MUST SUPPLEMENTARY SEA

Sir Edward Grey and First Lord of Admiralty Emphasize That Fact at the Press Conference.

Canadian Associated Press Cable. LONDON, June 8.—The Imperial Conference discussed "The Press and the Empire" to-day, Lord of the Admiralty, presided. Lord Cromer, Sir Edward Grey and Lord Lytton were among those present.

The following was the resolution: "That it is the duty of the press to co-operate with the naval and military authorities in organizing the defence of the empire, and to take all possible precautions to avoid injury to the public interest in publishing news in time of war."

"That it is desirable that the press of the British colonies should act in concert in the wise direction of information."

Mr. McKenna anticipated that as a result of the conference ideas would be cleared and the way be opened for dealing with the diversity of local and naval problems to British naval defence, which covered the globe.

"We cannot," he said, "force our strategic ideas upon you. We shall assist you as we are able to, and we shall expect you to accept that assistance. It is only by working out your own experience we have gained."

"We will assist by every method in our power, no matter what is the matter by which we are asked to assist. Out of this process of self-development, we will all come to the same idea, namely, the maintenance of supremacy at sea, which means the maintenance of supremacy on all seas alike."

Mr. McKenna concluded with an appeal to the press to maintain the navy above party discussions.

Sir Edward Grey outlined with humorous vagueness the British foreign policy. It was "to keep all we have got; to consolidate and develop, and to guard as little as possible with other peoples, and to uphold in the councils of the world the ideals of Great Britain."

He concluded by endorsing all that Lord Rosebery said in respect to the European situation. "Excessive expansion on armaments and the weather very sultry," he observed.

Not Sacrificing the Colonies. Sir Edward deprecated the idea that the foreign office was more prone to compromise where the interests of the self-governing colonies were concerned than in cases where they were not.

Lord Cromer also spoke, and Sir Joseph Ward of Sydney vigorously supported the imperial navy.

Mr. Gwynne of the London Standard deprecated any happy-go-lucky naval policy. He advocated an imperial navy.

Mr. Park of the Cape Town Times anticipated that when union was completed in South Africa it would do more for the navy.

Deprecates Annual Contributions. Lord Lytton deprecated the plan of annual contributions to the imperial navy. He reiterated that Great Britain would spend her last shilling in the construction of Dreadnoughts in defence of the empire, but times and circumstances had changed since Trafalgar.

The time might come for overseas assistance in some tremendous struggle, and the future of the empire might depend upon its united strength in defence for defence. He thought monetary contributions should take the form of the cost of a warship, and the contributions should be ultimately to man it with natives, so that it should form a nucleus for its naval aspirations.

The discussion was then adjourned.

Colonial Fleets Useless. The News, referring to the speeches of Rosebery and Grey, says that the statement who see the end so clearly ought to have some resource beyond a despairing appeal to the common sense of the workingman, who is not to blame. If a struggle, the constant talk of it depreciates, is to take place, it will be in home waters. If the colonies are to assist, they can take a useful part only by contributing money or ships to the fleets maintained in Europe. A fleet of second-class cruisers, such as Canada is supposed to be contemplating, would represent money wasted.

Australia Won't Borrow. SYDNEY, Australia, June 8.—(C.A.P.) The Sydney Federal Government is preparing a scheme for the financial aid of a Dreadnought without borrowing in Britain or elsewhere. The government intends to proceed also with the plan of establishing an Australian fleet.

DEFACED AQUINAS'S PORTRAIT. LONDON, June 8.—A portrait of St. Thomas Aquinas, one of the great figures of the Royal Academy, was defaced to-day by a young man across it of the familiar legend "Votes for women."

Church union as a menace to Protestant principles was denounced at the Baptist convention at College-street church yesterday afternoon.

The projected union of the Baptist churches in Canada in a Dominion union was also dealt some hard blows, union was also dealt some hard blows.

The thirty-fifth annual meeting of the Toronto Association of Baptist Churches opened yesterday morning, with Rev. J. T. Ross presiding at the morning session. Rev. J. T. Ross preached on the ultimate glory of the church.

The report of Thomas McGillicuddy, clerk, showed 27 Baptist churches in the city and 14 in York County, with a membership of 8385, an increase of 480. The churches raised a total of $51,028 during the year.

Destroys Individuality. Rev. A. Ward, who is not a hot water in an address to the country church, the young Schomburg pastor was in accord with the convention when he compared the trend of the present church movement in Canada to the uniformity movement in Europe in the middle ages. That movement, he said, destroyed the individuality of the local churches and culminated in the Roman Church, with an inflexible pope at its head, who could only go one step further and would be to claim equality with God.

Pastor Ward was not so favorably heard when he said that individuality on church union this evening that was deemed inexpedient to take a vote on this motion in the form presented. It will come up again to-morrow.

The discussion was precipitated by the report on the state of the work. It made no reference to church union and the omission was drawn attention to by Rev. G. L. Clendinning, Ottawa. It was agreed that a committee composed of Rev. Mr. Clendinning, Rev. J. T. Pitcher, Gananoque, and Mr. W. H. Lambly, Inverness, was appointed to draft a resolution, on behalf of the committee, Mr. Clendinning reported a resolution hoping for an early conclusion of the conference.

That the ministers of the conference take advantage of the communion service during the year to preach on the subject of the union of the churches, and the further pleadings of Providence. Objection was raised to the wording of the motion, as it would make it appear to other churches that the Methodist Church was prostrating itself and the word "ultimate" substituted. Another motion was to eliminate the recommendations of the church membership has decreased 91 in the year and the Sunday schools 596 pupils.

LADY ABERDEEN ASSAILED. Boston Gaelic School Circulating an Unfounded Statement.

BOSTON, June 8.—(Special).—While Lady Aberdeen was being feted by prominent people of the city and state in Boston to-day, members of the Boston Gaelic School were circulating a statement to the effect that her ladyship was not in America for the sole purpose of assisting in the battle against tuberculosis, but that she had a sinister motive, a motive unfriendly to Ireland and Irish interests.

When the facts were brought to the attention of Lady Aberdeen to-night, she expressed great surprise.

"It is absurd," she declared, "I am doing everything I possibly can to help Ireland, and nothing could be further from my mind than any plan inimicable to Irish interests."

In part, the statement circulated in Boston, the Gaelic clique has raised the cry of tuberculosis among the Irish, and has sent Lady Aberdeen to London to enlist others in the anti-tuberculosis crusade. She and Mrs. O'Connor have come here in the interest of the British-American Alliance, but it must not be won at the cost of libelling the Irish people.

GRAIN RATES TOO LOW. MONTREAL, June 8.—(Special).—Many of the large lines leaving this port lately are taking ballast, for the reason that carrying grain at such low rates as those existing at present will not pay.

This is caused by the fact that many of the passenger boats out of New York are carrying grain free except for the loading and unloading.

The American railways have also reduced the rate a cent a bushel between Buffalo and New York in their strong endeavor to capture the St. Lawrence trade. In fact, grain was engaged at Boston the other day at a cent a bushel.

WORLDLY MOTIVE IN CHURCH UNION

With Great Many, Desire Rests on Utilitarian Basis, Asserts Bishop Mills of Kingston.

KINGSTON, June 8.—(Special).—Scathing reference to higher criticism and a plain spoken prophecy that church union is not probable this side of the millennium, were contained in the charge of Bishop Mills, delivered at the opening of the synod of the Diocese of Ontario this afternoon. Said his lordship:

"Attacks are now constantly being made, not merely from without, but within the fold, not merely by open enemies, but by avowed friends, not merely against the Old Testament, but against the New; not merely against revelation, but against God. The mirror of the church is as the outcome of excitement and feverish imagination on the part of Christ's disciples, who had undergone such a trial and disappointment by His death. And yet there is no fact of history more clearly established, not only in the Bible, but in the testimony. The incarnation and the atonement are written off, and placed by not a few, in the same category in which they have placed the earlier chapters of Genesis, as belonging to myths and fables."

Of church union, Bishop Mills said: "The Prospect For Union."

"The hungering for union, generally, is widespread in the church, and concessions to secure it, are sometimes unwisely offered. In the church in Canada, there are many even so-called High Churchmen, who think union so desirable, and so absolutely in accordance with the mind of Christ, that they are ready to make sacrifices, to which I, for one, could never consent, and I think the majority of churchmen would agree with me."

"It must be admitted that the longing for union, on the part of a great many people, rests upon a merely utilitarian basis—that is, that it would cost less to do the church's work, if all were united, than it does now. It is not so much from zeal for the glory of God, as from a desire to ease men, the removal from them of burdens which they now have to bear, and so it is a question whether to the minds of all its advocates, it is prompted by the spirit of God, and is a manifestation of the mind of Christ. The motive, with many, is undoubtedly worldly."

"Then, as regards the possibilities of union between us, and the various Protestant communions, I think there is no ground for hope. Individuals may be desirous of uniting with us, but as bodies, they are perfectly satisfied with their conditions. There is no evidence of Divine approval, and a seal of the Divine favor, proof that they are legitimate parts of the Churching of Christ, the apostolic ministry is all very well."

COST MUCH TOO HIGH? G. T. P. Said to Be Preparing Big Protest to Government.

WINNIPEG, June 8.—(Special).—The Tribune to-night publishes a story to the effect that the Grand Trunk Pacific Company will enter a strong protest to the government against the cost of the Port Arthur-Winnipeg section of the Transcontinental, which was constructed by the government.

The Tribune says that the terms of the contract, the Grand Trunk Pacific people are supposed to take over the road at whatever it cost the commission to build and the rental which G.T.P. is to pay on the road is to be based on the cost thereof. As the time has arrived for taking over that portion from Winnipeg Junction to Winnipeg, the G.T.P. people are naturally interested in the figures as to the cost thereof.

"It is whispered that the cost has been at least three times what the Grand Trunk Pacific people expected."

PAINT FIREPROOF BRIDGES. C.P.R. Has Been Making Some Successful Experiments.

OTTAWA, June 8.—(Special).—The interesting statement was made before the railway commission by the C. P. R. that experiments had been made with fireproof paint as a means to protect wooden trestles and bridges. An engine was run slowly over a trestle and ashes shaken out. Nothing resulted. The engine was then brought to a standstill in the centre of the bridge and red hot chinders shaken in a heap on the painted tie. The fire practically went out in a few minutes. There will be further experiments.

COBALT---Mining Markets Lower, But Trading Becomes Inactive--COBALT

PRESSURE STILL EXERTED AGAINST SOME MINING SHARES

Teniskaming is Further Raided and Other Stocks are Weak, With High Priced Issues Excepted.

World Office, Tuesday Evening, June 8.
Another drive against Teniskaming was the most important movement at the local mining exchanges to-day. This stock opened at about last night's close, but was gradually forced four points lower, on persistent selling, most of which, however, was not actual stock from the hands of public holders. There is no further news in connection with the company, and nothing but the question of the next dividend is accountable for framing sentiment on the issue at the present time. The market for the other stocks was moderately broad, with Beaver occupying the central position in point of activity.

In the minor priced shares small declines occurred in almost all of the stocks dealt in. In the higher priced securities, such as La Rose, Nipissing and Crown Reserve, the strongest kind of undertone prevailed, and these shares were not influenced in the slightest extent by the apparent weakness in the lower priced issues.

On the decline to-day the market showed signs of inactivity, largely owing to the scarcity of stock at the present level, and unless the actual holders are influenced to sell out by reason of the force which is being exerted upon the market, a recovery is expected to be not very far distant.

HAILEYBURY AND COBALT ELECTRIC RAILWAY

Arrangements Now Completed For Connecting These Two Northern Towns.

HAILEYBURY, June 7.--Arrangements have been completed for the first electric railway in the north country. It is understood that all contracts were signed up last Saturday and that work has virtually been commenced, so the people of Hailbury and Cobalt will soon be connected by a 20 minute service, operated by an up-to-date electric railway.

A movement for a railway of this sort has been on foot for over two years, and the fact that it has at last materialized has caused the citizens to rejoice and be exceedingly glad.

The road is to be laid on ballast rock and will be finished about Oct. 1. Owing to the fact that a franchise could not be obtained to enter Cobalt, the company were considerably set back in their plans, but they have now procured surface rights from some of the mine owners, that place and the difficulty has been thus surmounted.

The best interurban cars will be used and a 20 minute service put into operation. It has been impossible to secure the full list of directors, but the company is made up of a number of Americans and Canadians, most of whom now have their residence in Cobalt or Hailbury. It is called the Nipissing Central Railway Co.

A number of articles have appeared in the World of late setting forth the great development of Hailbury in all lines of trade, and more especially as a door to South Lorrain. Now that the electric road is practically assured, Hailbury will at once leap to the front, not only as a business centre, but also as a residential section for the better class of Cobalt people. With all due respect to Cobalt as a business town, it must be admitted that so far as residential concerns are concerned it is not conducive to the home builder.

Hailbury is the natural city of the north, its streets are well laid out and are adorned by many beautiful residences, and what is more, the sanitary conditions are the best.

The traffic between Hailbury and Cobalt on the T. & N. O. is now very heavy, but with the new railway in operation the two towns will in all probability experience a greater volume of traffic at all hours of the day.

There can be no doubt that if any town is to be the centre of trade for the entire region, Hailbury is the one. South Lorrain is steadily opening up and scarcely a day goes by but a new find is reported on some property there. And not alone South Lorrain, but Maple Mountain and even Gowganda may in time look to Hailbury as their best supply point, and thus is shown another of the town's great possibilities.

SUIT OVER MINERAL LAND

Canadian Nickel Company Asks For Return of Twenty Acres.

An action is being heard by Justice Latchford in the non-jury assize court, in which the Canadian Nickel Company is asking for a mandamus to get back from the Ontario Nickel Company 20 acres of land in the Township of Lorrain. The plaintiffs agreed with H. H. Dow and W. F. Gates to convey to them 20 acres of land for $100 to encourage them to refine the nickel ore. They were to put up a refining plant and because as plaintiff claims this has not been done, the Canadian Nickel Company asks for a return of the land. Action will be continued to-day.

ELK LAKE, June 5.--Mr. C. B. Murray, secretary "Marcell" Mines, left today for Toronto, taking with him silver samples from his property. South of a week ago it was known here that a very fine discovery had been made on this property, a new vein had been encountered in trenching, running very high in native silver and improving with depth. The southeastern corner of James gives every appearance of being a rich area, and the "Marcell" is highly thought of here.

THE WORKERS SUPPRISED COBALT

Richness of Silver Deposits Beyond Expectations of Men Well Informed on Mining Matters.

As the regular train pulled out from the Union Station yesterday morning about 8 o'clock for Niagara Falls, a group of men stood on the platform and watched the train disappear into the distance. They were not ordinary passengers, but men well informed on mining matters.

The road is to be laid on ballast rock and will be finished about Oct. 1. Owing to the fact that a franchise could not be obtained to enter Cobalt, the company were considerably set back in their plans, but they have now procured surface rights from some of the mine owners, that place and the difficulty has been thus surmounted.

ANOTHER FINE BARN OUT IN YORK TOWNSHIP

County Farmers All Feel the Good Times—County Council Go to Sparrow Lake.

NEWTONBROOK, June 8.—(Special.)—To West York belongs probably the honor of having within its borders one of the largest and most complete barns in the Province of Ontario.

On the farm of Mr. Hicks, on the second concession more than 100 of the neighboring farmers gathered today to assist in the erection of this new structure.

The new barn is 140 x 40 feet and in length is probably surpassed by only one other in York Township, that of Fletcher Morgan in Scarborough Township.

Mr. Hicks is one of the progressive farmers, is well known among the stock men of the Province of Ontario, and with his splendid herd of Holsteins has won high honors at local and provincial fairs.

The basement, the full size of the barn, will accommodate eight head of horses and fifty cattle and is replete with every known device for the carrying on of a modern dairy business along sanitary lines.

The main posts are 29 feet long and the whole building, the carpenter work of which was done by Raymond H. Hild, son of John Hild, himself one of the best known and most efficient carpenters that ever handled a saw, went together like clockwork. The masonry work was under the supervision of W. Williams of King, and was well done.

At 4:45 p.m. the last pin was driven and the winning side, captained by John Mackenzie, led the way to the lawn, where Mrs. Hicks and a bevy of fair ladies piled the hungry workers with all the good things imaginable.

The losing side was captained by John Cooper, and it is only fair to say that the margin of victory was very small.

The farm on which the raising took place is one among the many other good ones in West York, and was for more than 80 years in the possession of the James family, one of the oldest and most respected in the county.

WEST TORONTO.

Firemen on Way to Fire Meet With Mishap in Subway.

WEST TORONTO, June 8.—(Special.)—A fire which broke out in a small frame house in the rear of the D. B. Martin Company's plant on Eglinton-street at 6:45 to-night has been fraught with serious consequences to the firemen of No. 10.

Going thru the C.P.R. subway one of the hind wheels of the chemical engine collapsed, giving the driver a rude jolt, but fortunately no one was hurt. Another wagon was soon secured and with the Carlton division the brigade were soon on the job. The kitchen and the roof of the main building were destroyed, but the fire was soon put out, the contents all being safely removed. The damage to the building will amount to $400.

Dr. Pidgeon conducted the services at the funeral of the late Frederick Schmidt, which took place to Prospect Cemetery to-day. Dr. Pidgeon took charge of the services and Mr. Speers conducted the funeral arrangements.

NORTH TORONTO.

NORTH TORONTO, June 8.—(Special.)—To-night's meeting of the finance and sewerage disposal committee, of which Councillor Parke is chairman, was one of the most important held here in many a day.

Together with the chairman were Mayor Brown, Councillors Burnaby and Irwin, and Chairman Howe of the parallel roads committee.

The committee among other matters decided to recommend to council the submission of a sewage disposal bill for $131,000, together with $5000 for sewage on streets not yet supplied with water, and $20,000 for the opening of a parallel street.

It was also decided to recommend that the vote on these bylaws should be taken on Saturday, July 17.

The committee will also support Dr. Jeffs, M.H.O., in his proposal to grant more licenses for any maternity houses in town.

Considering the question of licenses the committee will further recommend that for butchers the amount be placed at $1 and for outside pedlars doing business in town $10.

Nicholas Gariand, sr., has sold a house on Glenair-avenue for $5000.

Bishop Conducts Confirmation Services in St. John's Church.

WESTON, June 8.—Bishop Reeve on Sunday morning held confirmation services at St. John's Church, at which 22 candidates were presented by Rev. J. Hugh Jones. In the evening Bishop Reeve gave an address on his life's work in the Diocese of Mackenzie River. The congregation was very large at each of the services.

SCARBORO OLD BOYS.

At the annual meeting of the Scarborough Historical and Old Boys' Association, held at the Clyde Hotel, with President T. C. Irving in the chair, the secretary's report showed the association to be in a prosperous condition.

These officers were elected: President, S. Rennie; first vice-president, T. Jackson; second vice-president, Alex. Baird; secretary-treasurer, J. C. Clark (re-elected).

It was decided to hold the annual picnic and games at Scarborough Beach, Friday, June 25, when a liberal prize list will be offered in competition for athletic sports, races, etc.

"I see you are cultivating a garden," "Yes," answered Mr. Crosslote.

"I suppose you derive both pleasure and profit from it?"

"Not exactly. But it leaves me more contented. It makes the cost of vegetables in the market seem small by comparison."—Washington Star.

Simpson's Housefurnishing Suggestions

The Second Dining Room—Color Scheme of Blue

THIS Blue Room is not going to be a "blue" room in the gloomy sense at all. It will be a cheerful room. Blue is inclined to be treacherous. Care is in order. There seems to be but two blues that are easily adaptable—first, the delft blue, which has become rather too common. Second, a greenish blue, blue mixed with a dash of yellow—that opalescent blue that you glimpse in a curling sea wave just before it breaks. This beautiful color is the one we have chosen for our blue dining room. It is a neutral blue, a shade which harmonizes with all colors.

Blue is used in the walls, in the draperies, and in the carpet. The relief from blue in the treatment is found in the rich browns of the weathered oak furniture, and the woodwork of the room itself.

We propose an Oriental rug of this prevailing blue—it is a shade occurring very often in Eastern carpets. Or else a plain Axminster with self tones a shade darker to form the border.

The sash curtains next the pane to be of warm ecru in cable net. The over curtains coming either to sill or floor with or without box pleated valance could be of the plain blue Turkoman—a chenille weave, but finer and immensely superior in its elusive sheen and richness of texture. Cushions preferably of brown mottled leather or mahogany colored morocco.

The color scheme of this room binds itself with facility and beauty to whatever table decorations may be chosen. Flowers, plants or blossoms go with it beautifully. The china and the table accessories may be of the most pronounced character—this blue will make harmony of the strongest chords.

ABOUT THE COST.
