A Smuggler's Narrative.

"We shall be, my dear madam," said I to a fellow-passenger in the Dieppe boat, taking out my watch, but keeping my eye steadily upon her, "we shall be in less than ten minutes at the custom house." A spasm—a flicker from the guilt within—glanced over her countenance.

"You look very good-natured, sir," stammered she.

"I bowed, and I looked considerably more so, in order to invite her confidence.

"It was to tell you a secret, which I find it too much to keep to myself, oh, would you keep it inviolable?"

"I know it, my dear madam—I know it already," said I, smiling; "it is late, is it not?"

She uttered a little shriek, and, yes, she had got it there among the cushions. She thought it had been sticking to you, see, unknown to her.

"Oh sir," cried she, "it is only ten pounds worth, please to forgive me, and I'll never do it again. As it is, I think I shall expire."

"My dear madam," replied I, sternly but kindly, "here is the pier, and the officer has fixed his eye upon us. I rushed up the ladder like a lamp-lighter; I pointed out that woman to a legitimate authority; I accompanied her upon her way, in custody, to the searching-house. I did not see her searched, but I saw what was found, and I saw her fined, and dismissed with ignominy."

Then, having generously given up my emoluments as informant to the subordinate officials, I hurried off in search of the betrayed woman to her hotel. I gave her twice the value of that which she had lost. I paid her fine, and then I explained, "You madam, had ten pounds' worth of smuggled goods about your person; I had nearly fifty times that amount. I turned informer, madam, let me assist you, for to a state of both of us. You have too expressive a countenance, believe me, and the officer would have found you out at all events, even as I did myself. Are you satisfied, my dear madam? If you still feel aggrieved or injured by me in any way, pray take more lace, here is lots of it. We parted the best of friends.—[Foreign Paper.]

The House of a Turkish Lady.

These rooms were prettiest of all, and looking out to the garden. They were hung with pale blue silk. The general tint of the room was like the others; for the lady inhabitant had been a present from the Sultan, and I suppose the materials that her apartments be better furnished and adorned than all the rest. Her bedroom was charmingly fitted up; a deep alcove covered with rich Persian carpets, filled with luxurious cushions and embroidered coverlets, taking up one side of it. On the other side was a light green and gold bedstead, covered with gauze curtains. The toilet-table was extremely pretty, dressed with muslin and lace, after our fashion; a Persian looking glass, shaped like a sun-dial, in mother-of-pearl, hanging above it. The ceiling was painted with a trellis-work of birds, leaves and flowers. Three steps led into the cool and shady garden. Opposite the alcove were doors; one led into a sitting-room, hung with the same blue silk, and furnished with richly cushioned divans; the other opened into a beautiful white marble bath, the air still heavy with steam and perfume.—[Mrs. Hornby.]

Artificial Stone.

A new combination of mineral substances for the production of artificial stone has been provisionally specified by Mr. F. Pala, of Haverstock Hill. The invention has reference to the production of artificial stone for ornamental and other purposes, and consists in the combination of powdered emery, flint glass, ruby, diamond, melted alumina, oxide of iron, or similar hard mineral substances, with proportionate quantities of lime, barites, plaster of Paris, or chalk, and silicate of potash and soda powdered in solution, or in a semi-fluid state. For the production of stone for lithographic or ornamental purposes, he combines lime or chalk powder with silicate of potash or soda, or otherwise, to which coloring matter may be directed as required; and for meerschaum mixes carbonate of magnesia or oxide of magnesia, or a mixture of both, with a silicate of potash, soda, or otherwise, to which may be added small quantities of slaked lime, chalk or clay. Either of the above compositions may be pressed into moulds, warm or cold, to give it the required shape, and render it close and compact.

Bachelors in France, who, being of a certain age, live on their patrimonial estates, can spend very little money. For instance, in the matter of dress, they have very little delicacy. They appear—no matter where—in a suit of clothes that the wafers—not to mention their half-starved domestics—have long since entered a claim to. They are not ashamed to drive the most rickety old shadrach of a cabriolet, because everybody in the neighborhood knows it is M. Dumensil, and looks at him rather than his conveyance. Lastly, if they assemble their friends in their own park, they mind very little if the arrangements be not in Parisian taste or Parisian luxury. All they care for is to have something amusing for their friends, however it may be arranged.—[Behind the Scenes in Paris.]

Hong Kong, Aug. 9.

The act of the California Legislature regarding Chinese immigration, forbidding any to enter the State after the first of October, puts an additional obstacle in the way of employment for vessels. I do not certainly know that the act can be carried out, rather it may be a doubtful point whether it is constitutional or not. While England and America have been compelling the Chinese to throw open the doors of their empire, they have used their greatest efforts to prevent the ingress of Eastern nations to their own dominions, and their acts of exclusion stand out in striking contrast with their over-impetuous demand. The time seems far distant when remunerative rates for larger ships shall again be obtained, and until such occurs it only remains to endeavor to pay their expenses.

A letter from Constantinople describes the atrocities committed by the Montenegrins on Turkish soldiers.—The 6th Regiment, which was present at the affair of Gracova, and of which only 700 men remained, has arrived at Constantinople, and is quartered in the barracks of the sash-kerat. Many of these men show the frightful and disgusting marks of the cruel mutilations to which they were subjected by the Montenegrins. By a refinement of cruelty the latter cut off the hands of the musicians and of the drummers, in order to prevent them from using their instruments in future.

The Earthquake at Lisbon.

Reading of the late terrible disaster at Naples, brought to my recollection two circumstances—both curious in their way—connected with the earthquake at Lisbon in the year 1755. A very elderly friend of mine, years ago, has often told me, that at her aunt's house in London both she and her relative saw the quicksilver jump "quickly up and down several times." A note was made at the time, which was afterwards found to correspond with the opening shock. I have also heard that the water in Loon Ness, at that particular time, rose, rose some seven or eight feet higher than it was ever known to do either before or since.—[Notes and Queries.]

THE POPULATION OF PHILADELPHIA.—It is computed by the North American that Philadelphia has a population of between 610,000 and 625,000, and that it increases, and has increased, since 1850, at about the rate of five per cent per annum, calculated upon the actual number at the commencement of each year.

European Intelligence.

Arrival of the America.

HALIFAX, NOV. 4, 1853. The America, Captain Millar, from Liverpool, at 10 o'clock on the 23rd, arrived at Halifax at midnight, Wednesday, Nov. 3rd. The America experienced unfavorable weather during the first five days of the passage. On the 1st, saw steamer, supposed "Glasgow," bound west. The "North Britain" arrived at Liverpool at ten of the night of the 20th. Quebec withdrawn for the season. Commence monthly service to Portland on the 17th November; next spring they commence weekly trips. The "City of Washington" arrived out on the 22d.

The projectors of the Galway line purchased the screw steamer "Circassian," she takes the place of the "Prince Albert," from Galway on the 26th.

The correspondence between Lever and Hamilton, Secretary of Treasury, on the subject of the subsidy for the Galway line, and the renewal of Conard's contract is published. The latter says the extension of the Conard contract was assented to in March last, but there is nothing in it to interfere with the arrangements for postal service, via Galway, and says that Conard has undertaken increased services, and submitted to additional conditions. A deputation had proceeded from Liverpool to London to see Conard on the subject of a trans-Atlantic station in the Eastman.

A telegram from Valencia reached London on the 20th, stating that intelligible signals were again being received from Newfoundland through Cable; the signals were very distinct and the words received were "Daniels now in circuit," activity was at once given to use the Daniels' battery likewise at Valencia. In his letter to the press announcing the gratifying fact, Seward, the Secretary of the Company says: "This however, though encouraging, must not be regarded as a permanent state of things, as it still clear there is a serious fault in the cable, while at the same time it is not at present absolutely clear that any except the most extraordinary and to the cable dangerous efforts can be made, more especially on this side, to overcome the existing obstacles in the way of perfect working." Said company will probably send out one of Hemley's new powerful magneto-electric machines to Newfoundland. Shares rallied from three fifty to four hundred with sales at three sixty and sixty five.

The London "Times" continues to attack Commissioner Reed for his part in Chinese negotiations, characterizing him as the cat's paw of Russia. The "Times" eulogizes the diplomacy of the Russian minister, and says that the treaty he obtained deserves to be ranked among the highest order of diplomatic papers.

Queen Victoria and Court arrived at Windsor from Balmoral.

It has been finally agreed with consent of four fifths of the shareholders of the Great Eastern, that the original company should be dissolved and a new one formed, and that the cost of building and launching the ship would be six hundred and forty thousand pounds should in the new company be reduced one half.

Bank of England continued to abstain from reducing rate of discount, notwithstanding great ease in money market; loans on stock exchange obtainable on Government securities at one per cent; in discount minimum was two.

VERY LATEST TELEGRAPH FROM LIVERPOOL.

It is believed that to-morrow the result of negotiation at Lisbon will be known and favorable solution firmly expected. La Presse of last night reports, with reserve, rumors of an insurrection in Serbia, and believes Austria is disposed to intervene for interests of Europe.

Greek Christians in Bosnia who have been committing terrible outrages on Musselman population, have a belief they will be supported by France and Russia in a dismemberment of the Turkish empire and formation of a Greek Constantinopolitan state. The "Constitutional" says that the Ottoman barriers of Paris will shortly be extended to the fortifications.

FRANCE.—French Portuguese question in status quo, the "Coligny" had arrived in the Tagus with the French attached on board, but no definite arrangements come to. Considerable modifications in recent stringent passports henceforth as title to aid and cause for delays and annoyances.

PARIS, FRIDAY.—There are reports that Portugal was not disposed to concede demands of France. M. de Bismarck charged with despatches for French Minister at Lisbon, arrived in that city, and delivered his instructions. M. de Piva, the Portuguese Minister was to arrive on the 24th at Lisbon. Three per cents further declined closing 72, to 88. "Two more French men-of-war arrived in the Tagus."

SWITZERLAND.—Council of State of Geneva had formally declined in letter to Federal Council to remove certain foreigners from Geneva.

FIRST EMPLOYMENT OF COAL AS FUEL.

As an evidence of the vast difficulty experienced by introducers of new articles, we may mention a fact in relation to the employment of the useful material of coal as fuel. When coal was first introduced into England as a fuel, the prejudice against it was so strong that the Commons petitioned the Crown to prohibit the noxious fuel. A royal proclamation having failed to abate the nuisance, a commission was issued to ascertain who burned coal within the city of London and its neighborhood, and to punish them by fine for the first offence, and by demolition of their furnaces if they persisted in transgressing. A law was finally passed making it a capital offence to burn coal in the city, and only permitting it to be used in the forges in the vicinity. It is stated that among the records in town of London, a document was once found purporting that in the time of Edward I. a man had been tried, convicted and executed for the crime of burning coal in London! It took three centuries to entirely erase this prejudice.

A Horrible Shipwreck.

WOMAN AND CHILD PROBABLY STARVED TO DEATH.—New York, Oct. 30.—New Orleans papers of Sunday contain the following: Capt. Farley of ship Wm. Singer, arrived yesterday from London, says that on the 26th of September last, in lat. 38 44, lon 45 57 he discovered a wreck to the northward which proved to be the bark—Mayflower—of New York, with her bulwarks, gone and nothing standing but her mizen mast. On sending a boat on board they found human bones strewn about the deck, and the bodies of a woman and child in the last stages of decomposition.

The only articles on board which could be identified, were a bundle of shirts, socks and handkerchiefs marked "A" in red, and "B. D. J." and "J. D. J." in blue thread; a chronometer dial marked "two days"; Lloyett, Leadhall at London—No. 279; and several articles of little value, belonging to the master or mate, and a silver watch "No. 9059, G. J. Cran, maker, London." She was loaded with stone, and had evidently been boarded before, as she was stripped to the gunwales.

The Mayflower was capsized August 3, lat. 41 lon 44 on the voyage from New Orleans for Bordeaux.

Capt. Platt and seven others were saved, and fifteen persons, with the captain's wife, were lost. She had nine passengers.

MARINE DISASTER.—New York Oct. 31.

Ship Dr. Barth, Capt. Meyer, of and for Hamburg, has returned to this port, and reports having experienced a terrible E. N. E. gale on the 25th which drove her on her beam ends; the vessel working very badly, was obliged to cut away main and mizen (mast) to right the ship; then found the cargo was shifted and nearly five feet of water in the hold; the gale lasted till the 28th, during which splintered, stove wheel-house and bulwarks—had decks swept and received other damage; after its abatement the pumps had to be kept in continued motion for 48 hours to free the vessel.

On the 15th in lat. 38 45, lon. 67, at 4 P. M., fell in with a boat from the brig Kalsolah, of Halifax, containing Capt. Hayes and crew, in all 17 persons, of that vessel who requested to be taken on board, as their vessel was a perfect wreck. They were received on board and brought to this port.—Captain Hayes reports that he sailed from Cuba, with a cargo of 100 puncheons of rum, for St. John's, N. F., consigned to Stubb & Co. of that place, and on the 24th of October, at 4 P. M., in a heavy gale from N. E. the vessel was holed on her beam ends, which shifted cargo, carrying away the fore-mast in the step, which tore up the decks badly; about half an hour after cut away mainmast by the deck, when she righted with about six feet of water in her hold.—The fore-mast, while lying alongside, stove a large hole in the vessel, causing the water to rush in at a rapid rate, which was with difficulty partly stopped. Capt. H. and crew remained on deck, subsisting on the damaged provisions until the 28th, when they succeeded in reaching the Doctor Barth.—They saw the ship at midnight of the 27th, but the weather would not permit of their leaving the wreck.

PREACHING UNDER DIFFICULTIES.

There is a Presbyterian place of worship on the eight Avenue, New York, in which preaching is carried on under rather disadvantageous circumstances. It appears that almost adjoining it is a German lager-beer and dancing saloon, which is kept in full blast on Sundays. There, half a dozen sturdy Teutons blow away as if for dear life, and the noise of shuffling and dancing, and the clanging of lager-beer glasses, is the only thing that breaks the silence of the Sabbath, that usually quiet neighborhood. It was bad enough to have the Sunday newsboys, bawling their wares in huzch doors, but when it comes to the horrid grunting of trombones and the screeching of clarionets and piccolos, then it is beyond all endurance. A correspondent writes that it is quite useless to attempt to listen to a sermon on the announcement while the minister is endeavouring to make himself heard above the strains of a band who are endeavouring to excite the dancers by Strauss' Waltzes.

EXTRAORDINARY COMPROMISE.

At the last Durham assizes, a very deaf old lady who brought an action for damages against a neighbor, was being examined, when the judge suggested a compromise and instructed counsel to ask her what she would take to settle matters. What will you take? the gentleman in the bobtail asked of the old lady. The old lady only shook her head. "His lordship wants to know what will you take?" asked the counsel again. This time bawling as loud as he could in the old lady's ear. "I thank his lordship kindly," the ancient dame answered stoutly; "and if it is no ill convenience to him, I'll take a little warm ale."

A SLIGHT HINT.—An editor out West thus talks to his non-paying subscribers: "Wagons cannot run without wheels, boats without steam, buffaloes jump without legs, or newspapers be carried on evanescently without money no more than a dog can wag his tail when no man's got none. Our subscribers are all good, but what good does a man's goodness do when it don't do any good. We have no doubt every one thinks that all have paid except him, and as we are a clever fellow and his a little mator it will make no difference."

ELEMENT AND ROBBERY IN TORONTO.

A man named Lewis Dunn, a partner for a hotel in Toronto, closed on Monday 15th inst., with the wife of Mr. John Osborne of the Union Hotel of that city. The guilty pair carried off with them $250 belonging to Osborne. It appears they went westward by the Grand Trunk afternoon train, the woman riding out in a buggy to Weston, and there joining the carriage Dunn, it was found, had taken tickets for London, but by making use of the telegraph, it was ascertained that they had left the train at Guelph, and put up for the night at Thorp's Hotel. The Police authorities there were telegraphed late on Monday night, and by this time, time they have doubtless been arrested. Dunn was about twenty-eight years of age. The woman is about thirty, and has been married for some years, but has no family.

It is a Chinese maxim, that for every man who does not work, and for every woman that is idle, somebody must suffer cold or hunger.

The crew of a sailing boat threw out all her ballast. She was consequently upset—destroyed by lightning.

It is a remarkable fact that however well young ladies may be versed in grammar, very few of them can decline matrimony.

"Shall I have your hand?" said an exquisite to a belle, as the dance was about to commence. "With all my heart," was the soft response.

"Dan," said a little four year old, giving ten cents to buy a monkey. "We have one monkey in the house now, said his elder brother."

"Who is it?" said the little fellow. "You," was the reply.

"Then give me ten cents to buy the monkey some candy."

ARRIVAL OF THE CIRCASSIA.

St. John's, N. F., Nov. 26, 1858. The Steamship Circassian, which left Galway on the 26th ult., arrived at Newfoundland on the 5th of November. The Arabia reached Liverpool at 10 p. m. on the 24th. Steamers Hudson for Bremen put into Southampton on the 23rd, for coals.

British War Steamer Gorgon, arrived at Plymouth on the 22nd from Halifax and Falmouth. The Gorgon took soundings for another line of Atlantic Telegraph from banks of Newfoundland to the entrance of English Channel, near Falmouth.

The Daily News says Atlantic Steam Company, Galway line, received by the City of Washington, applications from America for stock to the extent of £50,000. Stock added to subscription already made exceeds required capital.

British Board of Trade returns for year ending September 30, show decrease in exports during past nine months of over nine millions, 400,000 pounds.

French breadstuffs—markets all continue dull. Portuguese government deliver the Charles George to France, declaring it yielded only to threatened employment of force. Paris Patrie says Portugal yielded not from fear but wisdom.

PRUSSIA. First Chamber rejected by eighty to seventy-six, a proposition made to send an address to the King and Prince Regent.

TURKEY. The American frigate Washburn arrived at Constantinople on the 11th inst. A letter says, as America is not included in the Treaty, the Washburn has been allowed to come up, although she far exceeds the size of vessel allowed to pass the Dardanelles.

CAPE GOOD HOPE. Steamship Eastern City destroyed by fire at sea on the 21st August. All the crew with the exception of one engineer and one passenger saved by the ship Merchantman, which since arrived at the Cape Town.

WARNING TO THE UNACCLIMATED.—The New Orleans Courier relates the following incidents as a warning to the unacclimated to stay away from that city during the epidemic.

"On Monday last a gentleman coming into the city from Osyka, found himself sitting a ris with a company of strangers in whom he became interested. On inquiry he found the party consisted of four youths of Kentucky, going to New Orleans to seek their fortune. 'Are you not afraid of the fever?' said our friend. 'We did not know of the danger when we started,' was the reply.

"I advise you, said our friend, to take the return cars for Jackson, or you will doubtless soon be occupants of our grave yard.' We would rather die than go back,' was the answer. They came. Our friend followed them to their boarding house, and watched their fate. Three of them have been buried; the fourth cannot survive. Incidents like the foregoing are not, unfortunately, rare. They occur during every epidemic, and will, we suppose, occur during every succeeding epidemic for all time to come.

Even sadder incidents are frequently brought to the attention of the actively philanthropic and benevolent.

LEFT A FORTUNE TO HIS BROTHER.—Tuesday night last, John W. Craig, of Helena, Ark., died at Louisville. He left a will bequeathing to Miss Wright, of Louisville, daughter of Capt. T. T. Wright, to whom he was betrothed, half of the annual income of his estate—making an annuity of $20,000. He desires in his will that the remaining half of his income shall be devoted to the improvement of his estate, and after her death the whole property is to go to the endowment of a college at Helena. The will is contested by his relatives.

We learn from the Boston Traveller that the Sunday Schools in Massachusetts are attended by the following number of scholars:

PROVINCIAL APPOINTMENTS.

Charles Connell, Esquire, M. P. P., to be a member of the Executive Council. William J. M. Hanington, Esquire to be a Coroner in the County of Westmorland.

By His Excellency's Command. S. L. TILLEY, Secretary's Office, 28th Oct. 1858.

PROVINCIAL APPOINTMENTS.—The Honorable Charles Connell to be Postmaster General, vice the Honorable John M. Johnson Junior, resigned.

The Honorable John M. Johnson Junior, to be Commissioner of Authentication Debentures issued under the Act 19th Victoria, Chapter 16.

By His Excellency's Command. S. L. TILLEY, Secretary's Office, 2nd Nov. 1858.

In an article on Prince Edward Island, and its places among the Eastern Provinces, one of the papers of that colony says—

A knowledge of the wants of the neighboring regions and of their measure of ability to supply these wants, compared with the surplus of our natural products, reveals the important fact that Prince Edward Island's great duty is to supply chiefly the deficiencies of Newfoundland, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick; and a glance at the map shows that during seven or eight months of the year, the only period really necessary, she has the most ample facilities.

What Egypt was to the Roman Empire, what Russia has been to the West of Europe, and what Western Canada and the Middle States are now to the States and Provinces of the Atlantic Sea-board, Prince Edward Island should be to these Eastern Provinces, their richly supplied granary. We are admirably placed in the centre, and our fertile fields should pour their golden contents into half-filled storehouses east and west, north and south. Should this duty be fully discharged, we must become rich. Our mode of conveyance should be improved. Why should we not have a railroad even within our limited territory? A line should stretch from Southport to Georgetown from which steam communication with Halifax and eventually with Sydney and St. John N. F. should be opened; another line should run north to Summerside to connect this City with New Brunswick. This would be a work for which our government might well borrow money, and for which the people should be willing to pay taxes. These lines would diffuse life and activity through our Island.

FIRE AT GRAND MANAN.—We learn from the Morning News that on Wednesday the 27th ult., a fire broke in the Fishing Establishment of Mr. Lorenzo Drake, which completely destroyed the buildings and a large quantity of Fish and Provision. Two schooners lying at the wharf, aground, were with difficulty saved.

The Islander announces the arrival at Prince Edward Island of F. N. Gibbons, Esq., from Newfoundland, and says that he is on business connected with the subject of laying another Atlantic Telegraph Cable between Europe and America, the terminus on this side the water to be at Halifax.

ANOTHER CONSULAR CHANGE IN THE UNITED STATES.—Mr. Barlar, who distinguished himself as British Vice Consul at Naples during the trial of the English engineers captured in the "Cagliari," does not take possession of the Consulate at Richmond, Virginia to which he was appointed in succession to Mr. G. R. P. James. He is to fill a vacancy in the Island of Candia, which in view of the virulent antagonism towards Christians manifested by the Mahomedans in the Levant and throughout the East, has been changed from a comparatively sinecure to a post of serious responsibility.

To the state of Virginia Mr. George Moore is now nominated, being transferred thither from the quiet city of Ancona, in the Papal States, which has been his official residence for the long period of twenty two years.—[New York Albion.

Some of the Baptists of New York, it is rumored, have offered Spurgeon the preacher $10,000 and his expenses, if he would make a six months' tour in this country.

The public voice has at length proved potent with the Executive, the government cards have been shuffled, and high trump has turned up in the hand of Charles Connell, Esq., Member for Carleton. This gentleman was sworn in on Tuesday last as an Executive Councillor, and on the resignation of the Hon. J. M. Johnson, as Postmaster General. It only remains for the constituency of Carleton to ratify the appointment by re-electing the newledged Hon., which will doubtless be done by a large majority. Mr. Connell enters upon his official duties fully informed by the press as the short coinings of his predecessor in office, and he must be necessarily sensible that with him, even a far less degree of negligence, inattention, and absence from his post will be attended with an increased expression of opinion, and a still louder call for his removal from his situation. In fact, unless prompt remedies are applied to remove the grievances complained of, and an assurance afforded to the public that his office is not to be made a sinecure and his authority delegated to irresponsible subordinates, the country will be aroused to demand from the Government a thorough revision of the whole Postal establishment, and the placing of it on a footing commensurate with the liberal expenditure granted to secure efficiency, and to be beyond the cease-awing of political necessities.

The Hon. J. M. Johnson retains his seat as an Executive Councillor, and he has been gazetted as "Commissioner for Authentication of Debentures."—[Courier.

A YOUNG LADIES' SCHOOL. To the Editor of the Standard. SIR.—I notice in the news papers from time to time, criticisms on the School Law, pointing out its defective provisions and absurdities. Would it not be better for you gentlemen of the Press to suggest remedies and advocate a higher qualification in the Teachers of our Common Schools, both male and female. There is an abundance of teachers, but few and far between are those of both sexes, competent to teach superior schools. In a Province where such a large sum is expended annually for educational purposes, this ought not to be the case; but nevertheless it is so. And I am sorry to say that in a place containing somewhere about 3,000 inhabitants, there is no School for young ladies, or if that term does not suit—no finishing school for young girls. I know of parents who were obliged to send their daughters out of the Town to obtain a respectable education; there are others, however, who have not the means of doing so, and they are by far the larger number. It is to be hoped that some competent female teacher will be induced to open a school here; I could ensure her a large and respectable school, at remunerative tuition fees. Do advertise for one, and as I enclose my name, you can rely upon my exerting myself in the matter. Trusting that this may stir up others on the subject, I am yours, A PARENT.

Our friend "A Parent" has our best wishes for success in getting up a good female school, and we will send some papers containing his letter to places, where it will answer as an advertisement.—[ST. STAND.

SCOTCH CHURCH. The repairs on the inside of Scotch Church having been completed, Divine Service will be held on Sabbath next, at usual hour.

It is difficult to legislate to suit the mass, there are such a diversity of interests involved, that it is impossible to suit all parties. Some few years since a Bankrupt Act passed the Legislature, and many of the unfortunate in business availed themselves of its provisions, and having received a Certificate, commenced business again. A few of those persons, to their honour be it recorded, paid every claim against them, when they were able. But a hue and cry was raised then about the law, and the consequence was it was repealed.—Last Session, the Chancellor as it is called, or more properly speaking, an Act for the relief of Insolvent Debtors, framed by Mr. Chandler, passed the Legislature, and has been taken advantage of by a large number of persons in almost every County in the Province. It appears, however, that like the old Bankrupt law, it does not give satisfaction—in fact, it is viewed in the light of an inducement to dishonest persons to get clear of paying their honest debts. The press complains of the fraud practised through its working—that it protects the Debtor, but ignores the Creditor. That in some cases dishonest debtors will take advantage of the act, to sweep away their debts and thereby avoid paying them may be true, yet there are many honest men, who, owing to the panic of last year, were unable to pay their debts. Those men in some cases have sought relief through this Act; and we trust they may obtain it. The law is defective, and what human law is not defective? It is probable that at the next Session of the Legislature it will either be repealed or amended.

RAISING OF BLOOD.—This alarming symptom may arise from congestion of the lungs, from impoverishment of the blood, or from incipient pulmonary disease. THE PERUVIAN SYRUP is an excellent remedy for all such conditions as it equalizes the circulation, purifies and enriches the blood, and by its tonic and alterative powers, arrests the disease in the lungs when not beyond the reach of medicine.

Life Association of Scotland. NINETEENTH REPORT.

THE Nineteenth Annual Meeting of the Association was held within the Head Office, on the 31st August current, in terms of the Charter and Act of Parliament—SIR JAMES FORBES, Bart., of Comiston, in the Chair. There were submitted to the Meeting the Annual Report by the Directors on the Progress of the business; the Report of the Auditor, Mr. W. Wood, Accountant; and the Balance Sheet, of the Accounts certified in terms of the Act of Parliament; with other statements of the affairs, as at 31st April last the date of balance. Notwithstanding the general depression of commercial affairs the progress of the Association during the past year has been greater than in any former year, with only one exception. The applications for new Life Assurances during the year were 1247 for £666,483 of which the Directors accepted 1066 for £567,244. The Annual Premiums being 18,811 Annuities on 24 lives were purchased for £25,198, per annum, at the price of £9487, 7s. The Policies that became claims of the Association by deaths during the year amounted to 85 for £13,865. The total Assurances since the commencement of the business amount to nearly FIVE MILLION POUNDS. The Annual income is now ONE HUNDRED AND THIRTY EIGHT THOUSAND POUNDS; upwards of £20,000, being collected through the London Branch. The Policy Holders entitled to participate in the Profits, who completed their fifth year before the date of balance, will be entitled to a Reduction of 5s per cent. (7s per cent.) from their next Annual Premiums. From the increasing wealth and importance of British North America, as well as the example of other Assurance Offices, the Directors have for some time entertained the idea of establishing Branches there. They have been enabled since last meeting to accomplish this. A deputation from the Directors visited the West Indies, and secured the co-operation of influential gentlemen in each Province. Although the Branches have been in operation only for a few months, the transactions have already been considerable, as a most satisfactory description. Special thanks are due to the gentlemen acting as Directors, Agents, and Medical Officers, who have already interested themselves much in the Association's affairs, and through whose exertions there is every prospect of permanent success. The Report by the Board of Directors was unanimously approved. The vacancies in the Board were then filled up, and after special votes of thanks to the Directors at the Head Office and Branches, and the Agents, Medical Officers, Manager, &c., the Meeting separated.
