Poincare Will Resign on June 1; Herriot Likely Successor
MACKENZIE IS SAFE ON BUDGET

CONFERENCE IN LONDON CANCELLED

Victors in France Demanding Retirement of President Millerand.

MAKES FOR PEACE

British Press Sees Good Coming From Defeat of French Premier.

BY WEBB MILLER (United Press Staff Cor.)

Paris, May 13.—Premier Poincare today decided to cancel his proposed conference with Premier MacDonald in London.

Guidance of France's foreign policy will be assumed by his successor, a leader of the Left, who will have a more moderate attitude towards the reparations settlement. The Premier and his cabinet will resign definitely on June 1. The next cabinet meeting will be on May 22.

Edouard Herriot, Socialist Mayor of Lyons, is considered the most likely successor to the premiership, but he must make arrangement for support of other parties of the Left who hold a balance of power in the chamber.

Demand Millerand Resign. Meanwhile, the press of the Left continues its clamor for President Millerand's resignation. The cabinet council met today with the President at the Elysee to consider what action should be taken.

The National Bloc which suffered its first defeat in the five years of its existence was formed by Millerand.

"The Socialists will find an illustrious candidate for the presidency," the newspaper Quotidien declares. "The Left must demand the presidency and Premiership as guarantees for its victory."

"The majority party must govern," Poincare himself agreed, talking to friends last night. They insist, Communists and Radicals will be unable to put a revolutionary programme into execution.

On leaving the Elysee after a conference with President Millerand, M. Poincare said, "We have announced to President Millerand our resignation effective June 1. After then we will busy on until formation of a new Government. I don't think I will go to England now, under the circumstances."

London, May 13.—(By Ed. L. Keene, General European Manager, British United Press.)—The landslide of Liberal votes beneath which the National Bloc in France lies buried, demonstrated, so far as British opinion was concerned, that Poincare's voice was not the voice of France.

Although increased taxation undoubtedly had considerable influence in the result of the French elections, Poincare's defeat, which was hailed with delight in British Government and Liberal circles, is generally regarded here as repudiation of his Ruhr policy.

Predictions are freely made on all sides that new leadership in France cannot fail to promote European peace and economic stabilization and go far to restore that Anglo-French friendship which the Ruhr venture so seriously damaged. The British press is almost unanimous as to the beneficial effect of the removal of Poincare. Even Lord Rothermere's pro-French Daily Mail admits "France has shown her overmastering desire for peace, even at the price of great sacrifices."

Lord Beaverbrook's Daily Express, in an eloquent editorial, characterizes Sunday's vote as "related recognition of the fact that coal cannot be extracted with bayonets nor a nation made up by creation of industrial paralyis."

Lloyd George's Daily Chronicle says: "We do not believe that any British Prime Minister or any party could have successfully negotiated the settlement as long as Poincare was Premier."

Ex-Criminal Leaves Money For Kiddies

Detroit, May 13.—A perpetual trust fund, the proceeds of which are to be divided to the establishment of a home for children whose parents are in prison, has been created under the will of a man who died last week. The will, discovered in a safety deposit vault, does not indicate the amount to be devoted to the creation of the home, but leaves the residue of the estate to that purpose after numerous bequests to relatives and friends.

FATHER AND SON ARE UNDER ARREST

Prominent Toronto Bond Dealers and Financiers Held Under Conspiracy Charge.

Toronto, May 13.—Aemilius Jarvis, Sr., bond dealer and internationally known capitalist; Aemilius Jarvis, Jr., his son and business associate; and Harry Peppal, manager of the firm, appeared in the police court this morning, before Police Magistrate Jones, charged with conspiracy to defraud the Ontario Government, and were remanded until May 21. Proceedings in court lasted only a few minutes.

Mr. Jarvis and his son were represented by R. H. Greer, K. C., and Harry Peppal by A. G. Slaght, K. C.

Bail granted yesterday afternoon, when the men were arrested on instructions of Hon. W. F. Nickle, Attorney-General, was renewed. Aemilius Jarvis, Sr., and Harry Peppal are held in bonds of $50,000 each, and Aemilius Jarvis, Jr., in $25,000.

The charge against the accused reads that they "did unlawfully conspire together with one another, A. H. Peppal, Peter Smith and other persons unknown, by deceit or falsehood, or other fraudulent means, to defraud the public, His Majesty in the right of the Province of Ontario, or to affect the public market price of the succession duty free bonds of the Province of Ontario, contrary to the criminal code."

Germans Going After Oil in Peru

Lima, Peru, May 13.—(British United Press)—German interests, understood to be connected with the Hugo Stinnes Companies, are preparing to survey extensively for oil in Peru. The Germans have leases on 75,000 acres near Callao and Ancon Bay.

Paris, May 13.—Former Premier Briand is now much talked of for the premiership, even more so than is Herriot.

Berlin, May 13.—President Ebert, at the Cologne fair, said: "This country and this people are German and will remain German."

Ottawa, May 13.—(By Canadian Press)—In the House of Commons the Budget debate will be resumed today by R. F. Preston, Conservative, Lanark. The Senate will not sit.

REPORT ON PENSIONS IS SUBMITTED

Hon. Dr. Beland Tables Document in House of Commons.

4 IMPORTANT POINTS

Provision for Widow Who Marries Again and Loses Second Husband.

(Canadian Press)

Ottawa, May 13.—Hon. Dr. Beland, Minister of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment, has tabled in the House the third report of the Ralston Commission. The report deals entirely with suggestions made by ex-service men for amendments to the pension act, and with Soldier Settlement matters.

The outstanding recommendations by the commission relative to pensions are probably these on four subjects:

(1) The right of pension of a widow who married a soldier after disability the commission suggests an amendment to the Pension Act to make it clear that the pension is not to be refused even if the injury or disease exists so long as its presence and its possible seriousness could not have been reasonably known. The commission also thinks that special consideration should be given where there was betrothal before the man went overseas, and children are without earnings or a disability when the marriage finally took place.

(2) The Canadian Pension Act contains an unusual provision which permits payment of pension to the widow and children of men who are at the time of death receiving pension for an injury or disease, even though death was not caused by the disability from which the man suffered. It was in effect life insurance for those who are disabled before they are limited to those who died within five years after discharge or commencement of pension.

The commission, after going into the matter exhaustively recommends that the time limit be removed, but that pension only be paid when the widow and children are without earnings or income sufficient for their maintenance and not automatically as in an ordinary case.

(3) Widowed Mothers. In reference to widowed mothers, a distinction has always been made in Canadian pensions between widowed mothers who were actually supported by their sons at the time of enlistment, and those who have since died. (Continued on page 2, column 3.)

SAYS BILLIONS HAVE BEEN STOLEN

New York District Attorney Addresses Public Accountants—Cites Manipulation.

New York, May 13.—More than three billion dollars have been stolen from the people of the United States since the war through the sale of spurious securities. District Attorney Jacob H. Banton declared at the annual meeting of the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants at the Waldorf Astoria hotel last night.

Mr. Banton said he derived his figures from a study of the securities of one corporation so that they were able to unload upon the gullible public to the tune of $14,000,000.

New Japanese Cabinet Soon

Tokyo, May 13.—(British United Press)—The Japanese Government, for whose resignation the press is clamoring as a result of Saturday's elections, probably will retain office pending formal celebration of the Prince Regent's wedding, the first week in June. Viscount Kato then is expected to assume the premiership and the foreign ministry post, at the head of a Kenzaki cabinet.

Tammany Chief Left Nearly Half Million

Stolen By Woman To Punish Mother

Joplin, Mo., May 13.—A woman's desire to avenge a bitter love and blackmail the man who spurned her was the motive behind the kidnapping of Freddie Leib at Quinoy, Ill., fifty-three years ago, according to a statement here by a man known as Robert T. Clark, fifty-eight years old, who declared he has established his identity as the long lost Freddie. He claims to be the son of Professor W. H. Leib, widely known music master, who died less than a year ago after having spent a lifetime and depleted his income in vain efforts to find his son.

DESIGNS FOR WOMEN OF ORDINARY MEANS

Lady Duff Gordon, Famed in Dressmaking, Opens London Shop.

(British United Press) London, May 13.—Lady Duff Gordon, famous designer, whose creations for London cost, hundreds of pounds each, has opened a shop to furnish the ordinary woman with original models of her gowns at prices varying from $20 to $50.

AT 118 YEARS HE WILL WED AGAIN

His Fifth Matrimonial Venture and The Bride is Young.

Juz De Fora, Brazil, May 13.—(British United Press)—Vincente Henriquez, 118 years old, and father of 48 children, has just announced his forthcoming marriage to Georgiana Lourdes Da Silva, 23 years old.

Vincente has already outlived four wives, the last one of which presented him with two health offspring a few years ago.

Besides being the oldest citizen of Juz De Fora, Vincente is as black as the ace of spades, and served three masters before slavery was abolished. Only six of Vincente's children are girls.

He ceased counting grandchildren a few decades ago. The new bride is pretty and fond of children.

SEEDING GOES ON WELL IN THE WEST

C. P. R. Crop Report From Alberta is Declared Very Encouraging.

Calgary, Alta., May 13.—The second weekly telegraphic crop report received by the Canadian Pacific here on Saturday from all portions of Alberta covered by the company's lines is eminently satisfactory and encouraging and shows that during the week very much progress was made in seeding owing to the continued excellent weather.

Alberta never before in its history has entered upon its crop season under happier conditions owing to the large amount of moisture there is in the ground. This applies throughout the whole of the province with the exception of two or three isolated districts.

Before the end of next week wheat seeding will be completed in most of the sections in the south and east. Garland, Dalmaced, Okotoks and Champaign have the honor of writing first to the work and are now going ahead with coarse grains.

Has the Kaiser Crossed Border?

New York, May 13.—Former Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany and Princess Hermine, his wife, left Doorn today for Saarbrücken, ostensibly to spend vacation with Hermine's children, according to a wireless report broadcasted from Nauen, Germany, and picked up by the New York World, that newspaper states today.

If the report is true, the German Government has reversed its policy toward Wilhelm Hohenzollern, as the Allies repeatedly have been assured that the former Kaiser would not be allowed to enter German territory. Silesia is one of the most strongly monarchist sections of the Reich.

Virginia is Swept by Great Floods

Richmond, Va., May 13.—As a result of rains for the last three days, Virginia faces the most general flood conditions in years. One death has been reported, that of Wm. Lucas, who was drowned at Fredericksburg when attempting to recover a small boat. The Shenandoah River is higher than it has been for fifty years.

ARCHBISHOP CRITICIZES SYNOD OF N.B.

Charges Graduates of King's College With Unfaithfulness to Alma Mater.

NOT GIVEN HEARING

Diocese of Fredericton Has Used College, But Given Little, He Says.

(Canadian Press)

Halifax, N. S., May 13.—Discussing, in his charge to the 47th session of the Diocesan Synod here today, the struggles of King's College, Archbishop Worrel said, regarding the stand of the Diocese of Fredericton:

"We have been told that the Diocese of Fredericton will not stand with us in the struggle. There must be a further incentive to us. That diocese has used the college for many years, and has given little to it. I did not expect much from it now, but I had hoped that we should have had their help in working out the problem before us. I did not expect graduates not only to turn their backs upon their alma mater but to throw hostile missiles at her as they turned. I offered and the board offered to go to the Diocese of Fredericton and place the matter clearly before them. They refused consent, and heard only prejudiced and distorted views regarding the situation. But I need not dwell upon this. We have the facts before us and must do our part notwithstanding the desertion of New Brunswick."

Referring to attacks upon the government of Kings for accepting terms of federation with Dalhousie, he said they were based upon an unwarranted assumption regarding the good faith of that institution's speakers have done. They forget that Dalhousie governors are honorable men. They have shown themselves in every way willing to help King's in its struggle, and would be the last people to do, what others seem to be trying to do, namely to give a kick to an institution which is loyally struggling to save itself from the surging waters of bitter sectionalism and prejudiced misapprehension."

President McKenzie. In his address opening the convocation of Dalhousie University here this afternoon, President A. Stanley McKenzie expressed his satisfaction in the association of Kings with Dalhousie.

"Dalhousie wanted Kings at Halifax," he said. "She was not interested merely in there being more students in Halifax. If Dalhousie had believed it possible that the removal of Kings to Halifax meant the disappearance of any of that distinctive character which makes Kings, 'Kings' she would have considered the result an irreparable loss with no very obvious gain. It is too early for anyone to predict the outcome of this new venture but if I should have to give judgment after the fact I should unhesitatingly say it had been on the whole an undoubted success from the standpoint of friends of both Kings and Dalhousie."

Dr. McKenzie said the university could look back over a record of constant progress and the future was contemplated with optimism. This was the sixty first convocation. At the first convocation two diplomas were granted. Today there are 146.

Carpenter Nominated For Presidency Of U. S. By Socialist Labor Party

New York, May 13.—Frank T. Johns, 38 years old, a carpenter of Portland, Ore., was nominated for President of the United States at the National Convention of the Socialist Labor party yesterday. The party, represented by 40 delegates from 15 states, also nominated Vern I. Reynolds, 38, of Baltimore, Md., for the vice-presidency. Frank E. Passonoff of Brooklyn will be the organization's candidate for governor of New York.

Resolutions condemning corruption in national affairs and expressing sorrow over the death of Premier Lenin of Russia were adopted. Johns, the presidential nominee, explaining the position of his party on political questions said "the overthrow of the capitalist system" was the fundamental issue.

DISCUSS LABOR Leaders Are Heard at Banquet in Montreal For A. F. L. Executive.

Montreal, May 13.—Unity between U. S. and Canadian labor so that the ideals on this side of the water and the standards accompanying them, as compared with labor progress and conditions in Europe might be preserved against all incoming tides was a sentiment voiced here last night, notably by Tom Moore, president of the Dominion Trades Congress at a banquet given by the Montreal Trades and Labor Council to the executive council of the American Federation of Labor.

It was not merely sentiment that bound together the labor movements of the U. S. and of Canada in one common accord, said President Gompers, but it was a feeling of mutual esteem and concern for the common good of all. Mr. Gompers lightly touched on conditions in Europe to show the contrast between the two American countries and defied contradiction of his statement that nowhere else in the world were conditions so excellent as obtained in Canada and in the U. S. despite different feelings as to labor organization. He added that what had been obtained by labor had not been handed over on a silver platter but had come through sacrifice and through hunger.

Frank Morrison, Secretary of the A. F. of L. said that the charges of "slacking" heaped broadcast against the workers has been refuted. The "slacking" heaped broadcast against the workers had the credit of bringing the working day from ten to eight hours, and half a day off on Saturdays, of bringing about compulsory education and free text books, a record achieved within 25 years.

FINANCIAL BILL GETS READING

McKenna War Time Duties Will be Abolished on August 1.

LIBERALS SUPPORT

Many Will Join in Vote Against Baldwin's Censure Motion.

(Canadian Press)

London, May 13.—The House sat into the small hours of the morning and finished the budget, passing all the remaining resolutions in connection with it and giving first reading to the financial bill embodying the proposals of the Chancellor of the Exchequer. The proposals include abolition, on August 1, of the McKenna war time duties on imported automobiles, films, motor cycles, clocks, watches and other manufactured goods.

Today's debate on Stanley Baldwin's motion of censure, calling for retention of the duties, now is regarded as of main interest, since it is likely to indicate how many Liberals are willing to co-operate with the Conservatives against any Socialist measure the Government may introduce. Nobody expects a government defeat.

Censure Motion. Former Premier Baldwin's motion calls for retention of the McKenna duties, but Premier MacDonald has considered it as a motion of censure and it will be discussed along those lines.

London, May 13.—British United Press Wireless (By H. N. Moore). Conservative hopes of an adverse vote against the Government today are shattered. Stanley Baldwin's resolution demanding retention of the McKenna duties found itself face to face with practically solid opposition of the Labor and Liberal parties.

The McKenna Duties. On the question of the expediency of opinion among the Government supporters. Labor members representing constituencies affected by the abolition of those protective clauses a few days ago exerting pressure upon the Conservatives to postpone the abolition of those protective clauses a few months more. A good many Liberals sympathizing with the free trade idea in Snowden's budget were impressed by the recent arguments in favor of at least temporary retention, but MacDonald's declaration that the Government would consider the abolition of those protective clauses changed all that.

Few people in England outside of the militant Tories want any change in Government at this time and the Liberals today decided to place their solid support against the Conservative attack.

French Election Effect. The result of the recent French election tends to strengthen the Government here. The Liberals and Labor alike are delighted at Poincare's defeat which they believe offers far stronger probabilities for the solution of Europe's problems. With the situation as it is on the continent, few Englishmen want to face the prospect of the unsettled conditions at home which would be provoked by a general election and it is generally felt that MacDonald, by reason of his freedom from former entanglements, will have a better chance to work out a friendly arrangement with France than Baldwin, Asquith or Lloyd George.

Is Lively Contest Over New School

(Special to The Times-Star). Newcastle, May 13.—In a heavy downpour of rain Newcastle is today voting to decide whether the Board of School Trustees shall issue $50,000 debentures for school purposes. A fairly heavy vote is being cast, due largely to an anonymous letter which was mailed to a large number of citizens yesterday, asking for defeat of the measure. This has aroused a greater activity on the part of those in favor than would otherwise have been evinced.

PLAN TO MIND WOULD CHANGE ALL WEST SIDE STREET CAR SERVICE

Ten-minute, One-way Trips Involved in Proposed Extensions.

Practically an entire re-routing of all the existing street car services in West St. John would result, if plans which are now being considered by the New Brunswick Power Co. are put into effect this summer.

After spending the winter in Palo Alto, California, D. C. Clark, a well-known resident of West St. John, has returned home. Mrs. Clark and Miss Hazel Clark, who accompanied Mr. Clark on the trip, remained on the coast for a few months.

All the travel would be in the direction as here outlined, which would make unnecessary the double track in King and Prince streets, which the plan proposes to remove.

Asked about connection with the ferry boat, Mr. Pooler said that the sending of the main line cars down the Rodney trestle would be a waste of valuable time and a curtailment of the efficiency of the proposed service.

He said that there would be no doubt be some objection from those who would not be getting a service so close to their destinations as they are now, but he felt that more frequent cars would partly compensate for this.

He said that the number of West Side residents who would benefit by the new route would exceed those who might have objection.

glad to discuss the whole question with any of them at any time in the hope of arriving at a more satisfactory system than now prevailed. Mayor Potts said that the great need of St. John at present was industrial growth, and that he believed the greatest service that the Rotary Club could render to the community would be to promote the enlargement of successful industries now existing, or to bring about the establishment of new ones. He asked the co-operation of citizens in the conduct of civic affairs and at the close of his remarks was heartily applauded by the Rotarians. There was a very interesting discussion on the subject of the juvenile court. E. C. Weyman, chairman of the committee, reviewed what had been done and said that there was now a proposal to ask the Municipal Council to request the proclamation of the juvenile delinquents to have the agent of the Children's Aid Society take on for the rest of the year the duties of probation officer, and through the various organizations raise enough money to get the necessary equipment to carry on the work of the court, the amount required being only two or three hundred dollars.

Soaking takes the place of rubbing

JUST by soaking the clothes in the suds of this new soap, dirt is gently loosened and dissolved. Even the dirt that is ground in at neckbands and cuff-edges yields to a light rubbing with dry Rinso. Not a thread is weakened. The mild Rinso suds work thoroughly through and through the clothes without injury to a single fabric. Rinso is made by the makers of Lux. For the family wash it is as wonderful as Lux is for fine things. All grocers and department stores sell Rinso. LEVER BROTHERS LIMITED, TORONTO R-4-4

PORT COMMITTEE HAS FIRST SESSION

Had Preliminary Talk Yesterday and Will Discuss Plans on Friday

The port committee, recently appointed by G. E. Barbour, president of the Board of Trade, had under consideration the various purposes for which it was appointed at a meeting held in Mayor Frank L. Potts' office yesterday afternoon. Those in attendance were His Worship Mayor Potts, Hon. Dr. W. E. Foster, G. L. Warwick, A. P. Peterson, L. V. Lingley and Commissioner T. H. Bullock. The meeting developed into a round table discussion on methods of getting more business for the port, but no plans were made or policy outlined, this being left to a meeting which will take place on Friday. At Friday's meeting it is expected that something definite will be done to start the work of obtaining for the port of St. John the volume of trade which it is felt it should have as the winter port of Canada.

HOUSE IS ORDERED CLOSED BY BOARD

The St. John sub-district Board of Health has adopted amendments to its by-laws to permit the sale of certified milk in the city and to make it compulsory to use milk and cream bottles for milk and cream exclusively. The board met in adjourned session yesterday afternoon with John Kelly, chairman, presiding. An order was given for the closing of a house in Carnarvon street. Two requests for extension of time for the installation of toilets were refused. One of the premises concerned is in the North End and one in West St. John. A Kings county milk producer appeared before the board to ask for reinstatement, his license having been cancelled at the previous meeting. Consideration of the matter was postponed.

ST. JOHN, N. B., MAY 13, 1924

THIS PORT AND OTTAWA.

In the course of his speech in the Budget Debate yesterday Hon. A. B. Cope, Secretary of State, took up among other matters the question of additional traffic for Maritime ports.

Mr. Cope is quite right in saying that the Maritime Province will not get anywhere by "abusing" Sir Henry Thornton and the Canadian National Directors, and he suggests that something useful might be accomplished by organizing in the Maritimes a strong committee to visit the West, get into direct contact with the grain shippers, and so persuade them to route a larger proportion of that traffic to Maritime harbors.

This is one suggestion which a St. John committee on port matters already has under consideration, among others, and it may be found a useful enterprise, while it is quite true that Maritime ports must bestir themselves and go out after business, there is another angle to this question, which is that these ports should not have to "sell" their advantages to the Canadian National. That is to say, over and above what the ports can do for themselves, the Canadian National, through its management, its agents and its connections, already has control of a great deal of traffic not specifically routed to that, in a position to exercise considerable control over freight which the shipper may desire to have routed to ports other than Maritime ones through his lack of knowledge of the fact that these Canadian ports would serve his purposes quite as well or better.

A PECULIAR SITUATION.

A very interesting political situation has developed in British Columbia. The date of the elections has been fixed for June 20, and the three parties are carrying on a vigorous campaign. The Vancouver Province says that with Premier Oliver back from Ottawa the political pot is boiling hard. Conventions are being held, and attention given to the question of candidates. Members of the Provincial Government, as well as Mr. Bowser and other Conservative leaders, and General A. D. McRae and others of the Provincial Party, are on the stump.

It will be a very remarkable occurrence if the union of forces the Colonelist suggests should take place. Mr. Bowser, the Conservative leader, and General McRae and Sir Hibbert Tupper of the Provincial Party have been assailing each other most bitterly for many months past. If any reliance can be placed upon what the Provincial Party leaders have been saying, they would regard the return of Mr.

Bowser to power as a calamity quite as serious as they say the return of the Oliver Government would be. It would seem, therefore, more probable that there will be three parties in the field, in which case we have the expression of opinion by the Conservative Colonelist that under such circumstances the defeat of the Government is doubtful. There is still time, of course, for change, but little prospect of a union between the Conservative and Provincial parties.

SEE THE GOOD, NOT THE BAD.

The world grows better in spite of the pessimists. The other day in Toronto, in the middle of a campaign to secure funds for a hospital, it was found that unauthorized solicitors had been collecting money which they intended to keep for themselves. About the same time a woman was found to have stolen some tag day boxes containing money for the blind. And still the world is not going to the dogs. There, in fact, were rare and exceptional cases, representing a few abnormal individuals and not the general trend, which is both honest and philanthropic. The Toronto Star says truly that the vices of a few should not be allowed to obscure the virtues of a multitude. And it adds his wise and encouraging comment upon the growth of the spirit of charity and kindness.

The thing of real significance is the gifts of the many, not the pilfering of the few. The willingness of individuals and the state to translate sympathy into dollars has given new hope and new life to countless thousands who would have been doomed to hopeless misery in other ages. There has been a great awakening to personal and community responsibility for the welfare of under-privileged, afflicted, or sub-normal human beings. Whether the affliction be financial, physical or mental, there was never a time when so many helping hands were held out; never a time when so many people made it their business to plan and work for the well-being of others.

THE PENSIONS.

Fair-minded Canadians will think it well that the petition of Canada's disabled soldiers against any decrease or uncertainty in connection with their pensions has met favorable consideration at the hands of the Dominion Government. There was some talk about abolishing the bonus which was given in order to supplement the pensions which were found insufficient when the cost of living was at its high level. As a matter of fact, the lower pensions were not sufficient even had the cost of living been less.

It is said in Ottawa that the assurance given the pensioners last week by Dr. H. S. Beland, that the present pensions and the bonus will be continued, will have the assent of all parties in Parliament, as certainly it should. The Premier, in a statement to the pensioners' representatives, endorsed the stand taken by the Minister of Civil Re-establishment, so it may now be taken for granted that the disabled men will not have any further cause for uneasiness on this score.

Before the session is over it is expected that legislation will be brought down confirming the arrangement outlined by Dr. Beland. It is probable the bonus will simply be added to the pension. If that be done the pensions in the various classes will be by no means too generous. Pension and bonus together for men who are classed as totally disabled now amount to $800 a year. "This amount," as The Ottawa Citizen says, "is no more than adequate for the man whose earning capacity has been destroyed by war service." But the public should understand that very few of the incapacitated men who were in Ottawa this week receive anything like $800. The average pension for disabled soldiers in Canada is probably much nearer $300 per annum. Nor are they asking that it should be increased. They have merely petitioned the Government to stabilize the present rates. The Government's decision to establish the pensions on a permanent basis is in accordance with the overwhelming sentiment of the people of Canada.

Some little time will be necessary in order to complete a sort of political reorganization in France. Then, if all goes well, the British and French Governments may be able to find common ground in dealing with Germany. If that can be done, and if they can act firmly in concert, the way towards European tranquility will be made considerably smoother. The existing uncertainty and confusion have plagued the world too long.

The fact that the Montreal Branch of the Engineering Institute of Canada has condemned further expenditures on the Hudson Bay Railway should have some influence at Ottawa. These engineers believe the project unsound, or at all events not at all justifiable now or in the near future. They know that there already is adequate port accommodation, the utility of which is not to be questioned.

FLOWER THIEVES.

The person who will rob flower beds which are intended for all to enjoy deserves sharp punishment. The public should co-operate with the authorities in waylaying him. Sometimes destructive children are to blame. But more often it is a degraded adult who hopes to profit. The police and public will be doing a service by keeping a sharp lookout for this means of criminals.

THE SUCCESS FAMILY.

The father of Success is Work. The mother of Success is Ambition. The oldest son is Common Sense, and some of the other boys are Stability, Perseverance, Honesty, Thoroughness, Foresight, Enthusiasm and Co-operation. The oldest daughter is Character. Some of the sisters are Cheerfulness, Loyalty, Courtesy, Care, Economy, Sincerity and Harmony. The baby is Opportunity. Get acquainted with the "old man," and you will be able to get along pretty well with all the rest of the family.

THE BREAKFAST PIE.

This appeared in the Washington dispatches: "President Coolidge gave his Congressional guests an old-fashioned New England breakfast. The menu consisted of ham and eggs, buckwheat cakes and Vermont maple sugar and coffee." Thus appears a long-standing illustration. Joseph Lincoln, the son of Cape Cod, tells a story of a native asking a local grocer why he had been invited to import cantaloupes, a product of the West Indies. "Why," said the grocer, "them summer folks eat 'em for breakfast, same as you would pie."

HONESTY IN POLITICS.

Concluding in the April Quarterly Review his gossip account of "The Personality of Lord Morley," Mr. Lord Morley has several pages on the general question of public and private morality. The epithet "Honest John," long fastened upon the name of the Duke of Devonshire, is a term of commendation. It is a term which he would have been proud to receive. He would have been the last to lay claim to moral superiority over his fellows in public life. On crucial questions, he would stand firm, and he would not be swayed by what he believed to be right, as against the merely expedient, even if it cost him his seat in the House of Commons.

RELATED SOFT SOAP.

The revision of the Japanese exclusion clauses of the immigration bill by the House and Senate conferees, in accordance with President Coolidge's suggestions, does not alter the ultimate effect of the measure. The concession is solely as to time and method. Postponement of the date of exclusion until March 1, 1925, before which the President is requested to negotiate with the Japanese Government is relation to the abrogation of the present arrangement on this subject. The conferees have agreed to the purpose of the bill. It does afford an opportunity for the diplomatic courtesy which should be extended to a friendly nation. Congress can hardly be so perverse as to reject a settlement that will spare Japan a needless humiliation, at the same time accomplishing the object desired by the United States. The continuation for a few extra months of the "gentlemen's agreement" of fifteen years' standing, need have no harmful consequence. It removes the affront to Japan of a summary notice of trespass. It preserves the semblance of good manners.

TEAR GAS IN THE WAR ON CRIME.

Report has it that the commercial use of tear gas is increasing. We read of a concern in Chicago that has equipped 3,500 banks and 250 police departments with devices of projecting the gas. The enterprising burglar, a-burgling of the bank, is likely to find himself immersed in a strangling fumes, and shedding unaccustomed tears. Under such circumstances he might well long, in the words of the late W. S. Gilbert, to lie a-basking in the sun, where he could listen to the merry village-chimes rather than the clang of the gong on the approaching police wagon. War on the criminal, to be sure, follows in its development the art of war generally. As the strengthened defensive armor has increased with the growth of the attacking gun, so defensive measures may be adopted by legislators against new perils. Legislators may yet be classifying gas masks among burglars' tools. The properly educated safe-cracker may in future be as careful to have his mask at hand as to wear the gloves that prevent the leaving of tell-tale finger prints.

But it has been demonstrated that the use of tear gas in police work is no laughing matter. The fact that criminals will find some measure of protection against it does not show it to be a failure. Presumably the police have been extensively used after appliances for liberating it in the right amount and the right direction have been perfected. The time may come when even the desperate criminal will shudder at sight of a policeman's club merely pointed in his direction. A Pittsburgh manufacturer is using a club which is a gas reservoir. When the policeman pulls the trigger, the gas is expelled to shoot toward the target, and do the work. It is a device for back-firing by the contrivance. Attention is also being given to improvement in guns and grenades for distributing the gas. It will do the most good. The use of gas, especially in dealing with riotous assemblies, is in keeping with the dictates of a practical age. It is a method of police use may cause much discomfort but produces no permanent disability. Compared to the order, shoot to kill, the gas is a humane method. It is a method of the higher civilization. Nevertheless, the innocent, pursuing their law-abiding ways, will have to have the mask behind the gas gun will have learned to shoot straight.

Lightning Courtship.

A colored cook of middle-age, who had served considerable money, suddenly got herself engaged to a sporting man of her own race. One morning her mistress saw her gazing abstractly out of the kitchen window and inquired: "What's the matter, Hannah?"
"Well, mum," she replied, "with my husband—his-to-be everything goes with such lightning speed that I'm confused. Day before yesterday we got acquainted, yesterday we got engaged, and today I find he already owes me $5."

THE GREAT UNKNOWN.

(Boston Transcript.)
There are venturesome souls 'way down East in Maine. Some of them are willing to penetrate The Great Unknown—in this instance, however, not that barren forest with no traveler returns. Instead, it is a tract of country which is in its primal state as a wilderness and concerning which romantic tales are told. Attention has been directed to "The Great Unknown" by the Maine State Publicity Bureau, an enterprising organization which well understands the advertising value of legend and romance. When he received a letter from a Bar Harbor resident asking for information concerning a region in Washington County "shunned by Indians and white men alike," Secretary Coe of the Publicity Bureau lost no time in getting busy. As a result, he now makes public letters from Dr. W. N. Miner, president of the Calais Chamber of Commerce, and Ross Yates, a well-known guide. The result is that an interested public may now know something of The Great Unknown.

Dr. Miner describes it as a region in which is "a considerable mountain with a cave, and when the wind blows in certain directions a noise can be distinguished coming through a gorge. There is an old Indian myth," adds Dr. Miner, "that the place is haunted. A stream runs down the side of the mountain and is known as 'The Unknown Stream.' But the Galois authorities does not agree with me, that the place is now shunned. He says that years ago there might have been dread in traversing the region, but since then it has been penetrated by many hunters. Mr. Yates, while not contradicting Dr. Miner, points out, nevertheless, that white men alike, pictures it as a wilderness filled with wild animals, with streams abounding in fish. But he is willing to take his chance as guide if the other man will do his share of watching at night and look out for himself if a bear gives chase. It is a prospect not without thrills, but perhaps Mr. Ross Yates, the well-known guide, is not lacking in that sense of dry humor which is reserved for the adventures of many a Maine guide as he comments on his occupation and his charges.

If a hungry child cried, outside your door—

YOU couldn't refuse a piece of bread to a little boy or girl. The pitiful cry would reach your heart, at once. Those who come to the Salvation Army—men, women and children—cry out to us in their sorrow, their poverty, their hunger—and, we can't refuse them.

Remember this when a canvasser calls at your house

When a Volunteer Worker calls at your home for a donation to the Annual Self-Denial Appeal, please remember that he—or she—is the representative of the multitude of folks who, through one cause or another, are forced to seek the Army's helping hand. But the Army does more than relieve a temporary pang of hunger. It interests itself in those who need its aid. It delves into causes. It puts its finger on the source of trouble and exerts every human and spiritual effort to effect a permanent cure.

Old Custom Invoked in the Case of Lad Afflicted With Tuberculosis.

Anchorage, Alaska, April 1.—(By Mail to United Press)—Evidence of continuation of brutal tribal customs by some of the Indian tribes of the Far North came to light here when news was received that Sam Brooks, a native boy afflicted with tuberculosis, was taken by his tribal people, conveyed to a lonely spot far removed from settlement, given a supply of provisions and abandoned to starvation when his food was depleted. Unable to retrace his step to the tribal village the boy ended his life by cutting his throat.

Despite efforts of missionaries, there are yet many settlements of natives in the sub-Arctic regions who still practice ancient customs in dealing with the aged and decrepit. Recently it was discovered that aged members of far northern tribes were taken into the wilderness, where a log hut was constructed in the form of a prison, where in the victim was walled up to await the slow process of starvation.

CONDITION CRITICAL

The condition of Howard True, Oromocto, is reported critical, with little hope held out for his recovery. His sisters, Mrs. Fred Williamson and Miss Hetty True of St. John and his brother, Harvey True of Fredericton, were called to his bedside on Saturday. Mr. True was taken ill some weeks ago but recovered sufficiently to be up and around the house until a few days ago when he took a sudden change for the worse.

DYSPEPSIA WAS SO BAD Could Hardly Eat Anything

Mrs. C. Stone, Nanticoke, Ont., writes: "Some time ago I had a very serious attack of dyspepsia, and was also troubled with gas on my stomach. I could hardly eat anything, and very often had pains after meals. I had used different medicines, but they didn't seem to do me any good. At last I happened to run on the track of Burdock Blood Bitters, and after using it for a short time I felt a lot better. I continued its use until I was completely relieved and now I am ready to recommend it to anyone troubled as I was."

Wife of Rumanian Diplomat Says Woman's Place In Home

(By Marian Hale.)

The American woman's interest in politics is incomprehensible to Madame Rose de Covarrubias Nano, wife of the charge d'affaires and secretary of the Rumanian embassy at Washington.

"I can't see why a woman should interest herself in politics or be interested in a profession or in business, unless it is really necessary for her to support herself," she told me.

"And I can't understand a woman going to what you call the 'polls' and rubbing elbows with men and becoming entangled even in an impersonal way with things political. The European woman doesn't look at politics with the same eyes as American women do."

"I should never think of employing a woman doctor or woman lawyer," she went on candidly. "Somehow I cannot bring myself to imagine a woman becoming efficient in either profession. To me a woman's place is in the home and in society in the general sense of the word. Perhaps it's just being old-fashioned."

"The Americans are the most beautiful women in the world," she announced, without adding one qualification. "And since she is the acknowledged 'queen of beauty' in the capital city, we may well value her opinion."

"The costume over here is excellent," she said. "Paris is regarded as the centre of fashion, of course, but since I have lived over here I have been wondering just how long it will be before this leadership in style is handed over to America and New York given preference over Paris."

Regarding beauty in general, she believes—

"Beauty of form is better than beauty of face, but a beautiful behavior is far better than a beautiful form—from this we reap more of an aesthetic thrill than from statues or pictures. I should say beauty of behavior is the most glorious of all the fine arts."

She believes that beauty is merely the love of measure or proportion. "In my companions," she concluded, "I imperatively demand homage to and perception of beauty. I could dine more at ease with a person who was immoral or unkind than with one who was unprepossessing. I do not believe for a moment that beauty is 'skin deep.' The depth of real beauty goes far below the surface."

Beauty of form is better than beauty of face, but a beautiful behavior is far better than a beautiful form—from this we reap more of an aesthetic thrill than from statues or pictures. I should say beauty of behavior is the most glorious of all the fine arts.

'QUAKE PROOF HOUSES BUILT

Reconstruction in Costa Rica Proceeding Rapidly in Towns Destroyed.

MADAME ROSE DE COVARRUBIAS NANO.

Ancon, Canal Zone, May 13.—(By mail to United Press). Reconstruction in the cities of San Jose and Atajuela, Costa Rica, severely damaged by earthquakes in March, has been proceeding with determination and courage, travelers arriving here report.

It is estimated that the property damage in the two places was approximately $2,000,000, and that 60 per cent of the houses in San Jose will require work ranging from minor repairs to complete rebuilding. Most of the new supplies imported will come from the United States.

Cartago, which lies on the slope of Cerro Volcans, above San Jose, was only slightly damaged by the quakes. This is because after the destruction of the city in 1910 the rebuilt houses were made as near earthquake-proof as knowledge and materials would permit.

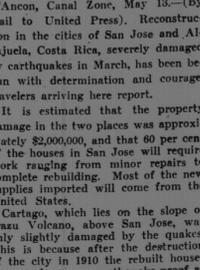

The favorite construction is a wooden framework with walls of bamboo poles, among which is placed plaster or concrete. It may be characterized as reinforced concrete, mostly reinforcement, or as bamboo and concrete. The bamboo is strong, tough and elastic, and under the stress of earthquake movement the house adapts itself to the motion in a way impossible for a more rigid structure. Finishing over the plaster or concrete with a smooth plaster or stucco finish gives the houses a very satisfactory appearance.

In the Guatemala quake of 1918 the only house which stood the racket unharmed were the few of reinforced concrete, using steel reinforcement according to American and European standards, or light frame structures which shook like aspen but did not go down.

The Costa Rican model construction is an adaptation of both these types, combining some of the solidity and permanence of concrete with the economy of timber.

DEATHS

Cornelius Sullivan.
The death of Cornelius, son of the late Michael and Mary Sullivan, occurred at his residence, 27 Dock street, yesterday. He leaves one sister, Mrs. James Gallagher, and one brother, Jeremiah Sullivan, both of this city, to mourn. The funeral will be held on Wednesday morning at 8.30 from his late residence to the Cathedral for requiem high mass. Mr. Sullivan was a faithful employe of the C. N. R. and was a well known and highly respected resident of this city.

Mrs. R. A. Israel.
The death of Mrs. R. A. Israel occurred at her residence, 24 Kennedy street, late last evening, following an illness of about four months. She had been ailing for the last three years, but took seriously ill in January, last. She was a member of the Douglas Avenue Christian church, and was a great worker in the Cradleroll in the church. Of a bright and cheerful disposition, she will be greatly missed among her friends. She is survived by her husband, one son, Wilfred, a student at Acadia University, and one daughter, Miss Lulu at home.

Mrs. W. A. McCready.
In Houlton, Me., on Friday Mrs. W. A. McCready died, aged 74 years. She is survived by her husband, who is 80 years of age, two sons, Dr. McCready of Danforth, Me., and Arthur McCready of Houlton; two brothers, J. H. Hay of Woodstock, and W. A. Hay of Fredericton, and four sisters, Mrs. Leslie Wilson, Mrs. A. W. Hay, Mrs. D. McLeel and Miss Nellie Hay of Woodstock. The funeral took place at Houlton.

BISHOP WALSH OF PORTLAND DEAD
Portland, Me., May 12.—Right Rev. Louis Sebastian Walsh, Catholic Bishop of Portland, died today of cerebral hemorrhage. Bishop Walsh returned to Portland, but a few days ago from a visit of several months in Rome.

Bishop Walsh was consecrated in October, 1908, as the successor of Bishop, now Cardinal O'Connell. The district over which he presided covers the entire State of Maine. He was born in Salem, Mass., in 1859.

Envelope Bags
Envelope bags come in practically every size and some of them manage to contain many compartments and accessories and still retain the neat at outline that is most distinctive.

Green Coats
There are many green coats this season with very small fur collars and a bit of red or black braiding.

Side-buttoned frocks are a pleasant relief from the inevitable front fastening. One snappy frock has a skirt buttoning on one side and the blouse on the other.

FINE MEETING, SAYS OFFICIAL

Grand Chancellor Mills Visits St. John Lodge of Pythians.
An official visit by Grand Chancellor Roy L. Mills of Montreal and other grand officers to St. John Lodge No. 80, Knights of Pythias, at their regular convention last night in Temple Hall, Main street, brought out a large attendance of the members of the lodge. The Grand Chancellor said it was the most enthusiastic meeting he has attended on his tour of official visits in the maritime domain.

The rank of Knight was exemplified by the officers and degree staff in the finished manner. It was noted and highly commended by the visiting officers. The Grand Chancellor was accompanied by Byard Stillwell, Grand Chancellor; J. A. Mowry, Grand Prelate and F. A. Kinnear, Grand Master of Exchequer.

At the close of the rank work the Grand Chancellor was called on and gave an interesting and instructive address on Pythianism. Short addresses were given by the Grand Vice Chancellor, Grand Prelate and Grand Master of Exchequer. Delicious refreshments were served by a very efficient committee.

DEMANDS $90,452 FROM GOVERNMENT
Former Revenue Cutter's Owner Seeks to Collect on Cancelled Charter

Sydney, N. S., May 12.—Interesting developments are expected when the case of the former revenue cutter Restless, brought by her owner, W. N. MacDonald, against the Dominion Government for alleged breach of contract, Halifax on or about June 10. Mr. MacDonald claims damages to the amount of $90,452 from the Government, the same being the amount due, it is stated, on the unexpired term of the ship's charter, which had three years to run when it was cancelled by the Government in June, 1922.

The steamer Sagamore owned at the time by Mrs. Tina Atkinson, in association with certain other Sydney parties was chartered by the Customs Department following the cancellation. The restlessness was engaged in the preventive service as a patrol boat and is well known in Maritime ports.

SEES GOOD SEASON FOR FISHERMEN

L. H. Outhouse, fish merchant of Beaver Harbor, who is in the city visiting friends, when interviewed last evening concerning the fish activity in Beaver Harbor, Mr. Outhouse remarked that the fishermen were looking forward with pleasurable anticipation to the coming season. While the prices for fish were not extraordinarily high, Mr. Outhouse declared that the markets were bare and that the demand would be quite large before long. Clams were having a good sale at Beaver Harbor, as was codfish. Sardines were running plentifully and the demand was also good. On the whole Mr. Outhouse thinks that the season will be a prosperous one for the fishermen and fish dealers of Beaver Harbor.

ALBERT'S PROTEST ON TRAIN HEADED

Word Received There Will be no Curtailment in Service

Hopewell Hill, May 12.—Prompt action in opposition to the unpopular proposal of the Canadian National Railways to cancel one train a week on the Albert county branch of the railroad, official notice of which was received by C. N. R. officials on Saturday, has had good results as is shown by a telegram received today by F. M. Thompson, of Hillsboro, from Senator C. W. Robinson stating that the train service is to remain unchanged. This, it is said, will be appreciated by the people of Albert county, who were greatly disturbed by the proposal to cancel Wednesday's train each week.

MINERS WILL MEET TO DISCUSS LEVY

New Glasgow, N. S., May 12.—A convention of the rank and file of District No. 26, United Mine Workers of America for the purpose of discussing the levy being made on the men to cover to take some action towards the regular appointment of district officers as well as discussing grievances of the rank and file, will be held here starting at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, according to an announcement made tonight by John A. McKenfe, president of the Stellarton local. The convention, which is being held as a result of a circular issued by the Stellarton local, promises to have a large attendance.

PICTOU CO. CHURCH BURNED TO GROUND

New Glasgow, N. S., May 12.—The Little Harbor Presbyterian church near Pictou, which is being held as a result of a fire, was razed to the ground this afternoon. The loss is estimated at ten thousand dollars with insurance of about three thousand. The fire is supposed to have started from a bush fire. Only a small portion of the contents were saved.

FRANCE DISPLAYS MORE PROSPERITY

Paris, May 12.—Whatever may be the effect of yesterday's election results, evidences are forthcoming that national prosperity is now on the upgrade. France's foreign trade figures for the first quarter of the year 1924 give the value of imports as 9,000,000,000 francs and exports nearly 10,000,000,000 francs.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

By Olive Roberts Barton

THE TWINS VISIT MR. GULLIVER

"I soon discovered that I was tied down"

"We have seen so many people in Once-Upon-a-Time Land that there are not many left to visit," said Mister Muggs as he stopped his magic automobile beside the place where the twins were playing.

down and I'll give you a drink of fruit juice that I learned to make from the Lilliputians. "Who are they?" asked Nancy. "They are the people upon whose shores I landed the first time I was shipwrecked," said Mister Gulliver. "I'll tell you about them. "When I swam to shore in this strange land, I was tired out, so I lay down on the grass to sleep. "How long I slept I do not know, but when I wakened, I couldn't move. I thought at first that it was just stiffness from being in the water, but I soon discovered that I was tied down to tiny stakes by thousands of little cords. "Next, little creatures began to crawl all over me and I soon saw that they were people, but they were only six inches high. "Whenever I moved they shot arrows at me no larger than pins, but when I was quiet they were kind and let me alone. "After awhile they cut the cords that held my head and brought me food. A hundred tiny people with a hundred tiny baskets fed me. I ate three legs of lamb (no bigger than peas) at one mouthful, and three of their hams I swallowed without as much as chewing. They thought I never would get filled, I know. "Everything that I did seemed to astonish them. "Then they gave me something to drink which put me to sleep. "While I was asleep, fifteen hundred of their horses carried me to the king's palace. "The king ordered nine hundred towns to feed me, three hundred tailors to make me a suit of clothes, and it took six hundred of their beds to make a bed for me. "One day they had a parade of a hundred thousand men and ten thousand horses. I stood up and my legs made a great archway under which they passed. "Is that all?" asked Nick. "Not quite," said Mister Gulliver. "They went to war with their enemies the Blefuscans, over the right way to open an egg. I went out into the ocean and picked up all the enemy ships for them, so they won. After that the king and I had a quarrel and I had to leave the Land of the Lilliputians. (To Be Continued)

"Worth $100 to Me Relieved Eczema and Piles"

Mrs. Peter A. Palmer, Saltburn, Sask., writes: "Dr. Chase's Ointment has completely relieved me of eczema and piles. I also used this Ointment for my baby, who broke out in eczema. A few applications were all that was necessary in her case. Dr. Chase's Ointment has been worth a hundred dollars to me,—before using it I had spent a great deal more than that in unsuccessful treatment from doctors. MR. ARTHUR LORTIE

Rids System of Suffering

War Veteran Wins Back to Health By Re-building His System With Dreo—Grand Herbal Remedy Adds Daily to Its List of Grateful Friends.

Mr. Arthur Lortie, former overseas man, is now fit and able to work, thanks to Dreo, the famous herbal remedy. He is a plumber by trade and is working at it on the new City Hall.

"My stomach was in bad shape and wouldn't digest my food properly. I had no appetite and became greatly weakened for lack of proper nourishment. I was nervous, too, and couldn't sleep. So greatly run-down did I become that it was impossible for me to work at my trade."

"I tried all kinds of medicines without result. Then I read about Dreo and decided to give it a trial. It has helped me wonderfully. My stomach is in excellent shape and I have an appetite. What is more, I enjoy my food and that it is giving me nourishment is proved by the fact that I am getting stronger every day. I feel like a new man now and have started back to work, being at present employed on the new City Hall."

Many people who imagine themselves chronic invalids without hope, get the surprise of their lives when they start taking Dreo. They find that there is nothing wrong with them, except a run-down digestive system, a condition which Dreo speedily corrects. This grand tonic and regulator contains only the pure extracts of herbs, roots, bark and leaves, which cleanse the system and build up the organs. Dreo contains no mercury, potash or habit-forming drugs.

Dreo is being specially introduced in St. John by Ross Drug Co., 100 King street; Moore's Drug Store, 105 Prince Edward street; F. W. Munro, 357 Main street, and in West St. John by Watson R. Dunlop. It is also sold in Fairville by T. H. Wilson, and by a good druggist everywhere.

Compare with pearly teeth Combat that dingy film

There is a way to whiter teeth, to cleaner, safer teeth. Millions of homes have adopted it. It means new beauty, new protection. This test will prove that to you. Make it now, watch the results, then decide if your folks should use it.

Teeth are clouded by a film

That viscous film you feel on teeth is their great enemy—the cause of most tooth troubles. Under old brushing methods, much of it clings and stays. Soon it becomes discolored, forming dingy coats. That is how teeth lose their beauty.

Film also holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs breed by millions in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. Few escape such troubles who do not fight the film.

Modern science has found ways to fight it. One disintegrates the film at all stages of formation. One removes it without harmful scouring.

These methods have proved very effective. A new-type tooth paste has been created to apply them daily. The name is Pepsodent. Leading dentists everywhere began to advise it, and the use quickly spread, the world over.

No question when you see it act

Pepsodent results are quick and conspicuous. They leave no doubt. It does more than fight film. It multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva, which is there to neutralize mouth acids. It multiplies the starch digestant in saliva, which is there to digest starch deposits on teeth.

These combined results give one a new conception of what clean teeth mean.

Send the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth become whiter as the film-coats disappear.

You will always be glad that you made this test. Cut out coupon now.

Protect the Enamel Pepsodent disintegrates the film, then removes it with an agent far softer than enamel. Never use a film combant which contains harsh grit.

One-half cup stewed rhubarb, mushroom and spinach timbale (individual), 1 cup parsnip stew, 3 ounces broiled hamburger steak, 1 baked potato, 2 ounces curly endive with lemon juice, 2 large baked onions, 1 teaspoon butter, 2 pieces crisp gluten toast, 1 gluten roll, 1 pint skimmed milk.
Total calories, 1107. Protein, 271; fat, 316; carbohydrate, 520. Iron, .022.

Spinach and Mushroom Timbales.
One cup cooked spinach, 2 tablespoons chopped mushrooms, 1 egg white, 1 tablespoon whole wheat bread crumbs, 1 teaspoon butter, salt and pepper.

Melt butter and saute mushrooms. Add to spinach finely chopped. Season with salt and pepper and add bread crumbs. Add white of egg slightly beaten. Turn into buttered timbale mold, set in a pan of hot water and bake in a moderate oven until firm to the touch, about 25 minutes. Unmold and serve.
Total calories, 173. Protein, 44; fat, 100; carbohydrate, 29. Iron, .0138 gram.

One-half cup stewed rhubarb, 3 slices cornmeal mush with 6 tablespoons maple syrup, 1 soft-boiled egg, spinach and mushroom timbale, 1 candied sweet potato, 1 cup parsnip stew, 3 ounces broiled hamburger steak, 1 large twice-baked potato, 2 ounces curly endive with 2 tablespoons French dressing, 4 button radishes, 2 baked onions with 2 tablespoons butter, 1 cup rice and raisin custard pudding, 1 toasted and buttered bran muffin, 1 whole wheat roll, 2 slices whole wheat bread, 3 tablespoons butter, individual peach shortcake with 4 tablespoons whipped cream, 1 pint whole milk.
Total calories, 4046. Protein, 407; fat, 1722; carbohydrate, 1825. Iron, .0242 gram.

The parsnip stew is made with salt pork cut in bits and tried out. The crisp bits of meat are left in the stew. Add to pork with water to more than cover. Cook until tender and break slightly with a fork or wire potato masher. Add milk and pepper but no salt.

Serve the radishes for breakfast. They add bulk to an otherwise more or less "concentrated" menu.

ALL ON CHILD WELFARE.

There were three meetings held yesterday afternoon in the Board of Trade rooms and each of the associations that assembled was organized to care for some phase of child welfare. The societies which met were the New Brunswick Protestant Orphanage, the Free Kindergarten Association and the committee promoting the juvenile court.

FABLES ON HEALTH

Watch Baby's Growth

"Growin' fast," Mr. Mann would say, studying the tiny figure in the crib. "Yes," the doctor would smile. "But, after all, the growth is not so reliable an index of development as most people think."

Weight is, after all, the most important factor. However, since most people are equally interested in size, Mr. Mann made it a point to find out a few things.

The average baby is 20 inches long at birth. After a half a year a growth of some four inches should have taken place. Three inches more should be added to this at the end of a year, and the leg bone should have commenced to harden to support the weight.

Generally, head, abdomen and chest measure the same as birth, but these dimensions soon change. The depression to be found in the head at birth soon fill in, and bones at the back of the head begin to close at the end of six or eight weeks. If openings are still noticeable after 18 months and the head remains seemingly large and square of shape, with broad frontal bones, the child is likely to be subject to rickets and a doctor should be called.

FOUR MEMBERS ELECTED.

The executive of the Canadian Club held their regular meeting in the board room of the School Trustees' building, Hazen avenue, yesterday afternoon. W. J. S. Myles, president, was in the chair. About 11 of the committee were present and routine business occupied their attention. Four new members were elected to the club, A. G. Gillies, C. L. Coonan, W. W. Chase and J. Willard Macdonald.

FOR twenty-five years the Carnation label has guided housewives to a pure and most convenient milk supply. Carnation is just pure fresh milk, evaporated to double richness, kept safe by sterilization.

Use Carnation in place of cream in coffee, or on cereals and fruit, etc. Use it diluted in tea, (one part Carnation, three parts water.) For milk of natural consistency for general cooking add a little more than an equal part of water. Order several tall (16 oz.) cans or a case of 48 cans from your grocer. Send for copy of our book of 100 tested recipes.

CHOCOLATE LAYER CAKE: 1/2 teaspoon salt, 2 cups flour, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1/4 cup Carnation Milk, 1/2 cup butter or substitute, 4 eggs, 1/2 cup water, 1 1/2 cups sugar, 5 tablespoons boiling water, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 2 oz. unsweetened chocolate.

Dissolve chocolate in the boiling water. Cool. Cream butter, add sugar gradually, creaming constantly. Add the chocolate. Beat yolks until thick and lemon colored. Add them to the creamed sugar and butter; then add the liquid and the sifted dry ingredients, alternately. Add vanilla. Beat the whites of the eggs until stiff and cut carefully and lightly into the mixture. Turn into 2 greased layer cake pans and bake in a moderate oven 30 to 35 minutes.

Kindergarten Association in the Board of Trade rooms.

Mrs. Allan G. McAvity, president, was in the chair and Mrs. H. Usher Miller acted as secretary.

It was reported illness among the teachers had made it necessary to employ substitutes.

The St. John School Board sent word that it could not make any more contributions to the work of the kindergarten than the $5,000 a year voted. The School Board had been asked to give $500 towards establishing a training school for kindergartners. It was decided to ask the aid of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire in having a training class established, if possible under the Board of Education.

Mrs. H. H. Pickett gave the report of the kindergartens telling of the daily programmes. In the North End there were 10 children on the waiting list.

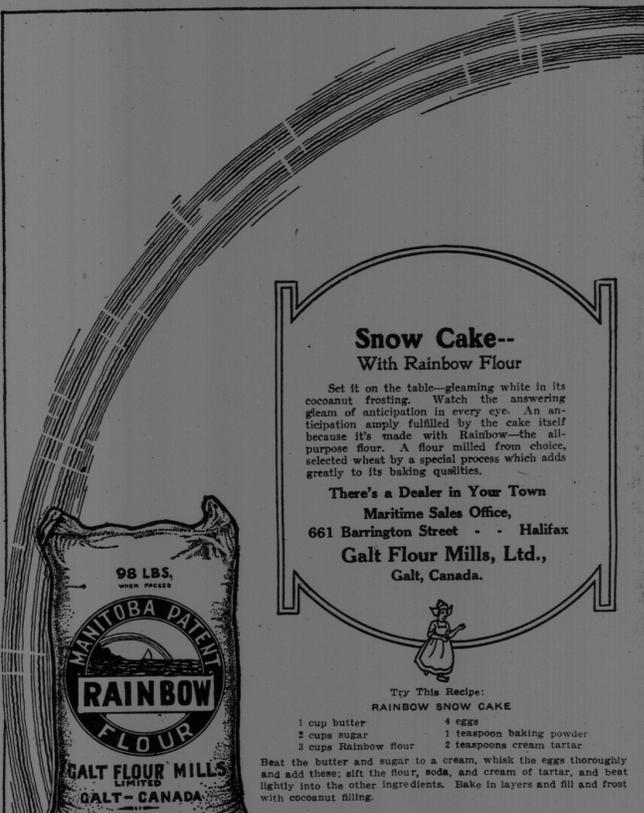

Parties had been arranged and some gifts acknowledged. Mrs. A. B. Gilmore had given a party as the fifth annual treat in memory of her son, Lieut. Claire Gilmore, who was killed overseas.

Mrs. Pickett reported on the meeting of the teachers at which backward pupils and wayward pupils were discussed. Among the stories for June was to be the story of King Solomon and the bees.

The teachers receive $500 for a 10 month year and some felt they could not carry on with less than $12 a week for the year.

The annual meeting is to take place in June. Notice of motion was given to amend the constitution so that the president might hold office for more than two consecutive years.

PROTESTANT ORPHANAGE DIRECTORS ARE NAMED AT ANNUAL MEETING

The need of continued support of the building fund campaign of the New Brunswick Protestant Orphanage to secure the additional buildings required, was stressed at yesterday's annual meeting of the institution in the Board of Trade rooms and it was pointed out that there had been a falling off in contributions to maintenance during the year.

D. C. Clark, president, was in the chair. The meeting was held in the Board of Trade rooms. Hearty greetings were extended to Mr. Clark, who had just returned from a southern trip and to Mrs. David McLellan, who has served longest on the board. Rev. J. S. Bonnell offered the opening prayer.

Mr. Clark expressed gratitude to God for the blessings of the year. Denominational collections in November were disappointing. He hoped for a better response this year. Mr. Clark thanked the doctors and dentists who gave their services for the care of the children and also expressed appreciation of the services of the matron and staffs and gratitude for gifts and subscriptions.

He greatly deprecated. Hearty votes of thanks were tendered Mr. Clark, president, Mr. Rankine, treasurer, and Dr. James Manning, vice-president. L. P. D. Tilley announced that none of the officers of the organization was in receipt of any salary whatever, although Mr. Miller was doing work which required services that might call for the employment of an official who would have to be paid $2,000 or $3,000 a year.

Permanent Home Report. Mr. Tilley reported for the permanent home committee that funds had come in to pay for the first wing already built which was to be handed over by the contractor in a few days and for the proposed new wing. He said that a school building and an infants' home, if the Britain street home was disposed of would still be required and there was need for continued and generous support of the permanent home fund and need for the carrying of the campaign into every section of the province.

Votes of thanks were tendered Mr. Tilley, chairman, and W. M. Campbell, member of the permanent home board.

Mr. Tilley told of the Act of 1924 which consolidated the seven Acts previously passed for the government of the institution. He submitted a new draft of by-laws which call for the election of 45 directors, 14 to represent the outside counties of the province and at least 12 of the rest to be women. The by-laws were adopted. Thanks were extended the Board of Trade for the use of the room, and to the press.

Directors Elected. Scrutineers appointed were Robert

Wills, W. Garnet Wills and A. G. Hours. The election of directors resulted as follows:

Finds Kellogg's Bran "Easy way to avoid constipation" after suffering for years

Constipation is a dangerous disease. It can lead to many others. Twenty years' suffering with constipation undetermined this man's health. Kellogg's Bran restored it—as it has done for thousands. This is what he says:

"Dear Sirs: After eating Kellogg's Bran twice a day for one month I find it not only an 'Easy way to Avoid Constipation,' but an easy and most pleasant way to cure it. I have been troubled with constipation . . . for more than twenty years . . . after adopting the milk and bran diet I find my stomach greatly improved, and find it a specific for constipation. . . . I deem it only justice that you should know what your product has done for me, and what it is capable of doing for others."

(Name and address on request.)

Kellogg's Bran relieves mild and chronic constipation because it is ALL bran. It brings sure results. It sweeps, cleans and purifies the intestine in nature's own way. Don't experiment. Only ALL bran can be 100 per cent effective.

If eaten regularly, Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is guaranteed to bring permanent relief—or your grocer returns your money. You should eat two tablespoons daily—in chronic cases, with every meal.

The flavor is delicious—nut-like—cooked and krumbled. Enjoy it with milk or cream, sprinkled on other cereals, cooked with hot cereals, or in the delightful recipes on every package. Made in Toronto, Canada. Sold by grocers everywhere.

ST. JOHN, N. B., TUESDAY, MAY 13, 1924

'Longshoremen Ready to Boost For Port Betterment

GOVERNMENT PIERS FREE, ADVOCATED

J. D. McKenna, M. L. A., of Sussex, Addresses St. John Workers.

MORE FACILITIES

We Could Ship More Potatoes—Would Send Delegation to West.

The local branch of the International Longshoremen's Association at a largely attended meeting last night pledged their support to any organized movement which tended towards the betterment of the port and city of St. John, the province of New Brunswick and the Maritimes as a whole, after they had been addressed by J. D. McKenna, M. L. A., of Sussex, on conditions as he saw them and as he thought they should be in this port if it were not discriminated against.

Mr. McKenna advocated making free the Government-owned piers, thus placing the piers here on a par with those of Portland, Me. He particularly stressed the need of greater facilities for the shipping of potatoes through this port, and to knocking the assurance of shippers that if the facilities were such as to accommodate four times the amount of potatoes now being shipped, the shippers would supply that amount of potatoes.

The speaker asked the people to stop knocking and besought them to start praising, and in this respect to lead the head of Portland and send to the West some of the bright minds of the province to offer to the West what the East had to sell. Co-operation in any onward movement, and to knocking and selling, would give the port the position it should hold in the shipping world.

E. Tighe, president of the New Brunswick Federation of Labor, and John McKinnon, business agent of the longshoremen, promised Mr. McKenna the undivided support of the organization. The meeting was in the form of a smoker and entertainment and concluded the work of the year. Robert Carlo, president, was in the chair. Says Too Much Peanut Politics.

Despite the fact that a great deal had times of late to the effect that hard times were upon the province and city and were to continue with them into the future, said Mr. McKenna, the people had one of the finest in Canada for it had been the breeding ground for a great many of those destinies which had spread to other countries in the past and were continuing to do so in their province, he said, there would be no necessity of crying blue ruin.

The trouble with these provinces in the past, said Mr. McKenna, was that they had lost too many fingers in trying to pick up things which in addition to that falling there had been much peanut politics in the Maritimes.

During the last four or five years, the speaker said, he had come in contact with the working of the port of St. John through having imported fertilizers which formerly had been shipped by rail from Ontario.

Persistence Won, He Says. During July, last year, he said that an agitation had been started for additional facilities for the shipping of potatoes on the west side of the harbor. Nothing had been accomplished up until November, but following a little stirring up, the deal went through and the warehouse was erected but it was too late to do very much good.

If the facilities on the West Side were twice or even four times as great as they were at present, he said, he had the assurance of shippers that there would be a sufficient supply of potatoes available to take up all the additional space. If such a thing as this happened there would be four times as much work in potatoes alone as there had been last year.

FIRST PICTURES SOUTHERN TORNADO

These First Photos Indicate the General Damage Done in the Wind Storm Which Swept Nine States, Centering in South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama, and Killing More Than a Hundred

Just one of the many buildings which were demolished when the tornado swept through Georgia. This is the office building of the A. T. Small Co. at Macon, Ga. Eugene Threat (negro with bandaged head) was one of many buried under debris of the building.

Mrs. Guy T. Green and her son (in the foreground) escaped uninjured when the storm carried 200 yards the home of Mrs. E. L. Holt, whom they were visiting. Mrs. Holt and one of her children were killed. Another child of Mrs. Green was seriously injured. This, at Macon, Ga.

Of this 150,000, St. John would receive its share, making it a bigger and a better city to live in. One-eighth of a cent, he said, was sufficient to transfer the shipment of grain from St. John to New Orleans. Port charges here must be rectified. The wages paid to longshoremen, he said, were fair and the trouble lay in another quarter. In bringing a cargo of fertilizer of 5,000 tons here he had to pay 25 cents a ton top wharfage, while the ship had to pay side wharfage. In addition to this there were charges for the heating of the sheds and other matters.

There was no top or side wharfage in Portland, Me, he said, and asked why there should be here. The Government-owned piers should be free, he asserted.

Lack of Facilities Costly, He Says. Reverting again to the question of potatoes to illustrate his point, he said that during the last winter, the facilities being not great enough to accommodate the shippers, hundreds of cars of potatoes had to remain in the cars on the tracks awaiting the clearing of the sheds to make room for the potatoes. Every day a car remained on the tracks cost the shipping $3 or $21 a week for every car to keep the potatoes from freezing. The result was that shippers looked to other ports which would let them ship their potatoes where they did not incur this expense.

He dealt briefly with the matter of high insurance rates. When the movement was started to place St. John in the forefront by the City Council, the Board of Trade, the Retail Merchants' Association and other bodies, he expressed the hope that the longshoremen would be behind the movement in a body.

He stressed the necessity of making the representatives of the Maritimes in the Federal Parliament forget party politics and work together for the good of the Maritimes as a unit, as did the members of the West. Otherwise they would be given a good licking at the next election, he declared.

The first thing to do, Mr. McKenna said, was to stop knocking and start to praise. Having started to praise, he said, the next thing to do was to get a representative set by Portland last year and send to the West the most active minds of the provinces, in a private car. They would hold dinners there, and sell just what the Maritimes had for sale and they would sell it as Portland had.

If, Mr. McKenna concluded, all organized bodies in the city and province co-operated with the city and province betterment of the province and the better conditions here next winter than had ever existed before.

MAD FINN GETS HIS CASH SAFELY

Foreigner Who Lost $380 and Then Ran Amuck Here, Receives Money

The final chapter of the tale of the flying Finlander, who on the morning of December 29 caused considerable stir in the city, when he ran amuck in Charlotte street and felled several bystanders with a piece of corduroy, received a communication from him from his home in Finland, acknowledging the receipt of a draft for 14,074 Finmarks, the equivalent of $380 in Canadian Currency.

It will be remembered that the man, when arrested following his attack on several innocent citizens, said that he believed that they wanted to rob him of his money, and that if he had more than $80 they would kill him, but if he had less they would allow him to be robbed or murdered and had taken the only course open to him to save his life and hard-earned wages.

The deluded man was taken from the police court immediately to a ship reduced from 10 to 7 1/2 per cent. in that was sailing for Finland and placed on the train in iron.

Found in Cuspidor. It was the following morning when Robert Ring, janitor of the Union Depot, was cleaning the men's waiting room that he discovered in a cuspidor a roll of bills, 19 in all, totaling $380. Mr. Ring took the money to L. R. Ross, who, putting two and two together, decided that the money belonged to the Finlander. A valise and several other articles were also picked up in the waiting room.

Mr. Ross obtained the address of the Finn and wrote him asking for a description of the articles he said he had lost. He described his movements from the time he was paid off in Ontario until he reached St. John and the events which transpired here after he had arrived.

He said that he had $697, made up of four fifty-dollar bills; 24 twenty-dollar bills, a ten, a five and two ones. The fifties, twenties, ten and five were Royal Bank of Canada currency. He had bought a ticket to Finland and a suit of clothes. He said that he had $50 in his sock, and had not been changed since. In the Vancouver to United Kingdom service, which began last November, the monthly wage is $60.

CHANGES MADE IN CANADIAN DUTIES

Sales Tax Matter Also in Budget Resolutions in Commons.

Ottawa, May 12.—The budget resolutions brought down today make, in part, the following changes: Steel dies, worth $1,000 or more, for stamping metal plates; duties were 15 to 27 1/2 per cent. now placed on free list.

Wood handles, partly manufactured for use in manufacturing agricultural implements; duties were 17 1/2 to 25 per cent. now placed on free list. Handles for plows only made free April 30.

Ingot moulds for production of steel reduced from 10 to 7 1/2 per cent. in that was sailing for Finland and placed on the train in iron.

Fire brick for open hearth furnaces, etc., in part partly free and partly dutiable at 15 per cent. now gets drawback of 99 per cent. of duty. Sales tax; exemptions extended to include steel dies worth $1,000 or more, and materials used in production of authorized school text books. Refund allowed on imported goods found not to be according to order.

The resolution in regard to the refund of sales tax just mentioned is to come into force July 1, next. The other changes date back to April 11.

TELLS OF WAGES IN MERCHANT MARINE. Ottawa, May 12.—Wages paid to firemen and sailors on the Canadian Government Merchant Marine increased on the coastal service boats in 1921 and decreased in the Australian and Oriental services. An answer to a question asked in the House of Commons today shows that the coastal service paid $60 per month previous to October, 1921, when the rate was increased to $67.50 and had not been changed since. In the trans-Pacific service wages were reduced from $75 per month to $60 in July, 1921, and have not been changed since. In the Vancouver to United Kingdom service, which began last November, the monthly wage is $60.

SIX EXECUTED IN LOUISIANA

Were Condemned for Shooting in Attempted Bank Holdup.

As a morbid mob made holiday of the occasion, the executioner's axe flashed three times in the sunlight of the Amite jailyard in Louisiana on last Friday.

Each time the sun glinted off the avenging blade, a small rope was severed clean by a blow, the gallow's floor collapsed with a clatter, and two men shot downward through the hole in the deck to their death by hanging. One Stabs Self Mortally. Six men shot through the floor, two by two. One of them was put to death only a few minutes before he would have died anyway, from stab wounds which he inflicted on himself as he awaited the sound of the jailer's tread in the corridor of the Amite penitentiary. The six men executed were Natale Deamore, and Roy Leona, the first pair to go; Andrea Lemantia and Joseph Bochio, the second pair, and Joseph Rini and Joseph Guriglio, whose death closed the unsavory festival that brought great crowds tumbling from the trains at the railroad station and bumping over the roads in automobiles for all degrees.

The crime for which the men paid the supreme penalty was committed soon after midnight on May 8, 1921. Dallas Calmes, a restaurant operator, was aroused by a noise at the rear of his home and upon investigating was shot down by a man dimly discernible in the darkness. The bandits, who had gone to Independence to rob the bank, had their automobile and fled. The authorities immediately summoned bloodhounds at Crystal Springs, Miss., and telephoned the New Orleans, La., Detectives and Joseph Rini of a tip from Amite, the seat of Tangipahoa parish, before the fugitives were arrested, went to the home of a wealthy Italian resident of New Orleans, which it was believed might be a refuge for the bandits. The house was empty, but there was every indication it had been deserted hurriedly. Nearby, in an automobile, they found the bodies of Cipolla Gasto and another Italian named di Giovanni, who had been shot to death apparently a few hours earlier. This mystery never was solved, and Roy Leona, after his confession, said he and his companions knew nothing of that affair.

With the bloodhounds, a posse followed a highway out of Independence and found the deserted car of the bandits. In the machine were pistols, and a large quantity of ammunition and dynamite. The dogs followed a trail to the men who were supplied with ample funds by Italian and Italian-American organizations and individuals throughout the country, and Governor Parker received thousands of letters, telegrams and resolutions protesting against the conviction of innocent men and asking for clemency.

It had been established that only one, and at the most two men, had fired at Calmes, and for three years efforts were made to determine the guilty man. He would not admit his guilt nor would any of his companions disclose his identity, if they knew it. Leona finally made a statement.

Declared Innocent. The six prisoners protested their innocence, declaring they were on a camping trip, but all were convicted of murder. An appeal to the state supreme court resulted in a retrial and a second conviction which the higher court sustained. Then counsel for the condemned men appealed to the Supreme Court of the United States, which in March refused to review the case because of a lack of jurisdiction.

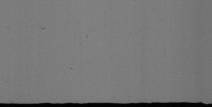

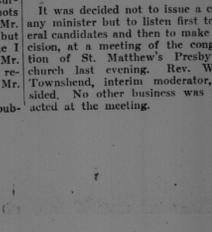

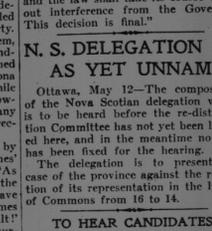

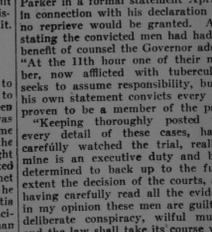

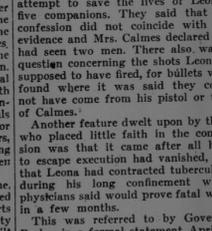

Throughout the three years of legal battle the men were supplied with ample funds by Italian and Italian-American organizations and individuals throughout the country, and Governor Parker received thousands of letters, telegrams and resolutions protesting against the conviction of innocent men and asking for clemency.

It had been established that only one, and at the most two men, had fired at Calmes, and for three years efforts were made to determine the guilty man. He would not admit his guilt nor would any of his companions disclose his identity, if they knew it. Leona finally made a statement.

Leona's Story. He said that he and Giglio came to New Orleans late in April, 1921, to make and sell whiskey. He had been told by Vito di Giorgio, who later was killed in Chicago, that he could become rich in a short time if he robbed the bank at Independence. Leona thought well of the suggestion and asked Giglio to join him. He had met Lemantia in New Orleans and when he broached the subject to him Lemantia and his friend Rini agreed to participate. The next step was to find a man who knew the highways about Independence, and Deamore was persuaded to become a member of the party. Deamore asked Bochio to join them, and the sextette set out for Independence.

When the bandits approached the bank a little after midnight, Leona and Rini, Leona said, left the car while the other four remained. Rini, however, Leona said, did not accompany him, but disappeared in another direction.

Die On Gallows

UNCOVER SECRETS OF EARLY AMERICA

Remains at Least 7,000 Years Old are Brought to Light.

Washington, May 13.—(United Press)—Probably a thousand years before Pharaoh drove his slaves to build the Great Pyramid, and more than twice as long ago as King Tutankhamen was buried beside the Nile, some ancient monarch of the Valley of Mexico forced his subjects to erect a mighty monument to long-forgotten gods. The National Geographic Society is sending an expedition to Mexico to uncover that monument, the oldest structure so far found in the American continent. Washington scientists believe that the ruins of Cuicuilco, south of Mexico City, constitute the Pompeii of the Western World.

Huge Artificial Mound.

Already San Cuicuilco has disclosed an artificial mound 200 feet in diameter and 82 feet high. These observations were made by Professor Byron Cummings, leader of the Geographic expedition, in preliminary work. Further explorations may revolutionize our history of ancient America. Skeleton remains of the Americans of 7,000 years ago, specimens of their emblems and idols, and pieces of their earthenware, found at Cuicuilco by Dr. Cummings, upset current theories about the origin of human life on our continent.

"The steps of human development from the simplest beginnings are as easily traceable in the Valley of Mexico as in Mesopotamia or the Valley of the Nile," Dr. Cummings said. "We must acknowledge that the early inhabitants of America were distinctly American. Their dissimilarities to Asiatics, both East and West, to Africans and to Europeans are far more pronounced than their similarities. They form a large group of the human family, separated from the parent stock in some remote age, who gradually multiplied and possessed themselves of this part of the globe.

America thus has a prehistory extending far back into the early centuries of human development. The steps of her progress and the successes achieved are as interesting and instructive as any attained by the renowned human groups of the Old World."

Preserved Under Lava.

The lofty mound at Cuicuilco was sealed and preserved by lava from the crater of the Xitli. Dr. Cummings said. The lava covered plain, known as the Pedregal, or Stony Place, is 15 miles in length and about 3 miles wide. The expedition leader will begin work in June with men laborers provided by the Mexican Government.

Another feature dwelt upon by those who placed little faith in the confession was that it came after all hope to escape execution had vanished, and that Leona had contracted tuberculosis during his long confinement which physicians said would prove fatal within a few months.

This was referred to by Governor Parker in a formal statement April 23 in connection with his declaration that no reprieve would be granted. After stating the convicted men had had the benefit of counsel the Governor added: "At the 11th hour one of their number, now afflicted with tuberculosis, seeks to assume responsibility, but in his own statement convicts every man proven to be a member of the party."

"Keeping thoroughly posted with every detail of the trial, realizing mine is an executive duty and being determined to back up to the fullest extent the decision of the courts, after having carefully read all the evidence, in my opinion these men are guilty of deliberate conspiracy, wilful murder, and the law shall take its course without interference from the Governor. This decision is final."

N. S. DELEGATION AS YET UNNAMED

Ottawa, May 12.—The composition of the Nova Scotia delegation which is to be heard before the re-distribution Committee has not yet been learned, but in the meantime no date has been fixed for the hearing.

The delegation is to present the case of the province against the reduction of its representation in the House of Commons from 16 to 14.

TO HEAR CANDIDATES.

It was decided not to issue a call to any minister but to listen first to several candidates and then to make a decision, at a meeting of the congregation of St. Matthew's Presbyterian church last evening. Rev. W. M. Townsend, interim moderator, presided. No other business was transacted at the meeting.

MISSION TO WEST URGED BY MR. COPP

Would Have Us Put Use of Port Up to the Grain Growers.

C. N. R. EXPANSION

Enlargement of the Atlantic Region is Hope Expressed in House.

Ottawa, May 13.—Hon. A. B. Copp, secretary of state, yesterday in the debate on the budget in Parliament advocated the sending of a committee of Maritime Province men to the west to meet the grain growers and place before them the arguments for the use of Maritime ports for the shipment of grain and try to secure from them a promise to use these ports more freely in the future.

He also spoke of the desirability of having the Atlantic region of the C. N. R. extended and voiced the hope that the management of the Railway would see their way clear to do this soon. Dealing with the tariff he said no person was suggesting that Canada adopt free trade and many of the manufacturers were crying before they were hurt.

Finn Supports Him. This argument of Maritime Province development was later taken up step further by another Liberal member, R. E. Finn, of Halifax. Mr. Finn held that it was the duty of Canadian grain growers to see that their products were shipped to Canadian ports where it was impossible to get Canadian shippers to use Canadian ports then the people of the Maritime Provinces would ask the Government to put an export duty on Canadian goods going to the United States.

Reduction of Tariff.

Mr. Copp criticized the opponents of the reduction of tariff on implements used in the four basic industries of Canada, namely, agriculture, fishery, forestry and mining. Statistics were quoted showing the comparative values of the products of these basic industries in the provinces. In Prince Edward Island 92.4 per cent. of the value of all production came from the basic industries; in Nova Scotia, 44.6 per cent.; in New Brunswick, 82 per cent. in Quebec, 84.6 per cent.; in Ontario, 43.8 per cent.; in Manitoba, 64.6 per cent.; in Saskatchewan, 88.2 per cent.; in Alberta, 88.6 per cent., and in British Columbia, 82.7 per cent.

Not a man in Canada was suggesting seriously that Canada should adopt free trade. It was not in any sense an issue. The Conservatives had always forecast ruin to industries when tariff reductions had been announced, but invariably the country had prospered. The manufacturers were willing to jump overboard in order to save their lives before they were even threatened by a storm.

Mr. Copp was astounded that A. J. Duncal (Conservative, Kent, N. B.), should have attempted to introduce an amendment to the budget providing for high protection. Probably no section in Canada would suffer more from high tariff than Kent, N. B. Mr. Copp was convinced that the fishermen and lumbermen of Kent were solidly behind this budget.

Railway Problems. Turning to the railway problem he admitted that appointments had been somewhat under political influence. He mentioned, however, that this was not a serious matter so long as both parties appointed officials of reasonable competence. The transfer of the I. C. R. to the board of directors had been made by the Conservatives, he declared.

Donald Sutherland (Conservative, South Oxford), asked if Mr. Copp wanted the road put back under political control. Mr. Copp did not desire to express an opinion of that subject at present. The Liberals had found the present organization as a child on their doorstep and intended to give the board of directors a free hand, in preference of politics. Regarding the regional division of the National lines, he hoped that the directors would see their way later to enlarge the Atlantic region and he would be glad to help that movement.

However, that was a matter that was not vital to the success of the whole system. I. H. Martell (Liberal, Hants), asked if Mr. Copp wanted to tie the Maritime Provinces down to the Intercolonial Railway as it was and have no expansion.

Mr. Copp said the Government policy of no interference with the railway board left the matter to that board which he felt sure would give sympathetic consideration to the provinces' claims for expansion. Mr. Martell asked if the Maritimes were not entitled to demand expansion on equitable and legal grounds rather than sympathetic ones. The Intercolonial belonged to them, and they had certain rights under consideration.

Mr. Copp said he could only reiterate his stand that it was a matter for the railway board to decide. He personally had been opposed to the linking of the Intercolonial with the Canadian Northern and its inclusion in the National system.

MURDER RECORD IN U. S. DOUBLED

The Growth of Lawlessness Without Parallel, Says Insurance Agent.

New York, May 12.—In an analysis of the 1923 homicide record, Dr. Frederick L. Hoffman, writing in the Spectator, an insurance journal, asserts that the murder rate in the United States has doubled in the last 24 years. Growth of Crime. Dr. Hoffman, who is an insurance agent, describes the growth of lawlessness and crime as "without a parallel in the social history of other nations." The trend is still upward, he states. No homicides were reported in 1923 in the following Massachusetts cities: Brockton, Concord, Holyoke, Lynn, Salem, Chelsea, Haverhill, New Bedford and Quincy.

A decline in homicide rates also was shown in several cities, including New York, Baltimore, Buffalo, Dayton, O.; Erie, Pa.; Oakland, Cal.; Pueblo, Col.; Richmond, Va.; Sacramento and San Diego; Savannah, Springfield, Ill., and St. Paul.

The murder rate among the white population in 1922 was 5.6 for each 100,000. Among the Negro population the rate was 30.7.

ASK AUSTRALIA TO CUT EMBARGO

Ottawa, May 12.—Canada has asked Australia to remove its embargo on Canadian apples. Hon. J. A. Robb, acting Minister of Finance, told J. A. MacKelvie, Conservative member for Yale, in the House of Commons this afternoon. The request was made in connection with the negotiations with Australia regarding trade arrangements.

TRUSTEES GRANT USE OF SCHOOL YARDS TO PLAYGROUNDS ASSOCIATION

Site for New Vocational School is Offered for Sale.

The school board at its meeting last night granted the use of three school grounds for city playgrounds but withheld the use of the grounds of Aberdeen School which were not used last summer.

An offer to sell a site in the rear of St. Peter's schools for the proposed Vocational School was made by Armstrong & Bruce, Ltd. It was stated in their letter that 42 per cent. of the city students not in High Schools were in the North End. The letter was referred to the Vocational committee, when appointed.

H. Colby Smith presided in the absence of Hon. H. A. McKeown, chairman of the board. Others present were trustees Mrs. E. R. Taylor, Mrs. D. P. Chisholm, E. H. Green, E. R. W. Ingraham, A. A. McIntyre, S. A. Worrell acting superintendent and A. Gordon Leavitt, secretary.

The finance committee, it was said, was preparing a schedule of salaries for teachers to be an equitable basis and to do away with future requests for increases. The work of James F. Browne, the musical director, was commended.

Applications for positions on the teaching staff were received from Ronald W. Brundage, Middle Sackville; Frederick W. Briggs, Lower Jersey; Raymond G. Gooch, Westmorland county; and H. C. Harper, Bathurst; and the following Normal School pupils: Misses L. W. Nye, Jean Harding and Mary C. Crilley.

Miss Ethel Turner, Carter's Point, applied for a position on the staff but having only a second class license her application was not received.

Leave of absence was requested by Miss B. M. Neale, Miss B. E. Estabrook and Miss B. I. Jamieson. Leave was granted, rulings being given with regard to continuance of pay.

Two men applied for janitor's positions. They were Charles C. Kaiser and W. M. Armstrong.

Miss Margaret E. MacMillan, Sackville, applied for the position of teacher of domestic science.

Approves Trustees' Views. A lengthy communication congratulated the members of the Board who had disapproved of married women teachers continuing to hold their positions when their husbands were able to support them.

J. N. Dowse's application as director of vocational training was referred to the vocational committee when appointed.

An application for the position of kindergarten teacher received from Miss Charlotte E. Doyle was referred to the Kindergarten Committee and it might place a cabinet for its records in either the High School or Trustees' building. The request was referred to the trustees.

The Playgrounds Association asked for the use of the grounds of Alexandra, King George, Centennial and Aberdeen schools. The use of Alexandra, King George and Centennial grounds was granted, the Aberdeen ground being withheld.

Attendance Statistics. The secretary's report showed 8,583 pupils belonging to 4,228 boys and 4,355 girls, with $1.09 in average daily attendance. The teachers made 162 visits to pupils of the 313 pupils enrolled and not belonging to the city, 87 at work, 109 had left the city, 38 were transferred and 48 kept home.

The health report showed five cases of diphtheria, six of scarlet fever, six of measles, two of chickenpox and two of mumps, a total of 21.

The French Club offered to give a medal or books as a prize for French for Grade 9 pupils. The offer was referred to the acting superintendent.

Empire Teaching Contest. The Colonial Institute sent information concerning prizes for teachers for an article on How Best Empire Teaching could be taken into the schools without adding another subject to the curriculum. The letter was referred to Mr. Worrell.

Reference was made to the fact that no word had come from the Board of Education at Fredericton with regard to establishing vocational education in St. John. The Government's approval is necessary.

Mission to West Urged By Mr. Copp

(Continued from page 9) Mr. Copp referred to the complaint that Canadian grain was being routed over the C. N. R. to Portland, Maine, instead of to Maritime Province ports.

Some people, he said, took the ground that the Canadian National had the right to route grain in the most convenient way, while others stated that this was a matter for the shipper to decide. "We will never get anywhere by sitting down and grousing about it," Mr. Copp said in reference to the complaint. He advised the people of the Maritime Provinces to look at the matter from a business point of view.

A committee representing the Maritime Provinces' interest should be organized for the purpose of visiting the west, interviewing the farmers and shippers and endeavoring to arrange for a larger proportion of the grain trade to be shipped through the Maritime Provinces. He believed that much could be done along these lines.

Sir Henry Thornton, and his board of directors were trying to operate the Canadian National as a business proposition. Mr. Copp did not think that there was anything in the charge that the directors were trying to operate the Canadian National as a business proposition. If the people of any section of Canada felt that they had reasonable ground for complaint against the railway either in the line of excessive freight rates or for other reasons, they should make the complaint to the board of directors. He believed that the Canadian National would ultimately be a paying proposition, but he advised the people of the Maritime Provinces to refrain from abusing Sir Henry Thornton and the C. N. R. board.

R. E. Finn. R. E. Finn, (Liberal, Halifax), resumed the debate on the budget in the evening. The policy announced by the Acting Minister of Finance applied to the charge that the "magnificent surplus" shown was a sign that Canada was getting back on its feet again. It was a budget that brought life blood to the basic industries of the country.

Mr. Finn reviewed the history of Confederation and quoted the picture of prosperity drawn by the late Charles Tupper that was to follow the completion of that pact. The products of the west went to the Pacific coast were to flow over the railroads of Canada to the world through the ports of the Maritime Provinces.

Unfortunately, that prediction had not been fulfilled, but Mr. Finn was confident that under the management of Sir Henry Thornton a better state of affairs than at present existed would be brought about.

D. B. Hanna, former president of the Canadian National, had centered his attention on the district around Toronto and had failed to give adequate attention to the eastern provinces. Sir Henry Thornton, however, had shown breadth of view in considering the representations made by the Maritime Provinces and Mr. Finn had faith that he would contribute to the solution of the problem of those provinces.

Duty to Use Ports, He Says. It was the duty of grain growers of Canada to see that their products were shipped through the ports of Montreal and Quebec in summer, and Halifax and St. John in winter, Mr. Finn declared. If it was impossible to get shippers of Canadian produce to use Canadian ports, the people of the Maritime Provinces would ask the Government to put an export

TYPHOID OUTBREAK IN ALBERT COUNTY

Two Medical Health Officers Going to Moncton to Start Inquiry

Several cases of typhoid are now being cared for in the Moncton Hospital. Other cases have been reported in various parts of Albert county. All of these cases are believed to have originated from a lumber camp in Albert county a few weeks ago. As soon as C. E. Northrup, secretary of the Westmorland Board of Health, was notified, an investigation was begun.

All of the various boards of health concerned were communicated with and the district medical health officers, Dr. F. J. Desmond and Dr. William Warwick, in both of whose territories the new outbreak has occurred, are proceeding to Moncton.

It is some time since an outbreak of typhoid of such large proportions has occurred in New Brunswick. PREPARE FOR TAG DAY. Preparations for the Boy Scout tag day on Saturday are going forward with much enthusiasm. Mrs. G. Wilford Campbell is the general convener for the tagging and for the luncheon for the workers of whom she expects to have about 185. Headquarters will be at the Y. M. C. A. building. Those who will have charge of the running will be Mrs. I. DeVy, Chipman; Mrs. E. H. Turnbull, Mrs. H. B. Peck, Mrs. Rowland Frith, Mrs. G. B. Peat, Mrs. A. K. Harvie and Mrs. J. H. Frink. The tag day is to be a comprehensive canvass of all sections of the city but the workers will confine their efforts to the principal streets and most important localities. The convener of committees are as follows: Banks, Miss E. B. Sinclair; tags, L. L. Johnston and the Boy Scouts; finance, A. K. Harvie. Those in charge outside the city follow: Fairlie, Mrs. Philip Simms; West St. John, Mrs. E. A. Young and East St. John, the Misses Emery.

GIVEN NOVELTY SHOWER.

Miss Jean Lordly, who is soon to marry Lorne S. Whittaker, of this city, was made the recipient of a novelty shower last evening at the home of Miss Hazel M. Peters, 94 Spring street, when Miss Peters and Miss A. O. Lamb were joint hostesses. The guests, who numbered 15, were of the staff of the Bank of Montreal. Pink and white were used in the pretty decorations. A large bell was hung in the centre of the room and a table placed under it, to which streamers of the pink and white were attached. On the table a bride and groom in miniature were placed and around them were artistically arranged the many gifts for the delighted bride-elect. Refreshments were served and a happy time enjoyed.

Be as beautiful as you were meant to be. Take faithful care of your skin if you would have it come to its full beauty. Counteract every night the day's dust and tiredness.

This doesn't mean that you must spend a lot of time on your skin. Just a few important minutes every day with "Daggett & Ramsdell's" that Cream of Distinctive Quality. With this one preparation you do everything a normal skin needs. You cleanse it, smooth out the lines and supply it with beauty-bringing elements, all at the same time.

Once every day, swathe your neck and face in a soft, white coat of "D & R." Leave it a few minutes to penetrate the depths of the pores, then wipe off the superfluous cream with a soft, clean cloth. This leaves your face luxuriously clean, soft and refreshed.

Now manufactured in Canada. Sold everywhere at the same low price. In tubes 10c, 25c, 50c. In jars 2 oz. 35c, 4 oz. 50c, half pound jars 85c, pound jars $1.50.

ILL and cross last night- DR. CALDWELL'S LAXATIVE SYRUP PEPSIN brought vigor by morning

How to Keep a Child Healthy

A GENERATION ago parents thought that sickness was a part of a child's life, but we know better now. The secret is in the food the mother allows the child to eat, and in watching that elimination occurs regularly two or three times a day. Mrs. W. E. Margeson, Centreville, N. S., and Mrs. Pratt, 45 Gillson Ave., Bunnyside, Toronto, always keep a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin in the house, ready for use, and avoid many of the ills to which children are subject.

A Substitute for Physics. Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin is a scientific compound of Egyptian senna with pepsin and suitable aromatics. The formula is on every package. You will find you do not have to force children to take it, and it is much better for them than castor oil, calomel or coal-tar drugs like phenolphthalein even if covered with sugar or chocolate. Laxative Syrup Pepsin is mild and gentle in action and your child will have an easy passage without griping or strain. It does not contain narcotics, and you can give it with absolute safety to an infant at the breast. "Magic" in a Teaspoonful. Every store that sells medicines sells Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin, and the cost is less than a cent a dose. Give half a teaspoonful to any ailing baby or child at night when you put it to bed and you will find a happy, laughing youngster in the morning. Take Laxative Syrup Pepsin yourself when constipated, and give it to any member of the family young or old, for any ailment due to constipation, such as biliousness, headache, lack of appetite, sleeplessness, bad breath, cankers, fever sores, indigestion, and to break up fevers and colds. Stop that first sneeze or sniffle and you will have a healthy winter.

If You Want to Try It Free Before Buying "Syrup Pepsin," 24 Caldwell Bldg., Toronto, Ont. I need a good laxative and would like to prove what you say about Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin by actual test. Send me a free trial bottle. GLEN FALLS CLUB HAS SOCIAL TIME

The Glen Falls Community Club gave a social evening to its members and friends in the Club Hall last night when about 200 people were present. Games, music and dancing were enjoyed and dainty refreshments were served by the lady members of the Club. One of the features of the evening was the Sons of England Jazz band composed of William Bawn, D. E. Olive, William Blandon, Daniel Bevan, and R. W. Olive. The Club plans to give a dance next week and the members of the jazz band very kindly volunteered their services. The New Brunswick Power Company, last night, ran an extra car to Glen Falls to bring back to the city the many guests who had attended the entertainment and a hearty vote of thanks was extended to the company. The president, A. E. Boyles was the chairman of last evening's entertainment and Gerald Lawlor was master of ceremonies.

GIVEN PROMOTION. Otty F. Vaughan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Vaughan, of Orange street, has been transferred to Swift Current, Sask., and will be promoted to the management of the Massey-Harris Company of that city. He has served in various capacities in the company for 22 years, having been assistant manager in Toronto for the last five years. He and Mrs. Vaughan and their daughter, Miss Phyllis, a girl of nine, arrived in the city on Saturday last. Mr. Vaughan left for his new position last evening. Mrs. Vaughan and Miss Phyllis will remain until the middle of June, visiting with relatives and friends.

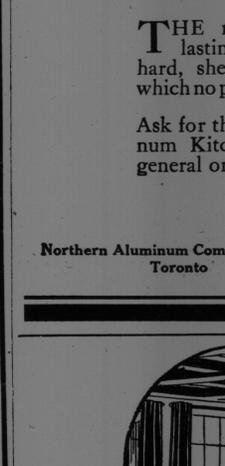

It is estimated that by the year 2000 the population of the United States will be about two hundred million.

Simmons "Windsor" beds. Finishes reproducing walnut and mahogany

"Banner" construction combines ninety-nine springs into one unit

That's why you feel such gentle, buoyant support for your body wherever it touches the mattress. Such yielding restfulness—such an invitation to relax every muscle and be thoroughly comfortable. Comfort is the quality you want in the spring that goes on your bed. It's the quality positively built into the Simmons "Banner" by mounting ninety-nine double-cone spiral springs upon a heavy steel frame; and then linking all together at top and center with flexible, tempered steel wires. This flexible construction makes a "Banner" spring proof against sagging. It lasts a lifetime. It is supremely economical because its reasonable first cost is distributed over many years of usefulness. On the quality of your sleep depends the quantity of the energy and vigor which builds your success. Each day's drafts on body and brain are repaid only by sleep that is unbroken. As a simple measure of safety, examine your bedding tonight. Then, at your dealer's, compare the "Banner" and other Simmons springs, the Ostermoor and other Simmons mattresses that he will show you in styles and prices you can easily afford. Decide today that energy and success are worth more to you than the cost of Simmons sleep equipment.

Look for the Simmons Label. Accept no substitute. Write for your copy of "Restful Bedrooms" to Simmons Limited, Montreal, Quebec. Factories at Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg, Calgary and Vancouver.

TWENTY-SEVEN NURSES GRADUATE FROM GENERAL PUBLIC HOSPITAL

Needs of Hospital are Outlined by Speakers at Public Exercises.

That the General Public Hospital must have the financial aid of the front people of the community if it was to continue its work of ministering to the sick and afflicted was the keynote of the address given by M. E. Agar, president of the Board of Hospital Commissioners, last evening, at the Nurses' Home, when the graduation of nurses took place. Dr. Thomas Walker and Dr. Walter W. White, past presidents; Hon. Dr. W. F. Roberts, Minister of Public Health, and Mrs. J. Verrier McLellan, commissioner of the Hospital, were on the platform with Mr. Agar. Miss Margaret Murdoch, superintendent of nurses, sat in the front line with her graduating class. His Worship Mayor Potts and Mrs. Potts were present. Commissioner R. W. Wigmore and Commissioner Harding were also among the guests.

The graduating class presented a charming appearance when they received their diplomas from Mr. Agar, their pins from Miss Murdoch and their lovely roses from Mrs. McLellan. The undergraduates served delicious refreshments at the close of the evening and dancing was enjoyed for an hour. Express Congratulations.

The programme was enhanced by musical selections from an orchestra led by Miss Marion Hogan. The vocal solos of Mrs. Blake Ferris and Mr. E. C. Girvan were exceptionally rich and tuneful and they responded generously to insistent applause. Mrs. T. J. Gurney and Mrs. Harold H. Macmichael were the accompanists.

Hon. Dr. Roberts, Dr. White, Dr. Walker, Mayor Potts, Commissioner Wigmore and Mrs. J. Boyle Travers, vice-president of the Women's Hospital Aid all spoke words of congratulation to the graduating class; praise to the president for his untiring faithfulness in carrying through such tremendous projects, congratulations upon the appointment of Mrs. McLellan as commissioner, who had accomplished things that otherwise could never have been done and joint praise to Mrs. McLellan and Alexander McMillan, D.S.O., for their work in preparing such an excellent programme.

Mr. Agar gave some statistics of the permanent improvements made in the hospital in the last eight years, which included the Nurses' Home, $210,000; X-Ray department, $5,000; epidemic hospital, $85,000 and many other additions, amounting to $417,000 in the eight years outlined. He said that the yearly expenditure for supplies had amounted to about $100,000 and each year called for more expenditures, as the demands grew for those who could not pay, but who must be cared for. For this reason the people must see how necessary it was to give financial support.

Mr. Agar also said that it was not necessary for people to die to bestow their wealth upon this institution, but he hoped that some of those with means at their disposal would in the evening time of life enjoy the privilege of seeing their money wisely placed while able to see its results.

Dr. Roberts read an excellent address of advice to the graduating class from one given in 1916. He urged cultivation of quietness in disposition and above all things tact. His motto was the keynote of the other address, "Wisdom to see with their eyes, to hear with their ears and to have no tongue to tell." Another point he said would be for nurses to be ready to take any case, without quibbling, especially when urgency called them to the doctor's aid.

Dr. White emphasized this last point with the text from Psalm 39, "I will offend not with my tongue and will keep a bridle upon my mouth." He paid a tribute to the work of the Women's Hospital Aid, which was begun by Mrs. A. C. Skelton, who noticed the needs of the hospital, when visiting her son, Thomas, who had appendicitis. A pain in a boy's stomach, brought about the needed change in the hospital, which showed how small things work for good.

Mayor Potts. His Worship urged the nurses still in hospital to take as much care of the ward patients as of those in private rooms. He said that this spirit, inculcated while in training, would give them a basis of true understanding when they went out to their life work. That they had clung to their purpose and finished their training was proof that those who were graduating had chosen their noble vocation. He said the sunlight of life to the sick was the trained nurse with the capabilities

Just What YOUR SKIN Needs In SPRING

FOR soothing and clearing the skin at this time of the year, Zam-Buk is proved invaluable. This rare herbal balm exerts its wonderful medicinal activity deep in the inner tissues, quickly freeing the sluggish overburdened skin of all blemish and impurity.

A daily dressing of Zam-Buk will make your skin beautifully smooth, clear and fresh. Keep on using it if you have the least tendency to pimples, blotches, blackheads, soreness or other complexion troubles, for the Zam-Buk way is the quickest, surest way to perfect skin health.

Avoid fatty pore-clogging ointments and face creams which have no real medicinal value. For anything wrong with the skin, Zam-Buk is always the right thing to use. Wash with Zam-Buk Medicinal Soap.

ties cited by Dr. Roberts and the other speakers. Mrs. Travers said that the Canadian nurse always took first place in any country to which she went and she thought that New Brunswick nurses were among those in the forefront at all times. Commissioner Wigmore paid special tribute to the appointment of Mrs. McLellan and the work she had accomplished. Dr. Walker spoke briefly and congratulated Mr. Agar upon his accomplishment. He was greeted with prolonged applause and sat down amidst an ovation. Of the 27 nurses who graduated six were absent, five being in Montreal and one in the epidemic hospital. The absentees were Miss Bessie Leavitt, of St. George's; Miss Gertrude H. Bickerstaffe, of St. John; Miss Muriel Clark, of Dipper Harbor; Miss Leone J. Ward, of East St. John; Miss Edith White, of White's Landing, and Miss Frances W. Crowell, of Weymouth, N. S. The Misses Rhoda McGregor Keith and Beatrice Fear, were from Springhill, N. W.C.T.U. CELEBRATES 50TH ANNIVERSARY

Washington Co. Organization Holds Historic Gathering in Calais.

Calais, Me., May 12—An international border conference in celebration of their fiftieth jubilee opened the thirty-first annual convention of the Washington County W. C. T. U. in the Congregational church, Calais, today. It will continue tomorrow. The first session opened at 2 p. m. Mrs. Althea Quimby, president of the Maine W. C. T. U., presiding. The address of welcome was given by Mrs. George Ames, president of Calais W. C. T. U. She spoke of the early work of the temperance crusaders 50 years ago and extended a cordial welcome to visiting members.

Mrs. Grace Adams, corresponding secretary, of Lubec, replied in a gracious manner to the address of welcome. Mrs. Adams in her report said that the Calais union had 80 members enrolled. Mrs. Bertha Lock, corresponding treasurer, gave an encouraging financial report. Two of the guests of honor, Mrs. James Geggie, president of the Provincial W. C. T. U. of Quebec, and Mrs. Ida B. Wise Smith, of Ohio, director of the department of Christian citizenship, National W. C. T. U., were introduced by Mrs. Quimby. Mrs. Geggie conveyed greetings from

DUNLOP TIRES

When Buying Tires it Will be to Your Advantage to Consult Dunlop Tire Merchants and to Keep in Mind:

1. That we make every type and style of tire which has been evolved for the benefit of motorists:
 - From the world-renowned "Traction" Cord
 - To the Tire that will honestly meet any price competition.
2. That every tire going out of the DUNLOP Factories receives the same painstaking care in the manufacture, irrespective of the price at which it sells.
3. That we stand behind all the different grades of tires bearing the DUNLOP Name.
4. That the thousands of Dunlop Tire Merchants located in every nook and corner throughout Canada—coupled with the official Dunlop Branches in the leading cities—are there to serve you and to see that you get the utmost value for the money you spend for tires.

What to Buy, and Why

If you desire a tire—the best that can possibly be made, and having a world-wide reputation for efficiency—you will select Dunlop "Traction" Cord, Master of the Road.

If you desire a Cord Tire with a good record, but selling at a lower price than "Traction" Cord, you will decide in favor of Dunlop "Clipper" Cord—a tire that is being chosen by owners of many different makes of cars.

If you prefer the highest-grade Fabric Tire, selling at virtually the same price as "Clipper" Cord, then your choice will be Dunlop "Traction" Fabric.

If it is a competitive price tire you want—but still one that is of recognized value—then you will buy Dunlop "Clipper" Fabric.

If the tire desired is for Livery and Truck purposes—in size 30 x 3 1/2—Dunlop "Bus and Truck Type" tire is "just the thing." It is a specially built pneumatic tire for this particular class of work, having the side-walls fully protected against curb or rut abuse. Other sizes of this type of tire are built heavier than ordinary Passenger Car types.

Every tire referred to above is sold by Dunlop Depots, and there is a price to suit all pockets. You do not need to purchase tires of doubtful or unknown quality when you can obtain nationally known, sure quality Dunlop Tires to meet every requirement, such as referred to above.

As the tube is a vital part of the casing, it will pay to see that your expenditures for casings are amply protected by the purchase of Dunlop Regular Tubes or Dunlop Extra Heavy Tubes. There are no better tubes made, and, like Dunlop Tires, they are all fairly priced.

The Dunlop name and seal on each and every one of the above-mentioned Tires and Tubes is your protection and a guarantee that no matter what price you may pay, or what grade you may select, you are sure of full value and honest service, backed up by the Dunlop reputation of thirty years' standing.

"These Are the Only Tires You Need"

Amazingly Inexpensive

You'll be surprised to find how little Dominion Linoleum actually costs. For a very moderate outlay you can attractively cover every room in the house — and then forget floor covering expenditures for years. This is added economy you'll surely appreciate, the economy of long wear that helps home budgets and eliminates financial worry.

But this is only one of the reasons why so many practical women seek these modern floors. They know the happy release from cleaning drudgery Dominion Linoleum brings. No beating. No heavy sweeping. Light brushing or mopping is all the effort needed to keep it spotlessly clean and sanitary.

DOMINION LINOLEUM

is non-absorbent and germproof and comes in widths sufficient to cover any ordinary room, without crack or seam. There are numerous designs to choose from; the colorings are supremely beautiful and appropriate.

Dominion Linoleum Rugs

are very popular, too. They have all the durability and labor-saving qualities of Dominion Linoleum and are made in a range of sizes to fit any room. Rich and substantial in appearance, they harmonize perfectly with the other appointments of a well-furnished home. They can be rolled up and moved without cracking or breaking. See these fine floor coverings at home furnishing and departmental stores.

On receipt of your name and address, we will mail you an attractive rug folder. Write to-day, addressing Dominion Oilcloth & Linoleum Co., Limited, Montreal.

Here are four pleasing Dominion Linoleum patterns, available in attractive colors. They are typical of the beauty of this practical floor covering.

EARL'S DEATH DUE TO PNEUMONIA

Ashburnham Taken Suddenly Ill in London—Family a Famous One.

London, May 13.—The death of the Earl of Ashburnham, in a London hotel yesterday, was due to pneumonia. Newspapers here recall the romantic circumstances of Lord Ashburnham's marriage to Miss Anderson of Fredericton, N. B., who has since become very popular for her charm and kindness.

The Ashburnham family is noted for its traditions of Royallism. One of its famous possessions was a great library, which has since been dispersed and for one batch of manuscripts which the British Government paid £25,000.

The Family History. Of the Ashburnham lineage Burke's Peerage says that this family, which derives its name from Ashburnham, an ancient hamlet situated on the Ashburn (a small stream in Sussex, England), is described by Fuller in his Worthies as "a family of stupendous antiquity, and Nisbet adds, that it is one of the ancientest families in England which can be instructed to have been of good account in England before the Conquest."

FIND IT HARD TO FILL MY CHEST

Politicians in U. S. Worrying About Election Campaign Funds.

Washington, May 13.—(United Press.)—Where is the money coming from for this year's presidential and congressional campaigns?

formed, more or less, through various channels of publicity, upon the issues and the men. It is part of the system under which the rulers are elected that much money must be expended.

Money is very tight, therefore, among those who must fill the war chest, if it is to be filled. It is because of the money factor that many of the most experienced politicians cannot see how a third party has a chance this year.

THE DEMOCRATS. The Democrats, because of the lively bidding for their convention, enter this campaign in unusually good financial condition, with their debts paid and some money in the bank.

C. M. LINGLEY AGAIN ELECTED HEAD OF SOUTH END IMPROVEMENT LEAGUE

Will Press for Senior Sanction for the Baseball League.

The South End Improvement League elected officers last evening, heard gratifying reports, and got away to a good start for the work of another year. A few slight changes were made in the constitution of the league. The report of the president, C. M. Lingley, was as follows:

To the officers and members of the South End Improvement League: I wish first to congratulate the members of the league upon the successful year's work. Too much credit cannot be given to the chairman of the boys' club, William Lewis, and the chairman of the grounds committee, S. A. Payne, to whom this success was due.

In all branches of our work the year was the best we have yet had. The baseball games and skating rink were enjoyed by very large numbers. We have not attained our objective in making an all-round athletic field, but trust that during the coming year more may be done for other branches of sport as well as for our juniors.

The work done in our boys' club reflects the highest credit upon our chairman of that department as well as upon the director, Mr. Strachan. They have not only endeavored to help the boys under their charge in an athletic way, but have striven to make better boys of them, and as I have visited the club and observed the boys I could not but feel that they were succeeding in a very great degree. The closing of the boys' club was a revelation, I think, to all who had the pleasure of being present. To any who doubted the value of the club it must have removed all doubt.

A very pleasing feature of the closing was the presentation of a gold watch fob by the boys to Mr. Lewis, who well deserved the extra and one which, coming from the boys for whom he has spent so much of his time, must have a great value to him. A regrettable feature of the year's work was the small support given to Mr. Lewis. This must be overcome if we are to make the club a growing affair. Mr. Lewis has also been the expenses of the club down to the lowest possible figure, but if our work is to progress as it should we must spend considerable money on equipment before opening of another season.

W. E. Lewis, chairman of the boys' club, said that much good work had been accomplished during the winter, and with more help can be done. He paid a warm tribute to the senior boys, who gave hearty assistance in carrying on the work with the younger members. Mr. Lewis said that Mr. Strachan, the director, was a leader who could not be replaced, and was ably assisted by Frank Ward, one of the club's own boys who has developed fine qualities of leadership. Mr. Lewis extended thanks for favors to the club to Mrs. James Flagg, D. E. Newcombe, Mayor Potts, Commissionaire R. J. Armstrong, Mrs. Robert Nichols, E. G. Nelson & Co., J. & A. McMillan, D. L. McRoberts, T. S. Simms & Co., the Rotary Club, and many others who had aided him in his work.

Director James Strachan submitted a report, showing that there were one hundred and fifty-one names on the roll last winter. He reviewed the work and especially thanked Mr. Lewis for his great assistance not only in the club but in securing new equipment. Mr. Strachan also spoke of the admirable work done by Frank Ward. Attached to his report were suggestions as to changes and improvements that might be made before next winter. The treasurer, Alexander Wilson, submitted the financial statement, showing that the league will need all the funds raised from membership fees and other sources in order to carry on its work successfully for the next year. There was a large attendance of members at last night's meeting.

BIG HEAVYWEIGHT BOUT POSTPONED

Rain Forced Cancellation of Wills-Madden Go—Meet Friday.

New York, May 12.—Rainfall which soaked the outdoor Queensboro Stadium caused the postponement until Friday night of the 16-round heavy-weight bout scheduled for tonight between Harry Wills and Bartley Madden. In accordance with the rules, however, the men weighed in today.

Wills, negro challenger for the heavy-weight title of Jack Dempsey, weighed 210 pounds. Madden, veteran Irish fighter, was announced at 188 pounds. Postponement of the bout, which was regarded as the first of a series of fights arranged to permit Wills to qualify for a match with Dempsey in the fall, was announced by promoters after a conference with the boxing commission.

CLAIMS PITCHING HAS NOT DECLINED

(By Henry L. Farrell.)
New York, May 12.—(United Press.)—Heavy hitting, which was one of the features of the early weeks of the 1924 major league baseball season might be accepted as proof that it was the lively ball more than the decline in pitching that changed the modern game.

Introduction of the lively ball, although the magnates stoutly denied any purpose of scattering Babe Ruth's around the two circuits, came shortly after the game had been passed against the use of any foreign substance on the ball as an aid to the pitchers and they joined to bring about a wild orgy of slugging.

It was an obvious fact that something was wrong and as long as the league presidents persisted in claiming that no changes had been made in the construction of the ball, it had to be accepted that the pitchers had been handicapped too heavily by the rule against the spitter, the slider, the curve ball and their first cousins of the trick trade.

Umpires were ordered to toss out of play any ball of base the slightest evidence of tampering and they were so zealous in carrying out the strict letter of the rule that they would throw a new ball in play whenever the evidence in the past three seasons, which recommended that balls be kept in play longer, so that pitchers would not be forced to work almost entirely with new balls.

Results were almost immediately apparent at the start of the season. Pitchers worked more effectively and it was noticeable that the volume of hitting had been decreased. At the same time, however, it was shown when a heavy swinger took hold he got just as much of a drive as he had in the past three seasons. While pitchers were able to hold their opposition to fewer hits, they were unable to keep the ball from taking its old stride when it got in front of a heavy swinging club.

In the first two weeks of the major league pennant races there were more home runs hit than there were during the corresponding period of the 1923 season. The total home runs hit in both leagues during the first two weeks of this year was 75, against 67 hit in the same period of the year previous. This year showed a decrease of four in the National League and an increase of twelve in the American outfield club.

Ball Problems By Billy Evans

QUESTIONS
1. Is there any limit to the distance a runner can run in order to avoid a fielder making a play on a batted ball?
2. Is it necessary for a pitcher to throw the ball to third or second when the "bure" of the game would make a feat to catch a runner at either of the two bases mentioned?
3. Does the calling of a balk have any effect on the status of the batter? That is, can he go to first base in any situation which involves the calling of a balk?

ANSWERS
1. There is no limit. He simply must avoid interfering with the fielder, and can run as wide as he desires, before the fielder gets his hands on the ball.
2. It is only necessary that a pitcher complete the throw to first when he starts such an act. It is not necessary that he do so when making a feint to second or third. He need only step in the direction of either base.
3. The calling of a balk in no way affects the status of the batsman. He can never go to first base on a called ball.

THREE TEAMS TO FORM CITY LEAGUE

Decision Not to Admit Fourth Team—McAllister to Umpire.
A meeting of the executive committee of the City Senior Amateur Baseball League was held last evening at the home of A. W. Covey, 18 Sydney street. Frank White, president of the League, was in the chair. Representatives of the Portland, Clippers and St. Rose's attended the meeting. It was decided that these three teams should comprise the City League this year and that a fourth team would not be admitted.

YOUNG STAR MAY GRAB OFF CROWN

Plenty of Them in Amateur Field Who Show Promise.
By JOE WILLIAMS.
Who will be the golden next young sensation? Chick Evans has long since passed the boy-wonder period. Bobby Jones, young as he is, no longer ranks with the advertising agent of the "Ever" brand. Sweetser is now accepted as a veteran campaigner. Last year's champion, Max Marston, battled 12 years ago with the magnate who is now comparatively old. He is an old-timer.

A host of youngsters in various parts of the country are making great progress in competitive golf and it is more than a possibility that one of the younger set will go on a rampage and crack things wide open this summer at the Merion Cricket Club in the Philadelphia district, where the amateur classic is to be decided.

It's about time for Rudy Knepper of Sioux City to show something. Knepper gave splendid promise two years ago by beating Cyril Tolley and Francis Oulmet at Brookline, but he floundered in the first round at Plovermoor last season. Dexter Cummings, the Yale man who won the collegiate championship last year, isn't many shots removed from championship status. George Von Elm of Salt Lake, capable of brilliant golf in streaks, will be one of the most formidable youngsters in the field.

If Johnny McHugh of San Francisco comes back he will take plenty of punishment before going down for the third and tragic gulp. McHugh, 19 years old, won the California amateur last year, beating a fine field in thrilling style. He crushed the well known Jack Neville, defending champion, in the semi-finals, 6 and 5, after being 8 up at noon, and in the finals demolished Freddie Wright, a golfer of international note, 9 and 8. McHugh was good enough at 17 to win the Prisco title.

By Billy Evans

What do you regard as the winning factors in baseball?
I put that question to Connie Mack the other day as we sat on the bench watching his rejuvenated Athletics in action.
"You must get consistent hitting and combine it with good pitching," was his immediate reply.
Don't get the impression that Connie Mack no longer figures fielding highly essential. He does.
It is his opinion, however, that pitching plus hitting are the two best weapons, offensively and defensively.
Good pitching, he believes, is the one great asset, because it creates a feeling of confidence and makes for better hitting and fielding.
The value of good pitching is made manifest in the fact of ball that club usually plays behind its pitching ace.

While Joe fully appreciates the offer he feels that he has a few more years ahead of him as a catcher and realizes that the "bure" of the game would never permit him to retire until the old "soup" bone gives out and his arm refuses to shoot them around the sacks to nip off runners. Joe received a letter a few days ago asking him to go to Yarmouth to officiate in the Nova Scotia Independent League and while the salary was attractive he decided to remain and continue as back-stop for the Shamrocks.

FOOTBALL LEAGUE CLUB FINED £750

London, May 12.—At a meeting of the Association Football League at Manchester today, the Newcastle United Club, winners of the cup final, was fined £750 for playing a week late for the cup final match. On April 21 Newcastle put into the field against Aston Villa only two of their regular team and were defeated by six goals to one. The following Saturday they defeated Aston in the cup final by 2-0.

It was decided by the commission to draw up a list of rules and regulations to govern future boxing exhibitions in the city and submit them to Mayor Frank L. Potts as soon as possible.

CINCINNATI NOW LEADS THE GIANTS

Rushing Reds Away as McGraw's Men Play Sad Game.
New York, May 12.—Cincinnati, leading the National League today after trailing the Giants for three weeks, breezed past the faltering champions with a speed that may land the rushing Reds a lap in front before their spirit ends.

Fifth in team batting with an average of .272, with only three regulars hitting 300, the Reds won 13 of 16 games from Pittsburgh and Chicago after hard fights. A five-day interruption by rain last week held them in momentary check, but yesterday's convincing 4 to 1 victory over Philadelphia indicated that the spirited team league leadership should add a new inspiration.
The play of the Giants has been almost sad. Yesterday's 5 to 3 defeat at St. Louis was the fifth to which the Champions submitted from cellar lines within the last six days. Ragged hitting, plentiful but ineffective hitting, and the collapse of youthful pitcher hops have replaced the even balance which the three-time pennant winners away to a strong start. Sullivan, who from Chicago 7 to 3, behind Vance's steady pitching, and is only three games away from McGraw's team.

This advertisement was given last night in a bulletin issued by A. W. Covey, president of the Maritime Provinces branch of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada.

BARRETT DEFEATS PORTLAND BOXER

Mickey Morris and Clyde McInnis Box Ten Rounds to Draw.
The headliner on the boxing programme at the Queen Square theatre last evening between Mickey Morris, formerly of Halifax, now of St. John, and Clyde McInnis of Halifax, went to a draw decision over the ten-round bout. The boxers were featherweights and put up a fast exhibition. The referee was Beth McLeod.

In the semi-final, Tom Barrett of St. John met "Kid" Black of Portland, Me., the former easily earning the decision of the six rounds. Barrett clearly outlasted the colored boxer, who took much punishment during the bout.
In the preliminary, "Dick" Shields stopped Johnny Sullivan in the third round of a scheduled four round contest. Sullivan was substituting for Art Totten, who failed to show up. The programme concluded with the showing of the Dempsey-Firpo fight pictures.

As the Moncton meet is open to all Olympic aspirants, Gorman was asked if he would accept training at Moncton meet will be sent to Montreal. In reply, Charlie said he was undecided.
"I would be at a disadvantage," he pointed out, "as my opponents would have received three weeks training under the head Olympic coach."
Winners to Montreal.
President A. W. Covey, prior to his departure for Moncton today, made an important announcement that the winners of events at the Moncton meet will be sent to Montreal. This corrects a prevailing impression that only the best selected for training would be sent to the metropolis, even though beaten at the Moncton meet. This shows a desire on the part of the athletic authorities to exhaust every means to secure the best possible talent to represent the Maritimes when the 15 athletes for track and field events for the Canadian Olympic team were named and leaves the door wide open to any athlete in the Maritime Provinces to convince the selection committee he can deliver the goods.

CHARLIE GORMAN SPEAKS OF NOT BEING SELECTED TO TRAIN.

Is the Maritime Olympic selection committee overlooking a good bet for the final trials in Montreal in the person of Charlie Gorman, New Brunswick 100 yard champion? The reason given for Gorman being left off the list of those who will receive the benefit of three weeks training is that he already has been to the Olympics and that he failed to place in the final of the 100 yards at the Maritime meet last year. The Times-Star in the amateur speed king of North America dissects from the view held by the selectors in all good nature.
"If I told you in 1923 that some day I would break the world's record for the 440 yards," says Charlie in a conversation recently, "you would have laughed at me. I had added I was going to do that distance some day in 86 and 87ths, you would immediately have sent for the ambulance. Yet, I did it. I not bragging and I don't want any more credit than I do me but I believe I can sprint the 100 in faster time this year than I have ever done it before. And I have done it in 10 and 10th seconds, which I think, is one-fifth of a second slower than the Maritime record."
When Gorman won the New Brunswick 100-yard title at Sussex last August, he turned the trick in 10 and 10th, setting up a track record and incidentally defeating Frank Campbell and Drew Mulachy both of whom have been selected to train for the final Olympic tryouts at Moncton on June 7. In 1920 here, Gorman won the 100 yard title, defeating Ern Smith, who also has been selected. Gorman points out he has beaten the men who were selected. Frank Campbell holds a decision over him in the Maritime meet. In that race, Campbell and Gorman raced a dead heat and Campbell won the run-off.
Gorman is not objecting in the slightest to the selection of Smith, Campbell and Mulachy to train, but he does feel that his record in the sprinting line entitled him to as much consideration as the others. "I cannot understand," he argues, "why I am barred simply because I tried for Olympic skating honors. I believe I can sprint as fast as I can skate. My record is as good as the others."

WILLIAM HALPENNY HAS A PERMANENT NICHE IN CANADA'S LIST OF KING ATHLETES.

Paris, May 12.—A guarantee of 200,000 francs has been offered Eugene Ciqui by the directors of the Buffalo Velodrome, just outside Paris, for a 20-round bout with Charlie Ledoux, who recently wrestled the titles of featherweight champion of France and Europe from Edouard Mascart. The other carries with it an option of 25 per cent of the gate receipts.
The strides which boxing has made in France during the past 15 years is shown by the fact that in March, 1909, a boxing programme which presented to the public two French champions as headliners, with the late Sam McVey appearing in an exhibition, for good measure, was carried out with a total expenditure of 800 francs.
The bill was as follows:
France
Relinger vs. Kid Stamp, flyweights, 6 rounds 30
Paul Tili vs. Douguille, featherweights, 6 rounds 50
Willie Fruittier vs. Kid Davis, lightweights, 6 rounds (Davis was billed an American champion) 100
Marcel Bernard vs. Henri Pletelaters, 10 rounds (Champion of France) 350

AS FRONTENAC PUSHED QUEBEC AHEAD SO WILL THE BEATTY ADVANCE ST. JOHN

Some of the Advantages that Bring Trade and Turn Loose More Money.

Besides the financial advantages that come to a city through the opening of a big, up-to-date hotel, there are many benefits to be derived from such facilities which cannot be measured in dollars and cents. The history of many places is often written in the hotel registers, and there is no doubt in the minds of many people that the advent of the Admiral Beatty to St. John will mean the opening of an era of prosperity and progress that will reflect great credit on those who made the project possible.

It is well known that the wealth of historic interest and picturesque attractions of the city of Quebec were not well known to the great majority of people of the North American continent before the building of the Chateau Frontenac. That caused a mighty change. Since then, Quebec has become one of the principal Meccas for a great host of tourists, summer and winter, coming not only from the other sections of the Dominion, but from the Republic to the south and from the countries across the Atlantic. The added influx of temporary residents has lifted Quebec out of the quietude which formerly surrounded and made it one of the most prosperous of the tourist centres of Canada.

What the Frontenac has done for Quebec might also be well accomplished for St. John by the Admiral Beatty in perhaps a greater degree on account of the fact that the new St. John house will be connected with more than a score of other similar houses throughout the country under the operation of the United Hotels Company of America. The Admiral Beatty will receive from the operators as much attention as any of the other links in the great chain, and this connection cannot but be of immense value to the city and the province as a whole.

Then there are the people who come and go on our trans-Atlantic steamers. Now they come at the last moment to catch their ship, or if they are landing here after a voyage, they rush away as soon as possible. The big hotel would make an important change with such quarters awaiting them, many would remain a while here. And, what better means is there of capitalizing our magnificent summer climate than a hotel of the modern class? It will bring visitors who, when they go home, will tell of St. John and its hotels, and of New Brunswick's attractions as a great playground. Such a hotel, too, marks a city as progressive. It tells all visitors, all men on business or pleasure, all delegates to conventions, that here is a really progressive community. That St. John needs the Beatty is not in dispute. But does the people realize the great impetus it will give St. John? If they think of it from every angle their support will not only be enthusiastic but tangible.

PLAN MEMORIAL IN RIVERVIEW PARK

Ladies Propose Monument to Great War Veterans Beside Present Shaft.

A memorial to the St. John boys who gave their lives in the recent Great War is being planned for erection in the Riverview Memorial Park, Douglas avenue, alongside that which commemorates the sacrifice of several St. John men in the South African War. This announcement was made at a meeting of the park trustees which was held at the home of J. Fraser Gregory last evening. The ladies proposed raising a fund for this purpose. The trustees took up the matter of further improvement in the park, including the beautifying of the grounds, the installation of a bubble drinking fountain and the placing of more benches. It was decided to conduct a personal canvass for funds to carry out this work, as the grant from the city was said to be too small for all the necessary work.

J. Fraser Gregory was re-elected president and G. A. Hilyard secretary. Others present at the meeting were G. G. Murdoch, A. M. Rowan, W. H. White and Fred Roderick.

AT DRY DOCK.
The four-masted schooner Susan B. Cameron will be hauled out on the marines at East St. John for repairs this week.

ONE TODAY.
One man charged with drunkenness faced Magistrate Henderson in the police court this morning and after pleading guilty was instructed to pay $9 or spend two months in jail.

IS SWORN IN.
Mrs. Annie M. Adams was this morning sworn in as police matron by Police Magistrate Henderson. She succeeds Miss M. Christine Ross, who resigned a few weeks ago. Mrs. Adams had been acting matron for the last two weeks.

ELEVATOR WORK.
Men are at present engaged overhauling and repairing the C. P. R. "B" elevator in West St. John. Improvements will be made to the machinery as well as many replacements made. It is expected the work will keep the men employed for the greater part of the summer.

FORTY HOURS.
Services in connection with the Forty Hours Devotion were continued in St. John Baptist church last evening. Rev. Walter Mallett, St. Rose's Church officiated at the Rosary and Benediction and Rev. Michael O'Brien of Norton, and Rev. Father McMurray of St. John officiated at the Mass. The closing services will be held tonight.

WRESTLERS BEGIN WORK.
Walter O'Toole, who was appointed wrestling instructor of the local boys who are aspiring to make the Canadian Olympic team, announced today that he is ready to open his classes. He has four pupils, Leo McCrossin in the 135 lb. class, "Bud" McCarthy in the 145 lb. class, and Walter Hughes and Peter Murray in the 125 pound class. It is expected that the boys will work out daily until the Olympic trials here on June 4 and 5.

LIKE SUMMER.
The heavy rainfall during the night and the bright sun today brought a relief to the city today. The effect on the trees and grass was much in evidence. From yesterday morning until this morning the total rain precipitation was eight-tenths of an inch, according to a report from the Meteorological Observatory in Douglas avenue. The wind reached its greatest velocity between 11 and 12 o'clock last night, when it was blowing 32 miles an hour.

NEW ALARM BOXES.
That the chief of the fire department was considering the placing of two extra fire alarm boxes, one probably on the west side and another on the north end, was said this morning by Commissioner Harding. He said the north end box would probably be placed on the Sandy Point Road near the Union Ice Company's premises and that for the west side near the end of City Line, in the vicinity of Fort Dufferin.

ST. JOHN NAMES IN IT.

The following New Brunswickers are found in the book: St. John, Hamilton Bank of Nova Scotia; Chatham, George M. McDade, Bank of Nova Scotia; Bank of Nova Scotia and Bank of Montreal; Moncton, Robinson and Rand, Bank of Montreal and Bank of Nova Scotia; Chatham, George M. McDade, Bank of Nova Scotia.

GET INTO COURT.
Mrs. Minnie Johnson appeared in the police court this morning to answer a charge of appropriating to her own use some sheets, pillow slips and towels, valued at $32, belonging to Stephen Zadzsky. The defendant said that she had taken the articles because the plaintiff had seized some of her personal effects. Magistrate Henderson postponed the case until Friday morning and advised those interested to come to an agreement. He said if they reported the matter settled no action would be necessary, but unless this was done the case would have to take the form of a preliminary hearing as the amount involved was above that which gave the police court jurisdiction. A. B. Gilbert appeared on behalf of the plaintiff.

PLAN PICNIC.
The officers and teachers of Ludlow St. Baptist Sunday School, W. E., met at the home of Mrs. R. C. Makenney, City Line, last evening for their monthly meeting. Supt. R. H. Parsons presided. Several matters of importance in Sunday school improvement were discussed. Plans for the annual picnic on June 29 were considered and the matter left with the executive to bring in a suitable programme of activities for the day. The matter of changing the Sunday school hours for the summer was discussed and action deferred until next meeting. Mrs. Clarence Peet was made Cradle Roll Supt. The pastor, Rev. W. A. Robbins, spoke during the meeting. Mrs. W. A. Robbins submitted an encouraging report on the home department. Following the business session, a delightful social hour was spent and refreshments served. R. J. Rupert, Miss Sadie Burke, Miss Marjorie Robbins, Eric Ring and others taking part. Supt. Parsons expressed hearty thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Makenney for the hospitality of their home. Miss Marjorie Robbins, R. J. Rupert and Mrs. W. A. Robbins were appointed a committee to assist the housewives in arranging for a children's day service.

SHOWS NEED OF MORE FACILITIES

Potato Ship Has to Go to Pier 15—Equipment is Overburdened.

The potato sheds at Sand Point, both the old, and the additional equipment provided this year, are loaded full with potatoes for export. Not only that, but the demand for facilities has made the use of Pier 15 imperative at this work. Practical demonstration is thus given of the soundness of the contention that if the facilities were here the business of potato shipment from this port could be doubled or more.

If this were cold weather, it would mean that the ship at Pier 15 would have to lie in the stream until a place at the potato sheds was available, with her cargo in cars in the yards and charges piling up. With the potatoes now in the sheds and what is yet to come in from up country, there will be about eight more cargoes to be sent out from here before the business of the season is completed.

Fast Work.
A record that has been surpassed only once in the history of the port so far as is known was made yesterday in the loading of the steamship Steinstad. The work of putting the potatoes on board was begun at 7 o'clock yesterday morning and was completed at 7 o'clock last evening, and in that time 10,000 bags were placed in the vessel. She sailed last night for Havana.

Potato Sailings.
When the steamer Ada Gorlben sailed a week ago for Havana, it brought the number of steamship sailings in the potato trade between this port and Havana for this winter up to 38, surpassing previous years. Last evening, the steamer Steinstad loaded the marks to 38 and tonight the steamer Santa Veronica is scheduled to sail from Boston for this port to load potatoes here for Havana. She will sail only one week, making the 40th of the season.

FOUR SUGAR SHIPS ARE IN HARBOR

Shipping House Sees Cheerful Signs of Continuance of Activity.

The condition of the sugar market in the United Kingdom at present, it is said, holds considerable promise for increased business for the local Atlantic Sugar Refinery and consequently increased port business, according to a member of a prominent shipping company this morning. The state of the market is reflected in the port today as there are four sugar boats here at present. The wharf prospects that the present boom will continue in this particular line.

The steamer Torhanam, formerly the Canadian Logger, finished loading a large consignment of sugar for Montreal and Quebec yesterday, and is preparing to sail this afternoon. Her place at the Refinery wharf will be taken by the steamer Haderslev which arrived in port on Monday morning and which will dock this afternoon. Refinery wharf sugar for Leith, Scotland, Hull and Newcastle. The steamer Lorenz W. Hansen arrived this morning with a cargo of raw sugar for the Refinery from Santo Domingo while the steamer Rhode Island also dropped anchor in the stream this morning from Philadelphia to load refined sugar and birch for London.

ON THE RIVER.

There was no apparent change in the river at Indiantown this morning despite the heavy rain fall during the past twenty-four hours. At high tide the water was no higher than it was yesterday and this is taken to indicate that the freshet has reached its peak and will now steadily recede. The river steamers continue to carry large cargoes to their various destinations but, as is customary at this time of year, they bring comparatively small freights back to the city.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said The Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "do you believe in pimples?"

"Well," said Hiram, surveying the reporter's chin, "seein' is believin'."

"But why pimples?" persisted the reporter.

"What have I done to be thus afflicted?"

"Be thankful fer it," said Hiram. "Some of the badness is comin' out of you. Old Mother Nature has hung out her anger sign right on that ugly sign of your face."

"I am afraid," said the reporter, "our cultured readers may regard this as a somewhat vulgar conversation."

"Well," said Hiram, "sooner or later they'll hev pimples of their own—unless they hev more sense 'n lots of folks I know that's awful patickler about what they talk about. Some of 'em don't take no more care of their stomach 'n then when somethin' happens they brag about the Lord afflictin' 'em fer their good—yes, sir."
