DOLLAR AT NEW LOW ON N. Y. EXCHANGE

Flow of Canadian Money to New York Given as Reason For Slump

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Canadian dollars have reached a new low on the movement at 8-16 of one per cent. discount, off 1-16 of one per cent. Traders state that while the rate appears to be going still lower, the period of greatest pressure should come to an end this month, and it would be extremely surprising to Canadian bankers, if dollars touched as low as one per cent. discount.

CAUSE OF DROP

Factors in the depreciation, in addition to the flow of funds from Montreal to New York for temporary use in local money market and regular winter cessation of grain and other exports are stated to be heavy Canadian payments for United States coal and steel and recent slowing up of Canadian long term borrowing here.

Game Between Wanderers and Local Club Announced at Skating Club Executive Meeting—Introduction of Speed Kings at Moncton—Sabot John Contest Suggested.

ST. LAWRENCE DEVELOPMENT CALLED URGENT

Agriculture Waiting on Cheap Water Rates, Bureau Head Says

SPEED IS URGED

Former Iowa Governor Declares 40,000,000 People Will Be Liberated

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 6.—Agriculture is dependent on the speedy development of a water route which would link the western states with eastern sea ports, J. E. Reed, president of the Minnesota Farm Bureau Federation, told the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Tidewater Association Congress here today.

"The great saving to be attained in water transportation over rail freight, make the improvement of the St. Lawrence River project imperative at this time for agriculture," Mr. Reed said.

FREIGHTS LESS

"Carriage by water is all the way up to 10 times less than carriage by rail. The great interior is devoted to the production of agricultural products. Its present development was brought about through the development of agriculture and upon that industry and its future success depends the future development and expansion of the interior of America."

TO LIBERATE MANY

Construction of a 55-mile ditch to make the St. Lawrence navigable for sea-going vessels will "liberate 40,000,000 land-locked, industrial people," W. L. Harding, former Iowa governor, declared last night.

His address was given at a public meeting attended by delegates from the 11 states which form the council of states affiliated with the Tidewater Association.

Governor Christianson, of Minnesota, and Frank H. Koester, member of the Ontario legislature, were other speakers.

MRS. THAW IS GLAD SHE DID NOT DIE

Tells Doctor She Took Poison Because She Was Feeling Blue

CHICAGO, Jan. 6.—Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, unsuccessful in her second attempt to kill herself, by drinking poison after a prolonged New Year's party, is glad she will not die.

"Life looked hopeless. Now it looks promising and colorful," she told Dr. E. T. Brand, her physician, who thinks she will recover. The alcohol in the liquor she had been drinking for several days, was a natural antidote for the poison she used.

"I took the stuff," she said, after receiving consolation from her physician. "I thought I had given up because of its rough edges than I deserved. It was only on an impulse that I took poison."

Beyond her statement to Dr. Brand, no motive was assigned for the suicide attempt.

Chess "Shark" Spoils Berlin Ad. Scheme

BERLIN, Jan. 6.—Solve the chess problem and win a cigar. This sign hanging in the window of a cigar shop nearly brought bankruptcy to a cigar dealer. A large chess board in the window bore another card saying: "White to play and mate in three moves."

For a few cents each he sold his chess "shark" or "waled" inside, made the necessary moves and came out puffing a ten cent "Perfecto."

A few days later he sold his solution of the play to the crowd. There was a rush inside and finally the dealer was forced to withdraw the signs.

WOMEN TAKE PART

Founder of Sect Ordered to Appear and Explain Attack

BORDEAUX, France, Jan. 6.—Abbe Des Noyes, Paris Priest, was still suffering intensely from the scourging he received at the hands of members of the fanatical "Order of Our Lady of Tears," while he lay stripped and gagged in the secrecy of his church.

The priest himself is declared to be a member of the sect, and the scourging of him is said to have been carried out in order to expel from his body "the spirit of evil which possessed it."

WOMEN IN PARTY

A dozen persons from Bordeaux, some of them aged women, are accused to have completed the party which, in a manneravoring of the dark ages, considered the priest helpless and saved him with words and left him in such a serious condition that it is assumed he will not be able to resume his priestly duties for a month.

TRAINS CRASH, FERRIES LATE, SHIPS DELAYED

Railroad Is Blocked by Collision of Two Freight Trains

BOSTON IS DARK

Street Lights Kept On; Night Steamers Wait at Quarantine Station

Canadian Press. NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—The central and north Atlantic seaboard has had a real taste of a London "pea soup" fog. Shipping in an area from Charleston, S. C., as far north as Boston, has been partially paralyzed for the past 36 hours, while normal street and railroad traffic in cities like New York and Boston has been impeded seriously.

Passenger steamers out of Norfolk yesterday were delayed from two to 12 hours and with few exceptions freighters sought safe anchorage until the heavy fog cleared.

VESSLS GROUND

The steamer District of Columbia grounded near Quantico, and the steamship Algerte, on route from Brazilian ports to this city, went ashore during the night of the Massachusetts Beach, coast guard station, New Jersey.

The vessel, a freighter, is in no danger. She carries a crew of 33.

A collision of two freight trains at the Bronx tied up the New York Central trunk tracks for several hours. Outgoing through trains were held up during the night of the Massachusetts Beach, coast guard station, New Jersey.

Ferry service was discontinued and ocean vessels crept slowly into quarantine in many cases late. No deaths were reported.

DARK IN BOSTON

In Boston the blanket of fog made the city as dark as night, and street lights were lit most of the day. Night steamers bound for coast ports waited for several hours at quarantine before being able to get under way.

BRAGER CASE IS BEFORE COURT

Evidence and Argument Over Keeping Open Furniture Store.

Some Points Yet to be Gone Into and Further Postponement Made

The case of Jacob N. Brager, charged with violating the early-closing by-law affecting furniture stores was further postponed today after considerable evidence and much argument by counsel had been heard in Police Court. It will be taken up again at 2:30 p.m. Friday.

FOR AMENDMENTS

E. J. Henneberry, counsel for Mr. Brager, said there was to be a meeting of the furniture dealers some time next week to discuss making recommendations to the Common Council for amendments to the by-law so that it would come more properly within the confines of the enabling act. He asked a postponement until that could be done.

TALK WITH CLERK

The witness told that a clerk asked what he could do for him. The reply was that he wanted to buy some furniture and was told that the clerk was there for that purpose. The witness told the clerk that he was there on a report of a violation of the early-closing by-law. He was informed that Jacob Brager was out of town but on his return would assume all responsibility for the store being open during the prohibited hours.

ASKS DISMISSAL

Mr. Henneberry said that, apart from what he declared as insufficient evidence of the by-law in defining furniture stores, he submitted that there was not sufficient evidence to satisfy the requirements of the by-law. He therefor asked dismissal of the case. He read the by-law and stated that under the enabling statute, which allowed the by-law to be passed, prosecution must prove that the store was open for service. In his opinion that had not been done. Mr. Henneberry maintained that the statement of the clerk must be proven to have been made on the authority of the defendant, who was out of town on Nov. 19.

COURT'S STATEMENT

His Honor then stated that he was not there to try the validity of the laws, but to enforce them. The by-law stated that all furniture stores must be closed between certain hours and Brager's shop was a furniture store, and as such should have been closed. If the by-law was wrong, the conviction, if any, could be set aside.

CITY COUNCIL PROVIDES FOR MRS. MCGAVOUR

Votes $100 Month to Widow of Policeman Killed on Duty

TWO PROVISIONS AS TO CONTINUANCE

Exemption for Wagon Company—Appeals on Assessment Heard

At a meeting of the City Council yesterday afternoon, it was decided that the widow of Policeman S. P. McGavour, killed in the discharge of his duty, should be placed on the payroll at $100 a month until her youngest child should attain the age of 18 years or she should remarry.

THE RESOLUTION

The resolution of sympathy ordered sent to the widow was as follows: "Whereas, this Council having heard with great sorrow and regret of the death of Police Constable Stephen P. McGavour, whose life was taken in the discharge of his duty during the early morning of New Year's Day, in the Galliard Mission House in Prince William street, where he had been called in to quell a disturbance.

"Therefore resolved, that this Council do send to the widow of the deceased its sincere regret at the loss of a most faithful and efficient officer, and at the same time extends to the widow and young family of the deceased its deepest sympathy with them in their sorrow and bereavement.

"And further resolved, that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the widow of the deceased by the Common Council."

The city council yesterday afternoon heard two appeals from the 1925 valuation of the Board of Assessors.

APPEAL DISMISSED

In the matter of the Tip Top Tailors who filed an objection to their valuation the chairman of the Board of Assessors explained that the company had not filed any statement with the board, although given an opportunity to do so, until too late to be of any use to the board and they had made the valuation and assessed the company by doubling it, which they were entitled to do under the Act. On motion the appeal was dismissed.

The following resolution for exemption from taxation was moved by Commissioner Wilmore and seconded by Commissioner Harding:

"RESOLVED, that under the authority given to this Council by the Act of Assembly 60 Victoria, Chapter 85, Intituled, 'An Act to authorize the Common Council of the City of Saint John to grant exemption from civic taxation in certain cases,' the land, buildings and improvements, machinery and plant employed by the Saint John Wagon & Blacksmith Company, Limited, be exempted from taxation, except School Taxes, Water Rates and Profits for a period of ten years from the first day of January A. D. 1926."

The motion was declared carried, Commissioner Frink voting nay.

On motion of Commissioner Bullock the usual notice to quit was ordered sent to civic tenants.

Commissioner Bullock presented a bill from the Workmen's Compensation Board for the ferry department, amounting to $840. This was ordered paid and placed in this year's appropriation for the ferry.

Chariot of Doom, Lacking License, Seized; Driver Held

FREEMPORT, I. J., Jan. 5.—Collin M. McCloud, Seventh Day Reformed Adventist, an apostle of Robert Reid, the Prophet of Doom, was arrested here for driving the Chariot of Doom, Reid's antiquated silver, without an operator's license or 1926 plates. McCloud told the police he had an operator's license at his home.

Shortly after 2:50 a.m. Patrolmen Alvin and Williamson heard a strange noise break the silence of the town. The Chariot of Doom rattled around the corner, and when the policemen stopped it, they discovered that the apostle was accompanied by two girls aged 18 years old, one of whom volunteered the information that they were "just joriding." The police did not take their names.

They held McCloud for appearance before Justice Johnson and telephoned the Prophet at his home on Homan Place, Biddeford. In the meantime they looked up records and found the car listed as belonging to a man named Christmas of Brooklyn.

Reid appeared before Lieutenant Elmer Raynor at noon and defended his car, and the release of his apostle in whose garage he had left it the day before, he said, because of bad weather. He added that he had instructed his apostle to drive it home for him.

The prophet, who recently predicted that the end of the world would come on Feb. 6, insisted that his chariot be returned to him. "You don't need a car any more," replied Lieutenant Raynor. "You said you were going up to Heaven in a chariot of fire on Feb. 6, and that's only a few weeks off." Reid started out to get a bill of sale.

DOMINION'S MINES WILL DRAW CAPITAL

American Money Pouring Into Country, Says Carrell

TORONTO, Jan. 5.—Canada's mines are magnets that will draw prospective capital from all over the globe, said Hon. Frank Carrell, president of the Quebec Chronicle-Telegraph and members of the Legislative Council of Quebec Province, in an interview here.

"American capital is pouring into Canada," continued Mr. Carrell, "and it is sympathetic with the feeling of regret that some of our big developments are getting into the hands of outsiders, but it is up to our bankers and capitalists to get Canada's wheat and cattle, diamonds and themselves invest in Canada."

Mr. Carrell said he saw prospects of profit to Canada in the many indications that the United States is beginning to realize that its economic self-sufficiency is limited and that it is in need of Canada's wheat and cattle. In the matter of the need of immigration, he said: "I am now glad that we have at least in one thing, a united policy, for which all are prepared to work."

DIGBY YOUTH HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Clothes Torn From Body When Caught in Belting; Only Bruised

DIGBY, N.S., Jan. 5.—"One of the most miraculous escapes from death that I have heard of," declared the doctor attending a young man named Emos Vantassel, who today, while working in the mill owned by H. T. Wern, lost his clothes, which were torn completely from his body by being caught in a belt attached to one of the large saws and was so badly bruised that he had to be rushed to Digby General Hospital.

He is recovering as comfortably as could be expected, although suffering great pain. On examination young Vantassel was found to be bruised badly about the back, but outside of that he seemed to have escaped injury, but he will be confined to the institution several days.

It is the most miraculous escape from death ever heard of and men in the mill cannot understand how the young man escaped with so slight injuries.

TURNING TABLE OF EXPEDITION TO ARCTIC TOLD

G. P. MacKenzie Addresses Canadian Club and Engineers Here

MANY ADVENTURES DURING LONG TRIP

Moving Pictures Illustrate Story of Voyage of Arctic in North

Vividly describing the northland and holding his listeners enthralled while he gave a particularly thrilling account of the voyage of the C. G. S. Arctic on her trip in 1913 carrying mail and supplies to the far flung fur trading stations and police patrols in Canada's northern region, George P. MacKenzie, officer-in-charge of the Canadian Arctic Expedition, delivered his illustrated lecture at the joint luncheon held last evening by the members of the two local Canadian Clubs and the Engineering Institute of Canada at the Admiral Beatty Hotel.

Dealing graphically with several incidents connected with the voyage in which the ship escaped disaster only by prompt action of the crew, the speaker traced the trip from the time the vessel left Quebec on July 1 until the return 109 days later. A map showing the various places touched at was displayed later on the screen during the showing of the four reels of splendid moving pictures taken in the Arctic regions.

HEROIC WORK

The speaker also declared that the work of the expedition was not without claim to these vast northlands, which had been so well traced on the maps by the hands of British seamen, many of whom had died in their heroic work. "Fortunately," the speaker said, "they were able to get away before any mishap occurred."

The party arrived at Fram Harbor, the most northerly point touched during the voyage, 78 degrees 46 minutes north latitude, on Aug. 21. The spot was a desolate one, he said, and the view was far from cheerful. A cross erected to the memory of a doctor and the ruins where a former Arctic expedition had come to grief were evident.

Referring to the character of the picked men carrying out Canada's work in the north, the speaker said he had witnessed the greeting between Inspector Wilcox and Corporal Michelson. After having just completed work brought here by a native of the Maritimes as Mr. MacKenzie was born in Cumberland County, N. S.

Mrs. Fitz Randolph on behalf of the Women's Canadian Club, and W. R. Pearce for the Engineering Institute also thanked the speaker for his splendid lecture.

Is Your Back The Weak Point

Then get your kidneys right by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills

Very few people are in perfect health. There is a weak spot somewhere. When you get tired or your system gets a little run down you feel the effects at your weak spot.

If your weak spot is your back, then you may suspect that your kidneys are not in perfect order. The back aches or is weak and sore; you may have headaches; there will be dizziness of the sides, pains in the limbs and disorders of the bladder.

The quickest way to regulate the kidneys is by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. They are bound to be effective because they arouse the action of the kidneys, liver and bowels and thereby ensure the elimination of poisons from the system.

became wedged in the ice which had massed against the coast of Baffin Island. Every effort was made to land the supplies there at the time but after a 20-day struggle with the ice it was found impossible to reach the shore. The vessel was then shipped then proceeded to Disco Island, Greenland, and up the eastern side of the strait which was free from ice.

REACH GREENLAND

The first part of call, the speaker continued, was Godhavn, Greenland, which was reached on Aug. 10. Under the Danish Government there is a local parliament for Greenland, he said, and the body was in session when the vessel arrived there. Mr. MacKenzie said he was entertained by Governor Rosenfeldt after which the Government members of the parliament and all white residents were guests on the ship where moving pictures taken on the previous year were shown. The members of parliament passed a resolution of good will toward the expedition.

On Aug. 11 the expedition sailed and a few days later ran into an adventure, he declared, which might easily have ended in complete disaster. While moored to a iceberg the big berg swung around and suddenly hundreds of tons of ice were towering over the ship. The engine was out of commission at the time and frantic efforts were made to hoist the sails as there was a grave danger of other tons of ice falling on the berg turning over. Fortunately, the speaker said, they were able to get away before any mishap occurred.

The party arrived at Fram Harbor, the most northerly point touched during the voyage, 78 degrees 46 minutes north latitude, on Aug. 21. The spot was a desolate one, he said, and the view was far from cheerful. A cross erected to the memory of a doctor and the ruins where a former Arctic expedition had come to grief were evident.

RETURN TO QUEBEC

The posts visited from Fram Haven were: Craig Harbor, on Ellesmere Island; Dundas Harbor, on Devon Island; Ponds Inlet, on Baffin Island, and finally a successful effort was made to land supplies at Pangnirtung, where they had fallen earlier. The Arctic then returned to Quebec arriving on Oct. 1.

Turning to matter of waste of money to hold these lands, Mr. MacKenzie said that Canada's ago was offered to Alaska for a song and returned, but now Alaska was returning twice their original cost yearly in revenues to United States. He said to hold the northern lands Canada must govern them. He pointed out their vast stores of wealth in seals, walrus, polar bears, etc. The mineral wealth of the lands has not been discovered as yet, he said, but he thought it was well worth Canada's efforts to hold these lands while British seamen had discovered and mapped at such great sacrifices.

"They have fought the brave fight and have passed on the torch to us as Canadians and in justice to ourselves we can do nothing but carry on," the speaker concluded amid round applause.

C. G. Weyman, in expressing the thanks of the Canadian Club to the speaker for his address also paid a tribute of thanks to Reginald March, and supplies at Pangnirtung the ship of the Fox Films for the use of his moving picture machine which had enabled the four reels of views to be displayed here for the first time anywhere. He said that it was especially interesting to the Maritime Provinces to have this splendid glimpse of type of men carrying on Canada's Arctic work brought here by a native of the Maritimes as Mr. MacKenzie was born in Cumberland County, N. S.

Mrs. Fitz Randolph on behalf of the Women's Canadian Club, and W. R. Pearce for the Engineering Institute also thanked the speaker for his splendid lecture.

The futurist, says Prampolini, "is a useless element in theatrical action and dangerous to the future of the theatre. He is the interpretative element which presents the most unknown quantities and the least guarantee."

BLOOD PRESSURE IS RAGING TOPIC

N. Y. Telephone Company's Medical Director Explains

Is an Index, Not Disease—Doctor is One to Determine

In a talk broadcast from station WGY, Dr. Edward S. McSweeney, medical director of the New York Telephone Company, said: "Blood pressure is a word is an index, not a disease, and every one has a pulse. To keep it normal is largely within our own control. When abnormal the reason can be found only by careful general examination and tests which are often puzzle and worry the clearest doctor as to their meaning before he finds the answer. You can help yourself by letting him do the worrying."

"The popular saying, 'One's blood pressure should be the sum of one's age plus 100,' while in general true," said Dr. McSweeney, "is, like many such sayings, apt to be absolutely wrong when applied to any one individual. There is no such thing as a standard blood pressure to which every one of a given age should conform. In fact, even in the individual there are daily differences; slight variations occur by reason even of changing the position from lying down or standing up, or after meals. It is foolish, therefore, for any one to attach importance to having lowered or raised his blood pressure a few points."

SAYS NO STANDARD

"Only by taking a blood-pressure reading with the instrument made for the purpose can it be determined accurately, and often the blood pressure shown by the instrument is the first suggestion to patient or physician that one of the things it may indicate is present. A blood-pressure test, therefore, should be a part of every good examination, for these conditions, like all others, are most effectively and often successfully treated only when discovered early.

GENERAL INDICATION

"In general, low blood pressure indicates a lack of general tone. High blood pressure, on the other hand, directs attention to the diseases, such as the changes due to advancing years, and especially in women, disturbances of middle age.

"OLD AS ARTERIES"

"That one is as old as his arteries" is another popular saying. High blood pressure too often shows that the patient, while perhaps knowing this old saying, has not realized what he could do to influence the matter by overeating and drinking, chronic constipation and repeated unnecessary colds and other infections he has carried a load for years under which he has finally broken down.

The Trouble With Parents is That They Don't Trust Us Enough, They Don't Get Our 1926 Slant on Having a Good Time, and They Won't Be Friends With Us, Confides a Modern Youth.

EVERYBODY is asking the question: "What's the matter with parents nowadays, that they seem to have so little authority over their children and so little influence with them?"

them with being disinherited, as they did in the good old days, our fathers and mothers don't know what to do with us.

"And we youngsters, on our part, wonder that they don't try new methods in managing children, just as they apply new efficiency systems in running their offices and their homes. Why don't they try trusting us? Why don't they put us on our honor? We have got some. We have our own code, and I don't know anything that would do more to keep a boy straight than just to know that his father expected him to go straight and believed that he couldn't be crooked."

"I know plenty of girls whose mothers are always suspicious of them and accusing them of being bad and of doing things that they haven't done, and if anything on earth will break down a girl's morale, it is just that. It hurts her for her mother not to believe in her, and then she thinks that if she has the reputation of a wild woman she might as well get the fun out of being one."

"NEXT, I think our parents ought to try to get our point of view on things and realize that many of the things we do that shock them are not really wrong. They are only different. They are just the same things that they did in their youth only with a 1926 slant on them."

"They are horrified at our joyriding in automobiles, but how is that worse than going riding in a side-bar buggy, as they used to do? What is the difference between dancing in a cabaret to a jazz band and dancing in a ballroom to the strains of the 'Beautiful Blue Danube'? We go in gangs now, and they used to sit at home and have a twosome in the parlor, and that looks to me as if we sort of chaperoned ourselves better than they did."

"OF COURSE, girls don't wear as many clothes as they used to, but morally isn't a matter of red-flannel underwear, and whether a thing is modest or not depends on the custom. I have heard old men, tell how they used to leer at ladies' ankles when the wind blew their skirts about. Now when girls wear knee-length skirts we boys never notice their legs any more than we do their hands or arms. Legs aren't obscene any more, they are just a part of the female anatomy."

"And pretty much the same thing is to be said about kissing. Perhaps in the days when a maiden kept her lips sacred for the man she married, as the movies say, it was deliciously wicked and thrilling to kiss, but now, when kissing is about as common as shaking hands, there is nothing to it. There is no more kick in kissing a strange girl than there is in kissing your sister."

"But the greatest mistake of all that our parents make is in not being acquainted with us. We would like to be friends with our fathers and mothers if they would let us, but how can we be if they do nothing but criticize us and tell us what three-ply idiots we are and how wrong everything we do is?"

"YOU can't tell your plans to a person who you know is going to throw cold water over them, and that is what most parents do to their children when they try to confide in them. And you aren't going to bring your friends to the house if you know your father and mother are going to make fun of them or knock them."

"There are lots and lots of girls whose parents won't let them have dates with boys or have boys come to the house to see them. They think that they are protecting the girls and they haven't enough sense to realize that all they do is to make their girls pick up boys on the street and keep their dates at corner drug stores and get in bad all the way round."

"AND when parents have forced a girl to lie to them and deceive them and have taken the protection of her home away from her, they have done plenty to hurt her and tell the world that, if our parents would only use some diplomacy in handling us they could make us eat out of their hands."

"There is such a difference in being ordered to do a thing or forbidden to do it and having your father talk it over with you like a good soul?"

"And then the boy grinned. 'The chief trouble with parents, as I see it,' he said, 'is that they need to be brought up to date.'"

Fashionable Pajama Colorful; Hats Small

By MME. LISBETH
THE most intriguing of all the garments in the modern woman's wardrobe is the pajama. As developed it typifies a sort of Oriental mode with the daring touch that comes from the knowledge that she has stolen the idea from the lords and masters of creation. The pair illustrated above is developed in a heavy printed silk with wide velvet hands edging sleeves, coat hem and trousers. The robe is the material and the edging the better imitator of her pajama suit.

The small tailored hat still seems secure in woman's favor in spite of the periodical prophesies of larger brims.

A soft, frameless almost crushable shape of black velour has gained quite a good deal of popularity lately. It is trimmed with twisted loops of black satin ribbon started high on the crown at the back and continued down the opposite side to ends of the ribbon on the hair.

Navy velvet and felt is combined often in nobby little chapeaux, one model of that type having a velvet crown and felt cut, with padded motifs of the navy velvet in modern design set in through the cut. A Poiret model of navy felt was trimmed with cutouts that showed red felt beneath and navy velvet was also used in its making.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS
By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON
THE TISSUE PAPER PIE.
Twee-knose kept right at his tricks and the Twins and their big fat friend, Inch o' Pie, did all they could to catch him.

Everyone was in the front of the house playing guessing games, so he wandered back to the dining room to have a good look around.
The long table was set with lace mats and dainty napkins and flowers. But the thing that took Twee-knose's eye was the big tissue-paper pie in the center of the table.

Timely Views on World Topics

THE Christian Church now faces unprecedented opportunity in an entangled condition, her witness weakened, her message in part discredited by her own differences and divisions.

BISHOP MANNING

The practical evils resulting from the division in the church, he says, "are serious enough—the waste, the squandering of energy and resources, but the spiritual consequences of our divisions are infinitely more serious."

"Our divisions are giving the forces of evil and unbelief a terrible advantage. If Christ cannot bring His own followers together in fellowship and brotherhood, how can men believe in His power? If Christians are unable to agree among themselves as to the essential truth of the Gospel, is it surprising if the world is unconvinced, or if men conclude that all questions of belief are unimportant?"

"The time has come for the churches to repent of their schisms and divisions and to find the way to fellowship and reunion. It is time for Christians of all names—Catholics and Protestants—to resolve that the present situation shall not continue, but that through the promised help of the Holy Spirit, the way shall be found for the healing of our divisions, and for the manifestation to the world of our fellowship in Jesus Christ."

"What is needed now is a reunited church so faithful to the Gospel, so free in the exercise of Christian liberty, so filled with the spirit of love and fellowship that in its presence and glory of Christ shall be made manifest. We shall find the way to uniformity not by surrender, or compromise of Christian truth, but by emphasis on Christian brotherhood. What we all need is closer fellowship with Christ. This is the path which will lead us to unity. It is lack of holiness in the lives of Christians which is the chief obstacle to the unity of the church. If all of us were truly converted to Christ, the way to unity would speedily be found. Our faith in Christ, if it is real, will draw us into fellowship not only with our fellow Christians of all names, but with men of all faiths and all races, realizing that we are all the children of the one Father who is in Heaven."

ATTEMPTS TO CHANGE INDIES PACT OPPOSED

Will Only Result in Wrecking Trade Treaty, Macaulay Declares

CONCESSIONS HELD INJURY TO CANADA

Cannot Reduce Preference On Island Cocos, He Declares

SEES CHANGE IMPOSSIBLE

In reply to a question as to whether it would be possible to amend the agreement in the way of reducing the preference on West Indian coconuts, Mr. Macaulay was quite sure that this could not be done. Coconuts was the chief product of Trinidad, he pointed out, and the preference on coconuts was represented at the conference as being almost the only benefit that the people of that island would obtain from the new agreement.

CONCESSIONS NECESSARY

"A preference agreement is necessarily one of mutual concession," said Mr. Macaulay. "The new treaty must be accepted or rejected as a unit. It has already been approved by a majority of the West Indian colonies, and will certainly be approved by all. I cannot imagine that our Dominion parliament would be unwise enough to attempt to reopen the question, for that would be equivalent to rejection."

Along The Sport Trail

By JOHN J. DUNLOP

PHILADELPHIA, the seat of rowing in the United States, is planning on a great week of rowing to celebrate the sequentennial this summer and included in their plans are entries from Jack Beraford Jr., Olympic champion, and holder of the Philadelphia Gold Cup, and G. F. Gollan, the deaf mute. Morris K. Morris, Diamond Sculls winner the first year Hilton Belyea tried for the historic trophy, is now located in the Quaker City in the automobile business and he will row for the Undine Barge Club. Walter Hoover, United States champion last year, also will row under the Undine colors. Hoover had trouble with the Duluth officials and transferred his affections to Philadelphia. Others who are expected to row against Beraford and Gollan include Russell Colman, Garret Gilmore, Paul Costello, Granville Gude, Johnny Duran, Toronto, and others. 'Doc' Wright has been engaged as coach for the Penn. A. C. again. Mention of these names revives memories of a time just a few years ago when Saint John had a direct interest in these big international races through Hilton Belyea. Jack Kelly has signified his intention of not competing this year.

NORVAL BAPTIE is out with a challenge to Art Staff, Bobby McLean, Everett Mcowan and other pro skaters for a series of races. Baptie at present is performing trick stunts on skates in Madison Square Garden.

TEX RICKARD in his forecast of boxing for the year 1926 predicted that Harry Greb would lose the middleweight crown but in the excitement Mr. Rickard forgot to mention the new champion's name. Wonder if he was thinking of Tiger Flowers? Mr. Flowers has been matched with Harry for a title battle in Madison Square Garden on the night of February 23, despite the fact that Flowers lost a decision to Mike McTigue recently. That decision apparently so stirred everybody that they matched the negro with Greb to try and make the fans forget it. Anyway, in the rush they rather overlooked McTigue who was promised a bout with Berlenbach if he whipped the negro. Rickard is surely giving the champions plenty of opportunity to lose their titles these days. He started out with Berlenbach and Delaney and followed it with Kid Kaplan and Babe Herman. This month on January 22, Mickey Walker defends his crown against Tommy Milligan and now Tex has one booked for February in the persons of Flowers and Greb. The next thing we know he'll have Jack Dempsey matched and then we'll faint from sheer surprise. It must be getting to Mr. Dempsey to think that the fans would like to see him get out and defend his title. The idea of a champion taking a chance on getting his block knocked off while there is an opportunity of making money in the movies is hardly to be considered. But Mr. Rickard is making the champions fight and everyone knows he has set his heart on getting Dempsey. What Mr. Rickard sets out to do in the boxing world, he usually accomplishes.

"HAVE all the boys got skates on?" asked the hockey manager, through the door of the dressing-room. "I wouldn't be surprised," said the trainer. "The case came just in time." And then he lost his job.

SCHAEFER LEADING

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 5.—The world's 18.2 ball line billiards championship which Young Jake Schaefer lost a month ago to Edouard Horemans, Belgian, seems destined to return to the United States. Young Jake, unruined and masterly, has taken a lead of 1,000 to 873 over Horemans in their last point match which ends today. Schaefer added to his win of the first block with a 500 to 197 victory in the second game last night. His average was 126, and his high run 210. Horemans continued to suffer from the nervousness that characterized his opening play. His best was 91, and his average 65-2-3.

STRENGTHEN HOLD AT TOP OF LEAGUE

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 6.—The Ottawa Senators gave the Montreal Maroons their most popular and sports enjoyed year in 1925. Football, baseball, tennis, golf, track and field athletics, boxing and other minor sports had more spectators for competition than ever had drawn before. The year was also productive of an unusual crop of individual heroes, among the outstanding of which were Red Grange—the first million-dollar football player; Paavo Nurmi—the greatest of all runners; Rogers Hornsby—the world's record hitter; Bobby Jones—the greatest amateur golfer; Walter Hagen—the world's greatest money player; Bill Tilden—the world's greatest tennis player; and Jimmy Slattery and practically all the careers of a youngster who had been picked as a coming heavy weight champion. Swede Oberlander, brilliant Dartmouth halfback, who distinguished himself as one of the great passers and refused a fortune to turn professional.

Shoelace Saves Life Of Brooklyn Man

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—A loosened shoelace saved the life of Patrick Doyle, 35 years old, in the kitchen of his home in Brooklyn. As Doyle stooped to tie the lace, a 38-calibre bullet buried itself in the plaster wall at his back, after passing through the kitchen window. If Doyle had been standing up, investigation showed, his head would have been directly in the path of the bullet, as indicated by the holes in the window and wall. The bullet was contacted a new stand at the corner of Madison and Greenpoint avenues for several hours, and as it was found at the police station, asserting he had no enemies.

Horse Meat Packed For European Market

ROCKFORD, Ill., Jan. 4.—Delicates for Europe prepared from the carcasses of Montana Mustangs—the real wild horses of the west—are being prepared here daily as hundreds of the animals were shot and skinned in a horse meat packing plant. Whole carcasses are barreled for shipment, but more of the meat goes out in the form of "ground beef" soup meat, mince meat and other products. The plant—said to be the only horse meat packing plant in the country—employs fair completely to manufacture for European consumption.

FREDERICTON WON

TRAVELS 25 YEARS-- Gas Makes Him Nervous

For 25 years A. Thomson traveled and all this time he was nervous and less because his food formed gas and fermented. He tried many things without success, but the mixture of known-makes-metabolic-poison (known as Adierka) helped him at once. Many people keep the OUTSIDE body clean but let their INSIDE body stay full of gas and poisons. Give the inside a REAL cleansing with the mixture of Adierka, which contains the most powerful purgative, laxative, and cathartic. It acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel, eliminates metabolic poisons, removes old matter which you never thought was in your system, and which caused sour stomach, nervousness, sleeplessness, headache, etc. Whenever you eat too much heavy food let Adierka REMOVE the undigested surplus and leave you feeling fine. ONLY appetizer, laxative, and stomach medicine because of its REAL and quick action. Sold by leading druggists.

A Little Farther To Fall

MONCTON OUT TO GRAB OFF LEAGUE LEAD

LeClair Boys Pass Through on Way to Sussex. A PITCHED BATTLE with the breaks deciding the issue is looked for tonight at Sussex when the Moncton Atlantics, now in a deadlock with Saint John for first place endeavor to get out in front by taking the decision. Moncton's two victories this year were scored against Sussex and Saint John, both 5 to 3. Saint John beat Sussex on its home ice, 10 to 6, the natural inference is that Moncton also will turn the trick. But members of the Saint John team who returned yesterday from the railway centre are practically unanimous that Sussex is going to surprise Moncton tonight. They point to the fact that they were not at full strength in their game at Moncton, being without the services of Halliday and that with him on the ice for Sussex would put the locals in a great chance to get into the lead on Friday night here, remains to be seen. Sussex has had a week's rest while Moncton has only a night between the struggle with Saint John. It should be a thrilling battle right down to the last.

Chief Sport Events of Year

By HENRY L. FARRELL. NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Athletics and sports enjoyed their most popular and sports enjoyed year in 1925. Football, baseball, tennis, golf, track and field athletics, boxing and other minor sports had more spectators for competition than ever had drawn before. The year was also productive of an unusual crop of individual heroes, among the outstanding of which were Red Grange—the first million-dollar football player; Paavo Nurmi—the greatest of all runners; Rogers Hornsby—the world's record hitter; Bobby Jones—the greatest amateur golfer; Walter Hagen—the world's greatest money player; Bill Tilden—the world's greatest tennis player; and Jimmy Slattery and practically all the careers of a youngster who had been picked as a coming heavy weight champion. Swede Oberlander, brilliant Dartmouth halfback, who distinguished himself as one of the great passers and refused a fortune to turn professional.

Senators Beat Maroons While Canadiens and Boston Also Win

BOSTON, Jan. 6.—Boston defeated Pittsburgh 6-0 in a National Hockey League match last night. The game was the cleanest played here this season, only one penalty being imposed. However, the Bruins centre, was the outstanding performer, scoring all three goals. "Red" Stuart also played well for Boston, and Captain Sprague Cleghorn was usual, an outstanding figure on the defense. Cotton and Workers were the only Pirates who displayed the vim that has characterized them in the past. The players in earlier games showed dash and energy, but nothing against the strong Boston defense. Pittsburgh showed its best form in the first period, but was never able to penetrate the Bruins.

Trojan Rovers Won From Exmouth, 42-8

The collapse of the New York Yankees was also one of the disappointments of the year—especially to the officials of the club. Babe Ruth not only went bad but Pipp and Scott had the result of their own making. The Yankees had the light of their lives to finish out of the cellar. The failure of Gertrude Ederle to swim the English Channel and the controversy that ensued was also one of the disappointments of the year. The American girl had many friends who backed her with money and she had plenty of sympathizers until she placed the blame on her trainer.

Queens and McGill Lose Games in U. S.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—The Canadian Basketball lives of McGill and Queens Universities went down to defeat in a pair of international clashes in the United States last night. Queens met the strong St. John's College in Brooklyn, failed to solve the local team on Friday night and beat 57 to 34. At Burlington, McGill suffered the same fate at the hands of Vermont and took a 33 to 18 defeat.

SWITZERLAND ENTERS

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Switzerland is the first nation to enter for the 1926 Davis Cup tennis play.

DARTMOUTH WINS 3-1

POLICE SHOOT; ESCAPE FROM CHINESE MOB

Two Detectives, Reporter and Photographer Attacked in Tenement

PARTY WAS LOOKING FOR MISSING GIRL

One Stabbed, One Black-jacked; One Chinese Shot; Mission Fails

NEW YORK, Jan. 6—A yelling crowd of more than two dozen Chinese attacked two detectives, a newspaper reporter and a photographer in a tenement in East Broadway, where they had gone to seek a missing 19-year-old girl. The four white men had to fight their way to the street, and during the battle a detective was stabbed in the hand, the photographer was hit over the head with a blackjack and one Chinese was shot.

The fight produced great excitement in the neighborhood and it was necessary to call out police reserves. When the furor had died down the police had nine Chinese, including the wounded man, in custody on charges of felonious assault.

GIRL SOUGHT. The missing girl sought was Julia Vetterlein, who disappeared from her home on Dec. 11. Not long after her departure detectives discovered that she had been friendly with a Chinese known as Li King Hai, and that he, too, had vanished.

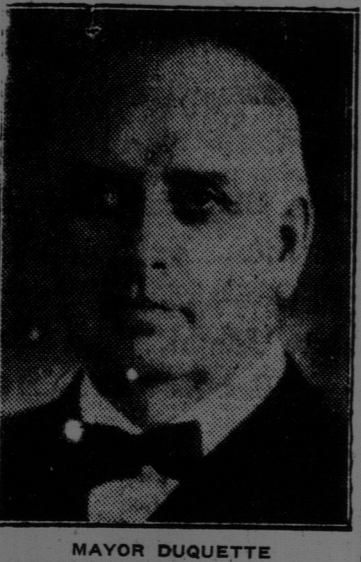

Acting on a tip that the girl was living in a room on the top floor of the East Broadway tenement, Detectives John J. Ward and Daniel Kelly of the Missing Persons Bureau, accompanied by Gilbert V. Wales, a reporter on the Daily Mirror, and Charles J. White, a photographer on the same newspaper, went there about 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Knocking at the door of a top floor room, later found to have been occupied by Lee Son and Ah Shin, they questioned a Chinese who came to the door, and searching the room found no trace of the girl. As they were about to leave, according to the detectives, the Chinese asked them to show their credentials. Detective Ward pulled out his shield, and, as he did so, he said, the Chinese grabbed it.

RIOT STARTS. This was the signal for a general outbreak, according to the detectives. In a moment the four white men found themselves surrounded by a crowd of Chinese who had run from several rooms in the house. The detectives whipped out their pistols and tried to force their way down the stairs, which were blocked by the Chinese.

Knives were wielded by the Chinese, the detectives said, and several shots were also fired by them. The detectives, trying to make a wedge in the wall of yellow men that barred their way to the street, fired more than a dozen shots themselves. During a struggle on a landing, Wales, the reporter, was struck over the head by a blackjack.

and Detective Ward was stabbed on the sidewalk. The sound of the shooting was heard by Patrolman O'Reilly, who sent in a call for the reserves. By the time the extra police had arrived the four white men had managed to push their way to the sidewalk. The reserves made a quick search of the house, and on the second floor found Hoch Un Lot wounded in the right leg by a bullet believed to have been fired by Detective Ward. They also arrested eight other Chinese.

IS AT OLD HOME AFTER 25 YEARS

Len Bonnell Comes From Saskatchewan as Mother is Ill

Conducts Large Ranch North of Winnipeg—Talks of Hudson Bay Plan

Len Bonnell, eldest son of Mrs. A. L. Bonnell, Ketepec, who hastened home from Tisdale, Sask., on account of his mother's illness in the General Public Hospital with pneumonia, had been absent from his homeland for 25 years, though he is yet on the sunny side of 50 by a wide margin.

HAS RANCH IN NORTH. The former Ketepec boy is grain farming, lumbering and engaged in agricultural work of various kinds on his large ranch 800 miles north of Winnipeg. His property, which he handsomely every year, is outside the growing town of Tisdale in which Mr. Bonnell takes residence in the winter time.

AT HUDSON'S BAY. Mr. Bonnell has visited the Hudson's Bay shipping centres, Fort Churchill and Port Nelson, so often mentioned in connection with the project, and is frank to admit he cannot see how Port Nelson would be able to become a safe and sure port because of the long periods of ice. Even Port Churchill was somewhat rimmed with ice for a large portion of the year, but the bay remained open, and in Mr. Bonnell's opinion the harbor there could be used continuously for all practical purposes of incoming and outgoing shipping.

He will remain amongst his people here until his mother is quite well again, and is going about visiting old friends and acquaintances with a great deal of joy. He is brother of Reginald Bonnell, commercial traveler; Allison Bonnell, manager of the Originals Dumbell Company, who hastened from Port William to his mother's bedside; Carl Bonnell, at home, and Mrs. W. H. Stubbs, of First street, who arrived home today from Florida because of her mother's illness. Mrs. Stubbs went South a few weeks ago with her aunt, Mrs. A. L. Peatman, who is attending to some business matters in connection with the estate of a sister who died here a few months ago while on a visit.

H. E. SIBSON HEADS PEERLESS LODGE

Installation of Officers of Odd Fellows Conducted by M. D. Brown

Reports submitted at the annual meeting of Peerless Lodge, No. 19, L. O. O. F., held last night in their hall, Simonds street, showed the lodge to be flourishing. The new officers were installed by M. D. Brown, deputy grand master, and plans for the activities of the coming year were discussed. There was a good attendance of members of the lodge and visiting members of the order.

The officers installed were: H. E. Sibson, N. G.; W. J. Seely, V. G.; M. D. Morrell, R. Sec. G.; O. Chase, F. Sec.; F. M. Smiler, Treas.; G. Blizard, warden; A. J. Fitzgerald, conductor; C. Jones, E. S.; R. Dickey, L. S. S.; U. G. Staples, chaplain; A. W. Burns, R. C. N. G.; E. H. Marshall, L. S. N. G.; W. Chipman, R. S. V. G.; W. A. Sprague, L. S. V. G.; A. B. Thorne, L. G.; W. Garnett, O. G.; W. A. Segee, J. P. G.

FORMER COURSE OF COUNCIL RECALLED

Action in Policeman O'Leary Case Precedent For Yesterday's Vote

In connection with the action of the Common Council yesterday in placing the name of Mrs. McCavour, widow of Police Officer S. P. McCavour, on the civic pay roll, it will be recalled that this is the second time the council has taken such action. On July 18, 1913, Special Officer Frank E. O'Leary was killed while on duty and the council on July 16, three days later, ordered the name of his mother, Mrs. Margaret O'Leary, placed on the pay roll. She was to receive the rate of the pay of the policemen. In June of 1916 the council decided that she was to receive the rate of pay in force at the time her son was killed.

DE MONTS MEETING. The monthly meeting of De Monts Chapter, L. O. E. E. was held this morning with Mrs. Leonard Tilley, regent, in the chair. The sum of $10 was voted toward the installation of a radio set for the benefit of the patients at the Lancaster Military Hospital. The meeting considered nominations for officers. Resolutions of sympathy were forwarded to Mrs. Fred B. Schofield and Miss Celia Armstrong in their recent bereavement.

STEAMSHIP REPORTED. The wireless station at Red Head reports: 8:30 a.m. Str. Schouwan, 60 miles south, bound for Saint John.

Local News

TO PRESENT PLAY. A cast of clever amateurs is now rehearsing the comedy drama, "Nothing But the Truth." It is to be presented in St. Vincent's auditorium on Feb. 1 and 2 under the auspices of the Y. M. C. I.

IS SERIOUSLY ILL. The condition of Mrs. R. S. Crisp, who is seriously ill at her home, 821 Douglas avenue, was unchanged this morning. Mrs. Crisp's many friends will hope for an early improvement in her health.

FOLLOWED RIGHT COURSE. In the Police Court record of yesterday it was stated that the three men given in charge by Moses McNulty on a charge of assaulting him at his home at Bay Shore, which is in the county, had been brought to the city police station in error. In justice to Sergeant O'Neil, it should be stated that the course he pursued was the only one open to him. In case of an arrest made by a city policeman the city jail is the proper place to take the one arrested.

VENDOR CASE DISMISSED. As announced in a later edition of The Times-Star yesterday the case against Harry Cohen, a licensed liquor vendor, charged with illegal selling of liquor, was dismissed yesterday afternoon when the complainant in the case failed to appear. The information was laid by Gustavus Duncan. Mr. Cohen was represented by C. J. Inches, K. C.

HARD ON MOTORS. The soft spell has caused havoc with motor traffic throughout the city. The slushy condition of the roads renders even some of the more powerful cars practically helpless on steep hills and in consequence there were many overturned engines and damaged wheel-chains. Sidewalk traffic was treacherous in the early morning but civic employees raked the worst places and are continuing in this work.

COASTING ACCIDENT. Walter Boudreau, a Clarence street small boy who ran into an automobile at the intersection of Union street and Wentworth street hill a few days ago while coasting, seems to have escaped any serious injury to his head. The boy was rendered unconscious by the impact and taken to the General Public Hospital in the automobile into which he bumped. He has been receiving out-patient treatment since and there happily appears to be no permanent injury.

ORANGE GATHERING AT EAST SAINT JOHN

Program Given by Courtenay Bay Lodge and Fairmount L. O. B. A.

An excellent musical and literary program was given in the United Church hall in East Saint John last night under the joint auspices of Fairmount L. O. B. A. and Courtenay Bay L. O. L., and was much enjoyed by a large audience. R. G. Magee was chairman and the numbers on the program were as follows: Vocal solo, W. McEachern; selection by an orchestra composed of Miss Marjorie Smith, pianist; Jacobson, violinist; E. Bridgen, drums; and J. F. Munro, banjo; reading, George Gordon; duet, J. McEachern and W. McEachern; selection of month organ and band by the Little River orchestra, Messrs. Green and Lewis, and reading, Mrs. J. F. Munro.

An address on Protestantism by Rev. A. L. Tedford was heard with much interest and appreciation, and hearty thanks was extended to Mr. Tedford. After the program refreshments were served and there was social enjoyment. Miss Violet Woods was pianist for the evening.

DEATH WAS SUDDEN

George Ernest Bissett, Formerly of West End, Was War Veteran

Friends in Saint John were shocked to hear of the sudden death of George Ernest Bissett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest F. Bissett, 184 Duke street, West Saint John, which occurred yesterday morning at Groton, Mass. No particulars of Mr. Bissett's sudden passing were given in the telegram received by his father. Mr. Bissett, who formerly resided here, is survived by his wife, who was Miss Hattie Wright, of Saint John, and a little son two and a half months old, also his parents, three sisters and a brother. The sisters are Miss Vivian, of the M. R. A. Ltd. staff, the Misses Meta and Margaret, and the brother is Daryl Bissett, at home.

Mr. Bissett was a veteran of the Great War, and a member of Carleton Union Lodge, No. 8, A. F. and A. M.

His father left last evening for Groton. The bereaved family have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in their sorrow.

CUT ORDINARY ONE

Donald Fraser, in City Today, Speaks of Lumber Operations of Season

"Prospects in the lumbering industry in the province are that the cut this year will be only an ordinary one as the saw mill business is not very good at the present time" was said this morning by Donald Fraser, president of Fraser's Ltd., when interviewed regarding the lumber situation. The cut thus far, he said, was about normal for this season and conditions in the woods at present were favorable for operations.

JACKSON GOES TO PEN; 2 YEARS

Given Concurrent Sentences by Judge Barry on Theft Charges

Geo. Fawcett Hearing Taken up—Collars Decide For Speedy Trials

William John Westley Jackson of Ontario, who was found guilty of theft, in the County Court yesterday, was sentenced by Judge J. A. Barry this morning to serve two years in Dorchester penitentiary on the charge of stealing a trunk and two years on a charge of stealing a suit of clothes, the terms to run concurrently.

TAXI MAN'S CASE. The evidence and argument of counsel in the case of George Fawcett, a taxi-driver, charged with procuring gifts for illicit purposes, were heard by Judge Barry and judgment reserved until next Tuesday. The crown added another count to the indictment this morning which brings in the element of gain to the accused from the alleged act. The defence argued that there was no procuring within the legal meaning of the word and that there was no evidence that Fawcett had actually arranged the party. J. Starr Tait appeared for the Crown and C. J. Melliday for the accused.

CHOOSE SPEEDY TRIALS. Mr. and Mrs. William I. Collier, sent up for trial recently on a charge of stealing $2,100 from a house in Pond street, appeared before Judge Barry this morning, and elected to be tried under the Speedy Trials Act. The matter will be heard later.
