Undismayed By Defeat, MacDonald Retains Office
3,500 MORE HERE

PREMIER IS SUPPORTED IN COURSE

Press as a Whole Upholds Him, But Labor Organ Has Criticism.

ELECTION TALK

Division in Liberal Ranks Emphasized Over Vote on Evictions Bill.

BY LLOYD ALLEN, (United Press Staff Cor.) London, April 8.—Undismayed by last night's defeat, Premier MacDonald today reiterated his determination to carry on until the Government is beaten on a "substantial issue, a matter of principle or a direct vote of confidence."

The Labor cabinet met to attempt to devise a method to handle the evictions bill in another form. It was on this measure that the Government met defeat by nine votes, 221 to 212. Parliamentary orders prohibit re-introduction of a defeated bill in the same session.

The British press generally upholds MacDonald in not resigning. The Premier spent the morning about his foreign office duties. He showed the strain of last night's harrowing experience when he sat with folded arms and deathly white face in a maelstrom of jibes from the Tory opposition, refusing to resign. Only 25 Liberals voted against the Government; the rest either refrained from voting or supported the proposition of the ministry.

Second Defeat. The Government suffered another defeat in the committee on ways and means in the Commons tonight, when an amendment on a minor financial question was carried against it by a vote of 207 to 170. These defeats do not involve political consequences.

London, April 8.—(British United Press by Harry N. Moore)—Hostile criticism from his own party is freely directed against Premier Ramsay MacDonald for bowing before the will of the Clydesdale Socialists in refusing to drop or amend in form agreeable to a majority of his followers Clause 1 of the evictions bill. The result of the division in the House of Commons, although not unexpected altogether, is causing unalloyed joy in Conservative ranks and to a lesser extent among that group of the Liberals which is dissatisfied with the Asquith policy of giving undivided support to Labor.

Even the Daily Herald, organ of the Labor party, maintains that the tactics pursued by the Premier were wrong, stating "it must be said that a bolder determination on the part of certain members of the cabinet would have prevented defeat." These words are regarded as extremely significant in the political world although it is not the first time that the Herald has ely attacked MacDonald, indicating a lack of perfect cohesion on the part of the Labor party.

Election Nearer. While it is fully admitted by all parties that the Premier is justified in refusing to resign, it is generally believed that the prospect of an early election has been brought appreciably nearer by the defeat of last night.

The Labor Government is not likely to meet any further serious crises before the Easter recess, and the tactics of the opposition after the re-assembly will be decided upon after the members have had an opportunity of feeling out the sentiment of their constituents during the holidays.

There is no doubt that the Liberals are showing signs of increasing weakness throughout the country, having lost many of their followers through their blind acceptance of the policy of supporting Labor whatever happens. Other Liberals are dissatisfied with the leadership of their party through the belief that this support to Labor is not sufficiently whole-hearted.

This division on the evictions bill demonstrated the wide difference existing within the Liberal ranks which is generally reflected through the conventionalities but it is almost assured that there will be no general election before June.

They show, in the opinion of League officials, that they can be classed under the heading of regional guarantees and defensive alliances, provided for by the pact of mutual guarantees elaborated by the last League Assembly. There are nine of the accords, of which the first three are the most important.

INTEREST IS INTENSE IN THE BUDGET

Acting Finance Minister is to Reveal Tariff Policy on Thursday.

GUESSING KEEN

Speculation is That Extensive Cut in Taxation Will be Announced.

(Special to The Times-Star.) Ottawa, April 8.—All interest in the proceedings in the house yesterday was subservient to the statement by the Acting Minister of Finance, Mr. Robb, that the budget would be brought down on Thursday—almost the earliest date within recent memory. The inference would seem to be that the end of the session may be looked for not later than the middle of June.

Much Speculation. As this culminating point of interest in the session arrives, speculation grows more intense as to what the budget will contain. Mr. Meighen's venture in the role of a prophet at Windsor on Saturday, when he made the prediction that "all the reduction you will see on farm implements you can place in the left hand corner of a dunghill," is regarded with surprise here, where the best information obtainable is that the government undoubtedly contemplates important reductions.

"It will be," says one Quebec minister, "a real Liberal budget," and while it is not to be expected that all the hopes of the Progressives will be realized, it is scarcely conceivable that the Government will not fall to come through with reductions, after buoying up the hopes of the lower tariff elements so repeatedly and so high.

It is true that Mr. Fielding said last year that the time of tariff stability had come, and further early reductions might not be expected, but there is a very pronounced change in the political atmosphere here since Mr. Meighen and Mr. Gouin withdrew their presence.

It is believed to be the desire of the Prime Minister to do something substantial now towards implementing the 1919 platform, and in addition, the interest of the Government points in that direction. It can no longer expect to carry on business satisfactorily without Progressive support, and it is believed that the breaking point with the Progressives will be not far distant if they should be disappointed at their hopes have been raised.

All these considerations make Mr. Meighen's utterances the more surprising, and it has been taken in some quarters as an attempt to lead the Government into an action which Conservatives believe will tend to disrupt the party in Quebec.

Effect of Reduction. If the tariff contains that reasonable measure of reduction which is anticipated, the Government will have little to worry about so far as support in the House is concerned. The present session so far has gone with unexpected smoothness. It has, indeed, been duller than usual, but the reason for that is the expected Conservative attack has been notable by its absence and the position of the Government has been freed from anxiety that any time since its formation. That it will imperil this sense of security and create an enraged and aggressive body of Progressives ready to attack it is inconceivable.

The budget speech of Thursday, therefore, will be one of the most important ever delivered in the House. It will be the parting of the ways for the Liberal party if it is what is expected to be. Henceforth their course will lie in the direction of a gradually stronger rapprochement with the Progressive party of the west, with the possibility of a certain degree of alienation from the high tariff element centered in the Liberal party on the Island of Montreal. This is a determination which the Prime Minister must now make and a course which he must choose if he hopes to retain power. The indications all point to the fact that he has decided that his hopes lie with the low tariff element of his party.

Death in Flood in Massachusetts

Westfield, Mass., April 8.—A toll of one life and many thousands of dollars of damage was taken by flood waters in the Westfield district yesterday. An unidentified man, about 26 years of age, was drowned at Frog Hole, last night, when he attempted to wade through a portion of the Springfield road inundated by the swollen stream.

BRITISH MINERS ARE VOTING TODAY

Ballot May Not Mean Strike, as Count of Enquiry Will Likely Follow.

BY HARRY N. MOORE. (British United Press.) London, April 8.—Throughout Great Britain the miners in every coal field are halting today on whether or not they will accept the final peace terms offered by the colliery owners, which the National Conference of delegates representing the entire industry has declined to recommend. It is fully expected that these terms will be turned down by the men by a large majority, but it does not necessarily follow that a strike will ensue as a result of the declaration of the balloting for the settlement of a court of enquiry and the subsequent introduction of a minimum wage.

MEDERIC MARTIN NO LONGER MAYOR

Went Down to Defeat in Montreal Yesterday—Seven New Aldermen.

Montreal, April 8.—Mederic Martin, ten years Mayor of Montreal, and prominent in the civic life of the city for twenty-five years, passed from civic office yesterday, after being defeated by Charles Duquette, practically unknown to the voters, who became a candidate, was elected the new Mayor of the city by a majority of 3,104 over his veteran opponent. The votes were: Duquette, 42,183; Martin, 39,079; J. H. Petit, a third candidate, polled 1,320 votes.

Of twenty-one aldermen elected yesterday seven will be new in the City Council. Fourteen aldermen had previously been elected by acclamation. There was no general sweep throughout the city for Mr. Duquette. Eighteen of the thirty wards gave Mayor Martin majorities, but several of the wards polled immense majorities for Duquette, notably Notre Dame, where the vote was 3,241 against 883.

The defeated Mayor took his defeat calmly, and expressed the belief that he had not cost him a cent.

Of the fifteen aldermen who found opposition in the election only one was defeated, namely Ald. Rechen, who lost in a sharp contest with J. V. Desautels in Mount Royal ward.

CASS SCORES POINT IN THE PIRACY CASE

Evidence That Throws Doubt on Previous Testimony is Accepted.

Boston, Mass., April 8.—Counsel for Ray Cass of Somerville, former boxing promoter, whose extradition to Halifax, for trial on a charge of piracy against the British schooner J. Scott Hanksin, is being sought by Nova Scotia authorities, scored a tactical victory yesterday, when two depositions said to have been signed by the captain and first mate of the schooner, were admitted as evidence by U. S. Commissioner Wheeler, over the strenuous opposition of counsel for the Canadian authorities. The depositions, vouchered for by a Gloucester police officer and Essex county officers, were said to have been signed by Capt. Arthur Moore and the cook, Harry Harris, while they were at the point of death in a Gloucester hospital. Descriptions of the pirates given in the depositions differ from subsequent testimony of the pair in which they identified Cass as the man who boarded Cape Ann last August.

Sealers Getting Very Large Fares

St. John's, Nfld., April 8.—Reports from the sealing fleet are that up to last Saturday seven vessels in the north had killed 118,000 seals, equalling the catch of the entire fleet last year. Most of the seals are still on the ice floes, and must be picked up by the ships when they are able to force their way through the pack. Three steamers operating in the Gulf of St. Lawrence have taken no seals as yet, but are close to large herds.

CHURCH BILL IS SENT TO N. B. HOUSE

Committee Reports Measure at Fredericton, but Makes No Recommendation.

COMPENSATION ACT

Lumbermen and Bankers Gather to Take Up Points in This Legislation.

(Special to The Times.) Fredericton, April 8.—Church union is the principal topic under consideration this morning. The corporations committee has the bill before it in private session for the third time. At noon it was said that the committee decided to report the bill to the House without recommendation. The effect of such a negative decision would kill any other measure, but church union is different from most of the legislation introduced to the House.

Section 3, which is regarded as the most important provision in the bill, was defeated. There was no doubt that a majority of the committee were opposed to the measure.

It is somewhat unusual for all of the members of this committee to be on hand, ready to take part in the decision, but the lobbying of those opposed to the bill has been of such an intense character as to put everybody on the alert.

The committee's action transfers the fight over the bill to the floors of the Legislature.

Lumbermen Gather. A considerable number of the members of the Lumbermen's Association arrived last evening from different parts of the province and more are expected today, when a meeting will be held to determine the line of criticism of the amendments now before the House in connection with the Workmen's Compensation Act.

Several bank managers are also expected to discuss with the Government the new provision of the act which gives the Compensation Board a lien upon the property of an employer until the compensation Act tax is paid. It is understood the contention of the bankers is that this interferes with Section 88 of the Bank Act, but the proposition of the bill point out that by federal law compensation taxes and income taxes are among the prior liens in cases of bankruptcy.

Closing Is Up to Opposition. The budget debate will go on this afternoon and probably until a late hour this evening. The closing date of the session really depends upon the opposition. It is not which together with the estimates, by Friday, there will be nothing gained by having a week-end session with the hope of getting away by Thursday week; but if there is no amendment to the supply motion the work can be rushed through by that date.

Hon. C. W. Robinson will resume the discussion this afternoon. He is a lengthy speaker, and it is possible that two more speakers might finish by six o'clock. Then in the evening the decision might be cleared sufficiently for Premier Vautour to adjourn the debate and speak tomorrow afternoon.

Geo. H. King in House. Geo. H. King, M.P.P., of Chipman who has been in California since the first of December upon a health trip, received a warm welcome last evening when he arrived in Fredericton to attend his sessional duties. Mr. King is much improved in health.

Ruins of 3,000-Year-Old City Are Found In Honduran Jungle

Walpole, Mass., April 8.—News of the discovery of the ruins of a great city of the first Mayan Empire lying miles inland in the uninhabited jungle of British Honduras has been received by Lieutenant Colonel Walter M. Whitman, from his son, Edmund S. Whitman, stationed in Honduras. Colonel Whitman said that amid the ruins was one pyramid towering 300 feet.

The huge stone structures, covering hundreds of acres, date back 3,000 years, according to estimates. The discovery was made by an expedition under Professor Mitchell Hedges and Dr. Gann, operating with Belize, capital of British Honduras, as a base. Colonel Whitman said the expedition was under British auspices, backed by a London syndicate.

A portion of his son's letter reads: "An event has completely overshadowed the revolution. Professor Mitchell Hedges and Dr. Gann disappeared not long ago into the trackless wilderness of British Honduras, and now from the depths of the Bogue comes authentic word that they have discovered a great city of the first Mayan Empire, covering hundreds of acres, comprising a wonderful month-long period, and among other structures a single pyramid of sorts, towering over 300 feet in the air."

The ruins are covered with the Mayan hieroglyphs, which for many years archaeologists have been trying vainly to decipher. Colonel Whitman said most remarkable was the immensity of the blocks of stone used in the ancient structures.

The great city lies miles inland and is almost inaccessible. The district covered with wild tropical jungle is quite uninhabited by men. In reaching the ruins, according to the word received from the explorers, it was necessary to cut their way through miles of tangled underbrush and forests. Their supplies were transported on the backs of pack animals.

RUGGED SONS OF HEBRIDES MAY FIND LODGEMENT IN NEW BRUNSWICK

Major R. I. Donaldson Tells of Plans Made to This End.

Present plans of the Soldiers Settlement Board materialize it will not long before a party of Hebrideans will be invited to pass through the prairie lands in Western Canada, but destined to points in New Brunswick to take over farms to till the soil.

Major R. I. Donaldson, district superintendent of the Soldiers Settlement Board, in conversation with a reporter for The Times yesterday outlined a plan by which it is hoped that some of the Crofters will be able to settle in New Brunswick.

Hebrides to complete arrangements to bring a party to Canada, Ontario this trip he will be accompanied by a delegation of farmers and business men who will make a special trip to the Maritime Provinces to ascertain what conditions and opportunities await the settler.

To be ready to assist this delegation will be secured by means of a survey of New Brunswick to learn of all lands available for Hebridean settlers. The Maritime Provinces have Major Donaldson said, not been exploited as yet for these desirable settlers, but action in this regard will be taken immediately and it is expected that good results will obtain.

As a result of a survey already made by the field men of the board it is known there are 100 farmers in the province willing to take either single or married men, who have some knowledge of agriculture and will engage them by the year or for a term.

Forms are made out describing the kind of help required, the nationalities, age, and whether married or single. These are desired, and these are then forwarded to the head office in Ottawa. From there this information is sent to England and it is expected that the near future some of the immigrants arriving on the ocean liners will be destined to points in the province where employment and lodging will await them.

This campaign started early this spring and will go on for some time. The board is attached to the Indian army, on his arrival here on the steamer Montserrat by the board to have him suitably located in Kingston, N. S., where he is to have a year's training in agriculture. He left yesterday morning for there.

On the arrival of the large party of Hebrideans here yesterday Major Donaldson was on hand to greet his friend Father MacDonnell and render any assistance possible in making the party through to Manitoba. The men of the party are all going to assured positions in the west, arrangements having been made by E. H. G. the Soldiers Settlement Board, E. H. G. On their arrival at Red Deer many of the families will find comfortable cooking utensils, such as well as the necessary household items, which have been provided by the board.

GOVERNOR AT ST. DUNSTON'S MASS

Attends Father Boyd's First Celebration—Welcomed by Dean Carney.

In its account of the celebration of his first mass by Rev. Charles Boyd in St. Dunstan's church, Fredericton, on Sunday morning, the Fredericton Gleamer says: "His Honor Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. Todd were present at Rev. Father Boyd's first mass on Sunday morning. They were met at the church door and escorted to seats by Dean Carney. Before mass began Dean Carney on behalf of the congregation extended a welcome to the Lieutenant Governor on this, his first official visit to the church on behalf of His Majesty the King. Father Carney said that while the Governor would be welcome personally, that he was much more welcome as representing the head of our nation. He mentioned that a special prayer of the church ordered by the Pope for this month was for our civil rulers. During the prayers before mass, Dean Carney offered prayer for Mr. and Mrs. Todd and their children.

At the evening service at St. Dunstan's church Rev. Father Boyd officiated at Benediction. At the conclusion of the service Dr. Phillip Cox, of the University of New Brunswick, president of the Holy Name Society, read an appropriate address and presented a purse containing $200. The auxiliary presented a beautiful bouquet of roses and little John Keenan, an altar boy, acting for the Ladies' Auxiliary, handed him a handsome gold chalice and paten. Dean Carney then addressed the young priest, conveying the good wishes of the donors of these gifts.

McInerney, candidates, respectively, for mayor and commissioner, will be held Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Palace Theatre, 424 Main street. This meeting is being held particularly to give the voters of the North End an opportunity to hear the policies of the two candidates. Ladies and gentlemen are cordially invited. 11284-4-9

To the Electors of the City of Saint John. Ladies and Gentlemen: I have been nominated for the office of Commissioner at the forthcoming elections, and respectfully solicit your support.

I am not running on any ticket and am independent of any particular class or organization. During my term of office there have been a number of very important matters before the Council requiring very careful consideration, to all of which I have applied my very best judgment and have always made my decisions in what I considered was the best interests of the taxpayers of the City of St. John.

While under present financial conditions, I am averse to contracting any further large liabilities, as I recognize the absolute necessity for very careful procedure, I would advocate any expenditures for improvements that are essential for the general good and which cannot in the common interest be further postponed.

As indications point to an increase in our export trade I would strongly uphold any measure that may be presented looking to an enlargement of our harbor facilities. With regard to a change in the system of Civic Government, as advanced in some directions, should the people desire this, I will render every assistance in my power towards carrying out the wishes of the electorate.

Trusting that I may be favored with a renewal of your confidence, I am, yours respectfully, JOHN THORNTON. 11282-4-18

A WORD TO THE WOMEN VOTERS

TO ANY CANDIDATE WHO HAS THE GOOD FORTUNE to have a living mother, a wife, or other women folks entitled to vote in civic affairs the importance of many matters having a bearing upon city home life must be very apparent. Such matters as playgrounds for children, the co-operation in philanthropies with which every city is confronted; the use of our city's beauty places for recreational purposes and a constant care for the family's enjoyment of our natural privileges should be at all times considered. Much can still be done at no unwarranted great cost to make this a better place in which to live and a happier one for all concerned.

Women's organizations on all sides are active in furthering the interests of the less fortunate citizens and their families and are doing their best to inspire civic pride and sentiment. I can promise these ladies that myself and colleague, Mr. McInerney, will devote our best efforts to meet the reasonable desires of these energetic bodies provided they are constructive, feasible movements for the permanent good of the community.

As indications point to an increase in our export trade I would strongly uphold any measure that may be presented looking to an enlargement of our harbor facilities. With regard to a change in the system of Civic Government, as advanced in some directions, should the people desire this, I will render every assistance in my power towards carrying out the wishes of the electorate.

W. L. HARDING

TO THE ELECTORS OF SAINT JOHN. Ladies and Gentlemen— I will be a candidate for the office of Commissioner at the coming election.

I thank you sincerely for the support which you have given me in the past, and trust that my record of service is acceptable. I will not expend words in proclaiming my efficiency—as I am to go before you—as a jury—on the 14th and 28th of April, and as every portion of evidence, (good and bad), concerning my public acts and life, has been submitted to you, through the press and other sources, I will leave the matter in your hands, to determine whether I am worthy of your support and confidence. If I have found favor with you, a reasonable reward may be seen. Go to the polls and vote on the Primary Election, the 14th of April, a most important election, and the great determining factor in the final. If elected I shall relax no effort to construct, maintain all essential works, and provide for all things which tend for prosperity and the public good.

If you desire a conveyance to go to the polls, please telephone Main 415. Yours faithfully, JAMES H. FRINK. 11281-4-11

ASKS MISSIONARIES FOR CANADIAN WEST

The Centenary W. M. S. met yesterday afternoon in the parlor of the church hall with Mrs. C. F. Sanford, president, in the chair. Mrs. C. L. Kinney led the devotional period, which was on "Immortality." Mrs. George A. Henderson assisted her. Mrs. W. B. Tennant presided at the piano. Mrs. M. D. Austin conducted the study hour, which was realistically demonstrated by Mrs. Robtasy McLaughlin, in college garb; Mrs. Lee Langstroth, in nurse's uniform, and Mrs. Robert G. Fulton, in deaconess bonnet and coat. They told of the work in Western Canada, of the teacher, nurse and deaconess. Close attention was given their appeal to mothers to encourage their daughters to become workers in missions.

GIVES ANTI-UNION PETITION.

A further petition against the Church Union Bill was presented in the House of Commons yesterday by Dr. Murray MacLaren, member for St. John-Albert. It was signed by Presbyterians in St. John and vicinity.

Good Health in Happy Old Age

A dose at bedtime of DR. CALDWELL'S LAXATIVE SYRUP PEPSIN Made them feel jolly again. THE chief concern of elderly people is their health, and that is best assured by regular daily bowel movement. There is no truth, however, in the notion that because you are old you need a "strong physic." In fact, just because you are old a mild laxative is better for you. The trouble with purges and cathartics and physics is that they shock the system and weaken it and make the muscles of digestion flabby. Mr. John Muse, 128 Prince Edward St., St. John, N. B., says Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin is the best medicine on earth and Mrs. George Loth, Pope, Man., who is in her 79th year, has found it easy to take, gentle in action and entirely satisfactory.

Does Not Grip

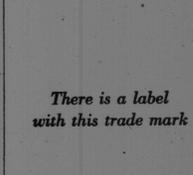

You can be sure of satisfactory evacuations every day if you will take a spoonful of Laxative Syrup Pepsin at night when you retire. You will not need to take it very long as a few doses will soon encourage the bowels to act for themselves. The popularity of this wonderful family remedy has become so great that it is now the largest selling liquid laxative in the world. Because of its mildness and freedom from gripping it is especially ideal for the extremes of ages, for children and for elderly people.

Effective at Small Cost

Get a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin at any drug store. The formula is on the package, and the cost less than a cent a dose. Take it when you feel heavy, sleep poorly, have headache or night cramps, for these are also symptoms of constipation. Give it to the children when they are restless, feverish or have a cold. Laxative Syrup Pepsin will keep you and your family free from constipation, a condition that lowers the vitality 25 per cent and raises the blood pressure 28 per cent. Freedom from constipation lessens the pain of kidney trouble, neuritis and rheumatism.

Not more than one free trial bottle to a family.

It is not an Ostermoor Mattress if it hasn't the Ostermoor Label

There's no good reason why you should accept a "substitute" mattress when you want an Ostermoor—for thirty years the Canadian home-maker's standard of sleep comfort, economy and satisfaction. We have made it impossible for you to make such a mistake. We attach an Ostermoor label in plain sight, where a moment's search on the buyer's part will always find it. Not every mattress that masquerades in a bright, attractive ticking is built of the kind of materials that you would care to introduce into the bedrooms of your home.

The danger of cheapness. It's an unfortunate fact that insubstantial materials collected by junk dealers are often used again in mattresses that look clean and fresh. Such a mattress can be sold, of course, at a cheaper price than Simmons can build an Ostermoor of clean, new, virgin cotton.

The wise thing, always, is to spot the label! If you want Simmons quality in sleep equipment of any kind—beds, mattresses or springs—you can make sure of it by looking for the Simmons label. You'll find one on every Simmons product. There are types and styles to suit every taste and pocketbook. It is always wise to play safe and sure by finding the Simmons label.

Until properly enacted laws make adulteration of mattresses unsafe for their manufacturers, such mattresses will continue to be unsafe investments for their buyers.

It means wonderful convenience! Get it with your groceries. Store it in your pantry. It is always ready, always sweet and pure—always the same dependable quality.

Carnation is just pure fresh milk, evaporated to double richness, kept safe by sterilization. It bears a label the housewife can trust.

A NEIGHBOR'S ANXIETY.

Since the palmy days of Charles A. Dumas and the New York Sun, when the great editor preached often in favor of the annexation of Canada, that idea practically died out among our neighbors.

That is a possibility. Not a few of the American States were in that position when the Civil War was brewing and when, and even after, it began. Here in Canada the decision to participate in war rests with Parliament, representing the people.

As to complete political independence as an objective, that would seem to be Canada's manifest destiny, sooner or later, and doubtless it will come.

The British self-governing Dominion has to decide as to participation in any war—a right conceded without even the suggestion of trouble—the very important fact remains that we are British to the core, and moreover we know that Britain does not make war lightly, or engage in enterprises of aggrandisement.

As to the British self-governing Dominion has to decide as to participation in any war—a right conceded without even the suggestion of trouble—the very important fact remains that we are British to the core, and moreover we know that Britain does not make war lightly, or engage in enterprises of aggrandisement.

And as for our place in the British Family of Nations, we could not be taken out of it, now or later, by power or by persuasion, from within or without. There is no sentiment to which our country responds so quickly and warmly as to St. John Macdonald's "A British subject I was born, a British subject I shall die."

THE HEBRIDEANS.

New Brunswick is to get some of the future arrivals from the Hebrides, according to an announcement made today. The first hundred or so will go to farmers who want men, and there is also on foot a survey of certain parts of the province which is expected to result in the location of other parties of Hebrideans later on.

Chinese, Japanese and Hindus have the market gardening business outside Alberta towns and cities in a rather firm grip, having driven out most other competitors by a greater knowledge of intensive production, and by setting up a lower standard of living and these folk, the Herald says, have the native market gardeners beaten, and "certainly if the Hebrideans, with their total ignorance of agriculture, are placed in competition with these Orientals, they will be up against a severe handicap.

After the Herald has an opportunity to inspect the people who landed here yesterday and were sent on to the West it will be likely to regard their prospects less gloomily. Also, it is altogether unlikely that such of the newcomers who are wholly ignorant of market gardening will be plunged into competition with the Orientals without any apprenticeship.

As for the Orientals, they have captured more than one industry from the whites in Canada and still more extensively in the United States. They are not popular, and the Herald expresses the hope "that in these newcomers from the Hebrides we shall ultimately find the material with which to wrest from the Orientals this profitable business."

The forced resignation of the Smuts ministry in South Africa is not cheerful news, but even if a general election produces an anti-Smuts government those who desire to set up an independent Dutch republic will still be greatly outnumbered.

The British Labor Government will carry on in spite of yesterday's defeat which it chooses to regard as involving no principle vital to its existence. But its future is troubled. Its extremists appear beyond the Prime Minister's control, and they will continue to invite complications which a minority government cannot afford.

year will settle not a few political uncertainties. Hon. Dr. Veniot and several other important speakers are to be heard this week at Fredericton and the budget debate will reach its peak of interest. This week's progress will probably determine the length of the session.

Press Comment

ANOTHER BUBBLE BURST.

Western newspapers are carrying page advertisements (not everybody in the West is impoverished) giving "facts about the Hudson Bay Railway." One of these ads. informs all and sundry that when the Hudson Bay Railway is completed "the farmers of the West will save $80,000,000 from a single season's crop."

The Senate committee report of 1920 (which is the bible of the Hudson Bay Railway propagandists, and which is mentioned in the advertisement we refer to) declares 16,000,000 bushels of grain per year would be the maximum it could be hoped to take out via Hudson Bay. Consequently, if even the Senate optimists were right, and everything worked like a maid now on her job, there would have to be a saving of $2 on every bushel that could be shipped. That, certainly, would be some saving—with wheat at 70 cents a bushel.

Oliver Goldsmith (Boston Post). One hundred and fifty years ago today there died in London a man whose life had been a dismal failure from all material points of view. His improvidence and his lack of cunning had made his short life of 46 years almost continuous and unavailing struggle against debt.

Today, after a century and a half, we can see that it was the world that was his debtor, not his creditor. What capitalist of his age, what titled nonentity who never worried over money, did for posterity what Oliver Goldsmith did? How can we estimate the incalculable dividends of laughter and simple joy and cleansing sorrow that have been drawn from "The Vicar of Wakefield," the immortal novel that returned $900 to its bankrupt author?

God must have loved the silence for He laid A stillness on the sunset and the dawn; Upon the moment when the bird has gone, Leaving a note, high-hung, within the glade More sweet than when he sang it; noons that pass Too full of forest changelessness for sound; Creeping of little fests along the ground; Silence of growth among the summer grass.

God must have deeply loved the silences. For is there one of us who has not heard Promptings to silence that he speaks not of? What of an old remorse; a hope that is Too deeply hoped; what of a grief outgrown; And silence, old, unconquerable love?

JUDGE McKEOWN IS GYRO SPEAKER

Chief Justice Sets Forth the Aim and Purpose of Vocational Training.

Chief Justice McKeown, chairman of the School Board, today addressed the Gyro Club on the question of the new vocational school. He went fully into the financial aspect of the proposal, showing that the new school would add about $50,000 yearly to the city taxes, or less than one-tenth of one per cent, to the tax rate. A taxpayer now paying $100 in taxes would be called on to pay $108.17, and so on. Was this too much, he asked, to pay for vocational training of the young people of the city? Moreover, if this offer of government aid was turned down and the vocational school abandoned, he said, it would be necessary to erect another high school building of vocational training and its value. His Honor said—

The Aim Set Forth.

"Vocational education aims at a development of the industrial and business faculties and aptitudes of the boy. It educates with a definite purpose in view, keeping always in mind the economic, social and political life of the country. It suggests as a test of sound education—not how much a boy knows, but what practical use can he make of that knowledge? It seeks extensive and immediate contact with business and industrial interests, and sets itself to discover the predominant aptitude of the scholar in these particulars, and, while not neglecting essential cultural subjects, it encourages the fullest exercise of all his powers and gifts as a worker, a thinker or an investigator.

"It imparts to him knowledge of the industrial, economic, financial, civic and social activities of the city and province, and co-ordinates his work to its proper place. It develops citizenship in all its phases, and eliminates as far as possible the misfits of industrial and business life.

"It assists each unit of the community to find and take the place in which it is best fitted to labor, either with hand or mind, thereby utilizing to the almost all the powers of productive and creative work, and thus producing a more contented citizenship, for every normal man finds his greatest pleasure in his daily work well and faithfully done.

A Striking Instance.

"It arouses interest and enthusiasm for school work. I have the authority of the principal of the Composite High School at Edmundston for the statement that, since Vocational Education has been in operation within that town, the boys find fault with their parents for being kept from school, and will get up early in the morning or curtail their hours of play, to do the necessary work around the house or on the farm, in order that they may not miss a school session. Shakespeare's description of the boy who "creeps like a snail unwillingly to school" has held true for several centuries, but it has no application to schools where vocational methods of instruction are carried on. It puts into the hands of the scholar, or makes available for his use, the necessary implements of industrial, commercial and business life. It ascertains wherein the most productive capacity of the boy may lie. It develops and expands these faculties which are his birthright—his natural equipment, by use of which he can do life's greatest service.

"I bring you word that we can so reorganize our educational system and forces, in relation to the economic, industrial and business activities of the community, that our pupils will emerge from their school life fully prepared for lives of creative service—each of them a distinct asset in business and social life.

"How is this thing to be done? By the establishment of schools wherein are taught the rudiments and elements of trade, industry, commerce and office work. Vocational education deals with these subjects with a view of educating the student in them and developing his natural aptitude for whichever branch of work his inclination dictates. The school is equipped with industrial facilities, such as a wood shop, household science, machine shop, motor mechanics, mechanical drawing, commercial education, stenography, typewriting, home making and other features when necessary.

Effect on the Pupil.

"After a period of study in ordinary subjects, a pupil is led into the presence of these industrial facilities, and a very short period of use develops an inclination for one or another branch of industrial or commercial or professional life. Experience shows that he seizes upon his right method of education with enthusiasm and desire. He feels he is getting somewhere. He has the same eagerness as that displayed by the boy of your household when given his first box of tools. We remember how readily and in what an interested way he sought to use them and how, in many cases, a natural aptitude was awakened by their use. The natural impulses which were thus aroused in him by being brought into contact with something real, gave interest and color to his boyish life. These same impulses have been set upon and brought into play in vocational education, and with these facilities at hand the boy chooses his life's work, and falls into his place and fits himself for industrial or commercial life in a way that makes him of some use when he leaves the school.

"We all know the curious and startling lack of connection that there is between the education which a boy receives at school, and the actual work which he has to do if he goes into industrial life, or into an office or a bank or into almost any form of employment. While of course his grounding in English and other fundamental subjects is essential, he has developed no aptitude for business, and in truth he hardly knows where he may stand. This is what I had in mind when I alluded a moment ago to the misfits of business and industrial life. Instead of months, and perhaps years, wasted by an endeavor to interest a boy from school in work which is foreign to his taste and mind, vocational training has led him to discover himself. He already knows where his day's work is to be done. He already fits into that work. He is not compelled to wander along profitless and wearisome paths of unconvincing employment, but he becomes from the moment of leaving school a useful member of the industrial, social or business life of the place."

DEATHS

Mrs. Almex Corbet.

Many friends of Mrs. Almex Corbet, wife of Alexander Corbet, 63 Hazen street, will learn with the deepest regret of her death which took place last evening after an illness that lasted only from Saturday. Mrs. Corbet was a valued member of St. David's church choir for many years and an active worker in all branches of the church. She was a valued member of the Pythian Sisters and the Clan Mackenzie auxiliary and was a general favorite with a wide circle of friends. Besides her husband she leaves three sisters, Mrs. J. Vanwart and Mrs. A. Douglas Malcolm, of this city, and Mrs. W. J. Fraser, of Brookville.

Mrs. Patterson Foster.

Mrs. Patterson Foster died at her home, Port Lorne, N. S., on March 24, aged 68 years. She was a daughter of Ambrose Foster of Liverpool, N. S., and was married to Patterson Foster at Port Lorne on Nov. 23, 1876, by Rev. J. E. Blackney. She leaves four sons, James of Boulin, Colorado; Reese of Connecticut; Joseph of St. John, and Charles of Smith's Cove, N. S.; also three daughters, Mrs. Fred Melner of Port Lorne, Mrs. Alfred Gay of Boston, and Mrs. William Arbo of Fairville; and one sister, Mrs. E. Cornwell of New York.

For four years she was a great sufferer. She was beloved by all, and her Christian life and character exercised influence that was helpful. She was a faithful member of Port Lorne Baptist church, a teacher in the Sabbath school, a former president of the W. M. A. S. and held clerkship of the church for six years.

VOTE $5 TO MEMORIAL
Lend-a-Hand Circle of the King's Daughters last night voted $5 towards the memorial home to be erected to commemorate the founder of the order, Margaret Bottom. How About
Your Boyish Suit?

If you haven't come across the one that best becomes you, you'd better make a quick run for it. Easter is hard on you, and you know what that means to last minute lookers.

There are some little beauties just this minute at London House. Navy Tricotines with White Pique vestee, link button and, dangling from the hanky pocket, a lively bit of Silk and teeny weeny bob. French Poirets to vary the theme.

A Clay Worsted has a Henna Silk hairline and the usual Silk lining. A Tan plays up brightly with Rust striping. Tweeds take the price part down to $24.75.

Deep tuxedo lapels, link buttons, two and three buttons, side fasteners up to five loop buttonings.

1924 has certainly made history in the advent of the happy and carefree Boyish Suit. Those at London House offer variety in every way along with that de-bonair trimness which makes you fall in love with them at first sight.

And lastly, the values more than hold their own.

Finally found health in Kellogg's Bran after suffering long with constipation

Mr. Patch writes that Kellogg's Bran "solved his problem." It has solved the problem of constipation—mild and chronic—for thousands of others. It has brought relief when all else has failed because Kellogg's Bran is ALL bran. Nothing but ALL bran can be 100 per cent effective. Read Mr. Patch's letter:

Dear Sirs: I have been a constant sufferer from constipation and have wondered what was the cause of it. I have tried about all the cereals I could think of, and finally tried Kellogg's Bran. This solved my problem. I feel 100 per cent better and I owe it to your Bran. Thanking you very kindly for the great cereal, I am Very respectfully, Chester C. Patch. (Address on Request.)

For the permanent relief of constipation, eat Kellogg's Bran regularly—two tablespoons daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. It sweeps, cleans and purifies the intestines. It rids them of the dangerous poisons that lead to other diseases. It is guaranteed to bring results, or your grocer will return your money. Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is delicious with milk or cream. You will like its nut-like flavor—so different from ordinary, tasteless bran. Sprinkle it over the cereals. Cook it with hot cereals. Eat it in Kellogg's Bran muffins, griddle cakes and many other wonderful recipes given on the package. Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is made in Toronto, Canada and is served by the leading hotels and clubs everywhere. It is sold by all grocers.

ON G. W. V. A. JOBLESS LIST. During the winter the average number of those on the unemployed list of the local G. W. V. A. has been from 16 to 20 and the relief committee has endeavored to find work or give assistance to these men as they have needed it. Before the opening of the winter port season there was an exceptionally large number applying to the committee and at one time as many as 20 or 30 were being cared for. At present the number had increased slightly above the lower figure of the winter months, A. I. Machum, secretary of the association, said last night. He has found that unemployed from other sections drift in to St. John and make the local problem more difficult of solution.

Church in West Fifty-seventh street, while the congregation will continue to sit in their accustomed seats Sunday after Sunday. The contractors have announced that the wings which form the main part of the hotel and the roof can be brought into being without interfering with the use of the auditorium.

The magnificent auditorium of the present church will remain as it has been since the church was built over 70 years ago, but the present gallery will be enlarged and a second one constructed so that the seating capacity of the new church will be 4,000. Wings on either side of the present church, and 12 stories immediately above it will be built and leased for operation as a hotel for Christian people.

Cost of the improvements will be about $2,000,000, but it is expected that the hotel will turn in enough rental to the church to enable it to considerably widen its scope of activities.

A radio broadcasting station, "the largest in the world," according to Dr. John Roach Straton, pastor of the church, will be one of the features of the new building.

Do What Mr. Buckingham Did

'Flu attacks the apparently strong as well as the weak. We believe, however, that if a person contracts 'flu, it is a good thing to run down. The person who enjoys good health is fairly well safeguarded against most diseases.

After the 'flu I was in a very weak and run down condition. I was tired, listless, had no strength, no appetite to do anything, I had no appetite. I was nervous and depressed. I was losing weight. I read in the Calgary Herald that Carmol was good for all weak and run down conditions so I decided to try it. I used two bottles of Carmol and after taking them, felt strong and well. I consider Carmol the best tonic have ever taken and have great pleasure in recommending it to others.—J. Buckingham, 621 14th Avenue, Calgary.

Monksgon, Michigan.—"After doctoring for eight or nine years with different physicians without result, I was told that I should have an operation. I had heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and gave it a trial. It was just what I needed. I often saw it advertised in different papers where some women had suffered just as I did and got well and strong again by taking the Vegetable Compound. I decided to see what it would do for me, and before I had finished the fourth bottle I was much better, the weakness stopped and the severe pains in my sides left me. I am now much stronger and do my own work and work in the factory besides. I am still taking the Vegetable Compound and give it all the praise."—Mrs. M. L. Quillon, 17 Morris St., Monksgon, Mich.

Women should heed such warning symptoms as bearing-down pains and weakness, for they indicate some female trouble, and a persistent and faithful use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will seldom fail to help.

Comedy Drama of Southern Hills Delights Opera House Audience.

There are two or three things that stand out more prominently than the others in connection with last night's performance at the Opera House...

NEW JUDGE IS GREETED HERE

Receives Felicitations of Barristers on Opening First St. John Circuit.

Heartily greetings of congratulation and expressions of good will were extended to His Honor Judge A. J. LeBlanc, recently elevated to the bench, when he opened his first Circuit Court session in St. John this morning. In reply, he expressed his appreciation of the greeting extended to him, and asked the co-operation of the members of the bar in his carrying out of the duties that had been imposed upon him by his appointment to the bench. There was no criminal case on the docket. Wm. M. Ryan, crown prosecutor, announced that it was not the intention of the Crown at this session to resume the trial of Daniel Beckwith, who was twice tried on a charge of assault with intent to rob, and who was bound over the last circuit to appear when wanted.

The court docket consisted of three jury cases all of which were set over until next Tuesday, and two non-jury cases, one of which was set down for tomorrow. The rest will be taken up after the jury docket is completed. Greetings to Judge LeBlanc on his appointment, wished him every success and assured him of the desire of the legal profession to assist him in every way possible in the carrying out of his very important duties. He realized the responsibilities which were his on account of the traditions which had been handed down by his predecessors, particularly the late Judges Chandler and Landry. He assured the members of the bar that he would do his best to carry out his duties faithfully and always with the courtesy which his office demanded. The Civil Docket

Another severe wind storm swept over the city last night and while no serious damage has been reported, it proved annoying to pedestrians, who were forced to stand a buffeting as they wended their way along the streets. ST. JOHN MAN DIES AT VINEYARD HAVEN

Chester Olsen Taken Ill on Trip of Schooner Nettie C.

Three days after he was taken ashore, seriously ill from the schooner Nettie C. at Vineyard Haven, Chester Olsen of St. John died in hospital here, according to a telegram received by relatives here last evening. No details of his illness were contained in the message.

Mr. Olsen, who was 67 years old, left St. John as a member of the crew of the Nettie C. about two weeks ago, and it is thought that the vessel was caught in the storms which have been raging along the Atlantic coast, and that Mr. Olsen's illness might have been due to the shock of these events. He was well known in St. John, and there are many friends who will regret to hear of his death.

Mr. Olsen was a native of Norway and came to Canada when about 19 years of age. He was married, who resides at 59 Moore street, he leaves two sons, Kenneth and Harold, both of St. John, and one sister and other brother in Norway. Other relatives in St. John and Brooklyn, N. Y., also survive. Mr. Olsen was a member of the Odd Fellows and was a staunch adherent of the Portland Methodist church. He had been a deep water sailor all his life until about 16 years ago. Recently he was employed with the St. John Dry Dock and Shipbuilding Co.

The lecture was given by Miss Audrey Hunter, Lester Howley and Chester Bourne. Miss Hazel Peters acted as accompanist for the evening.

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, a friend in Cairo has sent me a copy of the Egyptian Gazette, in which I read: "King Fuad rejected at Abdin Palace on Thursday Aiy el Masri Bey, Omda of the Gateway tribe at Minia; Hassan Effendi Yassin, Deputy for Ashment; Count de Serriem; Mr. Gaston Michel, general manager of the Lebon Company, who presented Mr. M. Lebon; Hussein Husny Bey, ex-Sub-Director of the Ministry of the Interior; Gasfar Bey Fakry, Deputy for Attarin, Alexandria; and Mr. Bolanachi."

"I don't yet remember to have heard of any of them fellers afore," said Hiram.

"Imagine," said the reporter, "what a society editor must suffer in Cairo. I suppose if one of those names were misspelled it would mean the Sahara for life."

"Bridle McWhitt," said Hiram, "says them sassety editors orto be hung.
