Gaillaux Faces Charge

Paris, Feb. 17 .- Joseph Caillaux former Premier of France, was placed on trial today before the Senate, sitting as a high court charged with conspiracy against his country in time of war. The accused man entered the chamber accompanied by three police officers. The Roll call of the court was at once taken up There was a large attendance very few of the Senators being absent. M. Cuillaux, immaculately attired, his clothing obviously new, seemed in the best of health. He wore a slightly bored look while listening to the reading of the warrant by Leon Bourgeois, president of the Senate, which formally opened the trial.

Outside the Senate chamber great crowds gathered before the proceedings to watch the arrival of the Senators, the defendant and the various other officials concerned in the prosecution, a strong contrast was afforded be tween the children and the mid-

Announcement

For the information of our many patrons, in both town and country, we deem it necessary to announce that the Coal Business, successfully car ried on in the past by the Itae Mr. Charles Lyons, will be continued by the Estate, under the old firm name of C. Lyons & Co.

By maintaining a high standard of service and by courteous and honest treatment of the public, this film has, for aperiod of more than a quarter of a century, enjoyed a large and ever-increasing patronage; and in announcing our intention of "earrying on," we desire, most earnestly, to give expression to our appreciation thereof. We are deeply grateful to the firm's many patrons for their constant manifestation of confidence in it in the past, and we assure them that if they favor us with a similar evidence of their good-will in future there shall be no economy of effort on our part to make our intercourse both pleasant and profitable to them.

As we possess almost unlimited facilities for supplying the coal trade, and as we are desirous of extending our already large business, we respectfully invite the patronage of new customers; and if we succeeed in thus increasing our present connection, we guarantee that we shall be indefatigable in our endeavor to justify the confidence of

We again thank our pations for their past generous patronage, and respecifully solicit a renewal of their esteemed custom.

Announcement ..

For the information of our many patrons, in both town and country, we deem it necessary to announce that the Coal Business, successfully car ried on in the past by the Itae Mr. Charles Lyons, will be continued by the Estate, under the old firm name of C. Lyons & Co. : ::

By maintaining a high standard of service and by courteous and honest treatment of the public, this firm has, for aperiod of more than a quarter of a century, enjoyed a large and ever-increasing pa. tronage; and in announcing our intention of "earrying on," we desire, most earnestly, to give expression to our appreciation thereof. We are deeply grateful to the firm's many patrons for their constant manifestation of confidence in it in the past, and we assure them that if they favor us with a similar evidence of their good-will in future there shall be no economy of effort on our part to make our intercourse both pleasant and profitable to them. As we possess almost unlimited facilities for supplying the coal trade, and as we are desirous of extending our already large business, we respectfully invite the patronage of new customers; and if we succeed in thus increasing our present con-nection, we guarantee that we shall be indefatigable in our endeavor to justify the confidence of our new friends. We again thank our pations for their past generous patronage, and respecifully solicit a renewal of their esteemed custom.
