Strikers Make Another Demonstration at Manitoba Parliament Buildings LITTLE SIGN OF SETTLEMENT IN THE TORONTO STRIKE SITUATION

WINNIPEG STRIKERS PAY ANOTHER VISIT TO GOVERNMENT

Make Demands Upon Premier Norris and Ask for His Resignation—Want Laws
Making Collective Bargaining Compulsory.

Winnipeg, June 2.—Hundreds of strike sympathizers and strikers, parading the downtown streets, today presented a sign placed by the citizens' committee from the board of trade building. Policemen and detectives prevented the crowd from forcing its way into the building.

After speakers in the crowd demanded Premier Norris' resignation, on the ground of incompetency to deal with the strike situation, other speakers demanded that Norris and his cabinet arrange for a special session of the provincial legislature to pass laws making collective bargaining compulsory.

The parade then marched across the Red River to St. Boniface, to deliver the mayor and city council, some of the city employees of St. Boniface have been on strike.

Mail service to and from Winnipeg is again close to normal, announced postmaster P. C. McIntyre today and he added that more than 200 employees have been secured permanently to take the places of clerks and other handlers who went on strike.

Postal wickets were open, collections were made and incoming mail was being cleared to the postoffice, it was announced. A few of the commercial telegraphers who have been on strike since the 25th of May, returned to work today.

MOTORISTS ASKED TO CARRY PATIENTS

Thru the kindness of the management of the John Robinson Circus, the Sportsmen's Patriotic Association are arranging for the patients of the various military hospitals and the inmates of all the hospitals, homes, etc. to attend a free performance on Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock. A transportation committee has been appointed, and owners of motor cars willing to assist conveying the soldiers, old people and children to Dufferin street park are kindly asked to phone Mr. J. J. Norris, chairman of the transportation committee, Shea's Theatre, giving capacity of car, telephone number. The cars will be required at 9 a.m. and at the conclusion of the performance.

A Different Law for Women!

Josephat: The two matrons, out of deference to an licensed public opinion, have resigned.
The People's Church: What about the two men appointments higher up?
Joe: The rule of fifty-fifty covers all such indiscretions.

Settle the Strike Questions in Parliament.

The collapse of the "general strike" must be close at hand, but neither side can emerge from it beaten. The underlying forces of revolt will remain. This radical movement in Canadian labor is really a symptom. Senator Robertson's declaration that the Winnipeg promoters of the "one big union" sit in the ashes of their own folly is perhaps an uncommon bit of description. But it is scarcely comprehensive. The revolt of labor in the form we are witnessing was bound to fall from the start because surely labor must arise in the world's life from human aspiration to justice rather than thru economic claim to increasing recognition as a factor in production.

Suppression of the Bolsheviks and the I.W.W.; the attempted separation of socialists and organized labor into distinct camps; the prosecution of all distributors of the varied literature of modern discontent, all these processes of authority may operate to some extent in bringing about the collapse of the strike. But the cause of the strike should not be left in a misunderstanding.

ARBITRATION RUMOR DENIED BY LABOR

Marine Trades Federation Alone Seek to Negotiate, While Metal Trades Council Stands Firm—Boot and Shoe Workers May Break Agreements.

President R. C. Brown of the Metal Trades Council, several members of the committee, who were at Ottawa, and other labor men were at the city hall yesterday afternoon, and it was reported that Mayor Church would make another effort to get the opposing parties together to effect a settlement.

It was understood that his workshop was going to get into touch with employers to ascertain whether they would negotiate. At the mayor's invitation a committee of the men on strike at the Dominion Shipbuilding Company were present at the city hall.

The government, the city and the harbor commission are greatly interested in this industry. The first thing we know orders may be withdrawn and the yards may be closed down.

AUSTRIANS HEAR TERMS IN HISTORIC PALACE CEREMONY WAS BRIEF

Clemenceau Presents Them in Three-Minute Speech—In Reply Austrian Chancellor Expresses Thanks for Food Relief and Asks for Peace of Right and Justice.

St. Germain, June 2.—The representatives of the vanquished Austrian nation met the victors at today's ceremony in the fifteenth century castle of St. Germain to appeal for grace, and just and kindly treatment. No trace of the arrogant spirit, with which Count Von Brockdorff-Rantzau, head of the German delegation, attempted at Versailles to arraign the allied powers as jointly responsible for the war, and demanded participation in the negotiations on equal terms, marked the speech of Dr. Karl Renner, the Austrian chancellor, who replied to Georges Clemenceau, the president of the conference.

BOMB OUTRAGES IN UNITED STATES

Attempt on Life of Attorney-General and Explosions in Other Cities.

Washington, June 2.—Radical agitators tonight apparently attempted to inaugurate another reign of terrorism thruout the country thru the planting of infernal machines near the residences of prominent men.

In all cases except Paterson and Philadelphia the bomb attempts were directed against the lives of public officials. In Paterson the home of a silk manufacturer was wrecked, while in Philadelphia, where two explosions occurred, attempts were made to blow up a Catholic church and a private residence.

The similarity of the reports received from the various cities recalled to authorities the May Day bomb plot of a month ago.

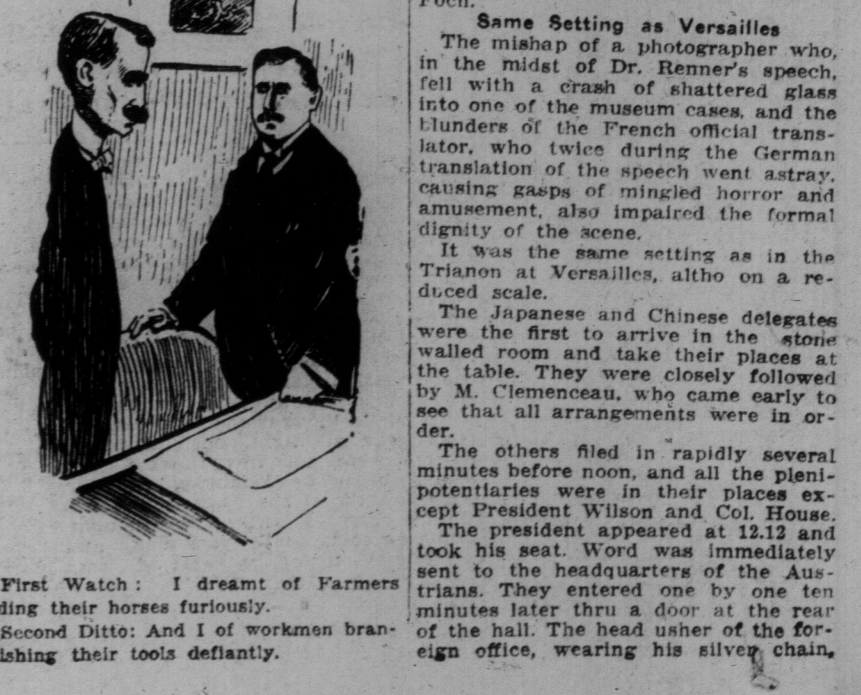

An empty suit case found near the entrance, and a handbill signed the "anarchistic fighters," printed on red paper, worded in inflammatory fashion, and serving notice of intent of its authors to begin general war on leaders of society, was the only clue available at a late hour tonight.

Disturbed!

The mishap of a photographer who fell with a crash of shattered glass into one of the museum cases, and the blunders of the French official translator, who twice during the German translation of the speech went astray, causing gasps of mingled horror and amusement, also impaired the formal dignity of the scene.

The Japanese and Chinese delegates were the first to arrive in the straw-walled room and take their places at the table. They were closely followed by Mr. Clemenceau, who came early to see that all arrangements were in order.

The others filed in rapidly several minutes before noon, and all the plenipotentiaries were in their places except President Wilson and Col. House. The president appeared at 12.12 and took his seat. Word was immediately sent to the headquarters of the Austrians. They entered one by one ten minutes later thru a door at the rear of the hall. The head usher of the foreign office, wearing his silver chain,

First Watch: I dreamt of Farmers riding their horses furiously.
Second Ditto: And I of workman brandishing their tools defiantly.

TUESDAY MORNING JUNE 3 1919

announced the appearance of the Austrian plenipotentiaries.

Given Fifteen Days.

Dr. Renner was calm and assured as he entered his own house. He said directly to his seat and motioned his colleagues to their places. The entire assemblage, which had risen upon the entry of the Austrian plenipotentiaries, M. Clemenceau alone remained standing, and with scarcely an instant's pause the session started.

sitting, Hon. Arthur Meighen, who represents the House of Commons, and Mr. Robert Borden, premier, and Mr. Charles G.W.V.A. secretary, who had been largely broken.

What Premier Says. Mr. Borden, who is an ardent supporter of the government, suggested the establishment of a labor court on the lines of the supreme court, on which the provinces would have representation.

Committee on Trade Unions. The government has repeatedly consulted employers and employees in industrial matters, and he believed that in no other part of the world, industrial problems were more acute.

that the great issue will be settled for good and all. For, mark my words, no matter how well we are championed or how little in this fight for a grand principle, we shall not trade, will fight to the last ditch, and I cannot too often remind you that we are well-backed financially.

Did Not Agree. Mr. Cribben, a trades unionist on long standing, expressed himself as entirely sympathetic with the eight-hour movement, but did not believe it should be fought on one's throat.

BASEBALL NEWS

Binghamton Take Last Game of Series---6-5

Both Peterson and Martin Were Touched Up Freely--Several Near Scraps Made the Game More Interesting.

WITH a double defeat against them, Binghamton were quite determined to take the last game of the series away from the Leafs, and their efforts were not in vain. The Leafs strained every effort also to capture the game, so to remain on top, and if they'd had the breaks the result might have been reversed.

Purtell was still out of the game, and McInnis continued at short.

HOW THE RUNS WERE SCORED

The second innings was disastrous for Toronto. Three runs were scored on a sacrifice fly. With the bases filled, O'Rourke hit a sacrifice fly to Holden, who threw to Gonzales. The ball hit the runner and rolled toward the stand. McInnis recovered it and threw wild to the plate.

Two more runs were scored in this innings by safe bingles, making 5 runs in all--a great advantage for the visitors.

In the third innings, despite his injury, McInnis made a fine barehand stop of Riley's single to deep short.

Anderson made a good play in the third also, when he made a jumping catch of Smith's drive, and doubled Shannon off first.

In the seventh Toronto had a golden opportunity to tie up the game. Gonzales singled, Breckenridge beat out a pretty bunt. Whitman sacrificed, and Onslow walked, filling the sacks. McInnis popped out. Holden brought the fans to their feet with a sizzling line drive to right centre, bringing in two runners. Onslow tried hard to be the third, but was caught at the plate for the third out.

In the ninth, with "Bugs" on the line, Gonzales on first, and Whitey up--what a combination--yet it failed to break the lock, and the Binges still maintained the lead rained early in the day. Gonzales stole second. Whitey made a powerful drive to right field, which Shutte safely straddled close to the bleacher fence. Onslow had the opportunity of tying up the game, but failed in the pinch by striking out.

The loss of this game puts Toronto out of first place, but they should soon regain the leadership if they continue to perform like they have been for the past two weeks.

Buffalo is here today for a series, and Manager Gibson is confident his boys can capture every game from the Binges.

Sandberg's work at the plate these days deserves special mention. He plays hard and fast in every game and does some useful backing up at first and third. Sandberg is a heavy, quick-thinking player, with all kinds of ability as a hitter, and is a most valuable asset to the Leafs' aggregation.

BISHOP RELATES MORMON'S HISTORY

Newsboy Baker Missionary Bishop Gives Evidence in His Own Behalf.

BEGAN TO DOUBT

When He Heard Joseph Smith Elder Practised Polygamy.

The same crowd which has followed the case in the law court room... appeared at Osgoode Hall yesterday... to hear the resumption of the action instigated by Bishop McGuire of Independence Mo.

The change from the commodious courtroom to the restricted space at Osgoode Hall was anything but refreshing... and many of the cases' fair auditors sat outside and chatted.

Witness recounted the killing of Joseph Smith, the elder, and his brother Hiram at Carthage, Mo., in 1844. Smith was under arrest on charges of treason, and he lost his life when a mob stormed the jail.

Witness reviewed the history and doctrine of the Mormon and the Latter Day Saints Church. One of the cardinal points of the Latter Day Saints doctrine was that Christ, on his second coming would come to Independence, Mo.

Witness recounted the killing of Joseph Smith, the elder, and his brother Hiram at Carthage, Mo., in 1844. Smith was under arrest on charges of treason, and he lost his life when a mob stormed the jail.

Witness said he had practised polygamy. The Mormons had, however, professed to abandon the practice some years ago, but they refused to give up what was known as the 'Book of Mormon' which had been present at Joseph Smith's house a few years ago, and saw there six of his wives and 46 children.

Bishop Evans stated that he had no connection with the funds of the Sunday school or the Zion religion.

PREACHER THINKS VICTORY UNPROVED

Why Rev. H. A. Berlis Did Not Preach on Jutland Battle.

Preaching before a large congregation on Sunday morning at the Rhodes avenue Presbyterian church, the Rev. H. A. Berlis said: "While the country is shamed with strikes and rumors of strikes, I deem it out of place to accede to the request of the mayor to dwell upon the subject of the battle of Jutland."

Asked yesterday for an explanation for his statement, the reverend gentleman said that he considered such a sermon would be out of place at the present time, and he thought the sermon he preached on the industrial unrest more to the present-day issues. The country at present was full of industrial unrest, and he considered Canada's labor problem a much more important subject for discussion than the battle of Jutland.

He is survived by his widow, formerly Miss Clementina Martin, eldest daughter of Rev. George Maynard, M.A., and six sons and two daughters. These are William, John C., George M., Matthew, Laurence E., and Edward K. M., Mrs. H. J. Webster and Mrs. Arthur Soodon.

SUMMARY OF TEXT OF AUSTRIAN TREATY

Identical With That of Germany in Many of Its Essentials.

SURRENDER WARSHIPS

Must Renounce All Title, Rights to Territory to the Allies.

Ottawa, June 2.—The following is a summary of the text of the Austrian treaty terms received here by the government and issued to the Canadian press:

London, June 1, 1919.—The conditions of peace of the allied and associated powers, with the exception of the military reparations, financial and certain boundary clauses, were handed to the Austrian plenipotentiaries at St. Germain today. Those clauses which are not ready for presentation will be delivered as soon as possible. The Austrians in the meanwhile have the opportunity to begin work on the greater part of the treaty in an effort to facilitate a final decision.

The Austrian treaty follows exactly the same outline as the German, and in many places is identical with it except for the change in name. Certain specific clauses which applied to Germany are, of course, omitted, and certain new clauses of particular applicability to Austria are included, especially as regards the new states created out of the former Austro-Hungarian empire. Austria is left by the treaty a state of about six millions of people inhabiting a territory of between fifty thousand and one thousand square miles. She renounces the complete independence of Hungary, Czechoslovakia and the Serbo-Croat-Slovene state, and the former territories which previously, in union with her, composed the empire of Austria-Hungary with its population of over 30 millions and its area of 250,000 square miles.

Accept League Covenant.

Austria agreed to accept the league of nations covenant and the labor charter to renounce all her European rights, to demobilize her whole naval and aerial forces, to admit the right of trial by the allied and associated powers of her nationals guilty of violating the laws and customs of war, and to accept detailed provisions similar to those in the German treaty as to economic conditions and freedom of transit.

In the following summary of the league of nations and part twelve containing the labor convention, are identical with those in the German treaty, and are therefore omitted. Part six dealing with prisoners of war and graves and part ten with aerial navigation are identical with the substitution of "Austria" for "Germany" and "German" and are also omitted. Similarly part thirteen of the German treaty containing guarantees of execution is not included in the Austrian treaty.

Part Two.

The frontiers of Austria.—The northern frontier facing Czechoslovakia follows the existing administrative boundaries formerly separating the provinces of Bohemia and Moravia from those of upper and lower Austria subject to certain minor rectifications, notably in the regions of Brund and Faldsburg, and along the river Motava. The southern frontier facing Italy, and the Serbo-Croat-Slovene state is to be defined by the principal allied and associated powers at a later date. In the eastern part, the line passing just east of Esitzburg crosses the Drave, and above its confluence with the Lavanti, and thence will pass north of the Drave so to leave to the Serbo-Croat-Slovene state Eaburg and Radersburg, just to the north of which latter place will join the Hungarian frontier. The eastern and northeastern frontiers facing Bavaria, the western frontier facing Switzerland, and the eastern frontier facing Hungary, remain unchanged.

Political Clauses

Europe.—The high contracting parties recognize and accept as follows: Bulgaria, Greece, Hungary, Poland, Rumania, the Serbo-Croat-Slovene state and the Czechoslovak state as at present or as ultimately determined. Austria renounces in favor of the principal allied and associated powers all her rights and titles over territories formerly belonging to her which outside the new frontiers of Austria have not at present been assigned to any state undertaking to accept the settlement to be made in regard to these territories.

The Serbo-Croat-Slovene State

Austria renounces the complete independence of the Serbo-Croat-Slovene state including the autonomous territory south of the Carpathians in conformity with the action already taken by the allied and associated powers. The exact boundary between Austria and the new state is to be fixed by a field commission of seven members, five nominated by the principal allied and associated powers and one each by Austria and Czechoslovakia. Austria and Czechoslovakia agree to embody in a treaty with the principal allied and associated powers such provisions as may be deemed necessary to protect racial, religious or linguistic minorities and to assure freedom of transit and equitable treatment for the commerce of other nations.

The Serbo-Croat-Slovene State

Austria similarly renounces the complete independence of the Serbo-Croat-Slovene state and renounces her rights and titles, and renounces the question of the insertion of a pointed field commission including a member nominated by the Serbo-Croat-Slovene state to fix the exact boundary. The question of Klagenfurt is reserved. The Serbo-Croat-Slovene state agrees to a similar treaty for the protection of minorities and freedom of transit.

Rumania

Rumania agrees to a similar treaty for the protection of minorities and freedom of transit.

Russia

Austria is to recognize and respect the full independence of all the territories which formed part of the former Russian empire. She is to accept immediately the annulment of the Brest-Litovsk treaty and all treaties or agreements of all kinds concluded since the revolution of November, 1917, with all governments or political groups on territory of the former Russian empire. The allies reserve all rights on the part of Russia for restoration and satisfaction to be obtained from Austria on the principles of the present treaty.

General Arrangements.

Austria is to consent to the abrogation of the treaties of 1819, by which Belgium was established as a neutral state, and her frontiers fixed, and to accept in advance any convention with which the allies may determine to replace them. Austria adheres to the abrogation of the neutrality of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, and accepts in advance all international agreements to be reached which the allied and associated powers. Austria accepts all arrangements which the allied and associated powers make with Turkey and Bulgaria with reference to any rights, privileges or interest claimed in those countries by Austria or her nationals and not dealt with elsewhere. Austria accepts all arrangements with the allied and associated powers concerning the territories whose abandonment was imposed upon Denmark by the treaty of 1864.

Protection of Minorities

In a series of special clauses, Austria undertakes to bring her institutions into conformity with the principles of liberty and justice, and to acknowledge that the obligations for the protection of minorities are matters of international concern, over which the league of nations has jurisdiction. She assures complete protection of life and liberty to all inhabitants of Austria without distinction of birth, nationality, language, race or religion, together with the right to the free exercise of any creed. All Austrian nationals without distinction of race, language or religion, are to be equal before the law. No restrictions are to be imposed on the free use of any language in private or public, and reasonable facilities are to be given Austrian nationals of non-German speech for the use of their language before the courts. Austrian nationals belonging to racial, religious or linguistic minorities are to enjoy the same protection as other Austrian nationals, in particular with regard to schools and other educational establishments, and in districts where a considerable proportion of Austrian nationals of other than German speech are resident, facilities are to be given in schools for the instruction of children in their own language, and an equitable share of public funds is to be provided for the maintenance of such schools. No preclude the Austrian government from making the teaching of German obligatory. They are to be embodied in Austria in her domestic laws and regulations and to be enforced regarding them are to be under the protection of the league of nations.

Part Four.

Austrian rights outside Europe.—Austria renounces all rights, titles and privileges as to her own or her allies territories to all the allied and associated powers and undertakes to accept whatever measures are taken by the principal allied powers in relation thereto. The clauses as to Egypt, Morocco, China and Siam are identical after the necessary modifications with those of the German treaty, except that especially in the case of China, there is not need for so great details.

Part Five.

Military, naval and air clauses.—The military clauses are reserved. Naval.—All Austro-Hungarian warships, submarines, and vessels of the Danube flotilla are to be finally surrendered to the principal allied and associated powers.

Part Six.

Twenty-one specified auxiliary cruisers are to be disarmed and treated as merchant ships. All warships and submarines under construction in ports which belong to her have belonged to Austria-Hungary shall be broken up, the salvage not to be used except for industrial purposes, and not to be sold to foreign countries. The construction of a new submarine even for commercial purposes is forbidden. All naval arms, ammunition and other war material belonging to Austria-Hungary at the date of the armistice shall be surrendered to the allies.

Part Seven.

Wireless station at Vienna is not to be used for naval, military, or political messages relating to Austria or her late allies without the assent of the allied and associated governments during three months, but only for commercial purposes under supervision. During the same period Austria is not to build any more high-power wireless stations.

Air clauses.

The air clauses are practically the same as in the German treaty, except for the 100 seaplanes and their personnel which Germany is allowed to retain till October 1, 1919, for search for mines. General.—Austria agrees not to credit or send any military, naval, or air mission to any foreign country, nor to allow Austrian nationals to enlist in the army, navy, or air service of any foreign power.

Part Eight.

On penalties is identical with the German treaty, except the omission of any provision similar to that calling for the trial of the ex-Emperor of Germany.

Part Nine.

The financial clauses are reserved.

Economic Clauses

Part ten.—Economic clauses are exempt in certain details, such as shipping, similar to those of the German treaty. Special provisions are added, however, for former Austro-Hungarian nationals acquiring an allied nationality similar to those in the German treaty relating to the inhabitants of Alsace-Lorraine. Their contracts are maintained subject to cancellation by their governments. Austria undertakes to recognize any agreement or convention made by the allies to safeguard the interests of their nationals in any undertakings constituted under Austro-Hungarian law which operates in territories detached from Austria and to transfer any necessary documents and information in regard to them.

Freedom of Transit

The clauses of freedom of transit are the same in the Austrian as in the German treaty, except for the omission of provisions affecting Germany alone and the insertion of specific clauses granting Austrian transit privileges thru former Austria-Hungarian territory in order to assure her access to the Adriatic.

Part Fourteen.

Miscellaneous provisions are, after necessary substitutions, virtually identical with those of the German treaty.

The treaty is to come into force when signed by Austria and the three principal powers, and to be effective for the individual states on the deposit of their specific ratifications. Note.—In paragraph three, the area

Change Attitude to Convince Public of Non-Radical Sentiments.

STILL PRESS DEMANDS If City Does Not Decide Justly, Will Take Firmer Stand.

Better counsels prevailed among the firemen yesterday, and the ultimatum to the city, threatening to strike Tuesday, pending the action of the council was withdrawn. This information was placed before the board of control by W. L. Moodie, and George Allan, representing the Fire Fighters' Union. The changed attitude was in view of the present conditions and from a desire to show the public the firemen were not in any way associated with the radical element in the Trades and Labor Council. It was made clear, however, that the firemen still pressed their demands, and if the council did not decide justly the ultimatum would be handed to the city again.

Not Yet Prepared.

Fire Chief Russell, who was asked by the board of control on Saturday to report on the request of the men for more pay, requested time in which to consider the application. He said that he was not prepared to make a conclusion at the present time, and desired to go into the whole question respecting pay, conditions and hours of work before reaching any conclusion. "This request was granted by the controllers. The men will wait on Chief Russell in respect to their demand for higher remuneration."

Cannot Be Party

Mr. Moodie referred to the resignation of the Trades and Labor Council, which he said, would leave things still more under the jurisdiction of the radical element. "We will withdraw our ultimatum at the present time," said Mr. Moodie, "because we cannot be party with these people."

"That's right," said the mayor; "the city wants to be a generous employer. Let me say," said Cont. McBride, "that it would be very good advice to give your association not to be associated with the Trades and Labor Council. I say that you should not call you out on strike. When you put yourself in a position that you can be called out you are not going to get the sympathy of the council nor the support of the public."

Mr. Moodie: There is no union at the present time that can call us out on sympathetic strike. We would not stand for it for one minute.

Controller McBride said the firemen had gone up 100 per cent. in his estimation.

Two Trades Regarded as One in Matter of Early Closing.

HIGH COST OF LIVING Council Memorialize Federal Government for Permanent Commission.

Early indications that the city council, in a humid atmosphere, would get the high cost of living bill through, fell far short of anticipations. The board of control report was rattled off in about five minutes, and Controller Cameron gave the chairman of the committee a word of commendation with the remark: "That's a record, Miskelly."

One or two items, however, in the works and property committees' reports gave a setback to the early closing bylaw for fruiterers and grocers when it was reached there was an overflow of talk, council not rising till after 7 o'clock, or over four and one-half hours in session. The early closing bylaw, classifying grocers and fruiterers as one group, carried with only three dissentients. Early closing of schools and other places was there is nothing of outstanding importance is the next reform due.

Amid all the talk about the early closing bylaw for grocers and fruiterers, the subject of a bill to amend the Controller McBride came to an end. Honeyford and Ald. Cowan as supporters. The legal opinion referred to was, briefly: "I have come to the conclusion that the bill would give power to group grocery shops and fruit shops together for the purpose of the application to close both."

In regard to the legal point raised in the city solicitor's answer to Controller McBride, Controller Cameron pointed out that the bylaw was drawn up with the co-operation of the legal firm which the Retail Merchants' Association had appointed to represent it. The controller also quoted City Solicitor Johnston as having previously said: "The bylaw, I think, is in proper form."

Mayor Church did not waste words on the matter. All he said was: "The form of the bylaw is for the city solicitor, the question of policy is one for the council and the mayor's department, and the question of validity is one for the courts."

McBride Fights. Controller McBride made a determined fight to have the grocers and fruiterers classified separately, and for the most part handled his case well. He objected to grouping fruiterers and grocers together, and made the most of the other side's inconsistency in connection. If it could be demonstrated that 75 per cent. of the fruiterers and 75 per cent. of the grocers were in favor of the early closing, then the council has to put up both sides of the case. He maintained that grocers were also fruiterers and fruiterers were also grocers, he disputed the fact that no objection to the high cost of living bill, and that if a man found it necessary to run his business after that hour, he questioned if they should interfere with his right.

Honeyford considered that the point whether a merchant was a grocer or a fruiterer was determined by the main thing he sold. A list controller, who had not yet decided, was speaking for the Controller McBride's views and was going to reply, when the opponent of the early closing bylaw told Controller McBride that his name, but to give his own views. This certainly looked like a new point in debate, and Controller Maguire, thinking so, exclaimed: "Oh, stop your talking, you have talked too long."

Controller Sam immediately jumped to his feet, and remarked: "I never try to bluff, and I ask the gentleman to take back that word bluff. I am standing here on my rights, and I ask him if he is a gentleman to take that back."

Controller Maguire considered it was absurd that in a question of debate he could not refer to a matter Controller McBride had referred to, but agreed to take back the word bluff.

Eighty-four Per Cent. J. W. Curtis, C. C. appeared for 549 opponents to the by-law, and W. C. Miller, secretary of the Retail Merchants' Association, who appeared in support of the early closing, stated there was an 84 per cent. vote in favor, the required vote being 75 per cent.

With reference to the conversion of No. 8 Sussex avenue into an apartment house, council approved the board of control's recommendation that the property committee's division in favor of the application be transferred out. Controller Ball, chairman of the property committee concurred in this, and at the same time took opportunity to make a statement since the committee had been reduced in numbers it had been found difficult at times to secure a quorum, and matters were referred to council and dealt with otherwise. His statement was that the apartment house would be transferred to St. George street residents against the proposed apartment house.

Mayor Church was doubtful if these apartment houses would be the housing situation, and decided to refer the matter to the city solicitor for his opinion. The opinion was that the people in the district were opposed to it. Permit Refused. The question of the removal of residential restrictions from Dundas

THE DAY AT OTTAWA By TOM KING

Ottawa, June 2.—If in a multitude of councilors there be wisdom, Sir Robert Borden must have gone home tonight with a wise head after listening to the debate upon the Winnipeg strike and the labor situation. The labor problem was addressed from many angles, and there was a startling divergence in the views of honorable members who participated in the debate. Major Andrews, Unopinionated member for Central Winnipeg, could see nothing wrong in the strike, while Hon. Arthur Meighen saw in the hideous serpent of Bolshevism, which must be crushed and beaten down. The majority of the members, however, inclined to side with the cause of labor, and believed that the crux of the problem was what they termed "the unbearable cost of living." One member declared that the laboring man would gladly return to $1 a day if he could have a return to the conditions that prevailed when $1 measured the value of one day's work.

A debate arose upon a final formal motion to adjourn the house for the purpose of discussing an urgent matter of public interest, to wit, the strikes in Winnipeg and other cities, and the causes for the same, which was moved by Dr. M. Blake, Unopinionated member for North Winnipeg. Dr. Blake desired leave to be granted to travel to Winnipeg in the lumber camp and had seen how the men took advantage of the companies when times were good and when labor was scarce, and also how cruelly the companies mistreated the men when times were hard and there was a surplus of labor. On the whole, however, he commended the sympathetic strike, and the pretensions of the strike committee at Winnipeg.

Ernest Lapointe, Liberal member for Karousaskia, attributed the present disturbed labor situation to the negligence, mis-administration and blunders of the government. "The prime minister at the peace conference had committed Canada to the principle of collective bargaining by agreeing to that clause in the peace treaty which was to combine in unions, this right carried with it the right to have the unions bargain with employers as to wages and hours. Yet, upon his return to Canada, the prime minister had blandly stated that neither he nor his government could attempt to define the meaning of the term 'collective bargaining' until they received the report of the royal commission." It was a mere play on words said Mr. Lapointe, to confine the right of collective bargaining to one shop or one trade. All the relations in any industry might lawfully combine for collective bargaining. This principle was recognized in all countries, and was heartily accepted by such great corporations as the Standard Oil Company and the U. S. Steel Corporation. The government must have foreseen the labor trouble were coming this spring but did nothing to avert them, except to issue "numberless and impotent orders-in-council." They had sent an expedition to Winnipeg, Senator Robertson, an avowed partisan of the employers, and Hon. Arthur

Meighen, acting minister of justice, if they had searched the country from ocean to ocean, in Mr. Lapointe's opinion, they could not have found any man less fitted to act as a conciliator than Hon. Mr. Meighen. "The father of closure and the author of the war times elections act."

Hon. Mr. Meighen said that the struggle over collective bargaining between the sheet metal employers and employees had been subnerged in a greater struggle between law and lawlessness, between Bolshevism and constitutional government. The strike committee at Winnipeg had usurped the functions of the government, and had undertaken to say that no one could have bread, milk or even water without their permission. They sought to establish, and indeed, for a time did establish, a soviet government. The government had theretofore taken the position that until this soviet government was beaten down, and beaten down completely, nothing should be attempted in the way of settling the original industrial dispute. Speaking for himself personally, and presumably for the government, Mr. Meighen commended the sympathetic strike and denounced any general strike as Bolshevism. He touched gingerly upon the issues of collective bargaining and the eight-hour day, and as to those "passed the buck" to the provincial governments.

Mr. Meighen received considerable applause from the government side of the house, but he did not carry all the members west of him. Major Andrews of Winnipeg declared that if the members of the strike committee were Bolsheviks, then he was a Bolshevik. He did not see why men employed in one trade should not go on a sympathetic strike to help out men employed in another trade, when some principle, vital to them all, like collective bargaining, was at stake. The week was at stake. The allies in the great war, many of them, were on a sympathetic strike for the defence of civilization and never got very far under Marshal Foch.

Mr. Burnham of Peterboro said that a man could not recently support himself, a wife and three children on less than $5 a day. This was not the minimum wage in Canada, and social unrest would continue to grow in consequence.

W. F. Nickle of Kingston, agreed with Mr. Burnham to some extent, but cautioned the government against fixing prices. He pointed out that S. W. Jacobs of Montreal, said that Mr. Meighen's unfitness for the task as mediator in Winnipeg was demonstrated by his speech. He had spoken of the house not as an impartial judge, but as the attorney for his employers of labor at Winnipeg.

The debate is in full swing at a late hour tonight. Hon. A. K. Maclean, speaking for the government, adopted a more conciliatory tone than Mr. Meighen, and he pointed out that the high cost of living and labor unrest were disturbing all the nations of the world and that these conditions were more acute in the Empire of Europe than they were in Canada.

THE SITUATION IN EUROPE

The Associated Press issues the following: "A peace of truce over present troubles, are desired by the new Austrian republic from the hands of the allied and associated powers over the peace table."

Thus Dr. Karl Renner, set forth Austria's needs Monday at St. Germain when the major portion of the peace terms of the allies were presented to the Austrians. "Our state now rests in your hands, and we hope before the conscience of the world that the allies will not abuse this power," Dr. Renner declared.

Under the terms of the treaty Austria is to renounce possession of large tracts of territory, including Hungary and her colonial possessions. Her navy is to be entirely surrendered, but she is given transit privileges thru former Austro-Hungarian territory in order that she may have access to the Adriatic. As to the future of her army, the decree will be submitted later. Likewise the demand for indemnities and reparations is reserved for future presentation. All the Fifteen powers are allowed the Austrians to reply to the demands of the allies, the same period of time that was accorded the Germans, although in the case of the Germans this was slightly extended when appeal was made that it would be impossible to formulate the counter-proposals on the specified date.

Reports from Paris are to the effect that the issue over Flume and the Dalmatian islands is still the subject of discussion between the Italians and Premier Lloyd George, Premier Clemenceau, and President Wilson.

The expectation is that the reply of the allied and associated governments to the German counter-proposals will be delivered here Friday.

Whether there are to be any concessions made to the Germans in view of their plea that the peace terms as originally formulated would mean the ruin of Germany has not yet developed.

Following the lead taken by Switzerland, Norway has declined to join in a blockade against Germany in case the German peace delegation should refuse to sign the peace treaty.

The new Rhenish republic which has been set up under the leadership of Dr. Duden is declared to be not a separatist, but an anti-Prussian movement. A proclamation printed in the various Rhine cities declared that the Rhenish people honestly and sincerely agreed to the terms of the proclamation. The allied armies in the occupied area are taking no part in the new order of things along the Rhine, but are maintaining a policy of watchful waiting.

Anti-Jewish demonstrations in Poland have been ordered stopped, according to despatches from Warsaw.

to advance at a rate that makes their purchase almost prohibitive for the average wage-earner; and whereas this increase is largely responsible for the present social unrest, it is solved that this council respectfully memorialize the Dominion government forthwith to introduce and pass legislation with all possible despatch to establish a permanent commission to investigate and control the prices charged for all necessary commodities; and that the notice required by the 32nd rule of this council be dispensed with so far as the same relates to this motion."

And Not One Broken Egg

Nothing quite so strikingly demonstrates the resilience and cushioning properties of GOODRICH DE LUXE TRUCK TIRES as a recent 32-mile trip from a New Jersey farm to New York by a motor truck carrying 800 dozen eggs.

Riding on these deep, broad-shouldered treads this truck, despite "chuck holes," reached Gotham without so much as a single egg being broken!

Such performance justifies the selection by large carriage companies of these buoyant cushions as the best insurance for fragile materials and valuable cargo in transit.

Because DE LUXE resilience measured with DE LUXE durability makes these tires the most economical tire investment procurable.

Let us give you further facts and figures.

Baseball Bingos 6 Leafs 5

COSTLY ERRORS IN LAST WITH BINGOS

Leafs Helped Visitors to File Up Huge Lead Early in Fray.

The extreme heat yesterday nearly put the old ball game out of kilter. The players on both sides were in a militant mood and serious trouble threatened several times. To cap the whole afternoon the Leafs were unable to overcome the huge lead they handed Frank Schulte's Cobblers, and the final result found Binghamton on the right side of a 6 to 5 score.

To say that it was a scrappy exhibition is putting it mild. The players ragged at one another and the officials all thru the sultry afternoon. Catcher Hanson was very nasty at his coaching job for the visitors and offered to clean up everybody on the field but for only clearing the gentleman indulged in was washing his own face when sent to the clubhouse early.

McLary went into McLinnis with his feet high on one occasion, and this nearly opened hostilities again, when several Toronto players accused him of doing it. McLinnis retaliated, and together with a strenuous affair under unpleasant circumstances.

The Cobblers made it sure with one in the third. Brock dropped McLary's bat and he raced to second. McLary spiked McLinnis with his slide, and it nearly opened the visitors' eyes. Schulte forced Riley at second, and then Shannon's pitch made the run possible.

The Leafs couldn't score again until the eighth. Gonzales and Brock got on with hits, the latter beating out a bunt, but McLinnis fouled out. Brock laid down a bunt and Martin threw badly to second, all hands being safe. Whiteman popped out trying to turn a double play, but the bases were full.

McLary walked, Brock laid down a bunt and Martin threw badly to second, all hands being safe. Whiteman popped out trying to turn a double play, but the bases were full.

CANNOT FIGHT ON, BUT CAN SAY "NO"

Von Rantzau, in Interview, Hopes for Negotiations Over Peace Terms. ARE NOT CRIMINALS

Must Decline to Submit to Second Class Position Among Nations.

London, June 2.—Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, asked by the representative of the European Press Bureau, whether he believed the German counter-proposals would lead to negotiations, according to a Berlin despatch to the wireless press, said he had cured himself of the habit of believing in such things. The chairman of the German delegation added that he would not answer the question, "will they negotiate?"

"According to an article in The Temps on Wednesday, our opponents seem to assume that the German counter-proposals go beyond the limits within which they want to grant us a discussion. If this article interprets the view of the enemy leaders, I hardly see any prospect of an understanding."

Asked whether he considered unbridgeable the gulf between the allied demands and the German offers, the count replied: "This question itself is based on a controversy of principles on which no agreement can be reached. It is possible to be of different opinions about the resources of Germany, but there exists no agreement about the question whether this nation is to do penance as a criminal or to fulfil its obligations as a party to the treaty."

"If in October, 1918, an avowal of its sins had been laid before the German nation for its acceptance, instead of a preliminary treaty regarding the foundation of peace, it would have continued to fight. At present Germany cannot fight any more, but she can still say 'No.'"

After declaring that if he were in the position of President Wilson, Premier Clemenceau or Premier Lloyd George, he would be afraid of assuming an equality to Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau continued: "At the moment when the moral cloak of penance is removed from the peace document, it becomes unbearable for Germany to a certain extent that we, as the vanquished, must make sacrifices in power and goods. We realize that we do not desire to agree with criminals to their removal into a second-class position among the nations."

"There is in the draft an astonishing amount of mental work which could be used usefully if the stipulations, which were formulated in the most blunt one-sidedness in favor of our opponents, were to be changed to a point of view which would correspond with a peace of justice. It is true that such a work would possess many bones of contention which would have to be done away with in some other manner, but the first condition for the establishment of a peace of understanding would have been fulfilled by it."

MATERS COMMISSION SITTING AT MONCTON

Told Pensions Paid to the Government Railway Employees Are Inadequate.

Moncton, N.B., June 2.—Complaints about the inadequacy of pensions paid to men employed here by the Canadian Government Railway and a statement that some of the pensioners had to go to the poor house or take odd jobs, featured in the evidence submitted to the Industrial Relations Commission which met in the city hall this morning. This evidence was given by A. N. MacLeod, a member of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees.

Other witnesses heard were Walter Coyte, of the Trades and Labor Council, and T. McCarthy, business agent, the latter contending that automatically with the granting of an increase in wages to the railway men in the city the cost of living and house rents rose proportionately.

Mr. Coyte said that labor in Moncton was well organized. The government offered no opposition to the organization of the men employed in the C.N.R. shops and offices of an increase in wages to the railway men in the city the cost of living and house rents rose proportionately.

Mr. McCarthy said that by his trade, men were paid the same in Montreal and perhaps a little better than the minimum wage called for in their agreements with the contractors.

What Soldiers Refused. Refusal by out-of-work soldiers to take work offered them in Moncton was reported by David Cook, superintendent of the Canadian employment service of this district, to the industrial relations commission this afternoon.

Mr. Cochrane said he had 235 returned soldiers on his books who wanted work, but these men refused laboring jobs which only paid thirty to thirty-five cents an hour.

J. A. Robinson, representative of the American Federation of Labor, said he was in Moncton at present, but it was the great disparity between the employees in the government railway shops and mechanics outside.

J. L. MacDonald, of the Atlantic Underwear Co., said some classes of textile work in his concern paid higher prices than Ontario firms.

LIVE STOCK MARKET

With 1,700 cattle, this being a light supply on the Union Stock Yards market yesterday owing to a weak demand, the extremely hot weather and lower market reports, from the American live stock centres, trade was very slow and prices on nearly all classes of cattles were from 50c to 10c lower.

The prevailing opinion is that there are large numbers of cattle to come to market and prices may go still lower, as the season advances. That the price of cattle has been extremely high and even at the big decline they will still be selling at good prices.

The best yesterday was shown for useful butcher cattle, that is steers and heifers of medium weight and good quality. Heavy shipping steers were very slow of sale and heavy $1 lower. Heavy bulls hard to sell and lightweight butcher bulls sold about 50c lower.

Butcher cows were picked up, mostly picked up. Milk cows and springers met a steady sale for but a few classes. There were very few good cows offered, selling anywhere from a wide range of prices, but much lower.

There were several parties looking for heavy stockers and feeders but all buyers were inclined to bid much lower unless some outside demand develops. Prospects are that cattle will sell lower unless some outside demand develops.

With a light run of calves the market held fairly steady. Good calves sold from 15c to 17c and medium calves 14 1/2c to 15c.

The sheep and lamb trade was very slow and dragsy especially for the heavy class. Heavy spotted sheep sold from 9c to 10c, light spotted 12c to 15c, yearlings clipped 12 1/2c to 15c according to quality, and some of which there were very few many yesterday sold from 14 to 16c apiece, and better ones may have sold for 18c to 20c.

With a run of about 2000 hogs the market for the incoming week looks decidedly lower, the buyers for the packing plants quoting a straight dollar off for the balance of the week. This will make the rate $22.25 and an average of $20.25 f.o.b., and $20.50 weighed off.

Weather will be likely to carry out their schedule as outlined remains to be seen, but in view of the weakness shown in the cattle trade, it would not be a matter of surprise if such were the case.

The plan is so simple and secure that it commends itself to everybody. All of us spend a portion of our earnings thoughtlessly. It is human nature.
