL BONDS

Tenders for the new issue of $75,000 worth of bonds to cover the cost of the new King George school in Bentley street were opened this morning at a meeting of the finance committee of the Board of School Trustees.

The bonds are for twenty-five years with interest at five per cent, payable half-yearly. The successful tenderer was the Dominion Securities Company, represented here by F. M. Keator. The price was 99.591, a figure which is a substantial tribute to the estimate of the soundness of the city's financial position and that of the school board in particular.

SECRETARY ALLAN THREATENED

Members of the Fund Committee Clearly Explain Whole Case—Family Now is Receiving $103.50 a Month

A former member of the Ladies' Committee of the Patriotic Fund, but is not now connected with it in any way, tells this story.

"Mrs. Isabella Parsons, of Marsh road, is the mother of seven children. The oldest is thirteen and the youngest twelve months. The father enlisted in August. The case came under the notice of the Patriotic Fund; the woman was entitled to $80 a month besides her $15 a month as part of her husband's pay and $20 per month as separation allowance. From a decision of the Patriotic Fund Committee she was to receive $80 a month. With the notification of this fact, there was enclosed a check for $10 and a grocery order for $10. Later on she got $10 more. For the first month she got $20 in money and a $10 grocery order. Of her next month's allowance from the Patriotic Fund, she received $10. From that day to this, despite every attempt she has not received a cent. Instead of $120, her due allowance for three months, she just got $30. The woman, who tells this story, said that she knew a man who gives $500 to the Patriotic Fund yearly and until this case is seen to, he refuses to give another cent."

The Times immediately took this case to C. B. Allan, where it should have been taken. On the parties interested, Mr. Allan promptly produced the document which put an entirely different face on the whole matter.

Private Parsons enlisted in August in the 287th Battalion. His family was listed for the Patriotic Fund from August, and as it was represented that the family was in need an order for $10 in groceries was sent out in advance of the regular check. Later a check for $20 was sent, making $30 in all, paying up to Sept. 15th.

Then came word that Pte. Parsons had been discharged from the 287th for ineffective eyesight, and he was consequently cut off the fund. Later on an application was made to have his name put on again, as he had enlisted in the 286th Battalion. Mr. Allan made enquiry and found that he had enlisted on Oct. 8. He therefore brought the case before the members of the Patriotic Fund Committee who talked with the Times yesterday said that the great difficulty was that people did not understand the conditions under which the fund is granted, and instead of applying at the proper place go to unauthorized persons, some of whom appear to encourage trouble. They say that no just claim has ever been turned down, and Mr. Allan is daily subjected to a bombardment by telephone and otherwise from persons who, if they would call at his office and look at the books and documents, would see for themselves that no injustice is done. On the contrary, the Patriotic Fund errs on the side of leniency if it errs at all.

In his mail this morning Mr. Allan received an anonymous letter in which the writer, who claimed to speak for himself, and the Newfoundland people of St. John, said:

"Unless you send the money at once we will give you a warm supper on your way home on Thursday night. So take care."

The following is a copy of a letter sent out by Mr. Allan yesterday, but which was returned to him today, as the lady could not be found by the letter carrier:

Mrs. Isabella Parsons, Nov. 1st, 1916.
61 Marsh road, City—

Dear Mrs. Parsons—I have been looking up the particulars of your case and find that your husband enlisted in the 286th Battalion, according to the official enlistment certificate, on the 8th of Oct. The committee have placed your grant at $25 per month, which is the maximum amount now allowed to families. I sent you a check for $10 to bring your account up to the 15th day of Oct., the date on which we sent out our checks. The next check date will be the 15th of November, when, of course, you will be entitled to a full month's allowance. If you find you are in need of further assistance before that date arrives, if you will kindly notify me, I can give you some of your next month's payment in advance.

Yours truly,
B. ALLAN,
Secretary-Treasurer.

This letter was sent because Mrs. Parsons positively refused to visit Mr. Allan's office.

Boys, We Sold Clothing to Your Grandfathers

And you can guess what kind it was when you think that it was on the quality of it that our present business has been built—the largest Clothing and Furnishings business in Eastern Canada.

But remember this—we don't ask any boy to come here for his new suit or overcoat because we sold good clothes to his father or his grandfather.

The only reason why we ask any boy to come here for his clothing is because this very day he will find us ready with the best that money can buy.

We value the friendship of our young customers too well to make that statement unless we were ready to prove it.

Boys, tell your fathers and mothers for us that it will cost nothing to put us to the test and it might mean dissatisfaction not to.
