

The Huron Signal

DEVOTED TO COUNTY NEWS AND GENERAL INTELLIGENCE

THIRTY-NINTH YEAR. WHOLE NUMBER 202. GODERICH, ONT., FRIDAY, AUG. 27, 1886. (McGILLICUDDY BROS. PUBLISHERS) $1.50 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

THE HURON SIGNAL

Published every Friday Morning, by McGILLICUDDY BROS., at their Office, North St., GODERICH, ONTARIO.

And is despatched to all parts of the surrounding country by the earliest mails and trains.

Terms.—$1.50 in advance, postage pre-paid by publishers; $1.75 if paid before six months; $2.00 if not paid. This rule will be strictly enforced.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.—Eight cents per line for first insertion; three cents per line for each subsequent insertion. Yearly, half-yearly and quarterly contracts at reduced rates.

FRIDAY, AUG. 27th, 1886.

PROVINCIAL VOTERS LISTS.

The Provincial voters' lists are now being published. Persons whose names have been improperly left off can have them inserted by the county judge, if the proper legal notice be given to the clerk of the municipality. Mr Meredith, aided by the Ottawa Tories, is making a great effort to secure an advantage over Reformers in the preparation of appeals to add names to these lists. A careful canvass in each polling sub-division, will reveal the names of Reformers that have been omitted. An appeal should be made to place the name of every qualified Reformer on the lists. A little activity will ensure another Reform triumph at the next Provincial elections. Polling subdivision committees should meet and go over the Provincial lists as soon as they can be procured. Now is the time to work!

WHO WILL IT BE?

The Tories of West Huron are in perplexity. They cannot get a candidate who has any chance of winning the riding in a contest with M. C. Cameron. There are plenty of would-be candidates—but those who want to run, are not acceptable to the wire-pullers, or any body else; and those whom the wire-pullers would like to run are too shrewd to enter and take the defeat that is stored up for the Tory candidate for the Commons in West Huron. The list of names canvassed so far in the Tory interest is large and varied. All sorts and conditions of men are included. The motley throng of suggested candidates is made up in part of the following persons:

F. W. Johnston, Goderich.
J. M. Roberts, Duncannon.
Wm. Campbell, Goderich.
P. Kelly, Blyth.
T. Corbett, Clinton.
Dr. Holmes, Goderich.
W. McLenn, Goderich.
E. Meredith, London.
E. Woodcock, Goderich.
Dr. Taylor, Goderich.
R. Porter, (lost to sight.)
John Butler, Goderich.

The chances are that F. W. Johnston will be the candidate chosen to oppose M. C. Cameron. The Conservative party is so disgruntled in this riding, that even the most sanguine Tory is not hopeful of victory. The Liberals are ready for a contest at any time, and led by M. C. Cameron they will sweep the riding by a tremendous majority.

Our watchful cotem, the Clinton Nor Era, on this topic says:—"Several parties have been approached by the Conservatives of West Huron, asking them to stand in opposition to the present member, Mr. M. C. Cameron. Mr. Porter was one of the number, but he thought the case was hopeless, and positively refused to stand for a second time; once was too many. In all probability it will be a local man, who will be so badly beaten that he will want to hide himself after the election is over."

LICENSING INSPECTOR YATES this week gives a brief sketch of the Scott Act in Huron. The veteran inspector generally knows what he is talking about when he gets on the matter of temperance legislation, and his conclusions fully sustain the SIGNAL in its statement last week to the position of the Ontario Government. The action of the Dominion Government in controlling the fines, is one that is calculated to cripple to a considerable extent the action both of the Ontario Government and its inspectors. Yet the Scott Act is doing excellent now in Goderich.

The initial letters of the following six peculiarities of the present administration furnish the key to the whole:—
Blind Shares.
Onderdonker.
Ontario Boundary Deal.
Derelict Dewdney.
Land Grabbing.
Evasion of Customs.

The shooting season for fowl will be fully opened on Wednesday. The partying will suffer next week.

TO AND FRO.

The Excursion to the Falls and Grimsby Camp.

The Trip Down—Seeing the Falls—Sunday at Grimsby Camp—Chaplain McCabe and DeWitt Talmage.

Saturday last a large number of excursionists from this section and intermediate points between Goderich and Stratford availed themselves of the opportunity to visit Niagara Falls and the Methodist camping ground at Grimsby. As I had never attended the devotional exercises at the latter place, and as I had been informed that it was the most perfect concern of the kind in the wide Dominion, I determined to be one of the party.

THE TRIP DOWN

was of the kind usually found on excursions—a great crush for seats consequent upon a large turnout of people. At Stratford, however, extra coaches were put on, and everyone who wished to rest had an opportunity afforded of sitting down. After leaving Stratford but few stoppages were made and Clifton was reached about two o'clock. Here the excursionists debarked, and an eager crowd at once started to which are about a mile from the railway station. A number of local millionaires—hackmen—were present with their equipages and prancing steeds, and took in as many of the excursionists as they possibly could. Their number is legion, their ways are devious, peculiar, unfathomable. At the Falls everything costs money—and lots of it—except the air we breathe. Ten cents has to be paid to cross a railway bridge to the American side; a ticket has to be purchased to cross the Cantilever bridge; ten cents has to be paid to test the inclined railway, and thereby run the risk of being hurled to the bottom with a pile of broken bones; fifty cents is the potent factor to cross the river in the "Maid of the Mist," and enable you to look from the deck of the steamer up at the frowning rocks, the misty vapors and the turbulent waters of the great cataract; 25 cents will admit you to the museum, and to the gardens; another levy will permit you to put on a water-proof suit and walk a few yards under the Falls; a street car fare will take you to the whirlpool rapids, to view which you descend free of cost, and are charged 50 cents to return. There are many other gaudy games to catch the unwary, which I had no personal experience of, but the above will be sufficient to show that the outside world is levied upon in many ways by the people whom kind Providence permits to reside in the vicinity of the Falls. And after you have succeeded in shrinking the contents of your wallet, by paying toll to the devices and desires of the money grabbers at the Falls, you find yourself weary and jaded, and if you have any lucres left, you are willing to surrender yourself to the tender mercies of the hackman, so that you be deposited at the railway station in time to catch the return train. You are conscious of the fact that you have been robbed, but, as the levying of toll upon strangers is about the only home industry of the section, and as it requires very little capital to run it, and consequently the residents are all engaged in the business, there is no possibility of getting legal or any other redress. I was going to give a vivid picture of the Falls, but as the guide books are on sale, and the two cataracts are therein much more glowingly described than my conscience would allow me to depict them, I will save paper and ink, and talk about other matters. The eight o'clock train for Grimsby left at some time between nine and ten o'clock, which looked to me as if the railway authorities were in collusion with the natives so that the strangers within their gates would have lots of time to be plucked. Many of the excursionists who had intended to stay over at Grimsby until Monday by this time found out that their money was all expended, and that they were in possession of little save the clothes they wore, an empty pocket book, and a feeling of hunger. As a consequence they were constrained to avail themselves of the opportunity to return home without tarrying with the brethren at Grimsby. On the train it was also announced by someone, with or without authority, that the camp was overcrowded, and there was not even a chance to get six feet of space in the tabernacle and a bunch of straw. So I hid me on to Grimsby vil-

THE FALLS

WHAT'S UP?

Things That Are Happening Around Us.

The Old Man Moralizes and Closes Short—The Light of Other Days.

—The harvest is past | is an announcement that will strike some with surprise, for the summer has flown on the wings of the wind, and as it were, and few there are who, looking back, can realize that the warm, sultry weather is on the wane, and that henceforward the linen duster will fall into disuse, and the heavy ulster become mere fashionable where men most do congregate. Many of my readers will think that I'm rushing the season in talking to them thusly, but I'm speaking words of soberness and truth, all the same. It is now many, many years ago since I first became impressed with the fact of the flight of the seasons, and watched each quarter of the year loom up in fullness and fade away in nothingness. And as each has passed in its turn, I have been sadly reminded of the saying, "Nothing on earth endures." The brightness of the sun, the glory of the moon, the glitter of the stars are ever changing and are alike on no two occasions; no two harvest crops are equal in fulness and flavor; no joys are equally ecstatic, and no sorrows cast a similarly deep shadow; no—but there, I've started moralizing again, and as I know the editor is averse to "solid matter," I will have to sidetrack myself on this occasion, and get out of the rut into which I was drifting. What I really wanted to say was that as we grow older, and our blood grows thinner, and the hair whitens and fades, and the cheeks blanch, and the temples become more prominent, and the top of the forehead recedes, and the limbs grow less supple, and the memory delights to dwell in the past and we feel that we have passed the upward grade of dashing youth, and our sun is pointing toward the west, and the shadows are lengthening and the step is becoming less sturdy, and the back is daily becoming less able to bear the burden, and the ability to buffet one's way in the hurly-burly and turmoil of the crowd is becoming less to be depended upon, and the knowledge comes upon us, like Hezekiah of old, that it is meet and proper that the house be put in order, then are we elderly ones more impressed with the flight of the seasons and the mighty onward rushing of time. Yes, there's a reminder in every breeze that blows, a suggestion for thought in every alternation of the sun, a warning voice in every funeral cortege that passes along the street. Some accept the lessons thus taught; others let them pass unheeded.

THE SCOTT ACT.

A Review of Its Operations in West Huron.

A Secret and Careful Statement by an Acknowledged Authority—How the Ontario Government is Shopped.

To the Editors of the Signal.

I notice in your last issue a few remarks on this subject, and as it is cropping out in some papers by way of structure and complaint in the Provincial Government, I thought it might be well to look over the matter and see if the blame lies there. What are the facts? The Scott Act came in force on the 1st of May, 1885. Now as the order of this, all the Provincial commissioners and inspectors that had been for eight years under that government enforcing the Scott Act, were discharged, the Scott Act being a Dominion act; and the Dominion Government, under the now defunct McCarthy Act, appointed new commissioners and inspectors (it was supposed) to enforce the Scott Act. To what extent this was done is quite within the memory of all. It may be that the first mistake as to enforcement comes in right here. When it was found that the law was not being enforced, the friends of the Act should then have put their shoulders to the work themselves; but it was not thought wise at the time to allow any want of confidence in the new inspectors, but give them ample time to get fully prepared for their work. Then it will be in the mind of all the action, or rather the want of action, of the warden in not carrying out the order of the county council. Then, too, the licenses given by the new commissioners and inspectors were in this county nearly all given to hotelkeepers, and not to druggists as the Act clearly intends. This had the effect of bringing the Scott Act into disrepute, and especially so when the conduct of some medical men is taken into the account. Then, when the Scott Act Association realized that the Act was not enforced, and employed a private prosecutor paid by them to bring large wares, they unfortunately did not get a suitable person, and the less said about him the better. Then, near the end of the year the decision of the Privy Council was given, taking from the Dominion Government the power to license at all; and by a fair inference the power to regulate—the last not as clearly stated as it might have been. This, of course, for some time confused the matter of enforcement, as the Dominion Government withdrew their commissioners and inspectors, but not the licenses issued by them. Perhaps it ought to be mentioned in this connection that these licenses never were paid for, nor was anything ever asked for them. The Provincial Government then had to make new appointments of commissioners and inspectors, which necessarily took some time, but was done as soon as it could be. I presume. After the appointment of these was made, they, on attempting to enforce the act, were met with the difficulty of getting local J. P.s to take these cases. The fact is, the traffic had during the year of non-enforcement, taken the bit in its mouth, and was running away with the Scott Act altogether. And it is not to be wondered at that the magistrates did not feel like taking hold of cases that would perhaps, in consequence of the opposition, take two or three days to get through with one case. It was then thought best by the Scott Act convention to make another appeal to the county council at its last June session, which appeal was made by deputation appointed for that purpose. It was in brief as follows: That we respectfully ask the county council to ask the Provincial Government to appoint a Police Magistrate, with salary for one year; and if we cannot in that year make the Scott Act successful, then the deputation and association promise to resign their office. That we assure with it at the end of the year. This assurance was further guaranteed by a letter from the Hon. Provincial Secretary, to cancel such an appointment at the end of the term if so desired to do by the county council. This request to the friends of the Act seemed so reasonable and fair that denial was hardly anticipated. The request was, however, refused. It will be remembered, of course, that before that request we had, for a short time a police magistrate, without salary, who, even before we had got right at work in prosecuting, found out that he could not possibly do the work without salary, and resigned his office. This brings us to the month of June last. And in July we commenced with our local J. P.s, who deserve the commendation of all good citizens for their willingness to take these cases, making such a trespass upon their time that they can hardly afford to lose. Now what has been done by the Provincial Government.

WHAT'S UP?

Things That Are Happening Around Us.

The Old Man Moralizes and Closes Short—The Light of Other Days.

—The harvest is past | is an announcement that will strike some with surprise, for the summer has flown on the wings of the wind, and as it were, and few there are who, looking back, can realize that the warm, sultry weather is on the wane, and that henceforward the linen duster will fall into disuse, and the heavy ulster become mere fashionable where men most do congregate. Many of my readers will think that I'm rushing the season in talking to them thusly, but I'm speaking words of soberness and truth, all the same. It is now many, many years ago since I first became impressed with the fact of the flight of the seasons, and watched each quarter of the year loom up in fullness and fade away in nothingness. And as each has passed in its turn, I have been sadly reminded of the saying, "Nothing on earth endures." The brightness of the sun, the glory of the moon, the glitter of the stars are ever changing and are alike on no two occasions; no two harvest crops are equal in fulness and flavor; no joys are equally ecstatic, and no sorrows cast a similarly deep shadow; no—but there, I've started moralizing again, and as I know the editor is averse to "solid matter," I will have to sidetrack myself on this occasion, and get out of the rut into which I was drifting. What I really wanted to say was that as we grow older, and our blood grows thinner, and the hair whitens and fades, and the cheeks blanch, and the temples become more prominent, and the top of the forehead recedes, and the limbs grow less supple, and the memory delights to dwell in the past and we feel that we have passed the upward grade of dashing youth, and our sun is pointing toward the west, and the shadows are lengthening and the step is becoming less sturdy, and the back is daily becoming less able to bear the burden, and the ability to buffet one's way in the hurly-burly and turmoil of the crowd is becoming less to be depended upon, and the knowledge comes upon us, like Hezekiah of old, that it is meet and proper that the house be put in order, then are we elderly ones more impressed with the flight of the seasons and the mighty onward rushing of time. Yes, there's a reminder in every breeze that blows, a suggestion for thought in every alternation of the sun, a warning voice in every funeral cortege that passes along the street. Some accept the lessons thus taught; others let them pass unheeded.

RUNCIMAN BROS.

What our Enterprising Foundrymen are Doing in the Milling Line.

The Messrs Runciman have been steadily pushing their business since the new firm took hold of the foundry, and general repairs have turned out and completed the following roller mill work since April 1, 1886:

Two pair of their improved roller mills and other machinery for Messrs McKillop & Son, Bambarck.
Ten pair of rollers, a four reel bolting chest, a four reel scarping chest, centrifugal reel, a flour packer 16 set elevators, and two purifiers, and completed a full roller mill for Mr. A. Drake, Danville.
Six pair rollers, a four reel scarping chest, a grading reel, a lot of elevators and machinery, changed Mr. John Culis's mill at Manchester into a full roller mill.
Ten pair of rollers, five bolting reels, four scarping reels, one centrifugal reel, two purifiers, one bran duster, one separator, one flour packer, 17 set elevators, and a lot of machinery, a completed and full roller mill for Mr. Stephen Morley, Smithville.
They are now busy with six pair rollers, two centrifugal reels, four reel scarping chest, a lot of elevators, and machinery to make a full roller process, mill for Messrs McEwan, at Tiverton.
Ten pair rollers, four scarping reels, five bolting reels, four elevators and machinery for Mr. John Harkison, of Parkhill, to make his mill into the full roller process.
The above mills are all first class and four at them are doing splendid work.

Scott Act Trials.

WALKERTON, Aug. 21.—There were five Scott Act cases tried before a bench of magistrates at Midway. The parties were: R. H. Middagh, of Hanover; K. R. Farquharson, G. G. Bobier, A. Shoemaker and W. Clark, of Walkerton. Farquharson and Bobier were each fined $50 and costs. The other cases were dismissed with costs after a hard struggle by both sides. The counsel raised a new point in reference to searching for liquor, which was sustained by the bench.

& Co

ENT NEXT WEEK.

Store!

Tea (Fine Choice), for $1.00, for $1.00.

Ces, &c., &c.

ES LB.

VRAY,

North Street and Square.

RE!

ISIC STORE

PH OFFICE.

OOKS

DNV SNAVHO

s Only

ARDS,

IN PRICE

LADIES WATERPROOFS.

HARDS; Carlow.

USINESS!

KAY

IED STOCK AT

ing On.

LOVELL'S

beer: History

OF THE

INION OF CANADA,

OLUMES, ROYAL

COMMENCED whenever a number of subscribers is obtained. Publication. Subscription price $75.00, to the Province of Quebec $120, to New Brunswick $11.50, to Manitoba $10.00, to the Northwest Territories $10.00. Each are a copy of the Constitution.

JOHN LOVELL, Manager and Publisher, 10 Aug. 1886.

A DEVOTED CLERGYMAN.

Rev. T. Thompson, formerly of Brantford, sticks to his Post.

A Toronto lady, who has been travelling in British Columbia, writes from Vancouver...

Colborne.

The municipal council of Colborne met in the township hall on Tuesday, the 17th inst. Members all present, were in the chair...

J. H. RICHARDS, C.P. Clerk.

Headache Biliousness.

"Whenever I feel out of sorts, bilious, my liver not working right, or racked with the headache I take of Liver Cure...

Little Gentlemen.

"Auntie M." pointed out the following rules for a little 12-year-old nephew, who was the "light of her eyes"...

First come manners for the street? Hat lifted in saying "good-bye" or "How do you do."

Always precede a lady up stairs and ask her if you may precede her in passing through a crowd or public place.

Always precede a lady up stairs and ask her if you may precede her in passing through a crowd or public place.

Never play with knife, fork or spoon. Do not take your napkin in a bunch in your hand.

Let a lady pass first always, unless she asks you to precede her.

In the parlor stand till every lady in the room is seated, and all other persons seated and stand till she takes a seat.

Rise if a lady comes in after you are seated and stand till she takes a seat.

Look people straight in the face when speaking or being spoken to.

Let ladies pass through a door first, standing aside for them.

In the dining-room take your seat after ladies and elders.

Never play with knife, fork or spoon. Do not take your napkin in a bunch in your hand.

Eat as fast or as slow as others, and finish of course when they do.

Rise when ladies leave the room and stand until they are out.

If all go out together, gentlemen stand by the door till ladies pass.

Special rules for the mouth are that all noise in eating and smacking of the lips should be avoided.

Useful Hints for Washing.

In cases where it is feared that soap may change the color of an article, as for instance, scarlet hose or lilac print, if the garment be not badly soiled, it may be cleaned by washing, without soap...

To prevent blue from running into a white ground, dissolve a teaspoonful of copperas in a pailful of soft water, and a piece of linen the size of an acet will keep the garment in its white about two hours before washing.

To keep colors from running in washing black prints, put a teaspoonful of black pepper in the first washing.

To make linen beautifully white, prepare the water for washing by putting into every ten gallons a large handful of powdered borax.

To remove tea stains from a white cloth, soak it in javella water, which is made as follows: Put a pound of soda and 5 lbs. worth of chloride of lime into a wooden vessel, pour over it two quarts of soft water, stir well until the soda is dissolved, and use the bath warm.

A simple way to remove grass stains is to spread butter on them, and lay the article in the sun.

Fruit stains upon cloth may be removed by rubbing with the juice of ripe tomatoes.

There are several effectual methods of removing grease from cloth. First, wet with a linen cloth dipped in chloroform.

To make very stiff starch, add to each quart of starch a pint of cold water and two heaped teaspoonfuls of starch and one even teaspoonful of powdered borax.

To remove the stain of iron, use a little of the following: Dissolve in water a few grains of oxalic acid, and apply to the stain.

To remove the stain of iron, use a little of the following: Dissolve in water a few grains of oxalic acid, and apply to the stain.

To remove the stain of iron, use a little of the following: Dissolve in water a few grains of oxalic acid, and apply to the stain.

To remove the stain of iron, use a little of the following: Dissolve in water a few grains of oxalic acid, and apply to the stain.

To remove the stain of iron, use a little of the following: Dissolve in water a few grains of oxalic acid, and apply to the stain.

To remove the stain of iron, use a little of the following: Dissolve in water a few grains of oxalic acid, and apply to the stain.

To remove the stain of iron, use a little of the following: Dissolve in water a few grains of oxalic acid, and apply to the stain.

To remove the stain of iron, use a little of the following: Dissolve in water a few grains of oxalic acid, and apply to the stain.

To remove the stain of iron, use a little of the following: Dissolve in water a few grains of oxalic acid, and apply to the stain.

To remove the stain of iron, use a little of the following: Dissolve in water a few grains of oxalic acid, and apply to the stain.

To remove the stain of iron, use a little of the following: Dissolve in water a few grains of oxalic acid, and apply to the stain.

To remove the stain of iron, use a little of the following: Dissolve in water a few grains of oxalic acid, and apply to the stain.

To remove the stain of iron, use a little of the following: Dissolve in water a few grains of oxalic acid, and apply to the stain.

To remove the stain of iron, use a little of the following: Dissolve in water a few grains of oxalic acid, and apply to the stain.

To remove the stain of iron, use a little of the following: Dissolve in water a few grains of oxalic acid, and apply to the stain.

To remove the stain of iron, use a little of the following: Dissolve in water a few grains of oxalic acid, and apply to the stain.

To remove the stain of iron, use a little of the following: Dissolve in water a few grains of oxalic acid, and apply to the stain.

To remove the stain of iron, use a little of the following: Dissolve in water a few grains of oxalic acid, and apply to the stain.

To remove the stain of iron, use a little of the following: Dissolve in water a few grains of oxalic acid, and apply to the stain.

Fashion's Fancies.

The prevailing rage in attire is for Oriental patterns of goods.

Jet and onyx beads upon dresses still maintain their favor.

Chall, tannin feather and India silk are used for girls' nice dresses.

Full waists and full sleeves and decided features of new French dresses.

Tucks are fashionable around the bottom of the long chemises now worn.

Waists with basques terminate behind in long points or loops, in Paris.

Coarse cotton net over colored silk or woolen goods is very fashionable in Paris.

Salad green is a fashionable color in London. Of course it will become so here.

Bathing shoes are bright red, and the more like a flamingo one can look the more fashionable she will be as a bather.

Crinkled seracruker is all the rage for the hot weather. Cream is fashionable shade. Gentlemen wear seracruker suits.

Large drapery establishments are this season again vying with each other in the production of cheap ready-made summer toiles, which, despite their low price, amply fulfill all the demands of fashion.

A four-leaved shamrock in a tiny crystal medallion is the last ornament worn on bangles.

Pocket handkerchiefs are now made with very narrow hems, edged with a border of Valenciennes lace.

Heliotrope is a favorite color of shade—in silk fabrics only, however, for in woolen it looks dull and faded.

The population of black hose increases rather than diminishes, and they will be worn with light dresses of all sorts and with the most dressy toiles in evening shades.

RED DRESSES FOR CHILDREN.—Most charmingly dressed children are to be seen on the boulevards and squares of fashionable sea resorts in the early hours of the evening.

Red costumes predominate and these made of Red Turkey twill combined with pretty lace and embroidery are most becoming; on some the skirt is of a contrasting color.

Red dresses are also made of damask or satin, and they will be worn with light dresses of all sorts and with the most dressy toiles in evening shades.

TO VARY PLAIN DRESSES.—A pretty way to improve the appearance of a plainly made dress of white veiling is to open the neck in a V-shape, and arrange a wide moire sash ribbon from the shoulders to the waist, laying the ribbon in soft folds at the seams in surplus style, and gauging them into a narrow compass at the belt.

Narrow folds of white moire sash ribbon from the shoulders to the waist, laying the ribbon in soft folds at the seams in surplus style, and gauging them into a narrow compass at the belt.

This easy mode of giving a more dressy look to a simple toilet holds good for colored gowns also of almost any description which needs freshening.

Bretelles of velvet are also effective additions to plain bodices. For stout women these bretelles are made extremely long. For more slender figures are velvet revers, reaching no more than half way down the length of the waist.

The same effect can be given to the back of the corsage if desired.

HI TEMPER.—Is more rapidly improved by relief from physical suffering than in any other way. Step on your friend's corn, and the impulse to strike is strongest.

Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, by quickly and painlessly removing them, insures good nature. Fifty imitations prove its value. Beware of substitutes. "Putnam's," is sure, safe, painless.

Carrative Powers of Water.—There is probably no single article in the world which possesses such curative powers as water.

If it cost a dollar a pint, and had to be brought a thousand miles, physicians would not doubt prescribe it, and people would be anxious to purchase it. But it is, perhaps, too cheap and convenient to come into general use.

Take a PILL to regulate the bowels and drive away the sick or bilious headache which is the result of constipation.

Woman's place is in the home, and it behooves man to provide her with a comfortable and attractive one, that she may know her place and be content to keep it.

Farm and Garden.

A millionaire is miserably poor in the presence of an assessor.

It isn't so much what a man has that makes him happy, as it is what he doesn't want.

Do not let your pigs glean the wheat fields unless you can get them a run to grass, shade and water. It is dangerous and unprofitable.

We believe it to be for the best interests of stock raising, as well as of farming, gardening and fruit-growing, that a fence rather than a ditch be fenced.

Don't let the ragweed go to seed upon your stubble fields. It ruins the taste of the milk and taints butter. Besides that, it looks like distress. Down with it!

The wise thing is to so use life that there shall be a little vacation in every day. This is more possible than many think. Simple living and healthful recreation are within the reach of almost everyone.

Give the wheels a good coat of boiled linseed oil. This will fill the pores at the joints, swell the wood, tighten the tires, and is much more lasting in its effects, and at the same time acting as a preservative of the wood.

No wonder that our rising generation is weakly and puny, when the mother is obliged for days, weeks and months to inhale the poisonous gases of tobacco smoke, and the future health of many an unborn child is seriously impaired.

FOUL CISTERN.—If the rain water in the cistern is foul through decay of the vegetable matter in it, one ounce of permanganate of potassa will clear it up in its effects, and at the same time acting as a preservative of the wood.

No wonder that our rising generation is weakly and puny, when the mother is obliged for days, weeks and months to inhale the poisonous gases of tobacco smoke, and the future health of many an unborn child is seriously impaired.

No wonder that our rising generation is weakly and puny, when the mother is obliged for days, weeks and months to inhale the poisonous gases of tobacco smoke, and the future health of many an unborn child is seriously impaired.

No wonder that our rising generation is weakly and puny, when the mother is obliged for days, weeks and months to inhale the poisonous gases of tobacco smoke, and the future health of many an unborn child is seriously impaired.

No wonder that our rising generation is weakly and puny, when the mother is obliged for days, weeks and months to inhale the poisonous gases of tobacco smoke, and the future health of many an unborn child is seriously impaired.

No wonder that our rising generation is weakly and puny, when the mother is obliged for days, weeks and months to inhale the poisonous gases of tobacco smoke, and the future health of many an unborn child is seriously impaired.

No wonder that our rising generation is weakly and puny, when the mother is obliged for days, weeks and months to inhale the poisonous gases of tobacco smoke, and the future health of many an unborn child is seriously impaired.

No wonder that our rising generation is weakly and puny, when the mother is obliged for days, weeks and months to inhale the poisonous gases of tobacco smoke, and the future health of many an unborn child is seriously impaired.

No wonder that our rising generation is weakly and puny, when the mother is obliged for days, weeks and months to inhale the poisonous gases of tobacco smoke, and the future health of many an unborn child is seriously impaired.

No wonder that our rising generation is weakly and puny, when the mother is obliged for days, weeks and months to inhale the poisonous gases of tobacco smoke, and the future health of many an unborn child is seriously impaired.

No wonder that our rising generation is weakly and puny, when the mother is obliged for days, weeks and months to inhale the poisonous gases of tobacco smoke, and the future health of many an unborn child is seriously impaired.

No wonder that our rising generation is weakly and puny, when the mother is obliged for days, weeks and months to inhale the poisonous gases of tobacco smoke, and the future health of many an unborn child is seriously impaired.

No wonder that our rising generation is weakly and puny, when the mother is obliged for days, weeks and months to inhale the poisonous gases of tobacco smoke, and the future health of many an unborn child is seriously impaired.

No wonder that our rising generation is weakly and puny, when the mother is obliged for days, weeks and months to inhale the poisonous gases of tobacco smoke, and the future health of many an unborn child is seriously impaired.

No wonder that our rising generation is weakly and puny, when the mother is obliged for days, weeks and months to inhale the poisonous gases of tobacco smoke, and the future health of many an unborn child is seriously impaired.

No wonder that our rising generation is weakly and puny, when the mother is obliged for days, weeks and months to inhale the poisonous gases of tobacco smoke, and the future health of many an unborn child is seriously impaired.

No wonder that our rising generation is weakly and puny, when the mother is obliged for days, weeks and months to inhale the poisonous gases of tobacco smoke, and the future health of many an unborn child is seriously impaired.

No wonder that our rising generation is weakly and puny, when the mother is obliged for days, weeks and months to inhale the poisonous gases of tobacco smoke, and the future health of many an unborn child is seriously impaired.

No wonder that our rising generation is weakly and puny, when the mother is obliged for days, weeks and months to inhale the poisonous gases of tobacco smoke, and the future health of many an unborn child is seriously impaired.

No wonder that our rising generation is weakly and puny, when the mother is obliged for days, weeks and months to inhale the poisonous gases of tobacco smoke, and the future health of many an unborn child is seriously impaired.

No wonder that our rising generation is weakly and puny, when the mother is obliged for days, weeks and months to inhale the poisonous gases of tobacco smoke, and the future health of many an unborn child is seriously impaired.

The Appetite

May be increased, the Digestive organs strengthened, and the Bowels regulated, by taking Ayer's Pills. These Pills are purely vegetable in their composition.

They contain neither alcohol nor any other dangerous drug, and may be taken with perfect safety by persons of all ages.

It was a great sufferer from Dyspepsia and Constipation. I had no appetite, became greatly debilitated, and was constantly afflicted with Headache and Dizziness. I consulted our family doctor, who prescribed for me, at various times, without affording more than temporary relief. I finally commenced taking Ayer's Pills. In a short time my digestion and appetite my bowels were regulated, and by the time I finished two boxes of these Pills my tendency to headaches had disappeared, and I became strong and well.—Darius M. Logan, Wilmington, Del.

I was troubled, for over a year, with Loss of Appetite, and General Debility. I commenced taking Ayer's Pills, and, before finishing half a box of this medicine, my appetite and strength were restored.—C. O. Clark, Danbury, Conn.

Ayer's Pills are the best medicine known to me for regulating the bowels, and for all diseases caused by a disordered Stomach and Intestines. I suffered for over three years with Headache, Indigestion, and Constipation. I had no appetite, and my sleep was refreshing.—Henry C. Hemmeway, Rockport, Mass.

I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but gave me increased vigor, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John.

I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but gave me increased vigor, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John.

I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but gave me increased vigor, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John.

I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but gave me increased vigor, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John.

I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but gave me increased vigor, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John.

I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but gave me increased vigor, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John.

I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but gave me increased vigor, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John.

I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but gave me increased vigor, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John.

I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but gave me increased vigor, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John.

I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but gave me increased vigor, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John.

I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but gave me increased vigor, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John.

I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but gave me increased vigor, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John.

I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but gave me increased vigor, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John.

I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but gave me increased vigor, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John.

I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but gave me increased vigor, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John.

I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but gave me increased vigor, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John.

I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but gave me increased vigor, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John.

I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but gave me increased vigor, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John.

I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but gave me increased vigor, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John.

I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but gave me increased vigor, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John.

I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but gave me increased vigor, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John.

I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but gave me increased vigor, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John.

I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but gave me increased vigor, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John.

JUST I

BY ADELAI

AUTHOR OF "JAC"

FALSE P

CHAPTER X

DR. AIR

"If he will not"

with newborn au" consciousness of"

and her own pride"

to him. I h room since I w

they are changed.

So speaking to entered the cork

the flight of stairs rooms. It was

although she kno

so; we would c eyes and careless own chains and has made them h

She found the entrance to Dr. A thought this unu case. Hurried emergency he h

close the outer d or to look the i sitting-room and habits were well deed, they had positively exten sion of man w

etrate was unple

as ally be to any instinct. She h per into what v

ness. As long a

Airline permis rooms in the w

she would not more than ever,

lost the right,

as the door sto pose that in v

ancing into the

Airline did occa

There was noth ing. Even t

garded so caref

quire any spe

glanced round,

absent, and pr

eat was caught

low moan or c in pain.

She looked i

In one corner a palpating man animal indeed, that dow, h

dearhound whi

for it—had wo usual bound fo passed through

ing. She ca lled it by its to herself from possibly infuri

<

Appetite

used, the Digestive organs and the Bowels regulated, etc's Pills. These Pills are able in their composition, neither calomel nor any other...

APPROVED were regulated, and, by the use of these Pills my headaches had disappeared...

BY USING of Ayer's Pills, and, at the dieting myself, I was cured. My digestive organs are in order...

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Druggists and Dealers in Medicine. Cured, health and sweet...

er's Pills, Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Druggists and Dealers in Medicine.

history of medicines no preparation received such universal success as for the alleviation it affords...

McINTOSH, Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Druggists and Dealers in Medicine.

ish Groceries, If he found to compare favorably, regards quality and price, with any other stock in the vicinity.

S AND SUGARS A SPECIALTY. Bring thanks to my customers for wanting to call and inspect my stock...

O. L. MCINTOSH, South-West side of the Square, Feb. 18th, 1886.

KEY TO HEALTH.

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS. It is all the clogged avenues of the skin, kidneys and liver...

Wm. Lee, Proprietor, Toronto. 1886. Law, Bay City, Goderich,etroit and Cleveland.

SEASON ARRANGEMENTS. Elegant and Commodious Steamer, "Logan Valley" Wm. Roach, Master.

TICKETS. whole ROUND TRIP (continuous) will be issued for $12.00.

WM. LEE, Agent at Goderich. 17th, 1886.

JUST IN TIME.

BY ADELINE SERGEANT, AUTHOR OF "JACOB'S WIFE," "UNDER FALSE PRETENCES," &c.

CHAPTER XXVII. (Continued.) DR. AIRLIE'S ROOMS.

"If he will not come to me," she said, with newborn audacity, begotten by the consciousness of Anthony's love for her...

So speaking to herself, she lightly entered the corridor and turned towards the flight of stairs that led to Dr Airlie's rooms. It was a momentous action, although she knew it not.

The doctor's face wore what seemed to be in the dim light a pitying smile. "I am afraid that you labor under some hallucination, my dear young lady," he said blandly.

"Dr. Airlie, you are trifling with me! You know that there is no hallucination in the matter. My name was called loudly—three times."

"Dear, dear me!" he said still laughing. "What an odd mistake! To think of taking my poor pretty gray parrot's cry for a human voice. I am training it for you and teaching it to speak."

"The interests of science, my dear Miss Esilmont," said the doctor pleasantly. "You must not question me too closely. Nero has formed a good subject for some experiments of mine."

While the doctor spoke he had deftly made certain arrangements to which Beatrice could not reasonably oppose herself. He had shown her into his sitting room, handed her a chair, locked the door in the laboratory, and also—

"I think you arrogate too much to yourself, Dr. Airlie. You have lived here for many years; but you must know that your position is one that can be changed at any moment by Morven's will."

down the steps she heard the grating of a door. Somebody came out and locked the door behind him. Beatrice's heart stood still and then gave a tremendous bound.

"I did not come here to be insulted," said Beatrice, raising from her chair, and turning white with anger. "You have no right to criticize my actions. I am not accountable for them to anyone but Lord Morven."

"I do not suppose that you will be so foolish as to keep me longer than is necessary," said Beatrice, with recovered dignity. "I am willing to remain until I have asked my questions, and heard your answers, Dr. Airlie; and when that is done, I will disturb you no longer."

"You do not know your position," he said. "I have let you play, so long as it suits my purpose. You think that you are independent. You think Morven can dismiss me if he likes. You are mistaken. You are all in my power. I hold you in the hollow of my hand. I can crush you all, if I choose, as easily as I can crush an eggshell or a paper toy."

"You affect to doubt me? I thought that you would do that. Just cast your eyes back over the last few months, and tell me whether I understate my power. It was I who made Morven refuse his consent to Bertie Douglas's proposal. It was I who dictated the letter which he wrote to young Wiggins, and forced him into agreeing to a compact which even he felt to be degrading."

"And humbly apologized for doing afterwards," returned the doctor. "Ah, you may ask him that if you doubt me. Ralph, Lord Morven, then proudest of all his race, made me, the poor, obscure, little doctor, a humble apology for his rudeness—as he would have done to his tutor when he had misbehaved himself as a lad of twelve! What think you of that as a sign of power?"

"What more do you want?" said the doctor mockingly. "Shall I make him press on Lillias' marriage with my friend Wiggins, and insist on the fixing of the wedding day? Shall I tell him to write a letter of dismissal, offering you a small annuity or a recommendation as governess in a respectable family? I do not see what else you have a right to expect. A penniless relation who has not only treated him with scandalous ingratitude but defied and disobeyed his express orders! Shall I tell him to do this, and forbid you the house henceforward?"

last person now to change it—fortunately for me perhaps—is the young lady who has shamelessly broken an engagement of three years' standing, and then returned alone and against Lord Morven's wishes, to the house of the man whom she has—jilted."

"I do not suppose that you will be so foolish as to keep me longer than is necessary," said Beatrice, with recovered dignity. "I am willing to remain until I have asked my questions, and heard your answers, Dr. Airlie; and when that is done, I will disturb you no longer."

"Indeed," said the doctor. "Ah, I suppose so. The victim does not recognize its destroyer—which is precisely the point that I was insisting upon."

"You do not know your position," he said. "I have let you play, so long as it suits my purpose. You think that you are independent. You think Morven can dismiss me if he likes. You are mistaken. You are all in my power. I hold you in the hollow of my hand. I can crush you all, if I choose, as easily as I can crush an eggshell or a paper toy."

"You affect to doubt me? I thought that you would do that. Just cast your eyes back over the last few months, and tell me whether I understate my power. It was I who made Morven refuse his consent to Bertie Douglas's proposal. It was I who dictated the letter which he wrote to young Wiggins, and forced him into agreeing to a compact which even he felt to be degrading."

"And humbly apologized for doing afterwards," returned the doctor. "Ah, you may ask him that if you doubt me. Ralph, Lord Morven, then proudest of all his race, made me, the poor, obscure, little doctor, a humble apology for his rudeness—as he would have done to his tutor when he had misbehaved himself as a lad of twelve! What think you of that as a sign of power?"

"What more do you want?" said the doctor mockingly. "Shall I make him press on Lillias' marriage with my friend Wiggins, and insist on the fixing of the wedding day? Shall I tell him to write a letter of dismissal, offering you a small annuity or a recommendation as governess in a respectable family? I do not see what else you have a right to expect. A penniless relation who has not only treated him with scandalous ingratitude but defied and disobeyed his express orders! Shall I tell him to do this, and forbid you the house henceforward?"

do not know—which I cannot understand." "Not a bad guess," said the doctor. "What is it then?" "Ah that is a different matter!" "As I expected, you refuse to tell me—because you cannot tell me; there is nothing to tell."

"Nothing to tell!" repeated Dr. Airlie. "Well, that depends upon your estimate of 'nothing.' At any rate the fact remains; by means of this 'nothing' I can bend Morven to my will. You are powerless against me; you have been comparatively powerless for a long time, though there was a period when I confess I doubted which of us would ultimately win the day. But if you have thrown away your chance, Beatrice Esilmont, and Morven is mine now, body and soul."

"I do not suppose that you will be so foolish as to keep me longer than is necessary," said Beatrice, with recovered dignity. "I am willing to remain until I have asked my questions, and heard your answers, Dr. Airlie; and when that is done, I will disturb you no longer."

"You do not know your position," he said. "I have let you play, so long as it suits my purpose. You think that you are independent. You think Morven can dismiss me if he likes. You are mistaken. You are all in my power. I hold you in the hollow of my hand. I can crush you all, if I choose, as easily as I can crush an eggshell or a paper toy."

"You affect to doubt me? I thought that you would do that. Just cast your eyes back over the last few months, and tell me whether I understate my power. It was I who made Morven refuse his consent to Bertie Douglas's proposal. It was I who dictated the letter which he wrote to young Wiggins, and forced him into agreeing to a compact which even he felt to be degrading."

"And humbly apologized for doing afterwards," returned the doctor. "Ah, you may ask him that if you doubt me. Ralph, Lord Morven, then proudest of all his race, made me, the poor, obscure, little doctor, a humble apology for his rudeness—as he would have done to his tutor when he had misbehaved himself as a lad of twelve! What think you of that as a sign of power?"

"What more do you want?" said the doctor mockingly. "Shall I make him press on Lillias' marriage with my friend Wiggins, and insist on the fixing of the wedding day? Shall I tell him to write a letter of dismissal, offering you a small annuity or a recommendation as governess in a respectable family? I do not see what else you have a right to expect. A penniless relation who has not only treated him with scandalous ingratitude but defied and disobeyed his express orders! Shall I tell him to do this, and forbid you the house henceforward?"

sons see the poor lad—I was afraid that the blue mark on his temple would tell more than we wanted known. You will remember that even you were not admitted to look upon him in his coffin."

"Now you understand why. And believe me Miss Esilmont, that I have labored with all my heart and soul to ensure safety for Lord Maevon, who is as dear to me as a son could be. Do not you, from some foolish estimate of what is due to his dignity, put out your hand to pall down what I have built up. Keep silence, and all will yet be well. I will not insult you by asking for your word; I am sure of your loyalty to Lord Morven."

"I do not suppose that you will be so foolish as to keep me longer than is necessary," said Beatrice, with recovered dignity. "I am willing to remain until I have asked my questions, and heard your answers, Dr. Airlie; and when that is done, I will disturb you no longer."

"You do not know your position," he said. "I have let you play, so long as it suits my purpose. You think that you are independent. You think Morven can dismiss me if he likes. You are mistaken. You are all in my power. I hold you in the hollow of my hand. I can crush you all, if I choose, as easily as I can crush an eggshell or a paper toy."

"You affect to doubt me? I thought that you would do that. Just cast your eyes back over the last few months, and tell me whether I understate my power. It was I who made Morven refuse his consent to Bertie Douglas's proposal. It was I who dictated the letter which he wrote to young Wiggins, and forced him into agreeing to a compact which even he felt to be degrading."

"And humbly apologized for doing afterwards," returned the doctor. "Ah, you may ask him that if you doubt me. Ralph, Lord Morven, then proudest of all his race, made me, the poor, obscure, little doctor, a humble apology for his rudeness—as he would have done to his tutor when he had misbehaved himself as a lad of twelve! What think you of that as a sign of power?"

"What more do you want?" said the doctor mockingly. "Shall I make him press on Lillias' marriage with my friend Wiggins, and insist on the fixing of the wedding day? Shall I tell him to write a letter of dismissal, offering you a small annuity or a recommendation as governess in a respectable family? I do not see what else you have a right to expect. A penniless relation who has not only treated him with scandalous ingratitude but defied and disobeyed his express orders! Shall I tell him to do this, and forbid you the house henceforward?"

The First Sign

Of falling health, whether in the form of Night Sweats and Nervousness, or in a sense of General Weariness and Loss of Appetite, should suggest the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This preparation is most effective for giving tone and strength to the enfeebled system, promoting the digestion and assimilation of food, restoring the nervous forces to their normal condition, and for purifying, enriching, and vitalizing the blood.

Failing Health. Ten years ago my health began to fall. I was troubled with a distressing Cough, Night Sweats, Weakness, and Nervousness. I tried various remedies prescribed by different physicians, but became so weak that I could not go up stairs without stopping to rest. My friends recommended me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which I did, and I am now as healthy and strong as ever.—Mrs. E. L. Williams, Alexandria, Minn.

Dyspepsia Cured. It would be impossible for me to describe what I suffered from Indigestion and Headache up to the time I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I was under the care of various physicians and tried a great many kinds of medicines, but never obtained more than temporary relief. After taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla for a short time, my headache disappeared, and my stomach performed its duties more perfectly. Today my health is completely restored.—Mary Hasley, Springfield, Mass.

I have been greatly benefited by the prompt use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It tones and invigorates the system, regulates the action of the digestive and assimilative organs, and vitalizes the blood. It is, without doubt, the most reliable blood purifier yet discovered.—H. D. Johnson, 553 Atlantic ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla, Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Price $1; six bottles, $5.

Dr. Chase's Liver Cure. The unqualified success of Dr. Chase's Liver Cure in Liver Complaint rests solely with the fact that it is composed from nature's well-known liver regulators. It is a valuable Household Medical Guide and Recipe Book (32 pages), containing over 200 useful recipes recommended by medical men and druggists as having a powerful effect on the Kidneys, Stomach, Bowels and Blood. $50,000 SOLD. Over one-half million of Dr. Chase's Recipe Book were sold in Canada alone. It is sent every man, woman and child who is troubled with Liver Complaint to try this excellent remedy. SOMETHING NEW. GIVEN AWAY FREE. Wrapped around every bottle of Dr. Chase's Liver Cure is a valuable Household Medical Guide and Recipe Book (32 pages), containing over 200 useful recipes recommended by medical men and druggists as having a powerful effect on the Kidneys, Stomach, Bowels and Blood. Try Chase's Catarrh Cure. A safe and positive cure. Sold by all Dealers. T. EDMANSON & CO., Sole Agents, Bradford and by JAMES WILSON, GODERICH, Ont. 22nd, 1885.

BEWARE OF WORTHLESS IMITATIONS. As there are many inferior goods, sorted with jute, hemp, etc., offered and sold as genuine, we have some principled merchants trading on the reputation of our genuine. We warn the ladies against such imposition by drawing their attention to the necessity of seeing that the goods are genuine. CROMPTON CORSET CO. is stamped on all of our Corset goods. Without which none are genuine.

DR. FOWLER'S EXTRACT-WILD STRAWBERRY CURES CHOLERA, CHOLERA INFANTUM, DIARRHÆA, AND ALL SUMMER COMPLAINTS. Sold by all Dealers.

West Street Meat Market. Andrews & Johnston. ALL KINDS OF MEATS. Careful Attention and Prompt Delivery. A CALL SOLICITED. Dec 21th, 1885. 27. HURON AND BRUCE LOAN AND INVESTMENT COMPANY. This Company is Lending Money on Farm Security at Lowest Rates of Interest. MORTGAGES PURCHASED. SAVINGS BANK BRANCH. 3, 4 and 5 per Cent. Interest Allowed on Deposits, according to amount and time left. OFFICE—Cor. of Market Square and North Street, Goderich. HORACE HORTON, Manager. Goderich Aug. 5th, 1885, 1891.

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS. WILL CURE OR RELIEVE EILDSNESS, DIZZINESS, DYSPESIA, DROPSY, INDIGESTION, JAUNDICE, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, ERYSIPELAS, SALT RHEUM, HEARTBURN, HEADACHE, AND every species of disease arising from disordered LIVER, KIDNEYS, STOMACH, BOWELS OR BLOOD. T. MILBURN & CO., Proprietors.

TOWN TOPICS.

A child's among us, taking notes... The newest novelties in photography are to be found at the studio of Geo. Stewart... FINE TAILORING—Opened today, case of fall goods...

Writing clerks and bookkeepers will find the "Wirt" fountain pen a boon... Miss Mary Nicholson, who was dangerously ill for the past few weeks... The Goderich cricketers in the match last Wednesday against the Windsor...

ENVELOPES.—You can get the best values in envelopes, printed and unprinted, at THE SIGNAL office... A CASE OF ARSON. Burning Down a House for the Sake of Insurance... Thomas Jackson and Herbert Lightie, of the township of Morris...

DUNGANNON. Mrs. Meyers, of the United States, is visiting her brother, A. Sprull... M. NICHOLSON, L.D.S. DENTAL ROOMS... The People's Column. WANTED IMMEDIATELY—GOOD Plain Cook...

One Week Only. From 27th Aug. to 3rd Sept., J. A. REID & BRO. WILL OFFER THEIR ENTIRE STOCK OF DRY GOODS, AT COST PRICE... DRESS GOODS, FROM 5c. PER YARD UP. 35 YDS. FACTORY COTTON FOR $1.00.

New Advertisements This Week. Music—Prof. Clarke. Rifle Lost—Fridham Bros. House Wanted—This Office. Cotton Bags, Etc.—C. Crabb...

Loans and Insurance. FIVE AND A HALF PER CENT. Straight Loans. Any amount. Private funds at the low rate of 5 per cent. per annum...

For Sale or to Let. STORE TO RENT.—THAT WELL SITUATED store, on the Square, at present occupied by Miss Graham, as a millinery store...

ARM TO RENT.—A GOOD FARM to rent, one mile from Kintail. One hundred acres, all cleared and new, free from stumps...

Auctioneering. JOHN KNOX, GENERAL AUCTIONEER and Land Valuator, Goderich, Ont. Having had considerable experience in the auctioneering trade...

COMMUNIC. We do not hold on opinions of our... GODERICH. The Editor of THE SIGNAL, was in the city... GODERICH. The Editor of THE SIGNAL, was in the city...

Only
rd Sept.,
& BRO.
RY GOODS,
(just opened)
PRICE PER YARD UP.
ON FOR $1.00.
COST!
40c. per lb.
SUGAR for $1
EK ONLY.
D & BRO.

Legal.
J. HAYS, SOLICITOR, &c.
Office, corner of Square and West
Goderich, over telegraph office. Privates to be had at 2 per cent. 2005-ER & LEWIS, BARRISTERS,
est. Jn. E. N. LEWIS 1907-ROW & PROUDFOOT, BAR
ATTORNEYS, Solicitors, etc.
h. J. T. Garrow, W. Proudfoot. 175
ERON, HOLT & CAMERON,
ricters, Solicitors in Chancery, &c.
h. M. C. Cameron, Q.C.; P. Holt, M.
aron, C. C. Ross. 1757-

Medical.
REEVE, M.D., C.M., MEM-
ER of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, etc. Physician, Surgeon, and dentist, etc., Port Albert. 2005-CASE, M.D., C.M., M.C.P.S.,
nt. Physician, Surgeon, Accoucher, rice—(That formerly occupied by Dr.
son) Duncanson, Night Office. 1931-
MCLEAN, PHYSICIAN, SUR-
ON, Coroner &c. Office and residence
Street, second door west of Victoria Street. 1751-

Shannon & Hamilton
Physicians, Surgeons, Accouchers, &c.
J. Dr. Shannon's residence, near the derick G. C. SHANNON, J. C. HAMIL-TON. 1751-

Insurance.
AND A HALF PER CENT.
sight loans. Amort. Private at low rate of 5 per cent. per an-
SEAGER & LEWIS, Goderich. 2005
HAVE PRIVATE TRUST
UNDS to lend on Mortgage at the low
FIVE AND A HALF PER CENT.
um. Write or call for particulars.
SEAGER & LEWIS, Goderich.
000 TO LOAN. APPLY TO MERON HOLT & CAMERON, Goderich. 1752

NEY TO LEND.—A LARGE sum of Private Funds for investment at rates on first-class Mortgages. Apply
BROW & PROUDFOOT
VATE FUNDS TO LEND AT 4 1/2 per cent. on first-class farm securities to R. C. HAYES, Solicitor, Goderich. 2010-11
RADCLIFFE,
ERAL INSURANCE,
EAL ESTATE AND
ONEY LENDING AGENT.
First-class Companies Represented oney to lend on straight loans, at the rate of interest going, in any way to borrower.
OFFICE—Second door from Square,
Street, Goderich. 2005-11

FRANCE CARD.
W. F. FOOT,
Life and Marine Insurance Agent,
GODERICH,
111 e. opposite Colborne Hotel.
ondon Assurance Co., incorporated 1720 national, established 1822.
Head-office, London, only Company need to insure plate glass, in the British Empire. above are all first-class and old established companies.
Rates of interest rates.
rich Dec. 24th, 1884. 1975-

1000 TO LOAN AT 6 PER CENT.
MONTREAL GENERAL TRUSTS COY pared to loan money at 6 per cent. pay if yearly, on
TO SUIT BORROWERS, on first-class farm security.
Y to AMERON, HOLT & CAMERON,
Barristers, Goderich, is for the Toronto General Trusts Coy.
s. Cameron, Holt & Cameron have large amount of private funds to loan first-class farm security.
rich, Oct. 4, 1885. 1911-11

00 PRIVATE FUNDS
id on farm and town property, at low-rest. Mortgages purchased. No com-charged agents for the Trust and Loan y of Canada, the Canada Landed Company, the London Loan Company
dn. Interest, 6 1/2 and 7 per cent.
Borrowers can obtain money in one the satisfactory.
DAVISON & JOHNSTON,
Barristers, &c., Goderich

COMMUNICATIONS.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions of our Correspondents. Contributions in this department must be sent to ourselves to public questions.

GODERICH, 20th Aug., 1886

To the Editor of The Signal.
Six—Your account in today's SIGNAL of the injury inflicted upon Mr. Nisbet's child at the hands of a gang of boys carrying and carelessly firing a gun, ought to give the names of the boys, and they ought to be severely punished. Their parents are, however, the most to blame for allowing small boys to carry guns. A gang of small boys with a gun is as dangerous as a mad dog, and is bound to do some harm to some one. Sportsmen and those more accustomed to fire arms are the most cautious in their use. Clubs and sporting parties always use the arms under certain well defined rules and regulations which prevent the possibility of accident from carelessness. Very few indeed of the so-called gunning "accidents" we see in the papers, take place amongst this class; but almost always arise rather from young boys being allowed to use fire arms, or else amongst that class of fools who point the gun at a friend "for fun," and then cry out "I did not know it was loaded." If a person points a gun at another whether it is loaded or unloaded, he ought to be knocked down with the first thing that comes to hand. It is, in fact, an assault to point even an unloaded gun at a person. Guns should be kept out of the hands of those two classes, viz: children and fools. Gun clubs in Ontario are trying to effect this by obtaining legislation prohibiting any person carrying a gun unless he takes out an annual license and pays an annual fee of $2. All persons found carrying a gun without a license to be liable to be summarily punished before a magistrate. This, it is thought, will keep fire arms out of the hands of those who are too young to realize what they are using and to act with proper caution, and who do not understand the rules under which sportsmen always act. I repeat, keep fire arms, like edged tools, out of the hands of children and fools. Yours, SPORTSMAN.

A Tribute to the Point Farm.

THE POINT FARM, Goderich, 21st August, 1886.

To the Editor of The Signal.
Sirs—We understand that efforts were made by the residents of your good town to bring prominently before the people of inland cities and towns the advantages possessed by Goderich as a place of sojourn for the summer months. Having with our families stayed for various periods during the present and the past month at "The Point Farm" the summer hotel in your vicinity kept by Mr. J. J. Wright—it affords us pleasure to say that we have found the weather here to be most delightful, the air having been generally cool, dry and bracing. The lake bathing is both safe and refreshing. The grounds belonging to Point Farm are extensive, and well laid out, and with the beautiful beach give ample scope for roaming and playing. This is a capital place for families. Children can get into no danger. The hotel is very comfortable, and is well kept and managed. Mr. Wright and his son, who acts as his clerk, have been most attentive and obliging.
E. N. ENLISH, Principal
Hellmuth Ladies' College, London.
DOE, GUTHRIE, Barrister, Guelph.
W. J. WALSH, Barrister, Orangeville.
S. S. FULLER, Stratford.
DUNCAN DODGALL, Barrister, Windsor.
ROBY, HOWARD, Toronto.
P. D. HORTON, Detroit.
B. GLOVER, Bothwell.

The Sea Serpent Again Seen

GLOUCESTER, Mass; Aug. 22.—The sea serpent was again seen off Gloucester by a sailing party. When first seen the monster was only about 300 feet away and looked like a huge snake nearly 100 feet long lying upon the surface of the water, rising and falling with the waves. As the boat drew nearer its huge head was raised six feet from the water and the glittering eyes were plainly seen. It then disappeared but soon came to the surface some distance away. Another brief glimpse of the monster was obtained but it soon got out of view and was not again seen.

GODERICH BOILER WORKS

Chrystal & Black,
Manufacturers of all kinds of
STATIONERY, MARINE, UPRIGHT AND TUBULAR BOILERS.
SALT PANS, SMOKE STACKS and all kinds of Sheet Iron work.
STEAM AND WATER PIPE FITTINGS constantly on hand.
On hand, ready for delivery:
1 30 H.P. New Steel Boiler.
1 8 H.P. New Boiler.
A Complete 2nd-hand Threshing Outfit,
Boiler, Engine, Separator, &c. all in good working order. Will be sold cheap.
Mail orders will receive prompt attention.
Works: Opp. G. T. R. Station.
P. O. BOX 361.
Goderich, May 26th, 1886.

The Canadian Pacific Railway

THE GREATEST CORPORATION ON EARTH.
The Most Direct and Best Equipped Route between MONTREAL - TORONTO,
OTTAWA - KINGSTON,
DETROIT - BOSTON - CHICAGO,
ST. LOUIS,
KANSAS CITY,
AND ALL POINTS EAST AND WEST.
Before purchasing your Tickets elsewhere call on
R. RADCLIFFE, Agent.
OFFICE—West Street, Opposite Telegraph
Office. Don't Forget the Place.
Goderich, July 23th, 1886. 2004-

Wm. Robertson, of West Wawa-who got her leg fractured recently to move about again.

Now's the Time!

Valuable Premium Given Free with Canada's Popular Weekly.

The Western Advertiser, of London, has just made another important step in advance. It now appears regularly in twelve page form, and in addition to all its well-known popular features gives in each issue San Jose's Sermon, the International Sabbath School Lesson, a Complete Story, etc., etc. It is vastly improved in every respect. For BALANCE OF YEAR the price is only 25c. or in clubs of five and over 40c. each. Postage stamps accepted for fractional parts of a dollar. Sample free.
A subscriber will be entitled, without additional cost, to one of the following premiums, which should be ordered as per number, viz:
1. Portrait Gallery.
2. Home and Health.
3. Chase's Recipes.
4. Ladies' Fancy Work Guide.
Registered letters come at our risk. Address plainly—
LONDON, ONTARIO.
LONDON, ONTARIO.
LONDON, ONTARIO.

WIZARD OIL WILSON'S
DRUG STORE

TO MACKINAC.

The Most Delightful
SUMMER TOUR
Palace Steamer, Low Rates.
Four Trips per Week Between DETROIT AND MACKINAC and Every Week Day Between DETROIT AND CLEVELAND
Write for our
"Picturesque Map," etc., Illustrated.
C. D. WITCOCK, Pass. Agt.,
DETROIT, MICH.
Detroit & Cleveland Steam Nav. Co.
C. D. WITCOCK, Pass. Agt.,
DETROIT, MICH.

F. JORDAN, MEDICAL HALL

GODERICH,
Has on hand a full stock of the following
seasonable articles:
Paris Green,
London Purple
Insect Powder
Hellebore.
Guaranteed Fresh and Pure, and at Lowest Prices.

Fresh Bottled Lime Juice,
Assorted Sizes.
Agent for the Toronto Mucilage Manufacturing Co's
Mucilage, Liquid Glue, &c
Convenient and Reliable, and at Reduced Prices.
Also agent for the Celebrated
DR. JUG'S
Medicine and Pills
Specially—Physicians' Prescriptions and Family Recipes Accurately Dispensed.
Only Pure and Reliable Drugs used.

COX & CO.

COMMISSION AND STOCK BROKERS,
(Members Toronto Stock Exchange).
26 TORONTO-ST., TORONTO
Direct Wire to Montreal, New York, Oil
City and Chicago.
Stocks, Bonds, Grain Provisions and Oil Bought or Sold for Cash or on Margin.

GODERICH AGENCY, WEST ST., R. RADCLIFFE,

July 28th, 1886. 2008-3m
PASSAGE RATES REDUCED.
ANCHOR LINE.
STEAMERS EVERY SATURDAY from NEW YORK to GLASGOW AND LONDON.
Rates of Passage 10c or from
New York, Glasgow, Liverpool, London, or Belfast,
CABINS, $5 and $25. Chicago Class, $30.
Atlantic Express Service.
LIVERPOOL via QUEENSTOWN.
Steamship "CITY OF BOSTON" from New York, WEDNESDAY, Sept. 15.
Oct. 15, Nov. 10.
Saloon Passage, $30 and upward. Second Class, $20 Steerage outward or proprietor's other Service, $10.
For Books of Tours, Tickets, or other information, apply to HENDERSON BROTHERS, New York.
or A. DICKEYSON, Post Office, Goderich,
Goderich, May 20, 1886. 2002-3m

FINE TAILORING! GRAND TRIUMPH!

Although this has been a year of strikes and general business depression, I started with a boom, and have been booming ever since. I've tried hard to get GOOD GOODS to sell, and to SELL THEM CHEAPLY. The result is, that I aim in everything that pertains to FINE TAILORING. I have Style, Quality, Variety and Price.
They're all here, and in a way that you won't find elsewhere.
B. MacCormac.
Goderich, July 23rd, 1886. 2010-

Cheap Cash Store!

ENLARGED PREMISES.
A Present Given with Every Pound of Tea (Fine Choice).
17 lbs. Sugar - - - for $1.00.
13 lbs. Al Granulated for $1.00.
Rice, Sago, Tapioca, Spices, &c., &c.
BAKING SODA, 4 CENTS PER LB.
MY TEAS—ONCE TRIED—ALWAYS USED.
M. MCGILLIVRAY,
The Cheap Cash Store, Goderich, Aug. 5th, 1886. 2009- North Street and Square.

NOTICE.

All Accounts due me not settled by the end of Aug.
will be sued. Call at once to save costs. Give your note if no money.
W. H. RIDLEY,
The People's Store, Goderich.
July 23rd, 1886.

DOMINION CARRIAGE WORKS

ALEX. MORTON, MANUFACTURER OF
FIRST-CLASS CARRIAGES!
A Large Stock of First-Class Top Buggies on hand.
Canopy-Top Phaetons, the Best in the Market.
Double-Seated Carriages of all Styles.
REPAIRING A SPECIALTY.
All Work Warranted, and nothing but FIRST-CLASS WORK MADE.
Call and Examine Stock, Opposite Colborne Hotel

FASHIONABLE TAILORING! SPRING GOODS

ARRIVED,
And will be arriving all Season.
Call and See the New Goods.

HUGH DUNLOP, FASHIONABLE TAILOR.

Remember the Place—West Street, next door to Bank of Montreal.
Goderich, March 18th, 1886.

WM. KNIGHT,
West Street, two doors east of P.O., Goderich.
2011

GOODS AT COST.

COLBORNE BROS.
ARE SELLING
SUMMER DRESS GOODS, SUMMER PRINTS,
STRAW HATS,
AND A LOT OF OTHER
SUMMER GOODS AT COST.
NEW FALL GOODS
JUST ARRIVED IN DRESS GOODS, PLUSHES, VELVETEENS AND MELTONS.

Colborne Bros., GODERICH.

ABRAHAM SMITH, TAILOR & CLOTHIER.

New Goods,
New Styles,
Low Prices.
Gents' Furnishings, Hats and Caps, &c.
If you want a cheap, yet stylish suit, call at ABRAHAM SMITH'S.
Goderich, June 3rd, 1886. 2000

TO THE PUBLIC IN GENERAL: ALEX. MUNRO,

General Draper and Haberdasher.
Having now received the bulk of his Spring Dressing, M...ing a Choice Selection of FASHIONABLE AND DESIRABLE GOODS Newest Shades and Textures, All-Wool DeBelges, Verona Serges, Soudanese Cloths, with stripes to match.
Black and Colored Ottoman Brocaded Satins,
Black, Double-Faced Tricot Satin, warranted not to cut.
Prints, Batens, Black and Colored Linen Lawns, Parasols, Gloves and Fine Hosiery a Marked Feature.
Madras and Nottingham Curtains in white, coffee and fancy colorings.
White, Cream, Turkey and Fancy Table Linens and Towellings, Tray Cloths, Napkins, D'Uyleys—round, square and oblong.
The correct thing in Braids and Buttons,
Swiss and Belgian Embroideries, All Overs and Trappings.
Not deeming it necessary to enumerate the various lines in stock, the public may rest assured that all departments will be fully up to the Standard of Strictly one price.
ALEX. MUNRO.
Goderich, May 8th, 1886.

R. W. MCKENZIE IMPORTER,

Wholesale and Retail Dealer in SHELF AND HEAVY HARDWARE,

PAINTS, OILS AND GLASS, GODERICH.

RETIRING FROM BUSINESS! WILLIAM KAY

WILL SELL OFF HIS LARGE AND VARIED STOCK AT COST!

CONSISTING OF
Tweed, Cloakings, Hosiery, Silks, Shawls, Winceys, Cotton and Wool, Capes, Flannels, Table Cloths, Towels, Napkins, Curtains, Linens, Sheets, Caps, Sackings, White Cottons, Yarns, &c., &c., &c.
Lace, Cashmere, Lists, Shirtings, Shirts, Skirts, Pantalons, Umbrellas, Drawers, Ladies' Vests, Combination Suits, Blankets, Quilts, Flannels, &c., &c., &c.
Gingerhams, Prints, Crapes, Ribbons, Handkerchiefs, Silk Linen, Cotton, white and printed, Laces, Edgings, Embroideries, Flannels, &c., &c., &c.
Linen, Cotton, and other goods, all at cost.
Satisfy, black and colored.
Goderich, March 24th, 1886. 2010-6m

The Poet's Corner.

A Bible Alphabet.
Here is an alphabet that will make you study. Get out your Bible and turn to the places. When you have found them, read and remember:—
A was a monarch who reigned in the east.
—Esther 1, 1.
B was a Chaldean who made a great feat.
—Daniel 1, 14.
C was victorious when others told lies.
—Num. xiii, 30-33.
D was a woman, heroic and wise.
—Judges iv, 4-24.
E was a refuge where David spared Saul.
—1 Sam. xxiv, 1-7.
F was a Roman assailer of Paul.
—Acts xxvii, 21.
G was a garden, a frequent resort.
—John xviii, 1-2; Matt. xxvi, 28.
H was a city where David held court.
—II Sam. 11, 11.
I was a mocker, a very bad boy.
—Genesis xvi, 16.
J was a city preferred as a joy.
—Psalm xxxvii, 6.
K was a father, whose son was quite tall.
—Sam. ix, 12.
L was a proud princess and had a great fall.
—Isaiah xiv, 12.
M was a nephew whose uncle was good.
—Col. iv, 10; Acts iv, 21.
N was a city long hid where it stood.
—Zachariah 4, 13.
O was a servant, acknowledged a brother.
—Philemon 1, 16.
P was a Christian greeting another.
—II Timothy iv, 21.
Q was a damsel who knew a man's voice.
—I Kings xi, 4-11.
R was a seaport where preaching was long.
—Acts xv, 6-7.
S was a teamster struck dead for his wrong.
—Sam. xiii, 17.
T was a cast-off, and never restored.
—Esther 1, 19.
Z was a ruin with sorrow deplored.
—Psalm cxxvii.

Words of Wisdom.

The laws of our religion tend to the universal happiness of mankind.
A lie has no legs and cannot stand; but it has wings and can fly far and wide.
The mind is its own place, and in itself can make a heaven of hell, a hell of heaven.
Men respect the religion of those who are ready to lend a helping hand in times of trouble.
Religion is the most gentlemanly thing of the world, said Coleridge. It alone will gentelize if unmixed with cant.
If we could read the secret history of our enemies we should find in each man's life sorrow and suffering enough to disarm all hostilities.
Laughing, if loud, ends in deep sigh; wrote Jeremy Taylor, and all pleasures have a sting in the tail, though they carry beauty on the face.
It is much easier to find a score of men wise enough to discover the truth than to find one intrepid enough, in the face of opposition, to stand up for it.
Every man has his chain and his cog, only it is looser and lighter to one man than another, and he is more at ease who takes it up than he who drags it.
Character is made up of little things, and it is only through watchfulness over the details of the right and wrong that we can hope to build it into fair or enduring proportions.
Hard work hurts no one; it would not perhaps be going to far to assert that "busy" lives have kept the vital spark longest alight.
Men and women, to lead worthy lives, must have a respect for themselves, and a respect for others. Whatever tends to respect and to strengthen these promote human welfare.
No way has been found for making heroes easy, even for the scholar. Labor, it is said, is his birthright. The world was created as an arena for him; the atoms of which are his opportunities.
Our homes are like instruments of music. The strings that give melody or discord are the members. If each is rightly attuned, they will all vibrate in harmony; but a single discordant string destroys the sweetness.
Who can tell the value of a smile? It costs the giver nothing, but it is beyond price to the receiver, and repents the sad and cheerless. The sad and cheerless, it is said, are forsaken. It is the life of civilization that at last comes to be contained such a mastery of natural laws that they drive them out of the world. The winds, the water, the earth, all agents that in their wild forms would be dangerous, are controlled by human skill, and are made useful servants.
The boy Jay Jay Wheatley, Clinton, caught 52 trout in a short time, near Ben Hur, a few days before he landed 71. These were his first stories.
10 ARE YOU MADE miserable by Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness, Loss of Appetite, Yellow Skin? Shiloh's Kidney and Bladder Cure. For sale by J. W. Jordan, Druggist, Goderich.
Of all things known to mortals, woe is the most powerful and effectual for exciting and inflaming the passions of mankind, being common fuel to them all.
A Pleasing Duty
"I feel it my duty to say," wrote John Burton, of Desert, P. O., "that Burdock Blood Bitters cured my wife of liver complaint, from which she had been a chronic sufferer. Her distressing, painful symptoms soon to all suffering as she did."
Our true knowledge is to know our own ignorance. Our true strength is to know our own weakness. Our true dignity is to know that we have no dignity, and are nobody and nothing in ourselves, and to cast ourselves down before the dignity of God, under the shadow of whose wings and in the smile of whose countenance alone is any created being safe.
It Never Fails
Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry will never fail you when taken to cure Dysentery, Colic, Sick Stomach or any form of Summer Complaint. Relief is almost instantaneous; a few doses cure when other remedies fail.

Household Hints.

What will support a dog will raise a hog weighing 200 pounds.
There is living at Coldwater, Mich., a man, age seventy years, who says he never ate a piece of meat.
Many birds are killed under the pretence of "scientific purposes" to gratify fashion. The friends of birds are beginning to look after this cruel tyrant.
Early rising plenty of out-door exercise, plain fare, wholesome bodily fatigue, and ample nightly rest are my life insurance. If I had nothing to trouble me I should grow fat and lazy, and I should lose my health. The worries and troubles of this life keep it going.
MINISTER'S SPONGE CAKE.—Three eggs, one and one-half cup of cold water, one-half teaspoonful of soda, one teaspoonful of cream tartar, one and one-half cups of flour, one quarter teaspoonful of salt, one teaspoonful of extract of lemon. Beat the eggs five minutes, add the sugar and beat two minutes more; then add the other ingredients.
WHITE CAKE.—Two eggs using the whites only, a scant half-cup of butter, one cup of powdered sugar, one and one-half cups of flour, one-half cup of sweet milk, one teaspoonful of soda. Flavor with extract of rose or lemon. This is a delicate cake, and may be varied by adding one-half cup of citron cut fine and ornamented with a nice frosting.
FEATHER CAKE.—One cup of sugar, one egg, two-thirds cup of sweet milk, a heaping teaspoonful of butter, two cups of flour in which are thoroughly sifted one teaspoonful of cream tartar, one-half teaspoonful of soda. Flavor with lemon or vanilla, and bake in one loaf or in layers; and it will be found an excellent cake, especially if eaten while fresh.
ROLL JELLY CAKE.—Four eggs, one cup of flour, one teaspoonful of cream tartar, one-half teaspoonful of soda, one cup of powdered sugar. Spread thin on long tins. As soon as baked turn from the tins on to damp cloth, spread with jelly and roll up immediately.
LEMON CAKE.—Two and one-half cups of powdered sugar, three quarters of a cup of butter, one cup of sweet milk, three full cups of sifted flour, four eggs, the juice and grated rind of one lemon, one level teaspoonful of soda. Bake in one loaf or in layers with a white icing flavored with lemon.
A BEEF'S HEART.—Make a pint bowl of dressing from bread crumbs, a slice or two of salt pork chopped fine, and an egg, the whole well seasoned with pepper and a pinch of sage. Onion is good to favor a dressing with, but it is never safe to use onion in cooking, unless you do the peculiarities of the tastes of those who are to partake of it. After thoroughly soaking and cleaning the heart, fill it with the dressing, and bind round with a narrow strip of cloth; then boil gently three hours or until it tender. When nearly done allow the water to boil away to a small quantity. Take up the heart and thicken the broth remaining, which will make a rich gravy.
GINGER PUDDING.—One cup of butter, measured lightly, two cups of sugar, one cup of milk, four cups of flour, one tablespoonful of ginger, one teaspoonful saleratus, two teaspoonfuls of cream tartar, and four eggs. Beat the sugar and butter to a cream, then stir in the eggs which have been well beaten, then the milk and last the flour, in which the saleratus, cream tartar and ginger have been thoroughly sifted. Bake three quarters of an hour. After the flour is added beat only a little. Serve with a sauce.
PUDDING SAUCE.—One-half cup of butter, one cup of powdered sugar, the white of one egg, one-half cup of cream, one teaspoonful of lemon or vanilla. Cream the butter, add the sugar, then the white of the egg, the flavoring, and last the cream. Place the bowl over another of hot water; stir until foamy, but be sure not to cook it until it turnsellow.
BOILED CUSTARD.—Two tablespoonfuls of corn starch, one quart of milk, two eggs, a little salt, four tablespoonfuls of sugar, and one teaspoonful of flavoring. Boil the milk, and add the corn starch dissolved in a little milk; then add the eggs well beaten with the sugar; let it boil up once, stir it and it is done. Add the flavoring after it is removed from the fire.
Don't Do It.
Don't eat with your knife.
Don't sit cross-legged before company.
Don't swing your foot or trot it, or sit with your toes turned in.
Don't rock incessantly in a rocking chair before company. It makes people nervous.
Don't drum with your fingers or rattle your feet before people.
Don't pick your teeth before people. It's nasty.
Don't be polite to strangers and snappish and boorish at home, among the people who love you most.
Don't make a noise with your mouth like an animal, when you eat.
How a Duke taught Cold.
A slim young man in the height of fashion was violently sneezing in a street car, when a companion remarked, "Aw, Charles, dear boy, how d'ye catch that dreadful cold." "Aw, dear fellow, left my cane on the lower hall to-day, and in sucking the ivory handle, so dreadful cold, it chilled me almost to death." If Charles had used Dr. Harney's Red Pine Gum his cold would not trouble him very much. For sale at J. W. Jordan's prescription drug store.
A son of Erin was imparting wisdom to a group of western idlers one morning as they watched the storm in the sky and took occasion to silence one of his audience, who called it a cyclone thus: "Gowan, now! it's no cyclone, but a bit of a tornady. What, now! an I'll give ye the difference betune the two o' them, it's ye kin alwys remember, it's the look what a man and the difference betune rumatiz an' newralgy. Put yer finger in a visse an' screw it up till ye can't stand the pain any more, an' that's rumatiz, then give it three turns more, an' that's newralgy. The tornady is rumatiz, me bye, an' the cyclone is the newralgy. See?"
Low's Sulphur Soap should be found with every toilet. It is cleansing and found,

The Last Year—1885.

After the above year is ended there need be no person suffering from Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Toothache, Headache, Lumbago, or any acute pain, if they only purchase a bottle of Fluid Lightning, as it cures instantly. Pain cannot stay where it is used. The name is Fluid Lightning. Sold by G. Rhyans, Druggist.
RAISED ROLLS.—Take a pint bowl full of light bread dough; beat a fresh egg and add to it; knead it thoroughly—it will take ten minutes. Roll out an inch thick, cut into biscuits and lay them upon a tin sheet and let rise in a warm place. Bake in a quick oven.
McGregor & Parke's Carbolic Cerate.
Have you an old Sore, Cut, Burn, Bruise, Corn, Bunion, Salt Rheum, Pimple, Blotches, Rough Hands or Face? If so, there is but one cure, namely, Mcgregor & Parke's Carbolic Cerate. If you buy it, it will convince you. It costs but 25 cents at G. Rhyans' drug store.
way we manage a program.
From the Rambler.
Dookkeeper—You don't want to go in, now, I guess. The show is nearly over.
Flydogge—No, m'good fler, I jus' want a P-program.
Dookkeeper—Now, what in the world do you want with a program!
Flydogge (with flying saucer)—To shlow me wif, so she'll know I've been to the theatre.
A Sum in Arithmetic.
From Texas Sitings.
Child—"Grandpa, how old are you?"
Grandpa—"I am 87 years old, my little dear."
Child—"Then you was born eighty years before I was?"
Grandpa—"Yes, my little girl."
Child—"Law, what a long time you had to wait for me!"
Be an eye guard.
Don't allow a cold in the head to slowly and surely develop into Catarrh when you are cured for 25 cents.
A few applications will cure incipient Catarrh.
One or two boxes will cure ordinary Catarrh.
One to five boxes will cure chronic Catarrh.
Sold by James Wilson at 25c. per box. Try it—take no other—it will cure you.
PAN CAKES.—Sift one teaspoonful of cream tartar and one-half teaspoonful of soda into one pint of flour, a pinch of salt, one teaspoonful of cinnamon, and two tablespoonfuls of sugar. When ready to fry, mix with new milk rather stiff. Have the kettle of lard boiling hot, and drop them in shaped in balls, about as large as a half of a small egg. They will roll over, and when brown are done. Take out with a skimmer and drain in a colander. Serve hot.
STRAITFORD, AUG. 6, 1885.
Having suffered from kidney disease from childhood I consulted eminent doctors in Chicago, New York, and in Canada. Also tried various patent medicines, but getting no relief from any source save only as I was sure my case was hopeless. Finally I was induced to try Dr. J. C. Williams' Pink Pills, and I am glad to say that three bottles cured me. Dr. J. C. Williams' Pink Pills. For sale by F. Jordan, Druggist, Goderich.
IMPORTANT TO OWNERS OF STOCK.
Giles' Liniment Iodide Ammonia Removes all Unightly Bunches, Spinal Meningitis, Cures Lameness in Cattle, Sprung Knees, Founder, Weak Limbs, Quitters, Spavin, Ringbone, Windgalls.
No stable should be without it. Railroad, mining and express companies all use Giles' Liniment, and in the great racing stables of Belmont and Lottard it is an essential. Sold by all druggists at 50c. and $1.00 per gallon, and in quart bottles at 25c. in which there is great saving. The Liniment in white wrappers is Giles' Liniment Iodide Ammonia and Cattle Powder.
Used by all the leading horsemen on Jerome Park, the Brighton Beach, Sheepshead Bay and Bull's Head. Never disappoints, is Tonic, Alternative and Diuretic, Destroys Worms, Cures Indigestion, Colic, Bile, Stomach, Catarrh, Founder, Pink-eye and Rheumatism. The dose is small and the power is great. The Powder are guaranteed and Purchasers failing to obtain a Cure Money Refunded.
Sold by F. JORDAN, Druggist, Goderich Ont.
F. LAZARUS IMPROVED SPECTACLES PRESERVE YOUR SIGHT
By wearing the only
FRANK LAZARUS
(Lat. of the firm of LAZARUS & MORRIS)
Renowned Spectacles and Eye Glasses
These Spectacles and Eye Glasses have been used for the past 23 years, and given in every instance unbounded satisfaction. They are the BEST IN THE WORLD. They never tire, and last many years without change.
FOR SALE BY Yates & Acheson,
HARDWARE MERCHANTS,
GODERICH.
FRANK LAZARUS, MANUFACTURER
28 Maryland Road, Harrow Road, LONDON, ENGLAND.
(Late Lazarus & Morris, Hartford, Conn.)
No connection with any other firm in the Dominion of Canada.
Jan. 23th, 1885. 022-17

Invalide's Hotel and Surgical Institute
Head of Eastern Experienced and Skillful Physicians and Surgeons.
ALL CHRONIC DISEASES A SPECIALTY.
Patients treated here or at the Institute. Many treated at home, through correspondence, as successfully as if here in person. Come and see the treatment of your disease. For our "Invalide's Guide-Book," which gives all particular Association, 665 Main St., Buffalo, N.Y.

Women
For "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated school teachers, milliners, seamstresses, housekeepers, and overworked women generally. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best of all restorative tonics. It is not a "Cur-cure," but admirably fulfills a single purpose, namely, to cure the various weaknesses and diseases peculiar to women, such as Catarrh, Leucorrhoea, and all other ailments of the female system. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is sold by druggists under our positive guarantee. See wrapper around bottle.
DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION is the result of his vast experience. For internal congestion, inflammation and ulceration, it is a specific. It is a powerful general, as well as uterine, tonic and nerve, and imparts vigor and strength to the whole system. It cures weakness of stomach, indigestion, bloating, weak back, nervous prostration, exhaustion, debility and sleeplessness, in either sex. Favorite Prescription is sold by druggists under our positive guarantee. See wrapper around bottle.
PRICE $1.00, OR SIX BOTTLES $5.00.
Send 10 cents in stamps for Dr. Pierce's large Treatise on Diseases of Women (100 pages, paper-covered). Address: World's Dispensary, Medical Association, 665 Main Street, Buffalo, N.Y.

Pierce's Pleasant LIVER PILLS.
ANTI-BILIOUS AND CATHARTIC.
SICK HEADACHE, Bilious Headache, Bilelessness, Constipation, Indigestion, and all the ailments of the liver.
Promptly cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant LIVER PILLS. 25 cents a box. Sold by Druggists.

DUNN'S BAKING POWDER
THE COOK'S BEST FRIEND
FARMERS' ATTENTION
The undersigned has a Choice Selection of Pure, Clean SEEDS
of the following varieties:—White Duchess, Lacerne, Alaska, Treflon, Psa Yne and Red Clover, Timothy, Lawn and all varieties of Grasses suitable for permanent pasture, Oats, Wheat, Peas, Barley, Rye, Beans, Buckwheat, Corn, Tares and Flax; also Field and Garden Seeds of all kinds.
A full assortment of Flour and Feed.
The Celebrated Union Churn—the best in the market.
A consignment of Choice, Fresh Teas, consisting of Black, Green and Japan—wholesale and retail.
A large amount of Money to Loan.
R. PRICE,
Masonic Block, East street, Goderich, March 11th, 1885. 203-24

HARKNESS' HAIR BALM
Restores grey hair to its natural color, removes Dandruff, stops the hair from falling out, increases its growth, and makes the scalp cool and moist. As a hair dressing, it has no equal. Prepared by Harkness & Co., London, Ont. Sold by all Druggists and Patent Medicine Dealers.
1885. GODERICH WOOLEN MILLS.
To the Wool Growers of the Surrounding Country:
We wish to say that we are prepared to take your Wool in exchange for goods, or work it for you into any of the following articles, viz: Blankets—White, Grey or Horse, Shirtings—Grey or Cheviot, Cloths—Tweeds or Full Colored, Light or Heavy, Flannels—White, Grey, Colored, Union, Plain or Twill, Sheetings—Broad or Narrow, Stocking Yarn—White, Grey, Clouded or in Colors, Carpet Warps made to order.
ROLL CARDING.
Our facilities for this work cannot be surpassed. We will endeavor in most cases to do it the day it is brought in, if required.
Custom Spinning and Reeling, or Spinning on the Chai, coarse or fine, hand or soft twist, as required.
We are in a position to do all kinds of custom work, usually done in a full set custom mill, and we will guarantee to do for you fully equal, if not a little better than any in our surroundings.
A ca respectfully solicited.
E. McCANN,
East End Wooten Mill Goderich May 18th, 1885

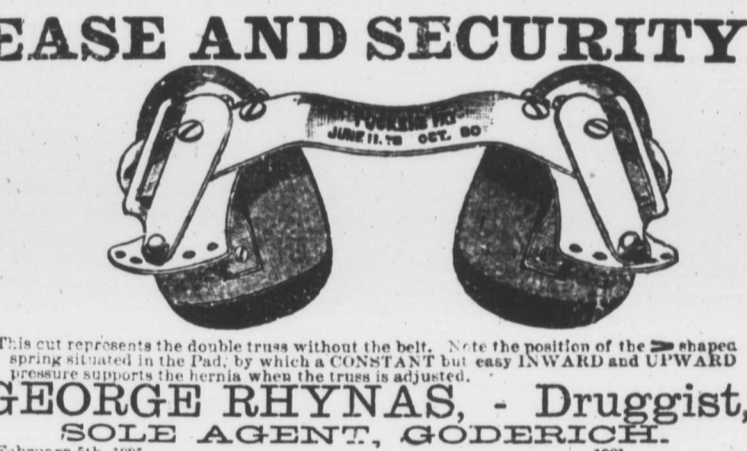

FARMERS AND THRESHERS
Use on your Machinery only the Well-known
PEERLESS OIL.
SIX GOLD MEDALS have been awarded it during the last three years. Try it also our PEERLESS AXLE GREASE for your Waggon and Horse Powers. Manufactured at Quebec City Oil Works, by SAMUEL ROGERS & CO., TORONTO.
For Sale by
YATES & ACHESON, Goderich.
Toronto, June 10th, 1885. 2022-17

Agricultural Implements.
C. H. GIRVIN,
Has gone into the Agricultural Implement business, and represents the following Houses—
HARRIS & SON, Brantford, BINDERS, MOWERS and REAPERS.
COCKSHUTT, Brantford, PLOWS, HAYLOADERS and SCUFFLERS.
MASSON MANUFACTURING CO., Oshawa, SEED DRILLS and LAWN MOWERS.
AGENT FOR Genuine New York Singer Sewing Machines,
1009-17
C. H. GIRVIN,
Hamilton street, a few doors below the Colborne Hotel.

Keep Your Feet Dry!
You can do this at a very trifling cost by buying your BOOTS & SHOES
AT THE STORE OF
E. D. DOWNING,
Crabb's Block.

Prices that Will Suit Everyone.
Ladies' Boots, in Button or Laced, from $1.00 to $5.00.
Misses and Children's Strong School Boots, from 75c. up.
Boys do., $1.00, up, all other Lines Proportionately Cheap.
I can and will suit you, both in goods and prices.
E. D. DOWNING,
Crabb's Block, Corner East street and Square.
N.B.—To the trade. Leather and findings in any quantity at Lowest Prices.

EASE AND SECURITY
This cut represents the double truss without the belt. Note the position of the D-shaped spring situated in the pads, by which a CONSTANT but easy INWARD and UPWARD pressure supports the hernia when the truss is adjusted.
GEORGE RHYNAS, - Druggist,
SOLE AGENT, GODERICH.
February 5th, 1885.

DANIEL GORDON,
CABINET MAKER AND LEADING UNDERTAKER.
It will pay you to buy your Furniture from the undersigned, as I have now as complete an assortment as there is in the county.
I do not adopt any cheap scheme of advertising a cheap specialty, but will sell you a genuine article at a price that cannot be surpassed (quality considered).
In the Undertaking I have stock suited for the poor as well as rich.
I have also added the process of Embalming, so that parties having to send bodies to friends at a distance can do so at reasonable cost.
DANIEL GORDON,
West street, Goderich, between the Post Office and Bank of Montreal.
Sept. 21th, 1885. 2014-3m

Extensive Premises and Splendid New Stock.
GEO. BARRY,
CABINET MAKER AND UNDERTAKER
Hamilton Street, Goderich
A good assortment of Kitchen, Bed-room, Dining Room and Parlor Furniture, such as Tables, Chairs, Bedsteads, Cupboards, Bedsteads, Mattresses, Washstands, Lounges, Sofas, and a great variety of other articles. Also, Hair and Bathing, so that parties having to send bodies to friends at a distance can do so at reasonable cost.
ART DESIGNS IN WALL PAPER
Now the time if you wish one or two nice rooms at home, to see Butler's
He has over
20,000 Rolls of the Latest Designs
Beautiful colors and at prices less than very much inferior goods. Call and see them. The are the best value in town, and must be sold.

The Latest Spring Bazaar Patterns & Fashions, AT BUTLER'S

It is stated the air. We doubt it seemed to us to take on a sort of Always Requi medicine. Nait point you.
Now that the been amended transmission of mail, a fellow of an excuse for a kiss a every time
13 "HACKM fragrant perfume For sale by J. W
The Rev Jos (door in the coltin his house, which to be alone. W so terribly annoy collectors.
Freeman's W sure and speedy children or adult
A Massachusetts one day that a He had his cony ed until Time's prit at his feet. came : Three n his customers a ever find out wh your till ? Th never have until was you, as I h that lost it." T to pay back the 16 A NABA) each bottle of 5 Price 50 cents. druggist.
A boy about 1 important with the lawyers, aft boy closely, said talking to you testify, hasn't boy. "Now, as how your f "Well," said th told me that th tangle me up, b fill and tell the same thing eve made no further ap" in his testi Young, old, i perience the w of Aye's Sarsa suffering from a head, or with a pain, may be n by its use.
"Vic's Vena) black kid glove clerk in a ato latest styles, as were produced. the clerk. "W only two days, were because t black kids ha versa. I see th ric serv. was I and Mrs Seawg J W Guppy writes : "Dr F is just this thin sold out my st mer. There s Dr Fowler's E is terrible. I Stomach and I
"Dinna Be incident in an cent volunteer night a sent number of pa all unconscious they tread stril short in his m change, and i "Who sees th comes a shri feat" soder woman, with : fronts the ast Pepi From the Dream of egg Dream of ans If you sing t fore supper. Dreaming of trouble. Finding a ho brings good luck. If you out ye do it "for She who tak will be a wife. If you canno husband will h If you split i with you mean if you are waie wanted.
If the roo weather will I will bring com
If the first pleasant, then day during th
If by any et placed upo of your own s
If your righ you; if your le over the coals
Returning t having one s unless you are
When, in f floor and stan man visitor; h
While at t and wet the c have a drunk If you're ri you are waie wanted.
If a baby s the death of l be a shier. I save his being Break a r also foretold dow; leaving hovering abo
If you see you see it fal Over the le right good lu
S Croup, chei immu Cure. Ex
Dr. Low as worms affi)

Fun and Fancy.

It is stated that mosquitoes purify the air. We doubt this. They have always seemed to us to cause the atmosphere to take on a sort of sulphurous aspect.

Always Required—A good cathartic medicine. National Pills will not disappoint you.

Now that the postal regulations have been amended so as to admit of the transmission of confections through the mails, a fellow's best girl hasn't a shadow of an excuse for neglecting to send him a kiss every time she writes.

13 "HACKMETACK," a lasting and fragrant perfume. Price 25 and 30 cts. For sale by J. Wilson, druggist.

The Rev. Jos Cook has a sliding trap-door in the ceiling of one of the rooms of his house, which he uses when he wants to be alone. We didn't suppose he was so terribly annoyed by the visits of bill collectors.

Freeman's Worm Powders are safe, sure and speedy to remove worms from children or adults.

A Massachusetts merchant found one day that his till had been robbed. He held his tongue, however, and waited until time's whittling tanned the culprit at his feet. This is how the culprit came: Three months afterward one of his customers said to him: "Did you ever find out who took the money out of your till?" The merchant replied: "I never have until now, but now I know it was you, as I have never told any one that lost it." The man was compelled to pay back the money.

16 A NASAL INJECTOR free with each bottle of Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy. Price 50 cents. For sale by J. Wilson, druggist.

A boy about twelve years old was the important witness in a lawsuit. One of the lawyers, after cross-questioning the boy closely, said, "Your father has been talking to you, and telling you how to testify, hasn't he?" "Yes," said the boy. "Now," said the lawyer, "just tell us how your father told you to testify."

"Well," said the boy, modestly, "father told me that the lawyers would try to tangle me up, but if I would just be careful and tell the truth, I could tell the same thing every time." The lawyer made no further effort to "tangle the boy up" in his testimony.

Young, old, and middle aged, all experience the wonderful beneficial effects of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Young children suffering from sore eyes, sore ears, scald head, or with any scrofulous or syphilitic taint, may be made healthy and strong by its use.

"VICE VERSA."—"Let me see some of those black kid gloves," said Mrs Snaggs to a clerk in a store. "These are not the latest styles, are they?" when the gloves were produced. "Yes, madam," replied the clerk. "We have had them in stock only two days." "I didn't think they were because the fashion paper says that black kids have tan stitches, and vice versa." The clerk explained that vice versa was Latin for seven buttons, and Mrs Snaggs bought the gloves.

Just the Thing. W J Guppy, druggist, of Newbury, writes: "Dr Fowler's Wild Strawberry is just the thing for Summer Sickness. I sold out my stock three times last summer. There was a good demand for it." Dr Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is invaluable for Dysentery, Colic, Sick Stomach and Bowel Complaint.

"DINNA BE FEAR'!"—The following incident is said to have occurred at a recent volunteer encampment. On a misty night a sentinel walked his allotted number of paces with martial steps, all unconscious of danger. But a stealthy tread strikes on his ear. He stops short in his march, brings his rifle to the charge, and in a stern voice demands—"Who goes there?" From out the gloom comes a shrill, calm voice—"Dinna be fear' sodger; 't's jist me!" as an old woman, with a basket over her arm, confronts the astonished warrior.

Popular Superstitions. From the Cleveland Plaindealer. Dream of eggs, sign of money. Dream of snakes, sign of enemies. If you sing before breakfast you'll cry before supper. Dreaming of muddy or rushing water brings trouble. Finding a horseshoe or a four-leaved clover brings good luck.

If you cut your nails or sneeze on Saturday you do it "for evil." She who takes the last stitch at a quilting will be the first to marry.

If you cannot make up a handsome bed your husband will have a homely nose. If you spill the salt some one will be "mad" with you unless you put some in the fire. Steep your right toe, you are going where you are wanted; your left, where you are not wanted.

If the rooster crows on the fence, the hen will be first if on the doorknob, he will bring company. If the first Sunday in the month is unpleasant, there will be but one pleasant Sunday during the month.

If by any chance a mourning hat or bonnet is placed upon your head, you will need one of your own soon. If your right ear burns, some one is praising you; if your left, your friends are raking you over the coals.

Returning to the house for a moment after having once started out will bring bad luck unless you sit down. When, in dropping a fork, it strikes the floor and stands upright, it will bring a gentleman visitor; if a knife, a lady.

While at the washboard, if the suds splash and wet the clothes you are wearing, you will have a drunken husband. If you drop your dishcloth you will have company; also if you sweep a black mark; or if two chairs stand accidentally back to back.

If a baby sees his face in the glass it will be the death of him. If his nails are cut he will be a thief. If he tumbles out of bed it will save his being a fool. Break a mirror, sign of death. Death is also foretold by a dog howling under a window; hearing a mourning dove, a strange dove hovering about, or dreaming of a white horse.

If you see the new moon through the glass you will have sorrow as long as it lasts. If you see it fair in the face you'll have a fall. Over the left shoulder bad luck—over the right good luck.

8 Group, Whooping Cough and Bronchitis immediately relieved by Shiloh's Cure. For sale by J. Wilson, Druggist. Dr. Low's Pleasant Worm Syrup is a safe and reliable worm remedy for all worms afflicting children or adults.

8 Shiloh's Cough and consumption Cure is sold by us as a guarantee. It cures Consumption. For sale by J. Wilson, Druggist.

Having Eighty Per Cent of Coal.

There has been of late so much alarm talk about the exhaustion of our coal fields that it is good news to learn that an inventor, Mr. R. M. Merchant, has at last perfected an engine in which the steam is returned to the boiler and, so to say, used over and over again. The saving in coal thus to be effected is calculated at 80 per cent. Besides saving coal, however, this invention will upset a few shovels of the engineering fraternity, who have always considered this problem as impossible as perpetual motion.

The Bishop Not There. From the London Truth. Several hundred children waiting to be confirmed while the bishop who has arranged to perform the ceremony is engaged in a state ceremonial six miles off is a sort of spectacle which the Church of England can ill afford at the present moment. I suppose some one blundered besides the Bishop of London when his lordship undertook at one and the same time to bestow his episcopal benediction on the Tower Bridge and hold a confirmation at Chelsea. But, with all respect for Dr. Temple, who in his day was a more respectable individual than the majority of his class, it is impossible to acquit him of blame for this scandalous occurrence. It is not much to expect of an important public personage that he should take the necessary steps to insure that exactly what engagements have been made for him.

Be Let the Bleeding Stand. From the New York Sun. A young man with loose-knit trousers and a mild blue eye was standing on the corner of Park-row and Beekman-street shortly after midnight. An old beggar with a red nose and flannel-dick came up to him. "Kind sir, I starve and am sleepless. Out of your bounty grant me two cents." The young man gave him a dime. The beggar said: "Noble gentleman. May your cup of happiness always be full and ever overflow on your kind. For your purse constantly be replenished. May you live long and have noble posterity."

He bowed low, and still holding the ten-cent piece in his palm, crossed over under the electric light, looked the dime over carefully, and then hit it to see if it was good. It was, and he did not recall his blessing.

To Develop Anticasts. From the Pall Mall Gazette. Within the next few months we are likely to hear a great deal about that hitherto hardly known province of Canada bearing the rather romantic name of Anticosti, for the owners of the island are in town and "organizing arrangements for its development." The Speaker of the Canadian House of Representatives, the Hon. George Kirkpatrick, is a firm believer in Anticosti as "a refuge for the destitute," provided they will work when they get out to the St. Lawrence, at the mouth of which the new emigration field is situated. July 1 I appear to be "the natal day of Canada," and this fact evidently stimulated those Canadian boys in London to sing the praises of Anticosti as a "refuge for the destitute" a la fourchette at the exhibition. Remembering the fate which befell Martin Chuzzlewit and a few thousand other would-be settlers in "the thriving city of Eden," one always does well to take the flowery descriptions of new places cum grano.

A Play in Three Acts. From the Century. A hotel at the seaside. Scene I. A partner for the lanciers, A smile, and "Come and call."

ACT II. A row upon the harbor. A stroll a-down the pier. A call on me next morning in town; Now won't you, that's a dear!

ACT III. A lofty brown-stone mansion. A richly furnished room. A servant girl who comes anon. And tells you: "Not at home."

Man and His Silver. Remember the story of the lad Hans in Luck, who, after having served his master seven years, was given as his wage a piece of silver as big as his head? He went away, carrying it along the road, and found it very heavy. Presently a man rode up on a capital horse.

"Ah," said Hans, aloud, "what a fine thing to ride a horse, instead of to be weighed down under a load of silver!"

"When the rider heard that, he drew rein and asked Hans if he would exchange the lump of silver for the horse? The lad agreed, gave up the metal and mounted the saddle. But Hans did not understand how to sit on a horse, and he was soon after thrown, near where a man was tending a cow. Then, dismounting with his horse, he exchanged the horse for the cow, after a while he grew tired of driving the cow, and exchanged her for a pig. Then he changed the pig for a goose, and then the goose for a grindingstone, which, when he was stopping at a pond to drink, rolled into the water and was lost. Thus he had foolishly wasted all the wages he had received."

The Lace Gown the Fashion. From the New York World. No woman's wardrobe will be complete this summer without a black lace gown, made up over either black or colored sash, red, yellow or lavender. The black, however, entwined with fine jet trimming, is pronounced by popular favor to be the better taste. The chintilla and Spanish net are used more than any other laces for this purpose, but there is a general ransacking through old trunks for the half-forgotten Honiton, Valenciennes, parrot, cow, ficus and mantilla of their mothers and grandmothers by the girls, and all of these resurrected treasures are made to do duty in the constructions of these handsome costumes, sometimes every piece of old family lace being skillfully combined in one gown. The style of these lace dresses depends largely upon the draping, and it is well for those making their own costumes to call in the aid of some modiste to do this part of the work for them, or they will be apt to feel discontented with the general effect of the dress when finished. It needs the practiced touch of a professional to give it the proper style. One black gown is worth three others in the point of usefulness: as it were, and carrying off captive most of the eligible titles, and they attribute its success in the matrimonial way to a superior talent Americans have for intrigue. American maids and widows have figured so largely in society, in the newspapers and in romance in England and France of late years, that they have grown to be looked upon with a jealous eye by the women of those countries, who cordially hate what they term their bold clever tricks and their loud manners.

A Fashionable Bathing Suit. From the Boston Courier. Young Lady—Are you going shopping ma? Mother—Yes, my darling. Y. L.—Will you bring me a quarter of a yard of navy blue serge? M.—Certainly. Do you want it to patch? Y. L.—No. I want it for a bathing suit, and please bring me twenty-five yards of trimming for a suit and the navy blue serge for the trimming.

Do not delay, if suffering any form of Bowel Complaint however mild apparently may be the attack, but see Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. It is the old, reliable cure for all forms of Summer Complaints that require prompt treatment. Ask your druggist and all dealers in patent medicines.

Have you ever tried McGregor & Park's Carbolic Cerate for sores of any kind? It is beyond doubt the very best preparation in the market for healing and curing Sores, Burns, Burns, Cuts, Pimples, Blisters, and is the only proper method of applying Carbolic Acid. Sold at G. Rhyans' drug store for 25c per box.

12 SHILOH'S CATARRH REMEDY—a positive cure for Catarrh, Dysentery and Canker Mouth. For sale by J. Wilson, druggist.

14 SHILOH'S CURE will immediately relieve Croup, Whooping Cough and Bronchitis. For sale by Jas. Wilson, druggist.

Seeing is believing. Read the testimonials in the pamphlet on Dr. Van Buren's Kidney Cure, then buy a bottle and relieve yourself of all those distressing pains. Your Druggist can tell you all about it. Sold by J. Wilson, Goderich 2m.

Advertisement for BRISTOL'S PILLS, featuring an illustration of a person and text describing the medicine's benefits for various ailments.

Advertisement for PERRY DAVIS' PAIN-KILLER, including a list of ailments it treats and a testimonial from a physician.

Advertisement for CAMPBELL'S CATHARTIC COMPOUND, describing its effectiveness for various digestive and circulatory issues.

Advertisement for CAMPBELL'S TONIC ELIXIR, highlighting its benefits for weakness, nervousness, and general health.

Advertisement for REMOVAL JOHN BROPHY BEDROOM SETS, featuring a list of furniture items and contact information.

Advertisement for Toronto Cash Store, highlighting new styles and patterns of clothing and goods.

Advertisement for MISS WILKINSON, showcasing the latest French and American styles in hats and bonnets.

Advertisement for GEO. H. BROWN, PHARMACEUTICAL CHEMIST, listing various pharmaceutical products and services.

Advertisement for Spring Millinery, featuring Mrs. Salkeld and her collection of millinery styles.

Advertisement for Goderich Foundry and Machine Works, listing various industrial services and machinery.

Advertisement for DRY-GOODS and Groceries, featuring a list of products and contact information.

Advertisement for GEORGE ACHESON, THE RED, WHITE AND BLUE, featuring a list of products and contact information.

Advertisement for HIGGINS' EUREKA SALT, highlighting its purity and use in dairy products.

Advertisement for Oakland's Jersey Dairy, featuring fresh butter and cheese products.

Advertisement for C.A. NAIRN, showcasing a wide variety of groceries and fresh produce.

Advertisement for China and Glassware, featuring a variety of household and decorative items.

Advertisement for The People's Livery, featuring horse-drawn carriage services.

Advertisement for SEED ANNUAL, featuring a variety of seeds and agricultural products.

Advertisement for HAYWARDS' YELLOW OIL, highlighting its effectiveness for rheumatism and other ailments.

Advertisement for FREEMAN'S WORM POWDERS, featuring a safe and effective remedy for worm infestations.

Advertisement for FRESHERS Well-known LESS OIL, featuring a list of products and contact information.

Advertisement for TORONTO, Goderich, featuring a list of products and contact information.

Advertisement for Ring Machines, featuring a list of products and contact information.

Advertisement for et Dry! HOES ING, featuring a list of products and contact information.

Advertisement for Everyone, featuring a list of products and contact information.

Advertisement for DRUGGIST, featuring a list of products and contact information.

Advertisement for KER, featuring a list of products and contact information.

Advertisement for ALL PAPER, featuring a list of products and contact information.

NEW YORK LETTER.

Sunday Morning in Printing House Square.

Sights seen in the Heart of Gotham on the Sabbath from 3 a.m. to 3 p.m.

From Our Own Correspondent.

As these hours are generally the extremes when in summer it is most cool and the most warm, so it is that you may observe in this city that never sleep together, the quietest and then the busiest places.

ICE CREAM AND WHISKEY have accomplished what the latter unaided was never known to do before; and Denis for the first time since he left Trinity college and came to America is flat on his back.

THE FIGURE OF GREELY below reminds me of the early years in the country when everybody seemed to quote him exhorting me to "Go West."

BUNDLES OF NEWSPAPERS come flying up out of the place whereon I had lately stood when the bang of the doors being thrown open from beneath startled me.

ALL THE STILLNESS that centuries to come will ever know in this place, prevails. One scarcely notices the crier, nor the newboy, nor the whistling young blade with tight trousers and a cane, who must perforce walk home because his bath has been at a discount somewhere for the last six or seven hours.

A NEW SORT OF LIGHT seems to produce the pure light that fast times the whole square with a copper glow. In your corner of a deep doorway the day has proven too much for the homeless creature who, staggering from stiffness in his limbs has risen to seek some open spot in which to sleep and forget the pangs of hunger, or a third he cannot quench with water.

BELLS OF CHURCHES far and near summon since half past five the devout to early masses and communions. Poorly clad women seem to be in the majority of those seeking their spiritual food ere they partake of the grosser elements, and one can note in the pinched faces and thin fingers that so tightly clasp the prayer book, the story of widowhood and subsequent scrubbing and other hard mollings for scanty fare.

PROFESSIONAL ETIQUETTE requires the sharing of such prize money among their set. After breakfast the hours go swiftly by, as do the crowds of well-dressed folk who pour over the great bridge from Brooklyn, and melt away in all directions.

THE ABUTMENTS of the new bridge, were completed last week, and all is now ready for the iron work. Mr Mahaffy has two coopers busily engaged in making apple barrels.

two p.m. the newspapers must be sold, as no cry disturbs the quiet of the square. All the available funds for pitch and toss are either lost or won, for the ragged crowd on the city hall steps are gone, and

THE POLICEMAN is looking out from a first story window, from behind a curtain, while the elegantly furnished parlor is redolent with cognac, and tears stand in the eyes of the officer of the law.

A SPLENDID BOOK. "Gladstone-Parnell and the Great Irish Struggle."

R. N. Brett, a respected citizen of Seaford, is now in town canvassing for one of the most interesting books of the year. The work is thus described by the London Catholic Record:—

"It is with great satisfaction that we welcome to our table the above work from the pen of the Hon. T. P. O'Connor, M. P. for Liverpool, published by J. S. Robertson & Bros., Toronto and London. Coming at a time when the great question of Home Rule is still undecided, it must prove an important factor in educating the people of Canada as well as those of England on this great and agitating question.

Under the Management of JOHN TEMPLETON. Original Cost. Grand Scenery. Real Japanese Costumes.

GRAND FAREWELL TOUR OF CANADA. RESERVED SEATS, 75c. GENERAL ADMISSION, 50c. GALLERY, 35c.

COTTON BAGS $2.25 & $2.50 Doz. GRANULATED SUGAR! FOR TWO WEEKS ONLY. 14 1/2 lbs. FOR ONE DOLLAR 14 1/2.

XXX Pickling Vinegar 25 CTS. A GALLON. Good Value in Tea. C. CRABB. Goderich, Aug. 26th, 1886.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS. Sealed Tenders addressed to the undersigned, and endorsed, "Tenders for the Masonry and Bricklayers' Works, etc. of Parliament Building," will be received at this Department until twelve of the clock, noon, on Thursday, the second day of September next, for the excavating and the masonry and bricklayers' works, labor and material, and certain other works, etc., in connection therewith required for and in the erection and construction of the proposed new Parliament and Departmental Buildings for the Province of Ontario.

Port Albert. T. P. Young and T. R. Hawkins, have each returned to their respective schools in Kevelin and Lunan. Miss G. McGregor has returned to her post here. Millie Scott and Lena Hawkins of this village, each passed successful examinations at the late entrance to the Goderich High School. Well done No. 1.

Mr Mahaffy treated some of his friends on Tuesday last to an excursion trip on the Enterprise. The abutments of the new bridge, were completed last week, and all is now ready for the iron work. Mr Mahaffy has two coopers busily engaged in making apple barrels.

Dunlop. Early on Saturday morning an attempt was made to fire one of the sheds in Neibergall's mill. Mr. Shaw noticed a bright light in the direction of the mill, and observing the figure of a man running away. With the assistance of another neighbor the flames were subdued, although the mischief was done. Had the pile of edgings and the shed taken fire, the whole mill would have gone, too. The incendiary is at present unknown.

The Goderich band gave our burg a moonlight visit one day last week, and serenaded Reeve Allen, of Garbraid. The musicians were well cared for by serenaded.

Mrs. H. Dodd, wife of a gentleman, has been starting a story to the effect that Mr. Henry Dodd had his horses seized for debt by J. Gentles, of Kincaidine, under a chattel mortgage held by Ira J. Fisher, of that town. Mr. Dodd deems us to say that the report is a malicious falsehood.

VICTORIA HALL, GODERICH. One Night Only. Engagement Extraordinary. Tues'dy, Aug. 31. THE ORIGINAL MIKADO.

Call and See Them "THE SIGNAL" CHEAP PRINTING OFFICE. Goderich, Aug. 26th, 1886.

"Wirt" Fountain Pen. EVERY PEN GUARANTEED. Price, - $3.00. THOS. MCGILLICUDDY, Agent.

THE WHITE BROTHERS ARE COMING TO Goderich, Sept. 2nd. IMPERIAL MINERAL WATERS! SODA WATER, SELTZER WATER, VICHY WATER, SPARKLING VESTA, GINGER ALE.

THE SPARKLING VESTA is a natural mineral water from the Waukesha Spring, Wisconsin, charged and bottled by the company. The following analysis shows the quantity of solid matter in a wine gallon: Chloride of Sodium 0.279 Sulphate 0.877 Bicarbonate of Soda 1.210 Bicarbonate of Lime 0.800 Bicarbonate of Magnesia 1.524 Silica 1.024

THE SPARKLING VESTA is the best Water for daily use that there is in the world. It is entirely free from impure matter; it keeps pure and sweet in any climate; there being nothing in it to decompose or be affected by warm weather.

These goods can be obtained only of GEO. B. COX, British Exchange Hotel, Goderich, Aug. 19th, 1886.

Envelopes! We have just received a large stock of WHITE Business Envelopes OF GOOD QUALITY.

WHICH WE WILL DISPOSE OF AT THE FOLLOWING LOW PRICES: A Good No. 7 Envelope at 80c. per M., or 2c. a pk'ge

A Good No. 8 Envelope at $1.10 per M., or 3c. a pk. A Good No. 7 Envelope at $1.25 per M., or 4c. a pk. A Good No. 7 Envelope at $1.75 per M., or 5c. a pk.

These Envelopes are all of First-Class Quality, and are suitable for Bankers, Law, and Business Men.

Call and See Them "THE SIGNAL" CHEAP PRINTING OFFICE. Goderich, Aug. 26th, 1886.

THE SPARKLING VESTA is a natural mineral water from the Waukesha Spring, Wisconsin, charged and bottled by the company. The following analysis shows the quantity of solid matter in a wine gallon: Chloride of Sodium 0.279 Sulphate 0.877 Bicarbonate of Soda 1.210 Bicarbonate of Lime 0.800 Bicarbonate of Magnesia 1.524 Silica 1.024

THE SPARKLING VESTA is the best Water for daily use that there is in the world. It is entirely free from impure matter; it keeps pure and sweet in any climate; there being nothing in it to decompose or be affected by warm weather.

These goods can be obtained only of GEO. B. COX, British Exchange Hotel, Goderich, Aug. 19th, 1886.

New Dress Goods! OPENED TO-DAY AT J. C. DETLOR & Co's Goderich, Aug. 26th, 1886.

WHY PAY SO MUCH FOR MUSIC LESSONS GIVEN ON PIANO OR ORGAN. When you get it at Half the usual prices at CLARKE'S Any piece not on hand can be procured in a few days.

Prof. CLARKE, Goderich, Aug. 12th, 1886. THIS SPACE BELONGS TO

J. DOWNING & Co LOOK OUT FOR THE NEW ADVERTISEMENT NEXT WEEK.

CORD WOOD. Persons wishing good cord wood at the lowest prices can have the same promptly supplied by leaving their orders at: GEO. OLD'S STORE.

XAVIER BAECHELER. LOVELL'S Gazetteer & History OF THE DOMINION OF CANADA.

Table with columns: No., Street or Survey, Quantity, Taxes, Costs, Total. Includes entries for Wilson's Survey, Read's Survey, and Park & Marwood's Survey.

W. L. HORTON, Treasurer of Goderich. GODERICH, AUG. 11th, 1886.

DON'T BUY Slop Work! WHEN YOU CAN GET FIRST-CLASS TINWARE.

Western Fair INDUSTRIAL & ART EXHIBITION LONDON, CAN., Sept. 27th to Oct. 2nd, 1886. Liberal Premiums. COMPETITION OPEN TO THE WORLD.

THE HURON is published every Friday morning...

Another A. This week THE HURON is published every Friday morning...

On the Temperance certain sound has been heard in the columns of THE SIGNAL in this regard has been the good will of the...

THE EDITORIAL colour have been controlled the editors, and in has in any instance its utterances have untrammelled, and vigorous, has been...

Year, in the pro SIGNAL, looking on full issue. The old difficulties have to be made; but rest of our course, the honest of our continued support public, we again ent courageously, confid

THE TORONTO I that "comparis Occasionally we are considered as