MAY BE SELF-DEFENSE PLEA INSANITY IS ALSO TALKED OF REVOLVER AND THE SHOOTING

Speculation as to What Line Will Be Followed by the Counsel for the Prisoner---Mrs. Scott Sleeps but Little---Does Not Talk Much---Sympathy Around Thorndale Appears To Be in Favor of Mrs. Scott.

There is still a good deal of interest centreing around the probable defense in the case of Mrs. Wesley Scott, accused of the murder of her father-in-law, Wesley Scott.

In many quarters it is thought that owing to the treatment the woman had received from the murdered man that the plea will probably be that of self-defense. If this should be the case, the revolver with which the deed was committed will be a material part of the evidence.

Wesley Scott, the husband, says that the revolver had been in the house for a long time. When asked as to why he kept a revolver replied that all the farmers did so. "You never know when you might need it," he concluded.

The Revolver.

The question of where the revolver was just before the shooting will also be of great importance, and what means Mrs. Scott had to take to get it. If it is proved that the revolver was immediately at hand the self-defense plea would naturally be stronger than if the weapon had to be sought for in some distant part of the house.

The position in which the body was found also leads to a good deal of interest, should this plea be presented.

The deceased came around to the left of the house and so as he approached the doorway was facing it, and the wound inflicted could not have been made, it is alleged, unless he had gone past the door or had turned his back when he saw the revolver in Mrs. Scott's hand.

The Theory.

In either case the general opinion is that he could not have been abusing or attempting to abuse Mrs. Scott at the time the shot was fired. Then, too, the body, as it lay had fallen straight back, and the head was more than three feet from the doorstep with the feet stretched away from the entrance from which it would seem that the murdered man must have been upwards of eight or ten feet from the doorway when the shot struck him.

Won't Talk.

High Constable Hughes, who made the investigation immediately after the shooting, and the woman herself are the only ones who can know whether these deductions are correct.

Mr. Hughes refuses definitely to give any opinion on the matter, and as far as can be learned, Mrs. Scott has spoken to no one save her lawyer regarding the tragedy since her imprisonment.

Mrs. Scott's Condition.

The physical condition of Mrs. Wesley Scott, who is a prisoner in the county jail charged with the murder of Harvey Scott, her father-in-law, has not changed very markedly since she was first brought in. The nervous strain she has undergone, and is still undergoing, following as it did on a serious illness, has left her very weak. But while she shows signs of the nervous shock, it is not in any external manifestation. There is nothing uncontrolled or hysterical about her demeanor.

For the past two nights, though, she appears to have slept but little, and she eats practically nothing.

A Model Prisoner.

She has caused no trouble to those in attendance on her, and has hardly spoken, save to answer questions, since she entered the jail. So far she has shown no particular interest in her surroundings, nor does she seem greatly interested in the terrible charge that is standing against her. She is content to sit all day in her cell or in the corridor adjoining, with her hands folded on her lap, doing nothing.

Besides her husband and her lawyer, the jail physician is the only person who has access to her. While admitting her extreme nervous condition,

May Be Insanity Plea.

Dr. McArthur said that he would rather not give any opinion regarding her condition till he had been able to observe it for some days. As there are rumors that temporary insanity may also be the plea urged on her behalf, the doctor's opinion regarding the woman's present mental condition is naturally of great interest and importance.

Woman Prisoner.

It is many years ago now since a woman was confined in the local jail on this serious charge, and this fact lends an added interest to her case. She is lodged in one of the large, bright cells on the upper floro, the window of which looks out beyond the jail wall to the south. Everything has been done to make her as comfortable as possible under the circumstances, and one of the matrons is in practically constant attendance, as the woman's physical condition demands.

Sympathy for Her.

Reports from Thorndale and the vicinity received this morning state that feeling is running very strongly in favor of the prisoner, but the theory of temporary insanity does not find favor among those who know the circumstances of the woman's life best. The prevailing opinion is that she was tortured and threatened and abused so that she couldn't stand it any longer, and only as that condition could be looked upon as insanity, is there any color to the suggestion in the minds of her neighbors.

Late Harvey Scott.

The funeral of Harvey Scott, who was killed by his daughter-in-law at an early hour on Monday morning, took place this afternon at 2 o'clock, from his late residence, lot 12, con. 5, West Nissouri. The interment took place at the Clipperton Cemetery.

RAILWAY COMMISSION AFTER U. S. OFFICIALS

Complaints Made That Immigration Officers Are Uncivil to Travellers.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, Sept. 15.—The Canadian railway commission today made an order directing all railroads in Canada which do an international business to direct their conductors to prevent undue interference with passengers in Canada by United States immigration officials. In making the order, Chairman Mabee said he had received over 50 complaints against American immigration officials, who are alleged to have made themselves obnoxious in Canada, not only to passengers bound to the United States, but to passengers going from one Canadian point to another. The order directs conductors to report all cases of incivility by American officials on Canadian trains. On behalf of the railways, it was explained that the presence of American officers on trains in Canada, was due to an arrangement, and was designed to prevent loss of time in making examinations at boundary points.

TROLLEY STRUCK BUGGY LADY WAS RUN OVER

Accident to Dr. Waugh's Rig in Which Youg Girl Had Narrow Escape.

A young lady, who was driving with Dr. Waugh on Dundas street, between Colborne and Waterloo streets, was thrown from the buggy and ron over by the rig this morning shortly after 11 o'clock, when one side of the vehicle was struck by the rear step of Dundas car No. 68, in charge of Motorman Conkey.

The lady fell to the pavement with considerable force directly before the wheels, when the horse jumped, had no chance to save herself from being run over. She was not badly hurt, and was at once driven to her home. Motorman Conkey stopped the car very quickly.

HILL STREET MAN BITTEN BY DOG

Levi Judkins Attacked by a Vicious Foxterrier.

Levi Judkins, of 411 Hill street, night watchman at McClary's new foundry, was very severely bitten yesterday by a foxterrier while he was on his way to work. As he was passing along Hill street, the dog ran up behind him and fastened its teeth deep in his leg. Mr. Judkins managed to free himself from the animal after a short time, and at once hurried to Dr. Stevenson's office. The wound was found to be a very deep and ugly one, and was at once cauterized. Mr. Judkins will be laid up for some days as a result of the bite. Steps will be taken to see that the dog is destroyed.

CONDUCTOR'S CLOSE CALL

Was Knocked From Steps as He Was Going Over a Bridge.

Conductor E. Davis, who resides on Hamilton road east, had a very narrow escape from serious injury when he was struck and knocked from the steps of a Springbank car on the York street bridge while making an afternoon trip from the park the other day.

Davis, who is an Englishman, was thrown from the car, and had it not been for the presence of mind of a couple of passengers, it is said, he would have gone into the river.

His transfer punch was knocked from his pocket over the edge, and Davis was badly cut about the head.

WRECK ON M. C. R.

Marshall, Mich., Sept. 15. — An M. C. R. train of fourteen coaches bound from Tekonsha, Union City and Athens, to Marshall, was wrecked today at Adams, six miles south of Battle Creek. Six coaches and the locomotive are said to be derailed, but no one was killed. An aged man was slightly hurt.

Roaster Burned.

An amusing incident occurred yesterday afternoon, on Clarence street, when a "peanut roaster and salesman" took fire as a result of a vigorous shake from a customer. The machine, which contains a small lamp, by means of which the nuts are heated, went up in smoke before a number of people began to think, the cents and everything else being baked properly.

FORMER LONDONER ATTEMPTED SUICIDE

George Merryfield Slashes His Throat and Throws Himself in River.

POLICE TAKE HIM IN

Thinks He Is Being Pursued by a Band of Black Handers—A Strange Case.

Windsor, Sept. 15.—After two desperate attempts to end his life at Marine City, Mich., yesterday, George Merryfield, who says he formerly resided in London, Ont., was taken in charge by the police, and is now in a Port Huron hospital under surveillance.

Merryfield's first attempt was by cutting a huge gash in his throat with a razor.

When he found this unsuccessful he made a dash for the river, and threw himself in. Jeremiah Tarte, a bystander, plunged into the water and the would-be suicide was brought ashore nearly dead from exhaustion. After his wounds were dressed Merryfield was taken to Port Huron.

He believes he is being pursued by a gang of "black handers," and attempted suicide to cheat them of their prey. He is probably insane.

ALL ROADS TO LONDON TODAY

Every Train Coming Into the City Was Crowded With Visitors.

G. T. R. BROUGHT 6,000

P. R. Did Big Business, Also P. RG. Did Big Business Also) the Traction Line.

London is today the Mecca towards which thousands of people from all parts of Western Ontario are hurrying, and every train and stage and out-of-town car which reached the city added its quota to the already enormous crowd attending the Fair.

Every train carried special coaches, and in many instances special trains were put on to accommodate the crowds.

G. T. R. Brought 6,000.

Grand Trunk officials staate that their road carried fully 6,000 visitors to the Fair.

"It's the greatest crowd I ever remember," said a G. T. R. official to The Advertiser. "We ran two trains down the Bruce, and they carried fully 1,500 people. At every station they picked up passengers, and when London was reached there was standing-room only. A special from Brantford brought in 1,000 people, and the regular train brought nearly as many more. All trains on the branch lines were filled to capacity, and the through trains carried many hundreds."

The Pere Marquette specials brought in fully 2,000 people from the districts to the south.

3,000 By Traction Line.

The Southwestern Traction Company put on a half-hour service, and although their reports were not completed, estimate that they carried fully 3,000 people.

All the C. P. R. morning trains were crowded, and a great many visitors arrived on the early train had reached the Fair Grounds in good time. The later trains from the east brought in large crowds also. The C. P. R. estimate that they handled fully 2,000 people.

The Michigan Central train brought in another large crowd of Fair visitors from districts east and west of St. Thomas.

Stages Busy.

In addition to the trains and trolleys, every stage line running into the city did a rushing business, and hundreds of farmers drove in for miles around. Many of the hotel yards are completely filled with vehicles, and dining-rooms and restaurants were at times unable to accommodate those who wanted meals.

GAS EXPLOSION SINGED HIS WHISKERS

A Hamilton Man Has a Marvellous Escape From Death.

Hamilton, Ont., Sept. 15.—Felix O'Neill had a narrow escape from instant death about six o'clock this morning, when his home at the corner of Hunter and John streets, was blown up by natural gas. The gas had been escaping into the dining room from a flexible tube, all night and this morning, O'Neil lighted a match to light the gas at the chandelier. There was a terrific explosion and O'Neil stood in his dining room, while his house tumbled about his ears. One wall was completely blown out, the bricks landing on the lawn of the T., H. and B. station, and others resting in nearby trees. The cornices were badly bent and the other walls are bulging out. O'Neil, despite the fact that he was in the storm centre, escaped with nothing more serious than singed whiskers.

DRY ON MARS.

San Jose, Cal., Sept. 16. — People on the planet Mars, if any live there, breathe an atmosphere which is almost destitute of moisture. This is the conclusion of Director W. W. Campbell, of Lick Observatory, who returned recently from making observations from the summit of Mount Whitney, the highest point in the United States.

"Water vapor on Mars does not exist in sufficient quantities to be detected by the spectroscopic method," said Prof. Campbell.

SOUTH LONDON TAKES LEAD IN POPULATION INCREASE

Also Stands First for New Buildings—City's Census Figures Are Disappointing—Only an Increase of 76—A Loss in No. 2 Ward Is Noted—The Complete Figures.

The population of the city of London lacks almost 500 of the necessary 50,000, the basis of population upon which a vote on Sunday cars will be taken.

Assessment Commissioner Grant has just completed the assessment of the city, and the figures are now made public. The total population of the city at the present time is 49,507. The population in 1908 was 49,431. The net increase for the year was 76.

In every ward there was an increase in population except Ward 2, where there was a decided falling off. So great was the decrease there, in the boardinghouse districts, that it almost nullified the increases in the other wards.

Increase in Assessment.

The total increase in assessment during the year amounted to $839,232, which is considered very fair. It is divided as follows: Land, $89,080 increase; buildings, $652,530; business assessment $45,699; income, $51,923. In wards the increase was distributed as follows: Ward 1, $255,516; Ward 2, $217,128; Ward 3, $117,653; Ward 4, $248,935.

"The increase in population is disappointing," said Commissioner Grant. "However, considering the great exodus to the Northwest, and the rapid building up of the suburbs, it is not to be wondered at. All these facts are detrimental to the city's growth."

AYLMER MAN PRAISES THE WESTERN FAIR

Mr. A. A. Leslie Says the Show This Year Excels Anything of the Past.

Mr. A. A. Leslie, manager of the Aylmer Fair, was a visitor at the Western Fair yesterday, and was entertained at luncheon last evening by President Reid and the directors.

He declared that the Fair this year is superior to any yet held in London.

"Everything is running smoothly," he stated. "You have a fine class of exhibits, and they are well placed in every department. The attractions before the stand are the best you have ever had. There are more standard acts in it than ever before, and it is almost certain to please. It's a good show, and the directors deserve great credit for it."

TORONTO MAN LOST FINGER AT DOG SHOW

Was Petting the Brute When It Seized His Hand.

Mr. James Kenyon, of Toronto, a visitor at the local Dog Show, had his hand badly lacerated yesterday afternoon by a terrier.

One of the foxterriers got out of his collar, and Mr. Kenyon attempted to place the dog in his place. It attacked him, biting his hand very badly. His little finger was fearfully lacerated, and the other portions of his hand considerably torn. Dr. J. B. Campbell cauterized the wounds, and it is not expected that any serious results will accrue from the accident.

CROWDS TO SEE FAIR BUT NO LAWLESSNESS

The Police Report That They Have Had No Trouble Whatever.

The police have had little to do during the Fair.

The number of arrests have been extremely small, numbering no more than an ordinary day in the city.

Few drunks have been noticed on the streets, and there has been practically no disorder anywhere.

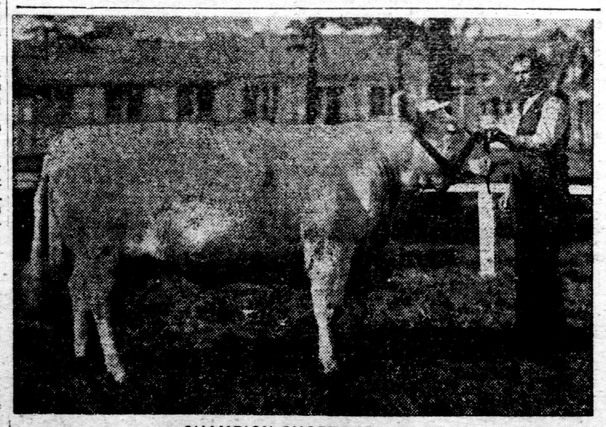

On the Fair grounds, it has been extremely quiet, and the police have had nothing at all to do there.

As for pickpockets, they have been conspicuous by their absence. Not a single case has been reported, and no arrests have been made.

"We are having little trouble," said Chief Williams. "We are after pickpockets, and get them. Consequently, the crooks give us a wide berth. Some objection has been made to our publicity notices, but our answer is, that we rid the city of pickpockets, and what more can we do than that? It has been successful, and I see no reason why we should change it."

CHARGES MISREPRESENTATION

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 15.—An action has been begun by Charles Stock, of Ottawa, against Alfred James McPherson, of Stratford, in which the plaintiff claims damages for alleged fraudulent misrepresentations on the sale to him of a one tenth interest of shares in certain Saskatchewan lands comprising altogether 7,840 acres. He also asks to have the agreement set aside and claims a lien on the lands and return of the money paid and interim junction restraining the defendant from selling or otherwise disposing of the one tenth interest. It was granted this morning by Mr. Justice MacMahon until the 20th instant.

CHAMPION SHORTHORN COW.

FARMERS' DAY AT WESTERN FAIR TREMENDOUS CROWD ON GROUNDS

New Story Saturday

The Advertiser will begin the publication of a new serial story on Saturday. The title is "The Mystery of Professor Greer," and the author Wm. Le Queux, and English favorite wih the reading public. This story has not yet been put into book form or printed on this side of the Atlantic. Mr. Le Queux pronounces it his best mystery story. It has a charming love interest.

MAN SAID HE STOLE A GRIP

And Is Now Trying to Explain the Charge Against Him.

LIKELY A DOPE FIEND

A Few Drunks Took Up a Portion of P. M. Love's Time in Court This Morning.

Police court business was rather slow today, P. M. Love having little to do.

His chief worry was concerning the disposal of Peter Brown, or rather Brown-Dowling. A week ago Brown walked into the police station and informed the desk sergeant that he had stolen a grip. No explanation was forthcoming, and he was remanded the next day for a week for sentence. This morning in court he made a very lucid explanation, saying that he lost his grip, and picked up the one in his possession.

Upon examination, he found it was not his, and came to the police station with it. He gave several references as to his previous good character, and one of his former employes stated that he had always been an honest man.

"You certainly have not the appearance of a criminal," said P. M. Love.

Brown further explained that he had served for eleven years in the British army, and had gone through the South African campaign. This, he stated, was also the first time he had ever been in any trouble.

Something Wrong.

"Your explanation is very clear, but I cannot understand why you did not tell me that before," said P. M. Love. "I certainly would not have kept you in jail, if that is the real truth of the matter.

"I will remand you for a week. You are not a drinking man, but something is wrong apparently. I will find out in the meantime, and if you tell the truth I will discharge you."

In police court circles it is suspected that he is a "dope" fiend, some of the officers hinting at cordite eating.

An Indian Lister.

George Morrison, who is on the Indian list, fell off yesterday, and was fined the customary $10 and costs. He will pay.

Gilbert Writh madeh is second appearance before P. M. Love in three months on a charge of drunkenness, and paid $5 for the ride in the police taxi.

A couple of Fair visitors imbibed not wisely and too often, but were discharged.

WEATHER NOTES.

A shallow depression covers the lake region, attended by numerous thunderstorms

Visitors Have Been Pouring Into Queen's Park From Early This Morning.

WEATHER WAS NOT FAVORABLE

But the Crowd Came Just the Same—Great Day for the Exhibition.

Farmers' Day is attracting throngs of people to the Western Fair.

In spite of the fact that the weather was threatening early in the morning, many thousands have come to the city, and from present indications the attendance will be the largest in years.

Every train coming to the city brought thousands of visitors, and the majority of them went direct to the grounds.

As a result the grounds and buildings were packed with sightseers, and from noon until 3 o'clock, the street railway company was kept extremely busy handling the crowds.

Big Crowd in Stands.

The grandstand is filled to capacity, and from every point of vantage the thongs are viewing the races and the grandstand attractions.

Everything is running very smoothly at the Fair grounds, there being few if any complaints concerning the management.

At the directors' meeting daily little time is spent in transacting the business, as there are few matters for adjustment.

At the meeting today there was nothing of any importance done. Dr. Routledge, chairman of the horse committee, announced that he had appointed two new judges to settle a protest, and the former award had been reaffirmed.

Directors W. McNeil, William Moore and Geo. G. McCormick were appointed a committee to interview the London street railway, relative to the rental of the loop.

Cold Storage Plant.

The suggestion made by Mr. William Moore, that a cold storage plant be installed in connection with the dairy building, was favorably received, but the directors were of the opinion that it was too late to do anything this year, and the matter was referred to next year's board.

Among those present were President W. J. Reid, W. McNeil, W. Moore, J. W. Jones, Ald. Saunders, Ald. Fitzgerald, Geo. Scatcherd, W. W. Gammage, C. E. Trebilcock, Geo. G. McCormick, W. M. Spencer, Col. Gartshore, Dr. G. A. Routledge, R. A. Carrothers, John Pringle, T. Hardy Shore, Col. McEwen, Jas. Murray, Mayor Stevely and others.

Several visitors were entertained at lunch by the directors.

The directors are hopeful that if the weather continues fine until Friday there will be a reasonable surplus over the expenses.

KICKED BY A HORSE MAY NOT RECOVER

Kent Country Truck Farmer Meets With a Serious Accident.

(Special to The Advertiser.)

Chatham, Sept. 15.—George Hambly, a truck farmer, lies in a serious condition in the General Hospital here, as the result of being kicked by his horse on the market this morning. He had just alighted from his wagon, and while stooping was kicked in the back or his head, fracturing the temporal bone.

SUPT. BOWKER TOOK CHARGE LAST NIGHT

Succeeds Mr. A. J. Nixon in the Middle Division of the G. T. R.

Assistant Superintendent C. G. Bowker took charge of the middle division of the Grand Trunk at midnight last night.

He arrived in the city yesterday afternoon, and Mr. A. J. Nixon, his predecessor, introduced him to the staff.

This morning, Mr. Nixon was at the office cleaning up some unfinished business. He will finish that today, leaving this evening for the east for two weeks' holidays.

"I am familiarizing myself with my work here," said Mr. Bowker. "I have just taken hold, and am getting an idea of the work."

As his predecessor, Mr. Bowker is a large man, clean-shaven, and is a strong man in every particular. He has made marked advancement in railroad work, and is looked upon as one of the rising men on the Grand Trunk. He will remove his family to London shortly.

London Township Fair.

The London Township Fair, which will be held in Ilderton on Friday, Sept. 24, promises to be one of the best ever held in a country place. The entries are coming in rapidly, and the directors are working hard to make the fair a grand success. The special train leaving London at 1:30 o'clock and returning at 5:30 is a fine chance for the city people to go out and spend an afternoon at the fair.

The boys asked Stillwell to lower the flag and he refused. Then they pelted it with stones until he did. Mr. Stillwell is an American, and says he meant no offense.

MORE WINNERS AT THE POULTRY SHOW

Some of the Exhibitors Who Will Carry Away Prizes From the Big Fair.

SOME SPLENDID CATTLE

Are Shown This Year—Advertiser Man Gives His Opinion of the Different Exhibits.

In the cattle sheds yesterday morning the attendants were astir bright and early, putting on the finishing touches, as the judges were to start work at 9 o'clock.

Everything in the shape of cleaning and grooming had to be done before that hour, so as to appear in the show ring in the best possible shape to win the red ribbon. It was a beautiful morning, and the sight was a grand one for lovers of stock.

Breeders of cattle and horses, as a rule, make it a point to be on hand Tuesday morning, so that they may see the stock in the ring, where they can see them to the best advantage.

Below will be found a few of the winners:

Herefords—W. H. Hunter & Son, Orangeville, shows some fine animals in this class; so also does A. G. Govenlock, Forest.

W. H. Hunter wins first on aged bull, a splendid specimen of the breed, turning the scales at 2,800 pounds. A. G. Govenlock, second, with another fine one, weighing 2,300 pounds.

Hunter & Son won first on yearling bull; also first on bull calf, Govenlock winning second bull calf.

Cows—Govenlock wins first on a beauty; Hunter & Son second.

Aberdeen Angus—This is one of the best classes in the show. John Lowe, Elora, won first on aged bull, weighing 2,215 pounds, and first yearling; also first on 2-year-old steer and first on yearing steer.

LITTLE MERMAID

Girl of Seven Years Swims Twice Across Schuylkill River.

Philadelphia, Sept. 15.—Swimming across the Schuylkill River at Lafayette, a distance of 150 yards, and returning without taking a rest, was the unusual feat of Edith Cugley, seven years old.

The little girl has been spending the summer at Lafayette with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Cugley, of 5138 Hazel avenue, West Philadelphia. Saturday she obtained permission from her father to try to swim across the river and jumped into the water. An interested throng watched her bravely make her way across the river. Yard by yard, firm strokes brought her to the goal.

When she reached the shore the little swimmer, undaunted, started back. The strong current, and a strong wind blowing ahead made the return hard, but she kept her stroke up until her feet touched at her starting place.

Notwithstanding her achievement, she is a very modest little girl.

"Course it's the longest way I ever swam yet," she said, "but I'll swim lots farther when I'm bigger."

TAFT STARTS JAUNT

To Swing Around the United States, Covering 13,000 Miles.

Boston, Sept. 15.—Well tanned by more than five weeks on the golf links, and invigorated by the salt sea breezes of Massachusetts Bay, President Taft closed his 40 days' vacation today in excellent voice, and started on his 13,000 miles swing around the country. The President is looking forward to a delightful two months, in which he will meet thousands of people, and to whom his voice will carry strength and conviction as to the purposes of the new administration.

President Taft began his speech-making tour last night at the banquet of the chamber of commerce of Boston. He will resume in Chicago.

The presidential party was driven from the hotel to the train at 9:30 a.m., and boarded the special train of three cars at the south station, which left for the west before 10 o'clock.

OUT OF COMMISSION.

Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 15.—With the exception of the Richelieu and Ontario line steamers, traffic on Lake Ontario for the year has closed. The Arundel, North King, Alexandria, and other steamers plying between Charlotte and Canadian ports are out of commission, and the Richelieu line will close its runs on Sept. 30.

DELUGE OF FRUIT ON LOCAL MARKET

Demand Likely To Be Over-Supplied—A Great Rush.

The fact that the Western Fair is in progress has evidently made fruit shippers all over the country think of London as a good market, and this morning there was a perfect deluge of fruit, dropped at the doors of all the wholesale fruit men, while many of the retail dealers had very large shipments sent to them direct. On the market this morning no sooner was one of the large express lorries unloaded than another would drive up, piled high with baskets.

Literally thousands of baskets of fruit were delivered by the express companies early this morning, and every train brought heavy shipments. The wholesalers had difficulty in keeping track of the large supply of fruit received. Despite the Fair, which will undoubtedly greatly increase the consumption, the market is likely to be over-supplied, and the prices will naturally have a tendency to drop. Plums and peaches made up the majority of the shipments, though there was also a large supply of grapes and pears.

CHILD SLAYER KNOWN BY VICTIM'S PARENT

Will Not Tell Police Preferring to Take a Personal Vengeance.

Utica, N. Y., Sept. 14.—The police have run down every possible clue without result in their effort to find the murderer of little Theresa Procoplo and Freddy Infusino, and then are no nearer a solution tonight than they were when the fiendish crime was discovered early yesterday morning. Rewards aggregating $3,250 have been offered for information which will lead to the arrest and conviction of the murderer.

The attitude of little Fannie Infusino, who insists that she does not know the name of the man who lured her and the two dead children from their homes, together with the statemen of Mrs. Gray, who first discovered the crime that Fannie told her the name of the man, strengthens the belief that the parents of the children know more of the crime than they have admitted.

Mrs. Gray says the child told her the name of the man, saying that she knew him well. It was an Italian name, she says, but she is unable to remember it. A few moments later the child's father arrived and talked excitedly with the child in Italian, and from that time on the child has stolidly maintained that she does not know the man. If the parents know who the murderer is, they are either afraid to divulge his identity, or they are awaiting an opportunity to seek personal vengeance, the police say.

A prominent Utica Italian, when asked tonight if the rewards would be an inducement for Italians who have information regarding the crime to divulge it, said he was sure it would not. They would be afraid of personal vengeance, he said.

BIG REWARD OFFERED IN MILLMAN CASE

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 15. — A reward of $1,000 was offered today by the county authorities for information leading to the apprehension and conviction of the person or persons responsible for the death of Miss Mabelle Millman, of Ann Arbor, whose dismembered body was found last week in Ecorse Creek and the lower Detroit River.

It is said that the new clues in the possession of the police lead further away from Dr. Fritch.

CLASH AT HARBIN

Germans and Russians Have Serious Difference Over Payment of Taxes.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 14. — An incident of serious import has occurred at Harbin, Manchuria, involving the relations between Russia and Germany.

The story is that the American and German representatives at Harbin protested against the Russo-Chinese agreement regarding the Manchurian Railway, and subsequently the German consul, Herr Raumuller, advised the German residents to refuse to pay taxes to the Russian officials.

The latter consequently served a writ on the German firm of Peitzing, who asked Consul Raumuller's advice. The latter, it is said, tore up the writ, and told the Peitzing firm to ignore it. The outcome is not reported.

SHOT HIMSELF DEAD

Montreal, Que., Sept. 15.—Allan McDonald, a clerk in the employ of the Bishop Construction Co., Beaver Hall Square, shot himself this morning in the company's place of business. McDonald had an office on the third floor and was alone when the deed was committed. The bullet went into his mouth and came out the top of his head. McDonald was 28 years of age, the son of Archibald McDonald, a resident of Montreal.

SHOOTING OF DILLON.

Hugh Semple, a lawyer, gave a graphic description in the court of king's bench today, of the circumstances connected with the murder of a policeman by John Dillon alias Smith, the book agent in Mance street boarding house when the arrest of Dillon was sought. Semple was called to the house by Dillon on professional business and it was while he was in the room that the fighting commenced.

THE AWAKENING OF THE OLD LAND.

"The Imperial Press Conference: A Retrospect With Comment," is the title of a brochure in which are reprinted a number of articles written for the Winnipeg Free Press by its editor and conference representative, Mr. John W. Dafoe. The series is something more than a vivid report of the proceedings of the conference and its side-shows. It is a record of the writer's observations and impressions of the mother country, and of his shrewd judgments upon political, social and economic conditions. It is gratifying to know that he found the race at home "young, progressive and virile, not stale and decrepit, as it is often represented." Britishers are breaking through their antiquated forms of life; there is a great shaking-up process which is sharpening and brightening the national character. This self-examination is resulting in progress and reform. The tendency is toward a greater democratization of the nation.

"The patriarchal regimentation of society with its parallels in business, buttressed and upheld as it is by customs and traditions, many of them admirable in themselves, must give way to conditions under which the inequalities, inevitable to human society, will be the product of varying talents, rather than the accidents of birth and fortune. There is a steay evolution towards this end, and it is being forwarded quite as much by business and social necessities as by political agitation."

Like his other colleagues of the argus-eyed fraternity, Mr. Dafoe saw much that was not on the official programme. He found some dark spots on the picture:

"Poetic and picturesque as the country is, it requires no particular acuteness to see that the beautiful screen hides some conditions which do not make for national greatness; and in Sheffield we were brought face to face with slum life in all its unimaginable horror. While we were visiting ar industrial establishment in the very poorest part of Sheffield news of the unusual spectacle of a fleet of 20 motors in the street passed through the byways and courts; and when we emerged from the building we found the street blocked from curb to curb for a distance of 300 or 400 yards by a sea of pallid, hunger - smiten, bestial, hopeless faces. The men and women were a pitiful group, but the children touched deeper chords of compassion. It was a hard sight, and one not on the programme; but it was one which the delegates would not have willingly missed. It tended to readjust their judgment on some important matters."

Slums are not unknown, even on this continent, but the older and larger the community the more they are under existing social conditions. Hence the particular depravity of "Britain's submerged tenth." "But England of today," writes Mr. Dafoe, "no longer accepts these plague sores as the inevitable by-product of civilization; and is setting herself steadfly to their study and their cure. That fact alone is eloquent in its proof that England is heading not towards decadence, but towards regeneration."

PEOPLING CANADA.

The growth of the population of the Dominion is the subject of a report recently issued by the immigration department at Ottawa.

In the calendar year, 1897, the total immigration to Canada amounted to but 21,716 people. Then began Mr. Sifton's great propaganda. The people of the United States, Great Brition and continental countries have gradually come to something like a full realization of Canada's possibilities. The result has been one of the great movements of population known in modern times. The only event comparable to it in a century was the settlement of the Western States. Immigration into Canada reached its highest point in the fiscal year 1907-8. The record figure of 262,460 in that year dropped to 146,908 in the year following. The Government, in view of the world-wide commercial depression rather discouraged immigration. The current fiscal year, however, promises to make a most satisfactory showing, particularly in the movement from the United States.

The number of immigrants from the United Kingdom in 1908-9 was 52,901; in the preceding year the number was 120,182. From the European continent last year there came 34,175 immigrants. Thirty per cent of the arrivals from continental countries during the period since 1897 made entries for homestead, while many others engaged with farmers in domestic service. The number of homestead entries last year totalled 39,881.

The figures of immigration from the United States are particularly striking. In 1897 the total amounted to but 4,212; last year the number was 59,832. Forty-three per cent of the immigrants from the United States since 1897 have made homestead entries. The value of the cash and settlers effects brought in by these newcomers is very great, that for the year 1907-8 alone (the last year for which statistics are available), being placed at $52,000,000.

The number of English and Welsh immigrants received in the last two years was 128,894; of Scotch, 34,033, and of Irish, 10,156. That the arrangement made by Hon. Mr. Lemieux with the Government at Tokio is working satisfactorily is demonstrated by the fact that in the year just closed only 495 Japanese immigrants entered this country, as compared with 7,601 in 1907-8.

No less than 19,897 immigrants have been held for inspection and 3,803 rejected since 1902-3, when the medical act went into force. In April of last year the inspection of immigrants seeking admission to Canada from the United States was begun, and since then 4,580 have been debarred from entering. Since 1902-3, 3,149 immigrants have been returned to the countries whence they came, having been found to be undesirable or likely to become a charge upon the public. Of these deportations 1,748 were made last year.

AUSTRALIA'S COSTLY PEST.

Australia continues to be overrun with rabbits, and it is estimated by the London Economist that the pest costs the Commonwealth close on $50,000,000 a year. A perpetual warfare against the little animals is maintained by farmers and sheep raisers, who are obliged to fence their lands with vermin proof wire netting. Millions of miles of wire fences have been erected. Farmers have also to use poison carts and employ large numbers of trappers. The cost to the owner of one pastoral freehold is estimated to average nearly $6,000 a year.

The plague has reached its present dimension within the period of thirty years. It began with a sport-loving resident of Victoria setting free a half-dozen couples, which, aided by a favorable climate and access to plenty of food and water, have multiplied at an amazing rate. Naturalists estimate that, given such conditions, a single couple in about five years becomes four millions.

Millions of rabbits are killed every year, between 150,000 to 200,000 having been destroyed on one large leasehold alone. On some small farms as many as 10,000 rabbits have been caught in one night by simply netting in the water tanks during the hot day season.

In addition the losses incurred by farmers in fighting the pest, enormous damage is done by rabbits in devouring herbage. It is estimated that if there were no rabbits to feed 50 per cent more sheep could be raised in certain grazing districts. In the war of extermination that has been inaugurated the use of a virus, which it is thought might prove effective, is suggested, but the rabbit catchers and their friends in the legislatures oppose this plan, because, doubtless, it would interfere with an industry that gives employment to many people.

This is farmers' day at the Western Fair. The city is full of them, but there is not a "rube" in the crowd. He can be seen only on the stage.

Some French-Canadian lads in Montreal stoned the Stars and Stripes yesterday. Perhaps the lads had heard of Col. Denison's approval of this form of recreation.

A press syndicate offers to sell The Advertiser the rights for Dr. Cook's North Pole narrative, which he will issue when he reaches America. But we should not know whether we were buying fact or fiction.

The budget controversy in Great Britain is rising to fever heat. On Friday Premier Asquith speaks at Bingley Hall, Birmingham. It holds 9,000 people, and all the seats have been sold at prices ranging from a shilling to a guinea. Mr. Balfour will reply the following week in the same hall. Glasgow is also excited over the announcement that Mr. Lloyd-George will visit the city shortly to answer Lord Rosebery's attack on the Government. They make good use of the platform in the old land.

THE MODERN PAPA.

[Lurana W. Sheldon.]

Don't rock the babe, mother, and addle its brains!
Don't feed him on milk and make colicky pains!
Don't trot the dear child up and down on your knee;
It's bad for the infant, the doctors agree.

Get rid of the cradle; it's useless today!
Go throw out the bottle; its vanquished away!
The ring and the rattle, pray hide them, my dear,
For rubber will poison the baby, I hear.

Don't nurse him! Why, mother, you're harming the child!
A thousand good reasons already are filed.
And baby foods!—really, you cannot have learned
There's hardly a one that the nurse has not spurned.

The go-cart and carriage will injure his spine!
Don't kiss him, my dear, though he is yours and mine!
Don't talk baby talk to the infant, I pray.
It's bad for his mind, so the wisest all say.

"How is it that we all grew up to be old?"
Um! That's a thing that the wise have not told.
But don't toss him, mother, or count his pink toes,
Or something will happen, nurse says—and she knows!

PRECOCITY.

[Life.]

He was telling the young woman about his fine cows, and called her attention to a calf grazing not far away. "That calf is only six weeks old," he said. "Isn't he a beauty?"

"Only six weeks old!" questioned the young lady in amazement, "and walking so soon?"

THE NEW CHURCH.

[Seattle Intelligencer.]

"Colonel, we want a contrlbution from you to help build a mission church."

"Judge, you know well enough that while I am in sympathy with morality and religion, I don't believe in churches in the abstract, and——"

"Neither do I, colonel. We're going to build this one of concrete."

THE BISHOP'S VISIT.

[Tit-Bits.]

Bishop (who has "looked in" at rural Sunday school)—Now, children, can any of you tell—what is meant by the visitation of the bishop?

Little Girl (after a long pause)—Please, sir, an affliction sent from heaven.

MONEY-MAKING.

[Cleveland Leader.]

"You need a man to show you how to make money."

"I've got one. My boss shows me how it's done, but he won't let me do it."

OF COURSE.

[Chicago News.]

Homer—Say, is it true that they eat horse meat in Paris?

Trotter—Yes.

Homer—And how is it served?

Trotter—A la cart, of course.

STARTING AT THE ROOT.

[Kansas City Journal.]

"Yes, many thousand immigrants come to America every year."

"What assimilates them into good Americans?"

"Baseball."

TWIN BABIES NOT DESIRED.

[Wide World Magazine.]

In addition to their other amiable traits the Nigerians have been particularly addicted to twin sacrifice. When twins were born the village people placed the little mites in a jar and hid them in a bush or fetish grove, where they would, of course, perish. While this practice has largely disappeared, even today it is not unknown for one of these "twin jars" to be found.

A POSER.

[Illustrated Bits.]

Dolly—What's the new baby's name, Auntie?

Aunt—Oh, baby hasn't got any name yet.

Dolly—Then how do you know it belongs to us?

MUST BE SO.

[Cleveland Leader.]

"Look here, Jane, it seems to me that you're asking me for money all the time."

"That's a delusion, John, dear. If you'll think a minute you'll realize that I'm spending it part of the time."

SAVED THE SITUATION.

[London Tit-Bits.]

She raised her head from his shoulder for a moment.

"Do you believe that exercise and lotions and toilet preparations will improve a woman's looks?" she asked.

He pressed her blonde curls back upon his chest. "They couldn't improve the looks of some women," he said.

"Whose?" she asked.

"Well, yours and Violet Cochrane's, for instance," he replied, thoughtfully.

"It don't understand you," she said, raising her head for the second time and chilling him with a look. "We are not at all alike."

"I mean," he replied, turning her head for the second time and thinking quickly, "that your looks couldn't be improved because they are perfect as they are, and that hers couldn't be improved because no amount of work could make her pretty."

And the firelight flickered knowingly as she sighed a great sigh of contentment and relief, while he drew a deep breath.

SOME BUDGET VERSE.

[Sir Wilfrid Lawson.]

Pity the sorrows of a poor old duke,
Whom George's bill has brought to dire distress;
He has at his command no more the means
The weak to comfort and the poor to bless.
Chatsworth shut up,
Now mourns its exiled lord,
Compelled to spend his few remaining years
In the cold precincts of the workhouse ward.

Pity the sorrows of these noble men,
Whom biting poverty so hardly treats,
Driven from castle, court and hall,
And forced to seek their living in the streets,
And, issuing now from many a lowly den,
The sad procession greets the pitying town.
See the poor dukes, as pauper sandwichmen,
In doleful guise parading up nad down.

Stay, Traveller, if you have a heart to feel (Lest conscience your hard-heartedness rebukes),
Nor heedless turn from such a sad appeal—
O spare a trifle to these starving dukes.

THE OLD-TIME PARLOR.

[Philadelphia Bulletin.]

Who among the old and middle-aged but can shudderingly recall that once universal chamber of horrors? Still, formal, precise, normally darkened and with its furnishings shrouded in grave-like linen wrappings, it was a place to be avoided except on solemn occasions like funerals and when "company" was expected. Then it was ruthlessly exposed in all its enormities.

On one wall father in crayon; on the other mother in ditto. In the centre the marble-topped table, with its ostentatiously-displayed family Bible and the inevitable floral design done in wax by the eldest daughter. Doing sentinel duty around the walls were the chairs, each one decked out in its "tidy," and proclaiming loudly by their appearance their infrequent use. A room sacred to high days and holidays, and uninhabitable at ordinary times by even the boldest spirits in the house.

Today that erstwhile sacred but dismal apartment has all but vanished. In its place has come the "living room," a cheerful gathering place for the family. In more ways than one the young people of the present have advantages which their elders did not enjoy; and not the lest of them is not to have lived in the era when the "parlor" was a prominent institution in the land.

NORTH POLE PARAGRAPHS

[By Wex Jones in the New York American.]

Copenhagen—Scientific circles are greatly aroused over the report from Poodle Harbor that Commander Query says Eskimos cannot eat gumdrops without getting toothache. Explorer Snook characterizes this statement as a short and ugly slander, and declares that he will lay proofs before the scientists of the world.

To a large number of newspaper men Explorer Snook stated that the Eskimos did not chew the gumdrops, but merely let them melt in their mouths, a process which prevents wear of the molars and thus avoids toothache.

In addition Explorer Snook ridicules Commander Query's claim that he kept his Eskimos up to the mark on ice cream. He says the cold—295 degrees below zero, centigrde—would freeze the ice cream and render it useless for anything but building houses.

Poodle Harbor—The following dispatch has been received from Commander Query:

"Have nailed flag to Pole with glue. This is O. K.

"QUERY."

Dresden.—Professor Hasenpfeffer, the famous astronomer, says that Snook must be a man of wonderful physical endurance to have remained on the Pole for two days, as he says he did. Professor Hasenpfeffer points out that the polar ice pack drifts eastward at the rate of nine miles an hour. Consequently to stay on the Pole a man would have to run westward at the same speed. To keep this up for two days would necessitate the endurance of a mustang.

Etah.—A report is current among the Eskimos to the effect that two American explorers met at the North Pole and shot each other. So far as the Eskimos understood the conversation one explorer accused the other of stealing his gumdrops, while the second discoverer asserted that his trained dogs had been used as frankfurters by the opposing party. The dispute culminated in the double shooting.

Vienna.—Professor Goulache, in a statement issued today, says that science has no use for a man walking behind a sled. What science wants is a trained observer who will get his toes frozen off to see if it hurts. Also an expert who can estimate the number of snowflakes required to make a glacier. The present trip to the Pole Professor Goulache calls "vaudeville science." He thinks the Pole should be brought down where it could be examined at leisure.

Kooklook (Special).—A message from Oottoot, Northern Greenland, says that Hetookhishook, Dr. Snook's leading native assistant, has been kicked out of the Polar Union for walking twenty-three miles for a gumdrop.

Twenty miles is the recognized distance for one gumdrop.

Etah.—Commander Query, in reply to Dr. Snook's statement that the Pole looks like a 25-cent piece, says that he will make the doctor look like a 30-cent piece.

Etah.—Santa Claus, the well-known Eskimo, declares that no one has been at the Pole since he took up his residence there. He hopes that no explorers will come up there, as he doesn't want to lose any of his reindeer.

Copenhagen.—Instead of telling it to the marines, they now tell it to the King.

Honolulu.—A brass tube containing a flag has been found here. It is believed to be the one buried by Dr. Snook at the Pole.

Salt Lake City.—A brass tube containing a flag has been found here. It is believed to be the one buried by Dr. Snook at the South Pole.

Melbourne, Vienna, Cairo, Delhi, Glasgow, Lyons, etc.—Ditto.

DUST PREVENTION DEVICE

Hydraulic Pressure Oil Sprinkler With High Speed.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—A new automobile oil sprinkling device, which is claimed to be the real thing in dust-prevention, has been exhibited on a public thoroughfare. The demonstration was for the benefit of government road officials in Washington, who have been experimenting for several years with the end of improving public highways and doing away with the dust evil. Maj. J. J. Morrow, United States Army, in charge of the Washington aqueduct; Dr. Allerton S. Cushman, assistant director of the office of public roads of the Agricultural Department, and F. F. Gilen, expert, witnessed the performance of the new machine, and declared it to be the best yet.

The automobile oil sprinkler is the production of George M. Saybolt, chief chemist of the Standard Oil Company. Mr. Saybolt drove the machine to this city from New York, making demonstrations at every town. During all this time it has worked perfectly, he told the government officials today.

The chief advantage of the new sprinkler over the old ones is its rapidity of acomplishment. By the system used on the roads around the White Lot ellipse recently it was necessary to close the roads for several days. The new machine hurls the oil on the street or road surface with a hydraulic pressure of 150 pounds. This pressure is sufficient to drive the oil in, so that the surface treated can be opened to traffic fifteen minutes after being sprinkled.

Experiments were conducted on one of the macadam roads in the grounds of the Department of Agriculture. The machine stirs no dust because the oil, striking with high pressure, immediately envelops al' loose particles of dust.

FOOT WAS RUN OVER BY A STREET CAR

Accident In Which Anthony Costello, of 136 Queen's Avenue, Was Hurt.

Anthony Costello, 136 Queen's avenue, was very painfully injured, when his right foot was run over by a street car at the corner of Dundas and Wellington streets at non today, one toe being cut off.

Costello was riding on a bicycle and attempted to pass between a carriage and the car. The horse shied as he did so, and crowded him beneath the car, the wheels passing over the member.

Dr. John D. Wilson was called and the injured man carried into a nearby store, where his foot was dressed. He was later removed to his home, where he will be laid up for some time.

GIANT STORE MERGER LOOKS IMPROBABLE

It Is Reported From East That Millions Will Be Spent Merging Deparmental Stores.

Hamilton, Sept. 15. — A big mercantile merger has just been completed, by which a number of Canadian capitalists have procured the Lindsey and Carsley departmental stores in Ottawa and Montreal, respectively, and plans are under way for the establishment of a chain of departmental stores in the leading Canadian cities. Several Hamilton capitalists are interested in the deal, and some idea of the wealth of the corporation may be gathered from the fact that $1,500,000 was paid for the Carsley store in Montreal alone. The definite plans of the promoters have not been made public, but it is understod that stores will be opened in Hamilton, Toronto, Winnipeg, Vancouver and other Canadian cities, and operated in connection with this which have been bought in Ottawa and Montreal.

Looks Like Fake Story.

When Mr. J. B. Smallman was spoken to this morning by an Advertiser representative regarding the above dispatch, he remarked: "I am satisfied that there is nothing in it. It is possible that they have bought the Lindsay store, for I know that it has been on the market; they may even have bought the Carsley store, though it is news to me. But regarding the merger, I have heard nothing of it, and it is hardly likely that it could have gone so far without some word of it having leaked out. I do not myself believe that such a giant enterprise as this could succeed without an enormous outlay. I am sure that they could not buy out Eaton's in Toronto without paying an immense price, and if they wan this store they would have to pay mighty well for it, for we flatter ourselves that we have the best fitted drygoods store in the country. And even to come to a town and compete with established businesses would not be much less expensive. Businesses like these are not made in a day. It takes years of straight dealing, and it would be very difficult for a new store to go against an established business successfully, without enormous capital behind it. So I really do not think that there is anything in the story at all."

'TWAS A BANNER DAY FOR THE NORTH POLE

Peary Tells of Planting a Half Dozen Flags and Leaving a Box of Records

Battle Harbor, Labrador, Sept. 15, via wireless telegraphy) to Cape Ray, Nfld.—Commander Robert E. Peary, who is still at Battle Harbor on board the steamer Roosevelt, conversed further today with the representative of the Associated Press regarding his journey to the North Pole. He spoke particularly of the flags he raised at the pole, the records he left, and he touched again on some of the assertions credited to Dr. Cook.

Commander Peary said that when he reached the pole the first flag to be thrown to the breeze was a silken American emblem presented to him by his wife fifteen years ago. He had carried this flag on every one of his expeditions to the north, leaving a piece of it at the highest point he attained. The last remnants were raised at the pole. The explorer then raised the navy ensign, the flag of the Navy League, then the flag of the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity, and finally a flag of peace. Tent poles and snow lances were used as flag staffs, and when all had been raised the commander took a number of photographs of the group.

After this ceremony Peary inclosed records of his trip and other documents and personal papers in a box and buried it in the ice. The documents were placed in water tight coverings, and the box itself was water tight, so it would float if the shifting or melting ice brought it to water. Commander Peary has not yet developed the films he took at the pole. Referring to the weather conditions at the apex of the world, Commander Peary said he found nothing like the revolving wind referred to by Antarctic explorers. He said weather conditions varied from time to time, although there was probably considerable uniformity. He would not say whether or not he found currents at the pole.

Commander Peary today received a cablegram asking him to make a statement regarding a report from a Danish source that he had posted a notice on the Greenland coast to the effect that Dr. Cook was dead, making such notice a pretext for the appropriation of Dr. Cook's supplies. The explorer said to the Associated Press reporter that he knew nothing of this.

RUSSIANS FOR PEARY.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 14.—The Imperial Russian Geographical Society has sent a telegram to Commander Peary congratulating him upon the discovery of the North Pole. It was proposed to elect the commander an honorary member of the society, but this was found impossible because the statutes limit the honorary members to twelve, and these places are now all filled. The society has expressed no opinion regarding the Peary-Cook controversy.

CHILDREN'S AID DISCUSS SHORTAGE OF FUNDS

A Heavy Overdraft Has Had To Be Faced—The Work Accomplished.

The shortage of funds was a fruitful theme of discussion at the regular meeting of the Children's Aid Society held in the clay hall Monday afternoon. The accumulation of maintenance accounts over the summer adjournment of the board, made a heavy overdraft on the society's treasurer, and the problem of how to meet this occupied the attention of the board for some time. It was decided to make an appeal to the public for contributions and donations of vegetables and other staple articles of food for use at the shelter home during the fall and winter months. It was also recommended that an appeal be made to churches and church societies for donations from harvest home festivals and thanksgiving services.

The shelter home committee reported that the home had been visited regularly during the summer. Several recommendations made in regard to some needed improvements at the shelter could not be adopted because of the lack of funds.

An interesting and exhaustive report of the work accomplished during the summer months by the society's probation officer, Mr. James Stevenson, and the acting inspector, was submitted. The action taken in the many cases dealt with was approved by the board. The cases of all the juveniles who had appeared in the police court had received the careful consideration of the probation officer and with good results.

It was moved by Mr. J. I. A. Hunt, seconded by Mr. Stevenson, and carried unanimously, that the society place on record its appreciation of the valuable services of the Rev. D. S. Hamilton as a member of the board during the entirep eriod of his residence in London.

Sheriff Cameron presided at the meeting, and there was a fair attendance of members.

DR. JAMES FULTON OF ST. THOMAS IS DEAD

Well-Known Physician Passed Away at Victoria Hospital After a Brief Illness.

Medical men all over Canada will learn with the deepest regret of the death of Dr. James Fulton, of St. Thomas, which occurred in Victoria Hospital this morning at 5 o'clock after a brief illness. Dr. Fulton was one of the best-known physicians in this part of the country, and while attending the medical convention at Winnipeg recently was taken ill. He hurried home and his condition became such that he was removed to Victoria Hospital, and it was decided to operate. The disease had, however, made too rapid progress and this with the strain of travelling rendered the case almost hopeless from the first. Death was due to an abscess on the liver. Dr. Fulton was 50 years old, and had lived in St. Thomas the greater part of his life. He is survived by his wife, who arrived in the city this morning. The remains were taken to St. Thomas on the first train, and the funeral will be held there.

ASYLUM PATIENT BOUGHT A TEAM

Man Did Not Know His Customer Was Insane Until He Went to Asylum to Collect the Money.

Yesterday morning the festive spirit of the Fair entered into one of the patients at the London Asylum for the Insane, and as a result he came down to the city to see the sights. On the market he met with a man with a fine team of horses, and at once offered the man $300 for the team. The owner of the horses jumped at the offer, nor did he suspect anything when the man asked him to drive them to the asylum, where he would receive the money. Arriving at the asylum he inquired for the man who had bought the horses, and then, and only then, he learned that the ardent purchaser was an inmate of the institution. And so he left the asylum in anything but a holiday spirit, another man robbed of the first blush of innocency.

HAZELTINE DEAD.

New York, Sept. 14. — Mayo Williamson Hazeltine, book reviewer and special editorial writer on the Sun since 1878, died today at Atlantic City, where for some time he had been accustomed to live a part of the year.

COMMITTED TO ASYLUM.

Mrs. J. W. Howe, of East London, who was committed to jail last Friday by Magistrate Love, on the charge of being insane, was examined this morning before Magistrate Love and Drs. McArthur and Robinson, and committed to the asylum. The woman has been proving a decided nuisance to her neighbors, and it is said that she has tried to commit suicide by jumping into a cistern.

MR. POPE SELECTED POWER SECRETARY

Former G. T. R. Solicitor Appointed to the Hydro Electric Commission.

Toronto, Sept. 15. — Important matters relative to the early working out of the provincial power policy were before the Government at the cabinet session yesterday afternoon. The work of the building of the transmission line will be proceeded with with all possible expedition.

Mr. W. W. Pope, K. C., who for the past twenty years has been connected with the solicitor's office of the Grand Trunk Railway at Belleville, and subsequently at Montreal, has been appointed secretary to the hydro-electric commission. His appointment is expected to relieve the chairman, Hon. Adam Beck, of much of the heavy work of detail, which now falls to the minister's lot. Mr Clarence E. Settell, heretofore the secretary, will continue as asisstant. Mr. Pope's appointment takes effect on Oct. 1.

In making the announcement Sir James Whitney said: "I have known Mr. Pope for a long while, and his great practical ability is known to many people in Canada. The Government expects splendid results from this appointment. As secretary, Mr. Pope will, to a certain extent, take charge, under the commission, of the various works.' '

Notwithstanding the big crowds in town today, not a single case of pocketpicking or stealing of any kind has been reported to the police. The crowd is a perfectly orderly one, and seems bent on getting to the grounds in the shortest possible time. Notwithstanding that nothing has happened so far, the police and detectives are keeping a close watch for crooks of all kinds.

NEW COMBINATION OF WALL STREET GIANTS

Morgan and the Standard Oil Banks to Work With Harriman Interests.

New York, Sept. 15.—J. P. Morgan, jun., was elected yesterday to the late E. H. Harriman's place on the board of directors of the National City Bank. By Wall street the election is regarded as one of the most significant of the week's financial developments, presumably indicating that harmonious relations exist between the Morgan and the Kuhn-Loeb-Standard Oil groups of financiers. Added weight was given the event because it followed so closely upon the recent reports that the Morgan interests were about to take an active interest in the government of the Harriman roads, and that the younger Morgan was slated as the ultimate successor of Mr. Harriman in the command of the Union and Southern Pacific systems.

The National City Bank, largest of the nation's financial institutions, is controlled by the Kuhn-Loeb-Standard Oil interests, which assumed a commanding position in the executive committee of the Union Pacific. Geo. W. Perkins, of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., is already a director of the bank, and the additional recognition given the firm was taken by many in the financial district to mean not merely the existence of an entente-cordial but the consummation of an active working alliance between the two great groups of American financiers.

The National City Bank, the "Standard Oil Bank," has resources aggregating more than $300,000,000, while the First National, the "Morgan Bank," has resources approximating $150,000,000. The tremendous resources of the two combined is at once apparent.

The commanding position which the National City Bank interests now hold in the Harriman railroads is indicated by the fact that four of the six members of the reconstructed committee of the Union Pacific are directors in the bank—Jacob H. Schiff, W. Rockefeller, Frank A. Vanderlip and Henry C. Frick.

The changes made in the Southern Pacific directorate at the meeting, as the result of Mr. Harriman's death, were precisely the same as those made in the Union Pacific directorate.

THE SUICIDE MONTHS

Statistics Show That They Are in May, June and July.

Berlin, Sept. 15—Curious official statistics are published indicating the favorite seasons for committing suicide in Prussia. May, June and July are the "popular" months. Men prefer July, while women favor May. The fewest suicides take place in February. Thirty per cent of the male and 28 per cent of the female suicides occur in the spring time, and the next most in the summer, autumn and winter in the order named.

Berlin registers an average of 20 suicides weekly in June. Youthful persons prefer the night time for suicide, while adults oftener choose the morning or afternoon. The fewest suicides occur immediately after sunset. Monday, Tuesday and Thursday are the "favorite" days. The fact that most suicides occur Monday and Tuesday is attributed to the reaction after too joyful Sundays.

Friday shows the fewest suicides, because people on the brink of despair often recover their courage in anticipation of the payment of weekly wages next day. The smallest number of suicides take place Saturday (pay day) and Sunday, although the number of women who take their own lives on the Sabbath is relatively high. This is attributed to the fact that women who live alone feel their loneliness, especially on Sundays.

Soap That is Best for the Baby's Bath

Baby's skin is very sensitive to soap; some soaps soothe and nourish, while others inflame and irritate.

It is of the utmost importance that you know what soap to use, and to do this you must know what is in the soap.

So let us explain how we make Infants' Delight. We first go for pure vegetable oil to France. There we pay often double what we might pay. But the oil we get is pure enough to use on your table.

Then we go more than 12,000 miles to the isle of Ceylon for pure cocoanut oil. Both oils are carefully tested by chemists and doubly boiled.

Next they go through our own special milling process and fall like flakes of snow into enormous bins. Then they are crushed under a weight of 30 tons to press out the moisture.

Finally they pass through granite rollers and come out in miles of silky ribbons. Then they are dried eight times and stamped into oval cakes that just fit the hand.

Isn't it worth while to have soap like this for your baby? Why risk using common soaps when this excellent kind costs no more than others?

This lovely soap leaves the baby's delicate skin as soft as velvet and as smooth as silk. Even the baby knows the difference in this delightful soap—so we call it Infants' Delight.

Baby will like the perfume too. It is so dainty and fragrant—only the exquisite scent of the rose. If this soap is pure enough for the baby's skin it surely is best for your own. Try one cake—you owe it to baby and yourself.

How to Bathe the Baby

Rinse the body with clear, warm water and then rub in a rich lather of Infants' Delight. Then rinse off the lather with a cloth dipped in lukewarm water and wrung out over the skin. Pat the baby's skin dry with a cloth but never rub with a towel for it coarsens the texture of the skin.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Detroit, Sept. 15. — Any notion that may have been entertained by the most ardent Tiger fan concerning the ease with which Detroit was due to annex pennant No. 3 was rudely dispelled at Bennett Park yesterday afternoon, when the same aggregation of Missourians, save the battery, that was trounced by the Tigers on Monday, came back with a surprise package and a 3 to 2 victory over the Champions.

Lead by Twenty-five Points.

The indignity heaped upon the league leaders at home would have been quite sufficient in itself. That Philadelphia won two games while Detroit was losing one aggravates the situation considerably. As a result of the day's transactions the Mackmen are 11 points nearer to Detroit than they were before yesterday's contests began; Detroit's lead in figures is just 25 points, slight when it is considered that beginning tomorrow the Tigers will have to face the next best bets in the race for the pennant, at Philadelphia.

Tossed Away Chances.

Detroit should have captured yesterday's contest from the Browns in a walk. An abundance of over-confidence, caused by the easy victory of Monday, resulted in the Tigers tossing away early chances to win with poor base-running, in the expectation that there would be plenty more to follow.

But herein the Champions erred. "Bill" Bailey's southpaw grew more dangerous as the contest waxed older, while the Browns' fortunate bunching of a couple of hits off Killian in the ninth stood them in good stead — in fact, gave them the victory, when the battle ended.

CHICAGO AND CLEVELAND PLAYED TO A 4 TO 4 TIE

Rain Stopped Match After Cleveland Had Tallied in Seventh, But the Score Reverted to Sixth.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—Chicago and Cleveland played a six-inning 4 to 4 tie game today, rain stopping it after Cleveland had scored one run in the seventh. The rain, however, caused the score to revert to the end of the sixth. Ables, a recruit from San Antonio, pitched well for Cleveland and would have won but for the errors behind him. Score:

THE ATHLETICS TWICE DEFEAT THE YANKEES

Have One-Run Margin in Each Contest of Double-Header.

New York, Sept. 14.—Philadelphia took both games of a double-header here today, 5 to 4 and 3 to 2. A base on balls and bad heaves by Sweeney and Demmitt in the first inning of the first game, and another base on balls, Bender's single and Heitmuller's sacrifice fly in the fifth, yielded runs for the visitors. In the eighth Heitmuller's double, two bases on balls and singles by Davis and Murphy added three more runs.

The home team got away well in the second, but a walk and Demmitt's muff allowed the visitors to tie the score in the sixth inning. In the eighth Baker tripled and came in on Oldring's out. Scores:

ABE ATTELL WAS GIVEN DECISION OVER O'TOOLE

Featherweight Champion Was Hammered in Lively Fashion, and Judgment Was Not Approved.

Boston, Sept. 14.—Abe Attell, of California, the featherweight champion, was given the decision over Tommy O'Toole, of Philadelphia, in twelve rounds by Referee Charles White, of New York, at the Armory Athletic Club tonight. The decision was a surprise to the majority of 2,000 or more who saw the fight, who expressed their disapproval in vigorous fashion.

O'Toole did the forcing throughout and in the last round had the blood flowing from Attell's face as he drove him around the ring with stiff punches, Attell doing his best to hang on and avoid the punishment.

The fifth round was the hardest fought of the bout, Attell driving O'Toole to the ropes with smashing rights and lefts to the head. But O'Toole came back and sent Attell staggering into the corner. The round closed with Attell repeating his first charge.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 14. — Malarkey lived up to reputation today and as a result the Leafs found the Herd a table-turning aggregation. Two to nothing was the score. The pair of counters came in the second inning as a result of a double and two singles, after two were out. As a matter of fact, four hits were gathered off Newton in that eventful chapter, but the last of the quartette of bingles wandered alone. After the runs had come home to roost both teams collected the same number of safeties, but the Leafs were not of the opportune variety.

BROWN ALLOWED BUT ONE BASE HIT AND CUBS WON BY 4 TO 0

Mordecai Had Reds Completely at His Mercy, Egan Alone Getting a Wallop Off His Delivery—Gaspar Was Effective in All But Second, When All Runs Scored.

Cincinnati, Sept. 14. — Brown had the Cincinnati team at his mercy today, one single base hit being made off his delivery. Egan hit that in the fifth inning, and was doubled up with Lobert a moment later. Gasper, for the locals, was effective in all but one inning, but then the visitors hit him hard enough to make four runs, aided by Egan's fumble. The game was played in the remarkably fast time of 1 hour and 20 minutes. The score:

Life Savers.

Man ytimes during the past year or so have we gratefully considered the splendid work done in saving life and property by our various servants and inventions engaged in their duties. Some receive more praise than others, but one of the most popular of the many property-saving devices being shown at the London Exhibition is that celebrated compound, the "Nugget" shoe polish, which saves millions of shoes annually for people all over the civilized world who use it. Strictly speaking, the "Nugget" shoe polish is a leather preservative, which will double the life of your boots and needs only to be tried to convince the most skeptical.

Intense interest in its superior qualities is being created at the London Exhibition, where a shoe is polished with "Nugget" polish and immediately afterwards washed. The water runs off the shoe "like water off a duck's back," and the shine is not destroyed, proving that it is a waterproof polish. The shoe is then wiped with a clean towel, but the polish does not rub off and soil it, which is conclusive evidence that it will not come off on the clothes in wet weather.

At all dealers, 10 cents per tin.

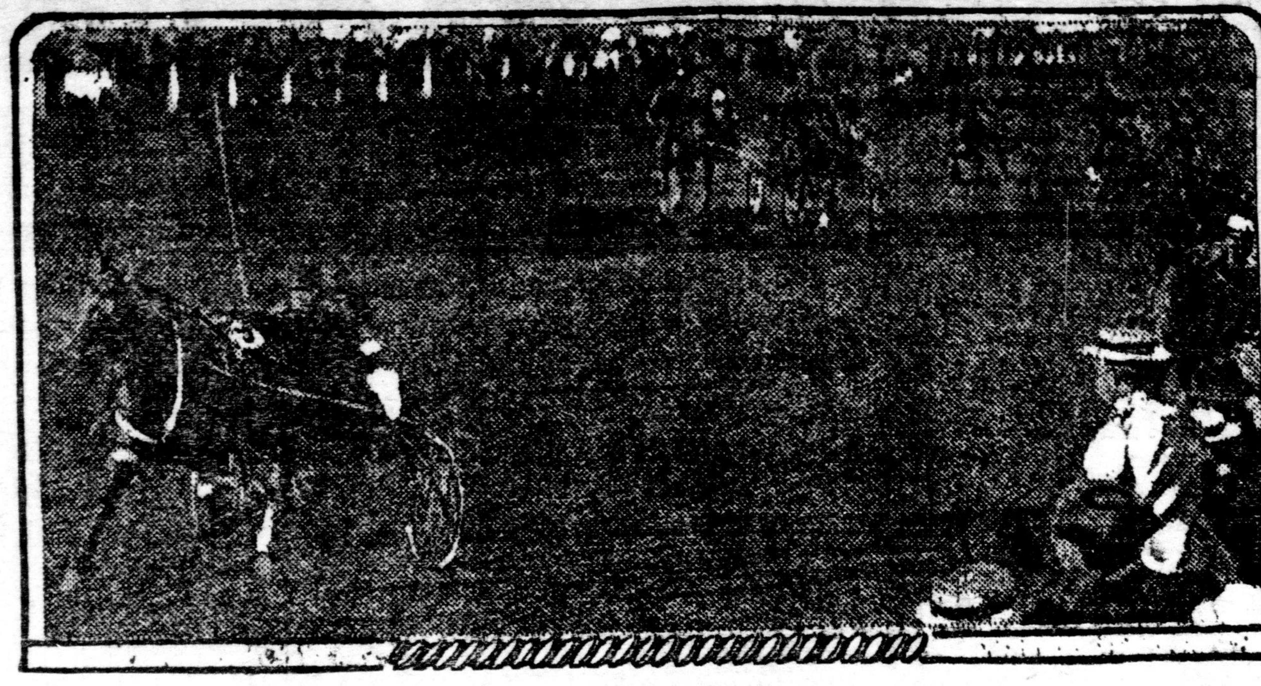

Visitors are invited to have a shine free, and in this way test the merits of this polish.

A RIVAL OF GIBSON.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—Catcher Gibson, of the Pirates, has another rival in backstopping consecutive games. Manager Billy Sullivan is the latest to come to bat. "I see where Gibson said he caught 112 straight games," remarrked Sully yesterday. "That was on Friday, and counting today's game he has now completed 115. When I played with Dubuque of the Western Association in 1897 I caught in 124 straight games, all but two played in the season. The last two I was out of it on account of a broken finger."

PHIL. M'GOVERN EASILY DEFEATS JOE WAGNER

Terry's Brother Too Speedy for Bantam Rival and Wins All the Way.

New York, Sept. 14. — Philly McGovern, a brother of Terrible Terry, won all the way from Joe Wagner in a ten-round bout at the Belford Club of Brooklyn last night. McGovern was too strong, and too speedy, for his rival for bantam-weight honors. In fact, Wagner was thoroughly outclassed. The general verdict was that McGovern never fought in better style.

McGovern led in every round except in the ninth, in which Wagner made a game effort to redeem himself by carrying the fighting to Philly. Wagner tried his famous left shift again and again, but he only landed it once, and that was in the ninth round. He was too slow for the agile McGovern. McGovern would get inside his left shifts with short rights and lefts. He dazed Wagner, but never succeeded in knocking him down.

In the third round McGovern started Wagner bleeding above the left eye, and had the eye almost closed in the fourth round. At the end of the tenth round Wagner was a very near-sighted young man, with both eyes cut and nearly closed. In the clinches McGovern made Wagner grunt with pain.

All during the fight McGovern was chasing Wagner and frequently had him on the ropes. The last round was furiously fought, but both finished strong. There was a big turnout to see the battle, and the crowd derived much amusement from a bantam rooster decorated with green ribbons, which seemed to be the chief second in Philly McGovern's corner.

Needs Three More

When the baseball campaign of 1909 began Cy Young had won 478 games and needed only 22 more victories to round out the 500-mark. Up to date he has won 19 games this year, and it may be that he will fail to realize his ambition this season. McGuire has not contemplated taking Young on his eastern trip. The veteran has done grand work in the box all year, and Manager Jim figured that he deserved a rest while the youngsters received the opportunity of getting big league trials. So, if Young does accompany the Naps on the last eastern trip, it will be for the purpose of giving him the chance to annex those needed victories.

TOMMY BURNS MADE MANAGER OF CLUB

Gets $25,000 a Year and Big Fights Will Be Pulled Off in Australia.

New York, Sept. 13.—Tommy Burns, who now weighs 215 pounds, has been appointed manager of the Australian Athletic Company, Limited, Sydney, New South Wales, and will shortly open negotiations with the leading American fighters for their appearance in Australia. This company, which is backed by ten leading sporting men and bookmakers of Sydney, has leased a large building capable of seating 10,000 persons, and at the end of the year will open with a championship fight between Australian fighters and the champion of America in whatever class the Australian boxer to be decided on is. Burns is full of talk over his latest business move. He thinks that there is more money in Sydney for good fights than there is in America. The syndicate which engaged Tommy is a strong one financially, and he is going to receive $25,000, and a guarantee of it, too, for his year's work. Therefore, the states are not likely to see one of Johnson's victims for some time. Burns is not troubling over Stanley Ketchell or Sam Langford.

The acting consul-general at Canton reports that public opium smoking in divans and restaurants has practically ceased owing to the strict enforcement of regulations by the police. The authorities have failed to induce smokers to take out licences, which, perhaps, is not to be wondered at, since each license is printed on a board a foot square.

BUSH MAKES NEW RECORD

Donie Bush set a new record this year.

In the games the Tigers have played up till the present time Bush has a total of 573 assists to his credit.

Joe Tinker, in 1908, made a total of 570 assists while playing the same position for the Cubs that Bush is playing for the Tigers.

Bush had 567 before Monday's game with the Brown's started. He got six yesterday, bringing his total to three more than the record Tinker made.

The Tigers have 19 more games to play and Bush will put up an assist figure to equal which shortstops will probably have to hustle for several years.

Bush is conceded to be the best man playing that position in the American League. He makes more errors than any of them, but he plays farther back, takes more chances, and covers more ground than the others.

COVERPOINT JOLTS

That loss yesterday was a hard one and hurt some. The Tigers lost a great opportunity to make hay, but they tossed it away and they will be that much behind when they start their eastern series. Tomorrow they start with Philadelphia, and that is the series that will count. If they break even, or get away with the majority of the games, they will be on Easy street. They will face Krause and Plank in the four games, and they will have to beat them good and plenty to win out. Summers and Mullin will bear the brunt of the work in the Quaker City, unless W. Bill Donovan has control. The Detroits should win the majority of the games.

* * *

The Pirates rested yesterday, but will likely come through with a double-header at the expense of the luckless St. Louis outfit. They do not need them, but they will grab them just the same.

* * *

Darkey Hal yesterday showed her real class at Syracuse and paced a mile in 2:02¼, beating her own mark, and if we remember correctly, the pacing mark for Canadian-bred mares. Maud Keswick, who paced in 2:03¼, held that figure up to the present, but Darkey Hal cut a few points off it. It is interesting to note that three of the four pacers in the money in that race were from Canada, old Texas Rooker getting fourth. That pace was a trifle fast for the old scamp.

* * *

There seems to be plenty of harness horses in the country, judging from the number of entries at the Fair this year. The majority of them are out for oat money, as the stuff will be high this winter.

* * *

Flora Coffee made her debut on the Grand Circuit at Syracuse on Monday, and was second one heat in 2:07½. It is not likely the owners of the mare are desirous of marking her way down on the big circuit this year as next season she is eligible for some stakes. Her admirers fancy she is fast enough to grab some of the good purses, too.

* * *

We will have but a few days more of this baseball uncertainty, and then we can turn our attention to football and hockey. We should like to see the Tiger-Pirates series.

* * *

Joe Kelley's Toronto team are finishing as fast as if they had a chance. We do not like to take anything away from Joe's glory, but he cannot pull the gang through. However, he deserves several medals for the fine showing he has made with the team so far. To get that outfit into the first division required some ability.

Mixed Trotters and Pacers, 2:16 trotters, and 2:25 pacers (hobbles allowed), best 3 in 5, mile heats First, $150; second, $75; third, $45; fourth, $30.

Thursday Evening.

7 p.m.—Everything open to visitors. Band concert and vocal chorus by the Male Choir of the Ninety-first Highlanders. 8 p.m. the programme of attractions will be given in full, being both instructive and amusing.

A large crowd marked the Western Fair yesterday, Citizens' Day falling but little short of last year, when all records were shattered for that day.

Many thousand people were on the grounds and in the stands, and from all appearances had a most enjoyable day of it.

During the day more people than is usually the case on a Tuesday, visited the live stock buildings, and watched the fine animals on show there.

Everything was in smooth running order. All the attractions and all the features advertised were to be seen, and as usual were highly pleasing.

A Special Band.

The Ninety-first Highland Band of Hamilton was one of the features added to yesterday's programme, and they lived up to their reputation as being one of the best concert bands in Canada. They made a decided hit yesterday. The work of the male chorus in connection with the band was also highly pleasing.

The other attractions worked with smoothness, and made a fine showing. The marvellous acrobatic work of the Heras made a most favorable impression.

The Judging.

The judging is practically completed. Few classes still remain to be settled, and on the whole the awards have all been made.

Yesterday afternoon the horses were judged in front of the grand stand. Several classes of high-steppers and carriage horses were given ribbons, and some notable wins were scored.

Miss Wilks' Cruickston Farm horses were shown, and, as was expected, made a clean sweep, as they did in Toronto, Cobourg, Montreal and other places.

Mr. Peter Roche, for Miss Wilks, showed as fine a pair of high-steppers as one could well imagine. They were Black Princess and All-Ablaze. They have won wherever shown, and are indeed a wonderfully fine pair of horses. They were first in singles, the pairs, and tandem classes, and with Tonbury Belle and Belle of Tonbury they won the four-in-hand.

Dr. Routledge Wins.

Dr. Routledge, of Lambeth, also scored a notable win with his mare, Charlotte C. Yesterday she beat Miss Wilks' Oakum Belle, a winner at Toronto, Cobourg and Montreal. This class was an exceptionally fine one, and it was no easy matter to place the awards. Charlotte C. is a magnificently formed mare, a square trotter, with fine manners. Miss Wilks' entry of standard-breds is one of the finest in America.

The racing was of a high order yesterday, and every heat was a contest. Nate Cornwall's good pacer won her race in straight heats, while the other went four heats to a decision.

The time was fast for the track, and the horses were well bunched at the finish.

Ed Baker, of the Canadian Sportsman, acted as started, and John Mero, of Tillsonburg, was judge. Bert Wilcox and Dick Woods were timers.

DELIGHTS THOUSANDS.

Every one of the thousands who thronged the Main Building yesterday, listened with delight to the splendid Heintzman Pianos and crowds of music lovers, who know perfect tone when they hear it, stood listening eagerly to the pieces. The exhibit is one of the most artistic ever seen at the Western Fair and magnificent designs are being shown in Spanish, Mahogany, French Burl, and a special feature is the new style, "Princess Piano," which is one of the handsomest pianos ever made in Canada. The firm are showing an exact facsimile of a piano recently supplied to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and a beautiful Mission Piano, fitted with electric lamps. Every instrument is a model of artistic beauty and is as perfect as skilled workmen can produce. Heintzman Pianos enjoy a world wide reputation and have become distinguished for superiority simply and solely because they have made good. The down town show rooms are second to none in North America and all visitors are assured of the most courteous treatment at the hands of Messrs. Croden, who represent the company in London. Every visitor to the Fair should not fail to see the exhibit in the Main Building and the handsome show rooms at 242 Dundas street.

SUNLIGHT SOAP.

Right at the entrance of the Main Building, the Sunlight Soap Company have a magnificent display of "Vinolia" and a complete assortment of soaps and toilet preparations. The booth is one of the handsomest in the building, and any visitor can obtain a special Vinolia souvenir, consisting of $1 15 worth of articles, including seven distinct high-grade toilet preparations for 50 cents. This is one of the greatest values ever offered in high-grade perfumery and toilet goods. On the Sunlight side of the booth a specialty that is attracting great attention, is the new brand of Naptha Soap, equal to anything on the market, and "Lux," the famous wool soap.

REO AUTOS.

M. C. Rose, the western distributor for Reo Automobiles and Supplies is at the Fair again. He is located in the west end of the Machinery Hall, where he will be pleased to welcome all intending purchasers and sightseers. Mr. Rose is so well known in this district that one naturally thinks of automobiles when his name is mentioned. The Reo is a high-grade machine and is known as "The car that goes and comes back" The Garage is located at 123 Bathurst street. Everyone at the Fair should see the "Reo."

NEWCOMBE PIANOS.

One of the most striking exhibits at the Fair, is that of the Newcombe Piano Co., on the left side of the ground floor of the Main Building, and all day long the stand is the centre of interest for thousands of music lovers and throngs of people attracted by the splendid tone of the instruments. The Newcombe Piano was awarded the gold medal at Paris, France, Exposition in 1900, and the silver medal and special diploma at Jamestown Exposition in 1907. A special feature, which the Newcombe Piano alone possesses, is the Howard Patent Tension Rod, which does away absolutely with all posts at the back of the instrument and yet makes it stronger than pianos having them. Every visitor shows the greatest interest in the Newcombe Player Piano, an artistic and beautiful production, which is an ornament to any drawing room, and which makes piano playing possible in every home. Something entirely new in the line of Automatic Pianos, is the "Reliable Self Playing Piano," handled exclusively in Western Ontario by the Newcombes. All visitors to the Fair are most cordially invited to visit both the exhibit in the Main Building and the handsome show rooms at 211 Dundas street.

THE MIDWAY'S BEST.

No show on the Midway drew the crowds yesterday that the "Big Freak Show" did and any visitor to the Fair who failed to see the wonderful freak pig, missed the greatest wonder that has ever been seen at the Western. The "Six-Legged Sheep," "Rapolo, the Midget Juggler," and a freak monkey, are all included in the show for one admission.

ONE OF THE BEST.

The Glass Blowers is one of the best things on the Midway and cannot be beaten as an instructive and entertaining show. Thousands visited the tent yesterday and watched the experts at work and each one carried away a handsome souvenir and was convinced that the show is the biggest thing for the money ever seen at the Fair. Without the Glass Blowers the Midway would be incomplete and no visitor can say he has seen the sights of the Fair, until he has seen this attraction. Every glass blower in the tent is an expert and the presents given are an attractive ornament to any home.

CARLING BREWING AND MALTING COMPANY.

No exhibit at the Western Fair has done more to advertise London than the conspicuous display of the Carling Brewing and Malting Company, in the centre of the ground floor of the Main Building. No pains have been spared to make the exhibit an attractive one, and no exhibit is the subject of more favorable comment among the thousands who throng the building. They are featuring particularly their famous brand of "Canada Club Lager" and their "Malt Extract." Both these beverages are "Made in London," and are sold from coast to coast. They are to be found in every city in Canada, and their popularity is amply shown by the fact that during the past year the sales have more than doubled. The Carling ales and lager are famous all over Canada, and have won the distinction they enjoy among those who know by their superior quality, purity and delicacy of flavor. These are qualities that can only be obtained by using the very finest barley, malt and hops, and all the Carling productions are made from specially selected grain. Carling's porter is brewed from the best porter malt in the world, and as a strengthening tonic is unequalled.

PRESTON METAL AND SIDING COMPANY.

Just adjoining the Machinery Hall is the exhibit of the Preston Metal Shingle and Siding Company, and it is one that no farmer who wants to make his cattle pay, or visitor who is interested in building, can afford to miss. The display includes a complete line of the famous "Safe Lock Shingles," "Acorn Quality Corrugated Sheets," "Acorn Automatic Cowbowls and "U" bar stanchions. Everything shown represents the best and most up-to-date ideas, and a talk with the two salesmen will convince prospective buyers that they can save money. Estimates on roofing and information regarding the other devices shown is cheerfully given, and a cordial invitation is extended to all visitors to call at the stand, and also at the city warehouse at 348 Talbot street.

SELF-SEALERS.

The Schram Automatic Fruit Jar shown on the ground floor of the Main Building by Mr. A. C. Race is an invention which absolutely does away with all preserving troubles. The Schram jar tops can be bought at 15 cents a dozen, and no housewife should be without them. The Schram method is so simple that a child can operate it, yet every sealer is absolutely air and water tight. There are no rough edges to cut or injure the hands, no rings to bother with, and every jar of preserves is guaranteed to keep in perfect condition as long as is required.

BEST MATTRESS ON EARTH.

In the Main Building along with the Smallman & Ingram exhibit is to be found the meritorious exhibit of the Berlin Bedding Co., of Berlin, Ont. The company is featuring the "Perfection Non-tufted Mattress," which carries with it a guarantee of 25 years. The "batt" is interwoven, and will positively not get uneven or lumpy. It is very much cleaner than the tufted mattress and does not collect dust. Ladies in particular will do well to investigate this mattress. Call at the exhibit and the company's representative will be pleased to fully explain and give all particulars. Messrs. Smallman & Ingram are the sole agents for London.

TIGRESS ESCAPES

Loose in Marseilles With Policemen and Soldiers in Pursuit.

Marseilles, Sept. 14. — A big royal Bengal tigress escaped from her cage today on board a vessel that was to convey the animal to Oran, Algeria, and is now abroad in the city with policemen and soldiers, armed with guns and revolvers, in pursuit. A horse on board the same vessel became frightened while passing near the tigress' cage, and, rearing, struck the bars of the cage with his forefeet. The blows loosened the bars, and the tigress squeezed through to liberty. The animal killed a dog with a single stroke of its paw and wounded a deckhand before it jumped down to the wharf, whence it made its way into the city.

HIT BY TIDAL WAVES

The Port of Mulege on Coast of Lower California Overwhelmed.

Mexico City, Sept. 14. — The port of Mulege, on the east coast of Lower California, was overwhelmed by a tidal wave Sept. 4.

Mulege has a population of 1,200 persons. There were a number of fatalities and considerable property was destroyed. The place is situated on an estuary, with hills on each side. The tidal wave flooded the inland districts for a distance of about two miles.

PLACE SURTAX ON U. S. IMPORTS

Says President Hobson of Canadian Manufacturers' Association.

HOSTILE TO AGITATORS

Thinks Foreign Labor Leaders Should Be Forbidden to Enter the Country.

Hamilton, Sept. 14. — The Canadian manufacturers opened their 38th annual meeting this afternoon. Vice-President R. Hobson, in his address, commented on the fact that Hamilton had the third largest association membership, stood third in the capital invested in manufacturing, and third in product.

Times were improving, had improved, and a business revival had begun. Immigrants and settlers of a desirable class were sweeping through Canada's gates at the rate of 150,000 a year. The farmers of the Dominion had harvested a splendid crop, and before another year had passed Canada would be again enjoying the sunshine of prosperity.

Dumping Goes On

Anti-dumping regulations, however good the Government's intention might be, had not obliterated the dumping evil. In devious ways and subtle ways, dumping went on to the advantage of the foreign manufacturer and to the injury of the home manufacturer. Strong representations should be made to the Government, and the question was worthy of the tariff committee's consideration.

As to labor matters, 26,232 employees had involved, directly or indirectly, in trade disputes in Canada, in 1908. Lost time totalled 708,194 hours; at $1 35 a day, the monetary loss to the working population was $1,000,000, apart from indirect losses to the business community.

In preventing strikes the Government should advance a step in its labor legislation, and kept out the "foreign agitator." The coal miners' strike at Glace Bay was instanced as a case in point.

Blessings in Disguise.

"The depression had served one useful purpose. It had demonstrated the inefficacy of our anti-dumping regulations.

"You all know," he said, "that in actual practice there are ways devious and subtle, where the anti-dumping regulations can be evaded.

"Instances are on record where Canadian houses tendering on important contracts have gone to considerable trouble in ascertaining the lowest ruling prices in the United States, only to find after quoting as much as 10 per cent lower than the lowest American price for the same class of material that they have lost the business. And yet, upon investigation, the importation is found to be entered at customs at its fair market value.

"This is a matter upon which I believe, strong representations should be made to the Government.

"Depressions such as we have just passed through might well be regarded as blessings in disguise if only they would cause the artisan to realize that the manufacturer is, after all, his friend and his ally, rather than his natural prey, as the agitator would have him believe."

The problem of transportation is dealt with at length. "The salvation of our great national industries," says the president, "depends upon the development of strong home markets under our own control, and, despite tariff barriers, our home markets can never be under our control unless we bring our means of internal communication to the highest degree of efficiency.

"We hear a great deal," continued Mr. Hobson, "about the necessity of making things easy for the farmer. In this we heartily concur, for we recognize that agriculture is the very foundation stone of our national wealth and prosperity. And I think we may claim that, as businessmen, we have helped in our quiet way to smooth the farmer's path. We have given him unlimited credit; through the agent, the retailer and the jobber we have carried him from seedtime until harvest."

Georgian Bay Route.

He then devotes special attention to the eastbound water traffic and facilities, noting the superiority of the St. Lawrence route via Montreal over the Erie Canal to New York. Notwithstanding the great expenditure now taking place on the Erie Canal, the relative superiority of the Canadian route will still compel the bulk of the traffic to move via Montreal, provided always that the terminal facilities are adequate to the traffic offering. "But the point of peculiar significance to us," says the President, "is that, if without the expenditure of another dollar on our waterways, we will still be in a better competitive position than the Americans after they have spent so enormous a sum on their Erie Canal, what overwhelming advantages would be ours if we deepened our Welland and St. Lawrence Canals to a uniform depth of 24 feet, or if we cut 400 hundred miles off the route by the construction of the Georgian Bay Canal, and so provided ourselves with a waterway stretching in a straight line nearly half-way across the continent, far removed from the attack of foreign foes, and opening up for development a territory of untold wealth in minerals, in timber and in power.

"It follows, of course, that the development of our rail traffic eastbound is a matter of equal importance towards which our very best efforts must be directed, while reports recently received regarding the feasibility of exporting grain to Europe by way of the Pacific Coast point to still another channel, the development of which must engage our serious attention at an early date.

Commercial Highway.

"Nor does the creation and development of our vast transportation projects concern ourselves alone," says the President, "the events of each succeeding year impress upon us more firmly the importance of Canada as the commercial highway between Europe and Asia, and her central position within the British Empire. The fiscal attitude of foreign nations in the development of their commerce, our growing necessity for capital and population and the widening possibilities of our own greatness, all inspire us with a firmer conviction that our development must be from east to west, and that our destinies are wrapped up in the future of the empire.

This belief is strengthened by a new and universal desire throughout the various British Dominions for a closer co-operation on problems affecting the safety and welfare of the whole. The present year has seen an imperial press conference and an intercolonial conference on imperial defence, while on this very day the representatives from boards of trade and chambers of commerce in all parts of the empire are in session in Australia. Just as important as any of these events is the apparent revolution which is taking place in the minds of the people of Great Britain and the searching inquiry by British statesmen as to how British interests the world over may be solidfied and strengthened.

"The day of isolation has passed. Great Britain no longer stands alone. The new imperialism has come to stay. She has called into her councils her great oversea dominions, which a few years ago were nothing more than scattered colonies, and today she shows a united front to the world.

"What does this mean to Canada? In the solution of all our problems—agriculture, transportation, labor, tariff, capital—its importance is second in significance only to that ideal which we as a Canadian people have set before us. I think it should be generally recognized that the greatest service and good we can render to the empire, is to build up a self-reliant, prosperous Canada. As businessmen, however, we look with favor upon measures for imperial defence, and while it does not follow that we should advocate the immediate creation at great cost of a Canadian navy, we should at least take steps in that direction. We should awake from the dangerous and false sense of security into which we have so naturally fallen to give our boys and young men a military training, not that we should adopt a radical militarism, but that we should develop within ourselves a robust young manhood, capable of coping in every way with the best the world can produce, and remembering always that we carry imperial as well as national responsibilities.

Taft's Tariff.

More than passing reference is given to the new American tariff. "While we may deprive a certain amount of satisfaction," says Mr. Hobson, "from the thought that the protective policy so long advocated by our association is now more fully justified than ever before by the United States' continued adherence to high tariff principles, we would be blind to our own interests if we failed to take note of the fact that the new American tariff gives no evidence of a desire to cultivate closer trade relations with Canada." He concluded as follows:

"Whatever view may be taken of the matter at Ottawa, I believe I am correct in stating that the answer of Canadian-producing interests to the new American tariff is summed up in the two words, 'No surrender.' Our friends across the border have always said to our manufacturers, 'We do not want your goods.' They now say to our farmers, 'We do not want your produce.' Let us, strengthen our own position, and in April next let the Government put into effect the provisions of the surtax tax of 1903. And then let our farmers and our manufacturers, our lumbermen, our miners and our fishermen all join hands in developing our own Canadian resources, in perfecting our avenues of communication, and in building up a strong home market that will make us independent for all time to come of the meagre market the United States has hitherto afforded us."

Labor Troubles.

Coming to the labor question, Mr. Hobson remarked on the absence of serious labor troubles, remarking that in time of business adversity the manufacturer did exhaust every means of economy before attempting to economize on productive labor. In 1908 the loss of time because of labor disputes was computed as 708,194 working days, which mean a monetary loss to the working classes of $1,000,000.

He then dwelt at length on the Glace Bay miners' dispute, which was due, he thought, to the presence of the foreign agitator, who he says recognizes no code of honor, and draws his salary for promoting trouble.

Continuing the president said:

"Whatever may be the final outcome of the struggle their unsolicited interference has already cost the country many hundreds of thousands of dollars, and but for the fortunate fact that the company had large supplies of coal banked the losses resulting from the stoppage of industry in the territory from Montreal east might have been too terrible to contemplate. At Springhill production has stopped to all appearances permanently, a busy town bids fair to be wiped off the map, and hundreds of happy homes, representing years of hard earned savings, may have to be abandoned.

"I ask you as Canadian citizens are we to stand idly by and watch the multiplication of such abuses? Are we to tolerate without a protest the continuance of acts which lead to so much waste and privation? In the name of Canadian industry and Canadian labor I say it is time we called a halt. The Government have shown their desire to encourage conciliation—let them go a step further and remove the cause that very frequently makes conciliation necessary. They have shown their desire to exclude the undesirable immigrant—let them go a step further and exclude the undesirable transient. We know that if Canadian institutions bred men of this kind they would never with official sanction enter the United States to clog the wheels of industry in that country; no more should American agitators be allowed to enter Canada to prey upon Canadian labor and to wreck Canadian institutions.

"I trust that the Government will realize their responsibility, and their duty in this matter, and take immediate and effective measures to bar the doors of the Dominion against the foreign agitator."

The reception and membership committee reported a net gain of members for the year of 171. The total accepted into membership was 275, while the resignations numbered 152. The grand total membership of the association is 2,356, divided as follows: Ontario 1,444, Quebec 547, Nova Scotia 86, British Columbia, 111, New Brunswick 48, Manitoba 98, Alberta and Saskatchewan 19, Prince Edward 3.

In conclusion, the president outlined some of the subjects to come before the convention, adding in connection with the "made in Canada" campaign:

"Personally, I believe it is not only possible, but practicable, to convince with sound reasoning the large majority of Canadian citizens that it is to their interest, in all their purchases, to accord a reasonable preference to goods that are the product of Canadian labor and Canadian material, and so develop the latent feelings of national pride which dwell in all their hearts, that they will be proud to proclaim Canadian-made articles equal if not superior to articles made abroad."

In speaking of the working of the association Mr. Hobson advocated the formation of a small advisory board of directors to have full authority to speak for the association.

POSTUM

"There's a Reason"

PERITONITIS CURE IS DISCOVERED

New York Physician Announces a Successful Treatment—Cause of Cancer Learned.

New York, Sept. 15.—Dr. G. G. Fishchlowitz, chief of physicians of the city hospital, who returned on the Hamburg-American liner, Prinz Frederich Wilhelm today, from the international medical congress at Buda Pest, with a number of other noted American specialists, reports two medical discoveries of immense interest to the scientific world.

One of the discoveries—a salt solution, which will conquer peritonitis—was disclosed in a paper read to the congress by Dr. A. G. Geerster, of New York. The distinguished body of scientists were so absorbed in Dr. Geerster's announcement, the specialist told the reporters, that 53 minutes were allowed to him, whereas the rules allowed but 20 minutes for each paper.

The other equally remarkable discovery is that of the cause of cancer, which Dr. John Bashford, the noted London specialist, promised from the floor that he would announce to the world in a short time.

Both announcements were received with great interest. For ages scientists have sought the cause of cancer and a cure for peritonitis, Dr. Fischlowitz stated.

THE PLENARY COUNCIL

Dr. Teefy, of St. Michael's College, will represent the archdioceses of Toronto at the first plenary council in Canada, which opens on Thursday, Sept. 16.

The archbishop, accompanied by his secretary, Rev. Dr. Kidd, left yesterday for the ancient city. Monsignor McCann, accompanied by the other priests, will leave on Wednesday evening.

The first meeting will be held on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Those in attendance will be his excellency the apostolic delegate and fathers of the council. At 8 o'clock the archbishop will hold a meeting.

LOW---MACMONNIES

Nothing Romantic in It, the Lady Says —Good Friends With Mac-Monnies.

Paris, Sept. 15.—Mrs. Frederic MacMonnies, who is living here under her maiden name of Fairchild in a beautiful studio in the ancient Ile de la Cite, confirms the report of her engagement to Will Low, the artist. She appears to be somewhat amused at the suggestion that there is anything romantic in the circumstances. She has known Mr. Low for fifteen years, and Mr. and Mrs. Low were godparents of her eldest child. Mr. MacMonnies was at one time a pupil of Low.

Mrs. MacMonnies says that her divorce was in no way caused by intention to marry Mr. Low, for Mrs. Low was alive at the time the divorce was granted. She died six months ago. Mrs. MacMonnies had not seen Mr. Low for eight years until this summer, when she came to Paris and took a studio for work on the decorations of the federal building at Cleveland, Ohio.

He called on Mrs. MacMonnies, who had taken a cottage at Morlaix, Brittany, for a summer's painting. Mr. Low visited her there, and the engagement was made after her return to Paris.

Owing to Mrs. Low's recent death the date of the wedding has not been fixed, but it will not be before next spring. Mr. and Mrs. MacMonnies are on the best of terms as friends, and he has written her expressing his wishes for her happiness. Her studio is full of beautiful canvases painted during her summer in Brittany.

DECISION RESERVED

The Attorney-General To Consider the Power Fiat.

Toronto, Sept. 14.—Attorney-General Foy this morning reserved his decision on two applications for fiats in proposed suits in connection with the Government's power scheme. The first of these was by Major J. A. Murray, Toronto, who wants to have the contract between the Hydro-Electric Power Commission and the Ontario Power Company, which is to supply power in accordance with the requirements of the commission, cancelled on the ground that the Ontario Power Company is under the jurisdiction of the Dominion Government. In the other case Mrs. Louise Jane Felker, of Gainsboro Township, Welland County, asks for a fiat to make the commission co-defendant with the McGuigan Construction Company, in a suit to prevent the latter from erecting transmission line poles on her farm.

When Buying a Piano

The Most Important Thing To Consider When Buying a Piano Is Who Made It. Is the Maker an Experienced Piano Maker?

You can't tell much about a Piano by just looking at it. You can't tell about its lasting qualities by playing on it a few times. BUT you CAN tell everything about a Piano if you know the record of the maker

FOR NEARLY HALF A CENTURY THE

Gerhard Heintzman Pianos

HAVE HELD THE PLACE OF HONOR AS "CANADA'S BEST PIANO"

A record gained entirely through merit; the makers, whose lives have been spent in manufacturing Pianos, can safely say that no Piano of even medium grade has ever left their factory; the "best possible" has been and is their motto.

We have on exhibition this year at the Western Fair many new and original designs of Gerhard Heintzman Pianos and Player Pianos, and each Piano is equipped with Mr. Gerhard Heintzman's very latest improvements and patents. Don't fail to hear our Player Piano and compare it with other makers'.

We have duplicates of our exhibition Pianos at our down-town store

PEARY'S SUCCESS LAID TO COMRADES

Commander Pays Great Tribute to the Members of His Party.

New York, Sept. 14.—The following dispatch from Commander Peary was received by the Times yesterday:

"Battle Harbor, via Cape Race, Nfld. —Sept. 13.—Captain Neilsen report unfounded. Neilsen has a quartz crystal from Cape Sheridan, Roosevelt's winter quarters. PEARY."

The report to which Commander Peary's message refers is in a dispatch from St. Johns, Nfld., which contained the report made by Captain Neilsen, of the steamer Taff, of his meeting with the explorer at Battle Harbor.

Neilsen said that Peary discovered a new land nearly 200 miles south of the pole, and in proof of it showed a piece of crystal which he asserted was brought from there. He added that there was so much of this mineral there that the explorers informed him that the ground glistened with it as with glass.

A news dispatch from Battle Harbor to the Times says that Commander Peary's appearance is that of a man who has gone through a tremendous strain with high-strung nerves, but is now in the pink of condition. He feels equal to repeating the journey under similar conditions, with every hope of again reaching the pole.

Praises His Party.

He attributes the success of his expedition to the personnel of his party, which he says was the finest that ever tramped across the polar seas. His improved type of dog sledges aided in his success, together with his magnificent dogs and strong and hearty young Eskimos.

The Roosevelt was decorated with flags yesterday in honor of the birthday of Peary's daughter, Marie, born in the Arctic in 1893. Except for being very dirty, the ship looks as though she had returned from an ordinary sea voyage. She had no accident of any kind and no occasion to use any of her spare equipment.

"Saved" Cook's Stores.

Herbert L. Bridgman's statement wired from Sydney, N. S., where he is awaiting the arrival of Peary on the Roosevelt, asserts that instead of appropriating his rival's stores, Peary only "saved" them after they had been abandoned by Francke. Mr. Bridgman says that Francke was picked up by Peary's men at North Star Bay, between Cape York and Etah, while he was trying to return to civilization from the post where Cook had left him. Francke, says Mr. Bridgman, said that he was physically unfit to remain longer in the extreme north, and after Peary's surgeon had confirmed this statement, Francke was given money by Peary to take him home.

The attitude of Cook's supporters here after hearing that Peary had only one Eskimo to confirm his statement regarding the 36 hours spent at the pole itself, is expressed by Fredrik S. Dellenbaugh, an explorer and officer of the American Geographical Society. Mr. Dellenbaugh is quoted today as follows:

"It would now seem that the preponderence of Eskimo is in favor of Dr. Cook. There evidently was no scientist present in either case to verify the observations. Perhaps two Eskimos are better than one." (Dr. Cook says two Eskimos were with bim at the pole).

"But I do not know that it makes any great difference."

FINANCIAL BUBBLE DEFRAUDS MANY

Mautreff-Boulay, Chief Promoter Long Sought, Is Arrested in Paris.

Paris, Sept. 15.—Albert Julien was arrested here on suspicion of being a swindler. When the arrest had been effected the police discovered they had secured a man for whom they had long been looking under the name of Mautreff-Boulay.

This Alfred Mautreff—or Mautreff-Boulay—is a highly educated man and speaks several languages; he is now 60 years of age.

Taking advantage of the entente cordiale he founded some time ago the General Anglo-French Co., Limited, with offices in the Rue St. Denis, Paris, and afterwards the Rue de Becon, at Courbevois. Alfred Mautreff was the managing director of the company. The brother, Andre, and his nephew, Gaston, were the principal clerks of the firm.

The company appeared to prosper. Mautreff-Boulay took an office in Copthall Buildings, London, and founded branch offices at Verdun, Vesoul, Brest, Nantes and Jersey. He lived successively in most of these places, kept his carriages and horses, and lived the life of a millionaire financier.

Finally his nephew Gaston was arrested in September last year. He had already got into trouble with the military authorities as a non-commissioned officer of cavalry, and had also been sentenced to terms of four and 18 months' imprisonment.

Alfred Mautreff's brother was arrested last June, but the financier himself eluded the police.

The operations of this trio are alleged to have cost their dupes about $2,500,000. About a dozen of the victims committed suicide.

CHARLOTTE WALKER ILL

Undergoes an Operation For Appendicitis at New York.

New York, Sept. 15.—An operation for appendicitis was performed upon Charlotte Walker, the actress, at the private hospital of Dr. John F. Erdmann.

Erdmann, who had charge of the operation, said that no complications were found, and that Miss Walker should be out in about four days.

The actress, who is the wife of Eugene Walter, the playwright, had suffered a mild attack of appendicitis before, but no operation was deemed necessary until this week, when she had a sudden severe seizure at her country home at Greenport, L. I.

BROKE A RECORD.

Saint Cyr, France, Sept. 14.—Santos Dumont broke the aeroplane speed record to win a wager of $200. With the aeroplane Demoiselle, he made a flight across the country to Buc, a distance of between eight and nine kilometres, in five minutes, at a speed of about 90 kilometres (55.8 miles) an hour.

A CHANGE OF STOP SHORTENS THE TRIP

Cunard Line's New Rule Benefits Passengers, But Hits Liverpool Hard.

Liverpool, Sept. 15.—The official announcement that all the steamers of the Cunard line are henceforth to call at Fishguard on the inward passage from New York indicates a change, which is certain to lead to other new developments of the passenger traffic on the Atlantic.

For one thing, it puts Liverpool in a subordinate position as regards the homeward passenger trade. The majority of the cabin passengers, perhaps the majority of all the passengers, will leave the steamer at Fishguard.

From 1840 to 1855 Liverpool had the monopoly of the passenger traffic by steamer to and from New York. Other ports, especially Southampton and Plymouth, have gradually acquired a share in that traffic, but still Liverpool held a large proportion of it. Now there will be no inducement for passengers to remain on board till the steamer reaches Liverpool, except in the case of those going to the north of England and to Scotland, and even these will save time by landing at Fishguard, when the tide does not suit for the Cunards to go up at once to the landing stage at Liverpool.

Both Plymouth and Southampton will experience the effects of the change. The passengers landed at Fishguard will be in London in shorter time from New York than they could be if they landed at Plymouth or Southampton from any of the lines which call at these ports. The call at Fishguard is certain to put the German lines, the White Star, and the American in a position where they must fight for the preservation of their passenger traffic in a way they never fought before.

CLOTHING FOUND MAY BE MISS MILLMAN'S

Several Pieces, Now in the Hands of the Police, To Be Examined Today.

Detroit, Sept. 15.—Clothing, believed to be that worn by Mabelle Millman, the Ann Arbor girl whose mutilated body was recently found in Ecorse Creek, has been found, it is believed, and today the friends of Miss Millman will be shown the different pieces to see if they can positively identify them.

The clothes were packed in a suitcase and left in a vacant lot near 75 Palmer avenue. The suitcase was found by E. A. Bliss, said to be living at 113 Hudson street, on Sept. 6, which is believed to be about the date that the young woman disappeared. The clothes were turned over to the police at the Bethune street police station but at the time no particular significance was attached to the discovery, as it was not yet known that the young woman had disappeared.

The $1,000 reward offered by the county auditors has not yet resulted in any further clues being furnished the detectives, it was stated last night by Capt. McDonnell.

"We have nothing new whatever on the case, but we are still working as hard as we can," said Capt. McDonnell, last night. "Evidence now in our hands supports the theories which we have been working on."

Contrary to the opinion which some gained when the announcement of the reward being offered was made, Auditors Oakman and Buhrer yesterday stated that the reward would not be given to anyone connected with the police or sheriff department, but is intended entirely for outsiders.

The New Clue.

"We believe the police are doing all in their power to get the right parties and offering them a reward would be giving the money away. As soon as they get the right clue, they will make the arrests," said Oakman.

Since the search for the clothes has been given wide publicity, numerous reports have been made to the police by citizens who recalled having found parts of women's clothes on the street, and articles varying from fancy pocketbooks to ladies' belts have been turned in as evidence.

The spirit manifested in bringing these things to the police headquarters is very pleasing to the police as it shows how keenly everybody is interested in the guilty parties being caught.

As far as new information is concerned, the police state very plainly that they are at sea and almost despairing of the ultimate solution.

Whoever the surgeon is that did the work, the police respect his ability to hide his trail and declare that he has been quite successful in throwing them off the scent.

Though not generally believed to be the case, it is declared by some of the detectives, that it is as difficult to hide clues as it is to find them. This is perhaps a little more evident when it is considered that for any possible friend of the culprit being in sympathy with him and his escape there are many more experienced detectives following thousands of times as many interested people who will give the detectives everything they accidentally find which they believe might have some bearing on the mystery.

"Although no information has been received as a result of the county offering a reward for evidence against the slayer of Maybelle Millman, we are not in the least discouraged," said Prosecutor Van Zile last night. "It is not yet time for us to get results. We didn't expect that someone had the evidence tucked away some place, but made the offer so that any who are in a position to dig up information will do so."

FOUGHT EXTRADITION.

Windsor, Ont., Sept. 14. — William Winsler, charged with theft of lumber from the premises of the Bell Ice Company, above Walkerville, has been committed for trial. Kinsler is the man who fought extradition to Canada all the way up to Congress.

New York, Sept. 14. — Judge Lovett was elected chairman of the executive committee of the Southern Pacific Company today. Jacob H. Schiff and Wm. Rockefeller were elected directors and also members of the executive committee.

Windsor, Ont., Sept. 14. — The city council committed itself last night to the support of a movement designed to encourage building by giving the assessment commissioner greater latitude in assessing land values and lessening taxation on improvements. WOMAN FOUGHT A MOUNTAIN LION

Rescued Two Little Boys, But Has Died From Effect of Her Injuries.

San Jose, Cal., Sept. 15.—Miss Isola Kennedy, president of the San Mateo and Santa Clara bi-County W. C. T. U., died at her home in Morganhill last night from injuries received in a desperate encounter with a mountain lion near Madrone Springs on July 7, when she fought with the huge beast for half an hour to save two small boys, Henry Merkle and Walter Layne.

The little Merkle boy died two weeks ago at Monterey, after an attack of lockjaw, caused by his injuries.

M'GUFFIN---ANDREWS

Wedding of a Popular Couple in Wellington Street Church Yesterday.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized in the Wellington Street Methodist Church this morning, when Miss E. Mabel Andrews, niece of Mr. and Mrs. George Carley, of Lambeth, was married to Dr. Chester W. McGuffin, of Calgary, formerly chief house surgeon at Victoria Hospital. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. A. Graham in the presence of a number of relatives and friends. The bridal party entered the church amid the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Mr. Roberts, organist of Wellington Street Church.

The bride, who was given away by her uncle, Mr. George Carley, of Lambeth, looked charming in a gown of Egyptian mulle. She wore a large white picture hat, and carried a bridal bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor, Miss Rose Andrews, of Lambeth, sister of the bride, wore a dress of silk mulle and a white picture hat. Miss Ethel Johnston, of this city, was bridesmaid, and looked very pretty in a dress of pale green net. She wore a large white picture hat and carried white chrysanthemums. Mr. Archie McMahen was groomsman, and the ushers were Messrs. Herbert and Gordon McGuffin, brothers of the groom. During the ceremony Miss Beatrice Hunt sang most acceptable, "O Perfect Love." Following the ceremony a reception was held and afterwards Dr. and Mrs. McGuffin left on a trip up the lakes. They will reside in Calgary.

The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful pearl sunburst, to the bridesmaid and maid of honor gold bracelets, to the groomsman a handsime signet ring, and to the ushers beautiful pearl tie pins.

Dr. and Mrs. McGuffin are both well known and very popular in this city. Dr. McGuffin graduated from the Western Medical School in 1904, and his wife graduated from Victoria Hospital training school in 1906.

Promptly as the clock struck five the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Elvie Gibb. The bride took her place under an evergreen arch, tastefully decorated with white bells and festooning. During the signing of the register the solo, "Love's Old Sweet Song," was sung very effectively by Miss Hazel Gibb.

After a dainty luncheon the happy couple left on the G. T. R., amid good wishes of their friends, for a short trip east, after which they will repair to the home in Duart, where they will be at home to their friends after Oct. 1.

GREAT EXHIBIT IS GAS APPLIANCE

Company Shows Many Articles Which Are a Revelation to Fair Visitors.

EVERYTHING IN GAS

Is To Be Seen at This Place—Gas Stoves, Gas Ranges, Gas Heaters, and Gas as an Illuminant.

No exhibit in the Main Building is so full of interest to every visitor or contains so much that makes a home ornamental and attractive as the display of the Gas Appliance Company of this city. The exhibit is a moded of artistic arrangement, and is one of the largest in the building. Absolutely everything that is new and up-to-date is shown, as well as a complete line of cooking stoves, broilers, toasters, hot plates, gas cooking stoves, radiators, water heaters and every device that has been invented to save the busy housewife time, trouble and expense. Every visitor to the Fair should make a special point of seeing this exhibit, and the company's representatives will be pleased to explain everything shown, and give full information and prices.

On one side a staff of attendants is kept as busy as they can be demonstrating McClary's Cabinet Gas Range, and supplying hot coffee biscuits and tea to hundreds of ladies, at the same time explaining to them the simple manner and the ease with which they are prepared.

The "Rucid" an instantaneous water heater, which supplies water heated to 150 degrees to any part of a house at the rate of four gallons a minute and at a cost of one-tenth of one cent per gallon, is one of the greatest things in the line of heaters that has ever been perfected, and it is a feature of the Gas Appliance Company's exhibit that is attracting thousands of visitors. Another heater, the "Geyser," cannot be beaten for barber shops, and supplies a continuous flow of hot water at the smallest possible cost. The "Crescent," a heater for bath and basin use, is absolutely instantaneous, and is an ornament to any bathroom. The company are pushing their Jewel Circulating heater, and guarantee it to be the best low-priced heater for general use on the market.

The Caloric Gas Range, with movable burners and ovens, patent oven lighter and "Anti Rust" covering to preserve the interior of the oven, is the most serviceable and up-to-date range on the market.

Gas grates are always useful and ornamental in any home, and nothing could be more artistic than the "Odorless Gas Grate," which is the very latest thing in this line, and is so constructed that there is absolutely no necessity at all for any flue construction. These handsome grates are being rapidly installed in many of the best homes of the city, and everywhere they are giving perfect satisfaction.

Adjoining the exhibit of gas ranges and other appliances is an elaborately-furnished room, containing a complete and handsome assortment of everything required for gas lighting. Particular attention has been given to decorative schemes, and the display of lamps, table lamps, art glass dome fixtures, showing the latest chain effects and inverted burner, which resembles an electric light, but with a steadier and brighter glow, artistic lamps for use in cosy dens, and a complete line of all the latest designs in light appliances, is one that has never been surpassed in artistic beauty at the Western, and which will delight the most fastidious homemaker.

The celebrated Welsbach Reflex light and the Graetzin light, a wonderful invention recently perfected in Germany, and just imported, are shown in great variety in two beautiful arches above the exhibit.

Thousands of visitors who have seen the Fair Building at night have commented upon the splendid manner in which they are lighted, and will be interested in knowing that it is all done by the Gas Appliance Company, and that the American Inverted Arc Lamp, which the company recently installed, is used exclusively. The Gas Appliance Company have run their lines to all parts of the grounds and all the gas and gas appliances used in connection with the cooking in the booths is supplied by them. All danger of fires in the tents and booths and places under the grandstand is in this way eliminated, and it is considered one of the most important improvements that has been made at the Fair in years. Samples of coke as supplied by the City Gas Company are included in the display, and a miniature gas engine, driving a ferris wheel, is a great attraction, particularly to the small boy.

The Gas Company are also advertising gas coke with a small wagon, drawn by a tandem of goats, about the city, and a parade of Gas Coke wagons held about the city, both morning and afternoon, attracted great attention.

The City Gas Company had a parade of Gas Coke Wagons around the city today, both morning and afternoon, and they created considerable comment.

The Kitchen a Laboratory

Cooking is a science, and the same attention must be paid to details as would be paid by a chemist in making some important preparation. Right materials and right proportions must be used, or expensive and exasperating failures result. If you use Strong's Baking Powder you can be sure your leavener is right. It never varies—is always pure and fresh. Saves money, too, because it costs less and goes farther than any other baking powders. Price, 25 cents a pound.

BRAGANZA WEDDED TO AMERICAN HEIRESS

Miss Anita Stewart Becomes the Bride of Prince Miguel.

Dingwall, Scotland, Sept. 15.—Under a bower of evergreens and smilax, Miss Anita Stewart, daughter of Mrs. James Henry Smith, of New York, became the bride of Prince Miguel of Braganza at noon today in the little Roman Catholic Chapel of St. Lawrence. The congregation of this church is made up of descendants of the clans who belonged to the faith in the days of Mary, Queen of Scots.

The scene of the wedding of Prince Miguel, a member of one of the proudest royal families of Europe, to Miss Stewart, the latest of the American heiresses to cross the Atlantic, was beautifully decorated. Rustic arches that led up to the church were covered with flowers and inscribed in Portuguese with the words, "God bless the prince and his beautiful bride."

The arch at the end of the avenue bore the words in English: "Long life and happiness to the prince and princess."

The wedding party arrived at the church in motor cars. The bride was accompanied by her mother and her brother, W. R. Stewart, jun., who gave her away. She was unattended by either bridesmaids or pages. The prince arrived in the company of his younger brother, Prince Francis Joseph, who supported him throughout the ceremony. Bishop Chisholm of Aberdeen officiated. The music was rendered by the choristers of the chapel, accompanied by the band of the Seaforth Highlanders.

The bride wore a graceful dress, carrying a long train of snow-white chiffon over soft satin. The chiffon was embellished by long lines of fine embroidery in white silk, silver and tiny pearls, made up of sprays of heather, fleur-de-lis and Portuguese devices. A veil of old lace was worn over a wreath of orange blossoms and heather, fastened with a large feather of diamonds and sapphires, which have been in the Braganza family for centuries.

"SOMETHING FOR HIS BLOOD."

New York, Sept. 15.—After writing a note to a coroner stating that he had drank syanide of potassium because of "business failure and failure of health," David W. Clark committed suicide in the Prince George Hotel in East Twenty-seventh street today. Mr. Clarke was a member of the Flood & Conkling Varnish Company, of Newark, N. J. He left a note requesting that his brother, Dr. A. M. Clark, of Youngstown, Ohio, be notified of his death.

Mr. Clark, who was a bachelor of 58 years, lived in the Prince George Hotel for several months. Early today when a merry party of young men and women returned to the hotel from the Coney Island Mardi Gras, Clark remarked to one of the hotel employees that he "wished he was as happy as that crowd." A few minutes later, in the presence of a bartender, who had just served him, he drank the poison, saying it was "something for his blood." He expired instantly.

JOHN BERGEN DEAD.

Cornwall, Ont., Sept. 15.—John Bergen, collector of customs here, died this morning, at the age of 83 years. Mr. Bergen was a native of Ireland, but had lived here the greater part of his life. He was a brother of the late Darby Bergen, M. D., member of Parliament for this district for many years and surgeon general of Canadian militia during the rebellion of 1885. In his younger days Mr. Bergen, with his brother, was a well known breeder of thoroughbred horses and cattle. He was unmarried.

Detroit Tube Reaches U. S. Side

Windsor, Sept. 15. — Detroit and Windsor are now joined together in a manner that no divorce court judge can separate. The last section of the subaqueous portion of the Michigan Central tunnel was laid yesterday, and now two huge, circular lungs of steel and concrete connect the shores of the Detroit River.

If one were equipped with lights it would now be possible to walk from Windsor to Detroit under the great "dustless highway" which marks the international boundary line.

Work on the tunnel is rapidly approaching completion. Trains will be running through about the first of the year unless something unforeseen occurs.

A Fatal Collision Near Port Huron

Port Huron, Mich., Sept. 15. — One man was injured so badly that he died in a hospital, and four others, three Detroiters, were also hurt when the D. U. R. limited due here from Detroit at 1 o'clock struck a traction engine which was trying to cross the tracks near Marysville.

Solomon Widrig, motorman, is dead; William Rathbone, 27 Baker street, Detroit, sustained a broken leg; Theodore Pashby, 113 Bates street, Detroit, was bruised and his leg broken; M. E. Carleton, of Camden, had his left leg crushed, and W. H. Wood, of Detroit, received a broken wrist.

The front of the trolley car was smashed in and the traction engine demolished. Parts of the machinery were hurled 60 feet into a field. Solomon Tice, engineer of the traction engine, jumped before the crash, and escaped uninjured.

Tice claims that he started to cross the tracks when the engine stopped and he was unable to move it. He jumped and escaped uninjured.

SOUTH LONDON TAKES LEAD

South London Leads.

"South London takes the lead for new buildings and population, the increase in population there being 557, but the loss in the older and boarding-house part of the ward, reduced the total gain to 76.

"The census can only be considered approximately correct, extending as they are over six months' work, and in the month of April many people moved into the territory that was assessed in the month of March, and afterwards you meet families in the last ward that had been assessed before.

"It would be well if parties who have sold out their business since the assessment was made, would appeal to the court of revision to have their names struck off the roll, so that their successors may be assessed for the premises for which they were assessed, otherwise their names, being on the roll after the final court of revision, will leave them liable for business tax for the year 1910. They may, of course, agree with the purchaser as to payment of taxes, but the collector can only look to the party whose name appears on the roll.

"During the year dating from September to September, there were 1,030 transfers of properties; consideration, $1,400,433; assessment, $974,207, being about 70 per cent of sale value."

ALLEGED MURDERER CAUGHT AT LAST

Robinson Run to Earth by His Brother-in-Law, a Minister of the Gospel.

Warren, Sept. 14. — James Robinson is captured, but no more remarkable has been his success in evading every effort of a dozen provincial police to apprehend him during the past month, than was his capture this afternoon single-handed by the Rev. Peter Matheson, his brother-in-law. Robinson is the fugitive father against whom evidence was adduced at the inquest in Warren on the 11th day of August. On that same day he fled before the true facts were known to the authorities, and every nook and corner of the country has been scoured for him since. Some two weeks ago his two sons, John and Thomas, were committed for trial on a charge of aiding and abetting their father's freedom, and since that time the Rev. Peter Matheson, of Beachburg, a red-haired, wiry little man, has taken charge of the Robinson farm. It was generally admitted that Robinson was using his own home as a base of supplies, but being an expert, wily bushman and working at all times under cover of darkness, he foiled every plan laid by the police. With Mrs. Robinson and the two sons under arrest, Mr. Matheson has been harvesting the crops. He is evidently a man of very strong resolve, and not less than a week ago passed the remark that if James Robinson crossed his tracks he would get him. This afternoon his opportunity came. Seated on the binder harvesting the wheat crop, he spied Robinson. There was no hesitation, and although a considerable distance off, he went straight for his man. Robinson fled, and in the race Mr. Matheson won. He overtook his man; there was a single-handed duel, and Robinson was downed. It was thorough and complete. The minister compelled his man to return to where the horses were standing, and securing straps from the harness he was bound hard and fast and brought to Warren forthwith. Mr. Matheson delivered his man to the authorities, and he was immediately committed to Sudbury jail. Three charges, including infanticide, have been preferred against him. Meanwhile Mr. Matheson has returned to the homestead. He will complete the harvesting of the Robinson crops and aid in the defence of his sister. Mrs. Robinson, who will also stand trial on the infanticide charges. Robinson, besides being armed, is a powerful man, and the struggle that must have ensued can better be imagined than told. Robinson was taken to Sudbury jail on the midnight train and will be safely guarded until his trial.

SMALL TURNOUT ON LOCAL MARKET

Farmers' Day at the Fair and of Course Produce Was Light on the Square.

FRUIT WAS PLENTIFUL

But This Is All Imported Into London From the Belt to the East.

This being Farmers' Day at the Fair there was a very small turnout on the local market this morning. Only some half dozen loads of hay in all were offered for sale. These maintained the same price that has been prevailing for some time. The majority sold at $14, while hay of exceptional quality brought $14 50. Oats were very scarce, only one load being offered during the early part of the morning. This was of poor quality and sold for $1 40.

Fruit was very plentiful, peaches, No. 1, selling for 70 to 80 cents; No. 2, 45 to 50 cents. Plums were very much easier, some Lombards selling as low as 15 cents, while the majority sold for 25 to 35 cents at wholesale. Some extra fancy varieties sold at 45 cents. Pears were fairly plentiful but not of very good quality. The prices asked at wholesale varies from 25 to 35 cents. Grapes sold for 25 cents for Champions, and 35 cents for Moore's Early.

EAST LONDON

YOUNG COUPLE ALMOST WENT UNDER WHEELS

Narrow Escape of Man and Woman at East End Depot of G. T. R.

Thousands of visitors swarmed the east end station of the Grand Trunk last evening, and although a dozen extra trains have been handled no accidents have been reported.

As one of the specials was leaving last night at about 10:30 a young lady and gentleman had an exceedingly narrow escape from going beneath the wheels, but luckily the affair did not result seriously.

It appears that they boarded the wrong train, and did not discover their mistake until the engine commenced to move out. The young fellow attempted to get off with the lady as the train was going slowly, but both faced toward the rear end, with the result that they were thrown with considerable force.

They refused to give their names, but when questioned by a G. T. R. employee the lady stated that the only damage was a broken sidecomb.

PRESSURE IS LOW

A Lemonade Joke Sprung by a Witty Fireman.

A big fire would be quite out of place in the East End these days, as the pressure registered at the fire halls is very low, from 25 to 35 pounds only being shown on the gauge at No. 2 station.

A large quantity of water is being used at the Fair buildings, and according to one of the firemen, who claims to be an authority, too much lemonade is being manufactured.

The water is certainly being used up, at any rate, and the brigade would have great difficulty in coping with a fire of any size.

EAST END WEDDING

Miss Victoria Robinson Becomes the Bride of Mr. H. E. Pengelly.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Robinson, of 127 Mamalon street, when their daughter, Miss Victoria, was married to Mr. H. E. Pengelly, of Philadelphia.

The ceremony was performed by Prof. Eugene Leland, of the Seventh Day Adventists' Church, of Toronto, the happy couple being unattended. Miss Alldine Robinson, a cousin of the bride, made a charming flower girl and ringbearer.

The bride was handsomely attired in white point d'esprit trimmed with duchess satin over white silk.

About 50 guests were present, including several from Toronto, Mount Vernon, Owen Sound, St. Thomas and other places.

Mr. and Mrs. Pengelly left on the 4:25 train for Philadelphia, where they will reside.

NEW PITTSBURG STRIKE

Three Thousand Foreigners Quit the McKees Rocks Plant.

Pittsburg, Sept. 15.—A new strike developed at the Pressed Steel Car Company's plant at McKees Rocks today when 3,000 foreigners employed by the company refused to go to work, and gathered around the entrance to the works. The strike, it is stated, is not organized and is based upon the demands that all bosses and subbosses employed at the plant be discharged by the company. The American workers at the plant are said to be in sympathy with the movement.

Chairman C. A. Wise, of the strikers' executive committee, is now at work among the foreigners and expects an early adjustment of the trouble.

At offices of the company, it was stated that no grievances had been presented and nothing official was known of the new movement. The strike caused much excitement, but there was no demonstration, aside from the foreigners assembling about the gate.

Most of the American workmen went to work as usual this morning, and no effort was made to interfere with them. About forty deputy sheriffs are still on duty at the works.

THE COUNTRY OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY

Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson Was Greatly Pleased With What He Saw in West.

Ottawa, Sept. 15.—Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson, Chas. M. Hays and E. J. Chamberlain, general manager, of the Grand Trunk, had a conference with Sir Wilfrid Laurier this morning. The situation on the Grand Trunk Pacific was thoroughly discussed, and it is understood that the difficulties in obtaining sufficient white labor for the mountain section was strongly dwelt upon.

To your correspondent Mr. Hays said he thoroughly agreed with Mr. Collingwood that the mountain section could not be completed without the aid of Oriental labor. Mr. Hays said it would be a great hardship on the Grand Trunk Pacific if they were deprived of this labor, when every other Transcontinental railway on the continent had been put across the mountains by means of it. After the conference with Sir Wilfrid, Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson said his call on Sir Wilfrid was a purely social one. He desired to express to Sir Wilfrid his pleasure with what he had seen in the west, and his amazement with the prosperity there, and with the way in which railway work on the Grand Trunk Pacific was being pushed. He would go back to England with the message that Canada was indeed the country of the twentieth century.

NAPOLEON REFUSED THEM

Was Offered Steamships With Which to Destroy Nelson's Ships.

Paris, Sept. 15.—George Montorgull, in an elaborate review of Robert Fulton's trials on the Seine, Jan. 26, 1903, and Fulton's own words saying that the real inspirations of his discovery were the experiments of Marquis Jouffrecy, at Lyns, in 1783. This the writer does to prove "that the steamboat is a French invention perfected in France by an American and exploited in America," and he says for this reason France is sending a member of the institute and a detachment of her fleet to join in the "tribute of gratitude which America is paying to her illustrious son who, in many ways, made the old world tributary to the new."

Continuing, M. Montorgull insists that Fulton left France because Napoleon's Government would not accept his Nautilius, a prototype of the submarine, with three of which Fulton told Napoleon he could destroy the English fleet. Subsequently, Fulton offered the Nautilius to England, but England wanted to destroy the secret whereupon Fulton went to America.

DEATH OF LEO WESTON

Prominent Young Tillsonburg Man Summoned by Death.

Tillsonburg, Sept. 51. — The death occurred this morning of Leo Weston, one of the most popular young businessmen of the town, at the Emergency Hospital here.

Mr. Weston had been ill for a few weks with a disease of the stomach, but his condition was not thought to be critical until a few days ago, when specialists were sent for, who performed an operation in the hope of relieving him, but without success.

Deceased, who was married about three years ago to Miss Edith McDonald, was well known and universally liked, and much sympathy is felt for his young widow, and bereaved parents.

Deceased was a member of the Episcopal Church and held high standing in both Masonic and Oddfellows' local lodges.

PREFERRED DEATH

Former Torontonian Would Not Give Into Wife's Demands.

Covington, Ky., Sept. 15. — Clem Obermeyer, formerly of Toronto, and the builder of many bridges and public works in that section of Canada, drowned himself in the Ohio River here today. His wife says that it must have been caused by a quarrel they had at the breakfast table, when she wanted more money than he thought she ought to have. "We had a spat this morning," she says, "but I never thought he would kill himself because of it. It was about money matters, and I suppose I did wrong to ask him for so much money. But I was waiting for him to return. He always did when we had any differences. He would come back, and we would fix it all up right again." Obermeyer walked to the bridge across the Ohio River here, took off his coat, did not heed the cries of several bystanders, and jumped to his death from the railing. His body came to the surface only once after it struck the water. Obermeyer had been engaged in bridge work in Northern Kentucky for several years, and was looked upon as a brilliant man. He is survived by his widow and these children: Harry, aged 21; Florence, 12; Clem, 10; William, 3, and Hilda, 1 year old.

DANGERS OF THE TROUGH

Public Fountains for Horses a Menace Says an Expert.

Chicago, Sept. 15. — Public watering troughs for horses were condemned by the state veterinarian of Missouri, and Dr. F. Luckey, and by Dr. Schoenletsen, of Kansas, at yesterday's session of the Interstate Association of Live Stock Sanitary Boards. Dr. Schoenletsen read a paper on glanders, in which he attacked the public watering trough, as the great disseminator of the disease. He also asserted that glanders is communicated from horses to men and is a fatal disease to human beings.

Dr. J. M. Wright, state veterinarian of Illinois, asserted that the public watering trough was in no way a spreader of disease if the water in it were kept running.

Dr. Luckey delivered the last word on the subject. In Massachusetts he said the public watering trough was responsible for the infliction of glanders upon horses to the extent of a thousand head annually. Dr. Luckey supported his argument with statistics of different states, and with other evidences in opposition to the assertions of Dr. Wright that running water disinfected a trough.

LEAVES LONDON FOR THE WEST

Mr. Alex. Stuart, K. C., Will Practice in Edmonton—A Popular Figure.

In Mr. Alex. Stuart, K.C., Edmonton gains a citizen who has been a prominent figure in London and Middlesex for many years. He was born and brought up in the township of Caradoc, the eldest of five brothers, and helped his father to clear up a new farm. He taught in the public schools of the township, and having got a first-class graded normal school certificate, he taught mathematics in the Morrisburg high school, and later English subjects at the St. Mary's Collegiate Institute. He was a member also of the Middlesex board of examiners for teachers' certificates. He studied law in the office of Cronyn, Kerr & Betts, then in that of Thomas Hodgins, K.C., of Toronto, and J. S. Ewart, K.C. Mr. Stuart opened the first law office in Glencoe, where he enjoyed a lucrative practice. He was a chief promoter of the Glencoe public library, and made the first selection of books for that institution. He was also the first chairman of the Glencoe High School Board. He took a prominent part in all public affairs; in politics he was on the Liberal side, and twice declined a nomination for the House of Commons for West Middlesex, where his wide acquaintance and personal popularity in all parts of the riding would have made him a strong candidate. His views have been those of an advanced and militant Liberal, with a strong tendency towards independence in his political judgments and affiliations

Mr. Stuart was appointed a Q. C. in 1899, and was offered, but declined, the position of solicitor to the treasury of Ontario at Toronto. On the departure of his London partner, Major Duncan Stuart, to South Africa, he removed to London to practice his profession, which he continued to do during his residence here, first in partnership with Mr. G. C. Gunn, then with Mr. T. W. Scandrett. In London he took an active interest in politics and municipal affairs, and was conspicuous in church and literary circles.

Mr. Stuart, having been for many years interested in Alberta, where all his brothers have at different times resided, and where one is now a judge of the high court and chancellor of the Alberta University, he has given way to the call of the west, and will join his brother, Mr. Duncan Stuart, (who has returned from Africa) in the practice of law and the establishment of a trust company at the capital of Alberta. Mr. Stuart is a man of studious tastes and cultivated mind, and will be an acquisition to the citizenship of Edmonton and to the Alberta bar. The good wishes of a host of friends in London and Middlesex accompany him.

FRUIT AND VEGETABLES ARE VERY CREDITABLE

Display at the Western Fair Attracts Visitors—The Dairy Building.

It is doubtful if there ever was a better display of fruit and vegetables at the Western Fair than that which is shown in the Agricultural Hall this year. The exhibits are of such a uniformly excellent quality that the judging must have been no mean task. At the northern end of the building there is the display of grapes, both hothouse and open grown. Mr. George Weld, of Hamilton, has good cause to be proud of the array of prizes that stand to his credit. In all the varieties he succeeded in carrying off the first prize, taking 20 of the 21 first prizes oqered for the collection of varieties, as well as the individual exhibits. Mr. C. H. Bamphyle, also of Hamilton, was little behind him, and in many cases only an expert could have told the difference in quality. Mr. Bamphyle took 20 of the 22 second prizes offered. Mr. Weld also showed some fine varieties of pears, taking first prize for the four and ten collections, and also firsts for his exhibit of Beurre d'Anjou, Sheldon and Clapp's Favorite. R. C. Fowler, of Burlington, had a very fine display of Bartlett pears, and also some remarkably fine Burbank plums.

Mrs. J. Ballanytyne, of Byron, had a very fine showing of "Louise Bonne" and Bartlett Pears, on both of which she took first prize.

Fine Peaches.

Perhaps the finest peaches shown are those by Mr. L. C. Gray, of St. Catharines, who took firsts for early Crawford and also for a four variety collection.

The apple section was unusually fine, and among the exhibits, those that were especially noticeable, were the Gravensteins and Baldwins by J. E. Hambley, of Cedar Springs; the Wealthy and Blenheim Pippin, by R. C. Fowler, of Burlington; the Duchess, by H. W. Webb, of Hamilton, and the Snows by A. W. Graham, of St. Catharines.

The floral display that was arranged about the building in different places was also very atractive. Mr. H. J. Gramlick showed some beautiful Cannas, while Mr. A. Baird, of St. Marys, had a beautiful and varied display of Dahlias.

The specimen fern and the floral design by J. Gammage & Sons, of this city, called forth universal admiration. While Mr. J. G. Stoneburg, of Exeter, had a beautiful showing of Gladioli.

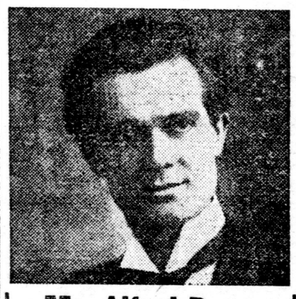

In the potato display there seemed to be very little to choose between the various exhibitors. All the specimens were of such uniform excellence. The exhibit of the London branch of the Ontario Vegetable Growers' Association was another showing that aroused a great deal of interest, as did also the examples of fruit packing in boxes, while between the eastern entrances was the fine exhibit of the London Asylum for the Insane.

The Dairy Building.

In the Dairy Building the most interesting display was honey exhibited by Mr. George Kimball, of Bryanston, who had received eight first prizes on his exhibit. There were also some very fine displays of cheese and butter. The remainder of the building was occupied by the displays of the different cream separator companies.

Booth Tarkington and Harry Leon Wilson are the authors of "The Man From Home," the record-breaking success which will be seen at the Grand Opera House this afternoon and evening.

The scenes are laid in Italy, and the principal character is an Indiana lawyer, who handles some delicate situations in an able manner. It is considered one of the best efforts of either writer.

The attraction at the Grand tomorrow night will be Charley Brown, in Cohan & Harris' production of George M. Cohan's musical play, "Forty-five Minutes From Broadway," with the original company and production. The entertainment is a novelty and quite original, from the fact that it is not a performance of a distinctive character, except in its own field, as the author has very cleverly interwoven into it comedy, drama, melodramas, musical comedy and farce. Elizabeth Drew plays the role of Plain Mary, a housemaid.

"King Dodo."

There is a lot of bright music in "King Dodo," the Pixley & Luders comedy opera, which will be the attraction at the Grand next Friday and Saturday, with a special matinee at 2:15 Saturday afternoon. It is of the kind that street urchins pick up at one sitting and whistle for a year. The solos are all above the ordinary in point of merit, while the choruses have a ring that make them take with the audience. The costuming is in perfect taste. One feature that the chorus is called on to execute is a march. It is handsomely executed.

The seats for this attraction are now on sale at the box office.

Someone will get a piano for nothing.

Night classes in Business and Shorthand will be organized Sept. 30. Particulars free.
