Garments To Clear Tomorrow

Drawers, Gowns, Skirts, Corset Covers, Chemise, White Lawn Aprons, Children's Wear and Ladies' Waists

This is the sale that interests every woman. A large number of garments in our Whitewear Department, through showing and handling, are bound to become soiled or mussed. This happens every season and cannot be avoided; others are mussed from being shown in window or displayed in the department. But, remember, all are new and first quality garments, and a little clean water will make them good as new. A season's accumulation of such is sufficient; we have gathered from every line of Whitewear garments that show the least sign of ill-usage. We will not attempt to make prices for every line, but have sorted them in two classes, as some are but slightly soiled and some not at all, and all odd lots, odd sizes and single garments will be cleared with these at a straight THIRD OFF ALL PRICES; the rest will all be cleared at HALF PRICE. We will not attempt to describe the different styles, but give a list of garments and prices showing the reductions:

urbs of New York. New York, July 18.—Twenty persons were injured, one seriously, in the first commercial trip on the new monorail service between City Island and Bartow, in the suburbs of the Bronx. Howard Tunis, the inventor, who was motorman, had a rib broken, and one passenger had a leg broken. The latter was the only one of the injured to go to a hospital.

Although described as a monorail the only car the company yet owns did not depend for its stability on a gyroscope. For support and traction, it ran on a single rail, but twin guide rails overhead hung between pillars and lateral braces on either side of the right-of-way held it in balance. While the car was running 30 miles an hour, one of these guide rails worked loose and the car tilted 40 degrees, piling the frightened passengers in the lower angle. The pilla:3 at cach side of the car prevented it from toppling over utterly, and the brakes brought it to a stop before worse damage was done.

Although the city was founded as late as 1886, it now boasts a population of 150,000 souls, and is admittedly one of the most important commercial centres on the Pacific Coast. Its commercial standing is founded on the fact that it is the terminal of three trans-continental railways, and the home port of several fleets of trans-Pacific steamship companies. Besides the railway lines already entering the city, two others are rushing construction to Vancouver, while several lines to connect the various parts of the interior of the province with Vancouver are being surveyed. interior of the province with Vancouver are being surveyed.

LONDON, MONDAY, JULY 18. THE DREADNOUGHT CRAZE.

The definite assurance that Germany will cut her shin-building programme in half in 1913, and that she has not speeded up her naval programme, shows how unfounded was the panic which swept over the empire a year ago, and rushed the British Government, against its judgment, into new excesses of naval expenditure.

Off Pair Picked From Burns, Langford and Kaufman.

New York, July 17 .- Tex Rickard, having finished the task of counting the money taken in at Reno, has found time to announce that Johnson is an invincible heavyweight champion of the world; also that he will wager $20,000 that Johnson can whip any two men the same day in the same ring, the big negro to enjoy a rest of ten minutes after polishing off his first antagonist.

Rickard further declares that if Burns and Langford or Kaufman will agree to and Langford or Kaufman will agree to this proposition he will hang up a big purse and will pull off the novel affair at Reno in the fall. As Langford is apparently dead anxious to fight Johnson under any conditions, and Burns seems to be equally hostile, it is possible that Rickard may go through with his plan.

Johnson stands ready to accept any plan that Rickard may suggest, and if plan that Rickard may suggest, and if plan that Rickard may suggest, and it the Nevada promoter can induce Burns and Langford to meet the champion it is believed there'll be something doing. If a double bill is out of the question, and Kaufman can find backing to the extent of $10,000, Rickard may decide to pit the young Californian against the conqueror of Jeffries. Rickard, it is understood, believes that Reno should have a big fight with Johnson as a principal on Labor Day, and is already working the Million-Dollar Damage to Piers an Boats at Hoboken.

New York, July 18 .- Four hundred thousand spectators witnessed Saturday the most spectacular pier fire since the Hoboken disaster, ten years ago, in which 150 lives were lost. As far as can be ascertained, two men perished during the day's conflagration. The monetary loss will run between $750,000 and $1,000,000. Pier 14 of the Metropolitan steamship line, on the Hudson River, at the foot of Fulton street, was practically destroyed. The structure cost $300,-000. The freight steamer H. F. Dimock, of the same line, which was lying alongside the pier, caught fire and drifted, blazing, out on to the river. where fire boats and tugs extinguished the flames. Two of her crew, all 28 of whom jumped overboard, are missing. It is believed they drowned. The vessel's upper works were destroyed. Her cargo was soaked and scorched, and she was otherwise badly damaged.

Six barges lying between piers 14 and 15 were destroyed and the passenger steamship Harvard, of the Metropolitan line, was badly scorched She was towed to safety, however, and departed for Boston on schedule time

n the evening. For a time it was feared that the entire waterfront north of Fulton street was in danger. The blaze was one of the most stubborn the firemen have contended with in years.

LIVE HOG PRICES

$9 a Cwt. Paid on Local Market This Morning—Oats Are Down.

Live hogs were up a notch this morning. None were brought in last Monday, and this had the effect of boosting the price this morning. Mr. D. A. Mc-Intyre shipped a carload to Toronto, paying $9 per cwt for all deliveries.

Only 11 loads of hay were offered for sale. These were practically all new hay, and went off from $10 to $12 per ton.

Oats are down slightly this week. Eight loads were in this morning, and sold from loads were in this morning, and sold from $1 25 to $1 28 per cwt.

Ottawa, July 18.-The Hon. L. P. Brodeur, minister of marine, will leave Ottawa on Aug. 4 for an inspection tour of the Great Lakes ports, with a view to ascertaining harbor and navigation needs. The proposed deepening of the Welland Canal will lead to the use of larger vessels on the lakes, and Hon. Mr. Brodeur will keep this in mind in planning any further harbor improvements at Fort William Port Arthur or other lake ports. After his tour of inspection the minister will go to Banff for a fortnight's holiday.

LITERARY NOTES

The August number of Scribner's passing. Magazine has for more than twenty years been a fiction number. This year, in addition to an unpublished comedy by the late George Meredith, of the Western Reserve Chapter and Theodore Roosevelt's article on his experiences in Uganda, it will contain fiction by Maurice Hewlett, Richard Sturdevant), is a bona fide daughter of Harding Davis. E. W. Hornung, Dorothy Canfield, Gerald Chittenden, John R. Spears, Alice Brown, and an article about the scene of one of his novels by John Fox, jun. Col. Roosevelt is one of the few white men who have ever coming here from Whitcombe, where seen a Nandi lion hunt, and his description in this number is the first situated. After spending four years in complete account of one of the most the United States he decided to make dramatic episodes in his trip. In the same article Mr. Roosevelt describes Grove in 1854, where he has ever the journey of 160 miles through since resided. Mr. Cook is still a Uganda between Victoria and Albert wideawake, active man, and has been

"Caesar's Captain" is the title of "a true story" in the July St. Nicholas by Captain Harold Hammond, the West Point man who wrote the Pinkey Perkins stories. Caesar is a little negro hero; and the touching incidents of the story occurred during the Spanish war, at Siboney, Cuba, and came under the personal observation of the writer. Miss Hildegarde Hawthorne devotes her "Books and Reading" this month to a delightful discussion of the "Life and Ballads of Robin Hood." There is a new department in St. Nicholas this month—the "Emergency Corner," conducted by Charlotte Brewster Jordan,

In the Red Book for July Thomas Samson Miller has another of his exwhere ruffianism reigns supreme. Its title is "Primitive Night," and it offers a thrilling picture of a native fetich dance in the jungle. "Into the Gen-uine," is a very human story by Reginald Wright Kauffman, and "The Annette Fever," by Freeman Putney, jun., will recall college days and sweethearts to every graduate who maye read it.

Of special prominence among the many notable features of the July Century are five full-page ecthings of Pittsburg, by Joseph Pennell, conveying a vivid impression of the city which is dubbed "Vulcan's Capital."

Examiners' Names Withheld. One of the great objections of teachers is based on the fact that the names of the three gentlemen whom the Government appointed to set the papers is a closely-guarded secret. It is only right, they argue, that the identity of those who are responsible for the setting of the questions in the various subjects should be known. This year there is no doubt that at least two of the papers-arithmetic and geography-were very difficult and tricky. Complaints are going up from nearly every town and city in the province.

MUCH-WANTED CRIPPEN IS STILL AT LARGE

Scotland Yard Believes He Is in Europe, But Has No Clue to Whereabouts.

London, July 18.—The London police have fixed the date of the tragedy at the Crippen house in Hilldrop Crescent as the night of Jan. 31, or the early morning hours of Feb. 1. The Crippens, it is now said. entertained a few friends on the evening of Jan. 31, and they left before midnight. The following date, the vaudeville artists' guild, of which Mrs. Crippen, or Belle Elmore, as she was known on the stage, was the treasurer, received a letter signed Belle Elmore, explaining that the writer had gone to American on business. The mis-spelling of the name, it is now remembered, caused comment at the time. The Scotland Yard authorities chagrined at having permitted Dr. Crippen keeping very quiet, on to escape, are the result of their realize that it will be no easy task to the dismembered body prove found buried in the cellar of the Hilldrop residence is that of Belle El-The inquest will be held Monmore.

Particular attention is being given by the police to cities in France, where Crippen is known to have visited or lived at various times. Not only have the French authorities been requested to watch carefully for a man answering Crippen's description, but English detectives have been sent in the hope that they might come upon him in some of his old haunts. The firmly believe that the body is that of conviction is becoming stronger that Crippen is still in Europe. One of the Sunday newspapers re- lished. ports that a man was detained at Birmingham last night in connection with the Crippen case, but this has not been confirmed. Another paper publishes the facsimile of the a registered letter posted to Crippen public school house at Norway, east of from Croydon, a short distance from the city, when the entire northeast London, on the night of July 14. paper says that the letter was delivered and that the contents were with-drawn. The envelope, partially de-stroyed, was subsequently found some miles distant, at a spot in London hitherto unconnected with the crime proving that either Crippen is still in London, or a confederate is receiving letters in his behalf.

MOTOR SOMERSAULTS

Ottawa, July 17.-In the final heat of a five-mile automobile race on Saturday at Rockliffe, Percy Harriss and Fred Morrison had a miraculous essape. Mr. Harriss in his 60-75 horsepower Oldsmobile, got away to a bad start, his competitor, F. Dunning, in Earl McCuaig's car, obtaining a halfmile lead. Mr. Harriss let out his big machine to almost full speed, and rapidly overhauled the fleeing car. Just as he was about to pass, the wheels on the McCuaig car skidded on the turn, and to avoid running it down, Mr. Harriss turned his machine to the side of the track. With terrific force it crashed into the embankment, turning over twice and throwing its occupants some distance. Morrison went up in the air over fifteen feet, alighting on his back, and but for a badly. bruised face and a shaking-up was unhurt. Mr. Harriss remained with the car and hardly received a scratch NOT A CLUE YET.
