SIXTY-MILE GALE

Town of Tisdale, Miss., Nearly Wiped Out—Chicago Areas Inundated

CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 26.—Eleven persons and scores injured as a result of high wind storms in the Middle West.

Sweeping out of the northwest and Texas, yesterday, the storms struck the central part of the country, accompanied by heavy rains and snow, at a velocity of 60 miles an hour, causing incalculable property loss. Buildings were destroyed, streets flooded, telephone and telegraph lines damaged and traffic delayed.

Michigan and Wisconsin reported snow a foot deep. Light thunder storms were general in the eastern states.

FIVE KILLED IN CRASH

The greatest loss of life was in Chicgo County, Arkansas, where four white persons and a negro were killed. Levi Lyon and his three children were killed when their home was destroyed. The negro lost his life at Jennie. Although virtually the entire town of Tisdale, Miss., was demolished, the only death reported was that of the daughter of Mrs. Lena Martin.

CHICAGO FLOODED

Twenty-four square blocks on the northwest side of Chicago were flooded deep enough for boating. Children used rowboats to get to school and in some districts rafts or flat boats aided householders in their marketing.

MILLS CLOSED

Mills and factories were closed and traffic suspended at Escanaba, Michigan, where they had the most severe snowstorm in four years. Families were rescued in boats from the flood at Rockford. The water was three feet deep on one of the avenues.

GLACE BAY, N. S., Feb. 26.—An agreement on the check-off question was reached at yesterday afternoon's conference between the British Empire Steel Corporation's coal executive and the executive of District 26, U. M. W. of A. The corporation agreed to restore the check-off and submitted a proposition which was acceptable to the mine workers. The details of the counter-proposal were not made public.

TO HOLD PLEBISCITE

In the meantime it has been arranged to hold a referendum either on March 27 or 8, at which the miners will express their views on both proposals.

ANSWER LATER

Mr. McLurg stated he could not give an answer to the alternative proposition and suggested that a decision regarding it be held over until he would have time to submit it to the directors of the corporation for their decision at a meeting to be held next week. The United Mine Workers executive agreed to this and it is his intention to hold a referendum on March 6 or 8 to enable the men to vote on either one proposal or both. A full announcement will be given to the press as soon as the directors' decision regarding the alternative proposal is made known to the U. M. W. executive.

CLOCK-LIKE REGULARITY HIS REWARD

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN relieved constipation of long standing

Mr. Charles R. Pollard, of Watworth, Wisconsin, will testify that habit-forming pills and drugs were even worse than useless in relieving his constipation.

"I am writing to tell you of the great results I have obtained from using your Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Before I commenced using your ALL-BRAN food I was obliged to take a laxative every night, and being a nervous man aggravated this trouble and made it all worse. . . but since using your ALL-BRAN I have had no more trouble and my bowels are as regular as clockwork."

CHARLES R. POLLARD (Address on request) Don't let constipation drag you down, and don't become a slave to habit-forming pills and drugs. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN, eaten regularly, is guaranteed to relieve constipation or your money is returned because it is 100% bran. Eat two table-spoonsful daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. Ready to eat with milk or cream. Use it in cooking with the recipe given on the package. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is made by Kellogg in London, Canada. Sold by all grocers. Served everywhere.

OFFICERS SPEAK

The names of the six officers were published yesterday. The service was largely attended and was of an interesting and uplifting nature. Each of the forewearing officers spoke, relating the story of his conversion, call for missionary work and determination to adhere to their convictions and live up to the great ideals and principles for which the Salvation Army stands.

Commandant Ursaki read an appropriate selection of Scripture, and Mrs. Major Burton conveyed the greetings of the officers in the division who could not be present. The service closed in a general consecration and a dedicatory prayer by Major Burton.

and use of explosives, are posted up at or near to our streams, lakes and rivers, or roads leading thereto. 2. It is advisable that fishing privileges owned by the province, be leased, subject to conditions requiring the keeping of sufficient guards, by the lessees, unless adequate protection can be otherwise provided. 3. In leases of fishing privileges owned by the province, (particularly of easily accessible fishing) some provision be made whereby some portions of the leased privileges, may be reserved for leasing for daily periods, to any applicants either by the lessee or Crown Land Department, or be kept open for use by the public without compensation, but that such reserved portions shall nevertheless be under the protection of the guardians of the lessee.

6. That this association co-operate, in the fullest possible manner, with the Honourable the Minister of Lands and Mines, and his department, to bring about the greatest possible protection, and most extensive enjoyment of our fishing privileges. 7. That this association endeavour to procure the assistance of the Department of Marine and Fisheries of Canada, in the re-stocking of any public or privately owned waters, where it is deemed possible to create or improve new or presently existing fishing privileges. Therefore resolved, that a committee be appointed with instructions to confer with the Honourable the Minister of Lands and Mines, touching all matters herein referred to, with authority to act, and to offer the fullest co-operation of this association in the carrying out of any laws, regulations or agreements which may be made for the fullest protection and enjoyment of our fishing privileges.

She rushed from the house to the barn and after removing some straw nearby, she called for help and with the assistance of neighbors the blaze was quickly extinguished, thus averting the probable loss of the large barn and its valuable contents, including hay and livestock, etc.

The Motion Resolved: Whereas, it has come to the knowledge of members of this association that many of the lakes and smaller rivers and streams in New Brunswick, are without adequate protection by guardians, and that fish therein are frequently destroyed by spearing, netting, and the use of dynamite. And whereas, in the opinion of members of this association, it will assist in the prevention of such illegal destruction of fish, if printed notices, setting forth the severe penalties imposed by law, for the destruction of fish by spearing, netting, and the use of dynamite.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., FEBRUARY 26, 1926.

THE EXPORT CLUB

If export trade is essential to the economic life of Canada as a whole, it is especially so in the case of the Maritime Provinces. They cannot thrive and develop on trade with the rest of the Dominion alone.

reach. Could we do more business in that area? It was pointed out at Thursday's meeting that we are handicapped by lack of steamship services, and especially in summer. A reasonable summer export rate via Montreal would help, but we ought to have more direct services, or at least services shared with Halifax.

Farm and forest products and fish must form the bulk of our exports, and the task of converting these into such form as will command a market must be our aim. The products of the farm offer the best field at the outset, for the reason that we do not meet our own requirements, and because also there is a good market abroad for standardized farm products.

When we know that the White Star line would prefer to switch its steamers from Portland to a Maritime port, they can be handled cheaper here, and that the only obstacle is the lack of assurance that sufficient cargo will be provided for them by the C. N. R. It is evident we have a situation which cannot long be permitted to continue.

The moaning wires bring this morning the news that officials of the motion picture theatre owners of America, representing eighty per cent. of such owners in the United States and Canada, have taken steps to prevent the Countess of Cathcart—accused by Uncle Samuel of moral turpitude—from appearing in any of their motion picture productions.

Suppose, for example, a handy-sized steamer sailed weekly between Saint John and London. There is a market of ten millions within easy reach. What could we send there? Dairy products, bacon, sugar, paper, fish, brushes, forest products, canned goods, farm products and perhaps other goods.

LAZY LEW was haunted by the fear of overeating himself—though there was no occasion for this fear. Still, Lew decided that he had been having a trying time lately, and that a brief holiday would not come amiss. So he packed up and away he went.

Shandy? concerning Uncle Toby's oddities also seems applicable to the soldier's offences. The Accusing Spirit which flew up to Heaven's chancery with the oath, blushed as he gave it in; and the Recording Angel, as he wrote it down, dropped a tear upon the word and blotted it out forever.

Poems That Live

SONG.

When I am dead, my dearest, Sing no sad songs for me; Plant thou no roses at my head, Nor shady cypress tree: Be the green grass above me With showers and dewdrops wet; And if thou wilt, forget, I shall not feel the shadow, I shall not feel the rain; I shall not hear the nightingale And dreaming through the twilight That does not rise nor set, Happily I may forget, And happily may forget.

BY CLARK KINNAIRD WHADDAYA MEAN, ART?

AT A TIME when radio announcers, baseball players, motion picture actors, mammy-song singers, "Swiss bell-ringers, Japanese wrestlers, "Charleston" dancers, Tinpan Alley composers and the ladies and gents who fill the spaces between the ads in the national weeklies with stories, all are being called artists, it is well to ask, what is art?

The Very Idea!

MIDNIGHT MUNCH. AT NIGHT time e'er retiring, when he's hungry as the deuce, the kitchen is the place you'll find a fellow running loose. There's nothing 'n' better for breakfast and for lunch, are eaten nibble on some scrappings in the well-known midnight munch.

skull and crossbones of league peril smoldered for a protracted period before it finally went up in smoke. The fallacy and the fear may merely have been filed for future reference. LAW AND RELIGION (Cleveland Bulletin). There are many who want to pass a law for every virtue that in the opinion should be found in every citizen. Of course, the bald statement that "law cannot make people good" reacts are the best means to instill virtue in the hearts of our people.

those who do not want to see beyond mere words. But, what could be more convincing to prove that law is helpless where the heart is not moved to reform, than the facts as claimed by Representative Reed, of New York, that sixty per cent. of the inmates of penal institutions in penal institutions in New York city are drug addicts or peddlers of drugs? According to various authorities from 200,000 to one million people of New York are victims of the drug habit. Prevention by means of instruction in religion makes citizens fit to obey the law. Crime statistics of youthful offenders who have had no religious training prove positively that religion and not law are the best means to instill virtue in the hearts of our people.

BATHURST CO. LTD. TO SPEND $5,000,000 ON PLANT EXPANSION

WILL INCREASE PAPER OUTPUT TO 330 TONS DAILY, EMPLOY 1,000 OR 1,200 MORE MEN

Two Large Additions Contemplated; Second Unit for Old Plant Expected to Be Installed Next Summer, Doubling Production

VAST OUTLAY TO BENEFIT PROVINCE

Northern New Brunswick and Town Will Reap Profit From Development Program, Awaiting Legislature's Sanction of Power Dam Scheme

THE BATHURST COMPANY, LIMITED, announces further details in connection with its development at the Town of Bathurst, contingent to the passing of a bill to be introduced at the coming session of the Legislature.

At the present time the Bathurst Company has one paper machine running with a capacity of 65 tons per day. When the mill was constructed provision was made for the installation of a twin unit bringing the present mill's total capacity up to 130 tons of news-print per day.

TO ERECT LARGE BUILDING

With the additional horse-power on the Nepisiguit, the company will be in a position to undertake the development of their holdings in New Brunswick and elsewhere on a scale which will overshadow the equipment now being used.

In order to provide for this extension it will be necessary to erect a building 650 feet long by 150 feet wide. This will be on the western side of the present mill, alongside and adjoining it.

TO EXPEND $5,000,000 The additions contemplated by the Bathurst Company will call for an expenditure of $5,000,000, and the expenditure of such a large amount of money cannot but benefit the town of Bathurst and the surrounding country as well as the province of New Brunswick as a whole.

RAW MATERIAL BROUGHT IN With the added facilities the company is in a position to develop its holdings in the province to a greater extent. However, it may not generally be known that this company derives most of its supplies from sources outside of New Brunswick, bringing the raw material to this province to be manufactured into the finished article.

For Practical Affairs

At the office, and for business generally, men lean to the conservative rather than the extreme. The proper suit for practical affairs should in fact carry the current style features, and emphasize none of them. It should above all things be unobtrusive, that is to say, correct in cut. Among successful men a badly cut suit is as out of place—and as noticeable—as bad manners. A correctly cut business suit is necessary for practical affairs.

Our Ten-Pay-Plan permits you to buy and pay in ten weekly payments, instead of one—and at cash prices.

Instead of Trying to Make Over Your Husband or Doping Yourself With Hopes of a Rosy Future, Why Not Face Facts and Make the Most of Things as They Are?—Acceptance Brings Peace.

"I'M NO POLLYANNA," said a woman to me the other day. "I have never been able to get any kick out of saying to myself that it is a lovely sunny day when it is raining cats and puppy dogs. Neither have I ever been able to kid myself into thinking it is an error of mortal mind when I have a jumping toothache."

"On the contrary, when it is raining it seems to me that it is about the hardest shower that I ever saw. And when I am sick and miserable I know I am sick and miserable, and I want to look sick and miserable and have everybody to tell me how sick and miserable I am."

"But I have evolved a system of philosophy out of which I get a lot of comfort and sustaining, and it consists in just looking facts squarely in the face and accepting them and making the best of them."

"I USED to live on hope, which is a good deal like living on dope. I would have visions of miracles being wrought in my behalf—of people's dispositions being changed, of special talents being granted, of fortunes dropping from the skies. Of course, they never happened and I was disappointed."

"But I no longer try to drag my mind into believing that things are going to be the way I want them to be just because I want them to be that way. I recognize that they are as they are and I set about making the best of them on that platform. I find out that when you make up your mind to bear a thing and not worry over it, the worst of it is over. It is the kicking against the inevitable that wounds you so. It is the struggle against the impossible that wears you to a frazzle."

"FOR EXAMPLE, I am one of the innumerable women who is compelled to live with a disagreeable mother-in-law. For years I was nearly driven wild by her nagging, by her ceaseless flow of advice and suggestions and interference and by her never-ending criticisms of everything I did and didn't do."

"But no more. I have quit torturing myself by thinking how terrible it is I have to stand her and how happy and peaceful my home would be without her. I have just accepted the fact that as long as she lives I must endure her and take care of her, and I have learned to shut my ears to her complaints, so that really half the time I don't even hear what she is saying."

"I used to brood over the acid remarks she would make about my housekeeping and the way I raised my children and my gardening around instead of staying at home and darning socks. But now I just laugh at them and shrug my shoulders and say to myself that it is all in the day's work, and the result is that she has no longer the power to make me unhappy."

"MY HUSBAND is one of the best and kindest of men, and one of the most untidy that ever lived. He has a robed belief that nothing can shake that the proper place to hang up clothes is on the floor and he scatters his belongings as he goes from room to room. For him merely to pass through a room leaves it a wreck."

"For years I almost worked myself into nervous prostration and nearly drove myself to divorce trying to stack him to be neat and orderly. Then suddenly it dawned on me how much less weaf and tear it would be on my nerves and disposition to pick up after him than it was to be in a perpetual row with him over not putting everything in its proper place."

"I SUPPOSE every girl thinks that the man she marries is going to be a great success, and that he is at least going to be a money-maker. I know I did, and although we married on a shoestring, we lived for years on a great strain trying to keep up with people who were better off than we were. My, those terrible days when we would do without meat for a month to give a dinner party! When I would work my fingers to the bone making over my clothes so that my best friends wouldn't know them! When the rent collector was a figure of doom and the first of the month a nightmare!"

"Finally I faced the fact that John was just a plodder and would never make a fortune, and that while we might be sure of bread and butter, we would never be able to afford cakes. So we just gave up the struggle to try to appear rich and fashionable and settled down into the financial class in which we belonged. We gave up our smart friends before they could give us up and we went to live in a neighborhood among people who were no better off than we were. And we are happy and contented and well off, instead of eating our hearts out in envy at genteel poor or working ourselves to death at a bluff of keeping up appearances."

"IT SEEMS to me that, if women would just adopt my little bit of homespun philosophy of accepting their lives as they are, instead of repining because they are not something else, it would do more than any other one thing to make them happy. For what is the use of yearning for the moon that you can't get and that you probably would find made of green cheese if you did get it? Far better to make the most of the good electric bulb you possess."

"Why can't the woman who has no attraction for men content herself with a good job and a fat pay envelope and center her interests on a career, instead of breaking her heart in longing for the husband she will never get?"

"Why can't the woman who has been tortured for years by the phillandering of an unfaithful husband thank Heaven for a good riddance of bad rubbish when he finally elopes and settle herself to enjoy the remainder of her life in peace, instead of wearing the willow for him?"

"Why can't the woman who is married to a man who can't be bribed away from his friends of an evening quit nagging him about taking her out and get her fill of amusements in the afternoon?"

"Why can't the woman whose husband never pays her a compliment have sense enough to realize that his marrying her was proof positive that he considered her the paragon of her sex?"

"Why can't all women just make up their minds to take their husbands as is, as the shipping manifests say, and make the best of what they have got?"

"PERHAPS, in a way, this is a sort of surrender to fate; but, believe me, there is a lot of peace under the white flag."

How One May be Correctly Gowned for Evening Bridge

By MME. LISBETH
THERE is a correct costume for every occasion, you know, from early morning until bedtime, and while one may make one dress do for numerous occasions, it is nice to know just what frock is absolutely proper.
At the left above is the proper frock for the evening bridge.
It is composed of shimmering satin and gold and silver metal cloth, the bodice a shining corselet of solid color with large flowers appliqued or embroidered across the lower part.
The skirt section is a lacy drapery with a hem that hangs in points over a straight slip. In just what respect this bridge gown differs from a dancing frock it would be hard to tell, but you may rest assured that if you parttern after it you will be correctly gowned for the next evening bridge you give or attend.
Next to the bridge frock is the wrap that might well accompany it. It is a velvet creation of gray and black, the upper part, including the pointed collar, being of the gray and the entire lower section black. The hem is cut into deep petals, in fact the whole lower part is cut in layers of petals of black velvet with stichery carrying out the leaf effect.
Another handsome evening costume (right) shows a version of the black and white scheme. A long tulle of cream satin is posed over a black slip, the cream being covered with fine lace. The bottom of the blouse is all around, and two handsome velvet wraps worn at the opera in New York recently were of rich Parma and dove gray respectively. The Parma model had a bolter collar covered by tulle cordings. The dove gray had a deep yoke worked out by allover colored embroidery and topped by a collar of kit fox.
Black velvet dresses were also prominent on this occasion, several versions being combined with real lace. One took the form of a caplet which fell just over the arms in front to suggest short sleeves. Another of Irish lace composed the molded yoke and upper bodice section with sleeves.
On winter mornings when the wind comes stinging off the river, it is an oasis for the outcasts of that bleak belt that lies back of Park Row and in the upper Bowery. For a single penny a cup of coffee can be purchased and if one enjoys the affluence of general cents, a roll may be had also.
The man at the stands recalls one derelict who came up on a recent chilly morning, and, depositing five pennies, broke the season's record by downing five cups, without so much as removing the spoon or adding sugar.
It is no unusual sight to see a few penniless stragglers huddling in corners and, if one enjoys the affluence of some "wealthy" brother in misery to appear and "stand treat."
As I stood watching, a young fellow wearing a woodsman's mackinaw hove in sight. Slamming a quarter down on the tiny counter, he shouted, "Coffee for the crowd." He had just made a good "touch," it seems.

SEE-SAWING BROADWAY
PARKING space for baby carriages in New York brings in neat incomes. In a city where thousands of apartments afford little more than breathing space, a baby carriage looms as large as the widely advertised elephant in the china closet.
Not so long ago an elderly man, tired of job hunting and with considerable spare room upon his hands, got the bright idea of the "baby garage."
He had no trouble getting business. He merely had to walk from one apartment house to the other, shouting up the dumb waiters. Customers almost fell into his arms. He charged $1 a month for carriages of regulation size and 50 cents for go-cards. Within a week he had a cellar jammed full. Now he sits back and waits for wives and nursemaids to call for or bring back the buggies.
And when baby has learned to walk he falls heir to a considerable number of the conveyances.
This "infant industry," as it were, now has a representative in almost every thickly settled section of New York except, of course, the East Side, where the sidewalks, front steps and fire-escapes are in constant use.
OF ALL the famous old coffee depots, St. Anthony's alone seems to survive the night.
A stranger might suspect it of being an abandoned patrol box. It stands just below the grim wall of the Tombs, not much larger than a telephone call.

Is this your BIRTHDAY?
FEBRUARY 26—You are quick to grasp a situation. Interested in most things that happen around you. Can keep your own counsel, and other people's secrets, too. Inclined to be nervous. Very affectionate, but not of the kind that gives everything, expecting nothing in return. At your best in quiet surroundings, though you can probably hold your own in "company." You should marry well.
Your birth-stone is an amethyst, which means sincerity.
Your lucky colors are light blue and yellow.
Your flower is a primrose.

Orange Fritters—One and one-quarter cups pastry flour, two teaspoons baking powder, one-quarter teaspoon salt, one egg, beaten, four tablespoons evaporated milk, diluted or fresh milk, two oranges, seedless. Separate oranges into sections. Mix and sift dry ingredients; add diluted milk to well beaten egg. Combine liquid and dry ingredients and beat until smooth, or about two minutes. Dip oranges in fritter batter. Drop into deep, hot fat having a temperature of 350 degrees F. or hot enough to turn a one-inch cube of soft bread a golden color in 30 seconds. About five minutes is required to fry fritters.
Stuffed Peach Salad—Use either raw or canned peaches. Sprinkle with lemon juice to prevent discoloring. Melt cream cheese with milk and a little fruit juice, whatever happens to be handy. All chopped nuts to mixture and fill hollows of peaches. Place one large or two small peach halves on bed of lettuce leaves. Serve with creamy salad dressing.
Prune Whip—One and one-half cups prunes, two cups cold water, few grains salt, two tablespoons lemon juice, sugar to sweeten, one cup evaporated or fresh milk, one cup whipping cream. Soak prunes over night in cold water. Cook five minutes, add sugar to suit taste and cook two minutes longer. Remove prunes from their pits and let cool. Combine evaporated milk and cream and chill. Whip until stiff. Fold prunes lightly into the whipped cream. Pipe lightly in serving dishes and keep chilled until ready to serve.

Washington Pie-Cake—One-third cup butter, one cup sugar, two eggs, three tablespoons diluted evaporated milk, one and three-quarters cups flour, two and one-half teaspoons baking powder. Cream filling: Seven-eighths cup sugar, one-third cup flour, one-eighth teaspoon salt, two eggs, one cup stirring constantly until thickened, afterwards occasionally. Cool and firm. Cream butter, add one-half of sugar and cream well. Beat eggs and add other half of sugar. Combine sugar mixtures and cream until perfectly smooth. Add the flour which has been sifted with the baking powder and the milk all at once. Beat vigorously for one and one-half minutes. Bake in two round, shallow tins in a 375 degree F. oven about twenty-five minutes. Spread the cream filling between layers and sprinkle top with powdered sugar. Filling: Mix dry ingredients, add eggs slightly beaten, and pour on gradually the scalded milk. Cook fifteen minutes in double boiler, stirring constantly until thickened, afterwards occasionally. Cool and firm.

ADVENTURES of the TWINS

NANCY TELLS A STORY
The shaggy bear went out and came back with a large sheet of blue paper with white printing on it.
"Here are the by-laws and the constitution, etc.," he said to Blue Whiskers. Blue Whiskers took it and ran his finger up and down. "I'll see if there is any law about tongue-twisters," he said.
"Here it is," he exclaimed in a few minutes. "The very thing I'm looking for! It's a law that was made by my great grandfather, Straggled Beard. It says, 'The by-laws and blue-laws allow any king at any time for any reason whatsoever, to do as he pleases for the sake of hearing a good story.' That lets me out."
So saying he rolled up the paper and handed it back to the bear, who waddled out and put it safely away in the pantry again. It was kept in the sugar barrel.
"And now," said Blue Whiskers to the Twins, "I'll forgive everything and untwist your tongues, if each of you can think up a little joke or story to tell me."
"The kangaroo, looked extremely worried. 'Dear me!' he thought, 'This is the end of everything. I never thought these poor dear children would have to do a thing like that. It's all my fault for bringing them here. If only they had come in by the wicket!' But he stopped thinking and began to listen again, for Blue Whiskers had not finished talking.
He was saying, 'But, mind you, it's got to be a funny story. And I've got to laugh. If I don't laugh until I cry, I'll mix your tongues all up again, and besides that you shall have to swim the most of cool-liver oil which surrounds my castle. Now commence.'
"Thank you, your Royal Highness," said Nancy.
"Certainly, your Majesty," said Nick. And then they looked at each other in surprise. For the first time in hours, they could say what was in their minds.
"If we make you laugh," said Nick suddenly, "will you tell us where the blue cherry is?"
Blue Whiskers would have fallen off his throne if Jups and the shaggy bear hadn't caught him and straightened him up again.
"That is a word that hadn't been mentioned in my kingdom for a hundred years!" he cried. "It says so in the by-laws and constitution. But there! It also says that a king may do anything at any time for any reason for the sake of a good joke. I'll see what I can do."
"So saying, then," said Nancy. "I know a good story."
Jups looked relieved and surprised as well.
"Proceed," said Blue Whiskers, expectantly.
"Well, said Nancy, 'once a very, very little girl went out with her daddy for a ride in their automobile. After a while they got hungry and so they stopped at a little stand beside the road to get a sandwich.
"What kind of sandwiches do you want?' asked the stand man.
"We'll have hot-dog sandwiches," said the little girl's daddy.
"The first thing the little girl did was to open up her sandwich and look in. 'Sissy, daddy, what part of the doggie did you get?' she asked. 'I got his tail.'"
Blue Whiskers laughed so hard at this that he not only cried, but he nearly croaked to death. And Jups laughed and the bear laughed and all the little pigs laughed.
"The Twins were very happy. To Be Continued.

OFFICIALS GIVE INSPIRING TALK

W. McL. Clarke and A. E. Bryant, Ottawa, Promise Assistance to Club

At a well attended meeting at the Board of Trade rooms yesterday afternoon it was decided to form an export club for New Brunswick and at a dinner last evening at the Union Club the first steps in organization were taken.

The club was taken by W. S. Fisher, who briefly outlined the reason for the calling of the meeting, which was to hear Mr. Clarke and Mr. Bryant talk of the service rendered by the commercial intelligence branch of the Department of Trade and Commerce and to consider the advisability of forming an export club for New Brunswick.

MR. CLARKE HEARD He then called on Mr. Clarke to address the meeting. Mr. Clarke said he was very glad to visit his native city and felt the more to form an export club was one that would have a beneficial result.

SCATTERED THROUGH WORLD Turning to the activities of the commercial intelligence branch, he said that 28 trade commissioners were located in different parts of the world and the office at Ottawa was equipped to furnish information about possibilities of trade in any part of the world.

FAVORS MOVE Allan McLean, of Connors Bros. Ltd., was in favor of the formation of an export club as he felt such an organization would be able to overcome some of the difficulties in the way of steam transportation under which New Brunswick was laboring.

TO GIVE ASSISTANCE Mr. Clarke said that in order to help the club he would have his department furnish the Board of Trade with full information on the commodities in which they would be interested and this would be sent to them during March and April.

The chairman said that while the Board of Trade would undertake the detail work it was understood that it was not necessary to be a member of the board to join the export club and that it was hoped to have all manufacturers and producers in the province

Lieutenant Governor And One Chamber Will Form Legislature, Plan

HALIFAX, Feb. 25.—The Legislative Council, the upper chamber of the Nova Scotia legislature, will cease to function on May 1, 1926, if a bill introduced in the Legislative Assembly this afternoon becomes law. Hon. E. N. Rhodes, Premier of Nova Scotia, introduced the bill which is entitled, "An act abolishing the Legislative

Of British Columbia who presents a demand on behalf of that province for the return to provincial control of 14,000,000 acres of land in Peace River. LABORITES EXPEL TASMANIA SENATOR

Riled by Attitude Toward Australia's Law on Deportation

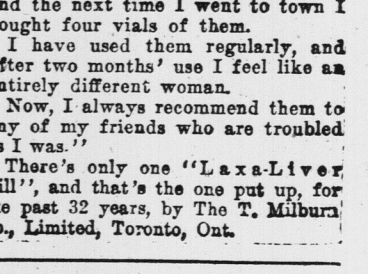

LAUNCESTON, TASMANIA, Feb. 25.—Senator James Ernest Ogden was expelled from the Labor party of Tasmania at a conference of the Labor party here today. The vote was 28 to 21 in favor of his expulsion. This action of the Labor party is the outcome of Senator Ogden's favorable attitude toward the Australian government's deportation legislation of a few months ago, which was chiefly aimed at Tom Walsh and Jacob Joannesson, respectively president and secretary of the Australian Seamen's Union, whom the Bruce government sought to deport because of their activities in connection with the seamen's strike. The Australian High Court ruled that the commonwealth parliament had not the legal power to pass the deportation bill and it ordered the release of Walsh and Joannesson, who afterward instituted suits against the Australian government for damages for false arrest and imprisonment.

Sisters, Once Blind, See Brother Given Sight After 19 Dark Years

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Feb. 26.—Howard Cook, who has passed the 19 years of his blind life in Pardee, the mining camp of Logan county, will see the town for the first time this week. He is in the Hawes-Marple Hospital here, and was successfully operated upon for congenital cataract. His three sisters, Cordie, 26 years old; Mayme, 24, and Fay, 17, also were born blind. Mayme and Fay had their sight restored at the same hospital, and on Christmas Eve they returned to Pardee, where they are now able to help their widowed mother with her heavy household tasks. Cordie is still in the hospital, but the bandages will be removed from her eyes this week, and physicians say there is no reason to believe she will not be able to see as well as the others. While the bandages were being removed from Howard's eyes, Mayme and Fay stood behind the boy's chair, waiting tensely, and watching Dr. Hawes and the nurse unwind the bandages, strained toward her brother, all her senses concentrated on the process she could not see. As the last strand of the gauze was unwound a sigh escaped from the boy's cordie heard. "Howard!" she cried in a choked voice, "can't ye see?" With groping hands she fingered her own bandages. Howard opened his eyes. He looked first at Dr. Hawes. Then his eyes traveled unerringly around the room. A smile spread over his face, then it became distorted and he closed his eyes.

Mrs. M. Siefert, Grosvenor, Sask., writes: "I was greatly disturbed with pains in my liver, and felt tired and depressed most of the time. One day I read about

Now I always recommend them to any of my friends who are troubled as I was." There's only one "Laxa-Liver Pills", and that's the one put up for the past 32 years, by The T. WHAT MEASURE PROVIDES

The bill abolishes the Legislative Council and provides that thereafter the Legislature of Nova Scotia shall consist of the Lieutenant-Governor and one House, namely, the House of Assembly. The Legislative Council at present consists of 18 sitting members. There are three vacancies. With the exception of Hon. F. P. Bligh, recently appointed by the Rhodes government, and Hon. W. H. Owen, appointed in 1881 by the Holmes-Thompson administration, all the members were appointed under a Liberal regime. In answer to a plan for the abolition of the Legislative Council, privately offered to the Council by Premier Rhodes a few days ago, Hon. Neil Gillis, a member of that body, gave notice of a resolution at yesterday afternoon's sitting to the effect that the council had proved its usefulness, that no real saving would be effected by its removal, and that no monetary consideration should be given against the necessity, more evident now than ever before, of maintaining the council as a branch of the provincial legislature.

ADMITS GRAVE ROBBERY; GETS 2 TO 4 YEARS

Prisoner Confesses Loathsome Crime to Cover Up Other Wrongdoing

SAYS CONSCIENCE HAD TORMENTED HIM

Larceny and Forgery Indictments Are Held in Absence

DELHI, N. Y., Feb. 26.—(A.P.)—Fred G. Beale of Binghamton, pleaded guilty to a grave robbery charge in Delaware county court and was sentenced to serve an indeterminate term of from two to four years at hard labor in Auburn prison.

Beale made a complete confession to County Judge Andrew J. McNaught, detailing all of his movements since the night of Sept. 25, last, when he robbed the grave of James Davis in a little cemetery near Hancock and afterward sent the body plunging over a cliff in his automobile in an attempt to make his friends and business associates believe he had been killed in an accident. He was arrested recently in Miami, Fla.

INDICTMENTS STAND.

Indictments charging grand larceny and first degree forgery, which stand against Beale in Broome, Sullivan and Delaware Counties for his alleged mismanagement of the Mobilco Brokerage Company of Binghamton, of which he was president, will be held in abeyance. It is understood, until he has completed his prison sentence. Beale will be taken to Auburn tomorrow.

Beale's confession was most dramatic. "My punishment," he told the court, "has been going on ever since that day in Boston when I found my crime had been discovered. I have seen my friends turn away from me. I have seen my father and mother turn away from me and then ask God what for and why I ever was born. I have seen my sister and brother spurned by their friends because of my act. I have seen my little boy who used to come up to me and ask me to kiss her, turn away with loathing. I've been in hell for five months. I am ready to accept any sentence your Honor may impose on me and I ask only to be given the opportunity to save what I have made in Florida to be devoted to my wife and family."

CLICK OF RAILS.

Beale's confession was a repetition of the statement he had made to Captain Daniel Fox of Troop C, New York State police, on the way from Miami to Binghamton. He assured Judge McNaught that he acted "absolutely alone" in robbing the grave. He told how he had fled from Hancock on the night of the robbery and how he had taken a train to New York and thence to Washington.

"While riding to Washington," he said, "I heard the click of the wheels over the joints of the rails, and every click said I was a cheater, so I went back to Boston, where I wrote four letters. I placed two $100 bills in each of the last three letters with instructions to a lawyer to send them to my wife and family."

WAS MAKING MONEY.

Beale then described his movements leading up to his arrest in Miami, where he was apprehended on information provided by Captain Fox. The fugitive said he had made considerable money selling real estate in Florida and would have made more had he not been captured.

It was only by coincidence, he averred, that he met in Florida Mrs. Dorothy Bolger, his former stenographer at the Mobilco Company. At the time his crime was discovered it was reported that Mrs. Bolger was also in the South.

mits a crime, his punishment falls heaviest on his family and friends. The court has in its possession a number of communications from persons who know you and your father and mother, and speak in the highest terms of the home influence and life your parents gave you. You have suffered, I've no doubt, I believe you, I am not at all influenced by publicity or by this crowded court room. I wish to give you such a penalty as will be fair and just to the people and reasonable to you. I cannot suspend sentence upon you."

A throng gathered at the court house here in anticipation of the arraignment of the man who had admitted to the police the robbing of a grave to cover up his own disappearance.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Beale of Oswego, the prisoner's parents, and his four-year-old daughter, Harriet, were in the court room. Mrs. Beale clasped her little granddaughter tightly as Judge McNaught pronounced the sentence, and both woman and child sobbed audibly.

Dry U.S. Ruins Husband, Wife Tells Court

ACCRINGTON, Eng., Feb. 26.—Mrs. Elizabeth Mullin, of Clayton-Le-Moors, is back from the United States with her husband after having taken him to prohibition America to cure him of the drink habit.

His fondness for liquor made her life unbearable, she said, so she persuaded him to take her to a "dry land."

"It was worse than ever over there," she told the judge in asking for separation. "He built a complete brewing plant and drank an average of 35 half pints daily. He got tired of taking beer to work with him. So I brought him home again, but he couldn't quit. Prohibition had finished his ruin."

Her suit for separation was granted.

FORD BUY'S BICYCLE

SAVANNAH, Ga., Feb. 26.—Henry Ford, maker of automobiles, buyer of antiques and fiddling enthusiast, bought himself a bicycle here. He did not intend to, but the heart of a small boy had to be repaired, so Mr. Ford "dug down."

An immense crowd was on the dock trying to get a glimpse of the noted Detroit and his chauffeur was trying to drive carefully, but with all his care he smashed up a bicycle belonging to little Walter Richardson, one of the spectators.

Walter took his troubles aboard the Sialia, and came ashore with the price in his pockets.

3 Test Farms Bought Along H. B. Railroad

OTTAWA, Feb. 25.—An important move in connection with the completion of the Hudson Bay Railway was announced today by the Department of Agriculture. It is that three farms have been purchased along the route of that road, and that these farms will be used as experimental stations to test the possibility from a farming standpoint of the land along that railway.

Operations on these farms are likely to be begun this summer, and the ultimate result will either prove or disprove the contention that the railway can be made valuable from a colonization viewpoint.

DRIVERS FACE FINE FOR UGLY PRACTICE

ROME, Feb. 25.—Already beset by scores of new and complicated traffic regulations, Roman chauffeurs now have to guard against a new way of getting fined—committing "aesthetic misdemeanors."

One aesthetic misdemeanor is the act of protecting the radiator in chilly weather by covering it with a sheet of newspaper or other paper. This, says Governor Crenonni, constitutes a most undecorative ornament. "If," says an ordinance, "special conditions render necessary covering the radiator, this should be effected by the proper technical means."

Health and Food

The Need for Hot, Sustaining Beverages—and of Putting Nutrient and Flavour into Food

Bodily warmth comes from within. Woollens and furs do not add warmth—they retain the heat which the body creates from food. To be healthy and warm during the bracing, invigorating winter, keep the bodily fires burning brightly with nourishing, sustaining food—the strength-giving nutrient of prime beef in the form of "OXO" Cubes.

Hot "OXO" Relieves Fatigue of Housework and Shopping

When you are busy about the house, stop for a moment in mid-morning or afternoon for a refreshing cup of "OXO"—a cube to a cup of boiling water. When you go out for a brisk walk or shopping tour, take a cup of "OXO" on your return. It provides just the grateful warmth and nourishment you need to relieve fatigue and revive the energy.

Hot "OXO" Prevents After-Chill

Arctic explorers, trans-Atlantic airmen, mountain climbers and athletes in every sport depend on "OXO" for strength and endurance.

If you enjoy, hockey, skating, snow-shoeing, skiing, tobogganing, guard against the after-chill which comes when the excitement and exercise is over. Muscles then are relaxed; tiredness creeps on; the whole system is in a condition to "take cold." A hot cup of "OXO" is the best body-warmer and chill preventative. It sustains and stimulates mind and body—rebuilds the wasted tissues—protects against taking cold.

A Sturdy Food for Growing Children

Children "just love" the rich flavour of "OXO" Cubes; and the beef nourishment is a food that helps to build bone, muscle and good red blood. Give the children hot "OXO" when they come in from school or play—an "OXO" Cube to each cup of boiling water or milk.

Nourishing Broth and Jellies for the Invalid

No trouble at all to make a tasty broth or jelly for the sickroom when you have a tin of "OXO" Cubes handy. An "OXO" Cube dissolved in a cup of hot water—and the beef tea is ready. How handy and convenient when something nourishing must be given between meals and at night?

The Strengthening Cup for Old Folks

"OXO" Cubes help to rebuild health and vigour. They present the food and strength-giving elements of prime fresh beef in a form which elderly people can digest and assimilate. A hot cup of "OXO" is a gratifying beverage between meals and at bedtime.

A FREE COOK BOOK YOU OUGHT TO HAVE

Write for the new "OXO" Cook Book, with the new recipes for preparing dozens of dainty dishes. You will see how easy it is to put flavour and good, sound food value into every-day dishes, making them more attractive and sensibly economical. "OXO" CUBES

The Great Beef Economy

Why your child needs oats and milk

Active, growing bodies must have food for energy and for bone and brawn.

More than any other cereal, oats store up energy for the day's work and play. Your children, "always on the go," require as much energy food as grown-ups. Lengthening limbs and expanding muscles demand plenty of bone and tissue-building food.

A warm, appetizing dish of Quaker Oats with whole milk supplies all the required food elements in balanced proportion. It satisfies. Its "bulk" stimulates the intestine to regular, normal action.

Two kinds—Quaker Oats, the plump flake—and Quick Quaker, the thin flake partly cooked, which makes porridge in 3 to 5 minutes. Ask for Quaker, and look for the familiar Quaker figure on the package. Do not expect a substitute to please you.

WHO IS THAT "SOMEBODY"? To the Editor of The Times-Star:—Regarding civic administration, it does not make much difference what system there is unless it is run in a business way.

Let anyone go to City Hall and get a copy of the report of last year, or any year, and he can see by looking it over where the money goes. I can show anyone where there has been over $60,000 of the taxpayers' money wasted in the last four years and not a word said about it.

Let them build the necessary facilities here, and Saint John would be the cheapest grain port in the East as Vancouver is in the West.

Let the C. N. R. make Saint John instead of Portland, Maine, its winterport, and our property-holders will be able and willing to pay their taxes without the intervention of constables.

Let us remain in apathetic indifference while our properties and the city generally are drifting to destruction.

The government has spent millions to make Vancouver the cheapest grain port in Canada.

COUNSEL AND WITNESS CLASH

Lee Says Musquash Figures For Short Period are Misleading

Must Have Sufficient Storage For Exceptionally Dry Years to Be Safe

Cross-examination of R. S. Lee, Montreal consulting engineer, occupied yesterday afternoon's hearing of the arbitration claims of the Inglewood Pulp and Paper Company against the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission.

The questioning was along technical lines and marked by frequent clashes between the witness and G. H. Montgomery, K. C., of Montreal, who with Dr. F. R. Taylor, K. C., and H. A. Hughes, K. C., of Fredericton, and J. D. P. Lewin appeared for the Commission.

Mr. Lee said that a check up of record covering a long period of years would be necessary for an intelligent estimate of the mean run off at Musquash. Records covering six or eight years would be worse than useless as they would be apt to be misleading.

MEAN RUN OFF

Every few years there could be expected a critical season when the rainfall would be below the average. The mean run off would mean little, unless there was sufficient storage to utilize it against dry seasons.

Mr. Lee said that if asked for advice he would advise companies to have such a clause in their contracts. He did not think there were many wholesale contracts in existence where this had been done.

Liberals Name Gardiner To Premiership

REGINA, Sask., Feb. 25—Hon. J. G. Gardiner, Minister of Highways, was today chosen Premier of Saskatchewan in succession to Hon. C. A. Dunning, resigned to accept the portfolio of minister of railways and canals in the federal government.

The choice was made today by a province-wide convention of Liberal supporters.

Mr. Gardiner said that he was not true to the standard of contract of power companies that any year the full load could not be obtained. The company lost only a little revenue and was not liable in damages.

SAVING CLAUSE

Mr. Montgomery replied that he was familiar with the instance. He had two other lawyers had been asked for opinions on the contract and had replied that there was a saving clause which freed the company from liability.

Mr. Lee said that if asked for advice he would advise companies to have such a clause in their contracts.

Weddings

Drummond-Stewart. At St. Philip's parsonage on Wednesday evening Rev. C. M. Morgan officiated at a pretty wedding, when he united in marriage Miss Agnes Louise Stewart, daughter of Mrs. Clara Stewart, of 284 Duke street, and John Alexander Drummond, of Montreal. A wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's mother after the ceremony.

Tucker-Shanks. FREDERICTON, Feb. 25.—(Special) John Burton Tucker, of Marysville, and Gertrude Shanks, of the same town, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Shanks, were united in marriage at the Brunswick street Baptist parsonage by Rev. G. C. Warren, Wednesday. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Elbridge Harrison, of Marysville, where they will make their home.

CASE CONCLUDED

The case of the Canadian General Electric Co. Ltd. vs. Reid Dumban, an action for the recovery of $112 for goods sold and delivered, was concluded in the County Court before Judge J. A. Barry yesterday afternoon and judgment in the matter was reserved until a later date. W. H. Harrison, K. C., appeared for the plaintiffs, and E. P. Raymond for the defendant.

SOME YEARS GREATER

Mr. Lee continued that in some years the power had been greater than he would have estimated. These were years of greater rainfall than usual and therefore useless for purpose of calculation.

ROVER SCOUTS WIN FIRST AID TROPHY

Capture Senior Provincial Prize—Will Try For Canadian Honors

The Rover Scouts team of Saint John has won the senior Wallace Nesbit first aid trophy for New Brunswick, given by the St. John Ambulance Association. It was announced last night by Miss Irene Barber, secretary of the New Brunswick division of the association.

This team was runner-up in last year's provincial contests. The winning team last year was that of the C. P. R. in McAdam, which this year takes second place.

The examination of all the teams was carried out by Dr. G. G. Corbet and the team work was a very difficult test. The Rover Scouts made a very good showing in team work first aid. They had been trained by Miss Irene Barber.

MEMBERS OF TEAM

The members of the Rover Scout team were Clarence G. Hoyt, captain; Donald Colwell, Leonard L. Johnson and Laurence G. Pincombe. The members of the team which took second place, the C. P. R. team of McAdam, were W. E. Bailey, captain; William Dawson, Frank Sheehy and C. W. Lee.

The Rover Scouts team is now in line to enter the Wallace Nesbit general competition for an all Canada championship and also to enter the Montserrat competition for the championship of all first aid teams of the Dominion. It will keep up training and endeavor to make as good or better a showing in the two Dominion contests as it has done in the provincial.

SPEAKS TO MEN

Rev. Hugh Miller, of St. David's church, gave an inspirational address at the meeting of the Men's Bible class of St. Luke's church last night and hearty thanks were extended to him on behalf of the large audience.

Harry Finch, the president, was in the chair. A very pleasing vocal solo was given by Roland Busin.

Mrs. D. A. Gillis, of Sydney Mines, N. S., and her little son, Edgar, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Catherine Wallace, Waterloo street.

THE ECLECTIC CLUB HEARS IRISH ECHOES

The Eclectic Club, at its meeting last night at the home of Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, greatly enjoyed an excellent program. "Modern Irish Drama" was the subject of the evening and Mrs. Cortlandt Robinson was in charge of the program and gave the very interesting opening paper. Mrs. G. S. MacDonald read an Irish Fairy Tale, written by James Stephens. Miss Audrie Hunter sang sweetly "The Little Red Bird," the words of which are by an Irish writer and the music by an Irish composer.

ACCOSTS LADY AND IS ARRESTED

Walter McLean of Halifax Fined $20 or 3 Months In Jail

Follows Married Woman Down Street—She meets Policeman and Arrest Follows

Walter McLean, 30, of Halifax, was fined $20 by Police Magistrate Henderson this morning on a charge of having accosted a lady in Charlotte street about 9.45 last night. He was arrested by Police Constable L. Durning.

McLean was sworn in his own behalf, and said that he had crossed from Carleton about 9 o'clock and had gone to the north side of King square to a beer-shop and then went down to Charlotte street on his way to the Salvation Army Home. He said he had been in Saint John about three years and had lived at the Home most of the time, his actual home being in Halifax.

McLean said that he had spoken to the lady but had not meant any harm. He said he was running to get home out of the storm. His Honor told the defendant that it was not necessary for him to constitute an assault. If he spoke to a woman he did not know, that would constitute an assault. Magistrate Henderson said in view of the corroboration of the lady's evidence by the constable, he would have to adjudge the accused guilty and would fine him $20 or three months in jail. McLean said that he had one witness, but he didn't know the man's name, although he had been acquainted with him for three years.

The two last named are returning after their tour of Scotland and England as members of the Canadian curling team.

Premier Returns; Has Nothing To Say Premier J. B. M. Baxter returned today from Montreal. He said he could report very little further about the overtures reported going on between himself and President A. B. Cranstein of the International Paper Co. of New York with regard to hydro extensions and developments in this province.

"I have no additional information of importance," said Dr. Baxter. "The telegraphic reports have already told about all there is to say at this stage of the matter."
