

TURKISH CALIPH GROWS BEARD TO BE BLESSED BY MOHAMMEDAN CUSTOM

NEW CALIPH OF TURKEY STARTING BEARD. ON HIS WAY TO DIVINE BEARD-BLESSING SERVICE IN ROYAL BARGE.

Constantinople, May 8. — The new Sultan of Turkey has had no more important duty devolved upon him, it would seem, than the growing of a beard of proper and satisfactory length. When the Sultan succeeded his unfortunate predecessor, Mohammed VI, evidently the only thing lacking in the eyes of the young Turks was the length of his beard.

Now the Sultan may be a ruler by the grace of Mohammed, but he is only human after all, and was not born without a beard. So he had to wait while the white stubble of his chin attained, if not genuine majesty in length, at least a respectable business. What the ladies of his household may have thought of him meanwhile did not enter into the matter at all.

For, according to the religion of Mohammed, it is necessary for the Caliph to have a beard that is as long as possible, and it absolutely must reach a certain required length, in order to denote the sanctity and wisdom which are supposed to appertain to a long beard, an appendage revered by the Orientals.

So, recently the Sultan's "holy beard" reached the required length, and according to custom he embarked in the royal upholstered barge and crossed the Bosphorus to attend the divine service for the blessing of his beard, which now represents the necessary amount of wisdom and sanctity and, it is to be supposed, establishes beyond question the fitness of the Caliph for his exalted office.

That is, until the next revolution comes along, and some younger Turk rises up, when the present Sultan's beard may be clipped.

George Stewart's melodious orchestra, assisted by local colored talent, gave a concert in St. Philip's church last evening. The orchestral numbers were well played and the instrumental solos by George Stewart and Clifford McCallum were given in good style. The vocal solos by Mrs. Thomas Jordan and Mrs. Frank Leslie and the recitation by Mrs. Ernest Dixon were heartily received by the large audience. The proceeds of the concert were for the benefit of St. Philip's church. A. F. Skinner presided.

MONOGRAMS ON VAMPS OF SHOES IS PARIS FAD
Bronze Afternoon and Evening Slippers for Women Are Among Newest Styles.

Paris, May 8.—Styles in shoes are occupying the French feminine mind to a greater extent than in former years. The styles are becoming more intricate, not only in the matter of design, but in the blending of different kinds and grades of leather. Bronze afternoon and evening slippers are just now very popular in Paris.

Brocades to match the gown, or brilliant stuff of some shade blending with the velvet ornamentation of the gown, is used on many slippers for evening wear, and there is always an attempt to strike a harmonious note between costume and slippers.

One of the latest things the faddists are indulging in is a monogram slipper, with the letters made in eyelids on the vamp or outside. This is a new wrinkle and rapidly becoming the vogue for the summer.

LITTLE NATION PAYS 960 FRANCS TRIBUTE TO PARIS
Feudal Contribution Given By Mountain Republic of Andorra Since 1278.

Paris, May 8.—Feudal days are recalled by a little ceremony which just occurred at Perpignan, where a delegation of mountaineers solemnly brought in the sum of 960 francs as their annual feudal tribute to the head of the French Government. The latter shares with the Spanish Bishop of Urgel a sort of suzerainty over the Republic of Andorra in the Pyrenees, where 6,000 mountaineers have lived since 1278 in an independent state comprising less than 200 square miles, between the French and Spanish borders. The Bishop gets 460 pesetas annually, which at the present rate of exchange exceeds the French ruler's share, originally intended to be twice as much as the Bishop's.

LONDON STAMP SHOW ATTRACTS AMERICANS
Owners of Valuable Collections Will Compete With Europeans for Medals.

New York, May 8.—Sailing for Europe on the steamer Baltic to attend the International Stamp Exhibition in London next month was Representative Ernest R. Ackerman of New Jersey. He carried with him the choicest part of his United States stamps which have been entered for one of the gold medals offered for collections from various countries. Another New Jersey legislator who is anxious to win an international gold medal is Senator John S. Frelinghuysen, but as he was forced to defer his European trip until May he entrusted a small portion of his early United States stamps to Mr. Ackerman, who will see that they are duly entered for proper class.

The exhibition will be held from May 14 to 26 in the Royal Horticultural Hall, and it will bring together the most valuable lot of rare postage stamps from every stamp-issuing country of the world that has ever been seen. Word was received last week from London by the Scott Stamp and Coin Company that the arrangements had been made to insure the stamps during the period of exhibition for £200,000.

Collections of postage stamps of that value have never before been publicly displayed. The best previous international exhibition was that held in this city ten years ago, when the late Henry J. Davenport carried off the grand championship prize. His collection, valued at more than $1,000,000, is now being sold in this country by Charles J. Phillips formerly of London. Some of the best Davenport stamps will be shown in a prominent place in the exhibition. Mr. Hind sailed for Europe a week ago, taking with him the late Mr. Davenport's incomparable collection of United States and Mauritius stamps, which has been the premier position as a postage stamp collector in the United States. UNPAINTED NIPPON BOAT IS MYSTERY OF THAMES
No Variants To Be Watertight.

Unique Japanese Fishing Craft Needs

London, May 8.—A craft which is somewhat of a mystery to boat builders here has arrived on the Thames from the Far East. It is a small model of a Japanese fishing boat, and the like never has been seen on the river. The boat has an overhanging prow and is propelled by a pair of sweeps over the stern. A mast is stepped amidships. Blue lozenges on the sides for ornament show the only paint on the vessel.

Immediately after the boat's arrival here it was put into the water, and in spite of lack of paint or varnish, it did not ship a drop of water.

BRITAIN AND RUSSIA

British relations with Soviet Russia are strained. Today's cables tell of a somewhat peremptory note sent by the British Government to Moscow, as a result of an anti-British policy on the part of Russia, and there may be involved in the present dispute a rupture between the two great powers.

WESTERN CONDITIONS

The western farmers will not be deterred by low prices from planting a large acreage this year, and nothing would do more to stimulate general business than a bumper wheat crop for 1923.

WOMAN'S OPPORTUNITY

The women of Toronto have a great and perhaps unexpected opportunity. There are more female than male voters in the city. If they should form a Woman's Party and stand shoulder to shoulder the other parties would be down and out in the coming provincial election.

STRIKERS' PLEA REFUSED

(Boston Herald.) The former shop workers of the Lehigh Valley Railroad want to return to the places they left last July. The Lehigh Valley officials refuse to permit the men to return.

CANADA'S PART IN THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

(From a speech by Hon. Ernest Lapointe.) A word now as to Canada's membership in the League. Some may think that we have no interest there.

THE PERSONAL DUTY

DO CAMPERS START FOREST FIRES?

Some Canadian campers, who know and love the forest, have been complaining lately that they are accused of starting a large proportion of the fires which annually take such a terrible toll of our forest wealth.

ACCIDENTS TO CHILDREN

(Windsor Border Cities Star.) Which is worth the most, a motor car or a child's life? If the slaughter of the children keeps up, the law, backed up by public opinion, will have to recognize that a child can, under no circumstances, be accountable for his actions in a traffic-crowded street.

DIPHTHERIA IN CITY AND COUNTY

(United States Public Health Service) In New England, at least, the susceptibility to diphtheria is higher among persons living in sparsely settled or rural regions than it is among those living in cities; and it is much higher among the well-to-do than among the poor, and among the native born than among the foreign born. Such are the conclusions reached by Dr. C. W. Kidder, of the U. S. Public Health Service, after an investigation, recently completed, in the Eighth Sanitary District of Vermont, which has a population of 85,000. The Schick test was administered to a little more than 2,000 teachers and school children whose parents requested it. Of these about 1,200 were found to be susceptible to the disease; and their immunization with toxin-antitoxin was at once begun. The Schick test is made by injecting a tiny amount of diluted diphtheria toxin beneath the outer skin of the forearm. If the person is immune to diphtheria, that is to say if his blood contains substances that neutralize the toxin that is injected, nothing results. But if his blood does not contain such substances a small ray spot soon appears at the point of injection and persists for a few days. It causes little or no discomfort. The value of the Schick test lies in its pointing out those who are susceptible to the disease and in thus enabling them to be immunized by toxin-antitoxin before an epidemic breaks out. It also enables those who are not susceptible (estimated as being from 20 to 30 per cent. of children and 85 to 90 per cent. of adults) to save the expense of immunization either before or during an epidemic. This is the second great step in the fight against diphtheria, the first being the introduction of diphtheria antitoxin, which came into general use about the beginning of the century and which caused the diphtheria death rate to drop from 48.8 per hundred thousand of the population in 1900 to 18.3 per hundred thousand in 1920, the latest year for which figures are available.

Notwithstanding the distances to be covered and the relatively high cost and difficulties of such work in rural districts, the value of the Schick test and of the toxin-antitoxin immunization, adds the Public Health Service, is so great that it should be included at all appropriate times in the programmes of health departments. Particularly should this be done in rural regions, where the degree of susceptibility to the disease is greatest and where facilities for prompt and adequate treatment are most frequently lacking.

A feeling of theatrical unreality was Bassett's chief emotion during the trying time that followed. The cloaked and hooded figure of the woman ahead, the passage through two dark and empty rooms by pass key to an un-guarded corridor in the rear, and the descent of the fire-escape, where they resound rattled against the wall while a man, possibly one of the posse, rode in, tied his horse and stamped in high heel boots into the building, and always just ahead of the woman, kept his nerves taut and increased his feeling of the unreal.

GOMPERS FOR WORLD COURT

Places A. F. L. on Record; Advocate of Plan Wins in California

Nagle Asks Borah to Talk at St. Louis—Connecticut House Endorses Harding Plan—Opponents Busy.

Washington, May 9.—Participation of the United States in the international court of justice was advocated last week by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor. In calling attention to his position, the federation head declared "that is the first official labor statement of position on the world court issue, and is, therefore, of special significance."

Mr. Gompers placed the American Federation of Labor on record during the Wilson administration as in favor of the League of Nations, but until today had taken no part in the controversy over President Harding's declaration for American entry into the international court.

Above Party Politics. "With the proposal for the United States to enter the international court of justice," said Mr. Gompers, "I am in full accord. That is an initial step that will inevitably lead to participation in all efforts to maintain peace between nations."

"Through the adjudication of issues between nations and governments there will be developed standards of international morality that will disclose principles upon which can be based wider organization of the field of international relations. With the present world organization of commerce and industry, there must come not only world organization of economic agencies, but also of political.

The cornerstone in the political structure may well be the international court of justice. Action upon the proposal is of paramount importance if we are to save our civilization. The United States does not repudiate her international responsibility. Those of us who believe in the League of Nations program will find in it an earnest that the United States does not repudiate her international responsibility. Those of us who believe in the administration's pledge to assume that responsibility through some association of nations will find opportunity to manifest good faith. Non-partisan unity in support of his proposal may again bring in a message of hope to nations in dire need. Let us neglect no opportunity for progress."

California Also.

President Harding also was gratified when he was informed by Harry Chandler, editor of the Los Angeles Times, that there were many evidences of support of his stand on the international court by the people of southern California. Mr. Chandler pointed out for one thing that John D. Fredericks, who during his campaign, advocated American participation was elected to succeed the late Henry Z. Osborne in Congress from the 10th California district. He predicted that final count of the votes would show Fredericks a victor by 2 to 1. It was the first election in which a candidate made his fight on the world court issue.

Opponents of the President's recommendation for America's participation in the world court are also busy shaping their plans to make an appeal to the country. The outstanding development was the appearance of Charles Nagle of St. Louis secretary of commerce and in the first administration, who came on to urge Senator Borah of Idaho to make an address against the court at St. Louis. Mr. Nagel complained that there was a connection between the court and the League of Nations.

"I am unwilling to admit," he said, "that anything wholesome can be traced back to the League of Nations. Reports that Senator Borah would make a tour in the northwest in an effort to speak for labor in the world court, brought Mr. Nagel to Washington. He said he represented Missouri business men, who were anxious to have Senator Borah aid in the opposition there. He told Senator Borah that hostility to the world court had more intense among the people back in the country than it had been to the League of Nations. Senator Borah indicated that he was gratified by the stand taken by the former cabinet officer and by the reports which he brought concerning popular sentiment against America joining in the court. He took the invitation to speak at St. Louis under consideration and it is probable that he will go there.

Hartford Conn., May 7.—A favorable report was made in the House on the so-called "Ayres resolution," putting the Connecticut General Assembly on record in endorsing the stand of President Harding on the world court. Royal K. Southwick of Hartford, chairman of the committee, said that the favorable report was reached after a protracted discussion in the House.

DELMONICO'S

FACES CLOSURE FOR BACK RENT

New York, May 9.—Delmonico's, one of the best known of New York's old restaurants, has fallen into the hands of the sheriff. Whether the place is to follow others of its kind into the oblivion which came with the Volstead act, the next week will show.

The restaurant will be warmly remembered by epicures the world over. Presidents and princes have been entertained there by the warm French hospitality and gaiety for which it was famous. Its cuisine was not mere cooking. It was art and was generally accepted as such.

Its history was unusual. The founder, Peter Delmonico, started out nearly a century ago selling sandwiches from a basket on the sidewalks of New York. The place had its brightest days when it was located at Broadway and Tweed street before other restaurants had sprung up to compete for patronage.

There also was a branch of the restaurant at William and Beaver streets, where members of the Stock Exchange and prosperous business men of downtown New York used to lunch. Jimmy Hebron, doorman of the place, became wealthy because of the tip he received from brokers on their way to and from luncheon.

KINDERGARTENS FORCED TO CLOSE MONTH EARLIER

Lack of Funds Means Doors Locked at End of May—Resume in Fall Clear of Debt. The Free Kindergartens of the city will be forced to close at the end of May instead of the end of June on account of the lack of sufficient funds to carry on their work, according to an announcement made this morning by Mrs. Allan G. McAvity, president of the Free Kindergarten Association. This course has been adopted to allow the association to open in the fall clear of debt.

Mrs. McAvity said this morning that the association had raised a considerable amount of money during the year, but that the deficit from last season had kept the full benefit of this from being felt. It was feared for a time during the winter that the kindergartens would have to be closed for a year or two, but it was decided instead to shut down for June and July and resume in the fall. The association had been advised by business men that their wisest course was to close early and thus to have all debts cleared, so that the civic grant next fall would be free from any claims. It was felt that some hardship to the teachers would result but that this step was necessary for the future of the work.

Maritime Potato Growers State Case

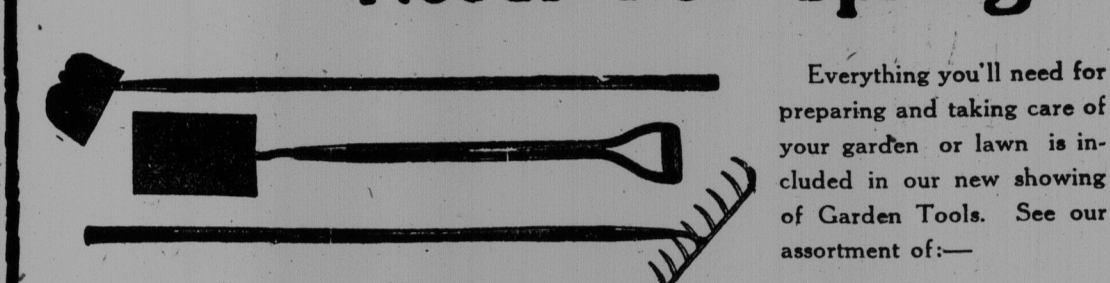

Loss on Cuban Shipments, Says H. H. Hatfield—Names of the 'Potato Exchange'—Competition in Foreign Markets. (By Canadian Press). Ottawa, May 9.—Potato growers and shippers from Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick placed their views before the special agriculture committee of the House, yesterday. Alfred E. Dewar, president of the Maritime Potato Growers' Association, said it cost 33 2/3 cents per bushel to grow certified seed potatoes on the basis of a 225-bushel per acre crop, and another forty to forty-five cents to get those potatoes to the market. In 1920 the association had returned its members $1.67 per bushel for certified seed potatoes. The price had dropped to $1.38. The duty was a factor in reducing returns, as the market for these potatoes was practically all in the United States. N. B. Evidence.

H. H. Hatfield, potato shipper of Hartland, N. B., said potatoes bought in New Brunswick at $3.00 per 180 pounds, and sold at $5.00 in Cuba had shown him a loss because of cost of handling. During 1921 and 1922 his firm had lost $27,000 on potato shipments. That he, as a shipper of potatoes from New Brunswick to Cuba, refused space available on his vessel to other New Brunswick shippers to keep the Cuban market as far as possible for his own potatoes was the frank admission of C. H. Estey, of Woodstock, another New Brunswick potato shipper. "Your group, in combination with Mr. Hatfield's group charter vessels to Havana?" asked Chairman McMaster. "Yes," was the reply. "And," continued Mr. McMaster, "you desire not to ship other people's potatoes even when space was available? You were motivated by a desire to keep these other potatoes from going to market."

Mr. Estey gave the names of the members of the "potato exchange" as Porter and Co., Gallagher and Co., Bowen and Co., B. S. Smith, Hatfield, Nelles and Clark, Estey and McKeane Produce Co. C. P. R. REPAIRS. J. M. Woodman, general superintendent of the C. P. R. New Brunswick district, and C. C. Kirby, district engineer, went to McAdam today to attend a meeting of superintendents, engineers and road masters. A programme in connection with permanent repair work to sections damaged by the recent floods will be mapped out and resubmitted through to completion.

NOTE TO RUSSIA IS PEREMPTORY

Britain Demands Compliance Within Ten Days.

Rupture of Relations Believed Hard to Avoid—Serious Situation in British Commons Over Matter is Expected.

(Canadian Press.) London, May 8.—The Government's note addressed to the Russian Soviet demanding compliance with its demands in ten days is much more peremptory than even the forecasts led the public to suppose, and although inspired statements are being made here to the effect that the Government is far from desiring a break in existing trade relations and wishes only to secure a cessation of anti-British acts and policy, there is a general belief that a rupture of relations will be difficult to avoid.

In fact, despatches from Moscow appear to be a forewarning of such issue, as it is indicated that the Soviet Government would find itself in a humiliating position if it acquiesced completely in the demands, and the British Government expressly rules out recriminatory arguments over its effects.

(The dispatch of the British note is certain to open a serious breach between the labor party in parliament and the Government. Labor is determined to use every effort to prevent a rupture with Russia, its leaders accuse Lord Curzon and the present Conservative ministers of being responsible for seeking a rupture with Russia and abolition of the trade agreement negotiated by the Lloyd George administration in the face of the opposition from the Conservative party, which has always opposed any rapprochement with Russia except on terms of recognition of Russia's foreign debts. Hence it may be expected that sturdy fights will occur in the House of Commons and that there will be a strong agitation in the country against the Government policy.

When the Moscow despatches were read to British officials in London there was no surprise over Moscow's rejection of the Curzon note.

The foreign office was not only to give precise facts and figures regarding the activities of the Soviet propaganda agents, but also to state the location of the principals who from various points on Great Britain's borders directed this activity.

It is also called attention to the injuries to British fishermen, some of whom were drowned in the Baltic, and to the interference with the state political policy. They point out that these acts were in flagrant violation of the League of Nations.

of the Anglo-Russian trade agreement. There seems to be a disposition in certain circles to cancel the agreement, but before doing so it is desired to hear what Moscow has to say on the charges set forth in the British note. The opinion among the members of the British Mission last evening seemed to be that the Russians would not go back further than at any time in Soviet history if they conceded Lord Curzon's demands had accepted the terms of the note. If a break in relations comes, the Russian trade organizations now located in London will probably be removed to Berlin or one of the Scandinavian countries.

London, May 9.—The text of the British note to Russia was issued today in the editorial columns of the morning newspapers. All the newspapers, however, print the note prominently. The few comments which appear report the two chief shades of opinion—one wholly endorsing the Government's attitude and the other as completely opposed to it. The latter is subscribed to not only by the Communists and the more extreme among the Laborites, but by the bulk of the parliamentary labor party. There is also a third view, that of the Opportunists. This, while condemning Bolshevism, favors fostering trade with Russia irrespective of political question. It is advocated by the Daily Express, which calls it the common sense view.

In the opinions which favor a rupture with Russia, the note is regarded as having little effect on trade, which is not dependent on it. It is also called attention to the injuries to British fishermen, some of whom were drowned in the Baltic, and to the interference with the state political policy. They point out that these acts were in flagrant violation of the League of Nations.

Little One Born on Lonely Lighthouse Off Cape Breton; Stanley Takes Doctor and Nurse.

North Sydney, N. S., May 9.—A child was born yesterday to Mrs. McIntyre, wife of one of the staff of St. Paul's Light on the lonely island of the same name off the northeast point of Cape Breton. The mother and child are reported to be doing well. The child was fast in the ice only a few miles from this port, the Reid-Newfoundland steamer Kyle reached here at 8:45 this morning. Captain Stevenson of the Reid-Newfoundland Co., and Mrs. Stevenson, who have been ill on the imprisoned ship, were taken to Hamilton Hospital, where the ship arrived she was running short of coal and her food supply, except emergency sea fare, was almost exhausted.

Flour, butter, fresh vegetables and sausage biscuit had gone and the ship could not have held out many more days without a replenishing.

Two parties, one of eleven members of the crew and twelve passengers left the ship on Sunday and the other twenty-five carried the relief to the vessel. This relieved the food situation somewhat and when the ship came into port the relief of twenty-two passengers and twenty-nine of a crew out of an original hundred on board.

BRITISH REPLY TO GERMANY

Evidence Taken by Commerce and Banking Committee of Commons—Present System Not for Benefit of Masses, Says Tom Moore.

(Canadian Press.) Ottawa, May 9.—That banks could alter the price level to a very considerable extent, Professor W. W. Swanson, of Saskatchewan University, told the Commerce and Banking Committee of Commons yesterday.

Professor Swanson expressed the view that credit advanced for productive purposes did not usually raise prices, but credit given for other purposes did tend to raise prices.

Mr. Good asked the witness' opinion as to the effect of the present system of banking on the price level.

"I should say," was the reply, "that they were very deficient in understanding the economic factors."

Tom Moore's Opinion. "There is a growing belief that the present financial system does not function for the benefit of the masses but that it is enabling small groups to obtain a stranglehold on nations and that we are faced with the need of immediate and radical changes," declared Tom Moore, president of the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress.

The incident grew out of the desire of Dr. P. L. Corby, former show man, to practice the hypnotic art. He said he had wished to stage the burial as a benefit exhibition for one of the local societies. Having failed, however, to obtain permission from the authorities to carry out his plan in Tampico proper he made arrangements for the performance at Donna Cecilia, a suburb.

A regulation gear, six feet deep, was dug up in the middle of the street and provided with four air pipes opening into pipes which would explode in the event of a fire.

The man, who had agreed to be the subject for a monetary consideration, was hypnotized and duly buried. He was supposed to remain that way three days and in the mean time he was observed with the camera and the air pipes at his head and his feet.

The burial took place Saturday afternoon at 10 o'clock. All went well until noon Monday, when the subject apparently became unwell and was brought to the hospital.

He was taken to the hospital and died there on Tuesday morning.

GEORGES' SIKI ABOUT HIS LAST

Carpenter Says He Will Quit Ring, Win or Lose

(Canadian Press.) Paris, May 9.—Georges Carpentier's bout with Battling Siki here on September 16 next will be his last, according to L'Auto.

"Win or lose, I leave the ring for good and all," Carpentier is quoted as saying.

Georges is scheduled to fight Joe Beckett on June 14, but says that the condition of his hands may prevent the meeting.

"I hurt my left hand in the fifth round of the Nilles fight, and my right, too, in landing the uppercut which ended the bout," Carpentier told a reporter. According to present plans, Georges will fight Mike McTigue in New York on July 14.

The Big Leagues. New York, May 9.—April weather made play in the major leagues soggy yesterday and threatened to spoil it again today.

Fighting to lengthen their short lead in first place in the American League, the Yankees fumbled through seven innings of rain and several of darkness to defeat Cleveland 2 to 2. It gave the circuit champions about one game advantage over the Indians and Detroit.

The Tigers lost the opportunity to advance by conceding a cold and losing to Washington 9 to 2.

Nipping weather froze out the St. Louis Browns-Philadelphia Athletics contest, and rain fell in Chicago, and the Boston Red Sox-Chicago White Sox game was flooded out.

The New York Giants were the only team to stand the shock of the first rain, beating a weakened Chicago machine, 4 to 1. In the Cub infield, Kelleys, a shortstop, filed in for Grimes, at first, and Friberg, a converted outfielder, did duty at third.

Chicago's Grimes, previously a weak hitting first baseman of the Pirates, helped his team keep hot on the Giants' bats by getting a double in the fifth inning. Incidentally it was the 21st consecutive game of the season in which he has hit—all that his team has played. Pittsburgh won 8 to 6.

At the cost of a slight injury to Rogers Hornsby, all around star second baseman, St. Louis overhauled Philadelphia 11 to 3, getting nineteen hits. Hornsby left the game with a bruised knee.

WRECK SAFE OF BANK IN THE WEST AND STEAL CASH

Winnipeg, May 9.—A gang of robbers cleaned out the branch of the Bank of Montreal at Dufferin, Sask., early today. At nine a. m. local officials of the bank had word that all cash, all notes and securities had been stolen, but they had no information as to the amount of the booty. The safe was wrecked and the building badly damaged by the explosion. It is reported that five men were engaged and that the cash lost was about $10,000, but this is not confirmed.

Later. After trusting the clerk with wire cable, the gang got away with $5,000 in cash and a large quantity of negotiable securities.

QUESTION OF CITY MEMBERS' VOTING POWER DISCUSSED

Matter Comes Up at Quarterly Meeting of Municipal Council—Appointment of Pasteurizing Inspector is Authorized—Housing Board Matters.

At yesterday afternoon's regular quarterly meeting of the Municipal Council Commissioner Frink asked for some clear definition of the voting powers of the city commissioners at meetings of the Municipal Council.

A committee recommendation that a new agreement between the county and the Eastern Trust Company, respecting the accounts of the housing board, be executed was referred back to the finance committee with power to act.

A recommendation that the county issue bonds for $15,000 to cover the erection of a new fire engine house for fire district No. 1, parish of Lancaster, carried after considerable discussion. The first recommendation set out that the tenders should be approved by the Municipal Council but the Lancaster councillors voted strong opposition to this procedure, contending that costly delay would be created.

Other recommendations from the finance committee that carried were: That a discount of five per cent. be allowed on all taxes assessed in the parishes if paid on or before Aug. 18, 1923.

NEW OFFICERS OF ENGINEERS' BODY

Annual Meeting Hears Encouraging Reports—Some Excellent Speeches.

The annual meeting of the St. John Branch Engineering Institute of Canada took the form of a banquet in the Union Club last evening when more than fifty members and friends were present. H. F. Bennett, who has been elected president of the branch for several years was the unanimous choice of the members for chairman. The other officers and vice-presidents are: N. Hatfield; secretary-treasurer, W. J. Johnson; executive committee, G. C. Kirby, G. Woodhead, E. G. Cameron, and W. R. Pearce.

The report of the officers showed the branch to be in a flourishing condition with a deep interest being taken by its members. The financial statement was most satisfactory.

The retiring chairman, A. G. Tapley, in his address called upon the members to display greater efficiency in team work and the cultivation of the spirit of co-operation, obedience, responsibility and personal loyalty. He also referred to the contribution by one engineer of another and said that while criticism was perfectly fair there should be a proper method of criticism which would be helpful to the whole profession.

He made a strong case for better remuneration for men in the profession and pointed out that in many cases engineers were underpaid.

Other speakers referred to the professional meeting to be held here in September when engineers from all parts of the Maritime Provinces would be present. It was hoped that this would be the greatest meeting kind ever staged in the Maritime Provinces.

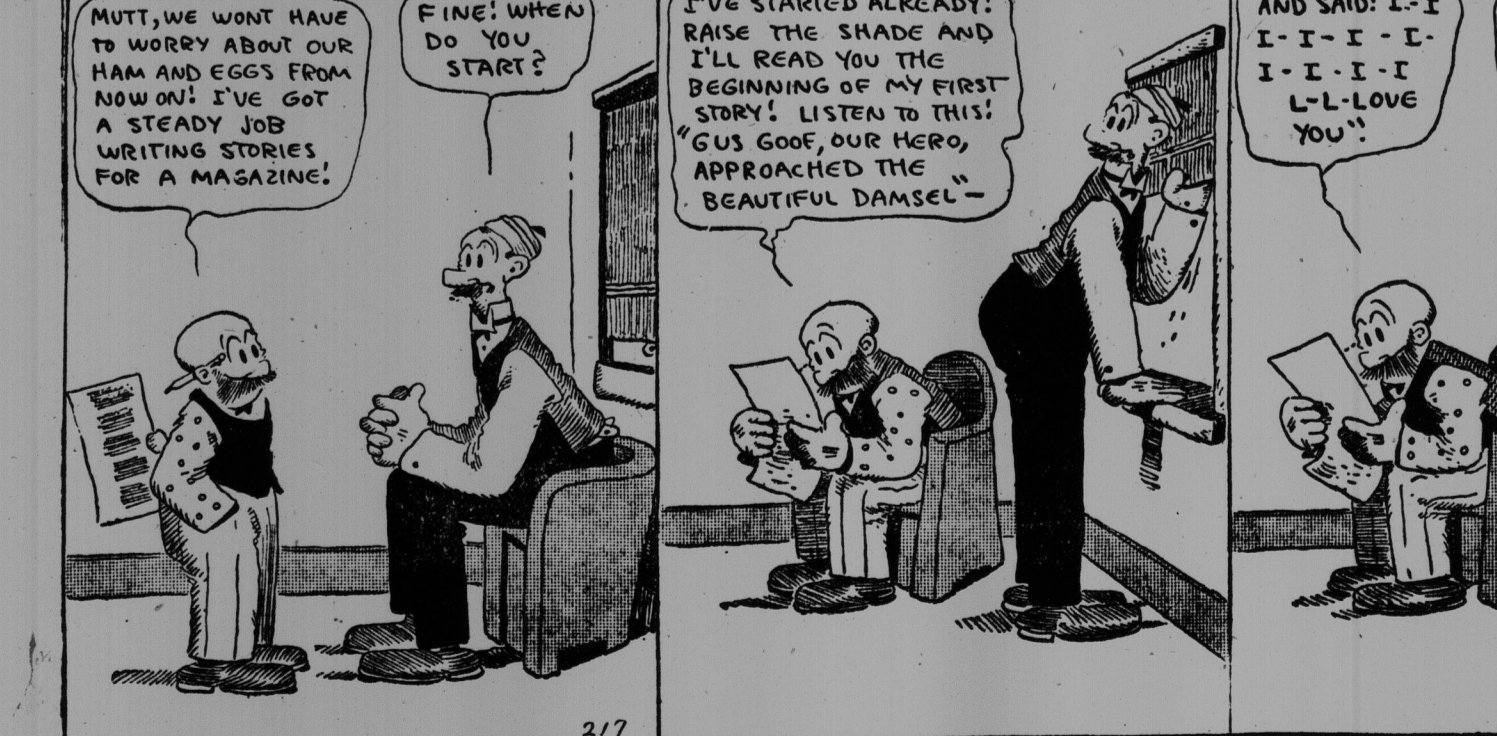

Alexander Grey, who has been conducting experiments with cement in sea water with the idea of securing the best materials suitable for works in the harbor, reported that progress was being made but the experiments took much time and his final conclusions had not yet been reached.

The report of the secretary showed that the membership of the branch was 68, with seven of these residing outside the city.

During the evening toasts to the King, the Engineering Institute, the Maritime Professional and the meeting of 1923 were honored. The meeting adjourned shortly before midnight.

A young lad before the Police Magistrate yesterday afternoon charged with disorderly conduct around the High School. Evidence was given by two young lady teachers and by W. J. S. Myles. This was the third offence, and yesterday morning Mr. Myles had gone with a High School boy to capture the offender. He had caught sight of them and started to run. Mr. Myles sent the boy after him, and after a chase the offender was caught. The case was postponed until Friday. Scott E. Morrell appeared for the defence.

WHAT'S DOING IN THE MONEY AND STOCK MARKETS TODAY

LONDON PROVES FINE MARKET FOR APPLES

Australia and Tasmania are expected to ship 2,000,000 cases to England in few months.

London, April 10. (By mail.)—The Australian and Tasmanian apple season in London has just opened, and within the next few months 2,000,000 cases will be imported from the Antipodes, estimates The London Daily Express.

English apples do not appear on the market till September, and from now on the Australians have the field to themselves.

These increased exports should tend to bring down prices somewhat for the consumer, but when the season is over, the market will probably be necessary to pay 1/4d. to 3d. each for the fruit—slightly more than the present being paid, owing to the fact that Australian freight charges are about three times as high as last year's rates.

IMPROVEMENT IS MAINTAINED

BANK OF COMMERCE DISCUSSES BUSINESS CONDITIONS IN CANADA AND U. S.

(Bank of Commerce Circular)

Reports from various centers both in Canada and in the United States indicate that the improvement in business conditions which has been in evidence for some months past is being satisfactorily maintained.

The situation in Canada has been somewhat similar, although the economic factors have operated on a somewhat different scale and did not produce clear evidence of a return of prosperity until some months after this had occurred in the case of the United States.

MASKS HIDE IDENTITY OF WELL-KNOWN BEAUTY IN CHARACTER DANCES

BEHIND THE BENDA MASKS IS MISS GRACE CHRISTIE, INTERNATIONALLY KNOWN DANCER FAMED FOR HER BEAUTY. BELOW, W. T. BENDA FINISHING ONE OF HIS CELEBRATED MASKS.

New York, May 9.—Here we have two dancers, one a timid, shrinking young creature and the other an impish ugly sprite, and yet the legs are those of the same person. Indeed, they belong to the beautiful Grace Christie, who is as celebrated for her pulchritude as for her dancing, while the faces were made by Wladislaw T. Benda, famous for his masks.

Miss Christie made a great hit in her interpretation of Benda roles, and was one of the first Benda masked dancers. It is some years since the first Benda masks created such a furore in the artistic and theatrical world, but nothing to equal them has since been produced.

Perhaps that is because Mr. Benda is so gifted an artist and bestows the most loving care upon each of his creations. The masks are built up on thin layers of paper, applied one on top of another until the desired contours are obtained. The contours are very soft, and practically every face is slightly one-sided, asymmetrical as surgeons say, and when they have been fitted they deceive almost anyone.

There is a marvelous mobility about these Benda masks, many of which are modeled after the well-known Benda types, and the expression seems to change as the wearer moves his head. The beautiful heavy-lidded half-smiling creatures seem just about to speak, the clowns appear to leer and grimace.

Mr. Benda is a nephew of Modjeska, a great Polish actress, and all he has to do to transform himself into an enchanting young girl is to don one of his own masks and throw a golden robe around his shoulders. His studio walls are adorned with a variety of faces, entrancing and grotesque. His art represents one of the few new creations since the time of the Italian renaissance.

WATERLOO STREET CHURCH ANNUAL

Reports were received and officers for the ensuing year elected at the annual meeting of the Waterloo street Baptist church, which was held last evening in the vestry of the church. Rev. J. A. Sweetnam, pastor of the church, occupied the chair.

Following the pastor's address, the reports were received from the various officers. The treasurer's report showed that $3,545.42 had been raised during the year and that $320 had been spent on improvements to the church property. His report showed that the church closed the year with a balance on hand of $10,115 and thirty-three new members added to the roll.

The report from the B. Y. P. U., read by Miss Agnes Pooley, showed a membership of thirty-five and $60.50 raised. The Willing Workers' report showed a membership of fourteen and $109.84 raised.

The president of the Mission Band, Miss Florence Kierstead, reported a membership of twenty-five and $33 raised. The Junior B. Y. P. U. report was read by Mrs. Silas Gregg and showed a membership of thirty and $15 raised. The Hospital Aid report was presented by Mrs. Thomas Robinson and it showed a membership of forty-one with $20.50 raised.

The year's work of the Adult Bible Class was reviewed by Mrs. Hebert Hoyt and Mrs. J. Frodsham in two reports and these showed a membership of sixty with $200 raised. The class had enjoyed a successful year and mention was made of the special addresses given by Hon. Dr. Roberts, Rev. A. L. Tedford, Rev. E. P. Wright, Mrs. F. H. Bone and C. R. Wasson.

The report from the fuel committee was read by Deacon W. B. Kesteven and that of the house committee by Amos Hoyt.

The election of officers for the ensuing year took place and resulted as follows: Treasurer, Deacon H. E. Hoyt; superintendent of the Sunday school, Deacon John W. Mott; assistant superintendent, Archie Parker; clerk, Deacon John Mott. The members of the advisory board were all re-elected with the following additions: William Currie, William Crabbe, Archie Parker and W. Smith.

Allison Cushing, charged with operating a car with last year's license plates, said that it was necessary to reach Musquash and that was the only reason he used the car. The fine was allowed to stand.

C. P. R. RESTORES TROUGH TRAFFIC

A feature in the restoration of the C. P. R. trains to and from St. John yesterday, following the recent floods, was the re-establishment of the Boston and Maine service. The track in the Mat-tawankeag section over the Maine Central was opened about noon, and last evening the regular Boston train got away. There was also a heavy movement of freight trains, eight leaving here yesterday afternoon and evening, and a number arrived in the city. With an exception of the Shore Line branch, which is expected to be opened today, the C. P. R. schedule in the New Brunswick district is now back to normal.

On the Valley Railway section crews were out yesterday clearing driftwood from the roadbed above Gagetown. Some of the rail is still under water, but the water is steadily receding and ballasting will be undertaken as the water subsides. A train went over the Valley Line from Fredericton to Woodstock yesterday, and a daily mixed train was inaugurated today.

Two juveniles were arrested yesterday charged with theft. One is charged with stealing $15, the property of Theophilus Jones, from the store of William Kein in Charlotte street. The other was arrested on suspicion of stealing a bicycle, the property of Louis Jacobson, Main street.

JOE PAGE WRITES OF "PRO" BALL IN SAINT JOHN

(By Joe Page.) From recent indications St. John, N. B., fans are in for a very lively time in the way of baseball. St. Peter's Park, where the semi-pro games will take place, should see some mighty contests throughout the coming season.

St. John has been without real professional baseball since the days of the New Brunswick and Maine League, which operated from 1910 to 1914 inclusive and closed up when the Kaiser declared war. Since that time the grounds were allowed to go to rack and ruin. While this was going on the boys and parishioners of St. Peter's were busy resurrecting an old dump into an up-to-date ball park and a parish team at the same time.

port four teams within its territory, but aside from St. Peter's team the real St. John representative, they are actually allowing a team from Boston and Quincy, Mass., also Manchester, N. H., to make their headquarters throughout the season at St. John and divide up the gate at least four ways, meaning that these four clubs will play an equal number of games between themselves at St. John and four other towns on the circuit, namely, Fredericton, St. Stephen, Milltown, N. B., and Woodland, Maine.
