LYOYD GEORGE TO DECIDE VERY SOON

Likely Announcement Tomorrow or Wednesday.

Varying Views of Situation in British Political Crisis—Reported Younger is Sorry for Speeches and Supports Coalition.

(Canadian Press Cable) London, Mar. 6.—Within twenty-four or at most forty-eight hours, the world will know definitely whether Premier Lloyd George has decided to resign or continue as chief of the coalition government. This is the only substantial conviction emerging from a tangle of contradictory rumors in the crisis which engrossed political observers over Saturday and Sunday.

Experts this morning were diametrically opposed in their opinion as to how the crisis stands as a result of week-end conferences. Some declare that the outlook for a continuance of the coalition is improving and encourages belief that the premier will not resign.

Others declare all signs point to his retirement and that Liberal colleagues in his ministry will go with him. Some are content to refrain from committing themselves to any opinion whether the result will be a smash-up or a patch-up. Even if the premier stays, nobody believes that the coalition can last much longer though it may be prolonged until Irish legislation and the Genoa conference are out of the way. It is generally credited in certain quarters that nothing will be definitely announced until the speech of Sir Arthur Balfour on Tuesday. It is declared that the premier's interest in Sir Arthur's utterances would be a positive declaration as to the premier's decision.

If this expression is for resignation of Lloyd George, Sir Arthur will not in any event assume the premiership, according to repeated statements made today. It will be declared that the office under Austen Chamberlain as prime minister. Mr. Chamberlain is government leader in the House of Commons.

It is expected that he will gladly quit responsibilities of his office. If he holds on, it will only be because of recognition that his recent speeches had been interpreted as a challenge to the premier's authority, and declaring for a continuance of the coalition ministry until the general elections.

London, March 6.—A provincial paper has published a statement to the effect that Sir George Younger had expressed regret that his recent speeches had been interpreted as a challenge to the premier's authority, and declaring for a continuance of the coalition ministry until the general elections.

FINANCING NEW HOTEL FOR SYDNEY

Promoted by Thos. Cozzolino and to Cost $280,500.

Sydney, N. S. March 6.—It is announced that the new Sydney Hotel, now being promoted by Thomas Cozzolino at a cost of $280,500, is to have ninety-seven rooms, and will be an up-to-date fire-proof structure. The Dominion Steel Corporation, through D. H. MacDougall, has promised to subscribe $100,000 stock under certain conditions, and a committee of business men is now busy raising $130,000 of the amount locally.

The new hotel will occupy the site of the old Sydney, burned in April, 1919.

CLERGY IN ENGLAND TOO POOR TO MARRY

Anglican Primate Lets Light on Situation in Speech at Mansion House.

London, March 6.—The difficult financial position of the clergy which is represented as enforcing upon them the obligation to remain single, was the subject of a speech by the Archbishop of Canterbury at Mansion House. He declared that the clergy were relatively poorer now than ever before in the history of the church.

Lord Hugh Cecil said a great mass of the laity emphatically disliked a celibate clergy. Nothing commanded the respect of Englishmen like a picture of a good vicarage or rectory as the centre of church life, taking a lead in all good works of the parish.

REPORTED CUT IN THE CIVIL SERVICE BONUS PLANNED AT OTTAWA

Ottawa, March 6.—The Ottawa Citizen says it is learned, unofficially, but directly from a high source that the civil service bonus will be cut at the end of the present fiscal year by 25 per cent.

RESIGNS POSITION AS ANTI-RED PRESIDENT

Vladivostok, March 6.—M. Merkuloff resigned as president of the anti-Red government in Vladivostok, owing ill-health as a reason. Mayor Semif has been designated as acting president.

DE VALERA SPEAKING IN DUBLIN

The photo shows a small section of a huge crowd which gathered in O'Connell street to hear him speak against the Irish treaty. There was little enthusiasm. Note the new Irish flag on the platform.

CANADIAN CUSTOMS' RECOGNITION OF IRELAND AS SISTER DOMINION

Ottawa, Ont., March 6.—Official recognition of Ireland as a sister dominion in the British commonwealth of nations comes on April 1. Commissioner Farrow, of the department of customs and excise, has sent out a circular to all officials of his department stating: "Ireland will be designated separately on all entries of exports or imports to or from that country, commencing with April 1, 1922."

NO PICKETING AT HOPE MILLS

Authorities Out in Force—The Textile Strike Situation.

Providence, R. I., March 6.—Heavy forces of national guards, cavalry and coast artillerymen, together with deputy sheriffs and police, guarded the Hope Company's mill at Hope this morning in expectation that the strikers would carry out their plans of last Saturday and attempt to picket the plant with strikers from other mills in the Pawtucket valley, against the orders of the authorities.

A last minute change was made in the policy of the strikers, however, with the result that the expected test of the picketing regulations was not made. Officials of the amalgamated textile workers, in charge of the walkout in the district, were on hand when the mill reopened but they, as well as all strikers from other villages, were kept away from the vicinity of the mill. It was announced that Thomas E. Harrop, chairman of the general strike committee would have a conference with Governor Sanborn later in the day regarding the picketing rules.

Pawtucket, R. I., March 6.—Blackstone Valley mills closed for seven weeks were picketed by many persons today due to rumors of an attempt to resume work, but in every case, except at the Tannock, No. 1 mill here, conditions were unchanged. The Tannock mill, controlled by the Jencks Spinning Company, had been practically closed. This morning additional workers reported and the management announced that most of the departments were in operation. In Lonsdale, Ashton and Berkeley, where the mills are closed, the mills were picketed but no attempt was made to resume business.

NO CONTEST IN FREDERICTON

That is the Outlook in Civic Election—Daylight Saving—The Lavigne Fur Case.

(Special to The Times) Fredericton, N. B., March 6.—A full slate for the six vacancies in the Fredericton city council has been nominated. It is probable that the civic election on Monday next will pass without a contest. The new men in the aldermanic field are: David W. Olts in Kings ward, and Gregory T. Feeney in Carleton ward. Daylight saving time will again be thrown back upon the city council if there is no contest in the election.

The candidates who have been nominated are: For mayor—John A. Reid, re-nominated; For aldermen—Wellington ward, W. L. Jennings, re-nominated; St. Ann's ward, F. L. Cooper, re-nominated; Carleton ward, Gregory T. Feeney; Queens ward, Joseph Cain, re-nominated; Kings ward, David W. Olts.

Mr. Justice Crockett, in chambers this morning, heard argument on a replevin action taken in connection with the seizure of muskrat pelts to the value of some $1,500 by Chief Game Warden L. A. Gagnon, after their arrival by C. N. R., consigned to Abe Lavigne. His honor decided that the furs, having been seized by the chief game warden, were in the custody of the law, and replevin did not lie in the case. He ordered the seizure by Sheriff Hawthorne under replevin set aside and the bond given by the chief game warden to hold the furs cancelled. Lavigne contends that the furs had been consigned to Mont Joli, Que., and were legally in transit. He will be prosecuted in the police court for alleged violation of the game act.

Saxonia and Cameronia at Halifax.

Halifax, N. S., March 6.—Thirteen and a half days from Southampton the Cunard liner Saxonia arrived here last night and docked this morning. She landed 108 passengers and sailed for New York this afternoon. The Cunard liner Cameronia arrived here this morning, nine days out from Southampton. She landed 209 passengers and quantity of mail.

White Sox Lose Business Manager—Hockey Comment.

Chicago, March 6.—John Conahan, 62, business manager of the Chicago Americans, died at his home here late last night. He underwent an operation two weeks ago. Conahan joined the White Sox staff of assistants 22 years ago. He was born in Chicago.

New York, March 6.—All sixteen teams that started a six day bike race in the Madison Square Garden saucer last night were tied at 8 a. m. today. They had pedaled 176 miles and two laps. The record for the eighth hour is 169 miles and 9 laps made by Lawson and Drobach, in 1914.

At 110 Miles an Hour. Los Angeles, Cal., March 6.—Tommy Milton, winner of the 1921 national speedway championship under the American Automobile Association's contest rules, today was the possessor of 500 points towards the 1922 title and $10,000 prize money, as the result of his victory in the 200 mile race at the Beverly Hills Speedway yesterday.

Milton, whisking his fast mount around the bowl for an average of 110 m. p. an hour, jumped into the lead in the first lap and held that position throughout with the exception of a few circuits during the middle of the race, when Ralph de Palma, famous Italian pilot, crept out in front. The veteran Italian went out of the competition in the 161st lap with a broken piston.

SIR CLIFFORD SIFTON.

RICH IN GHOSTS AND ALSO FAKIRS

New York Doctor Recalls the Amherst Spook and Windsor Hoax.

Montréal, March 6.—A special despatch to the Gazette from New York quotes Dr. Hereward Carrington as saying Nova Scotia is one of the world's richest areas in ghosts, but also in fakirs and humorists.

Referring to the McDonald farm ghost, which is to be investigated by Dr. Franklin Prince, president of the Psychological Research Society of New York, Dr. Carrington said he thought it was a "poltergeist" or spirit that makes a lot of noise and speaks of a Windsor ghost hoax which he had investigated. He labelled the Windsor ghost as the worst one in twenty years, after he discovered that some people in Windsor were in a conspiracy to delude an aged spiritualist judge by dropping potatoes and eggs on him from trees and windows and making other "manifestations."

Halifax, N. S., March 6.—In an interview today Dr. G. B. Cutten, president of Acadia University, said that in his opinion Dr. W. Frank Prince, can solve the mystery of the fires and other unaccounted happenings at the McDonald farm at Antigonish, N. S.

"When a spook that is aggressive enough to terrorize two countries pops up, it is worth an expert's while to go to Halifax and beyond to make his acquaintance," says the newspaper. "Dr. Prince is to spend a week in the haunted house of Antigonish. Bulletins from the front are eagerly awaited."

Several of the New York papers carry long specials on the ghost, several illustrated by photographic reproductions of the house and the members of the McDonald family.

New York, March 6.—The Tribune pays editorial tribute to the late Dr. Walter F. Prince, who is investigating the "ghost" on the McDonald farm at Antigonish, N. S.

FIGHT OVER WAGES ON U. S. ROADS

Shop Craft Unions Meet Reduction Demands by Request for Increase.

Chicago, March 6.—The six railroad shop craft unions, representing 600,000 employees, were the first group of railroad workers on the programme today at the opening of the fight over the present scale of wages between railroad labor and the nation's largest transportation before the U. S. railroad labor board.

Petitions asking for a ten per cent wage reduction have been placed before the board by 144 roads, while the shopmen have asked an increase of thirteen cents an hour over the present scale on eighty-five of these roads. Increases on more than the eighty-five roads were not asked, it was said, because of failure to get the employees' petitions in on time.

More than 175 roads have placed petitions for reductions before the board, while many groups of employees have adopted a method similar to that of the shopmen by making counter proposals for wage advances.

It was said that B. M. Jewell, president of the railway employees' department, American Federation of Labor, representing the shopmen, would be prepared to ask postponement of the hearing on technical grounds and attempts to block the hearings were regarded as likely in railroad circles.

SCHOONER FREE ON $10,000 BONDS IN A LIQUOR CASE

Salt Lake City, March 6.—Bonds of $10,000 for the release of the Message of Peace, an alleged run-running British two-masted schooner taken into custody by prohibition officials of the North Carolina coast several months ago, have been approved by the prohibition director Kohloss and the ship will be taken back to the Bahamas Islands.

The trial of the Message of Peace and its officers is scheduled to come up in April in Newburn.

D'ANNUNZIO AGAIN

Rome, March 6.—Gabriele d'Annunzio has sent a message to Major Giuriati, a member of the Chamber of Deputies and who was d'Annunzio's chief of cabinet, and Deputy Giunta, both now at Fiume, and a Fiume newspaper, declaring his support of the present movement. He says now, as always, he is on the side of the Legionaries and what has been conquered should be held.

Court Annals Marriage.
Montreal, March 6.—The marriage of Lucien Herman Lefebvre and Sarah Morgan, which took place here on July 6, 1921, when the bridegroom was only nineteen years old, was annulled in the superior court here on Sunday.

The parents of Lefebvre urged that he was a minor and had not their consent at the time of his marriage. There was no defence to the annulment petition which was granted for reasons of minority.

Mrs. J. B. Moran, of Arsenault Sidings, Restigouche county, has assigned, under the bankruptcy act, to the Canadian Credit Men's Trust Association, Ltd. A meeting of the creditors will be held in St. John.

NEW CITY HALL FOR MONTREAL

Authority to Borrow $3,000,000 is to be Sought—Salvage Work.

Montreal, March 6.—Confronted with the situation arising from the fire that destroyed the city hall on Saturday the executive committee of the city council after sitting all day Saturday and yesterday, decided to transfer the entire municipal staff and departments to the City Hall annex in Gosford street.

The chairman of the executive also announced that the City of Montreal would apply to the legislature for authorization to borrow $3,000,000 for the furnishing and erection of a new city hall which may, it is said, be ready for occupation in about a year.

Though nothing official has as yet been decided, it is said to be likely that the city hall will be rebuilt on the old site a modern structure larger than the old one.

Chairman Brodeur announced last night that the work of salvaging whatever property could be found, including the valuable civic records covering the city's municipal history of more than three quarters of a century would be begun today.

The statement that five million dollars worth of city bonds had been destroyed in the fire was said to be incorrect. The bonds had been deposited in a bank before the fire. Chief Cashier Smith said that $12,000 in cash in his office safe was intact.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

No word has been received at Hartland of the whereabouts of Deacon W. D. Keith, former mayor, for whom a warrant was issued in connection with the case of Miss Leah Farnham. He is supposed to be in the United States.

Mrs. Keith went to the States by the way of McAdam and it is thought that she is not aware of the trouble. No action has been taken in Houlton yet regarding the physician alleged to have performed an operation on the girl.

Extraordinary measures are being taken to prevent the entrance of the public to the engine court for the Delorme murder case, scheduled for continuation

BETTER THAN HARD COAL
Soft coal so free from soot that it does not make whiskers on stove covers or pipes and does not mat or cake when burning, is far better than Hard Coal for general household use. Quicker to light, takes less to make a fire, cheaper in price and can also be used for open fires and small heating stoves. Such a coal is Broad Cove soft coal. The main thing is to insist on getting the genuine article. No other soft coal burns just like Broad Cove. You will know it by the above characteristics.

HYDRO CONFERENCE.
A "get-together" conference on the hydro-electric matter was held Saturday from 2:30 o'clock to 11 o'clock in the mayor's office. Mayor Schofield announced yesterday that the first step had been taken leading to an offer by the city to the New Brunswick Power Commission for hydro-electric current, instead of the acceptance by the city of the commission's offer. It was arranged that the Power company should make a report of their accounts to show what could be made in their present rates. This report will be overseen by a committee consisting of Herbert Phillips, C. C. Kirby and P. Vaughan. The question of civic distribution was discussed and it was agreed that an amount of $800,000 would cover this item, exclusive of a steam standby.

Representing the city were Mayor Schofield, who presided at both sessions; Commissioners T. H. Bullock, Commissioner John Thornton, Commissioner J. B. Jones, C. O. Foss, representing the N. B. E. P. Commission; Herbert Phillips, representing the Citizens' Association; H. P. Robinson and L. B. Ross, of the N. B. Power Company, and Mr. Sanderson, an engineer of Providence (R. I.), representing holders of the first preferred stock of the Power Company. Others present were C. C. Kirby, G. G.

CABLE REPORTS OF COURSES ON THE C. P. R. VESSELS

Cabled advices state that Canadian Pacific S. S. "Empress of France," en route on a Mediterranean cruise, left Gibraltar on Friday. She was due on Saturday at Algiers where the day was to be spent in the capital of Algeria. The next port of call is Genoa, where the "Empress of France" will arrive on Tuesday. The "Empress of Scotland" also on a Mediterranean cruise, left Haifa Palestine, on Sunday for Alexandria, the chief seaport of Egypt. The passengers spent more than six days touring the Holy Land. The "Empress of Scotland" remains in port at Alexandria for more than eleven days during which time the members of the cruise will make various interesting excursions and side trips in Egypt, the land of the Pharaohs.

According to reports received from the Canadian passengers aboard the "Empress of Britain," the second Canadian Pacific cruise to the West Indies, is proving as great a success as the first one. The vessel arrived at Colon, Panama, on Saturday and the passengers left by special train, and the first stop was at Gatun, where the party was conducted over the locks and spillway. At Gamboa the passengers embarked on a special steamer for a trip through the Panama Canal from the Culebra Cut to Pedro Miguel, where the train was again taken and Panama reached in time for lunch, after which the passengers made trips to Panama, Balboa and Old Panama, until the departure of the special train in the late afternoon for Colon.

The next port of call on the cruise is La Guaira, Venezuela, where the "Empress" is due on Tuesday morning. Immediately after breakfast special trains will be in waiting to convey the party to Caracas. The distance in a straight line between La Guaira and Caracas, is six miles, but it takes twenty-three miles of railway to connect the two places.

The journey is a fascinating one, through tunnels, along the brow of precipices, zig-zagging, until the road reaches an altitude of almost 4,000 feet before descending into Caracas, located 3,000 feet above sea level. The special train will return to La Guaira early in the evening and passengers will embark in time for dinner.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

At a private meeting at City Hall on Saturday a committee of three, not one of whom is a leading St. John business man, was appointed to look into the books of the New Brunswick Power Company. Why was the meeting private? Why was the Commercial Club not represented? Why were these three gentlemen selected? Not so very long ago Messrs. A. H. Wetmore, George E. Barbour and C. H. Peters were a committee to look into the company's affairs. Why was not one of them, or some other outstanding business man appointed? Are the mayor and council determined to do business with the power company at any cost? The time has come for plain speaking. Are the rights of the people to be protected—or disregarded? The Times makes no reflection upon the gentlemen who form the committee, and Mr. Phillips is known to be an advocate of municipal distribution; but why should the business men of St. John be ignored when a matter the most vital to the city that has come up for many years is to be settled? And why do any business at all with the company at this stage?

HYDRO DISTRIBUTION

The chief usefulness of the Ross report is that it provides the opponents of the provincial government with some cheap and handy ammunition. As the power from Musquash is not yet being delivered those who are so disposed may give full rein to their imagination, and it would not be surprising if some person especially gifted in that respect should assert that there is no water at all at Musquash except when the tide flows in. However, the Hydro Electric Commission is going on with its work, and the people all along the route from St. John to Moncton are looking forward to a supply of cheap light and power before next winter.

They will not be eager to let any private interests come between them and the boon the government brings to their doors. They will urge that as the light and power are made available by the expenditure of public money the people should get the full benefit, and that it would be as reasonable to allow private concerns to collect toll on the highways and bridges as on this other product of public taxation. If the people of St. John do not take the same view they will betray a singular lack of reasoning power or a remarkable desire to enrich somebody else at their expense. No private money has been invested to bring the current to the sub-station near Fairville. The users of light and power must pay for it, but they should not be compelled to provide a profit for a distributing company, since that would defeat the purpose of the government in its effort to confer the greatest possible amount of benefit. The policy of distribution at cost should be adhered to, and there should be no agreement of any kind that would add a profit to the cost. The cost of distribution will not be found in the Ross report, and must be got from reliable sources by the city council.

WHY THIS FLIRTATION?

The more the city council flirts with the New Brunswick Power Company the stronger will be the popular demand for civic distribution of the current from Musquash. Who was responsible for inviting representatives of the power company to Saturday's conference? What has the city to do with finding out at what cost the company can distribute power? The city's business is to find out how cheaply it can distribute the power itself. This has not been done; nor does there seem to be any marked desire on the part of the present city council to have it done. The citizens must regard with disfavour and suspicion any conference held between the city council and the power company before the council has learned the cost of a civic distribution plant. There must be no dickerings over a stated amount of power at a stated maximum cost. There must be such a distribution system as will eliminate waste and give the consumers full benefit. To do less would be to betray the interests of the people for whose benefit the expenditure at Musquash was made. To pass any portion of that benefit over to such a corporation as the New Brunswick Power Company would be a betrayal, pure and simple. The city does not need to bargain with the company. It is at long last the city's turn to dictate, and if the present city council falls down the people must get one more to their liking.

Toronto Globe:—"The liquor traffic that the people of seven provinces have voted out cannot with safety be voted in again by members of their Legislatures."

ONTARIO LIBERALS

If we may judge from the reports and comments in the Toronto Globe, the Liberal party in Ontario has made an excellent choice of a leader, in Mr. Wellington Hay, member for North Perth. He is a grain dealer in Listowel, has always been in close touch with the farmers, and the Globe says of him—"From pioneer forefathers of Scottish blood, who hewed their homes out of the primeval wilderness, he is one of that stock that has clung to the good land their ancestors cleared, and has held steadfast to the gospel of hard work and the creed of Liberalism through succeeding generations."

Mr. Hay was first elected to the legislature in 1914, and was made chief Liberal whip. Last year, when Mr. Havelley Dewar resigned the party leadership, Mr. Hay was made the acting leader, and now a general party convention has with great enthusiasm made him the permanent leader. One of the notable features of the convention was the clear affirmation of Liberal principles and the new leader's remark that he had never flinched with the United Farmers, and his intimation that while the farmers who held to Liberal principles would be welcomed in the Liberal party the latter would not go over to the U. F. O.

With regard to matters of policy the Liberal convention declared itself in favor of recognition of Canadian as a distinct nationality in taking the census, called for an efficient and sustained system of reforestation in the province, and of fire prevention; endorsed the great waterways project and the extension of hydro-electric services; and urged a more active development of the resources of northern Ontario, which has been very restive under what it regards as government neglect. In regard to education the convention declared the present system in Ontario to be inefficient and in part responsible for industrial unrest, the population of rural districts and congestion in urban centres, and called for a system that would not be "half, mechanical and spiritless, and burdened with red tape, but which would have as its great aim the upbuilding of character and the development of mental power."

Not nearly so vague as this declaration is another which says—"Inasmuch as mentally deficient persons are a menace to the community and their off-spring a charge upon the state; "Be it resolved that suitable homes be provided for the segregation of such mentally deficient persons, where there shall be proper environment, supervision and employment provided, which it is possible for them to undertake, with suitable remuneration for such employment, thus promoting a healthy atmosphere and self-respect."

The Liberals in Ontario must reckon with the Progressives rather than the Conservatives whenever the next provincial elections are held. If the Drury government has not made as notable a record as its supporters had expected it has done far better than its opponents predicted. It has not been a class government to the extent that both Conservatives and Liberals declared it would be, and it will remain a very formidable competitor whenever the appeal is made to the people. It would appear, however, that the Liberals, with a stronger leader, and having somewhat recovered from the surprise of the last provincial elections may be able to make a much more satisfactory showing, the more so that there is a Liberal government at Ottawa.

AGRICULTURAL PROBLEMS

Hon. Manning Doherty told the Ontario legislature last week that Canada should have an agricultural commissioner to keep the farmers in touch intimately with foreign markets. This and co-operative methods of marketing he deems essential in the struggle for markets which will prevail for the next few years. Mr. Doherty noted the fact that South Africa and New Zealand were getting into the British market with cheese, and he said the Canadian average was not as good as theirs. Moreover, the west had outdone Ontario in dairy products, and a strong co-operative organization of producers was necessary, not only to get new markets but to hold the old ones. There was also need of such organization among fruit growers, as British Columbia and Washington apples were sold in Ontario. Mr. Doherty believes in cold storage plants owned by co-operative producers, and he would support an appeal to Ottawa for federal subsidies to such plants. Touching the matter of immigration, he declared that the policy of the Ontario government had produced splendid results. Ninety-two per cent. of the money loaned to immigrants had been paid. There were, he said, practically no failures in the class of men the Ontario government had brought out from Britain. This latest item of information should be of interest in New Brunswick. Possibly the Ontario plan would yield good results if adopted here.

BERT WILLIAMS, FAMOUS NEGRO COMEDIAN, DEAD

New York, March 6.—Bert Williams, 46, negro comedian, died at his home here last night from pneumonia. He collapsed on a Detroit stage on last Monday.

UNREMEMBRANCE

(Thomas Hood.)
It is not death, that some time in a sigh
This eloquent shall take its speechless flight;
That some time these bright stars, that now reply
In sunlight to the sun, shall set in night;
That this warm conscious flesh shall perish quite,
And all life's ruddy springs forget to flow,
That thoughts shall cease, and the immortal spirit
Be lapped in alien clay and laid below;
It is not death to know this—but to know
That pious thoughts which visit at new years,
In tender pilgrimage, will cease to go
So duly and so oft,—and when grass waves
Over the past away, there may be then
No resurrection in the minds of men.

"He didn't really want my opinion," replied Senator Storgum. "He was lonesome and wanted to start an argument."—Washington Star.

Past booth after booth went the rich merchant, followed by a smart footman in livery, for the annual Christmas bazaar was in full swing.
"Ah, Mr. Swainston," gushed a pretty girl at one of the booths, "what are you going to buy? Auntie and I are in charge of this booth. We have cushions, pen-wipers, and all sorts of things."

"There's one thing I should like to buy," said the amorous visitor. "Do you sell kisses at your booth?"
"Oh, certainly," came the prompt reply. "A sovereign each."
"Right," said the aristocrat. "I'll take two, please."
"Auntie," cried the wily dame, "forward, please. Two kisses for this gentleman."

For a moment the wealthy one was nonplussed, but only for a moment.
"James," he said, coolly, "just take this purchase, please."

Mr. Foddes had sent in a very big account for "expenses," so the head of the firm sent for him.
"Mr. Foddes," said the head of the firm. "I notice that there is a considerable item for meals in your expense account."
"Er—I was entertaining customers and prospective buyers, sir," ventured Mr. Foddes.

"All right," replied the boss. "I'm not complaining, but I hope you will bear in mind that we are selling motor cars, and not lad of the chorus ever buys a motor car."

THE BANKRUPTCY ACT.

(Montreal Gazette.)
There is evidence of widespread dissatisfaction with the operation of the present Dominion Bankruptcy Act. The law is a comparatively new one, and was designed to give the country the benefit of uniformity and expedition in bankruptcy proceedings. To this end it replaced the old Insolvency Law of Quebec and other provincial laws. The new law has been the subject of serious criticism among commercial bodies. It has not had a long trial, but it has operated during a period of commercial depression and has been sufficiently numerous to enable the average man of business to form a reasonable conclusion as to its merits and demerits. Evidently a restoration of the provincial law, is desired by those who are most nearly affected by the operation of the statute. It has been more than suggested that the Dominion law facilitates fraud, and what seem to be good grounds for this suggestion are the new law adds to the cost of bankruptcy proceedings, that it enables certain individuals to make business of insolvency, that an extension of time is granted in cases of insolvency, and that in cases available assignments are made, and that the heavier creditors are placed at a disadvantage in respect of their votes and receive the weighty objections and deserve the early consideration of parliament. Uniformity in bankruptcy proceedings, other things being equal, is desirable, and there is no reason why this end could not be served without prejudice to the interests which ought to be first in their claim to protection under an insolvency law. There are unscrupulous men as well as men of honor and integrity in business. The former, happily, far outnumber the latter, but parliament cannot afford to content itself with legislation which may tend to place a premium upon fraud. The strong adverse criticism which has arisen as a result of the actual operation of the Dominion Bankruptcy Act calls for a re-examination of the law with a view to such amendments as experience has shown to be necessary.

SOME 'HOWLERS'

These answers were not made by Canadian Boy Scouts. They are from a foreign source.—From one of the big cities come the following "answers" received during a "question hour" in first aid.
"For fractures—To see if the limb is broken, wriggle it gently back and forth.
Dog bite.—Put the dog away for several days and if he has not recovered then kill him.
When clothing is on fire—Get the person whose clothing is on fire to lay down and roll to some body of water and roll in.
To enter a room filled with smoke—Put a soaked handkerchief in your nose and mouth.
To rescue a person who has broken through the ice—Take two or three handkerchiefs and tie them together and throw the boy in the ice with the handkerchiefs and pull him off.
In case of a paper under lip and if this fails, plug the nose and let it run down the throat.
To remove grit in the eye—Roll the eyelid back once. Let the patient wet the stick with their own saliva so as to cause no pain.
To rescue a person who has fallen through the ice—You would dig a hole down farther in the ice and try and find them.
For gas poisoning—You would try and get the most gas out by squeezing them, the rest would give them something to do.
For a bad wound on head—Apply turpentine around neck to stop bleeding to death.

"What do you think of that cigar I just gave you? Satisfying, eh?"
"I should say so. One of them would satisfy a man for life."

NEW POPE HELPED CHIMNEY SWEEPS

Also Gave Spiritual Care to Working Girls in Earlier Milan Days—Scholar Became Diplomat.

Little chimney sweeps and young working girls were the special care of Cardinal Ratti during the long years when he was the prefect of the Ambrosian Library in Milan, according to "One Who Knows Him" in The London Tablet of June 25 last, which was just after Archbishop Ratti of Milan was created a cardinal, in "One Who Knows Him" wrote of the humane heart of him who is now Pope. The article is headed "The New Cardinal-Archbishop of Milan." It reads in part:—"In the midst of his literary and scientific labors, Dr. Ratti was devoted to his work as a priest and director of souls. During the years of his early priesthood he devoted himself with admirable zeal to the very end of his sojourn in the city."

"For over thirty years he gave to it all the enthusiasm of his sacerdotal heart. No good work was undertaken in that ever active home of good works in which Don Achille Ratti was not the chief co-operator."

In 1888 he organized an association of school mistresses, of which he remained the director during the whole period of his stay in the city. The congregations of Children of Mary for the young ladies of Milanese high society, for those of the middle classes and the young girls and all the social classes, had the benefit of his direction and of his elevated and edifying though simply instructed."

When Poland finally obtained her restored independence, the Holy Father, to show his sympathy with the Catholic people, appointed Mr. Ratti Apostolic Nuncio to the new Republic of Poland, creating him in the Consistory of July 9, 1918, titular Archbishop of Legnano.

"The sudden transference of one hitherto known almost exclusively as a scholar and a writer from the tranquil life of a great library passed amidst ancient codices and biographical research, to the active life of diplomacy in the very midst of one of the most disturbed periods of Europe caused universal surprise."

"Poland, after the peace of Brest-Litovsk, was occupied by German troops, although there was a council of Regency consisting of Archbishop (now Cardinal) Kakowski and two others. The task was a very way extremely difficult and critical, but the new Nuncio displayed such remarkable tact and diplomatic skill and even heroism that he was called a leading part in the final settlement of both the political and ecclesiastical difficulties which surrounded the birth of the new Republic."

"He was briefly owing to his efforts that two articles were introduced into the constitution of the state, the one declaring that the Catholic religion occupied the first position in the Polish state, and the second providing—still more practically important—that no measures concerning the Catholic church may be taken without preliminary agreement with the Holy See."

Helped to Free Prisoners.
"Even outside Poland the intrepid Nuncio was able to exercise important influence in various directions. Through his diplomatic good offices he obtained the liberation of many prisoners and hostages from the hands of the Russian Bolsheviks, including the Archbishop of Minsk."

"Quite recently he was appointed an extraordinary mission as Ecclesiastical Commissioner for the pacific in Upper Silesia, and this at the unanimous request of Poland, Germany and the Interallied Commission."

"Two interesting precedents in connection with Monsignor Ratti's appointment have been noted in the Italian papers. This is the second occasion on which a Nuncio Apostolic in Poland has been recalled from Warsaw to be Archbishop of Milan and Cardinal, the same having happened to Monsignor Benedetto Odescovich in 1713. It is stated, moreover, that the Cardinal title assigned to Monsignor Ratti, namely, that of San Martino del Monti, was held for four years by the Cardinal's illustrious predecessor, St. Charles Borromeo."

"One Who Knows" writes interestingly of a visit he received from Mr. Ratti in September of 1909 I had the privilege, as rector of St. Bede's College, to receive a visit from Dr. Ratti," he says. "In September of 1909 I was subprefect of the Ambrosian Library. He states that Mr. Ratti, with the rector of the seminary and a parish priest of Milan, was making a tour of England, and they were guests of the Cenacle convent, which is next door to St. Bede's College."

"Two or three times subsequently while passing through Milan on my way to or from Rome it was my good fortune to meet Dr. Ratti in the midst of his learned treasure house, the Ambrosian Library, and to examine minutely its great collection of invaluable manuscripts and other books, besides its many other artistic treasures of every kind, and was 'One Who Knows'." "The Ecclesiastical Librarian was always pleased to

NEW MOVE BY RUSSIAN CHIEFS

United Front on World Problems Affecting Capital and Labor.

Riga, March 4.—A united front on world problems affecting capital and labor and a meeting of all internationalists are recommended by the executive leaders of the third internationale after a two weeks decision in conference. The vote was 46 to 10.

Leon Trotsky and other Russian chiefs who were instrumental in hastening this decision said that the old open battle for an immediate world revolution.

Some opponents however, consider that this step means the ultimate destruction of the third internationale which would become only the left wing of a united body if the conference were held and Amsterdam and other groups agreed to a general union.

The French, Italian and Spanish representatives voted against conference with "the enemies" on the final ballot. Trotsky, Zinoviev, Radek and Lunacharsky and other Russians declared in favor of the meeting.

Lenine was not present at the sessions but his influence is understood to have been for a movement synchronizing activities of the internationals with recent changes in Russian policies.

A group of twenty-two Russian communists, chartered at the new economic system, which they describe as a resurrection of the bourgeoisie, presented to the conference a bill of complaint against the Russian communist party. They were sharply rebuked and were threatened with expulsion not only from the party, but from the internationale, unless they maintained party loyalty.

Bathing Suit Parade.

St. Petersburg, Fla., February 17.—St. Petersburg's bathing suit fashions have clashed over the propriety of holding a bathing suit parade as a feature of the week next month. Three women's organizations have filed protests with Mayor Pulver, declaring that such a play of bathing apparel would be indecent unless exhibited on lay figures. The Purty League recently urged the mayor to appoint a bathing suit inspector "to protect married men from the wiles of the sea vamp." No action has been taken on this request.

FEARFUL ACTS OF NEW YORK WOMAN

Cuts Off Her Hand With Shears and Leaps from a High Window.

New York, March 6.—Mrs. E. Graff, thirty-eight years old, severed her left hand at the wrist with a large pair of shears yesterday and jumped from the fifth floor of the Chelsea Hotel. She landed on a balcony at the second floor. Patrolman Horn picked her up, made a tourniquet for her arm from the lining of his coat, and summoned an ambulance. She was taken to the hospital suffering from a fracture of the skull, shock, internal injuries and loss of blood, and she is expected to die.

It was said that Mrs. Graff had been suffering from nervous prostration and had been in a sanitarium until several weeks ago.

RECENT DEATHS

William V. Beattay.
The many friends of William V. Beattay will regret to learn of his death which occurred at his father's residence, 108 Prince street, west end, on Sunday morning. He was an active worker in the Carleton Methodist church and will be greatly missed, especially by the younger members. Prior to his illness he was in the employ of C. H. Peters Sons, Limited. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Beattay and three brothers, Clarence B. Carl H. and Ralph C., all at home. The funeral will be held from his father's residence on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, interment in Cedar Hill cemetery.

James Robinson.
Sussex, March 5.—(Special)—James Robinson, for several years sexton of Trinity church, died at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon. He is survived by a wife and three children. The funeral will take place at 10 o'clock on Tuesday morning with burial at Sussex Corner, Rev. Canon Shewan officiating.

Mrs. Mary U. Woods.
Mary U. Woods, wife of Percy C. Woods, of Sussex, died at her home yesterday at the age of 82 years. She is survived by her husband and three small children. Mrs. Wesley McFarlane, of Sussex, is a sister.

Captain John Pratt.
Captain John Pratt, aged fifty-five, of Wolfville, died at Halifax on Saturday. Heart trouble was the cause. He is survived by a wife, one son and two daughters.

William Power.
William Power, of 82 Britain street, died at the General Public Hospital yesterday morning from a fractured skull, the result of a fall of fifteen feet in the wharf shed at the refinery. Mr. Power was working on the top of a pile of bagged sugar and lost his balance, falling to the concrete floor. He was taken to the hospital, where an operation was performed on Saturday night but which proved unavailing. He is survived by his wife, five small children, Audrey, Man-

IN MEMORY OF VISCOUNT BRYCE
New York, March 6.—Four members represented the Canadian Club here yesterday, when service in memory of the late Viscount Bryce, former British ambassador to the United States, was held in the Cathedral of St. John The Divine. They were Robert Glasgow, T. Chambers Reid, Malcolm MacNevin and Frederick Hudd.

Viscount Bryce was eulogized as a scholar, a statesman, traveler, author and fearless friend of the oppressed.

Memorial addresses were delivered by Bishop William T. Manning, head of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of New York; John W. Davis, former American ambassador to the Court of St. James, and Professor Henry Fairfield Osborn, president of the American Museum of Natural History.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Walters took place yesterday afternoon from her late residence, 45 Metcalfe street, to Cedar Hill cemetery, where interment was made. Services were conducted by Rev. G. D. Hudson. The funeral was largely attended, and the floral offerings were numerous.

The funeral of Samuel Miller took place on Sunday afternoon from his late residence, Bayswater, at 2 o'clock. The service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Ramsay and interment was made in the family lot at Bayswater.

GIRL'S EARS DETECT BROKEN RAIL; AN EASTER
HAT IS HER REWARD
Pittsburgh, Pa., March 6.—A keen sense of hearing enabled Miss Rilla Conrad, who resides near "NY" tower on the Pittsburg Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad, to detect a break in a steel rail when a train passed over it. She probably averted a disaster and is to get a new Easter hat as a present from the company.

Miss Conrad's brother is telegraph operator at the "NY" tower. A few nights ago, while she was visiting him, a fast passenger train thundered by. As it passed over the rails Miss Conrad noted an unfamiliar sound.

"It's a break in the rail," she said. She called to the section foreman to come immediately to "NY" tower. Miss Conrad led the foreman in the spot. He found a ten-inch break in a rail on No. 3 track near the tower.

Superintendent R. T. Morrow recommended that Miss Conrad be rewarded. A new Easter hat was decided upon as the most acceptable present. Miss Conrad was told to "go and order one."

EXONERATES BOY PARRICIDE.
Mother Tells Whodung Jury Lad Shot
Father to Save Her Life.

Wheeling, W. Va., March 6.—August Henry Hanke, fourteen years old, who confessed, authorities declare, that he shot and killed his father Monday night to prevent further assaults on his mother, did so under "extenuating circumstances," a coroner's jury found. The verdict practically exonerates the lad.

Mrs. Henry Hanke's story of the shooting moved jury and authorities alike at the inquest. She relates how her husband met her with vile names when she and her daughter, Hilda, sixteen, arrived home from a motion picture show soon after eleven o'clock Monday night.

"I am going to do now, tonight, what many another man has done. I am going to kill you," Hanke told her, the woman testified.

"I begged him, for the baby's sake, to leave me alone, but he kept on beating me," she went on. "Hilda then pounded on the door and threatened to shoot unless admitted. He opened the door and laughed when he saw her with the gun. He started for me again. Hilda took the baby from my arms and gave me the gun. I pulled the trigger twice, but the gun failed to explode.

"The boy had come in in the meantime, and took the gun from me. He told his father not to hit me again or he'd shoot, but his father paid no attention, and the boy shot."

The Byng Boys held a party on Saturday night at the Manor House for Ronald A. McAvity, on the occasion of his birthday. The Manor House was especially decorated for the occasion. A large birthday cake was prepared on the affair. Besides the guest of honor, other guests were K. Golding, Mr. Ledingham of St. John's, and George Wooten, of

WOUNDED BY LEAD PENCIL.
Physicians Think Boy's Splenec Was Punctured in Tussle.

(New York Times.)
Seven-year-old Joseph Crea of 40 Harlinton street was seriously wounded while wrestling with Anthony Carbone, a schoolmate, in the playground of Public School 114, at Oliver and James streets, yesterday afternoon. Joseph was carrying a sharp new lead pencil in his coat-pocket and the point of the pencil entered his left side, making a deep wound.

"We was trying to put each other down," Anthony told the police, "and when Joey hollered, like he was hurt, I let him up and then Joey walked out of the yard."

The police found that the boy had collapsed a short distance from the school and was carried by some one to his home, whence he was taken to Gouverneur Hospital. Physicians think that his spleen has been ruptured.

YESTERDAY IN CITY CHURCHES

Urging the members of his congregation to use all their influence to prevent the introduction of any legislation to weaken the prohibitory act of the province and criticizing the manner in which the present act is enforced, Rev. Neil MacLaughlin, in his sermon in Queen Square Methodist church last night, declared that nations were permanent according as they were established on the bedrock of righteousness and that without enforcement of law there was no national security.

In the course of the evening service in the Exmouth street Methodist church last night the pastor, Rev. H. E. Thomas, made feeling reference to the loss sustained by the church, the city and the province in the death of William Shaw, the cantata, "The Beautiful City," which the Epworth League of the Portland Methodist church presented on Friday night, was repeated last night at the evening service in the church and was, if possible, even more impressive than on its first presentation. The church was crowded and the pastor, Rev. H. B. Clarke, in his address at the close of the cantata, spoke of the City of God. His discourse was along the lines of the story of the cantata.

A series of special services was begun yesterday in the Main street Baptist church and the pastor, Rev. Dr. David Hutchinson, preached both morning and evening sermons preparatory to the coming of the soldier preacher, Rev. A. K. Hermon.

At Waterloo street Baptist church yesterday afternoon, E. N. Stockford, of Hampton, addressed the Bible class on prohibition. In the evening, Rev. J. A. Sweetman preached on Secret Societies. He said that the work they did was undoubtedly good but should not be exalted over the homes and churches. It is expected that the new baptistry will be ready for special service next week.

Yacht Club Service.

A special service for members of the Royal Kennebecas Yacht Club was held last night in the First Presbyterian church, West St. John, with about sixty members present. Rev. J. A. Morison preached on the text, "He was laid in chains of iron." This, he said, was the story of Joseph. He told of Joseph's spectacular rise to power in Egypt and compared it to the rise of Lloyd George in England and Abraham Lincoln in the United States. Dr. Morison concluded with a plea for the young boys, to give them a chance for the best development.

Twenty-three young people were received as members of the church at the Central Baptist church last night by Rev. F. H. Bone at the close of the service when the ordinance of the Lord's Supper was observed. At the close of the service, Rev. Mr. Bone referred to the leaving of Deacon H. S. Cosman and Mr. Cosman gave a short address telling of his regret at parting from the church. He will soon leave for Vancouver. The sermon last evening was on church membership and in this connection Rev. Mr. Bone told of the way the Jews used to give one-tenth of their income to the church. If this were carried out by people today, he said, the church would be in a condition to do a real good for the community.

MISSIONARY IS MURDERED BY CHINESE ROBBERS

Was First Christian Worker to be Allowed to Enter Tibet.

St. Louis, Mo., March 6.—The Rev. Dr. Albert L. Shelton, medical missionary of the Disciples of Christ (Christian Church) who was the first Christian missionary to be allowed to enter Tibet, and who was kidnapped and held by Chinese brigands sixty days, two years ago, was murdered by Chinese robbers on February 27, last, so it was announced here on Saturday.

The announcement was made by the United Christian Missionary Society, which received a cablegram from Rev. Dr. W. H. Hardy, also a medical missionary in China.

Although Tibet has not been open to missionaries, Dr. Shelton left Vancouver last August to open a hospital at Lassa. He had received a written invitation from the Dalai Lama, the supreme power of the Mohammedan Church in the place to establish the hospital in recognition of his work among Tibetan people.

THE MONTCALEM IN.

The C. P. S. liner Montcalm arrived in port yesterday afternoon from Liverpool. She carried 524 passengers, of which 200 were cabin and 324 third class. She also carried 2,000 bags of Royal mail and 1,800 tons of general cargo. The passengers left last night in two special trains. Among the passengers were Sir Augustus H. Nanton, of Toronto and Winnipeg, who is returning on a business and pleasure trip to England and Scotland. Another passenger was F. Macintosh, a prominent Montreal business man who has been to southern France. Among the St. John passengers arriving on the Montcalm were Mr. and Mrs. K. T. Dawes and Mrs. M. A. McLeod. The third class passengers were all British and Scandinavian, with the exception of two.

James F. Browne, of Maidstone, England, the new organist of St. John's church, was one of the passengers. He was met by a reception committee consisting of the wardens of the church, J. E. Secord, George L. Warwick, Dr. James Manning and Alfred Morrice. Mr. Browne has had a notable career as a musician and as a soldier. He is the guest of Rev. and Mrs. A. L. Fleming at the rectory. He was organist of several large churches in England. He

It's Purity Means Strength

Rich, pure cocoanut and palm oils are skillfully blended into Sunlight—making it the most efficient of all laundry soaps.

Chip half a cake of Sunlight into your washer, stir into a lather, then put in your clothes and start the machine. You will have the snowiest, sweetest and cleanest wash you ever saw, for the dirt just runs away in the rinsing.

PROMINENT LUMBERMAN IS MISSING

Ontario Man Said to Have Been Despondent Over Set-back in Business.

Peterboro, Ont., March 6.—John Duigan, a prominent lumberman of this city, for many years manager of the Alfred McDonald Estate Lumber Company here, and for the last two years managing director of the Lakefield Lumber Company, disappeared from his home on Friday night, and it is believed that he has met death in the Otonabee river. Yesterday morning his boat was found on the C. P. R. bridge.

Mr. Duigan had not been well for some months, and is said to have been very despondent over the set-back in the lumber business that followed the boom at the time the new company was organized.

REVIVE DEAD HORSE BY RAPID FIRST AID

Patrolman "Pumps" Air Into Lungs of Drowning Animal.

Jackson, Mich., March 6.—Resuscitation of a horse that apparently was dead from drowning, in the same manner that many persons are revived, is revealed in the report of James Quackenbush, a patrolman who aids in guarding the transmission lines of the Commonwealth Power Company. The report, made to headquarters of the company here, declares that a boy, while scraping ice on the mill pond, guided his horse into a concealed air hole.

He was alone, and, after several unsuccessful attempts to rescue the animal, ran for help. Quackenbush, one of those who responded, succeeded with others in dragging the horse from the water. The animal had ceased to breathe. Having been schooled in artificial respiration, Quackenbush applied the treatment to the horse, "pumping" the animal with all his might.

"I put all my weight into the work," the patrolman says in his report. "The pressure made the animal breathe with standing in the West Side freight sheds yesterday morning. The blaze was discovered by a brakeman, who promptly gave the alarm and an engine was attached to the car and drew it out to barn, where the animal was wrapped in warm blankets and given hot drinks. is a vocalist and instrumentalist as well as director of music. Mr. Browne served through the great war and afterwards in India.

Max R. King, of this city, returned yesterday on the steamer Montcalm after a buying trip to England and France. He also visited Germany and his old home in Poland. He said that conditions in England were improving and that industry was running at high speed in Germany. Mr. King rode from London to Paris in an aeroplane, making the trip in two and one quarter hours. In Poland, Mr. King owns some property, worth about $12,000 in Canadian money, but in that country it was reckoned at about forty millions.

WILL GUARD AGAINST BACTERIA FERTILIZERS

For the protection of farmers against fraudulent "irradiated fertilizers" the Wisconsin legislature, in recent session, extended the fertilizer-control law to include products of this character.

"Before any person or firm shall sell or offer for sale any pure or mixed culture of micro-organisms, or other material to be used for promoting directly or indirectly the growth of higher plants, he shall file with the Commissioner of Agriculture a statement under oath specifying the composition of the substance and the kind of micro-organisms contained therein which promote the growth of higher plants, and shall secure a permit from the Commissioner of Agriculture.

"The Commissioner of Agriculture shall have the power to refuse or cancel such a permit whenever any culture or micro-organism, or any other material used for promoting the growth of plants, is sold under false or misleading claims."

DEPRESSION PASSING. Duty of Manufacturers to Plan For Trade Revival.

In Hamilton, Ont., last week, J. S. McKinnon, a former president of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, addressed the Chamber of Commerce on the industrial situation in Canada. After referring to the period of depression he stated that a survey of conditions led him to believe that this was a time for optimism. There would be close competition between nations, and it was the duty of Canadian manufacturers to lay plans for a trade revival and be prepared for this competition. Agriculture, industry, finance and transportation were the great factors of strength in a nation and there should be co-operation among these.

Mr. McKinnon blamed wrongful taxation for part of the unemployment trouble. During the war people submitted to all kinds of taxation on patriotic grounds, but now they were demanding that the government ease up in everything else, and felt that it was time for sane legislation in all directions and for increased production if the country was to get back to normal.

BRITISH LABOR DISPUTES.

The number of labor disputes occurring in Great Britain during the year 1921 was less than one-half the number recorded during 1920, and 200,000 fewer workers were affected. In sixteen groups of trades 800 disputes were begun during 1921, involving 1,824,000 workers, while in 1920 the number of disputes was 1,715 and 2,202,000 workers were affected.

In every trade group excepting one, the number of workers involved in the disputes was less in 1921 than in 1920. Three industries—coal mining, textile, and engineering and shipbuilding—produced the major disputes in both years and working days lost. Out of a total of 86,054,000 days lost by British workers through disputes in 1921, 72,038,000 were lost by coal miners, 6,942,000 by textile workers, and 4,164,000 by shipyard workers.

With these three trades eliminated from the reckoning, the number of workers in all other trades involved in disputes was 375,000 in 1920, losing 5,696,000 working days, and only 137,000 in 1921, losing 2,310,000 working days.

According to advices received by the Bankers' Trust Company of New York from its English Information Service, the majority of disputes beginning in 1921 were occasioned by wage questions, principally by proposed reductions in wages. Although wages were the issue in the principal disputes, pay was readjusted downward in the chief British industries during the year. Labor ministry figures indicate that 7,100,000 British workers had their weekly pay reduced on the average of seventeen shillings during 1921.

baby in arms, who had gone to jail with her three weeks ago, when a still was found in her house in Welsford by federal and provincial officers.

Her husband was at work at the time of the raid and, hearing of it, he escaped from the country, while his wife and infant went to jail. - Later, remorse overtook Leonard and, seized with a desire to see his baby, he returned, was arrested and also sentenced to six months.

Recommendations of the proper authorities brought the parole order, but Mrs. Leonard was loath to leave the jail. - "We no want to come out," she told the governor.

"Let my husband out; if he say here, me and my baby will have no place to go and nothing to eat."

Eventually she was released, but against her will.

CAMPAIGN AGAINST BUCKET-SHOPPING IN UNITED STATES

Forty-one New York Stock-brokers Under Indictment Following Failures.

With forty-one New York stockbrokers under indictment for bucket shopping or grand larceny following the wholesale business failures of the last few weeks, W. S. Silkworth, president of the Consolidated Stock Exchange, last week offered District Attorney Banton his support in obtaining legislation which would compel brokers to be licensed.

THE CATTLE TRADE WILL BE ACTIVE (Montreal Gazette.)

With exchange at the present level, the volume of live stock exports should be much larger in 1922 than in 1921. The reason that so many of our north-west cattle were shipped to the United States last fall was owing to the high rate of American funds then.

It Cannot Succeed. (Amherst News.) There has been some talk of professional baseball being started in Amherst this summer. Just who had this idea is rather hard to say, but it looks to me as if the person or persons who brought the subject to the forefront had a screw loose in some part of their machinery.

Delightful Simplicity. (Montreal Gazette.) Queen Victoria taught her daughters to make their own clothes, and the forthcoming royal wedding is, we are officially told, to be marked with great simplicity.

Princess Mary is a bonnie English Princess through and through. She has the English instinct for directness. She is wholesome, fond of the out-of-doors, and throughout her young life she has, while not derogating from her high position, which she sustained with dignity, enacted her role to the utmost satisfaction of the British public.

It is of an immense dynastic consequence that the members of the royal family should ally themselves with the simple features of the wholesome British life. A dynasty is guaranteed by a cordial amity history has said so before now; and the simplicity of Princess Mary appealing to the common affections may in the years to be among the elements supporting that power which knows when to take occasion by the hand.

Read the Following The play that created a Broadway sensation. And lured Elsie Ferguson back to the stage for the greatest dramatic triumph of her career. A drama of life's master emotion—its daring, its pain, its ecstasy. Its terrible power to drag down. Its sacred power to glorify. A romance of love and music, youth and fang. Dressed in silks, basking in luxury, but touching at times the underworld haunts of those who have lost the fight. Now brought direct from stage to screen to mark the beautiful star's return to motion pictures. Yet far more pretentious and varied than any stage production could be. A beauty-picture that carries straight to the heart.

WALLACE REID in "TOO MUCH SPEED" A Paramount Picture Cast Includes AGNES AYRES and Theodore Roberts Also a Good Comedy—A Pollard LESSONS FROM HOLLYWOOD. (New York Globe) As everyone who has lived in Hollywood knows, a majority of the producers, actors, directors, and other important elements in the motion picture industry are decent and hard-working people. Many a legitimate actor and actress has taken up motion picture work because it means regularity of employment, a chance for a home of your own, the opportunity to become a citizen instead of a nomad. On the other hand, a lot of people who want to misbehave themselves have also drifted into the business. And, in particular, enormous salaries have been acquired overnight by young men and women, many of whom are without intellectual or moral standards and have not known the discipline of years of unsuccessful toil. That such a situation should not debase many individuals would be to subvert the rules of nature. It may be true, as Mr. Herbert Brenon suggests, that the existence of the motion picture colony in Hollywood, shut off from association with persons of other professions is abnormal and results in abnormal recreations. It is more true that the whole industry needs to get on a commonsense basis of suitable reward for solid artistic achievement, and to put an end to the endowment with fabulous sums of persons whose only virtue is their cow eyes and wavy hair. Mr. Hays can find a real field for himself there.

VISITING OFFICIALS.
A. C. Barker, divisional superintendent of the C. N. R., with headquarters in Montreal, was in the city this morning. He was accompanied by G. C. Torrens, resident engineer, and T. W. McBeath, mechanical foreman. They returned to Montreal this afternoon.

CASE SETTLED.
Before Chief Justice Sir Douglas Hazen in Chambers the matter of John O'Regan vs. Henry McKillup was to have been dealt with this morning. The action was in connection with a junction proceedings. The matter, however, was settled out of court. L. A. Conlon and W. M. Ryan appeared for Mr. O'Regan, and R. St. J. Freeze, of Sussex, for the defendant.

WILL SEE MR. ROSS.
Commissioner Bullock, who is acting mayor in the absence of Mayor Schofield, said this morning that His Worship planned calling on R. A. Ross, whose report on the hydro question is now under discussion, while in Montreal, to discuss the latest developments in the matter.

NEWMAN BROOK FILL.
Commissioner Frink announced this morning that one half of the rock fill under the Newman Brook bridge had been completed. He said that the crew of the crusher on the Shamrock grounds had been laid off on Saturday night as excavations had reached a point close to some of the houses in that vicinity. The material for the rest of the fill will be taken from the quarry in the Millidgeville road.

VISIT OF VALUE.
The secretary of the Board of Trade has received a letter from P. W. Cook of the trade commissioner's office, who was in the city recently, thanking him for the attention which he received while here. Mr. Cook said that he believed his visit to have been of some value because of the interest which was displayed by the Board of Trade and other organizations and individuals and also because of the new interest in and appreciation of maritime affairs which he gained by his visit.

GET IT BY WIRELESS.
A. L. Atkinson of Little River, had an unique experience last evening of listening to a conversation over a radio telephone between officials of the Western Electric Radio Company and the phone station at Deal Beach, New Jersey. The officials were on board a steamer carrying out tests with officials at Deal Beach. Mr. Atkinson has a modern apparatus at his home and said he could distinctly hear the conversation. He also hears many concerts sent out by the radio phone.

BURIED TODAY.
The funeral of William Shaw was held this afternoon from his late residence, 187 Waterloo street, to Fernhill. Service was conducted by Rev. H. E. Thomas, assisted by Rev. R. G. Fulton. A Knights of Pythias service was also held, conducted by James Moulson. Members of the four lodges of the Knights of Pythias attended the funeral, also a great number of other friends. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful, and included a shield from the Knights of Pythias.
The funeral of Mrs. Mary J. Wilson was held this afternoon from her late residence, 176 Paradise Row, to the Paul's church for services by Rev. Archdeacon A. H. Crowfoot. Interment was in Fernhill.

BUDGET NEXT WEEK

Premier Foster to Present it in Legislature—News of the Session.

It is expected that the budget in the N. B. legislature will be brought down about the middle of next week. Premier Foster will look after this matter himself this year, in the matter of Dr. J. E. Hetherington, provincial secretary-treasurer. The estimates have not yet been closed. It is planned to have Hon. C. W. Robinson, minister of lands and mines, answer the speeches of the opposition leaders in the debate on the reply to the speech from the throne. Several private and other bills are to be brought down during the session. The most voluminous one will be the consolidated school tax, which will bring up to date legislation in connection with these matters.

POWER COMPANY TO SCORE AGAIN?

A citizen who was at Saturday's conference in City Hall says that of the eight hours talk about seven were devoted to the interests of the New Brunswick Power Company, and one hour to those of the city.
One important development as he saw it was that even if the power company took over the distribution it could not enlarge the market without enlarging and improving the distribution system, which would cost money, and the company could not get the money without the "co-operation" of the city—which would mean financial support. Another was that if the company took over the distribution, no material decrease in cost of light and power to the consumer need be expected for some time to come. The citizens could only see in the result of the conference further delay, a confusion of the issue and a prospect of the citizens of St. John being once more called on to bleed for the benefit of the New Brunswick Power Company.

REPORTS ABOUT TROUBLE AT HONG KONG DISAGREE

Manila, March 6.—Martial law has been declared at Hong Kong, and the port has been closed as a result of a strike of Chinese seamen, according to unofficial advices received here by British Consul General Harrington.
In contradiction of these unofficial advices are press reports that the Hong Kong strike has been settled.

Commissioner Thornton, Back in the Council After Illness, Says a Few Words About Rentals—The Council and Hydro.

A brief discussion on Saturday's conference regarding hydro distribution and the question of rentals of stalls and racks in the city market were about the only matters of interest brought up at a committee meeting of the common council this morning. In the absence of Mayor Schofield from the city, Commissioner T. H. Bullock was in the chair.
Commissioner Thornton who had been absent from the board for seven weeks through illness was again in his place. He was congratulated on his recovery by members of the council and the common clerk.
Mr. Thornton said that he had under consideration some changes in the rental of stalls, racks and stands in the city market, but his illness had prevented any action being taken and it was now too late to make any alteration.

He said that he had received some complaints that the prices charged for produce in the market were almost always higher than those asked in city stores. He thought the rental of the stalls was reasonable and that the public should thereby reap the benefit. He was surprised to learn that the rent in some of the shops in the city had been raised this year; in this connection he said the revenue from the market last year showed a surplus of some $5,000, and if it would tend to lower the prices charged for produce he would be in favor of adjusting the rental rates so that the market would just pay its way. There was no way, however, in which the council could see that any reduction was passed on to the people.
On motion, he was given authority to rent the stalls, etc., at the same rates as last year.

To the acting mayor, Dr. Frink said that under the Union Act, the north end stalls were exempt from the $20 license charged to city meat dealers. Many of the city dealers had complained that this was a discrimination, but he said that the matter would be a difficult one to remedy.
Commissioner Jones said W. I. Fenton had enquired regarding water and sewerage to the convent property in Mount Pleasant which he intended developing. He said the matter had been referred to the city engineer.

The Hydro Conference.

Commissioner Jones presented a report of the mayor on the conference held on Saturday regarding hydro matters. The conclusion reached was that a committee should go into the whole matter. He expected that a report would be made within a month and should result either in a reduction in price by the present company or the taking over of the power by the city.
Mr. Bullock said the power company representatives could not say what saving could be made to the people by their handling the hydro-power.
To Mr. Thornton, Commissioner Bullock said that the committee was not appointed by the council.
Mr. Jones said that when the report was presented he would be prepared to move a resolution as to the disposition of the power.
He said that before the last election he was prepared to support the purchase of the power company provided that was beneficial to the citizens.

PAYMASTER IS ARRESTED

Detroit, Mich., March 6.—(Canadian Press)—Harry C. Hopkins, thirty years of age, paymaster for the Rubber Lumber Company of Montreal, was arrested by detectives of the local force here this morning. Police officials declare he is wanted by the Montreal police on a $10,000 embezzlement charge.

POLICE COURT

In the police court this morning five men pleaded guilty to charges of drunkenness and were remanded to jail. The magistrate commented on the fact that "the stranger" from whom they had formerly got their liquor had been apparently superseded by "a sailor."
Pedro Maysito pleaded guilty to a charge of being a common vagrant. It was said that he had been in the station for protection nearly every night this winter. He was remanded to jail and the magistrate said that in future all the protectionists would be brought before him.
Joseph Myles, charged by a man named Robichaud with wilfully destroying property, did not appear to answer his name, and a warrant was sworn out.
James Murphy pleaded not guilty to a charge of having a still in his possession. L. McC. Ritchie appeared in his behalf.
Excise Enforcement Officer J. W. Murphy, testified that on Thursday, in company with Inspectors Journey, Crawford and Killen, he went to a house at 73 1/2 Harrison street. There he found the apparatus produced in court. In the kitchen of the house he found a milk can with a long spout, which he said was sufficient for the manufacture of inferior grade spirits, although it was by no means a complete still. A copper tube was found in the woodshed. It would not fit the alleged still in its present condition, he said, although it could be made to fit. When they arrived at the house they found a man named Clark there with Policeman Garnett.
Inspector Killen sustained this evidence and the case was closed for the prosecution.
Mr. Ritchie moved for dismissal on the grounds that this was not a still and that there had been no evidence to connect the defendant with it. The magistrates told Officer Murphy to get witnesses that James Murphy lived in the house. The case was postponed until this afternoon.
