

NAVY IS STRONGER THAN EVER

Winston Churchill Tells of the Situation as it is Today.

Germans Are Being Driven From All Commercial Pursuits.

LONDON, Nov. 28.—In the House of Commons yesterday afternoon, Right Hon. Winston Spencer Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty, delivered a powerful and stimulating speech in review of the naval situation.

Mr. Churchill emphasized that it was unwise to dwell upon particular incidents which were only a very small portion of what was going on in every part of the world.

In the first place, there was the danger of escape to the high seas of commerce destroyers. That danger had hitherto been successfully surmounted.

Then, in the third place, was the danger of mines. The enemy adopted methods, which before the war it was not thought would be practised by any civilized power.

Fourthly, there was the danger of submarines. These had been introduced under entirely novel conditions.

Mr. Churchill was not inclined to emphasize the fifth danger, that of invasion, as it was an enterprise full of danger to those attempting it.

Pressure increases. The economic pressure on Germany, said the First Lord, amidst cheers, continued to develop in a healthy and satisfactory manner.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—The Morning Post has the following from Petrograd, dated Friday: I am in a position to tell such part of the story as it is advisable to disclose of a very smart piece of naval work by the Russian Baltic fleet, commanded by Admiral Von Essen.

WARSHIP AUDACIOUS RAISED AND IS NOW UNDER-GOING REPAIRS IN HARBOR OF BELFAST, IRELAND

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—The statement that the British Dreadnought Audacious, reported sunk on October 27 off Lough Swilly, Ireland, had been raised and towed into Belfast harbor was made by passengers on the Cunard Liner Lusitania, which arrived here last night.

RUSSIAN REPORTS ALL INDICATE THAT VICTORY OF IMPORTANCE IS WON

PARIS, Nov. 28, 2.55 p.m.—The French War Office gave out an official communication this afternoon as follows:

"In Belgium the artillery exchanges were continued during the day of November 27 without any particular incident. The heavy German artillery showed less activity. There was but one attack of infantry, to the south of Ypres, which was repulsed by our troops."

"Toward the evening our artillery brought down a German biplane carrying three aviators. One of them was killed and the other two made prisoners."

"In the region of Arras and further to the south there has been no change. The day passed very quietly in the region of the Aisne. In Champagne our heavy artillery inflicted serious losses on the artillery of the enemy."

"From the Argonne to the Vosges there is nothing to report."

WARSHIP AUDACIOUS RAISED AND IS NOW UNDER-GOING REPAIRS IN HARBOR OF BELFAST, IRELAND

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—The statement that the British Dreadnought Audacious, reported sunk on October 27 off Lough Swilly, Ireland, had been raised and towed into Belfast harbor was made by passengers on the Cunard Liner Lusitania, which arrived here last night.

According to the report, the big sea fighter is undergoing repairs in Harland & Wolf's shipyard in the Irish seaport.

The Audacious was sunk in about twenty seven fathoms — about 160 feet of water. When the individuals responsible for the report—who asked that their names be withheld—were reminded that it had taken weeks to raise the battleship Maine in Havana harbor, the reply was that the British Admiralty has perfected an invention by which it is possible to raise even a vessel of the enormous tonnage of the Audacious in a comparatively much shorter time.

Ten days was the actual time, it was stated, consumed in performing the feat of raising the Audacious and towing her safely into Belfast harbor.

The passengers on board the Lusitania included Col. C. Patterson Murphy and Col. H. H. McLean, who were attached to the first expeditionary force of Canada. They are returning home, but declined to discuss their mission or the war.

The Lusitania brought 4,000 bags of mail matter, a considerable porridge of which is for Canada.

GERMAN RETREAT REPORTED

Grand Duke Nicholas Sends Official Word of Victory.

Definite Details However Still Withheld For the Present.

LONDON, Nov. 28.—12 noon.—While newspaper reports from Petrograd continue to claim a victory in Northern Poland, comparable at least to Sedan and that worthy to rank with the disaster which Russia inflicted upon Napoleon, official communications shed little light on the situation in Poland.

An official despatch from Grand Duke Nicholas, commander-in-chief of the Russian forces in the field, while of considerable length, concerns itself largely with more or less isolated operations and does not claim the infliction of an overwhelming defeat upon invaders.

Probably the most significant statement out of the welter of conflicting reports is the admission from Vienna that Czesstochowa, northwest of Cracow has been evacuated by the Austrians. This report is confirmed in a measure by Grand Duke Nicholas, who declares that the Russian successes along the Czesstochowa-Cracow front have assumed marked importance and that on the right bank of the Vistula the invaders are in disorderly retreat and are being vigorously pursued by the Russians.

The Grand Duke sums up the situation with the declaration that on the entire front between the Vistula and the Warta Rivers, the battle is progressing in favor of Russian arms. Both Berlin and Vienna still claim that no decisive result has followed the recent operations in Russian Poland.

On the western battle front, the hull still prevails, the only hint of activity being found in the report from Holland that the British fleet again is operating against the German positions on the Belgian coast.

The visit of Sir Roger Casement, who became famous as the investigator of the Putnam rubber atrocities, to the Berlin foreign office is being prominently featured by the London papers. The comment, however, is rather reserved.

On the whole, the press seems frankly puzzled by the episode. The British public have been greatly reassured by the statement of Winston Spencer Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty, concerning the naval position of the Empire. This has been supplemented by the official French report that the combined fleet not only have command of the Mediterranean, but are maintaining a successful blockade of the Adriatic and the Dardanelles.

PASTEURIZATION of milk is the modern system of rendering milk safe and healthy for family use.

Everywhere people are striving to modernize. Our city is employing Doctors and Nurses to visit our schools.

We are constructing school buildings as well as homes and other Public Buildings and equipping them along modern lines, the uppermost thought being influence upon health, happiness and general efficiency.

If we are going to have this due regard, why nourish the young with uncertain food? Raw milk is acknowledged by science to be uncertain and unsafe.

How far has the old tin can, with the measure hanging over the spout (to catch the street dust), progressed with science? We have about 1,000 modern customers, using modern Pasteurized Milk, delivered to them in modern Sterilized bottles.

LONDON, Nov. 27.—In the House of Lords yesterday, Viscount Kildane, the Lord Chancellor, gave an undertaking during the session, that between now and the reassembling of Parliament, no British civilian tried by court-martial, would be deprived of his life.

The subject was raised by Earl Lorcuburn, who moved an amendment to the defence of the realm bill so as to provide that a British-born civilian charged under the act should have the right to demand trial by the ordinary civil court.

Viscount Kildane pointed out that the amendment would kill the bill, and Earl Lorcuburn withdrew it on the above assurance being given him.

GERMAN PRISONERS OF WAR IN ENGLAND WELL TREATED

Chandler Anderson, of United States State Department, Investigates

LONDON, Nov. 28.—Chandler P. Anderson, a special representative of the United States state department, who has inspected the German detention camp at the Newbury race track, concerning which many complaints have been printed in the German newspapers, is preparing his report for presentation to the German authorities.

Mr. Anderson says the only criticism he found of the present conditions was based on the lack of heat. The prisoners now are living in tents, but shortly will move into huts and stables, where the conditions will be almost identical with those at the race tracks in Germany.

The commandant and the prisoners at Newbury camp are on good terms, Mr. Anderson says.

The French Government thanked the Canadians for making possible the establishment of a hospital.

NAVY IS STRONGER

(Continued from Page 1) vessels, modern, fast, light cruisers, we have lost two out of 35; Germany has lost six out of 25."

NAVY GROWS FASTER

The prospects for the future, continued Mr. Churchill, were even more satisfactory. In the next twelve months Great Britain would have doubled the number of her enemy's fast cruisers. He emphasized the excellent position of Great Britain in regard to Dreadnoughts. Naturally he could not announce the number added to the navy since the war, but he could say that the relative strength of the fleet was substantially greater. He showed that Germany, at the end of 1913 could only add three Dreadnoughts, while Britain could add fifteen. It was no exaggeration to say that Britain could lose one super-Dreadnought per month for a year and yet be in a superior position to that in which she was on the declaration of war. (Cheers.)

In conclusion, Mr. Churchill expressed the hope that these facts would comfort nervous people. He paid tribute to the patriotism of the workmen in the shipbuilding yards. He said that the health of the sailors was twice as good as in peace times, and their conduct exemplary. The navy was following the traditions of the historic struggles of the past, and while the soldiers in the field showed a zeal and enthusiasm which was inspiring their leaders with the utmost confidence.

A HOPEFUL OUTLOOK

On the whole, the First Lord said he considered the navy had become well. It was, he declared, driving German commerce from the seas, and preventing enemies getting war material, which they needed more and more as the war proceeded. Even if Britain were to be disabled, there would be no reason to despair, but with the French in control in the Mediterranean and Japan in the Pacific, and the Russian navy developing, "we could go on conquering our supplies from wherever we need them, transporting our troops wherever they are required and continue the process with our strength growing greater month by month, until at the end of perhaps a not very distant date we achieve the purposes for which we are fighting."

Mr. Churchill's most persistent critic, Admiral Lord Charles Beresford, retired, wanted explanations of the recent naval engagement, but Mr. Churchill declined to give these on the ground that the time would not be ripe until all the factors could be discussed.

PRICES ON THE LOCAL MARKET

Prices ruled moderate on the market this morning. The only commodities that showed a tendency to rise were fowls, in general, and geese, and chickens all soared a little. Apples, potatoes and such like food remained low. There has been a great glut of apples on the markets this year, and this is due to the war preventing much of the export trade.

Ducks brought 90 cents, and geese a dollar and a half, while chickens went from 50c to 65c. Butter remained as last week, at 28c, and 30c. Eggs sold generally at 45 cents, but a few early buyers snapped up at 40c. Cery rose with the cold weather, and sold 2 bunches for 15 cents. Cabbages were sold for 30c and 40c a dozen, but vegetable in general remained as they were last week. Fifteen and 20c a basket was a regular exchange. Fine snapples only brought 15c. A basket, and pears took 35c. Barrels of them were $1.25. Potatoes could be got at 60 cents a bag. Pork was 15c, and 16c a pound.

Hay was scarce, but what was sold brought fourteen and fifteen dollars. Straw sold for six dollars a load.

BULGARIA PREPARING TO ENTER FIGHT WITH ALLIES

This is the Views Taken at London of Affairs in Balkan State.

LONDON, Nov. 28.—The Roumanian Parliament will meet to-day and the future course of action of this kingdom probably will be decided.

It is said that Roumania is prepared to cede to Bulgaria some of the territory which she secured after the second Balkan war at the expense of her neighbor. This may mean that Bulgaria is about to try her stand by the side of the allies, and in return be permitted to straighten out her boundaries and take more of the country inhabited by her nationals.

TRENCH EDITIONS.

WASHINGTON, November 28—"Trench editions" of Belgian newspapers have reached the Belgian legation here disclosing the efforts being made to re-establish communication between the men on the firing line and their families in territory occupied by the Germans or who have fled to France, Holland and England. Besides the news, the papers carry columns of paragraphs addressed to individual soldiers by company and regimental designation, telling each the whereabouts of his relatives. Each paragraph begs that the soldier "send news."

The Canadian Shoe Manufacturers' Export Association is being formed in Montreal, and will make strenuous efforts to secure shoe orders from the Imperial government.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

A ruthless destruction of lives and property in Ypres by the Germans was reported.

Second Annual Affair at Wellington St. Sunday School.

The lecture room of Wellington St. Methodist Church was filled to its capacity last night on the occasion of the second S. S. banquet provided under the direction of the S. S. board for the entire school. Almost 400 sat down to a well prepared spread of pork and beans, bread and butter, pickles, pie and cake, fruit and coffee.

Immediately following the supper the pastor was called to the chair and opened the second part of the program, which was enjoyed equally with the first. Each number on the program was worthy of special notice. Singing "All hail the power of Jesus name," by the school, and prayer by the pastor, made an impressive opening exercise. Miss Hazel Kyerson in a fine piano solo which was well received. Miss Lulu Hainer followed this with a well rendered recitation. Mr. Frank Houghton sang a patriotic song which stirred the enthusiasm of the audience, and on being re-called, sang the popular song, "Tipperary," the audience joining in the chorus, which seemed to be fitting into the spirit of present day things.

Miss Hazel Kyerson gave a cornet and piano duet, which had to be repeated. A most interesting part of the evening's enjoyment was a story, "The Long Patrol," by Cody, Mr. Chrysler, for ten years has been superintendent of the primary department, with a solid gold wristlet watch as a slight recognition of her faithful services, to which she suitably replied. This was followed by a few congratulatory words by the Assistant Supt. Inspector Standing. God Save the King brought to a close one of the most pleasant functions the school and its friends have ever enjoyed.

OSTEND, Belgium, Nov. 21.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—The normal life of this usually lively city, has been radically changed by the German military occupation. Inhabitants are forbidden to leave their houses between seven in the evening and seven in the morning, and no lights may be shown during that time. No one can leave town without passports from the German authorities.

The usual market gatherings are almost suspended, and shoppers from Ostend can come in only when attended by their burgo-masters, and the market hours are limited to Monday and Thursday mornings. All horses have been taken by the military authorities so only dog carts can be used to bring food into the town.

Butter, eggs, meat and vegetables are cheap, but Ostend is without fish, because all fishermen have fled to England. Fishermen would be impossible for civilians are forbidden to approach the coast and the inhabitants of houses along the seashore have been expelled. The railways and electric trams have been stopped for everything except military purposes, and no lights may be shown during standing provisions to the front and bringing back wounded.

Little is left of what formerly was Westende, Dixmude, Schoore, Ramskapellen, St. Pieter, Capelle and Menkenversere, and over 150 farms in the neighborhood have been destroyed.

Hundreds of wounded Belgians and French are brought to Ostend, and those who can stand the journey are sent along to Germany. A dozen or more Germans, dead from their wounds, are buried here every day. The wounded Allies are well cared for by the Germans.

Ostend is without newspapers, soap, oil, candles and coffee. The Germans have made heavy requisitions, not only of foodstuffs in large quantities, but of cigars and wine, and all available mattresses and covers, as well as clothing, linen, wire and bicycles. For the property taken the Germans have given requisition notes amounting to one million dollars. The hotels are occupied by German officers, who live the best of everything. German bands play in the parks every day, but have only the Germans as auditors, because the inhabitants who are left boycott them.

Don't think because you have taken many remedies in vain that you are incurable. Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured many seemingly hopeless cases of scrofula, catarrh, rheumatism, kidney complaint, dyspepsia and general debility. Take Hood's.

THE SITUATION.

To-day is the 116th day of the great war, and there is comparatively little change in the standing of the opposing forces unless it be in Poland. From that sphere of operations there is an absence of Russian official reports, although all the newspaper correspondents write of Russian victory. On the other hand, the Germans have barred correspondents from the front, and the official statement at Berlin is that "no decision has been reached."

In these circumstances can be found ground for optimism on the part of the Allies. The Russians have undoubtedly done well, and can be expected to vigorously follow up their recent successes. But they have barriers to break down on the German frontier—barriers of greater resistance than those encountered against the Austrians, and it is doubtful if the war will be prosecuted with such continued vigor as it has been recently, during the entire winter.

Reports are again to hand that the Canadian troops will soon leave for the front, but it will be weeks before this movement is known in Canada. Undoubtedly, as things are now shaping, preparations are being made for an advance Berlin-wards, but no start will be made in that direction until there is co-operation in every sphere of the conflict. One military critic of high standing has declared that to the Russians will be allotted the task of reaching Berlin and to the British will be allotted the task of driving the German fleet from the Kiel canal by the despatch of a land force into Schleswig-Holstein. If the menace of Prussian militarism is to be destroyed, the fleet which at present gathers rust in the Kiel canal must be destroyed, and it is fitting that the military and naval strength of Britain should be exerted to this end. No doubt there is much in the statement of Hon. Winston Churchill that economic pressure on Germany is already felt, and that it will become more acute as months go by. It is difficult to see, however, in what light the spirit and pride of the German people can view, while they suffer and starve, a fleet which refuses to fight. The wearing-down process or the policy of attrition has failed entirely on British sea supremacy, as Churchill announced, and the longer it is carried out, the more complete the failure. Thus it is that there is strong ground for belief that this German navy will, as occasion arises, be forced to come out and fight. When that day comes Britain will lose both men and ships. It will be a terrible struggle, but it will end in only one way. As in the days of old, the enemy will be crushed and annihilated. The same breed of men are there to-day as in the days of Nelson and Drake. Then will come the day of reckoning and the awakening of the German people. It will be a heavy day, but it will mean the peace of the world for one hundred years. It will be worth while.

TWO VERSIONS.

There is a clash of ideas in the opinions of Bourassa of Montreal and Prof. Natop of the University of Marburg. The former claims that even so late as August 3, on the eve of war between Britain and Germany, Sir Edward Grey made proposals to Germany to betray France and Belgium. The professor, viewing things from his angle, asserts: "In neutral countries abroad the opinion still prevails that England, who wanted peace, was forced into participation in the war only by Germany's violation of Belgian neutrality. It is clear from the latest publications of our Government. According to them, England declined, in case of Germany's observance of the neutrality of Belgium, to pledge her own neutrality; that is, she reserved to herself, even if Germany did not pass through Belgium, the liberty to take part in the war against Germany; she declined, moreover, at a moment when war and peace depended wholly upon that issue, to name any conditions under which she would remain neutral."

Bourassa insists that Britain wanted ignoble peace, which he calls "magnificent selfishness" on the part of Sir Edward Grey; the Professor alleges that the Mother Country wanted war at any cost, and to that end resorted to any subterfuge. Both Mr. Bourassa and Prof. Natop have a good deal of faith in their readers' gullibility, evidently.

The German forces are reported to have abandoned their attempt to smash a way through to Calais.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Mexico City is enjoying "government by the mob." Hurrah for the people!

Winston Churchill's optimism and the navy's efficiency are good things for the Empire just now.

Reports say radium has been discovered at several places in Canada. This wonderful country seems to produce everything.

All Belgians in Canada are asked by King Albert to return. To get an appeal for help from such a source is an honor in itself.

The official government report stamps the Komagata Maru Hindu party to have been instigated by the Germans. That ought to end all the heart-burning.

Petrograd only awaits word from Grand Duke Nicholas about a great victory, and Nicholas won't talk until the affair is really over. However, there must be considerable foundation for the reported success when Kitchener calls it one.

A German apologist says that England had not time to shake off her moral obligation to help Russia after the murder of the Austrian heir and Grand Duchess. As five weeks intervened between that event and the war, and as Austria brought matters to a head in the last week of July without any previous intimation of her plans against Serbia, the charge takes its place among the many other things "Made in Germany."

Those who blamed the British Admiralty for not announcing the loss of the Audacious apparently should revise their views. It will be noticed that Churchill did not go into details yesterday in announcing the number of vessels added to the navy since the beginning of the war. If the Audacious was believed by the Germans to have been sunk, and has been raised and will again go into commission, why let them know about it? Apparently the Admiralty can be trusted.

Notes On the War

By An Unmilitary Critic

When the Kaiser had the ends of his moustache cut off, we presume the barber got an iron cross for participating in such a close shave.

KULTUR OVERLOOKED (Philadelphia Bulletin) "Germans may have culture," said Rep. Stanley Hefflinger in a war discussion at the Cleveland Republican Club. "Their culture, though, reminds me of the ham sandwich."

"A messenger boy in a quick lunch joint said reproachfully to the girl behind the counter. "I don't see no ham in this here sandwich, lady."

"Oh, you ain't come to it yet," said the girl. "The boy munched solemnly on. Then he said. "Still no ham, lady."

"Oh," said the girl, "you have bit over it, now."

Those Austrian soldiers may not be good fighters, but they have forgotten more about long distance sprinting than Tom Longboat ever knew.

When a German plays billiards, what does he do when he wants to put English on the ball? London Punch loosens up with the observation that while the German headquarters are in France, the headquarters were recently seen in Russia.

Cheerful Thoughts for the Kaiser: (Nov. 25).—That England has 110 submarines, 47 Dreadnoughts, and 200 sundry war craft, all waiting for the German fleet to come out into the wet.

When the Russians entered Germany many observant ones probably noticed that the kindly word "Welcome" was not woven in the door mat.

The Germans seem to be making a specialty of changing the names of places. We will be content to put one over towards the close of the war when the Kaisers' name will be Denmark.

It is estimated that 200,000 Englishmen used to play football every Saturday. Most of them have enlisted. Let your idle fancy paint a picture of these fellows up against 200,000 Germans who spent their Saturday at the national pastime of trying to see who could lap up the most lager.

German kultur may be a fine line of goods, but Warsaw has decided not to try any samples. An English soldier fainted when news arrived that he had received the Victoria Cross. If German soldiers fainted every time they got the Iron Cross the whole army would be paralyzed.

One paper points out that the charge of the Light Brigade was outdone by a glorious attack of the Indian troops. In this case it was the charge of the Dark Brigade.

The town of Dixmude was reported to have been retaken by French marines. James Thom, former manager of the White Star-Dominion Line offices in Canada, died in Montreal after a long illness.

Lieut.-Col. Walter J. Brown of Aylmer, formerly of Toronto, has been appointed to command the 4th Field Artillery Brigade, comprising three batteries.

WORLD PRESS ON THE WAR

LORD FISHERS OPPORTUNITY

London Chronicle.—Lord Fisher is 73, but happily he is in full vigor of body and mind. Barham was so when the younger Pitt summoned him back to the Admiralty in 1804, the year before Trafalgar. May the return of Lord Fisher be the precursor of a like victory. He is, however, far too sagacious a man to seek to mark his re-entry by a sudden spectacular success.

RUSSIA'S SOBER ARMY

Chicago Tribune.—Northern climates will permit drinking not permitted in the south, but the Russian morale was sinking in the grain mashes out of which vodka was distilled and the Russian government exercised for good this time the absolute which is its essence. All the vodka may not have been pressed out of the Russian army, but it is a sober army compared with any other that followed the icons for many years back.

DOOMED TO FAILURE

London Telegraph.—The attempt to unleash Moslem fanaticism against all non-German civilization is doomed, in our conviction, to a failure as complete as that of all the other prodigies of diplomatic cunning in which German statesmanship has placed so much reliance. Berlin has yet to realize how vast a change in the Sultan's position in the Moslem world has been wrought by the capture of the Ottoman Government by Turks who are out of sympathy with everything that is in the heart of the East.

THE BALKAN COMPLICATIONS

London Express.—It is difficult to see how Italy can any longer maintain her neutrality. Greece and Roumania are ready, and are almost certain to move. In Bulgaria the situation is complicated by distrust of Greece and Serbia, but the Bulgarian people are Slavs, and there is no possibility of the Government following Turkey to the German camp—and to destruction. Russia is facing the new complication with complete composure. Her message to the Balkans is admirably brief. "Those who are not for Russia are against her." It is a message that must have a dramatic and far-reaching response.

WAR STORIES FROM THE FRONT

Edinburgh accorded a great reputation to the third trainload of wounded which arrived there from the front on Saturday evening.

The most striking moment during the disembarkation of the wounded was when thirty or forty men stepped from the platform to wait their turn for transport. With wounded arms, bandage-swathed heads and injured legs—Scotsmen, Englishmen and Irishmen—some of them were dressed in the variety of costume offered by about a score of British regiments—they solemnly "dressed by the right" with the inborn sense of order of the soldier and "stood easy" in the trenches and of the fields of France was still thick on their boots. And the few great coats worn were covered with mud. The men were even more striking than their garments—billiards, several of them, and with tanned, unshaven faces, and in some cases well grown beards. The great majority of them were wounded in engagements on Tuesday and Wednesday, either at Bethune or in the vicinity of Lille. There were one or two cases of ordinary illnesses, rheumatism and such like, the drenching rain of a couple of weeks ago having told its tale, but while several of the cases were serious, none was stated as dangerous. There were twenty-five "lying down" cases, these being carried on stretchers from the train to the ambulance, while the others walked or were assisted to the ordinary motor cars. One point which the men confirmed was the speedy manner in which the casualties are being announced in this country—officers killed and wounded in the same engagements as themselves on Wednesday being included in casualty list on Saturday.

HOW THE GERMANS LOSE THEIR MEN.

A second lieutenant, who is at present at the front, writes as follows: "The other day I saw where one of our soldiers had met a German walking along the road. The German had got down in ditches on opposite sides of the road, and opened fire on each other. They must have fired exactly at the same moment, for each was shot through the head. The English bullet had caught the German's rifle and ricocheted, and lifted half his face off. I had them covered up with some straw. There was no time to do any more. The French people come out with crosses and put them all the graves, Germans and French alike. The Germans must be an undisciplined crew. They loot all the wine and get blind drunk. The other day we missed one of them by two hours. They were all half drunk but got away in the woods. I heard a lovely yarn. Some of our people captured some Germans and in the night one goes away. They were very fed up about this, but next day he came back with eleven of his pals, whom he had persuaded to desert and come back with him. In view of several similar incidents, I am inclined to believe this is true.

MURDEROUS FIRE OF BRITISH TROOPS.

Sergeant-Major H. Attree, of the 18th Hussars, writing to his parents, says: "The Germans must be a rotten crowd. The looting has been awful; beautiful homes smashed up, and articles of clothing, household linen, pictures, and furniture smashed to atoms and trodden under foot. They took away the wines, for on our advance up country, the numerous German camps were strewn with bottles, articles of equipment, and other things too numerous to mention. They leave their killed by the side of the roads and in the streets of villages—anywhere; in fact, South Africa by comparison, was Eden! The Germans are making a dead-set at the English, and are pitting their best troops against them. They despised us as a negligible quantity, but they have got to know by now that they have to reckon with some of the best fighting troops in the world. Letters found on prisoners and killed state that the fire of the British troops is murderous."

Wm. G. Wilson, yardman on the Pere Marquette Railway, was instantly killed at St. Thomas by falling off the pilot of an engine when it struck an obstruction and was doubled up. Pte. Wm. T. Bishop of the 4th Regiment, Welland, secured leave of absence from the Toronto camp to go to Welland and wed Miss Nelie Grace Sheekleton, to whom he had proposed the same day by telephone.

IS YOUR "BUSINESS AS USUAL"?

For the wide awake business man and manufacturer, there are many war time opportunities in Ottawa. The Canadian Northern Railway is operating a well equipped Night Service between Toronto and Ottawa, which lands you in the heart of the Capital first thing in the morning, but not so early as to interfere with your night's rest. The return train gets you home the following morning with the whole day to book your orders, or if you clean up in a hurry, you can take the noon train from Ottawa and be in Toronto the same evening. Through tickets (via Toronto and the C. N. R.) and Sleeping Car reservations can be procured through any Ticket Agent, or through the City Ticket Office, C. N. R., 52 King Street East, Toronto, Ont.

Laundry Service
The department of the Brantford Laundry that cares for family washings has been increasing its business by leaps and bounds. Once a housekeeper sends her family washing to The Brantford Laundry, she is very much averse to returning to the old system of doing washing herself or having it done at home.
In the first place, all water used passes through our water softening and filtering plant. Water pure as crystal is used in every wash. The soaps we use are pure and neutral in character, that is, there is no free alkali.
Our modern machinery is operated by expert Canadian laundry workers. All flat work, such as towels, sheets, linens, etc. is beautifully ironed by machinery—more perfectly than most laundresses can do it by hand. But, on delicate fabrics, where extreme care is necessary, we employ laundresses who are experts in the use of the hand iron.
Our collars and shirts department is thoroughly equipped to produce first-class finished work. Collars are laundered on both sides and then "moulded" so that the tie will slip through easily.
You cannot do better than use the Brantford Laundry Service—the only "white" laundry in Brantford.

TAKING COMMISSION

W. B. Adams of Chatham, and formerly of this city, is taking a commission at London barracks. He was in the city yesterday in attendance at the funeral of the late Elmer Mc-Nelles.

ALFRED ST. CROSSING

The residents on Darling St. still have some kick coming about the crossing on the car tracks over Alfred St. Rough road metal makes a bad footing for ladies, and the relaying of wooden ties would be appreciated.

SHOW DISCRETION

When Mr. Frank Veigh showed his picture of the Kaiser on the screen in Buffalo last night, no demonstration of either disapproval or admiration was made. The lecturer states that in the U.S.A. many audiences are openly sympathetic for the allies and with others great discretion has to be used.

ITALIANS CALLED

James and Joe Ross, two Italians, and reservists in the Italian Army, left the city this morning to rejoin their colors in the old home land. The men, who are brothers, were employed at the Glue Works and resided in Cainsville, where they were well known. They formed two of a small contingent which left this morning for Montreal, where they will ship direct for Italy, via England. This move practically confirms the suspicion that Italy intends to make some movement in the present war and is at present making ready for the proclamation.

ST. BASIL'S YOUNG MEN

The young men of St. Basil's church held a fine smoker and concert last night in the club room adjoining the church. It was well-attended and after the programme of songs a round of euchre was played. Reg Murphy eventually winning with fourteen points. Mr. Frank Casey was the chairman of the evening and he gave the Paris contingent who were present in numbers a hearty welcome. Also included in the happy throng were, Dean Brady, Father Doyle and Father Cassidy of Paris. The programme of songs was excellent and was composed of contributions from Mr. John Howard, on the piano and vocal efforts by J. Farnsworth, F. Carson, M. Meehan and C. Carling. W. Hollinrake presided at the piano throughout the entire evening. Near midnight the pleasant company dispersed.

OLD LAND MAIL

The Old Country mail arrived in New York yesterday by the American liner Lusitania. Many letters were delivered throughout the city to-day from this consignment.

ARBITRATION ADJOURNED

The Arbitration Board, which has investigated the claims of Mr. Nightingale of the Brantford Ice Company, against the Lake Erie and Northern Railway, yesterday, adjourned for three weeks. The parties contending, were not in a position to complete their evidence, after the hearing lasting three days.

AWARD SET ASIDE

Mr. William Richley, residing at 112 Erie avenue, had the pleasure of receiving last night a parlor clock from Mr. Shannon on behalf of his many friends. The self-invited guests then sat down and a high tea with an impromptu programme followed. Mr. Maitland Sayers acted as company wit and a splendid evening was enjoyed.

AWARD SET ASIDE

The recent arbitration between Judge Hardy and the Lake Erie and Northern Railway, which took place recently, with respect to depreciation of property by the cutting of the railroad right of way, and which resulted in an award to the Judge, has been set aside on account of irregularities. The whole arbitration will have to be gone over.

TO SHARE THE COST

Mr. Frank Cocksbutt wrote to the city clerk this morning to say that in order to proceed with the Park Drive, two lots, the property of Mr. Ballantyne, of West Brantford, would have to be purchased. His price was $650 and the lots were on Catharine street and beside the Agricultural Park. One half of the purchase price, he thought, should be paid by the Parks Board, and the other charged to the account of the Park Drive Committee.

A PRESENTATION

A magnificent little gold wrist watch was presented to Mrs. Chrysler last night by the primary class when it met at the Wellington St. Methodist Church. It was a farewell gift to a well esteemed teacher before she leaves to take up her duties in the Brant Avenue circle. Mr. Ranton, the superintendent, made the presentation and asked Mr. Chrysler to bear their best wishes in her new field of work and she suitably responded, thanking the children for their kindness and attention in the past.

"FOR KING, OUR COUNTRY AND EMPIRE"

Stirring Address Given by Mr. Frank Veigh Last Night

Before a large gathering in the Victoria Hall last night, Mr. Frank Veigh delivered his stirring lecture, "For King, Country and Empire."

The Rev. Mr. Kelly introduced the speaker and then called upon Miss Sweet for a song. It was splendidly rendered, being a composition of Miss Pauline Johnson's, set to music by Mr. Maudesley, organist of Zion Church.

Mr. Frank Veigh opened his lecture with a reference to the immense struggle occupying as it did over half the earth's surface, and half of its people. Belgium, he said, had a population as large as that of Canada and could we imagine the horror of what a homeless land ours would be if such an invasion had befallen it. Canada had given splendidly and would give more. Her soldiers were the favorite theme of discussion in Britain to-day. Everyone had thrilled when it was known that 90,000 men had landed at Plymouth from the Dominion. The unity of Empire was no mere political phrase, it was a splendid reality.

Some splendid pictures of London and the historic landmarks of the great city of the Empire were shown and each was accompanied by a lucid and well told story of their scenes. Pictures of regiments and the slide showing a redette of the famous Scots Greys, were warmly applauded. "Scotland had given more men in proportion to population than any other part of the Empire; of one highland home alone, 9 sons were on active service. The portrait of the King was a striking one and the picture of the late Lord Roberts, when thrown on the screen, got paid its tribute. The slides bearing the likenesses of Kitchener, Joffre and the ships of the line, were also applauded and the famous picture of the sons of the Empire rallying to the flag, drawn by a famous artist, was greeted with a hearty appreciation. The Rev. Mr. Kelly closed the meeting with a vote of thanks, and the audience rose and sang the National Anthem as is the time honored custom.

PANSY CLUB BAZAAR WAS FINE SUCCESS

Almost twelve years ago, a bright spirited and cheerful cripple, Miss Fanny Patterson, with her needle and thread made a few little comforts which she sold and gave the money, a modest five dollars over to the Children's Aid Shelter. It was a little act typical of the happy little girl, and a few kindred souls around her, made another effort, with the result that she and her helpers were able to raise $10 for the poor little children in the Shelter.

Yesterday, once again, the Pansy Club gathered to celebrate its twelfth birthday, and also to give their twelfth bazaar at the home of the Children's Aid Society. And the well-laden stalls were, in themselves a great tribute to the diligence of those twenty girls who now constitute the club. There were three well-laid departments: the fancy work, charge of Miss Doris Ginn, Pearl Simons and Nita Rogers; the Candy, attended by Misses Laura Wilson, Gertrude Aiken and M. Matthews; the Cooking, in the care of Misses Edna Burrill, Ruby Harrison and Hazel Simons. Miss Grace Randall was in charge of the Fishpond.

During the afternoon and evening many visitors called at the home of the Pansy Club, and the result that a generous contribution towards the building funds of the society is expected. Last year over $10 was raised, and this year it is hoped to equal and surpass this achievement. The girls have faithfully fulfilled their trust and are to be congratulated upon past successes.

The officers of the Pansy Club are: Honorary President, the late Pansy Patterson; president, Razel Simons; Secretary, Pearl Pinkham; treasurer, Pearl Simons.

Joseph Hawkins Passed Away This Morning After a Lingering Illness.

Citizens of Brantford generally will learn with deep regret of the demise of Joseph P. Hawkins, which occurred at the residence of his father, Mr. Arthur Hawkins, 98 Albion street this morning.

The deceased, who has been unwell for some time was widely and favorably known, being of a quiet and amiable disposition, and his many friends will be grieved to learn of his death.

The late Mr. Hawkins leaves to mourn his loss besides his parents, two brothers, Arthur of Sedalia, Mo., and Harry of this city, and a sister, Miss Rhea at home to whom his sincere sympathy of the community will be extended in their bereavement.

THEIR BRAVE DEED

Is Duly Rewarded by King Albert of the Belgians.

[By special Wire to the Courier] FURNES, Nov. 20.—(Correspondence)—By order of King Albert the Cross of the Order of Leopold was conferred on every member of the little band of cyclists who crossed the German lines and blew up a bridge near Mons, which cut the German communications for three days and allowed the Allies to assemble the force necessary to check the advance of the Germans towards Calais.

This company of cyclists, from which the men were taken for this piece of hazardous work, is composed of 300 members, sworn to give their lives to their country. Only three were taken from each regiment out of the many who volunteered. The corps is used in operations which often mean certain death. In the present case the destruction of the bridge cut off the Germans' supplies, and is considered by the King to be directly responsible for the failure of the Germans to break through the line of the Allies in the critical days of the first week of November.

The officers who received the rank of Chevalier of the Order of Leopold were Captain Delfosse, Captain Courboise, Lieutenants DeRode, Gervois, Flebus, Parden and Rolers, while the cross was given to 24 non-commissioned officers and enlisted men.

RETURN VERDICT

But Jury Was Unable to Decide in Death of Samuel Bonsfield.

"That Samuel Bonsfield died as the result of wounds received at his own hands, but whether intentional or accidental they could not decide, was the verdict of the Coroner's Jury, which last night investigated the circumstances surrounding the death of the young man at the headquarters of the 25th Brant Dragoons, over a week ago. The inquest which was held by Coroner Fissette was of a brief character, but it covered the ground fully. As there is no one who saw the actual occurrence, the real facts will never be divulged. As far as the depositions of witnesses who appeared before the Military Board of Inquiry were read and they were relative to facts already established. They showed that when no one was looking a shot was heard and Bonsfield fell to be picked up and taken to the Hospital. He had been quite happy and made no suggestion as to suicide.

Doctors Phillips and Chapin testified as to the wound. It was a mortal one, having made a passage clean through the head. The nature was such as to leave it an open question as to whether it was intentional or accidental. Death was due to the wounds received.

Crown Attorney Wilkes summed up the evidence briefly. There was no doubt that the wound which had resulted in death, had been caused by the deceased's own hand. Whether it was accidental or not, mattered little to them. The fact of death remained.

Coroner Fissette remarked briefly upon the case and asked the jury if they desired to retire. They did not and returned a verdict in accordance with the uncertain conditions of the affair. Speaking as foreman, James T. Whitaker then read the verdict as above and the inquest closed.

CITY SOLICITOR ENTERS PROTEST TO THE COUNCIL

Proposed Reduction of His Salary Not in Accord With Efficient Service

City Solicitor W. T. Renderson in a letter to the City Council voices a strong protest against the statements which have appeared in the local press to the effect that his salary as City Solicitor is to be cut down by $300. While he admits that one of two members of the council may be in favor of the reduction, the proposal has, he claims met with little sympathy or support from the body. He was by no means an egotist, but he at least thought that while he had acted as city solicitor, he had been competent. This being so it was only his due that he should receive fair remuneration. He could say, as every fair-minded member of the council would bear him out, that he had earned his salary. No private corporation could secure a good lawyer at twice that sum. Some people had complained that private corporations had at various times got the better of the city. That was so, because they employed more competent men and paid them better salaries; but he was not aware that any corporation had got the better of the city while he had been protecting its interests. He did not think that the city was in favor of cheapening its service at the sure expense of efficiency.

OFFICERS ELECTED

Methods of Work Discussed on Thursday Evening at

Well Attended Meeting.

A meeting of the Brant Deanery
Sunday School Association was held at Grace Church Sunday School on

Reports and election of officers for the ensuing term resulted in the following appointments: Hon. President, Rural Dean Saunders; Presi-superintendent of font roll, Miss Emily Bunnell; superintendent of Home department, Miss Edna Senn;

superintendent of Adult Bible class,

Mrs. Arthur Secord; superintendent of Missionary department, Miss Petrina;

superintendent of Teacher Training department, Mr. A. Morrison.

Miss Emily Bunnell then read a highly interesting paper on the work of her department, which aims at the children in touch with the church from the time of their baptism until they become old enough to take their place in the Sunday school classes.

Miss Edna Senn followed her with a well thought out paper on the work of her department, which aims at teaching in the homes and those who from any cause are unable to attend

Sunday schools.

Both these papers were well discussed by the chairman and other members of the association. The Rev. Dr.

Renison on getting children to attempt the Sunday schools and obtaining their attention while there. The reverend speaker who had spent many years as a missionary amongst the Indians and Eskimoes on the shores of Hudson Bay and Labrador, had for about four years never heard the English language spoken, he has obtained in his parish in Hamilton. He stated that there he uses moving pictures, lantern slides and pictures to illustrate the lessons. He strongly advocated the method of teaching more with the eye than the ear.

Mr. H. W. J. Hunt then sought information as to the best methods of retaining the boys in the Sunday school after they have attained fourteen years or thereabouts, which followed the Rev. Dr. Renison and other members of the association. The Rev. Dr.

Renison and the Rev. Patterson described the methods of getting children to attempt the Sunday schools and obtain-for payment and the meeting closed.

Those present were His Honour
Judge Hardy, Magistrate Livingston and Chief Slemm.

BOYS FOR FIRING LINE

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—A cable to the Tribune from Copenhagen says:
Twelve thousand school boys, between the ages of fifteen and seventeen have been enrolled as volunteers divided into twenty companies, and their military training is proceeding with all possible speed. It is intended that they shall take the field early in the spring. Many will then be under the command of officers of the Danish army, which includes Berlin, 60,000 school boys have been enrolled as volunteer recruits.

London Board of Control decided to insure the 150 London men going with the second contingent, paying two years' premiums to an Indianapolis company, averaging $1.50 each.

FLEMING IS BEATEN BY EDDIE WALLACE

Toronto Boxer's Whirlwind Finish Failed to Get the Verdict.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Soldier Bartfield and Jack Britton fought ten even rounds at the Broadway Sporting Club in Brooklyn, Britton displayed greater cleverness, but Bartfield was the aggressor throughout. In the other feature bout of ten rounds, Eddie Wallace outpointed Frankie Fleming, the Canadian champion. Wallace had matters much his own way in the first seven rounds, while Fleming earned the last three by a large margin. Fleming's whirlwind finish, however, was not enough to overcome Wallace's early lead.

PLANK WANTS TO MUCH.

Federals to Drop Negotiations With the Twirler. CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—President Weeghman, of the Chicago Federals yesterday declared that negotiations for Edward Plank, former star pitcher of the Philadelphia Athletics, had come to an end because of the big salary demanded by the left-handed twirler. "I would like to see Plank in a Chicago Federal uniform," said Weeghman, "but his terms are too strong, and I have practically ended all negotiations."

MACK WANTS CALDWELL.

Would Give Lapp and Oldring for the New York Pitcher

NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 28.—A baseball trade between New York and Philadelphia American league clubs, involving Ray Caldwell, of the Yankees, and Rube Oldring and Jack Lapp, of the Athletics, is under consideration, according to reports published here yesterday. President Ban Johnson, of the American League, is said to have urged Connie Mack, while on a visit east, to arrange the deal with the double purpose of saving Caldwell from the Federal League with which he is reported to have signed for next year, and of strengthening New York club for the good of the circuit.

BERLIN CHAMPIONS WILL NOT TAKE UP THE SENIOR PROPOSITION

BERLIN, Nov. 28.—The management of the Berlin Intermediate Hockey Club does not look with favor on the proposition of some of the Western Ontario clubs of forming a senior O. H. A. group in this section of the province. The grouping of Brantford, Paris, Berlin, Sarnia and Western University in a senior series does not appeal to the locals to the same extent as the former O. H. A. district. The places are too far apart to make the game a financial success. Berlin will be represented in the

TOWN HOCKEY LEAGUE

PRESTON, Nov. 28.—A meeting will be called on Monday evening to try and organize a commercial hockey league. Mr. Clayton Huribut has donated a handsome silver cup to the league if such organization can be formed. The meeting will be called in one of the rooms in the Bernhardt Block on Monday evening, and it is hoped that it will be well represented by delegates from the different factories of the town.

O. H. A. MAY ADOPT THREE 20-MINUTE PERIODS IN GAMES

While in Toronto on Thursday, Manager Stephens, of the Western University hockey club, had a confab with "Billy" Hewitt, secretary of the O. H. A., and gleaning from the conversation the O. H. A. welcomes the Western University organization with open arms. Some years ago the O. H. A. turned down an application from the Western, but things have changed since the N. H. L. is in the field. It is not probable that the O. H. A. will bar N.H.A. players in the coming season, since the former organization needs western Ontario clubs for affiliation more than the Western Ontario clubs need the O. H. A. An amendment to be voted upon at the annual meeting of the O. H. A. on Saturday, December 5th, is the dividing of the time of the games into three periods of 20 minute thirds instead of two 30 minute halves. Two short rests seem more popular since the introduction of this style of play in the pro. leagues. This style of game was first introduced in the Trolley Pro. League when it consisted of Waterloo, Berlin, Galt and Guelph.

Mr. Stephens learned that Western University and Guelph O. A. C. hockey clubs can form any sort of a district to the intercollegiate hockey series.

Music and Drama

STRONG CANADIAN DRAMA

"THE BELGIAN NURSE" COMING In harmony with the made-in-Canada idea, comes a play by an Ontario boy, J. P. Buschlen, entitled "The Belgian Nurse."

This play is coming to town on Saturday at the Grand, one night only, and is being presented by one of the best companies ever seen in this city. Louise Corbin, who will be remembered for her performance in "Along Came Ruth" and "The Roundup," is playing the title role. Eugene Praeger, late star of "The Money Makers" is cast as the Canadian wounded soldier; Lillian Niederbauer, creator of the heavy female role in "Nearly Married," is one of the German spies and Harry J. Fischer, a New York character actor, as the other. Catherine Alden, who played the big emotional part in "Bought and Paid For" will take the part of "Joan" the charming French girl who loves "Jacques" the spy. Campbell Duncan will play "Henri," the philosopher; Eileen Goodwin, the daughter of the playwright, J. Cheever Goodwin, the stenographer, "Emma," will play "Grace," the girl of "Grace," an impudent office girl.

There are thrills in "The Belgian Nurse," and sentiments that will appeal very strongly to Canadians at this time. There is a strong note of sympathy, throughout, for the Belgians, and a philosophic criticism of the causes of this great war. It is a play that will appeal to the intelligent lover of true drama, and to the Anglo Saxon who has always believed in the integrity of treaties and in the humanity of man. There is nothing melodramatic about "The Belgian Nurse," but it gets into the blood, and makes one feel that there is no occasion for despair at this time, but every occasion for rightful action and healthy optimism.

A wonderful cast, a compelling made-in-Canada play, and a good cause—what more is needed to secure patronage for "The Belgian Nurse?" Come and get your money's worth and at the same time do something for our Allies, the heroic Belgians. ALL NEXT WEEK.

ERNE MARKS

The well-known comedian, at the Grand for one week, commencing Monday, Nov. 30.

Entertainment has pleased the lover of amusement, for such a number of years. The company which Mr. Marks has engaged this season, is by far the best he has yet offered to the public. Among which is some vaudeville headliners which have been engaged at the highest salary ever paid by a stock company entour. Every piece is elegantly costumed, neither time, money or brains has been spared, to have one of the best shows put on the road this season, its a good bet that the popular playhouse will be filled from pit to dome during the engagement here. The opening play will be Geo. F. Hall's famous comedy, "The American Girl."

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—The Monroe doctrine was strongly indorsed, its relation to the present European war, its applicability to Canada discussed, and the declaration that interferences by the United States in Mexico and Central American States have had nothing to do with that doctrine, was made by former President Taft in an address at Montclair, N. J., last night.

These are some of the salient features of his remarks: "The landing of troops in Canada by enemies of Great Britain would not constitute a violation of the doctrine, but an effort to establish a new form of Government in case of victory would."

U.S. WOULD NOT PROTECT CANADA FROM INVASION

There is little likelihood of the policy being pressed in Argentina, Brazil and Chile. These countries are able to protect themselves and they are remote from the United States that violation of the doctrine in respect to them would not be harmful to this country's interests and safety.

The doctrine has not been applied in Mexico, because there is nothing in it which requires the United States to bring about peace in that country. In taking up the proposition of Great Britain's enemies landing troops in Canada, Mr. Taft cited the stand of Secretary Seward taken when Spain declared war on Chile. He announced this country would not interfere as long as one country did not seek to inflict its government on the conquered people nor compel a permanent transfer of their territory nor resort to any other unjustly oppressive measures.

"INVASION" A RIGHT.

"It seems to me clear," Mr. Taft said, "from the history which I have given of the Monroe doctrine, and from Secretary Seward's declaration in the case of the war between Chile and Spain, that a consistent pursuit of the policy would not require us to object to any warlike measures under the rules of lawful war which England's enemies might take against Canada."

"Canada is already furnishing substantial military aid to Great Britain and the allies. She has sent a body of 30,000 men, of well-equipped soldiers, and is preparing more and intending to send them. On what theory therefore, could we justly object to German's taking counter measures and carrying the war into a country which is waging war upon her? All that the Monroe doctrine would consistently require of us would be to insist that when the war is over if Germany were successful, she could not take over the territory of Canada and overthrow her government and establish their own there, or take any oppressive measures which would have a similar effect. But we could not object to her exacting an indemnity if she were the victor."

Mr. Taft sees little danger of the policy drawing this country into trouble with a European nation soon, at least one reason being that the present struggle abroad will leave them exhausted, therefore, unlikely to begin new hostilities.

In The World Of Labor

A Budget of News For Those Interested in Labor

By G. A. M.

Cleaned From the Exchanges and Other Sources

A CAUSE FOR HARD TIMES

A FEW POINTERS FOR THE BUSINESS WORLD

What the Merchants Can Do to Restore Prosperity

The following article first appeared in the pages of the Industrial Banner in January, 1895, when it was published as a monthly paper, and it was extensively copied by many of the leading Labor papers south of the border line. To-day, the Banner, as a live weekly, fills a far more portentous role, but the article which dealt so many years ago with the lesser problem of the unemployment of that time is equally applicable to the now still greater problem of the larger measure of unemployment of to-day.

"Every reduction in wages is a blow struck as directly at the merchant as the operative, and is quickly felt by the manufacturer himself who has made the cut. In this age of keen competition the manufacturer will strain every nerve to produce cheaper than his business rivals, and when he has pared down his expenses in all other quarters, whenever he feels it safe to do so, he reduces the pay of his hands. That no real benefit is derived from this procedure is well known, for just as soon as one firm takes this step it is gradually followed by all other corporations in the same trade, and in the end they practically stand in the same position as when they started in regard to the advantage of competition over one another. This plan, followed in a number of different trades, result in a general decline of wages, and though the goods may be produced and sold cheaper, the purchasing power of the community has been so circumscribed that the merchant finds he has hard work to dispose of his wares. When the operative has been reduced 200 per cent, it means that he will purchase just that amount less of other goods, and it may be that the person who manufacture the goods he requires are equally desirous of obtaining goods of a line turned out by the establishment that has reduced his wages. Thus the reduction in wages, not only the workman who cannot afford to buy, but it has hit back at the employer who was blind enough to make the false move. It is a well-defined result of natural law that in any community where wages are high, business is always good, and that where a low rate of wages prevail, business is correspondingly depressed. It must follow as a matter of course, that where a man receives a poor return for his labor, his power of purchasing goods is always low. A mechanic receiving $2.25 a day is not as good a customer for the business man as another whose remuneration amounts to $1.25, and no merchant or manufacturer has a right to expect good times in any locality unless the wages are such as to give the workman a fair return for labor performed. Every time an employer reduces wages, he serves a notice to the public that he is doing his share to drive away good times and still further depress the labor market. If there is any class in the community who should dread short time or a reduction of wages, that class is the merchants who are depending on labor for a living, for every blow struck at the wage-earner is immediately felt in the business houses that cater to his wants. This is a phase of the labor question that the merchants in the past have been slow to perceive, and in seasons of depression they seem at a loss to account for the prevailing state of affairs. The prosperity of the merchant must always depend upon the purchasing power of the

SCROFULA AND ALL HUMORS GIVE WAY

There are many things learned from experience and observation that the older generation should impress upon the younger. Among them is the fact that scrofula and other humors, which produce eczema, boils, pimples and other eruptions, can be most successfully treated with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

The great medicine is a peculiar combination of remarkably effective blood-purifying and health-giving roots, barks and herbs, which are gathered especially for it.

Hood's Sarsaparilla has stood the test of forty years.

"It was his desire to appeal for even closer co-operation between the Canadian and United States organizations. He considered it a tremendous honor to be able to convey to them the fraternal greetings and well wishes of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada and the workers throughout the entire Dominion and the day was surely coming when the great and undivided Labor movement of the North American continent would be everywhere acknowledged as the mightiest factor in the cause of universal peace, brotherhood and righteousness. Mr. Rigg received an ovation at the close of his powerful appeal, which went to show that the great gathering of the representatives of American Labor were sound to the core and ready to battle with the reactionary forces that make for injustice and war.

Laboreties

Better working conditions, shorter hours and higher wages always follow a persistent demand for the Union Labels of the various trades. By purchasing goods bearing the Union Label the worker is helping his fellow-man and indirectly benefitting himself.

Overwork, like any other unhealthy condition, breaks down the worker, turns him into a machine, takes all but the machine-like qualities out of him and throws him out upon the scrap heap when he should be in his prime.

When all workless incomes are abolished, it is safe to say that one-tenth of the population will not own nine-tenths of the wealth as in the case now. Such abolition in itself would be a lasting insurance against poverty.

Poverty in the midst of plenty is the blight that will forever mar any picture of beauty that an upholder of the present social regime may attempt to draw.

Many of the men who are opposed to women voting would get greatly excited if some one advocated the abridgement of their own right to the franchise.

When a worker has arrived at the point where he recognizes the identity of the interests of all workers he has taken a long step forward in the direction of his own emancipation.

Do Not Be Insincere

DO NOT BE INSINCERE

Just as we detest a double-dealer, a dishonest man, so do we love most the man of truth, who hides nothing from the eyes of the world; who lets his heart be read by all who see him; who regards all men as good men; who suspects nobody of ill; who always means just what he says, and never goes back on his word.

The sincere man asks only justice for himself, and treats all others with equal cordiality. He wants nothing that others cannot receive, and accepts nothing that is denied to others. He has no confidential friends for the sake of gossip. His word is his best bond, and fidelity to the right his session well called. When there were no night sessions there were street meetings in King's Square.

Sincerity is the highest honesty before God and man. Sincerity is purity of life. Sincerity is frankness and candor. Sincerity is the quality of the man who is in his private life what he wishes to be in public life. Sincerity is the expression of the truth as one knows it, and the living up to it, regardless of consequences.—EX.

LADIES! SECRET TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Bring Back Its Color and Lustre With Grandma's Sage Tea Recipe.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bid of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, yet a desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.

ROBERT LORAIN, ACTOR WOUNDED WHILE ON DUTY

LONDON, Nov. 27.—Robert Loraine, the well-known English actor and aviator, who is a second lieutenant in the British flying corps, is among the wounded reported from the headquarters under date of November 23. Mr. Loraine, who was one of the earliest and most enthusiastic of the English aviators, narrowly escaped death in a flight across the Irish Sea three years ago. Lieut. Hon. E. A. Fitzroy, of the 1st Life Guards, also is among the wounded. He is a member of Parliament.

Impressions of an Outsider

(Lenora O'Reilly, in Life and Labor)

When, by the order of the National Women's Trade Union League, I went over the border into Canada, I found myself handed over by a railroad employee to a police detective, who paid my carfare, carried my grips and deposited me in the hotel which was the headquarters of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada. Take it from me, I felt sure the Angel Gabriel had blown his trumpet, that the day of judgment had arrived, that labor had come into her own at last, namely, the full return of all the energy invested in the upbuilding of the world by all the workers of the world since the world began.

From the moment I entered the hotel until the moment when the local delegates put the two fraternal delegates from the United States on seats on the trains which would carry them home, the whole story of the Thirteenth Annual Convention of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, as told by John, was the story of hearty, happy, honest service of brave workmen deliberating in the interests of all workers everywhere. You felt the men assembled at St. John were in business, the lustre of trade unionism; to find ways and means to secure the best possible conditions for the workers to-day; to-day's good conditions being recognized as stepping-stones to tomorrow's better conditions, which would eventually lead to the fulfillment of the aspirations of the labor movement since its inception. To the workers must go the full power of the law, if they are to win what is ever to reign upon the earth.

Such a busy bunch were they! Meetings were held all day long, business, the hour of a night session well called. When there were no night sessions there were street meetings in King's Square.

Canadian Fraternal Delegate to American Federation of Labor Convention.

Amidst Tumultuous Applause Urges Action that Will Enable the Wage Earners of the World to Once Again Enter into Brotherly Relations One With the Other.

News dispatches from the Philadelphia Convention of the American Federation of Labor state that one of the most remarkable outbursts of enthusiasm ever witnessed in a convention of this organization occurred when R. A. Rigg, of Winnipeg, the fraternal delegate from the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, made a thrilling and fervent plea for united action of some nature to end the present European war, which electrified the delegates and caused a tumult of applause that was altogether unprecedented.

In the course of his remarks Rigg stated that the aim of American and Canadian Trades Unionists should be to formulate a plan that would enable the wage workers of the world once again to enter into brotherly relations with one another.

"The murderous carnage now taking place on the battlefields of Europe could not be discussed, but he desired to affirm that the spirit of brotherhood which is being engendered on this continent by the fraternal Trade Union movement makes it absolutely safe to predict that the workers of Canada and those of the United States will never consent, either by secret diplomacy or any other means, to fly at each other's throats and spill their brothers' blood.

THE UNGUARDED FRONTIER.

"There are four thousand miles of frontier between Canada and the United States. It is unguarded by a single fort any farther as the democracy of Canada and the United States is concerned, as represented in the Trades Union movement, there never will be such fort erected on this line to menace and jeopardize the peace of the two liberty-loving peoples.

Mr. Rigg had too much respect for his post on a neutral country to discuss this deplorable war, but he was satisfied that he voiced the earnest wish of every Canadian wage worker when he affirmed that it was the desire of their hearts that the present bloody conflict should be brought to a speedy termination and that some way might be devised whereby the amicable relations which have existed between all wage workers everywhere might be restored.

American Federation of Labor

Official Reports Attest to Continued Growth and Prosperity.

Philadelphia Convention Registers High Water Mark as Regards World's Greatest Labor Organization.

The thirty-fourth annual convention of the American Federation of Labor which convened in Philadelphia on Monday, November 9th, and which is still in session will go down in history as the largest, most successful and harmonious that has ever been held since the inception of the Federation; as predicted last week, the official reports of the Secretary and the Treasurer show the world's greatest trades union organization to be in splendid shape in all departments.

The business depression, while it has retarded, has not arrested its onward march as the membership is larger at the present time than it was a year ago, now standing at 2,020,671 members, upon whom per capita tax has paid an increase during the year of $54,667.

There are now affiliated to the federation five trades departments, 110 National and International Unions, 570 local Trade and Federal Labor Unions, 43 State Federations, 647 City Central bodies 343 Local Department Councils and 21,460 Local Trades Unions.

The receipts of the year amounted to $263,166.97 and expenditure to $265,737.21, leaving an adverse balance of $2,570.24 incurred by extra and effective organization work. There is a favorable balance in the bank of $102,492.81.

Many important questions are being dealt with, and one of the most notable will be a provision on the part of the Federation as defining the stand of the organized American labor movement in regard to the European war. Much satisfaction is expressed at the legislative measures enacted at the hands of Congress and the various State Legislatures in the interests of labor. The passage of the Clayton anti-trust bill after years of strenuous agitation, and which exempts trades unions from

A Remarkable Tribute to Gin Pills FOR THE KIDNEYS

In February last, Mrs. J. P. J. Wedge of East Street, Summerside, P. E. I., wrote to a friend in Toronto and among other things said, "Gin Pills are the greatest of all Kidney remedies and a medicine which is at present doing me a world of good. They are worth their weight in gold to any sufferer." We asked permission, through a mutual friend, to publish the above extract and received the following testimonial to the great efficacy of Gin Pills.

Summerside, April 21st, 1914.
"Your letter of the 21st, to hand this evening, asking my permission to hand my letter to the National Drug Chemical Co. You have my full permission to do so, and to them I give the liberty to publish and use my name if they wish, because Gin Pills have done for my husband and myself what no other remedy could do.
I have advised two other parties to use them; one being my Mother, who has been a great sufferer for upwards of 20 years and one box of Gin Pills cured her so as to enable her to sleep on her left side, something she could not do for many years. The doctors told her they could not cure her but could relieve her by an operation for a floating kidney, but on account of her age they did not think it was advisable for her to undergo. Upon my advice, she tried Gin Pills which cured her and to which she is ever ready to speak in terms of praise."

Remember, you can TRY Gin Pills BEFORE you buy them. If the urine shows brick dirt deposits or mucus—or is hot and scalding—if you have to urinate too frequently—if there is a burning in the bladder or pain in back—get Gin Pills at once and cure yourself. Gin Pills are sold by all dealers at 50¢ a box, 6 for $2.50 and every box carries with it our spot cash guarantee of satisfaction or money back. Sold in U. S. under the name "GINO" Pills. THE IMPERIAL CONTINGENTS

(London Times)
While the Canadians are settling down to work on Salisbury Plain, other Imperial contingents are on their way or making final preparations for their voyage. Where and when they will be landed necessarily remains a military secret. At whatever spot they touch the British shores they will all be thrilled by the thought that they have come "Home"—that little word which bears such a world of meaning to all men and to all women of our blood, and which no tongue but our own can quite translate. They have come to the old home, and they have come to fight for it and for all that it represents. It is the deep conviction with which they realize this truth that gives such incalculable value to their support. In all parts of the Empire the note struck is the same, and everywhere it rings full and true. "The rushing of mad militarism will take long," said the Australian Minister of Defence a fortnight ago, "but we shall continue to send men till the end of the war is in sight." "England is fighting the battle of humanity," Mr. Fisher, the Prime Minister of the Dominion declared on the same occasion. She is upholding immortal Belgium, he went on, and the right of little nations to live. "The British Empire," the Prime Minister of the Dominion declared on the same occasion. MT. VERNON

(From our own correspondent.)
There occurred at the Brantford General Hospital, Nov. 14th, the death of William Fairchild. He had undergone a very critical operation, which proved very successful, but owing to an already weakened constitution, he quietly passed away on Saturday morning. The remains were taken to his home at Mt. Vernon, where the funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 17th. A short service was held at the house by Mr. Whitaker and Mr. Kinross, of Farrington Church. The pallbearers were relatives of the deceased, Mr. B. Kinross, C. Pinhev, F. Terhune, E. Brooks and P. H. Secord, and Mr. Brereton of Brantford. The floral tributes were very beautiful.
A little son has come to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe. Williams. The school children are busy practicing for their Xmas entertainment, which will be held on Tuesday evening, December 22nd.
We are glad to see that Lawrence Fowler is able to be out again after his accident.
Mrs. Harry Code and daughter, Ruth, are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Douglas.

ALLEGED PLOT TO SMUGGLE ALIENS ACROSS BORDER

Otto Geiler, Manitoba Farmer, Held as Prisoner of War.
WINNIPEG, Nov. 27.—It is asserted here that there is evidence that "Winnipeg is the western headquarters of an organization having for its object the spiriting of alien enemies across the American border. It is said several citizens are under surveillance. Otto Geiler, a farmer at Ridgeville, has been placed under arrest and may be charged with assisting the enemy. It is asserted he took enemies to his house and then all trace of them was lost.
It was said the Germans and Austrians were arrested while attempting to board a train for Emerson, Man., where it is believed they were seeking to get across the border. They are detained as prisoners of war.

TEN THOUSAND JEWS IN THE ARMY OF BRITAIN

Three Officers of That Faith Mentioned in the Dispatches.
LONDON, Nov. 27.—British Jews are proving their loyalty by offering their lives wholeheartedly for the empire. Ten thousand of them are to-day serving with King George's forces by land and sea. Three officers: Major Seligmann, R. H. A. Capt. Frank L. Beddington, 18th Lancers, and Lieut. E. J. Wyler, R. A. M. C.—have been mentioned in Sir John French's dispatches, as well as Sergt. Marks, of the Coldstream Guards. In all nearly four hundred Jews are holding commissions in the army and navy, and they include several of the rank of lieutenant-colonel.
Another interesting fact is that there are 200 Jews in the Canadian contingent now in England. Many of these men were born in Russia and Roumania and had settled in Canada.

Bartholomew

By A. Conan Doyle
Copyright, 1905, 1906, by A. Conan Doyle.

Though small in numbers, it was no mean force which Edward had dispatched to succor the hard-pressed English garrisons in Brittany. There was scarce a man among them who was not an old soldier, and their leaders were men of note in council and in war. Knolles flew his flag of the black raven aboard the Basilisk. With him were Nigel and his own Squire John Hawthorn. Of his hundred men, forty were Yorkshire Dalemen and forty were men of Lincoln, all noted archers, with old Wat of Carlisle, a grizzled veteran of border warfare, to lead them.
Already ayward by his skill and strength had won his way to an under-officership amongst them, and shared with Long Ned Widdington, a huge North Countryman, the reputation of coming next to famous Wat of Carlisle in all that makes an archer. The men-at-arms too were war-hardened soldiers, with Black Simon of Norwich, the same who had sailed from Winchester, to lead them. With his heart filled with hatred for the French who had slain all who were dear to him, he followed like a bloodhound over land and sea to any spot where he might glut his vengeance. Such also were the men who sailed in the other ships, Cheshire men from the Welsh borders in the cog Thomas, and Cumberland men in the useful Scottish warlike, in the Grace Dieu.
Sir James Astley hung his shield of cinquefoil ermine over the quarter of the Thomas. Lord Thomas Percy, a cadet of Alnwick, famous for his bearing of the high spirit of that house which for ages was the bar upon the landward gale of England, showed his blue and red rampant on the Grace Dieu. Such was the goodly company Saint-Malo bound, who warped from Calais Harbor to plunge into the thick reek of a Channel mist.
