The silver-lead mine owners of British Columbia had an interview with the members of the Government, when they renewed their demand for the imposition of a scale of duties on steel.

Eugene J. Connel, who on Friday night, at Chicago, in a fit of jealousy, shot and almost instantly killed Miss Jessie Dwyer, painfully injured her cousin, Frank, who was with him, and then shot himself, died Saturday.

A large deputation of Hamiltonians waited on the Minister of Militia Thursday evening in reference to the forming of a Militia regiment there. The minister gave a promise of the most serious consideration of the matter.

French bakers in Montreal have decided to raise the price of bread 2 cents a loaf after the 1st of February.

Chief Justice Meredith decided the action of the London Life Insurance Company vs. Molsons Bank in favor of the defendant.

The death occurred at Sunderland, Ont., on Friday, after a lingering illness, of J. B. Vallentyne, head of the firm of Vallentyne & Co., bankers, and vice-president of the Consolidated Copper Company. He was 62 years of age.

It is understood that the mayor of Toronto has arranged with the Dominion Government for taking over the whole of Garrison commons for the purpose of enlarging the exhibition grounds. The militia department will be given another site for the fort.

The verdict carries with it a sentence of life imprisonment. Stanton's defense was that the shooting was accidental. He told his story of the affair in a straightforward manner, without hesitation or self-contradiction, but the jury refused to believe him and convicted him of intentional homicide.

Bold Robbery at Cleveland.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 19.-W. A. Scott, a jeweler of New Cumberland, W. Va., was robbed of money and jewelry valued at $2,000 yesterday. Scott, who is a paralytic and lives over his store alone, was awakened by three masked bandits, who bound and gagged him and then blew his safe open and secured the booty.

SEPARATION OF ROYAL COUPLE HAS BEEN FINALLY ARRANGED

Saxon Crown Prince to Pay Wife $7,500 a Year.

RARE OLD BIBLICAL MANUSCRIPT

Was Discovered in Syria, Written in 731 A. D.-Lawyer Killed in a Duel.

London, Jan. 19.-The legal representatives of the Crown Prince and Crown Princess of Saxony have arranged the terms for their separation. The princess abandons all the titles, rights and dignities appertaining to her through her marriage and resumes her maiden name. The crown prince has expressed his willingness to pay her $7,500 yearly. The agreement does not mention the right of the crown prince to see her children.

Commissary Schwartz, who was employed by the Dresden court to dog the prince's, has returned to Berlin. He says he was simply instructed not to let sight of her and to report her movements. He had no warrant for her arrest, as had been stated. He was received three times by the princess, but ignored Giron. He describes the princess as being extremely downcast. She had been in a state of long standing. On one of his visits he found her crying over the picture of her children.

VIOLENT ELEMENT IN LONDON.

Several London newspapers-notably the Daily Mail and the Daily Express-continue their agitation against the growth of the vicious foreign element in London's population. The large percentage of lawbreakers of this class has been for a long time noticeable in the police courts. B-side, certain streets in London are at the present time more than ever infested by foreign women, who ply their trade by day and night, for they apparently have no moral sense to which to appeal.

A lady familiar with several continental languages recently stopped the first twelve of these women in a central London street, and learned their stories. Four were French, two Germans, two Polish and only two English.

RARE OLD MANUSCRIPT.

What is said to be the oldest Biblical manuscript extant was lately discovered in Syria, and is now in safe keeping at Cairo. It comprises the Pentateuch, written in Samaritan characters on gazelle parchment, and its date is the year 116 of the Moslem era, which is equivalent to the year 731, A. D.

It is declared to be far older than any of the Hebrew Biblical manuscripts in the libraries of Europe or America. It is stated that the oldest manuscript in the British Museum is of the year 1335, A. D., and this hitherto been supposed to be the oldest in the world.

The newly discovered manuscript contains immediately after the Decalogue a passage of about fifteen lines that do not exist in the authorized version. It is said that this passage is likely to clear up several long-disputed points.

FATAL DUEL.

Lieut. Werner von Grawert, son of the lieutenant-general of that name, shot Dr. Aye, a lawyer of Flensburg, through the neck, cutting the spinal cord, in a duel on Friday in the Grunewald Forest. Death ensued immediately.

The dead man, who was an officer of the army reserve, leaves a widow and five children. The cause of the quarrel was obscure, but long standing. The duel occurred in pursuance of the findings of a military court of honor.

Lieut. von Grawert surrendered himself to the military authorities.

BAIFOUR NEEDS A REST.

The physical condition of Prime Minister Balfour is a subject of serious concern to his physicians and friends.

The question is whether he will yield to the imperative necessity of taking a long rest, which would practically involve his resignation.

WANT BETTER RELATIONS.

The Paris correspondent of the London Times, commenting upon the altered tone of the better class of French papers towards England, and especially towards Secretary Chamberlain, since the South African war, advocates the cultivation of more friendly relations between the two peoples. He says that differences in the past benefited only the third parties, and were indeed promoted by Germany as a part of a deliberate policy. Germany's success in the war was helped by the blunders of the governments, although to some degree by the mistakes of the press. The French are far too proud to have been able to hear a situation wherein they saw a deliberate attempt by Germany to make mischief between England and the United States, as she had done between England and France.

CRIME IN GERMANY.

Criminal statistics for 1902 of the German Empire have just come to hand. These show an increase in crime over the previous year. The total number of convictions reached 47,300, which is 27,500 more than in 1901.

The increase is also marked in the number of deaths by crime, and robbery, but this, it is said, is due to the want caused by the general trade depression. A large increase is noted in the number of suicides, and public order. Probably the largest increase is in the crimes where bodily injury is inflicted. These have risen from 93,999 in 1901 to 98,000 in the past year. Juvenile offenders are also on the increase.

APPEAL TO PRES'T ROOSEVELT REGARDING COAL SITUATION

Resolution Passed by Central Federated Union.

WANT COAL COMBINE DISSOLVED

Alabama Sends Coal to New York- Toledo Mob Help Themselves to Several Carloads.

Alabama Sends Coal to New York- Toledo Mob Help Themselves to Several Carloads.

New York, Jan. 19.-In view of the suffering of the poorer classes because of the scarcity of coal, a resolution has been unanimously adopted by the Central Federated Union, which, after drawing attention to the "unhappy widespread distress and suffering among the inhabitants of this city caused by the rapacious greed and lust for gold of the men who control and distribute the coal which is necessary to preserve the health and comfort of its citizens," calls upon Attorney-General Cunniff "to press an early dissolution of the power of this combination of coal interests and render them unable to further oppress the people of this state."

The resolution also requests President Roosevelt to instruct United States Attorney-General Knox to proceed at once against the coal trust under the law. It also declares in favor of the ownership of coal mines to be operated for and by the people, and requests President Roosevelt to call the executive council of the American Federation of Labor to have all central bodies under their jurisdiction call mass meetings and agitate to the end that a reformation of the present intolerable state of affairs will be impossible.

COAL FROM OVER THE SEA.

London, Jan. 19.-Four steamers loaded with coal sailed from Blyth (Northumberland) today for America. The coal trade of Northumberland has been much stimulated by the American demand.

RUSHING IT ON.

New York, Jan. 19.-The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, Erie and New York, Ontario and Western Railroads had men working all day Sunday at their terminal points, handling anthracite, of which large shipments have come in during the last two days. Good progress was made in unloading cars, which came here with the coal frozen together in a mass, and large dethe United States have done so, he would guarantee that the consumer would get the benefit of the reduction in price by 50 cents. He explains that the Nova Scotians' objections are due to a fear that the United States might suddenly reimpose the duty, and that mine owners on that account fear to incur the expense in constructing facilities for handling increased shipments in New England. Nova Scotians, he says, are afraid of losing a sure Montreal market for an uncertain New England market. He believes, however, that Montreal consumers would be greatly benefited by the removal of the duty.

COAL IN DISGUISE.

Detroit, Jan. 17.-There have been 25 or 30 cars of coal shipped from the Michigan Central tracks, between Smith's coal dock and the Detroit Southern tracks, in delay for the past two days. All bear the labels of corn or oats. A railway man who played peek-a-booo discovered that the supposed grain was, in fact, coal anthracite, with every car checked.

CRUISER SHELLED VENEZUELAN FORT

The German Warship's Fire Was Returned and Vessel Had to Withdraw.

Maracaibo, Venezuela, Jan. 18.-The German cruiser Panther shelled Fort San Carlos at the entrance to Lake Maracaibo yesterday afternoon for one hour. The fort returned fire with four guns. The Panther withdrew in the direction of Curacao.

Fort San Carlos is twenty-two miles from Maracaibo and commands the entrance to the lake or inner bay.

A press correspondent has received a letter from Gen. Bello, commanding the fort, reading: "Yesterday afternoon at half-past twelve, Fort San Carlos was attacked and shelled, without any provocation on our part, without previous notice or delivery of an ultimatum by the German cruiser Panther, which tried to force the entrance. After a fight, lasting one hour, the fort returned fire with only four guns. The Panther was obliged to abandon the fight and retreated in the direction of Curacao. The fort has suffered no damage and only three men were wounded."

CANADIAN CATTLE EMBARGO.

London, Jan. 19.-Lord Strathcona, having published a letter pointing out that no cases of cattle disease occurred in the case of Canadian animals between the years 1892 and 1896, when the prohibitory act was passed, the North British Agriculturalist says that Canada have been within their rights in saying that the action of the Imperial Board of Agriculture in continuing the exclusion of cattle from Canada, while British ports are open to the slaughter of Argentine cattle, is inexplicable.

The Agriculturalist continues: As the real reason put forward for passing the diseased cattle act was not the existence of disease in Canada, but the determination of the Government to adopt a settled policy which would give confidence and encouragement to the home breeders, a cruelly significant comment on that "settled policy" is that our ports have been opened and closed to be opened again to Argentine stock, all within the space of two years. Canadian cattle men will now be fully justified in saying that it is a miracle of inconsistency on the part of the board of agriculture to exclude Canadian store cattle on the plea of danger from disease, while our ports are to be opened to cattle from Argentina."

THE VON KETTELER ARCH.

The dedication of the Von Ketteler memorial arch, was a most impressive ceremony. The area was erected by China to the memory of Baron Von Ketteler, who was the German minister killed by the military officials in the Boxer trouble. The dedication took place in the presence of a brilliant assemblage of diplomats, many Chinese officials, all the military officials in Pekin, the entire foreign community of the city as well as German officers and civilians from Tien Tsin and other cities.

In an address, Prince Chun said: "This monument is to be a warning to the people, a sign of the friendly relations between our two countries and a symbol of peace." The monument stands as a solemn to posterity and a lasting symbol of the desire of the Chinese Government to promote and perpetuate friendly relations with foreign governments. These two speeches were read in German and Chinese.

WRECKAGE BEING WASHED ASHORE

Steamer Wrecked—Two Vessels Stranded—Accident to the Lahn.

London, Jan. 19.—The steam packet Uphaia, from Cardiff for Cork, which has been washed up on the coast near Cory leaves no doubt that she foundered in a gale. She was owned in Cory, and had a crew of 20 men and some stowage passengers on board.

GOING TO PIECES.
Digby, N. S., Jan. 19.—A three-masted schooner, supposed to be the Carrie Bell, laden from St. John to City Island, is ashore bottom up near Digby Neck, in the Bay of Fundy. The vessel is cracking up in the heavy sea. The crew was abandoned at sea and the crew were rescued.

ON THE ROCKS.
St. Andrew, N. B., Jan. 19.—The brigantine Aldine, bound to St. John, from Barren Island, with phosphate, is on the rocks at Hog Island, and is likely to prove a total loss. The crew are safe. The vessel and cargo are said to be insured.

ACCIDENT TO THE LAHN.
Gibraltar, Jan. 19.—The North German Lloyd's steamer Lahn (Capt. Matheis), from Mediterranean ports, for New York, went ashore at a 6 o'clock Sunday morning at Tamar, ten miles east of the Rock of Gibraltar. There was a heavy fog and rain was falling at the time. On board the steamer are 100 saloon passengers and 700 emigrants. The Lahn is stern on to the sea. The weather is moderate, but there is a heavy sea.

Tugs labored all yesterday afternoon to budge the big liner, but without success. Laborers and lighters will at once begin the work of discharging the steamer's cargo. The passengers on the Lahn number about 100 in the saloon, mostly Americans, and about 700 Italian emigrants in the steerage. All the passengers are still on board the vessel. They are quite safe, provided the wind holds in the west. Should the wind shift to the east the steamer's position would be critical. The Gibraltar Lifeline service is to be prepared for an emergency, has had boats beside the Lahn all day.

FAST IN THE ICE.
Grand Haven, Mich., Jan. 17.—The steamer Nyack, after four days in the ice, reached port this morning. The tug Welcome, sent from Milwaukee to extricate the steamer, is fast in the ice. The Nyack is a large passenger steamer, and is carrying a large cargo of freight in Milwaukee are tied up because of the blockade here.

DANGER IN THE FUR BOA

Lady Wore One When She Was Attacked by Dog.

The Animal's Head Acted as a Bait for the Fager Canine.

Buffalo, Jan. 19.—The vicious attack of a St. Bernard on Mrs. Catherine A. Faircloth, who was wearing a fur coat, is said to have been due to a mink skin which was about her neck. Like most of its kind, the dog was attracted by the animal's head, and that is believed to have been the cause of the animal's attack.

Mrs. Speyer so far has experienced no bad results from the wound in her side caused by the St. Bernard's teeth, and her physician said he apprehended no evil consequences, although Mrs. Speyer was worried and depressed.

Mrs. Speyer was somewhat puzzled as to the reason for the dog's onslaught until the mink skin theory was suggested. Then she remembered she wore such an article when the animal attacked her.

Mrs. Speyer's case is much like that of Miss Katherine A. Faircloth, who died at her home, No. 195 Abbott road, on April 22 last. Miss Faircloth's death is said to have been the indirect result of just such an attack as that experienced by Mrs. Speyer. Miss Faircloth was a teacher in the public schools. One day several months before she died she was attacked by a large dog while on her way to school. The animal did not seriously injure her, but the shock to her nervous system was so great that her health began to decline. Her physician said there was absolutely no doubt her death was indirectly due to the fright caused by the dog's attack. Miss Faircloth's head when she was set upon by the dog.

The St. Bernard which bit Mrs. Speyer is a large, full-grown animal, and was especially vicious, and its owner was at a loss to account for the dog's actions until the mink skin theory was suggested. The animal will be kept under a close watch by the health department authorities, and if it develops any alarming symptoms it will be shot.

SHE TOOK ARSENIC

Suicide of Mrs. John Gowan, of Blanshard—Found Dead in Barn.

Syracuse, N. Y., Jan. 19.—Superintendent Frank Moulton, of the town of Cicero, 45 years old, a tobacco dealer, committed suicide by shooting on Saturday. He was found dead in his barn. St. Marys, Jan. 19.—Mrs. John Gowan, who lives on the townline of Blanshard and Fullerton, poisoned herself Friday afternoon with arsenic.

Some time ago her husband sold his farm and purchased another one. This did not please his wife, and she worried to get the old farm back. Meanwhile the old farm had passed into the hands of her husband's brother, W. M. Gowan, and after some dickerings John bought it back, out at a loss of $800. This loss seems to have preyed on her mind, and she was very unhappy. Friday she prepared an early dinner for her husband, who went to St. Marys on business. When he returned about 5 p.m. he found his wife lying at the top of the stairs in much agony. She confessed to having taken arsenic.

The deceased was only about 32 years of age, and had no children. Her mother resides in Manitoba.

Arthur A. Wilson, of the Bank of Commerce, has left Toronto for Sydney, C. B., to open a branch of the bank there.

STARVING POOR OF OLD LONDON

Great Crowds of Unemployed
March Through the Streets—
Cold Weather.

London, Jan. 19.—The poor of London are not starving in silence this winter. It is said that the distress is far greater than for many years, and certainly the streets give evidence of the truth of this statement. Great processions of the unemployed march every day under red banners. Large detachments of police act as escorts for these shivering and unkempt hordes. They are flanked by half-clad individuals, who shake wooden collection boxes under the noses of the spectators.

The principal procession assemblies every day at Mile End, Whitechapel, under the auspices of the Social Democratic Federation. Each man receives a ticket entitling him to the walks sixteen miles in the line to Hyde Park and return to a share in the money taken up in the collection boxes. The majority of the men in these processions are dock laborers. Many of them are completely exhausted at the end of the marches, and some collapse and are taken to the hospital.

The past has been a week of the bitter winter weather London has never experienced, and it is not surprising that the half-clad, half-dressed men are unable to bear the strain of the march in the piercing, freezing wind, without overcoats.

During the greater part of the distance the marchers are silent, and nothing is heard except the rattling of the cash boxes. Now and then, however, the marchers join in this chorus:

"The poor, the poor, are ever in the way.
The poor are starving day by day.
They walk along the King's highway,
The starving poor of Old England."

KILLED BY THE CARS

Young Woman Loses Her Life at a Crossing—Other Casualties.

Belleville, Ont., Jan. 19.—A fatal accident happened on the Grand Trunk near Trenton. Miss Lillie Purdy, a young woman, whose residence was in the second concession of Sidney, was driving a horse and cutter across the track at Gilmour's Crossing, and thought she had time to cross in advance of an approaching express train. The horse got over, but the train struck the cutter, smashing it into fragments and instantly killing Miss Purdy. She was about 22 years of age, and leaves a father and five brothers.

DEATH OF M. DE BLOWITZ

Correspondent of the London Times in Paris—A Petrolia Man Gone.

Paris, Jan. 19.—Henry Georges Stephan Oppel de Blowitz, for many years correspondent of the London Times in Paris, died here last evening. M. de Blowitz was stricken with apoplexy a few days ago. He was born in 1832.

London, Jan. 19.—Quintin Hogg, founder and president of the Polytechnic Institute and editor of the Polytechnic Magazine, died suddenly Saturday from heart disease. He was born in 1846.

PETROLIA, Jan. 19.—One of the oldest residents of Petrolia passed away yesterday morning in the person of Mr. George Denham, who for the past 30 years had conducted a drug store here. Mr. Denham was born in Toronto 65 years ago, and in his early manhood moved to Oil Springs when oil was first discovered there. When oil was found at Petrolia he came here, locating at the east end, where the principal business part of the town then was. The gradual movement of the business part to the west end induced him to purchase his present store, which was then considered to be in the country. Here for over fifteen years he had carried on his business. He was a member of the I. O. O. F. and Encampment, I. O. F. A. O. U. W., K. O. T. M., and L. O. L., being past county master in the latter organization. In former years he took an active interest in municipal matters, having held positions on the council and school board. While a member of the council he was one of the first to broach the subject of municipal ownership of waterworks, and in a large measure the present system is due to his energy. He leaves a widow, three sons and two daughters. They are R. Guy, W. A. G. and Miss Queenie, at home; C. J., of Great Falls, Mont., and Mrs. George S. Spokes, of Mount Albert, Ont. The remains will be interred at Newmarket on Wednesday.

Well Made.

Pure flour and pure yeast do not necessarily mean good bread. It may be cooked in the making. Just so: material is not everything. Prof. W. Hodgson Ellis, Official Analyst to the Dominion Government, after a number of analyses, reports that Sunlight Soap is a pure and well-made soap. "Well made" means more than you think. Try Sunlight Soap—Octagon Bar—next wash day, and you will enjoy the benefits of a "well-made" soap, and will see that Prof. Ellis is right. No one should know better than he.

MRS. ANNA M. STEVENS.
New York, Jan. 19.—Mrs. Anna Madden Stevens, wife of Robert E. Stevens, theatrical manager, and aunt to Mrs. Minnie Madden Fiske, died on Friday in Philadelphia of pneumonia.

She was 57 years old and in her day was one of the best actresses on the stage. Up to the time of her illness she was playing with James O'Neill in The Maxims. She was born in Suffolk, England, and came to New York when only 14 years old. She was leading woman for Lawrence Barrett and later acted with Mary Anderson. After her marriage to Mr. Stevens, she acted on Friday in Philadelphia of pneumonia.

FATAL EXPLOSION IN A TURRET

Five Sailors on Battleship Killed
While at Practice With a Big Gun.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 19.—News of the explosion on the Massachusetts was received at the navy department shortly after 9 o'clock Saturday in a telegram dated San Juan, Porto Rico, and signed by Rear Admiral Higginson, commander-in-chief of the North Atlantic naval forces. It said that five enlisted men were killed and four injured, and gave their names and ratings. Most of them were killed in the turret, and the remainder in the gun.

Admiral Higginson, in which he again told of the explosion and gave a list of nine injured, but none dead. These who were reported as dead in the first dispatch received were mentioned in the list of injured in the second dispatch. A press dispatch from San Juan appears to clear up the confusion. It says that the report that five were dead was correct.

The explosion occurred in the starboard turret after eight-inch gun, and was due to the accidental discharge of a percussion primer while the breech of the gun was open. The full charge exploded in the turret and killed or injured all the crew of the gun, numbering nine men.

Magnificent discipline was immediately shown by the officers and crew of the battleship. Capt. Harry Lee, commanding the marine guard of the vessel, and Ensign Clarence A. Able immediately flooded the turret with water, and Lieut. Charles F. Hughes and Gunner Kulwin went below to the magazine, picking up powder charges and prevented further explosions. While Lieut. William C. Cole and Gun Captain Sorenson entered the turret and withdrew the charges from the other gun, the breech of the gun was open. The survivors of the gun's crew when rescued were burned, mutilated and nearly dead. One man, whose clothing was on fire, jumped overboard.

The coolness and discipline of the officers and men were a credit to the navy. In less than one minute three streams of water were pouring into the turret, preventing the charge in the other eight-inch gun from exploding.

THE DEAD.

A. Hendryksen, boatswain's mate, New York.

F. H. Lasser, apprentice, New York.

FUNERAL SERVICE.

A funeral service for the men who met their death in the explosion on board the Massachusetts was held on Saturday morning. The service was held on shore and proceeded to the military cemetery of Porto Rico, where the burial took place. Admiral Higginson and the officers of the Massachusetts were at the grave site, where military honors and also Masonic honors for one of the dead men were given.

COXSAIN TACKED DEAD.

San Juan, Porto Rico, Saturday evening.—Coxswain Tacke died this morning at the residence of Apprentice Schert and Seaman Dosselt. He had been injured in the explosion and his condition was so bad that he was unable to survive his injuries.

To Depose President McKay.
Toronto, Jan. 19.—It is rumored that the Temperance Legislation League is about to make a determined effort to oust Dr. McKay, of Woodstock, president of the Ontario branch of the Dominion Alliance. Dr. McKay's attitude in the referendum has, it is thought, retarded the wheels of progress in grinding out prohibitory legislation, and it is stated that he is to be a target for his attitude with the organization.

A correspondent of the Manchester Guardian says that his recent tour through the Dominion convinced him that the people are becoming more and more inclined to high protection.

ROSEBERY AT PLYMOUTH

Late Premier Has Resumed Effective Campaign Speaking.

London, Jan. 17.—Lord Rosebery has resumed effective campaign speaking at Plymouth last night he appeared to the Government to drop precedent and come to business. Mr. Chamberlain's mission, he said, had the good wishes of every patriot, and another thing which commanded approval was the naval reform scheme, but the countrains of sympathy with the Government dried up at that point. The war office was indicted with some bacilli which appeared to congeal with good administration, and Lord Kitchener, the only man capable of exterminating them, had been sent to India. Lord Rosebery also condemned the administration of the foreign office, but he spoke guardedly regarding Venezuela. He felt sure that the Government must have consulted the United States in this matter, and have had imperious motives for entering into an alliance with Germany.

Smallpox Hits in Michigan.

Toronto, Jan. 18.—Dr. Bryce has received the official bulletin from the medical health department at Detroit for the month of December, announcing that 211 places throughout the state were infected with smallpox. Dr. Bryce reports that the smallpox cases in Windsor, Sandwich and Andover Township were undoubtedly brought over from the State of Michigan.

Better Pay for Treasurers.

Toronto, Jan. 18.—J. B. Laing, provincial auditor of municipal accounts, says there is a growing feeling in the province that municipal treasurers should be better paid. "What would you think," he said, "if I consulted the user getting $5 a year for his work? Township treasurers rarely get as high as $100, and $50 or $75 is quite a common remuneration. In towns the scale is higher, but not a great deal." Mr. Laing, in his report, will strongly recommend municipal treasurers to "loosen up" a bit on this matter. During the year there have been five deficits among municipal treasurers, and Mr. Laing thinks this is not many, considering that there are 800 treasurers.

By a vote of 141 to 67, the Prussian Reichstag rejected the substitute for the resolution of Baron Heyl Zu Hermsheim, asking the Government to denounce the most-favored nation treaty, which was directed against the United States and Argentina. The Socialists and Radicals composed the minority.

MITCHELL BLAMES COMPANIES FOR THE SCARCITY OF COAL

They Do Not Furnish Enough Cars for the Miners.

3,000 MEN CANNOT GET WORK

Tracks Are Congested With Loaded Cars at the Mines—Many Men Waiting for Work.

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 18.—President John Mitchell, of the miners' union, before leaving for Indianapolis to attend the national convention of his organization and subsequently the national wage convention of the soft coal operators and mine workers, made an address yesterday to the coal strike commission. As the hour for adjournment for the week arrived, Mr. Mitchell arose and asked to be permitted to make a few remarks. All the attorneys representing the different interests before the commission crowded around the leader of the miners as he prefaced his remarks by stating that it would likely be the last session of the investigation he would be able to attend. He explained why he was called away and said:

"I wish to take this occasion to express my satisfaction and that of the miners whom I represent for the manner in which the investigation is being conducted. I feel confident that by the thoroughness of the inquiry it will result in much good."

"There has been a large part of the time of the commission taken up by the presentation of evidence to show lawlessness in the coal fields during the latter part of the strike. I bear no ill-will to those who came here, but no personal malice to those who bear their jobs and all that. I am saying, I am trying to separate myself, as far as possible, from the special interests I represent."

THE NON-UNION MAN.

"The non-union man who was brought here was brought here for the same purpose he was put in the mines. He was put in the mines for the purpose of destroying the efforts of the men who went on strike. He was brought here under the pretext of getting an advance in wages. He was deceived by a plea made before the commission that an effort would be made by those who had his case in charge to secure for him an increase of wages. He came here paid by the companies, hotel bills paid by them, and our men, who went around to see them, saw money was furnished to these non-union men to enjoy themselves while they were here. The non-union man came here, he believed, the single instance did those who represent him attempt to show that he was entitled to an increase in his earnings, and that he was not being used, betrayed by those who proposed to take care of his interests before the commission."

ALLEGED LAWLESSNESS.

"I want to say, too, as to the matter of lawlessness, that before being president of a union, before being a member of a union, I am an American, over and above everything else. There is no man associated with this investigation who would condemn lawlessness more than I would. If I did not do it because I was opposed to lawlessness I would do it because I believe in the success of a strike and against the success of the organization. I do not believe lawlessness ever won a strike. I believe lawlessness under all circumstances."

stances will work against the men who go on strike. I have an abiding faith in the American people, I believe that when they understand a cause to be right they will support it, and without the support of the people, no great movement can succeed. That is true of a strike. If the people of the country are not in sympathy with it, it must fail, and I am sure the sympathy of the people will never be with those who violate the law."

WILL ADVERTISE CANADA

Minister of Interior Sifts to Try New Plan.

Will Send Northwest Farmers to England—Reservists May Come.

Ottawa, Jan. 19.—Hon. Clifford Sifton, Minister of the Interior, has determined to follow up the systematic efforts to thoroughly advertise Canada in Great Britain, which have been made with so much success in recent years, and in conjunction with his deputy, James A. Smart, has devised other practical measures calculated to impress the British agricultural desiderous of bettering his position with the splendid opportunities offered in the Dominion. While the increase last year over the previous twelve months in the number of arrivals from the United States and also from the continent of Europe, was considered very large, the immigration from Great Britain showed an even larger percentage of increase, the total increase from the British Isles being 5,000 on 6,000, as compared with 1901. This, however, has simply encouraged the department to make greater efforts during the coming year, the feeling being that it is possible to induce a far larger number of British settlers to locate in Canada.

NEW PLAN TO BE TRIED.

A new plan has been adopted with the idea of bringing the British farmer into closer touch with Canada, and affording him information of the kind that he needs. This plan is to be worked out by the co-operation of some 40 representative farmers of Manitoba and the Northwest Territories, who will go to the old country, and in pursuance of a programme which Mr. Smart is preparing, will within six weeks practically visit every agricultural center in the United Kingdom. These men, who have had several years' experience of successful farming in the west, will visit one town each day for a period of six weeks. In this way it is hoped that perhaps 2,000 places may be reached during the period of their visit, at each of which the prospective emigrant will be able to learn by a personal interview the facts which will be most helpful to him. This is one of the most practical and original methods ever adopted by the Dominion Government to reach the British agriculturists, and great results are hoped for it.

BRING RESERVISTS OUT.

Another feature in connection with Mr. Smart's visit will be an endeavor to find some method of creating an interest in Western Canada amongst reservists from South Africa, who are returning to the old country in large numbers. Most of these men have long been away from home so long that they have lost their former positions, and are now looking for employment. They are generally regarded as a class who are not afraid of hard work, and who are generally well equipped with the habits of discipline and the use of arms. Some definite arrangement will likely be made, especially in view of the fact that Lord Dunsford has expressed his intention of lending assistance to successfully carry out the project. Before leaving for the west, Hon. Mr. Sifton discussed the question with the general commanding officer, and Mr. Smart, on his visit to London, will make it his business to interview the imperial authorities on the subject.

London Women Are Nervous

Suffer From Severe Headaches, Dizzy Spells and Bodily Weakness.

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

Is Especially Valuable to Women.

Woman's system demands a plentiful supply of blood—of pure, rich, life-sustaining tissue-building blood. If the blood is lacking in quantity or quality the nervous system must suffer and the nerve cells dwindle, and die for the want of proper nourishment.

Then come headaches, dizzy spells, weakness, and fainting, derangements of the digestive system, sleeplessness, discouragement and despondency.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food cures all ailments thoroughly and well by increasing the quantity and quality of the blood. You can depend on it absolutely, as we shall endeavor to prove by quoting the opinions of residents of this city:

Mrs. J. Hamilton, 709 William Street, London, Ont., states:

"For a number of years I have suffered a great deal with nervous headaches and nervous dyspepsia and indigestion. Believing this to be the result of a weakened and exhausted nervous system, I began to use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and can say that I found it very beneficial. It strengthened and restored the nerves, improved the digestion, and cured the headaches. I can heartily recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to any affected as I was."

Mrs. C. Fitzgerald, 718 Princess Avenue, London, Ont., states:

"For some time I have not been feeling at all well. I was troubled with general weakness. My nerves were very unsteady, and I did not sleep well. Hearing of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, I began a course of treatment with this preparation, and now consider that I am entirely cured. I can not praise the Nerve Food too highly, for it has strengthened me, steadied my nerves, and enabled me to rest and sleep well."

This is one of the most practical and original methods ever adopted by the Dominion Government to reach the British agriculturists, and great results are hoped for it.

BRING RESERVISTS OUT.

Another feature in connection with Mr. Smart's visit will be an endeavor to find some method of creating an interest in Western Canada amongst reservists from South Africa, who are returning to the old country in large numbers. Most of these men have long been away from home so long that they have lost their former positions, and are now looking for employment. They are generally regarded as a class who are not afraid of hard work, and who are generally well equipped with the habits of discipline and the use of arms. Some definite arrangement will likely be made, especially in view of the fact that Lord Dunsford has expressed his intention of lending assistance to successfully carry out the project. Before leaving for the west, Hon. Mr. Sifton discussed the question with the general commanding officer, and Mr. Smart, on his visit to London, will make it his business to interview the imperial authorities on the subject.

London Women Are Nervous

Suffer From Severe Headaches, Dizzy Spells and Bodily Weakness.

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

Is Especially Valuable to Women.

Woman's system demands a plentiful supply of blood—of pure, rich, life-sustaining tissue-building blood. If the blood is lacking in quantity or quality the nervous system must suffer and the nerve cells dwindle, and die for the want of proper nourishment.

Then come headaches, dizzy spells, weakness, and fainting, derangements of the digestive system, sleeplessness, discouragement and despondency.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food cures all ailments thoroughly and well by increasing the quantity and quality of the blood. You can depend on it absolutely, as we shall endeavor to prove by quoting the opinions of residents of this city:

Mrs. J. Hamilton, 709 William Street, London, Ont., states:

"For a number of years I have suffered a great deal with nervous headaches and nervous dyspepsia and indigestion. Believing this to be the result of a weakened and exhausted nervous system, I began to use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and can say that I found it very beneficial. It strengthened and restored the nerves, improved the digestion, and cured the headaches. I can heartily recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to any affected as I was."

Mrs. C. Fitzgerald, 718 Princess Avenue, London, Ont., states:

"For some time I have not been feeling at all well. I was troubled with general weakness. My nerves were very unsteady, and I did not sleep well. Hearing of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, I began a course of treatment with this preparation, and now consider that I am entirely cured. I can not praise the Nerve Food too highly, for it has strengthened me, steadied my nerves, and enabled me to rest and sleep well."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Struck for Cheating Gum.

St. Louis, Jan. 19.—Because of an order issued by their foreman that they must refrain from chewing gum during working hours, 65 girls employed as band wrappers for the Samuel Cuyples Envelope Company, went out on a strike, and refused to return unless the order is withdrawn. Miss Gleesman, the forewoman, says she has no objection to the girls chewing gum during the noon hour, but that it was necessary to prevent them from mas-trating with toothsome paste during working hours.

A BAD CASE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

CURED BY DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Kidney troubles, no matter of what kind or what stage of the disease, can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of these wonderful pills. Mr. Joseph Leland, Alma, N.W.T., recommends them to all kidney trouble sufferers, when he says:—I was troubled with dull headaches, had frightful dreams, terrible pains in my legs and a frequent desire to urinate. Nothing but DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS recommended for just such annoyances as mine, it occurred to me to give them a trial, so I procured a box of them, and was very much surprised at the effectual cure they made. I take a great deal of pleasure in recommending them to all kidney trouble sufferers.

Price 50c. per box, or 3 for $1.25; all dealers or The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

TOMORROW NIGHT'S PLAY.

Tomorrow evening the attraction at the Grand is Alfred Capus' four-act comedy, "The Two Schools." The Toronto Saturday Night says: The Frohman Company which presents the Capus play is a strong and well-chosen organization. Mr. Jameson Lee Finney, Mr. M. A. Kennedy and Mr. Winchell Smith are a trio of remarkably capable men in their varying and strongly contrasted roles. Equally delightful in the principal female parts are Miss Ida Conquest, Miss Ida Waterman and Miss Jessie Busley. All the minor characters are also well cast. Miss Conquest, it may be added, is a very fascinating woman, as well as a thoroughly convincing actress.

Here Comes THE Bovril

Will be the joyful cry in many a Canadian home this winter. What so delicious served hot at the noon luncheon? What so reviving after the afternoon walk or drive? What so healthful for the children at any hour, when they ask for food? And little stomachs are always clamoring. John Strange Winter the author of Booties Baby says: "More fastidious children about their appetite than my own cannot be found. They all take Bovril eagerly. A Cup of Bovril with the addition of a piece of toast makes a thoroughly good meal for any small child."

Afterward, in the drawing-room, she and a straightforward business talk with him, during which she insisted that he should consent to receive one-half of her mother's fortune. "Nay, do not thank me—please do not consent upon my resolution at all," she said hastily, as she saw that he was about to speak. "If there is a spark of compassion in your heart for me, after all I have done, let me have my own way in this, as my heart tells me I can do in the way of atonement."

Kenneth arose and went to her side. "Miss Kavanagh," he said, with grave gentleness, "I did not want this money, and I have not a shadow of it in my heart toward you. I cannot say I do not think you have done wrong, for that would be untrue; but I can understand how you were tempted—and who is not at times? We all have our weaknesses and are liable to fall, unless our trust is in One who is able to help us. Pray, let us never speak of this again. I shall be glad to your friend if you will let me, and we will bury all the sad past from this hour."

He held out his hand to seal the compact, she kissed his cheek, and she did not take the offered hand, and she did not take the lips quivered, and tears stood in her dark eyes. "Will you take the money? Please do, Mr. please do—Kenneth," she said, pleadingly.

He hesitated, for he had never had a thought of making himself rich in claiming his birthright. But he saw that she would never be happy until she had it, and he was in the position that belonged to him.

"Very well," he said, at last; "since you so earnestly desire it, let it be as you wish."

CHAPTER XLVII.
Kenneth remained three weeks at Shannondale, and during that time all pecuniary matters were settled to Miss Kavanagh's satisfaction. Half of Alan Kavanagh's fortune was made over to Kenneth, and in the end she had secured the United States securities if he desired. More than this, she had also made a new will, in which she had named him as her sole heir, and she had found herself the fortunate possessor and heir in prospect of at least three-quarters of a million dollars.

Very cautiously Queen Bess stole down the bank, following the sound of the voice. The first she could see nothing, but as she went on she felt the flutter of something white amid a perfect bower of green, close by the river.

With a wild beating heart she crept slowly toward it, until at length she came upon a tiny, white, delicate creature, like a butterfly, but with a more ethereal and delicate form. She was looking at it with a mixture of awe and admiration, when she felt a sudden movement, and she saw that the creature was looking at her.

"Good-bye, Miss Kavanagh," he said; "you have made my stay at Shannondale very pleasant, and I feel very grateful to you for many things."

The proud woman's lip trembled, and as she clung to his hand she said: "Kenneth—I am your father's sister."

He bent and touched her forehead in a farewell caress, then he turned and went, leaving her both feeling as if half the light of the day had departed with him.

Meantime Queen Bess had been having varied experiences. The evening following her interview with Kenneth, she found her with that young gentleman and his sister speeding rapidly southward, and one hot, sultry afternoon, when they arrived at the small town of Fayette, in Mississippi, Mr. Fane immediately set about making inquiries as to how he could find a certain William Harris.

At last he met a darky who had worked for him the previous year, and who directed him how to reach the Harris plantation. Mr. Fane had some difficulty in procuring a conveyance to take them thither, but at last succeeded in obtaining a party of mules and a hackboard, which is not the most comfortable conveyance in the world for a party of three to ride on in a sweltering summer day, and they started on the last stage of their journey. The way lay close along the river bank, and under other circumstances the drive would have been a delightful one, for the scenery along the winding bank was exceedingly lovely. As it was, however, added to the intense heat and discomfort of their conveyance, together with their increasing anxiety regarding Alice, tended to make them a rather silent and sorrowful party.

They were almost an hour going the two miles between the village of Fayette and the Harris plantation, when suddenly, just as the farmhouse loomed in sight, Queen Bess was startled by the sound of a gun. They bent to listen, and heard a familiar voice singing fragments of Mother Goose melodies, then a voice of two of "Merry Had a Little Lamb," and finally a clear, sweet soprano voice rang out distinctly with the words:

"Flowers, wildwood flowers,
A shooting-bell and a glow-worm;
I hurried along and I chanced to spy
This small star flower with its silvery
Sweety this blue daisy peeped up its head,
Sweety this purple orchid spread—"

By Way of Comment.

MATEUR sport seems to be regaining its hold in London. Gradually but certainly, professionalism is being done down and when teams are now made up in any branch of athletics, it is gratifying to observe that but few of the players are imported or suspected of being imported. A few years ago, it must be acknowledged, while this city was perhaps more prominent in sporting circles, many of the players were from outside towns. Perhaps pennants and trophies were won, but the game was not worth the throw. The Canadian Baseball League faded away, and for some time it was thought that the game had gone with it, as far as London was concerned.

A number of hard-working enthusiasts, most of whom were from the different factories and wholesale and grocery stores, got together and started a movement towards a baseball resurrection in London. The result was that besides the City League a wholesale league was formed. Both organizations received more than expected patronage and the object of the men who worked the idea towards the awakening of London from its baseball sleep was accomplished.

So marked was the success that it is to be wondered at that the hockeyists employed at factories and wholesale and grocery stores, got together and started a movement towards a hockey resurrection in London. The result was that besides the City League a wholesale league was formed. Both organizations received more than expected patronage and the object of the men who worked the idea towards the awakening of London from its hockey sleep was accomplished.

THAT HOTEL TEAM DISPUTE.
The Advertiser is in receipt of a letter from the Metropolitan Hockey team, referring to their game with the City Hotel team, which they say they won by a score of 5 to 3. They further go on to say that the City Hotel people are "sore-losers," and were trying to ring a bluff. The latter, it appears, accused the Mets, as they style themselves, of foul play. The City Hotel team says that all their players boarded at the house. It is to be hoped that the grievance will soon be patched up.

YACHTING.
DEFENDER PROGRESSING.
Bristol, R. I., Jan. 18.—The raising of the keel frames of the shipyard's new yacht ordered as a prospective cup defender was accompanied by the Herreshoffs, and it is now possible to obtain some general idea of the form of the craft.

While her lines in many respects conform to those of the Constitution, she will be less than 100 feet long at the gunwales, the hulls some what harder and a considerably flatter floor. The departure from the Constitution's lines is, however, not at all extreme.

Owing to the stern post not being in position the framing is being worked further forward than aft, and there are now eight frames cut ahead of the lead keel.

As in the other cup defenders, more reliance is placed in the belt and the keel than in the hull, and there are fifteen in the midship section. The belt frames are 6 feet 8 inches apart, with intermediate frames between. As usual, the connections are made by T bars, and the plating will follow the belt frames and for end.

On the whole, the work is progressing favorably, and there appears to be no prospect of the new boat being overboarded before the middle of April.

WILL BE LAUNCHED SOON.
Dumbarton, Scotland, Jan. 17.—The Shamrock III. is now completely framed, and more than half plated. Sir Thomas Lipton arrived here this morning to inspect the cup-challenger and complete arrangements for lunching her.

THE OAR.
ARE WELCOME AT HENLEY.
London, Jan. 15.—There is general satisfaction over the news that the Toronto Argonauts will send an eight to compete for the Grand Challenge Cup at Henley this year.

The Pall Mall Gazette says: "This is due to the fact that nothing unpleasant ever arises in connection with Canadian crews, while there has been more than one incident in connection with United States crews which has left an unpleasant taste in the mouths of Englishmen. We only mention this fact to emphasize the excellent feeling which has always existed between Canada and English oarsmen."

"Seeo day, all Canadian crews have stood the scrutiny of the English Amateur Rowing Association. The greatest point is the sensational finish which has always characterized the rowing of the Canadians."

The paper adds that if ever the Grand Challenge Cup is taken from England, it is generally hoped that the Canadians will be the winners. They cannot command success, but they deserve it, while their sportsmanlike qualities and quiet demeanor endeared them to all.

ANGELIC CHURCH PREPARES FOR WORK IN NORTHWEST

Fifty Thousand Dollars To Be Spent in Home Missions.

Clergymen Tell Congregations of the Great Work To Be Done.

Impressed with the necessity for increased missionary zeal and enterprise in both the foreign and home missions of the Anglican Church, yesterday was made a general missionary Sunday in all the Episcopal churches of the city. Particular attention was given the Canadian Northwest, which, in view of its rapidly increasing population, offers a field for spiritual labor that it is thought will tax the resources of the church to the utmost. The church in Canada has been asked to contribute $75,000 to the cause at large, of which $15,000 is expected to be a lesson to the Diocese of Huron. Out of the sum of $75,000, $50,000 will be devoted to home missions. The various pulpits were occupied by strangers and unusual interest centered in the proceedings of the day.

The preacher at St. Paul's Cathedral was the Rev. G. N. Tucker, M.A., secretary to the mission board of the Church of England in Canada. Mr. Tucker said that matters had reached a crisis in Canadian missionary affairs. A great burden had been laid upon the church in Canada. Missionaries were wanted in Algoma, the Northwest and British Columbia, and to meet these requirements it was necessary that the church should have the heartiest co-operation of all its members. He spoke eloquently of the future of Canada, declaring it would some day become the granary of the world. To help the country onward to this ideal position was a pastor to every 700 of population; in China to every 175,000 persons there was one missionary.

Mrs. Stott, missionary with her husband in 1889. The Rev. Mr. Stott died at his post, and Mrs. Stott bravely carried on the work. She was through the recent Boer persecutions, and regarded many incidents of noble fidelity and heroism on the part of the native converts.

OUTLYING POINTS SUFFER
Mrs. Stott Speaks of Result of Missionary Effort.

To Much Attention Is Paid to Work in Home Fields.

Mrs. Stott, a returned missionary from the China inland mission, addressed the congregations of two Methodist churches yesterday. Discouraging on her life work, Mrs. Stott made an earnest and enthusiastic plea for increased missionary labors amongst the Chinese. Mrs. Stott thinks there is too much concentration of evangelical effort in Canada in connection with the outlying points of the world suffer. In Canada there

GATHERING DATA OF WAR IN AFRICA

A Call for Official Records—Chamberlain Financing the New Colonies.

London, Jan. 19.—In order that the official history of the late South African war may be as comprehensive as possible, the War Office asks commanding officers of all units to send to the compiler all official records relating thereto. The order provides that these records are to be sent to Col. Henderson, headquarters staff, London. The regimental records are to include battles, sieges and other military operations; the records of the corps' achievements; the names of officers, non-commissioned officers and privates killed or wounded; and the name of every officer or soldier who distinguished himself in action.

A War Office order announces that in future soldiers who are Congregationalists or Baptists will be recognized as such. Imperial soldiers have only been able to declare themselves as belonging to the Catholic, Anglican, Methodist and Presbyterian churches, each having officially appointed chaplains.

CHAMBERLAIN'S SCHEME.
Colonial Secretary Chamberlain, at a banquet given to him in Johannesburg on Saturday evening, delivered a speech in which he gave for the first time the details of his plan for the financing of the new colonies. He described the arrangement as a unique and unprecedented action on the part of the Imperial Government, and one which was satisfactory to the representative associations of the Transvaal and of Orange, which were being united for this purpose. The loan would be raised as soon as the Imperial Parliament shall give its sanction to the plan, and the necessary expenditure for public works, and also providing for the land settlement. This part of the plan will place Orange and the Transvaal in funds to carry out the development of the country.

The second part of the agreement provides that as soon as possible after placing the loan, another loan of $10,000,000 shall be raised, to be called up in annual instalments of $500,000. This second loan will be raised by the Imperial Government, and will be secured on the assets of the Transvaal. A number of South African financiers had undertaken to subscribe the first $10,000,000 without receiving preferential security. Up to a few hours previous to the banquet the matter of the war contribution, and he declared that the reports hitherto published, which purported to give details of the financial arrangement, were premature and for the most part incorrect.

Mr. Chamberlain said he hoped that his hearers would agree to these arrangements, which would be a happy augury for the unification of the two colonies. He then referred to the labor problem at the Cape, and said that the Imperial Government should appoint a commission to inquire into the matter in all its details.

American tourists abroad often comment upon the literal translation into English of names in foreign languages. A Washington citizen found this notice pasted in his room in an Alpine hotel: "Mistress, the venerable voyagers are earnestly requested not to take clothes of the bed to see the sun rise for the color changes."

Clashed Wife With a Knife.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Jan. 19.—Late on a night the sheriff's force was called to the corner of William and First streets by a domestic disagreement that may end in the death of the husband. A man named Locke and his wife got into a scrap at their home at the above place. He pulled a knife and slashed her over the eye and then jabbed the weapon into her abdomen. He is in a very dangerous condition, but the woman will survive. Liquor or beer seems to have been the agent which developed the trouble.

The Catholic Woman's Union of France is appealing to capable young women of that country to obtain certificates and take the place of the nuns recently expelled.

RE TEMPERANCE DEPUTATION.
To the Editor of The Advertiser:
Referring to your editorial in Friday's issue of The Advertiser under the heading "Temperance Legislation Promised," will you permit me to offer a word of explanation. While it might appear that the London Referendum Association had, by the resolution passed by its executive, dissociated itself from the deputation which waited upon the Government on the 15th, that was not the intention of the resolution as I understood it. I asked before the resolution was voted upon in the meeting if the carrying of it would mean that the members of the Referendum Association could not join the deputation and understood in reply that those invited would be quite free to do so. Otherwise I would have voted against the resolution. The resolution was brought forward because some of the members of the association were under the impression that the deputation they about to meet would not be thoroughly representative and might commit the temperance people to a course that all could not agree to. It was therefore intended to leave it to the responsibility for the course of the deputation until it was more clearly understood what its course would be. After learning for myself the composition and character of the deputation and having heard its presentation of the case to the Government I desire to say that in my judgment the deputation was well qualified to represent the temperance forces of the Province, and its presentation of the case was both wise and strong. I will not take upon myself the responsibility of speaking for the Referendum Association, but as a member, I consider it is due to the association, to the Dominion Alliance and to myself that I offer this personal explanation. Should you see your way to publish it, you will oblige. Yours truly, D. S. HAMILTON.

Coughs Probably you know of cough medicines that relieve little coughs, all coughs, except deep ones! The medicine that cures the worst of deep coughs is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. In use 60 years. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

FACTS FOR BUSINESS MEN.

The daily paper contains two separate and distinct kinds of news. It is a newspaper, in fact, and contains nothing but news. The chronicling of the happenings of the world at large, as well as of the local events, is the second kind of news. The average mortal needs news that occurs upon its pages.

Advertising is news, pure and simple. It is the detail of chronicling of the arrival of new goods and of store happenings generally. It is the woman's guide to bargains and the man's help in purchasing. Railroad timetables contain information of value to all, and the average mortal needs news that occurs upon its pages.

Advertising is news, and it should be kept as news. There is no more reason for an advertiser to allow his advertising to stand day in and day out than there is for an editor to allow the happenings of two days in succession. Your truly believes in an interesting paper is the one in which the advertisements are changed from time to time. This change stimulates interest and educates people to look from time to time for something new.

If John Smith advertises winter boots and shoes in the month of January, and allows that same advertisement to run on for six months, he has made himself a laughing stock, and he is paying for space that is absolutely without value; but if the same John Smith advertises his boots and shoes in one day, his umbrellas and mackintoshes upon another day, his hats upon another day, and so on, then he is laying for himself the foundations of success.—Ad-Sense.
