STREET OF COACH STREET CARS

Council Decides to Enter Another Action Against the Toronto Railway Company

AND PUSH IT TO A SPEEDY TRIAL

Alderman Says Cars Are Now Advance Agents for Undertakers and Doctors.

Cold street cars were discussed at some length at the City Council meeting yesterday. The subject was broached on the Engineer's report that the Street Railway Company was not heating a number of their cars, and his recommendation that the City Solicitor be instructed to take the necessary step to compel them to do so.

Make Them Obey Engineer.

Ald. Spence suggested that, instead of instructing the Solicitor to take the necessary steps to compel the company to heat the cars, the Council should pass a resolution to that effect.

Don't Shut the Doors.

Willis Stevenson, of Davenport, P. O., wrote the Council, urging that the city do something to force the Street Railway Company to heat their cars.

Why the Delay?

Ald. Oliver moved that the City Engineer be instructed to deliver the subject of the Council's decision to the City Solicitor.

First Aid to the Injured.

The first of a series of lectures to be delivered to the citizens of Toronto on the subject of first aid to the injured was given last night.

CANADA'S INTERESTS ALWAYS SACRIFICED

The World has very little hope of Canada securing justice in the Alaskan boundary unless her case is overwhelmingly strong. In all past negotiations with the United States Canada's interests have been sacrificed by the home authorities. No better instance of this is to be found than in the case cited by Mr. Maclean in the Commons at Ottawa last session.

As Mr. Maclean pointed out, this despatch was one of the charters of Canada's liberties, and was the most pronounced declaration that up to that time had been given in favor of England.

Now another effort is to be made to settle the Alaskan boundary, and a treaty for this purpose has been signed, but there is no assurance that the interests of Canada are not to be sacrificed again.

REASON FOR THEIR BOASTS

American newspapers think that victory for the United States is the only possible outcome of the arbitration of the Alaskan boundary. It is a simple question of mathematics. There will be three American arbitrators and three British arbitrators. The three American arbitrators will simply win over one or more of the British arbitrators and presto, the United States claim is recognized in its entirety.

These preconceived notions of the conduct of three American arbitrators are not flattering to the gentlemen who are to represent the United States. It is assumed that, their duties are strictly judicial, they must stink all instincts of fairness and honor and brutally cling to the American claim.

The lamentable part of it is that the United States government is primarily to blame for the spread of this prejudiced bias. The United States government would not consent to a seventh arbitrator, which would make arbitration a finality. It would not accept a Board of Arbitration such as was appointed to deal with the Venezuelan question. Neither would it refer the Alaskan boundary to The Hague conference, a tribunal to which it elected to decide the latest phase of the Venezuelan question.

And what do all these refusals mean? They mean that the United States has no confidence in the soundness of its claims in Alaska. They mean that the United States will not hazard its contentions to the extent of making the decision of a Board of Arbitration dependent upon the view of one neutral arbitrator.

Clearly, then, it is the intention of the American government to appoint arbitrators who will not approach the Alaskan boundary with unbiased minds. The arbitrators will be men who can be depended upon to maintain the United States claims. They will enter the arbitration in a spirit of stubborn faith in the American contentions, and they will not be moved from that position. What wonder then that United States sentiment should boast of victory before the arbitrators are named?

The Americans are confident that a government that refused to allow a neutral power on the Board of Arbitration will take good care to appoint arbitrators who are "what we have held" champions first and eminent jurists later.

MAKE THE ISSUE PLAIN

Toronto's application for the right to develop power at Niagara Falls will confront the legislature with a question which it cannot lightly dispose of. There was no sound excuse for the legislature's refusal to grant the city's original application. There would be less excuse for a second refusal.

It becomes more apparent every day that the city must become a producer of electrical power at Niagara Falls or knuckle under to later to whatever terms the Street Railway Company and the Electric Light Company see fit to impose. Large powers have been granted to three private corporations. In the rights conferred upon them there are no restrictions that will safeguard the city's interests. We are calmly told that we can be protected by limiting the powers of the companies in the matter of rates and the distribution of electrical energy.

The silence of some of the leading American journals on this point is remarkable, and all that can be said at present is that the Americans seem to have more confidence than they once had in their rights under the treaty of 1825. Or is their confidence in the patriotic obstinacy of the American commissioners?

FAULTS OF THE CHINAMAN

The Victoria, B.C., Times says that the case of the Chinese boy who, baited, bullied and frightened by the actions of a bevy of youngsters of the superior race, stepped in front of an electric car, and will be a cripple for life in consequence, has caused considerable comment in Victoria.

THE BOUNDARY QUESTION

The diplomatic triumph, claimed by the American journals in the Alaskan boundary question rests upon the fact that the question is not to be arbitrated, but referred to legal experts as a purely legal question. This is the view taken by The New York Tribune, which has the reputation of being in the confidence of the American government. It places its reliance on the Russian file to the "unbroken strip of Alaskan coast from Mount St. Elias down to the Portland Canal, and says:

The Russian and American title to the unbroken strip of mainland coast was repeatedly and frequently acknowledged and confirmed by Great Britain. That it should now be challenged is extraordinary. That it should be submitted to arbitration in which one party would have the title and nothing to give and the other all to gain and nothing to lose, was an altogether intolerable proposition.

Nothing is said in The Tribune about the American title by occupation, and it would appear, notwithstanding the earlier Washington despatches, that as one of the eminent jurists to arbitrate the Alaskan boundary. Those two sidesmen who voted against the proposal to enfranchise the women of Toronto are hereby nominated for the Victoria Cross.

History provides us with some assurance that the three Canadians would hold their own against three Americans, even if their hands are tied. It would worry the Czar of Russia half to death to know that he had a subject who had been convicted for treason like Col. Arthur Lynch.

Despite the reduction of ten cents a thousand in the price of gas there are consumers suspicious enough to say that the man behind the meter does the work. The Scotch curlers have had such hard luck in Canada that they could almost wish the ice famine had struck this country before they landed on Canadian shores.

When Rudyard Kipling hears what a jubilee the Americans are raising about the arbitration of the Alaskan boundary he will probably write a poem on "The Crowns."

The arbitrators award in the Alaskan boundary dispute is more than likely to make the constituency held by Hon. James Ross, M.P., look as if it had been bit by a gerrymander.

Manager Keating of the Street Railway Co. is afraid to put on more cars lest fatal accidents should occur to the few remaining citizens who have not been frozen to death. There is no Hogtown about Hamilton, says our esteemed friend The Spectator, in lofty consciousness of the fact that it never asked for anything but a colonization road for its own fair city.

The commissioners to settle the boundary are to be jurists of repute. A jurist is understood to bear the same relation to a lawyer as a journalist to a newspaper man.

The Great Powers ought to go home and hire some other little South American Republic to fight Venezuela. The little fellows would do more scuffling in a day than the Powers are doing in a month.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier is said to have issued orders that the attacks on Mr. Tarte must cease. We did not think the Premier was so vindictive as to deprive the ex-Minister of this source of enjoyment.

In Manchester they have a school of technology where they teach the young idea how to brew. The beer is then poured into the drains. It would seem as if a chair of applied insanity ought to be added to the equipment of the college.

MARRIED WOMEN AND NOTES

Amusing Discussion in Council Chamber Over a Clause in Proposed Legislation.

Dr. Noble Struck Some Snags When He Moved to Have the Clause Struck Out.

There was any amount of fun in the Council Chamber yesterday afternoon when the aldermen stumbled across the proposal to apply for legislation to enable married women owning property in their own right to vote at municipal elections and on money bills.

Ald. Dr. Noble started the levity. He thought the idea was one of the most foolish he had ever heard of. He moved that the clause be struck out. "What woman wants it?" he asked. "Married women don't understand municipal matters, and they don't want to understand them. They again, what man wants to have half a dozen men, who want to be elected, chasing after his wife in the parlor and thru the dining room and into the kitchen looking for her vote. (Laughter.) It's all right as far as it goes for widows and spinners to vote if they want to."

Vegaries of Women. "I admit," candidly continued Ald. Noble, "that ex-Mayor Howland and myself got a big percentage of the ladies vote thru our canvassing in the last election, but they voted for us because we were so good looking. They were widows or spinners. A married woman with a family to look after has not time to go to the polls. She is not a married man, so I am informed, and that being the case it is an impertinence for him to take upon himself to stand up in this Council Chamber and make the statements he has made. It isn't the first time that an alderman has talked vigorously about something he knew nothing whatever about. When he gets a married woman wanting to vote against him, right, and I will vote against it to good sticking out. The idea of a bachelor striking the wants of married people—preposterous," said Ald. Hubbard.

The fun hadn't finished, Ald. Sheppard had not let anything like that go by. The voting for good-looking men part of the discussion tickled him. "Talking of handsome men," he said, turning to Ald. Stewart, and then quickly turning away again, "I apply to you the remarks of Ald. Noble in connection with the ladies voting for him. He asserts that ladies voted for him and women to fall in love with handsome men. It named a lot of ugly fellows who had been married to acknowledged beauties. Some of the men, I am sure, were murderers, or something, and some had married five or six times, or had five or six wives at once."

This added to the uproar, and Dr. Noble grimly smiled, but he did not withdraw his motion to strike out the clause. "If a woman has a property qualification, she should be married or single, she has a right to vote," said Ald. Sheppard. The Council agreed with him, for only the Council of London has voted to have the clause struck out.

Applications for Legislation. Application will be made to the legislature for a charter for a railway from Dhorwic to the C.P.R. Lake St. Joseph. A branch line will be built to Sturgeon Lake. Application is also being made to incorporate the Point Anne Railway, to run from Point Anne to the Bay of Quinte, in Hastings County.

The International Transit Co. of Salt Ste. Marie, seeks an extension of its powers in the confirmation of letters patent dated August, 1902, and does not intend to be subject to the Loan Corporations Act.

The City of London will ask for authority to raise funds to construct concrete sidewalks, the sewers and macadam pavements; also to give the McCarty Manufacturing Co. and the London Rolling Mills portions of Trafalgar, and William-streets; also for ratification of a by-law to raise $50,000 for protection and hospital purposes.

Will Soon Be Gone. London, Jan. 26.—Within a few days it is expected that the last of those injured in the Wanstead disaster will have been discharged from Victoria Hospital. There still remain seventeen patients from the wreck, but all are well on the way to complete recovery. Mr. Northey and his sister were discharged on Saturday and have left for their home at Young's Point, near Peterboro. Those expected to leave within a few days are Mrs. Stewart of Oshkosh, Wis., her two little sons, Earl and Hobart, and Mr. Frank Baker.

FOR FREE SPEECH. Editor World: I admire much your article on "Cherry in Spots." It may truly be said the attack on Gonzales was not only murder of a harmless citizen. It was one of the many attempts made to assassinate the press, free speech, liberty of thought, and the rights of a survivor of the days of the civil war. I knew Sumner well—one of the grandest characters of that age, to be set alongside of Lincoln, the martyred President. My own view is that Brooks had murdered in his heart when he attacked Sumner with that loaded cane. In one sense it would have been better had he killed him, for the great Senator never recovered, and was more or less a physical wreck the rest of his days.

I was a visitor in North Carolina last year, and I am glad to say that the best element in that state have as great a detestation for the bully politician as any law-abiding or liberty-loving community would exhibit. Toronto, Jan. 26, 1903.

RAILWAY REFERENDUM. Editor World: There is one way to settle the disputed matter as to how railways should be built in Canada, for, say the next ten years, and make one right way. That is, make a list of the different proposals: 1. Extension of Intercolonial to coast, to be built and operated by the country. 2. Take shares with railway builders as proposed by The Globe. The plan laid out by Single Tax Society, and all others suggested, and submit them to the people of Canada, allowing them to vote on them in the order of their choice as the Public Library, and let what the people say go for the allotted time (ten years or so).

HAD OVER 500 BOILS.

This may seem an exaggeration to you, BUT IT IS TRUE. All sufferers from Bad Blood should read about this miraculous cure by BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS.

CURED IN 1886. Mr. David F. Mott wrote us from Spring Valley, Ont., in 1886. He said: "I suffered from impure blood and had over 500 boils, but since taking BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS I am entirely cured, and can recommend it to any person troubled with bad blood."

CONFIRMED IN 1902. Mr. Mott writes from 62 Broad St., Utica, N.Y., under date of Dec. 31st, 1901. He says: "Some time ago I received a letter from your firm, saying that some years ago you received a testimonial from me, stating that I had cured 500 boils. Yes, sir, I had, and I must say that I have never had the reappearance of one since I took the course of your BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS. I thank God that I have had good health ever since, for I was a great sufferer. I wish B.B.B. a world of success, which it surely deserves."

Local Traders More Sanguine

World Office, Monday Evening, Jan. 26. Business continues on only a moderate scale in the local market, but evidences of increasing popular interest are growing. Traders are becoming more receptive to news likely to strengthen particular stocks, and brokers seem inclined to countenance a higher price in some issues seen as assured. Reaction stocks were the feature of today's market, and Sao Paulo was moved up a couple of points. Twin City was especially active, and the high price of Erie and the latter was particularly active. The market was generally quiet, with a few exceptions. The market was generally quiet, with a few exceptions. The market was generally quiet, with a few exceptions. The market was generally quiet, with a few exceptions.

Readiness of prices was about the only character to Montreal trading today. Sales were small and fluctuations narrow. C.P.R. was fairly active, and closed up moderately in a point higher than Saturday. The market was generally quiet, with a few exceptions. The market was generally quiet, with a few exceptions. The market was generally quiet, with a few exceptions. The market was generally quiet, with a few exceptions.

Immediate good shipment were not probable. No Canadian Pacific stock was expected. Minnesota Northern Securities case again postponed. President Underwood of Erie Railway says rumor of a threatened strike is unfounded. As pension payments are practically completed, gains by banks from sub-treasury this week will be small.

Summers of important conference between Atchison and Rock Island interests in New York today. President Ripley says Rock Island's only relation with Atchison related to traffic contracts and limitation of extensions. The Bulletin of the American Iron and Steel Association reports the actual production of pig iron by American furnaces in 1932 at 12,823,397 tons, against 12,875,345 in 1931, and 13,789,242 tons in 1930.

Joseph says that Washington reports that England will raise the Canadian dollar to par tomorrow. The market will continue professional, but as the short-interest is large, rallies of from 1/2 to 3 points may be looked for on confirmation of today's good news. Indicators are today broadly active, and expect to do in the neighborhood of 90 per cent of the total business. It is estimated that the orange and lemon crop will be about 4000 carloads larger than last year.

It is reported that the Nova Scotia Iron and Steel Company will put on a double shift at its collieries at the Sydney mines, which will probably double the output. According to the rumor this action is thought to mean that the company will take advantage of the free entry of coal into the United States.

World Office, Monday Evening, Jan. 26. Liverpool wheat futures closed lower to 3/4 higher today than on Saturday, and corn futures were unchanged. Wheat futures are 10 centures lower at Paris and four futures 20 centures lower. At Chicago, wheat closed 1/2 cent lower below Saturday. May corn is lower, and oats are lower. Northwest receipts today, 838 cars; week ago, 796 cars; 280 cars. Receipts at Chicago today: Wheat, 65, 10, 45, 0, oats, 47, 10. A private cable from Chili to Broadbent says: The wheat crop harvested is but a moderate one, and farmers are not offering. The average crop during the past three years was 8,000,000 bushels. Since 1888 Chili has not been an exporter to any extent. The exportations that year were 1,600,000 bushels. Last week we were 56,100 quarters from Atlantic ports, none from Pacific, and 20,000 from other ports. The imports of corn from Atlantic ports at the same time were 1,000,000 bushels. George H. Phillips, Chicago, wires J. L. Mitchell, N. Y.: "I believe rumors for a big seller of wheat around here for two days, and for this reason I anticipate a reaction in the wheat market. The wheat may or may not take back the wheat that is selling now, but I believe it will amount to a big seller of wheat around here at the present level."

As compared with Canada and the United States has decreased 67,000 bushels, or 187,000 bushels. Following is a comparison of the average weekly receipts during the preceding week of last year with the corresponding week of last year: Jan. 19, 1932, 52,000 bushels; Jan. 19, 1933, 49,200 bushels. To restate the visible supply of wheat in the world, 5,224,000 bushels, against 7,623,000 bushels the previous week, and 7,284,000 bushels the corresponding week of 1932. By countries the shipments were: Argentina, 1,200,000; Australia, 1,000,000; Canada, 1,000,000; India, 1,000,000; United States, 1,000,000; Total, 5,224,000 bushels.
